Local Youth Escapes at Gatesville

A 16-year-old Colorado City youth escaped Wednesday from the State School for Boys in Gatesville.

County authorities were notified that the boy, who formerly had been in trouble here, was discovered missing from the school in the morning.

Although previously on juvenile probation here, the youth had been sent to Gatesville after committing burglary in Stinnett.

His brother was questioned by city police Friday night, after being discovered driving an auto which the boy had reportedly borrowed from an adult Friday afternoon.

Two cars were taken from downtown parking places Friday night, but recovered undamaged a few hours later in the "Band" area of the city.

For the next two years he was busy building permanent radar sites in New York and in the New England states. In Sept. 1952 was promoted to the rank of captain. As Capt. Garrett he was sent to England, as engineer for the building of new air fields.

In 1955, Capt. Garrett became part of the Atomic Energy Commission. His first assignment was that of helping build National stockpile sites for atomic weapons all over the United States.

Most exciting and interesting project, Major Garrett said Friday, "was in Inglewood, Calif., at the Ballistics Missile Division where we engineered and eventually took part in the production and installation of the Atlas Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles."

During that particular era of his military career, Major Garrett worked on every Atlas missile facility built, either in the field of design or in actual construction.

From Inglewood, he was transferred to the engineering field in 1950.

Emanuel Mission Dedication Today

Baptists Set Rites 2:30 P. M.

Formal opening and dedication of the Emanuel Baptist Chapel is set for 2:30, this afternoon in the new building at 4th and Pine.

Recent erection of the new chapel was sponsored by the First Baptist Church, and was done almost altogether by men of the two congregations working together.

Missions board chairman, Jimmie Harrison, Bill F. Carter, Charles Barnes, and others supervised the construction and worked along with other churchmen as volunteer carpenters, painters and laborers to bring the project to completion.

The Spanish speaking congregation will now meet and carry on their full Baptist program in a chapel with pews seating 225. They will sing hymns, for the liquid Spanish tongue, from new hymnals with musical accompaniment on a brand new piano.

Gift of the piano was made by a family, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hart and their sons, Dr. James Hart of Lubbock and Dr. Bill Hart of Corpus Christi.

Choir members in the worship services at Emanuel Chapel will wear new choir robes, gift of First Baptist Church.

Landscaping of the church grounds has been started. The chapel, its furnishings, contents and grounds are now valued at about $16,000 plus, said the Rev. H. W. Bartlett, pastor of First Baptist Church.

First Baptist undertook sole sponsorship of Emanuel Mission two years ago. Previously, it had been under joint sponsorship of First Baptist and Oak Street Baptist Churches.

Story of the growth of Emanuel to its present membership of 80 really began in June, 1936, when Rev. E. P. Gonzales started preaching on the streets of Spanish speaking neighborhoods in Colorado City each Saturday.

In 1937, the Baptist Mission was organized with 18 members. In 1938 they bought and joined together to form a T-shaped building of worship, two houses 12 by 24 ft. each. By then, there were 35 members attending services.

Among former pastors who have served Emanuel are Benabe Q. Bueno, Jose Lujah, P. H. Sullivan, Jose Mendoya, Crecencio Rodriguez, and E. P. Gonzales who recently accepted the interim pastorate of Rev. Gonzales, of Snyder. See BAPTIST MISSION Pg. 2

Signup for the 1964 feed grain program now is under way in the ASCS County Office, A. K. McCauley, Chairman, "B" Community Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

Signup period started February 10 and will continue through March 27.

The 1964 program will be more attractive to many producers than the 1963 program, but basically the program will be about the same, the chairman said. It will be available for the three feed grains, corn, barley, and grain sorghum, and participation will be entirely voluntary although price support eligibility for the three crops will depend on

Two rates of diversion payment will be offered, but the higher rate should apply to more acres under the 1964 program. The minimum rate is again based upon one-fifth of the county's total price support rate. The maximum of higher rate is based on one-half of the support rate.

If the operator signs up to divert 40 percent or more of his grain base, the higher rate will apply to all the acreage diverted. If less than 40 percent is diverted, the minimum rate will apply to 20 percent of the acreage diverted and the higher rate to the acreage between 20 and 40 percent, McCauley said.

Applications to take part in the 1964 feed grain program may be filed in the Mitchell County ASCS Office from Monday through Friday at any time between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

WORLD'S A STAGE

Area Schools Busy Proving "The Play Is The Thing"

BY DORIS ALLEN

Record Society Editor

Schools in Colorado City

are busy proving that Shakespeare was right when he wrote, "The play is the thing."

The play is certainly the thing in this area at the present time. Annual performances of various plays are coming thick and fast in local and county schools.

In rehearsal at Colorado City High School, in addition to the junior class play, "An Apple For Eve," is the inter-scholastic League Contest one.

"An Apple For Eve" is a three-act farce by Jay Tobias. The plot centers around the determination of Miss Dorinda Apple (Pam Pratt), an eccentric spinster, to marry her niece, Eve Langley (Helen May), off to one Bill Apple (a distant cousin and the last male to bear the family name).

Eve, in love with a home boy, Johnny Kelso, (Cal Girvin), is furious, as is Johnny, but her aunt threatens to disinherit her if she refuses to obey the older woman's wishes.

The plot travels through many rib-tickling situations before Miss Dorinda's ultimatum is revoked and the sweethearts are reunited.

An amateur hour is being planned by the junior class of Westbrook High School, for Friday night at 7 o'clock in the high school cafeteria.

Plays and skits will be presented by all grades of the Westbrook school, elementary through high school. Individuals will also perform. Prizes will be awarded for the best acts.

Loraine High School seniors presented their annual class play Monday in the school cafeteria. A performance was given for the school children in the afternoon. The night performance was open to the public.

The three-act comedy "Everybody's Getting Married" was written by William Russell Moore. Students' portraying characters were Larry Beights, Carla Britton, Don Small, Joe Cushing, Stanley Moore, Judy McDaniel, Barbara Doyle, Loretta Tarrt, Charla Hamilton, Joyce Furlow, Cindy Mahon, Danny Cain, Wayne Wallingsford, and Kenneth Reed. Announcer was Joe Garcia, and play director, Bobby Dodds.

The "Lost Kiss," first in a series of one-act plays to be presented this year by the junior high speech class, of Mrs. Arnel Smith, was given Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Characters were Pierrette, Mary Jane Mundy, Pierrot, Gary Jordan, The Kiss, Gloria Richardson, Man, David Hoover, Girl, Sue Smith, Boy, Mike Garrett, Policeman, Jerry Graves, Newsboy, Jim Ty Maddax, Grandma, Tommie Kahler, Maiden Lady, Pam Orr, Announcer was Stella Grant.

Other plays by the junior high speech class scheduled for Friday afternoon and the first week in March. The plays are open to the public.

"The Play Is The Thing"

The play may be the thing as far as Shakespeare is concerned, but Myra Robinson (on the floor) seems rather dubious of the idea, after receiving a kick from Col. Girvin, who stands over her with near-murder in his eyes. (In the production, Myra is dressed as a boy.) Watching the action in shocked surprise is Helen May, who portrays the title role in the junior class play, "An Apple For Eve". Play date is presently scheduled for March 5, reports Mrs. Gerald Gordon, sponsor and play director.

transferred to Walker AFB, Roswell, N. M., where he supervised construction of Atlas silo facilities—a 150 million dollar job for National Defense. Those facilities were completed, were turned over to Strategic Air Command and Major Garrett was sent to overseas duty in Korea. It was while in Korea, at Osan AFB which is 60 miles south of Seoul, that Major Garrett was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal for his engineering feats at Walker AFB. His promotion to Major came in May, 1960, by the way.

This Jet age, of which is he a part, brought him home from Seoul in 15 hours flying time via Tokyo, Anchorage, Chicago, then San Antonio. In San Antonio he was greeted by his wife "Smitty", their 17-year-old son Charles, and daughter Nancy, who is 13. The major will move his family to Austin, after the end of his school term and his son's graduation from high school in San Antonio. Major Garrett has been re-assigned, March 1, to Bergstrom, SAC base, Austin.

Would You Buy A

It wouldn't make sense, of course, any more than buying home insurance in three different parts makes sense nowadays.

It's much easier and more sensible today to combine fire, theft, and personal liability coverages into one, economical package—the Hartford HOMEOWNERS policy.

This snowman, part of the late February snow Thursday night, is ready for a push by his creators, Robert Tenney and Robert Jones, left and right. Though the snow melted rapidly Friday morning, the boys managed to gather enough for their snowman, one of the few built in Colorado City this winter, due to a lack of the necessary material. Parents of the boys are Mrs. M. F. Tenney and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jones.

CONVERSATION CORNER

ONE of the little bits of favorite philosophy in rhyme, long cherished, has to do with roses and thorns. It was, near as it can be recalled, by Frank L. Stanton. Or was it? You know the one which went:

"This old world we live in is surely hard to beat.
You get a thorn with every rose—but aint the roses sweet?"

COURSE nothing new or old under the sun is absolutely original with anybody. That goes for poems, poop, puzzles, puns, and people. And pricks to the fingers—or feelings.

For instance, Longfellow said the same thing only with a little more finesse. Remember?

"There is no rose, so beautiful so sweet,
But has a thorn amid its scented leaf."
There is no life so perfect so complete
But has its doubts, its cares and bitter grief."

HOW TRUE. How true! Thing you have to learn, as time goes by, is to love the roses, anyhow.

You get stabbed by the thorns sometimes . . . or even stung by a bumblebee. But "aint the roses sweet?"

Whiffed the essence of two roses which bloomed just this week. Read in the Howl (CHS publication) a reprint of an essay by Kay Lindsey braggin' on Conversation Corner.

OTHER rose was more like a "Bud." Hear tell the 15-year-old son of the Porter Richardsons also wrote an essay. His name is Bob and he's a freshman in CHS.

Theme about the late President Kennedy, included some lines from a column eulogy in rhyme, "Stilled the Loving Heart."

Proving what? Proving that while a prophet may be without honor in his own country, a columnist in her own town gets read, anyhow!

DECIDED to add for posterity, therefore, our own individual gem of wisdom to all the world's store concerning taking the good along with the bad . . . the blessings along with the misgivings . . . the kicks along with the kicks, if you follow. Here 'tis:

There's a time to be happy, a time, too, to cry
And sooner or later there's a fist in the eye.
A rose is a rose and a thorn is a thorn.
And you're gonna get both—as sure as you're born.

OFFICE visitors nice to see have been young Tom LeMaster . . . Ruth Albart . . . Betty Worrell (Mrs. John M. Sr.) . . . Johnny Grubbs . . . Don Benson . . . Tom Maricle.

Also Gayle Stone . . . Lonella Bruce Crockett (Mrs. W. B. Jr.) and her completely charming little daughter, Kathy . . . Doris Carter, pretty wife of Bill F. Carter . . . and attractive little Donna (Mrs. Larry) Marks.

MET, for what must have been the first time good-looking Major Charles Garrett, son of Mrs. W. H. Garrett, brother of Nelda and J. C. . . . and uncle of Pete and Mike.

Finest thing he had to say, off the record, was how he was determined to "Make Texans out of our California kids." Since they've been living in San Antonio, while the major was in Korea, and will live in Austin where Charles II will enroll in University of Texas, our military man returned thinks he's "got two real Texas Texans, now."

FAN Mail has arrived from Houston, signed Peggy Belvin, to say she is enchanted with her new job. Peg, formerly of the Record staff, is employed now by Ted Roggen Advertising Agency.

FACES, here and there since last issue, have belonged to that cooperative young man named Dick Wistrand . . . G. W. Foster . . . Philip Berman . . . Frank Wilson.

Also young Bill McGuire, who's signed formal intentions of entering University of Texas, come fall . . . Little Helen May giggling over the mis-spelling of the word spelling in the Howl, the CHS paper for which she is a staff member.

Which just "shows to go you" that you can't win for losing . . . that pride goeth before a printing . . . and that into each life some strain must fall.

IN CIVIC HOUSE

Sweetheart Banquet For Calvary Baptist

Theme of the Sweetheart Banquet of the Calvary Baptist Church held in Civic House on Valentine's Day was "Down Memory Lane."

Invocation was said by Cecil Schafer. Following the meal, the king and queen were crowned by Jimmy Bolin, master of ceremonies. King was Lonnie Robertson, and queen was Judy Gooden, both members of the young people department. Group sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," as the coronation took place.

Speaker for the dinner was the Rev. Carl Smith, pastor of the Silver Baptist Church. He spoke on "Memories."

Program included guitar selections by Bill Gressett, Ronnie Creswell, Floyd Cupp and Wayne Clawson, and songs by Mmes. Alton Myers, Paul Stewart, Jackie Pylant and Jimmy Bolin. Another group of songs was sung by Mrs. Jerry Webb, Mrs. Pylant, Miss Gooden, Harvey Humphreys, Gressett, and Bolin.

Orvel Griffith spoke the benediction.

Following the banquet theme of "Down Memory Lane," decorations were of a nostalgic variety. Guests entered through an archway of white wrought iron entwined with tendrils of green ivy and pink and white carnations. A garden path of green grass led to the dining area and was lighted with hurricane lamps. A wishing well stood on one side of the path. While on the other side was a fountain. At the end of the garden path was an apple tree bearing large red apples.

Decorations on the U-shaped table included miniature apple trees, old-fashioned chairs, and nut cups fashioned after the wishing well. A miniature garden path centered the table, lighted with hurricane lamps.

Seventy guests attended.

Mrs. Martin Speaks To Fairview HD

Mrs. Elmer Martin was guest speaker at the Thursday meeting of the Fairview Home Demonstration Club in Medallion Room.

Mrs. Martin's subject was "Citizenship and Voting Duties." She was introduced by Mrs. Earl Hunter, program chairman. Mrs. Martin told members that with the privileges of being a citizen of the United States came certain duties. She read the Texas State Constitution and said that we make our laws and also have the privilege to change them whenever a sufficient number of people desire.

The speaker talked briefly on Communism. She said that it should be studied in order to combat it.
