IMPROVEMENT AT RODEO SITE GETS STARTED

Changes in Ground Arrangements to Speed Up Show that Will Make It Fastest in the West

Officials of the Scurry County Rodeo Association reported this week that work of transforming the rodeo grounds at Wolf Park into a modern institution is well underway this week.

Entire grounds at the site of the county's forthcoming Fifth Annual Rodeo are undergoing improvements that will result in a modern show place, one that will vie with any other arena and grandstand in West Texas.

Chutes have been changed, and remodeling work completed so that rodeo attendants will face the five chutes. A separate chute will be constructed for cows and calves, and arrangements made to keep all animals in the various events moving.

The arena at the Wolf Park rodeo headquarters has been made 15 feet wider, and a separate grandstand has been constructed for contestants—so that they will not get in the rodeo arena.

Plans for this year's show have been changed and rearranged so thoroughly that rodeo association officials predict that Scurry County will have the "fastest show in the West" August 8-9.

As worked out by rodeo officials, this year's rodeo will be run in shifts. While eight cows are being milked, for example, the chutes will be filled with bucking horses. While horses are being ridden, six or eight calves will be run in the chutes for the next event.

By working shifts rodeo officials hope to greatly speed up this year's events, and make the county's fifth annual boots and saddle roundup the most outstanding yet staged in this area.

The improvements being made at the rodeo ground are going forward at a time when leaf heavy trees and green verdant grass make an exceptionally lovely setting.

Additional details of improvements at Wolf Park will be given from time to time as completed, officials point out.

Guards Probably to Return at Close of Year in Camp Bowie

Word received Wednesday by The Times from Washington indicates doubt that Company G of the 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guard, or any other guard units will be kept in training for a period exceeding the current year's period.

In a press conference late Tuesday, President Roosevelt said that the matter of keeping guard units in active service over a year's time was under consideration.

Commanding guard officers at Camp Bowie, Brownwood, where Snyder's National Guard unit is quartered, expressed satisfaction at the possibility the boys in active duty may be allowed to return to their home towns soon.

Attaches of the Texas National Guard board stated this week that concern is growing over the proposed National Guard armory program for Snyder and other Texas towns—lest National Guard boys get out of camp and have no permanent quarters in their home towns. Details on the armory program will be found in another story in this issue of The Times.

County Scholastics Show Decrease from Previous Year Count

Figures compiled this week by the county superintendent's office reveal that scholastics in Scurry County number 2,831—a slight drop from school scholastics enumerated during previous years.

Snyder's Independent School District leads the parade with 1,019 scholastics.

Scurry County rural schools, including Ira and Pyron, boast a total scholastic enumeration of 1,166. As compiled by attaches at the county superintendent's office, scholastics in other school district include: Fluvanna School, 180; Hermleigh School, 307; and Dunn School, 159.

A number of transfers are expected this summer and current scholastic figures for the county as a whole may be altered slightly by the change of students.

Hopper Poison Plant Set Up at Fluvanna

Edward S. Hyman, county agent, stated Wednesday afternoon that the county's first grasshopper poison mixing plant is being set up this (Thursday) morning at Fluvanna.

Buford Browning, Fluvanna vocational agriculture instructor, will be in charge of the poison-mixing plant for 'hoppers, and will have active charge of local distribution.

Bran, poison and other ingredients for mixing the poison mash are scheduled to be in Fluvanna by noon today (Thursday). Farmers of the Fluvanna community report 'hoppers are "up and at 'em" in virtually all sections of the community.

Stribling received a $9.20 top on heifers and $8.85 on steers. The Hobbs rancher states that range conditions in Scurry and Fisher Counties at this time of the year are the best he can recall in many years.

HYMAN TAKES AGENT'S PLACE HERE TUESDAY

Former AAA Administration Officer Returned to County to Assume Vacancy Left by Cox

"I'm certainly glad to get back to Scurry County," was the way Edward S. Hyman, new county agent, expressed his sentiment when he assumed charge of the county agent's office Tuesday morning.

Hyman, former county AAA administrative officer here, is well known to county farmers, and is returning to direct activities at his former desk.

Hyman replaces X. B. Cox Jr., county agent since January of 1939. Hyman received his appointment last Thursday from District Agent K. J. Edwards, and will be acting county agent for an indefinite period.

Cox, one of the best liked county agents Scurry County has had through the years, was popular with farmers and ranchers alike. He went to Camp Barkeley, Abilene, Tuesday morning where he took a physical examination preparatory to being inducted into military service.

Cox holds a first lieutenant's rating as a reserve officer, and will probably be stationed at Fort Sam Houston.

Hyman has been AAA administrative officer at San Angelo for the past 18 months. He is a graduate of Texas A. & M. College. He and Mrs. Hyman arrived here Sunday afternoon.

Producers With Quota Cards May Dispose of Wheat

Scurry County wheat farmers who have wheat marketing quota cards may dispose of their grain in any way they wish, Frank A. Wilson, chairman of the county AAA committee, announced Monday.

Under Triple A regulations, which went into effect with the approval by wheat growers of marketing quotas in the referendum May 31, county wheat producers cannot obtain marketing cards until they have satisfied any claims the AAA might have against their wheat for production on excess acres, Wilson said.

"Since this is true, it naturally follows that a producer holding a card on his wheat can sell it, store it, or do whatever he wants to with it," the county AAA committee chairman continued.

"Such wheat is absolutely clear as far as the Triple A is concerned and is eligible to move in the regular channels of trade."

Producers who do not clearly understand the operations of wheat marketing quotas should ask for fuller explanations at the county AAA office.

More Workers for Registration Called For by Draft Board

Members of Scurry County's Selective Service Draft Board issued an appeal Wednesday for additional volunteer workers to assist in the July 1 registration of draftees who have reached their 21st birthday.

"We have taken the application of several volunteer workers already," draft board members state, "but will need more volunteers to assist in the forthcoming signup."

Pursuant to a proclamation issued by President Roosevelt, the registration will be required July 1 of all youths who have reached 21 years of age after October 16, 1940, and prior to July 1, 1941.

Volunteer workers who desire to assist in the draftee signup are asked to register with the clerk of the local board, at the city hall, prior to June 25.

Once enough volunteer workers are obtained to assist with the registration, convenient hours will be worked out, if possible, for those who assist.

Employers around the square who wish to proffer the help of employees for the registration are asked to advise the draft board what hours their employees can assist in signing up 21-year-old youths of the county.

Twenty-one years' continuous service as a rural mail carrier will be the milepost marked up Friday by J. E. LeMond, local carrier.

Of the years he has spent carrying the mail, LeMond has carried the mail for his route out of Snyder 13 years, and prior to mail-carrying here was a rural carrier out of Tahoka eight years.

During the years the local carrier has been a delivery man for Uncle Sam, he has witnessed many changes. Most important change, he recalls, was from Model T "mail wagons" to modern and faster cars. Throughout his carrier career, LeMond has driven in excess of 400,000 miles.

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce voted Monday evening to sponsor a dance here Monday evening, June 30, provided the All-Girls' Orchestra of Amarillo can be secured for the occasion.

On behalf of the Jaycees, Herman Trigg, newly named president, urges every local Jaycee member to be present for Monday evening's gathering, at which time several business matters will be attended to, in addition to election of directors.

"We're organizing along a line of concrete action," Trigg states, "and for this reason want every member to be out for the next meeting."

D. & R. BURNEY TEST PREPARES FOR SHOT SOON

No. 4 Well Would Make Seven Oil Producer on Tract—R-Y Drills Ahead on Bishop Spud

Operator's interest in the Sharon Ridge oil field centered Wednesday night on D & R Oil Company's No. 4 W. F. Burney test, located in the southeast part of the southwest one-fourth of the northeast quarter, Section 143-97-H&TC Survey, which topped the pay horizon at 2,200 feet and was drilling at 2,300 feet with oil rising in the hole.

D & R's No. 4 Burney will be drilled to about 2,450 feet and then shot in the presence of company officials, who are en route here from Miami, Oklahoma.

Another good producer for "Grandpa" Burney is in the making and will be the seventh well on the lease for him. Mr. Burney also has a good producer in the northeast quarter of Section 144, the old home place, which was recently drilled by Coffield & Guthrie, Inc., and is now cleaning out.

R-Y Oil Company's No. 1 Bishop test, a north offset to Coffield & Guthrie's No. 1 Burney, was drilling at 1,650 feet, with all indications of making another good producer shortly.

Lookabaugh & Schroeder's No. 1 Ella Richter test hit the "air" at 1,190 feet from a surface elevation of 2,299 feet, and is drilling ahead at 1,300 feet. The drillers on this test are out to make a record and are doing just that.

Pearson-Sibert Oil Company's No. 4 Wetzel et al test in the southeast part of the northwest quarter of the southwest one-fourth, Section 146, was drilling at 1,200 feet.

Pearson-Sibert Oil Company's No. 4 Bishop in the northwest part of the northeast one-fourth of the northeast quarter, Section 145-97-H&TC, is drilling this week. Through a typographical error last week it was stated this test was located in Section 146 instead of 145. We stand corrected, and express thanks to B. J. for the correction.

Magnolia Petroleum Company is rigging up pumping equipment on the firm's No. 5 W. R. Sterling test, northeast one-fouth of Section 130, which was completed as a flowing well two months ago.

Pearson-Sibert Oil Company is erecting a camp on the Huddleston farm for the firm's management officials. "Pop" Dennis and Bob White drilled Pearson-Sibert a dandy water well last week.

Coffield & Guthrie are completing a four-inch pipeline to the firm's tanks in the northeast part of Section 144 to care for the increasing production in Sections 143, 144, 145 and 146, where a total of 50 wells will be drilled during the second half of 1941.

Humble Oil & Refining Company, with two offsets to its leases now drilling, will soon be in the same position that Magnolia Petroleum Company was in last year.

One thing the Sharon Ridge field boasts of that is very attractive to West Texas operators is that dry holes are few and far between, while production increases steadily each month. Col-Tex Refining Company is constantly calling for more sweet crude of Sharon Ridge.

Absentee Voting In County Is Underway

J. P. Billingsley, county clerk, reported Tuesday that absentee ballots in the forthcoming senatorial election June 28 are being received this week in a nice volume.

Billingsley urges absentee voters to mail their ballots to his office as soon as possible. Such absentee voting will be concluded Wednesday night, June 25.

SNYDER STILL IN LINE FOR NEW ARMORY FOR NATIONAL GUARD

Full details are not yet available, but Snyder is still in line as a "designated" Texas city for a brand new National Guard Armory.

Word received Wednesday from Austin indicates that Snyder is still one of 56 cities in the state on the "waiting list" for an A-1 rating armory.

Total of $7,200,000 has been allocated to the Texas National Guard Armory Board by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to build 74 armories, 15 stables and 60 garages.

Under details released Wednesday in Austin, the RFC loan is to be retired by rental payments from the Texas National Guard.

Members of the Texas Legislature are becoming concerned over the apparent "bottleneck" that has developed in the state-wide armory program. The one-year active service period of many Texas National Guard units will end—if carried along on schedule—this fall.

When the units return to their home towns, adequate armories and other buildings must be provided for their equipment.

Changing phases of the defense program have brought about, indirectly, delays in the armory program for the state, but such delays, Representative James E. Taylor of Kerens, a National Guard lieutenant, points out, "cannot be accepted as excuses forever."

Probably the original appropriation for Snyder's proposed guard armory will be wheedled down. Probably the proposed stables in connection with the armory will not be built.

The important thing, Representative Taylor declares, is that Snyder any many other Texas cities have already been promised the armories. It is now, he points out, the duty of patriotic citizens to start writing their representatives and congressmen, and see what can be done about getting the program underway immediately.

USO GOAL FOR COUNTY SET AT $800 AT CONFAB

Snyder Trio Attends Lubbock Meet of Congressional District Leaders Tuesday to Map Drives

Scurry County's quota in the nation-wide United Service Organization drive was set this week at upwards of $800, local and county USO officials learned Tuesday at a district USO meeting held in Lubbock.

William Fuller, chairman of the local USO unit, Lee T. Stinson, chairman of the county USO unit, and Henry Rosenberg composed the trio of men who represented Scurry County at the Lubbock meeting. The gathering, including all of the 19th Congressional District, was held at the Lubbock Hotel.

Speakers at the district conclave included Mrs. J. M. Elliott of Tahoka, Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president of Texas Tech; and Jimmie Greene of Big Spring.

Charles Thompson of Colorado City, USO chairman of the 19th District, was in general charge of the meeting.

Fuller and Stinson state a city-wide and county-wide USO drive will get underway here within the next few days. A fine response has been shown to the new organization and present plans call for closing Scurry County's USO drive July 10.

As a preliminary step, a USO collection box was placed in front of The Times office Saturday. When the drive officially gets underway, a USO sticker and button will be given each contributor.

Hermleigh Girl Injured in Auto Crash Saturday

Rose Mary Hodnett of Hermleigh received severe cuts and bruises about the head and face at 12:30 a. m. Saturday in Sweetwater when the car in which she was riding crashed head-on with another vehicle on West Broadway.

Part of her nose and mouth were cut off and her face and forehead were a mass of lacerations and bruises. Rose Mary received emergency treatment at Sweetwater's Municipal Hospital, and was moved from the hospital Saturday afternoon by her parents.

In the sedan with Miss Hodnett was Raymond Rollins, Sweetwater man, who was driving west. Paul H. Leffing of View was driving east in a coupe.

Apparently, witnesses reported, the cars met in the center of the pavement. The accident occurred in Sweetwater's 700 block.

Speaker for Johnson Talks Here Saturday

"Whatever our destiny is to be for the next three and one-half years is in the hands of our Congress and President," Lyndon B. Johnson's campaign manager declared here Saturday afternoon.

"If we unite," the campaigner continued, "and use the right preparation, no one can resist us. This unity is what Lyndon B. Johnson, in his race for United States senator, is stressing."

Johnson was not able to be here Saturday afternoon as originally planned, but has spoken at a number of nearby towns in behalf of his candidacy for U. S. senator to fill the place left vacant by the death of the late Morris Sheppard.

Army-Bound

County's Quota For Next Draftee Call Set at Seven

Scurry and 59 other West Texas counties will furnish 229 of the 2,000 white draftees to be inducted into military service between July 7 and July 14, state Selective Service headquarters announced in Austin Tuesday afternoon.

General J. Wate Page, state director of Selective Service, reports that Scurry County's quota from July 7 through July 14 will be seven draftees.

The call issued from Austin was the 18th issued by the army through state Selective Service headquarters, General Page reports.

Coming up in the near future will be the 19th call for 100 negroes, none of whom will be called from West Texas counties.

In the July call General Page states Fisher County will be called upon for four draftees, Borden County none, Nolan County five and Dawson County eight. Other counties in this territory will furnish registrants on a population basis similar to basic figures established for Scurry County.

Farmers of Southern Part of County Meet

Farmers of the Lone Wolf, China Grove and adjacent communities were extended an invitation this week to attend a soil conservation meeting that will be held Friday afternoon at Buford Baptist Church.

J. H. T. Johnson, who will be in charge of the meeting, states movies on the Mitchell County Soil Conservation program will be shown, and round table discussions featured on soil conservation work.

While a portion of Lone Wolf is the only part of a Scurry community included in the Mitchell County district, Johnson believes that southern county farmers will find the Buford meeting beneficial to residents in both counties.

Colorado Underpass On Highway 101 Is Nearing Completion

Scurry and Mitchell County motorists were cheered this week by the announcement from A. H. Christian of Colorado City, resident engineer of the State Highway Department, that the new Highway 101 underpass and paving connections in Colorado City was "80 per cent complete."

The Colorado River bridge, which will connect with the underpass on the south, was completed sometime ago. Sidewalks have been placed and preparations completed to put down asphalt paving from [illegible] 300 feet south of the bridge to the B. M. Moore Grocery Store.

It was believed this week that all work will be finished by July 15. Plans and specifications are now being drawn up by the State Highway Department for paving of Highway 101 from the Moore Grocery three and a half miles south as a WPA project.

MUCH DAMAGE TO PROPERTY ALSO COUNTED

Friday Storm Clouds Cut Swath of Destruction Across County That Killed 2,500 Acres of Cotton

Scurry County was hit late Friday afternoon by the year's most destructive hail and rain storm to date, a storm that left a jagged trail of damage from one end of the county to the other.

Hail, accompanied by a driving rain and an exceptionally high wind, ruined approximately 2,500 acres of young cotton in the county, not to mention feed and grain stuff that was leveled to the ground.

Damage from wind was extensive. George Garner, who resides four miles west of town, reported that high winds moved a rent house from its blocks and carried it about 15 feet.

Hy Coldewey of the China Grove community, where hail and wind combined in a small twister, lost a two-room house. Alf Huddleston reported the loss of a barn and windmill.

B. Frank lost a barn in the wind storm, Pete White an outbuilding and H. M. Murphy a barn on the Ryan place.

East of Snyder three to five miles considerable damage from hail was reported, with hundreds of acres of crops damaged. Farmers in the Pleasant Hill community also reported heavy crop loss from hail.

County AAA officials revised their original wheat crop estimate down after the hail and wind storm from 75,000 to 50,000 bushels.

In the China Grove community hundreds of acres of cotton was damaged heavily. Leaves were stripped from both cotton and feed stalks in many instances.

The county's official rainfall for the first 15 days of June was hoisted. Mrs. B. G. Johnson, weather gauger, reports, to 5.22 inches—an average of one-third of an inch per day although precipitation was recorded on only six days.

June rainfall by dates follows: June 1, .53 of an inch; June 5, 1.53; June 9, .13; June 13, 1.35; June 14, .32; and June 15, 1.36 inches.

Although Snyder General Hospital was originally formed as a non-profit organization, announcement was made during the meeting that the local hospital now has a property valuation of $42,000—a decided increase over the $25,000 original capitalization.

Church Wedding Will Unite Margaret Deakins and Alden Burge June 22

Society's attention is focused this week on the approaching marriage of Margaret Deakins of Snyder and Alden Burge of Leesville, Louisiana, set for Sunday, June 22, and pre-wedding compliments for the couple both in Snyder and Sweetwater.

Several hundred people from all over West Texas will attend the afternoon wedding at the local Methodist Church Sunday at 4:00 o'clock with Rev. H. H. Black of Colorado City, Episcopal rector, the officiating minister. Several of the wedding guests arrived here as early as the middle of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Deakins, the bride's parents, will host an informal reception for the couple immediately following the service. Only members of the wedding party and a few others have been invited.

Social compliments for Miss Deakins, which began last week, will continue through Saturday night of this week. She will share honors with Burge, who arrived from Leesville at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Burge, in Sweetwater Tuesday noon, at several affairs that have already been planned.

Jeannette Lollar, Rube Lee and Johnnie Mathison, who will be among bridesmaids for the wedding, were hostesses Sunday afternoon at a tea-shower held in the Lollar home for Miss Deakins. Approximately 85 guests attended the affair, termed by local people as the most delightful compliment to a June bride held here in recent years.

Mrs. Kenneth M. Camp of Sweetwater, former local resident, complimented the bridal couple at a dinner party at her home Wednesday night. Local members of the wedding party attended along with Sweetwater friends of the honorees.

Joel Hodges of Sweetwater, who will be best man at the June 22 marriage, and Margaret Fife will entertain for the couple at the Fife cabin on Lake Sweetwater Friday night with a buffet supper. Several local friends have also been invited there. The rehearsal party will come Saturday night.

Tea-Shower Is Sunday

Margaret Deakins, bride-elect of Alden Burge of Leesville, Louisiana, was honored Sunday afternoon at a tea-shower given by Jeannette Lollar, Rube Lee and Johnnie Mathison, three of her bridesmaids, at the Lollar home. Eighty-five guests called in four groups from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

Decorations for entertaining rooms followed a yellow and white motif, chosen colors of the bride, and featured bouquets of shasta daisies. Other cut flowers and ferns were also used in the rooms.

Miss Lee greeted guests at the door, and Mrs. E. M. Deakins presented her daughter, the honoree, who was dressed in a floor-length frock of red and white dotted swiss trimmed with white rick-rack and wore a corsage of white gladiolli. Others in the receiving group were: Mrs. Herman A. Burge of Sweetwater, mother of the bridegroom-elect; the honoree's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Deakins of Floydada; and her aunt, Mrs. Burt King of Dallas.

The afternoon's program consisted of piano numbers by Mrs. Novis Rodgers, who will be organist for the wedding, and vocal selections by a high school girls' trio. The trio—Virginia Preuitt, Dorothy Murphree and Frieda Kelley — sang the favorite love songs, "Always" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Preuitt.

Iced punch was served from the lace-covered dining table with individually iced cake squares, sandwiches and salted nuts to the guests. Mrs. Vernon G. Young of Fort Sill, Oklahoma, who will be matron of honor at the wedding, poured, and three other members of the wedding party—Patsy Sue King of Dallas, maid of honor, Gwen Gray of Abilene and Roberta Raybon of Lubbock, bridesmaids—assisted with the serving. Mmes. T. L. Lollar, Ralph Mathison and W. B. Lee were also in the dining room.

Party favors—nosegays of sweet peas with paper frills—were pinned by Mrs. H. T. Sefton. Mrs. Aub Stokes presided at the bride's book, where the guests registered, and Mrs. Weldon Johnson was in the gift display room, where the array of lovely wedding gifts was artistically arranged.

Out-of-town guests attending the tea and shower were the following: Mrs. Phil Bouchier of Post, Mrs. Price Stell of Clairemont, Mabel Smith of Dallas, Mrs. George Bradford, Margaret Fife, Mrs. M. W. Fife, Mrs. Jack Shipley, Mrs. Sam Parker, Mrs. C. K. Griggs; Virginia Hodges and Mrs. J. A. Hodges, all of Sweetwater.

The headquarters, just east of the Manhattan Hotel, is open each afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock, and attendants are on hand to explain the patterns. Instruction is being given in knitting sweaters, mufflers and beanies at the downtown headquarters.

FSA Will Help Farmers Who Sustained Water-Hail Damage

County's Crop of Grain Damaged About 40 Per Cent

Results of a survey conducted [illegible] and others indicates that the county's current grain crop has been damaged approximately 40 per cent during the past 10 days by wind, hail and rain.

Attaches at the county Triple A office point out that the original estimate of 75,000 bushels of grain for the 1941 crop has been revised downward this week to approximately 50,000 bushels, a drop of 25,000 bushels.

Information gathered Tuesday afternoon from implement dealers, grain producers and buyers indicates that harvesting of wheat and oats will get underway in Scurry County within the next few days.

Muddy fields, in many instances, are delaying harvesting operations. Wheat, especially on hard land, is ripening rapidly, with several fields reported ready for combining.

Grain producers report that some patches of late grain, damaged by recent rains and hail, is straightening up fairly well, and that from 60 to 70 per cent of the original crop may be combined.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Kerby of Wellman spent the week-end in Snyder visiting relatives and visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gannaway of Hermleigh.

Air Guns Banned From City Business Section by Officer

"No more air guns will be allowed to be used in any way in the business section of Snyder!" So [illegible] reported that youthful marksmen armed with air guns, have had their day of mischief and property destruction.

Citing two instances of destruction wrought in the business section by air-gunners, Galyean points out that a number of windows at the courthouse have been broken by boys using the BB "scatter guns."

A plate glass window at a local drug store was also broken by devilish youngsters, who evidently had the happy idea that store fronts were constructed for BB bullets to hit.

Boys using air guns in the business section of town to hunt English sparrows or other game, can get into serious trouble, but Galyean and other officers hope that a sincere warning will save heartaches all the way around.

Several towns in the state have outlawed the carrying of air guns by youngsters within the city limits, and if is to be hoped this action can be avoided locally.

Dates for Post Rodeo Reset for August 1-2

Officials of the Post Stampede, Inc., announced this week that Friday and Saturday, August 1 and 2, has been reset as definite dates for Post's forthcoming rodeo.

Postponement of the original date for the Post boots and saddle roundup was made necessary by inclement weather and muddy roads.

Officials of the Scurry County Rodeo Association reported Tuesday that Scurry County will send a delegation of good-willers to the Post rodeo to help attendance at the Garza County festivities and drum up business for Scurry County's fifth annual rodeo August 8 and 9.

ASSISTANCE IS PROFFERED BY LOCAL OFFICE

Farmers Are Urged by Supervisor to Make Applications Right Away

The local Farm Security Administration, with offices over Bryant-Link Company, stands ready to make emergency loans and grants to Scurry County farmers in sectors of the county stricken by recent floods, Horace D. Seely, FSA supervisor, announced this week.

Applications for this assistance may be made at the Farm Security Administration office. "We have a limited amount of money for loans and grants to some of the county farmers who are hardest hit," Seely continued, "but we want farmers who are most severely damaged to file their applications at once.

"We will not undertake to help farmers who can help themselves," the local FSA head pointed out, "but we do realize in some cases that loans and grants will have to be made if some farmers make a crop this year."

He explained that small, low-interest loans can be made to farmers to save their crops and provide feed, if needed, for their livestock. "We can also lend money to buy seed and fertilizer needed to replant crops and for workstock to replace those drowned," he stated. "This can be done with utmost speed."

In cases of extreme need, the Farm Security Administration can make small grants to buy food, feed, fuel and other urgent necessities.

"One of the worst aspects of heavy rains and floods is that they came at a time when county farmers were busy raising food for national defense," Seely said. "Much of the feed destroyed was intended to feed hogs, poultry and milk cows as part of the 'Food for Defense' program carried on by farmers and the U. S. Department of Agriculture."

"A prime purpose of the emergency loans and grants is to help farmers to get back in the 'Food for Defense' program," Seely concluded.

Four Snyder Scouts Return from Camp At Sweetwater Lake

Charles Blakey, John Jay Boren, Douglas McGlaun and Charley Boren, composed a quartet of Snyder Boy Scouts who attended the Boy Scout Camp at Lake Sweetwater, held last Monday through Saturday.

The local Boy Scouts report that swimming, boating, hiking, archery, practice on the rifle range and handicraft work featured the six-day camp. Scouts from all parts of the Buffalo Trail Council were attracted to Lake Sweetwater for the outing.

Last Thursday evening was visitor's evening at the camp. Due to limited facilities, visitors gathered at camp headquarters after supper, and took part in the council-wide campfire program.

A special program was outlined at last week's camp at Lake Sweetwater for the camp that will be held at Weed, New Mexico, July 18 to 28. Reservations are being received steadily at Sweetwater for the summer camp located high in the Sacramento Mountains.

The quartet of Snyder Boy Scouts, who went to camp headquarters Sunday afternoon, returned Saturday afternoon.

Father's Day Noted Sunday at Churches

Father's Day was observed Sunday in virtually all county churches, with programs and sermons given along an appropriate theme.

The special occasion, honoring both the living fathers and those gone on, was specially designated for observance Sunday, in a proclamation signed last week by the governor of Texas.

Father's Day is one of the newer holidays marked up on the calendar of people throughout the nation. Movement to observe the occasion was started only a few years ago.

Demonstration Club Notes

Others Invited to Club

All people of the Boyd Mountain community are invited to attend the next meeting of the Home Demonstration Club, June 27. Entertainment is furnished for the entire families in that community, and the next gathering at the home of Mrs. Clarence O'Bryant promises to be of interest to the entire family.

The club met Friday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Travis Rhoades with six members and a number of visitors present. Two new members were recognized, and Mmes. Clark Nicks and Clarence O'Bryant were chosen recreation leaders for the next meeting. Games are provided for the men and children while the women hold their home demonstration meetings.

The Plainview Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Edgar Floyd.

High point of the business session was the naming of Mrs. J. W. Tate as delegate to the forthcoming A. & M. College Short Course at College Station.

Using four pounds of cotton and 10 yards of print materials, a cotton comfort was made by club members for Mrs. Floyd. The comfort was tacked to make it lighter and softer.

Present at the Plainview meeting were Mmes. John Woodard, John Floyd, J. W. Tate, Jim Boothe, Raymond Pylant, Dock Morton, Lowell Thornburg, and Misses Emma Woodard, Letha Woodard, Joyce and Norma Jane Floyd, Rena Pylant and Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Jim Boothe and Mrs. John Floyd, members of the Plainview Home Demonstration Club, have canned 79 quarts of lamb's quarter recently. These greens resemble New Zealand spinach and grow in lanes and field edges.

Rena Pylant, vice-president of the Plainview 4-H Club girls, planted a dandy frame garden. She was lucky in that the hail didn't destroy her garden. She has black-eyed peas, cream peas, butter beans, peppers, okra and tomatoes.

Members of county home demonstration clubs are advised that a meeting of the County Home Demonstration Council will be held Saturday afternoon, 2:00 o'clock, at the county home demonstration agent's office.

Sponsors are urged by Miss Rabel, home demonstration agent, to attend the gathering, at which plans of vital importance to club members will be discussed.

Reporters of home demonstration and 4-H Clubs of the county are urged to meet Saturday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, in Miss Rabel's office.

Much thought is being given to food preservation at this time, which may mean freezing, drying or storing food for future uses, Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, states.

If your problem is selecting a canner, remember there are many good commercial canners but you might consider the following tips in choosing one: (1) What sort of gauge has it? (There are two kinds, the spring and gear gauge—the latter shows pound marks and has more mechanism.) (2) How is it fastened? (3) Band types haven't proved to be as successful as lugs. (4) Is the petcock easy to clean? (5) Safety plug is nice to have. (6) Are the sides of the canner bright? (7) Can it be conveniently handled? (Is there a handle?)

In your canning use clean, fresh, sound fruits and vegetables. "One hour from the garden to the can" is a good slogan. Bulletin B-85, "Canning Fruits and Vegetables," issued by the extension service is a big help.

Compliance Check Halted by Rainfall Will Resume Soon

Due to excessive rainfall received the past 10 days, W. W. Hill, county performance supervisor, announced this week that [illegible] in the county under the AAA program has been temporarily halted.

Eight performance reporters were started to work last week, but excessive rainfall the past few days has caused the checking of some farm compliance to be ineffective until replanting operations are completed.

"We want county farmers to know," Hill stated "that Triple A compliance work in the county will be resumed just as soon as weather conditions permit. We want farm compliance work to be finished here as soon as practical so that compliance reports can be submitted to state AAA officials.

"Our performance reporters report that county farmers have shown a cooperative spirit in assisting them. We shall greatly appreciate this continued cooperation when we resume compliance checking," Hill concluded.

Rotan Goes Modern

H. L. Davis, former local dry goods store operator who recently celebrated his fourth anniversary as a Rotan business man, reported Tuesday that the Fisher County city is joining the parade of progress in a big way. Davis states that a traffic light has been installed at the intersection of Snyder Avenue and Cleveland Street, and that traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, will be hereafter required to observe usual regulations.

Public Safety Officials Explains New Drivers' License Law for Motorists

Effect of the newly enacted Texas drivers' license law [illegible] explained in a letter to county motorists by Captain H. B. Matthews of Big Spring, drivers' license division of the Department of Public Safety.

A commercial operator is "every person who is the driver of a motor vehicle designed or used for the transportation of property, including all vehicles used for delivery purposes."

Under the new law, present drivers' licenses bearing serial numbers from 1 to 450,000 expire on December 31, 1941, and are renewable on and after October 1, 1941. In other words, no license other than duplicates will be issued from now until October 1 to any person who now has, or who formerly had, a Texas license.

Present licenses will be renewed in groups, according to the serial numbers found at the top edge of the licenses. The new law sets out the following expiration and renewal dates:

Licenses listed numerically 450,001 to 900,000 expire March 31, 1942, and are renewable on or after January 1, 1942.

Licenses listed numerically 900,001 to 1,350,000 expire June 30, 1942, and are renewable on or after April 1, 1942.

Licenses listed numerically 1,350,000 and following and issued on or before September 30, 1941, shall expire November 1, 1942, and be renewable on or after July 1, 1942.

Cost of a chauffeur's license under the new law is $3, a commercial operator's license will cost $1, and an operator's license will cost 50 cents.

The law defines a chauffeur as "every person who is the driver for wages, compensation or hire or for fare, of a motor vehicle transporting passengers."

An operator is "every person other than a chauffeur or commercial operator who is in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon a highway."

"National Defense is Part of Our Job, too"

"Fellows, we may not be in the army, but our job of supplying plenty of dependable electric service to industries engaged in defense production is mighty important to our peace and security. We've got a big job to do and a reputation to live up to. Good electric service doesn't 'just happen'."

The entire Texas Electric Service Company system was designed and built with an eye to the needs of a rapidly growing West Texas. Experience gained during the World War period and the period of phenomenal growth in many areas of West Texas is proving to be of great value in meeting the demands for electric service growing out of the National Defense Program.

Today, our organization is far better prepared to cope with the demands for electricity than during the World War. Larger power plants and hundreds of miles of high voltage power lines have been constructed since that time, providing this section of Texas with an integrated electric power system.

Texas Electric Service Company employees realize the importance of dependable electric service in peace time and also in time of national emergency. They are working hard and planning ahead to provide electric power for every need—for use in your home or in turning out national defense equipment.

Low Pressure in Main Robs Local Team of Contest

Greatly lowered water pressure, caused by a broken hose, cost Snyder's volunteer fire department out of an easy first place last Wednesday at the State Fireman's & Fire Marshal's convention, held at Wichita Falls.

The race in which the Snyder boys got a bad break was the hook-up race. Snyder drew No. 2 in this event, but was forced to contest the event at the end of a line that had 31 contestants—due to the race being moved up an hour and some team members not arriving in time.

When the local fire team, composed of Emmitt Butts, Buddy Martin, Doc Bynum, Roy Davis, Howell McClinton and J. C. Card, were called upon to complete their hook-up, water pressure had dropped—due to the main line break—from 62 to 24 pounds.

Despite this handicap, the local fire boys completed their hookup ahead of the best time made by any other competitor. Low pressure, however, caused Snyder to tie for fourth place with a time of 24 seconds. Vernon, which placed first, marked up a time of 22 seconds.

Chief N. W. Autry reports that Snyder composed the only team entered in contest events from the Midwest Fireman's Association.

Despite their lack of copping first in the hookup race, Snyder's volunteer fire boys returned last Wednesday night with reports of a great convention and a fine time.

STAPLE PUT IN LOAN SUBJECT TO PRIOR SALE

Grower Would Be Advised in Public Notice If Government Were to Take Over Staple in Loan

County farmers with cotton in the government loan will receive full payments for their equities if the government should take title to the cotton.

This was emphatically pointed out Wednesday by Claud D. Cotten, county AAA secretary, when he was advised by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that title will not be taken to loan cotton without prior public notice.

If the government should take title to loan cotton, the cotton producers would be paid any amounts by which the redemption costs of their notes were exceeded by a fair value for the cotton at the time.

Redemption costs of producer's notes includes principal, interest and carrying charges on the pledged cotton. Value of the loan cotton would be determined by the secretary of agriculture on the basis of the prevailing market prices for cotton with reasonable allowances for differences in grades, staple and locations.

"Don't be misled by false representations to the effect that the government will not give full value for cotton equities when and if it is necessary for the Commodity Credit Corporation to take title to the cotton," the county AAA secretary stressed.

The notes secured by 1938 crop cotton, the maturity date for which was extended to July 31, 1941, are not callable on demand. The notes secured by 1939 crop cotton matured on July 31, 1940. The notes secured by 1940 crop cotton do not mature until July 31, 1941, but they are callable for payment on demand at any time.

It is possible that the government may find it desirable to take title on August 1, 1941, to any cotton remaining pledged to secure notes which are overdue at that time. In the event, however, that the government should take title to any of the stocks of loan cotton, at least 10 days public notice of such action would be given by a press release to all newspapers.

Word received Tuesday from C. N. and Nolan von Roeder of Knapp reveals that peaches from the famous Von Roeder orchards are selling this week at a rapid rate.

Despite damage earlier in the season from hail, rain and wind, the Von Roeder brothers state they will have plenty of fruit to supply the demand in this immediate trade territory.

Those who desire may drive out to the Von Roeder orchards to purchase tree-fresh fruit, or may find excellent eating and canning peaches from the orchards on sale at local stores.

Interest in Flood Control for North Snyder Aroused

Interest in some type of flood control project for the east and northeast parts of town is increasing daily since the hail and rain storm of Friday afternoon and heavy downpour Sunday evening.

Many residents in the east part of town are anxious to start some kind of flood control project that would deepen the channel of Dry Creek—one that is almost filled up in places and goes just west of the school house.

Dry Creek comes into the northeast part of town in a low place, under the Santa Fe Railroad where a suitable bridge stands, and spreads out near some oil company warehouses.

Once Dry Creek crosses under the R. S. & P. Railroad there is no way for flood waters to get back east of the tracks until the water gets near the square.

Since the channel of Dry Creek is filled up in places by grass, underbrush and debris, citizens near the meandering creek are anxious that something be done to straighten and deepen the channel so that it will carry a heavy volume of water without threat to those whose homes are in low places.

Events for Negroes to Feature Spur Rodeo

New pre-rodeo features for the Spur Roundup Association, announced Tuesday, will be a negro rodeo Thursday evening, June 19. The Negro Citizens Council will be in charge of this event—which will consist of wild cow milking, calf roping on foot and brone riding.

During the two-day Spur rodeo, June 20 and 21, a short memorial service will be conducted each evening in memory of early settlers who have passed to the Great Roundup. There will be two rodeo performances daily, 2:00 p. m. and 8:00 p. m. Total of $1,500 in cash prizes will be awarded winners in rodeo events.

WPA WORKERS ARE LISTED FOR PRIVATE WORK

District WPA Manager, on Visit to County, Says Federal Project Employees to Be Available

A. O. Jones of Lubbock, district WPA manager, stated while here Wednesday on business and active private employers can rest assured all WPA workers are listed with the Texas State Employment Service and are available for private employment.

WPA workers in Scurry and other nearby counties will be released from projects wherever needed to make farm help available, Jones declared.

"Prospective employers should consult local representatives of the Texas Employment Service, as this is the only duly constituted agency for referring WPA workers and other persons seeking private jobs to employers," District Manager Jones pointed out.

Rolls of the WPA are constantly open to private employers and no worker who refuses a bona fide offer of employment will be retained by WPA. This regulation is based on the following section of the WPA appropriation act:

"No person in need who refuses a bona fide offer of private or other public employment under reasonable working conditions which pays the prevailing wage for such work in the community where he resides and who is capable of performing such work shall be employed or retained in employment on work projects under the funds appropriated in this joint resolution for the period such private or other public employment would be available."

Currently employed on WPA projects in this district are 1,819 men and women and an additional 751 persons are certified as eligible for WPA employment and are awaiting assignment whenever jobs are available. All of these persons are registered with the Texas State Employment Service and are immediately available to private employers, the district manager stated.

Then how long is a quart of this great New Motor Oil?

STRAIGHT FROM SIZZLING DEATH VALLEY COMES YOUR ANSWER...

The lock-guarded engines of 6 coupes faced the Death Valley desert with oil exactly up to "Full!" Not a drop could be added. The destination of all 6 identical everyday engines was . . . Death!

Here were 6 high quality motor oils getting the same strictly fair opportunity to show how long they'd let an engine live on one exact fill and no more.

Down in Death Valley—hotspot of the U. S. A.—every car sped at 57 miles an hour, till its oil gave out and the engine smashed. The brand of oil that used up quickest was outlasted 8,268 miles by a revolutionary new oil in this impartial, certified test. This new oil exceeded the average mileage of the other 5 oils by all of 7,057 miles! Certified. This longest-lasting oil in the test, which your car can have today—at popular price—is new

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL with its Man-made new Economy aid

The record-long life that defied Death Valley comes from a new laboratory creation . . . man-made . . . called Thialkene inhibitor. Its action in some ways suggests Vaccination—which puts the right protective substance on guard to keep a trouble from even starting on you.

The trouble aiming to start on motor oils lurks in the engine's normal firing. Filth is formed that tends to start the oil "festering." First one drop spoils—then two drops "catch it"—then four—then sixteen—faster, faster, FASTER. Soon oil stamina is sapped; the engine suffers, and cries for quart after quart . . . but not when the worst of this "festering" attack is nipped in the bud—inhibited—by the life-giving Thialkene inhibitor in new Conoco Nth motor oil.

Now you'll never rashly exceed the proper oil-change period for your car and driving conditions—any more than you ignore traffic rules just to "get away with it." But Certified Proof from the desert that new Conoco Nth could outlast the other oils in the test by as much as 161%, gives you more than mere hopes of long Summer mileage between quarts. Change to Conoco Nth—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station . . . today. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

IMPARTIAL

Latest available products of 5 leading competitors bought retail by Referee.

New everyday coupes used—identical. Broken-in alike. Engines taken apart for Referee—to assure uniformity.

Cars tuned alike. Same Death Valley route for all. Drivers rotated to even up on skill.

One fill per car. None added. Engines under lock—under scrutiny—every mile.

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE!

Long the keystone of Conoco success, OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic . . . man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. By magnet-like action, OIL-PLATING is bonded to inner engine parts. Then it can't all drain down—not even overnight—not while you're using Conoco Nth. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance! . . . and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

Shortage of Labor

SCURRY COUNTY farmers are weighing carefully this week the possibility that we may experience a shortage of labor during the summer and fall months.

Summarizing such prospects, T. R. Timm, Texas Extension Service economist in farm management, points out to county farmers that the probable shortage will be more in the form of the wages that farm operators will be able, or required to pay, than any type of physical shortage.

Reports from Scurry and other counties over the state indicate to Timm that during peak employment seasons, at least, many farmers will have to pay higher wages than during corresponding periods of 1940 in order to obtain all the labor needed.

The proper distribution of migratory labor this year may be more difficult than ever before, due to many factors. The difficulty in routing migratory labor will be brought about by the fact farmers in the south, central and north parts of Texas had to replant their crops about the same time. This means that picking seasonss will be close together in these regions of the state.

Conscription of men into the army will likely affect labor ranks more in this section of the state than elsewhere. Timm wisely suggests that Scurry County farmers, like those in other counties, keep in touch with their county agent on their labor problems.

If wages get too high for county farmers to pay, then some sensible solution to the labor problem will have to be worked out so that people out of work and farmers can mutually benefit from the utilization of hands in field and harvest work.

The USO Gets Underway

REPORTS received early this week from William Fuller, chairman of the local United Service Organization, and Lee T. Stinson, chairman of the Scurry County unit, reveal that progress is being made each day in getting the local USO units underway.

The following statement in regard to United Service Organization work in Scurry County was received this week from Congressman George Mahon of the 19th District:

"There are hundreds of people in Scurry and other counties in West Texas who have hoped for an opportunity to do something for national defense in a direct and personal way.

"Such people have sensed the tragic condition of the world and they want to help in strengthening our defenses. The United Service Organization offers a hoped-for chance to do something definite for national defense.

"I hope, especially," Congressman Mahon continues, "that the 19th Congressional District will measure up in a big way. I wish for William Fuller, as Snyder community chairman, and Lee T. Stinson as county chairman, every success in this important undertaking."

Through an organization like the USO, people can make their contributions with the assurance that every single penny will get to its proper destination. The government has undertaken to guarantee the cost of recreational buildings for service men if the people of West Texas and other parts of the nation will contribute funds to furnish proper recreational influences.

The job may be big, but the people behind the United Service Organization have rolled up their sleeves and declared it could be done. Let's do our part, then, in doing the job well!

Editorial of the Week

UNLIMITED EMERGENCY

THE proclamation of an unlimited National Emergency, although momentous in its import, doesn't mean a quick change is going to take place in the life that we lead or in the freedom of action to which we are entitled in this country.

As a matter of fact, most legal students will agree that the President has added no new powers to those he assumed under the limited emergency which he proclaimed in 1939. Thus the proclamation of an unlimited emergency is believed to have been made primarily to make us more aware of the dangers that we face rather than to add to the presidential authority.

Under either the unlimited emergency or the limited emergency, the President has dictatorial powers over practically everything but the declaration of war. The power to declare war rests solely in the hands of Congress. But he cannot exercise any of the emergency powers without making a separate proclamation for each new power.

It is expected that one of the first powers he will take over will be the right to act against aliens in this country who are taking instructions from the Axis nations. Ever since the fall of France and Norway, we have been warned time and time again about the dangers of a fifth column within our ranks, and many of us have favored rounding up all suspects.

It is probable, however, that even though few arrests have been made, all suspects are under constant watching by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. And it is comforting to know that when the time is ripe to round up these subversive elements, the President is in a position to do it without red tape—he will be able to make a proclamation and follow it through immediately with pre-planned action.—The Canadian Record.

Five dollars have clinked into the Texas farmer's pocket so far this year for every four he got last year, a University of Texas Bureau of Business Research report released this week reveals. . . . Farm cash income, exclusive of government subsidies, for the first four months of 1941 has been chalked up at more than $85,000,000, compared to approximately $70,000,000 for the same period of 1940. . . . In April, farmers sold $28,000,000 worth of farm products, not in much larger quantities but at higher prices.

After returning last week from the White House Nutrition Conference in Washington, attaches of the Texas Extension Service state that West Texas farmers, especially, will do their part to conserve as much food and feedstuff this year as possible. . . . Home-canning of fruits and vegetables is strongly recommended by extension service officials to carry rural families through the winter months ahead. . . . Particularly are West Texas farm families urged to dry beans, peas and fruits that will helep to maintain a balanced diet. . . . Advancing prices of farm products generally makes it mandatory, extension service officials conclude, that farm families do everything possible to bring down the high cost of living.

★

During these turbulent days, the most pressing problem facing the Roosevelt administration is to devise temporary means by which Great Britain can be successfully kept in the war until fall, when the weight of America's aid to the beleaguered isles will be felt more fully. . . . While it was conceded last week that Britain has no more than even chance of retaining mastery in the Mediterranean, it is still feared that Britain's losses in the Near East might prove disastrous as far is British morale is concerned.

★

During the past few weeks the civilian population of the country has been hearing a great deal about the general physical unfitness of Selective Service draftees as a whole. . . . Encouragemnet on the other side of the picture, however, was contained this week in an announcement from high army officials to the effect that selectees, as a group, are averaging remarkably high in mental capacity and ability to learn, as well as possessing sound physiques.

★

Selective Service draftees in many sections of the country measure up better than Natoinal Guardsmen and are better to be advanced to non-commissioned officer's posts than Guardsmen already holding that rank, army officials continue. . . . Virtually the identical situation exists in the commissioner ranks of the army, where, in instances, National Guard officers are inferior to reserve officers. . . . The situation is rather touchy at present, but men close to the army's chief of staff predict that many National Guard officers will be weeded out in the next 60 days and replaced with talented selectees.

★

Very few people thought he could do the trick, but Henry A. Wallace, former secretary of agriculture and vice-president of the United States, is surprising veteran senators with the facility and ease he uses in presiding over the senate. . . . Wallace has been a diligent scholar during the past 60 days, and is rapidly acquiring knowledge of senate technique and rules. . . . Wallace is becoming a quiet spoken behind-the-scenes man sharply in contrast to the brusqueriess of former vice-president John Nance Garner. . . . Republicans admit, grudgingly, that Wallace is out to become one of the senate's best presiding officers.

★

Members of the Defense Mediation Board have been holding hot discussions the past few days over the effect of wage increases on prices. . . . Employer members fear, for instance, that a wage ascension is developing that will threaten the national economy and provide much future trouble for the board through strikes. . . . The high cost of living is looming up as one thing that will trouble mediation board attaches long after "absolute ceilings" for prices have been set. . . . Board members cautiously predict that it will be only a matter of time until they have to work with Leon Henderson in keeping prices under control as nearly as possible.

★

For the past several weeks forces have been put in motion that are gradually making the United States the world's fashion center. . . . Clothing designers are turning to Indian creations as a replacement for the formerly popular European type of women's wear. . . . Demand for Indian-designed clothing, jewelry and leather ornaments has now grown far beyond the ability of actual Indians to fill the needs, so a new supply of "Indian" goods are now moving into trade channels from factories in New Jersey and Connecticut.

★

Indians, especially in New Mexico and Arizona, have been greatly encouraged during the past few years by the government to develop local crafts, but the Red Men on reservations did not dream six months ago that the demand for jewelry and ornaments would reach its present level. . . . Purchase of goods at home by tourists will not only be good for the nation as a whole, but the keeping at home this summer of vacationists and travelers will go a long way toward making the United States more self-sufficient.

RURAL TRENDS

By ROGER M. KYES
Director, National Farm Youth Foundation

TIME FOR THE PRUNING SHEARS

Kyes

In colonial times farmers performed almost all the occupations necessary to their subsistence. As time passed, rural families gave over many of their economic functions to others. As a result they became the greatest customers of industry and transportation. The peddler and the mail order catalog were the first to contact the farmer. Later came the village store and finally its recent competitor, the chain store.

The evolution produced a so-called commercial life that had not previously existed. Commercial business communities rapidly built up to serve the farmer. These were the ultimate creators of industrial communities that gathered in the districts where iron and coal were readily available. As population concentration increased, there was greater demand for government, police protection, fire protection, school systems, etc.

To provide these services local, state and federal government each needed income. The result was taxation of the land. The burden of supporting this population and the services it required for its welfare became the yoke of the American farmer. He continues to carry it at his own sacrifice. This has been an ever-increasing load, constantly getting heavier as the problems of increasingly concentrated population have become more acute.

In the beginning stages of our national economy the farmer had a direct and important control over local government which in the early days performed most functions. The meetings of town, parish and township citizens found the people who paid the taxes directly controlling their expenditures.

A great change has come to pass with the years. Where once government was controlled by the rural population, it is now controlled by city dwellers. Unfortunately, however, direct and indirect taxes continue to be carried by the land. Some are assessed while others are hidden in the total of purchase prices that the farmer pays for goods he buys. This is becoming increasingly serious with an even greater taxation to be ultimately placed on the back of agriculture.

With the expansion of government control through the years, we have inherited the politician and the political machine. The very life blood of both is jobs. Therefore they are professional expanders of government activity and expense. The Chicago Daily Tribune recently carried a news story headed "Save? Why, It Isn't Practical Ward Politics." The story presented an alderman's reply to a suggestion of consolidating garbage collection districts to save $150,000 annually. The matter of re-election seemed very prominent in the alderman's thinking.

This may seem a minor incident but with this sort of thing growing throughout our government, it is serious. Too few of those spending money know much about the man who is paying the bill. Tell the average city politician that he should not spend so much because the American farmer is having a tough time, and his income has already been reduced approximately 20 per cent by taxation resulting from city services, and you can well imagine the answer. It might not bear printing.

There is only one solution to this problem. Just as nature has taught us that pruning gives a tree new vitality and healthier growth, common sense teaches us that a little pruning will give government functions new efficiency. Let's eliminate the dead branches of government and demand the cutting out of tangled overlapping functions of local, state and federal government. Let us make room for the healthy growth of whatever new agencies of government are needed for all the people. The result of proper pruning will be a lighter tax burden in the future for the American farmer.

Vacation School at Baptist Church Ends Friday with Service

Enrollees in the Vacation Bible School being conducted at the First Baptist Church will present their commencement service for parents and friends Friday evening, 8:00 o'clock, at the local church, Verena King, assistant Bible School instructor, reports.

Following the regular flag salutes and songs, directed by Miss King of Seminary Hill, each group of pupils will give as features a portion of their regular program. Following this part of festivities, guests will be taken to the basement, where the handiwork of the school will be displayed.

Otho Barbee, in general charge of the Vacation Bible School, and Miss King state that 23 faculty members have directed the activities of the 104 boys and girls during the school.

Attendance has been excellent in daily sessions of the school, averaging 100 boys and girls at each class.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend Friday evening's exercises. Barbee and Miss King describe the school as outstanding and want people of the community to witness the progress made by attendants throughout the course of instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton P. McCelvey of Lubbock were week-end guests here of the J. S. Lewis family. Mrs. McCelvey is the former Frances Lewis.

Spur Rodeo Gets Boost by Trippers In City Saturday

Riding in a chartered bus, Spur's rodeo trippers arrived Saturday afternoon, 5:00 o'clock, and proceeded to give Snyder and Scurry County people a sample of what to expect at Spur's rodeo today (Thursday) through Saturday.

From Sweetwater to Spur, and composed one of the peppiest groups that has visited Snyder this year.

Speaker for the Spur trippers was introduced by R. G. Dillard, local Chamber of Commerce manager, Jim Cloud, former citizen of Spur, extended an official welcome to the visitors.

Following announcements of features at Spur's three-day rodeo, today (Thursday) through Saturday, the trippers "took over" on the square's south side with an informal street dance.

One feature of the triple-day Spur rodeo will be a negro rodeo that will be staged this (Thursday) evening. Contestants will be colored folks exclusively, and will include several colored people of Scurry and Fisher Counties.

Sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce, a delegation of CC officials and others will attend the Spur rodeo en masse Friday afternoon.

Those interested in accompanying the local CC delegation to the Spur festivities are requested to call the local Chamber of Commerce office by 10:00 o'clock Friday morning.

Mrs. Trimble Vacations

Mrs. Mattie B. Trimble is vacationing in the Eastern and Northern States with her son, Homer Trimble, his wife and their two sons, Homer D. and Charles. The group left the Trimble home in Austin several days ago to spend a few days in Houston before going to New Orleans, Pensacola, Florida, points in Alabama and Tennessee. They are visiting now at the old family home in Marion, Virginia, and will go to other parts of Virginia. A week in Washington, D. C., a week in New York City, another in Quebec, Canada, and back to Niagara Falls about July 16 will virtually complete the vacation with the exception of the leisurely trip back to Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jones Jr. of Lubbock visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeShazo.

A. L. Jones Returns From Dallas Course

A. L. Jones returned Sunday from Dallas where he took a bookkeeping course at the B. F. Goodrich school. Jones, former Bryant-Link Company employee, will be bookkeeper for Miller Body Works.

Mrs. Jones and son returned from Dallas two weeks ago, but had to wait until Jones returned before getting verification of a fish story she told.

Mrs. Jones caught a 26-pound catfish to back up her story, but had an exciting story to tell about the fish that didn't get away.

New building for Miller Body Works, nearing completion at the northeast corner of the square, will probably be ready for occupancy around July 1.

Gerald Mann Leads Race for Senate, Says Dallas News

Mann Leads in Poll Of Senate Race

Percentage Is Slim, With O'Daniel, Dies and Lyndon Johnson Still Near the Top

BY JOE BELDEN
Editor, Texas Surveys of Public Opinion

Austin, Texas, June 7.—The Texas senatorial race has developed into a free-for-all.

A new state-wide poll conducted this week by Texas Surveys of Public Opinion shows that the electorate distributes its percentage in this manner:

Gerald C. Mann	27.0
Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel	25.6
Martin Dies	23.7
Lyndon Johnson	19.4
Others	4.3

Most significant in this new study is new evidence that the Governor is not running away with the contest, even after three weeks of active campaigning. Attorney General Mann apparently has taken the lead, but it is such a slim one that it would win if the election were held today instead of June 28.

Here manifest is confirmation that O'Daniel faces the most powerful field in his political adventures—something that Texas Surveys, by using a scientific cross section of the electorate, alone has with mathematical accuracy been able to discover and point out repeatedly.

Dies Falls Behind

Congressman Johnson seems to be the man responsible for the remarkably even distribution of the votes at the present time. His consistent climb from a mere 5 per cent before he announced in May to nearly one-fifth of the electorate today, has without a doubt forestalled the efforts of nearly all the other leading candidates. He is now and for the first time to be considered a dangerous opponent, for he is only some 4 percentage points behind Dies.

If any tears are to be shed over these figures, they shoud emanate from the cohorts of Martin Dies. He is the candidate who, it may be reasonably certain to say, has lost the most ground. The first Texas Surveys poll on this race showed Dies had strong spontaneous support everywhere, but campaigning seems to be producing a different picture. The less well-known candidates also have fallen back, Dr. John R. Brinkley—since withdrawn from the race—being the only one to receive as much as 1 per cent.

Whereas a month ago 9 per cent had not made up their minds about their choice, now only 5 per cent admit they are uncertain.

The Governor, according to public opinion as recorded by the surveys in previous polls, was strongest early in May, before he had decided to enter the race. Until May 19, when he announced, other candidates had cut heavily into his following. Mann and Dies both being ahead of him. O'Daniel's plunge into the campaign brought back to him a short-lived spurt that placed him at the lead again, according to a quick telegraphic poll two days after he had announced Since then his support has tapered to about even with Mann's. Here is the three-poll tabulation of the shifts as the campaign has progressed:

	—Per Cent—
	May 4.	May 19.	June 8.
Dies	27.9	22.2	23.7
Johnson	9.3	17.6	19.4
Mann	28.2	26.8	27.0
O'Daniel	25.1	25.4	25.6
Others	1.8	7.0	4.3

Mann's Vote Steadiest

Mann's proportion of the votes has been notably the most steady. But it is incorrect to say that he is definitely leading the big four. In all scientific sampling there is a variable, the probable margin of error, that must be taken into account, no matter how precise is the distribution of ballots among poor and rich, young and old, men and women, etc. So far, Texas Surveys have never varied more than 4 per cent, when its figures were compared with actual election returns. But absolute accuracy is impossible. Texas Surveys uses the best methods known to gather its opinions, but it does not claim infallibility. In this poll the chances are 997 in 1,000 that the range of error is no more than four or five per cent one way or the other.

It is correct to say, however, that the attorney General appears to be in the most favorable position, for his heaviest support comes from the most populous sections of the state, North and Northeast Texas, as well as the Panhandle and the South Plains areas. There he enjoys a slight majority.

The Governor, on the other hand, has no majority in any large section of the state. He has substaritial support everywhere His followers are not concentrated as they are for Johnson in Central Texas and for Dies in Southeast Texas.

The surveys staff of trained interviewers covered the state during the middle of this week for this poll. The report, therefore, measures what effect, if any, President Roosevelt's speech and the acute world crisis have had on the race, which Time magazine has called "the biggest United States political sideshow since the presidential campaign last fall."
