Blizzards Defeat Anson 26-6 To Run Win String to 9-0 For 1962 Season

The story in figures or statistics of a football game is supposed to show at a glance just how each team played. However, one item is missing in the story at a glance—there is no place allotted for the yardage on pass interceptions and punt returns. We are more concerned with the former as Tommy moved for 45 yards on a pass interception early in the Blizzard game against Anson here Friday night.

Intercepting on the Winters 36, Young carried to the Anson 19. Steve Grissom called for two to the 17, and Young claimed six more yards, but losses by Grissom and Denny Aldridge found the Blizzards short and Anson took over on the 14. Anson in seven plays moved to their 30, before punting to the Blizzard 34.

Grissom and Aldridge moved to the Winters 48. With first and 10 from the 48, QB Tommy Alfrey called on Young, who moved the ball the 52 yards for the first Winters TD, with 2:2 left in the first quarter. Alvis Jackson booted the ball through the uprights for the extra points. The Blizzards led the Tigers 7-0.

Early in the second quarter, again after a fourth down punt by Anson, the Blizzards were on their own eight yardline. Grissom, Aldridge and Young, working the ground detail, moved to the 28 in five plays. Aldridge carried from the Winters 28 to the Anson 32. Grissom claimed seven more yards. With a penalty called against the Blizzards, they lined up for second down and eight from the 34. Alfrey rolled back, and with good protection hit Young with a pass for the second Blizzard teedee with 8:27 left in the second quarter. Again Jackson's kick was good, and the margin 14-0.

The rest of the second quarter was all defensive, with the Tigers unable to penetrate deeper than the 36 yardline into Blizzard territory during the first half.

This was changed quickly as the second half began. Young received the after-half kickoff, on the Blizzard 10, and carried to the 23. The ball was knocked loose, and Anson recovered for first down on the Blizzard 20.

With their workhorse Donnie Lain, they moved to the Winters six before losing the ball on downs.

The Blizzards had moved the ball to their own 39 in seven plays, but again the ball rolled loose. Anson was the lucky team, recovering on the Blizzard 38.

The Tigers claimed a quick first down, but were stopped cold by the Blizzard defensive team, led by Johnny Hopper and Jackson, on the 25.

Taking over on the 20, Aldridge made a beautiful 50-yard run to the Anson 30, setting up the third Blizzard tally. From the 30, Grissom, in two plays, carried to the 14. Aldridge claimed four more. Alfrey tried a pass to Mike Mitchell which fell incomplete. It was Grissom, this time, off left tackle, who hit pay dirt, on the first play of the fourth quarter for the teedee. The kick try for extra points was blocked and the score 20-0.

On the second play from Scrimmage, the Tigers fumbled the ball, and little Mike Bedford recovered for the Blizzards on the Anson 39. Moving to the 10, with Donnie Gibbs in for Grissom, Alfrey attempted a pass, and Anson intercepted. The interception was to no avail as the Tigers punted out on third down. Again the Blizzards were touchdown bound.

From the Anson 41, Gibbs claimed four. Bedford carried for two, and Gibbs for eight to the Anson 27. Young claimed his four yards and Adolpho Arroyo, in as QB for Alfrey, completed a pass to James Burleson to the four. Donald Parker, in for the first time in several weeks, carried to the one. Arroyo used a quarterback sneak for the TD. A pass try was incomplete. The final Winters score of 26 was reached with 4:19 left in the game.

Anson used 11 plays to move from their own 42 to the Winters 1. With 28 seconds left in the game. Sanders carried over for the only Anson TD.

With a perfect 9-0 season record, the state is set for the Blizzard's big night, as they host Balingier this week to determine the 6-AA district championship. Again we repeat this week: win, loose, or draw, this is a team to be proud of.

McMurry Chanters Will Appear At Methodist Church

The widely-known McMurry College Chanters, making their annual Fall tour, will perform the morning worship services for the First Methodist Church in Winters Sunday at 10:50 a.m.

Under the direction of Dr. Richard C. von Ende, chairman of McMurry's Fine Arts Division, the 55-voice choir from Abilene will sing sacred music for worship services and secular songs for high school programs along the route of their Fall tour.

The four-day trip will include visits to Winters' First Methodist Church, Sonora Methodist Church, Sonora High School (with a visit to the Sonora Caverns enroute), the Del Rio First Methodist Church, Del Rio High School, Rock Spring High School, Kerrville Methodist Church and Mason High School.

The sacred-music programs presented by the Chanters in the church visits are in four groups.

In the first group, they will sing "Let My Prayer," "Let All the Nations," "Benedictus," "Repleti Sunt," "Exultate Justi," and "Sing to the Lord a New Song."

The three songs in the second group are "Jesus, Now I Need Thee," "How Shall I Fitly Meet Thee," and "Washington."

In the fourth group are "Wonderful Counselor" and "Rock-A-My-Soul." The program ends with "The Kingdom of God."

The McMurry College Chanters were originated in 1923, the year in which the college was established. The choir has traveled thousands of miles, giving concerts to audiences in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Each year the Chanters take two tours—in the Fall and in the Spring. In addition to appearing as a group before churches and high schools throughout the area, separate sections and individual members often appear before service clubs and organizations in the Abilene area.

The Chanters leave Winters at 2:00 p.m., and will arrive in Sonora late Sunday afternoon.

Henry Fennell Funeral To Be Held Friday Afternoon

Funeral for Henry Fennell, 87, of Winters, will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in Spill Memorial Chapel with the Rev. B. T. Shoemaker, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery. Mr. Fennell died at 3:15 a.m. Wednesday in St. Ann Hospital in Abilene. He had been in ill health several months, and hospitalized 17 days.

Born Sept. 12, 1875, in Lake County, Tenn., he came to Texas at the age of 4, settling at Detroit, in East Texas. When he was 24, he moved to West Texas, later returned to East Texas.

Mr. Fennell married Susan Snyder in 1896 in Red River County. Following her death in 1934 he moved to Runnels County.

Much of News Has To Be Manufactured By Radio, TV, To Fill Big Schedule

The Cuban situation is featured in the news as a great "crisis". I think, however, that all news today must be discounted somewhat because of the competition between the various news media. The newspapers have to come out with an edition on schedule, while radio and television grind out material for eighteen hours daily. Owing to the fact that these newer methods of communication get tremendous income from advertising in connection with these newscasts, probably twenty percent of the news has to be manufactured and certainly much of it is exaggerated. Therefore anything called a crisis today should be discounted.

The Struggle Between Those Who Have And Those Who Have Not

It seems as if this struggle all started with Cain and Abel, and has continued throughout the ages. A reading of the Old Testament shows how crises constantly developed in Persian, Babylonian, Egyptian, and Roman history. Whatever change has occurred in military warfare, there seems to have been no change in human nature.

Furthermore, each nation has its cycle. Those who are at the bottom gradually come to the top; then power and wealth deteriorate and they go back to the bottom again. Even the stock market has its cycles. Moody counts ten of these from the time our battleship Maine was sunk in the Harbor of Havana, Cuba, in 1898 to President Eisenhower's heart attack in 1955.

English History

During the past summer, I have been reading a most complete history of England. It consists of seven volumes and about six thousand pages. It is entitled "The Pictorial History of England," published by W. and R. Chambers of London, England, about 1850. The story consists of continual crises beginning with the year 56 B.C. As one reads these volumes, he thinks that England could not possibly last more than a hundred years. The serfs were continually fighting to get a little property and freedom, while those who inherited their property lived in great castles. The conflict, however, was much the same as today.

From my reading of history I see no possibility of either Democracy or Communism being wiped out. Both will be suppressed at certain times in certain nations.

REVOLUTIONARY—Angelise, Odile and Nadege, from left to right, wear three novel hair styles—and made of their own hair, too—on the Champs Elysees, Paris France.

IN COLUMBIA Pictures' "The Three Stooges in Orbit," the zany comics match wits with a couple of invading Martians. Also featured in the film are Carol Christensen and Edson Stroll. Showing Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday at the State Theatre.

but will rise up again in other nations. Whether, in the final analysis, it will be the same old struggle with each group alternately becoming stronger, or whether the two groups will gradually merge by becoming more alike, no one can tell.

East Versus West

At present, the Communist nations consist of Russia, China, and their satellites, with India more or less on the fence. These Communist countries can control the news and actions of the people much better than can the President and the Congress of any Democratic country. Furthermore, I believe there will always be Dictators, and there will always be Presidents or other such heads of free states, and both will always have the above advantages and disadvantages. This even applies to a little country like Cuba, which is making headlines today.

Word To Investors

Yet, I am not pessimistic. Conditions are far better today than in any of the two thousand years covered by the history of England which I have been reading supplemented by "The Story of Mankind," written by Hendrik Van Loon, and similar books. There is today and always will be an opportunity for those with integrity, industry, scientific and inventive curiosity. Opportunities may be more difficult for those who are living on inherited property without making a definite contribution to the welfare of the world.

Human nature is the same—legislation is of only temporary value; while the conflict continues to be between those who "have" and those who "have not", whether of nations, political parties, families, or individuals. This also applies to industries and corporations in their competitive fight for markets. As new inventions, new products, and new laws take the place of existing ones, the careful investor should adjust his stocks and bonds to keep up with the changing times.

Land Owners Need Preserve License

Before we get into the full swing of Texas major hunting season, J. B. Phillips, coordinator of law enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission, would remind land owners that they are required to obtain a shooting preserve license if they lease hunting rights to sportsmen either by the day or the season. The license costs five dollars and application blanks for it are available from the Game and Fish Commission, Austin.

After filling out the application and submitting it with the five dollars, the land owner or his agent will receive a license and a shooting preserve record book. The names of the hunters leasing hunting rights, together with their addresses, hunting license numbers and game killed, must be recorded throughout the season and the book returned to the Commission not later than May 1 following the hunting season.

Perhaps the most difficult thing a man has to do is to live up to his reputation.

Plentiful Foods Point To Thanksgiving Month Abundance

An abundance of farm - produced foods this fall emphasizes one of the many things for which we Americans can be thankful, reminds the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Eleven items will be particularly abundant this Thanksgiving month. They make up the official November list of plentiful foods, as determined by the Agricultural Marketing Service in cooperation with producers, processors and the food trade.

Turkeys and cranberries, two traditional Thanksgiving Day features, head the list, along with frozen orange juice.

Also expected to be in supply that exceeds normal trade needs are broiler - fryers, apples, shortening, grapes, pears, potatoes, Maine sardines, and dry beans and peas.

A record - large cranberry crop is being harvested this year. There will be enough to fill 1.4 million barrels, or 30 percent more than average; 13 percent more than last year.

Turkey supplies may be down nearly 10 percent from last year's burdensome record. Stocks in storage are substantial. Prices are expected to be some higher than last season's extremely low levels, but still economical.

Frozen orange juice prices are substantially lower than a year ago. The record - large pack of 116 million gallons, this year, is one important reason.

Consumers will find it to their advantage to rely on all 11 plentiful, for economy, nutrition, and good eating this November.

Green Winter Grazing Best For Livestock

"Have you planted anything for winter grazing?" asks Bill Minzenmayer, chairman of the Runnels Board of Soil Conservation District Supervisors. Green grazing crops are the easiest and cheapest means of keeping livestock strong and healthy, continues Minzenmayer.

Small grains make good temporary pasture in this District, states Cecil L. Drake, of the Soil Conservation Service. Oats in particular have proven satisfactory. They should be planted now, at a rate of about 2 bushels per acre.

It is bad enough to worry, but nobody should worry out loud.

MOVIES

"Valley of the Dragons"

Jules Verne, whose imaginative works have provided movie audiences with much beguiling entertainment in recent years, is most famous for his romantic science-fiction concepts that startlingly forecast future developments—the scientific achievements of today's world. The most recent transition from Verne's pages to the screen, however, takes a backward look at time. "Valley of the Dragons," ZRB's production in Monstascopia for Columbia release, shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre, reportedly is the story of two men who are transported, via a comet, into the pre-historic times of giant dinosaurs and primitive cavemen.

Marijohn Wilkin Will Perform At H-SU Homecoming

A 1942 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and daughter of a Winters resident will return to H-SU Saturday to be the featured performer at the annual alumni luncheon highlighting H-SU homecoming exercises.

She is Marijohn Wilkin of Nashville, Tenn., successful songwriter and vocalist in the fields of popular and country music.

Mrs. Wilkin is the former Marijohn Melson, daughter of Mrs. Karla Melson of Winters. She received the Bachelor of Arts degree from H-SU in 1942 and for several years worked as a teacher of music and speech in the public schools of Texas and Oklahoma.

Mrs. Wilkin was vocalist for the Cowboy Band while a student at Hardin-Simmons. She also was active in the Cowgirls and was Sweetheart of the Abilene Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Her lifelong interest in music led to her decision about five years ago to quit teaching and devote all her energy to songwriting and singing.

One of her first compositions, "Waterloo," quickly won a BMI Certificate of Achievement and since then she has written music for several successful songs. She currently is represented on the popularity charts by "PT-109," a song in which the most celebrated incident in President John F. Kennedy's naval career is described.

Mrs. Wilkin also went to work as a singer-pianist in Springfield, Mo., where she met Lucky Moeller, manager of the Jim Denny talent agency in Nashville. He helped place her in some outstanding talent positions and eventually she joined the Denny-owned Cedarwood Publishing Co. as a songwriter.

In addition to her writing activities, she also sings on "Grand Ole Opry" and takes part in numerous recording sessions as a soloist or with a group called Marijohn and the Jacks.

Her son, Bucky, in 1957 at only nine years of age, was invited to make a series of appearances on the Red Foley TV show originating in Springfield.

No Time Limit On Relocation Of F-M Road 53

No time limit has been set for completion of work to relocate Farm-to-Market Road 53, County Commissioner Melvin Mapes said this week.

Mapes said he had talked with J. A. Snell of San Angelo, highway engineer for this district, and that Snell had informed him that the Highway Department had not set a time limit for the work to be done, and that actual construction work can begin as soon as matters of rights-of-way are cleared up.

The County Commissioner said that he has all the plans, copies of deeds and paper work on rights-of-way, but has made no trade with landowners. Holdup has been a difference of opinion between the Commissioners Court and the landowners concerning the value of the land which would be used for the rerouting of the road, Mapes said.

Mapes said that there had been reports that the plans for relocation of the road would be cancelled within a short time if agreements are not reached between landowners and the county. This is not so, he said. The district highway engineer has assured him that the plans of the Highway Department will remain in effect, with no time limit.

Mapes said the county will pay for all right-of-way cost, and the Highway Department will pay for construction work. Construction work has been estimated at about $450,000, he said. Road would be built to state specifications, with 120 feet of right-of-way, Mapes said.

According to present plans, which Mapes said would not be changed, the road would be relocated to run south of the town proper. The new location would leave present site in the vicinity of Bradford's Service Station west of Winters, cut across just south of the Fairview Cemetery, and intersect Highway 83 in the vicinity of Brannon's Wrecking Yard.

From there it will go straight across the creek, to straighten out the curves, and come back into the old right-of-way at the Oliver Place east of town. At the Mance Davis corner, the road will be straightened out, eliminating two curves, and return to the old right-of-way just west of the Winters Lake Road. In construction of the new road, Mapes said, a new bridge would be built across Bluff Creek, south of the present bridge.
