NO TRACES OF LUBBOCK MAN UNCOVERED

DISAPPEARANCE OF DRESSER STILL MYSTERY HERE

Collections totaling about $100 were on the person of M. B. Dresser, 55-year-old dairyman, when he disappeared here Monday afternoon, an attache of the dairy said this morning.

Disappearance of Dresser, who lived on his dairy two miles south of Lubbock, remained unsolved early this afternoon. City and county peace officers and members of the missing man's family reported that they had uncovered no trace of the dairyman.

Search For Note

The Dresser home virtually was ransacked by the family in a futile attempt to find a message which Dresser possibly had left before disappearing. A dairy employe said that Dresser was not known to have drawn any money from a bank on the day of his disappearance, although the day's collections were on his person.

The missing dairyman has been described to officers as being of short, heavy build, with blue eyes and black hair streaked with gray. The thumb on his left hand has been so badly mashed that the nail has grown down over the end of the thumb.

Last Seen On Avenue L

Dresser last was seen at about 2 p. m. Monday afternoon walking north on Avenue L between 17th and 18th streets. He lived at the dairy with his two grown sons, M. B. Dresser, Jr., and Elbert Dresser, neither of whom have heard from their father since Monday.

"This is not the first time my father has left home suddenly, but it is the first time that he has failed to tell some one where he was going," M. B. Dresser said Thursday night.

"Father has been very restless since my mother's death in 1929. Once, about a year ago, he went to Houston and was gone four days; but before he went, he told one of the neighbors of his plans," Mr. Dresser explained.

SCHROEDER IS CONVICTED

IS FOUND GUILTY IN DEATH OF UNKNOWN HITCH-HIKER

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, March 13.—Convicted of voluntary manslaughter for the death of an unknown hitch-hiker whose body he admitted burning in his automobile near here last May, Harold Herbert Schroeder, Mobile, Ala., today faced a 2 to 21 year term in the Indiana state prison.

Judge Frank P. Baker, who presided at the trial in criminal court, will pronounce sentence Monday morning.

The verdict was reached by a jury after three hours and 35 minutes deliberation. The case was given the jurors yesterday after eleven days of testimony and arguments before a courtroom crowded at every session. The state had sought conviction of first degree murder and imposition of the death penalty.

Leaders Of Band Of Smugglers Hunted

FAIRFIELD, Cal., March 13. (AP)—Ringleaders of an alleged East Indian smuggling syndicate were hunted today as officials pressed the investigation of the slaying of Sant Ram Pande, 31, University of California student.

The federal government entered the case officially yesterday with announcement by W. R. Walsh, head of the San Francisco immigration office, that his department planned wholesale deportation of Hindus in California. The ring was charged with smuggling aliens into the United States at $1,000 a head.

Japan's Tiniest Princess Named

TOKYO, March 13 (AP)—Japan's tiniest bit of royalty was christened Yori Atsuko today on the seventh day after the princess' birth and shortly thereafter, in strict accordance with time-honored rites, Emperor Hirohito had duly reported the name to the spirits of the imperial ancestors.

The name was chosen from the ancient Japanese scriptures, Yori meaning obedience to heaven and Atsuko meaning generosity to those on earth.

POLITICAL POT BOILS TODAY IN SESSION

DEMANDS ARE HEARD FOR PROGRESSIVE PRESIDENT

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON

WASHINGTON, March 13. (AP)—The national political campaign culminating in the 1932 presidential election was under way today propelled by a second conference of political leaders in as many weeks.

Election of a "progressive president" was called for yesterday by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, in concluding the last meeting of election portent—the two-day progressive conference over which he presided.

Issues Developed

The unusually early popping of political phenomena has occurred in the three distinct groups—Democrats, Republicans and independents. It has gone far already in defining issues and developing candidates.

Prohibition, power, unemployment and the tariff stand out as issues projected from the early swirl of conferences and maneuvers.

As for candidates, President Hoover, titular head of the Republican party, is unchallenged so far within the regular ranks and the Republican national committee has centered its efforts in support of his administration.

There is a host of Democratic

AGREE TO REDUCE OIL IMPORTATION

WASHINGTON, Mar. 13 (AP)—A voluntary agreement with the government by major importing companies to reduce oil imports several million barrels yearly was announced today by Secretary Wilbur.

Wilbur, who is chairman of the federal oil conservation board, said only the Standard of Indiana remained outside the agreement but that difficulties preventing it from joining in the program were being worked out as rapidly as possible.

The Gulf oil company and the Standard of New Jersey were included in the agreement he said.

Fifteen Hundred In Hamburg Arrested

RAMBURG, Germany, March 13. (AP)—Fifteen hundred persons were arrested by police here last night in what was probably the largest political raid ever staged in Germany. About 1,200 of them will be prosecuted for disturbing the peace.

Police learned that communists had forged a considerable number of tickets for a meeting of fascists. They waited until 4,000 persons were in the meeting hall then closed the doors and conducted a two-hour examination of the admission cards to detect the forgeries.

Watch Your Step! It's Friday The Thirteenth

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 13—This is the second Friday 13th of 1931 and another will be along in November.

For hundreds of years Friday has been considered a hoodoo, and the same is true of the 13th. When they both fall on one day, superstitious people throw up their hands in horror.

History Contradicts

But history records good things have happened on these days as well as ill.

Here are some events that befell on Friday:

Columbus set sail, sighted land, started back to Spain and returning, discovered the mainland, all on Fridays; John Cabot started his ourney to discovery; the Declaration of Independence was signed; Cornwallis surrendered; Melendez founded St. Augustine; the Mayflower made land; the first emigrants reached Plymouth rock; the airplane Icemen flew the Atlantic; Shakespeare, Napoleon, Bismark, Disraeli and Washington were born; Christ was crucified; Fort Sumter was bombarded; the Battle of Waterloo was fought; Joan of Arc was burned; Lincoln and Caesar were assassinated.

As for the 13th:

The national anthem was born; American troops took St. Mihiel; Richard Wagner, who had 13 letters in his name, was

She Learned Her Lesson All Right?

OMAHA, Neb., March 13 (AP)—Mrs. Fred Shaw, was in police court yesterday, charged with riding about in taxicabs.

It's no criminal offense, of course, to go riding in a taxicab, but her husband complained she would call on him several times a day to pay the bills and annoyed him so much that he lost a job he had held for 14 years.

"She must be afraid," he said, "that she will get the pedestrianitis, or something like that."

Mrs. Shaw listened to a lecture from the judge about economy, and then left police headquarters—in a taxicab.

Premier Laval Is Voted Confidence

PARIS, March 13. —(AP)—The chamber of deputies, after sitting for more than 24 hours, this afternoon voted confidence in Premier Laval, 340 to 215. The vote brought rejection of a socialist amendment to a government measure enabling reorganization of the Aeropostale company.

IT WAS A GOOD STORY WHILE IT LASTED BUT POLICE UNCONVINCED

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 13.—It was a good story and Police Sergeant Thomas McDonald was an attentive listener.

"Automobile?" he asked as he glanced at the injured head of Harold Emler, who had just come in to make a report.

"No, it was robbers," said Emler. "There were two of them. One held me while the other hit me over the head with a ball bat. When I woke up, there I was with my head mashed in and I found I had been robbed of $400. But I put up a terrific fight. I knocked one down and thought I had killed him. I strike a terrible blow when I am angered."

As Emler spoke, a quiet woman entered the station and sat down near him. He was about to go on with his story when she arose.

"Mr. Officer," said she, "I am Mrs. Paul Semrow. My daughter, Harriet, is this man's wife, which would make me his mother-in-law. This morning he beat up his wife. Then he came over and told me he was going to do the same to me. I grabbed up a hammer and cracked him."

Emler sighed as the sergeant led him gently to a cell.

Ship Explosion Is Fatal To Over 260

SHANGHAI, March 13 (AP)—Additional reports on the sinking of the coastwide steamer Pachi indicated today that 260 lives had been lost when the ship exploded 90 miles north of the Yangtse river south Wednesday night. The rest of the 722 persons aboard were saved. All who perished were Chinese.

RESOLUTION IS INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

OPPOSITION VOICED TO WET PLANK IN PLATFORM

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 13—John J. Raskob, chairman of the national Democratic executive committee, was criticized today by the house when a resolution was introduced by Representatives Shelton of San Marcos and Dodd of Nash expressing opposition to any plank in the party platform calling for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment.

Shelton declared Raskob was born a Republican and lived as such for several years before gaining power in the Democratic party. "Why should any of us Ieel we have to give our support to Raskob?" he asked. "He was born a Republican, lived a Republican and now has Republican tendencies," he said.

Consideration of the resolution was ruled out of order when objection was raised that time for acting on resolutions had expired. Dodd had the floor and was making a bitter dissertation against persons opposed to repeal of the Eighteenth amendment or modification of the prohibition laws when the point was raised.

Dodd charged there were a thousand more important subjects than prohibition and that unless prohibition was placed in the background

NO CHARGES IN DOPE RAID HERE

No charges had been filed early this afternoon against two men arrested here Thursday night by deputy sheriffs O. B. Conley and Will Earnest in connection with uncovering of about 47 quarter-grains of morphine and a gallon and a half of corn whiskey.

The suspects are in the city jail. They were arrested in the northwestern part of the city, where narcotic and liquor accessories subsequently were found. Case of the two men is undergoing additional investigation.

Later, when a house in northwest Lubbock was raided by county peace officers, several hypodermic needles and a syringe were found. Also a number of empty pint and quart bottles, a rubber siphon, a funnel and a 10-gallon crock filled with home-brew.

A number of empty beer bottles, a capper and bottle caps were found in a garage attached to the house.

Bank Robbery Is Frustrated Early Today; One Shot

FANNIN COUNTY MAN WOUNDED AFTER HEARING WOMAN'S SCREAMS; NIGHT WATCHMAN AND COMPANION TIED UP BY TWO ROBBERS

(By The Associated Press)

TRENTON, Fannin County, March 13.—Glenn Earnheart was wounded by a charge from a shotgun in the hands of one of two masked men whose attempt to rob the First National bank was frustrated by the screams of a telephone operator early today.

The men had bound Floyd Morrison, night watchman, and Paul Atnip, a companion, together with wire and were attempting to cut the telephone cable when the night operator, Mrs. Rose Yates, saw them and gave the alarm.

Hears Screams

Earnheart, who lives about a block from the telephone office heard Mrs. Yates' screams and rushed to her. As he drove up in his automobile a charge from a shotgun shattered his windshield and several of the shots entered his body.

He was taken to a Sherman hospital where it was reported his condition was not serious.

Night Watchman Morrison said he and Atnip were approached by two masked men shortly after midnight. Morrison's pistol was taken from him and after he and Antip were covered with shot guns the men wired them together, informing them it was their intention to rob the bank.

They obtained a ladder and climbed to the top of the awning and were nipping the telephone wires when Mrs. Yates observed them.

WOULD PERMIT BOXING

BILL INTRODUCED TO LEGALIZE SPORT IN TEXAS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar. 13.—A bill to legalize boxing contests in Texas was introduced in the house today by Representative Davis of Brownwood and Mathis of Houston.

The bill would permit boxing exhibitions to be held by clubs, colleges and non-profit associations, unlawful under present statutes.

Participants in the exhibitions would be prohibited from accepting cash for their appearances but could receive only medals and trophies.

The bill, however, would not prohibit finish boxing exhibitions.

Davis is an ardent boxing fan and recently made an address at a meeting of legislators urging enactment of laws to legalize boxing in Texas.

The bill would permit championship fights and would allow admission fees to be charged.

Penalty for violation of the present law is from two to five years in the penitentiary.

Blast Rocks Tulsa, Surrounding Area

TULSA, Okla., March 13 (AP)—Tulsa and surrounding territory was rocked by a terrific blast early today when 400 quarts of nitroglycerine stored two miles west of Red Fork, near Tulsa, exploded. Scores of windows were broken and thousands of people were alarmed by the shock. As far as could be learned from the American Glycerine company, owners of the explosive, no watchman was on guard at the magazine and no lives were lost.

APPOINT CITY PLAN BODY FOR CITY

COMMISSION CHOSEN BY CITY DADS THURSDAY

Lubbock moved a step closer to the establishment of a city plan yesterday afternoon when the City commission heard a report from the BCD committee on city planning and then named a city plan commission to carry on the work.

The individual members of the BCD committee, who have been working on and studying city planning for Lubbock for the past three years, were all appointed by the administration to serve on the new commission. Five other citizens were also appointed to round the commission out to ten persons.

To Take Up Problem

The new commission will take over the problems of city planning here, will confer with city planners and will act under the jurisdiction of the City commission proper.

Members of the city planning commission are:

W. A. Bacon, Roscoe Wilson, J. H. Bryan, Dr. Fred W. Stansfer, J. O. Jones, N. L. Peters, H. N. Roberts, Charles A. Guy, and C. H. Mahoney.

Authorization of the planning commission by the City to invite a city-plan engineer here, in connection with a proposal that a city-plan be drawn and adopted for Lubbock, is expected soon.

Members of the city planning committee who appeared before the City commission at Thursday's meeting were:

Mr. Guy, who was chairman, and Mr. Peters, Mr. Roberts, and Mr. Mahoney.

MacDonald Cabinet In Narrow Escape

LONDON, March 13.—Premier MacDonald's government escaped defeat by only five votes in the house of commons today on a motion to reduce a supplementary estimate of $14,000 (about $70,000) for salaries and expenses of the mines department.

Many laborites voted with the opposition on the motion, which was defeated 172 to 169.

LUBBOCK FIRE PREVENTION BODY IS TO MEET HERE NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

A meeting of the Lubbock Fire Prevention committee will be held at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

H. D. Woods is chairman of the committee, which is attached to the chamber of commerce. Other members are:

Wesley Read, Gregg James, Fire Chief W. E. Twitty, and John Crisler.

Investigation has shown that 66 2-3 per cent of all fires are preventable by ordinary care, and that carelessness in handling of inflammable liquids, poor housekeeping, and poor electric wiring are among the chief causes of fires, according to the fire prevention committee.

Belief was expressed by the committee that "the only way this problem can be solved is through a concerted effort on the part of fire prevention organizations throughout the United States."

Advantages to the community of a successful fire prevention program, as cited by the Lubbock committee, included:

Attraction of industries aided by a low fire record, freedom from fire-dangers usually is accompanied by cleanliness and public good health, credit standing of city usually is improved through low fire-loss record, and property and human life are saved coincident to a well planned and executed fire prevention program.

BANDIT TRIES TO TURN HAIR WAVE INTO CRIME WAVE—AND HE DOES IT

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 13. — It seems Mr. Turner, who forgot to mention his first name, was taken with a touching interest in the hair curling business.

It began to manifest itself yesterday when he walked into a permanent wave shop to make an appointment for his sister who was to come last night for a wave. Last night Mr. Turner came back. The operators, the Misses Margaret Shepherd and Margaret Owen were busy with a customer, and asked Mr. Turner to sit down and wait.

After explaining the intricacies of the wires and clips that bound the customer, Miss Shepherd remarked that Mr. Turner's sister was late.

"Yes," said Mr. Turner, "She is and I can't wait any longer. I note that your customer in the chair is helpless enough to suit me already, so you two girls better curl up in the corner."

As the operators complied with Mr. Turner's suggestion, which he emphasized with a pistol, he left after taking $22 from the cash register.

"I guess," said Miss Shepherd, "that he was just trying to turn a hair wave into a crime wave, and he did."

STERLING FOR REGULATION BY STATE

MESSAGE IS SENT TO LEGISLATURE TODAY BY GOVERNOR

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 13.—Governor Ross Sterling today sent to the legislature a message recommending the establishing of a separate commission to efficiently regulate public utilities.

Governor Sterling said he favored the Petsch, or city attorneys, plan of regulation as introduced in the House by Representative Petsch of Fredericksburg.

Argues For Plan

"If there is anything in the contention of the persons opposed to the efficient regulation of our utilities, they might as well gracefully argue for the abolition of the interstate commerce commission and every state railroad commission in the United States," Governor Sterling said.

He said in his opinion there was no subject before the legislature of greater importance than utilities regulation.

"The tremendous amount of business of the utilities, the extensiveness of their operation, the necessity of their service, the necessity of the rights of the people, require the establishment of an independent and well-financed commission in order that effective regulation might be truly accomplished," Governor Sterling stated.

He said utilities constituted one of the largest and most consolidated business enterprises in Texas.

"Less than a dozen companies control and own an investment in Texas of many, many millions of dollars yielding an annual income in excess of $200,000,000," he explained.

He said members of the utilities commission should be men of business experience.

MUD-SLINGING STARTED

"BIG BILL" STARTS DRIVE FOR MAYOR OF CHICAGO

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Mar. 13.—The fireworks of the mayoralty campaign have begun.

"Big Bill" Thompson, the "cowboy" mayor of Chicago opened his campaign for re-election yesterday with an attack on his Democratic opponent, Anton J. Cermak, chairman of the Cook county board.

Mayor Thompson, who recently won the Republican nomination over Judge John H. Lyle and others, and the right to contest for the world's fair mayorship, told a political audience in his opening campaign speech that Cermak hoped to make himself a dictator in national Democratic politics.

Cermak, the mayor said, is a "tool" of Silas Strawn, the international banker.

"If elected mayor," said Thompson, "he will pick the next governor. He will have the state delegation in the next Democratic national convention. The people will not support a dictatorship in this country."

Replying to the mayor's speech, Cermak said he would "let our respective records speak for themselves," in the campaign adding that he was "not choosing personalities."

The election will be held April 7.

SENIORS PROTEST IN LIQUOR CASE

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 13 (AP)—More than 30 seniors of the University of Minnesota have been suspended from classes for 10 days after they had protested against the refusal to allow 13 of their fellow students to graduate. The students were among 17 charged by the school board in connection with a liquor party.

While the campus seethed with indignation over what students termed "autocracy," protests were made to launch a legislative inquiry into the circumstances of the case today.

Two investigations may be started by the law makers—one into the general labor situation at the University of Minnesota, situated in Minneapolis, and the other into the suspension of the four students which is an agricultural high school branch of the university.

ABANDONMENT IS SOUGHT

AUSTRALIA CAPITAL DREAM CITY IS VERY COSTLY

CANBERRA, March 13. (AP)—Abandonment of Canberra, Australia's federal capital dream city, which cost $66,000,000 is being urged by many leaders in public life and business men.

Described by some politicians as "the nation's symbol of unity," and by others as "a running ulcer of finance," it would be returned to the sheep which once grazed on its broad acres. It is isolated and its maintenance is costly.

Buildings Scattered

Its roads, gardens, public buildings, hotels and homes are among the best in Australia but because the city was designed to eventually accommodate a big population, its buildings are scattered over 900 acres.

There are no street cars and to buy a tube of tooth paste one has to walk a mile or more. Water supply, drainage, sewerage, and everything was designed on a grand scale and at a gran dcost. A temporary parliament house cost $3,200,000.

Five hotels costing over $2,000,000 were built, but for two years three of them have been closed.

Five million dollars was spent by the government on houses, but many of them are empty.

Those who would abolish it say Canberra was built only because of interstate jealousy; that since it is apparent what a burden Canberra is and will be, all would be satisfied if the federal parliament sat in either Melbourne or Sydney.

IT TOOK TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS TO GET A DIVORCE, SO THEY'LL JUST STAY AS IS; TIME CAUSES JEALOUSY TO FADE

PARIS—Paris may be the city of quick divorces, but there is one elderly French couple whom you never could convince of that.

For 27 years they tried to get a divorce, but the courts could never seem to get around to it.

So finally, when the case came up for its last hearing the other day, they decided they had been a bit hasty. The suit was dismissed, and they went away contentedly together.

In 1903 the husband, a young clerk in a lawyer's office, sued for divorce, charging that his young wife was unreasonably jealous and made scenes in his office.

A year passed. The court had not yet acted. The lawyer met his wife on the street and there was a reconciliation. The suit was ordered withdrawn, but it was a year or more before the court got around to it—and by that time there had been another squabble, and the husband once again was seeking a divorce.

The wife contested the case, and what with charges, countercharges and legal delays the case dragged on until the World War opened. Then, like many similar cases, it was shelved until after the armistice. With peace dawning on a war-weary world, husband and wife resumed hostilities.

The case rolled on and on. The lawyers for each side died and new ones were chosen. In 1925 the divorce was denied, but the husband appealed. And finally, just the other day, the thing came up for final settlement, and husband and wife met in court.

She was gray-haired and portly and he was bald and stout. Jealousy and hate had been banished by time. They smiled at one another, the judge dismissed the case, and they went away together—happy, after 27 years of litigation.

Geology Students At Tech Plan Trip

Geology students at Texas Technological college will journey by bus through New Mexico and southwestern Colorado on the 1931 summer field trip, the only prerequisite for which is a year of general geology.

The field trip will go under way June 9 and continue until July 14. Students will leave Lubbock by bus for Clovis, N. M., continue from Clovis to Santa Fe and thence to their field of study in southwestern Colorado. An extensive study of the Mesa Verde is planned. Return will be via Gallup and Albuquerque and thence to Clovis.

The course is limited to men, however, as proper accomodations can not be made for women students. Cost of the course will be $75, a preliminary deposit of $10 being required by May 4. The balance is to be paid by June 1.

Thirteen students made the field trip last summer.

HIGH DEMAND FOR LABOR

FAVORABLE WEATHER EXPERIENCED SAYS TEXAS REPORT

AUSTIN, March 13. (AP)—The United States department of agriculture, division of crop and livestock estimates, said in a report released yesterday Texas experienced unusually favorable weather during the winter and the demand for farm labor was 113 per cent of normal.

"Feed requirements have been small due to the mild winter and supplies of feed on farms are large, considering the severe drouth conditions last year in all sections of the state. All livestock has wintered well and is now in better than average condition," the report said.

Acreage Larger

Acreages in what was reported as being three per cent larger than that of 1930. Wheat was reported to be making good growth with moisture conditions excellent. The acreage abandonment ranged from three per cent to 54 per cent with a ten year average of about 17 per cent the report stated.

Farm stock of oats represented 18 per cent of last year's production or 8,395,000 bushels compared with 7,064,000 one year ago, the report said.

The report said it was estimated that 29 per cent of last year's corn crop remained on the farm. It represents 26,506,000 bushels of the 91,408,000 bushels produced. Sixty-nine per cent of the corn produced in Texas last year was merchantable quality compared with 37.7 per cent one year ago, according to the report.

What do the grim watchdogs of the desert know of luxuries? Well, try to take their Chesterfields away from them! Over there—and here too—a good cigarette means good tobaccos. What you taste in Chesterfield cigarettes is milder and better tobaccos—nothing else—blended and "cross-blended" to produce a satisfying fragrance, a flavor which is Chesterfield's alone!

FOR NINETEEN years, our Research Department has kept intimate touch with every new development of Science that could be applied to the manufacture of cigarettes. During this period there has been no development of noted value or importance to the smoker which we have not incorporated into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes.

Doctor Myers' Dailu Column On Child Welfare

DR. MYERS
BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

I get many letters from young folk describing their feelings of inferiority. Some are, indeed, very touching.

In reply to such a letter from a young college woman I wrote a number of concrete suggestions. Later she replied:

"Dear Dr. Myers: Several months ago I wrote you concerning my problem of adapting myself to social groups. I believe you have helped me. You suggested that I keep a record of the small things which I was able to do to adjust myself. I did not actually keep a record, but I am able to enumerate a few successes:

"I was invited to a dinner at the girls' dormitory of—State Teachers college by one of the girls in my class. I went, felt at ease, an had an enjoyable evening.

"I have been invited to pledge one of the sororities of my school. I believe that belonging to an organization of this kind would help me a great deal. However, I do not feel that I should burden my parents with the additional expense. I try to make myself believe that it was nuess (being asked)"

"A fine young man asked me for a date, yet my greatest difficulty is that I can't get much confidence in myself. My church has organized a College league, corresponding to Epworth league, for high school students. I have to make myself go, and when I come home I always have the blues. I think of what I should have said when I didn't, and what I shouldn't have said when did. This sounds rather mixed up, but what I am trying to say is that I'm terribly discouraged.

"I had a terrible experience one Sunday. I was asked whether I would help with the refreshments the following Sunday. I said immediately that of course I would. It was after I got home that I became so afraid. I had no experience and didnt know what to plan. I lay awake for over three hours after I went to bed. The next day I had a terrible trembling feeling in the pit of my stomach. I have had a course in elementary psychology, and I thought I knew what that was a symptom of.

"I can laugh now about being worried so, since the refreshments did go off all right. But suppose I should have the same experience in connection with something else?

"I just don't know what is the matter with me. I know it is not intelligence, for in the psychology test given upon my entering college, I stood in the upper quarter of the freshman class. I have no marked physical defect, and I guess I don't look so bad—one boy told me that I looked like a movie star when I had my hair curled.

"I am indeed thankful for your letter and feel that I have made some progress."

Answer: It gives me a great deal of personal satisfaction to discover that you found my suggestion helpful. The victories you record are genuine and show that you have the stuff in you to overcome your difficulties and to get more happiness in life. Really, I think you have a lot of achievement of which to be proud.

Now, just keep on striving, and make yourself attempt any social obligation, no matter how big it seems. Put yourself in a place where you must measure up, just as you did in regard to the refreshments; and then stand by the guns and see it through. Each victory will help you some other to win.

Mrs. R. J. Keller Entertains; Parties Are Attended By Members Of 4 Clubs

Spring colors and flowers were carried through the schemes for several bridge parties given on Thursday afternoon and evening here. Some of the affairs were regular club gatherings and others were occasional parties for their friends.

Sweetpeas served as plate favors and emphasized the spring note in appointments for a party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. C. A. Clement, 2505 23rd street, for members of the Thursday Bridge club. Green and white were predominating colors in the scheme.

Guests Attend

Several guests played bridge with the members and Mrs. T. E. Buckner made high score among them. Mrs. Dewey McClellan scored high for the club members and Mrs. L. C. Hewitt was high in a cut.

Others who played were Mesdames T. C. Rook, I. F. Kennedy, Dan Bennett, W. H Wright, R. E. Dick, Ray Henson, L. A. Howard, A. S. Meinecke, J. H Farrow, H. B. Hawkins, S. J. Boller and Earl Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement are entertaining members of the Thursday club and their husbands this evening with a party in their home at 8 o'clock.

Colors Are Pink, Green

Colors of pink and green emphasized a motif of spring at an attractive afternoon party given by Mrs. R. J Keller in her home at 905 College Avenue Thursday.

Games of bridge were played with Mrs. Louis Winn making high score. Second high score was made by Mrs. J. B. Acton

Miss Meador Hostess

Miss Hazel Armstrong scored high and Mrs. Elizabeth Halley was second high in bridge games Thursday evening when Miss Mary Meador entertained the Fortnightly Bridge club in her home at 1621 Main street.

Mrs. F. Y. Robnett and Mrs. Halley were guests. Club members who attended were Misses Johnnye Gilkerson, Zeila Riegel, Dorothy Lomax, Gertrude Daniel, Alice and Hazel Armstrong, Leona Allen, Mabry Edens and Lulu Mae Cravens.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Henley, 2224 Main street, were hosts to members of the Coo Coo club in their home Thursday evening.

High score in bridge games went to Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Terry.

Other guests were Messrs. and Mesdames W. H. Crunk, M. H. Huckabee, R. J. Keller, J. A. Phipps, jr., W. A. Sylvester L. N. Thomas and Mrs. W. S. Moss.

Members of the Town and Gown club were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dohoney, 1504 Avenue X, Thursday evening when they entertained in their home. Games of bridge were played.

Dr. J. Lewis Talks At School Meeting

Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Dupre Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at the Asbury Methodist church. The talk was on "The Home's Part in the Child's Education."

Room programs were given by children taught by Misses Susie Shipp, Ninetta Parker and Erica Peters Retiring officers in the association include Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw as vice-president, Miss Green, secretary, and Mrs. Campbell as treasurer.

Routine affairs of the guardian's association were discussed at the meeting.

Business Women Have Employers For Special Guests At Banquet Thursday

Having as guests for the evening their employers, representatives of civic clubs and other special guests, members of the Business and Professional Women's club were hosts with a banquet at Hotel Lubbock Thursday evening.

This program climaxed an observance of National Business and Professional Women's week here and the program was similar to programs given at other such banquets over the United States.

Mrs. C. M. Hinds presided as toastmistress and gave a short history of the club here. Miss Ruth McCormick welcomed the guests in a short talk and J. J. Clements, mayor, responded with a eulogy to the business woman. Mrs. J. Samuel Rider sang a solo and Miss Lillian Hopping read.

Tells of Work

In her short resume of the aims and accomplishments of the society here, Mrs. Hinds stated that the first high school band was established through the B. and P. W. club, which furnished instruments and music for one year. Scholarships in Texas Technological college and Draughons Business college have been awarded by the society and loans are maintained for high school girls, while the club members cooperate with other organizations in civic enterprises, she said.

Employers of members and others who were special guests for Thursday evening were Dr. Jack M. Lewis, Mrs. Mary W. Doak, C. A. Sheffield, Charles A. Guy, L. C. Davis, Miss Mae Murfee, H. L. Burgess, Ross Edwards, Dr. S. S. McKay, William Levine, Tom J. Foster, J. W. Base, Carroll Thompson, L. R. Ragland, Mrs. J. W. Members of the club are to attend a party this evening in the home of Mrs. Imogene Pace, 2323 19th street, and Miss Bernice O'Neal will join Mrs. Pace in entertaining.

Mother of Four Babies

"Although I am only 22 years old, I have four babies to care for. Before my first baby was born my mother urged me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was so terribly weak. I had to lie down four or five times a day. After three bottles I could feel a great improvement. I still take the Vegetable Compound whenever I need it for it gives me strength to be a good mother to my family."—Mrs. Vern L. Dennings, 510 Johnson Street, Saginaw, Michigan.

How you feel in the morning tells the real story

THAT'S the time you should feel like whistling and singing. Your muscles should itch to tackle the day's work. Your mind should quickly solve the problem that baffled you the afternoon before. Don't let your health slip away so that a night's rest fails in its natural recuperative powers. When you awaken with a "dragged out" physical or mental feeling, heed those bad symptoms. That's the time you need a dependable tonic to help restore your old time energy. Try a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is sold by druggists.

CONTROLLED ROASTING . . . HILLS BROS' PATENTED CONTINUOUS PROCESS DEVELOPS A WEALTH OF AROMA, FLAVOR AND RICHNESS LACKING IN BULK-ROASTED COFFEE

TO THOSE carefully chosen coffees which make up the Hills Bros. blend, nature has given the utmost in flavor. And to develop that flavor to the fullest extent, Hills Bros. roast their blend by a process that has no equal in exactness.

Evenly . . . continuously . . . a few pounds at a time . . . the coffee passes through the roasters in which the heat is automatically controlled. Every berry is roasted evenly—to a degree that gives Hills Bros. Coffee its ever-satisfying flavor. What's more, it's a flavor no other coffee has because no other coffee is roasted the same way.

Whenever or wherever you buy Hills Bros. Coffee it is always fresh. Hills Bros.' vacuum packing process removes air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, from the can and keeps it out. Ordinary cans, even if air-tight, do not keep coffee fresh.

Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab—the trademark—on the can.

Thought For Today

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches. — Proverbs 22:1.

An eminent reputation is as dangerous as a bad one.—Tacitus.

Behind The Scenes

Life is made up mostly of backstage scenes. People are in masquerade when they stand in front of the footlights.

And that's the way it was with Harriet Schneider of Chicago. She had a fur collar and cuffs on her winter coat, and her beret was as cheaply smart as anybody's. . . . and her mother made punchboards at home for a factory and they played bridge sometimes, when boys whom Harriet knew dropped in. Of course, her father had been out of work for six months, but Alberta, who was 21, had an office job. Albert, 16, was a mechanic apprentice. Life wasn't especialy interesting, but it wasn't tragic, the people thought.

But the other day Harriet shot her father. She wanted to kill him, she is saying. She isn't sorry that she did.

For in the drab little house there had been unhappiness for a long long time. Albert Schneider, according to Harriet, had been drinking. He came home and started to abuse his wife. He made accusations against both the mother and daughter, and then asked for his clothes, saying that he was leaving the house.

Harriet packed them but she slipped her father's gun in her pocket. When he started to attack her mother again she pulled the trigger. And that shot carried the scene from behind scenes to the center of the stage.

Every child has a right to a home which is bounded by love and laughter and unselfishness. Every little boy and girl who does not listen with rapturous eyes for the sound of homing footsteps when the day is done, has missed a priceless heritage.

Children who have unselfish devotion and wise counselorship seldom kill their parents. But those who have been wounded and outraged, over and over again, until finally their sense of right and wrong is as tangled as neglected woodland path, sometimes reach the point where a flaming anger, or a deadly coolness seizes them. It takes such a little time to press a trigger.

And instead of righting a wrong another one has been committed.

Harriet Schneider did not shoot her father from a sense of chivalry. She thought she was protecting her mother, but there was another motive, deeper than that. She was revolting against home conditions, but she didn't know it.

Mrs. Schneider has expressed no grief over her husband's death. She, too, had suffered from his unkindness.

The very fact that three children had to be reared in a home so void of gracious qualities makes the situation more pitiful. Childhood has a right to fathers and mothers who love and respect each other. When the environment fails, it isn't the fault of the child who never had the right nourishment. Trees can't grow straight and strong when the soil is barren.

Loyalty Courage

Loyalty is rather a scarce commodity. But now and then there is an example of it that makes the rest of the doubtful world look around for someone in whom to trust again. Ellen Warner, 21, thought that Victor Laurie was taking her to the movies in New York, the other night. The man paused along the way to work an impromptu robbery. The rope, up which he had climbed, broke and he tumbled to the ground in a crumpled, broken heap.

Ellen Warner didn't run away. She went for help and then she stayed with the man until he died. She knew that she would be included in the case, and she had one shop-lifting charge against her name. But an inner echo of loyalty made her do the courageous thing in an unpleasant situation. It doesn't make any difference where the game is being played. There is something rather fine about those who stay to the end and see it through.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says modern expressions are infinitely better than the old ories. For instance 'grouch' is much more descriptive than 'suffering from a bad liver'.

There's one thing you've got to hand Mr. Wickersham. He's the only man in the United States who can concoct puzzles like Einstein.

Personal nomination for the neatest man in Lubbock: Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer.

THE City commission is getting 'city plan minded'. Members of the governing body heard a report yesterday afternoon on the three years of work by the BCD City Plan committee and decided that at least it wouldn't do any harm to find out what it was all about. They decided to appoint a commission, working under the city dads, to see what could and should be done in planning Lubbock—which is more than has been done so far.

On December 16 1929, the same BCD committee reported to the then City commission, members of which heard the report with interest. At the conclusion of the report Harley Woods, then the Mayor remarked:

"Thank you gentlemen. We'll give you an answer in 30 days."

THIRTY days grew to 300 days but the idea was finally revived. Gardner Rogers was brought here, a series of meetings was held and everybody who attended got steamed up again. Before long, in The Plainsman's opinion, the plan will get well under way.

People who wouldn't think of building a hen house without plans think they are opposed to city planning simply because they haven't studied it. As soon as the majority of those who think they're against city planning get an idea of what it's all about, they'll join with those who have been promoting one for Lubbock during the last three years.

THE City commission that approves city planning for Lubbock—and starts the project off—will probably meet some opposition while getting under way. But it'll go down in history as City commission which has performed the greatest single service for Lubbock.

That Man on Avenue Q says the rooting sections in Scotch colleges only give two yells

The laziest man in the world fills a cocktail chaser then sits down and waits for an earthquake.

A Lubbock teacher was interested the other day to hear that one of her girl pupils had a new baby brother.

"And what is the baby's name?" the teacher asked.

"Aaron", was the reply.

A few days later the teacher inquired after Aaron but the little girl regarded her in perplexity.

"Aaron?" she repeated.

"Yes, Aaron", the teacher said, "your baby brother".

Understanding dawned on the child's face.

"Oh, Aaron," she exclaimed. "That was a mistake. It's Moses. Pa said Ma checked up and found we already had an Aaron!"

Our old friend Francis X. Bushman, at 47, is just as confident as he was in the days when he used to play on the silver screen with Beverly Bayne. You remember Bushman. He was the movies' first demon lover—the guy with a lot of hair who some way, some how, always found an opportunity to take off his shirt and show the fans his wonderful chest and muscles.

WELL, Mr. Bushman is broke, flat broke, he says, and he offers himself in marriage to the highest bidder. Mighty white of him, in the Plainsman's opinion, but if he wants money why in thunder doesn't he get out and work for it?

The world is full of poor, misguided humans.

Probably some woman will be idiot enough to lay a lot of dough on the line for the lily-white hand of Francis X. Bushman.

But it certainly is disgusting to see a big, strong healthy man—as Bushman's marriage advertisement says he is—selling himself instead of going to work.

Some of those Capone gangsters are so tough that even their guardian angels are afraid to follow them around.

THE Plainsman has been looking over the lots which have been cleaned by otherwise unemployed men and the Board of City Development, which is furnishing $6,000 for the cleaning of 6,500 lots, is certainly getting its money's worth. The boys are doing a good job and every one of the half dozen lots The Plainsman has looked at has been raked smooth.

Aside from giving 250 men—or more than that—some employment the cleanup campaign is going to make Lubbock a much better looking city. We've got a lot of conventions coming this year and it's a good idea to make as good an impression as possible.

Battling Norris And Hard-Hitting "Power Trust" Appear To Have Fought Draw; Bout Is Ended With Veto

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The fairest way one can describe the Muscle Shoals situation is to say that Senator Norris of Nebraska and the power trust have fought another draw.

Although, you might also say that Pres. Hoover was the referee and that he stepped in and called off the fight just as Norris had it won, through the veto of the Norris measure which had been passed by both houses of Congress.

The consolation for Norris and the congressional majorities is that the big $150,000,000 development on the Tennessee river has been kept out of the hands of the public utilities corporations through 10 long years of the fighting, whereas the "Power Trust" can celebrate because while the government still owns Muscle Shoals it is still unable to produce and distribute electricity.

Probable Campaign Issue

In 10 years the country has heard a lot about Muscle Shoals. Whether any large proportion of the voters even yet understand the issue may be a matter of argument, but it has had enough publicity to be given very serious attention as a probable campaign issue for 1932. Unless the Norris measure is passed over the presidential veto in the first session of Congress beginning next December it is fairly certain to become at least one of the campaign issues.

President Coolidge gave the Muscle Shoals bill a pocket veto when Congress gave it to him two years ago. President Hoover, however, made the issue much more definite in his veto message ust before the close of Congress, and put the administration on record as to its position. In the 1928 campaign he said Muscle Shoals was an exception to his commonly known attitude against government ownership and operation. But it is reasonably certain that his 1931 stand rather than his 1928 stand will be his position in 1932.

How much of a fight he will get on that issue seems to depend on whom the Democrats nominate. Governor Roosevelt of New York, whose attitude toward the power issue in New York has been endorsed by Norris, might favor such a bill as Hoover vetoed. Owen D. Young, associated with the power interests, might not. Chairman John J. Raskob, who appears to be courting the support of big business for the party, probably wouldn't declare for government operation.

But there seems to be a real chance the friends of the Norris plan will be able to pass a Muscle Shoals measure over the president's veto after Congress convenes again. The Senate voted 49 to 34 —less than the two-third vote required—to override the veto and the lineup in the next Senate promises the possibility that the necessary change of six votes can be had.

Face Real Fight in House

It probably will be harder to override a veto in the House, but conditions there will be infinitely more propitious. There will certainly be an increased number of votes for the measure. And there will be no administration control of the House machinery to enable enemies of the bill to tie it up until well along in the second session. And if a vote to override the veto comes at the first session, as it probably will, the administration will have no contingent of "lame ducks" to depend upon.

The president's suggestion that the states of Tennessee and Alabama form a commission to take over the Muscle Shoals plants and dispose of them probably will attract no strong support, but it will at least give his friends in Congress a talking point.

Just to refresh your memory, the bill which the president vetoed called for the building of transmission lines by the government so that it might sell power to others than the Alabama Power Company, to which it now sells, the building of a dam at Cove Creek to double the amount of power available the year around and the sale of current by a government owned operating corporation with preference given to municipalities and farmer and other non-profit organizations.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Four pamphlets and six articles by Dr Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1016 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Hygiene of Women," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bad Weather," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

LACK OF CERTAIN FOOD SUBSTANCES

The recent death of Professor Eijkman brought to mind the anniversary of the discovery of vitamins. For Professor Eijkman was the first man to produce a disease in animals due entirely to withholding a certain substance in the food.

Dr. Clendening

This was in 1896. The disease was beri-beri. Dr Eijkman had been sent out to Java as a physician employed by the Dutch government. The young doctor observed the pitiful condition of the prisoners in the prison camps, from paralysis and dropsy of the legs. He wondered what the cause could be. And then one day he saw some fowls in the yard of the hospital to which he was attached. They were paralyzed just as the poor convicts he had been studying.

He made inquiries. He found the fowls were fed cooked rice from the hospital kitchen. It was the same kind of rice the convicts ate. Dr. Eijkman found that it was polished rice, or in other words, rice from which the shell had been milled. He decided to try an experiment, so he gave healthy fowls polished rice until they became almost paralyzed, and then cured them by adding rice shavings to the polished rice.

When he ordered the convicts' diet changed from polished to unpolished rice, the disease beri-beri disappeared from Dutch prison camps. No wonder he was given the Nobel prize.

Now Dr. Mellanby comes with another kind of nervous disease caused by some dietary error. It is not exactly like beri-beri because it consists of degeneration of the spinal cord, while beri-beri was a neuritis—an inflammation of the peripheral nerves.

These degenerative patches in the cord are due to a diet consisting of absence of fat-soluble vitamins and the presence of wheat germ apparently infected with the disease ergot. A peculiar feature of the work is that the ergitized wheat alone will cause degeneration, but not if the fat-soluble vitamin is added to the diet. The vitamin is probably vitamin A, for butter, cabbage and egg yolk are the substances which prevent the cord degeneration.

The interesting thing from a practical point of view is the possibility of the spinal cord degeneration of pernicious anemia being caused in this way. We know that pernicious anemia is a food deficiency disease and there also occurs cord degeneration in its course. It is true, also, that liver extract does not have much effect on these cord changes. But liver extract is a water-soluble substance and the vitamin which prevented the cord degeneration in Mellanby's experiments was fat-soluble. It is possible that we have another food deficiency factor in pernicious anemia responsible for the nervous changes and that it can be administered as easily as liver extract, to prevent the nervous changes of that disease.

LOAN CHECKS ARE RECEIVED HERE

Federal farm seed loan checks for 12 more Lubbock county farmers were received here Thursday—three from the St. Louis office and nine from the Fort Worth office—increasing the number of loans made by the government to Lubbock county residents to 96, according to J. B. Shannon, chief of the county farm loan bureau here.

"This makes 19 returns out of the 21 applications we had sent to Fort Worth, up to Thursday morning when we sent eight more," Miss Ethel Hicks, assistant to Mr. Shannon said.

Receipt of checks is stimulating the number of inquiries about how to secure federal loans according to Mr. Shannon.

In Barbary With Gilbert Swan

SWAN

BISKRA, Algeria—This charming desert town, and all the countryside hereabouts, still struggles to live up to a romantic illusion spun by exotic fiction.

For this in case the name has slipped your mind, is "the Garden of Allah" . . . this is the "Beni Mora" of the Hichens novel, so popular some years back. And, if one can judge from the hordes of tourists who flock here in search of "atmosphere" and "color," the novelist cast a spell that the years have not been able to break.

Romantic young ladies and old ladies, fat ladies and slim young ladies, rich ladies nad mere travelers pour in during the winter months, expecting to find that touch of tapestried Orientalism which had seemed so illusive and alluring within the cover of a book.

In scurrying from one place to another over the map of North Africa, trying to breathe the authentic air of unspoiled native life, I found no such curious invasion. The paprika of the bizarre and the mythical has been so generously sprinkled here that hundreds of seekers of fictional background have come in search of thrills which, if you asked me, are slightly manufactured.

Reducing the situation to a sentence—here was a spot that had little more to offer than any one of a hundred North Africa towns when along came a fictional fame. In the wake of which arrived any number of palpitant humans, avid to capture — vicariously or otherwise—those sensuous qualities they had read about. And the Arabs, being smart business folk, began to cater to this taste.

They slapped the exotic on in large and ample quantities. If the visitors wanted their African Orientalism to be somewhat vice-coated —that's what they were going to give them.

So when you come to Biskra, you get not only all the locale of the "Garden of Allah," but all the little side tours from the Oulad-Nail dancers to the hasheesh smokers that I'll tell you about in due time. These, of course, are goings-on that the smart Arab guides whisper about and collect fat ransom.

Meanwhile, while waiting for these slightly over-done slants at iniquities and anticipated peeps into the strange goings-on, as gathered from fictional paragraphs, the visitors snoop about looking for "Garden of Allah" spots they can recognize.

All of which is duck soup for the guides, who can show them the gardens of the Villa Landon, supposed to have been the Hichens' setting, where the estate of Count Landon is a thing of rare beauty in landscape gardening and natural luxuriance. The count is of the French nobility; a gent with a hobby for Arab customs who made his first million and spent more than a few years gathering his data. It is on the very rim of the desert, a sort of elegant fringe of an oasis. A wall hedges it in from the desert sands which seem to ripple away without end.

And, of course, in the ramblings about this lovely vista, you're bound to encounter "Larbi." If your memory is as bad as mine, you'll have forgotten that, in the Hichens novel, Larbi was the young man whose primitive pipings caused so much havoc in the blood streams of certain characters.

At any rate, here in a most radiant burnous, surrounded by hibiscus and tooting out the most plaintive of Arab melodies is Larbi—or should be, if it isn't.

And if it isn't, the smart Arab who plays the role and the flute, trades upon the title—not at all disinclined to cleanup on the fame that came to him as a fictional figure.

And, according to the other wise ones of the community, he has done very well for himself, what with tips from tourists and generous purchases of nearby wares.

Congress just passed an act making the Star-Spangled Banner our official national anthem. You'll simply have to stand for this.

Johnny Weismuller, swimming champ, who recently married a Broadway beauty, probably regards this his stroke of good fortune.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"Oh, Gee!" cried Coppy. "Take a look! Is this a dream, or just a brook? Not that it makes much difference, but it's strange as it can be. Just gaze into the water and why I say this you'll understand. Each time I look a flickering reflection I can see."

"'Tis queer how such things come to pass. Why, it's just like a looking glass," said Scouty as he took a look. And then he sighed and said, "Why, my reflections not so bad. I guess I am a handsome lad. I'd best not look at me too long, or I will go to my head."

This made the others laugh out loud. Said Coppy, "Say, you're rather proud! But it's the hat you're wearing that is making you look neat. I gazed at you down in the stream and, frankly, I think you're a scream. Just look at my reflection, if you want a real good treat!"

Then Clowny, frown upon his brow, cried, "Come, come, boys! Don't argue now. Let's leave the stream and hike along the winding country road." And then he jumped very high and loudly shouted, "Me, oh my!" Said Carpy, 'Look what scared him. It was just a little toad."

They hiked along a mile or so. The Travel Man then shouted, "Oh, we're walking right into a treat. Just look what's up ahead. Some hunters with a wagon. They have likely had a hunting day. Two antelopes are strung up tight and both of them are dead,"

One of the hunters cried "Hello! I guess you lads would like to know just where we got these animals. We'll tell you how 'twas done. They ran across our path today. We raised our guns and banged away. Of course we both were lucky, and to watch them drop was fun."

(The Tinymites see some hammer heads in the next story.)

YANKEES' MURDERER'S ROW LOOMS POWERFUL

TRACK AND FIELD MEET TODAY

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT

SPYING ON SPORTS

On the heels of the announcement of "Evo" Marshall's departure for Houston to test a Buffalo bat and glove comes another of the bigger league aspirations of a local youth. Ed Hambright, a graduate of Denton State Teachers college, has forsaken the insurance peddler's brief case and has transported self to Wichita Falls, there to try out with seventeen other rookies for a Texas League berth.

Hambright played during the last half of last summer's South Plains league season with the Lubbock Hubbers, holding down third base with rather pleasing ability. He was formerly aligned with the Memphis Chicks but a hand injury forced his temporary retirement. A sprained ligament in the palm of his catching hand still gives him trouble and may have to heal before he makes the grade. He's a fair hitter, however, and if he doesn't make the Carl Williams grade he should get a chance at a good American League farm. The St. Louis Browns control the Spudders and they weeded out the entire Spudder infield of 1930. Wichita Falls must have a new short field and "Ham" might make the grade.

During the past week there's been a bit of agitation concerning South Plains baseball in general and Lubbock baseball in particular. Lubbock must have its baseball. Being so far away from Texas League parks and equally far removed from other Class A or even Class B, C or D fields it is necessary that local men take the initiative.

The South Plains League last season was not what could be termed a whale of a success. Organized as a Simon pure amateur league, it resulted in a cross-breed of recruited subsidization and unhealthy professionalism. Only one team in the entire loop stayed with the rules, and it was not Lubbock by any means. Tahoka played the season, so far as we know, under the rules and regulations of organization. The others had their bad days and their consequent recruiting.

A South Plains League would be fine if it could be reorganized and run according to strict rules of amateurism and discipline. It would be o. k. if it purposed to be semi-professional or professional, but a mixture won't work. It hasn't worked in the past and it won't in the future. Right now is the time for the leaders to begin preparations for the season, if there is to be one. Make it Simon pure, semi-professional or professional, but know what it's going to be and stick to the rules, says we, otherwise don't bother.

A city league would be nice. We've never endured through a city league here, coming to Lubbock last summer after the various town teams had called it a season, but we understand it was somewhat of a success. It appears that about eight teams here could make up a fair league. It could be limited to Sunday games or to two games per week after the usual working hours, though in the latter case the number of innings would have to be cut short.

This department is open to letters from parties interested in the organization of a city or South Plains league and will treat all communications with respect and consideration, holding as confidential all that it so requested. If you have ideas concerning the organization and prosperity of a city league write this department, and if you have grievances against anything of the sort you are invited to shed them here. It will be the only way in which knowledge of local interest may be gained and transmitted.

That a Lubbock team will be organized is already fairly certain, though to the extent it will go in league organization, whether local or territorial, has not been established, pending the decisions of the would-be moguls and magnates of South Plains baseball. Del Morgan, Tech coach, and his fellow worker in the college athletic department, G. Golightly, have expressed their intentions of organizing a team. Probably it will consist solely of college talent. Later on Morgan, Ruth Lassberger and "Dirty" Weller probably will get together some kind of team. All of the mentioned men are former players and present enthusiasts. If they coordinate a likely bunch of diamondeers should be the result. Here's wishing them luck and a better team than last summer.

MAY OPEN HOSPITAL

SAN ANTONIO, March 13. (AP)—John McGraw is thinking of opening up a new hospital to take care of his long list of ailing New York Giants. The invalids now include Leslie and Leach, colds; Schumacher, lame ankle; Danning, torn finger nail; Richbourg, Blister on foot. But all the news has not been bad. Bill Terry has signed his contract.

HERMAN NEEDED

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 13.—(AP)—As the days go by it becomes increasingly important to the Brooklyn Robins to get Floyd (Babe) Herman to sign on the dotted line. The Robins are hitting freely but not in concert. They're not coring the runs they should with the number of safties they've been collecting and some observers are firmly of the opinion it's because the Babe is not swinging his potent bat.

ONE FOR BOOK

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 13. (AP)—Mark Roth, business manager of the New York Yankees, has one for the book. During a recent game between the Yanks and the Boston Braves, a stranger from the north appeared at the gate and, in place of a ticket, presented a Yankee rain check he'd carefully preserved from the 1930 season. The gate-man couldn't persuade the stranger that the check was useless. Roth was called in to explain it had no value south of 125th street, New York. He wisely refrained from adding that it wasn't any good there either after the season closed.

IN HITTING SLUMP

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 13. (AP)—Imagine a young outfielder who batted .403 and .347 the last two seasons unable to do any consistent clubbing in the Philadelphia Athletics' training camp. That is the predicament of Roger Cramer, from Manahawkin, N. J., with the Blue Ridge league in 1929 and the Coast league last summer. Manager Mack is hopeful Cramer's slump is temporary.

KLEIN TO CONTINUE

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 13.—(AP)—Manager Shotton has announced Chuck Klein will continue in right field for the Phillies. "He's made a study of balls bouncing off the wall behind him," Shotton said, "and he seldom guesses wrong."

JOHNSON SAYS THINGS

BILOXI, Miss., March 13 (AP)—Manager Walter Johnson said things today to two of the Washington Senators' outfielders—Dave Harris and Harry Rice. These two proved to be among the best players the Baltimore Orioles had yesterday when the International leaguers beat the Nationals 7 to 6. Harris gave away one run by coming in too far under a fly and Rice donated two more when a light tap got away from him.

FRISCH ARRIVES

BRADENTON, Fla., March 13. (AP)—The arrival here last night of Frankie Frisch reduced the number of missing Cardinals to one. "Chick" Hafey, reported to be a stubborn holdout. Frisch brought his unsigned contract with him, but said he expected no trouble in reaching a satisfactory agreement with officials of the club.

BATTLE CONTINUES

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 13 (AP)—The battle between "Long Tom" Jenkins and Larry Bettencourt for the right field job with the St. Louis Browns went on merrily today with Jenkins apparently holding the edge. Bettencourt, who started off with a bang, has been slowed down by a slightly strained back.

WANER REPORTS

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 13 (AP)—There was a lot of back-slapping and hand-shaking going on in the training camp of the Pittsburgh Pirates here today as the boys welcomed Paul Waner, heavy hitting outfielder. Waner, who has been nursing an infected foot in a St. Louis hospital, reported last night but the club physician said the wound was not completely healed.

EXPECTS NO TROUBLE

TAMPA, Fla., March 13. (AP)—Manager Dan Howley expects to have no trouble with his present choice for the cleanup position in the Cincinnati Reds batting order this season. Tony Cuccinello, hard-hitting little second baseman, is starting off where he finished last year, Howley said.

ANXIOUS FOR CONTRACT

NEW ORLEANS, March 13. (AP)—Reports that Eddie Morgan, the Cleveland Indians young first-sacker, was anxious to come to terms continued to filter into camp today.

TO OPEN TOUR

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., March 13 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers were here today to open their 30-game exhibition tour with a game against the San Francisco Seals, dedicating the Seals' new baseball stadium.

RECRUITS BREATHE EASIER

LOS ANGELES, March 13. (AP)—Several Chicago Cub recruits were breathing more normally because of the knowledge no one will be cast adrift before April 5.

DRILL SCHEDULED

SAN ANTONIO, March 13. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox had another session of routine drill scheduled for today, the last one before opening their spring series against the New York Giants tomorrow.

HAS NEW ONE

PENSACOLA, Fla., March 13. (AP)—Gene Rye, rookie Red Sox outfielder who has been smacking the ball all over the lot, has introduced a new one. The little Chicagoan calls it "eye practice." Gene who refuses to stay out of the game despite a couple of broken wrist bones gets out with the squad and looks 'em over every morning. He can't swing a bat so he just steps up to the plate, watches a few go sailing by, and retires for the day.

PUNCH AT BAT IS THREAT IN RACE

MOST EXPENSIVE OF BASEBALL STARS ON ROSTER

BY ALAN GOULD

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 13 (AP)—The New York Yankees still have the most expensive athlete in baseball and the batting punch sufficient to terrify most pitching talent.

They still have spectator appeal. Otherwise, their case remains open to argument and it is just a wild guess where they will finish in the American league race. They were third in 1930.

Not Worried

Marse Joe McCarthy, late of the Cubs, now undertaking at least a two-year term as manager, has inherited an assortment of great ball players led by Babe Ruth and a flock of pitchers of all sizes and capabilities, plus a few choice problems. If he's worried about them, Marse Joe doesn't manifest it.

The Yankees have floundered since the death of Miller Huggins. In Ruth and Combs of the outfield, Gehrig and Lazzeri of the infield they still have the main cogs of Huggins' last championship club. Otherwise the shuffling process is still on.

This early in the training program, it appears the veteran Joe Sewell, long one of the greatest American league infielders with Cleveland, may solve McCarthy's infield puzzle. The Alabaman has shown great form, at bat and afield. If he fits in at third, the infield will be rounded out with Tony Lazzeri at second, Lyn Lary at short and Lou Gehrig on first.

The only debatable outfield post is left field. Allen (Dusty) Cooke, if he has found himself, will get the call but he will have to outhit and outhustle Sammy Byrd, one of the few ball players who can beat Babe Ruth at golf.

Old man Ruth himself admits that at 224 pounds he is in grand condition, ready for a big year. He looks it and he is hitting the new and supposedly less lively ball with his accustomed vehemence. Centerfield belongs to the Kentucky colonel, Earle Combs.

With Bill Dickey as backstop-in-chief, the Yankees have at least six regulars capable of hitting well over the .300 mark.

Pitching is worrying the experts more than McCarthy, although George Pipgras, star right hander, will not be recovered sufficiently from an appendicitis operation to start the season.

CIRCUS-TYPE OF WRESTLING FLAYED

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 1. (AP)—Ray Fabiani, Boston and Philadelphia wrestling promoter, made a plea today to keep wrestling for the wrestlers. Circus-type promoters who import athletes from other sports are a serious threat to the game, he said.

"Now that professional wrestling is profitable and drawing record crowds all over the country and a new and better type of man is going into it from the competitive side," Fabiani said in a formal statement, "there are many new promoters rushing into it.

"They know little or nothing about wrestling or wrestlers. So they get football palyers like Joe Savoldi, Gus Sonnenberg, Ed George and Tex Hamer and boxers like Carnera and George Godfrey and try to make a circus out of it.

"So surely as athletic commissions in the various states permit them to do this, so surely will wrestling be killed; so surely will the public abandon it as quickly as it has taken it up. When the fans go to wrestling matches they want to see wrestlers."

Values approximating $45,000,000 have been added to the wealth of Alabama by cooperative forestry work, the forestry department says.

WHERE IS ART?

"Great One" Is Missing From Brewers' Camp

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 13 (AP)—Usually easy to locate by the sound of his voice, Art Shires is missing—or at least the management of the Milwaukee Brewers can't find him.

The "great one's" presence here has been heralded daily for a week but so far he has failed to appear for spring training.

President Louis Nahin decided last night Shires had delayed his appearance long enough and sent out a tracer in the form of a telegram. It came back undelivered.

Shires—if he shows up—is expected to play first base for the Brewers.

MACFARLANE, COX WIN

SCORCHING 30, SIX UNDER PAR IS FEATURE

MIAMI, Fla., March 13.—Willie MacFarlane and Wiffy Cox today were the dual crown of Miami's international four ball matches after a 36-hole struggle. They won the championship 3 and 2, but it was Willie and his course scorching nine hole 30, six under par, who took the spotlight for the victory over Gene Sarazen and Johnny Farrell.

MacFarlane and Cox took first money of $750 each and a quarter share of approximately $1,500 gate receipts at their 18-hole play off match. The losers gained $500 each and an equal share of the gate.

MacFarlane copped a four hole lead as he made the turn of the 18-hole playoff amid a shower of birdies and eagle three at the seventh.

The winter golfing caravan left today for the Biltmore course at Coral Gables where a pro-amateur match play tournament bridges the one-day gap between the four ball playoff and the first Coral Gables open championship, a two day 36-hole affair.

The $15,000 La Gorce open will attract the club swingers for 72 holes starting next Thursday.

LUBBOCK HOST TO THREE SCHOOLS

FIRST OF PRACTICE TOURNEYS SET AT TECH FIELD

The first of a series of early practice meets will be held this afternoon at the Texas Tech field when the track and field team of Lubbock High school acts as hosts to three South Plains schools in a four-cornered tournament.

Levelland, Littlefield and Brownfield are entering teams in both track and field events this afternoon. Pinkey Lowrey, Lubbock High track coach, will place a new team on the field, one whose numbers include only one experienced man, Captain Vester Ritchie, letter man from last season, is Lowrey's main hope today. While he specializes in the high jump, Ritchie probably will be called upon to run in the sprints and in the longer races.

One of the South Plains best high school track stars will be here today in the person of George Norman of Levelland. Norman is picked to take high honors. He is a popular sprinter, hurdler and jumper, having won high point honors in the 1930 district meet here last spring. Pete Carter of Littlefield runs the 440-yard race and is quite a trackster. Goodpasture of Brownfield is one of the best pole vaulters on the Plains.

Batting Practice Will Face Steers

CORSICANA, March 13. (AP)—A long batting practice session, to be tapered off with a snappy infield workout will close this week's training grind for the Dallas Steers, Manager Hap Morse, after today's workout, will select a team for the Steers' two game series against the New York Giants at Dallas Saturday and Sunday. An intra-club game yesterday saw the regulars win, 2 to 0. Sam Langford, outfielder, is the only player in camp worrying Morse. Langford has been sick over a week. He will be removed from the training camp to Dallas this week-end, and remain there until he is ready to resume training.

A Chinese day is divided into 12 parts of two hours each.

MEADOWBROOK IS TO HOLD TOURNEY

Meadowbrook Golf Club's trophy tournament is to be held Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, according to announcement by Bill McMillan, tournament promoter. All Lubbock golfers are invited to take part, regardless of club membership, and players may shoot the 18-holes of medal play on any of the three days.

To the five lowest scorers in the 18-hole tournament go gold golf balls, numbered from one to five. The second five lowest scorers are to receive silver golf balls, numbered from six to ten. Golfers shooting a higher score than any of the ten may acquire a trophy ball by defeating the holder of the Number 10 ball in some future tournament.

EXHIBITION GAME RESULTS

(By The Associated Press)

Yesterday's results:

At Winter Haven, Fla.—Brooklyn (N) 10; Philadelphia (N) 6.

At St. Petersburg, Fla.—St. Louis (N) 12; Boston (N) 6.

At Biloxi, Miss.—Baltimore 7; Washington (A) 6.

California Against Midwest In Tourney

KANSAS CITY, March 13. (AP)—It's California against the midwest in the semi-finals of the A. A. U. national basketball tournament here tonight.

The Los Angeles Athletic club is matched in one semi-final game with the defending champion Henry team of Wichita, Kas., and Young Men's institute, San Francisco, meets the Kansas City Athletic club in the other.

All of the semi-finalists except Y. M. I. have won the title in previous years—Los Angeles in 1919, the K. C. A. C. in 1921 and 1923, and the Henrys last year.

LOUGHRAN TO MEET SCHAFF

FRIDAY THIRTEENTH IS NO WORRY TO TOMMY

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—To the superstitious, Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia dancing master, seems to be attempting a little too much in his ten round battle with Ernie Schaaf, rugged Boston heavyweight, in Madison Square Garden tonight.

In the first place, Loughran twice has been beaten by Schaaf; in the second, it's Friday the thirteenth, and in the third, Tommy's the betting favorite. The faithful shudder every time they think what's happened to favorites at the garden this year.

But the one-time light heavyweight champion of the world is not worrying. He turned in one of the finest boxing performances of his career in outpointing Max Baer at the garden recently.

Schaaf, however, has taken the stiffest blows of much more dangerous punches than Loughran without foundering and is a much more damaging puncher.

QUARTER-FINALS IN INTRAMURAL WRESTLING SHOW THIS AFTERNOON

Quarter-finals in Tech's intramural wrestling program are to be staged this afternoon between the hours of 5 and 7 in the Matador gymnasium. Included in today's program are six wrestling matches between tried matmen and one boxing bout.

In one of the best cards of the season, eight quarter-final boxing bouts yesterday afternoon brought as many fighters down to the semi-finals. Additional quarterfinal bouts will be held tomorrow afternoon, semi-finals in both boxing and wrestling to start next Monday.

In one of the best fights of the season so far, Noel Teague of Lamesa and Hugh Anderson fought to a draw yesterday afternoon, though the fighting on both sides was not equal throughout. The first round was easily a draw. In the second round Teague rushed his opponent and mauled him all over the ring drawing blood and administering a shiner. The tables were completely turned in the third and final round when Anderson punished Teague severely.

The first knockout of the season was registered yesterday when Mo-Grady slipped the k. o. to Arthur in the second round. George Largford won a decision over Greer Frizzell in the only heavyweight bout of the day and Ralph Ernest won a decision over W. M. Nott. Riggins and Stone staged a neat battle with Riggins getting the judge's decision. Cunningham won over Woodburn, both 165-pounders, in a net fiasco. Ward Ault had the advantage over Clyde James in the 140-pound division.

CHARGE FILED

BORGER, March 13. (AP)—A murder charge was filed Thursday against John Evans, known as Denver Blackie, after the death of Charles A. McLaury, deputy sheriff, from gunshot wounds. He was shot Wednesday.

FEW REGULATIONS IN SPUDDER CAMP

WICHITA FALLS, March 13 (AP)—Manager Carl Williams of the Spudders does not believe in strict training camp rules, and he has made few regulations concerning the conduct of his athletes during spring training. The only iron clad "don'ts" he has posted on the clubhouse bulletin board have to do with gambling in the clubhouse and drinking. He makes no effort to tell the athletes how long they are to sleep each night, but he bunks right in the clubhouse with the boys and soon learns the identity of any whose sleeping hours might need special regulations.

The squad turned out today for its first morning workout and the program for the rest of the week is two a day at 9:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m.

WOMEN TO RUN

Arkansas Town May Be Under Feminine Thumb

HUMPHREY, Ark., March 13 (AP)—Unless the mere men of Humphrey display more daring than is now in evidence, the town will soon join Yellville in being officially under the feminine thumb.

Yellville recently elected women municipal officers from mayor to marshal, and now a caucus here has nominated a slate of public servants composed entirely of women. Humphrey's municipal election is April 7, and while there still is time for masculine aspirants to enter there is no indication that the opportunity will be used.

In both Yellville and Humphrey the women's slogan is "clean up the town."

Yellville is in northern Arkansas and Humphrey is in the south central section. The approximate population of each is 2,500.

A new tariff by southeastern railroads permits sending of golf equipment, when checked, the same as other baggage.

REWARD OFFERED AT LITTLEFIELD

LITTLEFIELD, March 13. (Special)—The Littlefield city commission has posted a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who ran down Jones Mabray, motorcycle policeman, the night of February 25.

Mabary, a former member of the Lubbock police department, has been here for five or six months and is very popular. He sustained broken bones in his right leg and other injuries and was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium where he spent several days under treatment before being brought home.

The officer was struck by a "hit and run" motorist, who made his getaway.

EWING ELECTED

CHICAGO, March 13 (AP)—The national livestock marketing association, government sponsored co-operative agency, Thursday elected Charles A. Ewing, Decatur, Ill., as president at its first annual stockholders meeting. L. Kokernot, San Antonio, Texas, was elected vice president.

To Wed Heir

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Foster, above, Wilmington, Del., debutante, and Lammot DuPont, Jr., son of the president of the DuPont Powder company, has been made. The wedding will take place late in the autumn. DuPont, who is working in a bank of which his father is a director, is an amateur pilot.

GROUP OF 350 AT CLUB FETE HERE

A group of 350 members and guests of the Texas Unity club attended the annual party of the club Thursday night at the Uptown Dance Palace. Bridge, dancing, and forty-two were among forms of diversion at the affair.

The Texas Unity club is made up of the employes of the Texas Utilities company.

Special guests at last night's entertainment were the members of the Amarillo, Plainview and Clovis districts of the Texas Unity club, with the Lubbock district acting as host. Wives, friends and husbands of the hosts were among those present.

A reception committee composed of Glen Chase, president of the Lubbock district, Hubert Allen, G. E. Dunewood and H. M. Bradford, greeted guests as they entered the dance hall.

"No Foul" Rule In New Jersey Made

NEWARK, N. J., March 13. (AP)—A "no foul" rule, similar to that in operation in New York state, has been put into effect by John McCutcheon, New Jersey state boxing commissioner.

Hereafter fighters claiming fouls in New Jersey will be counted out and paid only for the number of rounds fought.

FLOYDADA WILL HOLD CONTEST

H. J. BOWER TO AID IN VOCATIONAL EVENTS

Entries in the second annual district vocational agriculture contest at Floydada, Saturday, will be classed by H. J. Bower, head of the department of agronomy at Texas Technological college, and three students from the school of agriculture.

O. T. Williams, vocational agriculture instructor at Floydada, is managing the contest. Twelve schools, from as far north as Dimmitt to as far south as Post, are entered.

Assist In Classing

John Wherry, a senior in agronomy, Lonnie Starr, a graduate student in agronomy, and Harold Frazier, of the horticulture department, will go with Mr. Bower. They will assist in the work of classing the contestants.

"Competition in plant production, in cotton, milo maize, kafir, wheat and oats, will be had among the vocational agriculture students," Mrs. Bower stated. "In horticulture the work will be in budding and grafting."

Several Towns Interested

Mr. Bower stated that among the towns reported to be planning to have entered are; Dimmitt, Floydada, Tahoka, Post, McLean and Hale Center.

At noon the home economics department of the Floydada high school will serve dinner. The Floydada chamber of commerce is assisting in entertaining the visitors.

"This is the second annual district contest at Floydada" Mr. Bower stated. "We are taking our own equipment over with us. Last year they had a good crowd and I am expecting a still better one this year."

realize importance of breakfast

BREAKFAST is probably the most important of all meals. Many families eat a hearty breakfast — yes. But all too often they miss getting the important minerals and vitamins which are so necessary to all-round health.

That's why many women now serve Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit every day. They have learned that two of these tempting biscuit with milk or cream supply 10 important mineral salts and 6 vitamins — actually more than a third of the average person's daily requirement.

Crisp double-toasted biscuit made of delicious wheat shreds. Certified for food value. Think of the health-fulness! Calcium and phosphorus for building good teeth. Protein for these. Chlorine. Iron. Copper. Vitamins. Order a red-and-green package from your grocer. Notice the certified food-value analysis on the side panel. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

COMPACT SEEN AS SOLUTION

INTERSTATE GROUP TO CONTROL OIL TO BE SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, March 13. (AP)—An interstate compact controlling oil production is regarded by the federal conservation board and the Hoover administration as one of the few possible means of lifting the industry out of its present welter of over-production.

Secretary Lamont, a board member, is negotiating an agreement for a limitation of imports, an emergency expediment not calculated to solve all the ills.

The board has found three practically undeveloped fields, each probably capable of producing 3,000,000 barrels daily. The amount now causing the industry to suffer from production chills and fever. One of these, Kettleman Hills, in California, is working under a unit operation agreement which removes it as a threat of further over-production, but the Oklahoma City and the East Texas-Lousiana fields have unlimited possibilities.

In the meantime, the backbone of the industry, the Stripper wells of Kansas and Oklahoma which produce from one to three barrels daily, have had trouble finding a market because of the free flow from the new Texas and Oklahoma fields. Oil companies have had difficulty seeing why they should buy from the Stripper wells at approximately $1.25 per barrel when the price in the new fields is about 65 cents.

Because of the distress brought about recently by a pipe line company's refusal to buy from these wells, Secretary Lamont sought an agreement from the large companies to take the oil.

Just as he was about to obtain an agreement, a governor of an oil producing state called upon the buyers to take the oil for at least 60 days. The large companies took him up and turned down the oil conservation board proposal for six months.

President Hoover proposed an interstate compact to a conference of oil state governors shortly after he came into office. If there is a demand for a further conference on the subject, the federal oil conservation board has indicated its willingness to recommend that President Hoover call another such meeting.

If the states agree to an interstate compact modelled probably on the compact entered into by the Colorado river basin states, legislation by congress will be necessary before it can be effective.

DIPTHERIA GRIPS TOWN IN ALASKA

POINT BARROW, Alaska, Mar. 13. (AP)—A renewed outbreak of diphtheria has gripped this settlement, overflowing the only hospital with patients. Anxiety among health authorities rose because virtually all available antitoxin had been used.

Dr. Henry Griest of the Presbyterian hospital said the health bureau at Fairbanks, which sent a supply of antitoxin here last Sunday by Joe Crosson, airplane pilot, had advised him it was hesitant about sending more serum by plane because of the expense.

The physician replied financial considerations were secondary. He said if the situation at Wai Wright, southwest of here, became more serious, more than 500,000 units of antitoxin would be needed.

TOURIST KILLED

EL PASO, March 13 (AP)—M. Goss, tourist from Little Rock, Ark., was killed near El Paso yesterday when he went to sleep while driving and his automobile ran into a tree. Walter A. Carlson of Winnetka, Ill., riding with him, received minor injuries.

Slight Damage In Fire On Thursday

Roof of quarters of the Montgomery Storage and Transfer company at Main street and Avenue F became ignited Thursday afternoon and fire caused slight damage to the building. The smouldering conflagration was attributed to sparks from a flu of an adjoining building.

Firemen responded to the alarm shortly after 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Wood-shingle roof of the building had become ignited and burned through into the interior at one point. Furniture, rugs, pictures, steel filing cabinets and other articles were carried from the building.

Chopping a hole in the roof, firemen inserted small hose and soon extinguished the fire. The loss was estimated at $15.

Very dirty pans?
No, very hard water

THE pots and pans weren't very greasy. But the water was hard. It mixed with the soap, and formed scum! How could pots and pans get clean? They just had to stay greasy! They needed a cleaner!

That was before Melo's time. Now hard water, softened with Melo, becomes a very fine cleaner, with or without soap. Dirty ring? Scum? Grease? All gone. Soap much more effective! Pots and pans? Shiny and gleaming! At 10c a can you can afford to buy three—one for the kitchen, laundry, and bathroom.

RALPH CAPONE IN TROUBLE

CONTEMPT CHARGE IN VIEW AFTER RAID ON HIS CLUB

CHICAGO, March 13.—(AP)—The shadows of government punishment lengthened again over the Tribe Capone today.

Agents went into the Cotton club, bright life center of suburban Cicero, and, after they had abstracted tell-tale papers from the office safe, prosecutors said a contempt charge was in view for Ralph Capone, brother of "Al." Ralph, who had a prison term in abeyance for income tax violation, was listed as one of the owners in a temporary injunction issued last spring. The writ forbade the sale of intoxicants, but agents said they found them.

Injunction Granted

The cotton club's lights have blinked on each night since the writ was issued, by virtue of another temporary injunction with restrained federal officials from interference.

That did not, however, halt the raid. The agents took away a pint bottle of liquor seized in the office of Louis H. Spielman, a club attache, a few untouched highballs, on the tables, and Spielman himself. They burned into the safe to abstract documents, I. O. U.'s, and an assortment of other papers, including a checkbook.

Warrants Used

"John Doe," warrants were used to circumvent the injunctional tangle. Besides affording an entry to the club, they brought about the arrest of Michael "Bon Bon" Allegretti, the manager, a fugitive from justice since his indictment for a dry law violation last fall.

The specific charge was against an unidentified gunman, who aided in disarming two dry agents a week ago.

Program To Be At New Hope Tonight

First of a series of programs on work of the Lubbock county farm bureau will be presented at 7:30 o'clock tonight at New Hope school.

The citizens of the community will have a part in the program along with local people. C. E. Russell is to give a short talk on home beautification to be followed by County Agent D. F. Eaton who will tell of the bureau program for the year. H. L. Corbin, secretary of the Texas Farm Bureau association, will also appear on the program.

Love Better Than Best Career

Widespread comment was caused in Hollywood's movie circles when Edna Best, noted English actress, suddenly decided to do a walkout in the midst of her film work. Saying she was lonesome for her husband, who was in New York, Miss Best deserted the cast in which she was playing and entrained for the East. She is shown above at the M. G. M. offices, New York, after she agreed to return to Hollywood, but this time she's taking her hubby, Herbert Marshall, with her.

NEVER-ENDING DRAMA OF GATHERING AND DISTRIBUTING OF NEWS WILL BE RADIO-CAST AT NEW YORK SATURDAY

NEW YORK, March 13. —(AP)— Against a backdrop of the click and hum of high-speed telegraph typewriters, the Associated Press will radio-cast Saturday night the never-ending drama of gathering and distributing the news of the world. For half an hour, beginning at 6:30 p. m. (CST) microphones, set up in the general news room of the New York headquarters, will carry over WEAF and WJZ with the combined chains of the National Broadcasting system the heart-beat of this news gathering organization whose arteries encircle the globe. Every available station from coast to coast will be cut in.

Cooper To Speak

Kent Cooper, general manager of The Associated Press, will make a brief address, explaining the purpose and functioning of the organization. He will be introduced by M. H. Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting company, through whose cooperation the broadcast was arranged.

After Mr. Cooper, George Hicks and James Wallington, announcers will make a tour of the news room, describing the work of the editors, reporters and operators, through whose hands pass 367,000 words a day recording the events of the world on their way to the news columns of 1,300 member newspapers of The Associated Press in North and South America and through allied news gathering agencies to the papers of the old world.

Interviews Planned

A close-up of the work will be furnished in interviews with J. M. Kendrick, executive news editor in charge of the news report to morning papers, and other editors of the news that is developing at the moment of the broadcast.

Accounts of how outstanding news events of the last few years were covered will be part of the program, which will be listed as "on top of the world."

Electric power will be installed in the tin mining districts of British Malaya.

High Price Given For Tech Yearlings

The highest prices paid on the auction block at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show at Fort Worth, excepting bids for grand champions in Thursday's sale, were for two of Texas Technological college's yearlings entries.

The senior yearling and the senior calf of the Tech exhibits sold for 25 and 20 cents a pound respectively. Other steers of the lot sold in line, it was reported here.

The two steers were purchased by Amon G. Carter.

The best calf of the Tech lot will be returned to Lubbock during the next week to be on display at the meat show opening here, March 27.

INDICTED FOR SLAYING

PAUL NISBET FACES MURDER COUNT IN LEFORS DEATH

PAMPA, March 13. (AP)—Paul Nisbet of Le Fors was indicted here Thursday by a grand jury in connection with the slaying of C. H. Taylor Jan. 27, near Le Fors. Chas. (Little Chuck) Wilson recently was given a 20-year penitentiary sentence for the slaying and is held here awaiting transfer to the state prison.

Nisbet was one of the chief witnesses in Wilson's trial. Mrs. Billie Wilson is held on a charge of assault with intent to rob, in connection with Taylor's death. She was with Taylor in an automobile parked on the highway near Le Fors when he was slain.

Nisbet was released on bond. The Wilsons lived at his home.

Mrs. Bertie Nicholson also was indicted today on charges of assault with intent to murder in connection with the shooting of her husband, N. A. Nicholson, at her home several weeks ago. The couple had been estranged. Nicholson recovered from his wounds.

TULSA, March 13. (AP)—Robert G. Kennedy, suspended Tulsa detective lieutenant, was ordered held under $1,000 bond for trial on charges of assaulting and maiming Willie Elms, 12, the murder suspect. Order was made by Judge B. J. Williams, following a preliminary hearing.

SEED COMMITTEE TO MEET MONDAY

A meeting of a Lubbock county committee on improved cotton seed will be Monday afternoon at the office of D. F. Eaton, county farm agent, at the courthouse, according to H. J. Bower, chairman of the committee.

The committee recently was appointed by the county farm bureau federation.

R. E. Garret, representing the Texas Certified Cotton Seed Breeders association, will appear before the committee to explain his work on the South Plains in handling seed of his group. Mr. Garrett is here in charge of the sale of certified seed in five counties, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, Hockley, and Terry.

Members of the committee are: Mr. Bower, chairman; J. O. Buford, J. M. Benton, James Burroughs, J. C. Newton, Pat Nix and W. M. Ross.

about your new spring suit

by

Sally Milgrim

distinguished American couturier, designer of all the exclusive models shown on this page the strictly tailored affair of a few short seasons past will not do in this unusual year, when practicability is being disguised with beauty

THE part played by the suit in 1931 spring wardrobes promises to be more than ever a leading one, since today there are suits that look the part, and suits that hide their true, practical nature under the deceiving effect of a full-length coat and a harmonizing dress, or dresses; suits that strike the smooth, tailored note; and short-jacketed suits that banish both years and tiresome dignity with one youthful, animated gesture.

So distinct and clear-cut is the line drawn between these various kinds of suits, we need scarcely give you a key to the types as they appear here, representing various developments through which the suit has been passing.

No longer is even the strictly tailored outfit an affair of stiff precision and straight, ungraceful lines, as was the case a few short seasons ago. No more interesting trend has been observed in fashion than the survival of this classic form of feminine dress, transformed and beautified, however, possessing new gracefulness, new color harmonies, and a new ease of manner.

I. LOOKING ahead a little to later spring, a marked prevalence of the type of suit that combines fine wool crepe with printed silk, is forecast. Women are quick to sense both the practicality and the becomingness of this type of costume, for town and travel. In black, with black and white printed silk as the companion fabric, this practical member of the suit family becomes a short-sleeved afternoon dress, by the simple expedient of doffing the short tie-on coat.

II. IN this group, a long coated suit in the lighter browns has distinctive treatment of soft brown fur accenting the diagonal closing line of the scarf coat, which may be endlessly combined with any of the lighter and warmer browns, by way of a companionate dress tone.

III. WITH it is photographed a delightful spring ensemble of dressier type—one of the very new notes struck by this season's mode. In this instance it is developed of heavy gray silk crepe, wide bands of gray fox forming a rich finish for the little coat's wide butterfly sleeves. A jade-colored stone ornament accents the neck-closing, and repeats at the belt of the simple, long-sleeved frock.

I. you are on the road to chic no matter what your ticket says if you go traveling in this black wool suit, trimmed with black and white printed silk.

II. several shades of light brown are found in this unusual suit which combines a silk frock and a long wool coat, adorned with brown fur.

III. for demure appeal nothing is quite so effective as this gray crepe butterfly coat with its wide bands of soft fox fur.

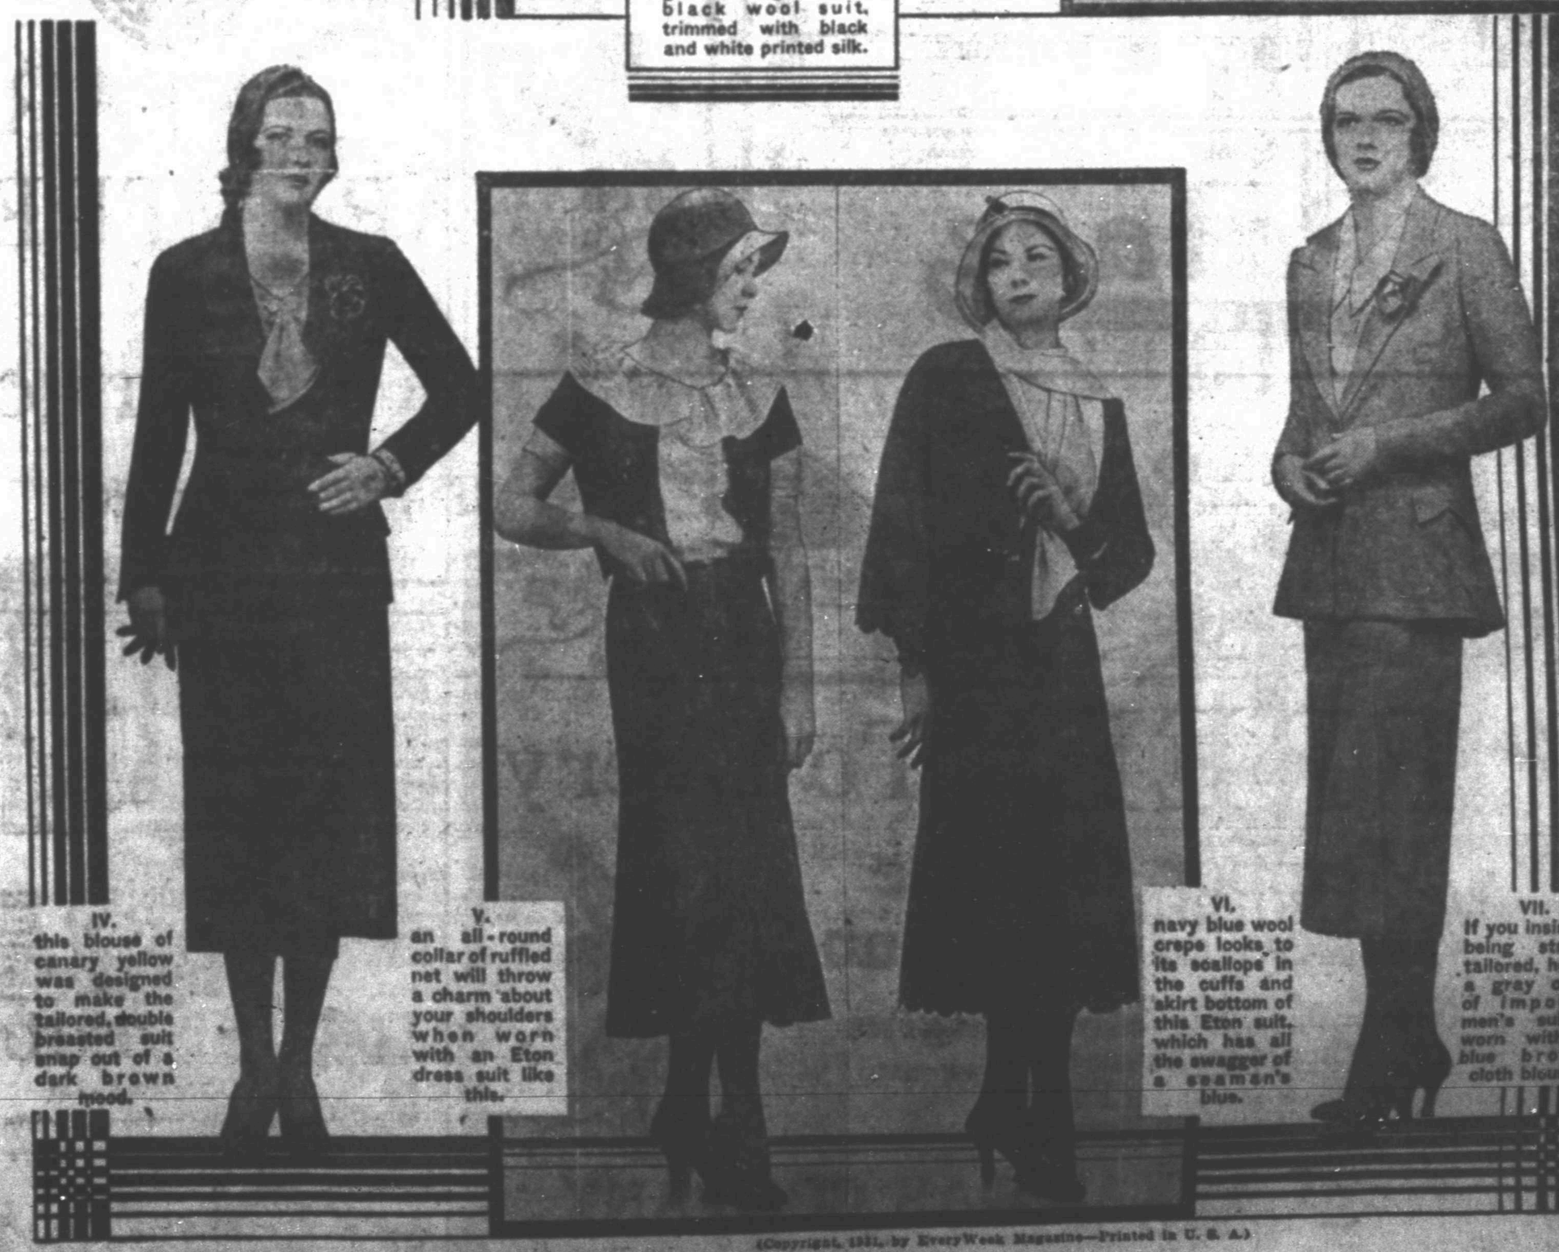

IV. EQUALLY new is the suit of strictly tailored type where brown and its natural accompaniment, yellow, pay homage to the present trend toward two-color combinations, and where the genuine tailored suit again steps up to deserved importance in the mode.

Perhaps the most useful form in which the 1931 spring suit appears is that of the full-length coat with or without its becoming touch of light weight fur, with a harmonizing dress usually made of one of the heavier quality crepes. No more accommodating fashion has been evolved than this modified version of the suit, permitting of so many adaptations to different sorts of wear, and prolonging both its span of life and its freshness of interest, by the alternative combinations it provides. Indeed, as has been pointed out frequently, one of these long coat suits can be made to form the nucleus—the backbone, really—of an adequate smart wardrobe, if sufficient care be exercised in selection.

V. WE can only touch on the suit of Eton jacket type, much in evidence this spring. It is strongly in favor with the petite type of woman, and will be seen more and more as the season advances. A very demure type of this costume has a tiny short-sleeved jacket appliqued with realistic cherry motifs. The simple tucked net blouse finishes with a wide ruffle at the round neck line.

VI. ANOTHER example of this jaunty variety of costume is developed in fine wool crepe, has a scallop finish around the cuffs and skirt bottom, and a swagger contrasting scarf.

VII. THE slim gray tailored suit, of fine imported men's suiting, with blouse of robin's egg blue broadcloth, knows no kinship with unbecoming severity of cut or color scheme. Grace and charm are expressed in every line of the slender, single-breasted jacket, and its accompanying, immensely chic skirt, with unusual, conquering, immensely chic skirt, with unusual, graduated box pleats. No more springlike or feminine touch could have been added, than the choice of the light blue tone for contrasting blouse color.

IV. this blouse of canary yellow was designed to make the tailored, double breasted suit snap out of a dark brown mood.

V. an all-round collar of ruffled net will throw a charm about your shoulders when worn with an Eton dress suit like this.

VI. navy blue wool crepe looks to its scallops in the cuffs and skirt bottom of this Eton suit, which has all the swagger of a seaman's blue.

VII. If you insist on being strictly tailored, here's a gray outfit of imported men's suiting worn with a blue broadcloth blouse.

WOLF OUTSMARTS PURSUING PLANE

LEADER OF PACK LEADS WOLVES TO SLUSH ICE WHERE SHIP UNABLE TO LAND

TORONTO, March 13. (AP)—There is a wolf in northern Ontario who apparently knows that it is dangerous for airplanes to land on slush ice.

Captain W. Roy Maxwell, director of the provincial air force, was back from a flight to the north country today telling how this wolf out-maneuvred the plane to save himself and his three companions.

Four timber wolves were sighted on Bromley lake, north of Dogawa, and the fliers started in pursuit bent on getting the pelts and bounty paid for dead wolves.

"But", Maxwell said, "the biggest wolf, a born leader, interpreted our intention and headed out onto the lake to a point where the slush was deepest and dangerous. There he formed his platoon into single file and just ran around in a circle. We couldn't budge him from this line of defense and when we gave up in disgust and veered off, there were the four of them, slowed down to a walk, still playing ring around rosy and giving us the laugh for our wasted half hour."

SWEDEN LURES TOURISTS

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The Swedish-American line reports that 18,385 passengers were brought to Sweden from America last year, a new high mark for eastward traffic. West bound travelers numbered 16,801, a decrease.

Lubbock Daily Journal (Afternoon)
Lubbock Morning Avalanche (Morning)
Sunday Avalanche-Journal (Sunday Morning)

All classified advertising will appear in both the Morning and Afternoon papers—both papers counting one insertion. All classified advertising is printed in the Lubbock Morning Avalanche first and the Daily Journal on the same date, no classified originating the afternoon paper.

Classified for Sunday's issue will appear in the Avalanche-Journal counting one insertion, as this paper is sent to all subscribers of both the afternoon and morning papers.

AVALANCHE-JOURNAL Combined Rates:
Minimum words, per insertion, 10.
One insertion, per word 4c
Two insertions, per word 6c
Three insertions, per word 7c
Seven insertions, per word 12c
Thirty insertions, per word 40c

These rates are for consecutive insertions only. Additional consecutive insertions over 30 times, of 1½c per word each.

All out of town ads received by mail must be Cash with order. No exceptions.

PHONE 13 or 14

Our experienced ad taker will receive your ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the following day. These accounts are "accommodation accounts" for our patrons and for one day only. No advertisements accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specified number of insertions must be given.

We reserve the right to place an advertisements under the proper classification and reject unclean or objectionable copy.

Obituaries and cards of thanks at regular classified advertising rate.

The publishers are not responsible for copy omissions, typographical errors, or any unintentional error that may occur further than to correct it next issue after it is brought to their attention. Adv. orders are accepted on this basis only.

Classified Advertising accepted until 5:30 P. M. on week days, and 5:30 P. M. on Saturdays, and all advertising received after 5:30 P. M. will be placed under "Too Late To Classify."

What's Wrong with Texas?

Nothing's wrong with Texas, except too many of us get up in the morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, button a pair of Ohio suspenders to a pair of Chicago pants, put on a pair of Massachusetts shoes, wash in a Pittsburgh tin basin, using Cincinnati soap, and a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sit down to a Grand Rapids table, eat pan cakes made from Minneapolis flour spread with Vermont syrup and Kansas bacon fried on a St. Louis stove. Buy fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices and sweetened with Colorado sugar, put on a hat made in Philadelphia, hitch a Detroit mule led on Oklahoma gasoline to an Ohio plow and work all day on a Texas farm covered with a New England mortgage, and at night we crawl under a New Jersey blanket to be kept awake by a bull dog, the only home product on the place, wondering all the time, where in the hell all the money went in this wonderful state of ours. Still we're not a pessimist or a fanatic, although we do suggest that you buy your coffee—possibilities, including wets and drys. Some are just in the speculative stage. Others have been advanced formally by their states.

The progressive conference leaders centered their attacks on President Hoover and made it plain he was not acceptable. Turning to the Democrats, Senator Norris, warned that the platform Chairman Raskob submitted to the Democratic national committee last week was unacceptable as was any candidate sponsoring it.

Democratic activity is centered on the platform Chairman Raskob presented to the national committee and on which he will ask a decision in December. Its recommendation for state liquor control in favor of national prohibition drew criticism from Democratic congressional leaders who are fearful of a party battle over this controversy.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, who led the fight against the Raskob prohibition proposal, has been advanced by his state legislature as a presidential candidate.

Governor Ritchie of Maryland, likewise has been put into the Democratic race by his legislature. He is for repeal of national prohibition. Senator Lewis of Illinois, also has been formally entered in the Democratic presidential contest by his followers. He, too, is against national prohibition.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, March 13. (AP)—The stock market fluctuated uncertainly in early trading today.

Speculative enthusiasm on both sides of the market was at a low ebb and trading was sluggish. The market was distinctly heavy in the first transactions but recovered by the end of the first half hour, only to sag again.

Auburn Auto dropped four points, then retraced its steps. Early loses of a point or two in Westinghouse Electric, American Tobacco B., Baltimore and Ohio, North American, Southern Pacific, Bethlehem Steel, Du Pont and American Power and Light were cancelled or modified. Allied Chemical was persistently sold, losing four points. It is reported. Selling has been for foreign account.

U. S. Steel turned a fractional loss into a slight gain and American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, American and Foreign Power, and Gillette sold a little above yesterday's closing levels.

Byers, Case and International Telephone rose about a point. The last named was favorably influenced by declaration of its regular dividend.

The overnight news contained the weekly brokerage loan compilation, showing a gain of $29,000,000.

Sterling cables opened barely steady at $4.85 13-16.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, March 13 (AP)—Cotton had a steady opening today in sympathy with better Liverpool cables than due. First trades here showed gains of 5 to 7 points which was not a full response to the strength of Liverpool. The market continued to improve after the start on moderate trade buying. May advancing to 11.04 and October to 11.57, or 9 to 10 points above yesterday's close. When this demand had been supplied, the market eased off 5 to 6 points on realizing and traders appeared to be waiting for the week-end figures which caused a quieter tone near the end of the first hour.

The market ruled comparatively quiet all morning, while waiting for the weekly statistics. Secretary Hester's figures for the week proved disappointing, particularly mill takings, which were smaller than last week as well as last year.

May traded down to 10.89 and October 11.45, or 12 to 13 points under the early highs and three to five points below yesterday's close. At noon the market was a shade steadier but still near the lows.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 13. —(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 7 to 10 points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables and sold about ten to 12 points net higher during the first few minutes with May advancing to 11.03 and October to 11.60.

There was considerable covering as well as some trade buying, and brokers credited with operating for the co-operative interests were said to be buyers of October and December. There was some selling here for continental account in the later months, however, and after the initial demand had been supplied, prices eased off slightly under some local selling. Very little selling was reported from the south during the early trading.

The steadier ruling of Liverpool following yesterday's decline was attributed to continental and Bombay buying, covering, and a scarcity of contracts. Fair sales of cotton cloths were reported in Manchester to the British home trade with a moderate demand from India. Egyptian cotton in Alexandria was 33 to 48 points higher and the Indian spot quotation in Liverpool showed an advance of 15 points.

The market eased off after the early demand had been supplied under continued liquidation combined with some local and new Orleans selling. May declined to 10.89 and October to 11.46, or 2 to 4 points net higher and prices were within 2 or 3 points of these figures at midday.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, March 13 (AP)—Dipping a little at the start today, grain prices soon steadied as a result of buying on resting orders. Early downturns followed announcement that Australian wheat exports for the week were unusually large, 5,304,000 bushels, compared with 3,024,000 the week previous and 1,480,000 a year ago. Opening at 1-4 cent off to 1-8 up, wheat later held near to the initial figures. Corn started at a shade decline to 1-4 advance, and subsequently showed little change.

invitation of the city planning committee, and made recommendations pertaining to a city-plan for Lubbock.

City commissioners Thursday set aside $1,500 for use of the park board during the year to be used for capital outlay, including amusement equipment, water system, walks, drives, buildings, botanical supplies, and maintenance of parks. The outlay for land already purchased, including interest, approximates $7,000, City Manager Miller said.

A meeting of the park board has been called for 5 o'clock this afternoon at City hall. Plans for the following 12 months were to be made at the session.

Emergency employment committee of the chamber of commerce also appeared before the City commission Thursday and at present conditions of unemployment were discussed.

Remove Negroes To Prevent Violence

HOUSTON, March 13. (AP)—Fearing mob violence, Sheriff Ernest Lee Lawrence last night placed two negro men, suspected of implication in the fatal shooting of Constable Roy Sterling of Hempstead Tuesday, in a county jail somewhere near Hempstead because of feeling in the Waller county seat. Hempstead was the scene of the shooting in which Constable Sterling killed Willie Henley, before himself falling a victim of the negro's pistol.

Incompetency Count To Face N. Y. Mayor

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—John Haynes Holmes, clergyman and chairman of the city affairs committee, a citizen's organization, announced today he would file with Governor Roosevelt specific charges against Mayor Walker involving "incompetence, gross neglect and indifference to the welfare of the city."

FRIDAY 13TH

born in 1813, composed 13 famous operas, presented the first on March 13, and died on Feb. 13.

At Long Island university Philip D. Jordan of the philosophy department gave a class of 83 sophomores a quiz on superstitions.

Fifteen Nervous

Fifteen acknowledged they felt nervous about Friday the 13th, 53 said they were afraid to walk under ladders, and 46 were not fond of black cats. Only three felt entirely free from superstitions.

Twenty-six of the 83 couldn't help believing the one about a broken mirror bringing seven years of hard luck. Thirteen said they got jumpy over the idea of lighting three cigarets on the same match.

"Three times a bridesmaid, never a bride" was believed by at least two young women in the class. The same two said they'd expect to be married soon if they should happen to catch a bride's bouquet. Another young woman said she never sang while eating because if she did—well, of course, it's only a superstition, but she might, at that, marry a cross-eyed husband.

LEGISLATURE

the Democratic party again would present a broken front. He hit at statements that Texans favored repeal of the prohibition amendment and urged adoption of the resolution as a warning to the leaders of the Democratic party that Texas, which went for Hoover in 1928, would stand for no modification planks.

The resolution was ordered printed in the journal.

SENATE ADJOURNS THIS MORNING

AUSTIN, March 13. (AP)—The senate adjourned this morning after a 17-minute session until Monday morning.

Adjournment was ordered so committees might have the leeway and dig deeper into the many bills.

Meet Promptly

Committees began meeting promptly after adjournment with the highway and motor traffic group leading off.

The senate adopted a motion made by Senator Poage of Waco that his motion for a minority report on the McGill ten-juror bill, reported unfavorably yesterday afternoon, be printed in the journal. The rules of the senate require a motion for a minority report to be filed within 24 hours.

Bills introduced today:

By Senator Berkeley of Alpine, to authorize appointment of receivers for irrigation districts.

By Senator Greer of Athens, asking that prorata of textbook money be made direct to towns of 10,000 population and authorizing the towns to adopt their own textbooks.

EFFORT TO SET RECORD FAILS

LEAKY TANK FORCES FLIERS DOWN IN ENDURANCE HOP

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Walter Lees and Frederick Brossy failed in their attempt here to set a new world's non-refueling flight record when a leaky fuel tank forced them down after 30 hours and 13 minutes in the air.

Using a diesel motored plane, the fliers went up at 8:33 a. m. (EST) Wednesday, announcing they would make a test flight. Shortly after completing 24 hours in the air, they dropped a note saying they had decided to go ahead for the endurance mark.

Early Thursday afternoon another note was dropped stating the fuel tank was leaking, and they would be forced to land. The plane was flown to the Jacksonville municipal airport where it landed at 2:35 p. m. (EST).

INSURANCE HEAD FACES CHARGES

NEW ORLEANS, March 13 (AP)—James Clark, 30, was to be returned today to Monroe, La., where police say he is wanted on a charge of operating a fraudulent "matrimonial insurance agency." He was arrested here last night upon request of the Ouachita parish sheriff.

Mrs. Flacy Beatly, who brought the charges, was quoted by Monroe police as saying the Mutual Marriage Endowment association of Louisiana, Inc., of which Clark is president, failed to pay her $250 when her daughter was married, although she had paid $105 into the company.

Monroe authorities said Clark worked there as a representative of the defunct Lone Star Matrimonial association of Fort Worth, Texas, later organizing his own company.

The Lone Star company is under federal investigation.

Women's Committee To Meet Saturday

A meeting of the women's committee appointed to aid in preparation of the program of the first annual Panhandle-South Plains Fat Calf, Pig, and Meat show has been called for 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at chamber of commerce offices.

Mrs. O. R. Copeland, chairman, of 1610 Avenue K, called the meeting. Personnel of the committee has not been announced.

The "quality meat" exposition will be held at the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds, March 27 and 28. The women's committee will work in the canned-and-cured meats division.

Sheep were first introduced in America at Jamestown in 1609.

Former Sheriff Is Claimed By Death

H. M. Culp, 68, a former sheriff, died unexpectedly at his home at 1717 Eighth street at 12:30 o'clock this morning. He had resided in Lubbock the last four years.

Survivors include:

The widow of Lubbock; two sons, D. H. Culp of Stanford and H. H. Culp, stationed with the United States navy in Panama, and two daughters, Mrs. George Butler of Lubbock and Mrs. Newel Hodge of Big Lake.

Funeral services probably will be held Saturday afternoon. Burial probably will be here under direction of Bynum-Morgan funeral home.

All of the children, except the son attached to the navy, are expected to attend the rites.

LONDON, March 13 (AP)—Vernon Hartshorn, the Lord Privy Seal, dropped dead today during a visit in the country.

Market Week Dance To Be Held Here

Wholesalers and other persons here in connection with the third semi-annual Market week will be guests at a dance beginning at 10 o'clock Monday night at the Lubbock hotel.

Frank Stone's Collegians will furnish the music. Stone's orchestra also is billed to play the weekly dance at the Lubbock tomorrow night.

NORWOOD INDICTED

TEXARKANA, March 13 (AP)—A Bowie county grand jury yesterday indicted Travis Norwood, 30, on charges of being an accomplice to robbery with firearms in connection with the kidnaping and wounding of R. W. Hanks, Redwater bank cashier, last December. Jess Olascoe previously had been given a 25-year sentence upon conviction of robbery with firearms, for the attack on the banker.

County Clubs Have Meeting At Slaton

SLATON, March 13.—(Special)—The City Line Home Demonstration club met Wednesday at the club house. The Union Home Demonstration club women were guests of the City Line club.

Miss Ruth Stockton was present and prepared some delicious dishes, one of which was salad made from fresh vegetables now growing in the club members' gardens. The ladies reported having five different vegetables growing now ready to prepare for the table, seven have their hot beds made and others soon will have them. All showed much enthusiasm and were desirous of good gardens this year. Refreshments were served to 23.

Post Women Are To Attend Affair

Ten women from Slaton are expected to be special guests for a bridge party Saturday in the home of Mrs. W. O. Stevens, 1406 Avenue O. These are Mesdames J. B. Slaughter, Jay Slaughter, C. D Morrell, John Herd, O. D. Cardwell, J. N. Power, O. L. Weakley, Walter Roy, C. D. Williams and W. O. Stevens, jr.,

Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. R. Q. Pierce, Mrs. W. F. Schenck, Mrs. A. B. Conley and Miss Della Wilkinson are entertaining with a series of parties during this week-end.

Until the time of Peter the Great, 1685-1725, Russia was almost entirely Asiatic in character.

Mrs. Escobar Back Without Her Mate

EL PASO, March 13. (AP)—Mrs. Concepcion Escobar, wife of General Jose Gonzalo Escobar, leader of an unsuccessful Mexican revolution in 1929, has returned to El Paso—and the general, with whom she was reunited in Montreal, Canada, several weeks ago, did not accompany her.

When Mrs. Escobar left El Paso for Montreal, accompanied by her attorney, it was reported as her intention to seek annulment of their marriage.

Shortly after meeting the general, however, she deserted her attorney and a reconciliation with General Escobar was affected. The general's unsuccessful revolution caused him to flee his native country.

FOUND GUILTY

INDIANAPOLIS, March 13. (AP)—Harold Herbert Schroeder, 35, of Mobile, Ala., was convicted of voluntary manslaughter by a criminal court jury last night for the death of an unidentified man whose charred body was found in Schroeder's automobile near here last May 31. The verdict carries a penalty of two to 21 years.

STYLE REVIEW IS PLANNED

CARPENTER TO PLAN DETAILS OF PRE-EASTER EVENT

Details of staging a pre-Easter style review on the approaching Market week program will be supervised by Herbert B. Carpenter, attache of the Dallas Wholesale Merchants association, who is expected to arrive here Saturday from Dallas.

Mr. Carpenter has directed style shows for the Dallas organization and has served as director of previous reviews here. The pre-Easter show will be staged here next Tuesday night at the Uptown Dance Palace.

Homer D. Grant, chairman of the Market week committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, late Thursday announced Mr. Carpenter's scheduled arrival.

The style show will be one of the principal features of the third annual West Texas Market Week, March 16, 17 and 18.

Girls Are Invited

Officials of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce have sent out letters to a number of young ladies in Lubbock who have served as models in the style shows in other market events, and are inviting all who wish to be models in the style show to be present at a meeting at the Hilton Hotel at two o'clock, Saturday afternoon, at which time Mr. Carpenter will select the models for the show.

The models will be paid for their services, officials of the chamber of commerce, have announced.

Two Bandits Shot, Wounded In Fight

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Mar. 13. (AP)—Two robbers held up the state bank of Harviell near here and fled in a stolen motor car, with $500 yesterday.

A sheriff's posse was organized, with Deputy Sheriff Wiley Owens, jr., one of the leaders. Near the Arkansas line the posse engaged the robbers in a gun battle, wounding both of them. One of the robbers was Triaud Owens, 21, brother of the deputy. The other tonight had been identified only as "Red." The money was not recovered.

Sued For Million

Not every 12-year-old boy can be sued for $1,000,000, so therefore this distinction attaches to Joe C. Anderton, above, of Winchester, Tenn. Anderton is a carried boy for the Chattanooga News in his home town, so when Colonel Luke Lea, Nashville publisher, went into court at Winchester and filed a $1,000,000 damage suit against the paper, charging libel, Joe was formally named as the defendant.

BELIEVE GRAVE IS OPENED

"DOPE" PEDDLERS ARE BLAMED IN PAMPA INVESTIGATION

PAMPA, March 13. (AP)—Officers here believe "dope" peddlers, members of a narcotic ring operating in Dallas, Fort Worth and El Paso, opened the grave of Mrs. Carrie Felker, 22, several days after the body was buried.

Information obtained in an investigation was turned over to federal narcotic agents from Dallas.

A caretaker at a cemetery discovered that Mrs. Felker's grave had been opened, the body stood up against the grave wall, and the stockings removed from the woman's body. In a post mortem examination, poison was found in viscera of the body.

Found Dead In Car

The woman had been found dead in an automobile parked on a downtown street here and at first, a coroner's verdict that death was due to alcoholism was returned. It was revealed today that stockings worn by the woman at the time of her death were the same ones removed from the corpse by persons who opened the grave. Officers obtained information today which led them to believe the woman carried a quantity of narcotics in the hem of her stockings at the time she was found dead. On this they based their theory that the grave was opened by persons seeking to obtain the narcotics.

FATHER OF STANGEL DIES

Death of the father of W. L. Stangel, professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological college, Tuesday afternoon at Fort Worth has been reported here. The elder Mr. Stangel had been ill for several weeks. His son had been in Fort Worth the last several days.

Court Attaches Singing "Hard Times Blues"

CHICAGO, March 13.—(AP)—Divorce court attaches are singing the "hard time blues."

Chicago's population has been increasing right along but the divorce business has been dull.

During the past five months, there has been a steady downward trend, it was disclosed by M. S. Szymczak, clerk of the superior court and Thomas O. Wallace, clerk of the circuit court. In the five months ending February 28 the number of suits filed in the two courts was 4,487, or six per cent less than the 4,787 for the same period a year ago.

"Apparently," said Szymczak, "husbands would rather keep their wives and wives their husbands than spend money at this time on getting parted."

Wants Dignity

ISTANBUL. — City clerks should wear Prince Alberts when they perform marriage ceremonies for the women of modern Turkey, contends one of them. A new woman alderman, Rana Yaver naturally put the question to the city fathers in her first speech. They are deliberating.

Musical Taxi

BERLIN.—"I am the musical taxi-driver," reads a sign on one of the busiest cabs. Records are on top. "Jazz or classic?" the driver asks and he rolls away to the desired tune.

Children Scattered

GLASGOW, — Nearing 95, Charles Brown wonders where his 33 children are. His first wife bore him three, his second wife, 16, including three sets of twins and one of triplets, and his third wife 14. They have scattered to far countries.

Against Navy

LONDON.—Eleven members of commons evidently are willing to abolish the British navy. Anyhow J. Kinley, left-wing laborite, saying that abolition of the navy would mean the disintegration of the empire, which would be a good thing, moved a big cut in naval estimates. His idea got 10 votes besides his own. The nays totalled 182.

Off For America

BERLIN—A roving radio reporter, H. H. Hellmut, is on his way to America to broadcast to the old world his impressions of the new. With his microphone under his arm he will tell of the skyscrapers of New York or the film lots of Hollywood. NBC will transmit by short wave.

Gets Results

CONEMARA, Irish Free State —The Rev. P. R. Conneely is getting results in Carraroe in a crusade against poteen. After a mission a score of distillers brought their products to the parsonage. Eleven others smashed their stills in the Glen country.
