The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

IT'S GETTING TO the point where just about all you can read and hear these days is politics. We can't remember when there was so much interest in a national election. And that's good, of course, for everyone should be interested in the eligible voters took part in the last general election. A man was telling us yesterday that he's tired of it all and wants to get the election over with. If we could get the election over and have a three-day rain, we'd all feel better.

DIDN'T GET out to hear the H-SU a cappella choir the other morning, but we hear that it was outstanding. The college auditorium was full of Ciscoans who thoroughly enjoyed an hour's program. A former CJC choir singer appeared with the H-SU group. She is Miss Pat Agnew, daughter of the Mart Agnews. The choir had lunch at the hotel here before singing at Eastland.

THE CISCO Service clubs and other organizations certainly are fortunate to have the CJC music department here. Just about anyone you need a program, all you have to do is give the school a ring.

The Lions Club yesterday thoroughly enjoyed a trio of girls—Misses Patsy King, Jane Huestis and Ruth Beatty—in a number of songs. And a new student, Calvin Grung, played an electric guitar as accompaniment for the girls and, later, as a duet with Miss Huestis at the piano. It was all very splendid.

THE MADRIGAL Singers of the college are planning something big for December, Mr. Jack Chambliss reports. It will be a dinner concert at the hotel dining room. In this event, you'll get dinner and then enjoy a program of Madrigal music. Sounds good, doesn't it?

THERE'S A GOOD musical show in store for those who attend the Halloween Carnival out at the West Ward School on Saturday night. Our scouts report that it's to be top drawer entertainment. Names of the characters in the cast were turned in to us as follows: Sugarthroat Stanley Webb, Dreamboat Carl Carr, Lightning J. H. Latson, Strass Bob Latson and Sister Miranda Jo Webb.

THE DALLAS Texans of the football league aren't winning very many games, but a Cisco man is doing right good with them. Mr. Stanley Williams, the former Lobo and Bayou star, started off as a defensive halfback. See by the papers where the coaches figure to start using him as a defensive halfback and an offensive end.

A CISCO HORSE was a place winner in the recent horse show at the State Fair of Texas. Copied Kid's Tony, owned by Dr. N. N. Brown, and ridden by Clyde Erickson, placed in the stock horse type, reining class for mares and geldings. He placed also in another division of the show. And there must have been 500 horses in the various events.

HAVE YOU LOST an ear? Mr. E. J. Poe found one on the street the other day and turned it over to us. It's a gold looking ear ornament with a square drop. The square has a hole in the center with a half-diamond sort of arrangement falling out of it. Looks like it's for a left ear. If you've lost one, drop by The Press office. . . Mr. Carl Lamb is just back from Houston where he got a preview of the 1953 Plymouth. He reports that it's a beauty and will see sometime next month. . . Mrs. Grady Laws, the teacher, is home from an Abilene hospital, and her condition is steadily improving.

MIDGETS TANGLE WITH GORMAN TEAM IN GRID GAME TONIGHT

The Cisco Junior High School Midgets are expecting one of the hardest games of the year tonight when they meet the Gorman Junior High School football team on the Gorman field at 7:30 o'clock. The Gorman team will be trying to avenge a defeat at the hands of the Midgets at Chesley Field earlier in the season. In that game the Midgets handed the Gorman team its first defeat of the current season.

Rabies Threatens Two Texas Areas, Dr. Cox Predicts

Two widely separated areas in Texas face an upsurge in rabies between now and June, State Health Officer George W. Cox predicts. The disease could easily spread to other vulnerable areas.

One focus is in Travis, Bastrop, Fayette, and Hays counties in Central Texas. The other is in Panola, Shelby, San Augustine counties in East Texas. Individual instances of mad foxes have been occurring in both these sections throughout the year.

Blanco, Comal, Guadalupe, and Gonzales Counties are directly in the path of the southwestern spread of the Central Texas focus. In East Texas, the trend is east and southeast, threatening Sabine, Jasper, and Newton counties, Dr. Cox reports.

"The first case of fox rabies in any county is an indication that work needs to be started immediately on control," Dr. Cox said. "You know you're in for trouble."

For rabies is six times more prevalent in winter months than in summer, Cox indicated. He added that every fox killed now will save trouble later.

He made the prediction of increased rabies incidence despite the fact that rabies suspect animals heads autopsied at the department's Bureau of Laboratories in September were fewer than at any time since May.

Dr. Cox said wildlife rabies in most affected areas kills off wildlife to a point where rabies cannot maintain itself. It thus dies out and does not re-appear until the population builds itself up again.

Skunk rabies is prevalent in these separate areas of the state, the health officer said. But the disease is "20 times" more serious in fox than in skunk, he said.

Dry Weather Is Retarding Work On Texas Farms

Droughty conditions became more intense over the entire state as no measurable amount of rain was recorded at any official weather station during the past week. In the northwest, harvest of cotton and sorghums, and the last alfalfa cutting was in full swing, while along the upper coast, combining of late maturing varieties of rice moved along as rapidly as fields ripened.

College Students Entertain Lions

Several musical numbers were presented by the Music Department of Cisco Junior College as the program feature Wednesday at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Cisco Lions Club in the Victor Hotel Dining Room. Lion S. H. Nance made arrangements for the program.

Jack Chambliss of the CJC music department presented a girl's trio, composed of Misses Patsy King, Jane Huestis and Ruth Beatty, in several songs. Calvin Grung, playing an electric guitar, accompanied the trio for two numbers, and played a duet with Miss Huestis at the piano.

Following the program, Coaches Red Lewis, Jack Everett and O. B. Graham of Cisco football teams made short talks concerning their activities.

Brotherhood Holds Meeting On Monday

The regular weekly meeting of the brotherhood of the East Cisco Baptist Church was held at 7:30 p. m. Monday with a large number of members in attendance.

Doyle Holmes was the principal speaker on the program and the Rev. Doyle Brisby, a visitor, brought a short sermon. It was reported that both men brought inspiring messages.

Every man in the community was invited to attend the weekly meetings along with the men of the church. Jack Clack is the reporter for the group.

Miss Evadene Ellis, bride elect of Almus L. Fanning of Cisco, was honored at a gift tea by the W. S. C. S. of the First Methodist Church in the fellowship room of the church on October 16.

The room was decorated with seasonal fall flowers. The table was laid with a lace cloth and held a centerpiece of white chrysanthemums in a cut glass container. The centerpiece was flanked by white lighted tapers in crystal holders.

Mrs. Burton presided at the register book and Mrs. Oscar Wise played a number of selections at the piano while the guests were being served. Mrs. W. G. Jones ladled the punch. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Wylie, Mrs. B. L. Chaney and Mrs. C. C. Ballard. A toast to the honoree was given by Lucy Burton and Laurene Chatham was presented in two vocal numbers. Mrs. Burton made the presentation of the gifts.

Attending the affair were Messames Alton Burton, C. C. Ballard, W. G. Jones, Stella Sherman, Will Townsend, E. E. Harris, A. J. Ellis, Oscar Wize, Melvin Mathis, Albert Morris, Wiley Williams, Ed Collingsworth, C. C. Cady, Glena Cottle, Morris Cottle, Elm Cottle, Ralph Snyder, Irving Dean, D. H. Brooks, F. B. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie George and son of Waco are spending a two weeks vacation with relatives in Moran.

The many friends of Bert Brooks who recently had surgery in a hospital at Wichita Falls have the news that Mr. Brooks was able to be taken to his daughter's home, Mrs. J. L. George, 1505 10th, Wichita Falls. He is doing fine.

Mrs. G. R. Eubank is visiting a few days this week with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Butler at Comanche.

The children of Mr. Ed Collinsworth surprised him last Friday afternoon, Oct. 17th, with a special entertainment on his birthday. His little granddaughters, sang the Happy Birthday when the gifts were presented. Ice Cream and Cake were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Olin Smith and Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hull, Jr., and Don Ronnie of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Collinsworth and two daughters of Ranger.

Mrs. Jay Terry spent the first part of last week in Abilene visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pennington and attending the first meeting of the season of the John Hudwell Chapter of the United States Daughters of 1812 in the home of Mrs. Alvis F. Nemir.

WRANGLERS EXPECT HARD GAME AGAINST MIDWESTERN ELEVEN

The Cisco Junior College football team is expecting a hard game when the Wranglers line up Friday at 8 p. m. against the "B" team of Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, at Chesley Field, Coach Red Lewis reported today.

The regular Midwestern "B" team is expected to have available to play several men from the "A" squad as the school's No. 1 outfit has an open date this week. And Coach Lewis believed that Midwestern would bring along a number of the "A" squad men who seldom play to give them some experience here.

The Midwestern lineup was not available today, but it was expected to include at least one former Cisco player — Center Donald Watts. Midwestern's "B" team scored a 26-to-13 victory over the Wranglers in their meeting here last year.

Coach Lewis said his Wrangler machine was limping a bit with injuries. Most of the players will see action, however, as the injury situation was not bad enough to keep the men from practice.

Mrs. Burton presided at the register book and Mrs. Oscar Wise played a number of selections at the piano while the guests were being served. Mrs. W. G. Jones ladled the punch. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Wylie, Mrs. B. L. Chaney and Mrs. C. C. Ballard. A toast to the honoree was given by Lucy Burton and Laurene Chatham was presented in two vocal numbers. Mrs. Burton made the presentation of the gifts.

Jim Spaulding, president of the sophomore class, and Burl Moses of Throckmorton are sophomore representatives on the council. Don Denard of Hewitt and Don Carman of Anson are freshmen representatives and Carlene Pence of Cisco represents the cheer leaders.

Denard is president of the freshman class. Other freshmen class officers are Bonnie Burch of Morgan, vice-president; Wylene Bint of Cisco, secretary-treasurer and Bud Miller of Glen Rose, reporter. Faculty sponsors are H. L. Dorman and Carlos J. Turner.

as Show Logged In Another Test

Two locations for deep oil tests were made today as the feature of oil development activities in the Cisco area. Another high-light was the show of considerable gas in a wildcat test seven miles southeast of Cisco.

One of the new locations was in the Kleiner pool area two miles north of Cisco where activities have been negligible for more than a year. The Big Six Oil Company was to begin drilling during the day on their No. 1 Wright and Harrell.

The location is north of Mississippi lime production, 380 feet from the south and 690 feet from the east lines of Section 498, SP Survey. Projected depth is 4,000 feet. The Gray Drilling Company of Cisco has the drilling contract.

Some 20 wells were drilled several years ago in the Kleiner pool, and most of them are producing from the Mississippian at about 3,900 feet. There is also some Lake Sand production in that area.

In the West Cisco Lake Sand Pool, Connally and Jackson, Abilene, staked their No. 2 E. P. Crawford et al. The location is one mile west of Cisco, 990 feet from the south and 2,330 feet from the east lines of Section 86, Block 4, H&TC Survey. The same firm drilled their No. 1 Crawford several weeks ago as a substantial producer.

Seven miles southeast of Cisco, the McElroy Ranch Company No. 1 Wright reported a strong show of gas on a drill stem test Wednesday afternoon from 3,250-78 feet. During the test, mud circulation was lost and efforts were still being made early today to restore circulation. A blow-out preventer enabled the operators to control the test.

It was understood that the well would be drilled to the Ellenberger lime when operations were resumed. Location is 330 feet from the north and east lines of Section 2, Block B-3, H&TC Survey.

Six miles northwest of Cisco, the Kupp and Dickson No. 1 Lindner was rigging up to drill as a wildcat test. Drilling was expected to get underway before the week's end.

Chest Workers Urged To Finish Budget Campaign

Cisco Community Chest workers today were urged to complete their assignments in an effort to complete the budget drive by the end of the week. A total of $1,758.62 had been turned in to Treasurer Robert O. White at the First National Bank at noon today.

The $8,700 budget will supply the financial needs of ten Cisco charitable and character building organizations, as follows: Cisco Welfare Association, $1,200; Girl Scouts, $1,200; ABC Club, $1,500; Boy Scouts, $1,000; USO, $500; Heart Association, $100; Cisco Hobby Club, $250; Red Cross, $1,750; Salvation Army, $600; and, Cancer Society, $100.

Ralph Glenn is chairman of the canvass committees working in the business district, and Mrs. Don Choate is in charge of workers in the residential areas.

"B" Game Changed To Saturday Night

Coaches Jack Everett and Jay Williams announced today that the game between the Lobo "B" team and the Eastland "B" team, originally scheduled for tonight in Eastland, had been postponed until Saturday night.

The changing of the date was at the request of the Eastland school due to a conflict in the school activities there.

Questions And Answers On The Hatch Act

With Election Day drawing near, many questions are raised with respect to specific provisions of the Hatch Act, which restricts political activities on the part of Federal employees.

Q.— My wife wants to help a friend campaign for political office. I want to know whether it is all right for her to do that because I am a Government employee. We are both registered voters.

A.— The Hatch Act does not restrict the activities of an employee's wife or other members of an employee's family in any way, unless it appears that they are engaging in politics in behalf of the employee.

Q.— May I serve in an unofficial capacity at the polls as a checker, challenger, distributor, or watcher, or in any other post?

A.— No, you may not assist any candidate or party in any way at, or near, the polls.

Q.— Can I use my auto to take voters to the polls on election day, or lend it or rent it for this use?

A.— No. Your auto may be used only to transport you and members of your immediate family to the polls.

Q.— I am a part-time government employee and have no regular tour of duty. Does the Hatch Act apply to me since I work for the government only part-time, sometimes without any compensation?

A.— Yes. Part-time and intermittent employees may not be politically active on any day or days they perform work or service for the government, and this includes the entire 24-hour period of any day worked.

Q.— I am a State employee. Does the Hatch Act cover me?

A.— An officer or employee of a State or local agency is subject to the Act if, as a normal and foreseeable incident to his principal job or position, he performs duties in connection with an activity financed in whole or in part by Federal loans or grants; otherwise he is not.

Q.— Some of my friends are so afraid of Hatch Act penalties that they will not even express an opinion on an election. Is it necessary to be so cautious?

A.— No, the Hatch Act reserves the right of Federal employees to express political opinions. The prohibition is against taking an active part in political management or in political campaigns, not against the mere expression of an opinion.

Q.— May I march in a political parade?

A.— Generally no. You may, however, as a member of a band or orchestra that takes part in parades or rallies, provided that it is generally available for hire as a musical organization.

Q.— One of my neighbors, a Federal employee, has a political campaign picture displayed in the window of his home. Is this legal?

A.— Yes. Q.— I would like to make a contribution to a certain campaign fund. Is this prohibited by the Hatch Act?

A.— No. A voluntary contri-

Are We Oversold On Grass, or Still Undereducated?

These cows and calves seem contented with their feed on this grassland farm.

Are many farmers slaves to an out-of-date type of farming? True, they have adopted some improved practices, often used better seed, applied more fertilizer and adopted improved machinery, but are their minds open to the evolution in farming that is going on in the present age?

Some farms have been entirely turned into grasslands, spoken of by one writer as "grasslands all the way," by another as "giving up our old corn philosophy," and by some others, the real extremists or cultists, as "organic farming."

There is no such thing as being "oversold" on real grassland farming any more than on any well-balanced, profitable farm program involving soil building, erosion control, efficient crop production and a well-planned dairy and livestock program, because these are just what is meant by "grassland farming."

None of them can be attained as economically and efficiently without resorting to the large-scale use of grasslands.

Grassland farming does not mean that every acre on the farm be turned into grasslands to the exclusion of inter-tilled row crops. It does not mean that grasslands alone will supply all the mineral elements to maintain soils at the highest degree of fertility. It does not mean that to maintain profitable livestock production, all feed nutrients consumed by livestock must come from grasslands.

True, it has been shown that profitable livestock maintenance and large production of meat and dairy products can be attained by going "all the way" with grasslands. This does not mean that in a majority of cases this is the most profitable procedure.

Grasslands have advantages in a farm program that cannot be obtained in any other way, and each one of these should be given full consideration.

1. High quality pasturage and harvested forage provide the lowest cost feed available for livestock production.

GRASSLAND FARMING MEANS

1. Keeping as much of the farm in grassland as can be made profitable.

2. Supplying a major part of livestock feed from grassland.

3. Keeping the land covered most of the year with crops to reduce erosion and add organic matter.

4. Higher yields from inter-tilled crops in the rotation.

5. Most economical production of milk, beef, mutton, wool, pork and eggs.

6. As much as 80 to 90 percent of feed for dairy cattle can be derived profitably from high quality pasture, hay and grass silage.

7. Grasslands will supply large quantities of nitrogen and all the organic matter for good soil tilth and high crop yields.

8. Grasses and legumes maintained in permanent well-fertilized pastures reduce erosion to the minimum. Soil losses under such treatment are almost negligible.

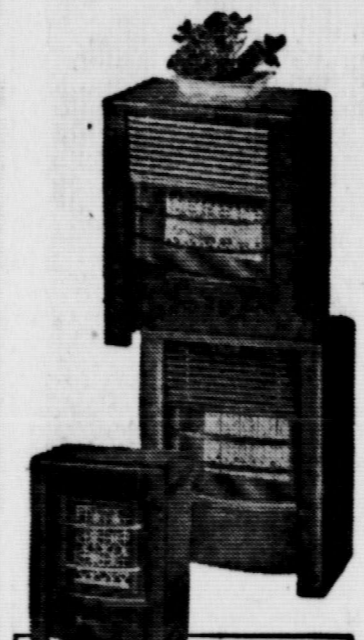

9. Run-down neglected farms can often be restored to their original fertility and productivity through a well-planned grassland program involving high fertilization and use of improved grasses and legumes.

10. Through intelligent use of grasses and legumes tilled crops can be produced on the contour and ground cover maintained over a large part of the year with the least possible loss of soil or fertility through erosion or soil exposure to the elements.

As we study the problems involved in a balanced grassland farming program and learn how to produce and utilize high-quality nutritious forage, the foundation will be laid for a more prosperous agriculture.

Why Should I Have An Abstract? ... is a question often asked of abstractors and one we like to answer. When ownership of real property enters your business life then title problems also come in. Buying, selling, mortgaging and otherwise dealing with real estate require correct title information. The abstract reflects the true record title and therefore has everything to do with values. That's one answer, there are many others. Earl Bender & Company Eastland, (Abstracting since 1923) Texas

STILL UNDECIDED—When his mother took two-year-old Patrick Comink to one of the concerts given by the 123-piece U. S. Army Band in Paris, France, he wasn't sure he liked it at first. But the low pitch and the size of those tubas caught his interest, and now he's probably a future music lover.

To born and unborn children, the present adult generation has serious obligations, not the least of which to save their eyesight.

Fulfillment calls for adequate medical care for every pregnant woman, with treatment of conditions which might cause blindness in the child. Blindness from congenital syphilis has decreased 50 per cent since 1936 as a result of cooperation between doctors and laymen. Gonorrhoea, a second venereal disease formerly responsible for much blindness, has been almost checked. The reasons: laws requiring the use of drops in the eyes soon after birth to prevent the disease, more effective treatment, and better understanding of parents regarding the need for early care in pregnancy.

A few parents have yet to realize, however, that a child with crossed eyes does not always outgrow the condition. An eye examination is called for if after six months of age the baby's eyes do not seem to work together.

Infants and small children need their eyes protected against glare from direct sunlight; otherwise, the light-sensitive layer of the eye, the retina, may be destroyed, causing loss of eyesight. Youngsters also need protection from dangerous toys which have sharp corners or which might inflict heavy blows. Since 1936 there has been a 25 per cent decrease in the number of accidents among children; one reason for this drop has been legislation against the use of air guns and fireworks. Close supervision of play, in addition to the forbidding of dangerous toys, will do much to eliminate needless blinding accidents.

If the child's eyes have not been examined by the time he starts school, he should have a complete examination. After this time the physician should advise the intervals for other checkups. Those with severe sight handicaps, even when they wear glasses, might be better off in sight-saving classes or special schools. Having to compete with children

Record Number Of Cage Teams Set For Season

AUSTIN, Oct. 23. — A new 10-year-high for participation in Interscholastic League basketball competition has been established for the 1952-53 season, Dr. Rhea H. Williams, League director of athletics, announced today.

A total of 1098 teams are assigned, by the official conference lists, just released, to five conferences for the coming basketball season. This is two more than last year's total of teams, and is the highest total reached since the war. The all-time high of 1213 teams was reached in the 1941-42 season. Since 1947, when 1088 teams played, consolidations of schools and formation of new schools have just about balanced, keeping participation figures fairly stable. The 1948 total was 1094; that for 1949, 1092; for 1950, 1096; for 1951, 1088; and last year, 1096.

Participation for the coming season breaks down into 48 teams in Conference 4-A, 53 in Conference 3-A, 159 in AA, 209 in A, and 629 in B. The top class (1000 enrollment and up) shows a drop of four schools; 3-A (500 to 1000) is up two; AA (225 to 500) is down six; Class A (125 and under) is up seven; and B (124 and under) gained three, as enrollment shifts shuffled the alignments.

Crusade Symbol Marks Birthday

AUSTIN, Oct. 23. — A modest symbol which sparked the world crusade marks its golden anniversary today.

The red Double-Barred Cross, familiar trademark of the Christmas Seal, was adopted October 23, 1902 as the emblem of the global war on tuberculosis at the first international conference on the disease when representatives of 20 nations met in Berlin to join forces against mankind's greatest killer.

Patterned after the historic Cross of Lorraine, the Double-Barred Cross was adopted in 1906 as official emblem of the National Tuberculosis Association and in 1920 was registered as its trademark, the Texas Tuberculosis Association reminded today.

Texans, who by their purchase of Christmas Seals since 1909 have supported the TB Associations' fight against the disease, will see the copyright on the 1952 Seals which will be mailed them November 17, TTA officials said.

"When the first Christmas Seal sale was held in Texas in 1909, TB was taking a greater toll of human life in this state than all other diseases," Miss Pansy Nichols, executive secretary, commented. "Since then the tuberculosis death rate has been forced down steadily, but each year it kills more Texans than any other infectious disease, striking hardest at young people from 15 to 35 where it leads as the cause of death.

"The heart-breaking tragedy lies in the needless waste," she continued, "waste of human life, waste of economic resources. Tuberculosis is costing Texans more than $17,000,000 a year. It took 1,962 lives in the state last year. Yet, it is a preventable disease which can be controlled and eventually wiped out."

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Notices of the filing of suits for divorce appear daily in our newspapers. Something has gone wrong with the marriage, and one of the spouses is asking the court to end the marriage by granting a divorce.

Occasionally, however, we read that someone is suing for an annulment of their marriage. The average reader may be inclined to say, "What is the difference?" Obviously the marriage is terminated if the court grants the petition, whether for divorce or annulment.

In the case of a divorce, the plaintiff (the person asking for an end to the marriage, whether the husband or wife) recognizes that the two parties involved were validly married and that there is an existing valid marriage. The plaintiff alleges, though, that the other spouse has been guilty of some act which the law says constitutes a ground for divorce. If the divorce is granted, a marriage that actually exists is terminated legally by the court.

In effect, the court tells the couple that they were validly and legally married at one time, but no longer are.

In the case of an annulment, however, the plaintiff alleges that there never was a valid marriage in the first place because of some impediment of the parties or because of some fraud in its inception.

In this case the court must determine whether there ever was a valid marriage. If the court agrees with the plaintiff, the decree says in effect that the couple never was legally and validly married, and is not now.

Such a decree of annulment establishes for the public record the fact that the marriage was and is invalid according to law. Whether the action takes the form of a divorce or an annulment, the decree will have no effect on the legitimacy of the couple's children. Our statutes provide that the children of couples whose marriages have been declared annulled shall nevertheless be legitimate.

Every divorce petition must set out the name, age, sex and residence of each child under 16 years of age born of the marriage involved. Then, before a divorce may be granted, the trial judge is required by law to inquire into the "surroundings and circumstances" of each child.

Having considered all the pertinent facts and circumstances, the court in granting a divorce may give the custody and education of the child to either the father or mother. The governing factor here is the judge's belief and findings with regard to the best interests of the child himself.

Either parent may be required to make periodical payments for the benefit of the child, and may be punished for contempt of court in event of failure to comply with the support order.

In the past some trouble has been experienced in enforcing support orders against parents who move out of the state, as a person cannot ordinarily be extradited for the purpose of answering a contempt of court charge. However, many states (including Texas) have recently passed laws providing for the reciprocal enforcement of such orders, which is bringing some relief in support cases.
