

Rains Enhance Donley's Crop Prospects

April Shipments of Cream Show Pick-Up Over March

OVER THREE INCHES RAIN PAST 10 DAYS

DONLEY COUNTY GETS RAINS IN ALL SECTIONS—FINE CROP OUTLOOK

Clarendon and Donley County has been visited by rains totalling as high as three inches in some sections during the past week and crop outlook is now very flattering. Hail accompanied the rains in parts of the county but no damage of note was inflicted. Some who had planted cotton will be forced to plant over in low places, but many waited to plant and with every bright day now they will put hundreds of acres of fine seasoned soil into cotton. Here in Clarendon the city authorities had opportunity to observe the newly completed concrete ditch in action, and in spite of the heavy tax on its capacity found it to be adequate for ordinary drainage. Terraced farms over the county withstood the washing rains in a most satisfactory manner and proved again the wisdom of this work. County Agent Brown is receiving many fine reports on the saving in soil erosion from his new jobs of terracing over the county. Garden stuff is growing off in a promising way and the small grain section of the county now seems assured of a heavy yield.

C. E. Griggs arrived Tuesday afternoon after an absence of two months from home.

The local manager of the station has not as yet been named, but will be on the job at the new place Saturday.

INTERESTING EXPERIMENT IS BEING MADE IN CITY

A test to prove the heat resisting qualities of the Frigidair as a refrigerating unit has been under way in Clarendon for the past two weeks, dating to this afternoon. A battery of electric heaters has been directed toward the front and sides of the box, raising the temperature to as high as 180 degrees, while the inside of the box remains at the constant temperature of 45 degrees. The test is being watched with much interest by many of the Clarendon folk, who have been attracted to the window of the West Texas Utilities Company by the array of heaters seen there.

Full details of the show will be made public at some date in the future, when the club has had time to make their plans for the show.

Prayer meeting services at the various churches had been cancelled on account of Mr. Upshaw's coming and a mass meeting of citizens from all churches was on hand to hear his message. Mr. Upshaw made a masterly appeal for greater devotion to the temperance and law enforcement, seeking to impress upon his hearers their individual responsibility in fighting the liquor traffic. He dealt at large with the duty of protecting the young from the effects of drinking and attendant evils. At the conclusion of his address a collection was taken to forward the work of the Anti-Saloon League and after dispiriting quite a crowd of school children and parents came forward to shake Mr. Upshaw's hand and to thank him for his address.

FRIDAY BALL GAME TO BENEFIT BAND

FIRST OF SEASON EXPECTED TO DRAW LARGE CROWD TO COLLEGE PARK

The first of a series of ball games between local teams is to be held in the College Park Friday afternoon of this week. Two teams have been recruited from the ranks of players in Clarendon and much rivalry is expected to be seen when the two teams take the field for the first game of the season in Clarendon. The entire proceeds of the game will go to the Band fund.

The Clarendon Base Ball Club is under the management of Frank Whitlock, an old-time baseball manager who knows the game from beginning to end. He states that his team will take the field with the best line-up that has ever been gathered from the players of the city and that they will be hard to go around. Mr. Whitlock will not play.

Practically the same thing has been said by Bunt Owens, who will act in the capacity of manager of the Band Baseball Club. This team has also a number of older heads playing and will give the fans of the national game something to think about as they witness these players in action. Umpire Wesley Knorr will call the game at exactly 4 o'clock next Friday afternoon and will see that both teams get a square deal.

CLARENDON BAND PLAYS FOR SMALL

LOCAL BAND HEADS CLARENDON DELEGATION AT AMARILLO FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night of last week, Senator Clint C. Small opened his campaign for Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas at the city auditorium in Amarillo before an audience of two thousand citizens from all sections of the Panhandle.

Clarendon was well represented at the rally and the Clarendon Band, under the direction of Gus B. Stephenson, led the delegation from Donley County. In the afternoon the local band played a number of impromptu concerts on the streets of Amarillo and at night contributed its music to the program at the auditorium.

Senator Small pitched his candidacy for the governorship on the proposition of sound business administration for the state and declared it was time to "adjourn politics" of the cheap, partisan variety in this state. He spoke clearly and won many compliments upon the fine, practical planks in his not too lengthy program. Senator Small declared that it was a part of the organic law of the land and should be enforced and that he proposed to resist efforts to repeal the eighteenth amendment or to amend it in any way.

"TONS OF MONEY" GREATLY ENJOYED

LAST PRODUCTION OF SEASON IS WELL ATTENDED AND MAKES BIG HIT

The presentation of the first real comedy by the Little Theatre of this city was the most enjoyable of any production yet staged. "Tons of Money" was strictly comedy, packed to the brim with situations that were extremely ludicrous. Laid in England and played in a manner that made the scenes seem real.

A number of changes in the personnel of the cast were made during the time the play was being practiced, but this had nothing to do with the final presentation. This is the last production to be given by this organization until fall.

The leading part in the play was taken by Kelly Chamberlain, who played the part of Aubrey Henry Maitland Allington. He was a much killed man, appearing in three different roles during the entertainment of the evening. His wife, played by Lorraine Patrick, was one who was well filled with new ideas that were not always found to work out to the best advantage. Mrs. W. C. Stewart played a fine part as Miss Mullett, the slightly deaf aunt to Aubrey. Altha Lewis Lane played a good part as Jean Everard, although she was on the verge of becoming distracted by the appearance of so many to claim the fortune reported to have been left by the sudden death of Aubrey Allington. George Garrison was one of the false members who posed as Geo. Maitland, while the real Geo. was played by William Wilder. Sprules, played by Carl Parsons, Simpson, the maid, played by Mrs. Paul Smith and Giles, the gardener, played by W. C. Stewart, each had their parts to play and filled them well. McHenry Lane as the solicitor Chesterman, proven to be the cause for the entire plot when he reported the death of a brother and the consequent receipt of a large sum of money for the benefit of Aubrey.

Not a little credit should be given Mrs. Rita Foster Stocking for the work she did in coaching this play. The situations presented were such as to bring forth scenes of merriment at many times during the evening. The difficulty of the director's part may be easily seen when it is remembered that the players themselves were at first quite overcome with the lines as they were first read. The net proceeds of the evening's entertainment will be applied to the Curtain fund to assist in the payment for the already installed curtain and fittings.

A report on the Zone meeting at Memphis was made by Lion Mulkey, who stated that the attendance was such that it was an inter-city meeting rather than a zone meeting. Clarendon, Memphis and Childers were represented. Much discussion was had on the matter of the delegation to Austin and to the International meeting in Denver. Five will attend the meeting in Austin and thirteen signified their intentions of attending the meeting in Denver. This matter will be brought up for further discussion later.

Lion McKee announced the Scoutmasters' training school and later read excerpts from a short item from the pen of Robert Quillen that bears directly on the Boy's work question up for attention by the Lions at this time. CREAM GAINS IN AMOUNT SHIPPED

MARK LESS THAN FOR 1929 BUT IS UP OVER MARCH SALES

With a total of 371 ten-gallon cans of cream shipped to users in all parts of the United States, a new record for cream shipped was set during the month of April for the present year. This figure falls below those given for the year 1929, when 409 cans were shipped, but registers a good gain for the month.

To the first of May this year, figures show that a total of 1,100 cans of cream have been shipped from Clarendon by producers of this staple product. This represents a total income of approximately $11,000 from this source alone, not counting the increase in the sales of butter and the use of cream and milk in the homes of the county.

The record for the year is somewhat lower than that set in 1929, when a total of 1,186 cans had been shipped, showing a loss of some 86 cans for the year.

Thus far in 1930 a substantial gain has been recorded for each month. January started the year with a shipment of 185 cans; February showed a gain with a shipment of 229 cans and March came in with 315 cans. The total of 871 for the month of April sets a new record for 1930 and is 107 more than this figure for the coming month of May.

Hillcrofters Lose To Pampa

Eighteen Clarendon golfers, representing the Hillcroft Golf Club, made their way to Pampa last Sunday and lost ten of the eighteen matches played. According to local golfers, the course was new to them and they fell an easy prey to those of the Pampa club since they were quite familiar with the unusual turns and banks of the course. No especially good score was made although the Pampa newspaper reports a thirty-eight from one of the Clarendon players as the best score of the day.

Donley County has always had the soil; she has had high average farmers; now she has the finest season she has ever known. Prospects are fine for a great yield this fall. Business is going to be good for all of us in Donley next fall—if the country doesn't plant too much cotton.

Clarendon has no criticism of the census count here in this city. We got all that was coming to us with hundreds and thousands other towns over the nation while a little disappointed at our figures, will hitch our suspenders and tighten our belt for another ten year effort to build the right kind of a town—a town loved by its citizenship for its character and appeal—a town of high ideals and of neighborly people. Look out for Clarendon in 1940.

Somebody suggested the other day that there ought to be a prize or prizes offered to the boys who made the best use of vacation time during the summer months. The idea was to stimulate boys to get out and get a job and stay on it, not so much for how much money they might make, but for the sake of self-improvement as well. Think that over, boys. The effort will pay you well, even if you do not win a prize.

Thousands of acres of farming land has had the benefit of terracing this Spring and during the past week nearly every farm so treated has had opportunity to observe the immediate benefits of terracing, and farmers are jubilant over the saving of their land from severe washing. The best results from terracing, however, are yet to come. Along in the dry, hot, summer weeks is the period when the value of terracing is best set out in conservation of moisture. Comparison then with lands not terraced will show marked difference in growth of crops and the yield next fall will tell the final tale. Donley County began its systematic terracing not a day too soon, and The News is hoping that in another year there will be no farms in this section without its beneficent services. Terracing saves the soil, it saves the moisture and it increases the yield.

A very great effort is being made to brand Senator Clint Small as a sectional candidate for governor. Down in East Texas, aided by some of his opponents they are trying to call him the "West Texas Candidate." This is very unfair and deserves to be branded as it deserves. The Clarendon News has not committed itself to the espousal of Senator Small's candidacy, as yet—maybe not at all—but in all fairness we contend that no one has the right to try to segregate Senator Small to West Texas by the implied inuendo of such tactics. No man of any breadth in West Texas has any sort of enmity against other sections of Texas. Out here, West Texans demand only what is fair, and are among the first to accord to others the privileges we have a right to expect. Senator Small is running for governor of all Texas, and therefore has the right to a respectful hearing from all Texans from the Panhandle to the Gulf, from the Sabine to the Rio Grande.

WHY NOT CLARENDON?

In many places over the country the local churches have an arrangement through the summer months for union services on Sunday evenings. Under this arrangement the services are alternated from church to church and pastors work out a schedule so that the work is evenly divided among them as to the preaching. Out in Roswell, New Mexico, the union services were held during the summer on the court house lawn, but where that is not as practical the services do just as well in the several churches of the town.

During revival campaigns the arrangement is broken into, but since most churches dismiss their Sunday evening services for revivals in town, it makes no difference in this respect.

The benefits of this arrangement are manifold. First, it proves to the world that the spirit of toleration and cooperation between the various branches of Christianity as represented by the several churches, exists in a very practical manner. Secondly, it proves the brotherliness of the ministers representing those churches. Thirdly, it spreads the cement of brotherhood among the membership of the faiths represented in the arrangement. Fourthly, it cuts the cost of overhead during the summer months when the attendance is small in every church. Fifthly, it gives the assigned minister for the evening a larger and more inspirational audience.

Seems to The News that as neighborly and kindly disposed as Clarendon church members are to those of other local churches, that it would be a very fine exemplification of the spirit of Christ if such an arrangement could be perfected in our community during the coming summer, say from June 1st, to September 1st.

Why not Clarendon?

FIRST MOTORCADE IS TO CADDO LAKE

Details of the first motorcade of the summer in the interest of the four proposed major parks of the State of Texas, were received here Monday, in an invitation to President Sam M. Braswell of the Poladuro Park Association to join the motorcade in early June, headed by Chairman D. E. Colp of the Texas State Parks Board of San Antonio.

The motorcade will originate in the Winter Garden section of the Rio Grande Valley and will make its first stop in San Antonio over the old Kings Highway, on to San Augustine to the famous fishing resort, Caddo Lake, 20 miles east of Marshall, where a fish barbecue will be served the party on Friday, June 13th. Governor Moody and twelve other state officials including Judge C. M. Cureton of the Supreme Court; Governor Neff and Lon A. Smith of the railroad commission; Judge Ely and Hon. This motorcade is the first effort along the line of action recently adopted by the state parks board, according to Mr. Colp, and is for the purpose of crystallizing sentiment over Texas for a favorable vote in the creation of the four major park systems at the next legislature. All the daily newspapers of Texas are cooperating in the publicity incident to the project.

A. N. WOOD IS CANDIDATE FOR NEW OFFICE

The News has been authorized to publish the announcement of A. N. Wood, local grocer for the office of Tax-Collector of Donley County. The candidacy of Mr. Wood is subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries in July and August, he is asking that the voters of the county give him their consideration at that time.

Mr. Wood has been a resident of Donley County for twenty-four years, having made his home in the Hedley section a great part of that time. He is a native Texan and has never asked the public for an office before this time. Mr. Wood needs little or no introduction to the public in Clarendon as he has been in the grocery business here for the past several years.

Mr. Wood further states that he has no especial promises to make, that he is in the race to win if possible and that he promises the best possible service should he be the choice of the majority of the people. He will appreciate the vote and influence of his friends at the polls in July and August.

FORMER CLARENDON BOY NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

The following story was taken from the late issue of the Turkey Enterprise and is the account of an accident in which Hollis Reavis, former Clarendon boy, narrowly escaped death in a car accident. Hollis is the son of Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Reavis here and is well known to Clarendon people.

Hollis Reavis, employee of the West Texas Utilities Company narrowly escaped death Monday night when the lights of the car he was driving went on the blink, the car plunging into the ditch and caught on fire.

Evidently the car door was opened during the plunge into the ditch and the impact of the car threw Reavis clear of the wreckage. He was found in an unconscious condition several feet from the car when assistance arrived, being attracted by the burning car. Injuries sustained were minor and Reavis was back on the job at work Tuesday.

The car was completely burned and wrecked beyond repair.

Health Insurance—the Electric Refrigerator

WORLD-RECOGNIZED food authorities and Government research chemists have found that foods kept at higher temperatures than 50 degrees Fahrenheit are extremely dangerous to human health.

For that reason, many of the most famous scientists and home economists are recommending the unfailing efficiency of the Electric Refrigerator. A Frigidaire in your kitchen is an assurance of Food Safety. The New Hydrator will not only preserve fruits and vegetables in a fresh-from-the-garden condition, but will actually revive them when they are wilted and unusable. The other sections of the Frigidaire give you that Dry Cold necessary to the safe and economical preservation of your foods.

You cannot afford to be without this Modern Kitchen Necessity. The issues at stake are far too great to be content with less than the best.

Les Beaux Arts Club Reception

The annual reception of Les Beaux Arts Club last Saturday afternoon with a repetition of last year's reception in success and interest. The club was fortunate in again, securing an exhibit of paintings of one of the outstanding artists of this section.

Mrs. Jessie Palmer, the artist, was present at the reception and in the course of the afternoon, gave an interesting talk on the history of art in its development. Some twenty-five or thirty of her paintings were hung for exhibition, a stream of invited guests passing before them during the three hours of the opening. For the most part the paintings were reproductions of landscapes in various parts of America, though there were some still life studies and one exquisite portrait. Cloud and atmospheric effects were especially beautiful, and there were unanimous expressions of appreciation from the art lovers present. The club considered itself very fortunate to secure this exhibit for Mrs. Palmer has become quite a personage in the art world. She is a member of Texas Fine Arts Association and of the Southern States Arts League, and has received the Everts silver medal from the Dallas Women's Forum, and the first prizes from the Oklahoma Fair, 1926-1927 and from the Texas State Fair 1920. Her work is in the following permanent galleries: "Bluebonnets" in Travis School, Dallas, and "In Colorado" in Dallas Women's Forum. Two of her paintings will remain in Clarendon, to the pleasure of the purchasers and their friends. Several exhibits passing through the state and the south contain specimens of her skill.

She has been a pupil of Frank Raugh of Dallas, and of Martha Simkins and John Carlson of New York. Recently a magazine of Paris, France, "La Reven Moderne," requested a story of her work and prints of pictures that had received nation-wide notice. Prints of her "Autumn" and "The Mountains," were sent with the story.

The appointments of the Club room where the exhibit was held were in keeping with the artistic atmosphere. The refreshment table itself was an achievement of beauty. The community is indebted to the Arts Club and to Mrs. Palmer for a charming and inspiring afternoon.

A REAL BLOOD SUCKER
 The bed bug may be said to be the bane of all housewives, says a local official of the Gulf Refining Company. It is a thief in the night. It bites and pierces your skin and sucks your blood. Because the bed bug sucks blood from the sick and the well, it is potential carrier of any communicable disease. The bed bug is not merely an annoyance, it is a very dangerous insect to have in your home. An infestation of bed bugs can be easily remedied by spraying one of the modern types of insect sprays, developed and marketed by the large oil Refining Companies during the past three or four years, and regularly advertised in this paper.

POSTAL EMPLOYEE ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT KONJOLA

Stomach And Bowel Troubles Soon Vanished. "Should Have Taken New Medicine Long Ago," He Says.

MR. FRANK B. NORMAN

"I suffered for a long time with stomach trouble," said Mr. Frank B. Norman, 828 Mississippi street, Amarillo. I had a very poor appetite and after eating I was subject to painful accumulations of gas. I was becoming very nervous and did not sleep well at night. I was troubled with constipation and found it necessary to take cathartics constantly. I was losing strength and energy and no matter what I tried in the way of medicine nothing seemed to help me.

"I seemed to improve in health from the time I began taking Konjola. My appetite picked up and I was able to assimilate my food better. I did not have that tired out feeling in the morning and my work was easier and more pleasant. Constipation soon passed and cathartics were no longer necessary. After continuing the treatment for a time I realized that Konjola was the medicine I should have taken long ago. I am continuing to take Konjola and am recommending it to all my friends."

Given a real trial over a period of from six to eight weeks, Konjola has made a record without parallel in the history of medicines. Ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness readily yield to its power. Konjola is sold in Clarendon at Douglas & Goldston Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

To Identify Genuine Aspirin

The increasing use of Bayer Aspirin every year is proof that it has no ill effects. It is the accepted antidote for pain. It always helps; never harms; is safe to use freely as often as it is needed. Quick relief whenever you've a headache, or cold; or are suffering from neuralgia or neuritis. The distressing pains of rheumatism yield, too, if you'll only give these tablets a chance. But be sure to get genuine Aspirin. It has the Bayer Cross on every tablet. Look for the name Bayer on the box, and the word "genuine" printed in red. Proven directions inside.

YOU HAVE A DOCTOR'S WORD FOR THIS LAXATIVE

In 1875, an earnest young man began to practice medicine. As a family doctor, he saw the harm in harsh purgatives for constipation and began to search for something harmless to the sensitive bowels. Out of his experience was born a famous prescription. He wrote it thousands of times. It proved an ideal laxative for old and young. As people saw how marvelously the most sluggish bowels are started and had breath, headaches, feverishness, nausea, gas, poor appetite, and such disorders, are relieved by the prescription, it became necessary to put it up ready for use. Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. It never varies from Dr. Caldwell's original effective and harmless formula. All drugstores have it.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless, Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has it.

AUSTIN PLANNING FOR LIONS MEET

SPLENDID LAY-OUT OF ENTERTAINMENT TO BE ENJOYED BY DELEGATION

The Lions Club of the Capital City of Texas, assisted by the other civic clubs in Austin, is making extensive preparations for the annual gathering of Texas Lions, May 12, 13, and 14. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The right time for of the week so that the many delegates can be back home and to their business duties, Thursday morning.

The sessions of the convention will be held in the historic Senate Chamber, in the capitol building.

A. C. KATER, District Governor

District Governor Kater will call the convention to order at 1:30 p. m. Monday.

Registration booths for the delegates will be opened in the Driskill Hotel, and in the capitol building, the afternoon preceding the convention.

The forenoon of the first day will be devoted to registration and the meeting of Presidents and Secretaries in separate sessions.

The program for the convention is about the best that Texas Lions have ever had. It will bristle with the best advice that the great Southwest affords, as to building up the community and enhancing the value of citizenship, for which the Lions are famous all over the Nation. It may not be amiss to say, that Texas Lions are right in the forefront in this respect, and they are pardonably proud of their achievements, and are constantly striving for greater triumphs.

The entertainment features arranged by the Austin Lions Club, are replete with a high degree of pleasure promoting devices that will challenge the admiration of the visitors at every turn. The Governors banquet will take place the first night at 7:30 o'clock, at the conclusion of a parade, on the walk in front of the capitol building. At its conclusion, the guests will repair to the Senate Chamber where "Stunt Nite" will be observed. The very best talent in Texas will appear on the platform, for the amusement and edification of the assembled hosts. Many Clubs have made reservations for a place and time on this program, and it will be about the best ever put on in Texas. Three or four bands will concert between stunts.

Win-One Class In May Party

The contest which has been waged by the members of the Win-One Class, Methodist Sunday School closed with a most enjoyable May party being given Thursday afternoon at the district parsonage, which was a special compliment to the winners of the contest.

The rooms were abloom with spring flowers of every kind and games and contests were played throughout the afternoon with several lucky ones winning prizes.

In the paper and pencil contest which dealt solely with flowers, Mrs. R. Wilkerson was winner of a beautiful basket of roses. The guests were then invited to pass by and view the garden planted by Mesdames Sherman and Will Johnston, who were principally responsible for the success of the party, and write the names of flowers seen in this garden. Mrs. Van Allen Kent was winner and was presented with a beautiful arm bouquet.

The next interesting feature of this party and which was in keeping with this time of the year since our thoughts naturally stray from flower gardens to new frocks, was the style show. As Mrs. Will Johnson presided over the Victrola and kept a constant flow of music the ladies exhibited their newest garments with Mrs. W. R. Holder being the winner of the lovely choker beads.

Cooling refreshments were served during the entire afternoon by Mrs. J. L. McMurtry from a punch bowl surrounded by rose greenery. Special mention should be made of the dining table which was in readiness for a May Pole dance impersonated by miniature dancers and a May pole.

Miss Rosalyn Bass gave a delightful reading on May days and Miss Nova Cooke pleased the audience with an impersonation of a lady viewing a style show from a rear seat which was directly behind a post.

The colors pink and green, which were the colors of the contesting sides were intermingled in harmonious decorations and used again in the refreshment course. The intermingling of these two colors show how closely the friendships of the members of this class are and how harmoniously they work together to accomplish their watch word "Service."

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Simpson returned last Thursday evening from Whitesboro, where they had been called by the death of a brother-in-law of Mrs. Simpson.

Mrs. R. C. Bryan returned to her home Wednesday after an absence of two weeks spent in Amarillo with her sister who has been quite ill.

Miss Mamie Youngblood of Amarillo spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Youngblood.

to miss this big convention. Twelve hundred visitors are expected by the way reservations are being made at the hotels, and more than 1500 may be in attendance.

ASHTOLA HIGH SCHOOL'S FIRST BANQUET SUCCESS

At about 8 o'clock Friday night of May 2nd the Junior and Senior classes of the Ashtola High School together with a number of guests of honor assembled for their first time into the dining room to participate in the first banquet to be given by Ashtola High School. They were served by the Freshmen and Sophomore classes under the direction of Mrs. L. B. Merrill. The students of all four high school classes brought various foods from their homes where most of it had been prepared by their mothers. The parents in all the homes represented by those serving as well as those being served co-operated in a commendable way to make the affair an entire success.

Those of the Senior class are Beatrice Randal, John Parker, and Kirvin Irwin. The Juniors are Merle Harp, Emma Sue Graham, Margaret Swinburn, Ima Poovey, Helen Parker, Opal Dunning, Tindal Gregg and Clifton Dunning. The Sophomores serving were Mary Graham, Geneva Collier, Virgie Wallace, Tate Poovey, Lee McClellan, H. W. Lovell and B. S. Dockery and the freshmen serving were Thella Irwin, Laura Mae Harp, Ruby Lee Mason, Evelyn Jones, Glenn Drennan, Martin Mason and Stanley Johnson.

Mr. H. W. Lovell, Mr. Lee McClellan and Mr. M. S. Swinburn with their wives and Mr. W. E. Gregg, representing both the retiring and the incoming school boards, were among the honored guests. Reverend W. E. Gattis and wife, Miss Mary Moss Richardson, the principal speaker of the evening, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howard, make the total of those served.

The distinguished honor of toastmaster of the first banquet was given to John Parker, who was highly commended in the handling of the office. Reverend Gattis gave the invocation, after which toasts were given to Miss Richardson, to Mr. Howard and to the Seniors. Each member of the school board and Reverend Gattis gave short talks of interest and Miss Richardson gave a fine talk of greater length, all of which were highly appreciated.

The motif of the banquet was "hearts" and the place cards were of such shape, and the theme of Miss Richardson's talk was on such a topic as to bring out the motif very strikingly. The class colors were also well brought out in the table decoration. A long table ample to serve about 30 people was prepared in a most delicate manner to bring out the colors and motif of which was a strip of black which ran the entire length and along the center were three beautiful bouquets of flowers. The place cards were hearts of burnt orange on which the name of the person to dine at the place, the menu, the program and the class roll, were written in black, this bringing out the class colors as well as the motif.

The menu was made up of four courses, the fruit cocktail, chicken dinner, salad course and desert course. The talks were given between courses near the close of the program the classes doing the serving came in to join in with a song and well. After the last course had been served every one stood and all joined hands and sang "God Be With You Till

Our Weekly Church Chat

The motherhood of the world is the life of the world. This life is from God, it is sacred. An Old Jewish Rabbi has truthfully said, "Because God could not be every where he has given us mothers." Next to Christ Himself, God's greatest gift to the world was woman. The great human race needs a Savior. Each individual of the race needs a mother. Woman cannot accomplish the tasks of man. God never intended her to. He gave to man the strength to battle with the world, and to the woman the tenderness and gentleness to sustain and help man.

Well may we pause at this season of the year to pay honor to them, our Mothers. Into the valley of shadow of death she walked, that we might have the light of life. In her arms was the garner of our food, and the soft couch for our repose. There we nestled in the hours of pain, there was the play-ground of our infant glee. These same arms later became our refuge and stronghold.

On Mother's Day, we hope to present some helpful lesson on the duties of mothers in the morning message, "A Mother's

We Meet Again," which was the closing event of the program.

Everyone spoke of having a splendid time and said the whole affair was an entire success, and it is to be hoped that this is the first of a continued affair to be given annually hereafter and while we swell with pride over the grand success that we have experienced in our first banquet, let us not forget the commendation of our freshmen and sophomores as well as Mrs. Merrell who made it possible.

Let everyone remember the spirit of willingness and unselfishness with which their unerring hands served all of which was essential to the success of our first banquet. And let us all look forward to similar affairs with which to award them for their services this year. And let this remind us that we are now friends and that it is a happy privilege for us to be together, and that this is to remind us, that year by year group after group will turn away from us by the merciless hand of time, and that it behooves us all to make the most of the friendship that should be the happiest in our lifetimes. And the memory of which should be the most happy of all to recall. In short let this, our first banquet be an affair, that will build a spirit of friendship and happiness never to be severed.

IMA POOVEY.

Fidelity." At this service several awards will be made. The oldest mother present, the youngest mother, the mother of the largest family, and the mother who comes the greatest distance, will receive special recognition. Sunday night in our sermon "Borrowed Religion," we want to show the folly of trying to borrow religion. Come learn more about these questions. W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

Mrs. G. Lester Boykin and two sons, James, Lester and Ben Matthews, returned to their home here Sunday evening after an absence of some five weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Norene Cornstubble, a nephew to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brady, is here from Ranlet, Okla., for a visit of some length.

Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain and son, Freddy, spent last week-end with Mrs. Chamberlain's sister, Mrs. D. C. Rutledge and Mr. Rutledge of Elk City, Okla.
