South Borden Wildcat Gets Flowing Oil

— Co. of Midland has found flowing oil in the Pennsylvanian reef lime at the No. 1-B Beal, South Borden County wildcat.

The project ran a two and one-half hour drillstem test from 7,659-711 feet. Gas surfaced in five minutes with no gauge or estimate on the volume. Mud came to the top in one hour and six minutes and oil began to flow out at the surface in one hour and 10 minutes. The oil was flowed to pits for one hour and 20 minutes at the estimated rate of 20 barrels per hour. When the tester was pulled, recovery was 2,460 feet of oil and 422 feet of water from an undetermined source. Some observers think the water was from the drilling fluid.

The flow during the test came through a five-eighth-inch bottom choke and a one-inch top choke. Flowing pressure was between 950 and 1,500 pounds with one-hour shutin pressure 3,125 pounds.

Operator is now to set and cement five and one-half-inch casing at approximately 7,665 feet and complete from the open hole.

Location is 862.5 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 23-31-t3n-T&P, 14 miles south of Gail and two and three-quarter miles southwest of the Pancho Mag Pennsylvanian field. It is three-eighths of a mile northwest of Hanley No. 1 Beal which is continuing to test for completion after pumping 63.6 barrels of oil with 35 barrels of water in 18 hours.

Gail Druggist Hurt In Wreck

David Dorward, 81, proprietor of the drug store at Gail, was injured in an automobile accident there yesterday afternoon. He was taken by Bolger ambulance to Price Hospital in Lamesa.

Extent of his injuries was not known here today, but he was believed not seriously hurt.

E. W. Green, highway patrolman who investigated the accident, said Dorward was alone in his 1950 Plymouth coupe when it and an eastbound 1953 Ford sedan driven by Roland Clay Bearden, 21, of Compton, Calif., collided.

Dorward was traveling south on Farm Road 669 and crossing U. S. Highway 180 in front of his store. The right side of the Plymouth and the front of the Ford were damaged in the collision. After the cars collided, the Plymouth plunged through a vacant building, Green said.

Most of Dorward's injuries were suffered when the car struck the edge of a partition in the old building.

Cynthia Ann Bearden, 2, daughter of the other driver, was slightly injured. She was brought to Battenfield Hospital by a passing motorist but was released after treatment.

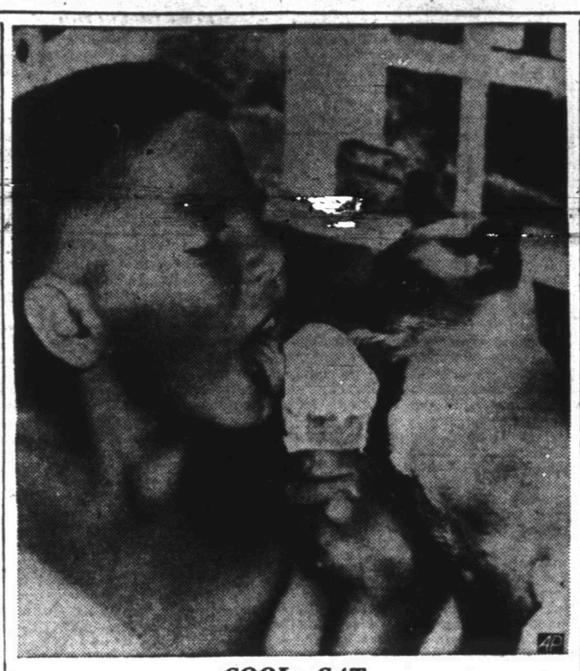

Also in the Bearden car were the child's mother and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCullers, Jr., also of California.

The accident occurred at 6:15 o'clock.

Solons Facing Delay In Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans for congressional leaders to wind up the present session within two weeks today faced a threat of foundering on four disputed items in President Eisenhower's program: tax and Atomic Energy Act revision, housing and farm programs.

A belief was growing that it might require at least a week of August to clear the decks for adjournment which would free members to concentrate on the election campaign.

The Senate spent four long days last week debating the administration bill to revise the Atomic Energy Act. It was called back two hours early today with the end not yet in sight.

The major issue: Should Congress act to cancel an Eisenhower directive for the Atomic Energy Commission to contract with a private utility group for power in the Tennessee Valley Authority area. A small band of Democrats, with the support of several Republicans are leading a fight for such a move.

A Senate-House conference committee finished work Friday on a compromise housing bill, from which it stripped Senate provisions to carry out the President's program for building 35,000 public housing units a year for four years. The compromise contains authority for 35,000 units in one year, with occupancy limited to families dispossessed by slum clearance projects.

Moves to reject the compromise are regarded as likely in both branches. In the House, opponents of public housing probably will try to knock out even the revised provision. In the Senate, friends of public housing will try to send the measure back to conference to restore the four-year program.

A tax revision bill which Eisenhower calls the keystone of his program is still in a conference committee. The group made remarkable progress last week in resolving differences, but the knottiest issue remains. It involves proposed tax reductions to be given shareholders on their dividends from stock.

The House voted for administration recommendations, but the Senate adopted a much less liberal treatment for dividend income. Acceptance of one version or the other might lead to trouble when the final bill goes before the House and Senate for approval.

Chairman Aiken (R-Vt) of the Senate Agriculture Committee announced last night he will seek Senate approval of a compromise farm bill which would authorize flexible price supports between 80 and 90 per cent of parity.

City Sets Up Speed Signs

New speed zone signs have been installed and new legal speed limits are in effect on highway streets through Snyder, Walter Suttle, police chief, said.

Suttle said the new signs were installed late last week by the state highway department.

The new speed limits permit higher maximum speeds on highway streets near the edges of town.

The new speed limits on Avenue S through Snyder are: from the south city limits to Thirty-seventh Street, 45 miles per hour; Thirty-seventh Street to Thirty - first Street, 40 mph; Thirty-first Street to Twentieth Street, 30 mph; Twentieth Street to Thirteenth Street, 35 mph; Thirteenth Street to a point .2 miles south of the north city limits on the Lubbock Highway, 40 mph; and from that point to the north city limits, 50 mph.

On the east-west highway street through town the new limits are: from the city limits on the east highway to Avenue A, 45 mph; from Avenue A to avenue F, 40 mph; from Avenue F to Avenue W, 30 mph; from Avenue W to Avenue Z, 35 mph; and from Avenue Z to the west city limits 40 mph. A speed zone of 50 miles per hour extends to a point .2 miles west of the city limits.

City Has 104 Reading

A week end of hot weather was climaxed by a high temperature of 104 degrees in Snyder yesterday. Friday and Saturday both had high readings of 100 degrees. A low of 71 degrees was recorded early today, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said, and at 7:30 the temperature had risen to 78 degrees.

Chance Dim As Mendes-France Launches Final Round Of Duel

Young Demo 'Loyalists' Recognized

By The Associated Press

The "loyalist" faction of Texas Youth Democrats won the blessing Sunday of the organization's National Executive Committee.

Gov. Allan Shivers and spokesmen for the "conservative" faction immediately protested the committee's action at Providence, R.I.

The committee voted 61 to 0 to recognize the loyalists and reject the conservatives. Eleven committee members did not vote.

Shivers learned about it while he was campaigning for governor at McAllen. He immediately fired a statement saying "this is another example of the thought control tactics I have been talking about." He promised a fight.

Generally, the loyalists are those who supported Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson for president in 1952. The conservatives are those who, with Shivers, switched to GOP nominee Dwight Eisenhower. A similar split prevails among the senior party members in Texas.

Shivers said the conservative group had defeated the loyalists in convention in Texas under "rules agreed upon in a meeting presided over by Mrs. H. Weinert of Seguin, a Stevenson supporter two years ago." Mrs. Weinert is Democratic national committeeman from Texas.

"This is another example of the thought control tactics I have been talking about," said Shivers. "After we beat them, following those rules, they changed the rules at the national convention."

The committee endorsement of its Credentials Committee action was praised by Oscar Mauzy, a member of the loyalist delegation to Providence, as "a complete repudiation of Gov. Shivers and his domination of Texas politics."

Mauzy said his group, armed with recognition, will seek to organize all young party members who will take a "loyalty oath" to party nominees.

Boys Ranch Goes Fishing

AMARILLO, July 19 (AP)—Because the owner of a fishing boat service saw two lonely little boys on a pier a year ago, Boys Ranch is going deep sea fishing.

The boys of the ranch were en route today to Freeport, where Gilbert Darland, owner of the boat service, and other Freeport citizens will treat the youngsters to a fishing excursion.

Darland about a year ago noticed two small boys, Buster Bones, 5, and his brother, Danny, 6, playing on the piers. He learned they were practically homeless and he and his wife brought them to Boys Ranch last August.

This year he thought it would be a good idea to give the youngsters and their buddies a fishing trip. Freeport residents are helping. The Burlington Railway agreed to furnish transportation to Houston and buses will take them on to Freeport.

Few Showers Pepper State

By The Associated Press

Lonesome little thundershowers peppered a few areas of Texas Sunday but did little to relieve Texas' current heat wave, which by Monday had directly taken at least five lives.

At only one place did a storm of major size develop. It struck at Tatum in East Texas Sunday night, accompanied by hail, lightning and heavy rain. The storm wrecked a brick gymnasium, damaged several homes, knocked in store windows, blew down trees and overturned an automobile. No one was hurt. The town was without power for two hours and telephone service was disrupted.

Nearby Marshall was cooled by a brief shower. At the other extreme of the state, Lubbock received .03 of an inch of rain, Amarillo .29 and Dalhart .21.

Temperatures soared again Sunday. Presidio and Mineral Wells reported 106 degrees, Wichita Falls 104, Texarkana 103, Tyler 102, Junction, Lufkin, Abilene and Waco 101 and Austin 100.

Forecast was for more scattered showers Monday and not much change in temperatures.

Absentee Vote Rate Increases Sharply

By noon today, 248 persons had voted here by absentee ballot in the first Democratic Party primary.

Today is the last day for absentee balloting. The voting place, the office of the county clerk, is to close at the regular time of 5 o'clock this afternoon, but ballots mailed in and postmarked by midnight tonight are to be counted.

All persons otherwise qualified to vote in the election, which is to be held Saturday, but who cannot be present at the polls may vote by absentee ballot.

TOO MUCH HEAT

Two policemen carry Miss Moana Manley, "Miss New Zealand" in the Miss Universe beauty contest in Los Angeles, to a building after she fainted under a broiling California sun while posing with other entrants for a group picture. The New Zealand girl, whose country now is in the midst of its winter season, was the first of a number of girls who collapsed from the heat.

FLANDERS WILL DELAY MOTION

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) announced today he will defer until July 30 the motion he had planned for tomorrow asking the Senate to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

Flanders said he is holding up actual introduction of his resolution of censure at the request of Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), senior Democratic member of McCarthy's Senate Investigations subcommittee, and because he wants the vote on it to be "as massive and bipartisan as possible."

Another reason, the Vermont senator said in a statement, is concern expressed by "the Republican leadership" lest his resolution stir up a fight which might hurt action on the President's legislative program in these probably closing weeks of the Congress session.

Flanders said he will proceed, however, to deliver in the Senate tomorrow a speech about his resolution. He had made public the text of the speech over the weekend.

Before Flanders' announcement, Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) had expressed concern that President Eisenhower's legislative program might be completely blocked if the Senate got into extended debate on the proposal to censure McCarthy.

The Senate Republican leader told reporters after the weekly meeting of legislative leaders with the President that the censure move, by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt), thus could wreck plans for Congress to adjourn at the end of this month.

Knowland said he hoped voting could begin today on the administration's atomic energy bill, which has been held up by a dispute over the President's order that the Atomic Energy Commission arrange to feed private power into the Tennessee Valley Authority system.

The GOP leader was asked if a special session of Congress might be called to act on proposals that West Germany be given full sovereignty.

Knowland said he thought it unlikely. He said the subject might be covered by a resolution before Congress adjourns, but that it is possible no legislative action will be needed.

Fire Sweeps Through Plant At Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — Fire fanned by a stiff wind swept through the American Crossarm & Conduit Co. plant south of here today, destroying two buildings and nearly half a million feet of lumber.

J. R. Childs, manager, said the loss, partly covered by insurance, probably would run between 150 thousand and 200 thousand dollars. The firm makes crossarms for telephone and power poles.

Texarkana firemen answered the call but were [illegible] 20 minutes by a freight train that had stopped across the only road to the plant. Then a bridge over a gully near the plant burned before the firemen could reach it, making it impossible for fire trucks to get within working distance of the burning buildings.

Application Set For Water District Permit

AUSTIN (AP)—Application of the Colorado River Municipal Water District for an amended permit has been set for Aug. 9 by the State Board of Water Engineers.

The district wants the right to use 15,000 acre feet of the 30,000 acre feet it may take from the Colorado River in Scurry County, for the additional purpose of mining and recovery of minerals.

The water board said the application does not involve appropriation of any additional water, nor any change in location of diversion or storage.

Purpose of the new company—"Geophysical Service N.V."—is the operation of oil deposits and the making of machineries and installations in The Netherlands and other countries.

Dies Predicts Approval For Anti-Red Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Dies (D-Tex) said today he believes a proposal to outlaw the Communist party will gain committee approval and House passage by the end of the week.

The House Judiciary subcommittee has been considering a Dies-sponsored bill with these objectives. A similar measure was introduced last week by Rep. Graham (R-APa), chairman of the judiciary subcommittee which held hearings on the Dies bill.

"Mr. Graham's bill is the same as mine," Dies told a reporter, "but I have no objection to his re-introduction of it. Although it was my bill which had been endorsed by various patriotic organizations, the measure which will be reported out of the committee in all probability will be the Graham bill. It is customary for bills approved by committees to bear the name of a member of the majority party as sponsor."

The pending legislation would outlaw the Communist organization and all affiliated groups or successor organizations and provides for a maximum of 10 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for their members.

Although the administration has heretofore balked at legislation outlawing the Communist party, Dies said he is confident Graham introduced his measure only after getting approval from the House Republican leaders.

Simple Solution To Water Problem Found

HALTOM CITY, Tex. (AP)—City officials solved the water shortage easily yesterday. They simply shut off the water.

The cutoff was ordered when citizens were found watering their lawns despite an ordinance prohibiting it.

The city was without water from 1 to 4 p.m.

"It's going to be unpopular," said Mayor Virgil Goodman. "But if that's what it takes, we're going to do it."

Red Delegates Remain Silent

GENEVA (AP) — French Premier Pierre Mendes-France went today into the final 36 hours of his diplomatic duel with the Communists for peace in Indochina with what a British spokesman described as "a chance, that's all."

Another Western official said he wouldn't even bet on the proposition. The top Communist delegates here kept to themselves.

One high conference source said Mendes-France had pushed away one obstacle to peace in a tentative fashion—the long debated question of the International Commission to police the armistice. This source said the French and the Communists seem to have settled the composition of the commission with Canada, India, and Poland as the members. There would be last minute changes, it was emphasized.

The British, it was reported, will support Mendes-France on this composition. The position of the United States has not been made known. In the past the United States has opposed the inclusion of any Communist states on the commission because of the unhappy results in Korea, where Czechoslovakia and Poland hampered operations of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission with their veto power.

Under the tentative agreement reached by Mendes-France and the Communists, decisions would have to be taken by unanimous vote on any issues which might lead to the resumption of hostilities. Otherwise a simple majority would decide. The conference source emphasized that the agreement was not in its final form.

Progress also was reported unofficially on the question of elections in Viet Nam after the armistice. There were reports the Communists were ready to accept a delay of 18 months. Earlier they had asked for a vote on a new government within six months. The French originally asked for a two-year delay.

There was little doubt that Viet Nam was going to be partitioned somewhere between the 14th and 18th Parallels.

A Viet Namese spokesman said sadly today "there will be a partition and we realize we cannot avoid it."

He said his government still clung to its demand for U. N. supervision of the armistice, but that the issue would be decided "over our heads." He complained again that the Vietnamese "are kept in ignorance of whatever happens."

A high American source said it will be very difficult for the Communists to turn down the offer made by Mendes-France and "still make it appear they want peace."

This source said that if the Communists block Mendes-France's bid they will lose tremendous ground in their effort to win Asia for the Chinese, particularly in India and Burma.

It was reported U.S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith's statement of the U.S. position at yesterday's session of the conference had aroused no objections from the Communist side. Smith stated the United States was prepared to help in arriving at a just and honorable peace and that it would honor its obligations under the U. N. charter in the event of an agreement.

Mendes-France saw Vietnamese Foreign Minister Tran Van Do early today and then went to see British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. He conferred with Bedell Smith later and planned to dine with Eden tonight. The lease on Mendes - France's villa expires Wednesday and there was every indication he was prepared to move out, in or out of office.

The determined French Premier moved tirelessly ahead with his busy round of private conferences in an all-out final effort to make good on his promise to secure a cease-fire by July 20 or resign.

The private sessions of small groups of delegates continued after one of the most puzzling conference sessions yesterday of the 12 weeks of negotiations here.

Called for insistently by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov over the objections of Britain and France, the nine-party session lasted only a little more than an hour and provided no new developments.

Molotov opened the general session yesterday with a summary of the proposals before the conference. He expressed belief that agreement could be reached "with good will on all sides."

But after that opening, only Vietnamese Foreign Minister Tran Van Do and U. S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith asked to speak. Neither Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai nor Vietminh Foreign Minister Pham Van Dong had anything to say.

After Do and Smith were heard, the session broke up for tea and did not resume.

Smith in his brief speech said the United States was willing to assist in reaching a just settlement of the war but would not impose its views on any of the belligerents, whom he described as the principal interested parties.

He said if the conference produced a cease-fire agreement which the United States could respect, it was prepared to issue a declaration emphasizing that it would regard any revival of aggression "with grave concern."

Do voiced again the Vietnamese government's opposition to the partition of his country now being studied by the French and Communist delegations. He asked for U. N. supervision of the whole country, a proposal the Communists already have rejected.

The Vietnamese opposition to partition was underlined in Saigon yesterday by a parade of 10,000 to 12,000 natives parading in protest against any split in their country.

Reliable sources said Rhee will leave for Washington in an American military Constellation plane.

Rhee originally had planned to leave today.

Shivers, Yarborough Both Bid For Vote Of Latin-Americans

By The Associated Press

Ralph Yarborough said Sunday he had been warned that funds are being set up in East Texas "to steal the votes in certain counties."

It was the latest charge in a piping hot race for governor that found Yarborough and Gov. Allan Shivers carrying their campaigning through Sunday as the Democratic primary loomed only five days away.

And both aimed their campaign pleas Sunday to Latin-American voters.

Yarborough did not elaborate on his vote steal charge. His statement: "I've been warned that in East Texas they are setting up money funds there to steal the vote in certain counties."

He added that this means Democrats must win the campaign by at least 100,000 votes. This was another way of hitting at Shivers' support of Republican candidates in the last presidential election.

The charge was made in an address before the convention of the American GI Forum, made up mainly of Latin-American military veterans.

At Mission, where he dedicated a hospital Sunday, Shivers said many voters are switching from Yarborough because "they don't like a campaign based on wild charges without proof and wild promises without substance."

With many Latin-Americans in the audience at the dedication, Shivers said that during his administration, Texas built for Latin-Americans the first tuberculosis hospital ever provided in an area of predominately Latin-American population. He claimed that while he has been governor the death rate from tuberculosis has been reduced from 2,500 five years ago to 1,079 last year.

Yarborough countered at Houston for the Latin-American vote by declaring, "I do not think the Latins have had the participation to which they are entitled. I pledge that as of next January, the Latins will have full participation."

The former Austin district judge said Shivers has become worried and rushed back to the Lower Rio Grande Valley Sunday "to patch up his own fences." He also said Shivers has "done nothing to stop the wetback tide, done nothing to enforce the anti-Communist laws of the state." He said immigration officials recently reported that 100 Communists a day are slipping across the Rio Grande at El Paso.

There were other political developments.

Byron Skelton of Temple urged Sunday that Texas Republicans vote in their own primaries instead of voting "as Democrats in the Democratic primary for fellow-Republican Allan Shivers." He, too, was referring to Shivers' support of Dwight Eisenhower two years ago.

"Republicans have been clamoring for years to make Texas a 2-party state," he said. "If they are sincere in these statements, they will build their own party by voting in their own primary July 24th for Tod Adams, their own candidate for governor.

"If they are insincere on the matter, they will turn their backs on Adams and their own Republican party and vote as Democrats in the Democratic primary for fellow-Republican Allan Shivers who is running as a Democrat. . . ."

Skelton is chairman of the Executive Committee of the Texas Democratic Advisory Council, formed after a split between the state's regular Democratic organization, headed by Shivers, and the national party—again over support of Republican candidates.

McCarthy Starts His One-Man Show

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), sitting as a one-man subcommittee, took up his public pursuit of Communists today for the first time since the McCarthy-Army hearings sidetracked him.

His target was subversives in defense plants in the Boston area. His witness: James W. Glatis who said he joined the Communist party as a counterspy for the FBI.

McCarthy launched the hearings despite:

1. Opposition from a majority of his seven-member subcommittee on grounds there should be a staff "housecleaning" before any new official activity.

2. A pending move by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) to censure him for the way he has conducted hearings in the past. This is due to come up on the Senate floor tomorrow, but Senate GOP leader Knowland (Calif) indicated today he would try to push it aside. Knowland said he was concerned that lengthy debate on the censure move might wreck plans for Congress to adjourn at the end of this month.

In opening the hearings, McCarthy said some of his staff members are trying to resign, against his wishes.

He did not name them, but said they are persons who have done "a most outstanding job" and whose loss to the committee "would be one of the greatest victories the Communist party could achieve."

He said he would make a further announcement on the subject later today or tomorrow.

McCarthy arrived about 20 minutes late for the scheduled start of the hearing, and promptly took caustic note of the absence of all Democratic members.

He said "my three Democrat colleagues" have been trying to "discredit" the subcommittee's Red hunting. He termed their absence today "not a happy situation."

McCarthy did not mention demands from a fourth member, Sen. Potter (R-Mich) for a staff shakeup before starting hearings. He said Potter was in Michigan, and the other two Republican members were tied up with work in other committees. They are Sens. Mundt (SD) and Dirksen (Ill).

Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel, whose scalp Potter and the three Democratic members reportedly are seeking particularly, also was absent.

McCarthy announced that Cohn's "mother's only brother was killed in a fall from a horse" and that Cohn was attending the funeral.

Francis P. Carr, staff director, opened the examination of Glatis after announcing in a preliminary statement that the hearing would deal with alleged Communist infiltration of defense plants in the Boston area, particularly General Electric and Allis Chalmers plants.

Housing Probers Turn To 1950 Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Banking Committee today turned to the 1950 military housing law in its hunt for irregularities in the government's many - sided housing program.

The committee, headed by Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), summoned three builders who shared in a reported one-million-dollar profit in construction of the Page Manor project near the Air Force base at Wright Field in Dayton, Ohio.

The builders were identified as Link Cowan, Shawnee, Okla.; David Muss, San Antonio, Tex.; and Norman K. Winston, New York City.

The military housing program, commonly known as "Wherry Act" housing after its author, the late Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry (R-Neb), was designed to stimulate construction near military centers. It operated in much the same manner as the much-probed general postwar apartment program, which provided government insurance for loans to builders, with one significant exception:

Builders of military rental housing worked under a provision which required them to certify to the Federal Housing Administration that their costs of construction were more than the amount of their FHA-insured mortgage. The mortgage was supposedly available on 90 per cent of building costs.

Under the general program, now expired, no certification was required. Capehart estimates that under this section of the law builders reaped up to half a billion dollars in "windfall" profits by pocketing the difference between the loan amounts and actual lower construction costs.

One committee source, asking not to be quoted by name, said that despite the certification requirement, builders' profits were substantial in the military housing program, which is still operating. The profits were possible, he said, by a two-corporation device which would work like this:

Corporation "A" would get the FHA-insured loan and corporation "B" would do the actual building. When the project was completed, corporation "B" would charge "A" the full amount of the mortgage as construction costs, even though costs were actually less. Then corporation "A" could certify to the FHA that all mortgage proceeds were needed to build the project.

The gimmick was that stockholders in corporations "A" and "B" would be substantially the same, the informant said.

RS&P Putting In New Tracks

New tracks are being installed on the Roscoe, Snyder & Pacific Railway through Snyder, and warning signal lights are to be installed soon at two down-town street crossings, Elroy Miller, RS&P agent here, said.

Miller said that the new and heavier trackage has already been installed at the Twenty-sixth Street crossing, and will probably be installed on the Twenty-fifth Street crossing in the next few days.

Exact date for beginning of installation of the warning signals at the two crossings has not been determined, but work on the signal lights should begin within a few days, Miller stated.

He said that a new warning signal has already been installed at the Thirty-seventh Street crossing of the RS&P tracks.

Farmer Who Almost Lost Feet Recovers

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—G. Errett Mills is one of the happiest men in Jefferson County. Why?

It's been nearly five years since his legs were severed just above the ankles—except for heel cords and main arteries—but he's still carrying on farm work on his natural feet.

The accident occurred while he was watching the demonstration of a portable circular saw. The machine bucked and the saw blade left his feet dangling.

At the hospital where he was taken, orthopedic surgeons were divided as to the best course of treatment. Some did not think his feet could be saved. Others were convinced the effort was worthwhile.

After repeated blood transfusions and more than four hours' work by two teams of surgeons—one team for each leg—the operation appeared successful. A close check showed that blood circulation had been re-established in the feet.

After the casts were removed, a series of skin grafts completed the job. Later, Mills' legs were encased in braces to support his weight of 165 pounds.

Two years ago the braces were discarded and Mills went back to work on his 10-acre farm.

He usually walks about two miles daily, cares for three cows and cultivates his crops.

"I get farm fever," he said. "I believe I could handle a bigger farm, but my two sisters think this one is large enough. It is hard to get help I'd need on a larger farm."

His case was written up in medical journals. The half-bushel basket of letters the farmer has received came from many countries and all asked the same question: "How are you doing?"

"You never know how many good people there are in the world, until you get in trouble," he says. "I hope the press services will tell these people how well I'm getting along. I never got around to answering all those letters."

'Princess' Is Back From A World Tour

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —Princess Matsui is home, grim-faced as ever and uncommunicative about her trip around the world.

The princess is a statue of a Seminole Indian. But she has proof, painted on her base, that she traveled around the world.

By coincidence she disappeared from the Seminole Hotel lobby just before the carrier USS Saipan left nearby Mayport last fall and reappeared when the Saipan docked yesterday.

Princess Matsui's ports of call happen to be the same as those of the Saipan. The princess has another memento—a certificate that she crossed the Equator.

Roscoe Man Cleared By Grand Jury Here

In the recent session of the grand jury, M. J. (Shorty) Dodgion of Roscoe was no-billed of a charge filed against him here, it was reported this morning.

Dodgion was cleared of a charge filed here in April, which alleged theft of a 1951 Ford tractor from Bob Bickerstaff of Snyder, then a drilling contractor. There was a question as to whether the tractor belonged to Dodgion or to Bickerstaff at that time, according to Renal Rosson, district attorney.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zeteda of Hermleigh are parents of a six pound baby boy born Saturday afternoon at 2:20 in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

A seven pound, six ounce baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ygnacia Benitez of Snyder Saturday morning at 7:50 in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Akin and children of Hobbs, N.M., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Akin, 2112 Twenty-eighth Street.

New Classes Added To Band

Two new classes will be added to the summer band school here today according to Melvin Montgomery, high school band director.

The new classes will be in basic marching, which will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock in the morning, and twirling, which will meet at the same time on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Tim Dennis, junior high band director, will teach both classes, which will be held at the high school. The marching class, Montgomery said, is mainly for those who will be in either the high school or junior high band next year and have had little or no marching experience. Twirling is for any beginning twirler who is interested in trying out for a twirling position in the junior high band this year. All twirlers must be playing members of the band.

In the first two weeks of the school, there have been about 130 students attending classes, Montgomery said students who have been on vacation or did not know about the classes can still enter the school, which will last until about mid-August.

In addition to marching and twirling, classes are offered for beginners in all instruments in junior high or above and intermediate and advanced classes in brass, woodwinds, and percussion.

Frugal Bachelor Is Victim Of Robbers

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP) —Winnie M. Jones, 57, a frugal bachelor who made thousands of dollars crabbing and oyster tonging but didn't trust banks to keep it for him, was near death and penniless today.

Neighbors, who heard his cries for help early yesterday, found him lying in the kitchen of his neat four-room house at Bishop Head, 30 miles south of here. He had been savagely beaten.

Sheriff Waldo H. Robinson, who questioned Jones at the hospital during one his rare periods of consciousness, said he told him he had been carrying between $5,000 and $6,000.

She Failed The Test

SUFFOLK, Va. (AP)—Emily Winslow, 16, under the watchful eye of a state inspector, pulled her car away from the curb at the start of her driving test and banged right into another car passing by. She failed the test.

No Let Up Is Expected For Heat Wave

By The Associated Press

Hot weather continued at full boil in the nation's middle section today after a brief period of simmer late last week. There was little relief in sight.

The toll of the extended heat wave, which had only a brief respite, had reached 237 lives yesterday when temperatures from central Texas and northern Louisiana to southwestern North Dakota climbed generally into 100-plus figures.

Scattered thunderstorms tempered the heat in the Ohio Valley and near the Canadian border, but west and south of those sections temperatures matched or exceeded the normal summer extremes of the adjoining desert Southwest.

Sunday deaths attributable to the heat included 3 at Fort Smith, Ark., where the mercury mounted to 108; 3 in southern California, where readings ranged up to more than 100 in the San Joaquin Valley; and 5 in Oklahoma, which had such steaming weather as Oklahoma City's 105 and Tulsa's 110.

The day's peak was 116 at Fort Scott, Kan. Chanute in the same state had 113, and in adjoining Missouri it was 111 at Kansas City, 112 at St. Louis.

Other samplings in the heat belt included 106 at Quincy, Ill., and Presidio, Texas; 104 at Memphis; 101 at Indianapolis; 100 at Omaha, Rapid City, S. D., and Dickinson N. D.

Showers and thunderstorms were confined mostly to the Rocky Mountain region, western Kansas and Nebraska, the northern Great Lakes area and New England.

Away from the stifling blanket of hot air down the center of the nation, it was generally pleasant with temperatures in the 80s.

Boy Thwarts Kidnap Try

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A 13-year-old boy's fight against two men was credited today with thwarting a kidnaping.

The two men attempted to take Kenneth Ogle from his home Saturday night. Even after the abduction failed, a man telephoned the boy's father at a grocery store he manages and demanded $4,000.

The caller warned that unless the money was paid "we're going to get you or your family." The father, Dennis D. Ogle, contacted police.

The police had Ogle carry out the caller's instructions, using a fake payoff package. Ogle took the package to a street intersection as instructed, while police watched, but no one turned up for the payoff.

The men lured Kenneth from his home on a ruse.

When they attempted to force him into their car, Kenneth, who is 5 feet 8 and weighs 125 pounds, fought them. Screams of his mother and a 15-year-old sister frightened the men away.

Police have made no arrests.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hamilton of Wichita Falls spent last week end with Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, 2112 Twenty-eighth Street.

Looking over some of the books that might interest the Book Reviewers Club are Mrs. Ross Hemphill, second vice president, and Mrs. Lindy Clark, immediate past president of the organization.

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Book Review Club Offers 'Keeping Posted' Program

Book Review Club members go to meetings to be entertained and informed.

"Many of us are young mothers," explained Mrs. Lindy Clark, past president, "and children don't leave much time for reading."

The Book Review Club was organized about three years ago, to provide book reviews and lectures for women who couldn't find time to read all the books they would like to read but wanted to stay informed.

Mrs. Ross Hemphill, second vice president in charge of planning reviews for the coming year, explained that there is an attempt to provide material of real significance.

"We can go to the picture show if all we want is entertainment," she said.

Membership last year reached about 75, but the club would like to see more women attending the reviews.

The group meets during the first week of each month at Fellowship Hall.

"We tried to set Thursday as the regular meeting day," Mrs. Hemphill said, "but we found that our reviewers have to come from so great a distance and work on such crowded schedules that we have to take them when we can get them."

Reviewers' fees and expenses are paid out of member's dues. Fees and expenses can come high, when reviewers come from as far away as Dallas, where many of them are so much in demand that they find it hard to get away for a long trip to West Texas.

One of the reviewers most popular with the club has been Mrs. V. Y. Rejebian of Dallas, who lectured last year on her trip to her homeland of Armenia and is scheduled to return again this fall.

"We think she will probably give a lecture on her trip again this year, but with emphasis on the Holy Land," Mrs. Hemphill said, explaining that reviewers may not let the club know much more than a month ahead exactly what their topics will be.

Other outstanding reviewers of last year scheduled to come back again are Mrs. Herbert Emory and Mrs. Maria de Hara of Dallas. Mrs. De Hara, a native of Mexico, lectured in April on life in Mexico.

Mrs. Bro Mingus of Abilene, another repeat reviewer, has notified Mrs. Hemphill that she would like to come in December to review a book, This Way to Christmas, which was first published in 1896 and has recently come to public attention again.

The club schedules one night meeting a year, when husbands are invited to attend the review or lecture. This year Mrs. De Hara will probably appear on guest night, Mrs. Hemphill said.

Officers of the club, who were installed in May of this year, are Mrs. Gene Dulaney, president; Mrs. P. W. Cloud, first vice president; Mrs. Hemphill, second vice president; Mrs. Joe Caton, treasurer; Mrs. Robert F. Weeter, secretary; and Mrs. Harold Brown, historian.

Act Like A Tourist If You Want To See Real Hollywood

By HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The way to cover Hollywood is to be popeyed, like a tourist. Now you take this set where Jean Simmons is playing Desiree in a picture of the same name:

She was looking very come-hither in this Napoleonic piece, wearing a gold cloth dress with a high waist and a low neckline. I could appreciate what I was seeing because once I was a fashion editor. Unfortunately, that job didn't last long but I do know gold cloth when I see it. We did not have a chance to discuss our mutual interest in gold cloth because Jean was long engaged in a difficult scene.

I turned my attention, reluctantly, to Henry Koster, the director, who wanted everyone in the scene to be very gay. This is how he got the effect:

"All of you, now, pretend to be talking about the wonderful dinner Napoleon has just served. Ah, think of the cavair and the champagne. And the oysters. But if it will make you any happier, you may imagine you have been eating hot dogs."

This thought seemed to make Miss Simmons quite gay, and she smiled prettily at Napoleon, who is none other than Marlon Brando. Brando then was excused so the crew could concentrate on a close-up of Miss Simmons. And because there was so much crew and so much equipment, I lost sight of my friend in the gold cloth with the low waist and the high neck. Or whatever she had on.

With a wisp of hair down over his forehead and a nose made pointed with putty, Brando becomes an excellent likeness of Napoleon. Brando likes to shock reporters so they will write shocking things about him. I am not easily shocked, having been around too long; a quarter of a century in Hollywood should make one shock-proof. Besides, this was my popeyed day. Brando must have thought I was just another tourist.

This is the same studio where Brando refused to play in "The Egyptian." The studio sued him for two million bucks. I asked him why he walked out on the part, and he said: "I didn't like the role. It didn't suit me. So I went to New York."

"Did any reasoning precede this walkout?" He said it did, a lot of it, but he insisted he could not do justice to the role. I asked if the suit scared or flattered him.

"Neither," he said. "In the theatrical history of California only four actors ever have been brought to court for refusing to play parts. Hundreds have been threatened.

"Whenever an actor protests a role, he is made to look silly. The studios see to that. I was made to look sick too. All kinds of ridiculous stories began coming out about me."

LARGER SIZES!

The soft touch. A dress with very short or three-quarter sleeves looks to its keyhole neckline for flattery and style; to its six-gore skirt for softness.

No. 2139 is cut in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48. Size 18: 3¾ yds. 39-in.

Aprons are not all for the kitchen. Every woman who sews needs a handy sewing apron says Dorothy Roe, Associated Press Women's Editor, who suggests you make this pretty, practical article.

Its deep pockets can hold practically every needlework need except the sewing machine. It can be trimmed with an appliqued tape measure, useful for measuring short lengths of fabric. A red felt pincushion fastened to the belt keeps pins within reach.

Sewing center experts suggest sturdy sanforized denim in a gay color for a practical and washable apron. About a yard of fabric is needed to make it, plus a 6 by 11 inch piece of red felt and a little cotton batting for the heart-shaped pincushion.

Two little tabs hang from the belt — one for the pincushion and the other for a pair of scissors.

When the apron is made, stitch a tape measure around sides, bottom and across the top of the pockets, using the zigzag attachment to your machine, or simply a double row of straight stitching.

Both apron and pincushion are made by a standard pattern, which may be used for trimming instead of the tape measure, if you prefer.

This sewing apron is a popular bazaar or gift item. If you make several, be sure to keep one for yourself. You'll find it one of the most useful items in you sewing room.

NEEDLES AND PINS . . . A gay sewing apron keeps them handy.

Yankees Head For Pennant; Fist Fight Highlights Game

DETROIT BRASS AGREE YANKS WILL WIN FLAG

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Freddie Hutchinson of the Detroit Tigers and Schoolboy Rowe, his first lieutenant, agreed today that the New York Yankees will win their sixth straight pennant but they differed as to the degree.

Hutchinson thinks the Yankees will win only after a hard-fought battle with Cleveland and Rowe believes the defending champions will win in a breeze.

Huchinson commented on the Yankees' prospects yesterday after the Tigers had split a double-header with them, losing 6-0, then winning 8-6.

"I'm not sure they have the better team, but they have a psychological edge over Cleveland," he said. "After all, they've been in three straight dogfights with the Indians and they've come out on top every time."

Rowe, former Tiger pitching great who returned to the club in the capacity of a pitching and first base coach this year, didn't mince any words.

"I can't see anybody but the Yankees. There's nobody around that can beat 'em. They're making their move now and once they grab the lead from Cleveland, nobody is going to take it away from them. Certainly not the Indians. They'll fold like an accordian. They always do."

CARDS FORFEIT AFTER STANKY-MOORE FIGHT

Eddie Stanky, scrappy manager of the St. Louis Cards, boils on the hot seat today after a fist fight with Terry Moore, the man he fired as coach, and a forfeiture to the Phillies for delaying tactics.

Stanky and Moore, new manager of Philadelphia, tangled in the midst of one of St. Louis' worst ball field riots in years yesterday to climax a flaming two-year-old feud.

After Moore was fired in 1952, he departed from his normal mild ways to blast Stanky. "When he loses a ball game he acts more like a 9-year-old boy than a manager," he said. "The job is too big for him. Stanky is tempermentally unsuited for the job of manager."

Fireworks were expected when Moore, named manager Thursday, met Stanky's Cards for the first time. It happened yesterday at Busch Stadium and they're still picking up the pieces. It was the first forfeiture since 1949.

Coming from behind three times the Phils pulled out the first game 11-10 in 10 innings on a double by Smoky Burgess and a single by Bobby Morgan. The game had been delayed 1 hour and 18 minutes by rain in the seventh.

The second game didn't start until after 6 p.m., so lights could not be turned on under National League rules. With darkness approaching in the fifth and the Phils leading 8-1 with one man on base and two out, Stanky had brought in two new pitchers and had waved for a third when umpire Babe Pinelli walked to the field telephone and notified the press box that the game was forfeited to Philadelphia 9-0. No individual records go into the book because the legal five innings weren't completed.

Stanky protested the game, claiming Pinelli had exceeded his authority. "Any delay prior to the forfeit including a free-for-all was precipitated by members of the Philadelphia club," he said in a telegram to National League President Warren Giles.

Catcher Sal Yvars of the Cards and first baseman Earl Torgeson of the Phils touched off the big battle when they argued and squared off. The two players were old enemies, dating back to a free-for-all in Boston in 1952 over a broken bat when Yvars was with New York and Torgeson with the Braves.

Moore, ex-Cardinal great, tumbled out of the dugout and grabbed Yvars. Then Stanky tackled Moore. Moore came up with a dirty face and scratches on his neck. Stanky has a mouse under his right eye and a scratch on his neck. Players from both teams were on the field, punching and wrestling before police broke it up and escorted the men off the field.

The day's fistic action vied for attention with the pennant races.

Cleveland still leads the American by half a game. Both the Indians and New York Yankees split double-headers. The Yanks went out front briefly, for the first time since April 22, by winning the first from Detroit 6-0 on Harry Byrd's five-hitter, while Washington was thumping Cleveland 8-3. Cleveland rebounded into the lead by winning its second game 7-4 as the Yanks' 13-game winning streak was snapped by Detroit 8-6.

Chicago'sWhite Sox took a pair from the feebie Philadelphia Athletics 10-2 and 4-3 although Paul Richards drew complaints for stalling in the second game. The White Sox scored four in the eighth and the A's had two to make it 8-6. when Richards changed pitchers twice and called for a third. Plate Umpire Charley Berry was trying to make the relief pitcher come in immediately when the 6:59 p.m. curfew stopped action. The score reverted to the end of the last full inning, the seventh.

The Boston Red Sox shut out Baltimore 4-0 on a one-hitter by Russ Kemmerer in his first major league start but the Orioles won the second game 4-1 on Duane Pillette's five-hit pitching.

In the National, New York split two at Cincinnati, losing 14-4 in the first game and winning 3-1 on Willie Mays' 33rd homer and Monte Irvin's 17th. As Brooklyn thumped Chicago 12-6 on homers by Roy Campanella, Duke Snider and Carl Furillo, the Giants lead was clipped to six games.

Milwaukee had to settle for an even break with the last-place Pittsburgh Pirates. Warren Spahn needed help from Ernie Johnson to hold the first game 4-1 but the Pirates scored six runs in the second inning on the way to a 7-5 victory in the second game.

Al Aber of Detroit was credited with stopping the Yanks' victory string although he needed help from George Zuverink in the last three innings.

Bill Tosheff, of the Milwaukee Hawks in the National Basketball Assn. is now pitching for the St. Petersburg Saints in the Class B Florida International League.

Little League, City Loop Games Tonight

Two baseball leagues will be playing here tonight. They are the Little League, which starts its games at 7 o'clock, and the city league, which begins at 8 o'clock.

Playing in the first game in the Little League will be the Kiwanis Braves and Holder Indians, while the Lions Cubs and Quarterback Giants will meet at 9 o'clock. At 8 o'clock in the city league, it will be Sun and the DeMolays.

Both leagues have also set play for tomorrow night. The Little League will hold games postponed from last week, the American Legion Yankees vs. the Indians and the Giants vs. the Rotary Cardinals. The city league has also set a game for tomorrow night. It is one originally scheduled for this Friday night but moved to tomorrow because of Pony League playoffs coming up this week. That game is Tri-Service vs. Magnolia. After that game, only one more game is scheduled in that league before its playoffs. It is a Saturday night match between Sunray and Hermleigh.

The Pony League, which has not had any local league play for a week, has postponed local play for another week because of playoffs. The Pony district championship playoffs will be held here Thursday, Friday, and possibly Saturday nights, a best-two-out-of-three series with Midland. The Little League, which has games scheduled Thursday and Friday nights, has not yet announced what it will do with those games. Those two nights were to round up regular league play.

The Indians are now in second place in the league with a 5-2 record, while the Braves are fourth with 3-5. The Giants run fifth with 2-5, and the Cubs have a 1-7 record and are in last place in the Little League.

Sun is now in a tie with Hermleigh for third place in the city league, while the DeMolays are tied for last place with Sunray with a 1-8 record. The top four teams in this league will go into playoffs at the end of the schedule for the championship of the league.

Pompey Is Starting To Fight In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Yolande Pompey, the man from Trinidad whose name sounds like the first line of a Calypso tune, makes his first U.S. start Wednesday at Chicago Stadium against Moses Ward of Detroit.

For three years, Pompey has been attracting attention in Britain, knocking out the late Dave Sands, fighting a draw with Jimmy Slade and beating Slade in a rematch. He is ranked fifth among the light heavy challengers although he may campaign as a middleweight after a few American fights.

Pompey got down to 162 for Bobby Dawson Jan. 25, the only fight he lost. In his last outing he weighed 169½ when he knocked out Guiliano Pancini May 13 in London.

Ward will be remembered for his exciting bouts with Willie Troy, Holly Mims and George Johnson. Although he lost all three and was stopped twice, his action style won many fans.

The Chicago match will be seen on CBS-TV.

TV fans get their first look at Chris Christensen, the Danish welter champ, in a 10-round match with Billy Graham at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway tonight. Christensen lost his only U.S. start, to Billy Lauderdale.

This is almost a comeback for Graham, high-ranked welter contender. He has had only one fight since December, when he won over Paddy Young. He underwent an appendectomy and then injured an elbow in a Danbury, Conn., bout with Charley Simmons. He is now back in top physical condition.

The bout will be on ABC-TV.

Al Andrews of Superior, Wis., and Sauveur Chiocca of France top the St. Nicholas Arena card (Du Mont-TV) with a welterweight 10-rounder tonight.

The clever Andrews packs a little more experience than the Frenchman, youngest member of Jean Bretonnel's stable. Chiocca's best win was over Danny Jo Perez in a Madison Square Garden preliminary. Andrews holds decisions over Chuck Davey, Pat Manzi, Pat Lowry and Joey Klein.

Shreveport Is Widening Texas Lead

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Staff Writer

Shreveport, No. 1 team in the Texas League, widened its lead over the three top challengers Sunday in a round of contests marked by a first-rate rhubarb at Houston.

The Sports beat Oklahoma City, the No. 3 team, 3-2; San Antonio, second in the standings, lost to last-place Dallas 6-5; and Houston, in fourth place, fell to Fort Worth 7-1. In the other game, Tulsa bested Beaumont 4-0.

Four Houston players and Manager Dixie Walker were chased from the Buff-Cats game in an argument over a called strike. The strike was called on George Lerchen and resulted in Lerchen, Walker, Howie Phillips and Dick Rank being ordered off the field. In the next inning, Willard Schmidt was chased. Umpire Frenchy Arceneaux called for police to escort the Buffs from the stadium, and he and Umpire Bill Valentine left under police escort amid a shower of cushions at the game's end.

Ray Coleman's two homers, one with a man on, were the big hits in Fort Worth's attack.

Otis Jacobs was the difference in the Shreveport win. He spaced eight hits, then won his own game with a bases-empty homer in the sixth inning. Bud Heslet hit his 23rd homer of the year for Shreveport.

A homerun smash by Les Fleming in the eighth inning brought the Dallas Eagles home in front. The lead changed hands four times. Pitcher Rocky Contreras was the winner. He now has won two games in the last three innings he has pitched.

Murff Muruzewski blanked Beaumont on four hits while Tulsa was making capital of six blows. Bob Zick and Paul Hoffmeister combined to allow only six hits by Tulsa, but the Oilers hit in the clutches.

Monday night Fort Worth is at San Antonio, Dallas at Houston, Oklahoma City at Beaumont and Tulsa at Shreveport.

Clovis Falls From Lead In WT-NM Loop

By The Associated Press

The Pampa Oilers helped the Clovis Pioneers stretch their losing string to four straight games Sunday and moved into a full game lead in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

The Pioneers vacated the league lead they had held since June 23 Saturday night when the Oilers moved a couple of percentage points ahead. The Oilers beat the Pioneers 6-5 Sunday to take the game edge.

In other action in the league, trying to finish the season with seven teams following the collapse of Borger due to financial trouble. Abilene beat Albuquerque 4-1 and Plainview outslugged Amarillo 19-14. Lubbock had an open date.

Rookie John Coddington, second of three Pampa pitchers, was the winner. The loss went to Jack Venable, knocked out in the eighth.

The Oilers came from behind a 3-0 deficit with two runs in each of the fifth, sixth and seventh innings but got only seven hits off the two Clovis hurlers, half the number yielded by the three Oiler pitchers.

Orlando Torres and Andy Alonso combined mound talents to hold Albuquerque to five hits at Abilene. The loss went to starter Len Santos who with reliefer Ernie Bartolomei gave only seven blows.

Amarillo built an 11-0 lead in the first four innings but a barrage of late homers by the Ponies swept it away. A total of 11 homers were hit in the slugfest, eight by the Plainview batters.

Mays Is Far Ahead Of Babe's Record

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Giants' Willie Mays is six games ahead of Babe Ruth's 1927 home run record pace of 60. Mays hit his 33rd homer in the second game of a twin bill against Cincinnati yesterday. The clout came in game No. 89 for Willie. Ruth didn't belt No. 33 until his 95th game on July 26.

Only Big Wins In Longhorn

By The Associated Press

The big inning keeps Longhorn League games from being close.

It's seldom any club wins by less than five runs.

Take Sunday night: Runs in clusters decided all games.

Leading Artesia slammed Midland 8-2 with a 5-run splurge in the seventh inning. It ruined a hitherto tight pitching duel between Bob Herron of Artesia and Julio Ramos of Midland. A 2-run error by Ramos and triples by Frank Gallardo and Mickey Sullivan did the job.

Second-place Roswell ended a losing streak that had run to three games by plowing San Angelo under 11-6 with a 4-run drive in the eighth knocking out all Colt hopes. Steve Nunez hurled an 8-hitter to post his 10th victory.

Third - place Carlsbad lashed Odessa 6-3 by smashing across five tallies in the first inning. Rookie Ralph Burns got off to a shaky start, giving up home runs to Bob Bauer and Earl Caldwell, but his mates got him back into the game with that 5-run uprising. A 3-run homer by Goldie Gholson marked the rally.

Big Spring and Sweetwater were idle.

Aussies Are Pretty Good At Athletics

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—There is no reason why the Australians should not be permitted to take a new bows for the recent successes of their young athletes in international competition.

Rulers of world tennis for the past three years, they now are making threatening gestures toward a similar domination in golf. They have John Landy, holder of the mile record of 3:58, and they are among the world's mightiest swimmers. They have been the world's cricket champions for so long that England is thoroughly sick of them.

Two of the most coveted golfing crowns fell in recent months to a pair of sharpshooting Aussies whose names scarcely were known in this country. First, Douglas Bachli, a small-size tavern owner from Rosebud, Victoria, won the British amateur title by defeating our own Bill Campbell in the finals, and then Peter Thomson, a 23-year-old pro from Melbourne, who had done well on the American winter circuit, mopped up the British Open to complete a great double.

All of which adds up to an amazing record for a nation which at the most recent head count numbered only about 7½ million persons, not counting aborigines. As one who has made several trips to the country, we are asked with increasing frequency if there is any ready explanation for the out-of-all-proportion successes of the Aussies.

The answer is, well, yes. They are a big, healthy people, and they are crazier about more different forms of sport than the inhabitants of any other plot on the globe, including this one. You put the combination together and you are going to come up with an awful lot of good athletes.

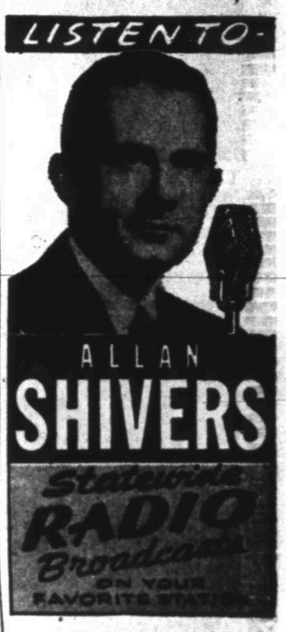

Pride has something to do with it. The Australians feel that they are a little nation, and remote, and it affords them tremendous pleasure to knock over the big boys. As a painful for instance, they get a bigger wallop out of pinning our ears back in Davis Cup Tennis than we would out of beating them—as if we ever do.

Covington Is Winner Of Tri-State Golf

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Curtis (Red) Covington, San Angelo, won the 20th annual Tri-State Senior golf tournament yesterday with a 2-1 victory over Frank Day, Plainview, the defending champion.

They were all square after nine holes, but Covington won 11 and 14 and they halved the next three holes. Covington was par for the 17 holes and Day was three over.

The decision reversed the championship match of two years ago when Day won over Covington 2-1.

H-SU Student Wins Glen Garden Tourney

FORT WORTH (AP)—Arlyn Scott, 20, Odessa, a student at Hardin-Simmons, won the Glen Garden Invitation golf tournament yesterday with 284, par for the four rounds.

Second at 285 was Lee Chapman, Fort Worth. Defending champion Richard Patton, Fort Worth, was third with 286.

Dan Jenkins, Fort Worth, tied with Scott through 54 holes, dropped to a tie for fourth with Lee Pinkston, Abilene. They had 289s.

The title wasn't decided until the final hole, where Scott, last player to finish, had to sink a 7-foot downhill putt for a par 3 and the victory.

Fort Worth Wins

HOUSTON (AP)—The Fort Worth Tandy team won the Houston Women's Open Softball Tournament yesterday by defeating the Fort Worth Hornets 5-3.

San Antonio Takes Title In Swimming

TYLER (AP) — The San Antonio Aquatic Club won the TAAF swimming championship last night, beating Tyler, defending champion.

San Antonio had 184 points, Tyler 172 and the Cork Club of Houston 118.

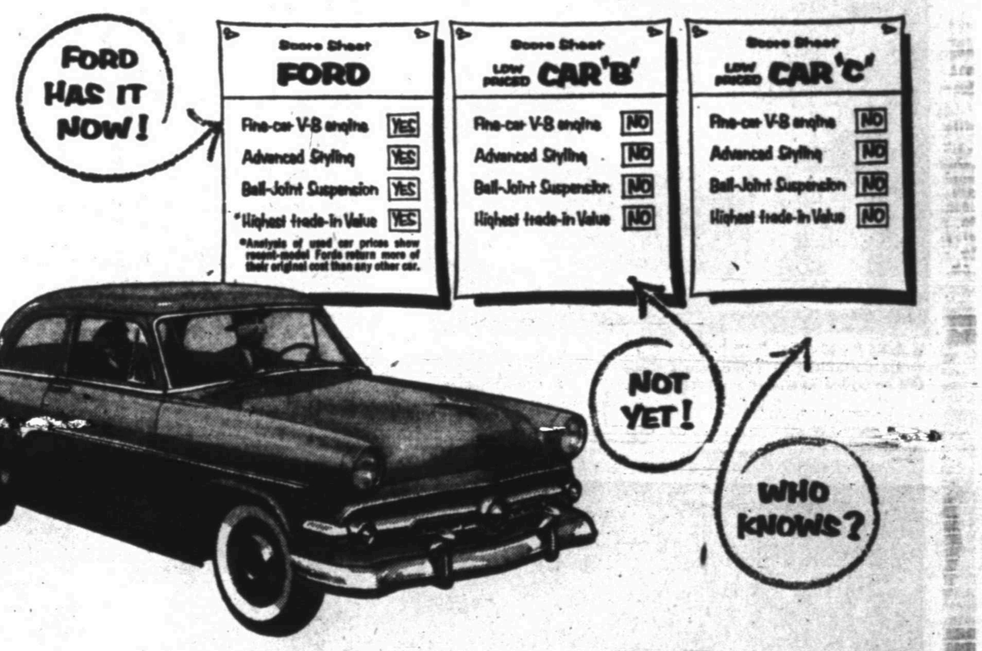

Pat Trant, Tyler, and James McCarthy, Amarillo, both broke records twice.

Miss Trant won the 100-meter freestyle in 1:12.2 and the 400-meter freestyle in 5:58.9.

McCarthy clipped off the men's 100-meter butterfly in 1:13.3 and the 100-meter freestyle in 1:00.2.

Will the car you buy NOW keep its value NEXT YEAR?

Only Ford has the modern features today that other low-priced cars may have next year!

The styling and engineering refinements in a few cars have progressed markedly in recent years. But some cars have fallen behind. When the manufacturers of such cars try to "catch up" by introducing radically different models . . . their current-model cars will suffer greatly by comparison and lose a great deal of the trade-in value they should retain normally.

Ford has been a leader in setting the styling trend . . . and in developing engineering advancements that make for better performance and more pleasurable driving. So you can count on the Ford you buy NOW to hold onto its full share of normal trade-in value.

Worth more when you buy it . . .

New Craze For Bobby Soxers In England

NOTTINGHAM, England, July 19 (AP)—A new craze spread among English bobby soxers today.

Blinking back tears, teen - age girls are carving their boy friends' initials into the flesh of their own legs and arms.

Some are rubbing burned wood into the cuts to make the scars more distinctive and the initials easier to read.

"It is shocking, horrible," said Miss W. L. Hawkridge, headmistress of Nether Street School. "We are deeply concerned."

The fad broke out last month at Swindon, near a U.S. Air Force base. Many teen-age students and factory girls said they branded themselves with American airmen's initials.

It spread to Nottingham, 100 miles north of here, and today 27 youth organizations in Nottingham County were trying to get it stopped before more girls are scarred for life or dangerous blood poisoning cases result.

Notices banning scarred girls were posted today in several clubs.

A girl at another school was reported to have "Jack Loves Me" scratched on her back. She said she looked over her shoulder into a mirror and did the job with an old razor blade.

Most of the girls keep the scars carefully covered.

Social workers searched for psychological explanations of the fad. Some theorized it was related in some way to a strange feminine desire to be hurt and dominated by men. Others also said the girls branded themselves to show the depth and intensity of their feelings for the boy friends.

Most parents saw it as simply a fad, and many were bending their daughters over their knees to inflict pain in the traditional way.

Auto Seat Covers Increase Comfort

To be comfortable in a car is one of the biggest problems of summer motorists, R. T. Howard, owner of Howard's Auto & Appliance Store on the East Highway, said.

Howard says that one of the biggest factors in making cars uncomfortable for summer driving is the seat covers — or lack of seat covers on the car, because the original upholstery in most cars and the materials in many seat covers do about the same job for the car driver as a heavy winter coat would.

Howard says that his stock of seat cover materials include many patterns and materials that definitely make a car cooler to ride in because they do not collect and hold heat against the bodies of passengers of the car.

"One of the new materials we now have is a summer-colored fire-proof plastic that is also shock proof," Howard said.

With this new material a passenger in the car will be much cooler on either short down town shopping trips or on long cross-country journeys, he added.

Further comfort can be added to most new car seats as well as old car seats by the addition of foam rubber pads on the seats while new custom seat covers are being installed.

Howard says that many car manufacturers now put foam rubber padding on front seats of their cars, but do not put it on the rear seats.

"If more than two passengers are to ride in the car on long trips, the rear seat needs the foam rubber for comfort as much as the front seat does," he said.

It's Never Too Late For Opportunity

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaves from an oddity almanac:

It is only people who are mentally half-dead themselves who complain, "opportunity is dead." Opportunity is timeless.

Take the case of Mrs. Annabelle McIntyre of Ligonier, Ind., who decided at 82 she ought to have a new hobby, and learned to make braided rugs. Ten years and 200 handmade rugs later she has turned her hobby into a tidy business, and at 92 she does her own shopping, cooking and housework, and is sturdily determined to go on doing these things "as long as I live." How many teen-age girls in your neighborhood are that independent?

Almanac Conservation Department: What smokers do to themselves is one thing, but what they do to the forests remains a national disgrace. Forest fires last year dropped to a record low but still 160 forest fires burned over 9 million acres, and more than one out of every seven fires were started by careless smokers.

Bet You Didn't Know That: one way to lose weight is to go to the Equator. Because of slightly lowered gravity a man who weighs 180 pounds at the north pole will be a pound lighter at the equator. The British have discovered a "paint of death" that will rid ships of cockroaches for as long as two years. Many schizophrenic (split personality) children often show a preference for toys that can be rotated or spun. But if that were the only test of a schizophrenic, every kid in town would have a split personality.

Time-Marches-On Dept: "Nothing ever changes," people say—in a world that is changing as swiftly as they are. But look back just 20 years at a few things the world lacked that are now commonplace: Jet planes, nylon, television, penicillin. Our idea of a real old-timer is a guy who can remember when aspirin was a wonder drug.

Almanac Editorial: We have been informed by what we take to be a reliable source that the Sahara desert is creeping northward at the rate of 20 miles a year. (Or maybe it is 20 miles every century—we have mislaid the clipping.)

In any event we demand to know what Congress intends to do about this creeping African menace. Are our statesmen asleep at the switch? We pause for reply.

It's-A-Woman's-World Dept: The effort to relieve ladies from the strain of 20th century civiliation never ceases. The latest feat of gallantry that has come to our attention involves a department store—Thalhimer Brothers, Inc., of Richmond, Va. It is now offering free showers to weary out-of-town lady shoppers.

TALL AND LOVELY

Posed with her are the maids of honor, Marilyn Ann Jensen (Miss California), left, 6-1; and Caroline Cheatham (Miss San Diego), right, 5-11. The contest was held at the 1954 convention of the World's Tallest People, better known as the "Tip-Toppers."

Report Egypt To Get Arms

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today Spanish arms makers are reported to have made a deal to sell the Egyptian government an estimated 3½ million dollars worth of guns and ammunition.

A Times dispatch from Bilbao, Spain, said a big plant at Marguina is working double shifts to fill an order for several hundred mortars and more than 200,000 shells. It said a state arsenal at Oviedo was reported turning out 900 machine guns for the Egyptians.

The dispatch said Britain has expressed concern to the Spanish Foreign Office that the arms will be used by Egyptian nationals to kill British soldiers in the disputed Suez Canal area.

The dispatch said the United States was also understood to have made a general representation to Spain that sale of arms to other than NATO nations might conflict with the spirit of the American-Spanish aid agreement signed last September.

3-Year-Old Found Unhurt

KNOX, Maine (AP)—Jubilant siren peals and a thankful mother's rush up a hillside signaled success yesterday in a search of mountainous bear country for a 3-year-old boy lost for 24 hours while picking blueberries.

Donald Bradstreet of Hampden and Stephen Fowler of Albion, members of a search group aided by a helicopter, located Gary Bailey unharmed except for scratches. He was found a mile and a half from where he disappeared Saturday.

The child's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey of Thorndike, searched throughout Saturday night with the group and was trying to rest when woodsmen trotted out of the brush with Gary. Catching sight of the lad she sprinted up a rugged slope and hugged the youngster to her.

About 500 persons, including game wardens, state police, firemen, Boy Scouts and volunteers scoured the dense woods. The lad's father, almost blind and unable to search actively, kept a vigil close by a phone in a forest fire watch tower.

Miss Universe Entries Visit In Hollywood

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The Miss Universe dolls take their first trip to Hollywood today and for some it may not be their last.

In the past, the Miss Universe winners have not exactly set the film capital afire. From the original 1952 pageant, only Ruth Hampton (Miss New Jersey) is now under contract to a studio. And of the 1953 crop Myrna Hansen (Miss U.S.A.) is the only one working regularly at Universal-International now. The studio had signed six or more after each annual contest.

But this year's crop is much better, moviewise.

If I were a movie producer I would screen-test Miss Brazil. This Latin blonde seems to carry the most sex appeal—and next to cowboys and Indians that is the movies' most valuable commodity.

Also on the umph side is Miss Montana, who walks, talks and looks like Marilyn Monroe. And there is always room for another Monroe in Hollywood.

On the cute side is Miss Germany, a Teutonic Debbie Reynolds.

Miss Sweden is a Nordic redhead. Movie fans always have liked Swedes such as Bergman and Garbo. At the moment Hollywood is ripe for a good-looking Swede.

For a well-tanned society girl type like Grace Kelly there is Miss Maryland.

There is also a good comedienne. Miss Uruguay, an attractive Latin, is even livelier than the late Lupe Velez.

The girls will tour Universal-International, one of the sponsors of the contest. There they will meet movie stars and have dinner.

Today is the last fun-day for the entrants. Preliminaries in the Miss U.S.A. contest get under way tomorrow, with finals Wednesday night. Then Miss U.S.A. joins the beauties of the 37 other nations for the Miss Universal finals Friday night.

Noted Painting Is Recovered

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 350-year-old Rubens painting, stolen Saturday from a museum, was recovered undamaged early today from the home of Lloyd Galloway, 26, jailed on suspicion of the theft.

Police said Galloway, an unemployed teamster, said he had no idea of the value of the 8-by-8-inch portrait of Archduke Albert of Austria. Experts attributed it to the Flemish master Peter Paul Rubens and estimated its value at $40,000 to $100,000.

Reporters Pierre Salinger and Bill O'Brien of the San Francisco Chronicle said they had persuaded Galloway in city jail to lead police to the painting—elaborately wrapped to disguise it as a large pincushion.

They said Galloway told them he took the painting from the De Young Museum "to make a few bucks to tide me over. I know people like art."

Weather Too Hot For Firemen To Practice

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The Fire Department has given up its plans to burn some houses today for practice. Weather is too hot.

Firemen were given the job of burning 11 houses to clear a right-of-way for a new street. They could get some fire-fighting practice while doing so.

They burned two, and Fire Director Louis Spandle said that was enough—until the weather cools off.

The temperature climbed to 111 yesterday.

Lt. Gen. Hubert R. Harmon, above, has been mentioned as a likely choice to be the first superintendent of the new Air Force Academy to be established at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Evaluating Information On Federal Employes Is Big Job

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Q" clearance, name check, full field investigation, evaluation, top secret, security risk, confidential: all government names for deciding who can stay in a government job or be trusted with secrets.

There was national shock when atomic scientist Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer lost his "Q" clearance, although the Atomic Energy Commission didn't use that phrase when it parted company with him.

It just said he was a security risk, that he couldn't be trusted any more with secrets he had been handling a dozen years. "Q" clearance is the AEC's way of saying a man has been found trustworthy with AEC secrets.

In Oppenheimer's case it had been found he had a long and continued association with Communists. Another man could be dropped as a security risk even though he didn't deal in secrets at all but drank too much.

And there is a difference in the degree of secrets. One kind, of the most vital nature, is labled top secret. A less important one is "secret". And a still less important one is "confidential."

For example, a "confidential" document might be an FBI report of its investigation of a man against whom nothing wrong was found. But if the report got into Communist hands it might disclose "investigative techniques" of the FBI.

Officials in any agency dealing with matters involving national security decide who can be allowed to see "top secret" documents, who should see only "secret material" and who needs to know only "confidential" matters.

That "need to know" position is at the heart of security in agencies dealing with information vitally affecting the national welfare. For example, a public relations man in the AEC would have to be cleared to know some information.

But there might be no reason why he should be let in on a decision to make bigger or smaller hydrogen bombs. He'd be allowed to handle only information that he needed to know to do his job.

Before a government employe gets into a position of handling any secrets at all — or no secrets — he's supposed to be investigated. The government doesn't check on all its employes in the same way.

For example, this would be routine for a man in a job in an agency which doesn't deal in national secrets, like the Labor Department:

Jones wants a clerical job with the Labor Department. He fills out an application on which he lists for some previous years the jobs he held and the places he lived. In addition, he answers questions about subversive organizations to which he belonged, if any.

In a case like that — a man looking for a nonsensitive job (no secrets involved) in a nonsensitive agency — the Civil Service Commission's own investigators make a check.

They check with his previous bosses, perhaps with his old landlords and neighbors. They run a "name check" with the FBI. That is, they find out whether the FBI has any record on him or information against him. The same check is made with the Army and Navy and House Un-American Activities Committee, which keeps an extensive file on subversives, either real or reported.

If Jones then is not found to be an habitual drunk, or homosexual, or criminal, and if he has no suspicious history of connections with Communists, he can get the job.

But if doubtful information is turned up against him, then the FBI can be called in to make a full field investigation, which means an investigation since the day he was born.

In the AEC, where all jobs are considered "sensitive," although some are more sensitive than others, a more thorough check than the routine civil service investigation is supposed to be made.

When all the investigations are finished, one thing remains:

Since some derogatory information is bound to turn up against anyone thoroughly investigated — either factual or spiteful information — agency officials have to evaluate it to determine whether a man can see secrets or not.

WELL, WELL—A WELL

Domino, a 3-year-old saddle horse, reaches out forelegs to level ground after workmen used a derrick from a utility truck to hoist him from the bottom of a 30-foot well. A hole was cut in the roof of the well house to aid hoisting. The horse, on the farm of the Rev. Richard Knight at Gardner, Mass., may have been seeking shade when he plunged through the flooring of the well house. None the worse for the dipping, the horse headed for a shade tree.

No Plans To Use Japan Or Philippines As Base

TOKYO (AP)—Top U. S. Air Force sources said today the United States has no present plans to use either Japan or the Philippines as a base for atom or hydrogen bomb-carrying planes.

Japan was eliminated as a direct result of pressure from the Japanese government, which did not want atomic weapons or H-bomb carrying planes based here, the sources said.

However, Air Force bases in both places might play a role in a "retaliation attack" by American H-bomb-carrying bombers in case of war. Big tanker planes from either Japan or the Philippines could rise to feed an extra load of fuel to bombers from Guam or Okinawa, the sources said.

Unusual Stamina Pulls Blair Moody Through

HANCOCK, Mich. (AP)—"Unusual personal stamina" was credited for the recovery of former Democratic Sen. Blair Moody, 52, discharged from St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday following a three-week bout with virus pneumonia.

He entered the hospital June 24. He had been stricken while touring northern Michigan in his campaign for the Democratic senatorial nomination this fall.

Susan Hayes, 24, (above), a medical technician, appears at the district attorney's office in Los Angeles, Cal., to give a statement about her relationship with Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, osteopath whose wife was hacked to death near Cleveland, O., last July 4. She also was scheduled to tell circumstances of the gift of a wrist watch to her by Dr. Sheppard during a medical convention at Los Angeles last March.
