Six Warships Sunk In Great Pacific Battle

Eighty-Five Jap Planes Destroyed By Allied Airmen

(By The Associated Press)

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC Allied Headquarters, Nov. 4.—Allied sea and air power sank at least 18 Japanese ships, including six warships, and damaged 11 more in a single day.

Rabaul harbor "was practically swept clean as nearly every ship there was heavily hit or sunk by 1,000 pound bombs" in an air attack Tuesday, General Douglas MacArthur reported.

Earlier the same day in a running two and a half hour battle off Bougainville island, the Japanese lost one cruiser and two destroyers, Tokyo radio conceded in a broadcast picked up by Admiral William F. Halsey' South Pacific headquarters.

American naval officers, who haven't had opportunity to determine the enemy's losses exactly, said the Tokyo report was definitely conservative. Survivors of the 12 Japanese warships that engaged in the battle, fled back toward their bases. Not a single American ship was lost.

Total cost to the Allies of the double victory at Rabaul and Bougainville was 19 planes lost and some damage to the task force.

Eighty-five Jap planes were destroyed.

Before the Japanese can now begin a counterattack against General Douglas MacArthur's right wing on Bougainville in the northern Solomons, they must replace these planes and this shipping. To do this, reinforcements most likely will be sent from Truk island, some 800 miles from Rabaul, and probably from the Netherlands East Indies.

Battle To Mount

The battle for control of the South Pacific is certain to mount in fury before too long, and undoubtedly the bloody sea battles of last November around Guadalcanal will be repeated on an even larger scale.

Both sides have sizeable naval forces ready for action. It is barely possible a showdown naval

Navy Has Sunk 487 Jap Ships

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. (AP)—Sinking of ten Japanese merchantmen and damaging of three others by American submarines was reported by the Navy today, bringing to 487 the number of Japanese ships sunk, probably sunk or damaged by undersea craft.

The Navy's communique also reported the sinking of a 1,000-ton freighter by a Navy reconnaissance plane off Ocean island, 750 miles northeast of Guadalcanal.

Ships Used For Supply

Among the ships sunk, all of them in use in supplying Japanese bases, were six freighters, a large cargo transport and two tankers. The damaged vessels included two more freighters and a tanker.

The area in which the submarines operated was not disclosed but previous Navy reports have said submarines were operating off the coast of the Japanese mainland.

The reconnaissance plane, operating under the command of Admiral William F. Halsey in the South Pacific, attacked and sank the enemy freighter 30 miles southwest of Ocean island, which is about 30 miles east of Nauru. The plane was damaged, presumably by anti-aircraft fire, and a number of her crew were wounded.

De Marigny Tells Of Threat To Sir Harry

NASSAU, Bahamas, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Count Alfred de Marigny, calmly describing a pre-marital trip to California with 17-year-old Nancy Oakes, their subsequent marriage and later an operation "to stop pregnancy," today told of threatening to knock Sir Harry Oakes out of a room about six months before his murder.

De Marigny, testifying in his trial for the murder of his father-in-law, said he grew angry with Sir Harry because he insisted upon visiting Nancy in a Palm Beach hospital against the wishes of De Marigny and Nancy.

RAF Hammers German Cities

Main Assault Is On Duesseldorf

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 4—A great fleet of RAF heavy bombers hammered the German industrial cities of Duesseldorf and Cologne last night as a swift sequel to a smashing daylight attack on Wilhelmshaven by the largest force of American aircraft ever thrown against the Reich.

The main blow was concentrated on Duesseldorf, making that big Ruhr armament center probably the world's most heavily bombed city next to Hamburg, while a diversionary assault by a smaller force was made on Cologne on the Rhine. Mosquitos also bombed objectives in the Ruhr and Rhineland.

Nineteen aircraft were lost in the night's operations, which included minelaying in German waters and intruder patrols over targets in France and the low countries. Four enemy aircraft were destroyed by the bombers.

1,000 Persons Killed

Dispatches from Stockholm quoted the Social Demokraten as saying more than 1,000 persons were killed in Tuesday's attack by the United States heavy bombers based in the Mediterranean theater on Wiener Neustadt, Austria.

The size of previous attacks on Duesseldorf, yesterday's record American strike at Wilhelmshaven and the fact that the RAF has had two weeks of bad weather in which to prepare last night's offensive hinted that it may have been the greatest effort yet.

The steel manufacturing center of 500,000 received a packet of 2,000 long tons of explosives in its next-to-last raid on May 23 and on June 11 was hit by the RAF's biggest heavy bomber force up to that time.

The Air ministry described the

Hoover Optimistic On European War

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover declared confidently today that "at the present moment we're certainly in the latter stages of the (European) war"—probably "the last winter of fighting in Europe."

Testifying before a Senate foreign relations subcommittee considering a send-food-to-Europe now resolution, the former president urged immediate action, saying the need of hungry children and adults is reaching a peak.

"This is very probably—I hope—the last winter of the war," he remarked.

Responding to a reporter's note, asking for amplification, Hoover added:

"I think we ought to be prepared to carry on the war during the whoe year 1944, irrespective of any miracle that might occur in the meantime."

He said he reported to the European phase of the conflict.

The dispatch of American food to Europe's starving millions would have valuable military as well as humanitarian advantages, Hoover told the senators.

Deficiency Bill Cut By Billion

Big Economy Push Off To Big Start

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—The House appropriations committee shouted a loud, reverberating "no" at a 1944 deficiency appropriation today and all but tossed it into the waste basket by chopping nearly a billion dollars from the budget estimates.

Only the much-criticized Office of War information escaped unscathed, and only one section of the bill was increased—an unbudgeted $20,000, added wthout explanation for "beneficiaries of deceased House members."

Federal Economy Starts

More than three-quarters of the cut was at "the request' and expense of the Navy who found it feasible to eliminate a $750,000,000 request.

Thus, the recently-promised "big push" in Congress to reduce government expenditures got off to a big start. Paradoxically, it was the committee which has approved tens of billions of dollars since 1940 with hardly a dissenting whisper that started the economy ball rolling.

Members of the House ways and means committee hope that their appropriations committee colleagues will "collect" enough additional billions to justify their refusal to levy the $1,880,000,000 in new taxes requested by the administration. They have voted less than one-fifth of that request.

Today's bill, a "catch all" for government departments needing more money for the year ending June 30, 1944, called for $1,108,828,749 when submitted. As sent to the House floor, it contained appropriations for a paltry $167,268,444—a cut of 85 per cent. Chairman Clarence Cannon, D., Mo., bubbling over with enthusiasm about his group's action, said:

"A milestone in the history of congressional appropriations . . . The heaviest reduction ever made in a general appropriation bill by the committee."

He pointed out that the $941,560,305 cut was only about $450,

Appropriation Act All But Junked

000,000 less than the total economies realized during the entire last session of Congress on all appropriation bills.

The bulk of the near-billion cut came in elimination of a $750,000,000 item for the Navy stock fund after Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox had advised that it could be discounted from Navy ordnance funds due to changes in procurement plans.

"This action on the part of the Navy is commendable," the report said. "It results from a survey . . . of funds previously voted and their status with respect to obligation and programming . . . a similar survey is being made of Army expenditures."

The requests of two government departments—Agriculture and Interior's bureau of reclamation — were eliminated entirely. Paul V.

Hike Indicated In Coal Prices

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. (AP)—An agreement reached between the government and the United Mine Workers of America for increased pay in the nation's coal mines—designed to end an almost total work stoppage—will necessarily mean an increased consumer price for coal, Interior Secretary Ickes said today.

Ickes, again the U. S. mine administrator under government seizure of the pits, told his press conference that he will very likely ask the Office of Price administration (OPA) to raise prices to meet the increases granted the workers last night, subject to War Labor board approval.

He did not say how much the increases should be, but estmiates by other sources have ranged from 15 to 45 cents a ton.

There was only a trickle of immediate response in the fields today to the tentative agreement, and John L. Lewis' call for a return to work, but most workings expected to get back on regular schedule by Monday.

Ickes commented: "I think the clouds have lifted and we'll go ahead without any more coal disturbance."

The miners, after virtually ignoring the appeal of President Roosevelt to report for work yesterday, started back to the pits on orders of John L. Lewis, president, and other officers of the United Mine workers who advised them of a "satisfactory agreement" with Secretary of the Interior Ickes, the U. S. fuels boss.

Anthracite miners are allowed an additional 37.8 cents a day under the pact. Added to the 32.2 cents allowed by the WLB last week under its little steel formula, the total cash increase is 70 cents a day. Concessions approved by the WLB in the form of free tools are not included in either totals. They are estimated to be worth

Commons Gets Report On Famine In India

LONDON, Nov. 4 (U.P.)—Leopold S. Amery, Britain's secretary of state for India, told Commons today that about 8,000 persons died in Calcutta "directly or indirectly due to starvation" in the month ending Oct. 15, and that there were no prospects for immediate reduction of the Indian famine ravages.

"There will be for some time no diminution in the loss of life until the organization for distribution has effectively covered the whole ground," Amery said in presenting the government's view of the famine situation.

The most acute problem now is the distribution of food within Bengal to the districts most seriously affected, Amery said.

Solon Blocks Vote On Foreign Policy

Final Passage Of Message Expected

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Senator Langer (R-ND) blocked efforts of Senate leaders to bring about a compromise post-war policy resolution, endorsing creating of an international peace organization and incorporating a significant part of the Moscow four-power declaration, to a final vote today.

When Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the foreign relations committee asked unanimous consent to a final vote at 4:30 p. m., Langer arose to object.

To Vote Tomorrow

The North Dakotan said, however, he would not oppose a vote tomorrow and Republican Leader McNary (Ore) said he thought the Senate could dispose of the measure tomorrow afternoon.

Langer gave no explanation of his objection to an earlier test. Seven senators already had indicated their desire to speak.

Senator Downey (D-Calif) announced withdrawal of a substitute he had proposed endorsing the Moscow agreement. He said he would support the revised Connally proposal.

With opposition reduced to a handful, the resolution backed by Chairman Connally (D-Tex) and most other members of the foreign relations committee today had the snpport of 14 senators who had fought for a stronger policy statement and 11 Republicans who demanded reiteration of the Senate's treaty-ratifying authority.

Senators Reynolds (D-NC) and Shipstead (R-Minn) opposed the compromise version; Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) was critical of its terms and Senator Brooks (R-Ill) had not made up his mind.

Against this numerically small opposition, Connally hoped to force a vote on the measure today but there were several senators

Nazis Shifting Troops To Southern France

MADRID, Nov. 4 (AP)—Reports of the movement of strong German forces into southern France this week and elaborate defense preparations being taken along the Riviera give every indication that Berlin believes an Allied offensive against southern France is imminent.

These preparations are on such a scale that the Riviera coastal road has been closed to passenger traffic between Mentone and San Rafael and the German labor corps has been moving freight around the closed area, where new fortifications apparently are being erected.

Travelers from France reported that the movement of German troops toward the south appeared general. They also declared that all cities in southern France, including some as far inland as Avignon and Carcasonne, are the scenes of great activity.

Mrs. Newton's Trial Is Set

LITTLEFIELD, Nov. 4 (special)—District Attorney H. M. LaFont of Plainview answered one of the most puzzling questions to arise from the double-slaying of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hunt Oct. 26 at Littlefield, when he announced Wednesday night the state will report ready for trial when Mrs. W. R. Newton's case is called Nov. 15 at Olton.

Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron is appealing from a seven-year conviction in a similar case, charging assault with intent to murder.

He was free on bond when the bodies of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt were found trussed together in a bedroom of their Littlefield residence.

Hunt Accused Pair

The charges against the Newtons resulted from Dr. Hunt's accusation they were the ones who were at a roadside rendezvous a few minutes after midnight the morning of May 21, 1942, when a man Dr. Hunt said was Dr. Newton shot him twice after the Littlefield physician had arrived there in response to telephone calls from a woman.

Dr. Hunt sought to get into the trial record his identification of the woman at the scene, but did not directly succeed. He did, however, introduce witnesses who said they saw Mrs. Newton at a Littlefield filling station telephone 15 minutes before the shooting occurred two miles away, and had those witnesses, or some of them, relate the woman stepped into a large car a man occupied and left toward the shooting scene.

With Dr. Hunt dead, the state had made no effort to hide its limitations in event of Mrs. Newton's trial. Attorneys informed newspapermen that, "with the state's chief witness gone, the state naturally would be confront-

Business Firms Will Close Armistice Day

Despite the limited community observance, member firms of Lubbock Retail Merchants association will be closed in accordance with custom for Armistice day next Thursday, Nov. 11, according to announcement this morning by Mrs. Gladys Workman, association secretary.

She has been receiving numerous inquiries to the plans of merchants both as to Armistice day and Thanksgiving, Nov. 25. Thanksgiving also will be a day of general closing by the member firms, she said.

The only observance arranged for Armistice day here has been the annual 6:30 o'clock breakfast sponsored by Lubbock post of Veterans of Foreign Wars and Allen Bros. post of the American Legion in Hilton hotel.

New Front Is Said Assured

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Appropriations committee chairman Clarence Cannon, D., Mo., told the House today that his committee has been given "positive assurance" that a new war front will be opened "in the near future."

Cannon made the assertion in defending the committee's recommendation of a deficiency appropriation of $5,000,000 for the Office of War information.

"We have positive assurance that a new front will be opened in the near future," Cannon told the House.

"The groundwork for that front must be prepared, and the OWI will play an important part in the preparations. It is an integral part of our psychological warfare machinery.

"The sum of $5,000,000 is a drop in the bucket compared with other war expenditures. To deny these funds would be the equivalent of denying funds for actual gunpowder. It might endanger the lives of our soldiers and sailors. It's unthinkable."

Book 4 Registration To Resume Monday

Registrations for ration book No. 4 will be resumed Monday at headquarters of the county price and rationing board, 1215 Texas avenue, according to announcement this morning by C. E. Bestwick, chief clerk.

He estimated that approximately 2,000 books will be issued in addition to the 62,389 distributed in the county during the original registration Oct. 22-23.

For those who still must obtain the No. 4 book, he stressed these reminders:

A No. 3 book must be presented before a No. 4 book can be issued.

Anyone without the No. 3 book should apply for one at once. These books still are being distributed from Dallas. Thus, several days must elapse between the application and the issuance of No. 4.

The total of No. 4 books issued thus far compared with 57,941 for No. 2, which were the last to be distributed through the medium of local registration. The increase in No. 4 was attributed, in large measure, to the presence of large numbers of itinerant cotton pickers who registered in Lubbock county for their new ration books.

STATE FUNDS REPORTED

AUSTIN, Nov. 4. (AP)—The state had $46,430,453 cash in various funds on Oct. 31 or a net balance of $29,981,159 after deduction of $29,891,159 obligated by outstanding warrants.

Army Takes Man After Reading Wife's Letter Of "Recommend"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (U.P.)—A Poinsett county, Ark., father of seven children who "ain't done nothing but raise hell and drink lemon essence" for eight years is toting a gun in the Army today.

If he wonders why, he should get someone to read the letter his wife wrote to his draft board and which is printed in the current issue of the selective service bulletin. It said:

Wife Gives "Recommend"

"Dear United States Army: My husband asked me to write a recommend that he supports his family. He cannot read, so don't tell him. Just take him. He ain't no good to me. He ain't done nothing but raise hell and drink lemon essence since I married him eight years ago, and I got to feed seven kids of his. Maybe you can get him to carry a gun. He's good on squirrels and eating. Take him and welcome. I need the grub and his bed for the kids. Don't tell him this, but just take him and send him as far as you can."

The Army took him after he tried to prove a bona fide family relationship by presenting the letter to his draft board.

Under the new servicemen's allowance schedule the wife would get $200 a month.

German Defense Line In Central Italy Unhinged

Eighth Army Plunges Forward 10 Miles To Take Most Important Communications Center In Area; Flanking Move Is Seen

(By The United Press)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Nov. 4.—The British Eighth army captured the vital road junction of Isernia today, unhinging the German defense line in central Italy while other Allied forces overran the shattered fragments of its western section.

Plunging forward 10 miles over the rugged Italian terrain in 36 hours, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's men seized the most important communications hub in the entire region.

By swarming through Isernia the British laid open the German defenses for a flanking swing either way or both, menacing the entire defense line touted as the most powerful below Rome.

The Isernia triumph—the city was taken at 3 a. m.—followed a combined drive by the Eighth and Fifth armies which cleared the Matese mountains. Isernia is 49 miles due north of Naples and 90 miles from Rome.

Importance Stressed

An official spokesman said in announcing the capture that its importance "cannot be overestimated," since it controls the road network supplying a considerable area of central Italy.

The announcement of the fall followed by a few hours the disclosure that Americans and British of the Fifth army, surging forward five to eight miles on a 40-mile front, had overrun Massico ridge and crumpled the key western positions of the German line.

"The enemy now has yielded the western anchor and the central hinge of his defensive line," a commentator said.

In effect the capture of Isernia meant that the Allies had taken the southern half of the "little Rommel" line, with the key inland position of Venafro flanked to the north.

Nazis In Worst Rout Since '16

Cossacks Nearing Dnieper Estuary

By HENRY SHAPIRO
United Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Nov. 4. — Sabre-swinging Cossack horsemen brought the Dnieper estuary within their grasp and sent the greatest "rout" of a German army since 1916 into its final stages today with the slaughter of thousands of fleeing survivors of the Reich's once crack grenadiers in the western Nogaisk steppes.

NAZI POSITION DETERIORATING

MOSCOW, Nov. 4 (AP)—The whole German position in South Russia grew worse by the hour today as the Red army reached the lower beaches of the Dnieper river in strength at numerous places and approached the port of Kherson at its mouth.

(The German news agency DNB said the Russians launched a strong offensive north of Kiev yesterday after heavy artillery preparation and bombing raids. The Soviet struck south toward Kiev and west toward the Polish border against strong German resistance, the agency said. DNB also acknowledged that the Russians had established a new bridgehead north of Kerch at the eastern end of the Crimea.)

RUMANIANS OBTAIN VISAS

ANKARA, Nov. 4 (AP)—Advices from Bucharest today said that many well-to-do Rumanians, alarmed by the rapid advance of the Red army in southern Russia, are hastening to obtain Turkish visas in order to be able to get out of the country should a Soviet invasion appear likely.

Hordes of Germans plunged into the swift-running Dnieper in a frantic effort to escape the hard-riding Cossacks, only to be cut down by Russian machine-gunners and low-flying Soviet aircraft.

Front dispatches said the river was filled with German corpses.

Veritable Graveyard

The whole western top of the Nogaisk steppes, from the Black sea to the great sand wastelands below the Dnieper, had become a veritable graveyard of smashed and abandoned tanks, six-barreled mortars and armored cars.

Not since Gen. Brusilov's de-

Allied Mediterranean Casualties Reported

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (U.P.) — Casualties in the Mediterranean theater since the Allied landings in North Africa a year ago Nov. 7 have been approximately six to one in favor of the Allies, Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson said today.

American losses in the Mediterranean up to Oct. 29 totaled 31,126, he told his press conference. These included 5,539 killed, 17,621 wounded and 7,966 missing. Most of the missing were taken prisoner, he said.

British losses have been somewhat higher than ours. French losses were considerably smaller. Total American, British and French casualties in the Mediterranean up to the present are slightly under 100,000, he said.

Axis losses in the same area were approximately 40,000 killed and 90,000 wounded, plus an official count of 468,055 prisoners.

Blame Set In Levelland Row

(Special To The Journal)

LEVELLAND, Nov. 4.—The real lowdown on the investigation launched here to find out who was responsible and how much in Saturday's incident over a cafe sign "No Mexicans Fed" shows there was feeling between North Americans—not between Mexicans and North Americans.

That was the announcement this afternoon by those seeking at the same time to help restore conditions to normal and insure return of Mexicans to Hockley county for gathering next year's crops.

Farmers Are Provoked

"The Mexicans didn't seem so mad over the incident as did Hockley county farmers," it was explained.

"Mexican field hands had come in and were getting out the cotton. Anything that would prejudice the rights of the farmer in getting the Mexicans back next year naturally would make him sore.

"And they did get sore.

"As a matter of fact, we have been informed that when a bottle was thrown into a crowd of Mexicans gathered before a Levelland cafe, a farmer picked it up and threw it back at those responsible."

Japs Charged With Using Poison Gas

CHUNGKING, Nov. 4 (AP) — A charge that the Japanese used poison gas during a phase of the spreading battle in China's central "rice bowl" area was made tonight by the Chinese high command.

The Chinese said "considerable casualties" were caused by the gas attack during fierce fighting near Nanhsien, an important town 70 miles south of Shasi on the Yangtze river.

The United States and Great Britain have declared that they would retaliate in kind against any Axis power using poison gas.

New Super-Bomber, B-29, Will Be In Combat In Near Future

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (U.P.) — Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of the Army Air Forces, announced today that the Army's new superbomber, the B-29—heavily armed "battleship of the air" powered to fly at very high altitudes—will be ready for combat in the "not now far distant" future.

The announcement was considered a warning to the Japanese that their period of freedom from air raids is running out. A major task of the new bomber will be bombardment of Tokyo and other major Japanese cities.

"When it (the B-29) enters combat," Arnold said today in a formal statement, "today's long range will become medium range and today's heavy bombers (B-17 Flying Fortresses and B-24 Liberators) will consequently become light heavies.

"This battleship of the air is armored heavily with multiple-gun and power turrets. It can fly at very high altitudes.

"Its performance will not be discussed before it enters combat. However, the B-29 will have a range substantially greater than the maximum effective range of today's longest-range heavy bombers and it will carry quite sizeable bomb loads for that distance."

Knetsch Views Road Problems

Problems faced by the state highway department were discussed here Wednesday by F. E. Knetsch of Seguin, newest member of the highway commission, who paid a "get acquainted" visit to Lubbock district headquarters.

He was appointed last February, replacing Robert Lee Bobbitt on the commission.

Knetsch left early this morning for Abilene for another inspection.

Good Job Being Done

During peace times the personnel of the department is about 10,000, now there are below 6,000 persons working. Take the Lubbock district for instance, he said, "ordinarily the maintenance crew here consists of eight men, now we have only four, with half of our equipment out of use because of the impossibility of getting new parts for them."

The entire department is doing a fine job with what they have to work with, he stated.

In commenting further on the road situation in the state Knetsch said that the WPB has been 'double tough' about building new roads and repairing old ones. Our roads are being treated very roughly with the moving of vast armies, besides the heavy loaded trucks carrying war materials throughout the state.

Trying To Hold Ground

"All we hope to do, until this war is over, is to try and not lose too much ground," the commissioner said.

Asked about the future of Texas roads and the program being outlined by the commission, Knetsch said: "We have an ambitious program for the future being set up. There has been introduced in Congress a bill which will authorize the federal government to allot to the highway departments throughout the nation 3 billion dollars as soon as the war is over for the rebuilding of roads. Texas is expected to get $62,000,000 per year for three years following the war. This, he said, will enable the commission to put into effect a complete road re-building program."

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 4. (AP) —M. Z. Ozier, Amarillo, was a happy man today when Capt. E. G. Huckabay of the detective bureau here handed him $1490 in cash out of $1600 taken from him while en route to Alexandria to visit his soldier son in camp near there.

Pvt. Ashton Coker, said by authorities to be AWOL from Camp Livingston, was in custody charged with theft of the $1600, a watch and a pistol. Coker was turned over to Barksdale Field military authorities for handling by military court.

Ozier told officers he gave a soldier a lift when he overtook him on the highway between Shreveport and Alexandria.

LONDON, Nov. 4 (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden have left Moscow after completion of the tri-partite discussions, a Soviet radio broadcast announced today.

Knatchbull-Hugessen, was already there. This suggested that Hull and Eden would stop off in Cairo, as they did on the way to Moscow, and confer with Menemecioglu.

WTCC Urges Free Enterprise Stand

ABILENE, Nov. 4 (AP)—Looking ahead, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is urging Congress to declare itself for free enterprise, free competition, private initiative and a private financing system of national post-war economy.

The chamber went on record to this effect yesterday when its referendum assembly, complying with balloting in each of the 142 towns of the organization, adopted eight of ten planks listed in the referendum agenda.

Other adopted planks petitioned Congress, when victory is won, to direct termination of war-time rules, regulations and restrictions imposed upon the people and business, and asked liquidation of such wartime boards, bureaus and commissions making such rules.

McGee Addresses Group

A self-styled representative of bureaucracy, Mark McGee, district director of the Office of Price administration, addressed the assembly along this line.

McGee asserted "there must be a turning back from government through bureaus acting on directives when this war is over."

"We've got to have these restrictions now," McGee added, "but it won't hurt to do a little post-war planning to retard their extension and expansion."

Of the two planks not adopted, one calling for establishment of a WTCC Washington bureau was defeated by a heavy vote. The other was tabled, with the count 1457 for and 1458 against it.

Highway Move Tabled

The tabled plank would have put the organization on record in favor of a statutory requirement that a highway commissioner be appointed from each of three districts, the territories of the East, West and South Texas Chambers of Commerce, and that moving from one district to another would vacate the position.

The plank was tabled on motion of Galen McKinney of Fort Worth after several speakers argued that such a move might inject patronage and other political practices into the highway department.

Other adopted planks appealed to the United States Chamber of Commerce to support a campaign for freight rate parity between all sections of the country; called for positive, independent and united action of Texas' elected administrative officers in the rate parity movement; and created administrative officers in the rate parity movement; and created an agricultural legislative and regulation committee to study production allotment provisions and to obtain allotment equality for West Texas producers.

Officers Re-Elected

Officers were re-elected and, by amendment to by-laws, a third vice president was named. M. C. Ulmer, Midland, is president; George A. Simmons, Lubbock, first vice president; E .W. Hardin, Amarillo, second vice president; D. A. Bandeen, general manager, and Malcolm Meek, Abilene, treasurer. Hamlin Y. Overstreet, Farwell, was named third vice president.

District directors whose elections were ratified are:

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

TEXANS: Your fighting forces need more of Your Gasoline

Here's the story:

In Italy, England, the Aleutians, the Southwest Pacific, and all around the globe, our fighting men are exerting every effort to bring this war to an early, victorious end. To carry on the fight, they need huge quantities of petroleum products, particularly gasoline for planes, tanks, trucks, and jeeps. The petroleum industry is straining all its resources to deliver these products, but it needs your help to meet the military requirements.

NOW that synthetic rubber plants are beginning to operate, it might seem strange to Texans, living in a State that produces 9 barrels of petroleum out of every 20 for the U. S., that they cannot have all the gasoline they want. There is some feeling that continued restrictions on gasoline represent bureaucratic bungling and are entirely unnecessary. In part, this may be due to the fact that the whole story of the petroleum industry's operations cannot be told now, because it would reveal military information, although it certainly would not give any comfort to the enemy! The truth of the matter is that your gasoline has answered the call to colors, and there is not enough today to supply more than military requirements and essential civilan demands.

Note Well These Facts

So that you may better appreciate the real contribution of the gasoline you help save, bear these facts in mind:

1. The over all military gasoline requirements from the U. S. are now 600,000 barrels daily (one-third of the total quantity used in this country in 1941) and are increasing constantly.

2. In order to make vitally essential war products, such as 100-octane aviation gasoline, toluene for TNT, and butadiene for synthetic rubber, refineries in Texas can now make only 11 gallons of automotive gasoline from each 42-gallon barrel of crude oil compared with 20 gallons in 1941.

3. Stocks of automotive gasoline in Texas during the past several months have declined more than 7,000,000 barrels and have now reached critically low levels.

Production Up 50%

Texans have a right to be proud of the quantity and quality of petroleum products being supplied from this State to the military forces, but more must be supplied.

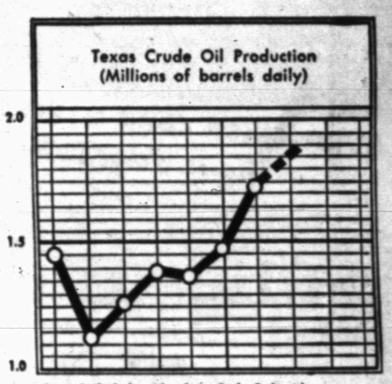

The flow of Texas oil from Texas wells has been increased more than 50 per cent over last year. This increase amounts to 750,000 barrels daily which will fuel thousands of ships, planes, and other motor vehicles with which our fighting men are carrying the attack to the enemy. And our armed forces are asking for more.

Refineries Operating at Capacity

Texas petroleum refineries are now operating at near capacity, and are making a great contribution by manufacturing ever-increasing quantities of essential war products for the fighting front. They are producing more 100-octane and other aviation gasoline than refineries in any other State and they are also carrying a large part of the load in the toluene and synthetic rubber programs.

Oil is Ammunition

Oil from Texas is an essential weapon of war. Its place is alongside of Americans on the battle fronts all over the world. Think of that the next time you drive your car, and remember that the gallons of gasoline all of us can save today may provide the cargo that will help defeat the enemy in some engagement next month!

How Every Texan Can Help

1. Make sure his car is properly serviced to use gasoline efficiently.
2. Do only essential driving.
3. Save gasoline by driving slowly.
4. Buy only gasoline authorized by his Government coupons.
5. Give away no coupons so that other motorists can do unessential driving.

Club Women Of City Gather In Social, Business Hours

Plans for Thanksgiving observances were discussed at business meetings of Lubbock women's clubs Wednesday afternoon.

Tech Faculty Women's club members and guests called at the spacious home of Mrs. W. G. McMillan on the Levelland road for a monthly tea hour. One hundred fifteen were guests.

Roses in crystal cornucopia vases formed the centerpiece of the refreshment table laid with an orchid cloth. Roses and chrysanthemums were used as decorations throughout the house.

Mrs. Ray Mowery, chairman of hostesses, poured. Other hostesses were Mesdames J. I. Kilpatrick, F. L. McRee, Joe Melton, E. V. Middleton, R. E. Garlin, Allan L. Carter, R. L. Mason, L. G. Harmon, J. H. Millikin, W. G. Loesel, O. A. Kinchen, W. L Stangel, Dr. Bessie League and Miss Vivian Johnson.

Plan Thanksgiving Dance

A Thanksgiving dance to be given in the gymnasium at LAAF was planned at a meeting of LAWS, Lubbock Army Wives Society. The date has not yet been set because of transportation problems. All married enlisted men and their wives are invited to be present whether the wives are members of the society or not.

A cooperative system has been worked out by members under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Ressler by which members who are ill or who have returned from hospitals may be attended by fellow club women in her neighborhood, the town being divided into such sections.

Mrs. Lois Griener told the club the proper way to make a dress form and after the business meeting several members worked on spatter print cards.

Miss Gelin Speaks

Miss Leona Gelin of the Lubbock Service Organization outlined a program of future activities for cadet wives at a meeting of LAAF Cadet Wives club at the Hilton hotel Wednesday afternoon.

The club is considering inviting wives of men stationed with the 309th College Training Detachment at Texas Technological college to unite with them in the formation of a new Cadet Wives club.

Attending were Mesdames Merrillyn McDonnell, Betty Jean Reimers, Ruth Richards, Jo Lee Harwell, Martha Fry, Grace Caplan, Bettye Peterson, Olive Priester, Janet Brown, Mary Ray and Mrs. Thomas Potter, sponsor.

For Timely Ten Club

Mrs. Paul Warren was hostess to Timely Ten Needle club. A business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Glenn Hammonds in which plans were made to give a Thanksgiving dinner Nov. 17 in the home of Mrs. C. R. Rodgers, 2311 Twenty-fifth street. The dinner will be a feature of an all day meeting at which time members will do Red Cross sewing.

Present were Mesdames Levi Duncan, C. R. McLaurin, C. B. Lively, Lester Cooper and Lloyd Ricketts.

Guests at the meeting of Sew-On Needle club in the home of Mrs. Gordon Deering were Mesdames J. B. McCauley, jr., Z. L. Wright, L. H. Barley, L. O. White and little daughter, Kathy.

A shower was given for Mrs. Otis Fincher. Members present were Mesdames W. J. Pittman, Cecil Sanders, Eugene Knox, Grady Davis, M. S. Craig, Paul Willis, John Cox and J. V. Jones. Mesdames M. L. Welch and Gene Leftwich were assistant hostesses.

Plan Luncheon

L'Alquillee club members, meeting in the home of Mrs. T. L. Biggs, made plans to entertain with a luncheon Nov. 17 in the home of Mrs. H. T. Wilkins, 1625 Sixteenth street.

Others attending were Mesdames G. H. Ball, J. W. Philips, Earl Ellison, J. P. Elms, Guy Kennedy, Eugene Wilson, Paul Williams and V. O. Jennings.

Community Sews For Red Cross

Arnett-Benson Needle club members were assisted by women of that addition in completing quilts for Red Cross, kit bags for Red Cross and pressing bandages for South Plains Navy Mothers club in an all day meeting Wednesday at the Locust Street chapel. A covered dish luncheon was served by the club. This is a public affair open to members of the community each first Wednesday of the month.

Members of the club were Mesdames C. C. Heatley, Verne Morris, Bryan Landers, G. W. May, C. R. Miner, A. L. Cranfill, J. E. Reid, L. W. Parker, I. T. Weed, J. P. Mills, R. T. Housour, J. F. Eddleman and Leo Saffell.

Visitors were Mesdames L. W. Sumrow, L. P. Tapp, C. O. White, A. R. Pendley, M. W. Hobbs, Charles Noble, J. H. Peasley, A. E. Bishop, Sarah Highley, Floyd Tapp, Miss Phyllis Highley, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Foster, and Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Foster.

Fit And Fashion

Mrs. Floyd Honey, 2305 Thirteenth street, is to be hostess at the next meeting of Fit and Fashion Needle club, members decided at the Wednesday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. C. C. Cox.

Attending were Mesdames G. E. Dawson, Henry Elder, John Freeman, Ishmael Hill, E. E. Key, R. W. Matthews, H. J. McCabe, Rogers Orr, Howard Price, J. W. Reid, M. E. Witt, Dixie White and one visitor, Mrs. Frank Tate.

For Pilots' Wives

Glider pilots' wives were guests at a bridge luncheon Wednesday in the Aztec room of the Hilton hotel with Mrs. Edgar G. Theus of Oklahoma City as hostess. The luncheon table was centered with a carnation arrangement in shades of pink.

Mrs. S. J. Howard won high score in bridge. Guests were Mesdames William Brown, Robert McGandy, James Fex, Jack Isabell, William Daugherty, David Kokernot, Gordon Nicholson, Rollin Fountain, Lester Pierson and Jack Dameron.

V-12 Tests To Be Held Nov. 9

Civilian boys between the ages of 17 to 20 who have finished high school and are not in college, those in college, and, boys who will have finished high school by March 1, 1944, will be given an opportunity to take a V-12 examination in Lubbock November 9.

Tests will be given from 9 until 12 o'clock Tuesday morning at the high school and at Tech college, and application blanks, which must be filled out before the test is taken, may be secured from H. J. McCabe and Miss Grace Padley at the high school, or from Dr. H. L. Kent at Tech.

Must Be On Time

No one will be admitted to the examination room late, therefore, it is emphasized that young men desiring to take the test shall be in the proper rooms on time. Boys at Tech may ask instructors to allow them to leave the 8 o'clock class five minutes early if it is necessary in order to be on time for the examination.

Men desiring to take the examination must have admittance cards, which must be secured before Monday, with them. Those taking the test at Tech will report to room numbers as follows: Those with last names beginning with letters A to I, inclusive, will report to Ad building, room 220; those beginning with letters J to S, inclusive, will report to Ad building, room 302; and those with names beginning with letters T through Z will report to Ad building, room 210.

Excuses To Be Given

Deans of the respective divisions will be furnished a list of students who miss classes in order to take the examination, and students will be given excuses and make-up cards.

Boys taking the test at high school will report to room 192.

Purpose of the examination will be to find young men qualified for officers training but the test does not obligate the applicant to join the service, it was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll McMath of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, arrived this morning for a visit with Lubbock relatives. Mr. McMath is a musician first class with the U. S. Naval Training station at Farragut, Idaho.

Brief Bits Of Local News

Harry Morris, a new Lubbock director of West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and A. B. Davis, manager of the local chamber, returned Wednesday night from the annual wartime business meeting of WTCC in Abilene during the day. Morris was named a director to replace Capt. Spencer A. Wells, who now is in active Army service. Other Lubbock directors of WTCC are George A. Simmons, R. C. Hopping, Walter Alderson and Dr. Clifford B. Jones. Dr. Jones is a director because of being a past president of the organization.

GOP Stop-Willkie Drive Is Launched

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Former Republican national committee Chairman John D. M. Hamilton was reported swinging around the country today promoting a stop-Willkie movement and perhaps seeking an alternate candidate whom the GOP might nominate for president next year.

Republican election trends in half a dozen states this week set the party political pot to boiling over. Wendell L. Willkie's chances to be renominated for president when the Republican national convention meets were boosted by a forthright disavowal by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, of any interest in the nomination for himself.

Dewey's statement may make Hamilton's reported task more difficult. The former national chairman was reported in Washington state today, discussing national politics after a swing through the Midwest, including stops in Indiana and Iowa. Hamilton is associated with powerful conservative Republican interests in Pennsylvania.

Dewey Is Top Man

Dewey is top man in polls of Republican presidential preferences. But within 12 hours of final computation of a big Republican victory in New York in a lieutenant governorship by-election, Dewey said:

"I am not, and shall not become a candidate for the Republican (presidential) nomination in 1944."

The Willkie faction of the party was delighted. Stop-Willkie partisans were confronted with the confusing problem of having a popular alternate candidate at hand, but one who says he does not intend to make himself available.

Republican victories of varying degree were recorded in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Michigan and Kentucky in Tuesday's elections. GOP hopes of regaining the White House were higher today than they have been at any time since Herbert C. Hoover lost to Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932.

Kentucky Is Significant

Perhaps most significant were Kentucky returns which had damaged badly democratic prestige long before the ballot count was completed and before it was known whether a Republican or a Democrat had been elected governor. The state had been Democratic by fat margins since the New Deal tide began to flow in 1930.

Through election night and most of yesterday, Simeon S. Willis, Republican, and J. Lyter Donaldson, Democrat, see-sawed in the lead. Then Willis began creeping ahead, but it was obvious that neither could win except by a scanty and unprepossessing majority. The Kentucky poll is a border state blow to the Democratic party and to the Roosevelt administration although it is conceded that Mr. Roosevelt would run better in Kentucky or in any of the states figuring in this week's elections than did the local Democratic candidates.

But when the Republicans can perform as they did in Kentucky this week despite Democratic control of federal and state patronage over the past 10 years, political observers conclude that administration fences badly need mending.

Mrs. Newton's Trial

ed with less case than were he in court."

Testimony Is Question

Actually, the situation is worse than that; there likely can be found no testimony to say that Mrs. Newton herself was at the actual scene of the shooting. Dr. Hunt had said only he and the Newtons were there. Mrs. Newton, like her husband waived examining trial, and no evidence tending to prove she was guilty of assault with intent to murder, except inferentially, has been introduced into the records.

That was because Mrs. Newton, under the rules of court procedure, could not be incriminated without having a chance at cross-examination.

She has never been in a position where she needed to cross-examine witnesses, not having gone to trial, or not having asked an examining trial.

Main Witness Missing

The state will be able to reproduce any of the witnesses who appeared at Dr. Newton's trial, except the main one. La Font did not announce, of course, if he had uncovered other witnesses.

In the meantime, no further developments were announced in West or Central Texas on the rapidly-developing hunt for the slayer or slayers of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt.

They had said Wednesday:

"This mystery does not begin or end with Thomas."

They said it looked like a "long hard job to find where it does end."

Jim Thomas, 49-year-old convict is held in Lubbock county jail in connection with the crime. He has not been charged, but officials several days ago had said that, with passage of each day, "Jim Thomas seems to fit closer into the picture."

An outdoor movie theater operated by the Army in New Guinea shows current films within a month of their general release in this country.

News Briefs

Most Americans have abandoned acts of courtesy and appreciation in their private and business and professional lives, it was declared by Dr. Chester Swor, Clinton, Miss., youth counselor and leader for churches of the Southern Baptist convention, in a talk today before members of the Kiwanis club in Lubbock hotel. Americans also have forgotten to be patient, he said. Long ago, he stated, people merely shrugged when they missed a stage coach, were content to wait for next week's coach. "But these people today—they'll blow a fuse if they miss one section of a revolving door." Dr. Swor is speaker this week at First Baptist church. Dr. Carl E. Hereford was program chairman.

George Andetson of 408 Ninth street, suffered burns on the face, neck and left arm Wednesday afternoon following an explosion while working on a farm near here. He is receiving treatment in St. Mary's hospital.

Japs Lose 18 Ships

battle may be joined. However, the Japs have not shown any disposition for such a sea fight since last fall.

Any naval engagemen. will probably be a spontaneous engagement between task forces, instead of fleets.

In the air there is a different story. The Allies, with their foothold on Bougainville, are in a position to hammer major enemy bases with ample fighter cover which has been lacking heretofore.

Rabaul and its environs soon should be at the mercy of Allied bombers whose repeated demonstrations of their effectiveness against formidable targets was topped by turning the entire shipping area of Rabaul into a scene of utter wreckage and destruction.

Shipping losses claimed were:

Sunk—three destroyers, eight large merchant vessels, and four small coastal craft.

Damaged—two heavy cruisers, seven large merchant ships and two large tankers.

The 85 airplanes destroyed in the air and on the ground crippled the Jap air force in the Rabaul area terrifically.

It lessened the possible effectiveness of enemy aerial interference on Bougainville where a land battle, probably as bloody and maybe larger than that fought on Guadalcanal, looms.

The Japanese have many thousands of troops on the southern end of the island who must be supplied and reinforced by sea. The weather in that area is favorable at this time of year for such action. Troop and supply ships can easily take advantage of the heavy cloud banks that hang low over the water for hundreds of miles.

The Japs seem to be anxious for a fight and the Allies are determined to give it to them and drive them from the islands they have held for almost two years. Both sides are jockeying for positions in this early phase of the new South Pacific battle.

Mrs. Maggie Grice Dies Early Today

Mrs. Maggie Grice, 68, 1911 Seventeenth street, died at 2:15 o'clock this morning at her residence after an illness of about four months.

Mrs. Grice was Miss Maggie Clark before her marriage in 1890 to S. T. Grice, who died in 1936. Born, Oct. 2, 1875 in Newton, Miss., she had resided in Lubbock 27 years, where she had been a member of the First Methodist church.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Bonnie Norwood and Mrs. C. W. Norwood, both of the Seventeenth street residence in Lubbock, Mrs. J. H. York, 1910 Seventeenth street, Lubbock; Mrs. Cleve Reese, Big Spring; and Mrs. Gibb Fred, Levelland; three sons, W. E. Grice, Big Spring; Curtis Grice, Corpus Christi; and C. B. Grice, Salina, Calif.; four brothers, C. A. Clark, Lubbock; N. L. Clark, R. L. Clark and W. E. Clark, all of Beaumont; two sisters, Mrs. Clara Hardy, Lubbock; and Mrs. George Duncan, Llano; twenty-seven grandchildren, six of whom are in the armed forces; and a great-grandchild.

Funeral arrangements are pending arrival of relatives, according to Sanders Funeral home where the body lies.

Approval Of Policy

yet to be heard from. Senator Nye (R-ND) said the talk "may go on some time."

As it now stands, the resolution represents a compromise between Connally's original draft and a counter proposal made by the bloc of 14, with the addition of the Republican-sponsored treaty-ratification reservation.

Moscow Section Included

The Connally proposal pledging the United States to join with free and sovereign nations in the establishment of international authority with power to prevent aggression remains unchanged. To it was attached, at the insistence of the 14, a section of the Moscow declaration, revised to read:

"That the Senate recognizes the necessity of there being established at the earliest practical date a general international organization, based on the sovereign equality of all peace-loving states, and open to membership by all such states, large and small, for the maintenance of international peace and security."

Two Nazi Cities Hit

new attack as concentrated and effective, and a greatly-weakened German defense was indicated in the loss of only 19 raiding aircraft engaged in that and the other operations.

Duesseldorf, Germany's third-ranking inland port, is the site of the great Rheinmetal iron and steel works, almost comparable to Krupps at Essen, as well as Vereinigte Stahlwerke, one of Germany's "big four" industrial outfits.

Previously attacked 122 times, Cologne has many vital war targets, including a synthetic oil plant and a diesel engine factory.

Kassel Last Target

In the RAF's last large scale operation, the night of Oct. 22, the main force went to Kassel where more than 1,500 tons of explosives started great fires which raged for more than a week. Since then fog and rain had prevented both the RAF and USAAF from resuming their big combined day and night blows.

Yesterday, however, great armadas of American planes—estimated unofficially to total more than 1,000 including fighters — took advantage of the weather break and resumed the offensive. The North sea port and naval base of Wilhelmshaven was the chief target of the Fortresses and Liberators. They were escorted all the way by Thunderbolts and Lightnings.

The number of heavy bombers participating was not disclosed, but the largest previous reported American heavy operation involved 400 planes, making it appear that 500 or more were sent against Wilhelmshaven. Five heavy bombers and two fighters were lost.

'Localizing' Group Is Named For FSA

Appointment of four farmers to an administrative and advisory committee to "localize" the Farm Security administration program in Lubbock county was announced this morning by William H. Tinney, acting county FSA supervisor.

Committee members and their periods of service are Seth S. Allcorn, route 3, one year; Earl R. Davis, route 1, two years; and George R. Eklund, Slaton route 1, three years. Estel A. Robertson, route 6, is alternate.

"The single committee will handle all the advisory duties formerly handled by several committees," Tinney said. "Selected on the basis of their knowledge of local farming problems, these men will review and pass on the eligibility of applicants for FSA loans and assistance. Under the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act, which provides for the purchase by qualified tenants for farms of their own, this committee will pass on eligibility and the purchase price of the farm.

Man Found Guilty In Slaying Of His Wife

CROCKETT, Nov. 4. (AP)—A Houston county jury last night convicted Elbert Jones, 30, of the pistol slaying of his estranged wife, Mami, 25, and set his punishment at five years in the penitentiary. The shooting occurred here on Dec. 12, 1941.

Defense witnesses testified that Jones occasionally displayed signs of an unbalanced mind before the time of the shooting.

Quota For November Bond Sales Is Set

DALLAS, Nov. 4 (AP)—Texans responded so well in the Third War Loan drive that the state's quota for combined November sales of U. S. Treasury E, F, and G bonds was set at $32,000,000, eighth highest in the nation.

This was announced yesterday by Nathan Adams, chairman of the war bond sales organization in Texas, who said that county chairmen are being informed by letter of each county's quota.

Youths Convicted For Raping Young Girl

HOUSTON, Nov. 4 (U.P.) — Six youths were on their way today to the Gatesville training school, committed yesterday by County Judge Roy Hofheinz as a result of their alleged participation in the rape of a 13-year-old girl.

Seven adults are also under indictment in connection with the mass attack. The case was referred to by Judge Hofheinz as "the most repulsive I've seen in six and one half years at this desk."

'Possum, 'Taters Are Popular Fare Today In Post Oak Community Of Central Texas

DAVILLA, Tex., Nov. 4. (AP)—'Possum and 'taters (opossum and sweet potatoes, to you) is the fare here today.

It's 'possum-hunting time in the post oak country of Central Texas. This community, with a large negro population, takes its 'possum-hunting seriously this season—what with meat rationing and all.

Milam county salvage chairman S. E. Brogden and county superintendent of schools Charley Hix decided to exploit the negroes' love of the sport. They called in salvage representatives from the War Production board in Austin and staged a hunt.

John Powell, principal of the negro school, and Booker T. William, mechanics teacher, passed the word around. Twenty-five negroes and five of the community's best "hound dogs" showed up.

They treed 17 opossums and cornered five armadillos. Rifle shots felled the animals.

Down here the edible flesh of the armadillo, a creature armored with bony plates, is frowned on, but the oppossum, furry denizen of the post oaks, is relished. The traditional method of preparing this coupon-less meat is to roast it over a barbecue pit, permitting the dripping grease to feed the fire. The roasted opossum is garnished with sweet potatoes, which grow well in this sandy land.

But this season the fat is not in the fire. The grease from the armadillos as well as the opossums bagged in the season's first community hunt was rendered. Sold at 5 cents per pound, the cash proceeds went to the hunters. They still had the opossum meat and Uncle San got the wherewithal for glycerine and other war products.

Now government salvagers are hoping that the sport will spread.

'Female Jesse James' Sentenced To Prison

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (AP)—Characterized by a judge as a "female Jesse James" who robbed trading posts and participated in gun battles on the western prairies, Mrs. Annette Louise Sullivan, 32, was jailed today for stealing 98 neckties.

Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz, one of the nation's most noted criminal lawyers until he became a jurist in 1940, read aloud her record which showed 15 arrests since 1927 on charges of highway robbary, illegal possession of guns and freight train jumping.

In sentencing her to two-and-a-half to five years in women's state prison on a grand larceny charge, he declared:

"You are the most remarkable character ever to have come into a criminal court in my experience. You are a female Jesse James."

New Nazi Drive On Guerrillas Ordered

LONDON, Nov. 4 (AP) — In an apparent effort to keep the great Yugoslav port of Kotor from becoming an invasion gateway to the Balkans, the Germans were reported today to have ordered a fresh drive to crush patriot resistance from Dubrovnik to the Greek frontier.

Both partisan and Yugoslav government sources confirmed that strife between the forces of Gen. Draja Mihailovic and Gen. Josip Broz (Tito) had surged up in bloody form, but despite this internal division, heavy Nazi forces are tied up in thus far futile efforts to stamp out guerrilla activity.

Mexican Bus Held Up; Woman Is Kidnaped

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 4. (AP)—A band of about 20 armed and mounted men held up an Acapulco-Mexico City bus 25 miles from Acapulco yesterday and kidnaped a young woman passenger, the bus company reported.

The bandits, who surrounded the bus, took a gun from an army captain but did not rob the other passengers, according to the report.

North Side, Poly In Schoolboy Feature

Colorful 'Mites' Are Out Of Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Something colorful and dramatic is missing from Texas schoolboy football today—missing for the first time in years.

Masonic Home's Mighty Mites, who wrote gripping chapters of the gridiron, are not battling for a district championship.

This year they really are the Mighty Mites—scrappers all but too little and too few.

Tonight North Side and Poly will meet with the Fort Worth district title on the line. The Masons, already eliminated, will be just interested spectators.

Both Teams Undefeated

This is the feature game in the state for the week, the only contest matching unbeaten teams. Poly is undefeated and untied, North Side has only a tie to mar its record. While this tilt will not definitely determine the title, the critics will consider the winner as "in" because Poly already holds a decision over Amon Carter-Riverside, the only other team in the district that hasn't lost as many as two games.

There is an important game tomorrow night in district 10 where Bryan meets Hillsboro with leadership of division B at stake.

Wilson, Crozier Tech Meet

Woodrow Wilson and Crozier Tech meet Saturday night in a battle between two of the leaders of district 8; and two of the top teams of district 15 clash when Austin's unbeaten Maroons tangle with once-tied Jefferson of San Antonio, but otherwise the schedule for the state is rather slack.

In all there are only 36 games, 31 of them conference affairs but those mostly just the "leveling off" process in district races with few rated important barring big upsets. Only five of the ten undefeated untied teams of the state have games and only Poly appears to face trouble.

The complete schedule by districts:

1—Friday: Brownfield at Lubbock (conference).
2—Friday: Olney at Wichita Falls (conference), Burkburnett at Electra (conference), Quanah at Graham (conference).
3—Friday: Abilene at Sweetwater (conference).
4—Friday: Ysleta at Monahans, Bowie (El Paso) vs El Paso High (conference).
5—Friday: Bonham at Paris (conference).
6—Friday: Arlington at Highland Park (Dallas) (conference), McKinney at Denton (conference), Greenville at Sulphur Springs (conference).
7—Today: Poly (Fort Worth) vs North Side (Fort Worth) (conference); Friday: Masonic Home (Fort Worth) vs. Paschal (Fort Worth) (conference); Saturday: Fort Worth Tech vs Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) (conference).
8—Friday: Forest (Dallas) vs Sunset (Dallas) (conference); (conference); Saturday: Crozier Tech (Daljas) vs Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) (conference).
9—Today: Eastland at Cisco; Friday: Mineral Wells at Stephenville (conference), Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) at Weatherford.
10—Friday: Sherman at Waco, Bryan at Hillsboro (conference), Corsicana at Mexia, Ennis at Waxahachie (conference).
11—Friday: Gladewater at Kilgore (conference), New Boston at Texarkana.
12—Friday: Henderson at Jacksonville (conference).
13—Today: San Jacinto vs Sam Houston (Houston) (conference); Friday: Reagan (Houston) vs Jeff Davis (Houston) (conference); Saturday: Austin (Houston) vs Milby (Houston) (conference).
14—Friday: Orange at Goose Creek (conference), South Park (Beaumont) at Conroe (conference), Port Arthur at Galveston (conference).
15—Today: Kerrville at San Antonio Tech (conference); Friday: Austin at Jefefrson (San Antonio) (conference), Laredo at Corpus Christi (conference).
16—Friday: Robstown at Harlingen (conference), Edinburg at Brownsville (conference).

Westerners Taper Off Workouts For Brownfield Game

The last hard drill of the week Wednesday afternoon found the Lubbock Westerners putting in a full hour at hard scrimmage for the conference game here Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Brownfield Cubs. The local team will taper off this afternoon and be ready for their second conference game. Lubbock won the opener in the conference from Pampa last week.

The team will taper off today with a lighter drill and call it quits for Friday's conference game with the Brownfield Cubs.

One injury resulted from the rough scrimmage as Harold Burdett, reserve center wrenched his knee and may not be able to play Friday afternoon against the Cubs.

This will leave only Moyer to relieve Charles Pressley if relief is needed at center. Moyer did this last week against Pampa, but his work at fullback has taken most of Moyers time.

Roy Grimes, who sparked the belated Westerner rally last week against Pampa, was back in harness Wednesday afternoon after a day off because of a bad cold. Grimes was in the thick of the scrap Wednesday and should be in top form for Friday.

The team was released early Wednesday afternoon to allow the boys to study up for nine-week examinations which start this week.

'If At First' . . . Angler Finally Bags Whopper

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4. (AP)—Fishing in the Nestucca river, Gordon Nelson hooked a whopper that broke the line.

Nelson rigged up new tackle and tried again. He landed an 18-pound silverside salmon.

It was the same fish, hooked in the spreader of the broken tackle.

Major Found Shot To Death In Hotel Room

CHICKASHA, Okla., Nov. 4 (AP)—Major Qilliam E. Arthur was found shot to death in his hotel room Wednesday and Major Raymond F. Tolhert, public relations officer at Borden General hospital, said an investigation indicated the wounds were self-inflicted.

Major Arthur had been a patient at the hospital for the last two months in connection with retirement proceedings.

He came here from Amarillo, Texas. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katherine Arthur (1215 West 30th) Los Angeles, Calif.

Raiders Polish Pass Defense

Techsans Expect Tough Struggle

The Texas Christian Horned Frogs can always be counted upon to have a scoring threat in the air and Coach Dell Morgan is seeking to find the means of stopping that aerial attack when his Texas Tech Red Raiders meet the Frogs at Fort Worth Saturday.

The Texas Tech Red Raiders, still seeking a victory over a collegiate eleven, invade Fort Worth Saturday afternoon for a try at Coach Dutch Meyer's Horned Frogs.

The Red Raiders are paying very little heed to the moans of Frog backers on the loss of the Christian punch, and are expecting a tough battle from the orned Frogs.

The defense drill Wednesday afternoon found the Red Raiders having a barrage of passes exploded in their faces as the defenders battled against them for most of the afternoon.

Bob Williams, regular center, and Bob Brewer, hard driving backfield star, were showing up well on intercepting or batting down the passes, but were unable to make a very deep cut into the percentage of those that were being completed.

Another hard session is on the schedule for Thursday afternoon, with the final polishing due to be applied to the Texas Tech machine before it leaves for Cowtown.

Westerners, Sandies To Clash On Nov. 11

The Lubbock Westerners and Amarillo Golden Sandies meeting on Butler Field in Amarillo will be on Armistice Day, Nov. 11. This correction in the date was announced yesterday by E. J. (Pinkey) Lowrey, business manager of athletics at Lubbock High school.

The game was first booked for Armistice Day, then rematched for Nov. 13, then returned to the first date, and the two teams will battle one week from today.

Another change announced by Lowrey Wednesday night was on the kickoff time for the Brownfield Cub game here Friday afternoon. Because of school examinations, the kickoff time has been changed to 3 o'clock instead of the 2:30 time first announced.

Lowrey also announced Wednesday night that tickets would be on sale Thursday afternoon and Friday morning at the Hilton hotel for the game here Friday with Brownfield. He also said that several hundred tickets have been sent to Brownfield, and that a large crowd is expected to come here with the Cubs.

Gardner Thinks Chances Good For Texas League To Resume

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Nov. 4—President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas league thinks it should—and considers chances good—of the circuit resuming operations next year.

"I am convinced that the people want baseball and that the league could operate successfully next season," said Gardner today as he mailed questionnaires to sports writers asking their views on the question of using 16 and 17-year-old boys to meet the manpower problem.

"There are enough old ball players not eligible for the armed services, 4-F's and youngsters to carry on," Gardner said. "The transportation situation is no major barrier since with night baseball there will be little need for Pullman accommodation in the comparatively short trips of our compact circuit.

More Interest Seen

"I think use of the youngsters would mean added interest in the game—a revival of local interest when the fans see their own folks out there trying to go to the big leagues. I have always contended that the youngsters were not given the proper attention in professional baseball anyway."

Gardner said he still was convinced the league was wise in voting not to operate this year.

"Last winter everything was in turmoil," he said. "Great plants were being completed and outfitted, a mighty war machine was being created. That has been done and now it has settled into a routine of producing the tools of war."

The annual league meeting will be held here next week and at that time Gardner will submit the question of resuming operations. He anticipates action at this session.

A majority of the present members are expected to favor starting up again and Gardner revealed that there were several other cities interested in joining the league if places were opened.

Junior High Plays Petersburg Today

The Lubbock Junior High school Cowboys are going to be given the chance to see action on the gridiron at last. The Cowboys will attempt to ride herd on the Petersburg Buffs reserves at Chapman Field this afternoon.

The Petersburg Buffs are expected to give the younger boys here a real test, but the local lads have been working hard to perfect an offense to be used against the visitors.

Eligibility Of Back Protested

San Angelo Player Object Of Charge

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 4. (AP)—Milton Rathbone, San Angelo High school quarterback, is taking two night school courses taught in the San Angelo college building, but he is not enrolled in the college and the courses are not in the college curriculum, school officials here say.

This explanation was made last night in a statement by Bryan Dickson, superintendent of San Angelo schools, and Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, president of San Angelo college, after Rathbone's eligibility had been questioned.

Murry H. Fly, superintendent of Odessa schools, filed with V. Z. Rogers of Lamesa, chairman of district 3-AA in the Texas interscholastic league football plan, a charge that Rathbone was taking two subjects in San Angelo college, in violation of league rules.

San Angelo recently defeated Odessa in a football game.

Supt. Dickson said the night school courses last year were taught in the high school building but were moved this year to the college building to eliminate necessity of heating two buildings.

Dickson said that Rathbone, in addition to taking five day courses in high school, was attending the two night school classes in an effort to acquire sufficient credits to graduate from high school at mid-term and before entering some branch of military service.

Rogers said that if it was agreeable to the executive committee, to Odessa, and to the San Angelo high school officials, a meeting of the committee to rule in the case would be set for 10 a. m. Saturday in Big Spring.

Cuddy Picks T. C. U., Texas Aggies, Notre Dame, Navy And Purdue To Win Grid Games

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Picking the football winners—maybe:

South and Southwest: Duke over North Carolina State—says the duchess. North Carolina over South Carolina—okay, governor. Georgia Tech over Louisiana State—feat of engineering. N. C. Pre-Flight over Wake Forest—watch out for crack-up. Texas Aggies over Southern Methodist—oh you Kiddie Korps! Texas Chrsitian over Texas Tech—might be a tie. Rice over Arkansas—Rice is no longer rationed. Randolph Field over Blackland AAF—meet Gleb Dobbs. Also Southwestern over Bryan AAF; Tulsa over Oklahoma A. and M.; Georgia over Presbyterian; Clemson over Davidson; Vanderbilt over Carson Newman.

East: Notre Dame over Army—calling all air wardens. Navy over Pennsylvania—mere sentiment from an ex-gob. Brown over Yale—Dorothy Lamour's eyes are Brown, perhaps. Holy Cross over Temple—says our architect. Dartmouth over Columbia—Lou Little is in hospital. Villanova over Princeton—is Villa related to Lou Nova?

Midwest: Michigan over Indiana—but don't wager your wife's poils. Purdue over Minnesota—bub at the pub sticks to Boilermakers. Illinois over Iowa—by hatpin process. Northwestern over Wisconsin—Wildcats vs. Badgers. Iowa Pre-Flight over Marquette—wing and a prayer. Great Lakes over Camp Grant—don't take it for granted. Missouri over Iowa State—flipping coins is such fun. Oklahoma over Kansas.

Far West: Southern California over San Diego Navy—but fur will fly. College of Pacific over St. Mary's—bells are muffled now. Del Monte Pre-Flight over UCLA—or we go back to cannery. Also Colorado over Utah; California over San Francisco; St. Mary's Pre-Flight over Alameda Coast Guard; March Field over Pomona Ordnance.

A total of 3,902 war nurseries and child care centers has been established with the assistance of Lanham Act funds to care for 214,885 children, according to the Federal Works Agency.

Not even the ravages of time can turn a mansion into a shanty as completely as one visit from the tax assessor!

SWALLOWING one's own prejudices is more painful, apparently, than swallowing swords. At any rate, The Plainsman made the mistake of spending the other afternoon at Lubbock Army Air field, personally studying the WAC detachment there, and as a result was convinced, once and for all, that the girls can and do perform highly necessary functions in the Army; that if their ranks can be properly augmented, more men can be released to fight—which, of course, will bring victory quicker.

There hasn't been a salty oldster in the country—in or out of uniform—less sympathetic than The Plainsman to the idea of women in uniform.

As a matter of fact, we're still of the opinion that too much emphasis is being laid on "squads-east-and-west," and more money than necessary is being spent on the strictly military angle of the WACs, WAVES, SPARS, etc.

It occurs to us that armbands, instead of uniforms, could mark the women in service and that a less elaborate system of authority could be substituted for the pure Army, Navy, Marine and Coast Guards setups of rank and grade.

But whether or not, we must in fairness admit that there is a place for women in the services and from what we've been able to see first hand, as well as hear, the women are doing a bang-up job wherever they are serving.

Out at LAAF, WACs are serving, and serving well, in numerous capacities.

They are in Operations, a very important segment of the organization of any Army air field. They are in the Medical detachment. They work in the control tower, routing planes in and out of the busy field. You'll find them in Headquarters. Elsewhere they are cooking, working in the library and in the message center; in the photo lab and in the postoffice. One, even, works "on the line," out where the planes are serviced and when we saw her she was driving a little truck along the ramp. Most of her time, however, she puts in at welding on the airplanes themselves.

Col. Ralph E. Holmes, who commands LAAF and who is typical of straight-from-the-shoulder regular Army officers, told us that everywhere the WACs are working at LAAF, they are pleasing their superiors.

"They all tell me," the colonel said, "that they want more WACs if what they have now are typical of the entire corps."

FLANKED by Lt. Col. Claude Prichard, LAAF's executive officer; Maj. Byron Goulding, post adjutant; and Capt. William A. Murphy, 2nd, special services officer, The Plainsman was taken to the various places over the post where WACs were on duty. We were not only permitted—we were urged—to talk to the girls about their work and their attitude toward the corps. And we did. We found every one of them with whom we conversed to be what the Air Forces call "on the beam." Briskly efficient, and more military than most of the men, they knew what their job was and they were doing it.

We went over to the barracks where the WACs live and the individual who crumbled whatever resistance we had left was the acting commanding officer of LAAF's feminine detachment, Lt. Margaret Griffith, of Canton, O.

Clear eyed, intelligent Lt. Griffith, carrying on as boss WAC in the temporary absence of Capt. Jamie Luttrell and 1st Lt. Elizabeth Flanagan, simply exudes efficiency. Aided by acting 1st Sgt. Maple (yes, it's Maple, not Mabel) Cox, of El Paso, Lt. Griffith showed us every nook and cranny of the WAC barracks from mess hall to sleeping quarters, and she knew every angle. The high morale of the girls was evident at every turn—even to a youngster doing the baking who looked like she'd be more in character as a model in a Fifth Avenue ladies shop.

Just how many WACs there are at LAAF and SPAAF today is not a "military secret" in the exact sense of the word. We probably could divulge the number without being guilty of bandying about information of interest and comfort to the enemy. However, the number is a matter of military information, hence cannot be published. But we can say this: both local posts would like to have several times as many WACs as they have now; could use several times as many this very day.

And what is true here is true in every military and naval establishment in the country.

AS all and sundry should know by this time, there is going on throughout the country a nation-wide WAC recruiting campaign. Charged with the campaign's responsibility in this general area is LAAF's Major Goulding, whose rise up the military ladder in the past 18 months has been unusually rapid.

Major Goulding hasn't gone from a 1st lieutenant in charge of public relations to a majority and the important position of post adjutant simply because he has blue eyes. His promotions came swiftly because he has something on the ball.

Therefore, the fact that he has been placed in charge of the 20-county WAC recruiting drive in this area is indicative of the importance attached to WAC recruiting by the Army.

If the High Command didn't believe that more WACs must be forthcoming for the good of the war effort, certainly less stress would be put on the campaign.

So, girls of WAC age and their parents, take it from an old "bitter-ender" that it's only true to say:

(1) The WACs have a real place in the Army;

(2) There are many jobs they can hold down as well as men (and, in some cases, better than men); and

(3) The more WACs the Army can get and train for routine tasks, the more men can be put to fighting and the quicker victory will be won.

This testimony, remember, comes from one who has been convinced almost against his will!

After all, there are only two reliable ways to induce a person to do something he'd rather not do: pay him, or scare him.

IT seems to us that citizens of the South Plains in general, and those of Levelland and Hockley county in particular, should rise up on their hind legs and join in three rousing cheers for Ed Hofacket.

Mr. Hofacket, who is sheriff of Hockley county and a darned good one, too, kept his head last Saturday when serious trouble threatened in Levelland—when the wrong move might have precipitated serious trouble between cottonpickers of Mexican extraction and Anglo-American officials and private citizens.

When a large crowd of the Latin-American pickers gathered in protest to what they termed discrimination against several of their fellows, the sheriff of Hockley county secured a Latin-American friend, mounted him on an improvised platform, and had him make a speech counseling against further trouble, or violence. Despite the fact that police reserves from Lubbock reached the scene a few minutes later, the speech — and Sheriff Hofacket's cool action in arranging it—must get the credit for turning what might easily have become a bloody mess into nothing more than a regrettable occurence.

Believers in law and order everywhere in this section will applaud straight-thinking Sheriff Hofacket, and will congratulate the people of Hockley county for having chosen as a sheriff a man who refuses to be stampeded.

LINCOLN AND RAOUL

CHAPTER XXVI

Lincoln's thoughts raced.

No, no—he could not kill Raoul. Raoul, his half-brother, of whom he had always been so fond, to whom he had looked up during childhood days. Raoul who had sinned—sure enough—but, too, had been sinned against, by his stepfather's harsh, puritanical refusal to help.

Years had passed. And something had happened to Raoul. Something had warped his soul. This something, in its ultimate effect, was of dreadful danger to the cause of the United Nations—and so . . .

No, no, no! He could not kill. There must be another way—and, all at once, he found it.

"Listen, Raoul!" he said. "I shall tell the dervishes precisely who you are. I shall tell them that you're not a Moslem, a descendent of the Phophet Mohammed, inspired by Allah, but" contemptously, "a renegade Christion who hates his own people for decidedly unsavory and selfish reasons. And what will happen then? Let me tell you! Your whole house of cards will collapse . . ."

"And we'll both be killed."

"I don't mind, where I'm concerned. At least, not enough to keep me from . . ."

"The dervishes," interrupted Raoul, "may not believe you."

"Don't they, though!"

"Go ahead! Talk to them! I dare you!"

How like the old Raoul in schoolboy days—thought Lincoln—with his: "I dare you!"

Aloud he said:

"I'm not bluffing. But you are. I'll give you a choice. Either somehow—and I've no idea how you'll do it, maybe by putting it on some sort of spiritual, passive resistance basis—you'll give up this conspiracy and persuade the dervishes to go home peacefully. Or I'll step out of the tent right now and spill the beans. And then—curtains for both of us."

* * *

Lincoln hadn't finished. "But curtains, too, for your fantastic plan of revenge. For you know, as I do, that a conspiracy like this, built upon the fanatical faith of a mob in one single man—why—the slightest whisper of doubt will blow it straight to hell."

Raoul stared at Lincoln. For a long time he did not speak. Then he inclined his head.

"You win," he said dully, "and I lose." He went on: "You know—you're the sort of man I would hate, if we hadn't the same mother. You stand for all the unimaginative obstinacy, all the—oh—still kowtowing to duty which I despise about the Occident, about Christianity."

"Yet you were born a Frenchman and brought up as a Christian.

"Don't waste time," sneered the other, "and effort by trying to play on my sentimentality. I'm not a milk-sop romanticist. But—funny!—you are, in spite of your hard-headedness."

"So are you. Or you would never have dreamed up this fabulous dream of revenge." He stepped up close to Raoul. "What will you do—I mean, in the future?"

"What," bitterly, "do you care?"

"I care very much. I am deeply fond of you—in spite of everything. I"—a little embarrassed—"I suppose it's no use trying to help you out—or—with a bit of money?"

"Marvelous physchologist!" was the sardonic rejoinder.

"One thing, though, I can do for you. Of course I'll have to make some sort of confidential report to account for my absence. But I'll never divulge who you are."

"To save the honor of my name—or of yours?"

"Not quite fair, Raoul."

Then the other broke down.

"Not quite fair. I know. That's always been the trouble with me. Not quite fair." He swore then, viciously. "Get out of here," he cried, "before I change my mind. Tell the dervishes I'm sending you on some special task. Hurry back to where you came from. On the day after tomorrow, when you'll be safely on your way, I—ah"—as bitterly as before—"shall carry out your orders."

* * *

Forty-eight hours later, the rickety Ford was bearing Lincoln, Nancy and Zaman Khan away from the jungle.

Lincoln sighed.

"I guess," he said, "Raoul is right. I'm a romanticist, a sentimentalist. You see—I can't help feeling sorry for these dervishes, these fanatics, when Raoul will tell them—the Lord knows how—that their grand, glittering dreams are over."

"What do you think your brother'll do?" asked Nancy.

"I've no idea. But maybe he'll enter a dervish monastery. Would be the very thing for him. He's really today a Moslem at heart—a fatalist . . ."

"So," chimed in the Afghan, "am I! Wah—it is a pleasant fate which awaits me in Yebba! A girl whose loveliness shames the splendor of the mid-day sun! I would ask her to be my wife—were I not off to the wars, joining the Sixteenth Pathan Rissala."

Nancy Brown, her hands on the steering wheel, looked over her shoulder at Lincoln.

"You aren't going to war, are you?" she demanded.

"No. I'm the governor of . . ."

"Well—then"—she interrupted—"there's really no reason why you shouldn't ask me to be your wife, is there?"

"Haven't I asked you?"

"You have not!"

"Okay! Will you?"

"I'll think it over," she replied—and she stepped on the gas.

LUBBOCK'S WAR AGAINST RATS

Few people in Lubbock will require any urging to cooperate as fully as they can with the rat eradication campaign sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce which is in its preliminary stage this week and which will advance to the poisoning stage next week.

Everyone appreciates that the rat is dangerous to health and is destructive to property—particularly to food. More than a little uneasiness was caused in Lubbock a few weeks ago, especially among medical and health authorities, when two cases of typhus fever developed here. The rat is the most common carrier of this fever, and the two cases seemed to prove that typhus-infected rodents are in our city.

Fortunately, Lubbock is not faced with a "rat problem" comparable to that of most cities of corresponding size. All of us doubtless hope that we never will have such a problem here. Obviously, the best safeguard against such a problem is to get rid of as many rats as we can at once.

Thus, it is to the self-interest of every one to cooperate in the eradication campaign. This may involve a little temporary inconvenience for a few people. But, if you should be requested to be particularly careful to keep food and garbage where rats can't reach it for awhile, do as you are asked. A little personal inconvenience will be a small price to pay for residence in a city where the rat population has been reduced to a minimum.

Ernie Pyle Says Goodbye To His Faithful Little Automobile

Companion Of Many Adventures Is Turned Off

EDITOR'S NOTE: Several requests have come in for the reprinting of a column Ernie Pyle wrote in 1936 when he traded in his old car. Here it is.

By ERNIE PYLE

WASHINGTON — Goodbye to you, my little old car. In a few minutes I must drive you away for the last time. Trading you off, selling you down the river for a shiny new hussy, just because you're old and crippled. I feel like a dog.

You look so sad and weak. I know; you're thinking of the things we've been through together. You've never let me down, have you?

ERNIE PYLE

We were both so proud that first day we marched down the road together three years ago. Remember how you purred?

You're really only a piece of machinery. But I've always felt as if you were human, and I've treated you that way. Remember how I've worried over you, and understood your little peeves, and eased you along when you felt bad, and almost never punished you?

Remember up there in Canada last fall, how some strange malady attacked your steering gear, and you could hardly bear to turn a corner, and it took every ounce of my strength to steer you around the mudholes and through traffic?

But every time we'd get within yelling distance of a garage, you remember what you'd do? You'd pull yourself together, and when the mechanic would get in to test you, you'd steer like a feather. You used to burn me up with that kind of stuff.

"Died In South Texas"

And remember how you used to lean over to one side, like a tired horse that shifts its weight? And I'd look at your springs and fuss around and get mad, but there wasn't anything wrong with you at all, except you'd be leaning over to one side. Just for the fun of it, I suppose.

Remember that time down in South Texas when you just up and died, cold as a turkey? And I raised your hood, and after seeing the engine was still there I didn't know what to do next, so I got back in and stepped on the starter. And you laughed and started right up. Remember that? We did take a hunk of dirt as big as a walnut out of your gas pump at the next town. But you just did it to scare me, didn't you?

YOU'VE been good to me too. Don't think I don't appreciate it. That night we got home from 6000 miles in Canada, you recall. You'd taken a beating up there, on those rough roads. How you stood it all, I don't know. But you did, and remember when we pulled up in front of the apartment that night, with the trip ended, and just as I turned off the switch your front spring broke in two, and let your body down on the tires? You brought me home before you gave up, didn't you?

You've seen a lot of country that most cars don't see. And you've had some pretty full experiences for an automobile. Remember that blizzard in Mississippi? Yes, in Mississippi, of all places. How we drove all day through snow and freezing mud, and it just didn't seem possible you could keep on pulling. And how when we got into Brookhaven that night the garage man said you had 400 pounds of frozen mud under your fenders, and it was sticking out behind for two feet?

6,000 Miles On Boat

And remember your long ride on the boat? I can see you now, sitting on top of that deckload of lumber, covered with a canvas. Six thousand miles you made on that boat, without moving a muscle. Pretty soft, wasn't it?

And do you remember that time the whole gear-shift lever came right out in my hand? And when I put it back in everything was mixed up, and reverse was high gear, and low was second, and I had to call a garage to get you straightened out? I'll bet you chuckled a week over that.

And you remember when somebody tried to steal you, in Los Angeles? But boy, you didn't want to travel with anybody but me, did you? You wouldn't let them in, even if they did break your door handle off. You were swell about that.

BUT you know the thing I love you most for. The time we hit that hole in Mexico at 50 miles an hour. You showed what was in you that day. You took it standing up, and you stayed up.

You've been 12,000 feet high, and 80 feet below sea level. And you've seen 20 below zero and 110 in the shade. And you've been through cloudbursts and snowstorms where I couldn't see your radiator cap. You've complained and whined and groaned, but you've always kept on going, haven't you?

We've ridden so far together, and we've been to such funny places, and we've been so close to tragedy, and things have looked pretty dark for us, but somehow we always came home together, didn't we?

So there you sit, waiting to go. If I were rich I'd turn you out to pasture, like a horse. But I'm not rich. And you must know there is a futility in all companionship, and days of parting come and they are always like ashes, and I'm putting on my hat to come down and drive you away. Try not to hate me for it, won't you? We must go for the last ride. Goodbye to you, my dear little car.

Tammany Hall Shakeup Seen

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (AP)—A move to shake up Tammany Hall's leadership developed within the ranks of the Manhattan Democratic organization today as a sequel to the party's debacle in the recent election campaign.

Tammany executive committee members were reported to be circulating a petition calling upon their chieftan, Michael J. Kennedy, to resign. Friends of Kennedy said he had no intention of doing so.

Speedy action was demanded by the rebellious faction because primaries for the nomination of candidates to the national Democratic convention are less than six months away.

Moskovit Asks Ouster

The resignation—or ouster—of Kennedy was demanded also by Harold R. Moskovit, state chairman of the affiliated young Democrats, in a letter to David H. Knott, chairman of the New York county Democratic organization.

As the Tammany rank and file speculated on a possible change of leaders, former Supreme Court Justice Jeremiah T. Mahoney, former International Revenue Collector Joseph T. Higgins and former Assistant Attorney General John F. McCooey were mentioned unofficially as possible choices to succeed Kennedy.

City Plurality Small

Moskovit's letter came on the heels of the overwhelming defeat of Lt. Gen William N. Haskell, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, whose New York City plurality was less than the Democratic organization here ordinarily could deliver.

Moskovit's chief appeal for a change of leadership was based, however, on the "stigma" he said was attached to the Democratic party through disclosure of Tammany's association with Frank Costello, described by District Attorney Frank S. Hogan as a "slot machine czar."

Supplementing his letter, Moskovit said Democrats would hold a meeting Nov. 16 to "start the ball rolling."

Top-Ranking Official Of S-P Railroad Dies

HOUSTON, Nov. 4 (U.P.)—Funeral services were being planned today for Blaine S. Hollimon, descendant of a pioneer Texas family and the second top-ranking official of the Southern Pacific lines to die in four days. He was 59.

Hollimon, assistant general manager, died last night in a Houston hospital after an illness of several days.

A. D. Mims, vice president and general manager of the Southern Pacific and Hollimon's immediate superior, died Oct. 30.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 (AP) — Continued favorable war news and further talk of early peace brought about renewed hedge selling and liquidation in cotton today and discouraged efforts of the market to rally following Wednesday's break.

Price fixing and trade buying in the final hour of trading lifted prices near the best levels of the day. Futures closed (old contracts) 90 cents to $1.40 a bale higher.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 4 (AP)—Favorable war developments prompted liquidation of grains today. Selling through commission houses was heavy at times and wheat led a downtown extending to more than a cent. The market lacked almost completely the commercial demand which had advanced prices earlier in the week.

At the close wheat was ⅞-¼ lower than yesterday's finish, December $1.56 ¾, May $1.55 ⅝-¾, rye was down ¾-1 cent, December $1.12 ⅛-1.13, oats were off ⅛-⅜ and barley was 1 ¾ lower.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Nov. 4 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 1.62 ¼-67 ¼.

Barley No. 2 nom 1.26-28 ½.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs nom 2.33-35; No. 2 white kafir nom 2.34-37.

Corn, shelled, prices at ceilings, No. 2 white 1.26 ½; No. 2 yellow 1.16 ½.

Stock Market

LEADERS DIP FRACTIONS

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 (AP)—Another peace-selling wave hit the stock market today, after an early recovery attempt failed to draw much of a following, and leading industrials and rails dipped fractions to around 2 points.

At the start the list acted a bit better as opinions were voiced that short-war psychology may have been overdone in the relapse of the preceding session. Calling off of the coal strike also was mildly beneficial.

While activity tapered toward the last, turnover for the full proceedings exceeded 1,000,000 shares for the second time since Sept. 20.

American Distilling again was an exception, jumping about 3 points at one time to a new 1943 peak. It subsequently backed down. Prominent on the offside were Santa Fe, U. S. Steel, Western Union, Consolidated Edison, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, International Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, Westinghouse, Johns-Manville, Dow Chemical and J. C. Penney. United Corp. slipped ⅛ of a point to 1 ⅛ on one 10,000-share block.

Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (AP)—

STOCKS: Heavy; peace selling continues.

BONDS: Lower; rails in supply.

COTTON: Irregular; trade buying, hedging and liquidation.

CHICAGO:

WHEAT: Declined ¼-1¼ on good war news, peace rumors.

RYE: Dropped ¾-1 cent with wheat.

HOGS: Weak to 10 cents lower. Top $14.30 on weights over 230 lbs.

CATTLE: Instances 10 to 15 cents lower. Top $16.35.

Coal Strike Broken

20 to 25 cents a day for all miners.

While the reaction among the miners was generally favorable, actual coal digging was slow to get under way. Normal production before next week was considered unlikely at many mines.

The union miners have been without a contract since May 1. There have been four strikes this year as a direct outcome of the wage arguments and President Roosevelt has ordered the mines siezed by the government twice. Originally, the UMW asked approximately $2 a day more pay boost; some operators offered 88 cents. The Illinois contract, offered as a model, provided $1.50. The War Labor board said $1.12½ could be approved but more than that would violate the hold-the-line policy against inflation.

"Who Won?" Is Question

The basis of settlement provided no simple, categorical answer to the simple question, "who won?"

If the WLB approves, it will do so under its own interpretation of the wage stabilization policy. The miners will get more money but it will mean increased working time in most cases. They will get paid for underground travel time, but only after 40 hours a week. Another possible result is higher coal prices, a factor the agreement did not mention. Increases probably would vary between 15 and 45 cents a ton.

Great Nazi Rout

struction of an Austrian army in 1916—has there been a rout to compare with the smashing of German Marshal Erich von Manstein's army of the Nogaisk steppes.

As in the first World war, the cry "die Cossacken Kommen"—the Cossacks are coming—spread like wildfire through the fleeing enemy, sowing the seeds of a paralyzing terror such as even the 300,000 Germans who were killed or captured at Stalingrad never knew.

"No Quarter" Fighting

The Don and Kuban Cossacks, who ask and give no quarter and dislike taking prisoners, gave rein to their horses and literally slashed the fleeing enemy columns to pieces. While sabres were their main weapons, some carried tommy guns which they frequently fired from beneath their horses' bellies in Hollywood movie cowboy style.

A dispatch to the Communist newspaper Pravda said Russian infantry following behind the advance guards of Cossacks and tankmen were moving acros the steppes in a solid wall along the 27 miles between the Black sea and the Dnieper.

Escape Cut Off

Their escape cut off, thousands of Germans perished in sand dunes and lagoons at the western end of the steppes. Other thousands surrendered and trudged eastward in endless columns paralleling similar lines of civilians returning homeward after being freed from German guards who were herding them westward for slave labor.

Advance guards were within 12 miles of the Dnieper estuary port of Kherson.

Only in the area below Nikopol were the Germans making any organized resistance. There they were counter-attacking with savage and fanatical fury in a desperate attempt to check at least temporarily the Soviet avalanche to permit a fraction of their forces to escape to the north bank of the Dnieper.

Deficiency Bill

McNutt's War Manpower commission's $17,000,000 request was whittled down one-third and his federal security agency's $26,000,000 budget estimate was halved. The Commerce department's $7,270,000 now stands at $1,097,000.

The national housing agency's request for $200,000,000 for additional war shelter was slashed to $50,000,000 because the committee is "disturbed over the possibility of public housing being overbuilt."

OWI Gets Green Light

The only government department to get a green light was the OWI which in the past has been the objective of bitter and critical House debate. But after the committee had received communications from Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, and personal testimony from a member of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's staff it decided to vote the entire $5,000,000 requested or carrying on psychological warfare and propaganda activities in connection with military operations. Failure to do so, the committee concluded, would impede the war effort, lengthen and add to the cost of the war and possibly result in the loss of unnecessary American lives.

British Capture Vital Junction

of five to eight miles on the western Italian sector, advancing to within 85 miles of Rome and throwing the enemy back in a steady retreat across the broad Garigliano river valley, Allied headquarters announced today.

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth army also advanced in nearly all sectors, marching up the Botano-Isernia road and battering its way into Castelpetroso, less than seven miles southeast of Isernia, the mountain highway hub in the center of Marshal Erwin Rommel's present defense line.

Nazis Swept From Ridge

Gen. Clark's British and Americans swept the Germans from their last strongholds around Massico ridge, the massive anchor of the strongly fortified mountain line which the Germans apparently hoped to hold until winter, and brushed them out of their last footholds on lofty San Croce mountain to the northeast.

At the end of the day yesterday, by steadily rooting out nests of resistance, Clark's warriors were astride the main coastal road to Rome at a point beyond Sessa Aurunca, between the two mountains.

In addition to Sessa Aurunca, the pursuing British and Americans also had occupied Roccamonfina, five miles northwest of Teano at the foot of San Croce, and Pressenzano, northwest of San Croce and only five miles southeast of Mignano.

New River Crossings

The Eighth army of Montgomery forced new crossings of the Trigno river on the Adriatic front, but a savage battle raged around its original bridgehead at the railway station of San Salvo where the Nazis threw tanks and artillery into repeated attempts to hurl the British back over the barrier.

At least 20 Mark IV special tanks participated in the enemy's desperate but futile counterattacks and at the end of a day of bloody fighting Montgomery had driven them all back and gained some ground and taken a considerable number of German prisoners.

At sea, American PT boats sank an enemy tanker off the island of Elba.

The air command said that American bombers attacked the German airfield at Araxos, Greece.

Willis Holding Lead In Kentucky Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 4. (AP)—Maintaining his advantage throughout the night, Simeon S. Willis, Republican, continued today to lead his Democratic opponent, J. Lyter Donaldson, by 3,238 votes in their contest for governor of Kentucky.

Unofficial reports from 3,994 of 4,284 of the state's precincts gave Willis 257,993 votes to 252,595 for Donaldson. Among the unreported precincts were 250 in Jefferson county (Louisville), which normally is Democratic but in which Willis was leading by 289 votes.

Although Donaldson was trailing Willis, the remainder of the Democratic nominees for statewide offices held a slight lead over their Republican opponents on the basis of returns from nearly as many precincts as reported in the governor's race.

Stocks Of Automotive Gas In Texas Lower

HOUSTON, Nov. 4 (AP)—Stocks of automotive gasoline in Texas have declined more than 7,000,000 barrels in the last few months, the petroleum industry general committee for district three disclosed today.

Citing high demands of the armed services as a principal factor in the decline, the committee said:

"The overall military gasoline requirements are now 600,000 barrels daily or one-third of the total quantity used in this country in 1941 and are increasing constantly."

Levelland Incident

night that C. N. Ticer, proprietor of the cafe, had been charged with simple assault and with rudely displaying a deadly weapon, explained this afternoon "investigation is being continued, and we would appreciate it if Mexico City were informed that process of law will restore conditions, which were painted much worse than they really were. At first we didn't know what was behind all this; now we know positively that the incident, far from being community discrimination of any sort, was just an isolated incident," with less than a dozen individuals behind it.

Davidson said that Ticer had not been arraigned on the two charges, "because County Judge Jim Ellis became ill Wednesday. The judge probably will be in his office again Friday. I've talked with the defendant in these cases, and he says he is ready for arraignment when the court is."

Hofacket Is Praised

Sheriff Ed Hofacket, who was credited with using coolness and resourcefulness in such expeditious proportions that more serious trouble was averted Saturday, signed the complaints.

R. S. Urrea, Mexican consul, of El Paso, and Tom Sutherland, representative of Nelson Rockefeller's Office of Inter-American Affairs, were not in Levelland today. Both had been invited to be here to help investigate, the incident, and both openly had commended Hockley county officers for their work.

SCHOOL PAYMENT MADE

AUSTIN, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—State School Superintendent L. A. Woods today announced a payment of $2 per scholastic from the state available school fund to school districts. The payment makes $8 paid on the $25 per scholastic authorized for the school year. Woods said an additional $3 will be paid in December.

Five Killed In Crash Near Ft. Worth Field

FORT WORTH, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Five men were killed and one student officer was seriously injured when a four-engined bomber from Fort Worth Army Air field crashed and burned last night, military officials announced today.

The plane was returning from a routine training flight and crashed four miles south of the field.

The one survivor was Lt. Jack M. Graham, 22, student officer from Clarksburg, W. Va. He was thrown clear of the wreckage.

The dead:

Lt. John C. Himmer, 23, flying instructor, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Himmer of Johnstown, Pa.

Lt. Richard M. Fullaway, jr., 24, student officer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Fullaway of Los Angeles, Calif. His widow lives in Fort Worth.

S/Sgt. Kenneth La Roche, 27, aerial engineer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. La Roche of Brule, S. D.

Pfc. Enos E. Wharton, 21, student aerial engineer, son of Mrs. Cora Cherry of Lillie, Ky.

Pfc. John E. Lewis, 19, radio operator, son of Mrs. Zana Lewis of Hyden, Ky.

The pike attains an age of 200 years.

Japs Hope To Form An Asiatic Bloc

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

Japanese militarists (the real rulers of Nippon) are said by competent observers in the Orient to recognize that they will lose this war but are hoping to secure a liberal peace and meantime to create an Asiatic bloc of countries which they can lead against the white races twenty-five years hence.

That sounds fantastic, but it isn't. It fits in with the signs of the times, and represents a menace even more deadly than Prussian militarism, because it's calculated to pit the East against the West—a racial conflict.

My own observations in the East have convinced me of that. There's real danger of the formation of an Asiatic bloc. The Japs are working the "big brother" game rather smartly in spots.

Trend Told By Newsman

Fresh word of this trend has been brought out of a Jap internment camp in the Philippines by Raymond P. Cronin, who was chief of the Associated Press bureau in Manila when the Nipponese invaded the island.

The AP correspondent says his informants express the belief that Jap military men in the field are attempting to sow the seeds of brotherhood among the Asiatic races in preparation for the next war. A similar report comes from another AP correspondent, Russell Brines, who also is on the Gripsholm after nearly two years internment in Shanghai and Manila.

Brines reports that the Jap militarists are conducting an extensive propaganda campaign among their people to sell the idea of protecting Asia against British-American "imperialism." A lot of this "imperialistic" talk sticks, too, for I found it there myself.

Ready For Long Fight

Both Cronin and Brines believe the Japanese military machine is capable of waging a long, hard war and intends to fight to a finish. While the leaders recognize that they must surrender ultimately, this fact is being kept from the Japanese people, whose morale appears to be good.

This Japanese effort to establish an Asiatic bloc isn't a thing to be brushed aside lightly, because we can't say in advance that victory by arms over the mikado's forces will eliminate the political danger.

There are other disquieting factors in the situation. You know, we shouldn't fool ourselves into believing that all the peoples of the Orient are in love with either America or Britain. A lot of folk out there don't like us.

Have Mistaken Idea

As I've reported in this column previously, there is a widespread feeling in the Orient that the Four Freedoms and the Atlantic charter aren't intended for the peoples of the East at all, but only for the West. Even China, our ally, has been much concerned over this; as has neighboring India.

The situation has been complicated by India's bitterness over the political quarrel with Britain, an imbroglio in which high Chinese personages sympathize with India.

From my own investigation in India I know that day and night the Nipponese are pouring a flood of anti-British propaganda into that coluntry with the idea of capitalizing the political crisis. Lavish promises of "freedom" are being made by Tokyo.

Both China and India want to be included among the United Nations—but the necessity of removing all suspicions regarding the western Allies is quite apparent. It's doubly so when one stops to consider that these two vast countries together have a population of some 900,000,000, which is close to half that of the whole world.

Employment Of Young People Has Boomed

AUSTIN, Nov. 4. (AP)—Wartime employment of young people in Texas has boomed more than 200 per cent in the last year, Mildred Dougherty, associate child labor consultant in the U. S. Labor department's children's bureau, reported today.

Miss Dougherty said 11,392 certificates of age had been issued to minors in Texas during fiscal 1943, compared to 3,532 the year before and 1,555 in 1941.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
