Dad's a New Duce

His father has just become Brazil's nationalist dictator, but Getulio Vargas, Jr., above isn't letting the momentous political events in the homeland interrupt his studies at Johns Hopkins University, in Baltimore. He was discovered happily unconcerned in a modest rooming house.

Tell Solons Your Views on Farming Program, M'Neeley

J. A. McNeely, prominent Komo farmer, Wednesday in a statement urged all farmers to express their view upon legislation to be considered by Congress to aid farm prices. His statement was as follows: "Being a farmer and having daily contact with present problems and difficulties of the farming class of people, I would like to express my views on our present problems. I believe the upward trend in business of recent years is looking better for most all classes of business except the farmer, especially the small cotton farmer. "Let's see where our troubles began to show up. We all remember when our cotton crop would yield enough money each year to pay our expenses of the crop and leave enough cash to buy our necessities for the year. Then we remember when we would receive higher prices for our crop, even if we did not make a bumper crop—in other words the supply being limited, the price would be higher. "Are these circumstances true today? No. Today we have enough cotton stored up to run several years if no crops are produced. Today, if we make plenty or nearly nothing, we still cannot get a decent price. "Of recent years we had what was known as the 'Bankhead Cotton Law,' which restricted the production to what the demand was. This, as was true of former years, caused us to get a decent price for our cotton. Of course, that law caused a lot of us to limit our acreage in cotton, and some possibly thought this was wrong, but just observe what our price has been since repeal of that law—these same people are dissatisfied with our present prices. "Which is best for us cotton farmers, raise and sell four bales of cotton for $100, or raise and sell two bales for the same $100, planting half our acreage to soil-building or feed crops? Of course, the Bankhead law restricted our acreage, but at the same time it increased our income. I am personally in favor of more income instead of more cotton. "Inasmuch as our law-making body is now in session in Washington and has been called in session by our President for the business of passing legislation to help our farm-price situation, I believe every farmer should express his views along this line to our representatives in Washington."

SEVERE COLD WEATHER DUE HERE TONIGHT

The first snow of the season for North Texas was forecast for Friday by the Federal Weather Bureau as a cold north wind swept down on the state, drawn by a low pressure area in West Texas. Livestock warnings were issued for West Texas Thursday and for East Texas Friday night. A north wind was blowing at Amarillo and the temperature was about 30 degrees. At Wichita Falls the wind blew 10 miles an hour and the temperature was 40. The unsettled condition in West Texas was expected to pull a north wind down from the Rocky Mountains, where the temperature was 10 degrees at North Platte, Neb., and 14 at Denver, with snow falling. Below freezing temperatures were forecast for Friday for a large section of the state. The weather bureau issued a shippers forecast of temperatures of 14 to 22 for the area in a 350-mile radius northwest of Dallas, 10 to 20 degrees west of Dallas and freezing almost to San Antonio and Houston.

America's Sphinx Returns

Genial but uncommunicative, J. P. Morgan had nothing to say and said it was a succession of "No's" and "You mustn't ask questions like that," when he returned to New York from his annual hunting trip abroad. The international banker's only bit of information was "I'm completely recovered" from the illness that incapacitated him for many months.

REVAMP MAV BACKFIELD FOR SWEETWATER GAME THERE FRIDAY EVENING

Coach E. B. Grady, Jr., announced Thursday the Maverick backfield will be "powerhouse" in a change designed to add weight against the Mustangs when the Eastland team will meet Friday night at Sweetwater. While the revamped line-up may not be used for the entire game, Coach Grady expects to meet the Mustangs on more equal ground with the rearrangement. Tommy Samuels, expert passer of the Mavericks, will likely play part of the game against Sweetwater, Coach Grady stated. Previously it had been announced that Samuels, his jaw injured in the Stephenville game, would be unable to play. A special headgear is to enable the diminutive quarterback to again assume his place in the line-up for part of the game it was stated. Named as players for Eastland in the backfield were Sparks, quarter (the Maverick's best punter who has been out for several games due to an early-season injury); Cook, R. Taylor, halves; J. Taylor, fullback; R. Taylor is a veteran center for the Mavericks. The changed backfield averaged approximately 170 pounds, the mentor stated. Maverick observers believe the team will give an excellent account of itself, pointing out the improvement shown in the Stephenville game last week. Grady stated the team was in top form. O'Neil will play the center, Barham and F. Furse, guards, Perine and Ingle tackles and Sikes and Pryor ends. The Mustang probable starters are: May, left end; Simmons, left tackle; Barman, left guard; Owen, center; Spencer, right guard; Brown, right tackle; Akins, right end; Thomas, quarter; Wetsel, right half; Webster, left half, and Young, fullback. While not at the top of the heap, the Mavericks have earned the title of probably the plunkiest team in the district. Big Spring and Ranger have fallen before the Mavericks and against the other opponents a stiff fight was given. The Mavericks have a standing of 286 and are in line for the mythical "county championship" title again this year.

AMERICANS IN FLIGHT FROM NANKING NOW

SHANGHAI, Nov. 18.—American citizens and other foreigners fled from Nanking as Japanese armies spread over the Yangtze river valley and prepared to lay siege to the capitol. Of Americans, only U. S. Embassy officials and a small group including doctors and missionaries remained behind. The American gunboats Guam, Luzon and Ohio were enroute to Nanking to remove Ambassador Nelson Johnson and his staff as soon as the nationalist government formally announces removal of its ministries. The Japanese army west of Shanghai resumed its advance and foreign military experts believed that Nanking was doomed. The capitol was a scene of great confusion. It was estimated that 200,000 persons have left it in four days. Hotels were closing, taxis could not be found and bill collectors scrambled to collect accounts.

M. Navarre and P. E. Blakeley of the Chrysler Corporation presented a safety movie entitled, "Horse-Power and Horse-Sense," showing the unsafe practices of the average driver on the highways today and also the hazards of excess speed and intoxicated drivers. A discussion of some of the accidents that had occurred the past few months followed with everyone taking part.

A few hours before Lacy and his 18-year-old wife were arrested in an Arlington tourist cabin. Lacy told detectives that he killed the man to obtain the latter's automobile.

Labor Leader Is Slain As Writer Said He Would Be

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 18.—Patrick Corcoran, prominent Northwest labor leader, was found slain today in strange fulfillment of a newspaper columnist's prophecy. His body was found near his home, under snow which began falling last night. He was shot once, behind the right ear. Ten days ago Cedric Adams' column in the Minneapolis Star said a "close friend" told him "a prominent labor leader in Minneapolis will be 'taken for a ride' within two weeks." The information, Adams said, came from an unidentified labor leader. Police questioned Adams, who did not reveal the source of his information.

BUSINESS AID IS DEMANDED BY CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Congressional demands for immediate aid to business broke through a senate filibuster against the anti-lynching bill again today coincident with claims that a senate majority favored immediate repeal of the undistributed profits tax. Senators William Borah of Idaho, Pat Harrison of Mississippi and Josiah Bailey of North Carolina joined in the debate on the necessity of encouraging business expansion as Bailey resumed filibustering oratory against the anti-lynching measure. Bailey declared the situation was such that he favored immediate repeal of the profits tax, even if it meant acceptance of a sales tax on manufactured goods or a broadening of the income tax base. Harrison, emphasizing that he did not favor a sales tax, pointed out that additional revenue would be necessary if the profits tax were hastily revised or repealed. "Our goal should be to try to balance the budget at the first opportunity," Harrison said. "The best way to do that is to curtail emergency expenditures." The house ways and means tax subcommittee meanwhile considered relief from the undistributed profits tax for corporations of net incomes of more than $5,000 a year. No conclusion was reached.

Christmas Cheer Club to Provide Kiddies' Presents

Kiddies and grownups who might feel that there will be no Santa this year can well look forward that something will be done about it because the "Christmas Cheer Club" headed by the Civic League is on the job and every civic organization, church organizations and social factors will cooperate to the limit. Mrs. Bert McGlamery and committee of five including Mrs. T. E. Richardson, Mrs. W. P. Leslie, Mrs. J. M. Horton, Miss Cleo Jackson and Mrs. Frank Sparks, have issued a special urge to every person in Eastland to turn in the names of those who should benefit by the Christmas Cheer gifts, to Mrs. McGlamery, chairman as soon as possible after which the names will be carefully investigated. Underprivileged children are the ones that should be sought out as well as families in need. Everyone is specially urged to give clothing, and food for the occasion. Each club or organization will have the privilege of distributing the gift necessities to any one they care to take care of. The Fire Department boys are busy getting the toys in shape and when Christmas rolls around every child in need will no doubt be taken care of. This is a most worthy undertaking and at a recent meeting in order that no duplication will occur all have agreed to simplify the procedure by appointing one committee. Those who care to donate money for this occasion are asked to make their check payable to Mrs. Bert McGlamery, chairman.

Prospects for Men Still Without Work

Before we can get finally straightened out on the problem of unemployment, we might as well face the fact that there is a lot of it which isn't really due to the depression.

This kind of unemployment simply arises from a gradual tightening up in the world of jobs; a process which you can attribute to increased efficiency, to machines, to the increasing rigors of a more competitive business era, or to anything else you choose, but which is keeping a good many willing men off the payroll no matter what you call it.

Here is a sample case, which must be representative of a pretty substantial number among the annals of our unemployed.

There is a man of 45 or 50 in a large city in the middle west who lost his job a couple of years ago. It was neither a very good nor a very bad job—just an average white-collar position that paid perhaps $50 a week and kept the man in decent comfort.

It was partly the man's own fault that he lost the job. He made one of those blunders that average people make every so often, and the boss got sore and fired him.

Anyway, this man lost his job, and he set out to get another. He has been trying for two years, and he hasn't succeeded yet. He has failed, not because of that moderately black mark on his record, but simply because there haven't been any jobs open for him.

So he is still in the market for a job, and he would have starved to death long since if it had not been for the WPA. That organization has given him a series of jobs (if you can call them jobs) and has kept him alive. He is a sort of time-keeper on some WPA project now, and what he is going to do when the WPA finally is discontinued he has no faintest idea.

And the point is that this luckless chap must be representative of a pretty large group of the unemployed. He isn't such a terribly good worker, and yet he is nobody's dumbbell either; he is well past his youth, and yet he is capable of years of hard work; he is willing enough, and pathetically anxious to get the sort of job he is trained for—and he just can't land one.

That sort of thing hasn't much to do with the depression. This man wasn't fired because of the depression; it isn't the depression that is keeping him from getting a new job—except, perhaps, indirectly, in that economic pressure forces employers to demand more from job-holders than they used to.

What's the answer, for men like him? Are we going to have to have a permanent work-relief program, in good years and bad, to care for the people who drop out of the procession and can't find their way back in?

Owen D. Young says what we need today is inspiration, not irritation. This may be regarded as a fitting conclusion to the picnic season.

Texans Ready For Seasons To Hunt To Begin

Texans are oiling their guns these days for their annual junkets to the haunts of deer, squirrels, wild turkeys, ducks, geese and quail. Bountiful rainfall on the Texas Panhandle Plains and good fall grain crops are expected to bring ducks to this state in large numbers—larger possibly than during the previous five years.

Conservationists are making greater efforts to see that laws are obeyed this year than ever before. A resident hunting license for Texans who wish to go outside their home counties is $2 a year. For out-of-state hunters, the license costs $25.

The duck and goose season runs from Nov. 27 to Dec. 25, and hunting this fall delayed their flight South. Bag limit on ducks is 10 a day and on geese, five. Quail may be hunted from Dec. 1 to Jan. 16 and the limit is 12 a day.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox GRAPEFRUIT offers good citrus bargains now. Use lots of them in the family meals. With oranges, tomato juice, they belong in the health menu. Here's a new muffin idea up from Florida. The muffins are so full of appreciation for the tart grapefruit that they just wrap their light dough around the custom, maybe. Grapefruit Muffins (4 to 6 servings) One cup grapefruit segments, 1-1/2 cup sugar, 1-2 cup butter or other shortening, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk, 3 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 tea-spoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon baking soda.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Shredded wheat, compote, cracked wheat cereal, grapefruit muffins, milk. LUNCHEON: Parsley lettuce, bacon curls, French baked apples, tea, milk. DINNER: Hawaiian fruit, broiled halibut, room sauce, parsley potatoes, stuffed grilled tomatoes, bage and green pepper, lemon sherbet, spago coffee, milk.

Large advertisement for 'CAPE COD TURKEY' featuring a turkey illustration and text: 'Dipping into brown swells that champed hungrily at the frosted stakes of his dory, the Cape Coddler crouched to his cold work with wet, streaming lines till a catch of fish had been made. Good cod was his Thanksgiving "turkey." With dull skies sinking heavily upon him and the first ghostly shafts of a nor'easter hissing from a smoky horizon, he would lift his crinkled eyes shoreward, thankful for the fish that meant both food and feast. Sometimes, it seems, we come by our blessings too easily. We take the gifts a more progressive civilization has brought us with a complacency that robs us of deeper thrills. And the thrills are there, with but a slight exercise of imagination. Try a slow exploration through the advertising in this newspaper. Behind each advertisement is a story. Behind each story is a service or a product that may mean pleasanter living for you. Behind it all is the stirring life of the world in action—for here the producers of the world are offering you their wares.'

Faith Endures in Sun Yat Sen

As enduring as the stainless steel of which this statue is made, is the faith of the Chinese people in the memory of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, father of the Chinese Republic. While their countrymen fight to repel the Japanese onslaught on their native land, Chinese children gather in San Francisco to pay homage to the imposing figure of Dr. Sun, executed by Beniamino Bufano.

Furry Fish of the Trout Family Are Under the Ground

ST. LOUIS—A fur-bearing fish caught in an underground lake on a Pulaski County, Mo., farm, may be a reversion to a possible ancient type of piscatorial life.

But, professing to be more of a fisherman than a biologist, Frank F. Wielandy, former Missouri state game and fish commissioner, prefers to let science decide what manner of fish had chosen to strike his line.

The fish was taken out of what is called the trout pond on the average known as the Blue Bird Farm owned by the Wielandys and located near Waynesville, Mo. It was mounted and brought to St. Louis to be placed on exhibition.

The fish resembles a trout in every respect except that it has a rich coat of fur completely covering its body in longitudinal lowstripes, brown and grayish yellow, much on the order of a chipmunk. The stripes run from snout to tail.

"I nominate it for a yeading place in the book," Wielandy said. "For I doubt if there will be ever another freak just like this. In life it would weigh about two pounds. It has the head, jaws and snout of a trout. I frankly admit I can't explain it."

Wielandy suggested that inbreeding had produced a reversion to some long extinct type of fish. The pond in which the fish was taken was a small one. It was stocked by Wielandy. The fish was caught on an ordinary line with a young mouse as bait.

Bound for success is the youngster who, at the six-week report card time, can come home with a "B" in his bonnet.

Dakota Fossil Is Found of 15-Ton Ancient Sea Lizard

CAVALIER, N. D.—The fossil of a prehistoric sea lizard, a marine reptile believed to have lived more than 200,000,000 years ago, has been unearthed in the Pembina mountains west of here.

The discovery was made by G. Austin Schroter, Los Angeles geologist, and a crew in his employ.

The giant lizard was found buried in a fine silt, 75 feet beneath the surface of what Schroter believes was once a tidal lagoon. Fossilized ferns and rushes found with the skeleton indicate that the climate then was tropical and moist in that section of the United States now classified as sub-Arctic.

The rock formation in which the skeleton was imbedded is known as the Pierre division of the cretaceous.

The Pierre sea, in which the lizard (technically known as Mosasaurus) lived at one time, covered much of central North America, Schroter said. It included large areas of the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Oklahoma, Texas and the prairie provinces of Canada. Similar specimens have been found in several sections of that area.

The sea lizards such as the one unearthed here, are believed to have weighed 15 tons. Their brain, by contrast, weighed three ounces.

The time of departure will be at 11:30 a. m., and arrival at Sweetwater will be at 2:30 p. m. The return trip will begin at 1:35 a. m. and the arrival at Eastland will be 4:30 a. m.

Anyone from Eastland going to Sweetwater will participate in the plan, it was stated.

Better Season Is Seen for Christmas

DALLAS.—Encouraged by increases in both payrolls and agricultural income, Texas wholesale and retail merchants are preparing for one of the best Christmas seasons in several years. The Christmas sales volumes are expected to increase from 10 to 25 per cent over last year.

A late cotton picking season in most parts of the state will put cash in farmers' hands, much of which is expected to find its way to Christmas business channels.

Dallas retail merchants are anticipating a December business that will gross between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000. The Department of Commerce office in Dallas reported a total 1936 retail business for the city amounting to $150,000,000. Approximately 10 per cent of the 1936 total was from December sales, and half of the business in December was holiday sales, merchants reported.

The farm income for the Dallas area is up about 15 per cent above last year. Other areas of the state have reported a larger increase in agricultural profits. Full employment figures show 6.4 per cent more people working in the Dallas area than at this time last year, and a 3.3 per cent increase in the payroll for that area.

So far, retail business in Dallas has been about 8.1 per cent better than last year, about par with enlarged business volume reported in other portions of the state. Christmas sales will push the business income well over the post-depression peak reached last year.

Snake Is Killed By Own Appetite

CLARENDON, Texas.—Rancher Bob Oliver caught the snake that had been robbing his guinea's nest, but not exactly as he planned.

From time to time, the guinea's eggs disappeared, so Oliver "loaded" ten eggs with poison— injected through a tiny hole at one end—and replaced them in the nest. Next day, Oliver found three eggs there and a short distance away was a dead six-foot snake, with seven unbroken eggs inside.

Oliver said that the snake died of gorging—not poisoning.
