Attorney For Harry Bridges Given Six-Month Sentence

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3 (UP)—The trial of CIO longshore leader Harry Bridges and two other defendants on charges of perjury will continue today despite the sentencing of one defense attorney to six months in jail for contempt of court.

Federal Judge George B. Harris yesterday found attorney Vincent Hallinan guilty of contempt and sentenced him to six months in jail to be served at the conclusion of the present trial.

Harris at first ordered Hallinan to serve the sentence immediately and had his name stricken from the roll of Bridges' trial attorneys. He ordered the perjury trial recessed until December 6 to give Bridges and co-defendants Henry Schmidt and J. R. Robertson time to find a new attorney.

The judge later changed his ruling to allow Hallinan to continue with the trial after he heard pleas by Bridges and Hallinan's partner, James MacInnis, that his decision to bar the fiery Irishman from the trial was made "in the heat of the courtroom."

Harris retired to his chambers to reconsider and, when he emerged, announced that he was granting Hallinan a stay of execution until the end of the trial "in consideration of Mr. MacInnis' and Mrs. Bridges' pleas and out of the fact that a defendant is allowed a lawyer of his own choosing."

The action came after seven days of trial during which Hallinan has been fighting a government indictment that charges the defendants with perjury for denying that Bridges was a Communist during a naturalization hearing. Hallinan has repeatedly brushed aside Judge Harris' warnings and refused to confine himself to what the judge termed the immediate issue of the case.

Earlier yesterday the judge made a two-hour statement from the bench in which he cited 36 instances where he declared Hallinan was in contempt of court. The examples were taken from the already voluminous trial transcript.

Late in the day he received the formal contempt citation from his clerk and immediately pronounced Hallinan guilty.

Richard Gladstein, an attorney slated to head the Bridges defense, was one of six lawyers found guilty of contempt by Federal Judge Harold R. Medina in a similar action after conclusion of trial of 11 Communists in New York. Hallinan and MacInnis took over the defense when Gladstein was sentenced.

Imprisoned American Consul Is Freed, Ordered Deported By Chinese 'Reds'

By James E. Roper
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (UP)—Chinese Communists have freed U. S. Consul General Angus Ward and four of his aides from a Manchurian prison and ordered them deported, the State Department announced today.

The five—all apparently unharmed—were released yesterday after a Chinese Communist people's court in Mukden convicted them on charges of beating a Chinese employe at the consulate and then commuted their prison sentences to deportation. They had been jailed since October 24.

The State Department instructed Ward, the other four, and his entire staff to leave Mukden "forthwith." Officials said they are confident the Communists, who previously blocked for a year the departure of the staff, now will permit all of them to leave.

The arrest of Ward and his four aides on what this government called "trumped up" charges touched off an international cause celebre. President Truman last week angrily denounced the action as an outrage. On Monday, Acheson appealed to Russia and 29 other nations to protest the arrest. And last Saturday, the American Legion demanded that the United States use "force" to free Ward.

Some American officials believed that mounting world indignation and public pressure forced the Chinese Communists' hand and sped the release of Ward and his aides.

Some diplomats had speculated that Ward's arrest was ordered by the Kremlin to cause the United States ot lose face in the Orient and to split the United States and Britain, which had been on the verge of recognizing the Communist regime. If the latter were the case, the strategy backfired. Britain joined in protesting the arrest and delayed recognition of the Chinese Red regime.

For a full year, Chinese Communists have held the American staff at Mukden under house arrest, preventing their leaving China.

So the conviction of Ward and his aides had the net effect of releasing them from Communist control although the Chinese Reds apparently intended to use the case to vilify westerners in the eyes of the prestige-conscious Orientals.

It was last November that Communist troops occupied Mukden, stripped the consulate of its radio equipment, and limited the movement of all employes between their homes and offices.

Since then, the Americans have received no outside supples and have had to ration carefully their stocks of western foods that are used to supplement locally-grown products.

5-Year-Old Boy Killed In Gun Battle As Panamanian Factions Battle

PANAMA CITY, Panama, Nov. 23 (UP)—A flurry of violence which gave Panama two presidents settled down to a peaceful test of strength in the supreme court today.

A boy was killed and at least 11 persons were wounded in a gun battle last night between police defenders of the man who had been president three days and national assembly supporters of the man he deposed.

Police fired on a group of assemblymen marching to the presidential palace to try to reinstall Daniel F. Chanis, Jr., who was ousted as president in a bloodless coup Sunday. The police, in effect Panama's army, had handled the coup which put Vice-President Roberto Chiari in the palace.

Chanis dramatically withdrew his letter of resignation signed early Sunday. He said he considered himself to be the constitutional president.

Chiari issued a statement expressing his determination to stay in power.

Chanis replied, "I cannot understand on what legal fiction Mr. Chiari's statement he intended to remain in the presidency may be based.

"As president I appeared before the National Assembly yesterday and with that legislative body's authorization I withdrew a document that I was forced to sign under threat of machine guns and bayonets."

Both the Chanis and Chiari forces were preparing today to test their strength before the supreme court. The Chanis faction contended that the court, when it administered the oath to Chiari Sunday morning, did not pass on the question of the constitutionality of the event, but merely repeated the form of the oath.

Pork Prices Reported Tumbling At Markets

CHICAGO, Nov. 23 (UP)—Pork prices are tumbling in the corner meat market in the wake of a flood of hogs to midwestern livestock centers, market experts said today.

The American Meat Institute reported that wholesale prices have "skidded downward."

"Many cuts now are being offered the public at retail prices more attractive than at any time in recent years," the AMI said.

This is particularly true, the institute said, of pork chops, sliced bacon and whole smoked hams.

South's Governors Again To Support States' Rights

BILOXI, Miss., Nov. 23 (UP)—Fifteen southern governors ended a planning conference last night by voting to give their "unqualified support" to the principles of states rights and free enterprise.

The conference elected Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, 1948 states rights presidential candidate, as its next chairman.

Leander H. Perez of Louisiana, director of the States Rights movement, termed this a fitting recognition of Thurmond's campaign against the Truman civil rights program.

Perez indicated his choice for 1952 chairman would be former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, now a likely candidate for South Carolina governor, who indicted "big government" in a speech before the conference Monday night.

Besides endorsing states rights, the governors passed resolutions condemning "government regimentation of the individual or socialization of competitive industry."

The governors also protested the frequent refusal of northern and western governors to extradite escaped prisoners to southern states on grounds that they would be subjected to "cruel and unusual treatment."

West Texas Water Officials Assured Washington Help

FORT WORTH, Nov. 23 (UP)—Newly elected officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce today had the assurance of help from Washington officials and Texas' U. S. Senators in their battle to solve that area's water problems.

Assistance of the Department of Interior was guaranteed some 800 West Texans at the WTCC's annual banquet last night by William E. Warne, assistant secretary of the interior.

"The Department of Interior, a branch historically charged with responsibility for assisting in developing and utilizing western water resources, is prepared to assist you," Warne told the Texans.

Members of the WTCC, divided on the question of accepting out and out federal aid in the program, heard similar assurances from both of the state's U. S. senators.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson echoed Texas' Sen. Tom Connally in giving full assurance of aid from Congress, and told the membership it had no reason to fear participation by the federal government.

The group named J. M. Willson of Floydada president, succeeding John D. Mitchell of Odessa; B. P. Bludworth, Brownwood, first vice president; Frank Kelley, Colorado City, second vice president; Homer Grant, Lubbock, third vice president and president of the newly organized West Texas Municipal Water Assn. Ed Stewart, Abilene, was re-elected treasurer and D. A. Bandeen, Abilene was re-elected general manager.

Attempt To Gain Defendant's Freedom

Smithwick is now held in the Bell County jail at Belton, awaiting trial December 12.

He was charged with the fatal shooting of Bill Mason last July 29.

The trio of defense attorneys included Henry Taylor, Sr., and Byron Skelton of Temple, and Henry Wilder, Live Oak County judge.

The state was represented by Sam Reams, district attorney of Jim Wells. County.

The defense, pleading that Smithwick should be freed on a writ of Habeas corpus, attempt-

Four Amarillo Prisoners Escape County Jail, One Already Captured

AMARILLO, Nov. 23 (UP)—Four young prisoners escaped early today from the Potter County jail but one of the four, said to have engineered the jailbreak, was captured within a few minutes.

Police set up roadblocks in the Panhandle region in the belief the escaped trio might head for Oklahoma. However, a theory was also advanced that they might be hiding in Amarillo.

Twin brothers Edward and Lee Rader, 23 ,and James H. Farris, Jr., 28, broke out of the jail after a fellow prisoner, Dwight Hoskins, threatened a jailer with a butcher knife stolen from the jail kitchen.

Hoskins used the jailer's keys to release the other three men, according to Deputy Sheriff Murphy Hurd.

The four men went to the top floor of the jail, slid down a fire hose ot the fifth floor of the building, entred the courthouse section and awakened a janitor, demanding his building keys and escaping.

Hurd said a friend of Hoskins apparently was waiting outside with a car but plans misfired.

A special officer for the Santa Fe Railroad captured Hoskins in an all-night lunch stand. The former all-state football star is charged with murder and was returned to the jail where he has been serving as a trusty.

Police found an auto they believed was used and abandoned by the escaped trio.

Farris has been convicted for burglary and theft.

The Rader twins were awaiting trial for allegedly hijacking two supermarkets. They are wanted in Roswell, N. M., Kansas and in California on similar charges. Their father was recently given a prison sentence in California for robbery.

Armed Guards Searching For Escaped Robber

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 23 (UP)—Guards armed with riot guns searched rain-swept McNeil Island today for a convicted bank robber who escaped from the 4000-acre island "prison without walls."

The search started after Henry Clay Tollett, 55, Ada, Okla., failed to answer the noon roll call yesterday.

Guards were concentrating their search in the belief that Tollett was still on the penal island. Few men have been able to swim from the federal penitentiary to the mainland, three inviting miles away.

Sheets of blinding rain, billowed by 25 mile-an-hour winds, slowed the search. Bloodhounds housed at the penitentiary were not used immediately because the

Some U. S. Areas Promised Snow For Thanksgiving

By United Press

Some areas around the Great Lakes, the upper Mississippi Valley and New England will have a white Thanksgiving Day but most of the country will enjoy a clear, seasonable holiday.

A wave of chilly air from Canada spread light snows across the top of the nation from South Dakota eastward to the Atlantic. Temperatures dropped far below normal for the season.

At New York City, the mercury dropped to 25 degrees in Manhattan and to 15 degrees in some suburbs.

Many New England cities reported their coldest temperatures of the season early today. Thermometers registered 3 above at Holton, Me., 4 above at Caribou, Me., 8 at Lebanon, N. H., and 14 at Worchester, Mass.

California expected warm, fair weather tomorrow, except for considerable fog along the coast and in some inland valleys. Los Angeles was counting on 70-degree shirt-sleeve temperatures and San Francisco expected a high of about 60. The Dixie states were promised a fair, mild Turkey Day.

A schedule of training periods will be announced in the near future, Maj. McClintick said.

If the girl is determined to be 14 years or older, the young Negro man may be charged with statutory rape, a felony charge.

New Childress County Hospital Equipment Is Still Arriving

Equipment for the Childress County Hospital continued to pour in last week, as superintendent Clyde Lynn estimated the opening date for the modernistic new wing around January 1.

Furniture, operating lights and sterilizing equipment were the three big items which have not been received. Lynn said it would be possible to begin limited operations in the new wing upon arrival of any one of the three items.

Baby scales, surgical instruments, electrical appliances, smoking stands, an emergency oxygen apparatus for the oxygen room, a new obstetrical table and desks for nurses were among the equipment received during the past week.

Hospital furniture, originally scheduled to arrive some time this week, will probably be late in arriving because of the recent nation-wide steel strike, Lynn said.

X-ray equipment, ordered earlier this month, was expected to start arriving within the next four or five weeks.

Lynn thought the hospital would be "one of the nicest" in the area upon completion.

The superintendent said he recently received word from the Blue Cross enrollment director, who planned to send a district representative to Childress to conduct a county enrollment campaign.

"We might hold this campaign in conjunction with an open house,

Colorado Authorities Believe Their Fugitives Is Being "Hid"

NEW BRAUNFELS, Nov. 23 (UP)—Colorado authorities today charged Wayne Nelson Young was being "hid" as they sought return of the 30-year-old suspect to Colorado Springs for questioning.

Young, retaining a San Antonio attorney, indicated that he would fight extradition to Colorado where he was wanted for questioning in connection with the slaying last January of 18-year-old Walter Joe Pearson.

Sheriff Norman Short of El Paso County, Colo., said he had tried in vain to talk with Young, now free on $1000 bond.

Sheriff Ed Schleyer said that Young had retained Lou Schlesinger, San Antonio attorney, to represent him.

Short, the New Braufels sheriff said, hadn't been able to talk with Young because "his attorneys won't let him."

Schleyer revealed that "at one

Santa Fe Railway Freight Rams Truck, Kills Seven, Injures Ten

LUBBOCK, Nov. 23 (UP)—A Santa Fe Railway freight train rammed a truckload of cotton pickers on a rural grade-crossing today, killing seven persons and injuring 10 others.

The accident happened at 9 a. m. CST, near Shallowater, about 11 miles northwest of Lubbock. Two brothers were killed outright and three other members of their family were injured.

All of the cotton pickers were of Latin-American descent and nine of the injured lived at Lubbock.

A. C. Quirino, about 40, driver and owner of the truck, was killed by the impact. His brother, Francisco, who was in his "forties, also died in the accident. The other identified dead were Joe Moreno, 16, and Fred Padron, 20, of Lubbock.

Fireman J. Hollingsworth said he saw the truck first as it was attempting to cross the tracks.

"I yelled to Rust (engineer William Rust of Slayton) to 'Put it in the big hole (pull the emergency brake).' The next thing I knew we had hit it."

D. H. McKeever of Shallowater, said he was "about a quarter-mile away when it happened."

"I saw bodies thrown into the air," he said.

Bodies were strewn about 100 yards along the right-of-way. The truck was demolished and gasoline spilled on the tracks, but there was no fire.

All of the survivors were dazed and unable to give a clear account of what happened.

LET US GIVE TRUE THANKS

All of us students are looking forward to Thanksgiving for the holiday, the big dinner at home with guests, and especially the big football game between the Quanah Indians and the Childress Bobcats.

But how many of us, in our gaiety and eagerness, have taken time out to think about what we are celebrating, to be in solitude for a few minutes? Very few. Very few indeed.

Many, many years ago the first pioneers gathered after a bountiful harvest for the first Thanksgiving. They had a good time, but they also gave thanks to God who made the harvest possible.

Today, we have much more to harvest than ever before, much more, friends. Look about you today, and see the many blessings which have been generously bestowed upon us.

We, as citizens of America, are rich without realizing it. We are endowed with liberties and freedom that are equaled by no other country.

This Thankskiving, fellow students, let's pay a little more tribute than usual to God on the day set aside for that purpose.

Special Assembly Held For Favorite Campaign Talks

A special short assembly was called Monday, November 14, for the managers of the favorite candidates to introduce them and campaign in their behalf.

Senior candidates and their campaign managers were Lenora Fowler with Mary Williams managing, Billye Purcell and manager Jackie Foust, Bruce Cook with James Taylor campaigning, and Jack Owens using the help of Gail Long. Who ever thought Mary Williams was a poet?

Candidates for the Junior Class were Jane Witcher, Ruth Smith, Chester Beaver, and Sid Holland. Their managers were Sarah Smith, Joe Powell, Jimmy Gill, and Jimmy Price, who is a good prospect for a great comedian some day.

Sophomores picked Jo Ann Murphy, Joan Garrison, Jimmy Murphy, and George Crews as their candidates, and these chose Annette Cochran, Dorothy Dudley, June Sartin, and Charles Jordan as their campaigners. Charles Jordan and his little bucket make an appealing sight.

Peggy Atkinson, Joan French, Tom Ihesnut, and Perry Morren were candidates for the freshmen. Their managers were Cora Belle Powell, Dorothy Darter, Billy Collier, and Billy Anderson. Tiny Dorothy Darter stated that just because she got up to talk for the assembly was no sign she wasn't scared to death.

Johnny Baker, editor of the "Round-Up," opened the assembly by giving the purpose of the short meeting.

Exes At College Get Recognition

"T" Jones, Roy Bush, and Charles Rogers seem to be doing pretty well at college. T, who is going to Texas University, is getting good notices for his work on the frosh team. Roy Bush, an A-M cadet, is also playing good football. Charles, attending TCU, and "T" played against each other not long ago.

Weldon Fromm, ex-grid star of CHS, was back with us to witness the Childress-Wichita Falls football game.

Calvin Bennett, graduate of CHS, was seen here recently. Calvin is a freshman at Texas Tech.

Jim Campbell, graduate of '49, says he is still liking it very well at Texas A & M.

CHS Favorites Announced At Close Of Contest Tuesday

CHS favorites were announced Tuesday, November 14, after they had been determined in a contest beginning Monday, November 7, at which time four candidates from each class were selected to run.

Each candidate selected a manager who got one-cent votes for his candidate during the contest. The winners are put in the annual.

Senior favorites are Lenora Fowler, junior candidate for favorite last year. and Bruce Cook, president of the Bobcat Band.

Favorites for the juniors are Jane Witcher, cheerleader, and Sid Holland, vice-president of the Junior Class and starting guard on the Bobcat eleven.

Cousins, Jo Ann and Jimmy Murphy, are sophomore favorites. Jo Ann is a twirler in the band, and Jimmy is manager of the football squad.

Tom Chesnut and Peggy Atkinson will represent the freshmen in the annual.

Juniors and seniors will have two full pages each in the annual for their favorites which wil cost them $42. Freshman and sophomore favorites will get half a page for each favorite, making one full page for each class. This page will cost them $25.

WITH THE CLASSES

Plane geometry students have begun the study of transversals of straight lines. Now Mrs. Heath, how did you say you knew those angles were on the inside of the lines?

IA algebra students have gone to work on monomials and polynomials.

Second year algebra students have finally reached those long awaited stated problems, but some seem to wish they could go on waiting.

The English IIA classes are starting outlining. The class reports there is more to outlining than they used to think.

The senior literature students are studying "Macbeth" in anticipation of the Town Hall Program.

Mrs. Gibson's fourth period choral group is working on the "Gospel Boggie." Morgan Wilson and Perry Mooren are singing solo parts.

A recent Biology Class experiment shows the process of osmosis. In other words, a long glass straw is stuck in a candle and that is put in a glass of water. Gradually the water will fill up the straw.

Finally, after much hard labor and suffering the chemistry students took the fatal test on valance. To hear them tell it, they all flunked. Besides all this woe, Ruth Smith's stomach started growling.

Vernon Johnson says that since Donald Overbey has been absent, nothing dramatic has happened in the General Science Class, except the routine study about sounds, et cetera.

The Physics Class is demonstrating the principles of movement. The kiddos try to balance yardsticks on a little stand with a clamp on it. They had a test the other day, grades running like this: Edward—28, Johnny—70, Carl—66, Bob 68.

Homenursing girls bade Mrs. Robert Headlee farewell last week after she bathed Gertrude, the baby. Mrs. Headlee has previously instructed the class for two days a week.

HIGH SCHOOL PTA MET LAST NIGHT FOR PIE SUPPER

Pie and hot coffee was served last night to the guests at the high school PTA meeting.

For entertainment, Mrs. Joe A. Gibson accompanied the Girls' Sextet which consists of Jane Witcher, Ruth Smith, Edna Earle Yarbrough, Creta Lott, Ruth Ann Pratt and Marguerite French.

"Grandmother Nick," a play put on by the Chemistry Class, provided lots of laughs.

Mrs. Pat Powell, president gave an account of her trip to Waco for the PTA Convention.

Mary Williams Presented As Bobcat Queen

MARY WILLIAMS

A more lovely queen had never been seen than Margaret Herren; that is, until our own "Red-Head", Mary Williams, was presented as Bobcat queen of 1949-50 at the half time ceremonies at the Childress-Memphis game here Friday night.

Queen Mary, a senior, wore a bright green suit, complimenting her lovely red hair and green eyes, and was escorted by Marvin Clynch.

The other nominees, Sue Holman and Wanda Rosamond, were escorted by Max Taylor and Jim Carter. Sut wore a dark brown suit, and Wanda's suit was wine with black accessories.

After riding onto the field in a convertible, Queen Mary and attendants walked along the 50 yard line to the strains of "I'll See You In My Dreams" played by the Bobcat Band in a stage setting.

Mary was presented an arm bouquet of roses by Bill Weatherbee and escorted to her throne as the band played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

The royal platform was covered with grass matting. Centering the platform was the white throne, surrounded by a red heart, with a small crown and "M" on it. Between two goal posts "Queen Mary" was spelled out with blue and white pom-poms.

The attendants' chairs were white with blue and white streamers.

SPOTLIGHT

Billye Purcell

Candidate for senior favorite, Billye Bess Purcell, stands five feet, seven and one-half inches tall or sits with hazel eyes, dark brown hair and H. P.

Billye literally loves horses, and practicing for girl sponsor contests is her hobby. She even hopes someday to marry a rich old rancher's son.

Two of Billye's most exciting moments came in an automobile. One was having a wreck between Childress and Pampa and the other? Well—if you must know, it was getting stuck in the park lake with five feline friends.

On Billye's black list is Wichita Falls, with special reference to the football team. Her ambition? It is to brave the cruel winds of hardship and obtain a driver's license.

Billye is a member of the Little Theater and belonged to the Teen Club. An FHA member for two years, she served as secretary during her junior year.

One of the top six in the recent "Miss Granddaughter" review, Billye has been warbling alto in the Choral Club for two years.

Bruce Cook

Bruce Cook, six feet, two inch band president and Senior Class favorite, was born in Quanah, August 24, 1933. A band member for two years, Bruce plays the clarinet and saxophone.

His biggest thrill comes from flying, which he is learning to do excellently as a student at the Ragsdale hangars.

A member of the Little Theater and an enthusiast for Chevrolets, the brown-eyed brunette weighs 165 pounds and likes to travel. As evidence of this latter interest, he has visited Canada.

Bruce is an admirer of of Shirley Temple and Clark Gable, roast beef and corn-on-the cob. His honorable ambition is to become a band director. He's well on his way to success.

Jack Raymon Shows Reptiles At Paid Assembly

Jack Raymon of the Kentucky Reptile Garden, Park City Kentucky, presented his lecture-demonstration on "Reptiles of North America" Thursday, November 17, 1949.

While lecturing on harmless and poisonous snakes, Mr. Raymon said all over the world there are 2300 species of snakes but only 240 are poisonous. There are 135 species in the United States while only 4 are piosonous, the rattlesnake, cottonmouth, and copper head and coral snake.

Helen Swain was lured to the stage on the pretense of recieving some literature and was suprised by having a snake thrust into her hands. But Helen bravely refrained from dropping it over the footlights.

Mr. Raymon had several species with which he played around. The snakes he had were Rat snake, water snake, chicken snake, bull snake, green water snake, and indigo snake from Florida.

BEST TEACHER CONTEST OPEN TO STUDENTS

The Quiz Kids are offering a real challenge to every student at Childress High School again this fall as they open their search for the "Best Teacher for 1950."

One of our teachers may be named either the nation's, "Best Teacher of the Year" or the "Most Promising Teacher" in the Quiz Kid's fifth annual "Best Teachers Contest," which opens on the Quiz Kid program on Sunday, November 6, over station KGNC, Amarillo.

Five hundred and fifty-two prizes to students are being offered for the best letters about their favorite teachers, a real incentive for each of us to get busy and honor the fine teachers of our school.

For the best letters on the subject, "The Teacher Who Has Helped Me Most," the contest is awarding the following prizes to students:

For the two best letters a $1000 security bond will be given to each student, next 50 best letters $10 each, next 500 best letters, certificates of honor and Quiz Kids' pins, making each winner an honorary Quiz Kid.

The 'Best Teacher of 1950" will receive a cash prize of $2000, an appearance on the Quiz Kids' program, and a week's expenses paid.

So start writing those letters on "The Teacher Who Has Helped Me Most." Mail them to Quiz Kids "Best Teacher Contest", P. O. Box Y, Chicago 77, Illinois, before the contest deadline midnight, December 18, 1949.

PEP RALLY SENDS BOBCATS TO VICTORY

A rousing pep rally last Friday afternoon in the CHS auditorium sent the Bobcats to a 38-0 decision over Memphis.

Several yells were given by the student body led by the cheerleaders, and a stirring speech was delivered by Coach Don Ezell.

The band played several numbers also.

High School Register Selected By Faculty

The students selected by faculty vote for the High School Register are Colleen Moore, Gail Long, Mary Williams, Francis Hodges, John Baker, Edward Sewell, Shirley Adams, Bob Holland and Carl Carl Pearcy.

The qualifications upon which selection is based are scholarship, demonstrated leadership, service to the school and community, personality, and probable future usefulness to society. All students nominated must have attained junior standing.

The High School Register is a biographical index of outstanding high school students all over the nation.

Bobcats Beat Cyclones 38-0, Meet Quanah Here Thanksgiving

By John W. Baker

The Childress Bobcats struck for four touchdowns in the first half and two in the second to crush the Memphis Cyclones 38-0 here Friday night. Thursday they play the Quanah Indians here in the afternoon.

The Bobcats struck pay dirt from the five yard line in the first quarter and were never pressed after that point.

Kenneth Buckley scored again late in the first period from five yards out, and Granville King converted for a 13-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Midway in the second period Joe Powell went off tackle, eluded two tacklers, and went 23 yards to score. George Crews converted.

Late in that quarter Perry Morren, substitute quarterback, intercepted a Memphis pass on his own 25 and behind several good blockers raced 75 yards for a 26-0 half time score.

Early in the fourth quarter Powell went 30 yards up the middle for his second touchdown of the evening.

Buckley romped off left tackle for 25 yards and a touchdown to end the Bobcat scoring late in the final period.

"Quanah will be a tough team to beat! Not only do they point for Childress each year but they also have improved immensely in the last few weeks," said Coach Don Ezell. "Quanah beat Electra 47-12, playing everyone on the bench, while the Bobcats were held to a 24-6 score by the same team. If the Bobcats play ball as they are capable of doing and realize this is our last game of the season. The last game for many Bobcats representing Childress High School, they can be victorious!"

CHS CHATTER

Well, the first thing I'm going to do is apologize to Harold Dean Wright. It wasn't he, but Emile Farha who got the mumps after Patty Sue recovered.

Where did Bill Weatherbee get the nickname "Lover Boy"? Ask S. Smith, band director.

Has every one noticed the startling resemblance between Edd Jones and Ronald Neil?

What are the 50 cent bets Clay and Jarvis and Jarvis and Sid have?

What's wrong with William Lowe? Is Anne F. really spending all his money? Chester Beaver found plenty of I. O. U.'s signed by William in his box.

The band and band director really should try harder after reading this compliment paid to to them by Dooley Dawson, vice-president of the Second National Bank at Houston.

He said, "Childress High has a fine band. These people may not appreciate it because they haven't the opportunity to hear as many high school bands as I do. It is indeed one of the finest bands I've ever heard."

Mr. Dawson was a guest speaker at the Soil Conservation meeting here Tuesday night for which the band performed.

These following people have complained about never seeing their names in the Chatter, so on request, here they are: Frances Hodges, Anna Merle Kirby, Joe Sparkman, Gail Long and Shirley Adams.

Why was LeNelle in such a preicament this last week end?

Is this the way love affects you? Sid came running into American history and fell flat on his lovely (?) uh,-countenance.

Don Hardin and Carl Pearcy have shirts alike and these boys are trying to explain "which twin has the Toni."

If any one is so unfortunate as not to know how to Samba, I was requested to explain Kenneth Bearden is teaching lessons every second Tuesday of each week.

Bill Woods wishes to announce that he took the T. B. test Monday.

Why was Johnny Baker so down-hearted Friday night?

David Evans is going to be sued for damages by Wayne Webb. The damage was caused by David's "hermit" fingernails, or so Wayne says.

Who is the "fish" girl that has been writing "sweet" notes to Clinton Halford?

Wonder if the girls who attended the slumber parties last Friday night care to talk about it.

Wat's 'oppening? The steadies, Gail and Shirley, have gone back together and there is another flame burning steadily, Jo Ann Murphy and Jack Owens.

When Miss Kite came into journalism looking for Miss Carter, Anna Kirby told her Miss Carter ran out tearing her hair and shouting, "I'm through."

Miss Kite stood there for a minute speculating and then slowly said, "Well, I'm glad she's gone."

Winna Belle Castleberry is really good at describing. One look at Pat Sherwood and she could describe her to a "T", but then when someone pulled a fast one on her and put Mary Williams in Pat's place, who wouldn't get confused?

The sophomores have a brand new idea for making money. They are going to pick cotton Friday. If anyone has a job selling liniment ,they'll really clean up Saturday.

"JUNIORS ! ! ! PAY YOUR DUES!" comes the cry from Room 19. "If you want to see your rings, get busy."

EXCHANGE COLUMN

These boys, originally from Childress, were honored by having their pictures in "The Prairie," WTSC paper.

In a recent copy of "The Bells," student paper of Mary Hardin-Baylor College, Sue Gibson is pictured in a group of students making puppets for an Art Club carnival. Sue was a member of the "Corral" staff when she was a senior in 1945-46.

Boys' Craft Class Makes Leather Belts and Billfolds

The boys in Boys' Craft have turned very artistic with the help of their instructor, Mrs. W. I. Hughes.

They have been working on leather belts and billfolds that vary in design and size. Most of the boys either handcarve their name or initial or nickname on the back with flowers or a pretty design on the side. You will see some with the background dyed a pretty color or some just natural.

The process of leather work is very interesting. The leather is placed on a block of marble and the designs are beat into them with tools and hammer. The leather has to be wet. They are later dyed and neat lacked.

'Round-Up' Staff Sends First Shipment of Copy

The "Round-Up" staff is sending the first shipment of copy for the annual which will include the faculty, class pictures, and advertising.

The annual is starting to make group pictures, beginning with the band.

RUBINOFF THRILLS CHS WITH TWO PERFORMANCES

Childress High School was greatly honored by the presence of Rubinoff and his violin for two splendid performances Wednesday morning and afternoon.

His program, enthusiastically received by the students, included premier performances of "Warsaw concerto", "Clair de Lune," "Rhapsody in Blue," and Chopin's "Polonaise" (Opus 53).

His own "Dance of the Russian Peasant" was given at the morning assembly when he rendered some words of advice to the effect that work by inspiration was the only way to greatness and accomplishment.

Other selections that were presented were "Hora Staccato," "Fiddlin The Fiddle," and nine variations of "Don't Fence Me In."

The encore for the performance was Victor Herbert's unpublished arrangement of "Blue Danube Waltz."

The versatile M. Alexander, Rubinoff's accompanist, presented two solos, "Boogie Woogie Etude" and "Lieberstraun." His sparkling piano playing found an appreciative audience in the students.

Rubinoff's violin, a Stradivarius insured for $100,000, was reproduced in miniature on a cardboard which he autographed for 50 students after his performance.

The students and faculty of CHS are grateful to the Lions Club for making this unforgettable performance a reality.

Student ushers for his night performance were Lenora Fowler, Billye Purcell, Winna Belle Castleberry, Patsy Shoemaker, Delores Wright and Barbara Pigford.

Bank Presents School With Copies of Documents

The First National Bank is due thanks for timely and interesting reproductions of famous American documents given to the school.

Among these documents, now in the library, are many that are familiar to every student—"Washington's Farewell Address," Thomas Jefferson's rough draft of the "Declaration of Independence," Tom Paine's "American Crisis" and "Common Sense" that helped inspire colonists to victory over England.

An excerpt from Washington's account book in which was listed his expenses as commander-in-chief is unusual as is General Joseph Warren's certification of Paul Revere as an official messenger of the Committee of Safety.

Juniors, Seniors Of Baptist Church Feted At Banquet

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet given by the First Baptist Church in honor of the Juniors and seniors of that church and their guests presented in the Educational Building of the church Monday, November 14.

Rev. W. H. Colson acted as toastmaster and Mrs. J. B. Johnson gave the welcome address. Johnny Baker and Shirley Adams, senior students, gave the response and thanks to the WMU, who were hostesses of the formal dinner. A piano and vocal solo followed the response.

The program theme of College Days, Happy Days was given by Mrs. Johnson in her speech describing the nine Baptist schools. Dorothy Dudley, Cathryn Alexander, Billie Pennell, Jeanne Milner, June Sartin, and Joyce Lowe, sophomore girls, represented these schools by carrying pennants.

Special guests were seated at the head table which was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers The guests included Superintendent Joe Gibson, Principal and Mr.. Roe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Rowden Jefferies and Miss Nellie Agnes Kennedy.

The menu of tomato juice cocktails, roast turkey, dressing and gibblet gravy, green beans, potato-apple salad, cranberry sauce, French bread, pie and tea was served to approximately 100 persons.

Doak Walker Repeats On United Press All-American

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (UP)—The United Press today presents its 1949 All-American football team, selected by ballots from 313 sports writers and sports broadcasters in all sections of the nation.

The midwest with seven players dominates the team of 11 collegians chosen as the finest football players at their positions this year. But every section of the country is represented with the far West, South, Southwest and East each getting one berth on the mythical team.

End Leon Hart, who led the voting and was named on all but four of the 313 ballots; and backs Emil Sitko and Robert Williams are the Notre Dame all-stars.

Minnesota was the only other school to win more than one berth, placing tackle Leo Nomellini and center Clayton Tonnemaker. The other Midwest representatives are guard Edward Bagdon of Michigan State and tackle Alvin Wistert of Michigan.

Rounding out the "dream" team are back Doak Walker of Southern Methodist; back Arnold Galiffa of Army; guard Rod Granz of California and end Arthur Weiner of North Carolina.

Walker, Hart, Nomellini and Wistert are repeaters from the United Press 1948 All-America team while Franz made the second team last year. Of all the players on the 1949 all-star aggregation still playing collegiate football, only one failed to make it again, Charley (Choo Choo) Justice of North Carolina.

Justice was nosed out by Galiffa for the fourth backfield berth in the closest contest of the balloting. In the next closest race, Wistert beat out James Martin of Notre Dame for a tackle spot and Weiner won over James (Froggy) Williams of Rice for an end position.

Under the point system the player receiving the first place vote of every person participating in the nation-wide poll would get 3443 points.

E. Leon Hart, Notre Dame, 3369; t. Leo Nomellini, Minnesota, 2263; g. Rod Franz, California, 1876; c. Clayton Tonnemaker, Minnesota, 2400.

G. Edward Bagdon, Mich. State, 1622; t. Alvin Wistert, Michigan, 1847; e. Arthur Weiner, N. Carolina, 1401.

B. Emil Sitko, Notre Dame, 2569; b. Doak Walker, S. Methodist, 2473; b. Robert Williams, Notre Dame, 1834; b. Arnold Galiffa, army, 1799.

The second team, with the number of points each player received: E. James Williams, Rice, 1044; t. James Martin, Notre Dame, 1593; g. Stanley West Oklahoma, 917; c. Joseph Watson, Rice, 486.

G. George Toneff, Ohio State, 599; t. Wade Walker, Oklahoma, 1138; e. Dan Foldberg, army, 1082; b. Charles Justice, North Carolina, 1742.

B. Lynn Chandnois, Michigan State, 1146; b. Charles Ortmann, Michigan, 1076; b. Edward Lebaron, Coll of Pacific; 766.

Joe Louis Seems Preparing Again For A Comeback

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 23 (UP)—Joe Louis, perhaps grooming for another shot at the heavyweight crown he gave up last March, pointed today toward his third no-decision fight after permitting young Joe Cheshul to last 10 rounds last night.

Louis insisted he was not making a comeback--but the fight mob took his denials with a grain of salt in view of the steady exhibition schedule he has arranged.

"I'll fight exhibitions because I don't train for them," the former champion said. "I don't mind fightin, I don't like trainin'."

During the pursuit of the fair-skinned youngster from Bayonne, N. J., Louis "opened up" only in the fifth and last rounds. He brought bursts of laughter from 5500 fans by back-pedalling in the ninth.

Louis, blubbery about the waist and considerably off on his timing, floored Cheshul twice in the fifth round and gashed the corner of his left eye. A left hook dropped Cheshul for a count of nine and a grazing right to the kidney sent the Bayonne galloper to one knee for no count. The left eye bled freely in every round thereafter.

Tom Rogers Eked Out At Finish Line In Austin Race

By United Press

Childress High School's Tom Rogers, top distance runner now for the University of Texas was nipped in the final ten yards in a long 2.6-mile run at Austin yesterday, and came in second by a mere one-tenth of a second behind Julain Herring of Texas A&M, who set a new course record.

James Brown of Arkansas was third.

Herring's time was 11:53.1.

Texas A&M won its second straight cross-country championship, placing five men in the first 10 finishers. Arkansas was second, Texas third, and Southern Methodist fourth.

Slingin' Sammy Signs Another Football Contract

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (UP)—Slingin' Sammy Baugh, his 1950 contract with the Washington Redskins already signed, today insisted "I have no idea when I'll quit."

The agile and ageless passing master of the National Football League yesterday signed to play his 41th consecutive season with the Redskins.

Following the signing, the 35-year-old Texan said ,"I'll play as long as I feel good. Right now I feel fine, so why quit?"

Baugh confessed he once considered playing professional baseball. He figured he'd play football for a year or two and then switch to the diamond sport.

'I might have," he said, "but I found out I could throw a football better than I could throw a curve."

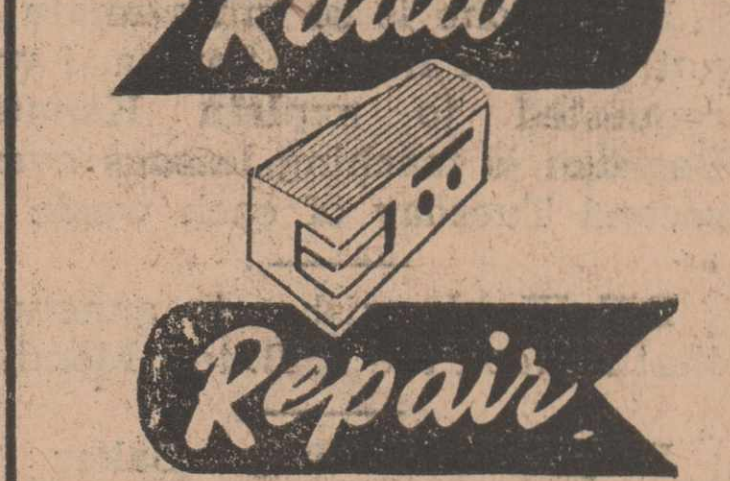

Baugh's longevity record in professional football is topped only by two other players. Johnny Blood lasted 15 seasons with Pittsburgh, Green Bay and Philadelphia, while Mel Mein played 14 years with the New York Giants.

Michie Wins Tickets To Pony-Irish Game

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Michie will spend a gift week end in Dallas and see the SMU-Notre Dame football game as a result of the insurance-selling abilities of the four-man team of which Michie was a member.

All Fidelity Union Life Insurance Company salesmen were divided into teams of four over the state. The prize went to the team selling the most insurance during October.

Bill Lee, A. C. McFraland and W. J. Frohner were the other members of the winning team.

Bobcats Taper Off For Quanah Game

Childress gridmen were in for a light dress rehearsal this afternoon after two days of scrimmage.

Yesterday the Bobcats got a look at the Quanah ground game, which features ramming Charles Radford and some promising sophomore talent.

Coaches Don Ezell and Ralph Porter handed down a "satisfactory" progress report after yesterday's last hard session, but warned the Bobcats would have to be functioning at their best Thursday afternoon to take care of the rejuvenated Indians.

"The rivalry between Childress and Quanah is sharp," Ezell said. "I look for one of the hardest-fought games of the year."

Last year's 0-0 tie between the two rivals bears out the Bobcat mentor's observation—an underdog Indian eleven played its best game of the year to wreck Bobcat pennant hopes.

Some unofficial talk about Quanah being forced down to Class A after this season may give the Indians added incentive to take this last game of the year.

For the Bobcats, eight lads will be playing out their string Thursday. Backs Kenneth Buckley and Johnny Baker ,and linemen Granville King, Billy Don Hall, Jack Owen, Harold Wright, Kenneth Bearden, and Gail Long will all write thirty to their high-school grid days.

For Quanah, Radford and four other starters will be out to finish their terms — linemen Chester Whitfield, Charlie White and James Tate, and back Dan Roark.

Quanah will enter the fray with its starting eleven intact, having escaped injuries in two scrimmage sessions this week.

British Discuss Throne Ascension

LONDON, Nov. 23 (UP)—British legal circles said today that Princess Margaret would have just as much right to the throne as her elder sister, Princess Elizabeth, when King George VI dies.

But no one belived Margaret would claim that right. As one shocked Englishman said:

"It just wouldn't be cricket!"

A lawyer who signed himself only as "M. J." raised the issue in a letter to the law journal, one of Britain's leading weekly legal magazines.

He contended that there is no hard and fast rule by which the British crown, in event of no male issue, must go to the eldest of a king's daughters.

Crewmen Quell Flame To Save Large Freighter

SEATTLE, Nov. 23 (UP)—The S. S. Eagle, a Panamanian freighter, reported early today that crewmen had won a fight to extinguish a fire that had threatened to destry the 10,000 ton vessel.

The fire, which started in the ship's engine room, was put out just two hours before the U. S. Army Transport General Freeman arrived alongside the Eagle.

The crew, normally about 40 men, had been prepared to abandon ship. Lifeboats had been lowered in case the men were forced to flee suddenly.

The Freeman raced through heavy seas to reach the stricken merchantman. Coast guard headquarters here reported that the Eagle said "no medical assistance was required," indicating none of the crew was injured in the fight against the flames.

The Eagle, commanded by Capt. N. S. Ousondis, caught fire about 360 miles west of Cape Flattery, Wash. She was bound for Longview, Wash., from Susan, Korea, to pick up a general cargo for shipment to Vancouver, B. C. Her holds were empty on the run from the Orient.

Temperatures To Be Mild For Thanksgiving

By United Press

Fair to partly cloudy skies with mild temperatures are in store for Texas for Thanksgiving, the Dallas Federal Weather Bureau predicted today.

Temperatures this morning were somewhat warmer than yesterday but a few points reported subfreezing readings including Dalhart and Salt Flat with 29 degrees and Wink and Ozona with 31. It was 32 at Midland, 34 at Childress and Big Spring, 37 at El Paso and Amarillo, 44 at Dallas and Austin, 45 at Houston, 50 at San Antonio and 69 at Laredo.

Yesterday's high was 73 degrees at Brownsville with Texarkana reporting the low maximum of 55.

Considerable cloudiness was reported in extreme South Texas this morning; it was cloudy to partly cloudy in the Austin-San Antonio-Corpus Christi-Brownsville area and clear in the North and West Texas.

No rain has been reported in the state the past 24 hours. Not much change in temperatures was forecast for West Texas but slightly warmer weather was expected in East Texas.

Senator Favors German Army As Defense Measure

PARIS, Nov. 23 (UP)—U. S. Sen. Elmer Thomas, D., Okla., said today he favors recruiting and arming a limited number of German divisions to help defend western Europe.

"I would be agreeable to discussing the matter with the German government," he said. "However, I would not favor starting on a military program in Germany which would require the construction of factories to make armaments of any kind.

"I hope that very soon we can have an agreement with the nations of the world, not only to renounce war, but to stop preparation for war.

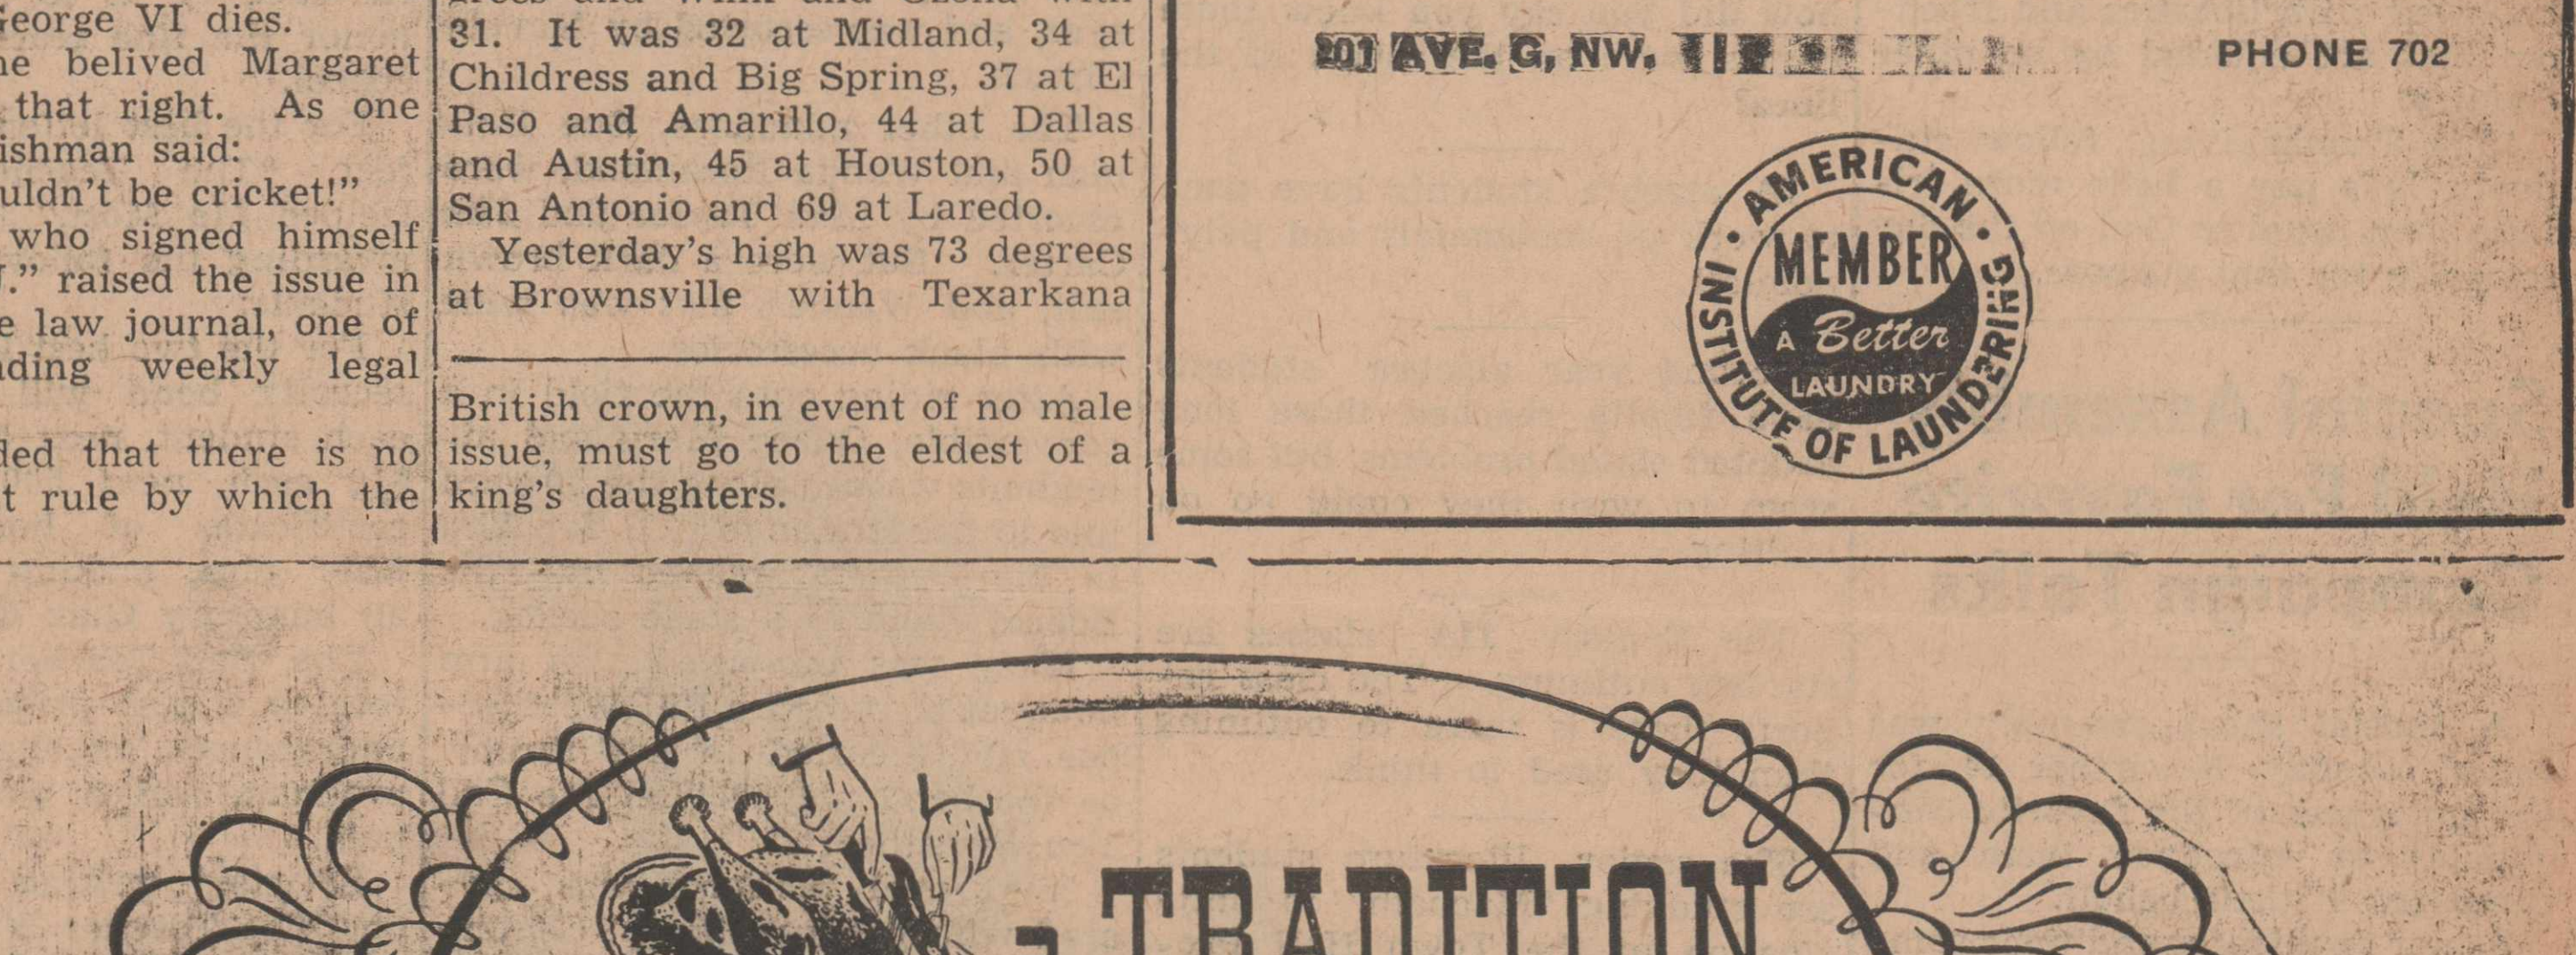

Thomas came here with six other members of the armed services subcommittee of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

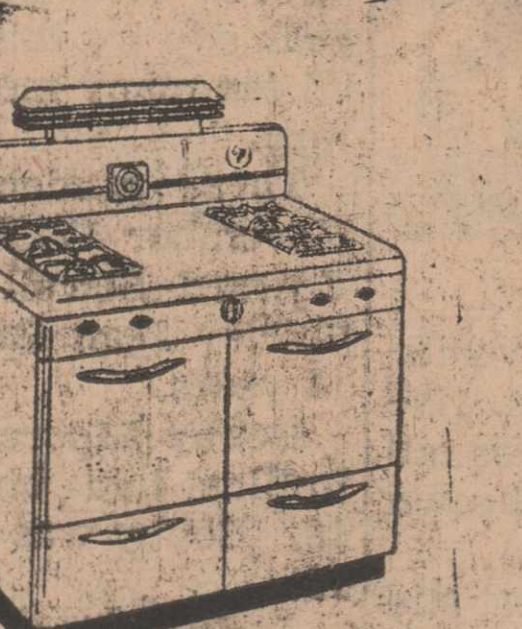

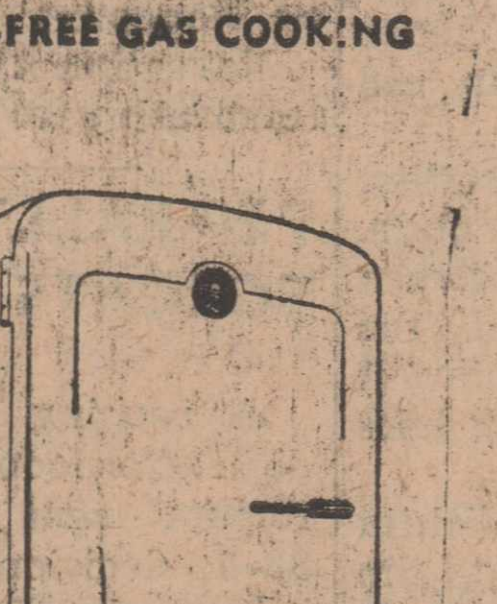

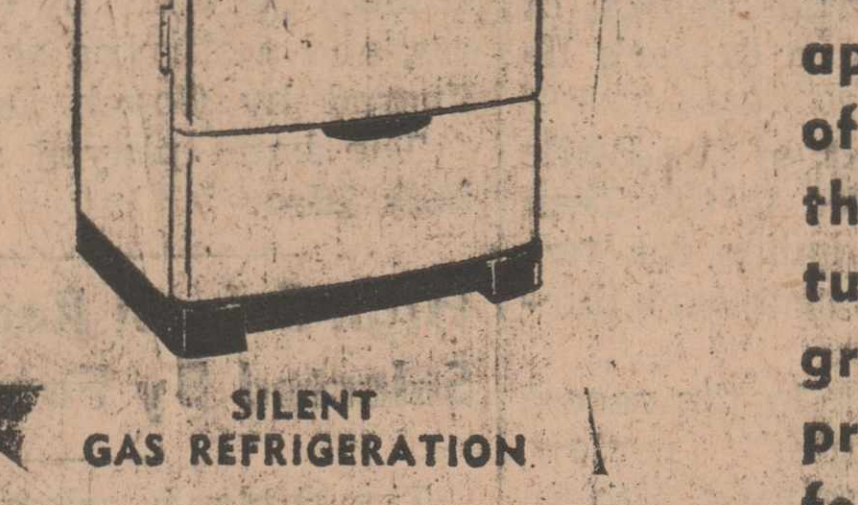

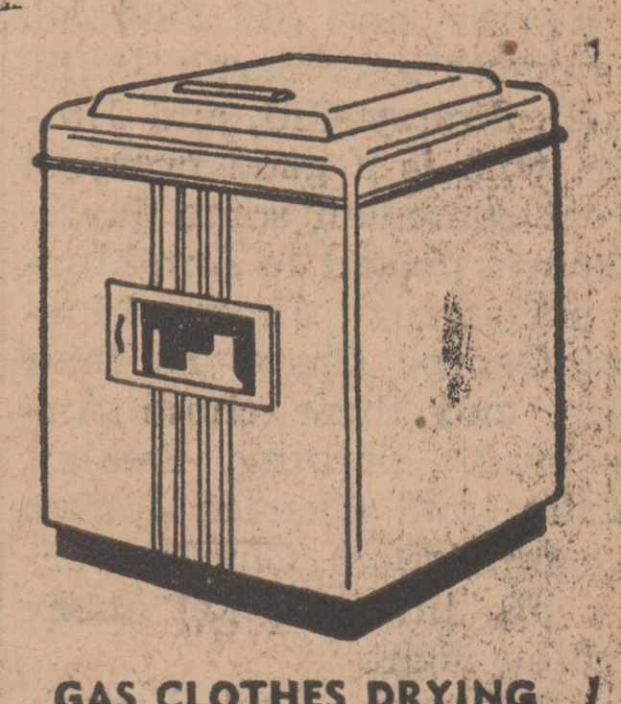

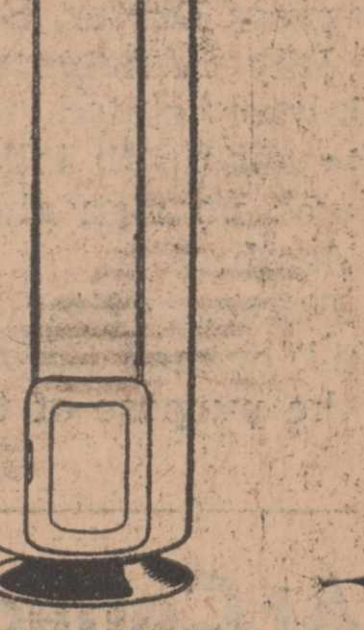

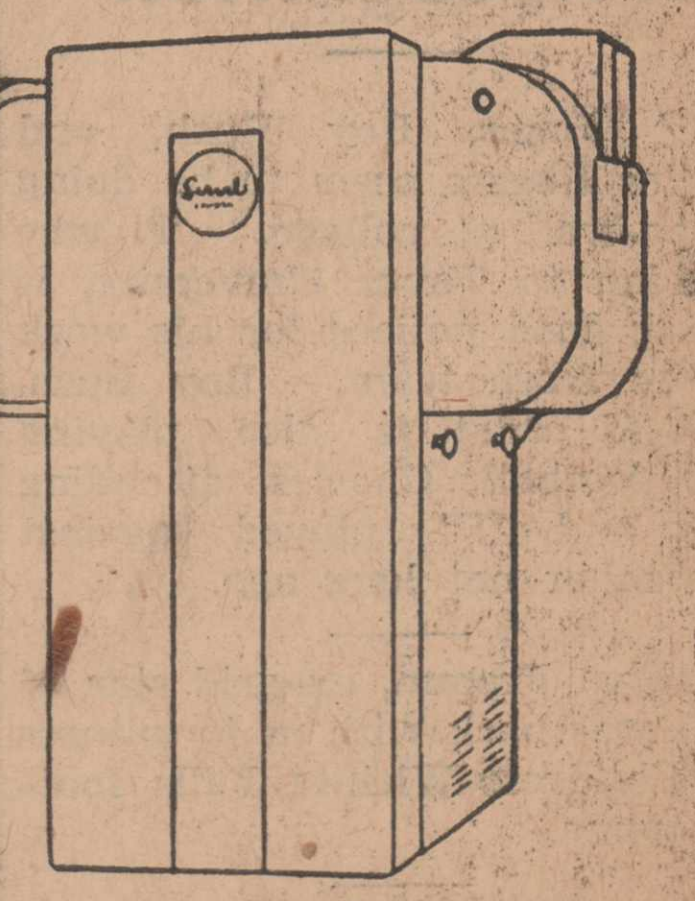

He said he would be agreeable to Spain becoming a member of the Atlantic Pact. Another subcommittee member, Sen. Dennis Chavez, D., N. M., said there is "no reason whatsoever" why Spain should not be included "in the scheme of things."

"We have an ambassador in Moscow," Chavez said. "Why not one in Spain?"

Eisenhower Says He Will Not Run

CINCINATI, Nov. 23 (UP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower says he has absolutely no political aspirations, much less hopes for a spot on the 1952 presidential ticket.

"I'm not in politics, I haven't been in politics and I'm not going to be," Eisenhower said on his arrival here last night to address a group of Columbia University alumni. He denied he was in the hometown of Sen. Robert A. Taft, R., O. to sound out the possibility of an Eisenhower-Taft presidential ticket.

"I'm not invading Taft's territory," the president of Columbia University said.

Barkleys To Stay Until December 2

SEA ISLAND, Ga., Nov. 23 (UP)—Vice-President Alben Barkley and his bride said today they would honeymoon here until December 2, when Barkley must return to New York to speak at a Jackson-Jefferson Day dinner.

The Veep and the former Mrs. Carleton Hadley of St. Louis won their first real privacy here since they were wed Friday. Guards kept visitors at a distance except for a brief period yesterday when the couple received callers.

Anyway You Look At It, The Boy Is Not Guilty

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 23 (UP) A federal court jury here followed the instructions of the presiding judge, but in their own way.

The judge had asked the jury to return a verdict of not guilty in a Dyer (car theft) Act case.

The jury foreman reported: "We find the boy that stole that car not guilty, your honor."

ed to lay the foundation for a plea of self-defense.

Taylor and Skelton related the testimony of a state witness, purporting to show that Mason had his hands on either Smithwick's hands or the gun prior to the fatal shot being fired.

The testimony, Taylor said, "raises the issue of self defense."

He told the court that testimony does not "reflect in one instance any words or conduct prior to this meeting (at which Mason was fatally shot) on which malice aforethought can be based."

Reams, protesting granting of bond, told the court that testimony showed Smithwick ordered Avelina Saenz, who was accompanying Mason, from the car.

However, Reams said that before Saenz could comply, a shot was fired.

If Mason laid hands on Smithwick or his gun, the actions were "protective motions," the district attorney said.

"Creek Bottom" Progress

The City Council's acceptance of a contractor's bid to pave "Creek Bottom Street" is going to benefit more people than just those living in the area. This makes the Council's move especially sensible. But we see further developments which will call for further Council action.

First, a traffic light most probably will have to be installed at the intersection of Third Street and Avenue G. Secondly, another entrance into the park grounds will have to be cut at the park end of Third Street.

Thirdly, paving, or some sort of hard surfacing, with gutter and curbs, will have to be laid on the one block, now dirt, between Third Street and Commerce Street on Avenue I. This will be necessary because the damage done to "Creek Bottom Street" by heavy water will possibly now be done to Avenue I, because the new pavement is merely transferring the heavy water to another area before it can rip into a dirt surface.

But these bridges can be crossed when they appear. Right now we are happy to see that the immediate step has been taken.

Mexican Workers

It is gratifying to witness the non-discriminatory actions of Childress people toward the large numbers of Mexicans who have been here during the cotton season.

The cotton crop would not have been picked had these Mexicans not helped. This can easily be seen when it is learned that there were about 3400 Mexicans in the fields and only 1500 other workers—over two Mexicans to one other picker.

It is true that the Mexican was not being philanthropic by coming here. He was after wages. But it was a business deal, this contract between the Mexican and the farmer, and each gave what he had in return for what the other had.

But by that very deal, the farmer does not automatically step into a higher category than his employe, and Childress farmers obviously have recognized this. Nor does the American climb into the higher category simply because he is an American and his employe is a Mexican.

Mexicans in the Childress area have proof of this. They pull cotton here, then come into town to have their hair cut. Just south of Childress they aren't allowed in barber shops.

In Childress, they may attend any of the motion picture theaters. South of here they cannot. Not all, apparently, but at least one cafe there refuses to serve Mexicans. They may eat in Childress.

These small bits of discrimination by the white race over the Mexican are fundamentally wrong as well as being perhaps foolish in event of war. The Communists are working hard on the anti-American feeling in Mexico. The 'Reds' would like free access in Mexico from where they could direct Communist Party activities in this country. Such aims by the Soviets are not dreams—they are being undertaken now.

When Americans stoop to unfair treatment of the Mexican, they are helping the cause of the Communist. That's clear. Yet the idea never enters the thoughts of many who practice it.

Although there are no Mexican nationals here legally, those who are here, together with the thousands of Texas Mexicans will gain a good impression of this area by the treatment they have been receiving. Childress has been treating them fairly. This is both sensible and right.

12-Year-Old Air Crash Survivor Is Certain His Escape Is "A Miracle"

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 23 (UP)—A 12-year-old boy with a skinned nose told doctors at Drammen hospital today that "a miracle" saved him when all 34 others aboard died in the crash of a Dutch mercy plane three days ago.

Doctors and rescue squads were inclined to agree.

Little Isaac Allam, a French-speaking Jewish refugee from the slums of North Africa, was found yesterday trapped beneath the tail of the wrecked DC-3 on rugged Hurum peninsula some 20 miles from Oslo. It had crashed Sunday.

Isaac had lain there, pressed against the damp earth, for more than 40 hours. Around him were scattered the bodies of 27 other Jewish refugee children from Africa, three women nurses and four crewmen.

Among the bodies were those of two of his brothers and one of his sisters. All had been bound for Norway for rehabilitation before going on to new homes in Israel.

Pale and weary, Isaac told doctors at the hospital over and over again:

"A miracle. We were flying in a circle . . . all the other children are dead . . . "

He hardly touched sandwiches brought him, but munched a chocolate apple given him by a home guard lieutenant who helped pull him from the wreckage of the plane.

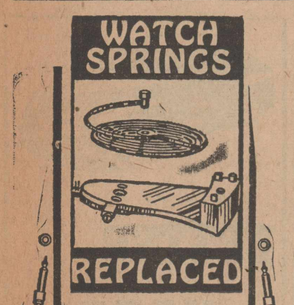

The story of the rescue was told by Hilding Martinsen, who with another lumberjack, T. Hagen, was the first to reach the plane.

"We were searching the woods when suddenly we heard a noise, like someone weeping," he said. "We came upon the plane, and there under the tail was a child.

"He lay stuck beneath the earth and the plane, with his face pressed against the raw earth. He could not move. Pieces of aluminum and parts of a chair had trapped him.

"I tried at first to dig him out from underneath, but did not succeed. Then I pried the aluminum up and started pulling the boy up.

"It was 20 minutes before I had him in my arms. His left arm was numb and white, and his nose was skinned. But he was not hurt elsewhere."

Air Force Studies Plans For Huge Transport Plane

FORT WORTH, Nov. 23 (UP)—The air force is studying designs for a long-range transport version of the B-36 to fly nonstop from eastern U. S. bases to western Europe with 100,000-pound payloads.

Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp., manufacturers of the B-36, made the announcement here today.

Company officials said the proposed C-99 could haul larger loads, both in size and weight, over longer ranges than any other aircraft.

Design proposals for a production model were submitted to the air force a few months after an earlier experimental C-99 was delivered. Revisions in transport requirements demanded changes in the finished model, spokesmen explained.

The newer design called for higher horsepower engines, easier loading through nose and rail doors, a 57 per cent increase in usable cargo space, a pressurized crew compartment and upper deck and a B-36 type flight deck.

The C-99 would require about 70 per cent of the parts now used by the B-36. Its wingspread would be the same as the mammoth bomber, 230 feet, but its double-decked fuselage would be longer and considerably larger.

On shorter flights, a maximum payload of 116,000 pounds could be hauled.

The proposed air freighter has 21,715 cubic feet of usable cargo space and could transport 401 fully equipped troops. Converted to a hospital plane, it could accomodate 343 litter patients and 33 attendants.

An entire airborne division, approximately 17,500 men, could be moved simultaneously in 44 of the planes.

Convict Escapes To Ask "Partner" To Admit Crime

NORTH ARLINGTON, N. J., Nov. 23 (UP)—A recaptured convict who fled an Ohio prison farm September 28 told police today he was trying to reach the man for whom " I took the rap" in a hold-up-slaying 15 years ago.

John Malone, 31, sentenced to life imprisonment at the age of 16, was arrested yesterday and held for Cleveland authorities.

"I was coming back to talk things over with my partner who did the actual shooting," Malone said. "He lives in Newark."

"I didn't fire the shot," Malone said. "I took the rap for him once and felt that he might be willing to tell the truth."

Third Baby Born Over The Atlantic

STORNOWAY, Isle of Lewis, Herbrides, Nov. 23 (UP)—Doctors reported today the third baby born in an airplane over the Atlantic in recent weeks.

They reported that the mother, Mrs. Margaret McLelland, 39, and her baby were in satisfactory condition at a Stornoway maternity hospital.

Mrs. McLelland, a resident of the Island of South Uist, in the Outer Hebrides, was being rushed to Stornoway aboard an ambulance plane last night when the birth occurred.

A nurse from the Southern General Hospital delivered the eight-pound boy herself on the floor of the De Havilland Rapide plane.
