Kracker Krumbs
Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

Congratulations to a group of men for a job well done.

* * * *

This job means much to the future of Munday, and it means a saving to the taxpayers of the town, as well as the accomplishment of something that, for a time, loomed up in the impossible column.

* * * *

We refer to members of the school board of Munday Independent School District. They have spent hours away from their jobs and hours at night, working and planning for the future of Munday's schools.

* * * *

Back yonder several months ago, they met and worked and planned. They realized that Munday's educational facilities were inadequate and that something had to be done.

* * * *

They met and talked, and worked, and planned, and saw the condition of our high school. They decided that the best and only route was to build a greater school plant.

* * * *

They hit upon a bond election. They then wondered how the people of the Munday district would look upon a bond election. They wondered if it would carry.

* * * *

Then came the day of the election, and citizens of this section proved they were for providing educational facilities for their children. The bond election carried by a overwhelming majority.

* * * *

This made our school board, and the superintendent, very happy. They visualized a greater school plant for Munday. With the $110,000 in bond money, they would build a plant that would take care of our present and future needs.

* * * *

Plans went forward. The bond election was approved by the attorney general; bonds were issued and sold, and bids were asked for construction of the new addition.

* * * *

In the meantime, the board took upon its shoulders the responsibility to tearing down the old high school building, using the materials and building the new lunch room.

* * * *

This was done without a contract, labor being used, board members and the superintendent and others supervising the work. And a right smart saving was brought about by this method.

* * * *

Because offers for demolishing the old building were to the effect that those making the offer would do it for the materials. The school board salvaged several thousand dollars worth of materials out of it.

* * * *

Time came for letting the contract for remodeling the present high school building and constructing an addition thereto.

* * * *

It looked like everything was "in the gravy" for the school board. But they found it wasn't in the frying pan, but in the fire.

* * * *

Bids made according to architect's plans were too high. They amounted to more than the amount of money raised by the bond election.

* * * *

What to do, and how to do it? The stone wall they were up against must give somewhere. And give it did!

* * * *

The board members, we might add, are J. E. Reeves, president; Leland Hannah, John B. Scott, Ray Holcomb, J. C. Elliott, Gene W. Harrell and R. L. Ratliff.

* * * *

They'd meet in Jim Reeves' office. They'd meet in Leland Hannah's drug store. They'd meet when and were convenient, regardless of the time of day or night.

* * * *

They'd talk and bicker. They'd have varied opinions, but they'd most generally always arrive at some concrete decision.

* * * *

People learned that all bids for construction were rejected. We won't get a new school, they

Fence Erected At Cemetery

Association Begins Drive For Funds

The Munday cemetery has a new fence, at least, one that will last for a long, long time and has added to the appearance of Munday's "city of the dead".

The new fence was erected last week by employees of the City of Munday, and members of the cemetery association have expressed their appreciation to City Secretary Harvey Lee and his corps of workers for a job well done.

Pointing out the fact that upkeep of the local cemetery entals an expenditure of around $1,500 per year, the finance committee this week started a drive for funds for the cemetery for the next year.

This drive was scheduled to open Thursday morning and will be closed as soon as possible. Everyone having an interest in the cemetery is asked to make a contribution toward its upkeep and to help make this final resting place clean and attractive.

The finance committee is composed of John B. Reneau, R. L. Ratliff and Mrs. Roger Williams, and contributions may be sent to either of these or to the city secretary.

Those who have moved away from Munday and who have loved ones buried here have mode contributions in the past, and they are asked to send their contributions to Harvey Lee, city secretary.

It's a move that's deserving of your support, and the finance committee feels that the necessary funds will be contributed gladly.

Funeral For Patsy Marie Brazell Held Here Wednesday

Funeral services for Patsy Marie Brazell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Brazell of Munday, were held at two-thirty Wednesday afternoon from the Church of Christ, conducted by Minister D. L. Ashley.

Alcoholism To Be Discussed At Meet Sunday

In the field of public health, alcoholism is one of the nation's worst diseases, being outranked only by heart disease, cancer and tuberculosis. Alcoholics Anonymous, a nation-wide organization, has proved that alcoholism can be arrested and normal living restored to all who honestly want to stop drinking.

To a community interest in public health problems and in the welfare of the people, you are cordially invited to a public meeting on alcoholism on Sunday, October 10, in the Munday high school auditorium. The meeting will start at 2 p. m.

Two speakers from the A. A. Group of Lubbock will be here. All who can are urged to attend. You will hear some of the most interesting and absorbing talks you have ever heard.

Detailed plans are not yet complete, and they will be announced in next week's edition of the Times.

Grand Jury Returns Total Of 11 Indictments At Meeting On Monday

Four County Girls Attending T.S.C.W.

Denton—Two girls from Munday are among the 2015 students enrolled at Texas State College for Women for the fall term.

Two hundred and three out of 254 Texas counties are represented in the registration figure as well as 23 students from seven foreign countries and 331 registrarts from 31 other states.

A back-to-normal enrollment for the first time since the war plus facilities being added in the current $3,000,000 building program are expected to result in top-notch housing and classroom accomodations at the college.

The students are Misses Dorothy Maxine Hill and Charlotte Ann Williams.

Knox City girls are Misses Alma Mable Edwards and Joyce Carlyne Jones.

FOR REDISTRICTING

John Ben Shepperd, Gladewater attorney and former president of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, has accepted the chairmanship of the recently organized Texas Committee for Redistricting. The committee, which is non-political, seeks to assure fair representation in the Texas Legislature for all counties by urging voters to support Amendment Two on the general election ballot November 2. Passage of Amendment Two will permit redistricting in Texas for the first time in 27 years, Shepperd pointed out.

The grand jury of October term of District Court convened the first of this week and returned eleven indictments, including five for burglary, four for forgery, one for rape and one for conversion. The following is the substance of the grand jury's report and recommendations made to District Judge Lewis M. Williams:

"We the Grand Jury duly impaneled and sworn as such for the October Term, A. D., 1948, of Knox County, Texas, beg to report as follows:

"We have diligently inquired all law violations coming to our attentions and report into open court 11 bills of indictment;

"We the Grand Jury make the following recommendations to the Hon. H. T. Melton, Sheriff of Knox County, Texas, to-wit: We recommend that those places having dances be closed on each Saturday night at twelve. That any place or person refusing to close at this time be prosecuted under the law.

"We recommend that carnivals coming into this county be closely watched and all gambling devices be shut down that are found running.

"That a close surveilance of marble machines be maintained and that appropriate action be taken if any complaint is filed.

"There being no further business to come before us at this time, we ask to be adjourned until such further time as our services as grand jurors are needed.

"Respectfully submitted,
B. Arnold, foreman.

"P. S. Also the Grand Jury desires to thank and commend H. T. Melton, sheriff, for his diligence and consideration to his official duty."

Moguls Play Last Home Game Here Friday

Unless some open dates are filled with games at home, next Friday night will be the last chance football fans will have to see the 1948 Munday Moguls in action on their home field. All remaining games on scheduled are to be played away from home.

The Moguls will meet their old rivals, the Anson Tigers, here next Friday night. The Tigers are pretty much in the same category as the Moguls, having a somewhat weak team this year.

The locals are continuing workouts this week in an effort to improve their brand of football, which definitely needs improvement from the type that was played against Rule last Friday night. Fans are expecting to see a more spirited and smoother working team in action for the final home game.

Sunset Seniors To Sponsor Lecture

The Senior class of the Sunset Rural High School is sponsoring Mr. John Koen, who is an artist, humorist and cartonist, on Tuesday night, October 12th, at 8 o'clock.

One of his paintings will be of "Star of Bethelem".

Mr. Koen has lectured at the Sunset school before and we are happy to have him back again this year.

The public is cordially invited to attend and the general admission will be twenty five cents.

Cotton Ginnings

Gins have been running far into the night, and all night most of the time this week, as cotton gathering is getting into full swing. With what seemed to be an oversupply of laborers earlier in the season, many farmers are now experiencing difficulty in getting hands to gather their cotton crops.

A check of the Munday gins at nine o'clock Thursday morning revealed that a total of 2160 bales had been ginned locally up to that time.

MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.

2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.

3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.

5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.

HEALTH AMBASSADORS

A group of eight American doctors recently made a trip to Poland to exchange medical notes with the Polish medical leaders. The visit was non-political and was a complete success. Dr. Leo Davidoff of Montefiore Hospital in New York, chairman of the United States group, said: "We met as friends and exchanged information and experience on the basis of equality and friendship."

Near the end of their tour the assistant director of Poznan University said: "When you first came we were very skeptical. We thought you would be contemptuous of our meager resources. We did not know what you had to offer us and we did not know the spirit in which your help would be offered or received by us. Now, at the end of your tour, we can say that we have all been intrigued by and grateful for your contribution."

This tribute to the American doctors was well earned. The doctors rolled up their sleeves and talked shop, and on top of that they performed more than forty major operations while in Poland.

As private citizens in a private profession they were able to extend the good will of the American people. Medical men of two countries got together and benefited from their combined achievements.

Much of the success of the visit is attributed to the fact that it was one of the few recent instances when representatives of America and Poland have met on a non-political footing. Under socialized medicine, political considerations would have come first—and health considerations second. As it was, the Polish medical profession was given an invaluable insight into the achievements of private medicine in the United States.

AMERICAN ENTERPRISE ABROAD

In some minds, the activities of American companies which do business abroad are viewed suspiciously. In that connection a statement of policy, made by one of the largest American oil companies, which is engaged in helping develop the petroleum resources of the Middle East, is of exceptional interest. It said: "We recognize that international trade relations involve political considerations of the highest order. Policies governing such considerations are, of course, the responsibility of our government acting in the best interests of all its citizens.

"We do not expect, and have never sought greater protection for our foreign interests than is normally afforded by the United States Government to any private citizen engaged in overseas trade. we inform interested agencies of Government regarding any contemplated foreign agreement or activity of ours that could in any way affect the policies or interests of this country.

"When we do business in other countries we try to be good citizens there. We do not make foreign commitments if we cannot do that and still be in harmony with the foreign policy of the United States."

That is typical of free enterprise in oil and many other fields. American industry abroad fully realizes its tremendous responsibilities—and it works in complete cooperation with our government in advancing the interests of all.

LIMITED MARK-UPS SAVE BILLIONS

The retailers of this country—against whom resentment over high prices is often mistakenly directed—are as worried about inflation as any other group. The retail economy is based upon continued mass distribution, precisely as the manufacturing economy is based on continued mass production. The worst thing that can happen to retailing is to have people forced to pare their buying to the bare-necessity level.

Retailing has not created high prices. It has, on the contrary, taken every conceivable step to prevent them. Long ago, the chain systems voluntarily initiated a policy of cutting overhead costs wherever possible, and reducing mark-ups to the lowest point consistent with safety. Typical independent stores followed. The result is that in many cases profits are lower now than under OPA. But there is a definate limit as to the percentage of increased wholesale prices that can be absorbed. The rest must be passed on to the consumer. And that is why prices have gone up and up.

It is impossible to measure exactly just what retailing's "limited mark-ups" anti-inflation policy has done for us. But it has undoubtedly saved us billions, by holding price increases to lower percentages than would otherwise have been the case. And that, in these times of depreciating dollars, has been a great service.

THE FIFTH HORSEMAN

The official poster for this year's Fire Prevention Week—which will run from October 3-9—shows, in the background, the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse—war, famine, pestilence, and death. In the foreground, carrying a flaming brand, is the Fifth Horseman—fire.

That makes a dramatic and thought-provoking picture. Fire is one of the most consistent killers. Its ravage is especially great among small children. And, on top of that, it disfigures and cripples thousands of people each year. Then, for good measure, it destroys well over $50,000,000 worth of property every month.

Can fire be prevented? The experts say that 90 per cent of all fires, great and small, are unnecessary. Of all fire's allies, human carelessness is by far the most effective. Our collective failure to follow the rudiments of fire safety is the basic reason why fire waste continues to grow. When fire is fought intensively, it always loses. As a recent example, the Navy's Bureau of Yards and Docks has been carrying on a major fire prevention campaign. In the first quarter of this year alone fire damage to its installations were cut by nearly $1,500,000.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin — Sudden seasonal changes in the weather during the fall months often result in chilling, which in turn is usually followed by wide-spread incidence of the common cold. This disease always spreads rapidly because of the fact that very few people can live isolated lives and in any group of crowd of people, coughing, sneezing and spitting will scatter millions of cold germs among susceptible persons.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that there are countless ways of spreading a cold other than by coughing, sneezing and spitting. "For instance" the doctor said, "if a member of your family has a cold and the other members share a common drinking glass with him, you may expect the whole family to pick up the germs he leaves on the glass. Sometimes a person with a cold thoughtlessly touches his mouth or nostrils with his hand, and then shakes hands with another person. That person can, and very likely will contaminate his own mouth or nostrils with his hand, and the germs are transmitted into his system. A child with a cold may contaminate his toys, and the next child that picks them up and plays with them will certainly obtain the cold germs, along with the toys."

Children, as well as adults, who are suffering from a cold should be put to bed, and if complete rest, light food, and plenty of liquids do not improve his condition in a short time, the family physician should be called. Dr. Cox further advised that dressing properly for the weather, sensible eating, plenty of rest, and avoiding persons with colds can be helpful in preventing your own infection. Colds are costly in time. health, and money, the Doctor said, and added, "Prevent them if possible."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Get The Truth!

Called on my good friend "Cappy" Miller, who edits the County Bee, the other day. And hanging up on the wall of Cappy's office is this slogan for his paper:

"Remember there are two sides to every question. Get both sides. Be truthful."

A good slogan . . . not just for a newspaper—for people, too. Because there'll always be two sides to every question: the side of those who vote one way, and those who vote another—the side of those who enjoy a temperate beverage like beer or ale, and of those who swear by nothing but cider.

And from where I sit, once you've got both sides—and faced them truthfully, you realize that these differences of opinion are a precious part of what we call Democracy—the right of the individual to vote as he believes, to speak his mind, to choose his own beverage of moderation, whether beer or cider.

The New Look In Kitchens Features Color, Convenience

Three modern, colorful all-gas kitchens that housewives have seen only in national magazines can be seen in reality in the Natural Gas Building at the Texas State Fair, Dallas, October 9-24.

Faithfully reproduced from McCall's, Ladies Home Journal, and Better Homes and Gardens by one Star Gas Company, these kitchens were selected as the most outstanding designs of the year.

Natural birch cabinets, gay snack-louges, handy snack bars, and practical planning desks are some of the newer elements that appear in the reproductions.

Each kitchen will occupy its own booth in the Natural Gas Building, with one wall cut away, providing fair-goers with an unobstructed view of all feautres.

Pamphlets will be available about each kitchen so that interested Fair visitors can carry home floor plans and descriptions of the features which may be incorporated into their own building or remodeling ideas.

Kelton Tidwell, Delbert Montgomery, Gary Reid, Jr., Sappy Bowley, and Curtis Wayne Gollehon, who are stationed at Camp Hood, Texas, came in Tuesday night to spend a ten day furlough with their parents and with friends.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says Russia's Latest Proposal Has Put Him In The World Thinker Class

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosoper on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek may make Russia mad if he keeps up such letters as the following:

Dear editar:

I have been referred to occasionally by people who maybe ought to know as bein dumb and ignorant and I don't take the trouble to deny it as arguin takes up a lot of time and effort that could be spent relaxin and besides it might be true, but if I am dumb, I wish to say I am not by myself.

I noticed in a copy of a Sunday newspaper which turned up out here Monday mornin where the Russian spokesman, Vishinsky, come out with a proposal before the United Nations meeting for everybody to reduce their land, sea and air force by a third, and for the United Nations to ban the atomic bomb.

Of course, in one way, Vishinsky ain't so dumb. If my wife held the skillet in the house in her hand and was between me & the door and I was wantin to get in to town, I'd be in favor of bannin the use of skillets, but where Vinshinsky falls flat is in believing anybody is gonna take his advice, especially his own country.

J. A.

For example, I guess if every nation reduced its araments by onethird, everybody would still be relatively as safe or unsafe as they was before, but it wouldn't be no trouble at all for the Russians to send out a report on how much she has reduced, but anybody who believed her would be dumber than I am.

Russia reducin araments is about like this country reducin taxes. It just ain't likely to happen.

Personally, I don't know what to do about the Russian situation, but suppose we'll handle it like we have all the other situations, which is talk about it and do nothin until we're forced to, which is generally a few years too late. Which reminds me of the way I fix my house, which is talk about how much it needs fixin and do nothin about it until the roof caves in or the back porch falls off, then I have to do something. Which goes to show that while I may be dumb, dumbness ain't limited to the confines of Miller creek. There is as sort of international dumbness that makes me feel comfortable about my own. You feel all right?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Wheat Situation Is Reviewed By A&M Specialist

What's ahead for wheat, ask Texas farmers. Here's the answer. Facts and figures in the government wheat outlook sound a note of caution. Now that fall seeding is under way, here are the facts as they are seen by E. A. Miller, extension agronomist, and C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A.& M. College.

Here's what the wheat growers like. The continued strong demand here in this country should take up 750 million busheis of this year's big crop. This would mean only 20 million bushels less than what we used last year. The European Recovery Program will use around 450 million bushels. The wheat price support for the 1949 crop is 90 percent of parity through loan and purchase agreements.

And here are a few gloomy facts. The carry-over of wheat stocks next July 1, is expected to be up nearly one-fifth above the prewar level. European wheat production has improved, and will approach the yields they had before the war, if they don't get a stack of bad weather. The United States acreage goal has been set 8 percent below last year's goal, and Texas' recommended seeding goal is down 10 percent. The storage bins are heavily loaded with this year's big wheat, grain sorghum and corn crops.

All in all, it looks like the United States and world supplies have improved quite a bit. Next year's carry-over certainly will be up, and the situation could look a little tough if average yields are had from the acreage goal. The average yields are 71.5 million for the U. S., and 6.5 million for Texas. And another bumper wheat crop in 1949 would probably require marketing quotas for all growers in 1950.

So, it looks like good business to face the facts, says Bates and Miller. If some marginal acres have been in crops that should be returned to pastures, better plan to begin re-sodding now. Increase your summer fallowing and erosion control practices, say these extension specialists, and plant soil-building legumes wherever they are needed.

Plan ahead, plant wisely, and give your soil a break.

State Fair To Open Saturday

The $30,000,000 State Fair of Texas—hailed as the largest annual exposition in the United States—opens Saturday in Dallas for another breath-taking 16-day run.

The "big bertha of the world's state fairs," which covers 187 acres, is expected to draw 2,000,000 visitors before it closes. Nearly a quarter million are expected on opening day.

To tell what visitors will see and enjoy at the 1948 Fair has all the earmarks of a gigantic "Texas brag." But the Fair, as "The Show Window of the Southwest" will truly reflect the many facets of life, industry and economy of this section.

Agriculture and livestock will occupy choice positions, but sharing the spotlight will be scores of entertainment features both on and off the Fair's ten-acre Million Dollar Midway.

More giveaways and free attractions will be featured than at any previous State Fair.

The Five Eltons, performing on trapeze and rings 125 feet in air, will give their sky ballet twice daily, followed by the unparalleled and hazardous mid-air feats of Les Kimris, famous aerial gymnast. Art Linkletter will originate his nationwide daily "House Party" broadcasts from Fair Park auditorium the week of October 11. These attractions and many other broadcasts will be free.

In the Auditorium Jimmy Durante and Harry James will head an all-star revue. At the Grandstand will be the "Flying L" Rodeo with Jimmy Wakely, cowboy singing star. The Ice Arena will contain the third, all-new edition of "Ice Cycles of 1948."

Eleven special shows and new thrill rides, including the complicated new double ferris wheel, will dot the Midway, the greatest number of such attractions ever assembled in Texas.

Major exhibits will include the South's largest automobile show, a revolutionary argiculture show, junior and senior livestock shows with a premium list of $62,291, Palomino and Quarter Horse shows, $100,000 electric show including television, textile, culinary and antiques show, and a spectacular State Fair art exhibit.

A mile-long parade through Dallas, headed By Gov. Beauford Jester, will precede the formal opening. The Governor will be principal speaker Saturday at the dedication ceremonies for the new $800,000 Automobile, Aviation and Recreation Building, part of the Fair's $3,000,000 "new look."

The heated Texas-Oklahoma football game will give the renovated and enlarged 67,435-seat Cotton Bowl its baptism of fire on opening day.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Frieuwirth and daughter left last Friday for points in New York to visit with relatives.

FARM PROGRAM NEWS

from the County Agricultural Conservation Committee

MARKET PRICES ARE ABOVE FARM SUPPORT LEVELS

If the housewife were paying prices for food at the Government price-support level instead of the current market prices, the cost of living would be considerably lower, B. F. Vance, Chairman of the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee, said today.

Commenting on the charge that farm price-supports are causing high food prices, Mr. Vance said that many consumers lose sight of the fact that the program is not designed to keep prices "high," but rather to balance the farmer's income with his cost of operations and living. The price-support level therefore rises or falls according to the relationship between the two.

"Prices for food and other things figured in the cost of living have been steadily rising since 1946, "Mr. Vance points out, "and prices of farm products generally have been above the support level since 1942. Price-support operations are directed by law and have been in effect for only a few products such as potatoes and eggs.

"We also have a situation now where prices of corn and wheat are down to the support level and yet prices are still high for some meat animals, such as beef cattle, which have no price-support programs.

"For most of the important farm commodities under the support program, prices can be supported only at 90 percent of parity. If cattle were selling at full parity, the price would be 14 cents a pound, yet the market price to farmers today is around 24 cents a pound. Hogs at the 90-percent-of-parity figure would be selling at 17 cents a pound, whereas the market price is 27 cents a pound."

ACP ELECTIONS JUST AHEAD

Farmers of Texas should begin thinking about the committeemen they want to administer the 1949 Agricultural Conservation and Price Support Programs, says B. F. Vance, Chairman of the State PMA Committee.

Elections for community and county committeemen will be held in most counties of Texas In each community of those counties farmers will elect a community committee to administer the farm program in that community and to advise with the county committee in the administration of the program in the county. Also at the community election, delegates will be elected to attend a county convention where a county committee will be elected.

The chairman suggests that now is the time for farmers of the State to appraise the work of committeemen who are now administering the program. If they are doing a good job and are doing it as well or better than anyone could do it, then the farmers in the Community and county should support them by turning out at election time and give them a vote of confidence. If the committees can be improved by electing someone else, then that should be done.

In the words of the chairman: "One of the real pillars of strength in the farm program is the elected farmer-committees. The way to keep this strength is for farmers to participate in elections and see to it that the people best qualified to serve as committeemen are elected. The caliber of committeemen we elect this fall may have a lot to do with the future of the farm program. Conservation of our soil and water resources is vital to the well-being of the Nation. We must have the best committeemen we can get to administer this program, the Nation's direct effort to asure the future food supply."

Recommendations for a more flexible program which would provide even lower support have been made by the Department of Agricultural from time to time, Mr. Vance said, and legislation enacted this summer provides such a program in the future. For some commodities, this more flexible plan will become effective in 1949, and for others in 1950.

BEAUTY CREAM

W. R. Morgan, County Agricultural Agent of Henderson County is recommending a "beauty cream" with which to give "Mother Earth" a beauty treatment. The "beauty cream" contains phosphate, legume seed, and innoculant.

The advantages of using this beauty cream are:

(1) Adds fertilizer (nitrogen) to the soil.

(2) Saves the fertilizer that is already in the soil.

(3) Adds humus (vegetable matter) to the soil.

(4) Prevents Erosion.

(5) Furnishes Vitamin and Protein (potash) in Winter.

Directions for Cream Application:

(1) Spread 200 to 400 pounds of 20% phosphate or 200 pounds 20% Potash and 200 pounds O-14-7 to each acre of the face.

(2) Mix the legume seed and innoculant.

(3) Spread 20 pounds (in rows) or 50 pounds (broadcast) if Peas or 10 pounds (in rows) or 25 pounds broadcast if Hairy Vetch is used.

(4) Work the mixture 2 inches deep into the face.

WHEN: As soon after September 1 as season will permit. Can be applied as late as November 15, but the later the poorer the returns.

CAUTION: Neither the bacteria that make the Nitrogen nor the Legume can be fooled—be sure to use the phosphate, potash and innoculant. If small grain is used in the cream, the legume seed can be cut half.

PAYMENTS: The AAA will pay 94 cents per hundred pounds for the 20% phosphate under Winter Legumes; 85 cents per 100 pounds for O-14-7 used under legumes; 13 and 8/10 cents per pound for Hairy Vetch; and 5½ cents per pound on Austrian Winter Peas. The AAA requirements for planting are: Peas 15 lb. in rows; 30 lb. drill; 40 lb. hand broadcast. Vetch 8 lb. in rows; 15 lb. in drill; 20 lb. hand broadcast.

Veterans' News

Prior notice from the Veterans Administration will be sent to veterans whose National Service Insurance term policies will start expiring on or after October 8, 1948.

The notice will be sent two months before expiration date of the original policies. This will give the veterans time to convert their term insurance to a permanent NSLI plan or renew their term insurance for an additional five-year period. Renewals may be made without a physical examinaiton, but at a higher premium rate based on the veterans' attained age at the time of renewal.

VA stressed the fact that veterans who plan to renew their term insurance should submit their renewal application, plus a premium payment, prior to the expiration date of the original term policy.

More than a million and a half veterans were in training under the provisions of the GI Bill on September 1, 1948, VA reported. Over half —871,000— were studying in schools and colleges, with 267,000 enrolled for institutional on-farm training and 414,000 taking on-the-job.

"Encouraging progress", especially in the development of new methods of diagnosis, is revealed in the first reports from doctors working with the Veterans Administration's radio-isotope research program.

VA revealed that Leukemia patients are now being treated with radio-phosphorus in most of the VA hospitals having radio-isotope units. Radio-iodine is being employed to treat some thyroid diseases.

Questions and Answers

Q. I am a World War II veteran and would like to know if VA will pay my doctor if I go to him for an examination to determine whether I need hospital treatment or domiciliary care?

A. The government will pay the cost of examinations by a private physician only if Veterans Administration has given the physician prior authority for such examination.

Q. I have purchased my home without a G-I loan. May I secure a guaranteed loan to buy furniture?

A. No.

Q. I am enrolling under the G-I Bill in a college that collects tuition in advance. There is a chance that I will be forced to drop out before the end of the semester. Must I refund any money to VA?

A. You must refund the tuition that VA paid for the time you did not attend, or lose the training time covered by these payments.

Q. Is it true that I no longer can reinstate my lapsed National Service Life Insurance policy?

A. No. You can still reinstate your policy on a "comparative health basis" within three months from the date of lapse. If your policy has been lapsed for more than three months, you will be required to pass a physical examination to reinstate. Necessary premiums must be paid.

Ranger's Last Patrol

PORT ARTHUR, TEX.—Former Texas Ranger Stirling O. "Sod" Durst, aged 65, makes his last rounds before retiring as a guard at the Gulf oil refinery here. Durst was commissioned a Ranger in 1918, serving on the Texas border patrol. He joined the refinery guard force immediately after Pearl Harbor. A protection system, only slightly relaxed from that used in wartime, is still maintained at this refinery, country's largest in point of production, to safeguard petroleum resources so critical to both the national defense and economy.

Boyce House "Gives You Texas"

The State Constitution provides that, every 10 years, the State shall be re-districted, in accordance with the new census. But Texas has not been re-districted since 1921.

There have, of course, been many changes in population in 27 long years. The result is a situation of gross inequality. There are some House of Representatives districts with five and six times as many people as some other districts.

Nor is this unfair condition confined to a single part of the State. It has been said that South and West Texas are being discriminated against by the failure of the legislature to do its duty. And this is true. But consider that there is one East Texas district with 109,000 and there are lots of districts over the State with less than 25,000 citizens and one with only 19,000. Contrast this one with a second district in East Texas with 127,000 inhabitants.

Yet the district with only 19,000 people has the same power in making laws as the district with 127,000—six times more people and another has 463,000, which is the 1940 census, and the latest estimate is that the district has grown to 754,000. It is the Lower Rio Grande Valley district.

Repeatedly, the legislature has failed to do its duty. Now the people have a chance to take action. In the November 2 general election, Constiutional Amendment 2 will be voted on. This provides that a commission shall have power to re-district if the legislature refuses. The commission will consist of the lieutenant governor, speaker of the House, attorney general, state comptroller and land commissioner.

A situation whereby a man living in one district has only one-sixth of the voice in the making of the laws which he lives as a man somewhere else is not democracy. It is indefensible.

Let's pass Constitutional Amendment 2 and change that condition!

Rule Bobcats Smash Moguls Here Friday

Despite the fact that they got the Munday Moguls showed to several good breaks of the game, be definitely off form last Fridad be definitely off form last Friday night, as the Rule Bobcats took charge of three quarters of play to send the Moguls further in the cellar, 20-0.

The Moguls came within scoring distance twice during the game, but they lacked the punch and teamwork to put over a counter. The line wouldn't hold, and the backfield seemed to lack something or other.

The Bobcats came to life in the second period, and they had the game under control from there out. David Hunt scored the first tally from the 7 yard line, after the Bobcats accounted for 72 yards on straight running plays.

In the third quarter, Billy Hamilton crossed the goal stripe from the one foot line, after a pass interception by Dennis Briles. Briles converted for the extra point.

With only a few minutes to play and the Moguls hopelessly in the deficit column, Coach Cloud sent in some second stringers to give them experience. On the second play Briles intercepted another Mogul pass and raced 65 yards for the final tally. He again plunged over for the extra point.

Rule made 7 first downs, while Munday accounted for 6.

thought. We voted our bonds for nothing.

But board members kept their shirts on, and their heads together. They cut out some unnecessary features of the original plans. They shaved here and there.

* * * *

They concluded with some revised plans that would give us as good a building, one that would serve just as well and as long.

* * * *

They sought bids again. This time the bids were in line with the amount of money to be spent. The contract was let.

* * * *

The new building will be built, and with enough money left to equip it with the things necessary for modern educational facilities.

Work is starting right away, with completion slated for four months later. And that's what was happening every time you went to see one of those fellows and were told, "He's in a board meeting."

* * * *

We say congratulations to them, but they express their appreciation to the citizens and everyone concerned for their splendid spirit of cooperation.

These are the type of men who make up our school board and town. And if we all practice the give and take and stick-to-it-ness that they have, Munday can get blamed near anything she wants!

Achievement Day For Farm Ownership Families Set October 13 At Dallas

In recognition of the achievement of perators of family-type farmers who have paid their loans and continued to operate their farms, the State Fair of Texas has designated October 13 as "Farm Ownership Day."

An achievement award in the form of a certificate will be awarded approximately 1400 eligible families in recognizing the accomplishment of the individual families who used improved agricultural practices to produce income to repay the loan advanced through the Farmers Home Administration.

The certificate is signed by R. L. Thornton, president of the State Fair of Texas, and L. J. Cappleman, state director of the Farmers Home Administration, complimenting the farmer on assuming a place in the ranks of successful Texas farm families who own their homes free of debt. The families who have paid for their farms and are now living on them in Baylor, Knox and Throckmorton counties are:

Albert A. Hencirik, William J. Karr, Ernest R. Knezek, Chester M. Mobley and Delmer F. Styles, Seymour; Glen P. Owen, Bomarton; John O. Robinson, Vera; Leo F. Fetch, Weldon E. Floyd, William F. Lain, Lonnie D. Offutt, Frank C. Russell, Munday; Marshall J. Gass, Goree; Tom W. Hardin, Vera; Julian C. Saunders, Knox City; Robert D. Bailes, Eybert; Linnie L. Bellah and Milton C. Lee, Woodson.

Chief speaker for the program to be given in the Hall of State on the fair grounds at 3:30 p. m. October 13, is Judge Marvin Jones, chief justice of the Court of Claims, Washington, co-author with Senator John H. Bankhead of Alabama of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Purchase Act of 1938.

Other features of the program include recognition of farm ownership county delegations and families and an address by Walter Cardwell, manager Luling Foundation Farms and chairman of the state advisory committee of FHA.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at nights, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
