Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

James C. Watson, Oil Editor

No. 1 Parramore Shows Oil And Gas Cut Mud

Ray A. Albaugh and Progress Petroleum Company No. 1 Mrs. Nellie Cannon Parramore, slated Ellenburger wildcat in Northwest Sterling County, 17 miles northwest of Sterling City, logged some signs of oil saturation in a tan lime section at 7,024-39 feet, in a horizon which is probably in the Pennsylvanian.

A two-hour drillstem test was taken at 7,020-39 feet. Some gas showed at the surface for about 30 minutes of the period. It was not gauged or estimated.

Recovery was 10 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud. There was no free oil, or water.

The prospector is making more hole. It is located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 203, block 29, W&NW survey.

Superior To Drill Deep Wildcat In SE Reagan

Superior Oil Company has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting a permit to start operations in the near future on a 10,000-foot wildcat to explore into the Ellenburger, in Southeast Reagan County about two miles southwest of the town of Big Lake.

The venture will be 660 feet from north and east lines of section 20, block 11, University survey. It is to be in the northwest part of the large dry lake from which the town of Big Lake derives its name.

This prospector is seven miles west and slightly north of the Barnhart-Ellenburger field. It is on a block of 2,607.5 acres of University of Texas lands, for which Superior paid a record price, of $1,750,000 cash bonus, for an oil and gas lease at the June 18 auction sale of University properties.

Magnolia No. 1-A TXL Cores; Is Taking DST

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, scheduled 12,500-foot exploration in North-Central Upton County, to test into the Ellenburger, cored at 9,926-46 feet.

Recovery was 20 feet of dark, brown dense limestone, which may be from the Pennslyvanian.

No shows of oil or gas were apparent. Operator is now taking a drillstem test to the total depth at 9,946 feet.

The venture is 30 miles south of Midland, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S.

Central Midland Project Gets Only Mud On Test

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1-E Wilson Bryant, Central Midland County prospector, ran a drillstem test for two hours at 12,767-897 feet in Simpson sand and lime.

Recovery was 40 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water reported.

The project is making new hole under 12,943 feet in the same formation. It is 14 miles south of Midland, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 36, block 39, TP survey, T-3-S.

Wilshire 1 McElroy Sets Casing; Will Test Soon

Wilshire Oil Company No. 1 McElroy, West-Central Upton County wildcat, five miles east of the shallow McElroy field, and 660 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 148, block E, CCSD&RGNG survey, set a string of 5 1/2-inch casing at 10,810 feet, with 850 sacks of cement.

Operator will drill cement out of the pipe and start perforating and testing around the end of the week.

The casing is set in the lower zone of the Pennsylvanian. One section in that formation and two up in the lower Permian showed some indications of oil and gas when drilled through.

Each of those intervals will be tested.

This development bottomed at 13,977 feet in the Ellenburger. That formation was topped at 13,860 feet. It showed salt water and no signs of oil or gas.

A. C. Bulnes To Speak At Dinner Of AAODC

Interesting developments in atomic physics will be discussed by A. C. Bulnes of Shell Oil Company, Inc., at the bi-monthly meeting of the Permian Basin chapter of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors at 7:30 p. m. September 13, at a dinner in the

Georgia Democrats Pick Herman Talmadge

ATLANTA, GA. —(AP)— Georgia Democrats dusted off the governor's chair Thursday for Herman Talmadge, who occupied it 67 hectic days last year.

The 35-year-old son of the late red-gallused Gov. Eugene Talmadge held a widening vote margin over M. E. Thompson, his 1947 successor, in Wednesday's primary election.

Talmadge's claim that "victory is ours" went unchallenged by Thompson, now the acting governor. With the returns showing a three-to-one margin against him, Thompson said, "Apparently Herman Talmadge has won."

Young Talmadge had campaigned under his father's banner of "white supremacy" and there were scattered reports of efforts to hold down the negro vote in the primary, which is equivalent to election in Georgia.

Storm Hits Cleburne Area As Rains Break Texas Hot Spell

By The Associated Press

Texas got relief from both heat and drought Thursday but with it came storms in North Texas which caused considerable damage.

Several thousands dollars of damage was caused in Cleburne and the Johnson County farming area south of Cleburne by a rain and windstorm Wednesday night.

Between 600 and 700 telephones were out of order in the city of Cleburne. District Manager Vernon Moore said service had not been restored Thursday although repairmen worked all night.

Most of the telephones were out because of wet cables but some lines were knocked down by falling trees. Cleburne had 4.57 inches of rain, one of the heaviest rainfalls of those which covered the entire state.

Boathouse Blown Away

A barn at Bono, six miles west of Cleburne, was destroyed when it was struck by lightning. At another farm west of Cleburne a barn was de-roofed by wind and a chicken house was picked up and blown into a garden.

Extensive damage was reported at the Cleburne State Park where the boathouse, in which 20 to 25 boats were tied, blew away. Efforts were being made Thursday to prevent the boats from washing over the dam.

The Texas Power and Light Company reported that between 20 and 25 transformers were knocked out by lightning in Cleburne and surrounding small towns. Service was not interrupted, however. Johnson County Electric Cooperative crews worked all night to restore REA service to isolated sections knocked out by the storm. Lightning also struck two homes between Alvarado and Cleburne but damage was small.

The temperature dropped to a chill 48 at Amarillo in the Texas Panhandle early Thursday as cool weather rains moved across the state.

Heavy Rainfall

The heaviest rain reported was an unofficial six inches at Sterley, 17 miles northwest of Floydada in the Panhandle. Borger reported an official 4.32 inches for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m., and Brownwood had 3.65 inches.

Baseball games were rained out at San Antonio, Longview, Kilgore and Odessa, and at Amarillo the Lubbock-Amarillo game was postponed by cold weather—the temperature dropped to 55.

A cold air mass moving in from the Rockies was given as the reason for the dropping temperatures. The cold air hitting the hot air hovering over sun-baked Texas produced the thunderstorms and rains.

It still was raining Thursday morning at Abilene, Austin, Del Rio, Houston, Waco, Victoria and San Antonio. In general, the weather picture will remain the same through Friday with some temperature rise, particularly in the Panhandle.

Vote Probe Decision Due After Sept. 13

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Justice Department won't decide until after September 13 whether it will investigate the recent Texas senatorial race.

This was announced Thursday by Assistant Attorney General Alexander Campbell. He had said earlier that the department is "reviewing" complaints from Texas which inferred irregularities in the August 28 balloting.

WAR CRIMES SUSPECT COMMITS SUICIDE

YOKOHAMA — (AP) — Masaru Orita, an untried war crimes suspect, committed suicide in prison Thursday by slashing his jugular vein before a guard could reach him.

The U. S. Eighth Army declined to say what nation had requested Orita's trial on war crimes.

Cool Rains Bring Wool-Shirt Weather To Permian Basin

Rain—a little of it in some parts, floods of it in others, and .34 inches of it in Midland — brought wool-shirt weather to the Permian Basin Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning.

A mild drizzle, beginning early Wednesday afternoon, cooled Midland and Odessa, causing postponement of a playoff baseball tilt in the Ector County capital. Moisture between Midland and Rankin, however, reached downpour proportions that started old settlers trying to remember when they'd seen anything like it.

From the Victor Tippett ranch 35 miles south of Midland, Buddy Calcote, son of the ranch manager, reported 3 1/2 inches of rain fell between 2 and 3:15 p. m. Wednesday. Accompanying this deluge were high winds and a 10-minute hailstorm, Calcote said. The Midland-Rankin highway was covered with knee-deep water in some places, travelers reported.

To the north and west of Midland, only showers were reported. The Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company office here received the following rain information from up and down their lines:

Jal, N. M., showers Wednesday afternoon, continuing intermittently Thursday morning; Mabee Camp, showers; Wink, showers; Crane, 3 inches; Iraan, showers; Ozona, 1/4 inch; Sonora, 4 inches Wednesday night; Junction, 3 inches; Abell, 2 to 3 inches; McCamey, good shower; Rankin, heavy rain.

Strike-Idled Total Rises To 115,000

By The Associated Press

A strike involving only 170 independent union workers made idle some 50,000 auto workers in Detroit Thursday and threatened to force others from their jobs in the motor industry.

The 50,000 laid off in auto plants boosted to more than 115,000 the number of workers made idle in the nation's major strikes. Some 64,000 workers are involved in strikes in the West Coast oil and shipping industries and in the New York-Northern New Jersey trucking business.

A walkout of 170 plant guards at the Briggs Manufacturing Company in Detroit was followed by a shutdown of eight plants and a layoff of 25,000 workers. The plants closed after CIO United Auto Workers refused to cross picket lines.

Complete Shutdown Looms

About 19,000 employes at Chrysler Corporation and 6,000 at Packard were laid off because of a shortage of Briggs bodies and a complete shutdown of the plants was likely if the strike continues.

There was no indications of an early settlement in the trucking strike involving some 15,000 workers or in the work stoppage by 28,000 CIO Longshoremen.

In the West Coast refinery strike, however, there was a cautious note of optimism after negotiation sessions with one of the six major struck companies and the CIO Oil Workers Union.

Meanwhile, programs were mapped for rationing gasoline in the West. There are 15,000 CIO workers on strike in a wage dispute while 6,800 independent union workers have respected the CIO picket lines.

Russian Fighter Planes Maneuver In Berlin Area

BERLIN —(AP)— Russian fighter planes stunted and dived high above the American sector of Berlin Thursday, leaving vapor trails reminiscent of the war days. The Russians broke no regulations, but excited the German population in this jittery four-power city.

About 12 Russian Yak fighters roared over Berlin early in the day. Later there were two more groups, one of five planes and one of nine. They flew over the Zehlendorf district, an American residential section, stunting, diving and leaving vapor trails but remaining at altitudes of from 25,000 to 30,000 feet. This, an American spokesman said, was not a violation of four-power flight regulations, which apply only to flights of 10,000 feet or less.

Allied officers said nothing unusual, thus far, had occurred in the air lift corridors to interfere with the massive Allied program to supply the blockaded city.

Funeral Services Held For Victim Of Highway Crash

Funeral services for D. B. Snider, 68, Midland employe of the Texas Electric Service Company who died Wednesday morning from injuries received in a highway mishap East of the city Tuesday night, were to be held at 4 p. m. Thursday in the First Christian Church. Interment was to be in Fairview Cemetery.

The Texas Electric Service Company announced its offices would be closed at 3:30 p. m. for the funeral. Snider had worked for the company, or allied utility concerns for 32 years. He was a diesel engine expert and had resided here 19 years.

Two other men also were killed in the headon collision, which occurred about five miles East of the city on U. S. Highway 80 at 8 p. m. Tuesday. They were Homer Tucker, recently of Big Spring and originally from Red River County, and M. D. Lepard of Big Spring. Lepard's body was forwarded to Big Spring Wednesday. Tucker's body was to be forwarded to Clarksville Thursday.

Snider is survived by the widow, residing at 204 South A Street, Midland; three daughters, Mrs. E. H. Black, 1908 West Indiana Street, Midland, Mrs. Morris Beasley of Odessa, and Mrs. H. L. McCleary of Houston; a son, R. C. Snider of Shreveport, La.; seven grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Draft Registrations Total 915 Wednesday

Midland County draft board headquarters in the courthouse reported Thursday a total of 915 men in the county had registered up to closing time Wednesday afternoon. Registrations have averaged more than 100 per day since August 30.

Wednesday and Thursday were days for men born in 1926 to register. Registrations Wednesday totaled 115.

Questionnaires now are being mailed to non-veteran, non-father, single men born between the years 1922 and 1929, inclusive. Eighteen-year-olds will not receive questionnaires.

The draft schedule calls for men born in 1927 to register Friday and Saturday; those born in 1928 will register Monday and Tuesday; those born in 1929 will register Wednesday and Thursday, and those born in 1930 will register Friday and Saturday of next week.

Truman Will Speak In California Cities

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman said Thursday his two-week Western campaign tour will include San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The Democratic nominee starts the tour with a speech at Dexter, Iowa, September 18.

Truman told a news conference he plans also to speak in Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Glenwood Springs in Colorado, and at Salt Lake City.

A speech in San Diego, Calif., is under consideration.

Truman will leave Washington September 17 and return about October 1.

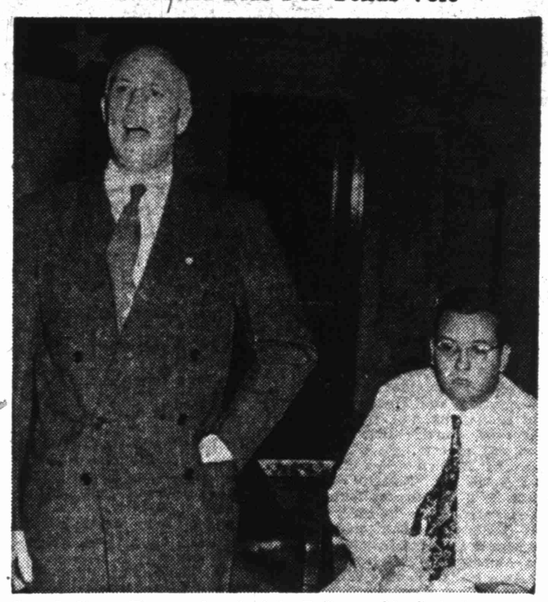
Thurmond Bids For Texas Vote



Gov. J. Strom Thurmond arrived in Dallas as his first stop on a four-day speaking tour of Texas. Here, he gives a short address to the Young States' Rights Democrats, an organization which has just been started in Dallas County. At right is Leonard Scruggs, state chairman of the young organization.

States' Righters Organize In Texas

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD

DALLAS—(AP)—Texans can carry their States' Rights yearnings to the polls in November.

The States' Rights Democrats, anti-Truman offshoot of the regular Democratic Party, made certain of this Wednesday. At a statewide convention here the Rebels formally took Texas into their Southern fold. Party machinery was perfected. Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina was named the presidential candidate and Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi was chosen his running mate.

Thurmond, here to accept the nomination, lambasted the proposed civil rights program and Presidential Candidates Truman, Dewey and Wallace in a rousing speech.

In other Southern states, the party is known as the States' Rights Democrats. On the general election ballot in Texas in November, however, it will be the States' Rights Party. In 1944 a Texas court decision held that only the Democratic Party was entitled to use the word Democratic on the ballot.

Thurmond Flays FEPC

The convention was alternately colorful and dull. About 300 persons perspired through the tedious afternoon business of forming the new party. Approximately 600 cheered Thurmond through his address Wednesday night.

Thurmond charged in his address that the Republicans, Democrats and Progressives borrowed their theories of government "from the cesspools of Eastern Europe."

He said the proposed Fair Employment Practice Commission,

Thurmond Speaks Here Thursday

Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, a candidate for president of the United States on the States' Rights Party ticket, was scheduled to arrive by plane at Midland Air Terminal Thursday afternoon.

A delegation of Midlanders, headed by Richard Brooks and Henry Nunn, was at the airport to meet the governor and his party to bring them to Hotel Scharbauer, where Governor Thurmond was to be the honor guest at an informal reception to which the public was invited. Nunn served overseas with the South Carolina governor during World War II.

A large crowd of West Texans was expected for the reception. Sponsors Thursday morning said plans are complete for the visit of the noted Southerner. Mrs. Thurmond, State Sen. Joe Hill of Austin and other party leaders are accompanying the presidential candidate on his swing through West Texas.

Accepts Nomination

Governor Thurmond Wednesday night in Dallas formally accepted nomination for president of the United States on the newly organized States' Rights Party ticket. Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi is the vice presidential candidate.

The South Carolina governor spoke in Big Spring Thursday noon, and will go from Midland to Lubbock for a Thursday night rally. He will visit Abilene and San Angelo Friday.

A recording of an address to be made here will be broadcast at 7:15 p. m. Thursday over KCRS, Midland, and KRIG, Odessa.

Major AFL Union Endorses Dewey

ALBANY, N. Y. —(AP)— Gov. Thomas E. Dewey Thursday won the endorsement of the executive board of a major AFL union in his campaign for the presidency.

The board of the Building Service Employes International Union, representing a claimed 175,000 members, pledged its support to the Republican nominee.

The step represented the first outright endorsement of Dewey by a major union.

Shooting Climaxes Protest Gathering Of Over 200,000

BERLIN —(AP)— Russians and Communist-controlled German police fired on Berlin anti-Communists late Thursday after the crowd stoned a jeepload of Russian soldiers just inside the Soviet sector.

Part of a crowd of 200,000 Germans who took part in a massive anti-Communist demonstration just inside the British sector surged toward the Soviet area as the mass meeting ended.

At the Brandenburg Gate, inside Soviet territory, the crowd attacked a jeep bearing five Russian soldiers, and stoned and beat its occupants.

British sector police attempted to keep the crowd from entering the Soviet zone, fearing incidents might provoke shooting.

At least one German anti-Communist was seen to have been hit by the fire of the Russian sector German police.

Associated Press photographers on the scene said they believed Russian Military Police who rushed up aimed their fire high in order to disperse the demonstrators.

The anti-Communist demonstration was held in front of the burned-out Reichstag Building. It lies on the British side of the Brandenburg Gate, which is at the dividing line of the British and Soviet sectors.

Calls Upon World

Ernst Reuter, elected mayor of Berlin who could not take office because of Soviet opposition, called upon the world to come to the aid of Berlin.

"People of America, England, France, Italy—Berlin must not be given up," he cried. "The day of victory, of freedom, will come when the world will recognize the German people as a free people, with the right to be heard."

Every time a speaker mentioned the Soviet commandant of Berlin the crowd booed.

"Pfui on Communism," shouted a speaker. "Back to Moscow with the Red dictatorship." The crowd applauded wildly when speakers from the predominantly anti-Communist City Assembly appeared. These speakers declared they would go back to the City Hall despite the Communists and the Russians. One shouted:

"Moscow Communism is a crime against the community. We will not bow to the Red dictatorship of Moscow."

Greatest Demonstration

The Soviet commandant earlier in the tense day rejected American and French protests against the arrest and kidnaping of 38 Western zone police from City Hall. The Russian, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, told the Americans to mind their own business.

The German throng, estimated by City Council President Otto Suhr at from 150,000 to 250,000, jammed Republic Square before ruins of the Reichstag Building and pro-

Volcano Spews Out Deadly Ash

MANILA —(AP)— An urgent radio appeal was broadcast late Thursday to all ships within call to remove the remaining 15,000 population from volcano-ravaged Camiguin Island as a shower of deadly acidic ash spewed from Mount Hibokhibok.

The volcano has been erupting since September 1, and 36,000 of the little island's population already had been removed.

Subsequently the eruption quieted, but a new, acute emergency developed Thursday.

The radio appeal was broadcast by Arturo Alcaraz, Philippines Weather Bureau volcanologist, from aboard a Philippines Navy patrol boat off the island.

The broadcast said:

"To all ships at sea: Acute emergency at Camiguin Island. All available boats needed for mass evacuation. Guinsiliban and Binone designated embarkation points. Binone top priority to ships.

"Rain of acidic ash, probably one of halogens, has occurred. Order being maintained."

The halogens are a family of chemicals such as chlorine, bromine and fluorine.

Alcaraz several days earlier had warned of the possibility of deadly gases from the volcano. The acidic ashes presumably would create such gases.

Fire Destroys Planes, Cars At Amarillo Field

AMARILLO —(AP)— Fire early Thursday destroyed a large hangar and its contents — including two twin-engine airplanes and 11 new automobiles—at Amarillo Field.

The loss was estimated unofficially at $250,000. Besides the two planes and the new cars, the loss included three used automobiles, a used truck, shop equipment and furniture.

All of the property belonged to the Bureau of Reclamation, Region No. 5, which has headquarters here.

Midland-Goldsmith Paving Completed

Paving of the segment of State Highway 158, from its intersection with State Highway 51 at the former Moonlight Bar location to Goldsmith, has been completed, State Highway Commissioner Fred A. Wemple said Thursday following a trip over the new road. The project was sponsored by the Ector County Commissioners Court.

The new paving connects Midland and Goldsmith with an all-weather road.

De Gaullists Ask Revisions In French Charter

PARIS —(AP)— De Gaullists demanded Thursday a revision of the French Constitution as their price for support of a cabinet Conservative Henri Queuille hopes to form.

The followers of Gen. Charles De Gaulle, the wartime Free French leader and first provisional president after the Germans were chased out, are Rightists. Paul Giacobbi, head of the De Gaullists in the National Assembly, said he insisted on elections next month to the Council of the Republic, the second French chamber.

He and other De Gaullists talked with Queuille Wednesday night. He gave no details of the exact changes De Gaullists want in the charter, but the general has said often the chief executive must have more power.

Queuille is trying to form the 14th French Cabinet since the war. Robert Schumann's government resigned Tuesday after 64 hours in office.

Socialist Opposition

Queuille immediately ran into Socialist opposition when he informed them of De Gaullist demands. He has said he cannot form a cabinet without Socialist support. He scheduled another meeting with Socialists later in the day and probably will tell President Vincent Auriol afterwards whether he thinks he can form a stable government, excluding Communists.

The French public, anxious to see a cabinet formed to replace that of Robert Schuman, was uncertain whether Queuille could succeed—and if he does—of how long it might last.

At an early morning news conference after consultations with party leaders, Queuille indicated he did not wish to form a government that might be unstable. He said one of his main interests in the consultations was to gain an accord on details of his program so there would be no difficulty in g[illegible] fore the assembly.

Army Recruit Faces Murder Charge In 'Jap Noose' Slaying

ALBANY, N. Y.—(AP)—A 21-year-old Army recruit faced arraignment Thursday on a charge of first degree murder in the "Japanese noose" slaying of a New York State Commerce Department employe.

The soldier, Howard Smith of Gloversville, N. Y., was brought here Wednesday night following his arrest at Fort Dix, N. J.

The arrest climaxed a four-day investigation into the bizarre death of Theodore F. Allen, 51, recently employed in the Radio Publicity Bureau of the State Commerce Department and a former National Broadcasting Company employe.

District Attorney Julian B. Erway quoted Smith as saying Allen had made "improper advances" in a hotel room early Saturday morning.

Allen's nude body was found early Sunday in his hotel room here. A twisted bedsheet had been looped around his neck and tied behind him to his hands and ankles in what police called a "Japanese noose." It was so contrived, police said, that any movement by the victim tightened the noose.

The district attorney said Smith admitted trussing Allen with the sheet, stuffing a gag in his mouth and robbing him.

Italian Colony Talks May Be Started Friday

PARIS —(AP)— Russia proposed Thursday that the Big Four foreign ministers meet here Friday to discuss the future of former Italian colonies.

The United States, Britain and France have accepted the call for the meeting, and French officials said it actually may start Friday. The exact starting time has not been set, however.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov both could reach Paris by air in time. Secretary of State Marshall could hardly get here in time, but he might deputize Ambassador Jefferson Caffery or Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas of London to act until he arrives.

Though France is without a government, Robert Schumann still is acting foreign minister and could sit for this country.

'Who Did It?' Is Question; Voters Must Figure Answer

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON —(AP)— "Who did it He did it."

That just about sums up what you're going to have to listen to in the presidential campaign from now on.

The Democrats — with President Truman doing the talking—and the Republicans—with Harold E. Stassen talking—began their campaigns this week.

They cut loose with four main ideas: living costs, labor, prosperity and housing.

As the campaign goes on, a few more may be added but those four will run through the campaign.

The high cost of living! Who did it?

The Republicans, Truman said.

The Democrats and world conditions generally, said Stassen.

The Taft-Hartley Labor Law! The Republicans controlled Congress when it passed in 1947, but a majority of Democrats joined with a majority of Republicans in passing it.

But is it a good law, or bad?

Terrible, Truman said.

He told labor the Taft-Hartley is only a "foretaste." Worse will come if the Republicans win, he said.

It's a good law, said Stassen, and he hammered away at the fact that a majority of Truman's own Democrats helped pass it.

He promised labor the Republicans, if they win, will be real friends of labor.

Will Prosperity Last?

Prosperity! We have it now, but will it last?

We'll have an "era of fear" if the Republicans win, said Truman. He took a dim view of continued prosperity if there is a Republican victory.

We'll keep prosperous if the Republicans win, said Stassen, and he indicated that Truman is gloomy anyway and is trying to scare people.

Housing! Why don't we have more housing?

Blame the Republicans, said Truman.

Both Democrats and Republicans are to blame, said Stassen. We certainly "must do something," he said.

All you, the voter, have to do is sit back, listen, and try to figure who's right: Democrats or Republicans? Some job!

Things like high living costs, prosperity and labor laws are so complicated that even experts have trouble figuring what's what.

Maybe a lot of voters already have their minds made up anyhow on the man they'll vote for. So they won't pay much attention to the arguments they read or hear on the radio.

They include the people who vote against a candidate because they don't like his eyeglasses or his mustache.

But the rest of the voters will just have to listen—if their minds are still open—and try to reach honest answers by themselves.

They have a tough job.

Get A Horse Boyle Urges

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The possibility that man soon will travel to work on jet-propelled buses is great news for all "Sfroths."

Are you a Sfroth? Sfroths are members of the "Society for the Return of the Horse"

It's an unofficial organization, but there are thousands of us, and more every year—people who believe man's greatest moral mistake was abandoning his age-old friend, the horse, for that treacherous ally, the machine.

The prospect of jet-propelled buses was announced the other day by Sidney H. Bingham of the New York City Board of Transportation, an expert on traffic problems.

It is therefore no idle dream. It sounds more like a nightmare.

The jet-propelled airplane of today travels across the sky with the noise of a rolling thunderbolt, without mufflers, a cluster of jet-propelled buses caught in a traffic jam would break every ear drum in a city.

The mere suggestion of jet-propelled buses is enough to instill new confidence in all "Sfroths" that the day we have long-awaited is growing nearer—the day the machine age collapses in a final cacophony of clashing gears. Then again we will hear the hoofbeats of the faithful horse, riding anew to the rescue of mankind.

Signs of Collapse

The signs of this collapse are all about us. Why do more and more people yearn for pensions and plot their lives so they can retire early? Because they can't stand the thought of riding to and from work in crowded, ear-shattering uncomfortable machines. Today only hunger and their wives' tongues drive many men from their quiet homes to risk life, limb and peace of mind on subway, bus or motor car.

It wasn't thus in the good old days. A man walked to his place of labor or rode behind a safe, friendly horse, and arrived fresh and eager of spirit. What does a man do with the time he now saves by using fast modern vehicles? He uses it to go to the doctor, who is treating him for an incipient nervous breakdown.

The wise Sfroth will buy now before the market turns. There were 18,054,000 horses and mules in the United States in 1890. Today there are only about 10,000,000.

Although Corot painted only 600 canvases, there are 6,000 reputed Corots in the United States alone.

Democrat Delegate Declines To Answer Inquiry By Calvert

HILLSBORO, TEXAS. —(AP)— R. W. (Bob) Calvert, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, said Thursday that William D. Morris is the first Texas elector to decline to say whether he will vote for the Truman-Barkley presidential ticket in November.

Calvert polled the 23 electors after States' Rights Democrats suggested that they were not obligated to vote for President Truman and Senator Alben Barkley, but could support the Thurmond-Wright States' Rights ticket if they wished.

The chairman said 15 electors have replied they will support Truman and Barkley.

"I am a delegate to the Fort Worth convention and expect to attend," Morris wrote Calvert. "If the convention desires to interrogate me as to how I will vote, I will be present and answer their questions."

Credit Has Two Features With Which You Should Comply

Credit has two outstanding features that every person who participates in this method of doing business should fully appreciate. One is the accommodation extended the buyer to pay each thirty days for his purchases and the other is the convenience of buying by telephone and the privilege of receiving the purchases without the necessity of paying cash upon delivery. However, both these features should be protected by the buyer to safeguard his credit standing. Prompt payment when the monthly statement is rendered keeps your credit rating above reproach, but failure to pay promptly hurts your own prestige as well as having a more or less damaging effect on all credit. Merchandise is sold by retailers on the basis of complete payment of the account by the tenth of the month following purchase. Prompt payment of your account makes and keeps friends.

BE CAREFUL OF YOUR CREDIT, SO DESIRABLE AN ASSET TO BUILD UP; SO EASILY BROKEN DOWN.

START This Month—Establish A Credit Rating and Say:
"CHARGE IT, PLEASE!"

FRIDAY is SEPTEMBER 10—PAY NOW for Merchandise Bought in August or Earlier!

Mr. MERCHANT:

If you are not now a member of the Retail Merchants Association it will pay you to investigate the many advantages to you of this service!

Beta Delta Plans For Year Feature Autumn Style Show

Looming in the foreground of plans for the year, made by the Beta Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Tuesday night, is the annual style show scheduled September 27. All three Midland chapters of the organization will cooperate in the show.

The Beta Delta meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Joe Hullum. Pledging activities were discussed, and Mrs. Noel Cason, president, announced the appointment of Ruth Baden as social chairman, Mrs. Hullum as program chairman, Mrs. Leon Crittenden as ways and means chairman, Mrs. Raymond Ates as membership chairman, and Elizabeth Knox as publicity chairman.

Others present were Mrs. W. L. Pratt, sponsor, Mrs. Travis M. Lary, Mrs. Charles N. Reeder, Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Jr., Mrs. Gerald Keeler, Rita Beights, Jane Marie Johnson, Joyce Melancon, Margaret Mims, Beth Prothro and Norma Jean Stice.

College Bound Girls Honored With Dinner

Six girls who will leave soon to enroll in Christian College, Columbia, Mo., were honored with a dinner given by a former student, Betty Jo Greene, Tuesday evening at her home, 706 West Louisiana Street.

Other girls who have attended Christian College were included for the dinner, which was served on the lawn. Movies taken on the campus at Columbia were shown.

The prospective students are Mazie Secor, Norma Jean Hubbard, Dorothy Turner, Emma Sue Cowden, Betty McCain and Patsie Arrington. Ex-students among the guests were Patricia Ruckman, Jane Pattison, Sally Secor and Mary Catherine Graham, all of Midland, and Pata Leonard and Ann Debenport of Odessa.

AMAZING RESULTS WITH MERTOX TONIC

Mrs. Ben Grossman of Houston writes us as follows:

"For a long time I have had occasional billious spells. My head would hurt and I would vomit my food. My last spell was very severe and I just thought I would die. My appetite was poor and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so troubled with my limbs stiffening just before I would have a spell of gas and bloat. I would be dizzy and I would have a severe headache. My food soured and it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me. To anyone suffering like I was, I recommend Mertox highly."

This splendid medicine, containing 25 ingredients, works fast to eliminate poisonous matter from your system. Helps to build rich, red blood. Relieves constipation within a few hours and helps to create a more rhythmic bowel action. Get Mertox Compound today from any Texas druggist at the new REDUCED price.

Progressive Study Club Course For New Season Is Introduced

An introduction to the year's course of study was given members of the Progressive Study Club by Mrs. W. E. Cox, program chairman, when the organization started a new season Wednesday morning.

She pointed out that the study topic, "Women's Part in World Progress," is appropriate this year, which marks the centenary of an organized woman's rights movement in the United States. Her talk followed a brief welcome and presentation of the year's objectives by Mrs. W. C. Kimball, president.

Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Sol Bunnell were hostesses in Mrs. Bunnell's home, 1209 West Kansas Street, with a coffee. Dahlias, marigolds, asters and amaryllis brightened the rooms, and the table where Mrs. John W. Thomas, Jr., poured coffee was centered with a fruit arrangement in Autumnal colors.

Guests of the club for this meeting were Mrs. J. K. Lydecker, Mrs. O. C. Arnold, Mrs. Robert I. Sewell and Mrs. R. A. Estes.

Members present included Mrs. Thomas M. West, Mrs. Burns McKinney, Mrs. John Norman, Mrs. Ralph Hickman, Mrs. Burl H. Self, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Kenneth Newton, Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, Mrs. James C. Clary, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. Haden Upchurch, Mrs. W. B. Yarborough, Mrs. Frank L. True, Jr., Mrs. John L. Hart, Mrs. Lindley Latham, Mrs. Clint Buffington and Mrs. E. A. McCullough.

Social Situations

SITUATION: Your husband answers the telephone and the call is for him.

WRONG WAY: Say, "Who was it, dear?" when he hangs up.

RIGHT WAY: Give the members of your family some privacy. Such prying questions make them feel as though they have none.

President's Message Starts Year At Morning Coffee For Fine Arts Club

Mrs. H. D. Murphey, new president of the Fine Arts Club, in her message at the club's first Fall meeting Wednesday morning, asked cooperation of the members in civic activities, and stressed assistance to the Youth Center.

Mrs. O. J. Hubbard was hostess to the club with a coffee in the home of Mrs. Nelson Puett, 612 West Storey Street. Mrs. Hubbard was ill and unable to be present—she is leaving this week for treatment in a Dallas hospital—but she arranged the coffee and sent a centerpiece of Fall flowers and fruit for the table, and multi-colored zinnias for the rooms.

Mrs. L. G. Byerley presented the club budget for the year, in the absence of Mrs. S. J. Lones, treasurer.

A change in the regular meeting time was adopted, and meetings this year will start at 2:30 p. m. A change in next month's schedule was made to avoid conflict with another club program, and October 21 was set as the date for the Fine Arts Club to be hostess to the City-County Federation of Women's Clubs. This will be a book review by Mrs. C. H. Ervin at the Tower Theater.

Coffee was served to 17 members of the club.

Legion Auxiliary Committees For Year Appointed

Committees to prepare for the Sixteenth District American Legion and Auxiliary convention, scheduled for Midland in mid-November, were appointed at a called meeting of the Auxiliary Wednesday night.

Bertie Sexton, new president, also named standing committees to serve through the year.

The two convention committees appointed were on reservations and awards, with Mrs. Joe Buttry, Mrs. Ethel Shelton, Mrs. Dave Allen and Mrs. Iva Noyes as members; and the welcoming committee, Mrs. Floyd Rhoden, Mrs. Etta Petzel and Mrs. Melvin Haney.

Benefit Dance Planned

Exact date for the convention will be set after a state convention in Corpus Christi beginning September 13, at which Mrs. Vivian Steele and Mrs. Shelton will represent the Midland Auxiliary.

The Legion and Auxiliary will jointly sponsor a dance October 14 as a convention benefit. Mrs. T. J. Inman, Mrs. Velma Smith and Mrs. Dave Allen will serve as the Auxiliary's ticket committee.

Plans were made to assist the family of a Midland veteran who is leaving soon to enter a veteran's hospital, and it was announced that needs of any veteran's family should be reported to the president.

Committees For Year

Standing committees appointed were: child welfare, Mrs. Geneva Phariss; community service, Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. Nettye Romer and Mrs. Blanche Phelps; membership, Mrs. Rhoden, Mrs. Eunice Bell and Mrs. L. L. Jones.

Program and music, Mrs. Buttry, Mrs. Henry Hannaford and Mrs. Marie Butler; poppy sales, Mrs. Shelton, Mrs. L. L. Jones, Mrs. J. S. Jones, Mrs. Buttry and Mrs. Petzel; telephone, Mrs. O. M. Luton, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Haney and Mrs. Allen; auditing, Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Hannaford.

WMU To Be Hostess For Association

The Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church will be hostess to the associational WMU Monday afternoon. The meeting will begin in the church at 1 p. m.

Miss Eula Mae Henderson of Dallas, state executive secretary, will be the guest speaker. Mrs. E. D. Oliver of Odessa is associational president, and Mrs. Arthur DeLoach of Odessa, district president, also will be here for the meeting.

The meeting of the First Baptist Missionary Society, which was scheduled for that afternoon to install officers for a new year, will be postponed, it was announced Thursday by Mrs. J. E. McCain, president.

Star Study Club Has Two Lessons At Hall

Mrs. J. O. Hyde was leader of the study for "A" certificates, and Mrs. L. C. Stephenson of the study for "B" certificates when the Star Study Club met at the Masonic Hall Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Clyde Hamilton, president, was in charge of a brief business session. It was announced that the next meeting, September 22, will be a one o'clock luncheon followed by election of officers.

Other members present were Mrs. Minnie Crumley, Mrs. Dude Pope, Mrs. W. V. Harris, Mrs. F. H. Shirley, Mrs. J. B. Wright and Mrs. J. B. McCoy.

LYNNS BACK FROM PRESBYTERIAN MEET

The Rev. and Mrs. R. Matthew Lynn returned Wednesday night from Kerrville, where they attended the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Texas. Dana M. Secor, another delegate from the Midland church, will return Friday.

Mr. Lynn said Dr. W. B. Durant, president of Austin College at Sherman, was elected moderator of the Synod for 1948-49.

Delta Gamma Club Meets In Home Of Mrs. Ben Thomason

Mrs. Ben Thomason was hostess to the Delta Gamma Alumnae Association Wednesday morning in her home, 927 North Fort Worth Street. Mrs. Ronald Jarrett, president, was in charge of the business meeting and led an informal discussion on the matter of the initiation service.

It was announced that the next meeting will be at 10 a. m., September 22, in the home of Mrs. William Allen, 1406 West Michigan Street.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. J. M. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Henderson, Mrs. George Pruter, Mrs. James Turner, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. T. W. Flewharty, Mrs. Tom L. Ingram, and Mrs. Jarrett.

Women Of Church Make Fall Plans

Activities of the next two months were planned for the women of the First Presbyterian Church at a meeting of the executive board Tuesday in the home of Mrs. A. P. Shirey.

First on the list is a clothing drive scheduled for September 16 and 17. Clothing will be assembled in the home of Miss Louanna Roach, 807-A West Texas Street.

Members of the group voted to fill shoe boxes with shoes and small articles for needy families in Europe. These boxes will be presented at a meeting of the Council of Church Women on November 29, and will be shipped with boxes prepared by women of other churches.

Announcement was made of a Family Night supper on September 30, the exact time and the place to be decided later. It was also announced that while the Presbyterian Church is being remodeled the regular inspirational meetings will be held in the young people's assembly room of the Scharbauer Educational Building of the First Methodist Church.

Reports from general officers, secretaries, and circle chairmen were made. Mrs. J. Clifford Hall, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Contest Readers Will Have Party

A party for all children who participated in the Cowboy Reading Contest sponsored by the Midland County Library during the Summer will be combined with the regular Children' Story Hour in the Children's Room of the library at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, Mrs. Lucille Carroll, librarian, announced Thursday.

Prizes and certificates will be awarded to the reading contest participants, and stories and games are being arranged for the various age groups.

Somoa For Somoans

Another iron curtain has been rung down. And this time it isn't the Kremlin that is responsible, but our own government. Worst of all, this new decision slams the door to Paradise (Pacific Local No. 1) by practically barring one-way passages to American Samoa.

It all began when the U. S. delegation to the UN regaled their colleagues with tales of this South Pacific outpost. Newspapers carried accounts of the tantalizing discourse, and it wasn't long before Washington began getting a good many requests for information and applications for passage.

Now, there's nothing new about Samoa. The islands are right where they always have been, 14 degrees south of the equator and approximately in the middle of nowhere. Except for an occasional hurricane there's scarcely a word that lovers of a beneficient Mother Nature can say against them.

* * *

In Samoa it's still always Summertime, and the livin' is still easy. Average temperature in the "hot" month is 80 degrees, and in the "cold" month it gets down to around 75. Food is to be had for the fishing or picking—coconuts and bananas and breadfruit and such. Income taxes are $5 a head (adult males only), and about 90 per cent of the people don't work for money, because who needs money when practically everything you want is for free?

All this, as we said, is not new. For years before the war there was an intermittent exodus to the islands of Americans who had the energy to get up and go so they could be lazy the rest of their lives. But there was no stampede.

Then came this thoughtless reminder of the free and indolent life at the UN meeting. Its echoes fell upon the ears and ulcers of thousands with a touch of infinite calm.

It began to look as if everybody wanted to get away from it all all at once. So the government had to step in and make a decision. It was in many ways a cruel decision, but probably necessary. As a result about the only persons who will be permitted to go to Samoa and stay there are native or part-native Samoans, or someone married to a Samoan. Where you'd get to meet the prospective bride or groom outside Samoa the government didn't say.

It seems a shame. But, as the Navy said, special measures had to be taken "to preserve the simple, primitive beauty of Samoa." For, sure as you're born, any full-scale trek to the islands would include some who would want to take civilization with them. And first thing you know there would be radios and television and juke boxes, and chambers of commerce putting out tourist literature, and people fighting with their neighbors over the coconuts.

All of which leaves us with the familiar but still rather depressing thought that nobody can really louse up a good thing like people.

The process of canning soup is said to have been perfected the same year the phonograph was invented. What a year that was for music.

FHA Buyers Largest Group Aided By New Housing Bill

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Largest class of prospective home owners affected by the new housing bill amendments passed during the special session of Congress takes in the fellow who wants to get a bank loan insured by the government's Federal Housing Administration—FHA. This applies to veteran and non-veteran alike, though the GI can get additional loans from the Veterans' Administration.

Take the case of a man of low income who wants a small house for as little money as possible. First step is to get local FHA representatives to determine its probable long-term value. This may be much lower than its present, inflated cost.

For houses valued at $6,500 or under, one new section of the law now provides the most liberal terms for repayment ever offered. It applies only to rural or industrial areas where there is a great need for cheaper housing. On such housing, FHA is now authorized to insure a loan for 95 per cent of long-term value.

If this value is put at $4,000, FHA will insure a loan for $3,800 and the buyer will have to put up only $200 cash. For a $6,300 house, the loan could be guaranteed at $6,000—the maximum allowed for this type of loan. Cash down payment would be $300.

For this type of loan the buyer is given 30 years in which to pay off the mortgage, with interest at five per cent. Monthly payments for the $4,000 house would be $19.04. For the $6,000 mortgage, monthly payments would be $28.56.

Amount Raised

Terms for buying more expensive houses have also been liberalized under the new bill. Amounts on which FHA will now guarantee loans have been raised considerably.

The new bill recognizes that construction costs have gone up. But by so doing the bill may have given a boost to inflation. Any maximum mortgage limitation tends to become a minimum sale price. A higher maximum mortgage limitation will tend to encourage more construction, but such housing will be for sale at higher prices. To offset this, the new law gives buyers a longer time in which to pay off their mortgages.

The three examples following show how the new bill will work:

FHA says the long-term value is $7,000—the maximum allowed—it will insure a loan through any recognized bank or building company for 90 per cent of the amount, or $6,300. The buyer must put up $700 cash.

If the buyer can afford a house to $11,000 long-term value, FHA will insure a loan of 80 per cent on the amount over $7,000. This would be $3,200. On the total valuation of $11,000 the buyer could thus get $6,300 plus $3,200, or $9,500. He would have to put up $1,500.

On both of the above cases the mortgage will run for 25 years at five per cent interest. On the $7,000 house the monthly payments would be $36.60 a month. On the $11,000 house monthly payments would be $55.20.

For people who are able to build or buy a new house whose long-term value is between $11,000 and $20,000, FHA will insure a loan of 80 per cent. Amounts of the mortgage would thus range from $8,800 (80 per cent of $11,000) to $16,000 (80 per cent of $20,000). Cash payments required would run from $2,200 to $4,000.

These would be 25-year loans at five per cent. Monthly payments would be $51.13 on the $11,000 house, $92.96 on the $20,000 house.

For old houses in the $11,000 to $20,000 price range, FHA will insure loans for 20 years only, at 80 per cent of valuation. This shorter term would raise the monthly payments to $57.82 for an $8,800 mortgage on an $11,000 house. For 20-year mortgage of $16,000 on a $20,000 house, monthly payments would be $105.12.

For the home owner who wants to remodel or repair, the new housing bill continues authority to insure loans up to $2,500. FHA is also authorized to insure small mortgage loans on rural area housing up to $4,500. Previous top limit was $3,000.

For contractors or owners of rental property who want to remodel or convert existing structures into two-family or larger apartments, loans of up to $10,000 may now be insured by FHA. These loans may be insured for only seven years.

Brenneman Back From Dealer Preview Of New 1949 Nash Cars

The first private showing of the 1949 Nash automobiles, entirely new from bumper to bumper and more advanced in design than any car Nash has offered in its long history, was given to more than 1,500 Nash dealers in the Southern region in Kansas City, Mo., recently, Malcolm J. Brenneman, manager of Ace Motors, said Thursday upon his return from the dealer conference.

While the new Nash models, known as the "Airflyte" series, will not be made public until October 22, the private dealer preview was held to acquaint them with features of the new car.

Brenneman, in commenting on the preview, said the new models represent more than five years of research, designing, engineering and testing at the Nash Motors proving ground. He quoted George W. Mason, president, as saying the new cars were planned "without compromise or restriction, and incorporate entirely new design, styling and engineering features continuing Nash as an automotive research and engineering leader." The new car represents an investment of about $15,000,000, Vice President H. C. Doss told the dealers.

Brenneman said extensive plans are being made for the public showing of the postwar "dream car" here next month.

Pain And Watering In The Eye May Be Symptoms Of Iritis

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

The round-shaped iris is a membrane in the eye which contains coloring matter. This coloring matter is what decides whether a person has "brown" or "blue" eyes. When the iris becomes inflamed, the condition is spoken of as iritis. Iritis can be acute or chronic.

The principal symptoms of iritis are pain in the eye, sensitivity to bright light, watering of the eye and interference with vision. The pain can be severe and is likely to be worse at night. The eyeball may be tender to touch or pressure.

In acute iritis, the symptoms tend to be worse than in the chronic variety, but recovery usually comes more rapidly—perhaps in a few weeks. When proper treatment is begun early, the iritis can clear up completely, but complications and the possibility of chronic inflammation are unfortunate possibilities.

Cause Is Obscure

Iritis is sometimes associated with rheumatism, diabetes, tuberculosis, syphilis, or injury. Often, disappointingly, no cause whatever can be found. The search for infection elsewhere in the body must be carried out painstakingly and thoroughly.

The eye itself requires highly skilled treatment, including the use of drugs, heat applied locally, rest and protection from light. Sometimes a method called foreign protein therapy has been found helpful. This consists of injections of some protein substance, such as boiled milk, which produces reaction of the body, usually with fever. This seems to stimulate resistance, and often has a favorable effect on the iritis.

When anything goes wrong with the eyes, diagnosis and treatment should not be delayed, as the risk of permanent damage is grave.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS
By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

QUESTION: Is it injurious to the health for a person over 60 to take a package of gelatin twice a day for that "empty feeling?"

ANSWER: This is an unusual treatment for hunger. The satisfaction received is probably due purely to a distention of the stomach. I do not know of any harm which would result.

Billy Bissell Back From Wyoming Ranch

Billy Bissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bissell, has returned from Newcastle, Wyo., where he spent his fourth Summer cowboying on the Diamond Bar Ranch. He also made arrangements to return to the ranch next Summer.

Young Bissell tried something new this year—participating in the annual Western Gate Rodeo at Newcastle. He was a prize winner in the bareback bronc riding contest. He termed the experience "interesting but a bit rough in spots."

He will leave Monday for Lubbock, where he will enter Texas Tech as an animal husbandry major. Billy is a 1948 graduate of Midland High School.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

One Great American Trait

I always think it does a newspaper editor good to get out from behind his desk and see how folks in other parts of America look, and think, and act.

And that's what I've been doing these past weeks, touring the country from Michigan to Texas, California to Maine. It's a mighty encouraging experience. Not only because of the different points of view you run into—but because of the tolerance which reconciles those different points of view.

I mean the tolerance of a Pennsylvania farmer for the habits of his city cousin; the tolerance of folks who vote one way towards those who vote another; the tolerance of those who prefer spring water towards those who enjoy a moderate beverage like beer.

From where I sit, it's that great American trait of tolerance—respect for individual tastes and liberties—that makes this country strong. Let's never lose it!

Just To While Away The Time, Let's Rattle Movie Skeletons

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Things are so dull in Hollywood that the tourists are going around getting autographs from each other. Between the economy wave, new low in production, vacations, the television threat, the box-office slump, etc., the glamor capital of the world is practically a ghost town—and even the ghosts aren't talking.

So today let's rattle a few skeletons. Hollywood has plenty of them—and some of the skeletons in Hollywood's closets are ashamed of the people in the house.

The economy wail reminds me of that $1000-a-week messenger boy at one of the big studios. He wasn't a messenger boy really. He was a very fine writer. But he got in trouble with the front office. His contract had six months to go.

"We'll make him suffer," the front office said. "We'll make him work out his contract as a messenger boy."

HIGH-PRICED GUIDE

So the $1000-a-week writer went to work as a messenger boy and one day he was asked to take some visitors on a tour of the lot. The writer gave the visitors a very fine tour and when it was over, one of the visitors said:

"We've appreciated this very much. Here's a $10 tip."

It was just what the writer had been waiting for, because he knew the visitors he had escorted were stockholders in the studio.

"Thanks very much," he said sweetly, "but I'm very well paid as a messenger boy. Look—here's one of my checks—$1000 a week."

There was h— to pay in the front office.

Then there's the story of the $50 chicken soup.

An executive at one of the studios decided to become a prize chicken fancier. To start things off he ordered two dozen chickens at $50 each with instructions to send them to him at the studio (so the chickens could be billed to the studio).

In due time the $1200 worth of chickens arrived at the studio. But there was some confusion about who ordered them and finally they were sent to the studio cafe. Within an hour the $50 chickens were beheaded, plucked and headed for chicken soup.

Next day several people remarked about the super-excellence of the soup. But no one except the studio executive who ordered the chickens was aware of the wonderful bargain—a 40-cent bowl of soup made out of $50 chickens.

SNAPPY COMEBACK

One of Hollywood's most disliked studio heads has a weekly get-together meeting of his producers, writers and directors. The meeting is always held at his home. One night everyone was present except the studio head, who came in an hour late.

"Guess where I've been?" he laughed.

A writer with a wicked sense of humor snapped: "At night school!"

Everyone howled including the studio head. But the next day the writer was fired.

The same executive was trying to make up his mind about doing the life of Chopin on the screen. He liked the story but admitted he hadn't heard any of Chopin's music. So they played the music for him. "That convinces me," he said. "We won't make it. The music stinks. It ain't modern."

Danger Of Tidal Wave From Earthquake Ends

HONOLULU —(AP)— All danger from a tidal wave resulting from Wednesday's South Pacific earthquake appeared passed Thursday.

The strong shock was recorded throughout the United States and apparently centered some 600 miles east of Suva, Fiji, on the ocean floor.

For a while the Hawaiian Islands, which suffered from a quake caused tidal wave in 1946, feared another might be on its way. But tension was eased later when Pago Pago in American Samoa and Canton and Palmyra Islands near the equator reported only slight ocean swells as a result of the temblor.

The quake was felt on Fiji's big island, Vita Levu, and the Air Force had a report from Nandi Air Field on the west coast of the island that a shock was felt there but no damage was caused.

The 14th Naval District reported moderate, prolonged shocks were felt on Niue Island, 350 miles southeast of Samoa, but no damage had been reported.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Bosox Nip Yanks To Stretch Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The outlook appeared gloomy for the rest of the American League Thursday as Joe McCarthy's battering Boston Red Sox boasted their largest lead of the season.

Coming from behind in typical Red Sox clubbing fashion, the murderous hitting Hubmen overcame their arch rivals, the New York Yankee 10-6 Wednesday night to increase their margin over the runner-up New Yorkers to two and a half games. Their previous best advantage was a game and a half.

In drawing first blood in their all-important three-game series with the Yankees, the Red Sox kept two streaks alive. They extended their latest winning streak to eight straight, and now own six consecutive triumphs against the Yankees. They have copped 22 of their last 26.

The Sox gained their latest triumph the hard way. Five singles off starter Joe Dobson gave the Yankees four runs in the first inning. Undaunted, the Red Sox bounced back with six hits off Frank Shea in their half of the same inning to take a 5-4 lead.

Birdie Tebbetts' two-out triple off the center field wall drove in Wally Moses and Billy Goodman with the tying runs. Billy Hitchcock followed with a single to score Tebbetts.

Yogi Berra Homers

After the Red Sox moved in front 6-4, the Yankees tied it up with single runs in the sixth and seventh innings. Yogi Berra's 14th home run furnished the fifth run and Hitchcock's fumble, Tommy Henrich's single and Hank Bauer's long fly produced the other.

The Sox quickly untied the score in their half of the seventh. With Lefty Joe Page, third Yankee hurler, on the mound, they put together three hits and three walks to push four runs across and put the game out of the Yankees' reach. Lefty Earl Johnson, who had replaced Dobson in the seventh, was credited with his eighth victory against two defeats.

The third-place Cleveland Indians scored an unearned run in the last half of the 11th inning to nip the Detroit Tigers, 8-7, and remain four and a half games behind Boston. Larry Doby, who rapped out four singles to extend his consecutive hitting streak through 19 games, scored the winning run when second baseman Connie Berry threw wild to the plate on Wally Judnich's bouncer.

Athletics Win Pair

The Tigers had overcome a 7-3 deficit to force the game into extra innings. Bob Lemon, trying for his 20th victory, was shelled in the seventh. He allowed seven hits and gave up eight walks. His string of scoreless innings ended at 31 in the fourth. Sam Zoldak, fourth Cleveland pitcher, was credited with the victory. Art Houtteman, charged with the defeat, dropped his 16th game. He has won two.

Philadelphia's fourth-place Athletics swept a twilight-night doubleheader from the Senators of Washington 10-7 and 5-2 to reduce Boston's margin over them to nine games.

The defeat ran Washington's losing streak to eight games.

Exploding for four runs in the eighth inning, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Reds in Cincinnati 5-1 and strengthened their second-place position in the National League pennant race. They now own a half-game advantage over the Brooklyn Dodgers and trail the front-running Braves by three and a half games. The Braves and Dodgers were idle.

Schmitz Handcuffs Cards

Danny Murtaugh's fourth single of the game, coming with the bases loaded, drove in the tie-breaking run. Eddie Fitzgerald batted in two more with a single and pitcher Ernie Bonham closed out the scoring with a run-producing single. Bonham set the Reds down with four hits for his fifth victory. Ted Kluszewski's 11th homer deprived Bonham of a shutout. The defeat dropped the Reds in the cellar.

Johnny Schmitz limitetd the Cardinals to two hits in St. Louis, pitching the Chicago Cubs to a 4-2 triumph. It was the fourth-place Cards' fourth consecutive loss and dropped them to five and a half games off the pace. Roy Smalley paved the way for Schmitz' 17th victory with a bases-loaded single off Ken Johnson in the ninth. The blow scored two runs and snapped a 2-2 tie.

Andy Seminick walloped a two-run homer in the top of the ninth to enable the Philadelphia Phillies to nip the New York Giants 5-4. Walt Dubiel went all the way to chalk up his seventh triumph. The Philly victory dropped the fifth-place Giants six games back. It also pulled the Phils out of the cellar by a half-game.

The scheduled doubleheader between the St. Louis Browns and White Sox in Chicago was postponed because of rain.

Chief Inspects Texas Naval Reserve Group

PENSACOLA, FLA. —(AP)— Rear Adm. J. W. Reeves, Jr., chief of Naval air training, Thursday inspected the first Naval Reserve groups to operate aboard an aircraft carrier.

He was flown to the USS Wright in the Gulf of Mexico, where two Dallas Naval Reserve air groups are operating.

The flag of Texas was flown aboard the carrier during the admiral's visit, and the airmen from the Lone Star State flew in formation as a salute.

"I am highly pleased with the success of the first operation of the first Naval Reserve groups to operate aboard a carrier," Admiral Reeves commented.

with TANNER LAINE

He was a real iron-man, Rip Collins was. The valuable second sacker played in every one of Midland's 140 ball games this regular Longhorn League season just departed. He was the only Indian to do so.

The Ripper was dependable. He didn't miss a game. Yeah, he made some errors, sure. And he made some brilliant plays to offset the miscues, too. Collins took after balls no other second baseman in the league would even try for. Sometimes he got them. Bat an easy grounder at him and bingo he might make that famous one hand stab and jiggle it. Try to bullet one through him and apt as not he would catch it, spin it a couple of times and throw you out at first by three steps.

He was that kind of guy out there—brilliant or just plain amateurish. But he was a pillar at the pivot and we needed same.

Collins finished in a blaze with the stick. He added point after point to his average and wound up with a respectable .290 mark. He handled 887 chances and made 70 errors. His fielding mark was .920. He figured in a flock of Midland's 115 double plays. He tied for the leadership in stolen bases by Indians with 28 and he led the team in sacrifices with 15. He led the Indians in hits with 165. He played in the all-star game.

And most of all, he was out there every night. And was ready to play ball!

—SL—

John Gould, writing in the Wichita Falls Times, knocks in the head the premise that President Taft was the unwitting originator of the seventh-inning stretch. Gould writes that Taft became President in 1909 and that old baseball fans, including himself, were observing the seventh-inning stretch before that time.

Gould tells one about the seventh-inning stretch custom:

"When teams from the Army and Navy played a baseball game in London on July 4, 1918, and all the Americans present stood up to stretch when the seventh inning came, the British didn't know what to make of it. They decided that a riot was brewing, and presently a bunch of policemen came charging out from under the grandstand, with their clubs, prepared to restore order."

So the stretch isn't international. We thank all our readers who have written in about the seventh-inning custom.

—SL—

Before you close your record books, here's a little thumb-nail sketch of the Midland Indian accomplishments for 1948: won 79, lost 60, tied one; at home, won 46, lost 24 and away, won 33, lost 36; against Vernon, won 11, lost 9; against Ballinger, won 13, lost 7; against Big Spring, won 7, lost 12, tied 1; against Sweetwater, won 9, lost 11; against Odessa, won 8, lost 12; against San Angelo, won 15, lost 5; against Del Rio, won 16, lost 4.

—SL—

ROUNDIN' UP THE STRAYS . . . At the Lions Club luncheon Wednesday, Frank Monroe expressed public thanks to Harold Webb for going to bat for the high school youngsters and getting Friday night's baseball game postponed because of a football game . . . Webb is backing the school to the top degree, he has his season tickets to home football games . . . And by the way, do you have yours? . . . Big Spring High is building its offense around Arlis Davis, a hard-running fullback who was a part time regular last year . . . He weighs in at 170 . . . The Steers average 161 pounds overall with a line of 163 pounds average and a backfield of 156 pounds or thereabouts . . . Dub King, Fort Worth Star Telegram scribe, predicts Midland to beat Ysleta . . . We say IF Midland can stop the Indian's passing attack, the Bulldogs can upset the Tribe . . . It's apt to be Freddy Rodriguez of Big Spring against Eddie Jacome of Vernon in the second battle between the two Thursday night . . . Monahans High is on one year probation as ruled by the District 5-A committee because the school "permitted two big boys to wear discarded football shoes in track meets last Spring" . . . Odessa is going to get a stern test up at Lubbock Friday night . . . We received a letter from a Big Spring woman fan, who was hit with a pop bottle at the Labor Day games, in which she appeals to fans to be careful with bottles . . . This is a thing which the announcer did all season—"Please keep your pop bottles in the stands . . . Two persons were hurt this year by them . . . Midland is apt to have a big line in a couple of seasons with Pete English and Stan Coker as the mainstays . . . 30 for strays, rain on the alfalfa makes it smell good.

WT-NM League—

Oilers Nudge Dukes 7-3 In Playoff Tilt

By The Associated Press

Tony Range blasted out two home runs to lead the Pampa Oilers to a 7-3 victory over the Albuquerque Dukes Wednesday night in the opening game of their West Texas-New Mexico League Shaughnessy playoff series.

The Lubbock - Amarillo series opener was postponed because of cold.

Pampa went one up in the best four-out-of-seven game series to determine a finalist in the post season playoff.

The Oilers jumped on Duke Ace Frank Shone for ten hits. Joe Fortin also hit a homer for Pampa and Shone one for Albuquerque.

Lubbock and Amarillo try again to open Thursday night at Amarillo, and Pampa continues at Albuquerque.

Schoolboys Open 1948 Grid Grind Thursday Night

By The Associated Press

Schoolboy football teams in the City Conference and Class AA open the 1948 campaign Thursday night.

Brackenridge of San Antonio, last year's state champion, and Austin tangle in the top game Thursday night while Friday and Saturday 71 teams from these two divisions go into action in 42 games.

Roswell, N. M., and El Paso High play the only other tilt Thursday night.

Most of the City Conference and AA games this week are inter-district affairs.

Eight of last year's 16 district champions see action the first week.

Lufkin and Longview, two East Texas powers who won district championships in the 1947 race, tangle in one of the feature games Friday. Longview advanced to the semi-finals of the state race last years, when both AA and city schools competed in the same division.

Pre-season rankings boom Port Arthur, Odessa, Kerrville, Lufkin, Brackenridge (San Antonio), Highland Park (Dallas), Wichita Falls, Baytown (Goose Creek), Waco and Amarillo as top teams in the state.

Friday's schedule includes:

Poly Fort Worth) at Plainview, Odessa at Lubbock, Sweetwater at Vernon, Ysleta at Midland, Abilene at Breckenridge, Big Spring at Brownwood, Denison at San Angelo, Galena Park at Bowie (El Paso), Ballinger at Stephenville, Weatherford at Gladewater.

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly In Place
Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wabbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug store.

Texas League—

Buffs May Hit 400,000 Mark In Attendance

By The Associated Press

It looks like Houston will be the first team in Texas League history to draw 400,000 in one season.

The Buffs boosted their home attendance to 392,682 Wednesday night when 2,826 fans turned out to watch them beat Shreveport 5-3.

Houston has four more days to reach the 400,000 mark in attendance and may crack the figure by Friday night.

Dallas finally managed to beat Tulsa, downing the Oilers 5-4 Wednesday night while Oklahoma City nosed out pennant winner Fort Worth 6-5.

San Antonio and Beaumont were rained out.

Solly Hemus' double drove in two runs in the seventh inning to give Houston its second straight victory over Shreveport and Hank Wyse.

The Buffs' three-run lead melted in the sixth inning when Shreveport splurged for three. Wyse came into the game in the seventh with Joe Niedson and Eddie Knoblauch on base. Niedson homered for the Buffs in the fourth.

Bob Brady led Dallas to its narrow decision. He drove in three of four runs in the second inning with a home run. Milan Vucelich's long fly scored Marty Errante with the winning Rebel run in the seventh.

Oklahoma City broke loose for two runs in the eighth inning to erase a 5-4 Fort Worth lead.

A little sugar-not much-sprinkled over a pudding or a pie meringue give a party touch.

Put Me In, Coach

"Let me take it, Jack," says little Donnie Cox to William and Mary's All-Southern fullback Jack Cloud. The Williamsburg Indians open against Davidson, Sept. 5.

First Round Rained Out; Go Thursday

Rain washed out the scheduled Shaughnessy playoff opener Wednesday night at Odessa between that city's Oilers and the Midland Indians. A downpour in the late afternoon made the postponement necessary.

• • •

Weather permitting, the two clubs will try again Thursday night to open the series. Gametime is carded at 8:15 p. m. Midland will pitch little Ernie Nelson, the clever lefty. Odessa is expected to hurl Ernie Faccio, Merle Coleman or Herbie Pitts.

• • •

The rivalry is intense between Midland and Odessa. The Oilers hold a 12-8 edge in victories this season. Midland has found Odessa easier to beat at Odessa than at home. At Odessa, Midland won five and lost five. And at Midland, the Indians took three and lost seven.

Longhorn League—

Dusters Trip Broncs; Tribe, Oilers Idled

By The Associated Press

Gerald Fahr notched his twenty-second victory this year and gave the Vernon team a game advantage over Big Spring as the Longhorn League's Shaughnessy playoff opened Wednesday night. He blanked the Broncs 2-0 on four hits.

Rain postponed the Midland-Odessa playoff game.

Fahr struck out seven and did not issue a base on balls in besting Frank Perez in a pitchers' duel. Perez also struck out seven and gave up only five hits.

Two hits, a walk and a sacrifice gave Vernon a run in the fifth inning and the Dusters added another in the sixth on a hit and an error.

The Dusters and Big Spring meet again Thursday night at Vernon, and Midland and Odessa try again to open their series at Odessa.

Grid Ducats Put On Sale

Season tickets to home games of the Midland Bulldogs were put on sale in the Chamber of Commerce office Thursday. These tickets will be on sale at the downtown location until Friday noon.

Tickets for the Ysleta game will go on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office Friday morning.

Kickoff Time Friday, 8 PM

Kickoff time is 8 p. m. sharp Friday when the Midland High School Bulldogs open the season with the Ysleta High School Indians in a new stadium here.

• • •

Game tickets will be on sale Friday at the Chamber of Commerce office in downtown Midland. Season tickets still are available and they command choice seats.

• • •

Because the Bulldogs are inexperienced the game means much to their season. Rain Wednesday drove the Purple indoors for a blackboard drill. A tapering off session is due Thursday.

• • •

Ysleta will field a light but fast breakaway ball club with the forward pass as chief weapon. The Indians possess a deadly aerialist as one of the experienced boys.

Officials Will Hear Ab Curtis

Football officials from a wide West Texas area will be in Midland Sunday for a rules clinic sponsored by the Midland - Odessa Football Coaches Association.

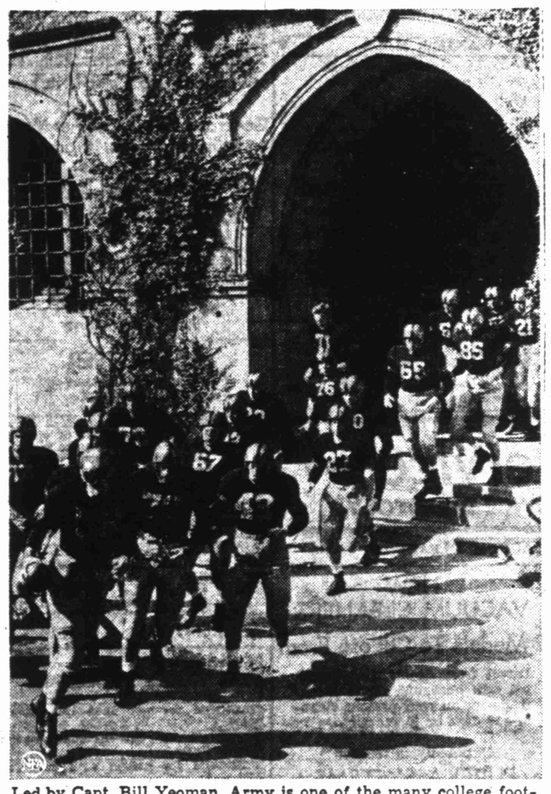
Guest instructor will be Ab Curtis, well-known Southwest grid official.

Morning and afternoon lectures will be held at the Scharbauer Hotel. The morning session gets underway at 10:30 a. m. with the afternoon get-together at 1:30 p. m. There will be a luncheon between meetings.

Midland sportsmen are reminded that the meetings are open and they are invited to attend. Persons interested in the rules of football in any way are invited.

Football officials of Midland and Odessa have a strong organization which is recognized by the Southwest Conference Officials Association. This organization furnishes officials for most of the high school games played in this area and for some college games.

This Is the Army, Mr. Jones



Led by Capt. Bill Yeoman, Army is one of the many college football squads tearing out of their gymnasiums to get in early practice for big games ahead. The Cadets open against Villanova at West Point, Sept. 25.

Crane Fullback Is Injured In Practice

CRANE—Billy Henderson, fullback on the Golden Cranes football team, is due to be absent from the lineup for at least several games. He sustained a left knee injury Monday in practice and his leg was put in a cast.

Extent of the injury was reported as a dislocation and chipped knee cap. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Henderson of the Gulf Camp.

Henderson was named on the second 5B All-District team last season.

TAXES—A MATTER OF DIMES

MT. CARMEL, ILL.—(AP)—M. T. Cotner's tax duplicate this year was marked "paid"—with 1,180 dimes. Cotner explained he makes a hobby of saving dimes just for his taxes.

Editor Says Duval County Vote 'Regular'

FREER, TEXAS —(AP)— Investigators will not be able to find irregularities in Duval County's second primary vote, Editor E. H. Shomette declared.

Shomette, an opponent of political leader George Parr, said any attempt to find more than 40 persons in the county who voted for Coke Stevenson in the second primary would fail. Lyndon Johnson received 4,622 votes to Stevenson's 40.

The editor of the Freer Enterprise said Wednesday he voted for Johnson but that he "didn't go with George Parr."

He said several Austin and San Antonio political leaders visited him during the week. "They were going to get affidavits from about 70 people in Freer that they had voted for Stevenson.

"They might as well save their time and effort," Shomette said. "If you open the ballot boxes you'll find a ballot for every vote cast. The ballots will be correctly marked and the count will be just as reported."

"I told them I'd buy them a Stetson hat if they could find 40 people in Freer that had voted for Stevenson. x x x"

JOHN BEN SHEPPERD AGAIN IS HONORED

HOUSTON — John Ben Shepperd, East Texas attorney and past president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, has been voted "Most Outstanding Young Texan" by the Young Democratic Clubs of Texas, it was announced here.

Shepperd will be presented an appropriate scroll in recognition of his selection at a dinner to be given in Fort Worth September 13, preceding the State Democratic Convention, by Texas Young Democrats.

Harley Sadler Show To Open Here Monday

Harley Sadler, always popular with Midlanders, will present a new stage show under the direction of Joe McKennon here, beginning Monday night.

The stage attraction will make a six-night stand in Midland, with tent doors opening at 7:15 and the curtain rising at 8:15 each night. A big new tent, ordered from Chicago after a fire destroyed the old tent at Littlefield recently, will be shipped to Midland and used here for the first time.

The tent will be erected in the softball park south of the Borden plant at the juncture of West Wall and Missouri Streets.

Note-Burning Event Set At Scout Ranch

The Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold a barbecue and a note-burning ceremony at the Buffalo Trail Scout Ranch in the Davis Mountains October 14, council officials announced Thursday.

All donors to the Ranch Fund and all Scouters are invited to attend. The occasion will celebrate the paying in full for the ranch property, which was accomplished in August this year. A program of entertainment and inspiration will be provided.

Hurricane Sinks Tiny Circus Ship

HAVANA, CUBA —(AP)— A tiny circus ship was swallowed by the hurricane-swept Caribbean in the dark morning of September 1, and 44 of the persons aboard and 59 trained animals are missing and feared lost.

The Norwegian motor vessel Caribe radioed Wednesday that she had picked up 12 survivors in a lifeboat 770 miles south of Miami. The Naval commander of the Caribbean Sea Frontier in Panama ordered an immediate search for others of the 56 believed aboard. The Caribe report said: "Fate of remainder of passengers and crew unknown but fear the worst."

Vessel Overloaded

Naval experts in Havana, piecing together bits of information radioed in by the Caribe, said they thought the circus ship, the 140-foot Honduran motor vessel Euzkera, probably capsized in heavy seas because she was overloaded.

The reports placed the scene of the sinking 130 miles off the Colombian coast, 200 miles from Panama and 700 miles from Miami, about 30 hours from port. The Euzkera was carrying the Razzore Circus from Cuba to Cartagena, Colombia. She was three days out.

According to the best reports here, there were 56 persons aboard, 46 of them passengers—circus officials, performers and laborers, with wives and families. There also were 59 animals—trained lions, tigers, monkeys, horses and dogs.

Coke Calculates He Will Attend Convention

DALLAS—(AP)—Senatorial Candidate Coke Stevenson says he plans to be on hand to look after his interests at the State Democratic Convention in Fort Worth September 14.

The former governor, who trailed Rep. Lyndon Johnson by 162 votes in the Texas Election Bureau's last unofficial count of runoff primary ballots, confirmed Wednesday that he intends to be at the convention. He was here to address a meeting of the Society for Advancement of Management.

The Dallas News said both Stevenson and Johnson have made hotel reservations in Fort Worth to attend the convention.

Gets Specific About Tickets

Thursday's Fall weather brought a strange if not technical request to the Chamber of Commerce here.

A citizen called in and specifically requested two tickets on the 42-yard-line for Midland's game Friday night.

Most ticket requests are for seats on the 50-yard-line but this person definitely wanted tickets on the 42-yard-line.

And he got them.

Atomic Espionage Is Next Field Of Spy Investigation

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The congressional spy investigation shifted Thursday to the "field of atomic espionage."

Four witnesses were summoned before the House Un-American Activities Committee, now operating behind locked doors. Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) declined to give out the names ahead of time. But he told reporters:

"We are now getting into the field of atomic espionage."

The committee claims it has uncovered evidence that Russia obtained some wartime shipments of Uranium compounds and 25 pounds of refined metal from this country. It says it also has had testimony from a former Army Intelligence officer that some atomic scientists leaked information to Soviet representatives.

Hearings To Resume

The House group is planning to resume public hearings next Wednesday, when it may air some of the details. Rep. McDowell (R-Pa) says a major witness will be Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, who headed the wartime atomic bomb project.

Also under subpoena to appear next Wednesday is Dr. Martin D. Kamen, who says he was fired from atomic bomb work at the University of California at Berkeley in 1944 for "indiscretion." Kamen, now a professor at Washington University, St. Louis, said his discharge resulted from a "phony incident" in which some Russian officials asked him questions about the atomic project which he declined to answer.

Error Made In Location For NW Crockett Project

In a report of a new location for the Tippett-Wolfcamp area of Northwest Crockett County, carried in this column earlier in the week, to be at Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 J. H. Tippett, the location was given as being 440 feet from northeast and southeast lines of section 38, block 3, H&TC survey. That was in error. The prospector is to be 440 feet from northeast and southeast lines of section 38, block 31, H&TC survey. It is scheduled to dig to 6,400 feet, using rotary tools.

This correction is made in order to keep the record straight.

SW Mitchell Wildcat Has No Shows On DST

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 Charles C. Thompson, Southwest Mitchell County wildcat, eight miles southwest of Colorado City, and at the center of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 76, block 27, TP survey, took a one hour drillstem test in a Permian lime at 3,299-3,317 feet.

Recovery was 250 feet of drilling mud, with no signs of oil, gas or water. The prospector is now making new hole below 3,436 feet in lime and shale.

Ellenburger Topped At SC Mitchell Venture

Sun Oil Company No. 2 Ellwood, South-Central Mitchell County deep prospector, about 15 miles south of Colorado City, and 660 feet from southwest and southeast lines of section 25, block 16, SPRR survey, topped the Ellenburger at 7,614 feet on an elevation of 2,132 feet.

The project drilled ahead to 7,620 feet and started a core at that point.

Dallas County Finds More Votes For Coke

DALLAS —(AP)— Party officers sought legal advice Thursday as to whether a supplemental report can be filed showing 40 more votes for Coke Stevenson in the county's U. S. senatorial returns.

Additional returns for both Coke Stevenson and Rep. Lyndon Johnson, with Stevenosn the net gainer by 40 votes, were found Wednesday with discovery that returns on one voting machine had not been reported.

Berlin Actions Termed Cold-Blooded Example Of World-Wide Red Tactics

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

We have a prime example of Communist tactics the world over in Wednesday's kidnaping, by Russian gunners and their German police, of 19 Western Berlin police after the latter had left the City Hall in the Soviet zone under a Muscovite guarantee of safe passage.

The Red maneuver was just as bold and cold-blooded as that. It was another move in the Russian campaign to unseat the duly elected Berlin City Council, which is anti-Communist. The Western Berlin police came from the American-British-French zones and were present to shield a meeting of the council.

U. S. Secretary of State Marshall takes us a step further by stating that the Communist attacks on the Berlin city government are largely intended to upset talks of the Big Four military governors on the crisis in the Soviet-blockaded German capital. The secretary said the Berlin disorders have followed a familiar Communist pattern, and declared that the efforts to disrupt the conferences of the governors must be firmly resisted.

Disorder And Despair

And why should the Bolshevists be bent on disrupting the Berlin conferences? Because, as this column has pointed out before, Communism does not want peace.

Part of the fundamental strategy of Communism's world revolution is to create disorder and despair. It never has made progress by peaceful methods.

The current conversations of the Big Four may result in some sort of agreement—but it won't mean lasting peace. However, temporary peace may be better than no peace at all—so long as it isn't achieved by appeasement.

Poland is providing us with further evidence of Bolshevist tactics. The Communists Wednesday launched a drive for the avowed purpose of destroying "all exploiters and capitalists" among the some 15,000,000 peasants of the nation.

No Half-Way Measures

Larry Allen, Associated Press correspondent in Warsaw, says reports from usually reliable sources state that Communist groups have smashed tractors owned by the so-called "rich peasants" in Central Poland, and that fences dividing individual farms have been torn down in some places. Red action committees have been sent out to spread the news among peasants that their production must be put on a common basis. And so it goes.

You wouldn't think the Communists would dare crack down so hard on liberty-loving folk like the Poles, who time and again have fought for their freedom. But Bolshevism is as hard-boiled as the devil himself.

It is the nature of Bolshevism that always it must proceed by strong-arm methods. There are no half-way measures. Communism is allowing itself plenty of rope deliberately. It will either hang itself or hang us.

Tennessee Talent And Kansas Curves Lead Miss America Contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. —(AP)— Tennessee talent and Kansas curves led the Miss America pageant Thursday.

Dorothy Free, 19-year-old Miss Tennessee, held the lead on the talent side while Vera Ralston, 18-year-old Miss Kansas, dominated the beauty parade.

They were the first winners in the preliminary competition to name the nation's number one beauty-with-brains, the 1948 Miss America. A crowd of 10,000 watched the competition Wednesday night.

Miss Tennessee, a resident of Chattanooga, appeared in a black crepe gown with rhinestone design and sang two popular songs.

Miss Kansas appeared in her bathing suit and had to do nothing more.

Miss Texas Competes

Miss Texas, green-eyed Bonnie Jean Bland of Orange, still is in the running.

The blonde University of Texas student Wednesday night showed an audience of 10,000 four prints of her pencil sketches and then sang two songs. Her efforts brought nods of approval from the judges.

Miss Bland is to appear Thursday night in a bathing suit and Friday in an evening gown. Her total points for the three nights will determine whether she will be considered as a quarter-finalist Saturday night.

The judges will cut out all but 15 girls of the 55 entered and name one of them Miss America by midnight Saturday.

Frank Monroe Addresses Rotarians

Plans and problems of the Midland School District were discussed by Supt. Frank Monroe in an address to Midland Rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel.

He discussed the record school enrollment, told of the crowded classrooms and then discussed the building program and the new athletic plant of the Midland schools. Calling attention to the enrollment of 788 students at Junior High School, Monroe said from 40 to 50 students are in each classroom. He praised the school faculty and also the school board for their work in building the school system here.

Carl Wevat was elected a member of the board of directors of the club, succeeding Lawrence Meador, who moved from Midland recently.

Miss Elizabeth Cope entertained with several vocal selections. Mrs. Jack Ellington was at the piano. Bob Payne was program chairman and James T. Smith, club president, presided at the session.

Rotary hosts for the week are Wevat and Allen Wemple.

Students Should Buy Ducats Early

Midland Students are reminded that no student tickets can be sold at the ticket booths at Friday night's football game. This is a 3-AA ruling.

Students can buy tickets for the game at their respective schools and get them for 30 cents. They will cost 90 cents, a regular price, at the game.

Seymour Man To Head Credentials Panel For State Convention

HILLSBORO, TEXAS—(AP)—J. D. Rickson of Seymour Thursday was appointed chairman of the credentials committee for the Democratic State Convention at Fort Worth Tuesday, September 14.

The committee will meet at the Blackstone Hotel at Fort Worth Saturday at 10 a. m. and remain in session until all county delegations have appeared before it, Chairman R. W. Calvert of the State Executive Committee said.

Other members of the credentials committee will be: Mrs. Seth Dorbandt, Conroe; Joe Drumright, Wortham; Mrs. Wade Sadler, Gatesville; Homer Stimson, Royce City; Mrs. Alton Luckett, New Braunfels, and Joe W. Steed, Mount Pleasant.

Calvert said he would name a committee to canvass the U. S. Senate race and another to canvass the district office elections before the convention opens.

"which is the heart and core of the misnamed civil rights program, is nothing more than an American edition of the Russian all races law.

"Stalin himself wrote that law in 1920 when he was commissar of nationalities. Under that law there can be no discrimination in employment on account of race, color, national origin or ancestry.

"Did you ever dream that anyone would undertake to force Americans to conform to this Russian idea and concept? I know you did not. But the attempt now is being made, not by Stalin, but by Wallace, by Dewey and by Truman."

Curtis Douglass of Pampa was elected chairman of the States' Rights Party's State Executive Committee; Mrs. Cecil Smith of Sherman was chosen vice chairman and Bowlen Bond of Fairfield, secretary.

Members of the committee, by state senatorial districts included:

District 29 — J. M. Armstrong, Midland, and Mrs. Emily Teague, Odessa.

Marion Church of Dallas was elected chairman of the convention and John T. Crim, Jr., of Kilgore was elected secretary. Church, Douglass, Palmer Bradley, Jr., of Houston, Joe Wheeler of Austin and Sidney Van Zandt of Fort Worth were given the job of steering the Thurmond-Wright campaign in Texas.

Keynoting the convention, Bradley said "We appeal from the stacked party machinery to the people of Texas. It is now or never. If we lose our rights to govern ourselves, all else will sink into insignificance. I have been a Democrat for 53 years. I have never scratched a ticket and I'm not going to scratch one now. You know as well as I do that this assemblage represents the real Democrats of Texas rather than the strange assortment which will assemble in Fort Worth next week."

Electors Chosen

A platform similar to that adopted in Birmingham, Ala., when the States' Rights Democrats organized, was adopted by the convention. It condemned "action of the Philadelphia Democratic and Republican conventions in sponsoring a civil rights program. It called for the defeat of Truman and Dewey "and every other candidate for public office who would establish a police state in the United States of America."

The 23 presidential electors named, by counties, are:

Judge R. Huffman, Harrison; Charlie Howell, Jefferson; Dr. E. H. Vaughn, Smith; H. C. Lyon, Kaufman; Charles E. Mergbacher, Dallas; W. E. McKinney, Navarro; Austin B. McComb, Montgomery; George Redd, Harris; Dr. H. E. Roberts, Denton; Mrs. Marion Wiley, Tarrant; A. V. Grant, Montague; J. D. Norton, Navarro; B. C. Mitchell, Hidalgo; Richard P. Brooks, Midland; F. A. Dunigan, Stephens; A. A. Sturgeon, Gray; W. C. Wood, Lubbock; Sidney Van Zandt, Tarrant; J. E. Shropshire, McCullough; J. Robert Liles, Montgomery; A. R. Rucks, Brazoria; John Spann, Bexar; T. G. tested Communist attempts to seize power. The gathering dwarfed all Communist manifestations in Berlin.

A total of only about 20,000 persons took part in the four Communist demonstrations against the City Hall in the Russian zone.

Republic Square is in the British zone only 50 yards from the Russian boundary. Strong forces of Western sector police ringed the square.

Long before the rally started, trucks came from the American, British and French sectors filled with anti-Communists. The British had issued a permit for the rally but ruled that after Thursday, political demonstrations must be at least a half mile from the Soviet zone border. This was a precaution against "incidents."

Dallas Offers Site For Wallace Rally

DALLAS —(AP)— The Dallas Park Board has offered the Progressive Party use of the Fair Park Band Shell for a Wallace rally any day up to and including September 21.

The board last week turned down a request for use of the band shell on September 28 when Henry Wallace, the party's presidential candidate, is scheduled to be in Dallas. Party representatives were informed the band shell would be undergoing preparations for the State Fair.

New Make-Up Owes Its Soft Sheen To Infusion Of Clinging Powdered Silk

New make-up which looks as silky as the satin gown worn by this woman actually contains an infusion of silk filaments.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Newest bow-takers in the cosmetic field are the silk worms. The silky filaments they spin have been homogenized, powderized and infused into two make-up formulas to give a woman a choice of two silk dresses for her complexion. Each looks as silky as a satin gown.

Into both the creamy fluid, special foundation for a dry skin, and the creamy cake foundation — a more opaque type of silken make-up—countless particles of pure silk filaments have been infused.

The maker of these revolutionary products, which are offered in six high-fashion shades, maintains that the silky foundations have been so formulated to flex with and cling to the skin that touch-ups are almost unnecessary.

Chinese Merchants Keep Goods Moving

SHANGHAI—(AP)—Ingenious Chinese merchants have found one way of beating Shanghai's strict anti-hoarding law.

Merchants who want to keep more than the three months supply of stocks allowed hire push cart owners to keep their goods moving around the streets until they are needed.

So heavy has the traffic become that economic police found 32 large warehouses empty when they called to check the supplies.

An estimated 169,000,000 of patterns were sold in 1947.

City And School Tax Office Is Among Midland's Busiest Spots

By STANLEY FRANK

One of the busiest places in Midland is the city tax office. There, a staff of workers under the direction of W. I. Pratt assesses and collects taxes for the city and the Midland Independent School District.

Regular employes are Mrs. Joe Seymour and Miss Kathryn Alford, but Pratt finds it necessary to add other helpers when he prepares tax rolls.

Assessing and collecting the school taxes is an entirely separate work from that of assessing and collecting city taxes. Prior to 1930, the state and county handled the school tax work. Use of the same staff and office for collection of school taxes as well as city taxes is a measure of economy and convenience.

Reflect Growth

Naturally, figures in Pratt's office reflect the growth and increased prosperity of the city and county. Higher costs of construction, too, are mirrored in the office records, but it is probable a great many Midland taxpayers hardly realize how little their taxes have increased as a result of inflation alone.

Here's how property valuations now are computed for purposes of tax assessment in Pratt's office:

In 1946, a valuation survey was made in the city, and a card index was set up to show the appraised worth of every piece of property in Midland. The appraisal was conservative. Property worth was estimated on the basis of construction costs in 1943, and nobody doubts these costs had risen between 1943 and 1946. Competent engineers were consulted for construction cost figures.

Taxes are assessed on 70 per cent of the valuation as computed from the figures on each card. Thus, if you own a lot valued at $1,000 and a building valued at $9,000 (according to 1943 construction costs), your property is valued at $10,000 and the tax rate is applied on $7,000 of that total value.

Decided Advantage

This gives Midlanders a decided advantage, considering the differences between construction costs in 1943 and in 1948. It gives Pratt a uniformly impartial method of computing taxable valuation on any given piece of property.

The city's total assessed valuation in 1932 was only $5,100,000, as compared with about $19,000,000 for 1948. The school district's valuation in 1932 was about $8,400,000, as compared with approximately $24,500,000 this year. The school rate was $1 until 1947, when it was increased to $1.25; this year, as a result of bond issues for school construction and improvements the rate will be $1.40. The city rate was $1.60 from 1931 to 1934, $1.20 from 1935 through 1942, $1 in 1943 and 1945, $1.40 in 1945, 1946 and 1947. This year it is $1.80, a higher rate which, like the school rate, reflects a vast city improvement program now underway.

Collections Good

Tax collections in Midland always have been relatively high. Today, tax delinquency is lower than ever before in the city's history. Taxes for 1946-1947, considered current in Pratt's office, are 96 or 97 per cent paid. That Midlanders are comparatively quick to render their taxes is shown by the fact that ordinarily a record of 90-per-cent payment of current taxes is considered excellent in any city.

However, several tax suits have been filed here in recent months, and others will be filed as soon as the tax attorney can prepare them. Current city and school taxes are due and payable between October 1 and February 1, as in the case of state and county taxes.

Pastor Calls Olympic Ritual Pagan

BRISTOL, ENG.—(AP)—The Olympic ritual, says the Rev. G. W. L. Wynne, vicar of Holy Nativity Church, Knowle, is a lot of "pagan nonsense."

"We read about taking the Olympic oath and singing the Olympic hymn, whatever these strange rites mean," he said in his parish magazine. "This was completed by the singing of the 'Hallelujah Chorus.' What a strange mixture of sentiment! If it is true that the Lord God omnipotent reigneth, then why all this nonsense of sacred flames from heathen temples, together with heathen oaths and hymns?"

COAL ABSENTEEISM CUTS BRITISH SMOKES

OXFORD, ENGLAND—(AP)—"An improvement of only one per cent in the absenteeism rate in British coal mines would give us an increase of around 2,000,000 tons of coal a year," Alfred Robens, parliamentary secretary to the ministry of fuel, said in a speech here.

"Every ton of coal exported brings us enough foreign exchange to buy 123 gallons of petrol or 10,000 cigarettes from the U. S. A.," he added. If Britain can exceed her coal export target this year the secretary raised the hope that "little extras" might be possible.

SPEAK, WATCHMAN—WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

CARMI, ILL. —(AP)— A pair of trousers and an empty wallet found on a river bank led authorities to investigate the case as a drowning. But when they went to the address given in the wallet, they found the man feared drowned. The trousers, wallet and $30 were stolen while he had been sleeping. At the time, he said, he was on duty for an oil firm as a night watchman.

HELP WANTED—BUT DESPERATELY

SYDNEY —(AP)— Sydney firms, short of labor, are offering jobs to migrants by the radiogram. As a migrant ship nears Australia they send "jobs vacant" radio messages to the ship for display on notice boards.

A few months ago staff-hungry employers met ships coming to Sydney. Several found, however, that other employers had got there first.

Automatic Puff Handy For Blotting Up Shine

Young golfer blots up shine with automatic powder puff.

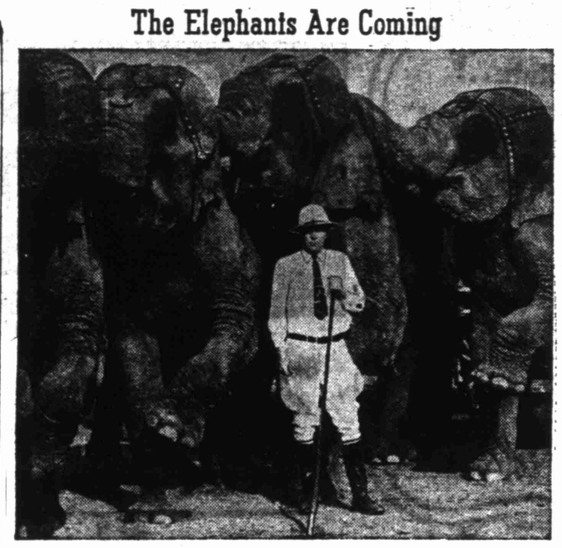
By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Any girl who believes that a shiny nose is a beauty threat—and who doesn't?—will welcome an automatic powder puff which takes care of this menace.

Such a face-saver has packed inside of its plump little velour case a powder specially devised to blot up a shine. A girl can accomplish her objective in a twinkling with a swipe of the puff in one of those "hand is quicker than the eye" gestures.

Carried in a purse, beach carryall or the pocket of a golf bag, the self-contained puff doesn't throw off dust or spill its powder. Almost any shade of powder which a woman dips into each morning on her dressing table can be duplicated in kind by the puff, designed for banishing a shine while she is away from home.

The Elephants Are Coming



Eugene Scott and four of the huge elephants he will bring to Midland September 17 with the Cole Brothers Circus. The veteran menagerie superintendent said the show this year has the best animal acts in its history. The circus' three elephant herds will be presented in thrilling displays and acts in which beautiful girls are included. Many other special acts and features are listed in the complete program. Afternoon and night performances will be held on the Garret Show Grounds on West Highway 80.

It All Depends On The Shoe's Viewpoint

DENVER—(AP)—Can a shoe salesman refuse to try a new pair of shoes on a barefooted customer? Maybe, said Attorney General H. Lawrence Hinkley.

Hinkley couldn't find the answer in the statutes when a store owner asked for a ruling. However, he replied that the salesman might refuse service to the stockingless customer "if he felt it might result in damage to his goods."

Fine For Frying

Traffic Fine Is Nine Years Late

SANTA ROSA, CALIF.—(AP)—Nine years ago Justice of the Peace L. E. Fulwider fined a man $50 for a traffic violation. The man moved out of the state without paying it. Then the other day he turned up after his unpaid fine had been found in the records when he tried to obtain a driver's license.

He said he had thought all along that his wife had paid it nine years ago. Judge Fulwider accepted the explanation—and the $50.

Police Chief Takes Own Medicine

FORT MORGAN, COLO.—(AP)—Chief of Police Homer Morse went right along with City Council in telling his men:

"We play no favorites in giving parking tickets."

Next day Morse appeared in police court. He paid a $1 fine for an overtime parking ticket.

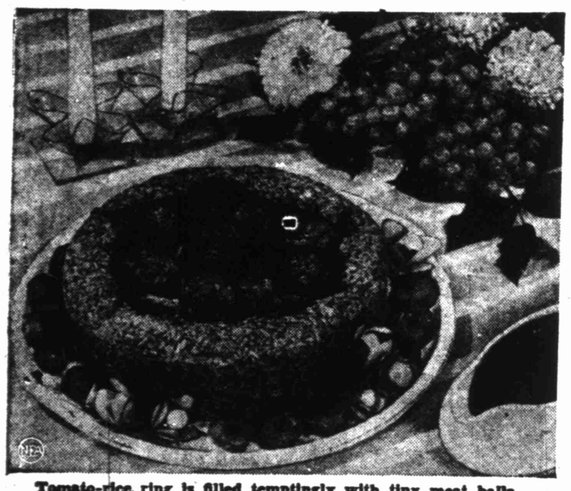
Thrift Keynotes Rice Ring



Tomato-rice ring is filled temptingly with tiny meat balls.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Here's a thrifty main dish that will feed six. The tomato rice, made with canned tomato sauce, has a wonderful flavor. Press it into a ring mold and fill with meat balls. Make your meat balls small. If you garnish the dish with pickles, fresh greens(radishes, carrot and celery curls) and use Fall fruits for your centerpiece, you'll have your whole menu right on the table and won't have to do any hopping up and down from kitchen to table. A gravy boat filled with tomato sauce can be passed after serving.

Buffet Rice Ring
(Serves 6)

One and one-half cups rice, 2 8-ounce cans tomato sauce, 2 tablespoons melted fortified margarine or drippings, 2 teaspoons onion salt, 1 bunch watercress, meat balls.

Add rice to 3 quarts rapidly boiling salted water, cook until tender about 15 minutes). Drain; rinse with cold water. Add canned tomato sauce, melted fat, and onion salt. Blend thoroughly with a fork. Grease a 9-inch ring mold well and fill with the rice mixture. Place in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 15 minutes. Unmold. Fill center with watercress and little meat balls (piping hot).

Meat Balls

One and one-half pounds ground beef (have meat well trimmed of fat before grinding), 1 onion grated or 1 carrot grated, 1 teaspoon salt, dash Tabasco sauce, 1/2 to 1 teaspoon chili powder (optional), 4 tablespoons butter, fortified margarine or drippings.

Mix ingredients, with the exception of the fat, well. Shape into small balls each about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Saute in the fat in a large frying pan, shaking the pan from time to time to brown the meat balls on all sides. Cook to degree desired. To serve: fill the center of rice ring with watercress and pile the meat balls onto this green bed.

Youths Ignore B-29 For Novelty Of Model T

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Signs of the times:

Carl W. Flagg, civilian photographer at Fort Sam Houston, tells of the group of youngsters who were playing in front of his home.

Suddenly, a huge B-29 flew very low over the street. At the same time a dilapidated model T Ford chugged by.

The youngsters gaped at the car till it passed from sight.

Nary an eye went skyward.

Maybe Jeep Hadn't Received The Word

BANGKOK, SIAM —(AP)— Siam's "miracle healer" is in a good old-fashioned hospital. He tried to drive a jeep by intuition.

The "healer" is Samanen Noi Ratanakosin, 12-year - old novice Buddhist monk. For months, crowds of hundreds daily have been coming to him in the belief his touch healed all wounds and cured sickness.

Enroute in a jeep to use his powers on a bedridden patient, the young monk suddenly announced he felt an "intuitive inspiration" that he could drive a jeep. He'd never driven one before.

The jeep owner, Nai Bunsue, gave him the wheel. Samanen ran into a bus. His miraculous powers did not halt the bleeding from scalp wounds. Bystanders took him to a hospital.

Prisoner Takes Jail Holiday For Murder

BERLIN —(AP)— The Soviet-controlled press here tells the story about a German convict who took a holiday from prison to commit murder.

The newspapers "Der Morgen" said the incident occured at Dessau, in Russian-occupied Saxony. There the convict slipped from the local jail one night, robbed and murdered a jeweler's widow. With his loot he traveled to Leipzig, about thirty-five miles away. He converted part of the jewelry into food and other luxuries for a night "on the town." The remainder he buried in a park. Then he voluntarily returned to Dessau and prison.

His "holiday crime" was discovered some weeks later after children at play had uncovered the jewel cache. The murder trail led back to the cell in which the slayer thought he was safe.

Holiday Peace Camp Is Held In Austria

VIENNA —(AP)— A holiday camp devoted to the ideal of a world-wide peace is being held in the British zone of Austria during September.

The "peace camp," sponsored by the Austrian "friends of peace," will be at Weissensee, Carinthia. The group hopes to make the camp an annual affair.

Among those who have promised to attend are the British playwright, J. B. Priestly, and the French authors Albert Ganus, Jean Gione and Tristan Tzara. The Austrian delegation will be headed by Franz Theodor Csokor, Erich Tesar and Prof. Hans Thirring.

Midland District's Locations Drop To 45 In Latest Week

The Midland district of the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission showed a sharp decline in the number of new locations for oil explorations in the region during the past week, as compared with previous seven-day periods. The total number of new locations for last week was 45; while in the preceding week the total was 62. Only three wildcat locations were listed, with two semi-wildcats slated to be drilled in the district.

Hockley and Crane Counties headed the list, with seven new developments each. One of the locations in Crane was for a wildcat and another for a semi-wildcat. Cochran and Ector Counties came next with six new projects each.

Andrews County was listed for four of the new ventures, with one a semi-wildcat. Pecos and Mitchell were given three each, and Ward County received two of the new drillsites.

The remaining seven were distributed one each to Borden, Dawson, Glasscock, Hale, Scurry, Upton, and Winkler Counties. The locations made in Borden and Dawson Counties were for wildcat explorations. Dawson also had two amended applications, and there were also amended applications for projects already in progress in Garza and Gaines Counties.

Magician Will Bring Show Here

A streamlined performance of ultra modern miracles will be presented December 13 when Dr. Gaffney, master magician, brings his famous company to Midland for afternoon and night shows under the sponsorship of the Midland Lions Club. Dr. Gaffney reportedly has spent a lifetime in developing his acts of mystery, and his show is said to be the greatest of its kind on earth.

Middle Age Has Become Stylish

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Maybe you haven't noticed—it's been happening gradually—but the movies and magazines have stopped selling the idea that life ends with the 30th birthday.

The people who had slipped past that fatal birthday never believed all their fun, romance and productive years were behind them. But if they trusted what the short-story writers and the films told them, they should have been set for a porch and carpet-slippers routine.

Seems like it was only yesterday that the classic heroine of magazine fiction was a fresh young maiden on the threshold of the twenties. She, and she alone, was allowed to find Real Romance. Romance with a boy a couple of years older. All such stories ended when he finally broke down and proposed.

All this has changed. Indeed, some of our most popular fiction heroines today are boldly presented as having known more than 30 Summers. Many are even permitted to be young widows with children. Just the other day I read a short story about a wizened old girl of 40, with a couple of kids, who met up with a senile widower of 45. And they were allowed to fall in love, just like that.

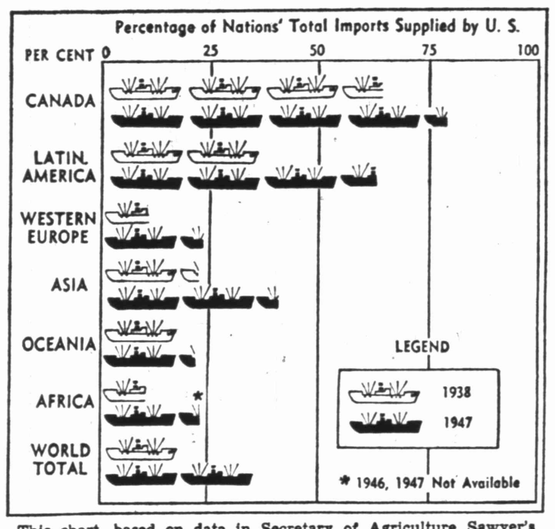
Take a look at our movie stars. Most of the popular ones are the same people who were around 10 or more years back. No one tries to pass off Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Spencer Tracy, Jimmy Stewart, Cary Grant, Clark Gable or Charles Boyer as juveniles, but there they are, making a play for the heroine and often as not winding up the picture in a clinch with her. And they don't try to cover up the fact that they've sprouted a gray hair here and there—or have a little trouble hanging on to the thatch.

There's Katharine Hepburn, Greer Garson, Joan Crawford, Rosalind Russell, Ginger Rogers—to pick a few at random—and none of them is trying to make like she's fresh out of high school.

Furthermore, lots and lots of movies are written about mature people. No longer does a film mandatorily revolve around the tired boy-meets-girl theme and end with the sound of wedding bells and the whisper of white satin. Many's the popular picture about adults pursuing adult courses of life.

All this is very hopeful to those oldsters among the population who remember back when the talkies came in and Roosevelt's first administration. It's made a lot of the kids, who ordinarily would scorn as aged and ultra-conservative anyone past 25, look forward to living the full, happy life of the middle years.

How World Depends on U. S. Supplies



This chart, based on data in Secretary of Agriculture Sawyer's quarterly report on exports under decontrol, shows how hungry the world's broad trade areas are for U. S. goods. Before the war, the U. S. supplied about 15 per cent of the value of goods imported by other nations. Total U. S. exports in 1947 hit an all-time high of about $15,200,000,000, and goods went out in the first half of 1948 at the rate of $13,000,000,000. Prewar average was less than $3,000,000,000.

NO RATIONS FOR CZECH LOAFERS

PRAGUE — (AP) — Pnysically fit persons who do not work will no longer get food ration tickets in Bratislava. The official Czechoslovakian news agency reported that the order will not apply to married women, the aged and those unable to work because of their health.

"This decision will put an end to young men, who are able to work, sitting in the coffee houses and similar places," the report said.

DOLLARS CAUSE FRENCH COTTON WOES

LILLE — (AP) — French textile men are blaming Egypt for their current ills.

They say their factories may have to close for lack of cotton, because of the insistenceof Egyptians that they be paid in dollars, rather than in their own money.

DOGS GUARD SINGAPORE

SINGAPORE —(AP)— Thirty Alsatian dogs, specially trained for guard duties, have arrived to be "posted" up country where they will take part in the anti-terrorist campaign. They were sent out from England by the War Office.

Former Globe Flyer Wants Fish Cannery

PAGO PAGO, AMERICAN SAMOA—(AP)—Harold Gatty, a world-girdling flyer when the airplane was in the horse-and-buggy stage, is trying to start a fish cannery in American Samoa.

The Australian, who dropped out of sight in recent years, has business interests in the Fiji islands and offices in New York City.

Gatty proposes to set up his cannery on Pago Pago harbor, opposite the naval station, using war-constructed buildings. He plans to use Samoans, once great seafarers but now virtually landlubbers, as fishermen.

The project has been indorsed by the naval governor, Capt. Vernon Huber, but awaits approval by higher authorities.

Huber believes the cannery would contribute greatly to Samoa's economy, now dependent entirely on the export of copra and handicraft and employment on the naval station. The three brought in three-fourths million dollars in the last fiscal year.

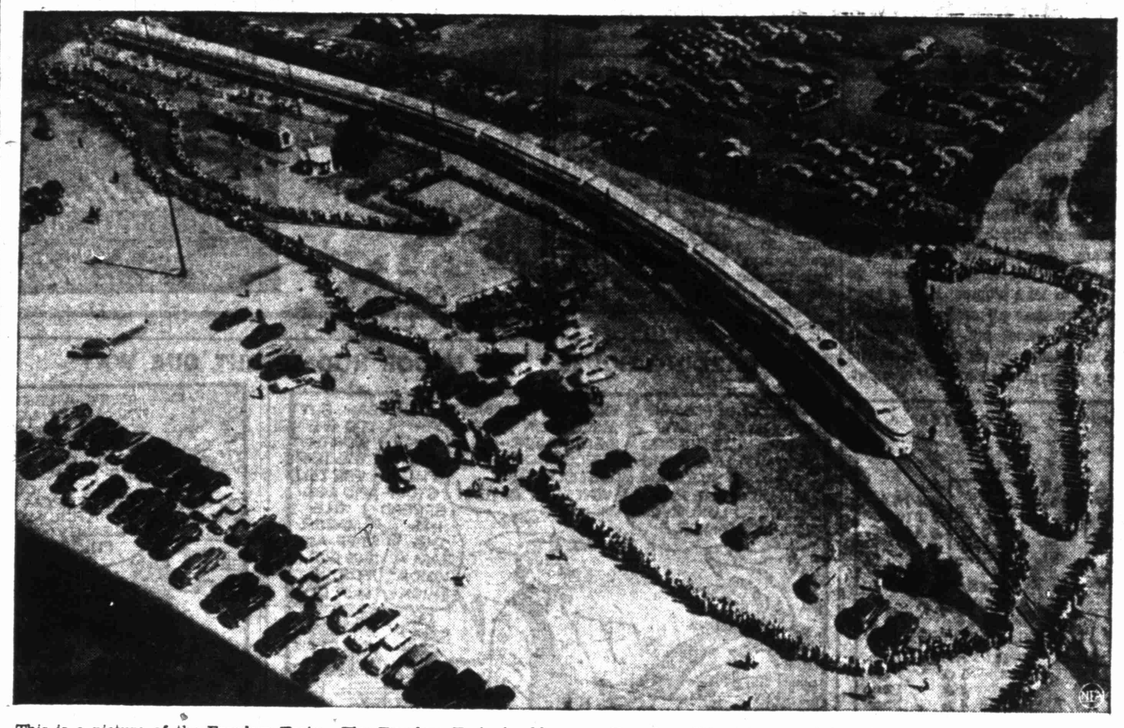
This Is America, Mr. Stalin



This is a picture of the Freedom Train. The Freedom Train is old stuff now. It has been puffing around the country for months. It has stopped in 270 cities. So this isn't a "news" picture. But for you it is an important picture. Because of all the photos taken of the train, you haven't seen one that shows as dramatically as this the real "ideology" of 99 44/100 per cent of all Americans. It's an ideology that inspired thousands of them to stand in this long line under a blistering sun for hours on end. Just to get a glimpse of a few sheets of paper and parchment with some scribbling on them. It doesn't matter where this picture was taken, for the story it tells was repeated all along the train's 30,000-mile trip. For the record, it was taken in Cleveland, Ohio. This picture will never be reprinted in Moscow's newspaper Pravda. But it's a good picture for you to clip out and stash away in your wallet. And when some Red-minded chin-wagger starts to sell you the glories of communism, pull it out and rub his nose in it. The Freedom Train DOES happen here. It CAN'T happen in Russia.

Eire And Ulster Union Rumored

LONDON—(AP)—Political fiddlers of Eire are tuned up for a reunion jig with the northern branch of the Irish family. But Ulster officials are playing hard-to-get.

The idea of a united Ireland is perennial, but the prospects for anti-partitionists are brighter now than at any time since the Emerald Isle was sliced in two a generation ago.

No one in authority is ready to call the day of reunion. And the denials—thick and fast—from the Ulstermen, particularly in Belfast, are growing faster than the shamrocks in Paddy's peat bog.

To many observers it is a case of too many denials—"The lady doth protest too much."

Prime minister of Eire, John A. Costello, is the political strategist who may be conning his way to an agreement that always eluded his predecessor, Eamon de Valera, though the latter has been stumping for reunion even beyond the seas ever since he was succeeded by Costello.

The astute Costello has just signed a juicy trade contract with Britain. And the British are sending one cabinet minister after another to Ireland for a "holiday."

Eire newspapers print headlines of "U-day." There are rumors of meetings near the border and reports that British officials are expected to discuss reunion at their conferences with Ulster Prime Minister Sir Basil Brooke.

Whatever negotiations have gone on, or are scheduled, are in the category of "off-the-record" discussions.

Swimming Pool Planned As Basement For Home

NASHVILLE, TENN. —(AP)— Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kemp, who have a place to build a home, want to learn to swim.

They have asked the city building inspector's office for a permit to construct a swimming pool.

After they learn to swim, Mrs. Kemp said, they plan to build a house over the pool and make it the basement of their home.

Add finely chopped parsley and butter to cooked rice ond serve with a stew.

THE STORY: Dying in the Indian desert, British secret agent Hilary Shenstone feels a desperate need to get back to England and to Nuns Farthing, his family home. He doesn't know the house has been let and that dreamy, 17-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. Hilary does return to England and to Nuns Farthing—after death. At his club he hears his death discussed, tries to join in the talk but can't make anyone aware of his presence. At his mother's town house, it is the same. Only at Nuns Farthing does Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, seem to know that Hilary has come home. Hilary first discovers Sabrina asleep.

• • •

XVIII

SABRINA woke to a darkened room, but the edges of the curtains were gilded with sunlight. Her bedside clock said 10 minutes to 9. She slid out onto the floor without slippers or dressing-gown and went to pull back the curtains. The garden looked delicious in the morning light.

For a few minutes, kneeling on the window seat with her elbows on the sill, she wondered why it felt like such a special day.

Then she remembered the dream.

But the more she tried to capture the dream again, the more elusive it became. Something about his coming back—yes, that was it. She had dreamed he was there in the house. Perhaps there would be a letter in the morning post, for Father, of course, to say he was coming down to fetch something he had left behind. Or perhaps a car would just drive up and a strange man would get out, and that would be—oh, what was his name! Or perhaps—

The old magic reasserted itself in the same absorbing game. He would come back. She would see him—speak to him, at last.

Cold water on her face, and the commonplace details of dressing dimmed the dream still more. But the feeling of expectancy persisted. Something had brought him suddenly nearer. Something was different. Something special. . . .

• • •

FATHER and Aunt Effie had nearly finished breakfast when she entered the dining room.

"Darling!" cried Aunt Effie in astonishment, dropping the "Express." "You shouldn't have got out of bed without letting me know! But how well you look this morning!"

"I had a lovely sleep," said Sabrina, with a secret smile for the dream. "Nobody could stay in bed on a morning like this!" She kissed them both lightly, and went to inspect the sideboard hot-plates. "What can I have to eat?"

"I'll ask them to boil you a little egg," said Aunt Effie, and rang the bell.

"Oh, Auntie, can't I have some bacon or something with it? I'm hungry!"

"Do you hear that, Alan, she's hungry!"

Sabrina had bacon and a boiled egg and two pieces of toast, well-buttered. She decided against a second cup of lukewarm tea when Aunt Effie left to do the ordering and Father escaped to his study. She drifted out to the garden. The snap-dragons were blooming at last. Pale yellow, peach and pink and dark crimson, they stood in sturdy ranks along the border. She bent and pinched one to make it gape, detached a full-blown bloom from a pillar rose to pull through her belt buckle, and glanced up at the windows of the L-shaped room as she always did from that part of the garden. They were closed, of course.

All the bewildered mistrust of the room which had come upon her in the chill gray twilight of her last visit had vanished over night, and she was able now to lay it to the weather, or to her illness, whatever it was, coming on. The rain and her own feverish imagination had tricked her. She felt again, and welcomed, the old familiar fascination. She must go up there, at once. The room was lonely, and must be aired out on a day like this.

• • •

IN the long, sunny room at the top of the house he heard her feet on the stairs. Then the door opened and she came in, wearing a blue dress, with a rose in her belt—taller than he had expected, and too thin. He stood up politely, beside the window seat from where he had been watching her in the garden.

He was not altogether unprepared to see her here, for he had found his door unlocked the night before. A hasty investigation had shown him that nothing had been moved. His desk was the same, his clothes were still there. At least no one was living in the room. Neither was there a two years' accumulation of dust. Someone came in and out, then, but left his things alone.

Sabrina paused just inside the door, and stood for a moment, the knob still in her hand, glancing about her with questioning eyes.

"Please come in," said Hilary from the window. "You won't mind me, will you?"

Sunlight streamed through the casements toward her, making diamond-shaped nuggets of warm gold on the floor. The blended reds and blues and greens and browns of books, carpets, and old polished wood were lovelier than ever before to her eager gaze. How silly she had been ever to feel frightened here.

"Hullo again," whispered Sabrina, shamefaced.

"Hullo," said Hilary, surprised.

Obviously quite unaware of him, full of housewifely purpose, she went to set the casement windows wide to the morning air, kneeling on the window seat to the left of him as she did so.

"There," she said with satisfaction, under her breath. "That's better." And she sat back on her heels against the cushions, her elbows on the sill, looking down into the garden and pondering something deep within her mind.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

The beginner at contract has to learn many conventions, such as "second hand low," "always cover an honor with an honor," and so on. There is also an old expression which assures us that "many a man is walking the streets of London because he failed to lead trump." It is a good thing to bear all of these conventions in mind, but there should be no absolutely set rules in bridge any more than in any other sport.

Even though there is a runner on first and nobody out, a team once in a while will cross the opponents up and line one out instead of bunting. In football, on the fourth down with fifteen yards to go, to punt is the proper thing: but many a game has been won because a smart team used a strategic play instead.

In today's hand there is a simple example in regard to leading trump. North properly got into a contract of four spades and East made the normal opening of the jack of diamonds, which declarer won with the ace.

Now suppose that North followed the rule about picking up trumps. He would lead a spade, West would win with the ace, return the jack of clubs and declarer would lose two club tricks. The average player might not even notice this mistake, because North still would make his contract of four spades.

However, let us suppose that North disregarded the rule to lead trump. Instead, he cashed the queen of hearts, led a small diamond to dummy's king, and on the ace and king of hearts he threw away his five and king of clubs. Then he led the ten of spades, and when West went in with the ace and led a club, it was too late. North trumped, picked up the rest of the trumps and made six-odd.

German Editors Will Study U. S. Journalism

NEW YORK—(AP)—Fifteen western German editors have been invited to America to study "the function of a free press in a democratic society." They will stay six weeks.

The trip will be financed by the Rockefeller foundation at the request of Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia university.

The editors will reside at Columbia as guests of the American Press Institute, which made the announcement.

Floyd Taylor, director of the institute, said "all of these Germans disliked the Hitler regime and some spent years in concentration camps."

JAPANESE YOUTH GROUP BANS LIQUOR, CRITICISM

TOKYO—(AP)—It isn't democratic to drink liquor, a youth organization in the town of Wajima decided.

The organization adopted an abstinence program, providing a fine of 50,000 yen against any member who touches a drink. The same fine applies against anyone criticizing mistakes by fellow members.

Teen-agers represent one-fourth of the total number of home sewers.

'The World Advances—Advance With It' Is Motto Of Modern Study Club

By SUE COLEMAN

The motto of the Modern Study Club is "The World Advances—Advance With It," and the club does not hesitate to practice it. Members have changed the study course, changed the club aim, and even changed its name to conform to their changing interests.

It is one of the oldest study groups in Midland, organized in April of 1925. The original members were young mothers, and the organization was named The Mother's Club. In 1928, that title was expanded and it became the Mother's Self Culture Club.

By 1936 that name had been outmoded as members' children had grown up and new personnel had been added to the club roster, so the present name was adopted. None of the present members were charter members.

For this year's study course, which will begin at a coffee September 15 in the home of Mrs. F. R. Schenck, president, the subject chosen is "The American Scene." Topics are "American Art," "American Education," "The American Table," "The American Newspaper," "American Inventions," "Americana," "The American Theatre," "American Literature," "Hawaii and Alaska," "American Music," "Scenic America," and "American Fashions."

Special Programs

Special programs which will vary the study course include the annual Federation Day, to be observed at the first meeting; an art exhibit in October, the Christmas tea in December, a buffet supper with members' husbands as guests in February ,Texas Day in March, and Citizenship Day in April. Bert Goodman will be the speaker on "The Alcan Highway" at the party for husbands.

Mrs. F. R. Schenck is president of the club this year, with Mrs. Kenneth Slough and Mrs. John Casselman as vice presidents, Mrs. Earl Statton as recording secretary, Mrs. Roger Freeman as secretary, Mrs. C. H. Shepard as treasurer, Mrs. Lamar Lunt as parliamentarian, and Mrs. Carl Westlund as reporter.

On the standing committees are Mrs. Leo Brady, Mrs. C. L. Sherwood and Mrs. G. C. Hughes, social committee; Mrs. C. L. Slough, Mrs. Westlund, and Mrs. J. M. Devereux, ways and means; Mrs. C. C. Keith and Mrs. J. W. Carroll, yearbook; Mrs. Al Boring and Mrs. Ivan Hood, telephone committee.

Department chairmen are Mrs. Devereux, American citizenship; Mrs. Boring, American home; Mrs. Lunt, education; Mrs. Harrie A. Smith, fine arts; Mrs. W. C. Cartwright, international relations; Mrs. C. L. Sherwood, legislation; Mrs. Statton, public welfare; Mrs. Earl Johnson, peace service. Mrs. Casselman is Federation councilor.

First Officers

The first president of the Mother's Club was Mrs. C. M. Goldsmith, and the first study course subject was "Development of the Child." Other officers were Mrs. P. J. Mims and Mrs. A. B. Coleman, vice president; Mrs. R. V. Lawrence, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred Wemple, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ella Cowden, musical director.

Projects of the club in its early years reflected the members' interest in children, and included the gift of dining room furniture to the Midland High School. Major projects last year were donations to the Dunbar Branch Library and to the Midland Memorial Hospital fund. Contributions also were made to other community service projects, and members packed and shipped two large boxes of clothing to families in Finland.

The Modern Study Club has been affiliated with the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs since 1926, and with the General Federation since 1929. It is also one of the organizations in the City-County Federation, and has cooperated through its history in projects of the various federations. In 1936, the first year under the present club name, its yearbook won first place in District Eight, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

Previous Subjects

Subjects of its study through the years show how the members have kept abreast of the times. Back in the 1930's some of the courses were on "The Woman Problem and the Woman Movement," "The United States As Seen Through the Eyes of Modern Writers," "A Bird's-eye View of Europe Today," "Romance of the Western Frontier," "Economic, Industrial and Political Developments," "International Relations," "The World Progresses," and "Adventures Around the World."

More recent subjects are "Current Thought," "Romance of Rivers," "Good Neighbor Tour," "America in a New World;" "Postwar Role of American Women," "The Road We Are Traveling," and for last year's study, "Building a Better American Family."

Luxembourg Army Ready To Back Union

LUXEMBOURG —(AP)— The luxend of Benelux is ready to contribute to the Western European union the largest standing army of its history—three whole battalions numbering a couple of thousand men.

Until its liberation in 1944 the tiny grand duchy never had a peace-time army at all. Three hundred gendarmes acted as frontier guards along its borders with Germany, Belgium and France. Now roughly 1,200 conscripts are called for military service each year and all Luxembourgers may be required to serve upon attaining 20 years of age.

Dressed in British battle dress with black tin helmets for maneuvers, they may find themselves on duty as guards for the turreted grand ducal palace and living in barracks of the grim old fortress of Saint Esprit. Or they may be serving with the Third battalion which is helping to occupy Germany by garrisoning Bittburg in the French occupation zone.

Some Luxembourgers are opposed to what they call the "militarization" of the grand duchy, which is only 999 square miles in area and has a population of 300,000. Fourteen Socialist members of parliament are in opposition to the government of Premier Pierre Dupong, mainly on the conscription issue.

Meanwhile Luxembourg is turned far more toward the west than the east, where the great lifeless expanse of occupied Germany lies. Although its people speak a kind of German dialect and its newspapers are printed in German, the grand duchy hotly resents any form of German influence on its life today.
