1966 Cotton Referendum Set For Next Tuesday

On Tuesday, November 23, 1965, the 1966 Cotton Marketing Quota Referendum will be held in all cotton producing counties in the United States. The results of the referendum will affect all persons whose income depends on the production of cotton, Lynn L. McKown, Office Manager of the Hall County ASCS, announced today.

The new cotton program, with direct payments to cotton producers, must be approved by two-thirds of all producers voting in the referendum before it can be placed into operation. If more than one-third of growers disapprove quotas, the only cotton program will be price support at 50 percent of parity for growers who do not exceed their acreage allotments.

In the same referendum cotton growers in each cotton county will have an opportunity to vote on whether they want to permit local cotton acreage allotments to be sold, leased or transferred out of the county. Unless two-thirds or more of the growers in a county favor sale or lease out-of-county, such transfers may be made only within the county.

The local elected community committeemen will conduct the 1966 Cotton Referendum in their communities. This referendum is of vital interest to all cotton producers and the committees will appreciate your usual fine cooperation in voting in the referendum.

County Has Harvested About 8,000 Bales

The harvest of the 1965 cotton crop, although late by most standards, is still ahead of harvesting of the 1964 crop, which was hampered by fall rains.

According to a telephone survey of the 14 Hall County ginning points this morning, 7,904 bales have been harvested. This compares with 4,789 bales on Nov. 19, 1964. Also, last year's harvest report stated that the first killing frost occurred on Nov. 18, in Hall County.

Most farmers in this area are awaiting a killing frost before major harvesting gets underway. When the area will receive a hard freeze has been the chief topic of conversation.

By examining ginning figures, it appears the Estelline and the Memphis areas are doing more early harvesting than the other parts of the county.

K. E. Voelkel, officer in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, stated this morning that receipts are picking up. "We received about 2,000 samples this morning," he said.

Two more classers arrived for work at the Memphis office this morning. They are Buck Waggoner of Oklahoma City and Frank Ortiz of Harlingen, Tex. This is Mr. Ortiz's third season at Memphis.

The office now has four classers, two laborers and seven clerks. "We have classed about 19,000 samples so far this season as compared with about 20,000 on the same date last year," Voelkel announced.

Following is last week's report on the percentage breakdown of the grade, staple, micronaire and Preadley results:

Grades of cotton classed changed very little from the week before. White grades made up 15 per cent of the classing, with 6 per cent Middling and six per cent Low Middling. Light Spotted grades showed 58 per cent in this color group with 24 per cent Middling Light Spotted and 29 per cent Strict Low Middling Light Spotted. Cotton classed in the Spotted category represented 27 per cent of the classing, with 19 per cent Middling Spotted.

Staple lengths improved considerably last week, with 13 per cent stapling 29-32 inch and shorter compared with 39 per cent the prior week. Other lengths were distributed as follows: 15-16 inch, 53 per cent compared with 45 per cent; 31-32 inch, 25 per cent compared with 10 per cent; and 1 inch and longer, 9 per cent last week and 6 per cent the previous week.

The staple improvement may be attributed to the harvesting of better cotton. The week earlier, much of the cotton classed was harvested from fields that were "burned" or "hot spots," due to

Estelline Slates Clean-Up Day For Friday, Nov. 19

Announcement was made early this week that Clean-Up Day in Estelline will be Friday, Nov. 19th, according to Mayor Tom Collins.

An appeal is being made to everyone in the Estelline area to join in the drive, the prime purpose of which is to have the town in top shape when ex-students begin to arrive for the annual Homecoming. Date of Homecoming is Saturday, Nov. 27.

"Everyone is invited to join in the clean-up," Mayor Collins said. "Bring rakes, hoes, shredders—anything you have—and join in the effort to get rid of weeds and rubbish in our town. We want to have everything in top shape for our Homecoming, and will work around the school buildings, churches, and clean off vacant lots and the edges of streets, and improve the appearances wherever something unsightly is found."

Full cooperation has been requested by leaders of the Estelline community, according to Mayor Collins.

Estelline Bears Capture Dist. 5-B Championship

The Estelline Bears, under Coach Jimmie Don Adams, and Assistant Coach Bob Askey, made a clean sweep of District 5-B with a 74 to 14 victory over the Morse Mustangs before a capacity crowd at Bear Stadium last Friday night.

The Estelline squad of 17 boys really put on a show for the fans. The Bears were ready, even to the point of lining up for the kickoff before the Mustangs came back on the field after last minute instructions.

The Bears went into action the first time they got their hands on the ball. From about midfield, they ran an up-the-middle drive play and made good yardage. Then, on the next play, a counter attack on the weak side of the Bears' unbalanced line broke David Longbine free and the 155-pound senior raced about 35 yards to score. The try for extra point was no good.

The Morse Mustangs came back determined, and a 40-yard pass from Alva Henderson to Bob Womble scored the Mustang's only counter against the Estelline starting defense.

The Bears lined up for the kickoff, and David Longbine took the ball. After bobbling the catch, the speedster turned it on and raced about 65 yards for the second touchdown. A pass from Jodie Rapp to Jerry Cosper was good for the conversion, making the score 14 to 6.

A 40-yard pass was Estelline's third score. QB Rapp passed to Back Melvin Long for the score. David Longbine converted for two points, and the scoreboard read 22 to 6 at the end of the first quarter.

This was the way the game went for another two quarters. Rapp scored from the 20-yard line; Longbine scored from the 15 and Rapp went over from the 5-yard line.

With 10 seconds left on the clock before the half ended, and Estelline in possession, a 65-yard pass play from Rapp to End Jerry Cosper gave Estelline a half-time lead of 48 to 6.

After the half, with victory almost assured, the Bears began making extensive substitutions. Sophomore Quarterback Bob Wood returned the opening kick-

Turkey-Matador Game
The Turkey Turks, after being outscored by the Rochester Steers last Friday night, 20-8, will be favored over the Matador Matadors Friday night. This may be the game the Turks get revenge for many past defeats at the hands of the Matadors.

Matador has been defeated by both Rule and Rochester. The Turks stand an outside chance of getting a part of the district championship if they are victorious over Matador. If Rule, a team Turkey defeated, can beat Rochester, the only undefeated squad in the district, a tie might result.

This would throw the district in a three-way tie. Normally, in this event, a vote to represent the district would be decided by tossing a coin.

Rochester, however, being undefeated, is favored to make a clean sweep of the district.

At Vardy Field, however, the Turkey-Matador game will be a fine contest as the two schools have quite a rivalry and a tough football game is in the making.

Is A Boom In Rural America Coming?

For the past decade, those organizations which forecast future trends in the United States have predicted that the trend of the population in our country is from the rural areas into the heavily populated centers.

They went on to predict that population in the rural areas of this nation would dwindle until there would be only a few die-hards left on big farms and ranches. They predicted that all small towns (below 10,000) would dry up unless they were supported by some key resource such as oil or were near major recreation attraction.

This report was so widely circulated among the population of this nation that many consider it to be a fact instead of a prediction.

But recently one of those organizations which does forecasting, the Kiplinger news letter, came out with some good news for rural America.

The Kiplinger news letter, a widely circulated subscription letter made famous by forecasting the stock market and political trends, predicts a boom that is coming to agriculture in the early 1970's, to both farming and non-farming segments of the rural economy.

He says it will be the biggest rural boom the country has ever known, and with a tremendous opportunity. Reason for this boom is the population explosion, the multiplying of more mouths to feed and a reducing amount of land with which to feed them.

Kiplinger says that there will be a $10 billion increase in sales of farm products, an increase that will be shared by fewer farmers because the trend toward larger farms will continue.

He also says that in the 1970's the trend toward stuffing the cities with people will begin to reach the saturation point and people will begin to move to the smaller towns, following industry that will relocate away from cities and the problems that go with overcrowded urban areas.

Billions of dollars will go rural from the coming recreation surge, redevelopment of small towns, more factories and more government programs.

This is encouraging news and may mean the salvation of the small town. If we can only hold out a few more years we may be around to see the change.

Use ZIP Code When Addressing Mail!

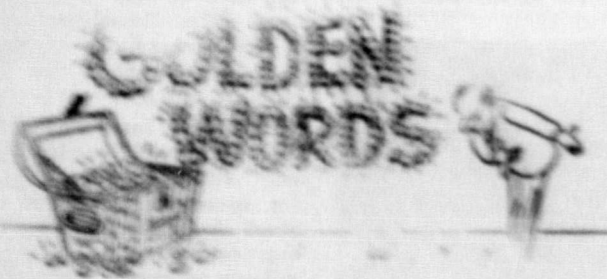

This newspaper, along with the vast majority in this nation, has supported the Post Office Department in its efforts to modernize and mechanize its operations in order to better serve its customers, of which the newspapers are an important segment. The need for getting faster delivery of mail has been with us from the day this nation was settled by our forefathers.

Since its inception, the ZIP Code System has demonstrated the potentialities of being the only feasible method of accomplishing this objective in the face of ever-increasing mail volume. Mail is gradually being carried by trucks to central points in order to cut down delay. From the overall standpoint, it has proven to be successful. The only complaint which are heard are those pertaining to mail addressed to near-by towns and cities. It is hoped this will be corrected in some manner in the future.

In regard to delay in mail delivery, many examples have been recorded where not-distant recipients are still complaining. In some cases, mail is being delivered thousands of miles in a faster manner than that which is addressed to some post office located 25 to 50 miles away.

But from the standpoint of the overall aim, be sure to list the ZIP Code number of the town and city when you address your letters or packages. It means that personnel of the Post Office Department can look only at the ZIP number, and the machines can scan them—which means faster delivery.

As has been pointed out, take the time to list the ZIP Code. Make your own list of codes to addresses which are most frequently used, and refer to them regularly.

This is the season of Thanksgiving, when traditionally we pause to give thanks for the blessings and for the good things that are a part of our way of life.

Golden words, indeed, are these two: "Thank You." We should use them more often, all of us.

At this season, in addition to being thankful for the things which enrich our personal lives, we don't think it too unkind to suggest we might consider a few other things worthy of a bit of appreciation.

Our towns. The good folks who live and work in the community. The merchants and tradesmen who provide goods and services as we need them. The folks who contribute in various ways to the good of the community.

To all who make our community a fine place in which to work and to live, we say, "Thank You."

End Justice Means:

"One concept which is wholly inconsistent with democratic processes is the totalitarian idea that the end justifies the means," declared J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, in the November edition of the FBI law enforcement bulletin.

Mr. Hoover heads probably the most highly regarded bureau in our government, and in his own right he is a world authority on crime as well as a distinguished American of unquestioned patriotism.

So his further words on the subject of civil disobedience carry extreme weight, especially during this crucial era of adjustment. The November bulletin continues:

"In a free society sustained by respect for procedural as well as substantive rights, the 'end,' however noble, can never excuse unlawful 'means.'"

"A current move in this country advocating means has been labeled civil disobedience. This doctrine is based on the startling theory that if one does not agree with a law and believes it to be morally unjust, he may disregard it to achieve a particular objective.

"No matter what the goal, the fact remains that a peaceful, healthy, orderly society cannot exist, now or ever, if each individual may determine which laws he is going to obey, and which he is not.

"To my mind, there are two frightening aspects to civil disobedience. One, sewing contempt for law and order and promoting pride in lawbreaking among the nation's youth can only result in an acceleration of our serious crime problem.

"Secondly, where is the line to be drawn against the snowball effect of civil disobedience? Willfully disobeying misdemeanor statutes today and committing felonies tomorrow is a logical regression from a government of law to an anarchic society.

"There is no question but that the right to dissent and the right of petition are pillars of governances are absolutely essential to the security of a free people. But the very life of liberty requires that these rights be asserted in lawful manner. Civil disobedience and the unwillingness of many to resolve their differences by establishing legal means will surely lead to the destruction of the institutions which protect their freedoms.

"It is folly to hold that a utopia of individual rights will rise from the destruction of respect for law."—Liberty Vindicator.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to take this means of expressing my sincere thanks to Dr. Clark and the nursing staff at Hall County Hospital for their care and many kindnesses during my three-week stay in the hospital. I also want to express my appreciation to my friends and neighbors and to the church members for the food sent to my family; prayers for me; and cards and flowers sent during my nine week illness. The visits meant so much to my family. I especially want to thank Bro. Gene Jorgenson and Bro. Peterson for their visits and prayers they had with me. May God bless each of you.
Mrs. L. O. Dennis and family!

Local Residents Visit Nephew And Wife In Houston

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Neely and Mrs. Lillie Davis returned Friday from Houston where they had spent the week visiting a nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Neely of Santiago, Chile, South America. Mrs. Johnie Neely was flown to the Methodist Hospital in Houston for major surgery. This visit marks the first meeting for the families. Johnie Neely is the son of John Neely, who went to South America in 1921. He married there and had three sons whom his relatives in the states have never seen before. John Neely was an early-day cowboy and worked on many ranches in and around Hall County. He is employed by the Swift Cattle Company in Chile.

The exclamation point is gradually going out of use. People are not surprised at anything any more.

Rural Carriers Are Helping In Livestock Count

Rural Mail carriers from the Memphis Post Office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 20.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster Gene Lindsey explained.

Rural carriers distribute the cards at random in boxes along their routes.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Mr. Lindsey said.

"For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are: T. O. Pounds, Route 1; and Irvin Johnsey, Route 2.

Chorus girls know the right answer to waist motion.

How to make a holiday last all year long

"How often do you call Long Distance to friends or members of the family?"

"Well, I expect to make some calls on Thanksgiving and maybe on Christmas."

"Why wait for a holiday or special occasion to call — that's the old fashioned way!"

"How come? Is the phone company having a sale just now?"

"No, not that. New low-cost long distance rates are now in effect all day Sunday and every night after eight — so now for a dollar or less, you can keep in touch more often."

"Say! That's a good idea! Tonight I'll make some important calls I've been putting off."

"Fine! Thanks to new low rates you can call anywhere in continental U. S. station-to-station and talk three minutes for $1.00 or less. This is the big communications bargain — the modern way to keep in touch at all times."

1913 Study Club Holds Treasure Tea Saturday

The Treasure Tea, a social courtesy extended to the friends of the 1913 Study Club given at the Community Center last Saturday afternoon, was enjoyed by a large number of guests. The "treasures" viewed and appreciated by those attending included rare books, fine linens, cut glass, quilts, hand-painted china, hand-made table cloths, imported shawls and other relics from foreign lands.

The tea table was resplendent with a harvest-time centerpiece of fruits spilled from a cornucopia, a hand wrought brass pot of spiced tea and accompanying goodies of ribbon sandwiches and miniature pumpkins. The guests sipped tea and visited until called to attention by Mrs. R. E. Roark, vice president of the 1913 Study Club, acting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Mac Tarver.

Special appreciation was expressed to Mrs. Gayle Yancey, president of the Woman's Forum, for the splendid cooperation of all the clubs in defraying the indebtedness of two years' standing, for additional improvements in the building plan of the Community Center. Mrs. Yancey, in turn, thanked the various clubs for their participation in this project, enumerated the several money-raising schemes devised to accumulate the necessary funds, and introduced a good Witch in the person of Virginia Browder who proceeded to build a fire, snip and burn the bank and building notes. Hereafter, the women's clubs will no longer be bothered or bewildered by such hoaxboos, thanks to the Witch and her magic flame, it was stated.

When that extra-lively minnow on your hook keeps on diving deep into vegetation where fish can't find it, try this. Attach a small cork just above the shank of the hook. Cork should be small enough that the fish can carry it down. But it should be large enough to prevent the minnow from getting too deep.

Mike Pounds Is Leading Scorer As Cyclone Finishes Season With 6-0-4

The Memphis Cyclone, under the coaching staff of Charley Chambliss and Bert Glascock, finished the 1965 season with a six win, four loss record, and ended up in a third place tie with Clarendon in District 2-A competition.

"We won more games than we lost this season which is the first time since we began coaching here our team has done it," Coach Charley Chambliss said Monday.

"I want to say that the coaches are real proud of our boys this season. They have worked hard and played some fine football against bigger and more experienced ball clubs," Coach Chambliss said.

"Our team was limited by two handicaps which we couldn't overcome," Chambliss said. "We were smaller than any team we played and most of our boys were inexperienced in varsity football."

Despite these major handicaps, the Cyclone squad scored 198 points to their opponents' 142 points during the 10-game season.

Cyclone backs made 1,592 yards on the ground and the team's passing game made 1,006 yards in the air. The team scored 130 points on the ground and 69 points in the air.

The leading scorer was FB Mike Pounds, who made 38 points while carrying the ball 96 times for a total of 465 yards and keeping a per carry average of 4.9 yards.

Gilbert Devorce ran Pounds a close second in the scoring department with a total of 34 points. Devorce was the leading ground gainer and had the best per carry average. He carried 82 times for a total of 570 yards for a 6.9-yard per carry average.

The passing combination of QB Tony Pounds to End Clyde Wilson added 24 points to the scoreboard. The sophomore quarterback threw 10 touchdown passes this season by completing 48 passes.

End Clyde Wilson also caught a TD pass from QB Jerry Moss. Moss also had a two-point conversion pass thrown to End Junior Graves.

Receivers catching TD passes from QB Pounds were Tackle Larry Gaston, End Junior Graves, End Dwayne Jones (two TDs), WB William McFalls and HB Mike Nabers.

Other scorers were: Kenneth Carnish 8 pts., Willie Devorce 8 points, Tony Pounds 18 points, Mike Nabers 6 pts., William McFall 12 points, Mike Limer 2 pts., Jerry Moss 2 pts., and Place Kicker Kay Miller 2 pts.

The Cyclone team completed 57 passes, threw 68 incomplete passes and seven interceptions during the season.

The season statistics show that WB William McFall was the team's third leading ground gainer with 300 yards on 54 carries for a per carry average of 5.6 yards. Fred Durham was next in line with 61 yards in 17 carries for a 3.6 average, while Mike Limer carried nine times for 40 yards for a 4.5 average.

Cyclone punters Bobby Carroll and Mike Pounds (with Pounds doing the punting in nine ball games) punted the ball 40 times for a season average of 36 yards each punt.

End Clyde Wilson was the leading receiver with 24 caught passes, followed by Junior Graves with 10, William McFall with 9 and End Dwayne Jones with 5.

Social Security Geldon's Advice

Widows may now qualify at age 60, instead of age 62, for monthly social security benefits based on the earnings of the deceased husband, according to Hal Geldon, District Manager of the Amarillo social security office.

The amount of the benefit is reduced if the widow is under 62 when benefits start, and the reduction continues after age 62. On the average, however, the widow begins her benefits before 62 receives about the same total amount over the years, but in smaller payments made over a longer period of time, Geldon explained.

Widow's benefits are based on a percentage of the retirement benefit is 82 1/2 percent at age 62, and 71 1/2 percent at age 60.

The widow must make her own decision as to whether or not she wants to begin her benefits before age 62. Geldon added, however, that social security representatives will be glad to give detailed information so the claimant may make an informed decision.

The social security office in Amarillo is located at 1006 Adams.

Penlight Useful

Handy around camp—and a big help to the fisherman too—is a small penlight. Hang it on a cord around your neck. Then you always have a light, but you don't lose a hand holding it. Real handy when it comes to typing on hooks, swivels, lures, etc., at night. In such cases fishermen often place the penlight in the mouth so the rays go directly when they are looking.

The U. S. Coast Guard's first cutter, the "Massachusetts," was launched in 1791.

Girls' physical education instructor, Miss Jeannie Nesbitt, is helping with the girls basketball team as a trainer while the team is coached by Milton Miller.

About the coming season, Coach Miller stated, "I am real pleased with the attitude of all our boys and girls. They are willing to work and work hard."

About the boys team, Miller said, "two boys are injured and several others have missed workouts due to sickness, but I am pleased so far."

Junior Graves and William McFall are unable to work out due to injuries.

Possible regulars this season are: Jerry Moss, Bobby Carroll, Clyde Wilson, Kenneth Carnish, Dwayne Jones, Mike Pounds, Larry Gaston, Tony Pounds, Roger Hargrove, Junior Graves and William McFall.

About the girls team, Coach Miller said, "I want our fans to understand that most of the girls have never played basketball before and they will be playing against teams with several years' experience."

The coach named the following girls as possible members of the regular squad: Cynthia Evans, Carolyn Lamb, Vee Latimer, Betty Matthews, Sandy McQueen, Sandy Saye, Shirley Thurman, Bonnie Vick, Janie Watson, Tommie Wilson, Delores Washington, and Connie Bradshaw. Cynthia Davis and Paula Richardson are also candidates.

Tuesday night, the three local squads will host teams from Claude at Cyclone Gymnasium.

The Bears finished their season schedule with a 7-win, 2-loss record. They defeated Harrold, lost to Cotton Center and Oklaunion, defeated Childress B (11-man), and Three Way.

Rotary District

today numbers more than 12,000 clubs with a combined membership of 568,800 business and professional men. Spread throughout 127 countries in all parts of the world, Rotary clubs meet every day of the week and conduct activities to improve their communities, aid youth, elevate business standards, and further international friendship and understanding.

The district governor also conferred with Bob Fowler, local Rotary Club president, and Ben Parks club secretary, on matters of club administration and plans for future service activities.

Referring to the program of C. P. H. Teenstra of The Netherlands, president of Rotary International for 1965-66, the Rotary governor said, "Rotary clubs over the world have been urged by President Teenstra to translate plans into action for the global advancement of the program of Rotary. He has also continued for its third year a program linking Rotary districts in different parts of the world as a means of encouraging Rotary clubs and individual Rotarians to understand one another better by working together or mutually helpful projects."

During his visit the Rotary official was given additional information on some of the local Rotary Club's activities, at a special meeting Monday night.
