FARWELL, TEXAS THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1954 SECTION I

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP JR.

Would it be unmanly for the editor this week to devote a column to his 1½-year-old offspring?

Child-doting is a sentimental province usually reserved for proud mothers, but anyone who has ever been a proud father well knows how the young ones sometimes tug on the heart strings of even the most crusty breadwinners.

It is a parental weakness that is well nigh inescapable as one watches a helpless babe grow into boyhood.

We think this young son of ours is outstanding from several vantage points. We offer two-to-one odds that on any given day he can think of more things to get in to than any other kid in Eastern New Mexico or West Texas.

His capacity for discovering things that he shouldn't seems almost limitless. He never ceases to amaze us with his awareness of what is taking place around him.

Feeling that the edge of 23 years of experience in life which we hold over him should certainly make us his intellectual superior, we have at times pitted our wits against his just to observe the results in a scientific manner.

It did not take us long to discover that a 20-month-old boy is pretty sharp on the corners of life, and is not likely to be easily sucked under.

To illustrate our point: Ronny some time ago learned to say "huh-uh" and "no" with such effective clarity that many times he escaped what ordinarily should have been the dictate of his elders.

If we would rise from our easy chair about 9 o'clock in the evening and pick him up and suggest, "It's Ronny's bedtime, isn't it" he would quickly fire back "Huh-uh no!" shaking his head sternly. This usually caught us so far off base that we would be without a good come-back and would put him down to play some more, which of course he knew that we would.

As time wore on, however, we thought we discerned a flaw in his delivery. It appeared as though he answered EVERY question with a huh-uh, no, even before trying to decide what the question involved.

To test our theory, we approached him the other day and asked "Would you like some candy?"

His eyebrows went up in expectation as he returned, "Candy?" And so help us, he had never used the word before!

Needless to add, we were caught without any candy to back up our proposal, which proved to be somewhat disturbing to the young one. It required some time to get his mind off of the subject.

If the writer and his wife never saw their son again from this day, their lives would still reveal the influence of that little mind that they have watched develop.

Even our speech would reveal the memory of him. We suspect that "Get up." would still be "Gup!" and that "Come on." would remain " 'Mon!"

Similarly, a drink would be "denk," a dog would be a "daw," and a cat would be a "dittie." We would ask for "moe" milk and when the bottle was empty, it would be "dawn, dawn." The neon signs would still be "pittie," the bath water often "too ha," and every piece of music heard would be a "mumbo."

* * * *

Every father feels the same way about his son, we are sure, and at times, our vain heart almost pops with pride whenever he does something really clever in company.

But we guess that a little foolish sentiment doesn't hurt anything at this age, because it is so plain to see that he is growing from our wings so very fast.

* * * *

Our nomination for the world's champion salesman is Ben Smart of the Furniture Mart Store in Texico. He has pulled some pretty showy merchandising ideas in the past, but without a doubt his achievement to crown all others came up only recently.

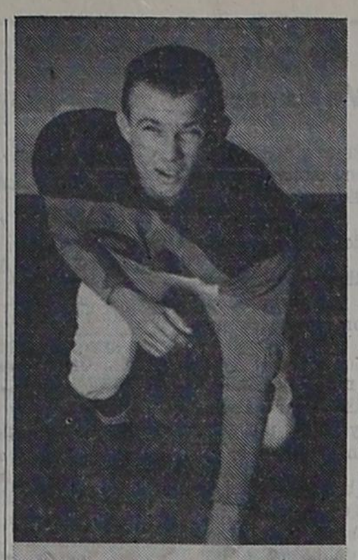

Probably you are familiar with the fantastic assortment of odds and ends (not furniture, by the way) carried in stock at the store. They get all of that miscellaneous merchandise by sticking with their label of being "The tradingest, swappingest store in the country."

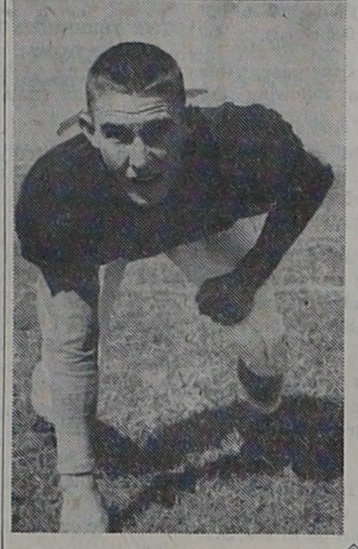

Somewhere Ben traded for an assortment of inexpensive boots and shoes. His stock was moving along pretty well until he noticed that for some reason, one of the "pairs" of boots were both manufactured for wear on the left foot.

This threw him a curve until he stumbled onto a hobbyist who agreed to buy the boots for $1 apiece and made table lamps out of them. Brother!

AT FORT BLISS

Relatives here have received word that Don Ford who recently was inducted into the army, is now stationed at El Paso, where he will undergo basic training. He the son of the Ray Fords of Muleshoe, formerly of this city, and a grandson of the J. H. Fords of this city.

Lazbuddie Ties For Championship

The Longhorns had a great season as they compiled a 8-1-1 record, says James Ward, Supt. The tied game was with Bula, who was selected by the District Executive Committee to play in the Bi-District contest as they edged the Longhorns 11 to 7 on first downs. The score was 13 to 13 while each team had two penetrations. Lazbuddie lost its season opener to Jayton in a non-conference game.

In the Smyer game, Lazbuddie was trailing 18-14 at the half, but came from behind with some good playing to win 47-30. Longhorn touchdowns were made by David White, Sammy Cox and Robert Ivy, with Joe Briggs and Jimmy Ray Oliver each scoring twice. Virgel Merriott, who ordinarily is a kick specialist, intercepted a Smyer pass for one of the best plays of the game. Johnny Gammon also played an outstanding game.

Coach C. W. Dukes' boys were small, and he says that will, determination, and cooperation of the boys are responsible for the fine record. A junior, Leon Smith, who weighs only 149 pounds, was the heaviest man. The teams starting line-up averaged 137 pounds.

The loss of six seniors will hurt the Longhorns another year; however, Coach Dukes says he has some freshmen and sophomores to team with Juniors Jimmy Oliver, Leon Smith and Olen Ivy and should have another good year.

The six who will be lost by graduation are Virgel Merriott, Jimmy Ivy, Robert Ivy, Joe Briggs, Sam Cox and David White.

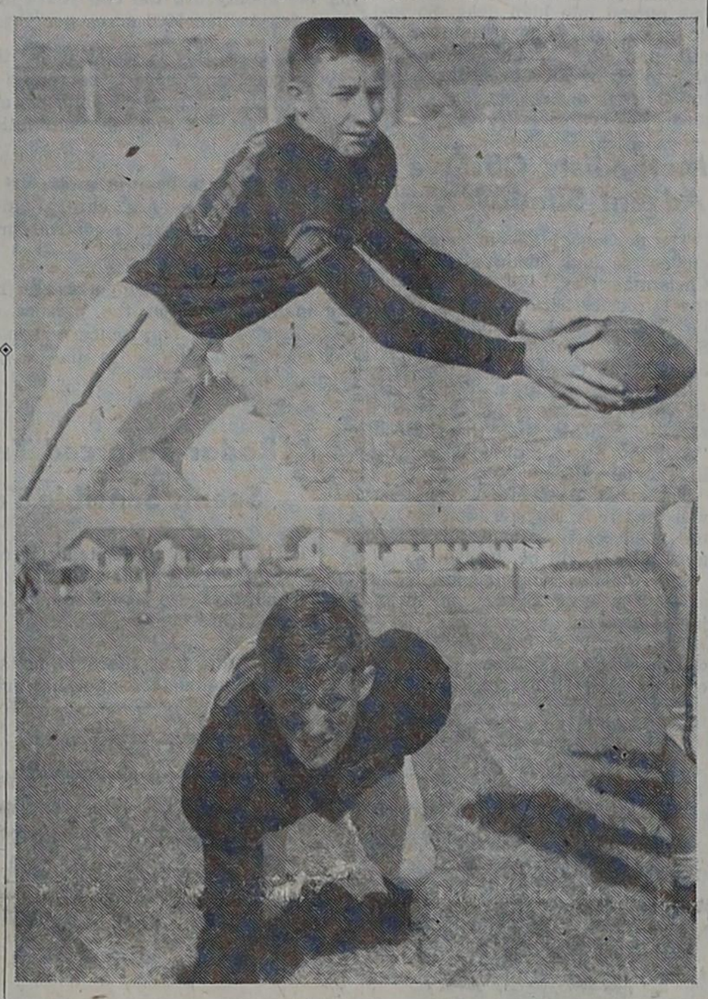

These "thumbnail sketches" were prepared by the Lazbuddie athletic department: Robert Ivy (upper left), end, was considered one of the best defensive players in the district. He was the regular left end and an outstanding pass receiver.

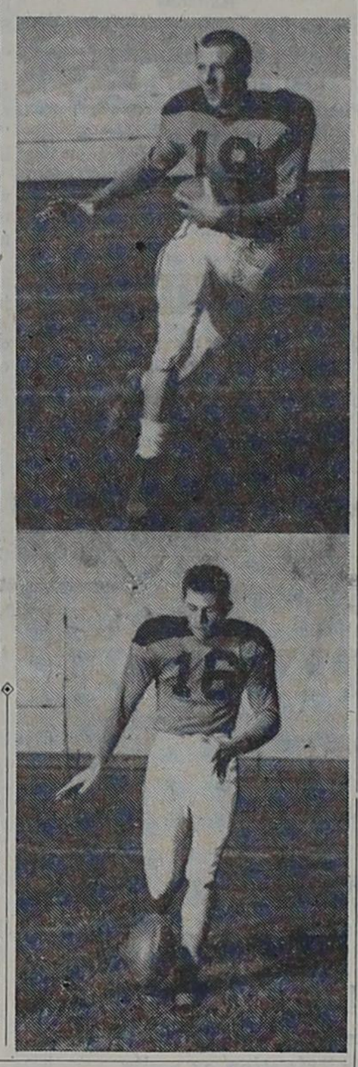

Joe Briggs (lower left,) has been an outstanding end for the past two seasons. He was unable to play until his junior year because of illness, but he has been highly praised since that time.

Jimmy Ivy (upper center), back, showed up well until injured in the second game of the year and did not get to play anymore. He was considered an excellent defensive man, too, and his loss hurt the team considerably.

Sam Cox (lower center), a center with a lot of fight and hustle, was co-captain and did a bang-up job on both defense and offense. He was rated one of the best centers in the district, and likely will be on the all-district team.

Exes Banquet Is Friday Night

All ex-students and teachers of Farwell Schools (including the consolidated schools of Oklahoma Lane and West Camp) are reminded that what probably will be their biggest and best banquet in history is scheduled for Friday night, Nov. 26, at 7:30 p. m. at the high school cafeteria.

Smokey Gast, president of the Association, said that an outstanding program of entertainment had been arranged for, in addition to the traditional Thanksgiving-style dinner, and the organization was hoping for the biggest crowd on record.

Over 100 persons have made reservations for the banquet, although at the time this story was written less than one-third of the inquiries sent out had been returned.

Highlight of the banquet will be a talk by Paul Crume, author of the nationally-quoted "Big D" column in the Dallas Morning News. Crume is recognized as one of the most entertaining columnists in the Southwest, and likely is the widest-known graduate of Farwell Schools.

He is the son of Charlie Crume of this community and has other members of his immediate family living here also.

Crume never bills himself as a speaker, and vows that he is "good for only about ten or fifteen minutes." Those who have heard him testify, however, that the "ten or fifteen minutes" are most entertaining ones and his remarks usually go over with a bang.

In addition, the program will be further lightened with music from "Hernando and his Farwell Soup Sippers," led by Charles Phillips. The group has distinguished itself over a wide area for western ballads and home-spun humor.

A fee of $1.50 is being charged for the dinner, which will be baked chicken and all the trimmings.

President Gast emphasized that it had been impossible for the Association to contact everyone who might be interested in attending, and he urged that any ex-student or teacher from the school should consider themselves welcome at the banquet.

Paving Struggle Renews

After deliberating since Sept. 21 over arguments on whether the City of Texico should or should not underwrite a paving project that would cost approximately $50,000, the New Mexico State Supreme Court last weekend tossed the hot potato back into the lap of the District Court in Clovis.

Rendering no ruling in the matter, the high body held that insufficient evidence had been presented on the part of the defendant (those favoring the paving), and indicated that another trial would be necessary to clear the matter up.

Texico Mayor Ira S. Levins said this week that the city will press once again for a judgement in its favor, and said that the city's attorney, Lewis Cox of Clovis, is making preparations to file with the District Court at Clovis for a re-trial.

The case will then have to be re-entered on the docket, and no guess was available as to when it might come up again.

Also uncertain are matters of court procedure when and if the debate is brought again into the district court. Mayor Levins did not know whether the trial would begin anew, or "take up where the other one left off."

The case was dismissed by District Judge Hensley at the request of Attorney Cox. The defendants did not use their option to place witnesses on the stand to back up their case in the first trial, and, apparently, the Supreme Court did not rule because it had heard insufficient evidence from that side.

Doll Still Looks For New Mama

Because of the generosity of Frank Cornelius of Texico, citizens of Texico-Farwell will have a second opportunity to own the ESA Christmas doll, Mrs. Dorothy Quickel, president, announces.

Cornelius was the recipient of the doll at Trades Day Saturday afternoon, but did not keep the toy. He returned "Esa" to be the sponsoring organization to be used in further financing of their many-fold Christmas program, which includes not only Santa's trip to the Twin Cities and distribution of treats, but Christmas baskets to deserving persons of the communities.

Scott Levins, owner of Border Theatre, has consented to holding an auction of the doll between shows, Thursday night, December 2, immediately preceding the show's weekly give away event.

Money derived from the auction will enable ESA to remember a worthy child, a shut-in, or another older person without a family who might not otherwise have been included in the program this year, Mrs. Quickel says. "All members of ESA wish to express appreciation to Frank Cornelius for his outstanding gesture aiding ESA's work, and to everyone who has helped in any way in the financial projects, sponsored by ESA to derive funds for their large Christmas undertakings," Mrs. Quickel emphasizes.

The first car race was from Paris to Rouen in 1894.

Football Banquet Honors Steers

With blue and white, Farwell school colors, highlighting the decorative motif, and a well-planned program centering on football, annual banquet honoring Farwell Steers was a remembered social function Friday night in Clovis. About 135 football boys, parents, and fans gathered for the occasion.

Dr. Floyd Golden, president of ENMU at Portales, addressed the group. His talk centered on the importance of football and other sports in building character and developing good sportsmanship.

Banquet tables were centered with a miniture replica of a football field with goal posts wrapped in blue and white and the blue field dashed with white yardage stripes. The displayed Steer football, which was painted gold and decorated by mothers of the football boys, was presented to Miss Marilyn Austin, football sweetheart, by Don Pool, captain.

Furthering the theme, were individual favors—p i g s k i n-shaped place cards bearing the program, the menu and the date. Members of the Steer team had special favors of the same type, which were finished in leather.

Farwell Swing Band, directed by Mrs. Erma Jobes, gave opening and closing selections, and played the school Alma Mater. Rev. Vance Zinn, faculty member, gave the welcome and served as master of ceremonies for the event. Wendell Pike gave the blessing and response was by Troy Christian. Coach Carrol Cates introduced the speaker.

Holiday dinner served at the banquet included chicken, gravy, potatoes, green beans, salad, cranberry sauce, tea and coffee, hot rolls and sherbet.

Hostesses were Mrs. Loucille Foster, and Mrs. Carrie Hardage; Mrs. A. T. Watts and Mrs. Melvin Snider assisted with the decorations.

TO ACCOMPANY ROBERTS

Mrs. W. M. Roberts and children will accompany her husband as far as Bellview, when he attends the teacher's convention in Forth Worth this weekend. The family will remain in Bellview to visit Mrs. Robert's mother, Stella Jones.

Also accompanying the family will be Don Pool and he and James Roberts will go to Ft. Worth Saturday afternoon to attend the TCU football game.

Lions Variety Show Postponed Until Later

A pre-Christmas musical variety or talent show, originally scheduled for production Dec. 9, has been postponed because of a conflicting event at Texico Schools, says John Getz, club president.

Workers, meeting Monday night to do more organizing on the event, decided to put the show off until a later date and decide on a money-raising event of some other type instead.

Bovina Corrals Bi-District Tilt

Fullback Read May Miss Game

Boosters of the Bovina Mustangs, champions of District 3-B football this season, have dug down into their pockets to guarantee Meadow Schools a $350 take, in order to get the bi-district championship played in Bovina.

The game has been set for Thursday afternoon (tomorrow) at 2:30, and because of the holiday, a large crowd not only from Bovina but from the surrounding territory as well, is expected to be on hand.

The Mustangs completed an unblemished conference season last week by passing Farwell 27-13 to capture the championship narrowly missed only last year.

In addition to the $350 guarantee, Meadow will collect one-half of the gate receipts after expenses, such as the purchase of the trophy, have been taken care of.

Admission to the contest has been pegged at $1.50 and 75 cents, with another 50 cents being assessed each car brought into the arena.

Officials have been announced as Criswell and Stagner of Hereford and Wright and Jarnegan of Sudan.

Reports from the coaching staff are that the Mustangs will be in tip-top shape for their test against Meadow, except for Darrell Read, fullback, who is nursing a broken thumb.

Believed to have been injured in the Bovina-Whitharral game, Read's thumb was not pronounced broken until after last week's tiff with the Steers.

Tuesday morning, his availability was still in question. The team physician, said Supt. W. H. Willoughby, had recommended that Read not be used in the game (up until that time), but officials added that the possibility of protecting the boy's injured hand with a splint and bandage was being investigated.

"We will sure need him on defense if we can use him," said Willoughby. Read, who does much of the team's passing, will not be used in this capacity at all, as the injury is to his right hand—the one used for tossing aerials.

Donations, say Mustang boosters,

Cotton Gins Hum Busily as Pretty Days, Cotton Strippers Speed Up Harvesting

Mechanical cotton "strippers," the ravenous machines that are the equal of up to 50 hand boll pullers when they can be used in the field, have invaded snow-white expanses of cotton fields over the area within the last 10 days and under the cover of near-perfect weather, are moving the harvest along very rapidly.

All gins in the Texico-Farwell and Parmer County area are reported "covered up" and in some cases several hundred bales are waiting on the gin yards to be run through.

Yields are still running better than expected in nearly all instances, and the grade is considerably improved over what was present at the same time last year.

Cotton this season has had the good fortune of escaping any serious weather which lowered the grades several notches in 1953.

County Agent Joe Jones, in checking with ginners, estimated that "about forty-five or fifty per-cent" of the cotton was harvested by Tuesday of this week.

Nearly all gins were operating around-the-clock on a seven-day week in order to keep abreast of the stream of trailers coming from the fields.

Jones says that the Parmer County cotton production this year will likely be 50,000 bales—considered very good under the allotment now in effect. Also, some cotton in the middle, and north- and south- eastern parts of the county was completely hailed out earlier in the year and replanted to feed.

Texico City Dads Open Tower Bids

Commissioners of the City of Texico, meeting Monday night, accepted and opened two bids on the erection of a water tower for the city. The bids were from the Chicago Bridge and Iron Works and the Pittsburg-DeMoines Bridge and Iron Works.

Bids on drilling a water well to supply the city were turned down on a technicality. No contract was awarded at the meeting.

Major Ira Levins said preliminary engineering work on the scheduled water and sewer system has been completed, and that data is now being submitted to prospective bidders for their study.

Bonds in the amount of $120,000, voted by the city several weeks ago, are being printed, and will be sold in the near future. It will then be possible to begin awarding contracts for work on the several phases of the city's improvements, said Levins.

"NUTS TO THEM" GOOD X-MAS GIFT

You can play Santa Claus to some happy little fellows who really need a handout, if you remember "nuts to them."

This reminder was brought to the attention of staff members of The Tribune this week, by Squirrels Inc., a non-profit group designed solely to see that the squirrels on the courthouse square have plenty to eat. The little bushy-tailed friends are fed entirely by contributions, and their cupboard is getting bare.

The squirrels, which entertain younger visitors at the courthouse with their antics, eat about a gallon of nuts a day.

So members of Squirrels Inc. ask that citizens save all the left-over holiday nuts to be given the little courthouse animals. Any contribution by check or cash may be mailed to Squirrels Inc., c/o County Agent's Office, Farwell.

Receipts Creep Closer To Hospital Goal

A report from Manager Jimmy Baxter of the Parmer County Community Hospital Tuesday morning set the drive for a new hospital building at $32,594.73, in cash. The immediate goal is $50,000 in cash, the amount necessary before construction can begin.

In addition a total of $8,628 has been pledged, said Baxter, making the total in cash and pledges $41,222.73.

He estimated that "one third" of the contacts have yet to be made in the Friona area, and returns from the outlying districts have been slow in coming in.

Muleshoe And Morton Are Next On Schedule

Two schools are scheduled to play the Farwell basketball teams next week, according to the season schedule.

Both boys and girls teams will go to Muleshoe November 29 for non-conference matches, with the play to begin at 7 o'clock in the evening.

DeSoto-Plymouth Dealership Granted Hardage as New Models Are Delivered

Announcement was made this week that Hardage Motor Company of Farwell has been granted a franchise as a DeSoto-Plymouth dealer, and Walter Hardage, owner, this week said that some new cars were already being delivered here.

Hardage, who has not held an automobile dealership for several months, said, "we have been waiting to see what the new 1955 cars looked like before making any decision."

Deliveries of both makes started this week, and the owner commented that six new cars already had been sold even though the stock was not on the floor in Farwell.

DeSoto and Plymouth are divisions of the Chrysler Motor Company, and represent that manufacturer's entry in the medium and low-priced fields, respectively.

Both makes have been radically altered from previous models, with the lower-priced Plymouth sporting a V-8 engine for the first time in its history.

The first of the week, a DeSoto was still on hand for public viewing, and Plymouths from the Amarillo branch distributorship were being expected momentarily.

Mrs. Lokey Gives Tips On Mailing

Postmistress Loma Lokey today announced a three-point program designed to insure delivery of all Christmas cards and gift packages by December 25.

"I've found," she explained, "it's not enough to slap up posters all over town saying, 'Shop Early, Mail Early'. That's the main idea of course, but I'd like to be more specific."

Specifically, then, she first urged business firms to mail their regular correspondence before 4:00 p. m. throughout the Christmas season.

"This will leave elbow room at the Post Office to process the tremendous volume of holiday mail we'll be handling.

"Point 2, consequently, requires the public's cooperation. Begin by checking your Christmas card list this week. Each address should include the full name, street and include, city, zone and state.

"After this, visit the Post Office to order the stamps you'll need. Lay in a supply of heavy wrapping paper and strong cord as well. Then there will still be a week left for leisurely Christmas shopping—one New Year's resolution you can keep!

"Finally, the Post Office itself has moved into high gear. So just do your part, and remember all gift packages should be mailed December 5, all Christmas cards by at least a week before Christmas," she concludes.

Methodists Observe Advent Sunday

The Season of Advent, which includes the four Sundays preceding Christmas Day, will be noted at the 11 o'clock service at The Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, Sunday, November 28, as Advent Sunday will be observed.

The pastor, Rev. Miller H. Stroup will bring a pre-Christmas message, speaking on the subject, "And the Angel Said." There will be special music.

The evening service at 7:30 p. m. will feature a singspiration led by the youth choir. The pastor's sermon subject will be, "About Salt."

The Sunday School hour is 10 a. m. The MYF supper and meeting is 6 p. m.

The choir will hold the regular weekly rehearsal, Wednesday, December 1, at 7:30 p. m.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Cotton Allotment To Be Stiff, But What Else Could We Expect?

The prospects for a 1955 cotton allotment that will satisfy most of the growers of the county are not too bright this week, and there is talk in the air that Parmer County growers may find their allotment for next year set at 40,000 acres or less.

That is quite a contrast with the 100,000 acres which were planted to cotton last year—the most recent season in which acreage controls were not deemed necessary.

Persons in the know don't see much possibility of being able to juggle the figures this year as was done last year, either, so we may wind up with a smaller allotment than had been hoped for.

In 1953, the county allotment (based purely on history) would have been about 16,000 acres. This was boosted to about 28,000 by the state PMA committee, and finally, we ended up with the "65-40-50" provision which gave us around 56,000 acres.

Don't hope for such drastic increases this year, warn those who have been following the cotton situation.

Since the allotment is based on previous years of production, it is obvious that what is hurting the county are the two years of 1948 and 1950, when fewer than 5000 acres per year were planted.

However, this is water under the dam, as the saying goes, and there is no reason to worry about it now. This situation will improve as time goes on, and that is about the only consolation we have for ourselves.

One thing to bear in mind, we believe, is that we as producers are entitled to no justifiable complaint when asked to control our acreage under a supported price system.

If the present supports are right (which is argumentative), then the present controls should be right also. Our only concern should be to see that controls are equitable to the largest number of farmers possible.

Radar-Enforced Traffic Seems Sensible To Us

To those who so heatedly have been fighting the installation of radar tracking devices along Texas highways, we would say, "You don't have a leg to stand on."

We submit that there is no sound argument against this method of enforcing our traffic laws—which admittedly are the most indiscriminately violated, and which have the most disastrous consequence when broken—of any in the land.

We say that it is a said state of affairs when the state government finds it necessary to step in and take a strong hand in our driving habits to keep us from killing ourselves, but if that is what is necessary, then by all means it should be done.

If the drivers of Texas—or any other state—don't like the legal speed limits now about to be enforced for the first time in history, they should change these laws by so directing their legislators. Ignoring a speed limit simply because one presumes that it is outmoded is little excuse for breaking the law.

The driver who is interested in not only his own skin, but the welfare of others as well, will abide by safe speed margins at all times, and for this reason there is absolutely no reason to believe that he should fear electronic instruments to see if he is operating his vechicle in accordance with the posted speed limitations.

The radar tracking device will do much toward taking some of the cockiness out of the owners of big and powerful automobiles who make sport of swooping in and out of traffic at a high rate of speed, risking the well being of everyone on the highway.

Present-Day Kitchens "Stolen" From The Olden Days

The new large kitchen enthusiastically hailed by homemakers is a "steal" from Grandma's time—and although it is as heartwarming as any country kitchen, the kitchen of 1955 is a sophisticated, city-wise version with all the latest modern appliances.

One such multifunctional room performs the service of four, with areas for cooking, eating, laundry work and relaxation. Youngsters can be in plain view, without being underfoot, in a planned kitchen play area. Growing, too, in popularity are kitchen facilities not only for children's play but for desk work, sewing and entertainment. Kitchen work areas are simplified so that the homemaker can visit while she works.

In this kitchen as in any modern kitchen, major appliances form the basis for the "working areas." One of these major appliances is the modular gas range which consists of an oven-broiler, which can be positioned in any wall of the kitchen at any convenient level, depending upon the height of the homemaker. The top burner unit, also, can be placed in a counter top or island at any desired location in the kitchen. This provides ample work space for food preparation. The separation of cooking units permits new freedom in kitchen design and puts cooking exactly where the homemaker wants it.

There is plenty of working space also between the gas refrigerator and the cooking center and on each side of the sink. And, since the kitchen is a living area, the silence of the Servel gas refrigerator is appreciated, as well as the constant supply of ice cubes made possible with the "ice maker."

Included in the working area is a sanitary unit consisting of a gas-fired incinerator for garbage and trash disposal. In the laundry area, there is an automatic gas clothes dryer, teamed with the washer, and an automatic gas water heater with sufficient capacity to meet dish-washing, laundering, bathing and house-cleaning requirements. To save footsteps, this automatic gas water heater is built into a closet close to the laundry unit where it is easily accessible. There's an easy chair close by for reading while washer and dryer do the work.

The old-fashioned kitchen was the heart of the home, where family and friends were apt to congregate at all hours of the day because it was usually the cheeriest spot. Today's large kitchen is a place where family and friends can enjoy a homey supper or an evening of television. Dad has a chance to broil steaks to perfection in the broiler of the gas range. The youngsters can set up games on the table. Best of all, cooking, dishwashing and laundry never take mother away from the heart of family activities.

In the future, it is quite possible that kitchens will become even larger, now that it has been discovered how liveable a multi-purpose room can be. Still looking very much like the business end of the house, the living-kitchen welcomes company with the greatest charm. This is a kitchen where you like to keep a coffeepot on the range and full cooky jar on the shelf.

Fire Claims Much Texas Timberland

AUSTIN—Texas has burned enough prime pine forest since 1951, to build 50,000 homes for its citizens.

According to figures of the Texas Forest Service and the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, East Texas forest fires annually destroy timber valued at 2,500,000.

By the end of 1954, Texas will have had an estimated 3,659 forest fires and each will destroy approximately 55 acres of timber. That's enough to fill a train of 40,000 freight cars stretching from Amarillo to Houston.

POPPIN' OFF... WITH POP

Television certainly has its effect on everyone. The other night a friend of ours turned on his radio by mistake and thought he had gone blind.

Have you heard about the rich Texas oil man who visited Paris? He leaned way back to look up at the Eiffel Tower, and exclaimed: "Um-m-m. . . Ah wonder how many barrels that'n produces!"

Teacher: "With a single stroke of his brush, the painter could change a smiling face to a frowning one."
Small boy: "So can my mother."

Gasoline and oil: the two things every car MUST have. Did you ever think just how important it is to use good products for your engine? Of course, Old Pop can't be beat for quality or price either.

HIS HONOR IS A HOG MAN

This is a picture of Frank W. Green, the "mayor of Lazbuddie." It was taken on his 79th birthday as he was coming from the schoolhouse with his garbage pushcart.

Mayor's Job A Snap At Lazbuddie

Small rural communities on the Plains have very interesting sidelights in human affairs. A good example of this is the more or less official nature of an "office" held by Frank W. Green, who is known as "the mayor of Lazbuddie."

Frank, who is 79 years old, is on duty 24 hours a day, and he is very careful to see that his duties of office are not neglected. In fact, there is only one that the community considers of any importance, and he has never been known to fail to act when called upon.

This is to "chew out" the mailman, when, for some reason, he may be delayed. Mail is terribly important to a rural community such as Lazbuddie, and therefore, just about the most vital job for any official is to see that the mail comes through on time.

When off duty, Frank can usually be seen moving his little push cart back and forth between his home and the school. A hog raiser, Frank makes good use of the garbage from the school cafeteria in making up the ration for his swine.

The mayor was born in Macon, Ga., Nov. 15, 1875. He came to Kosse on Jan. 8, 1900, and there was married to Mae Jackson on Jan. 8, 1903. He and Mrs. Green live on "main street" in Lazbuddie.

They moved to the community in 1924, and he has lived there ever since, except for four years spent in Cleburne, 1927 to 1931. The Greens have eight children, five of whom are living, fourteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

In his spare time, Frank does gardening.

The annual Thanksgiving supper was held at the school on Tuesday night. Traditional turkey 'n dressing were served. Music was provided by a string band, and an auction was held to try and raise money for a new school piano. The piano was on display during the affair. Mrs. Jack Smith was in charge of arrangements.

The basketball season has moved into full swing. Practice games have been played with Springlake, Friona, and last Friday night with Spade. The Lazbuddie girls defeated Spade 69-57. High scorers were Joy Smith with 28 points, and Clara Jean Jesko with 15 points. The team includes: forwards: Jean Gammon, Maryellen Thompson, Janice Oliver, Janis Clark, Clara Jean Jesko, and Joy Smith; guards are Nealy Steinbock, Imogene Treider, Theresa Jesko, Mary Gonser, Louise Ham, Danny Rue Cargile, Jeanell Floyd, Juanita Scott, and Patsy Cox.

Texico Journalism Students Bring Home Honors

Winning two firsts and one second place award at the annual Journalism Day at Texas Tech, Texico journalism students came home a happy and satisfied group.

The Wolverine's Tale, Texico high school publication, was awarded first prize in its division, that of school page in the community newspaper. Taking first place ribbon for best column was Patricia Morgan, senior, who also won second in the feature story contest. Awards for the various winners were presented following the parlor luncheon. Patricia Morgan has the honor of being the only individual from the 26 schools participating to receive two awards.

Other schools competing in the contests were Amarillo, Levelland High and Junior High, Crane, Lamesa, Hutchinson Junior High (Lubbock), Lubbock High School, Lorenzo, Miami, O'Donnell, Slaton, Plainview, Tulia, Frenship, (Wolfforth), Amherst, New Deal, Odessa, Brownfield, Paducah, Pecos, Plainview Junior High, Fort Stockton, and Littlefield.

During the morning, students attended clinic sessions discussing various problems of the school newspaper. A panel discussion was featured, giving some of the opportunities in the field of journalism. The panel was comprised of Dr. William E. Hall, head of the Tech Journalism department, Chas. A. Guy, editor and publisher of the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, and W. D. Rogers, president of Texas Telecasing, Inc.

Each man stressed the fact that the best place to begin your journalism work is a weekly newspaper, where you have the chance to learn all phases of newspaper printing and publishing.

In the afternoon, all schools represented were invited to see the Texas Tech-Houston University football game.

Texico Wolverines Win Game 62-44

Texico Wolverines really made a good showing last Friday night when they played their first conference basketball game with Ranchvale and won by a score of 62-44. The girls were on the low end of the tally, 49-23.

In the first quarter with the main string, Jimmy Don Moss, captain, Jerry Johnson, Allen Lockhart, Allen Kelley, and Darral Smith starting, the ball was back and forth with each team scoring. Jerry Johnson sprained an ankle in the first quarter and was replaced by Kenneth Reid. In the second quarter the Wolverines scored ahead and stayed that way during the rest of the game, with substitutes playing on and off.

Being the first game of the season for the Wolverines, the fans were particularly impressed with the teamwork of the boys. Credit goes to the coaches too, C. B. Stockton and Curtis Miller, for working hard and having a winning team.

The Texico girls played Friday night with Ranchvale also and made a pretty good showing against a team that has been first in the county for several years. During the first half of the game the Texico Whirlwinds were tied with the Ranchvale Trojanettes several times, but didn't seem to be able to get ahead. In the last quarter the Ranchvale girls scored quite a few points while the Whirlwinds, hit the basket for only a few and the Trojanettes won the game.

The main string starting out Friday night for the Whirlwinds were forwards Anita Tharp, Sue Reid, and Barbara Caldwell. Guards were Nadine Thornton, Sue Doolittle, and Joyce Gillean. Substitutes were played during the last half of the game.

The pep club traveled to Ranchvale with the teams Friday night.

Twirp Week Climaxed With Big Party

Everyone in Texico High thought Twirp season was tops. This grand event ended Saturday night, November 13, and was climaxed with a party given for all students. With thirty-six students attending, the party was a big hit.

Twirp tags which were purchased by the faculty were presented in assembly to Mr. Frederick and Mrs. Patterson as a "special favor."

Rules governing the twirp week were:

1. All dates had to be secured by girls.
2. All participants (both boys and girls) had to buy a twirp tag.
3. The girl should use her car, but some parents objected, so it wasn't made compulsory.
4. A special twirp tag had to be purchased for 5c extra if a girl dated a boy out of school.
5. Anyone coming stag to the twirp party at the end of twirp season was fined 10c.
6. The girl was obligated to pay for everything bought when on a date.
7. All violators of these laws were prosecuted in Kangaroo Court.

Punch and cookies were served after several exciting games were played.

NEGRO MINSTREL IS PRESENTED

Highlighting the Tuesday night performance of "The Negro Minstrel" were the end men who entertained a capacity crowd with a round of jokes. Serving as end men were Marvin Pendergrass, Darral Harris, Jimmy Don Moss and Rex Harris. Allen Kelley was Mr. Interlocutor.

Several soloists were featured on the program. Bobbye Richardson sang "Mood Indigo." "I am looking For A Date Tonight" was presented by Doris Harriman and Susan Levins sang "Pretty Baby." Mollie Barnes sang "Lazy Moon." Sandra Hall and Lynell Lovett sang a duet, "You're Just In Love." Another duet, "Somebody Loves You" was by Garlene Seale and Melba Dosher.

Adding variety to the show Patricia Morgan gave a reading entitled "The Cat Came Back" and D'Rene Danforth did a tap dance routine.

The chorus and The Wind Jam Jivers also participated on the program.

Good Going Kid!

By Bobbye Richardson

Congratulations, seventh and eighth graders and sponsors, for the good job you did in giving the assembly program. Not only was it a very inspirational program, but we were proud of the willingness shown by you in giving it. Also, we wish to commend you on inviting the parents and the hospitality shown them.

It is things like this that will build interest in what is going on in our school. We can't expect people to be interested in what is going on unless they are given something to be interested in.

The seventh and eighth grades have done their share, come on High School let's help them, let your parents know what is happening in Texico High!

SHARON KAY HENDRIX IS NEW FIFTH GRADE STUDENT

Sharon Kay Hendrix was heartily welcomed into the fifth grade class last Monday. Sharon has been attending school at Midland, this year, but plans to be here the rest of the year.

Science projects and experiments are holding the spotlight in this room. Bacteria and molds have been grown. The plant table also, has increased in number. Jean Hadley and Patsy Hall brought fish for the aquarium.

SENIOR PERSONALITY

A familiar figure around Texico is a blonde five-foot senior, who is enrolled in Typing 11, chorus, shorthand I, American history, and Journalism I.

Naomi Hapke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hapke is a reporter of the senior class and press club. She is also a member of the pep club and business education club. Besides her school activities, Naomi is employed by the State Line Tribune.

Naomi listed her favorite place to go as the show and as her favorite food, Mexican food. Her pasttime is reading, with music being her hobby. Mice (not men) are Naomi's pet peeve.

Members of the senior class are wishing Shirley Stover a quick recovery from her appendectomy. She is missed by the class and most certainly her loss will be felt on the basketball team, as her position was that of post forward on the main team.

Another day of ad selling for the annual staff has passed. Seems that Johnny Peterson was quite busy viewing his girl friends around town.

Students of Texico School were really busy taking six weeks' tests recently. Seniors were going in a mad rush, with the senior play being presented that week also.

By the way, we'd like to thank everyone for helping the seniors by coming to the plays. Hope you enjoyed the show!

"Oh, no, it isn't at all what I expected"! Such were the remarks when senior pictures arrived the other day. No joke, through, everyone is really proud of the photos.

We've heard so many kids lately saying, "Oh, I wish I could make better grades," as report cards are given out. Well, just remember, "Success depends upon backbone, not wishbone." So come on, lets make this a really profitable six weeks!

We're wishing everyone a most enjoyable Thanksgiving, and just remember what that day is for, thankfulness for everything. Everyone of us has so much to be thankful for, but seems we get too busy sometimes to stop and remember.

PARTY GIVEN FOR GARY SINGLETERRY'S 11th BIRTHDAY

Last week, the sixth grade had a party for Gary Singleterry's 11th birthday. Bubble gum, pop, and cake were served as refreshments. At the party, there was a bubble gum contest, which was played row by row. Winners of each row were Peggy Goldsmith, Opal Padlock, Jerry Thigpen, Paulene Servantius and Patsy Ruth Fain. When the alphabet was written backwards, Billy Roth won first place; Paulene Servantius, second place; and Patsy Young, third place.

Three students didn't have to take their six-weeks spelling tests because they hadn't missed any words in the past six weeks. They were Patsy Ruth Fain, Gary Singleterry, and Anna Lois Thatcher.

THIRD GRADE PLANS FOR THANKSGIVING

QUALITY YOU CAN MEASURE By Your Car's Performance

Typical of this quality, Shamrock's new 5W-20 and 10W-30 motor oils are among the most important petroleum improvements of this century.

To get proper engine protection from regular motor oil, you would have to use a light weight oil for starting and warm-up, then switch to a heavier weight motor oil after the engine has reached operating temperature. Shamrock 5W-20 and 10W-30 give this protection in one motor oil. They flow freely in a cold engine, allowing quick starts and giving instant protection . . . yet do not lose their protective qualities at highest operating temperature.

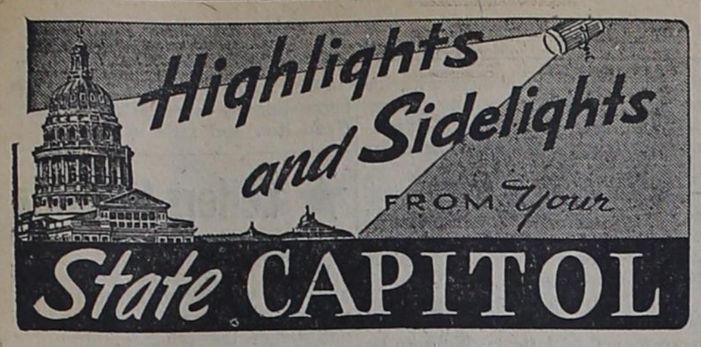

If you want easier starting, less wear, longer battery life and greater fuel economy use Shamrock 5W-20 or 10W-30 in your car summer and winter.

And remember, you can depend on the quality of all petroleum products sold under the big, green and white Shamrock.

FOR 25 YEARS — A MIGHTY GOOD BRAND!

AUSTIN—Attorney General John Ben Shepperd's office is engaged in another investigation.

This time it's a mulit-pronged one in which the state auditor, the department of public safety and DeWitt County Attorney Wiley Cheatham are also interested.

Managing Editor R. K. Towery of the Cuero Record unearthed the story.

He discovered that some Texas veterans in and around Cuero had signed up for what they thought was a free bonus of land, only to learn that they had purchased land with down payments they had never made.

Towery said promoters sold large tracts of land to groups of veterans, that the veterans had never seen the land, had never made a payment on it, and had no means of paying for it.

They are also checking appraisals.

State Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, whose office administers the program, said that he would "stand behind the appraisals in their entirety."

According to Cheatham, the county attorney's investigation revealed "a rotten, stinking mess that ought to be aired out before the people."

More but has not been set.

One of the most generous gestures we have noticed recently was by Frank Cornelius of Texico this week. Most of you have probably noticed the advertising on the ESA doll that was given away Saturday, and Frank was the one to take home the elegantly attired doll.

But instead, he gave the toy back to ESA to be used further in the Christmas program that is carried out annually by the philanthropic organization. We feel sure that many mothers would have been more than glad to pay Frank a good price for the toy, but he was more willing to see the money used for civic enterprises.

The doll will now be auctioned off in the near future, and thanks to Frank, some shut-in, an older person with no family, or other deserving Texico-Farwell person will have Christmas, just a little happier, because of that extra Yule basket that ESA will be able to give.

And we can tell Frank something else, the most gratifying "thank you" we've ever seen is the look in the eyes of small children on the day Santa comes to town, when he presents them with a treat "straight from the North Pole."

Our sister-in-law, Abie Crume in Hereford, is responsible for our recipe this week. She was here not too long ago, bragging to us about this wonderful new recipe, that was so SIMPLE to prepare. That is the most important feature. Well, grandma immediately tried it on us, and the editor's reaction was so propound, we are immediately including the "know-how" for your use.

It is delicious, and our husband is a connoisseur of foods. You might like to try it.

It's Time To Inspect Cars!

Texans, individualists that they are, have already started a potential waiting line at the State's automobile inspection stations.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today that the waiting line was shaping up now to precede the inspection deadline next April 15.

The Public Safety Director based his conclusion on the fact that auto inspections at mid-October were running more than 100,000 behind the figure for the first month of the 1953 inspection period. He said that undue waiting to secure a check of their vehicles may be averted by motorists if they will visit one of the 4,000 inspection stations at an early date.

"None of the 4,000 stations are too rushed to give you prompt attention at this time," Garrison stated, "but if the figures for the first month's operation under the new inspection period are any indication, we can expect long lines at most of the stations in April. This situtation can easily be averted if motorist will visit a station in the near future and secure the annual inspection."

Garrison pointed out that members of the Texas Highway Patrol "handled some 12,000 violations of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Law" during the period from April 15 to September 1, 1954.

David White (upper right), the other co-captain and only 3-year letterman, turned in a great year as tailback. He was known to other teams as "that Number 19." David, a 138-pounder, was the mainstay of the team and one of the top scorers in the district. He called signals and did kicking chores, in addition to passing and running from his backfield slot.

Virgel Merriott (lower right), was known to the team as the extra point kicker. A pinched nerve kept Virgel from doing contact work; however, he did play some against Smyer. He almost became a star in this game as he intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards only to be over hauled from behind on the 5.

Juniors Jimmy Ray Oliver and Leon Smith have been elected as co-captains to lead the Longhorns in 1955. Other team members on the 1954 squad are Andy Fuqua, Ronnie Ivy, Leon Wilson, Ray Vanlandingham, Durwood Teague, Olen Ivy, Carroll Littlefield, Glen Watkins, Johnny Gammon, Jim Roy Daniel, and Clayton Graef. Managers are Kirby Carrell and Leland Gustin.

Bovina Lions Roll Up Record Broom Sale

Last Wednesday the Lions Club of Bovina had an all-day "broom sale" which grossed $1,503.75. Over 25 Lions participated in the selling of brooms, mops, ironing board covers and welcome mats, which netted the local club an amount of $375.93, and benefited the "Caravan of the Blind" nearly $1,192.82. This was the largest sale in the state of Texas for any Lions Club in proportion to size of population.

The Lions were divided into two camps which were headed by team captains Aubrey Brock and Billie Sudderth. Both teams almost tied each other in selling, and it was declared that neither side was winner. However, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, both sides of the contest were to entertain their wives with a dinner at the American Legion Hall in Bovina.

Women Make Stuffed Toys

The Good Neighbor Club met Nov. 19, with Mrs. Henry Wilkerson. Mrs. Kelso opened the meeting with all reading the HDA Creed and Prayer.

Mable Newberry and Dorothy Kent demonstrated toys and the making of stuffed animals, and the making of clay for the kiddoes to play with.

Next meeting will be Dec. 3, with Mrs. John Sikes and Barbara Sikes as co-hostesses. At this party, "We will have a demonstratioin on candy making and each one is to bring a game to be played and a present not costing more than $1," says the reporter.

Cicero Smith Stores Announce New Sale

In keeping, with modern merchandising trends, J. E. Sherrill Jr., manager of Cicero Smith here, has announced that an annual Christmas Savings Sales event has become a part of the store's operating policy.

This year, the sale will begin Saturday, November 27 and will continue through December 24.

"Since adding so much practical houseware merchandise to our stock," said Sherrill, "we have learned that it is good business to reduce our inventory often, so that fresh merchandise can be added. In order to do that, many firms have frequent sales which increase a store's expense substantially; as a result, the greatest possible savings cannot be passed along to the consumer.

"Therefore, we've decided to hold our big sale just once a year, and make reductions of 10% to 40% on all items in the store. These items include hardware, housewares, toys, paints, wallpaper, plumbing and electrical supplies, millwork and small appliances such as toasters and coffeemakers.

Nicki Fosters Have Holiday Supper

Work Speeded On New School

Progress has been speeded up on construction of the new Bovina school building, since the steel for the roof has arrived. Forms for roofing have been placed and the deck work has begun. The A roof wing is expected to be completed within the next few days.

Other progress that has been reported is that glaziers have completed approximately half of the windows,the floor has been run in the cafeteria and the music department, the hallways and the A wing.

The chain-link fence has been completed around the school yard. This is expected to keep all the small children off the streets during play hours, and make the football gates much easier to keep. Traffic can thus be controlled on the school yards, preventing accidents while children are playing.

Public Cooperation Asked in Halting City Vandalism

Mayor Charles Allen this week issued an appeal to all residents of Friona for cooperation in stopping vandalism which has resulted in the destruction of "a dozen or more" city street markers within the past few weeks.

In making his request to the public, Allen pointed out that one deputy was not able to keep a sufficient checkup over town at night to prevent the pranksters, if they could be called that, from moving just ahead of or behind the law.

Since the markers are set back a good distance from the curb, it is not possible, in most instances, to accidentally back into the signs, officials have stressed. Obvious malicious intent is the only explanation of the continued destruction of the markers—some of them brand-new—which has increased in frequency since Halloween.

Unless the vandals are caught by the law in the act of destroying the signs, no official action can be taken against them, Allen explained. In case of residents seeing such actions, complaints would have to be filed by the witness.

"A not inconsiderable amount of time, money and work went into the making and erection of these markers over town," city officials said today, "and we are definitely interested in getting the vandalism stopped—now."

Credit Union Charter Approved for Friona

Official approval of a charter for a Credit Union at Friona has been received, and election of officials was held on Tuesday evening of last week, when some 42 local individuals held a meeting.

Named to the board of directors were Ralph Taylor, president; O. J. Beene, vice-president; Mrs. Lucy Jones, secretary-treasurer; and L. A. Parsons and Boyd Knox.

The credit committee will be composed of Bill Woodley, Ralph Roden and W. H. (Bill) Flippin; members of the supervisory committee will include Mrs. Zola Cranfill, Harry McCauley and Steve Messenger.

Over 63 members had been listed up to the first of this week, with shares in the group going at the customary $5. Actual operation of the Credit Union here will not be started until Ray Ersland, field director out of Dallas, is able to visit Friona and get things in moving order, Mrs. Jones reported.

No maximum on loans has as yet been set by officials, although they were quick to point out that, naturally, loans would have to be in the smaller class until the Union had grown sufficiently to allow more operating capital.

Strippers Move In, Harvest Picks Up

With the arrival of cotton strippers in the majority of fields of this area, harvesting of the 1954 cotton crop has definitely picked up during the past few days, gin operators of the area report.

And while they've been busy, so far they have managed to keep abreast of the white flood. Right now, if the weather continues to hold good, operators are predicting that the end of the ginning season will come by the first of the year—possibly a bit sooner—which will be some five weeks in advance of the close of most gins last February.

At the North Plains Gin, manager Wright Williams reported a total of 2681 bales by noon Monday, with John Davis, manager of the L. & H. gin, reporting 800 bales turned out at his plant. Both gins are running on 'round the clock basis, managers added.

Evidence is now showing that the early freeze of several weeks ago did some damage to cotton, Williams said. He explained that the "early cotton was not injured, but some of the "later" fields were hurt by the freeze, and strippers taking both types as they move along, grading in some instances would be cut down from early pickings.

Most gin men continue to be optimistic about the "per acre" yield. estimating that the average for Parmer County will run over a bale, which is mighty good, indeed. Open market price remains at a good level, they add.

Actual acreage turned to cotton this year is down considerably under 1953, with a total of "around 49,000" as compared to a reported 91,000 acres the previous year. Still it appears that the county will turn out some 50-55,000 bales before the end of the current season.

Chiefs Whip Kress To Close Out Season

The Friona Chiefs closed out what otherwise has been a rather drab season Friday by skinning the Kress Kangaroos 12-0 on the field of the losers.

It ended the year's football schedule for both teams, and Friona's grind as a District 2-A team, their first "A" school chores in several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Burtram Jack, also Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jack, attended the funeral of the small daughter of the Cliff Masters of San Jon, N. M., Sunday afternoon at the Church of Christ. The Masters have visited and attended church at Friona several times.

Lions Ask Slogan For Literature

A slogan which will be used on the front of a brochure extoling the virtues of Friona and its surrounding areas is being sought, with members of the Friona Lions Club sponsoring a contest to select the proper slogan.

Wesley Foster, chairman of the committee, said that the deadline for making entries in the contest had been extended to December 1, and urged all residents of the area to get in on the fun of picking a slogan which best typifies the community. Incidentally, a prize of $10 is being offered by the Lions, with yet-unnamed judges to decide the winner.

The pamphlet which will use the slogan is being prepared by the local Chamber of Commerce, and is to be published in the not-distant future.

in & around FRIONA with the gang

The Beene brothers, Jay and Ramey, age 7 and 3, are the latest "big businessmen" among the small fry in town. And they're investing their savings locally, too, in a business, the Friona Credit Union. Last weekend the youngsters, sons of the O. J. Beenes, marched into the office with Jay's piggy bank (which had not been opened for its six years), got City Manager Roy Wilson to butcher the hog and spread their accumulated savings out for counting. Turned out they had a total of $38.50, plus some nuts, bolts, and other not-so-legal tender which had found its way into the piggy. The kids are now the proud possessors of shares in the Credit Union, and are expecting their income to increase by leaps and bounds.

Scootin' Around FRIONA SCHOOLS

WITH PATSY ANTHONY AND GLADYS BAXTER

Thankful? Yes!

There is so much the FHA students have to be thankful for this year. Just think about all of the wonderful things that have happened in the last five years to better the Friona School. They are new grade school, high school, auditorium and cafeteria buildings; new grandstands, practice field, grass planted, and a fence around the football field; new lights are installed over the tennis courts, and new additions in the home ec department are coat racks and equipment in the cafeteria.

Modern buses, new mirrors in rest rooms, new basketball, band, and football uniforms and choir robes are in use. Grass was planted on the campus, more library books are available, Cokes and candy machines, scientific equipment, new piano and band instruments have been added to facilities.

New band and choir music is on hand, communication system is in use in the school buildings; we have new sidewalks; flags for every room in high school, a devotional program, and two new organizations that have done a lot for the school—the student Faculty Congress and pep club.

We should be deeply thankful to our parents, school board, faculty, and patrons, who have helped make those wonderful additions to better our public school.

Students, let's all be thankful we live in Friona.

November 8-13 was Twirp Week for the FHS girls. That was a busy week!

The girls asked boys for the dates, called for the boys and paid the bills. Perhaps you saw some of the girls struggling to help the boys with their coats or opening the car doors for them.

It's strange, but it seems there was much more dating last week. Could this be because the boys did not have to pay or is it because the girls have more courage to ask for dates than the boys?

There were twirp parties given throughout the week.
