

Summertime, VBS, Learning And Fun!

By Nanalee Nichols
Summertime and kids are beginning to get a little restless, and then it's Vacation Bible School time. A time to go to a school which offers everything that a real school doesn't, fun, crafts and short lessons!

In small communities, one can find almost the same youngsters at every Bible School held...denominations count for little and Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians and everyone else, share one another's children for the week-long event.

Today's working mothers have made it necessary for some church schools to be held at night, but other than that the programs remain pretty much the same, as they were when today's parents were yesterday's students.

The opening ceremonies are always fun, with flag carrying, singing and a short story, usually.

Then it's to classes, but classes that few students mind attending. Bible lessons deal with all the old, familiar stories, that somehow retain a special newness, a first-time-everness that is unexplainable. The little ones hear about Moses in the bullrushes, about God, and Jesus letting the little children "come unto him". The older one's lessons vary, of course, as each vacation church school has a different theme. But the lessons are those precious to us all, sharing, caring, giving, understanding.

After lessons there is the craft period. As examples, some of the projects undertaken at local Bible schools have included wreath making, birdhouse construction, plaster crafts, planting seedlings or flowers, sand painting, pictures made with beans, and a world of other hand-crafts, all designed to provide youngsters with new skills and a sense of accomplishment and achievement.

The crafts are probably one of the most appealing features of the week-long activities.

Afterwards there is a time for refreshments. It seems that those who furnish and serve the cookies and punch receive as much joy from serving to the bright-eyed youngsters as the kids do from eating!

Surrounded by chattering groups, the adults ladle cups of cool punch and hand out the goodies smiling happily, watching the younger ones cheerfully dying their mouths pink, and spreading crumbs liberally.

A play period follows afterwards, usually, with games to be learned. One standard that seems to come from generations of the past is "Red Rover". Who cannot recall the joy of charging the line of clutched hands in a valiant attempt to break through, earning the right to capture a favorite person and take them over to "your" side?

Back in the sanctuary of the church, more singing, usually accomplished with maximum volume, if not tone, prayers and perhaps another lesson, and then dismissal.

The week goes by so fast, and when Bible School is over most youngsters feel a little regret.

On closing day, a special ceremony usually marks the end, and certificates are presented to each and every youngster. A chart usually has gold stars to mark each student's attendance that week, and parents are allowed to come and view the week's accomplishments.

Then it is over for another summer. Bible School is an integral part of small-town life. A special time, with interaction between children and adults, a continuation of religious education that achieves a perfect blend of pleasure and education that is hard to beat. And if one school is over, there's usually another one upcoming, right until nearly the end of summer holidays.

Sunday morning at church, I was asked if I knew the official state food of Texas. Now, I am familiar with state birds, animals, gemstones, trees, songs, flags and all the other things, but the state FOOD was elusive. My first reaction was "Chili!" Someone else said "chicken fried steak". Again someone chimed in "pecan pie" and yet another listener volunteered hot tamales or barbecue.

A quick hunt for the state almanac reveals no listing for a state food, although it does list all the above mentioned birds, animals, etc.

Which set me thinking about foods in Texas, and what a rich, varied array there really is.

Texas has inherited a treasury of ethnic foods from a wide variety of nationalities or areas.

The classic southern cuisine features our Sunday standby...fried chicken, cream gravy and all those delicious trimmings.

A definite French flair pervades cooking in parts of Texas, a heritage from one of those Six Flags that flew over Texas at one time or another.

The finest, to my mind, of all influences on Texas food, comes from Mexico. "Tex-Mex" cooking can be one of the most marvelous foods in the world...tortillas, enchiladas, tamales, guacamole, picante sauce, it's a world of mouth watering (and burning) flavors.

Down in south Texas near New Braunfels, the Germans settled, giving the state a legacy of "wursts" breads and German cookery that can add pounds to the thinnest person!

Near Waco the little community of West carries on a Czech tradition of Kolaches (for those who haven't tasted them...you should) spicy frankfurters and generally delicious concoctions of sausages.

Throughout the state, the Irish, Scots, English, Spanish, Polish, Indians, Mexicans, Africans and every other nationality known to mankind have added their "dollop" of spices and dishes to the hodge-podge that makes up the cuisine of Texas.

A fairly recent arrival is the Vietnamese or Chinese food.

Delectable morsels of pork, seafood and mushrooms in a variety of sauces can tempt the palate of anyone willing to venture into a new food area.

Speaking of seafood, the long Gulf Coast lines makes sure that Texans can enjoy the bounty of the sea to it's fullest...Gulf shrimp, crab and fresh fish are hard to beat.

Then, of course, there's those delicious fried catfish, bass and crappie which Texas lakes have no shortage of.

For those with a taste for the wild...what about squirrel stew, venison or quail?

Find a state dish for Texas? Goodness, gracious me...how would Texans EVER choose??

PATTERSON ENDORSED FOR SENATE

R.B. Palmer
Mt. Pleasant Daily Tribute: 7-23-86

I have known and respected Pete Patterson since his first race for State Representative. His district included Titus County, and I must admit being surprised by the effectiveness of his quiet campaigning.

Pete represented us until redistricting took Titus away from him. Since Pete lost Titus County he hasn't forgotten us. He has been supportive of legislation benefiting Titus and adjoining counties.

Pete Patterson is still the down-to-earth man he was before his first election. Politics and Austin have not spoiled him. However, his years in the legislature should give him the experience needed to be an effective State Senator for us.

I shall vote for Pete Patterson for the State Senate in the special election coming up August 9.

David Sullens
The Paris News 7-20-86

The Paris News believes Pete Patterson should be your choice in the race to replace former State Sen. Ed Howard.

Voters in the First Senatorial District will go to the polls Aug. 9 to choose a successor to Howard, who resigned his seat to become a lobbyist. The district includes Lamar, Delta, Red River, Hopkins, Titus, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Franklin, Gregg, Harrison, Marion, Morris, Panola, and Upshur Counties.

The soft-spoken, unassuming Patterson, whose home is in Brookston in Lamar County, when he announced that he would toss his hat into the ring in the Senate race, said "It is very important that we have a person that has the experience that I've obtained during my five terms in the Texas Legislature."

It is largely on that basis that he should be elected. Patterson is the only candidate in the race with legislative experience. When the Legislature convenes, it will face what may well be the most significant task that has ever faced those we send to Austin to represent us.

There will be no time for "getting acquainted," no time for learning. Our Senator must be effective from the moment he takes office. Patterson has another strength that should weigh heavily in his favor as you ponder the choices you will face at the polls Aug. 9.

A Lamar County Commissioner before he ran for and was elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1977, Pete Patterson has proven that he will represent you.

Pete will not attract the television news crews and he will not generate headlines in the Austin, Houston and Dallas newspapers, but what he does and says in Austin-how he votes-will be representative of the people of this district. His words will be what you would have heard.

When he made his announcement, Patterson said, "We have a deep going forth in trying to seek out the very best people that we can serve in our Legislature."

He was right. And L.P. "Pete" Patterson should be our choice in the Aug. 9 election to do just that.

Parker Taking On New Challenges

Eight years after receiving a bachelor's degree, one UT Tyler graduate, now a physician, is about to take on new challenges in the medical field.

Dr. Michael Parker, who earned a bachelor of science degree in biology from UT Tyler in 1978, will begin his career in family practice in Beaumont July 1, becoming the first UT Tyler graduate to establish a medical practice.

His training included four years of medical school at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, graduating in 1982, one year of additional training in pathology and a three year residency program in family practice at St. Mary Hospital in Port Arthur.

It was everything he expected, and more.

"Medical school was even more difficult than I had anticipated. It's not something that anyone can really imagine," Parker says.

Dr. Michael Parker

Mr. and Mrs. Berlin Sistrunk and sons, Charles and Richard Lee, had been in McAlester, Ok to attend the sixth family reunion of the S.F. Stone family.

1966

The Texas Highway Department had announced a new highway construction project in Red River County on State Highway 37 from 10 miles south of Clarksville to the Red River bridge.

Bogata-Deport Little League All Stars had defeated Detroit-Talco 3-2 in the first game of the play-off series at Bogata. Pitcher for the winning team was Bruce Knowles.

Gordon Allen had been honored with an open house for his 80th birthday.

Mrs. Anita Stubblefield, vocational homemaker teacher at Rivercrest High School, had participated in the State Inservice Conference for Vocational Homemaker Teachers in session at the Dallas Hilton Hotel in Dallas.

May Savings Bond Sales Up

Sales of Series EE Savings Bonds in Texas during the month of May, 1986, were $45,825,627, up 51.7% over May 1985, T.J. Morrow, District Director for U.S. Savings Bonds Division, announced recently. This amount brings the total sales in Texas since January 1986 to $174,413,964, an increase of $34,170,003 over the same period in 1985, for 47.4% of the state's assigned dollar goal of $370 million.

Sale of Series EE Bonds amounted to $41,045 during May 1986 in Titus County, it was announced. Total sales in the county during the period January-May 1986 were $151,912, which represents 102.6% of the County's 1986 assigned dollar goal.

Nationally, May 1986 sales continued an upward trend, with sales of $849 million, a 79% increase over May 1985. Total sales for 1986 totaled $3.281 billion for 61.9% of its 1986 dollar goal of $5,300 million. May 1986 sales were also the highest for any month since December 1985 and the highest May since 1945. Savings Bonds held by the American public reached $83.06 billion, an all time record.

Current issues of Series EE Bonds held at least five years earn the average of semiannual market-based rates in effect while they are held, or the current minimum guaranteed rate of 7.5%, if the average falls below the mark. Semiannual market-based rates change each May 1 and November 1. The rate for May 1 through October 31 is 7.02%, bringing the average rate for the 8 periods since the market-based variable rate program started in November 1, 1982, to 9.36 percent. Bonds held less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale.

Information on rates, including the new semiannual rates when they are announced, can be obtained by calling toll-free, 1-800-US BONDS.

OES Meets

The Deport Chapter 1045 Order of Eastern Star was called to order by Mrs. Willard Barber, Worthy Matron and Alford G. Puckett, Worthy Patron.

Mrs. A.G. Puckett attended the altar. Mrs. Warren Daves gave the prayer. The Worthy Patron led the pledge of allegiance and one verse of the National Anthem was sung with appropriate music by Mrs. Anita Bowling. Proteems were Mrs. Hazel Cheatham as Martha and Mrs. Willie Roberts as Sentinel.

The secretary, Mrs. Jimmy Sparks read the minutes and all other correspondence. Report of chairman on petition was given, balloting followed.

Auditing committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward, Mrs. Daves and Mrs. Barber gave a favorable report. Motion was made and seconded that three dozen new metal folding chairs be bought. Mr. and Mrs. Buford Cleveland were put on that committee.

A report on Founder's Day was given with Buford Cleveland as chairman, asking for two home made cakes and pies plus a $15.00 check for ice cream.

Mrs. Barber thanked the chapter for her Worthy Matron's book. The junior Past Worthy Matron, Mrs. McGee gave her report of her year.

The session closed in regular form. Refreshments were served in the dining room with Mrs. Barber and Mrs. Cleveland as hostesses.

SUMMER

Originally from Talco, he earned an associate's degree in medical technology from Paris Junior College prior to entering UT Tyler.

Although the preparation wasn't easy, "I spent as much time studying at UT Tyler as I did the first two years of medical school," he stated. He was accepted into UTMB-Galveston prior to graduating from UT Tyler in the spring of 1978.

Parker will become an associate of family practitioner Dr. Charles Shar-ron in Beaumont. He says he chose family practice after doing rotations, intensive training in one to two months each, in internal medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics and in general, pediatric and plastic surgery.

Parker's advice to students about to enter medical school?

"They should expect to work all day and half the night for at least the first two years," he says. "But if they go through the kind of curriculum I did at UT Tyler, they'll do fine."

MUD DAUBERS TUBES-These mud- construction hollow tubes serve as home for mud daubers, a variety of wasp that is plentiful in the area. The pesky insects build the nests everywhere, in engine motors, under porch eaves, just about everywhere they can. Repeated knocking down sometimes seems to do little good, as they simply begin rebuilding immediately. (Staff Photo)

Dixie Bells Are District Champs

Jerry Russell's Mt. Pleasant Dixie Belles Fastpitch All Stars, age 13-15, proved to be champs of the district by defeating Mt. Vernon's All Stars twice in the district tourney, 16-10 and 24-7. The Mt. Pleasant All Stars then advanced as first place team to the Dixie Belle State Tournament in Lufkin on July 19 and Mt. Vernon advanced as second place team.

Nine teams made it to the State Tourney. The Mt. Pleasant All Stars won their first game over Central, 10-7, but lost their next two games to Lufkin, 11-10 and to Mt. Vernon, 12-6.

Mt. Vernon went on to win the tournament and qualify to advance to the World Series in Nashville, TN on Aug. 9-16.

Playing on the district and State All Star team for Russell were three Talco area girls who are already looking forward to an even better record next year, Ronda Collins, Kristie Eudy and Jerilyn Russell.

Also while in Lufkin coaching and chaperoning the Mt. Pleasant Dixie Belles Fastpitch All Stars at the State Tournament, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Russell celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

As an employer, you can better ensure safe working conditions by teaching your employees to avoid any contact with power lines. Be sure to keep all types of antennas, sign installation equipment, ladders, heavy boom equipment and tall farm machinery from power lines.

It's also a good idea to install child safety plugs in
