READY TO TRY — Snyder educators will be among those individuals on the road Saturday morning as part of the 10-mile Turkeywalk for the American Heart Association. The effort will begin at 9 a.m. Dr. Ben Brock (right), vice president of Western Texas College, is a traditional walker at the event. He is shown urging on fellow participants (from left) Charlie Anderson and Jim Erwin, principals at Central and North Elementaries; Superintendent Bob Hawes, James Stehley and Frank Miller, principals at the junior high and West Elementary. Turkey walk list expands

Approximately 30 senior citizens have joined the Turkeywalk brigade slated for a 10-mile effort Saturday morning.

With more than $600 reportedly pledged for one senior center walker, the group will walk as much of the 10-mile course as possible. Joining them will be Gloria Shaw, Senior Center director.

Some 50 other participants in the walk were reported earlier this week.

Bobby Beard, Turkeywalk chairman, reminds potential walkers that participants are not required to complete the full 10-mile course.

They will begin at 9 a.m. at Snyder Junior High School.

Mob violence continues across India

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Mob violence triggered by Indira Gandhi's assassination raged across northern India today despite curfews and orders for security forces to shoot rioters on sight. Nearly 450 people reportedly have been killed.

Much of the violence — including lynchings, beatings and arson — has seen directed at Sikhs by Hindus seeking to avenge the late prime minister, whose assassins have been identified as two Sikh members of her security guard.

Mrs. Gandhi's son, newly-chosen Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, made a two-minute television speech today.

"Indira Gandhi gave her life so that a united India should live and prosper. ... Communal madness will destroy us," he said. He quoted his mother as saying, "Do not shed blood, shed hatred."

"While hundreds of millions of Indians are mourning the tragic loss of their beloved leader, some people are casting a slur on her memory by indulging in acts of hatred and violence. This must stop forthwith," Gandhi said.

United News of India reported more than 225 people had been killed in New Delhi alone since Wednesday's assassination. The news agency said the figure had been "officially confirmed," but did not say by whom. UNI said its correspondents had seen 192 bodies at one city mortuary.

The new figure is much higher than had been previously cited for the capital. It would bring the total deaths in the wave of riots, arson, looting and communal fighting to nearly 450 nationwide.

Violence has swept the northern half of India for the past three days. Sparked by the assassination, it was fueled by continuing hostility over the June army attack on the Sikhs' Golden Temple, which, in turn, had been prompted by months of Sikh terrorism and secessionist demands.

Mobs rampaged through trains as they stopped at stations outside the capital, and as many as 28 Sikhs have been seized and killed in the railroad cars. Some of the bodies were burned. Some were still on the trains as they pulled into New Delhi's central station.

UNI reported that three employees of All-India Radio, the government network, were killed by a mob in New Delhi while on their way home from work this morning. The bodies were still lying in the road in the afternoon, the agency said.

In one Sikh neighborhood of New Delhi, 150 houses were burned, according to residents.

Many streets in the capital — which was one of 32 cities under 24-hour curfew — were deserted today, and fires burned in several neighborhoods.

Entity insurance change proposed

AMENDMENT 6
EXPLANATION

This amendment would permit public funds and credit to be used to pay premiums to mutual insurance companies for certain types of insurance and annuity contracts.

The constitution would then allow political subdivisions like cities and school districts to accept bids from mutual as well as non-mutual insurance companies.

It would apply only to insurance policies for which extra fees beyond the premium payments would not be assessed. Such policies include life, health

2 wreck lawsuits decided this week

Two juries in 132nd District Court decided civil lawsuits here this week — both involving individuals seeking damages stemming from motor vehicle accidents in Scurry County.

Court appearances related to Stephen Greg White vs. Vickie Evans Hess and Joe D. Burns vs. Mark Holland and York Transport Inc. were scheduled back to back.

The White-Hess case was heard first and a 12-member jury found in favor of the plaintiff, awarding him some $58,000 in damage due to injuries he received in an accident here last Jan. 11.

White had sought damages totaling $272,500.

He was injured in a car-motorcycle accident reported here at the intersection of 30th St. and Ave. U. White, who was riding the motorcycle, said he received injuries to his head, neck and shoulders as well as his left arm, hip and knee.

In the second case involving Burns and Holland, a driver for York Transport, the jury found for the defendant — awarding no damages to Burns.

The accident in question occurred April 18, 1983 some 3 miles west of Snyder on U.S. Hwy. 180.

Burns had sought some $8,000 in damages from injuries he said he receivied when the York Transport turck turned into his motor vehicle.

According to accident reports, Burns was attempting to pass the truck on the right side of the road.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Procrastination is the art of keeping up with yesterday."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

George Dolan, in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, says the ravages of old age, or lack of them, are a popular topic these days. It has been accelerated, of course, by the injection of the age issue in the presidential race.

Dolan says he has a friend, Doc Baker of Burleson, who recently turned 71. "Baker radiates ruddy-face good health. Friends say he, a thrifty man, refuses to allow himself to be unwell because medical treatment is so expensive.

"But one friend noticed that Baker was walking with his head down and wondered if that was a sign of aging. So the friend asked Baker's wife."

"Oh," she replied. "He's walked that way ever since he found $1 on the ground 65 years ago."

Movie prices are getting higher, especially with the addition of Gov. White's new taxes.

Marshall Day, in the Seminole Sentinel, says a local couple figured out how to beat the price increase.

The young couple took their three-month-old baby to the movie and was warned by the usher, "If the baby cries, you'll have to leave but we'll refund your money."

After watching much of the movie, the husband asked his wife how she liked the movie.

"It's rotten," said the wife.

"I think so, too," agreed the husband. "Pinch the baby."

Larry Crabtree, in the Vernon Daily Record, passed along some excuses given patrolmen who had stopped motorists for speeding.

–"I was having a bladder attack."

–"I know I was speeding, but I just washed my car and was blow drying it."

–"My muffler couldn't be loud. It has a lifetime guarantee."

–"My speedometer is broken, but I couldn't have been speeding. I stuck out my hand and felt the wind."

–One guy said he was in a hurry because, "I was trying to get to a station. I was almost out of gas."

In Brief

Back to USSR

MOSCOW (AP) — Josef Stalin's daughter, Svetlana, has returned to Moscow and her Soviet citizenship has been restored, the official news agency Tass said today. She defected 17 years ago.

"The presidium of the U.S.S.R. Supreme Soviet, in accordance with articles 19 and 21 of the U.S.S.R. law on citizenship, has considered and complied with a request made by S.I. Alliluyeva, who has returned to Moscow, for restoring her to the citizenship of the U.S.S.R. as well as for granting Soviet citizenship to Alliluyeva's daughter Olga," the Tass announcement said.

The brief dispatch did hot say when Stalin's 59-year-old daughter returned to the Soviet Union. Olga is her daughter with her third husband, an American, William Peters.

Alliluyeva was Svetlana's mother's last name.

Barfield first woman excuted in 22 years

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Expressing sorrow "for all the hurt that I have caused," a pink pajama-clad Velma Barfield became the first woman executed in the United States in 22 years when she was put to death today for killing her boyfriend with ant poison.

Mrs. Barfield, 52, who passed up a special last meal and snacked on Coca-Cola and Cheez Doodles, was declared dead of a lethal injection at 2:15 a.m. She had offered her organs for transplant, and a team of doctors rushed her body to an unidentified local hospital.

Mrs. Barfield was the third person executed in the United States this week and the 29th since the Supreme Court restored the death penalty in 1976. The last woman executed was Elizabeth Duncan, 54, who died in California's gas chamber in 1962 for arranging the death of her daughter-in-law.

Clad in her own pink cotton pajamas with embroidered collar, Mrs. Barfield was wheeled on a gurney into the death chamber.

"I want to say that I am sorry for all the hurt that I have caused," she said in a final statement. Convicted of one murder, she confessed to killing three other people — her mother and two elderly people who employed her as a live-in housekeeper.

"I know that everybody has gone through a lot of pain, all the families connected and I am sorry, and I want to thank everybody who has been supporting me all these six years," she said.

As the deadly drug began to drip through tubes in her arms, Mrs. Barfield's mouth moved as thought she were speaking. She lay still for several minutes, then her color changed from reddish to gray.

Mrs. Barfield "wanted to live very badly ... she never gave up hope until today," her tearful son, Ronnie Burke, said Thursday night.

Families of Mrs. Barfield's victims decided not to come to Raleigh because that was "like licking your chops after you eat."

When the execution began, cheers erupted from pro-death penalty marchers outside Central Prison, where prisoners banged on their cell bars about midnight. Death penalty opponents stood in a quiet vigil nearby.

Arlington father to face charges

DALLAS (AP) — Karen Atwell, who works in the pediatric trauma unit at Parkland Memorial Hospital, has dealt with quite a few child abuse cases in her nine years as a nurse.

"However, this is the worst one I've ever seen," she said of the death of Una Yvette Boyd, 2½, who died Wednesday, two days after being taken to the hospital in a coma. She never regained consciousness.

The child's father, Bennie H. Boyd, 34, of Arlington is being held in Tarrant County Jail in Fort Worth on $100,000 bond. Charges of committing serious injury to a child were upgraded Thursday to capital murder.

Boyd's daughter had bedsores and bruises from "head to toe" when a baby sitter took her to an Irving hospital shortly after noon on Monday. The child was transferred to Parkland later in the afternoon.

Officials of the Irving hospital called police, and Boyd was arrested when he showed up at Parkland. The woman who brought the child in said initially that the child had fallen from a tricycle and from a bathroom stool, but later told police that Boyd had beaten the child, authorities said.

Parkland Hospital spokesman Gregory Graze said the child died of brain damage caused by heart and respiratory arrest that occurred before she arrived at the hospital.

The child "obviously had been abused over a long period," Graze said. Doctors found "some suggestion of sexual abuse," along with old scratch marks, a liver laceration, and a stomach injury possibly caused by a sharp kick or fall, Graze said.

By the color of the bruises, doctors concluded the child had been beaten repeatedly for at least a week.

Boyd described himself as a house painter, said Arlington police Sgt. Hugh Atwell. Police said Boyd told them his wife left the family in July. Boyd said he doesn't know where she is or why she left, authorities added.

Neighbors in the apartment complex where Boyd lived said they'd noticed bad cuts and bruises on the girl's body last summer. They said they suspected child abuse, but didn't report it because they weren't sure.

On Oct. 1, someone did notify the Texas Department of Human Resources that the child was being abused, but child welfare workers and Irving police were unable to locate her because the family had moved to Arlington.

Dr. Lamb

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My brother died two months ago of a heart attack (myocardial infarction). He was 60 and in good health. His death was a complete surprise. He seemed to be doing everything right except for smoking one pack of cigarettes a day. He weighed 174, watched his diet so he wouldn't get fat and walked every day.

Justy eight months ago he retired from a steel mill, where he worked near white-hot steel in very high temperatures. It was so hot that he was required to work an hour then take an hour's break to cool down. He worked at this job for 30 years. Could the job and the heat have caused his heart attack?

DEAR READER — There is no evidence that working in heat as you describe, without a heat stroke or other complications of heat, causes heart attacks. Heat does increase the work of the heart and thus can cause angina pain or other symptoms in people who already have heart disease.

But there is evidence that smoking cigarettes substantially increases a person's risk of having a heart attack. I would suspect that was much more significant factor.

Also, your letter is a good example of a persistent misconception about heart disease. You can look great and have serious coronary artery disease. That is why it is important to know what a person's blood pressure is and to measure his cholesterol level along with his HDL cholesterol. You can't guess what a person's chemistry is by looking at him. Also, your brother's weight may not have been excessive, but, unless he was quite tall, it was enough to have allowed a reasonable amount of body fat to have accumulated.

I am sending you The Health Letter 17-10, What You Need to Know About Heart Attacks, to help you understand the disease. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me in care of this newspapaer, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Your brother's case is a good example of why everyone needs a medical evaluation that provides a reasonable amount of information on how the heart is really functioning. Feeling good doesn't exclude a serious problem. The first symptom of heart disease is too often a heart attack or sudden death.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My daughter has very large calves. Otherwise, she has a very nice figure, but she hates to wear shorts, a swimsuit or a dress because she is so self-conscious about her legs. She tried losing weight, but that didn't help much.

She is 18 years old, 5 feet 9 and weighs 135. She is 34-24-36. Is there anything she can do to reduce the size of her calves? She has been considering cosmetic surgery and also has been interested in the new fat-suction technique. Is it safe?

DEAR READER — The first question is what makes her calves large. If it is fat, she could see a plastic surgeon who does cosmetic surgery. If it is muscle, there is no way anyone would recommend cutting out calf muscle to make her legs look thinner.

If it is fat, weight reduction may well help, along with endurance exercises. She should not do exercises that requires a lot of strength of the calf muscles, as that will stimulate their enlargement.

I'm not enthusiastic about the liposuction technique. It does have dangers and may leave ripples. I doubt that she wants rippled calves.

PRESIDENT REAGAN AND OLDER AMERICANS: THE FACTS

- SOCIAL SECURITY: When President Reagan took office, the Social Security System was heading for bankruptcy — but under his leadership, Social Security is now secure until the next century. The President kept his pledge not to cut benefits for current recipients — in fact, benefits are up $180 per month for the average couple. And President Reagan has urged Congress to insure a cost-of-living increase for retirees next year, even if inflation is not high enough to require it legally.

- MEDICARE: The President is working to put Medicare, on which 30 million older Americans depend, on the same sound footing as Social Security. Innovative reforms, such as ensuring that hospitals are paid similar amounts for the same service, have already saved $21 billion, keeping Medicare solvent until the 1990's — without reducing the quality of care.

- ECONOMIC RECOVERY: Before President Reagan took office, inflation for food, housing, energy and medical care — necessities on which many older Americans spend most of their income — hit 17 percent. Under President Reagan, the inflation rate for necessities dropped to 3.4 percent. Heating oil and gasoline prices have not increased at all since he took office. Older Americans not on fixed incomes also have benefited from the President's tax cuts.

- SPENDING ON ELDERLY: Spending on programs for the elderly has jumped 27 percent in three years — to $257 billion.

- THE OLDER AMERICANS ACT: The President strongly supports reauthorizing the Older Americans Act's nutrition programs, legal assistance, and ombudsmen for nursing home residents. The Reagan Administration is providing these services more efficiently. This year, 213 million meals will be provided — 70 million more than in 1982. And over 60 million will be delivered to the home-bound — 10 million more than in 1982.

- ALZHEIMERS DISEASE: The President appointed a task force to build on research breakthroughs — many federally funded — on this form of senility affecting nearly one in 20 over the age of 65. Research funding has been dramatically increased.

- CRIME: Older Americans can feel safer in their homes and neighborhoods under President Reagan. The crime rate has dropped two years in a row for the first time since records were kept — and last year's drop was the biggest in 20 years.

- MANDATORY RETIREMENT: President Reagan wants to eliminate mandatory retirement at age 70 for those who want to work. He believes that, when it comes to retirement, the criterion should be willingness and ability to work, not year of birth.

Cookbook recipes needed

Jean Everett and members of the Texas Sesquicentennial Committee and Historic Scurry County, Inc. are compiling a recipe book in honor of the sesquicentennial celebration.

The new book will be similar to "Country Doings," published in 1976 for the centennial including some food history and treasured and new recipes.

The members are asking county residents to submit as many recipes as they wish — treasured recipes, or those handed down through generations, contemporary recipes such as those used with microwaves and ethnic recipes. They would also like residents to write a 50-word or less history of the recipe. For example, if the recipe is a treasured one, the individual submitting it should include the name of the recipe's original owner, how long that person lived in the county, memories about her and other pertinent information.

For more contemporary recipes, the person submitting it might tell how often the recipe is used or if it is used only for special occasions.

All recipes should include the name, address and telephone number of the individual submitting it. Residents are asked to send a small black and white photo as well.

For more information or to submit recipes, contact Everett by writing to Rt. 3, Box 18, or contact other members of the committee.

Little to gain, much to lose

South's bid of two hearts on his second turn was a reverse bid, showing extra values. By agreement, North's three-diamond bid simply said, "Partner, I heard your reverse, but I think we should stop in three diamonds." Since South had nothing beyond what he had already described, he passed.

West made the best opening lead, a trump. Declarer won the diamond opening, played ace of hearts, trumped a heart and led a spade from dummy. West won and played another diamond. When declarer played a second spade, West won, cashed the king of hearts, and led a club to East, who won the club ace and set the contract with the heart queen.

South was mesmerized by his spade combination. Instead of depending on a favorable location of the spade honors, he should take a straightforward approach. At trick two, he should play the king of spades instead of his only stopper in hearts. No doubt West will win and play another diamond. Now declarer plays the spade jack. West can win and play another diamond, but declarer cannot be prevented from taking five diamond tricks, two spades, the ace of hearts and a club trick. That adds up to nine.

I think any declarer would make the hand if his spades were the Q-J. What should warn a good declarer against taking the finesse? The answer lies in dummy's shortage of entries, since declarer must enter dummy to take the finesse. The clubs provide one entry after the spades have been established. Creating an early second entry with a heart ruff opens the heart suit to attack.

Hemingway's thoughts on writing

ERNEST HEMINGWAY ON WRITING. Edited by Larry W. Phillips. Scribner's. 140 Pages. $12.95

Writing was Ernest Hemingway's obsession.

All of his working life he tried to write truly and well, and it sometimes he failed he still had the satisfaction of knowing that he had done his best.

As he observed in a letter to a friend "... writing is something that you can never do as well as it can be done. It is a perpetual challenge and it is more difficult than anything else that I have ever done — so I do it. And it makes me happy when I do it well."

Larry W. Phillips gathered up that quote as he went through Hemingway's books, correspondence, stories, etc., to collect the material needed to put together a book that contained Hemingway's thoughts on writing.

And Phillips has done a good job. The book he has assembled should be of interest not only to writers but to those curious as to what this American man of letters had to say about his craft.

The book is divided into 13 categories, dealing with such aspects of writing as "What Writing Is and Does," "The Pain and Pleasure of Writing," "What to Write About," and Hemingway's thoughts on "Other Writers."

In the first category, Hemingway observes in a 1933 letter that, "I am trying to make, before I get through, a picture of the whole world — or as much of it as I have seen."

In the second, he confides in another letter that, "There's no rule on how it is to write. Sometimes it comes easily and perfectly. Sometimes it is like drilling rock and then blasting it out with charges."

"...whatever success I have had," he writes in the third, "has been through writing what I know about."

Texas Baptists keep options open on women's ordination

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Baptists, declining to join the Southern Baptist Convention in opposing the ordination of women, have voted to affirm the autonomy of local churches to ordain whomever they wish.

Delegates to the Baptist General Convention of Texas also declared Thursday that "all believers, whether ordained or not, have equal status in the Kingdom of God."

That feeling emerged in a conciliatory resolution that draws on the Baptist tradition of congregational independence and the universal "priesthood" of believers.

Although not endorsing the idea of women serving as ministers, delegates to the convention passed a resolution on "appreciation of women" in which they expressed support for "those women who labor for the Lord and the churches in places of special service to which God has called them."

Both votes came on the final session of a generally harmonious, 3-day annual meeting of the 2.4 million-member state convention.

At the national convention of Southern Baptists this summer in Kansas City, Mo., fundamentalists successfully introduced a resolution denouncing ordination of women on the grounds that Eve caused the fall of mankind by tempting Adam.

That resolution only expressed an opinion and could not halt any ordinations, which in the Baptist church are handled by individual congregations.

But the Texas convention declined to join in the negative view.

Further, during a press conference after his reelection Wednesday as president of Texas Baptists, the Rev. Winfred Moore of Amarillo urged that Baptists work to make sure that the fundamentalist president of the Southern Baptist Convention is not re-elected to a second term.

Your Birthday

Nov. 3, 1984

This coming year you may need to work a bit harder in order to get ahead. However, when the bottom line is tallied, you'll be glad you put out the extra effort.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Don't shoot from the hip today. You'll have great reserve and determination upon which to draw, provided you set your sights on an explicit target. Major changes are in store for Scorpios in the coming year. Send for your predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Do not be hesitant to speak up today if you think you're getting the bum end of a deal. Your silence may be misinterpreted as a sign of approval.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) A friend you're fond of may come under fire from an adversary today. Should this occur, stand up and support your pal.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Keep your objectives to yourself today, but proceed toward them in an energetic and dedicated manner. Let your accomplishments speak for themselves.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) In your involvements with friends today, there's a chance you might have to handle some additional responsibilities because another failed to do his part.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If you hope to recover something owed to you by another today, you may have to be a bit firmer than you've been in the past.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Advice offered by a concerned associate may be a bitter pill upon first hearing, yet if you study what is said, you'll find it's constructive.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) In order to satisfy your own ends today, you may have to work as hard for another as you will for yourself. If you do, you'll both benefit.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) A strong desire to win will give you the edge over your adversaries today in competitive involvements. Play fair, but do so with determination.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Even though they may be distasteful and you'd prefer to spend your time otherwise, it's best you now take care of household tasks you've been neglecting.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Once you become involved today in a fun activity, erase serious matters from your mind. Relax, let go and enjoy yourself.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) This is a good day to go shopping for good buys for your household needs. If you find an item you like, don't be afraid to haggle over the price.

Dear Abby

A Mistress by Another Name Is Either a Mrs., Miss or Ms.

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1984 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Margaret, an older widow who hates to be called "Mrs." wants to know how "missus" could be abbreviated to "Mrs." since there is no "r" in "missus." For goodness sakes, there is no such word as "missus"—it's simply the sloppy pronunciation of "mistress," which is what they called the married lady of the house in the early days. "Mrs." is the abbreviation of "mistress"—which does contain an "r."

Since Margaret doesn't approve of titles, she would surely approve of the custom of the Society of Friends (Quakers) who address no one—not man, woman, doctor, king, general or mistress—by any title whatsoever.

When I was the director of a Quaker school, I was respectfully addressed by everyone—including the youngest child—as DOROTHY RUSSELL (who at 86 will answer to anything that feels comfortable to the addresser).

DEAR DOROTHY RUSSELL: Read on for more about how—and how not—to address a person:

DEAR ABBY: A male child is addressed as "master" until he reaches his teens, then he automatically becomes "mister." A female child is a "miss" until she marries; but if she remains unwed, she carries the juvenile form of address to her grave. That wrinkles my wrankle! If a man can assume an adult title based solely on age, why shouldn't a woman do the same?

Since I am a woman with a name that can be either a man's or a woman's—and since it's been a while since I was either juvenile or married—there are times when that absurd "Ms." doesn't seem so absurd after all.

LYNN IN EL CAJON, CALIF.

DEAR ABBY: Hooray for Margaret, who wrote: When will we delete the absurd labels, which mean nothing?

I am even occasionally addressed as "Miss"—with three children, 13 grandchildren and a great-grandchild! Considering that record, "Miss" is absurd. With no husband, "Mrs." is absurd. And "Ms." is the most absurd of all!

I also hate labels. When I die I want inscribed on my tombstone:

Please don't call me "Miss"
It has a phony ring.
Although I never married
I didn't miss a thing.

EMMA G. IN PALM SPRINGS, CALIF.

DEAR ABBY: Good grief, have you seen the new fashions for women? I like tailored clothes for women, but these clothes look like they are for men! Worse yet, the models look like punk rockers. This is chic? I always suspected that male fashion designers hated women. Now I'm sure.

JUST LOOKING,
THANK YOU

DEAR JUST: Keep looking; you don't have to buy. Men's fashions are equally far out. They're now showing caftans, brocaded fabrics and harem pants for men! Fashion writers have dubbed the look "Florence of Arabia."

Accutane linked to birth defects

TORONTO (AP) — Accutane, a prescription acne medication made from Vitamin A, is a powerful cause of birth defects, suggesting that massive doses of Vitamin A itself may cause fetal malformations, a new study concludes.

A woman who gives birth to a child after being exposed to Accutane during pregnancy has about a 20 percent chance of delivering a malformed child, Dr. Edward Lammer said Thursday in a paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Society of Human Genetics.

"Compared to other teratogens substances that cause birth defects), that's high — very high," said Lammer, of the U.S. Centers for Disease Control.

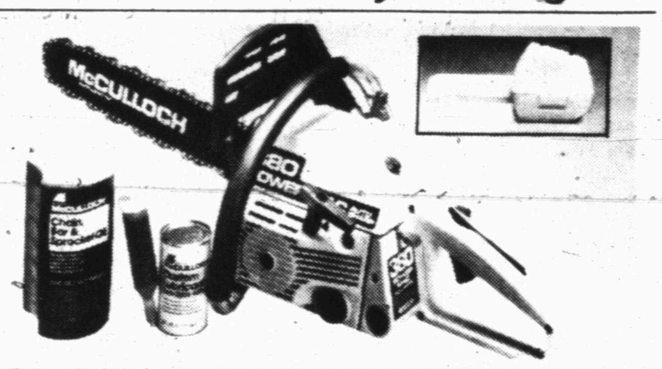

Accutane, introduced in September 1982, is the brand name for an acid form of Vitamin A called isotretinoin. It is supposed to be used only for severe cystic acne cases, but it is so effective that Lammer said doctors may be overprescribing it — and patients may be demanding prescriptions.

Now, Lammer said, there is preliminary evidence that infants exposed to megadoses of Vitamin A before birth are being born with a spectrum of severe malformations resembling those caused by Accutane.

He advised pregnant women "not to take large doses of Vitamin A except under a physician's supervision."

"I think we're all concerned that Vitamin A may be as much as or more of a problem than Accutane," he said.

Ragin' Tigers face Chiefs in district contest tonight

When Snyder and Lake View square off at Tiger Stadium here tonight it will be a game fought largely for respect.

Neither of the teams, both 1-6 for the season, are mathmatically in the playoff hunt, but each would like to salvage something from an otherwise mediocre season.

The Chiefs will be coming into the 8 o'clock game off of a 3-0 victory over Lamesa. Snyder hopes to rebound from a 41-0 loss to Pecos.

Statistically, the Chiefs are the district's best team against the pass and worst against the run. They have given up just 325 yards passing a game, but 1,418 rushing.

Offensively, Lake View ranks at the bottom of the 2-4A ledger, managing only 186.7 yards a game. Ironically, they rate third in passing, averaging 90.7 yards a contest. Split end Dwayne Smith is the top receiver in the district, both in number of catches (20) and total yards (299). Teammate James Whitlock has seven catches for 132 yards.

Directing the aerial show is senior quarterback Scotty Frasier. Frasier, 6-0, 180-pounds, missed last week's game with Lamesa but is expected to start tonight. He has thrown for 530 yards this season.

Lake View rates last in the rushing department, however. Leading the ground effort is 5-8, 180-pound senior James Allen, who has 287 yards on 82 carries. Stoney Lindsey, 5-10, 175-sophomore, has 184 on 66 while Dean Gill, a 5-9, 170-senior, has 104 on 42.

In contrast to Lake View's sixth-rated defense and eighth-rated offense, Snyder comes into the game fifth offensively and eighth defensively. The Tigers are averaging 236 yards a game but giving up 272.9 and an average of over 26 points.

A balanced team, Snyder is led on the ground by the loop's No. 3 rusher, junior tailback Justin Webb. Webb has picked up 639 yards and two touchdowns on 162 carries. Backfield mate James Powell has 256 yards and three TDs on 57 carries.

Snyder's air game is unleashed by senior quarterback Jimmy Cain, who has passed complete 35 of 81 times for three touchdowns and seven interceptions. His 603 yards ranks as the best in the district. Leading receiver Kyle Freeman, a senior tight end, has 11 catches for 186 yards. Swingman Willie Greathouse has pulled down [illegible] catches for 175 yards.

Snyder also throws to its backs. Powell has 119 yards on eight carries; Paul Thompson 47 on four; and Webb 68 yards on three.

Snyder will be without backup safety Todd Pollard, who suffered an extensive foot injury in the Pecos game.

Cat JV blanks Coronado, 21-0

Snyder junior varsity did things by the book here Thursday, using strong defense and ball control offense to blank Lubbock Coronado, 21-0.

The game was originally to be held at Tiger Stadium and was to be against the Coronado sophomores. Rain took its toll on the stadium turf, however, and coaches decided to play at Travis Field in lieu of tonight's varsity game here. And when Coronado arrived, it was not their sophomore bunch, but the junior varsity.

That didn't affect the outcome, however.

"Our defense totally dominated," said Coach Albert Lewis. "Of course the offense also did a good job keeping it (the ball) away from Coronado. That was the defense's third shutout of the season. They've been doing a real fine job. Coach (Larry) Scott and I were real pleased both offensively and defensively last night."

Snyder scored on three long drives, beginning with its first possession of the night. The Cats clawed 80 yards in 18 plays, taking 10 minutes off the clock, to score on a 1-yard run by Joe Martinez. Mitch Page kicked the point-after.

Snyder later drove to the 7-yard line in the second quarter but a couple of penalties killed the march. A 32-yard field goal try by Page was unsuccessful.

The Cats came out in the third quarter and fashioned an 11-play, 65-yard drive. Martinez scored again on a 1-yard run. Coronado blocked the PAT.

Snyder's final TD came in the fourth when Martinez capped an 11-play drive with a 10-yard scoring run. Martinez also ran over the conversion after a penalty had moved the ball from the 3 to the 1½-yard line.

The Cats finished the night with 371 yards of offense - 355 on the ground. Snyder was 2 of 6 with two interceptions for 16 yards through the air.

Individually for Snyder, Martinez rushed for 143 yards, Michael Long for 101, Tony Pineda for 55 and quarterback Dennis Martinez for 26.

Snyder limited the visitors to 132 yards total offense after holding them to only 14 in the first half. Coronado passed complete 4 of 13 times with one interception - by Joe Martinez - for 47 yards.

Fumble recoveries were recorded by Jon Traylor and Henry Treat.

Coach Lewis handed out special praise to the Cat defensive unit: tackles Henry Treat and Darrell Devorce; ends Jim Landis and Mike Keith; pluggers Doug Smith and Reggie Price; outside backers, Traylor and Cotton Merritt; halfbacks Pineda and Todd Odom; safety Joe Martinez and noseguard in the 53 and 71 defenses, Brad Gambrell.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Cats who take a 6-2 record into next week's game with Monahans.

Frosh fall to Steers

BIG SPRING -- Snyder freshmen had plently of offense here Thursday but couldn't get its defense on track and fell to Big Spring, 52-32.

Unofficially, Snyder came up with 446 yards total offense.

"It's a shame to have that much offense and lose. We played our best game of the year offensively. We tackled poorly and didn't have the speed to make up for it. We just gave up too many big plays," said Coach Ricky Howell.

Steve Harper scored two TDs on passes from Brad Gartman, one for 76 yards, the other for 64.

Terry Garza also caught a touchdown pass from Gartman; this one from four yards out. He also caught a pass for a 30-yard gain which set up the score.

Lawrence Barrera scored on a 7-yard run and two two-point conversions.

Harper caught two conversion passes. Gartman threw one of them and Roland Romo pitched the other.

Gartman was 8 of 13 for 206 yards passing but was intercepted twice and both were returned for touchdowns.

Barrera led the ground game with 186 yards rushing on 33 carries.

Snyder plays at home next Thursday, taking on Ballinger at 7 p.m.

TCU puts ranking on line against Houston Saturday

by The Associated Press

Will success spoil the "smash-mouth" Texas Christian Horned Frogs?

Can they come back to reality after breaking into the Top Twenty for the first time in 22 years?

Can they beat the University of Houston for the first time, EVER?

The next chapter in their amazing Southwest Conference football odyssey is in the Astrodome at Houston on Saturday morning.

The breakfast game is set for 11:30 a.m. in the Raycom SWC television series.

Off to their best start in 26 years, the freshly ranked No. 20 Horned Frogs will be trying to beat the Cougars for the very first time in nine tries.

TCU, which adopted "smash-mouth" football as their 1984 motto, leads the nation in rushing, total offense and scoring.

And the Frogs have a bowl on their minds.

"Being in the Cotton Bowl would be nice, but after four years of pure hell, it'll be a thrill to be in any bowl besides the toilet bowl," said TCU safety Byron Linwood.

It was Linwood's halftime speech that was credited with TCU rallying last week for a 38-28 victory over Baylor.

TCU is a field goal choice over Houston, which last week was knocked out of first place in the SWC race by Arkansas.

In other games, the No. 2-ranked Texas Longhorns are 14-point picks over Texas Tech in Lubbock; Southern Methodist is a 13-point favorite over Texas A&M at Texas Stadium; Arkansas is a 30-point selection over Rice; and Baylor is a touchdown choice over New Mexico in Waco, the final non-conference matchup of the year.

"We have found we can play with anyone," said TCU running back Kenneth Davis. "There is no goal that's out of our reach right now, except being 11-0."

TCU's only loss was to SMU earlier in the season.

Horned Frog Coach Jim Wacker is wary of the Cougars.

"There stands Houston, a super football team and one that's probably madder than a hornet after their game in Arkansas last week," said Wacker. "When Gerald Landry gets that Houston Veer to humming, it's a sight to behold. He is a magician."

Texas leads the SWC with a 3-0 record, followed by TCU and Houston at 3-1.

Arkansas, SMU and Texas Tech are tied with 2-2 ledgers followed by Baylor 2-3, Texas A&M 1-3 and Rice 0-4.

Bowl officials have been following Texas, TCU, Houston, Arkansas and SMU.

The Aloha Bowl has taken a sudden interest in the Mustangs, but Coach Bobby Collins said his team is in a "must" situation against the Aggies.

"I don't think ayone is going to come running for us if we don't win," Collins said. "The challenge is to see how we respond after the (13-7) loss to Texas."

Seventh grades stumble but earn coaches' praise

Snyder seventh grade teams completed their 1984 football seasons with losses to Big Spring here Thursday but Coach Roland Herrera had nothing but praise for the clubs.

The B-team lost 16-0 while the A-team fell 8-0.

"These were our last games and all of the kids did a good job," said Herrera. "I was especially pleased with the A-team game. The first time we played Big Spring they beat us 38-0. At half last night its was 0-0 and I thought we played a super game. Our offense couldn't get on track but our defense kept the game close," he noted.

"I'd like to praise every kid that was out for seventh grade football for all they did this year. I think these kids are true Ragin' Tigers. They don't give up and they keep their heads up regardless of what the outcome is. We had a slow start but after our fourth games we improved. We beat Lamesa and Sweetwater and played some other close games. Our kids are small but they fought like they were bigger," added the coach.

The B-team finished the season with a 2-4-1 record. The A-team was 2-5.

Other seventh grade coaches are Martin Lecuga and Freddy Harrison.

Westerners break open 1984 with 90-76 win over Indians

Coach Phil Spradling's Western Texas Westerners opened the 1984-85 season with promise here Thursday night, defeating McMurry College junior varsity, 90-76.

While McMurry Coach Hershel Kimbrough lauded the Westerners by saying, "I think this WTC team will be better than last year's, eventually," Coach Spradling was not quite ready to hand out that kind of praise.

"I was pleased with the victory but not pleased overall. We're capable of being a lot better," said the first-year Westerner head coach. "I thought we executed pretty good on our zone offense, however, we forced them to turnover the ball but didn't capitalize that much. We played well at times, but couldn't keep anything consistant. It's something we'll have to work on."

What Spradling was referring to was the fact that Western controlled throughout, but never really broke the game open. The Westerners led 46-34 at halftime and seemed content to stay six to 12 points in front for most of the contest.

Spradling opened the game with a sophomore staff except for 6-5 freshman James Dawn, but it was a second group, comprised largely of newcomers, that helped Western fashion an early lead.

"I thought we had some freshmen that came in and did a great job. The first group came out kind of sluggish and the second group, turned the game around. They played the way we wanted to play, getting the ball up and down the floor," Spradling said.

The second five consisted of Billy Chambers, Ed Teal, Jeff Gibson, Alvin Hicks and Richard Merritt. Teal and Hicks freshmen; Merritt is a sophomore, but in his first year at WTC.

Hicks, 6-5 from Richmond, Va., led a balanced Westerner scoring attack with 16 points. Sophomores Vince Turner, 6-7 from Gary, Ind., and Floyd Singleton, 6-1 from Detroit, both put in 14. In all, 11 Westerners played and 10 scored, including Lorand White, who had 9 points, Chambers, 8; Teal and Dawn, 7 each; Merritt, 6; Victor Spencer 5 and Gibson 4.

McMurry trailed 13-12 early in the game before Turner, Chambers and Hicks reeled off eight straight points for Western. The hosts ever looked back after that, though they could never gain a lead over 16 points.

When McMurry pulled within six, 37-31, late in the first half Western punched in a half-dozen more points and that seemed to be the way the game went all evening.

The Indians were led by 6-6 Willie Hill, who had 25 points, and 6-5 Doug Gordan, who put up 20. James Richardson added 13.

"We turned the ball over way too many times," said Kimbrough of his junior varsity which is composed mainly of freshmen and sophomores. "But Western was really just too strong for us."

Western had 14 steals and 23 assists. Chambers came up with 6 assists; Dawn with 4. Leading rebounders were Turner with 8 and Dawn with 7.

The Westerners, now 1-0, will play Ranger Junior College in Ranger at 8 Saturday, then return to the coliseum Monday to pair with the Dusters for a doubleheader with Cisco at 6 and 8 o'clock.

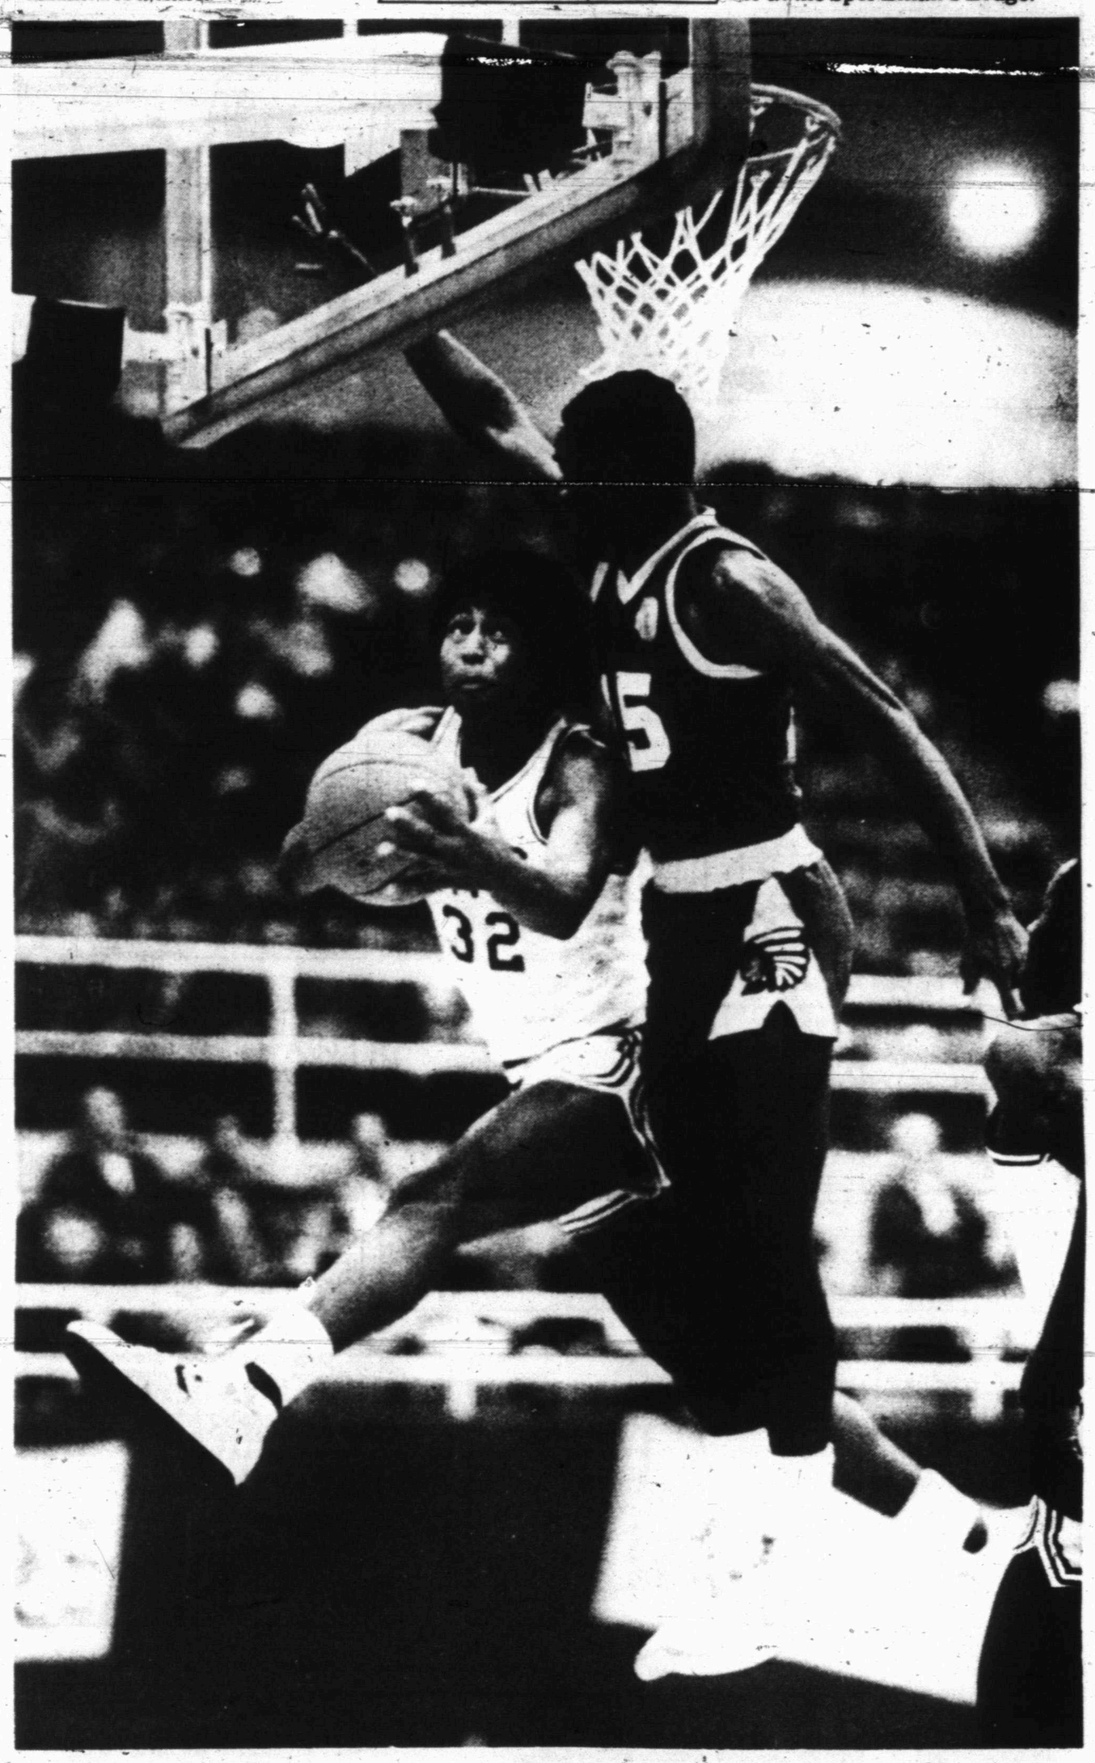

"Ranger is not as good as they were last year, but Coach Larry Gibson is doing a real good job with what he has," said Coach Spradling, whose team scrimmaged Ranger a week ago. "They play a slow-down game and I understand Ranger can be a tough place to play."

Dusters crush Roadrunners with second half run, 91-68

TYLER – Western Texas College's Dusters turned on the afterburners to break open a close game in the second half and rocket past Angelina College here Thursday, 91-68.

The Dusters, now 2-0 for the season, will play Tyler Junior College tonight at 8 as the Wagstaff Classic continues. They had been scheduled to play Blinn at 6 tonight, then test Tyler on Saturday, but conflicts have cancelled the final night of the classic.

Western led on 33-29 at halftime here but scored the first 12 points of the second 20-minute period to break the game open.

"We just went through the motions in the first half. We were kind of leg weary and we were a little frustrated because we had some shots roll in and out," said Coach Joe Cushing. "The second half we played a heck of a ball game. We got to moving and hitting our shots and we developed some intensity".

The Dusters hit only 14 of 40 field goal tries in the first half, but were 26 of 38 in the second half. Sophomores Patti Hayes and Clara Campbell led the scoring effort with 17 points each. Campbell, 6-2 from Dallas, hit just one-of-seven from the field in the first 20 minutes but punched in seven-of-eight in the second half.

Western also got 15 points from Lyndy French and 10 from Judy Wisemam, both sophomores.

Angelina's Roadrunners were led by Felicia White's 23 points. Mozell Brooks had 17.

Western outrebounded the Roadrunners 51 to 29. The Dusters had 21 turnovers, six assists, 10 steals and two blocked shots.

Leslie Rose pulled down 9 rebounds while Campbell, Hayes, French and Renvy Evans had 8 apiece.

Issel leads Denver; Rockets win again

by The Associated Press

When Dan Issel was younger, he was renowned for going full tilt for 48 minutes. At age 36, his playing time has been reduced but not his competitive spirit.

Issel came off the bench to score 25 points in 27 minutes Thursday night, boosting the Denver Nuggets to a 129-113 thumping of the Chicago Bulls.

"Dan Issel really got it going," said Denver Coach Doug Moe. "It's a good thing we didn't start him, or he might be dead now.

"Old Dan - and I mean old - really gave us a lift."

In other National Basketball Association games, it was Detroit 118, Atlanta 114; Houston 109, Kansas City 106; the Los Angeles Clippers 107, New York 105; San Antonio 123, Golden State 108; Seattle 105, the Los Angeles Lakers 103; and Phoenix 139, Portland 130 in three overtimes.

"I thought we had a terrific effort from a lot of players tonight," added Moe, and Chicago Coach Kevin Loughery could only agree.

"Denver is much more aggressive defensively than they've ever been in the past," he said.

Calvin Natt scored 11 of his 31 points in the first five minutes of the fourth quarter to fuel Denver's romp.

Quintin Dailey led the Bulls with 26 and Orlando Woolridge added 24.

Rockets 109, Kings 106

Rodney McCray canned a 20-foot jumper with 28 seconds left and Lewis Lloyd added a pair of free throws as Houston ran its season-opening unbeaten streak to three games. Kansas City, meanwhile, slipped to 0-3.

Akeem Olajuwon led the Rockets with 25 points.

NCAA group rejects invite to put together TV package

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - The National Collegiate Athletic is saying no - at least for now - to an invitation from a federal judge to again put together its own football television package.

"The NCAA football television committee met today by conference call and agreed not to pursue the development of a future television plan," Dave Cawood, director of television programming for the NCAA, said Thursday. "We won't do it unless the members indicate to the committee that they would like it to develop an option."

Cawood said whether the NCAA ever gets back in the football television business may depend on the outcome of a lawsuit in which the college athletic association isn't even directly involved. The NCAA's centralized control of football television rights was shattered and the NCAA's contracts with ABC and CBS were voided in a ruling two years ago by Juan Burciaga, a Federal district court judge.

His decision came in an antitrust case brought by Oklahoma and Georgia, and was upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court last June. It opened the way for the College Football Association - made up of 63 college football powers - individual schools and conferences to make their own television deals.

Many schools believe they will lose millions of dollars this year as a result of the court's voiding of the NCAA's football contracts with ABC and CBS.

On Wednesday, Burciaga clarified his earlier order and said the NCAA can offer a television plan to its member schools as long as it follows guidelines established by the courts.

Burciaga also affirmed the NCAA's right to ban schools from appearing on television as a punishment for violation of rules.

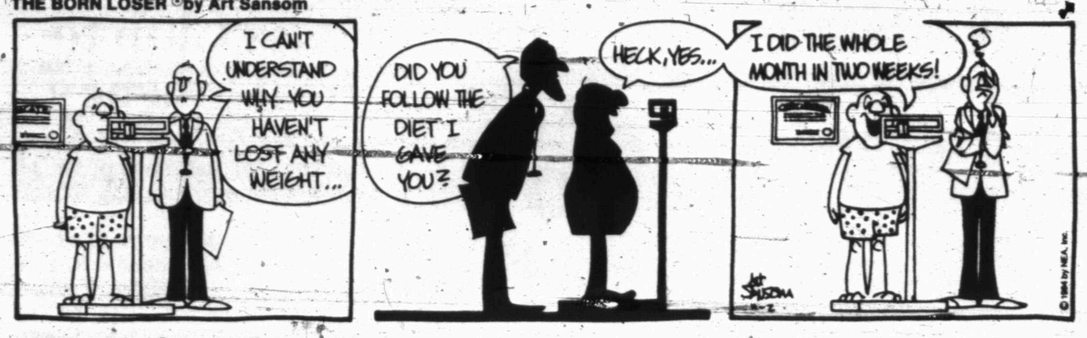

A black fighter named Bobby Dobbs, who later became a boxing instructor, had 1,024 fights during his professional career.

Unemployment figures are at 7.4 percent in October

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civilian unemployment stood still at 7.4 percent in October as economic growth created nearly 350,000 new jobs — just enough to keep pace with a strong demand, the government said today.

In the last major economic indicator before Tuesday's presidential election, the Labor Department said the stagnant civilian jobless rate left more than 8.4 million people unemployed, as the ranks of those officially categorized as jobless shrank by 29,000.

The total number of employed rose by 347,000, from 105,239,000 to 105,586,000.

The new rate was 0.1 percentage point below that when President Reagan took office in January 1981. The October rate was 0.3 percentage point higher the June rate, the best of Reagan's tenure.

An alternate unemployment rate, which includes the 1.7 million members of the armed forces stationed in the United States, was also unchanged.

Even though the number of Americans with jobs since Reagan was inaugurated has risen by more than 6 million, the president has said repeatedly that, while he was pleased at that, he won't be satisified until "everyone who wants a job can find one."

In advance of today's report, the Democratic Policy Committee, headed by Senate Minority Leader Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, issued a statement saying that today there are nearly 8.5 million people out of work. The administration cannot hide that."

The new rate, following more than 18 months of often dramatic declines after the 1981-82 recession, furnished the week's latest evidence of a general economic slowdown.

But private analysts have said that while joblessness has seemed in recent months to be stuck on a plateau, they do not expect unemployment surges of the sort that characterized the long business slump, in which joblessness hit a post-Depression peak of 10.7 percent in November 1982.

On Wednesday, the Commerce Department reported that the government's main economic forecasting gauge — the Index of Leading Economic Indicators — rose 0.4 percent in September.

But it revised the August index to a slight dip of 0.1 percent after sharp drops of 1.7 percent in July and 0.9 percent in June.

and accident insurance policies as well as annuity contracts.

Mutual insurance companies are owned by their policyholders. At one time, they raised capital by assessing their policyholders extra amounts beyond their premiums. Therefore, their policyholders could not be sure what the total cost of a policy would be.

In a 1942 case, the Texas Supreme Court ruled that a school district could not purchase insurance from a mutual company. Doing so would have made it liable for payment of these extra assessments.

In addition, it would have made the district a stockholder in a company. The constitution prohibits a political subdivision from lending its credit or granting public money to individuals, associations or corporations, or from becoming stockholders in such associations, or corporations.

For these reasons, political subdivisions have not been allowed to purchase insurance from mutual companies.

Amendment 6 would qualify the prohibition against becoming a stockholder and address the issue of assessments by adding the following sentence to the constitution: "However, this section does not prohibit the use of public funds or credit for the payment of premiums or nonassessable life, health or accident insurance policies and annuity contracts issued by a mutual insurance company authorized to do business in this state."

ARGUMENTS FOR

—Today, mutual insurance companies almost never raise capital by assessing their policyholders.

—Some of the most reputable insurance companies are mutual companies and should be allowed to compete with the non-mutual companies for the business of political sub-divisions.

—A policy with a mutual insurance company now involves paying premiums just as a policy with a stock insurance company does.

ARGUMENTS AGAINST

—There is no apparent opposition to this amendment.

A Slaton man received cuts and bruises here early Friday morning in a one-vehicle rollover 12.5 miles north of Snyder on U.S. Hwy. 84.

Taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital for treatment was Wendell Shafer Bieger, who was driving a late model Ford pickup headed north.

The accident occurred around 3:55 a.m. Friday and was one of two investigated by Department of Public Safety troopers during a 24-hour period.

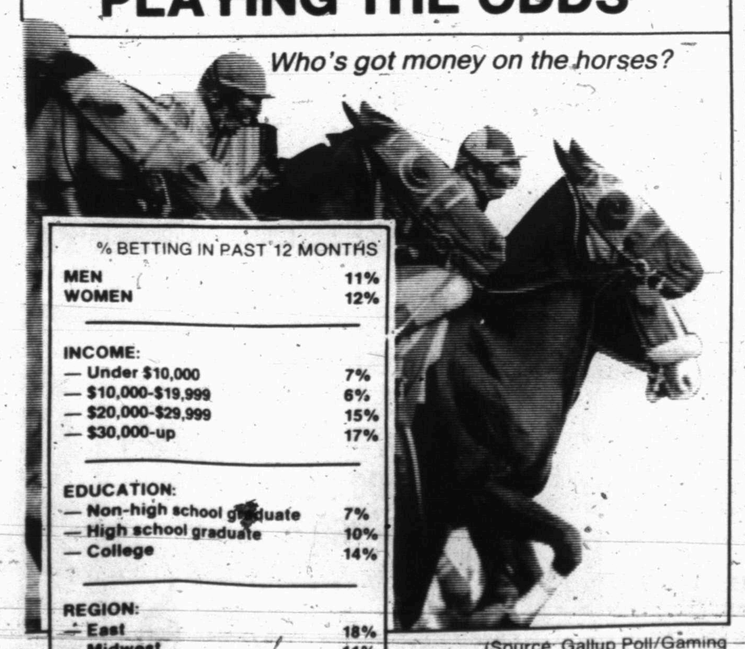

Bieger said he lost control of his vehicle as he attempted to pass a truck.

A second accident was worked around 2:25 p.m. Thursday some 3.2 miles northwest of the city on County Road 254 near FM 1611.
