Farm Bureau To Map Its Policies

This is the harvest season for ideas in Farm Bureau and Scurry County Farm Bureau members are being urged to participate in the annual process by which the organization decides its positions on hundreds of issues on local, state and national levels. C. H. Stahl, Scurry County Farm Bureau president, reminded today.

The process begins at the "grass roots" — neighborhood meetings attended by Farm Bureau members. Stahl explained, "The first official step in the process is the county annual convention at which county policies and recommendations on state and national issues are adopted after discussion and approval."

The Scurry County Farm Bureau's annual convention is set for 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the District Court room in the courthouse here.

All adopted resolutions pertaining to county policies, local organization for the coming year, all approved resolutions dealing with state and national matters are forwarded as recommendations to the Texas Farm Bureau convention, which will be held this year Nov. 12-15 in Galveston.

County Farm Bureau delegates to the state convention to adopt state policies for the coming year and to make recommendations on national issues for consideration by the national Farm Bureau convention to be held in Deloitte, Tex. (Chicago). The number of delegates from a county is based upon membership in the county organization. For example, Scurry County FB, which had 861 members in 1960, was eligible to send five delegates to the state convention last year.

The policy development process is culminated at the national convention where delegates from 48 state Farm Bureaus — all except Alaska — adopt national policies for the Bureau's executives in three other states — Illinois, Indiana and Iowa — have more voting delegates than Texas.

No Open War On Hoffa Union Seen

NEW YORK (AP) — Organized labor's leadership, having refused to take back the expelled Teamsters Union, appeared equally unwilling today to declare open war on James R. Hoffa's controversial truck drivers organization.

After overhauling voting down a proposal to end a four-year Teamsters exile for alleged corruption, the AFL-CIO Executive Council met to consider forming a rival union to try to snatch members away from Hoffa.

Hoffa replied to the challenge at Portland, Ore., saying, "We'll meet them anywhere, any time, and we'll come out on top."

Hoffa told the Western Conference of the Teamsters Union that the Teamsters are not asking to return to the AFL-CIO if they ever did so, he added, it would be with the understanding that they could run their own affairs and organize workers without worrying about jurisdiction.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, made a counteroffer against the 1.5 million-member Teamsters look attractive by reporting that some 100 of the nearly 900 Teamsters locals have applied to join Hoffa's confederate union.

However, Meany's fellow AFL-CIO chiefs seem to have little appetite for an all-out fight against Hoffa's powerful Teamsters.

One top federation leader predicted that issuing a formal welcome to locals defecting from Hoffa's union is about as far as the AFL-CIO leaders are ready to go.

The labor chiefs, for one thing, don't feel overly optimistic about outdoing Hoffa for members in his own trucking industry field.

Secondly, day-to-day working relationships with Teamsters have continued right along as state and local labor, echelons despite the fireworks set off at the top union level after Senate disclosures involving Hoffa and his predecessor, Dave Beck, as Teamsters president.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council voted 24-3 to refuse to invite the Teamsters back so long as Hoffa runs the union. Those voting to invite him back were President Joseph Curran of the Maritime Workers, J. Philip Randolph of the Sleeping Car Porters, and David J. McDonald of the Steelworkers.

Meany said the lopsided vote represented a feeling that Hoffa's union "ought to stay in the union" and that from all indications the Teamsters are more dominated now by corrupt and criminal elements than when the union was ousted in 1957.

In order for the Teamsters to be accepted back, Meany said, they will have to conform to the AFL-CIO ethical practices code, and Hoffa should take a cue from the Bible and "go off into the wilderness for a year and repent."

Order For Stickney Is Set Aside

AUSTIN (AP) — The Court of Criminal Appeals set aside today a Corpus Christi District Court order freeing from prison Howard Stickney, under death sentence in the slaying of Mrs. Shirley Barnes.

The court denied Stickney any further relief, saying that no evidence had been produced sufficient to warrant his release from prison. The court said it will entertain no further motions for rehearing of Stickney's case.

The court said that Corpus Christi Dist. Judge Cuben Briggs agreed on several points in issuing a last minute stay of execution for Stickney and in conducting a hearing on whether he should be let out of prison.

Stickney's lawyer, J. Edgar Briggs, was in error in granting that petition for habeas corpus and in declining to set aside his order when it was shown that such petition had been presented to this court and leave to file was denied. The opinion by the full three-man court held today.

The court said Briggs also was in error in appointing psychiatrists or doctors to inquire into the sanity of the victim (Stickney). Only one judge of the continuing court of the district judge of the county where the person assessed the death penalty is confined has authority to inquire into his sanity or insanity," the court said.

Mrs. Barnes and her husband were killed on Galveston beach May 24, 1958. Her body was found nude in their Houston home, but her husband's body was found about a month later near the Brazos river at Sugar Land. Stickney was charged with murder in both deaths, but has never been tried in the husband's death.

The Corpus Christi court granted Stickney a stay of execution only 15 minutes before he was to die in the electric chair at Briggs' instigation June 18. The new execution date is Oct. 27.

CRMWD To Set Budget

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District will meet in Big Spring again Thursday.

Principal item of business will be consideration of a preliminary 1962 budget for the system. There also may be further discussion concerning a district headquarters building. The lowest of a dozen bids last week was approximately $16,000 beyond top provision for the project.

E. V. Spence, general manager of CRMWD, said that there would be a meeting of the budget committee, composed of W. E. Bruce, Odessa; William H. Wilson, Snyder; and Robert Currie, Big Spring, at 9 a.m. in the district offices.

This will be followed by the board meeting at the Settles Hotel at 11 a.m. Budget committee members have been going over tentative budget figures. Under the bid to denture the district is required in October of each year to submit a tentative budget. If there are no objections from bondholders within a 30-day period, the board then proceeds to give final approval.

K&F Club Sets Slate

The Scurry County Knife and Fork Club Board of Directors has released the program schedule for the coming season.

Mrs. Ruth Sutherland will open the series on Oct. 24 with the talk "Little Known Facts about Important America." On Friday, Nov. 17, Dr. Charles J. Jarvis will present "Prescription for a Happy Life." David P. Livingston is scheduled for Feb. 13 with a talk entitled "Pot-Shots Around the World."

The final program on March 6 features Catherine Butler with "The Importance of the Near East."

At the Board of Directors meeting following the officers were elected for the coming year: George R. Killam, president; Scott Casey, vice president; Mel Gilbert, secretary-treasurer.

Directors of the Knife and Fork Club are Wayne Boren, Walker Dabbs, Mrs. Walker Dabbs, Dr. John Hambleen, Mrs. George Killam, M. E. Stanfield and Bill Wilson, Jr.

Death Lurks In Rattle Of Toy

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Death waited in the next rattle of a deadly toy found by three youngsters.

The toy was a metal can containing a half-pound block of TNT and two blasting caps—enough to destroy an automobile.

Kim Poucher, 5, and her brothers, David, 3, and Dana, 2, found the explosive in an uncle's garage Tuesday.

Their mother, Mrs. John Poucher, discovered the lethal playing thing and called police.

"All it needed was one tiny spark and the whole thing would have blown," said detective Sgt. G. M. Brown.

Genetic Effect Of Fallout Is Slight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Any genetic damage caused by fallout from the current series of Russian nuclear explosions will be so slight, in the opinion of a Public Health Service physician, that it may not be discernible even after several generations.

The physician, in the service's division of radiological health gave his views to this reporter today but declined to permit identification by name.

He said the radiation dose to reproductive cells from radioactivity of levels measured in this country since Sept. 1 will not be as large as that received over a long period from natural background radiation.

There is a considerable variation worldwide in the amount of natural background radiation. For instance, the expert said that in the Montserrat Islands of India it is possibly 30 times the usual maximum in this country.

The official said that the doctor's opinion was based on the fact that fallout from the Russian explosions in his opinion exceeds what was established by a group of scientists in 1957 to be the "safe annual limit."

The Public Health Service is concerned not only with the possible genetic effects of fallout radiation but also with the possible effects on bone, bone marrow, thyroid glands and testes.

It is known, the doctor said, that fallout contains certain specific radionuclides which affect these. Analyses are now underway to determine the amounts of the specific radionuclides in samples of air, water, milk and foods collected since Sept. 1.

From me to you A DAILY VIEW

by Rev. R. Charles Spivey

"It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

Acts 26:20 (Please read verses 16-21)

Christianity is the only hope for this world. Paul and the other first disciples knew this; and believed in it so strongly that they were willing to be bound in chains, or even die for the cause.

Do we really believe that Christ is the hope of the world? That only through Him will the world be saved from destruction? That only through Him will mankind find peace? or are these words just pious phrases which we roll around on our tongues, savoring the sweet taste of them, but not really desiring or daring to do anything about them?

'62 CORVAIR MONZA

NEW FACE, SAME SPORTING HEART

We might as well tell you straight off, Corvair's the car for the driving enthusiast. Think that lets you out? Maybe. Maybe not.

Until you've driven one, you really can't say for sure, because Corvair's kind of driving is like no other in the land. The amazing air-cooled rear engine sees to that. You swing around curves just as you please, in complete control. You whip through the sticky spots other cars should keep out of at the first place. (Especially this year, now that you can get Postraction as an extra-cost option.) You stop smoothly, levelly with Corvair's beautifully balanced, bigger brakes.

And Corvair's found other new ways to please you this year. A forced-air heater and defroster are standard equipment on all coupes, sedans and both Monza and 700 Station Wagons. So are dual sunshades and front-door armrests and some other goodies. You'll note some new styling, inside and out. Nice. And safety-belt installation is easier, too, and cheaper. Another extra-cost option well worth considering is the heavy-duty front and rear suspension; it turns a Corvair into a real tiger.

So you can see we haven't really done much to Corvair this year. Why on earth should we? If this car, just as she is, can't make a driving enthusiast out of you, better take a cab.

RECREATION ROOM—Here's an intriguing idea for that basement recreation room you've always wanted to build. It's done in authentic Pennsylvania Dutch, complete with "cracker barrel" chairs, iron cook stove, buffet, and table lamp made from an old Conestoga wagon hub. The ceiling, for example, is textured acoustical tile painted citron yellow to blend with the cheerful Dutch color scheme.

Petals & Cream Are Left In Piper's Past

HOLLYWOOD — Five years ago about the only thing the name Piper Laurie brought to mind was gardenia petals and cream. "Nobody thought of me as an actress," she says. "They just remembered that publicity story about my munching flower petals for breakfast."
 So Piper said goodbye to Universal-International Studios—and the security of a $250-a-week contract.

Band Parents Club Is Organized

The High School Band Club held an organizational meeting Monday night and launched a "Fruit Cake Sale."
 Fruit cakes may be purchased from any member of the club and sales will continue until Christmas. Profits from the sales will be used to finance the annual band banquet.
 New officers were elected as follows: W. J. Young, president; H. A. Johnson, vice president; and Mrs. L. A. McClanahan, secretary-treasurer.
 Committee chairmen named by Mr. Young were: Harold Bennett, chaparral; Mrs. Fred Beatty, chaperone; Mrs. Wallace Cushman, social; Mrs. H. H. Bearden, publicity; Mrs. Elmo Crowder, telephone; Mrs. Leon Autry, banquet sales; and Mrs. R. E. Patterson, approximately 75 parents attended the meeting. Parents who were not at the meeting and wish to pay their dues $1 per family may do so by sending such to Mr. Montgomery, Mr. Bennett or Mrs. McClanahan.

Band Parents Club Is Organized

"It was just something I knew I had to do and I did it," she says. "I was unhappy and embarrassed about my work and my so-called reputation as an actress and I knew things would never get any better."
 Piper doesn't blame the studio. "Their whole product was geared to quantity rather than quality. They were very realistic. They never lied to me or led me to believe that things would be otherwise."
 "A name-to-bargain with" and they financed me through my selectivity period. I came out a couple of jumps ahead of an unknown actress."
 "But she admits she doesn't know how many parts she won or lost because of her name."
 Once, she recalls, a playwright refused to let her read for a part because of her name and what it stood for.
 "It stunned me for a bit," she says, "but then I decided the only thing to do was to change what that name stood for."
 Robert Montgomery gave Piper her first big chance on a "Play" other TV roles and her last credited role as an "atomic" coltlier."
 Piper now lives in New York because most of her work is there. She does most of her own cooking and eats cereal — not gardenia petals — for breakfast.

Two Doctors In House Practice On The Kids

By STELLA ROBERTS
 OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Any way you look at it, when it comes to children Sylvia Richardson is an expert.
 Her husband is a pediatrician. She is assistant professor of pediatrics and director of the child center at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center here.
 And if that would not her expertise on too theoretical a level, the fact she's the mother of two young sons assures her plenty of practical experience.
 At 40, she's a slender vivacious brunette. She started out to be an actress, graduating in 1940 from Stanford University in California with a bachelor's degree in speech and drama.
Changes Profession
 "I was going to be a great comedienne," she says eyes sparkling—but an interest in children with speech difficulties led her in to a far different profession.
 By 1948 she had obtained her M.D. She served her internship at Children's Medical Center in Montreal—then went to Boston, Mass., where she became director of the speech clinic at Children's Medical Center.
 It was there she met and married Dr. William R. Richardson, a resident surgeon at the Boston Children's Medical Center. He has been chief of surgery at Children's Hospital and professor of pediatric surgery at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center here since 1958.
Babies Didn't Slow Her
 The first of the younger Richardsons—William C. was born in 1953 in San Diego, Calif., while his father was serving a hitch with the Navy. Young Chip's arrival didn't slow down his mother's career, though. She was serving as a consultant in the ear, nose and throat department of the San Diego Naval Hospital and teaching in San Diego State College.

 "I gave final examinations," Dr. Richardson recalls, "the night before Chip was born."
 After her husband's release from the Navy, the couple returned to Children's Center in Boston. The following year, 1954, Christopher Lee was born—while his mother was working as a research fellow in surgery.

The Richardsons migrated to New York in 1955, where he was an associate professor at the State University of New York.
 "For three years in New York I was just a Mommy on the block," says Dr. Richardson—but she found time to serve as a consultant in pediatrics to the State University of New York Downstate Medical Center.
 Although she developed a hearty dislike for suburban living, with practically nothing to do but keep house and care for two small children, Dr. Richardson describes that three-year period as "the best thing that ever happened to my patients." She says she learned more about parents and children during that time than at any other.

When her husband came to Oklahoma in 1958, Sylvia Richardson intended to ease gradually to another job.
Husband Agreeable
 But the Medical Center needed someone to head the child study center, which specializes in diagnosing and treating handicapped children, particularly those with speech and hearing difficulties. That was right down her line—and Dr. Richardson says with a smile "I fell into it."
 How does her husband feel about having a busy doctor for a wife? She says:
 "He was the one who was on my neck to get back to work—he says I'm easier to live with when I'm working."

Critics May Be Missing Boat On New Noel Coward Musical

BY INEZ ROBB
Some of my best friends are theatre critics. So it hurts me to sort of level off on them. They have their problems, all right, such as rushing out of the theatre before the play ends in order to make the deadline with their reviews. Or a dinner waiting too rapidly at Sardi's to make the first curtain.

double-talk the play will be described as a masterpiece. For the first three years tickets will bootleg at $100 a pair.
These long, long thoughts are occasioned not only because I am a dyed-in-the-wool theatre buff, but more immediately by the general lack of critical buzzes for "Sail Away," the new Noel Coward musical that opened last week on Broadway.

With the exception of the review in The New York Times, the critical reception of the Coward work lacked hearty enthusiasm to put the best face on it. Everyone agreed that Elaine Stritch and most of the cast were wonderful, and then sort of trailed off.

Time Correspondent Jailed In Santiago
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Time magazine correspondent Martin Sargent was held in jail today because of an article on Chile that appeared in the magazine.
Justice Minister Enrique Ossa Sazatornelli charged in the Court of Appeals that Sargent had "defamed our country, seriously hurting our international prestige, and will undermine trust in our institutional and economic stability."

Right there is where I think "Sail Away" lost the critics. It has no problem, and the audience laughs. With such a brace of handicaps, it is uphill all the way for any show, critic-wise. Such a play labels itself as old-fashioned and that's the kiss of death.

Chairman Gets His Calendar Mixed Up
LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Ormond Dees is chairman of the Columbus Day celebration committee for Lakeland's Junior Chamber of Commerce.
Dees got up bright and early Tuesday with the help of a work crew; he placed more than 100 American flags at strategic spots in the city.

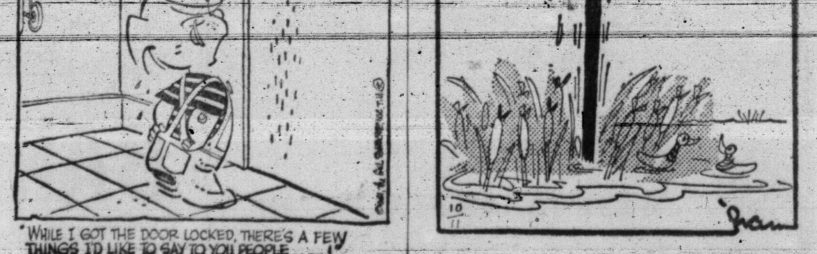

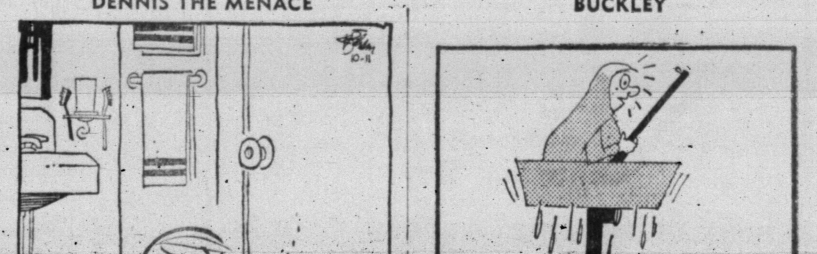

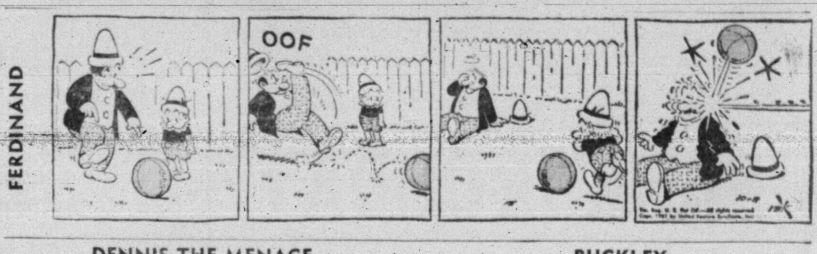

Now let's take a gander at what the critics love—"The Caretaker," which opened 48 hours after "Sail Away." Here is a loving description of the "hero" in The New York Herald-Tribune: "Under twin flares of dirty white hair, rolling his tongue inside his lower lip as though he were tasting his rotted teeth or the flavor of doom" to some flimsy his filthy coat high to reveal his spazzy trousers, he is rude, grubby, bigoted, suspicious, eternally whining.

Some Things Just Can't Be Divided

NEW YORK (AP)—It was raining outside their small apartment, and she felt nervous.
"I'm not kidding about the divorce—this time I really am going through with it," said Ella. "The way you acted at the party last night! What were you trying to celebrate in hard?"

Finally there was nothing left in the cabinet but a box of rice. "You take it," said Ella. "You may need it to throw at your next wedding."

Volcano Is Threat To Island Homes

By ALEC CUTLER
CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—The 200 trusted men, women and children of Tristan da Cunha spent a night of agony on a rocky outcrop in the South Atlantic, awaiting the glow of a volcano that threatens to destroy their island homes.

The refugees fled Tuesday aboard two small fishing boats from earthquakes and volcanic eruptions that began Sunday.

Tristan da Cunha is a 40-square-mile speck of land halfway between South Africa and South America and one of the most remote islands in the world.

The refugees sought their way through 15 miles of dangerous seas and waded ashore at Nightingale Island, a bleak, uninhabited rock a mile long and three-fourths of a mile wide, to spend the night and await a Dutch liner coming to take them to Cape Town.

The islanders will wait here while nature decides the fate of the island where they and their forebears have lived in almost complete isolation for 150 years.

Tristan da Cunha is a volcanic island, the population of Tristan had never left the British-ruled island. Their knowledge of the outside world is based on books, films, radio and hearsay. The populace refused evacuation during World War II.

Plans called for a small group of volunteers to stay behind on Nightingale Island to watch the course of the eruption—the first in modern times on the island—and return to Tristan if anything is left. They will act as caretakers until the others can return, tending the island's handful of sheep and cattle and its tiny field and potato crops.

The British frigate Leopard left Cape Town on the 1,700-mile journey to Nightingale with food and supplies for the caretakers.

Tristan's 2,640-foot high volcano, which occupies most of the island, was reported erupting heavily Tuesday night, perilously close to the lone settlement of Edinburgh.

Israel Salute Provides A Good Show

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP)—The ingredients of superb entertainment slickly together in "Milk and Honey," Broadway's new musical salute to Israel.

The show, starring Robert Weede, Miss Benzell and Molly Picon, premiered Tuesday night at the Martin Beck Theater. First-nighters, always an excitable bunch, outdid themselves with recurrent cheers that almost tore the roof off.

The splendid performance by the principals and the large supporting company of robust singers-dancers is just one of the production's key attractions. Another is the score by Jerry Herman, a White Way newsmonger. Other kudos belong to director Albert Marre, choreographer Donald Saddler, and Robert De Cormier, supervisor of some impressive choral effects.

The story of "Milk and Honey" primarily concerns Weede and Miss Benzell, a couple who eloped romantically on a visit to Israel. The obstacle to true love is an absent wife who won't divorce her star-crossed traveler.

This plus a couple of sub-plots scarcely provides the substance of soaring drama. But the music lingers never ceases sufficiently to disrupt the pervasive mood of exuberant sentimentality.

Weede and Miss Benzell, who used to sing in the Metropolitan Opera, carry off vocal honors in grand style. Miss Picon, a gray-haired veteran of the Yiddish stage in her first Broadway appearance, is a comic delight as a matchmaking widow who kicks up her heels and finds a husband for herself.

Great Day For GOP, Says Smith

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration claimed success today for its program to reduce costly surpluses of livestock feed grains.

This claim was made by Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles Murphy on the basis of the Agriculture Department crop report Tuesday and Murphy's estimate of what production of these grains would have been without the plan. The claims are likely to be challenged by critics of the program.

Under the program, farmers will be paid about $768 million for reducing acreages of corn and sorghum grain. They also were offered higher price supports than last year.

The crop report estimated combined production of corn and sorghum at 4,008,000,000 bushels compared with 4,499,000,000 last year. Farmers reduced acreages of these crops about 20 per cent but production apparently will be down only about 11 per cent.

Murphy said that without the program the combined production of these two grains would be about 4.9 billion bushels. Thus, he said, the program brought about a downward adjustment of 491 million bushels from the amount he said would have been produced without the program.

Murphy's estimate assumes that the yield per acre on the retired land would have been about the same as that kept in production. But previous crop control programs have shown that farmers take only their poorest land out of production.

As estimates of production and probable use now stand, the feed grain production may fall 150 million bushels below needs. This deficit would be taken from record large supplies accumulated from past crops.

Murphy asserted the program will save tax payers more than $500 million above its cost.

Two Galveston Men To Be Sentenced

HOUSTON (AP)—Two Galveston men are to be sentenced Oct. 23 for taking a woman across a state line for immoral purposes.

Thomas D. Walker and William E. Rafferty, both 27, were found guilty Tuesday by a federal court jury in Houston.

Most of the testimony came from a former prostitute who said the men took her from Galveston to Lawton, Okla.

Federal Judge Ben C. Connally is to pass sentence.

Fallout Shelter Already In Use

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The city's civil defense director opened a series of lectures on how to build home fallout shelters. Eighteen persons showed up for the first one Tuesday.

Two, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Marshall of Woodside, told CD Director A. G. Cook they already have a shelter.

"We're using it as a wine cellar now," Marshall said.

Judge Frees Man Of Assault Charge

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—A Pensacola man pleaded guilty to assault and battery involving his 14-year-old daughter but the judge freed him anyway.

Harve Jones, 39, told Judge Kirk Beall Tuesday he struck the girl because she didn't return home when told.

"Here's a man who's trying to settle the juvenile delinquency problem in his own way and gets jailed for it," the judge commented.

"I don't think I should impose any penalty even if he busted her lip—or her bottom."

FFA Orders Guide Units

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency has ordered 74 aircraft guide stations from the Teledyne Corporation of Wheeling, W. Va., for $2,067,550.

The stations will be spotted in various parts of the nation, including Texas, as part of the FAA always system.

The stations are very high frequency omni-direction radio ranges called "Vors." Fifty will be installed for en route service and 21 simpler versions called "Vors" will be installed on or near airports for terminal guidance.

The FAA said additional equipment will be purchased later this year so the 50 en route aids can be converted to more versatile "Vors" installations.

FAA plans eventually to convert all Vor stations to Vors.

The tentative locations selected for the Vors are: Crane, Crane, Daisetta, and Sterling in Texas. FAA plans to spot one of the Termin Vors at Plainview, Tex.

Gin Knocks Out Phone

PILSWORTH, England (AP)—It was gin that made the telephone in the Three Arrows pub go dead around closing time each night.

"You might say the phone got dead drunk," said the manager, Stanley Payne.

The phone went out like a light every night and came on again in the morning. Repairmen could find nothing wrong.

Then one of them spotted the gin bottle suspended in the quick-measured service, hanging above the bar.

During the pub's trading hours, they found drips from the bottle were falling on the mechanism, putting it out of action.

By moving the gin in the phone had separated and the mechanism would not work.

Payne has moved the phone to a dry spot.

Michigan State and Southern California will play a home-and-home football series for the first time in 1960 and 1961.

Junior Editors Quiz on EQUILIBRIUM

QUESTION: Does a taller or shorter person have the best balance?

ANSWER: In our picture the tall man is an imaginary tight rope walker. Suppose we call him "Zeppo", the King of the Upper Air. Although a six footer he has a marvelous sense of balance. In front of him is his son, "Beppo", Beppo, although a short stocky little fellow who will never grow to be as tall as his dad, also has a wonderful sense of balance and will probably take over his father's leading job in the circus some day. The point of this picture is that balance does not depend upon whether you are tall or short. As shown in our inset drawing there is a marvelous balance mechanism inside everyone's head. There are canals connected with the inner ear filled with liquid. If you get off balance the liquid flows in the opposite direction and sends a message to your muscles to adjust yourself. This works automatically without your knowing about it.

FOR YOU TO DO: Try to improve your balance by practicing walking along a narrow board laid on the ground.

Author Sinclair Set To Wed Again

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—I think I'm a very lucky old man," says Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist Upton Sinclair, 83. Sinclair, author of more than 70 books, and Mary Elizabeth Willis, 79, a widow, took out a marriage license Tuesday. His first wife, Mary Craig Kimbrough Sinclair, died last April 26 at 77. Sinclair said he and Mrs. Willis drew to San Bernardino for the license in an effort to avoid publicity. "That shows you what duffers we are," he laughed. "We were very naive. We thought the ladies in the clerk's office up there wouldn't be learned. They didn't show any sign of recognizing me." Deputy County Clerk Bernice Waddell said Sinclair, wearing a short-sleeved sport shirt and appearing tanned and healthy, "looked more nearly 70."

Cuts Posted By Sinclair

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The Sinclair Oil Co. joined the Pure Oil Co. in 15-cent price cuts on crude oil in the Denver-Julesburg basin area of Colorado and Nebraska. Sinclair announced its price cuts Tuesday, the day after Pure announced its drop. Pure is the largest buyer in the area, Sinclair the second largest. Pure's cut touched off speculation of a general price drop in nation-wide crude oil prices, but officials of two large Houston-based companies said they don't think that will happen. Pure's price cut involves the 40,000 barrels of crude it buys in the area each day. Sinclair buys about 20,000 barrels a day in the basin, but the Houston Post said another 8,500 barrels bought by the British-American Oil Producing Co. will also be involved. The post quoted a British-American spokesman as saying that company must follow Sinclair's price posting. Humble Oil & Refining Co.—the domestic affiliate of the Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) and the Continental Oil Co. said the cuts probably won't spread. The statements were made before Sinclair announced its reduction.

$4 Million Plant Set At Seadrift

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Starch & Chemical Corp. has chosen Seadrift, Tex., as the site for construction of a $4 million vinyl acetate plant. Donald Pachel, president, said work on the facility will begin later this year, with completion scheduled for late 1962. He said Brown & Root, Inc. of Houston, would be the builder. Capacity of the plant will be 45 million pounds annually.

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST
 In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only . . . opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie score must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.
 If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $12.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $25.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winners. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employees of The Snyder Daily News and their families not eligible to enter.
