DEMANDS SENATE PROBE—Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) at a press conference in Washington said he will demand a Senate investigation of Federal regulatory agencies on top of a House inquiry now bogged down in an internal row. Morse told newsmen he would return files given to him by an ousted House prober. Bernard Schwartz, fired as counsel for a special House subcommittee investigating the Federal Communications Commission, called the papers his "personal working files" in disclosing they had been delivered to Morse. Lawyer Says TV Payoff 'Common Knowledge'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Bernard Schwartz, fired counsel to a House investigating committee, declared today it was "common knowledge" that money was passed in the grant of tv Channel 10 in Miami to a subsidiary of National Airlines.

Under oath in the witness chair of the committee, Schwartz did not immediately name directly the Federal Communications Commission member he contends received a money payment.

But the name of Commissioner Richard A. Mack came into an exchange between Schwartz and Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark).

After contending there was "common knowledge" of a payment, Schwartz blasted at the committee.

In spite of this, Schwartz said, a majority of the committee took no action to obtain financial records of a commissioner so as to establish "essential facts" in the case.

Schwartz said he had requested subpoenas for four individuals, submitted a memorandum in justification of his request, and it was "fair for me to assume" that Harris and other members knew all about it.

Harris told Schwartz that he had agreed to issue subpoenas for the four individuals, but not Commissioner Mack.

Harris identified the four individuals in question as George T. Baker, Robert Anderson, Thurman A. Whiteside and Paul R. Scott.

Harris said he and Rep. Moulder (D-Mo), who was then committee chairman but who later resigned, agreed not to issue subpoenas for all the FCC commissioners but to invite them first by letter to appear before the committee.

Schwartz agreed that was correct, but insisted these subpoenas were not related directly to the Miami Channel 10 case. He declared no subpoena was issued upon Commissioner Mack to produce his financial records.

Under questioning as to what committee members he had told about his belief money was passed, Schwartz replied he had told Moulder he was of that opinion.

Harris, administering the oath, asked Schwartz whether he swore that "the truth you are about to give shall be the truth" and so on.

As laughter swept the chamber, Harris said he meant "evidence" instead of truth, and then decided he had better start over again and administer the oath afresh.

Chairman Harris (D-Ark) said the purpose of the hearing was to ask Schwartz to explain his statement of a payment, which Schwartz had made to newspaper reporters Tuesday.

Before the opening of the hearing, Harris told a reporter the committee may ask the Justice Department to prosecute Schwartz. He said the former counsel had violated federal law by removing certain papers from the committee's offices. Schwartz called them "personal working files" and took them after his dismissal as committee counsel.

Schwartz, a 34-year-old New York University law professor, had hardly settled into the witness chair before he was asked to tell what case was involved in his charge of the payment.

"I referred to the Channel 10 case in Miami," Schwartz replied.

Schwartz said the files on the case were among the papers he removed from the committee office. He gave the papers to Sen. Morse (D-Ore) who later returned them to the committee.

Harris read from a statement which Schwartz acknowledged he had issued.

The statement by Schwartz said: "I accuse the majority of the subcommittee of firing me knowing that I have secured evidence of the payment of money to a Federal Communications Commission commissioner in a comparative (contested) television case."

Schwartz said the statement was given to reporters outside the committee hearing room. That was on Tuesday.

ALLIANCE FIRE CLAIMS 8—Three children perished in this 2nd floor bedroom as four of their sisters and brothers and 37-year-old father died in other rooms in an early morning fire in Alliance, Ohio. Fire Chief Milo Sights, sifting through ashes beside charred crib, called it worst family tragedy in his 32 years as a fireman. Only Mrs. Robert Lilly, 29, and one child survived. (AP Wirephoto)

Antirecession Plan Mapped By Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats are drafting a 10-point antirecession program which party leaders plan to give a speedy start through Congress.

The program is being put together by individual committees under the guidance of the Democratic Policy Committee headed by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. It will represent the party's answer to demands that Congress act before the business slump gets worse.

Johnson is understood to have told his colleagues that while he is opposed to a "gloom and doom" attitude, he thinks immediate steps must be taken to combat unemployment, which now has reached 4½ millions.

He has asked committees operating under Senators Fulbright (D-Ark), Sparkman (D-Ala), Anderson (D-NM), Hill (D-Ala), Kerr (D-Okla) and Gore (D-Tenn) to come up speedily with legislative proposals to cover a wide field of government activity to bolster the economy.

As Johnson views the program, it would shape up like this:

1. A comprehensive housing bill aimed at getting this limping industry going full blast.
2. Legislation to permit Federal Reserve banks to make loans to small businesses which certify they can't get credit in ordinary channels.
3. Passage of a post office construction bill.
4. Authorizations to put on extra shifts of workers on public works projects for which Congress has provided the money.
5. Construction of military housing in areas with soft spots of unemployment.
6. A Works Progress Administration program to be thrown into the breach if other efforts fail to stem the recession.
7. Action to start and speed up with extra shifts work on reclamation projects which have been authorized by Congress.
8. Repeal of the pay-as-you-go provision so the interstate highway program can be speeded up.
9. Authorization for additional hospitals to be built under the Hill-Burton Act.
10. Action to authorize the planning of new projects aimed at providing more business for basic industries.

Johnson, who had experience with the National Youth Administration and the Works Progress Administration during the depression of the 30s, has told his colleagues he wants no leaf-raking projects.

SPOT MUSE

ENROLLMENT in the Snyder schools totaled 3,926 by the end of the 20th week of school, or 205 more than at the same time last year, when there were 3,721 students.

THE PRESENT enrollments include 800 students in the high school, 550 in the junior high, 455 at East Elementary, 333 at North Elementary, 787 at West Elementary, 540 at Central Elementary, 348 at Northeast Elementary, and 112 at the Lincoln School.

THE LINCOLN enrollment includes 22 in the high school grades, 22 in the junior high grades, and 68 in the elementary grades.

Witness Tells Of Phone Tap

DALLAS (AP)—Testimony that a detective tapped the telephone line of Candy Barr's apartment was admitted yesterday as attorneys tried to free the strip-tease queen of a dope charge.

Both sides rested soon after the wire-tap testimony.

Jesse Marcom, telephone repairman, testified that 12 days before raiding police found marijuana in the apartment, he found a "jumper" tie-up on her line.

Marcom said the other apartment in which telephone conversations from Miss Barr's apartment could be listened in on was occupied by detective Harvey Totten.

Miss Barr, who said she suffered from an ulcerated stomach, has failed to take the stand. She smiled less than in previous days of the trial, yawned frequently and appeared disinterested.

Benson Raps Farm Critics

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Vowing "agriculture must not be sacrificed on the political auction block," Secretary of Agriculture Benson indicated last night his agency and the administration are not about to bow under criticism of his farm program.

He told a Lincoln Day dinner of some 1,000 Utah Republicans: "Agriculture is neither Republican nor Democrat—it is American."

Deputies Take Police Posts

Two members of the county sheriff's deputy staff have resigned to accept jobs on the Snyder Police Department and a police patrolman has resigned, T. L. Steele, police chief, said today.

The men going to work on the police department are Allen M Ownes, who has worked on the police department twice previously, and Jesse M. Minton, who has been a deputy sheriff for about a year.

Both men were hired as experienced peace officers, Steele said.

M. L. Chandler, a policeman here for about a year, resigned effective Feb. 11, Steele said.

Ownes and Minton will go on duty with the police department Sunday, but have already been sworn in as officers and have been issued uniforms and badges.

Iraq, Jordan Prepare Pact

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Preparations continued today for signing the proclamation federating the kingdoms of Iraq and Jordan. A government spokesman said the ceremony will take place after Iraq's Crown Prince Abdul Ilah arrives.

Ilah, who was regent of Iraq until King Faisal turned 17, wields considerable power in his home country.

The new federation, regarded as a balance to the new United Arab Republic of Egypt and Syria, received a message from pro-Western King Saud of Saudi Arabia expressing his endorsement.

No Apologies Are Needed, Says Thad

HOUSTON (AP) — No apologies are needed for the way campaign funds were solicited in connection with a Republican dinner here for Rep. Martin (D-Mass), state GOP Chairman Thad Hutcheson has said.

Jack Porter, Texas national Republican committeeman, said he had no intention of resigning because of the noise his letter soliciting the funds and ticket sales was reported to caused.

Opponents of the Natural Gas Bill charged that the Jan. 30 letter written by Porter indicated pressure had been used in trying to obtain support of the bill from Martin, minority leader in the House. The letter went to many oil and gas producers.

The White House and the National Republican Committee quickly disavowed the dinner and rejected the $100,000, less expenses, raised by the Martin dinner.

Porter apparently had enough places for the money. Porter said the money will be used by the GOP State Committee if the national group does not want it.

"We can use the money," he said. "We still have a deficit from the 1956 campaign."

The Houston Chronicle said yesterday some political observers interpreted White House action in rejecting the money "as a renewed effort by the Sherman Adams faction of the GOP to get rid of Porter as national committeeman."

"It is known that Adams, Eisenhower's chief of staff, is anti-Porter, and has wanted him out as the Texas party leader for some time," the Chronicle said.

Both Porter and Martin denied that anybody was trying to bring pressure on Martin. Martin said he already was for the bill and didn't need any pressure brought on him. He did not mention it in his speech at the Monday night dinner.

Some Democrats, including Speaker Sam Rayburn, defended Martin and said he shouldn't be connected with anything that may have been wrong. Many congressmen, including opponents and supporters of the measure designed to get gas-producing oilmen out from under utility-type controls of the Federal Power Commission, said Porter's action killed the measure's chances.

MARTIN DENIES PRESSURE—Rep. Joe Martin (R-Mass) talks by telephone with a reporter in Houston, Tex., while denying that Houston oil operators had attempted to pressure him into supporting the natural gas bill. He also denied charges that a $100-a-plate Republican fund-raising dinner, with himself as principal speaker, was a "gas lobby dinner." (AP Wirephoto)

Six In Race For School Board At Ira

Six names have been filed with County Judge Edgar Taylor for candidacy in the Ira school board race.

The candidates are M. L. Wilson, Clifton Thomas, Preston Morris, Floyd House, Johnny Weir, and C. L. Jones.

Those who petitioned for the placing of the names on the ballot were J. C. Sterling, L. L. Dunn, Howard G. Sterling, Edgar Eades, and Mrs. F. L. Gullet.

Wilson and Thomas are incumbents. Two places will be filled in the Ira school board election, which will be held April 5.

So far, there are candidates for board elections of only two school districts here. The names of Max West and J. W. Phillips have been filed for the Snyder school board.

Petitions for candidacy of any person must bear the signatures of at least five qualified school district voters. The petitions must be filed by the deadline of March 5.

Petitions for candidacy for the Snyder school board must be filed with Art Nicholas, secretary of the board, at the school administration building.

Petitions for those in other school districts in the county and for the county school board must be filed with Judge Taylor at his office in the courthouse.

Guard Earns High Rating

The Snyder National Guard unit was given a rating of excellent yesterday on a Fourth Army technical inspection made of the unit's equipment.

A 15-member team of Army men from Fort Hood came here and spent the afternoon inspecting all signal, quartermaster, ordnance, engineer, and chemical equipment.

An overall grade of 92.4 out of a possible 100 was given the local unit. A grade of 94 would have meant a superior rating.

The equipment inspected is used by 98 enlisted men and six officers in the unit here, under command of Capt. John T. Lynch, Jr.

All vehicles are maintained by Sfc. Darrell Black, and all administrative work is headed by CWO L. B. McCravey. Both are fulltime employes.

Guerrilla War Is Threatened By Tunisians

TUNIS (AP) — President Habib Bouguiba said today that he would personally lead the Tunisian people in a guerrilla war if necessary to get French troops off Tunisian soil.

In a speech recorded for later radio delivery, he warned French authorities that any armed effort to break out of their blocked bases in Tunisia would be met by force.

Bourguiba added, however, that he did not despair of seeing wisdom gain control on the French side. He said he still wanted to negotiate with France, but only after the evacuation of French troops on his soil.

Tension mounted throughout the country, and the French reported increasing minor incidents involving French troops, bases and civilians.

France warned the Tunisians through diplomatic channels that further grave incidents might arise as a result of Tunisian refusal to allow French forces to supply their garrisons.

The French also carried their case again to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. At a meeting of the Atlantic Council in Paris, French delegate Etienne Crouy-Chanel reported for the second day on the French-Tunisian frontier village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef.

The French warning of further trouble was contained in a note delivered to Bourguiba's chief minister, Bahf Ladgham.

In Paris, Foreign Minister Christian Pineau scheduled a speech on the Tunisian crisis in the National Assembly this afternoon. Earlier, the Assembly voted 339-179 to accept Premier Felix Gaillard's explanation that the bombing was in "legitimate defense" against Algerian rebels headquartered in the village.

Foreign ambassadors in Tunisia who visited the village, however, reported to their governments that most of the casualties appeared to be civilians, as the Tunisian government claimed. The Tunisians said 68 men, women and children were killed, 84 were wounded and 10 were missing.

U. S. Ambassador Confirms Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. ambassador at Tunis reportedly has confirmed Tunisian claims of heavy civilian casualties in Saturday's French bombing of the village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef.

State Department officials were studying the official dispatch, received from Ambassador G. Lewis Jones to determine whether any new action should be taken by this government.

United States policy has been to try to get the Tunisian and French governments to settle their differences quickly. Hope for the success of this approach is dimming.

If the argument over the bombing incident develops in the North Atlantic Council in Paris and in the United Nations, as authorities here fear it may, the United States may be compelled to take sides. This could mean a split with France or loss of cordial relations with Tunisia and further anti-American hostilities in some sections of the Arab world.

Privately top officials believe the French made a bad blunder in bombing the village even though they claim it was a base for Algerian rebels operating across the nearby border.

The government at Tunis put the number of dead at 68 with 84 persons wounded and 10 missing.

French officials have announced that all American-made planes used in the attack were owned by France and were not supplied as NATO equipment.

However, the employment of American-made aircraft in the raid had given Communist and other anti-American propagandists in North Africa and the Middle East a profitable new theme to work.

New Cold Front Heads For Texas

By The Associated Press

A new fast-moving cold front was racing out of the Rocky Mountain area toward Texas Thursday, threatening more snow and rain for the winter-weary state.

The new front follows in the wake of a sharp freeze early Thursday that sent the mercury to 3 degrees above zero at Vernon and nipped Lower Rio Grande Valley for light damage.

While sub-freezing temperatures were reported at a number of Valley points, they were of short duration and did not last long enough to seriously damage young vegetable plants or citrus trees to any extent, State Agricultural Commissioner John White said.

Snow fell intermittently at Amarillo Thursday morning as a 40-mile an hour wind whipped the area. Elsewhere over most of the state skies were clear following the sharp freeze and Wednesday's blanket of snow which reached to even Gulf Coast points.

Increasing cloudiness was forecast for the state with snow and rain in West and North Texas and scattered rain elsewhere. Temperatures were expected to be warmer over the state Thursday night but colder weather was predicted for West Texas Friday.

Allan Engleman, publisher of the Daily Review at Edinburg, said he had checked growers and shippers and had determined that "over-all damage in the Valley is almost negligible."

He added:

"Damage is spotty and confined mostly to older tomato plants. The ground is wet from recent rains and this accounts for hold the damage to almost nothing."

Engleman quoted shippers and growers as saying there is no damage at all to carrots and cabbage.

"No fruit and no trees are frozen," he said. In the cases of the older tomato plants, some replanting will be necessary.

The cold that rolled into the Valley in the pre-dawn hours came out of a massive hard freeze that embraced the state.

Eight deaths had been attributed to the wintry blasts. School in many places had closed and the Highway Department continued warnings of hazardous road conditions.

It snowed again in snow-harried Amarillo and other Panhandle points. The heavily populated Dallas-Fort Worth area felt its temperature dip to 20 degrees at 6 a.m.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Wednesday, 33 degrees; low, 21 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 25 degrees.

WEST TEXAS—Occasional snow in Panhandle and South Plains and occasional rain Pecos Valley eastward this afternoon and tonight gradually ending Friday. Warmer this afternoon. Turning colder Friday. Lowest 22 to 35 tonight.

EAST TEXAS—Increasing cloudiness and warmer this afternoon and tonight. Occasional rain Friday, probably beginning as snow in north.

SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS — Increasing cloudiness and warmer this afternoon and tonight. Occasional rain late tonight and Friday.

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS — Increasing cloudiness and warmer this afternoon and tonight. Occasional snow changing to rain late tonight and Friday. Windy tonight and Friday.

Gov. Faubus Revokes NAACP Franchise; Pupil Suspended

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus revoked the state franchise of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People yesterday.

Two new reports of racial incidents came out of integrated Central High School.

And Supt. Virgil Blossom recommended the expulsion of a Negro girl from the trouble-ridden school. He said she violated an agreement not to fight back against white students' harassment.

Faubus signed a proclamation taking the NAACP and about 300 other corporations off the roll of chartered organizations because they failed to pay 1957 franchise taxes by a Feb. 1 deadline.

His action had the effect of dissolving the NAACP in Arkansas.

Under a 1953 state law, the NAACP could regain its franchise by paying delinquent taxes and applying for reinstatement.

The Little Rock school board heard Blossom's recommendation for expulsion of 16-year-old Minnie Jean Brown in a closed session. Blossom also extended a three-day suspension that she got Friday to two weeks.

Only the school board can expel a student but it usually follows a superintendent's recommendation.

Minnie Jean got the suspension—her second—for her part in a scuffle with a white girl student. The white girl quit school.

Last December Minnie Jean was suspended for throwing chili on two white boys in a cafeteria incident.

She has been involved in several other racial clashes at Central High.

Minnie Jean is the only Negro who has been suspended since Negroes entered Central High Sept. 25 under the protection of federal troops.

A white girl and a Negro boy reported they figured in separate incidents at Central High yesterday.

Florence Callaway, 15, told newsmen that she was kicked in the knee by the heel of a Negro girl's shoe as they climbed a stair.

The white girl said Thelma Mothershed, 16-year-old Negro, laughed and continued on her way. The Negro girl later offered to apologize, the white girl said, but she refused to accept the apology.

Jefferson Thomas, 15, Negro, reported that an unidentified white boy seized him by the throat near the school gymnasium and threatened him. The Negro boy said the white student accused him of "bumping into me in the hall."

Principal Jess Matthews said he had no details on either reported occurrence.

Tech Students Ask Ouster Of Coach

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—Signs protesting a proposed extension of contract for Football Coach DeWitt Weaver appeared on the campus of Texas Tech College last night and today.

The first sign was across the front of a men's dormitory last night. This morning signs were found hanging from trees at two entrances to the campus.

There have been reports that the board of directors of the college are considering extending Weaver's contract, which is to expire in 1959, for another two years or until 1961.

The Tech Red Raiders, under Weaver, last season had a record of two victories, eight losses and no ties.

Reports that leaflets asking for the removal of Weaver had been distributed through the dormitories could not be confirmed here today.

The sign strung in front of the dormitory was signed "The Suitcase Club," apparently indicating the students want the football coach to move. Some students said it was based on a story "Have Coach with suitcase, Will travel."

Jim Lindsey of Midland, chairman of the athletic committee of the board of directors, declined to comment on the student protests. He said the athletic committee would probably take note of the incident when it meets at Lubbock Friday night, prior to Saturday's meeting of the entire board of directors.

Spy Suspect Faces Cross-Examination

WASHINGTON (AP) — A turncoat Russian spy faced cross-examination today on his story that Moscow master-minded efforts to contact a U.S. Army sergeant accused of betraying his country.

Reino Hayhanen, who resembles a movie-type version of a spy, has been the major witness so far in the court-martial trial of M. Sgt. Roy A. Rhodes on charges of conspiring to commit espionage.

Swirling around the case were prosecution contentions that "a pretty large and dangerous conspiracy" has been established and defense complaints that the trial has "compounded hearsay on top of hearsay."

The prosecution position is that the 40-year-old Rhodes was part of an espionage conspiracy that originated in Moscow while he was stationed at the U.S. Embassy there and continued after he returned to America in 1953. Maximum sentence upon conviction could be life imprisonment.

Rhodes' chief counsel Lt. Col. John F. Hummel told the court the prosecution has produced no actual proof there was a conspiracy or that Rhodes was part of one. He called Hayhanen's testimony all hearsay. But his motion to throw it out on grounds of irrelevancy was denied.

Hayhanen told of working closely with Col. Rudolph Abel of the Soviet secret police, whom he described as "resident agent" in New York for an espionage ring. He later broke with Abel and the Russians.

Last October, Hayhanen was a key witness at a trial in Brooklyn, N.Y., which resulted in Abel's conviction on espionage charges.

He testified he never had met or even seen Rhodes until a pretrial conference in November, but said he had tried without success to locate Rhodes after the sergeant's return to this country.

He identified what he said was a copy of a message from Moscow naming Rhodes as "Agent Quebec," and providing information to help locate him.

Rhodes and his wife now have a home at Eatontown, N.J.

Bar Maids Are Chilled

ALICE (AP) — Sheriff Halsey Wright said yesterday two bar maids reported a chilling experience: A bandit robbed them of their clothing in near-freezing weather.

The women said the masked gunman also took their money and tore the tavern phone off the wall. Wright said Bernice Johnson, 24, and Pauline Bader, 39, told him they had to dash next door in next to nothing to give the alarm.

Ike Leaves On Trip To Snowy South

The temperature here was a crisp 25, but the day was mostly sunny and there was no snow. By contrast, the President's destination at Thomasville, Ga., had snow last night.

Eisenhower had delayed his departure for a day, partly on the forecast that the Georgia weather would warm up late this week.

Accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, he left in his plane Columbine III for Spence Air Force Base at Moultrie, Ga.

The Eisenhowers will be guests at the plantation of George M. Humphrey, former secretary of the Treasury, and Mrs. Humphrey.

Eisenhower, still having traces of a cold contracted in Augusta, Ga., nearly two weeks ago, hoped to find warmer weather at Thomasville so he could hunt and play golf.

Eisenhower for the last several years has spent a February vacation with the Humphreys.

The Humphrey plantation "Milestone" is located in the south Georgia Piney Woods on the edge of Thomasville.

Soviet Envoy Allowed To Make Good

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is going to give the Soviet Union a chance to make good on its new ambassador's call for "lifting all kinds of restrictions" — including those on travel.

Amiable Mikhail Menshikov swept through town yesterday like a one-man peace crusade. He paid two get-acquainted visits to the State Department and one to Vice President Nixon.

"I'm in favor of lifting all kinds of restrictions," he said in a loud, happy voice on Capitol Hill, waving his arms. "That would be better for everybody."

He gave short shrift to reporters' questions about a three-month-old formal U.S. note to the Soviet Union suggesting an end to off-limits areas in both countries.

"I haven't yet studied that question," he said. "But the restrictions are being removed all the time."

Actually, they are being added to.

For the next six weeks or so, Menshikov said, he will be paying get-acquainted calls on Cabinet members, senators and representatives, particularly Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.). After that, he said, he would like to travel a bit and see the country.

Shivers Raps School Trend

FORT WORTH (AP)—Former Gov. Allan Shivers blasted the "progressive cult" in education last night.

He told the local chapter of the Texas Manufacturer's Assn. public opinion needs to be aroused, informed and inspired to demand an educational program fitting to "our needs and worthy of our great country."

The conception of public education, he continued, has become a hunt for "the lowest common denominator of individual capacity and inclination."

Shivers said one of the blessing of the Russian Sputnik is that it caused "us to take a good, hard look at our public schools."

He said the original meaning of progressive education was praiseworth but that the train of educational thought jumped the track.

"We wound up with a program less educational than sociological —with a 'child-center' school which could better be described as 'childish,'" he said.

Age Of Crime Is No Handicap To Sheriff

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) — When farmer W. A. Moon reported a two-month-old theft of a dinner bell and anvil, the sheriff's office didn't let the age of the crime hamper it.

Hours later two men were arrested and charged with grand larceny. Moon got his dinner bell and anvil back.

Now he remembers a couple of other thefts: four buggy wheels taken in 1915 and seven pigs which disappeared in 1922.

Powell Rites Are Pending Here

Willie Powell, 1311 Thirty-fourth Street, died at about 2 a.m. today at his home.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Bell Funeral Home.

Scout Safety Good Turn Plan Begins

The 1958 Safety Good Turn of the Boy Scouts of America will be kicked off locally tonight in the monthly 10-in-1 roundtable meeting of the Lone Buffalo District.

The meeting will be held at the high school building at 7:30 p.m.

Roundtables held tonight will be under direction of Bill Zimmerman district health and safety chairman, who will conduct the Safety Good Turn kickoff here.

Included in the kickoff will be presentation of the over-all program of the year by Zimmerman, who will also introduce Roy Dunlap, a sub-committee chairman on safety, who plans to show a film strip on safety. Durward Porter, first aid meet chairman on Zimmerman's committee, will discuss the program of the first aid meet to be held at the exhibit barn in Towle Memorial Park March 17.

Also in the kickoff will be distribution of Literature pertaining to the Safety Good Turn, and a commitment from each unit leader will be secured.

All cubmasters, scoutmasters, Explorer leaders, and den mothers have been urged to attend, taking with them a smartly-uniformed Cub Scout, Boy Scout, or Explorer. Committee members of each unit have also been asked to attend the kickoff ceremony.

A district committee meeting will also be held tonight, with operating chairmen asked to bring their full committees, according to Wayland Holt, district chairman. The district committee will make asgram planned through June.

Graveside Rites Are Set For Fikes Infant

Graveside services were to be held at 3 p.m. today for Claudia Sue Fikes, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Fikes, 1403 Twentieth Street, who died at birth at 3:51 p.m. yesterday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

The Rev. W. L. Cass, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church was to officiate at services at Snyder Cemetery, and burial was to be under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Survivors include the parents, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fikes of Snyder; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barton of Snyder.

'Rochester' Striken At Show Rehearsal

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Eddie Anderson, better known to Jack Benny fans as Rochester, collapsed during a television rehearsal last night.

A doctor said Anderson had suffered a stomach upset.

"He's talking and he says he's feeling fine," the doctor reported after examining the 52-year-old actor.

Bright Future Predicted For Home Construction Industry

A bright future for the home building industry was predicted here yesterday by Harold Clingerman, field executive for the National Association of Real Estate Associations.

Clingerman, who spent a busy day in Snyder, said new housing starts this year are expected to top 1957 figures. A decline is indicated in public works, commercial and industrial expansion this year, but that should tend to increase, rather than decrease, housing construction, Clingerman said, because it will lessen competition on the money market for construction.

Clingerman said housing demand should soar to new heights in about 15 to 17 years, when the nation's population will be 200 million.

At the same time, he emphasized that housing developments by private commercial firms had turned in a spectacular performance in catching up on a backlog of demands which developed prior to and during World War II. He rapped public housing, declaring that the free enterprise system has demonstrated that it can meet the challenge of demands much better than what he described as socialistic programs.

Clingerman addressed members of the Snyder Kiwanis Club at their regular luncheon meeting, met with directors of the Scurry County Industrial Foundation during the afternoon and then climaxed his visit here with another address at a meeting of the Snyder Board of Realtors last night.

In between, he visited with local realtors and other business and professional people of the city.

Industrial development hinges on five important inducements, he said. These he enumerated as adequate water supply and power facilities, sufficient education facilities, available raw materials, transportation facitlies and prosimity to a market for the products.

Clingerman stressed the importance of careful planning by industrial committees and foundations, with due consideration to the five prime factors he cited. He also warned against offering many concessions to an industry which might make it a burden rather than an asset to the community.

Local realtors were urged to work carefully with their local industrial foundation in securing property for industrial development where there is sufficient room for expansion, available ground for parking, etc. He also urged the local realtors to present to the public facts concerning the development of public housing if a project of that type should come to a vote in Snyder.

School Girl 'Lost' In Beauty Salon

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—When Edith Camodeca failed to return on time from grade school, a two-hour search was conducted involving highway patrolmen, firemen, sheriff's deputies, high school boys and men from nearby Mineral Ridge and Niles police.

Edith was found in a beauty shop getting a permanent wave. The 6-year-old had changed the day of her appointment Tuesday without telling her parents.

Most people on earth live at an average of one mile above sea level.

OLEN C. TURNER

Morton Veep Named Head Of Institute

Olen C. Turner of Dallas, executive vice-president of Morton Foods, has been elected president of the Potato Chip Institute, International, at the association's annual convention this past week in Miami. This marks the first time in the history of the Institute that a second man from one company has served as president. G. C. Morton, president of Morton Foods, held the office in 1945.

Turner served as director and first vice-president of the association in 1957, and has held several important committee chairmanships previously in the production and quality control research organization of the Institute.

He is also a past-president of the Mayonnaise and Salad Dressing Manufacturers Association, is a member of the Southern Methodist University Board of Development, and served in 1957 as vice-president of the Dallas County Community Chest.

During the year 1958, Turner as president and with Harvey Noss, executive secretary of the Potato Chip association, will visit all ten regional associations at least once. The Potato Chip Institute maintains its headquarters in Cleveland Ohio.

Norma Bowers Furr's Top '58 Checker

Norma Bowers has been chosen 1958 Checker of the Year at Furr's Super Market in Snyder. Manager Charles White announced today. The winner of a competition among checker-cashiers based on work performance standards, including customer courtesy, efficiency, neatness and cash-register accuracy, she lives at Dunn.

As the store winner, she will compete in the companywide competition of the international Checker of the Year Award, sponsored by Super Market Institute and National Cash Register Company. Should she win she them will compete for regional honors, a region of Southwest states. Shoud she win regional honors, she will be anong 10 regional winners to be flown by United Air Lines Mainliners to the 21st annual convention of Super Market Institute in Atlantic City May 25-28. If she weathers tests and interviews at Atlantic City, she could become the 1958 Checker of the Year, representative of checker-cashiers throughout the industry. Her prizes would include a mink stole and a two-week vacation tour of Hawaii.

The choice was made by ballot of customers in the Snyder Furr's Super Market during January.

New Special Schools Due In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Gov. Averell Harriman have agreed on using four existing schools to accommodate problem children in an effort to cut crime in the city's schools.

After the mayor and governor conferred for 2½ hours, Harriman said he is prepared to draw up a supplemental budget providing further state aid, with an eye toward buying or leasing facilities for additional state correctional institutions.

The city now has five special schools. The new "specials" would be opened within a month in old buildings now vacant or only partially used, Wagner said. Two other special schools are planned for use next September.

Wagner said the four extra schools would be able to care for 600 to 800 students. He said it would cost the city about $125,000 to get each of the schools in shape.

The Board of Education has suspended 644 students who had been charged with insubordination or acts of violence.

In recent weeks, a number of the city's 900 schools have been the scene of rapes, assaults, stabbings and delinquency. The incidents have involved both Negro and white students.

Bouvet Island (area 22 square miles) is a south Atlantic Ocean colony of Norway.

Wilding Is Wed To London Divorcee

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Actor Michael Wilding and Mrs. Susan Nell, a London divorcee and interior decorator, eloped here by plane from Los Angeles and were married in a wedding chapel last night.

The British film player, 45, former husband of actress Elizabeth Taylor, and Mrs. Nell, 42, obtained a marriage license shortly after 10 p.m. at the marriage license bureau in downtown Las Vegas.

Eluding newsmen, they went to the Little Wedding Chapel Around the Corner, also in downtown Las Vegas, where the Rev. James Herndon performed the simple, single-ring ceremony. He said both appeared calm.

They told reporters waiting outside they would honeymoon for two days at the Sahara Hotel, after which their plans are unsettled.

The bride wouldn't say who her former husband was.

"That's all history now," she replied.

On the marriage license application she gave her address as West Los Angeles and said she was divorced in London last July.

Wilding said he and Mrs. Nell had known each other 14 years and first met at a social gathering in London. Their romance started, he added, only about three months ago.

A deputy clerk said Wilding's hair was disheveled, as if by "a long drive in a convertible." Mrs. Nell wore a white trenchcoat with a scarf over her head.

Wilding and Miss Taylor were divorced in June 1956.

One Of Explorer's Transmitters Dies

By C. YATES MCDANIEL

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the Explorer's two radio voices was silent today, less than two weeks after the American satellite began circling the earth.

The Naval Research Laboratory announced that tracking stations no longer were receiving any signals from one transmitter aboard the 30-pound metal tube coursing through space at about 18,000 miles an hour.

Signals from the second transmitter, a lower-powered set, continue sending back vital scientific information for its predicted life of from two to three months.

After the Army's Explorer lofted into space Jan. 31, Army and Navy scientists estimated that its larger transmitter would last from two to three weeks.

Radio signals from the first Russian Sputnik, launched Oct. 4, faded out within three weeks. The Soviet satellite itself vanished in early December, probably disintegrating in the earth's atmosphere.

Sputnik II, launched Nov. 3, was not heard from after seven days. But it is still speeding around the earth carrying a lifeless dog.

The low-powered transmitter still sending signals from the American Explorer has the job principally of providing tracking stations with information on its whereabouts.

However, satellite scientists said its tiny battery was producing enough power to report data on temperatures within the satellite nose cone, information about the impact of meteorite dust and some effects of cosmic rays.

The transmitter that now is dead was solely concerned with automatic transmission of information on how the Explorer was faring.

Few amateur operators are likely to pick up signals from the remaining Explorer radio because of its low power. It is transmitting on the 108 megacycle band.

In another development, censored testimony made public by the House Armed Services Committee disclosed the Air Force plans to use its 5,000-mile-range Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile to try to launch an unmanned reconnaissance setellite.

Secretary of the Air Force James H. Douglas said this in appearing at a closed-door hearing Friday.

The armed services got more money to speed missiles and other defense programs when President Eisenhower signed an emergency bill totaling $1,410,000,000.

RED CHERRY SAUCE TOPS PANCAKE STACK
. . . recipe is ideal for a Sunday morning brunch

Cherries, Spice Muffins, Salad, Sauce, Chicken Pie

If there is one month which calls for cherries, either in desserts, salads or as relishes, it is February.

The legend of little George started the whole thing but now it is an established culinary tradition.

The emphasis on cherries comes at a good time for most homemakers. The winter months take their toll of menu-inspiration and of appetites for many families. The bright fruit and their tart-sweet taste can perk up many dishes and dinners.

For many cooks, cherries mean pie or at least dessert. But they can be added as an ingredient to a sauce or a casserole. They can turn up in unexpected recipes and add an exciting dash to the food.

PANCAKES ARE SPICED WITH CHERRY SAUCE

For cherry red sauce:
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1-3 cup sugar
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
¼ teaspoon salt
1 can (1 lb.) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
¼ teaspoon red food coloring

Combine cornstarch, sugar, lemon rind and salt in a saucepan. Drain cherries; stir liquid into dry ingredients.

Cook stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Boil ½ minute. Add red food coloring and cherries.

For pancakes:
2 cups pancake mix
1 cup cottage cheese

Prepare pancake mix according to package directions for richer pancakes. To make 4 large pancakes, bake on a hot griddle, one at a time. Use ¾ cup batter for each pancake mix.

Stack pancakes, spreading 1-3 cup cottage cheese between each. Spoon red cherry sauce over top. To serve, cut into wedges. Serve with additional red cherry sauce. Makes 6 servings.

HOT SPICY DUMPLINGS HAVE CHERRY SAUCE

For sauce:
½ cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon cinnamon candies (red hots)
1 can (1 lb.) tart red cherries
3 tablespoons butter or margarine

Combine sugar and cornstarch in a skillet. Add candies and cherry juice. Stir until dissolved. Add cherries and butter. Heat to boiling.

Dumplings:
½ cup sifted flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
⅛ teaspoon allspice
Dash cloves
⅛ teaspoon granted lemon rind
1-3 cup instant whole wheat cereal
½ cup milk

Combine sifted dry ingredients, lemon rind, and instant whole wheat cereal. Add milk. Stir just until flour is moistened.

Drop by heaping teaspoonfuls into the boiling sauce. Cover. Cook over moderate heat 15 minutes or until dumplings are light and dry.

To serve, spoon sauce over flipped dumplings. Makes 8 2-inch dumplings.

CHERRY-ORANGE SAUCE SERVED ON DESSERTS

2 tablespoons cornstarch
⅓ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 can (1 lb.) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
1 cup orange juice
¼ teaspoon red food coloring

Combine cornstarch, sugar and salt in a saucepan. Drain cherries. Stir liquid into cornstarch mixture. Add orange juice and red food coloring.

Place over moderate heat and cook, stirring constantly until mixture comes to a boil. Boil ½ minute. Add cherries.

Serve over puddings, custards, ice cream and other desserts.

Makes 12 servings.

CELERY ADDS CRISP ACCENT TO SALADS

1 can (1 lb.) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
1 package cherry flavored gelatin
2-3 cup diced celery

Drain cherries well. Measure liquid, add water to make 2 cups. Heat 1 cup of liquid to boiling. Add to gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Add remaining cup cold liquid.

Chill to the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Add cherries and celery. Spoon into 6 ½-cup molds. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve on orange slices. Makes 6 servings.

ORANGE GIVES FLAVOR TO CHERRY RELISH

2 cans (1-lb. each) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
1 orange, quartered and seeded
2 cups sugar
1-3 cup lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon red food coloring
1 bottle (6 ounces) liquid fruit pectin

Drain cherries. Put drained cherries and orange through food chopper. Place in a 2-quart saucepan. Add sugar, lemon juice, salt and red food coloring. Mix well.

Place over high heat and bring to a full rolling boil. Boil 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add liquid fruit pectin and stir well. Chill. Makes 1 quart.

CHERRY SAUCE IS SWEET AND PUNGENT

½ can (1 lb.) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ cup prepared mustard
¾ cup molasses
⅛ teaspoon tabasco

Drain cherries. In a saucepan, combine 3 tablespoons cherry liquid and cornstarch. Add remaining cherry liquid prepared mustard, molasses and tabasco.

Place over moderate heat and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Boil ½ minute.

Add drained cherries and heat ham or pan-broiled ham slice. Makes 8 servings.

CHERRY PIE IS MONTH'S TRADITION

Pastry for 2-crust pie
2 cans (1 lb. each) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
¾ cup sugar
⅓ cup all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
½ teaspoon almond flavoring
½ teaspoon red food coloring

Line 9-inch pie plate with pastry. Drain cherries, reserving ½ cup of the liquid. Place cherries in lined pie plate.

Combine sugar, flour and salt in a saucepan. Stir in ½ cup cherry liquid. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened.

Remove from heat; add butter, almond flavoring and red food coloring. Stir until butter is dissolved.

Pour over cherries. Cover with pastry; seal and flute edges. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 40 minutes. Makes 1 nine-inch pie.

CHERRY-FLAVORED CAKE IS FROSTED

¼ cup white shortening
1 cup water
2 1-3 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 1-3 cups evaporated milk, not diluted
3 eggs whites, beaten stiff
1 cup coarsely cut nuts
1 cup drained, dried maraschino cherries, cut into fourths
Confectioners sugar icing

Cream shortening and sugar; beat until light. Add milk alternately with sifted dry ingredients. Add cherries and nuts. Fold in beaten egg whites. Spoon into greased, lightly floured loaf pan.

Bake at 325 degrees for an hour and 5 minutes, or longer, until done. Cool in the pan 5 minutes; turn out and cool on a rack. Frost the cake with confectioners sugar icing, tinted and flavored with maraschi no cherry juice.

This moist loaf also could be served as a sweet cherry nut bread, or the order of some of the other fruit breads that are cakelike in texture and sweetness. The loaf could be iced with a cream cheese frosting or slices put together with cream cheese.

BRAN MUFFINS HAVE RICH CHERRY FLAVOR

1 can (1 lb) red sour pitted cherries (water pack)
1 package muffin mix
1 cup bran
1 tablespoon sugar

Drain cherries, reserving ½ cup of the liquid. Place cherries on absorbent paper to drain well. To prepare muffin batter, add bran and sugar to dry ingredients and ½ cup cherry liquid to liquid ingredients called for in package directions.

Mix according to package directions. Fold in cherries. Fill greased muffin pans 2-3 full. Bake as directed on package. Makes 12 2½ to 3-inch muffins.

Planning Is Important

Growing cities always have more problems than others, and Snyder is no exception.

The alley-easement situation in Highland Park is a local case in point. One of the city's most thickly populated areas is paying the price for hasty planning.

Collection of garbage twice a week is accomplished from front yards, and breakdowns in utilities, when they occur, are aggravated by the fact that it is virtually impossible to move crews and equipment to some lines without inflicting property damage.

In this case, the city had no prerogative, since the area was well outside the corporate limits at the time it was developed.

However, that does not minimize the problem as it exists today, and if steps should be taken to rectify it they doubtless would be costly.

Morever, streets in that addition have demonstrated that they are not of the quality specified nowadays by the city. Patching and seal-coating have been only partially successful at best. This condition, to a great extent, probably stems from the fact that when they were built nobody dreamed that the streets would be called upon to handle traffic like that of today.

The situation proves the value of our present-day planning and zoning system.

A Chance For Post Office?

Announcement that President Eisenhower had proposed a program to modernize post offices and postal services could eventually give Snyder some hope for getting action on the local post office situation.

In the past we have been repeatedly reminded that the Federal government has not built any post offices since 1948 (or was it 1938?) and red tape on the so-called lease-purchase plan proved insurmountable.

Of course congress must approve the proposal before anything definite is developed, but our civic leaders should keep in close touch with the situation and get Snyder's name on the list at the earliest possible date, if lawmakers sanction the plan.

The president made the proposal primarily to give the nation's economy a boost, according to reports out of Washington. Snyder is not seeking a post office for that particular purpose. It wants a new building to provide the service to which the town's citizens are entitled.

Ike, Hoover Use Identical Language

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Hoover — 28 years apart but with each facing a sliding economy and growing unemployment — were not only equally optimistic but talked in almost identical language.

On March 7, 1930, Hoover, knee-deep in a mushrooming depression which was to become catastrophic before it got better, issued a statement which said: "All the evidence indicates that the worst effect of the (stock market) crash on employment will have been passed during the next 60 days."

Yesterday Eisenhower, confronted with a deepening recession and government statistics which showed at least 4½ unemployed, issued a statement which said: "Every indication is that March will commence to see the start of a pickup in job opportunities. That should mark the beginning of the end of the downturn in our economy."

Hoover had economic advisers when he made his statement. Eisenhower, too, has economic advisers. He said he based his hopes for the future on the "best advice I can get, and on my own study of the facts."

Not all economists agreed with Hoover. Not all economists agree with Eisenhower now. Not all agreed Hoover was doing as much as was needed to get the country out of its depression. Not all agree Eisenhower is doing as much as they think the present recession requires.

It took a while to determine Hoover's optimism was wrong. It will take a while to determine whether Eisenhower's optimism is right.

But in his statement Eisenhower pointed to a number of steps the government already has taken to nudge the economy back up the ladder. And this country has more government weapons for fighting recession than in Hoover's day.

But Dr. Marcus Nadler, economist of the Hanover Bank and New York University, looked dubiously at Eisenhower's prediction that next month will be a possible turning point for business and unemployment. He said: "I question that very seriously. So far the government has been talking but not doing anything."

GOP Solons Will Take Porter Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two legislators quarterbacking Republican efforts to capture control of Congress say they'll accept $100,000 raised by a Texas party dinner—although they deplore methods used to drum up the contributions.

However, there was a possibility the money might stay in Texas.

Sen. Schoeppel (R-Kan) and Rep. Richard Simpson (R-Pa) said the party groups they head will not be governed by a refusal of the Republican National Committee to use any of the money raised at the $100-a-plate dinner in Houston. Schoeppel and Simpson are chairmen of GOP campaign committees in their respective houses.

A political hubbub has resulted from a letter written by H. J. Porter, Texas Republican national committeeman, linking the dinner Monday night to efforts to pass the controversial natural gas bill.

The affair was advertised as an appreciation dinner for House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts. In soliciting potential ticket-buyers, oilman Porter said Martin had helped pass a natural gas bill in 1955 and that Martin's aid would be needed to push through a similar measure this year.

The bill would exempt gas producers from direct federal regulation, but would continue Federal Power Commission control of interstate pipelines. The 1955 bill, which followed generally similar lines, was vetoed by President Eisenhower on grounds certain segments of the oil-gas industry were "arrogant" in lobbying for it.

The White House, Martin and GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn all have disavowed Porter's appeal.

Simpson called Porter's letter "crude and inexcusable" and said "everybody knows that Joe Martin's influence is not for sale." But Simpson added that "I see no reason why the contributions should not be accepted" by his House campaign committee.

Schoeppel said Porter's letter was "unfortunate and does not bespeak the attitude of the Republicans of Texas who contributed honestly to help elect Republican senators and congressmen. . . .

"We are certainly not going to take the position, however, that any money forwarded to us by the Republican State Finance Committee of Texas will not be accepted."

In Houston, Porter said the $100,000 — less expenses — will be used by the state GOP organization if the national committee doesn't want it. He declined to comment on whether he is considering giving any of the money to the congressional campaign groups.

Conservatives In Shattering Defeat

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP) — A shattering defeat in an election to fill a House of Commons vacancy cast gloom today over supporters of Britain's Conservative government.

The waning popularity of the Conservative rulers headed by Prime Minister Macmillan was pointed up dramatically in the north England textile city of Rochdale.

The Conservatives ran a poor third to both the opposition Labor party and the normally weak Liberals.

Final returns gave Laborite Jack McCann 22,133 votes, Liberal Ludovic Kennedy 17,603 and Conservative John Parkinson 9,827.

Conservative leaders had been reconciled in advance to loss of the election, but the magnitude of the defeat came as a surprise. In a straight Conservative-Labor fight in 1955, the Conservative candidate—who died recently—beat McCann 26,518-24,928.

The outcome was no great plum since it too lost ground. Those who previously voted Conservative obviously switched to Kennedy, the Liberal, in protest against the government, a trend that has been growing in recent special parliamentary elections.

The Rochdale result, said the Conservative Daily Mail, shows that the intervention of Liberal candidates at the next election may rob them (the Conservatives) of many seats."

The Times, nominally independent but usually pro-Conservative, said the outcome may force Macmillan to ask for a new general election before the statutory term of his government ends in 1960.

British prime ministers traditionally "go to the country" for a vote of confidence when it becomes doubtful that their policies command the support of a national majority. However, the Conservatives still have firm working control of Commons — with 342 members against 280 Laborites and 5 Liberals — and the Tory strategy has been to hang on in expectancy of an improvement.

Although the Conservatives had suffered from diminishing popular support in most of the 31 other by-elections held since 1955, they previously had lost only one parliamentary seat, in north London a year ago.

Labor Party Leader Hugh Gaitskell claimed the Rochdale result "yet another signal to the government to get out" and claimed the Conservatives have "completely lost the confidence of the people."

Service Set For Educator

DALLAS (AP)—Services will be held tomorrow for Dr. George Clough, 80, long-time Texas educator.

Dr. Clough, who died yesterday after a long illness, was the first director of Dallas College, the SMU downtown extension division. He was head of the school from its opening in 1934 until his retirement in 1948.

He founded Tyler Junior College in 1926, serving as its first president. He was past president of the Texas State Teachers Assn. and the Texas Society of College Teachers of Education.

Dr. Clough was a native of Ben Wheeler in Van Zandt County. He graduated from Tyler High School. The educator taught in Ellis County, Fort Worth, Corsicana and Tyler.

Junior Editors' Quiz on SCIENCE

QUESTION: Where does the tide go when it runs out?

ANSWER: Tides rise and fall in the ocean on a time schedule determined by the pull of the moon. As a result, the tides arise about 50 minutes later each day, just as the moon does. The gravitation of the moon pulls the nearest water upwards and away from the earth beneath it. When it gets to the other side of the earth it exerts a pull there too. The tides thus hit nearly every seacoast at intervals of about 12 hours and 25 minutes, giving most seacoasts two tides a day. But because they are deflected by land masses, the tides are not as high at some places as at others.

Thus, when the tide runs out—or becomes low—on the Atlantic coast of the United States, the water is moving toward the Atlantic coast of Europe, causing a high tide there.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: The action of the tide is much like that of water in a bowl. You can demonstrate this by tipping a bowl with some water in it away from you. The water will be low on your side and high on the other. Tip it carefully back toward you and the water becomes high on your side and low on the other.

• • •

Back in pioneer times our forefathers found they could keep track of the family history pretty well with a few notations on the flyleaf of the family Bible. But life's not quite that simple any more. Great-grandpa wasn't covered by social security or workmen's compensation. He didn't have a bank account or safe deposit box, a car and a dozen home appliances being bought on time payment, or a half-dozen insurance policies. We have taxes great-grandpa never heard of and wouldn't have believed if he had. And had you asked him for a certificate to prove his birth, he'd have thought you'd taken leave of your senses.

The point of this is that the average American today has a good many important papers to keep track of. There are birth certificates, receipts, copies of tax returns, sales contracts, and a host of other papers. With a little tidy record-keeping, you can make life easier for yourself and your family when you are gone.

Here are some suggestions:

1. Get a heavily bound notebook folder or file folder as a central collecting point for all the records of your affairs.

2. Put your especially important papers in your safe deposit box, but make a list of those papers and a brief summary of their contents to put in your home file.

3. Get for your files copies of birth certificates for all members of the family, and add them to the file. Add your marriage license or at least a statement as to when and where you were married and by whom.

4. Insert your will or a copy of it. If your will is kept elsewhere, include a note telling where it may be found.

5. During the year, put into the file your income tax withholding statements and receipts for expenditures which may be deductible. Then keep a copy of each year's tax return in the file.

6. Make a list of all the stocks and bonds you own and where they are.

7. List all the places you have lived and worked and the names of persons there who you know. Include the schools you have attended and the dates you left or were graduated.

8. If you may have benefits coming under a profit-sharing plan where you work, make a note of that too.

9. If you're in doubt about whether an item should be included, put it in. This takes time initially, but it will save you both time and worry in the long run.

Playwright Is Stricken

NEW YORK (AP)—Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright George S. Kaufman collapsed last night while attending the opening of a Broadway play. An hour later a friend at Kaufman's Park Avenue apartment said the writer was feeling fine.

The 68-year-old Kaufman, also a producer, was stricken midway through the second act of "The Entertainer," starring Sir Laurence Olivier.

Doctors who examined Kaufman at the Royale Theater diagnosed his case as a gastric upset.

Prisoners Look Too Long Before Leaping

RAHWAY, N.J. (AP)—Two prisoners who looked too long before they leaped for freedom were discovered shivering in an unheated warehouse right on the Rahway Prison Farm Grounds.

James Corti, 42, of Jersey City, a convicted burglar, and Peter Poth, 38, of Paterson, serving a term for armed robbery, had "escaped" from the farm 48 hours before. A statewide alarm had been issued for them.

Jayne Whirls Through Air

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Actress Jayne Mansfield opened a four-week night club engagement last night, shimmying, singing and whirling about in the air while clinging to the neck of her bridegroom Mickey Hargitay.

That routine got the most gasps from a $50-a-plate, March of Dimes benefit audience of 500 which rewarded her lush show with considerable applause.

In other aerial acrobatics, the muscular Mickey flipped his wife around in the air and walked up a ship's gangplank holding her over his head in one hand. This was to climax one of her songs—all special material—called "I Want Love."

Miss Mansfield wore a gown fashioned of tiny gold discs and links and weighing 12½ pounds. And costing, a hotel publicist averred, $25,000.

Miss Mansfield will get $25,000 per week for the Tropicana engagement.

The state capitol building in Little Rock, Ark., is patterned after the National Capitol in Washington, D. C.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE BIGGEST CONCERN of Tiger basketball coach J. P. Ward and his charges is how to slow down the Sweetwater scoring machine which has been ticking off points almost at will in district games.

The Wardmen did a good job defensing the Mustangs in the first game between the two rivals when they held the Ponies to 47 points which saw the Tigers emerge victorious, 58-47.

The 47 points, incidentally, is the lowest total the Mustangs have been held to this season.

Sweetwater shooters weren't particularly cool that night, either, hitting 20 of 53 field goal aims for 37.3 percent, a fairly good night for a high school team.

But the Mustangs have been "hotter'n a pistol" in the three games since they've met the Tigers, beating Lamesa, 61-56; Colorado City, 84-71; and Lake View, 78-69.

In other words, the Mustangs have averaged 73.6 points per game since they played the Tigers.

You can see, now, why Ward is concerned over the Mustang offense as he prepares his charges for tomorrow night's crucial game at Sweetwater.

Pin Hopes On Defense

Ward is pinning his hopes on his defense since the Tigers aren't blessed with such accurate shooters as is found on the Mustang squad. And the Tiger defense, mind you, is much responsible for the Tigers being tied for first place at the moment.

In the six district games thus far, the Tigers have held the opposition to less than 50 points four times. Both of the teams going over the 50 mark against the Tigers just barely made it, Lamesa scoring 52 in the loop opener and Colorado City 53 in the last start. The Tigers, however, won both of these games.

Five of the six teams Sweetwater has played in 3-AAA play have topped the 50 mark.

Sweetwater holds a commanding edge over the Tigers in offense in district play, the Ponies sporting a 66.6 average to 54.6 for the Tigers. But the Tigers, on the other hand, hold a distinct edge on defense.

The Tigers have held the opposition to 46.6 points per game while the Mustangs have yielded 61.6 points per district tilt.

It all adds up to the fact that the two teams stack up just about even in the statistical department.

If Sweetwater maintains her offensive average tomorrow night she'll probably win but if the Tigers maintain their defensive average then the Bengals likely will emerge victorious.

It should be an interesting contest and a big following of Tiger fans is expected to converge on Mustang Gym tomorrow night to lend support to the scrappy Tigers.

More About Mike

According to the Borger News-Herald, Elwood Turner, head football coach at Sweetwater, applied for the coaching vacancy at Borger last week.

The Borger job, however, was given to Gene Mayfield of Littlefield at $8,250 per annum.

Just one more word about the Mike McClellan case.

We are wondering what the difference is of Oklahoma admitting McClellan next fall than letting him enroll this spring. This move doesn't change McLellan's eligibility status at OU.

Even if he enrolled at OU for the spring term, he still wouldn't become eligible to play for the Sooners until the 1959 season. The same thing holds true if Mike enrolls next fall.

Oklahoma figures, we imagine, that less static will be raised over McClellan coming her way if she "makes" Mike wait until next fall to enroll.

Texarkana Quarters Flooded After Game

PARIS, Tex. (AP)—Rivalry between Texarkana Junior College and Paris Junior College resulted in a flooded visitors' dressing room here when Texarkana basketball players tore a water fountain from the wall, Paris college officials said today.

Dr. J. R. McLemore, president of Paris, notified Texarkana officials of the damage yesterday. It was discovered by Paris athletic director DeWitt Alexander when he prepared to close the gym Tuesday night after a Paris-Texarkana game.

Paris had one consolation, the Dragons defeated Texarkana 71-69.

Strong rivalry between the two schools resulted in bitter incidents previously.

TO KEEP FLAG HOPES ALIVE

Frog 5 Pounds Longhorns, 88-58

By The Associated Press

Texas Christian kept its faint Southwest Conference basketball hopes alive Wednesday night and just about snuffed out the last remaining spark of hope Texas had for a share of the crown.

The Frogs, connecting on 48 per cent of their shots in the first half, built up a 21-point lead and coasted in to jolt the Longhorns 88-58 at Fort Worth.

Some more big doings are scheduled Saturday night in the chase that sees the Arkansas Razorbacks in the lead by a half game over Rice, and two other teams, Texas Tech and Southern Methodist, close behind in third place, only a game and a half behind.

And the future is anything but rosy for the front running Razorbacks. They still have to face Texas Tech and Rice away from home. Rice has already managed to edge the Hogs this season in Fayetteville.

Saturday's schedule finds Texas Tech hosting Arkansas at Lubbock, Southern Methodist going to Fort Worth to play Texas Christian, Texas hosting Texas A&M at Austin and Rice playing Baylor at Waco.

TCU leapfrogged Texas and into a fifth place tie with Texas A&M with its victory over the Steers Wednesday. Texas fell to seventh place, Baylor is in last place.

The Frogs caught the Longhorns four minutes deep in the game and then riding the one-hand push shots of Kenneth Brunson, quickly ran off and left the visitors.

The Christians' big men, Ronny Stevenson and H. E. Kirchner, hurt the Longhorns with their close-in shots. Stevenson counted 28 points and Kirschner 23.

The last half of the game turned into a wild affair with the officials calling 28 fouls.

BU Students Petition Mike's Return

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP)—The latest word on Mike McClellan, the football and track star who got involved in a tug of war between Baylor and Oklahoma, is that he probably won't attend school anywhere this spring.

He visited the Arlington State College campus here yesterday and was expected to enroll. Coach Claude Gilstrap reported that McClellan decided not to enter the junior college, however, after being told track participation here would cost him a year of senior college eligibility.

Gilstrap said McClellan planned to return to his Stamford, Tex., home today. The youth indicated he probably won't enter a college this spring, Gilstrap said.

On the Baylor campus at Waco, Tex., students reported they had 1,000 signatures on a petition urging McClellan to come back. In addition, the captains of Baylor teams dispatched a telegram to the youth also urging his return.

Capt. Gil Stephenson, former Army halfback, coached the 1957 plebe football team at West Point.

Fluvanna, H'leigh Split

Hermleigh and Fluvanna split a doubleheader at Fluvanna yesterday afternoon.

Fluvanna won the boys game, 50-35, while Hermleigh captured the girls tilt, 38-37.

Gene Smith led Fluvanna in the boys game with 30 points. Jimmy Roemisch pumped in 20 points for Hermleigh.

Jacquelyn Martin tossed in 27 points for the losing Fluvanna girls team while Conway was high for Hermleigh sextette with 13 points.

The games wound up the season for the two schools. Weather postponed the games twice, Monday and Tuesday nights, before it was re-scheduled for yesterday afternoon.

Bragan Faces Big Challenge As Cleveland Indian Boss

Tenth of a series of articles written by major league managers evaluating their clubs' pennant prospects for 1958.

By BOBBY BRAGAN

FT. WORTH, Tex. (AP)—As the new manager of the Cleveland Indians I have a great challenge, bigger than when I was with Pittsburgh. One thing in my favor, though, I will have better players this time.

The team, as I see it, will be built around two of the most exciting players in baseball today—Herb Score and Minnie Minoso. Score is the ace of my staff. His vision should be normal when spring training opens. I don't think his tragic accident of 1957—when he was hit in the face by a line drive—will bother him.

We won't have Early Wynn, but some of our promising youngsters might surprise. Wynn's place could be taken by Cal McLish, Hank Aguirre, the lefthander, or by Jim Grant or Dick Brodowski. The last two were with San Diego last year.

I don't want to take Ray Narleski or Don Mossi from the bullpen. They are the best in the league and will be more useful as relievers than as starters.

Minoso can help me a lot and also be a drawing card. He is one of the best defensive players in the league and one of the top run producers. He played in 153 games last year and is the type who plays despite aches and pains. This fact is important. He is a smart and colorful player. I know him well as a rival in the four years I've managed in Cuba in the winter. He will be the sparkplug of the Indians.

Our objectives are to win the pennant and make the Indians a good drawing card. Winning the pennant means beating the Yankees. Well, they can be beaten. I'll admit it is hard to find holes in a club like that.

One thing I like is that the Yankees didn't powder the ball last year like those famous Yankee clubs of the past. Still, they won and you can't argue with that.

Our biggest problem is the rebuilding of our infield. I know we need a second baseman. It is possible that one of the younger players might surprise, but I sure could use a guy like Bobby Richardson of the Yankees. Everybody knows we have tried to deal for him.

Vic Wertz, our best hitter, is solid at first base. We recently purchased Mickey Vernon, the grand old veteran, from Boston and I am certain he can still do a good job around first base if given the proper rest. Chico Carrasquel has to do better at shortstop, but he's still young enough and with fine ability. Third base is a de open.

Palo Duro's Hyatt Little But Loud

AMARILLO (AP) — For Texas, where they grow nearly everything big, little Paul Hyatt is something of a novelty for schoolboy basketball.

He's the 5-foot-9 sparkplug of the Palo Duro High School team here, and his average is a fat 28.3 points a game this season with a team able to win only 13 of its 22 games so far.

Hyatt is a 17-year-old senior and the only member back from the state Class AAA championship five from Palo Duro in 1955-56, the first year it played a schedule leading to the title.

His secret is a one-handed jump shot, and—because most rival players tower over him by several inches—Paul regularly sinks it from points 30 to 40 feet from the basket.

Palo Duro is playing in Class AAAA now, and against his toughest competition yet the youngster has hit the basket for 621 of the team's 1,480 points. His total is a school record.

Twice Paul has collected 36 points a game. He's hit for 30 or more a dozen times. Only twice has the opposition held him to as few as 17 points. One of those nights he played despite an upset stomach.

"He's a good defensive hand, too," Coach Tom Gulley will tell you. "He's got springs in his legs."

On occasion Hyatt even outrebounds some of his treetop rivals. He has fouled out in only two games this season.

"Considering the fact that every team sets its defenses for him, we think he does right well," said Coach Gulley.

Texas Open Begins Today

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—The golfing Heberts — Jay and Lionel — were eyed today as likely producers of the champion in the $15,000 Texas Open.

The brothers from Louisiana—Jay now registers from Stamford, Fla., however — were given top ratings as 150 golfers moved out in the opening round.

Jay is defending champion here and has been playing fine golf all winter, missing two first places by a single stroke.

Lionel has just won his first stroke play tournament — the Tucson Open — and considers himself at the peak of his career.

Both are ace bad weather players too. Rain, sleet and snow have made Brackenridge Park's 6,490-yard par 71 course hazardous. There was the threat of bad weather again later in the week.

Jay Hebert won the championship in a driving rain last year. Mike Souchak won it in 1955—and set a PGA record of 257 for 72 holes—while playing three rounds in rain and bitter cold.

Then there's that noted second-place finisher — Jimmie Demaret—who is considered the best bad weather player of them all. He has been second here three times.

Demaret's runner-up complex is equaled by Doug Ford, another of the big money winners, who has been a bridesmaid here three times too.

The field also includes E. J. Harrison, Jack Burke, Frank Stranahan and most of the other stars of the tournament trail. The leading absentee is Ken Venturi, winner of two tourneys this winter, who is passing up the Texas Open to practice for the National Open at Tulsa.

Don Williams Signs As Littlefield Coach

LITTLEFIELD (AP)—The school board signed Don Williams, line coach here in 1954-55, as head coach at Littlefield High School yesterday. He will draw $6,750 a year.

Williams was named to replace George Mayfield, who resigned to take the head coaching job at Borger High School. He has been line coach at Andrews, Tex., the past two seasons.

Robertson Hot Again As Cincinnati Whips Bradley

By DON WEISS

Looks more and more as if the Cincinnati, Ohioans got away with about the tidiest hunk of college basketball talent around when they latched on to 19-year-old Oscar Robertson from the Indianapolis, Indianans a year and a half ago.

Oscar, the brilliant Bearcat, startled 'em with Cincinnati's freshman team last year, excited the most blase New York critics with a 56-point show a couple week ago . . . and last night? Well, Robbie just about cinched the Bearcats' first trip to the NCAA championships.

The former Indianapolis high school whiz scored 40 points as Cincinnati whipped Bradley 94-77 to open a 1½ game lead in the battle for the Missouri Valley Conference title. He scored 31 points in the second half, 18 of them in a five-minute stretch after Bradley, made the score 58-55.

While Robertson was letting himself go some of the nation's other bigwigs were improving their qualifications for post-season tourneys.

West Virginia, ranked No. 2 a step behind Kansas State and a step ahead of Cincinnati, clinched the regular season title in the Southern Conference, crushing VMI 104-58. The Mountaineers' Jerry West had 22 points as Freddie Schaus' club made it 32 straight conference victories and 19 wins in 20 games this season.

Sixth-ranked Oklahoma State, sought by both the NCAA and the National Invitation tournaments while playing as an independent this year, walloped 20th-ranked Oklahoma 70-50 for a 16-2 record. And Temple, now No. 7, reeled off its 16th straight win 71-61 over LaSalle as Guy Rodgers scored 25 points for a school career record of 1,545.

Dayton, also a prize tournament catch, made it 12 straight with a 62-53 defeat of DePaul. Notre Dame, with Tommy Hawkins scoring 33, spilled Butler 90-81 and the Ivy League leader, Dartmouth, won its eighth straight league game 76-64 over Harvard.

Extra sessions were needed for St. Joseph's (Pa.) to nip Villanova 86-82, Nebraska to down Missouri 67-62, Houston to measure North Texas 73-70, Bowling Green to beat Toledo 74-69, and Furman to edge South Carolina 79-78. Penn beat Cornell 71-69 in overtime.

2 City Tilts On Tap

Brooks Oil and the Boys Club will headline tonight's City League basketball card at Junior High Gym.

Tipoff time for the game will be 8:30. Meeting in the first game will be Canyon Reef Sports Center and D&H Food at 7.

The Boys Club and Brooks Oil currently share second place in the standings with 4-3 records. Both are one game behind league leading Canyon Reef Sports Center which has a 5-2 record.

Winner of the Boys Club-Brooks game tonight would pull abreast of Canyon Reef tonight if D&H beats the Reefers in the opening game of tonight's card.

In games Monday night, Canyon Reef broke a two-way deadlock for the lead with the Boys Club by beating them 93-85 while Brooks stayed in the thick of the title race with a 71-65 victory over D&H.
