Forsan Squeeks By Eagles

The Eldorado Eagles played the Forsan Buffaloes last Friday night in a District 6-2A contest. The Buffaloes defeated the Eagles in a close game, 16-14.

Juan Ramirez made a 54 yard run in the second quarter for a touchdown with Jesse Vasquez making the run after for extra points. This made the score Eldorado 8, Forsan 9.

Richard Adame made a touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 27 yard pass from Juan Ramirez. The attempt at extra points failed. The score was Eldorado 14, Forsan 16.

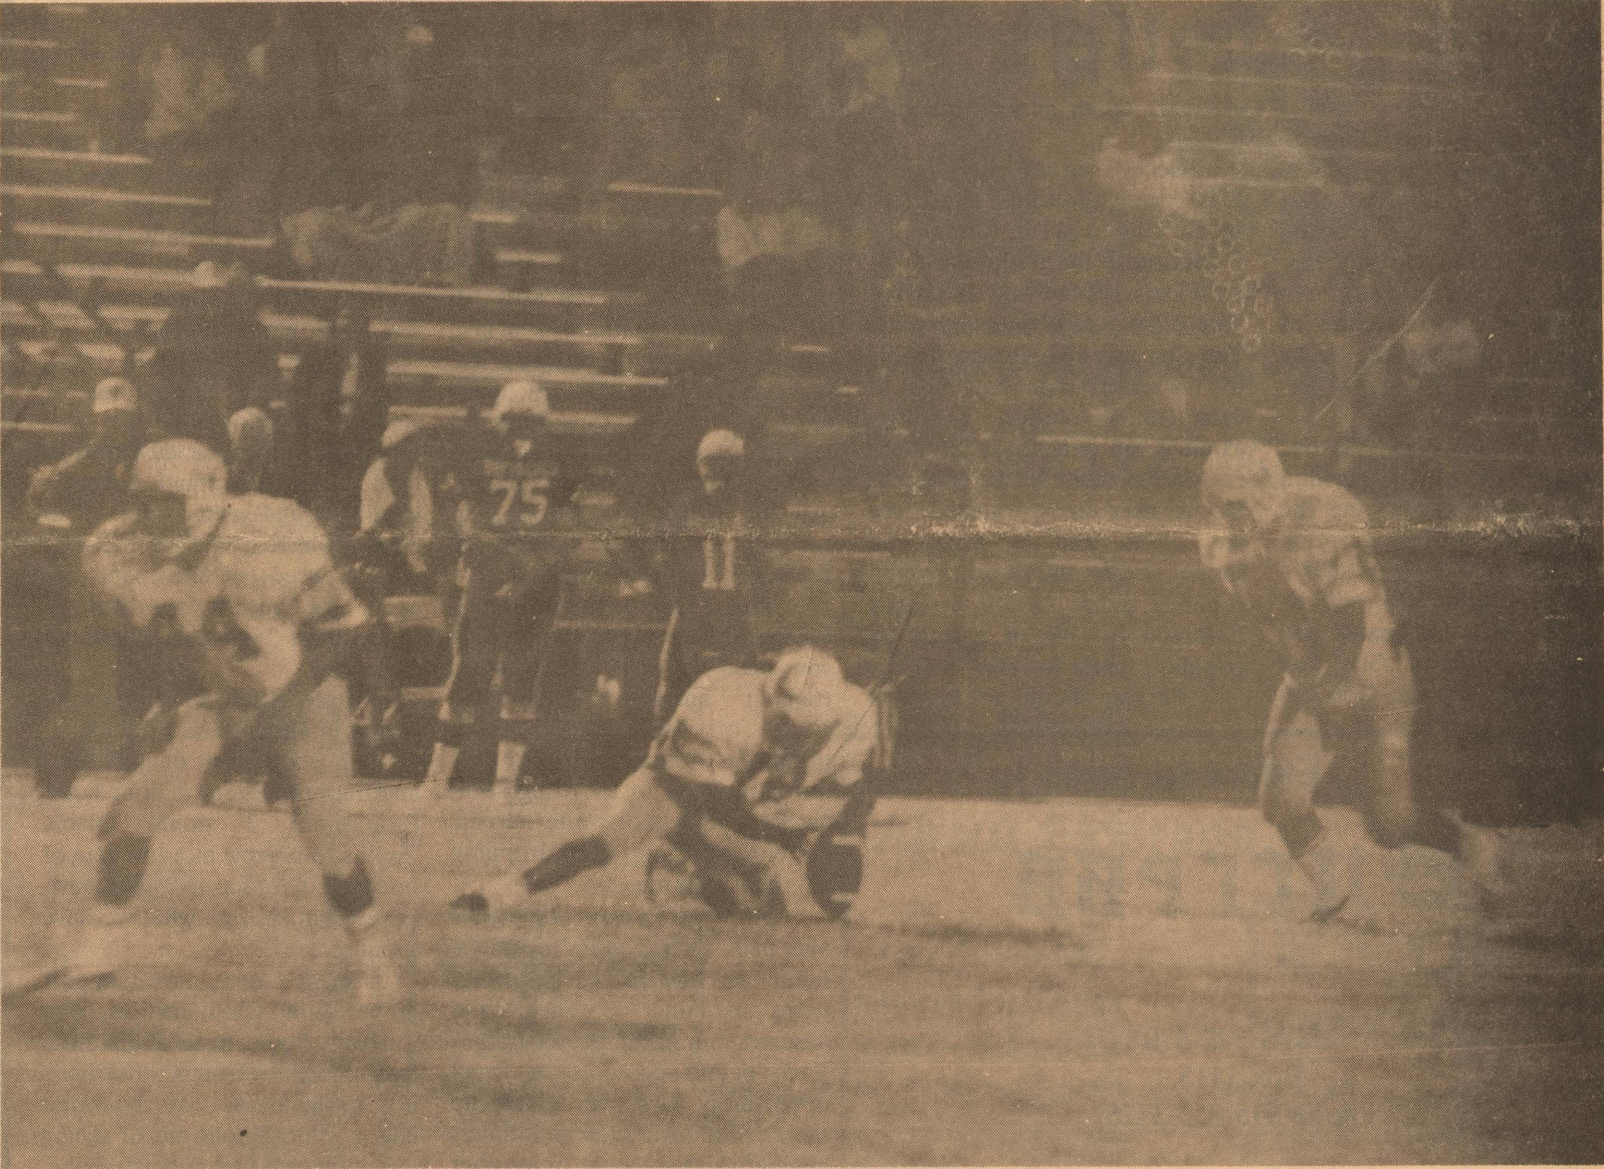

Coach Doug Kuhlmann said, "I felt we should have won the game but mental errors kept us from being able to win. We had dropped passes, players were not on the field in critical situations, and we did not play defense as well as we have in the past."

Eldorado will play Wall this Friday night on local turf. Coach Kuhlmann commented, "Wall is a good football team with a good record. We have to play with intensity and eliminate mental errors to win the game."

The junior varsity's final two games have been cancelled due to injuries on the team. Some of the players will be moved up to varsity for the final two varsity games.

Kickoff time for Friday night's game is 8 p.m.

Jesse Barajas prepares to kick the point after in Friday night's game at Forsan.

EHS Band Wins District Advances To Regional

The Eldorado Eagle band was selected Saturday, October 28, in District Contest to advance to UIL Regional Contest. The band received a Division I rating in Class AA.

The Eagle band competed against 12 Class AA schools in District 7. Ozona also received a Division I rating in this class and will also advance to Regional Contest. Only two bands advance to Regional Contest.

The judges were Gary Lervis from Abilene Christian University, Leslie Ross from Lockney High School and Warren Thaxton from Abilene High School.

This Saturday, November 4, the Eagle band will go to Waco for Regional Contest, to be held at Baylor Stadium. The performance time is 2:30 p.m.

All parents and the general public are encouraged and invited to attend and support the band in this competition.

The Eldorado Eagle Band-aide Booster Club would like to thank all parents, local businesses and everyone for their support and cooperation of the Eagle Band this year.

A special thank you goes to the band directors, Mike Marsh and Manuel San Luis, for all their hard work and dedication.

Health Fair Draws Large Crowd

The Health Fair, sponsored by the Schleicher County Medical Center and the Hospital Auxiliary, was held Wednesday, October 25, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Auxiliary members manned the registration desk at the entrance. There were 322 people who registered, 305 forms turned in which had almost everything on the form filled in. There were 272 blood tests, 111 flu shots given and 25 pints of blood donated.

The entire room was filled with booths and displays of many different health related products. There was a pediatrics display centering on child care, sponsored by Dr. Debbie Peaslee of the Medical Center.

Dr. Pat Johnson sponsored a display of general health care emphasizing Medifest-Weight Control with displays and pamphlets on "Eat to Live". There is a support group which will meet on Tuesday, November 7, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the lobby of the Medical center.

There was a display of a Trauma Unit, the Concho Valley Council of Governments had displays on tables, West Texas Rehab had a display of equipment and how it is used. The Meals on Wheels program and the Transportation Van were also represented.

The Suez Temple Schriners had a display on their work with crippled children. There are 19 Orthopedic Hospitals, and three burn institutes in the United States, Canada and Mexico. There are no cash registers. They accept donations not related to the Schriners. Anyone needing their services may call toll-free 1-800-237-5055.

A total of 59 individuals had their hearing checked by Beltone Hearing Aid Services.

While all of these activities were in progress, a video was showing activities from the nursing home.

The day was termed a success as it helped to inform the people of Eldorado and Schleicher County on the health care facilities available to them.

This photo was taken at last week's Health Fair held in Eldorado. Citizens have their blood pressure taken by the Girling Health Care professionals.

Life Among The Fishes

By Thomas Giovannitti

I hope all of you registered to vote are considering voting in the Constitutional Amendment Election on November 7. This column is too short for me to explain all of the amendments that we have on which to cast our vote, but I might just offer a few "Rules of thumb" for casting your votes in this election.

Now for all of you born and raised here in the Lone Star State, amending the 1876 Texas Constitution should not be much of a surprise. There have been 465 amendments offered to Texas voters and we've amended our beloved Constitution 307 times.

I am not so sure that a Texas Constitutional scholar can now tell the original document from the amendments. The United States Constitution, which is about 100 years older than our State Constitution, has been amended all of 26 times.

Does this mean that the Texas Constitution was so poorly written that it had to be amended 281 times more than the National document? No, of course not.

We Texans have merely used the amendment process as a "sort of" referendum.

Anyway, now for my short cuts to better voting for Texas Constitutional amendments:

1. If you don't understand it don't vote for it, either way. If you do you could be doing who knows what type of damage.

2. If it sounds as if it is just too good to be true, it is best to vote against it. Considering it takes two-thirds of all of our legislators to get one of these gems on the ballot, they would only make it sound so very good if it was actually going to cost us money.

3. If it names only a few counties and our county is not named, don't vote for it. Unless you have a close relative that lives in one of the named counties, and you trust that relative, it is not a good idea to vote to do something to people you hardly know.

4. Watch for double negatives, double entendre, and double talk. Need I say more!

Last but not least, we had an opportunity to re-do the Texas Constitution in its entirety but we voted those amendments down for some reason. Maybe the concept of a short document was more than a majority of Texans could face, I don't know, but the best way to change all this is by voting for people who will go to Austin and not vote for all these amendments.

Ruth Harper came in the office the other day. She had an article that she loved so much, she thought our readers might enjoy it. I share it with you.

One Solitary Life

He was born in an obscure village.

He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty. He then became an itinerant preacher.

He never held an office.

He never had a family or owned a house.

He didn't go to college.

He had no credentials but himself...

Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race.

All the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that...One Solitary Life.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Did you see the Obituary for Rebecca Leigh Fruge in the San Angelo Standard-Times last week? Little Becky was crossing the street when a car hit her, killing her instantly!

There were two victims of the accident -- little fragile Becky and the driver of the car, a parent just like you and me!

If you knew Becky, as our family did, you might question God's judgment in allowing the accident to occur. Why did God take her from us? She was such a loving, sweet child who will be missed by her schoolmates and her family. Perhaps, God had plans for her; perhaps God has used her death as a warning to us.

Becky's death was timely. Just recently the school approached the City to aid in formulating a solution to the traffic problems on Field Avenue and the One-Way off of the elementary wing. The City was also approached by the law enforcement personnel to formulate a solution. The City Council can only enact Ordinances. Ordinances must be enforced. Do we need to be watched? We are adults, and as adults we should be able to use caution and common sense before it costs Eldorado the life of a child or cripples a child for life.

Parking should not be done in the driveway or in the street.

According to Texas Motor Vehicle Laws, particularly Article VII, Sections 93-95, it is illegal to park a vehicle in any manner other than 18" from the curb or in a special designated area. If the car is left unattended, a law officer may be authorized to move the vehicle, if, in his opinion, the vehicle constitutes a hazard or interferes with normal traffic function. Further, tickets may be issued for blocking a roadway, creating a hazard, or driving in an unsafe manner.

Please use common sense for the welfare of our children. If you need to visit the teacher, transact business inside the school or visit with a friend, please do so at a time which will not contribute to the congestion around the school while parents are either picking up or dropping off their children.

As we drop our children off and pick them up in the afternoon we should keep several items in mind: 1. Each child deserves our joint protection. 2. Each parent deserves an equal opportunity to deliver or pickup their child in a safe and timely manner. 3. We should treat other drivers as we wish to be treated (version of the Golden Rule?).

In the morning, when arriving at the school, please remain in your car and move cautiously but promptly. The place to dress your child or comb his hair is not in the driveway at the school. Once your child has safely arrived at the curb, please move on so the vehicle behind you can deposit their precious cargo.

In the afternoon, please load your child, watch for other children passing between vehicles, and then move along in a safe manner so that other drivers can pickup their children.

Hopefully, a smooth operating solution will be jointly formulated by the school, City and sheriff's office. In the meantime, let's work together to keep our children safe!

Sincerely,
Carolyn Mayo
City Secretary

P.S. One oldtimer has already told me his solution ... "Let 'em walk to school like we us'ta in the ole days!"

Dear Editor,

Most of the proposed amendments on next Tuesday, November 7th ballot are good ones. I would especially like to see "Proposition 3" pass. It has to do with real economic recovery and development in Texas.

Earlier this year the legislature approved $75 million in general obligation bonds for four innovative programs designed to fund loans for small business start-ups and expansions. The bonds, which would be paid off with proceeds of the loans, require the voter's approval of Proposition 3 on next Tuesday's election.

Texas is the #2 state in the nation in agricultural production, yet only six percent of U.S. food and fiber processing is done here! Proposition 3 would enable Texans to borrow at a low rate of interest, in order to build businesses that process what we have produced.

Right now, we import grapes from Chili, textiles from Taiwan, flour from Minnesota and vegetables from California -- not to mention, just the other day, a "local" told me of seeing lamb imported from Australia!

In case you haven't noticed, Eldorado or Schleicher County is not only producing oil and gas, but fine woolen products, cotton ginning, grapes, rabbits and pecans. We have sheep, goats and cattle.

Through diversification and movement into the food and fiber processing sector Texas agriculture is positioned for significant growth over the next five years -- but the lack of available credit will hold us back.

I support Proposition 3. I would like to see Texas, not only as a productive state, but one that can process what is offered. I hope you, too, will support this amendment proposals. It is an investment in Texas.

Thank you,
Janee L. Finley

P.S. In the last amendment election in 1987, only 1/3 of our voters expressed their right to opinion. I hope we have a larger turn-out this year. When you go to vote, remind someone that it is important and that by not voting is not caring about what happens with your government.

TB: Back with a Vengeance: While the age of tuberculosis sanitariums has passed into history, the incidence of the disease seems to be increasing again.

Among the reasons for its re-emergence are immigrants from countries where it is not controlled, impaired immunity in older individuals who were exposed to TB when it was more prevalent, misdiagnosis by young physicians who have not seen it before, and emergence of bacterial strains that are resistant to therapy. -- Postgraduate Medicine

Dreams... Just about everybody dreams.

I have always been interested in the interpretation of dreams...WHAT THEY MEAN. They say that a person's true personality is revealed in dreams.

Next time you dream, write your dream down so that you will remember it, grab this newspaper column and use it as a handy guide to dream interpretation.

If you dream about...

Trees... You probably forgot to walk the dog.

T-Bone Steak... Dreaming of steak is always better if you can dream of a baked potato to go with it. Try to do this or you might wake up hungry.

Icicles... This means that you left the window open.

Bagpipes... If you dream about bagpipes, it means that company is coming. If you don't have company, then you did not dream about bagpipes. It was probably your wife snoring.

Eggplant... This means that you have been eating too many eggs. Your cholesterol level is out of sight. Change your diet.

Girls... If you dream about girls, then you are a boy. And vice-versa.

Camels... If you dream of a camel with one hump, it means you are thirsty. If you dream of a camel with two humps, it means that you are twice as thirsty. If you dream of a camel with three humps, it means that you are stupid.

Xylophones... Nobody ever dreams about Xylophones.

Acorns... Dreaming about acorns means that you are nuts.

Preachers... Dreaming about a preacher preaching a sermon could put you to sleep in your dream. This is very dangerous because if you didn't wake up in your dream, then in real life you might wake up dead.

I hope that this short guide to the meaning of dreams will be of help to all.

Sweet Dreams!!!

'Til the next time...MAY GOD BLESS.

A Touch Of History

By Rene Calcote

Schleicher County, with its level prairie and low, rolling hills, dotted with live oak and cedar trees, offered excellent ranch land to new families moving into this vast new territory in 1900. The deep soil supported an excellent growth of range grasses, mainly mesquite.

Huge mesquite trees were a common sight in this era. Some say the fires through the years burned out all of these old trees that no longer exist.

It was under one of these huge mesquite trees that the Clements Lafayette Meador family camped their first night in the small town called Eldorado.

The C.L. Meador family consisted of C.L., Samantha "Mattie", and four sons, Claude, W.F. "Rocky", Cecil and Joel Clyde. The family had traveled 14 days with all their possessions in an old prairie schooner type covered wagon. They herded about 100 head of cattle and a few horses, in search of a new home after leaving Lampasas County, Texas.

Enroute to Eldorado, C.L. had formed a partnership agreement with P.H. McCormick. The McCormick family, Phil, Sallie and their son Don, were looking for ranch land to buy in Schleicher County. Meador bought seven sections, five miles east of Eldorado, and sold Phil McCormick half interest. Meador later bought McCormick's half interest.

Eldorado was a small town in 1900 -- government had not been established. The county was under the Menard County judicial court.

The town consisted of a blacksmith shop owned by Mr. Wagner, Pryor Place Hotel owned by Lowe, a saloon run by O.C. Roberts, Williams and Christian Grocery and Drug Store, two wagon yards and a post office.

C.L. Meador was a civic leader in Schleicher County and Eldorado. He served as County Commissioner of Precinct #1 in 1918 to 1920.

The drought of 1917 and 1918 found Meador heavily overstocked with cattle. He leased grassland near Ft. Stockton and Christoval. He fed the stock prickly pear and cottonseed cake and survived the drought without great loss.

The Meador's erected a beautiful native stone house on their ranch in 1927, an ideal place to spend their reclining years.

F.L. Meador died November 3, 1936. Samantha Ella Meador died November 23, 1950. They are buried in the Eldorado Cemetery.

The Meadors loved Schleicher County and contributed much to its growth and development. They left many family and friends who knew them lovingly as "Uncle Dink" and "Aunt Mattie".

Uncle C.L. "Dink" Meador came to Eldorado with his family in the early 1900s. They herded about 100 head of cattle and a few horses in search of a new home.

ACS Dialogue Program

Dialogue: a conversation between two or more persons. In San Angelo, Dialogue is also recognized as a support program of the American Cancer Society.

Cancer patients and their family members are encouraged to share their thoughts, feelings, and experiences when they gather to participate in the Dialogue group sessions.

"They seem to gain not only a lot of information about the disease but also some insight into how others are dealing with it," says Eileen Strickland, a San Angelo nurse who facilitates the group discussions as an American Cancer Society volunteer.

Speakers are often invited to the sessions to help educate the group members about different aspects of cancer including the resources available from the American Cancer Society.

"We find that some members of the group are looking for information while others are interested in sharing similar experiences and learning about coping," says Strickland.

Dialogue meetings are open to cancer patients and family members and are always facilitated by a volunteer health professional. There is no charge for this service.

Anyone needing more information on Dialogue can call the American Cancer Society office at 944-2509.

Business, Industry Leaders Optimistic

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Thursday that results of his Quarterly Survey of Business Expectations show that business and industry leaders are highly optimistic and confident about Texas' economic future.

"Business leaders recognize that we're not only on the road to recovery after the 1986-87 recession, but into a period of expansion and growth," Bullock said.

The survey, conducted in September for the third quarter of 1989, shows 91 percent of the respondents believing that general business conditions for their Texas companies will be the same or better next year.

Eighty-three percent of those surveyed said they will maintain or increase employment in Texas over the next six months.

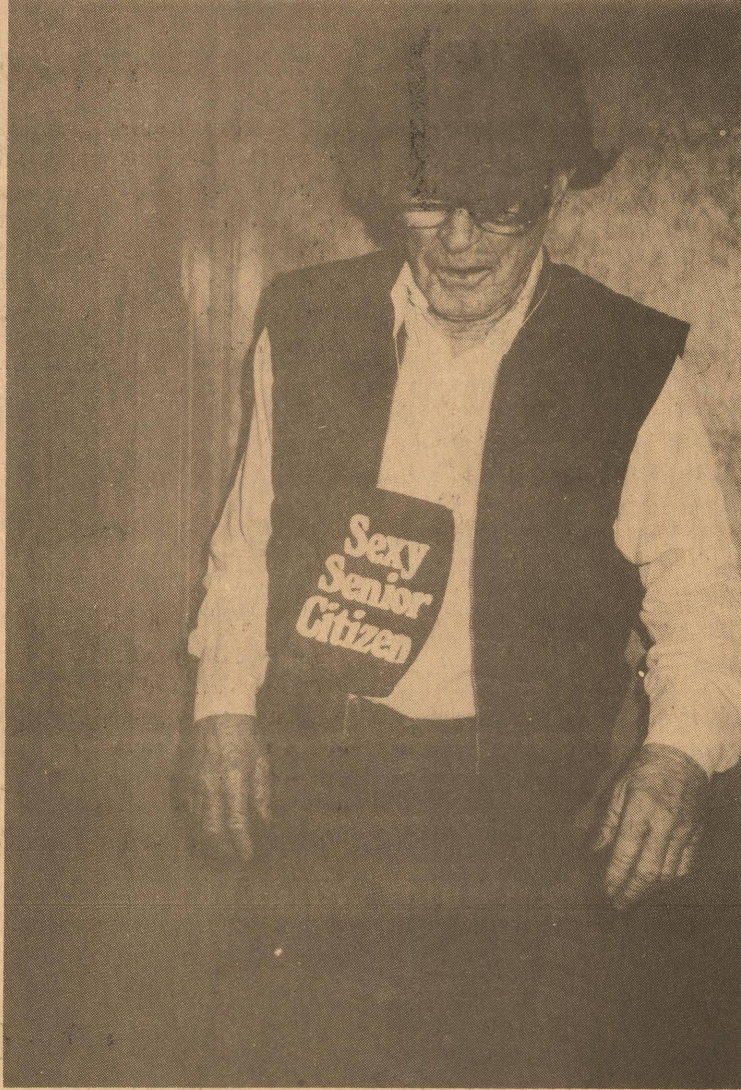

Based on the survey, the Comptroller determines the index of future business conditions, which has been an accurate barometer of the state's economy.

With 50 being neutral, the index for the third quarter of 1989 stands at 59.6.

By comparison, the index shot to a record high of 65.2 during the first quarter of 1984, reflecting the state's booming economy. The index sank to 42.8 in the first quarter of 1986, at the beginning of the 1986-87 recession.

The survey included 122 companies representing a cross-section of firms that do business in Texas. Some of the companies are Texas-based, and others do business in Texas but are headquartered elsewhere.

Leaders in the retail and wholesale trade sectors, as well as the utility, construction, mining and manufacturing sectors, were surveyed. Most optimistic were manufacturing leaders. Construction industry leaders showed the least optimism about the immediate economic future.

This Eldorado citizen was caught by the camera's eye recently. Guess Who?

Thanksgiving Turkey Tips

As it gets closer to Thanksgiving, it seems that everyone has questions on the best way to thaw and cook the Thanksgiving turkey.

Basically there are two approved methods of thawing frozen turkeys. For the refrigerator method, place the turkey in an unopened wrapper on a tray in the refrigerator.

For the cold water method, place the turkey in an unopened wrapper in cold water. Change the water frequently. Turkeys should not be thawed at room temperature.

For a nine to 12 pound whole turkey, it will take about 1

1/2 to 2 days to thaw in the refrigerator, four to six hours in cold water; 12 to 16 pound turkey, two to three days in the refrigerator, six to nine hours in cold water; 16 to 20 pound turkey, three to four days in the refrigerator, nine to 11 hours in cold water; 20 to 24 pound turkey, three to four days in the refrigerator, 11 to 12 hours in cold water.

For each generous serving of roasted whole turkey allow 3/4 to one pound of ready-to-cook weight for birds weighing less than 12 pounds; 1/2 to 3/4 pound for birds weighing 12 pounds and over.

Public Notice

On October 18, 1989, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWB) intends to file an application with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to add a new service offering for business customers, called Consolidated Billing (CSB). The proposed effective date for this offering is December 4, 1989.

Consolidated Billing allows the business customer to combine an unlimited number of accounts within a single Revenue Accounting Office (RAO). Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's RAOs in Texas are located in Dallas, Houston and San Antonio. This service will establish a common billing date for each of those accounts so that they may receive one bill each month. Each customer account is tied together for billing purposes, but retains its own identity and level of detail.

PROPOSED RATES

There is no monthly rate associated with Consolidated Billing. However, a nonrecurring charge of $15.00 will be applied to establish a Consolidated Billing arrangement. An additional $15.00 nonrecurring charge will apply for each account which is incorporated into the Consolidated Billing arrangement.

Consolidated Billing (CSB) has been forecasted to generate an increase in first year annual revenues of approximately $581,733.

Persons who wish to comment on this application should notify the Commission by November 24, 1989. Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or you may call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Seventh Grade Football Team Beats Ozona

The seventh grade football team traveled to Ozona last Thursday. The Eagles beat the Lions 28-0.

Reagan Bownds was the first to score a touchdown on a run. Cody McCravey made the next touchdown and Pepper Nix made the two-point conversion on a run.

Pepper Nix made the next touchdown on a pass from Reagan Bownds. Will Thomerson kicked the extra point.

Reagan Bownds then intercepted a pass and ran it back for another touchdown. Will Thomerson kicked the extra point.

Coach Sonny Dunlap remarked that the whole team's execution of the plays was exceptional. The intensity of the defense left the opponents black and blue the next morning.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company:

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company hereby gives notice that on August 29, 1989 the Company filed an application with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to revise its Texas intrastate Digital Link Service Tariff. This application proposes to restructure the rates for MICROLINK IISM - Packet Switching Digital Service to establish uniform rates for the service in each of the market areas where it is offered within the State and to expand the service to an additional nineteen (19) Primary Market Areas (PMAs).

MICROLINK IISM - Packet Switching Digital Service is for business customers with interactive data transport requirements who are located within the Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Midland, San Antonio, Waco, or Wichita Falls Local Access and Transport Areas (LATAs). This service utilizes several existing network services in combination with packet switching capabilities. A MICROLINK II Primary Market Area is the service area from which subscribers may reach public dial access to the service by dialing a local seven digit number. The twenty-four (24) PMAs that will be affected by this filing are: Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownsville, McAllen, Harlingen, Corpus Christi, Victoria, Dallas, Fort Worth, El Paso, Houston, Galveston, Laredo, Longview, Tyler, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, San Antonio, Waco, Temple, and Wichita Falls.

The PUC has assigned this matter to Docket No. 9034. It is estimated that the proposed rate changes and the addition of the nineteen (19) Primary Market Areas will increase the Company's annual revenues during the first year the proposed changes are in effect approximately $222,000. For additional information regarding MicroLink II Service or this filing, please contact Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's Marketing Organization on 512-222-5808.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. The Commission has established an intervention date of November 27, 1989. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the PUC Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

Deathless Day Report Still Holding

The Texas Coalition for Safety Belts finished the summer of 1989 in hope that the "One Deathless Day" campaign has achieved its goal.

As of today, there are still no Texas traffic deaths reported for June 13. If no unreported fatalities are discovered when the Department of Public Safety issues its year-end traffic report, this date will go on record as the first deathless day on Texas roads since January 5, 1977.

"The possibility of late reports will exist through February 28, 1990. That's the official DPS cut-off date for 1989 traffic reports," said David Wells, public information officer for the DPS, one of the coalition members groups.

"When the final statistics are released in March, we look forward to celebrating the first deathless day in more than a decade," said George R. Gustafson, who is president of another coalition group, the Texas Safety Association.

Gustafson also said, however, that he has mixed feelings about the summer as a whole. "One day without a death doesn't mean that our state's traffic safety problems are over."

Unfortunately, extremely high numbers of traffic fatalities occurred on two summer days.

"The two most deadly days, June 3 and June 17, occurred the same month as our deathless day," Wells said. "There were 21 traffic deaths reported on each of those days, according to the DPS Statistical Services Division."

The preliminary fatality count for the entire 101 Days of Summer was 993. "That's 11 more than we had in the summer of 1988, and we may receive additional reports for the summer period of this year," Wells added.

A June survey of belt use, conducted by Texas Transportation Institute, showed that 61.2 percent of Texas drivers were buckling up. TSA President Gustafson said this also could be viewed as both good and bad news.

"Average belt use in June was slightly higher than it was in January," he said. "We're glad to see that, but at the same time, we are concerned about the 38.8 percent of Texans who are needlessly risking their lives, not buckling up," Gustafson said. "Obviously, our state's hard-working safety belt advocates still have work to do."

Railroad Commission To Hold Hearing

The Railroad Commission announced it will hear comments from motor carriers, shippers, local officials, and other interested persons on the surface transportation industry in Texas at a hearing set for December 7 in Kerrville.

Chairman Kent Hance and Commissioners John Sharp and James E. (Jim) Nugent will open the hearing at 8:30 a.m. at the Y.O. Ranch Hilton, 2033 Sidney Baker.

Commissioner Nugent said the hearing will provide those interested in Texas' transportation future a unique opportunity to present their information directly to the three commissioners.

"The transportation industry in Texas is ever-changing," he said. "Competition is keen, there are concerns about driver shortages, rising costs, and increasing competition from other modes of transportation. That information will be important to us as we set the course of transportation regulation in the state for the months and years ahead."

Some 400 people attended the previous transportation state-of-the-industry hearing held by the Commission in Victoria last year.

Some people who laugh out loud at the family album look in the mirror and never crack a smile.

PTA Organizes With 42 Members

The Schleicher County Independent School District PTA met on October 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. Steve Goode called the meeting to order. The minutes of the organizational meeting were read and approved.

Goode reviewed the bylaws as proposed by the bylaws committee, highlighting those areas where decisions by the group were possible. They were approved as proposed.

Thank You

THANK YOU

I would like to thank "Oscar" and his family from Eldorado who stopped last Saturday on Hwy. 190 to help me and my granddaughter who had an auto accident. While other cars passed us by, Oscar took time to stop, help us, then put us in his car and take us to the hospital. I don't remember Oscar's last name, so I am taking this means of expressing my heartfelt thanks to you and your family for helping us.
