Howard D. Espy, Sutton Rancher, Buried Here Wednesday Afternoon

Funeral services for Howard D. Espy, 54, prominent Sutton County ranchman and civic leader, were held Wednesday afternoon, October 28, from St. John's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Alanson Brown officiating.

Espy died Monday night in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, shortly after suffering a stroke. He and his wife and daughter, Mary John, had been visiting another daughter, Tom Elaine, a student at Southern Methodist University, and were preparing to return home when Espy became ill.

Born July 15, 1904, at Calf Creek, McCulloch County, Espy had ranched in Sutton County most of his life. A leader in civic affairs, he was a charter member of the Lions Club, former member of the school board, a director of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, and a past president of the Sonora Horse Show Association. He was a member of the Episcopal Church and active in its affairs.

Espy was married July 7, 1937 to the former Miss Leontine Watson who survives him as do two daughters, Tom Elaine, 18, and Mary John, 13. Others survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Ruth King of San Angelo and Mrs. Nettie Mae Roach of Odessa.

Pallbearers were Bryan Hunt, Lea Allison, Joseph Vander Stucken, Dan Cauthorn, Fred T. Earwood, John A. Ward, Jr., Son Whitehead, Mack Cauthorn, Buddy Whitehead and W. J. Fields, Jr.

Burial was in Sonora Cemetery under the direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Broncos Ground Eagles 22-0 In Friday Conference Clash

The Sonora Broncos rallied Friday night to take their first conference victory of the 1958 season against the Junction Eagles. Scoring 22 points to the Eagles' 0, the Broncos maintained their race in District 8-A.

48. Sykes carried to the 34 for a first and again to the 22. Galindo carried to the Junction nine yardline and Sykes scored on an end run. Galindo's conversion try was good and the final score read 22 to 0.

Alfred Sykes

With a fired up Junction eleven Sonora had a hard time mustering enough punch to score until midway in the first quarter Alfred Sykes rounded right end and ran 74 yards to score the first Sonora touchdown. Galindo ran off tackle for the point after and the score remained at 8-0 until the third quarter.

Jerry Potmesil

At the beginning of third period a fumble by the Junction team was recovered by Jimmy Smith on the Eagles' 17 yardline. Sykes carried to the nine and Galindo carried off tackle. The try for conversion failed and the score stood 14-0.

At the first of the fourth quarter a Junction pass was intercepted by Ben Castillo on the

A JP Looks At Traffic Problem, Offers Comment

The following comments on the traffic problem are excerpted from remarks made recently by Justice of the Peace J. B. Holberg of Tom Green County.

"Let's get to the root of this trouble and do something to stop this absolutely senseless killing on our highways.

"If at any time any enforcement program (and this includes the Legislature, traffic officers and courts) attempts to solve this problem with a kid glove policy and just plain pussy-footing around about it, then we are just about as lost as Davy Crockett would be if he came back to this world today.

"Non-uniformity in enforcement causes the motorist to be a potential killer of the road. On the other side, if he got a ticket or two and was made to pay these fines, this pocketbook punishment would soon slow him down. If neglected, this driver could impose the death sentence on himself or someone else—a sentence from which there is no appeal!

Petty jealousy has no place in any enforcement program or anything that is for the benefit of all the people.

"Would you think any fine or license revocation is too great a penalty when compared to the widow, orphans, or a widower who tries to earn a living and raise his small children alone because of lack of stiffer judicial measures and stronger enforcement?"

JAN KENG ELECTED TO SPOOKS AT UT

Jan Keng, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Keng, is one of 27 students at the University of Texas to be named to Spooks, women's service organization.

Jan is a freshman at the University.

A. H. Hooser To Address Sonora Teachers

A. H. Hooser, a representative of the Texas State Teacher Association, will speak to the Sonora Teachers Association here November 19. Hooser's subject will be "The Teacher Retirement Law."

Hooser is a graduate of the Plainview School system. He has an A. A. degree, B.S. degree from Wayland College and a M.E. degree from Texas Technological College, and holds a professional teacher's certificate and administrator's certificate. He is a member of local, state, and national professional organizations, a mason, and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He served in the U. S. Air Force in World War II and for the last six years as Mental Chairman and Radio and Television Chairman for the District 14 of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. He is a life member of the Texas Congress.

He has been active in TSTA work and has served as local, district, and state delegate, Local Unit President, and as District IV membership Chairman for five years.

For the past ten years he has served as classroom teacher, elementary principal, and junior high principal in the Plainview Public Schools.

Florida State 10 over Tennessee 0; Purdue 29 over Notre Dame 22; Wisconsin 7 Ohio State 7 (tie); Air Force 16 over Ntah 14.

JUNIORS TO HIGH SCHOOL IN HONOR ROLL LISTINGS

Two members of the Junior Class made all A's during their first six weeks at Sonora High School. Freshmen, Sophomores, and Seniors each had one student to equal this excellent record.

Honor roll students were: Ninth grade, Shirley Juanell Crawford; Tenth grade, Joe Bess Vander Stucken; Eleventh grade, Nova Jean Crawford and Sara Su Stewart; Twelfth grade, Barbara Beavely Wilson.

SONORA BOYS ENROLLED AT TARLETON COLLEGE

Joe Friess and Rodney Davis, both May graduates of Sonora High School, have enrolled at Tarleton state college, Stephenville.

Joe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Friess, is majoring in range management and wildlife while Rodney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. (Tom) Davis, is majoring in range management.

Range Conservation Day Here Saturday Attracts 200 Persons From Wide Area

Approximately 200 people attended a range tour Saturday November 25, sponsored by the Texas Section of the American Society of Range Management. Members of the Society traveled to Sonora from all parts of the state, including groups of range students from Texas Tech and Abilene Christian College. Jack M. Fletcher, chairman of the Texas Section, acted as master of ceremonies.

The group inspected rootplowing and reseeding trials on the Clara Allison and Mack Cauthorn ranches in the morning. Barbecue dinner was served at the Experiment Station with G. T. Rode, Mack Cauthorn, Harold Schwiening, and H. R. Murphy as hosts. Leo Merrill led the group on a tour of the Experiment Station in the afternoon.

Good stands of sorghum alfalfa and blue panic were observed on rootplowed land on both the Allison and Cauthorn ranches. Guests of the tour were shown ten different rates and methods of seeding rootplowed land on the Mack Cauthorn Ranch. These treatments were set up as a Texas Section experiment after rootplowing and reseeding failed to yield a stand of grass last spring. Mack Cauthorn, G. T. Rode, and Holt Machinery Co. furnished the materials and labor for the project. Results point to the fact that some compaction of the soil is needed after rootplowing to get a stand of grass.

Te deferred-rotation grazing system was observed on the Experiment Station. This system consists of four pastures which are grazed at the rate of thirty-two animal units per section by a combination of cattle, sheep and goats. Each pasture is grazed twelve months and rested four months. Vegetation on the deferred-rotation pastures was as good as vegetation on an adjacent pasture which has not been grazed for almost eleven years. This indicates that range-land will improve just as rapidly with moderate grazing and deferment as it will with complete rest.

Sonora Ministers Sponsoring CROP Booth At Carnival

Ghosts and goblins of Sonora are scheduling a collection for overseas relief next Saturday night November 1 under the sponsorship of the Sonora Ministerial Alliance.

Young people of the community plan to make Halloween of 1958 an occasion for sharing with hungry people overseas through CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program). Boxes will be placed in each booth at the annual Halloween Carnival for receiving donations.

Proceeds will be sent government surplus food overseas through Church World Service to feed hungry people. Such surplus foods are supplied free of charge to approved voluntary relief agencies. Last year every $1.00 collected distributed over 300 pounds of food to starving people in other countries. Young people in Texas collected $49,058.67 in the 1957 Halloween campaign and hope to do much better this year.

Edwin Sawyer, Carl J. Cahill and Cecil Westerman were named to head the Sonora Chamber of Commerce during its first year of operation at a meeting of the board of directors Monday night. Sawyer will serve as president, Cahill as vice-president and Westerman as treasurer of the organization. The trio will serve for the fiscal year beginning November 1.

Directors also voted to employ H. V. (Buzzie) Stokes on a half-time basis as secretary-manager of the new chamber.

With a system of rotation of officers to be employed, it was voted by the directors to return the decision of which directors will serve one-year terms and which two-year terms to the members. A vote will be taken at the first general membership meeting.

Directors also decided to use as temporary office quarters, the building now used by Gay Copeland.

Other matters discussed included membership, set-up of committees and employment of an office secretary.

Members of the board of directors are Sawyer, Cahill, Westerman, Dr. Charles F. Browne, Marion Elliott, Jerry Shurley, Wesley C. Young, Gay Copeland, G. C. (Son) Allison, James T. Hunt and Stanton Bundy. All were present but Copeland who was weathered in in San Antonio.

Nancy Neill Becomes Bride Of Paul Law In Church Ceremony Here October 25

Miss Nancy Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Neill, became the bride of Paul Foster Law of Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Law of Georgetown, Saturday at St. John's Episcopal Church with the Reverend Alanson Brown reading the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Maurer original gown of ivory peau de soie. The bodice was designed with long tapered sleeves and a low square neckline outlined in ruffled illusion. The waist was paneled in peau d'ange lace which extended the full length of the bouffant skirt. A pouff bow accented the back of the skirt which fell into a chapel-length train.

A half-hat of re-embroidered peau d'ange lace held her waist-length veil of ivory illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Jane Neill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of red peau de soie fashioned with scoop neckline, tiny sleeves, and empire waist and trapeze back.

Andy Moore passed miniature net bags of rice to guests before the bridal couple left by plane for a honeymoon in San Antonio. The bride was wearing a periwinkle blue chiffon mohair suit with black accessories and a small white hat. Her corsage was of small white rosebuds.

Mrs. Law is a graduate of Hockaday School in Dallas and the University of Texas. Her husband also attended the University and is a graduate of Texas A. & M. College. He holds an MS degree from Southern Methodist University.

The couple will be at home near Georgetown and the groom will complete work on his doctoral degree at the University where he is a teacher.

Misses Jayne Kiser and Nancy Hunt were bridesmaids; Angie Neill Moore was junior bridesmaid and Susan and Ann Stewart were flower girls. All wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant.

Archer Slated For Commendation

Regional Commissioner of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service Department of Justice, San Pedro, Calif., has announced the awarding of a commendation for outstanding and superior performance to G. W. Archer, recently assigned assistant chief of the Border Patrol in Marfa.

The commendation was awarded for work done by Archer while stationed at Sonora from April 1, 1957 through March 31, 1958, where he was a supervisory Immigration Patrol Officer.

Archer, a graduate of Sonora High School and Sul Ross College where he starred in football, baseball and track, is a native Texan and has a wide acquaintance with ranchers, farmers, sportsmen and law enforcement officials throughout West Texas.

An award of this type is rarely given, according to Robert Gardner, chief patrol inspector Marfa, and then only after serious deliberation by high officials of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Chief Gardner made formal presentation of the award on October 14 on behalf of the Regional Commissioner.

Twenty-four new members signed up at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hamby joined their son, John Stanley Hamby of Kingsville, in San Antonio recently for a weekend visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potmesil and Gay spent the weekend in Waco visiting their son, Frank Joe, student at Baylor University, and attending the Baylor-A. & M. football game.

Millard Cope, publisher of the Marshall News-Messenger, president of the Southern Newspaper Association, member of the Texas Commission on Higher Education and Texas Historical Survey Commission, and a Sonora native, has been named to receive Howard Payne College's Man-of-the-Year honors in the 1958 homecoming October 24-25. Cope entered HPC in the fall of 1923. During his three-year stay there he did the college's publicity and served two years as editor of the Yellow Jacket, student paper.

"All my life, I knew what I wanted to do," Cope says. And he started working toward his goal at the age of 12, when he began work for The Devil's River News—earning five cents a stick (about two column inches) for setting type, five cents a hundred per press run to print the 600 weekly copies of the four page paper and five cents a hundred to address the papers.

He was the one-man staff of the newspaper at Sonora High School, where he graduated, and was appointed first chairman of the executive of the Texas High School Press Association when it
