Westerner Backers Carry High Hopes For Rare Victory

BY BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

All roads led to Amarillo this afternoon as 13 chartered buses, a special train, a non-scheduled airliner, several private airplanes and an estimated 1,500 private automobiles pointed their noses toward the traditional Lubbock-Amarillo football classic.

Last-minute observations confirmed that 5,000 persons would make the pilgrimage to see what they hope will be a rare victory for the Lubbock Westerners over Amarillo's formidable Golden Sandstorms.

Traffic To Be Heavy

At mid-morning observers at Abernathy and Plainview had already noted an increase in Amarillo-bound automobile traffic as early departures wended their way to the Panhandle city.

The Texas Highway patrol began its vigil for possible careless drivers who might endanger the lives of hundreds of automobile travelers.

As it stood early this afternoon, E. J. (Pinky) Lowrey, business manager of the Westerner football team, had disbursed a total of 4,252 tickets to the gridiron thriller. Another 250 persons, including the football team and members of the Westerner band, will be admitted without tickets.

Buses Are Loaded

It appeared a virtual certainty that at least 500 additional persons would make the trip without tickets, banking on obtaining them in Amarillo.

Thirteen chartered buses were loading high school students at Eighteenth street and Ave. T at 2 o'clock this afternoon for immediate departure.

A teacher was assigned to each bus, and in addition one entire

Robbers Take Cash, Clothes

Two victims of alleged robberies—one of them pantless and shoeless when found early today on a highway outside the city and taken to the sheriff's office—told officials here today approximately $50 had been taken from them.

Two arrests were made after R. P. Walker, a negro of Levelland, charged that two other negroes robbed him at point of a knife and a pistol. They took $22, he said.

Just Wants Them Fined

But, after identifying Joe Runnels, 24, of Dallas and Fred Wallace, 27, of Carthage, he dediced he didn't "want to send them to the penitentiary—I just wants to fine 'em". The filing of complaints had not been announced. Wallace had a pistol when arrested.

County officials said Don Anthony of Post, a business student here, was the other complainant.

He said he met two men, probaby Houston residents, who offered to take him to Post in their big car. But, he said, they all had some drinks together at a night club. Whether Anthony was doped was the question facing officials. He said his money $25 to $30 and other properties were taken from

DISCUSSIONS FEATURE PROGRAM

Fall Meeting Held By Area Dentists

Professional discussions and informal lectures were occupying 25 dentists from the 19th Congressional district and their guests during the annual fall meeting of the South Plains district Dental society in Hilton hotel today.

Dr. Sam R. Parks of Dallas, a part time professor of dentistry at Baylor university dental school, and Dr. George G. Ingham of Amarillo were principal speakers at the two-day convention.

Dr. Parks lectured at 9:30 o'clock this morning on "Periodontia" and Dr. Ingham was to discuss "Oral Surgery" at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Luncheon Is Held

In attendance were dentists from the South Plains area and eastern New Mexico. The district society is a component of the state dental society.

A luncheon was held at the Hilton at noon today and an informal program is planned for a banquet at 8 o'clock tonight.

Discussion on "Oral Surgery" will be continued at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, to be followed by a business meeting at 11 a. m. and adjournment at 12 noon.

The dentists will be guests at the Texas Tech-Arizona university football game Saturday afternoon.

Members Are Listed

Members who attended the meeting included Drs. V. L. Lawson, Morton; Elmer Moore, C. A. Rosebaught, J. M. Reynolds, E. L. Nichols, all of Lubbock; Wm. N. Orr, Littlefield; K. R. Durham, Tahoka; C. G. Dunn, Levelland; J. B. McCorkle, Glenn Gay, T. G. McCorkle, all of Lubbock; W. A.

Cotton Compress At Seymour Is Burned

SEYMOUR, Oct. 21. (AP)—The Seymour cotton compress plant burned today with loss estimated at $500,000.

Lost were 2,500 bales of cotton, a warehouse and compress machinery.

Firemen fought the flames for more than four hours after a night watchman noticed a blaze in the block long main building and warehouse at about 5:45 a. m.

The company office at one end of the building was not damaged. Firemen sought to save 12 other nearby warehouses containing an additional 6,000 to 7,000 bales of cotton.

Youth Convicted Of Assault Of Woman

...unty Judge Walter Davies this morning ordered Don Dale Gard, 18, who said his address was "Lubbock General Delivery," to spend 15 days in county jail and pay court costs, after the youth had pleaded guilty of aggravated assault of an Idalou woman.

The youth, the court was informed by investigators, caught the woman in a hotel room and pushed her down on a bed. Her screams caused Gard to flee, officials said, but two Idalou men, W. T. Hargraves and Sam Young, ran him down and held him for Constable Harris of Idalou.

Harris jailed the suspect here to await the filing of formal charges.

May Use Money To Treat Her Paralysis

Port Arthur Girl To Inherit $125,000 Of Uncle's Estate

BEAUMONT, Oct. 21 — Letha Lee Capland, paralyzed Port Arthur girl, is in line for an inheritance of about $125,000 from an uncle she saw once in her life.

The girl said she may use the money to go to the Mayo clinic in Rochester, Minn.

The will of Jake Miller, scrap metal merchant of Canton, Ohio, was probated yesterday. It leaves half his estate, estimated at $250,000, to Letha Lee.

The girl was graduated from Texas university in 1940. She taught a year in junior high school at Port Arthur.

She has been paralyzed since a 1941 automobile crash in North Carolina. Her neck was broken in the accident.

Since the war she has spent much of her time teaching backward or subnormal pupils.

Last summer her great uncle came to Port Arthur. He took Letha Lee with him on a trip to Tyler. She said he was not lavish in his spending, but on his departure he gave her a $100 bill.

The news of her great uncle's death and a possible bequest came as a total surprise to Letha Lee. The girl's mother owns a drug store in Port Arthur.

Reds Facing Prison And $10,000 Fines

Judge Medina Sentences Top-Ranking Communists, Ending Historical Trial

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—Ten top-ranking American Communist leaders today were sentenced to prison for five years each for criminal conspiracy to teach overthrow of the U. S. government by force. An eleventh was sentenced to three years.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina imposed the sentences and fined each defendant $10,000 —the maximum—in addition.

Robert Thompson, 34, New York state chairman, was sentenced to three years and a $10,000 fine. Judge Medina took into consideration Thompson's war record. The New Yorker won the distinguished service cross for service in the Pacific.

Those sentenced to five years were:

Eugene Dennis, 44, general secretary of the Communist party.

John B. Williamson, 46, labor secretary.

Jacob Stachel, 49, educational director.

BISHOPS SPEAK AT SESSIONS

Methodists Close ...onference Here

By OPAL DIXON
Journal Staff Writer

...ne night of worry will take ...re out of our minds and bodies ...an five days of hard work," Bishop William C. Martin of Dallas told approximately 600 ministers and laymen in the concluding session of a two-day Northwest Texas conference Methodist meeting this morning in First Methodist church.

He advised individuals to clear their lives of cynicism, frustration, jealousy, pride, malice, and ill will and to "keep the channels unclogged" so "the inexhaustible forces of divine power may come into our lives."

Bishop Cushman Speaks

Another bishop, Paul S. Cushman of St. Paul, Minn., speaking in the closing session emphasized rethinking of the question, "What is the church?" Jesus Christ, in saying, "I will build my church," did not say the Roman church nor the Lutheran church nor the Methodist church, he haid. "It is time that we stopped over-exalting men," said Bishop Cushman, adding that Methodists should not worship John Wesley, nor should other denominations exalt men who have been leaders.

A communion service was conducted this morning. A forum on teaching and preaching emphasis in "Advance for Christ and His Church," four-year program in the Methodist church, was conducted.

An estimated 1,100 to 1,200 persons have attended sessions. Combined attendance figures for all sessions total approximately 3,000, but include duplication since some persons have attended several sessions.

Must Look To Divine

Speaking in the Thursday night session, attended by approximately 900 persons, Bishop Hazen G. Werner of Columbus, O., said, "You can't find a map to the future at a gas station and you can't stop the ache in the soul with something you buy in a drug store."

Man must look to the divine for help, he said.

"Civilization and democracy will not work until we have restored divine meaning to human personality."

A youth meeting led by Bishop Werner at St. John's Methodist church preceded the night general meeting at First Methodist church.

Jackson Trial Opens In City

Judge G. V. Pardue and a 99th district petit jury this afternoon will continue hearing evidence in the murder without malice trial of Francis Lee Jackson, 21, of Dimmit.

The state charges that Jackson was intoxicated and driver of an automobile that was in collision with one driven by Rex Melton, 36, of Plainview, the early morning of Aug. 12.

Died Of Injuries

Witnesses called by the state were Mrs. Melton, L. A. Compton, J. D. McPherson, and Lynna Carter, all of Plainview, and Lola Shockley of Lubbock.

They told how the Plainview party had come to Municipal airport here to attend an American Legion dance; how it had driven in Melton's car to Lubbock to deliver a young woman to her home and was en route back when the collision happened. Jackson's car leaped over a traffic "island" before the collision—perhaps after a blowout—it was testified.

The defendant is represented by Ray Cowsert of the Hereford law firm of Cowsert and Bybee. E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, represents the state.

The jury is composed of Travis

Three Others Hurt As Home Is Demolished

Mother Suffocates As Daughter Lies Across Her Face

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, Oct. 21.—A mother suffocated today beneath the body of her daughter, critically injured in a tornado which exploded their home early today.

Mrs. Ruby Lee Person, 37, a teacher, was the lone fatality of the brief storm which appeared to have died out near this West Texas town.

Her daughter, Mina La Dell, 11, was injured critically. Long nails from heavy timber of the house were driven into her body as she lay helpless over her mother's face.

Power Lines Disrupted

Allay Person, 51, the husband and father, and Eddie Earl, 14, a son were less seriously injured.

Person is blind, and his wife had been supporting the family.

Some 1,000 telephone circuits were disrupted in the town, F. E. Blakney of Southwest Bell Telephone Co., in Abilene, said.

The Person's three-room frame house was demolished.

A vacated barracks just behind their home, several barns and other small building also were wrecked. Power and telephone lines were ripped down, trees up rooted and two gas meters torn loose. They caught fire, but were quickly extinguished.

Hail, Rain Reported

The storm roared into the northern section of this town of 40,000 persons about 12:20 a. m. Hail, wind and heavy rain accompanied the five-minute twister.

The funnel dipped into town from the southwest and roared off to the north. S. I. Stanley, West Texas Utilities Co. inspector, said it damaged power lines heavily

Fair Weather Due For Area

Only slightly cooler temperatures today were evidence of a cold front that narrowly missed Lubbock Thursday, bringing light showers to the area late in the night and early this morning.

The day dawned fair on the Panhandle-South Plains region this morning, and Harold Frost, chief meteorologist at the U. S. Weather bureau station at Municipal airport, said the temperatures would probably go no higher than 72 degrees following this morning's minimum of 43 degrees.

Thursday's maximum temperature was 78 degrees, as predicted "on the nose" by the weather bureau earlier.

Scattered Showers Fall

On the South Plains showers fell at scattered points near Crosbyton, Spur, Floydada, Dickens and in the Post section. No heavy rain was reported.

Generally heavy rains were received all the way from Lubbock to Tahoka, observers said early this afternoon.

MILITARY SETUP UNPRECEDENTED

Strategic Bombing In Future Under Joint Chiefs' Control

By ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Strategic bombing in any future war apparently will come under direct control of the military high command, whether it's done by air force or navy planes.

This was indicated today by the air force in answering questions about a new and unprecedented setup under which direction of the strategic air command is removed from the air arm and placed in the hands of the joint chiefs of staff.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, referred briefly to the new arrangement during his testimony before the House armed services committee Wednesday.

Applies To Navy

The strategic air command, said Vandenberg, now "is a major command of the joint chiefs of staff" and "receives its directives from the joint chiefs, not from the air force." He added that "its targets and target systems are selected by the joint chiefs as part of national war plans."

A reported later asked air force officials whether that applied to navy carrier planes.

In answering, the air force first called attention to Vandeinberg's testimony that "the industrial heart of the potential enemy lies, not on any sea shore, not on any island, but deep inside the Eurasian land mass. It is to that type of war that we must adapt all our forces, including carrier aviation."

Then the air force added:

"It is a generally accepted principle that the service of primary responsibility would usually exercise operational control over the force furnished by the service with collateral responsibility.

Admirals Unhappy

"For example: If carrier-based navy craft were to participate in the strategic air offensive, the commanding general of the strategic air command would exercise the necessary control and coordination."

The joint chiefs of staff some time ago assigned primary responsibility for strategic bombing to the air force, with only "collateral" responsibility to the navy. Navy men have never been happy about this decision.

Assignment of the strategic air command to the joint chiefs marks the first time during war or peace that the American military high command has had its own force to carry out strategic decisions.

With long-range bombers as their own special weapon, the joint chiefs will decide which cities of a possible enemy nation should be hit first with aerial bombardment, then let the strategic air command make its plans for the future accordingly.

Authority Transferred

It was disclosed that the transfer of strategic bombing direction from air force headquarters to the joint chiefs was made last April 11.

Lt Gen. Curtis E. Lemay, commander of the strategic air command, then became responsible to the joint chiefs—now composed of Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman, army Gen. J. Lawson Collins, navy Admiral Louis E. Denfeld and air Gen. Vandenberg.

From the joint chiefs, Lemay receives his mission assignments and authority. Vandenberg has been designated as "executive agent" of the joint chiefs, to handle liaison with Lemay's forces.

The air force's connection with strategic air command now is essentially one of merely supplying men and planes, training the men and equipping units for conducting strategic air operations. It no longer decides what the strategic air command will do now nor in a future war.

The strategic command was organized in the spring of 1946 with headquarters at nearby Andrews Field, Md., At present, its primary weapon is the B-36 ultra-long range bomber. Two groups of 30-B-36 bombers each have been organized and two more are scheduled.

But the larger part of the current organization consists of about a dozen groups of B-29 and B-50 bombers. These planes, of about half the range of the B-36s, are designed for operation from bases closer to an enemy than would be used by the huge intercontinental bombers.

Police Trail Bail Jumper

DETROIT, Oct. 21 (INS)—Michigan authorities attempted to pick up the trail of Harry Fleisher, the nation's most sought after fugitive, whom Cincinnati, Ohio, police let slip through their hands two weeks ago.

Cincinnati police admitted releasing the one-time member of Detroit's notorious Purple gang after he was picked up with an alleged car thief.

Jumped $80,000 Bond

Fleisher and Mike Selik jumped $80,000 bond last fall when the state Supreme court turned down their appeal in the holdup of a Pontiac, Mich., gambling establishment, the Aristocrat club. They faced 20 to 40 years in prison.

Fleisher and several others were also under conviction of conspiracy in the murder of former state Senator Warren Hooper, who had been scheduled to inform on the underworld.

Cincinnati Detective Chief Clem Merz said the release of Fleisher was "entirely justified under the circumstances."

Nabbed On A Hunch

He was picked up "on a hunch" by officers sent to arrest Mrs. Ruby Haas, 41, and John Gach, 34, of Detroit, on a stolen car charge. Fleisher walked into the Haas apartment when the arrest was being made Oct. 8.

The fugitive was taken to the station, photographed, fingerprinted and his identity checked with the files. Fleisher claimed he was a shaving mirror salesman named Jerome Mayer and had to "go home to sick wife."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation returned his true identity yesterday. His fingerprints arrived nine days after his arrest with no special request regarding them. The FBI will return identification in one hour if a special request is made.

High School Day Is Proclaimed At Fair

DALLAS, Oct. 21. (AP)—The bigger kids get a crack at the state fair today.

It's "High School" day and fair officials expect most of the students of Dallas schools to take advantage of a holiday to show up for the exhibits and the midway features.

Yesterday's gloomy weather cut the crowd to 56,835 persons. To date, 1,685,743 persons have been to the fair. Last year for the same period, attendance was 1,474,163.

Bank In Chicago Is Robbed By Lone Man

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (INS)—A robber wearing a handkerchief mask held up the Community Savings and Loan association today and escaped with $1,500 in small denomination bills.

In a quiet voice, the thief told the teller, Mrs. Mary Shaw:

"Give me all the money or I'll shoot."

The bandit then stuffed the money in his pocket and ran out of the place before Manager Peter H. Cleven, several employees and six customers knew the robbery had taken place.

COMPLAINT DISALLOWED

FORT WORTH, Tex. (U.P.)—A 23-year-old man went to police headquarters to report someone had played a mean trick on him by selling him a fifth of water for a bottle of liquor. Police arrested the complainant when they found six sticks of marihuana on him.

Air Pollution Checked Again

DONORA, Pa., Oct. 21—(AP)—The air around Donora—where 20 persons died during a smog last October—is getting another going over by the U.S. public health service.

George Clayton, the health service atmospheric pollution chief, and six aides last night set up air-testing machines in Donora and surrounding territory.

This move caused some surprise among the twonspeople because yesterday was marked by sunshine, blue skies and no smog.

In fact, it was quite different from the day 12 months ago when a black, choking smoke-filled fog settled down on the western Pennsylvania town.

No Air Movement

Clayton explained that two conditions were the same, however—there was no air movement and there was an "atmospheric inversion." Normally, he said the air near the ground is warmer than that at high levels. In an inversion the opposite is true and the air fails to carry away foreign particles as it rises.

The inversion condition began two days ago, the weather bureau said, and probably will continue through Sunday. Tests were made last April during a similar inversion which lasted only 12 hours.

"In these tests," Clayton said, "we are trying to find how much air pollution a person can stand—that is, the maximum allowable concentration. That figure has been established for a man working eight hours a day in a plant, but for a person living in it 24 hours a day—that's something else."

"THIRTY" OLD SYMBOL

NEW YORK—(AP)—The term "thirty", which in newspaper parlance means the end of an item, originated back in the early days of the telegraph.

At that time operators, writing longhand, used the symbol "XXX" to designate the end of a dispatch filed by a newspaper correspondent. The "XXX" constituting the Roman numerals for "30", it quickly translated itself into the now familiar "thirty".

Mrs. Kasenkina Sports Short Haircut

Soviet Woman Who Leaped To Freedom Enjoys Life In U. S.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (INS)—When Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina jumped from a Russian consulate window to American freedom she went all the way—today she's even sporting a new "Mary Martin" short haircut.

It is just a little over a year since her famous leap, but the 53-year-old former Russian school teacher has accustomed herself to the wonders of America.

Mrs. Kasenkina lives in a four-room suburban apartment which features things she'd rarely if ever see in Russia—a shiny refrigerator, automatic stove, a washing machine. She drives her own late-model car.

Plans Rustic Life

Mrs. Kasenkina put her newly-found Americanism on display today in an exclusive series of pictures by International News photos.

And with the publication of her book, "Leap To Freedom," this fall Mrs. Kasenkina plans to go rustic like many other American authors, moving to a remote part of New York state.

Material changes represent only a small part, however, of the metamorphisis in the life of the woman who caused an international incident when she made her leap in August, 1948.

Tells Of Russia

She smiles more now. Groups of children gather on her doorstep to hear her tell stories of life in Russia, compared with life in her newly-adopted land.

And soon Mrs. Kasenkina hopes to make complete change from old life to new. Since she came to the U. S. on a diplomatic passport and remained as a political refugee it will take an act of Congress to make her eligible for citizenship.

That's the one big thing she still asks from the United States.

Premier Rene Mayer Approved By French National Assembly

PARIS, Oct. 21—(AP)—France's new premier Rene Mayer favors an unfreezing of wages and a quick return to collective bargaining in industry.

Mayer outlined his domestic policies a short time before the national assembly approved him for the premiership last night by a vote of 341 to 183. Mayer is a member of the Radical Socialist party, which despite its name favors a conservative policy.

Mayer won confirmation with 31 ballots to spare. He had to receive a minimum count of 310 or bow out of the picture. Now he faces the task of organizing a cabinet to handle France's complex wage and price problems growing out of the recent devaluation of the franc.

As part of his domestic program Mayer backed a proposal for a monthly bonus of up to 3,000 francs ($8.50) for wage earners in the low brackets. He also came out for legislation restoring the prewar practice of collective bargaining. Since the war, the state has had a powerful hand in determining wage scales to curb inflation.

On foreign policy Mayer proposed that France adopt an attitude of cautious friendship toward Germany.

Mayer, 54, plans to base his cabinet on a coalition of Radical Socialists, Socialists and Popular Republicans. The same coalition was used by Henri Queuille in organizing a government which endured for a year and 25 days—a French postwar record.

Queuille resigned Oct. 6 when he opposed Socialist demands for wage increases to offset the price rises expected under currency devaluation.

East-West Marriage Severed By Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21—(AP)—The twain again has been derailed.

An East-West marriage between Gurdial Singh, 40, and Mrs. Ethleene Singh, 33, ended with her divorce decree yesterday.

Mrs. Singh, American-born former wife of car designer Alexis De Sakhnoffsky, said Singh, East Indian actor-importer, went for days without speaking to her. The Singhs were married in 1946, separated early this year.

Radio Calls "Jam" Church's Headsets

LONG BEACH, Calif., Oct. 21. (AP)—The sermons at First United Presbyterian church were right lively, but the parishoners seemed to laugh in the wrong places.

Rev. Ralph M. Grove finally found the reason: headsets installed for the hard-of-hearing were picking up Long Beach police calls and assorted ham radio broadcasts.

Dean To Report On Dorm Supervision

Results of the dormitory supervistory program inaugurated at Texas Technological college last fall will be given by Dean of Men James G. Allen Saturday morning at a meeting of the Texas Association of Deans and Advisors of Men at College Station.

Dean Allen left last night for College Station and the two-day conference which begins this morning.

Other dormitory heads from colleges throughout Texas have indicated a great interest in the advistory program since it was begun at Tech last year, Dean Allen said. It is the only college in the southwest to have such a program.

Under the setup, a student counselor is placed in each wing and on each floor of all the dormitories, the dean explained. It is his duty to act as an information center for the other students and give them guidance should their grades fall below the danger mark.

Dean Allen said the program has been quite successful during its first year of operation.

Catholic Conference Elects Old Officers

GALVESTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—All officers were re-elected yesterday at the closing meeting of the Texas conference of the Catholic Hospital association of the United States and Canada.

Reelected today were: Sister Mary Fidelma, director of nurses at St. Mary's infirmary, Galveston, president; Sister Bernard Marie, St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo, vice president; and Sister John Marie, St. Joseph's hospital, Houston, secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected were: Sister Michael, St. Joseph's hospital, Fort Worth; Sister Alberta, St. Paul's hospital, Dallas; Sister Claudia, Bethanie hospital, Wichita Falls; and Sister Annette, Madonna hospital, Denison.

Seven P-TA Units Are At Program Sessions

Thursday afternoon business sessions and programs were conducted by several local Parent-Teacher association units. Delegates to the state P-T convention to be held in Waco in November were elected and plans for Hallowe'en carnivals were made. A number of guest speakers discussed home and school teamwork.

GILMER-AIKIN BILL TALKED

P. E. Davis, principal of George M. Hunt school, interviewed Rep. Preston E. Smith on the Gilmer-Aikin bill at a Thursday meeting of the P-TA at the school. Rep. Smith also spoke on the procedure of sending bills through the legislature, and Mr. Davis discussed "Teamwork Between Home and School."

Mrs. Hugh Newton introduced the principal. Mrs. Eugene Knox presided and committees made reports. A chorus of sixth grade pupils directed by Miss Anna V. Moren sang for the group.

The school's Hallowe'en carnival will be tonight.

DUPRE P-T MEETING HELD IN CAFETERIA

Mrs. Roy Sanford talked on "Teamwork for the Child's Health" at a meeting of Dupre Parent-Teacher association at the cafeteria Thursday afternoon.

One hundred forty-six attended.

COMMUNITY CENTER PLANS OUTLINED

A musical program by the first grade of Miss Ethelyn Schmidt opened the meeting of Sanders Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at the school.

The guest speaker, Mrs. O. L. Byrd, was introduced by Miss Trula Maud Jetton, principal. Her topic was "Teamwork Between Home and School." The year's plans for the Community Center were outlined by Miss Zora Joy Gifford of the City Recreation department.

Announcement was made that the school's annual Hallowe'en carnival will be held Friday, Oct. 28, from 6:30 until 9 o'clock at the school.

Room count was won by the rooms of Mrs. Mildred Taylor, Mrs. Martha Hart and William Lowrance.

DELEGATE NAMED TO CONVENTION

The guest speaker for Cottage School P-TA Thursday was Mrs. O. L. Caskey, instructor of child development at Texas Technological college. She discussed the topic, "Teamwork Between Parents."

Mrs. L. O. Crowder was elected delegate to the state P-TA convention to be held in Waco in November. Plans for the school Hallowe'en carnival for Friday, Oct. 28, at 6 p. m. were announced.

Seventy-five persons were present for the meeting.

INDIAN LIFE IS DISCUSSED

At a meeting of Chris Harwell P-TA Thursday at the school, a program on "Indian Life" was given by the third grade of Mrs. Willie Mae Harrel.

"Teamwork Between Home and School" was subject of the talk presented by Ishmael Hill, assistant superintendent of Lubbock Public schools.

Mrs. Ralph Cline, president, reported that the P-TA cleared $34 on a recent musical program. She was named delegate to the state P-TA convention to be held in November in Waco.

MRS. YOUNG GIVEN P-T MEMBERSHIP

Mrs. A. W. Young, president of Central Ward P-TA, was presented a P-T life membership by the organization Thursday afternoon at the school. The president was also elected delegate to the Waco P-T convention in November.

Dr. Travis White spoke on "Teamwork Between the Home, the School and the Child Service Unit." a solo, "Thanks be to God," was sung by Miss Rosalynd Larrence.

Announcement was made that there are 154 paid memberships in the P-TA unit and that there are 40 subscriptions to the Texas P-TA magazine and 12 to the national magazine.

The school will not have a Hallowe'en entertainment.

TEAMWORK STRESSED IN P-TA LECTURE

Mrs. M. Norvel Young spoke Thursday afternoon to the P-TA of Roscoe Wilson school on "Teamwork in School, Home and Church."

She pointed out the need of a coordinated effort among these organizations for the proper development in a child of: (1) A strong, healthy body and sound mind, (2) Happy home life, (3) The ability to read, write, think, study and act, (4) An informed citizenship, (5) Knowledge and skill to earn a living, (6) Use of free time for worthy activities, and (7) Spiritual character.

With each of the "vital" agencies there is a certain time in the child's development when he can best be reached, Mrs. Young pointed out to the 180 women attending the meeting held in the J. T. Hutchinson Junior High school auditorium.

Plans were made in a brief business meeting for the coming Hallowe'en carnival to be held Oct. 28. The proposed budget was adopted and delegates were appointed to the state P-TA convention to be held in Waco. Representatives will be Mrs. Ivy Savage and Mrs. L. E. Parsons, with Mrs. Leo Healer as an alternate.

Good Neighbor Club Has Election Hour

Mrs. C. T. McLain was elected president of Arnett-Benson Good Neighbor club Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. W. Hilton, 2724 North Second. Other new officers are:

Mesdames C. D. Bevers, vice president; E. W. Taylor, secretary-treasurer; P. H. Nall and A. E. Jones, recreation committee; Burl Walker, flower and card chairman; and J. P. Legg, reporter.

Others present were Mesdames I. T. Weed, W. N. Boyd, Ed Branch and a guest, Mrs. G. L. Hazzard.

The club has made plans to take a quilt made by members to Girlstown next Tuesday. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 3 at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Jones, 3013 North Fifth.

Auxiliary President To Lecture Tonight

Mrs. A. J. Breaux of Beaumont, state president of the American Legion auxiliary, will address a dinner meeting of the Lubbock Legion and auxiliary and their wives and husbands at 7 o'clock tonight in Phil's Ranch House.

She will talk on the rehabilitation program of the Legion and auxiliary in Texas. Mrs. Breaux spent Wednesday in Amarillo checking the work of the auxiliary at the Veterans hospital.

Mrs. Orville Drake, auxiliary president, will be toastmaster.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. George Berry and her sister, Mrs. J. M. Webb of Amarillo flew to Las Vegas, N. M., to attend the funeral of Reid B. Hughes, sr., which will be conducted this afternoon. Survivors include a son, Reid B. Hughes, jr., of Salt Lake City and a nephew, Hugh English, of Lubbock.

Mary Haworth's Mail

When Faithful Wife Behaves Flirtatiously In Company, She Is Seeking Appreciation

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Like many other I find your column interesting reading as I study the situations that people get themselves into; and a recent article struck me particularly.—the one based on a letter from a man who says his wife is a model helpmeet at home, but makes a great play for men's attention in public.

The man says he loves his wife very much, has no real cause to distrust her character, and no complains other than this, which, however, is making him 'thoroughly disgusted." In your reply, you developed the idea that the wife's behavior may mean that she is "overcompensating" for a hidden acute shortage of self esteem, trying to convince herself that she has real charm and lovability that will always endure, etc.

As it happens, I have found myself doing much the same thing socially as that wife does, although not to such extremes; and since I understand why I do it, perhaps it may help that couple to hear my viewpoint.

I too have a generous devoted husband who never looks at another woman. In fact, I sometimes tell him he should at least make-believe that he enjoys another person's company. He has never in our 14 years' marriage questioned what I buy or how much I spend. He lets me manage all the money. And he enjoys my company,—as I've learned by guesswork.

WRITER GIVES HER EXPERIENCES

WITH ALL this my only complaint—and you may think it a foolish one—is that he never says directly to me how much I mean to him or how pleased he is with anything; nor does he ever pay much attention to me when we are out socially (although now he does occasionally, after my reminding him for years.)

Consequently at parties I wander off and find other people to talk to, and with whom to dance; but of course they are people I know. Just because I (and that other wife) are good managers and self reliant, it doesn't mean that we don't want special attentions. We do, but since our husbands don't give it to us, we seek it elsewhere, harmlessly; and it is fun.

We probably have husbands who don't like to express themselves. Mine is an introvert and I am simon-pure extrovert, but I am happy to say that I have got him to like having people in, although if we are alone he can sit al evening reading and not say a word to me. Yet he is hurt if I don't stay in the same room, which I mostly do, reading too.

However, back to the problem: my advice to the fretted man is to be more devoted to his wife, or more demonstrative about it in speech and manner, and probably she won't look at others so much.

Signed: V.V.

HELPFUL HINT FOR HUSBANDS

DEAR V.V.: If you don't stray away from husband and friends in public places to dance with men they've never met, and if you don't go out of your way on such occasions to act cozy with business men you barely know who happen to be there, then it is hardly analogous to compare your "social" behavior to the wife's discussed the other day.

From what you say, your efforts to compensate for your husband's lack of gallantry remain within the bounds of good taste, whereas according to the previous letter the other wife's coquetry does not. But taste aside, such enterprise, whether mild or extreme, can't be rated harmless if one's married partner protests or if the fun thus found dilutes one's loyalty to the married relationship itself,—because such rifts, within the twain or in one's feelings, can ultimately destroy a marriage. So take care.

Although I think your symptoms are less pronounced than the other wife's, still I feel that your attempt to interpret her actions in terms of your motives adds up to a valuable tip to husbands. If they were mindful to assuage the little woman's basic hunger for appreciation manfully advertised, I daresay they'd find her on her toes to please them.—M. H.

Club Plans To Dance

A dinner-dance is planned by the Holiday Dance club for Saturday night at the Hilton hotel beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Carrying out a Hallowe'en theme, masks and false faces will mark the places and pyracantha and jack-o-Lanterns will decorate the tables. Orange tapers in crystal holders will furnish light.

Hosts will be Dr. and Mrs. Olan Key and Messrs. and Mesdames Neil H. Wright, jr., Tom Dugan, jr., R. C. Tucker, Dick Jennings, George Livermore, James Cochran, Marion Key and John Vickers.

Courtesies Continue For Bride-Elect

Dr. and Mrs. Roy G. Loveless will be hosts tonight at their home with a rehearsal dinner honoring their daughter, Miss Martha Loveless and Ray Cook, who will be married Saturday at 8 p. m. in the Loveless home.

Members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests will attend, with covers laid for 20 persons. Decorating the table will be arrangements of pink dahlias, and gray tapers will light the room.

Saturday at 12:30 p. m. Miss Loveless will be honored at a bridesmaids luncheon in the party room of the Lubbock Country club with Mrs. W. T. Bradbury, 3003 Twenty-second, as hostess.

A wide pink satin ribbon will run the length of the table, and on each side of it will be standards holding pink chrysanthemums and white tapers. At one point on the table will be a little bridal party of yarn dolls, and at the bride'elect's end of the table will be a miniature arbor formed of maiden hair fern and pink chrysanthemums. Tiny baskets of pink chrysanthemus will be arranged around the arbor, under which will be placed a miniature bride and bridegroom.

On the guest list are the honoree, Mrs Roy Loveless, Miss Cynthia Loveless, Mesdames George Loweless, A. C. Sanders, jr., E. Y. Gibbs, L. M. Jones, Earl Cook, of Childress, Earl Waldrip of Artesia, N. M., Douglas Jarrell of Abilene, W. K. Chest Drive Is Gaining Speed

Lubbock's 1950 Community Chest drive was only a little more than ten per cent of the way toward its $98,850 goal at noon today.

Approximately $10,000 had been collected in the campaign up to that hour, Earl Kerr, Chest Manager, reported.

Although coming in at a mere trickle Thursday, reports were beginning to pick up this morning, Kerr said, as workers in the women's sales division were completing their solicitations.

Good news came to campaign leaders from Lubbock Air Force Base, where officers and personnel launched a Red Feather drive of their own, proceeds of which will be turned over to the Lubbock Community Chest. Unofficial word from the base said the military had set its goal at more than $5,000, budget for the Lubbock Service Organization, one of the agencies to benefit from the Chest.

Will Aid Soldiers

L. S. O. is a recreational agency for entertainment of soldiers stationed at the base.

Two of the business classification groups, the cotton men and the used car dealers had reported their collections about 50 per cent complete, Kerr said. Their totals were not included in the above figure, however.

More Reports Seen Today

Additional reports from workers were expected today and within a week or ten days campaign leaders were hoping for complete reports from all of the teams if possible.

Dorcas Units Organize In Federation

Forty-two members of Dorcas societies from Seventh Day Adventist churches in Amarillo, Tulia, Plainview and Lubbock met in Plainview Tuesday to organize a Federated Dorcas Society. Elected to office were:

Mrs. C. L. Lagrone, Amarillo, president; Mrs. Calvin Harkey, vice president; Mrs. Merlin Weber, Plainview, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Carl Reese, publicity chairman.

Elders L. E. Rogers and R. E. Reiger of Amarillo and Elder F. H. Hewitt of Lubbock were speakers at the all-day meeting.

The Dorcas society is the welfare organization of the Seventh Day Adventist churches and is active in relief work of all kinds, both local and foreign. The societies in North America are sending food and clothing to displaced persons in Europe.

The Lubbock society has a membership of 22 with Mrs. A. P. Glass as president. At present the group is assisting two unfortunate families, is making quilts for emergencies and is filling food baskets for local distribution.

Planting Of Roses Is Described By Agent

The planting of rose bushes was demonstrated by Miss Clara Pratt, county home demonstration agent for Plainview Highway Home Demonstration club Thursday afternoon at the W. G. Lofland home in the Clayton-Carter addition.

Those present were Mesdames T. C. Hudson, Jimmy Vickers, C. H. Tisdel, H. F. Williams, A. Holmes, E. J. Kittle, C. W. Benson, J. C. McClellan, J. L. Moore, G. C. Vaught, M. C. Keefer and Ralph Robinson. Mrs. Ben McWhorter and a Mrs. Chase were guests.

Mrs. Tisdel, Rt. 3, will be hostess to the club Nov. 3.

Lubbock Pilot Club Holds Night Meet

Dr. Marshall Harvey and Waggoner Carr spoke on the Community Chest before Lubbock Pilot club at a meeting Thursday night at Hilton hotel.

Dr. Harvey discussed work of different organizations within the Community Chest and Carr spoke on meaning of the Chest to the individual. They represented the Toastmasters club. They were introduced by Miss Peggy Hess, who directed the program.

Miss Lois Alexander, club president, presided for a business session. Miss Lois Graves, chairman of the finance committee, announced the club would hold rummage sales starting the latter part of October.

Mrs. Ila Beal, chairman of the membership committee, announced a Pilot information class would be conducted in the home of Miss Alexander, 2010 Broadway, at 7 p. m. Oct. 27.

Announcement was made the Ruby Newhall Memorial scholarship fund would be set up in all Pilot clubs in memory of Miss Newhall, president of Pilot International who died Oct. 18 in Jacksonville, Fla.

Members present were Misses Alexander, Sannie Callan, Evelyn Clewell, Lois Graves, Hess, Hadena Hester and Avey Leeth Smith and Mesdames Irene Ausburn, Beal, Bess Ford, Ida Harkleroad, Jewel Huie, Maillie Sanders, Letha Simpson, and Parl Smith. Mrs. Bonnie Crain was a guest.

Vows Read In Church

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Creager of Levelland announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Doris Ruth Creager of 1809 Broadway, and Alvin E. Sherrell of 2813 Fortieth, son of Mrs. Leroy Lemon of Lubbock, which took place Sunday at 8:30 a. m. at the Levelland Fifth Street Baptist church.

A double ring service was performed by Rev. L. R. Higginbottom of Gorman, uncle of the bride, as the couple stood before an altar of white gladioli and greenery.

Miss Wynelle Bailey, pianist, accompanied Bonnie Rutherford as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." "Indian Love Call" was offered during the vows and the traditional march was used.

Father Is Escort

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original white wool street length dress with navy and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of white and gold pompons.

Miss Erlene Morrow of Lubbock, maid of honor and cousin of the bride, wore peach colored wool, black accessories and carried bronze pompons. Leonard Blakeney was best man.

Royce Creager of Levelland and Earl Creager, jr., of Stephenville, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Lubbock High school and of the Lubbock Memorial Hospital School of Nursing and at present is nursing supervisor at the Texas Tech Student Health Service.

Avery Appeals From Five-Year Sentence

J. A. Avery, jr., 20, one of three Lubbock men who was convicted earlier in the week of burglary, entered into a $5,000 recognizance with Judge G. V. Pardue this morning in connection with his appeal from a five-year sentence.

The 99th district judge overruled a new trial motion prior to the appeal announcement.

Avery was tried before a jury on a charge that he broke and entered Palace drug and jewelry. Osby James, 31, was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary on a similar charge, and Earl Laughry, 25, was allowed five-year probation. James and Laughry pleaded guilty.

Formal Opening Of Negro Church Set

A special service commemorating the formal opening of the New Hope Negro Baptist church, 2002 East Ave. B, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Other ceremonies beginning at 1 p. m. will precede the service.

Rev. S. M. Meeters, jr., pastor of the church, said the program will include choir music and addresses by several other white and negro ministers.

Cost of the new 50 by 80 feet brick building was $50,000, the pastor said.

Other services will be read Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Club Discussions Held Thursday On Safety, Health

"Health and Safety" was topic for a program meeting of Homebuilders club Thursday night at the home of Mrs. A. S. Westbrook, 1904 Ninth, with Mrs. George Birdwell as co-hostesses.

Mrs. N. S. McBride was program chairman. Mrs. W. A. Lindsay discussed "Our Traffic Laws;" Mrs. Velma Morris, "Your Mind Can Keep You Young" and Mrs. J. C. Dean, "Mealtime Madness."

Mrs. L. L. Strader was a guest.

Other members present were Mesdames E. J. Dresser, Herb Miller, Florence Sanderson, and Wayne Thrush.

Cafeteria Plans Are Discussed For PTA

The cafeteria which is to be opened soon at Senior High school was discussed by Mrs. Dora Nell Carroll, director of public school cafeterias, for the Senior High Parent-Teacher association Thursday night at the school. Sixty-five persons attended the meeting.

Mrs. A. A. Holmquest, president, was elected delegate to the state P-TA convention which is to be held next month in Waco.

Visitors Are Honored At Thursday Party

Mrs. Dennis Dillard of San Diego and Mrs. Donald Kling of Wahoo, Neb., were named honorees at a game party given Thursday night by Mrs. Ernest L. Tarkenton, Mrs. A. R. Golding, jr., and Mrs. Eugene Miller in the Tarkenton home, 2102 Twenty-fifth.

A lighted Hallowe'en lantern, flanked with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, centered the refreshment table.

Guests were mesdames Wayne Bain, Jimmie Williams, E. Y. Gibbs, jr., Todie McClintock, Misses Lareta Maner, Cecile Butler and Margaret Ann West.

Gift Party Scheduled By Luncheon Society

Welcome Luncheon club members attended a luncheon at the Hilton hotel Thursday and later paid a visit to Corcorran's Drive-In cleaners.

When the club meets Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. A. E. Sullivan, 2313 Twenty-ninth, gifts will be brought and names of "secret pals" will be revelaed.

Twenty-one members and the following guests attended: Mesdames A. D. Montgomery, W. M. King, Charley Dunlap and Maybelle Morgan.

Three Hurt In Blast In City

Three persons remained in serious condition today from burns suffered at 6:15 p. m. Thursday when flames gutted the second floor of an apartment house at 2215 Thirteenth following a gas stove explosion.

Bill Lee Robinson, 25, and Mrs. Burt Maze, 24, who were standing at the head of a stairway only a few feet from the stove at the time of the blast, were reported to be in "fair" condition today by attendants of Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Victim Only "Fair"

St. Mary's hospital attendants reported the third victim's condition as "only fair" this morning. He is W. D. Haynie, 51, who suffered burns on the back, arms and head.

He and his wife escaped their blazing apartment by dropping to the ground from a second story window of the frame building. Mrs. Haynie was not injured.

Damage Is Heavy

William A. Wilbanks of 3022 Twentieth, owner of the structure, estimated damage to be in excess of $12,000. He said the loss is only partially covered by insurance.

Twelve bales of a 16-bale load of cotton valued at $1,00 were destroyed at 5:20 p. m. when sparks from a perforated section of a truck's exhaust pipe ignited the vehicle's cargo in the truck bed while Orvie Hicks of Idalou was en route to Lubbock about four miles west of Idalou. R. T. Lambert was owner of the cotton.

Inability to collect land revenues, which account for much of Burma's federal income, has contributed to financial difficulties there, according to Rangoon reports.

"DIVORCE RECOGNIZES FACTS"

British Group Strikes Back At Princess' Morals Speech

By CHARLES A. SMITH
INS Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A group of Britons publicly rebuked Princess Elizabeth today for her palace-inspired attack two days ago on "falling morals" and "divorce evils."

The spreading controversy includes a battle among educators for and against sex education in schools, and church attacks on drug stores which have contraceptive-selling slot machines outside their doors.

The "marriage law reform committee" announced that it "observed with regret" the statement made by the 22-year-old princess to the Mothers union Tuesday.

The bishop of Lichfield, Dr. Edward Sydney Woods, quickly defended Elizabeth. He told a Leamington Bible society meeting that "the nation should thank God it had a royal family who placed a rich value on the Christian religion" and for the "fearless speech" by Princess Elizabeth.

Group Strikes Back

Elizabeth, in a speech carefully worded and approved by Buckingham palace advisers, attacked the growing divorce rate as a threat to British national life. She said:

"We live in an age of growing self-indulgence, of hardening materialism and of falling moral standards.

"I would go so far as to say that some of the very principles on which the family, and therefore the health of the nation, is founded, are in danger."

The committee of sociologists and lawyers, which wants laws amended to make divorces easier, struck back, saying:

"Divorce only recognizes in law an existing state of facts that the marriage has failed. Harm to children can be greater in a home where both parents are at loggerheads than if a divorce ensues."

Missed The Point

The committee, whose chairman is Mrs. R. S. W. Pollard, said Elizabeth, heiress presumptive to the throne, has missed the whole point.

"Divorce and separation," it said, "are not themselves responsible for the evils to which she refers—it is causes such as inadequate housing and unstable partners which lead to the break-up of marriages."

It is estimated that one out of every ten marriages in England and Wales last year ended in divorce.

Latest available statistics show that in 1948 there were 393,030 marriages in England and Wales. A total of 38,157 divorce petitions were presented in the same period.

Elizabeth's plunge into the whole controversy is virtually unprecedented. Royal family members usually stay out of explosive subjects. The outspoken Windsor family member, the duke of Windsor, abdicated as King Edward VIII to marry an American divorcee.

The princess' speech apparently was well-timed—and there is no doubt that she has majority national backing in her stand.

Many Britons are wondering if she is another Queen Victoria in the making. Victoria wore the British crown for 63 years.

The crown had been tarnished by ineptitude and vice when Victoria donned it. She set the nation a shining example of hard work and happy family life, of private virture and public honesty.

Elizabeth gave a "royal lead" to British public opinion at a time when church leaders, magistrates, and other public figures have been campaigning against the uncontrolled sale of contraceptives from street slot machines.

Dr. Henry Wilson, the bishop of Chelmsford, today attacked these sales in his diocesan magazine and called for a boycott. He charged they "are a direct incentive to general sexual promiscuity."

Sex education in schools also has been attacked because of recent sex offense cases involving teen-agers.

The roar over the slot machines became so great today that a Laborite government spokesman in the House of Commons promised that the government soon will introduce "a model bill" to prohibit such sales of contraceptives.

About 800 pounds of finished steel per person are produced in America each year for domestic use.

SWEETHEART OF TEXAS AGGIES—Miss Jeannine Holland, 20-year-old brunette, has been chosen as sweetheart of the Texas Aggies. She was presented at the Aggie-TCU football game in Fort Worth. Miss Holland is a junior at Texas State College for Women and lives in Houston.

Masonic Feast Is Held Here

One hundred and two Scottish Rite Masons attended the Feast of Tabernacles Thursday night in the Masonic temple, Main and Ave. K.

Principal speaker was George W. McClesky, Lubbock attorney, who spoke on "The Significance of Feast of Tabernacles." Vaughn E. Wilson, Lubbock city attorney, was master of ceremonies for the gathering.

Ed Parker, who has served 15 years as secretary of the South Plains Scottish Rite club, was recognized for his long tenure with the presentation of a fountain pen and pencil set.

New Book Berates Corruption In Twelve State Governments

By LEO TURNER
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (U.P.) — Robert S. Allen, veteran Washington correspondent, took a wide swing at built-in corruption and bungling in state government today in a new book entitled "Our Sovereign State."

"The underworld tentacles of gambling overlord Frank Costello are to be found in state government from New York to Florida and from Louisiana," Allen wrote.

Lobby-ridden legislatures, and underpaid legislators open to graft, make "the whole system of state government moribund, corrosive, and deadening Allen said. "It is riddled with senescence, incompetence, mediocrity, ineffectualness, corruption and tawdriness."

"Our Sovereign State" (Vanguard Press, Inc., $5) is a critical analysis of 12 state by 12 writers, each prominent in his own state. It is edited by Allen, who writes, a blistering introduction criticizing "ox-cart" system which "pollutes instead of purifies; destroys and obstructs instead of building and improving."

No Punches Pulled

The home-town boys pulled no punches in writing their chapters on Massachusetts (Prisoner of The Past), New York (Backslider), Pennsylvania (Bossed Cornucopia), Georgia (Paradise of Oligarchy), Ohio (Oxcart Government), Illinois (The "New Look"), Wisconsin (A State That Glories In Its Past), Louisiana (Beak To Big For Its Belly), Nebraska (Norris: In Victory And Defeat), Texas (Owned By Oil And Interlocking Directorates), Utah (Contrary State) and California (The First Hundred Years).

Hart Stilwell, a native Texan, wrote: "Texas today is the largest and most profitable colony in the world—a distinction that became hers automatically the day India achieved independence. Wall Street has done with money what men with swords and guns could not do . . . Oil is the master of present day Texas. And as Texas oil is owned by Wall street, Wall street dominates Texas. Most Texans know this, but few care to discuss it."

Lashes Mayor O'Dwyer

The only difference between the Republican party and the Democratic party in New York state is the voters, according to Robert G. Spivack of the New York Post Home News.

"The disastrous results of (Mayor William) O'Dwyer's administration are not merely that the patronage-hungry Tammany tiger was fed and fed well—27,000 non-civil service jobs, approximately $100,000,000 in patronage for the machines . . . the greater disaster is that through a series of deft maneuvers, O'Dwyer has dissipated the energies of New York's normally alert and vigilant liberal leaders, and divided and confused them.

"The real tragedy of (Gov. Thomas E.) Dewey's career . . . was not his second defeat for the presidency. Dewey's great tragedy is that he started out an ardent foe of corruption and has ended up tolerating it."

Lobbyist Control Hit

The principal criticism of all 12 writers and Editor Allen was the dependency of local governments on the whims of state legislatures, and the control exercised over legislators by lobbyists.

Typical was Richard Hyer's, of the San Francisco Chronicle, criticism of "California's third House."

It has become "probably the strongest and most arrogant aggregation of lobbyists extant in any state . . . their archetype is an enormous man who wields enormous power. He sows, reaps, and controls a dense tangle of internal issues that smother and do violence to partisan politics and constitutional government alike. When he blows the whistle half the state jumps without knowing the source of the command . . . his name is Arthur H. Samish."

Lubbock Westerners Battle Amarillo Sandstorm Tonight

16,000 Slated To Watch Tilt

Lubbock High school's speedy grid eleven, undefeated and untied and rated as the best Westerner team since the 1941 district champions, will invade Sandie stadium at 8 o'clock tonight for the traditional battle against the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm and the ancient "Amarillo jinx."

The Westerners will take a five-game victory streak into the non-conference clash with the Sandies, as well as an awesome scoring record. But the Sandies, boasting nine straight triumphs over Lubbock grid teams, have for the last 20 years been nearly impossible to defeat on the "sacred" soil of their home field. Lubbock has turned the trick only once in Amarillo in recent years, that in 1939 when the Westerners went on to win the state championship.

Capacity Crowd Slated

The game will be played in the new Sandie stadium before an estimated crowd of 16,000 persons. Approximately 5,000 Lubbock fans are expected to be on hand at kickoff time to cheer Coach Pat Pattison's Black Gold gridders.

The annual battle between the two schools will be in its 28th year under the Texas Interscholastic league, and Amarillo has a decided edge with 22 wins while Lubbock has won but four times. One game was a tie.

On the basis of earlier games this season, Lubbock has been ruled as the favorite because of its undefeated season, scoring 202 points while limiting the opposition to but 38 in five games. The victories were over Childress, North Side, Plainview, Vernon and Pampa.

The Sandies, meanwhile, have totaled 147 points while giving up 73 in five contests. Amarillo victories were over Denton, Abilene, Paschal and Forest of Dallas. The defeat was to Odessa, which last week was thumped soundly by Abilene.

Westerner Coach Pat Pattison is expecting a hard game with the former District 1-AA rivals. Only in his second year at the helm of the Cowpokes, Coach Pattison would like to end the Amarillo victory string and begin one of his own, but during practice this week he gave little appearance of being optimistic about Lubbock chances and pushed his club through long workouts in preparation for the trip.

Sandies Will Be Ready

In reference to reports from Amarillo that the Sandy squad is in bad shape physically and expecting to get beat, Coach Pattison replied, "They would like for us to believe that, but Amarillo will be ready." He isn't selling them short.

The Westerner squad appears to be in fine shape from one end of the starting lineup to the other. Ends Garnet Reeves and Billy Wright, Tackles Joe Brock and Douglas, Guards Freddie Gray and Douglas Ross, Guards Freddie Gray and Sammy Modrall and Center Douglas Wienke have performed well in previous games and can be counted on to continue their good work.

In the backfield the four regulars are ready to go, with Bobby Brown at quarterback, Wayne Stroud at left half, Charlie Williams at right half and Malcolm Young at fullback. This quartet of speedsters has seen limited service in games prior to the one against Pampa last week, but in that tilt they were forced to play the limit. And the linemen too came in for 48-minute ball.

Work this week has hinged largely around offensive play practices and defensive work. Thursday afternoon the Hub City eleven ran through its repetoire of offensive plays in a dummy scrimmage against another combination until all had participated in the drills on offense and defense.

In the Golden Sandies the Westerners meet a team running from the T-formation and single wing, usually shifting to the single wing from the T.

Ace backfield performer has been Tailback Jack Newby, and the sterling performer is one of the outstanding backs in schoolboy football circles at present, breaking away for 11 touchdowns and kicking 13 extra points to amass a 78 point total, more than half of the team's scoring.

At fullback is Moody Alexander, the son of a Lubbock star in the mid 20's, on offense, with E. G. Sanders at wingback and Bob Beverly at blocking back.

Curtis, Israiel Out

Both regular ends and a starting guard will be on the sidelines at least part of the time. Tommy Curtis has a chipped hip bone and Clyde Israiel has a bad ankle. The wingmen have been ailing since the Paschal game and will be used on offense alone. Guard Tom Edwards has a bad ankle and is not expected to play.

In weight the Sandies and Westerners compare favorably, with Lubbock having a slight advantage. The Cowboy's starting line will average 188, while the tentative Amarillo forward wall hits 175. In the backfield the Sandies are heavier with the exception of 121-pound Sanders, and his weight brings the average down to 150. Newby weighs 162, Beverly 165, and Alexander, 153. Lubbock's four starters average approximately 158 pounds per man.

Offensive Duel Looms In Tech Clash

Red Raiders Stress Passes In Final Drills For Arizona U.

Saturday's important Border Conference football game between Arizona and Texas Tech may be an offensive battle, with the Red Raiders taking to the air extensively for the first time this season.

Coach Dell Morgan, dissatisfied with the passing attack and defense for the passer, sent the Raiders through a long session yesterday afternoon on both phases of the game. Coach G. B. Morris, in charge of the line, kept working on passer protection until it began to look better.

A quasi-scrimmage session resulted, with the freshmen, who leave today for Roswell and their Saturday night game against New Mexico Military Institute, trying to rush the passer. Only tackling was left out of the session. Before the drill ended, the passing improved and the passer's defense was improved sharply.

Defenses Look Better

When it ended, Coach Morgan shifted to defense for his offensive units, freshmen running Arizona plays under the direction of Coach Polk Robison. The Wildcats probably will complete passes, but the Raider defenses looked better before darkness halted continued drills.

Work today will be light as the Raiders rest for their second Border conference test of the year on Saturday.

Arizona wound up practice yesterday also and the 37-man Wildcat squad was due to board a train today, with a light workout planned in El Paso at noon. The squad arrives in Lubbock early Saturday morning.

Following are thumbnail sketches of some of the more outstanding players that Tech will have to watch Saturday:

Oscar Carrillo. A junior this year, Carrillo is a right halfback. He stands five feet 10, weighs 177 pounds and is rated as one of the top blocking backs in the conference. Led team with four pass interceptions in 1948.

Fowler Top Punter

John Fowler. Transferred from Orange Coast Junior college in California and is the top punter on the team. He is a right halfback and also is a tricky runner.

Bill Glazier. A sophomore end who has made the varsity in a big way. He stands an even six feet, weighs 175 pounds. Is one of two top pass receivers on the squad.

Charles Hall. Raider players haven't forgotten him. He pounds the line and last year ranked 28th nationally in rushing with 641 yards in 150 carries. He was sixth in the conference. A second all-conference selection in 1948, Hall is a line backer on defense and a ball-carrying demon on offense.

John Kelly. Kelly starred in spring practice and has moved into the quarterback slot on the basis of his ball handling and passing. He's a cool field general and an excellent passer.

Hal Richardson. A senior this year and one of top guards on Arizona squad. Richardson charges hard, is aggressive and will be after all-conference recognition this season.

Spilsbury Pass Snatcher

Max Spilsbury. Arizona's top defensive end and a good pass snatcher as well. He is 6-2 and weighs 175 pounds. Likes to crash offensive formations. Is university heavyweight boxing champ and has been top point winner in several rodeos.

Ed Wolgast. Three-letterman at left halfback and a star performer. Wolgast resembles Doak Walker in size, weighing 165 pounds and standing five feet, 11 inches. He ranked 21st nationally in total offense last year (third in the conference) with 1022 yards in 206 plays. His 41 pass completions in 85 attempts ranked him third in the conference last year. Wolgast is good on pass defense, is a deadly tackler and is exceptionally fast, with a good change of pace. He had 10 punt returns for 171 yards in 1948.

Pioneers Lose To Levelland

LEVELLAND, Oct. 21. (Special)—The Levelland B team spotted Lubbock's B team Pioneers seven points and then came back strong to defeat the visitors, 12 to 7, here last night at Lobo Field.

The game was highlighted by the sparkling passing of Pioneer Quarterback Sammy Sayers and Levelland's Jack Reid, each turning in a fine performance.

March 85 Yards

After a penalty nullified a Levelland score in the second quarter, the Pioneers took the ball on their own 15-yard line and marched 85 yards to score. A pass from Sayers to Halfback Billy Tucker set up the tally on the 14. Fullback Charles Northington plunged over from four yards out for the tally, with the conversion being made to put the Lubbock eleven out in front, 7-0, shortly before the half.

Second Pioneer Loss

The young Lobos came back strong in the third stanza, driving 70 yards for their first touchdown, with J. B. Lauderdale plunging over from the one-yard marker for the six-pointer. A 28-yard run by Joe Hayes and a pass from Ried to Hayes for 17 yards made the score possible.

After exchanging the ball several times, Levelland put on another drive, with a pass from Reid to Frank Burnet carrying 45 yards to the two, from which point Reid plowed over.

The loss was the second for the Pioneers, who also have three victories and one tie this year.

HARRIS SIGNS WITH NATS—Bucky Harris, (above right), flashes a broad smile as he pauses while signing a three-year contract to manage the Washington Senators, during a ceremony at Griffith stadium in Washington. Nats' Owner Clark Griffith watches as Harris makes major league history by becoming manager of the same club on three separate occasions. This season he managed San Diego in the Pacific coast league. Amarillo Tilt In Spotlight

(By The Associated Press)

The real toughies in Texas schoolboy football tangle tonight and the list of undefeated, untied teams is due to a trimming.

Top game of the heavy schedule matches Highland Park (Dallas) and Wichita Falls, a couple of undefeated, untied teams.

Right behind this tilt for public interest is unbeaten Lubbock's game with once-defeated Amarillo.

An estimated 5,000 persons will make the 120 mile trip from Lubbock to Amarillo for this one, by special train, plane, bus and automobile.

Only eleven teams in the City conference and Class AA sport perfect records. Two, John Reagan of Houston and Baytown, are unbeaten but tied.

North Side Wins

Four City conference games were played last night. Sunset stomped North Dallas, 47-0, in a Dallas district tilt; North Side beat Amon Carter-Riverside, 19-7, at Fort Worth; Austin blanked Jeff Davis, 13-0, at Houston, and San Antonio Tech crushed Lanier, 34-0, in San Antonio.

Lamesa, Ysleta, Grand Prairie, Henderson, Marshall, Port Arthur, Corsicana and Galena Park are the other undefeated, untied teams.

Port Arthur and Corsicana are idle this week. Galena Park may have a tough time with Galveston and the same goes for Grand Prairie with Mineral Wells.

Some of the top games tonight include Austin-Temple; Henderson - Tyler; McAllen - Harlingen; Hollis, Okla.-Quanah.

Minnesota Slated To Beat Michigan

ARMY PICKED OVER COLUMBIA

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Here are the results of another session behind the crystal football.

Army over Columbia: Columbia is the only team to have beaten Army since the days of Blanchard, Davis & Co. That upset came two years ago, 21 to 20. Army has personally advised Coach Lou Little that "it is ready this time." Ie could be a massacre but probably won't Kentucky over Southern Methodist; Perhaps Doak Walker's illness will inspire the other SMU players to do better but there is nothing to replace him. Kentucky is the nation's leading offensive and defensive club among the majors.

Minnesota Is Favored

Minnesota over Michigan: If Michigan gets its passing attack functioning, this could very easily go the other way. But with Minnesota this close to the Rose Bowl, why should the Gophers falter.

North Carolina over Louisiana State: The LSU backfield lineup hasn't jelled. It will take team work to subdue Charlie Justice and his mates.

Pittsburgh over Indiana; Pitt has a winning streak and the Hoosiers have lost all four this season. Neither string will be broken Saturday.

Texas Over Rice

Texas over Rice: The Texas injury list is supposedly a mile long with only one able bodied fullback available. But the Longhorns are the pick in a squeaker.

Oklahoma over Nebraska: Nebraska is rated on a par with Kansas and last week the all-winning Oklahomans trounced Kansas by three touchdowns.

Southern California over Oregon: This could be the Trojan's second straight defeat because Oregon has been waiting for this game since the 8 to 7 affair a year ago.

Alabama over Mississippi State: Two one-time greats meeting in mid-season with only one major triumph between them. Alabama has the stronger offense.

Baylor over Texas A&M: Baylor to continue amount the nation's dwindling list of unbeaten teams.

Souhtwest: Texas Tech over Arizona, Texas Christian over Mississippi, Hardin-Simmons over Houston.

Sundown High Will Dedicate Stadium

SUNDOWN, Oct. 21. (Special)—Sundown High school will formally dedicate its new $65,000 football stadium, Slaughter field, in a ceremony preceding tonight's Sundown- Muleshoe District 4-A (North) game.

Hockley County Attorney Bill Boedeker will make the dedication address at 7:45 o'clock. The Sundown High band and pep squad also will participate in the dedication ceremony.

As a special feature of the dedication, Miss Betty Seabolt is to be crowned "Sundown Football Queen" by Capt. Bobby Clark of the Sundown grid squad.

The new grandstand, seating 3,000 persons, has been used for earlier games this season, but this will mark the first time that the new fieldhouse has been used. The modernistic fieldhouse has two fully-equipped dressing rooms.

The Sundown-Muleshoe game, in which both teams are seeking their first conference win of the year, will start at 8 o'clock.

TCU Freshmen Edge Texas Ags, 21-9

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 21 (AP)—Texas Christian university's freshmen defeated the Texas A. & M. fish, 21-19, last night.

Melvin Fowler, Robert Snow and Bobby Harding scored touchdowns for the WOGS. Harding kicked three extra points.

Roy Rush recovered a TCU fumble for a touchdown in the second period and scored on Ray Graves' pass in the fourth period. Herbert McJunkin scored the Aggies' third tally. Darrow Hooper kicked one extra point.

Vanderbilt Stresses Passing In Workout

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Vanderbilt emphasized passing, line-blocking and pass defense yesterday in its last major session before the Arkansas game Saturday.

Coach Bill Edwards also sent Quarterback Bill Wade and fullback Dean Davidson through a long punting drill. Davidson, however, is not expected to play because of a two-week-old shoulder injury.

Both Vandy and Arkansas will take short workouts today in Dudley stadium.

Safety Man Is "Pass Threat"

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 — Joe Pavlikowski, who plays "defensive" safety man on Hughie Devore's St. Bonaventure football team, has returned four pass interceptions a total of 213 yards this season . . . He ran one back 99 yards against Dayton and another an even 100 yards against Canisius . . . And Darrell Loyal, Oklahoma quarterback, has intercepted 16 passes during his college career . . . No wonder a cagey coach like Kip Engle says he'd swap two pass completions for one interception . . . Most surprising publicity item of the college grid season is an open thank-you note from William and Mary to Michigan State, praising the wonderful hospitality displayed by the Spartans everywhere but on the field . . . Navy's Rip Miller says he's looking for "triple threat" players—from farms, mills or mines.

Writer Gets Glasses

George Krehbiel of Detroit, one of the few racing writers who can afford to own horses too, showed up in the press box recently wearing brand new type glasses . . . Someone told George he looked very well in cheaters . . . Krehbiel mugged a bit as he replied: "When I was being fitted with glasses, I told the optician I thought I would get through life without needing them . . . And what do you think the dirty bum said to me?—'You dang near did it.'"

High Fee Asked

Madison Square Garden is asking something like $75,000 for hockey television rights this season and $100,000 for basketball . . . And the TV folks are very reluctant to shell out unless they can find sponsors to pick up the tabs . . . Promoters of the Richmond Tobacco bowl festival want to get William and Mary and the U. of Virginia together for their game next fall. It probably would require an act of Congress . . . Lorne Chabot, jr., 20-year-old rookie goalie of the Tulsa hockey Oilers, has his sights set on the Vezina trophy, which his dad won twice . . . When Kansas U. began basketball practice the other day, the only 1948-49 regular missing was Bill Sapp. He's now coaching at Halstead, Kas., High school . . . Penn States new football press box has been tabbed "Coogan's bluff" in honor of the sports publicitor. Jim adds: "The connotation I don't like; the notoriety helps."

Sugar Bowl Scouts To See Ponies Play

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21 (U.P.) — Two Sugar bowl scouts will watch the University of Kentucky's undefeated and untied football team play Southern Methodist at Dallas Saturday, bowl President Frank Schaub said today.

He pointed out that the Sugar bowl begins preliminary discussions of its New Year's day lineup after five weeks of the season are past. This is the fifth week.

Control By Commissioner Assailed

National Loop Head Opposes Changes In Umpiring Setup

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—(AP)—President Ford Frick of the National League declared today he would be "unalterably opposed" to placing the umpiring staffs of the two major baseball leagues under the authority of Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler.

There have been seemingly inspired reports since the World series that the baseball commissioner means to introduce such a measure at the winter meeting here in December.

Plan Is Revealed

Under the purported plan, the arbiters of both leagues would be hired, fired and administered entirely from Chandler's office at Cincinnati.

The boys in blue, one informed source suggested, might even be made interchangeable between the leagues—working National and American league games impartially. In other words, one big, happy pool of umpires.

"Sure, I've read about it and I've heard it discussed," Frick said, "but that's all I know. Nothing has been said to me by the commissioner.

If and when it does come up, my answer will be the same, that I'm unalterably opposed to the idea. I would see it as the first breaking down of competition between the leagues, and competition has been the foundation of the game.

"In my view, the function of the commissioner's office is judicial, and not to take over the inner workings of the two leagues. Nowadays we have coal and steel commissions, but they don't run the coal mines nor the steel mills.

"Each league is just like a corporation, and it must run its own business. I think the commissioner's office is too big to concern itself with handling the umpires.

Kentucky Upset By Mustangs Forecast

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Rice's football-wise Owls fly against the Texas Longhorns tomorrow in the No. 1 spot on the Southwest conference hit parade.

Some 70,000 are due to jam into Memorial stadium to see this ancient struggle between two of the nation's top-rated teams. It can establish Rice as the solid conference favorite or it can project a glittering struggle at Dallas a week hence as Southern Methodist, victim of Rice, battles to get back into the championship running against Texas.

Rice Is Underdog

Rice finds itself in a somewhat surprising role—under dog to a team that wasn't rated in the first division before the season started. Those who put money on the line have established Texas as a 6½-point favorie. Rice, the team that beat the team picked by almost everybody to win the title, expected to lose to Texas!

Anyway, the touchdowns ought to flow in a steady stream as the two top offensive outfits of the conference battle it out.

Another conference game matching Baylor with Texas A. & M. and three intersectional jousts round out one of the most important schedules of the season.

Texas A. & M. will be making its last stand; it must win over Baylor or be eliminated from the title race. There appears little hope for the Aggies. Baylor, the only undefeated, untied team left in the circuit, should have little trouble with the Aggies even on their home field. Baylor is in an unusual position. It has the lone unblemished record in the circuit yet is not a conference favorite. The Baylors might be sore enough over this to run up a top-heavy score on the Cadets.

Doak In Hospital

In the feature intersectional battle, mighty Kentucky, rated seventh in the nation, plays a Southern Methodist team that not only has tumbled mightily in the ratings but faces the boys from the blue grass country without that man — dauntless Doak Walker. Walker is due to listen to this one from a hospital bed. On the hilltop comes a battle cry of "Win this for the Doaker." Matty Bell's embattled forces might do it, too.

Texas Christian plays Mississippi at Fort Worth in a night game. It's the second time for these schools to meet in less than two years. The other time was the Delta bowl when Ole Miss won 13-9. Mississippi has lost a couple of games. Texas Christian hasn't done much better but the Horned Frogs are moving back upward now. They ought to win this one.

SMU Is Picked

Arkansas plays tough Vanderbilt at Nashville. The Razorbacks are crippled but they're still an obstacle for the best. Without the great fullback, Leon Campbell, they are nowhere near the team that played Texas last week. But the Porkers ought to be even bets to win.

Our record for the season in the prognosticating line is 19 wins, five losses and one tie. Not good, not bad. Maybe this will improve it:

Baylor vs Texas A. and M. at College Station—What you gonna have in basketball at Aggieland this year? Baylor by four touchdowns.

Southern Methodists vs Kentucky won't be rated seventh nationally after this one; Southern Methodist by a touchdown.

Arkansas vs Vanderbilt at Nashville—Arkansas may not win in the Southwest conference but it's poison to outsiders; Arkansas by a touchdown.

Dunbar Beats Odessa, 25-0

Playing before a hometown crowd, the Dunbar Panthers shook off two straight losses to emerge with a 25 to 0 victory over the Blackshear High school Steers of Odessa last night at Chapman field.

An estimated 400 persons saw the Panthers, coached by Damon Hill, take the opening kickoff and drive for a touchdown, add another in the second stanza and push across two more in the third period to easily defeat the outplayed Steer team.

The opening kickoff was taken by halfback Otis Walker and advanced 30 yards toward the Steer goal, and four plays later after Halfback Lawrence Robinson had moved the gall to the two-yard line on a 15-yard jaunt, Fullback Eddie Bullock plunged over for the tally, Robinson running the ball for the conversion.

Colorful Center Returns

Standout center for the Panthers all season — Odell Gary — returned to the lineup in the third quarter after a seige of pneumonia following last week's contest in Abilene. He continued his colorful antics of arm-waving and zigzagging out of the huddle.

The half ended with the local team owning a 13-0 decision, and this margin was increased to 25-0 in the third quarter. The last stanza was scoreless.

Robinson displayed some fleet and fancy running in the second quarter, scampering 70 yards for a touchdown following an Odessa punt that died on the Dunbar 10 yard stripe. Two plays advanced the ball to the 30 and Robinson too the ball around left end for the tally.

The halftime intermission halted another Dunbar drive on the Blackshear High school 15-yard line, a pass from Robert Oliver to Arthur Jones carrying 25-yards to that spot.

Wasting no time in the third stanza, Joe Billy Hewing covered the fumble of an attempted Odessa pass on the Steer 15-yard stripe, and Robinson went over left tackle for the score.

Odessa punted to Oliver on the Dunbar 40 later in the third period, and he returned to the Steer 30. A few plays later he scored on a quarterback sneak from the 15-yard line.

On the last play of the third quarter Dunbar's Walker intercepted a pass. He returned it 30 yards to the Odessa 30, but Lubbock's drive was halted by penalties and an interception by R. B. Rand of Odessa, who was injured on the play and removed from the game.

Odessa never was able to threaten seriously. Their passes were wide and the ground game was unable to make headway. Defensive Guard C. R. Hamilton was a standout for the Steers.

Next week Dunbar plays Vernon here.

Dempsey Plans Sports Films

BY OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 — Producer Jack Dempsey whipped out with the old one-two again today against the boxing business and the motion picture industry.

The Manassa Mauler, looking almost as fit as when he wore the world's heavyweight crown, observed his debut as a motion picture magnate by asserting that:

1. It's about time the boxing trade started handling its young heavyweights right.

2. It's about time the movies quit handling athletes as mugs and stumble bums.

Makes Race Picture

Dempsey intends to personally do something about the latter. And he makes a good start in his first venture, "The Big Wheel," a thriller about the Indianapolis 500-mile automobile race. He'll coproduce one a year and negotiations already are under way to do the life of Joe DiMaggio, the Yankee Clipper, in addition to his own life story.

"It's about time to build up sports instead of knocking them down," Dempsey argued in that surprisingly squeaky voice which always startles you when it comes out of a big man. "Imagine how mothers feel when their boys want to be fighters and then they go to a movie and see crooked fights. It's the same in all sports.

"Good movies with a clean sports background can prove a real inspiration to the kids," he added. "And that's what I want to give 'em."

Joe DiMaggio Agrees

DiMaggio, sitting in on Dempsey's preview, nodded agreement. The Yankee outfielder, one of baseball's brightest names, and Dempsey, who will always be "the champ" to millions, were just fathers now. DiMag has an eight-year-old son, Joe, jr., and Dempsey has two daughters, Joan, 15, and Barbara, 13.

"Joan is in high school in Santa Monica and Barbara is in eighth grade," Dempsey went off on a tangent. "Joan wants to be a doctor now. But she's like all kids, maybe it'll be something else next week."

It was because of his desire to spend more time with his children, Dempsey revealed, that he started producing films. Heretofore he has been in the restaurant business in New York, in the oil business in Texas and traveling about the country refereeing and making personal appearances.

"I've been in and out of the movies off and on for 30 years," he chuckled. "But about five months ago was the first time I ever put any money into it."

"Not Handled Right"

With Dempsey it is easy to jump from any subject to boxing, for he never has lost his interest or personal touch with the sport. As for the heavyweight situation today:

"Nobody means anything."

What he meant, Dempsey asserted, was that none of the young fighters are being handled properly.

"Ezzard Charles isn't a bad fighter," he said. "But it is my personal opinion that he was handled poorly. The managers rush them along too fast these days and they don't know their business."

Dempsey also insisted that Joe Louis would return to action.

"Why else would he be making these exhibition tours?" he asked. "If he finds that he can get in shape you can bet he'll stage a comeback."

How does Dempsey think he would have done against Louis?

"It would have been some fight, kid."

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

By the time this piece is read, nearly 5,000 Lubbock fans will be on their way to Amarillo for what should be one of the finest high school football games of the year. The Westerners go after the game that really counts tonight, even though it has no bearing on District 3-AA. But fans believe that a victory over Amarillo is equivalent of a successful season and no one can tell them, as Coach Pat Pattison has been telling his team this week, that this is just another game. It isn't, to them. It's THE game. And who are we to question them? Since we aren't, we'll go out on the proverbial limb and pick Amarillo—to lose. The score? We have as much knowledge of it as Pat, but we'll guess Lubbock by 28-20.

• • •

Tomorrow afternoon fans have another treat in store for them, although the game will lack the color of the Lubbock-Amarillo contest. Arizona's vastly improved Wildcat eleven will offer the opposition to Texas Tech and it should be a fine game. The Red Raiders are due to win and bring their season's record over the .500 mark, but you can expect a hard game before the final score is tacked on the wall. The Wildcats have the type of team that can make trouble for any other and this might be their weekend to cause trouble. A defeat at this stage of the game for Tech would be tantamount to disaster. We don't look for it, but we do expect to see a good game.

• • •

Arizona will not be at full strength, not because of injuries, but because of a Texas law banning, in contests between state teams, negroes. One of the top players on the Wildcat eleven is Quarterback Fred Batiste, a Tucson negro who stands five feet 11 and weighs 165 pounds. He's a fine passer, a good runner, and even though Arizona lost to Hardin-Simmons, he was a standout in the game at Abilene. Long before Arizona was to come to Lubbock, college officials wrote Texas Tech a fine letter explaining that they recognized their position, but wishing to know whether Batiste could play against Tech in Lubbock.

• • •

Tech officials wrote Texas and Texas A. & M. to find out their present position on the matter, since negroes had played in the Cotton Bowl for the past two years. Both institutions wrote back that their policy was not to play against negroes in Texas, but that they would play against them outside the state. Both agreed that the time was coming when that policy would be changed, but for the present it remained in effect. As a result, Texas Tech officials wrote Arizona requesting them not to bring Batiste, so he will not play Saturday. It will weaken Arizona to some degree.

• • •

Incidentally, don't be surprised if Texas, Texas A. & M. and Texas Tech officials gather in the near future and change their present policy in regard to playing against negroes in Texas. Both the larger state institutions admitted that they were finding it incresingly difficult to schedule intersectional games on a home and home basis because of their stand. Teams in the East, North and West refuse to schedule home and home games when their entire squads will not be accepted. Rather than lose the expected revenues from such games, state colleges here are beginning to weaken on the position on which they have stood for years. You may not see it this year or next, or even the following, but there are indications the change is coming.

• • •

While we think of it, we'd like to time out to mention the Texas Tech band, which again is entertaining football fans with a first class intermission show. Director D. O. Wiley, as usual, has come up with as fine a college band as we've ever seen. Even though Tech wasn't in session when ACC was played, there was a band present. Against Texas A. &. M., the Tech band performed in such a manner that the larger, noisier Aggie band was put to shame. West Texas State college had a good band, but Tech's overshadowed it. The night of the Tulsa game, the Raider band was in finer fettle. And the bandsters topped it off with a great performance at Homecoming. Tech may not have the best football team in Texas, but we'll take the band as the best in the state.

• • •

THE ROUNDUP: Hope someone has cleaned the Tech pressbox windows by tomorrow afternoon. It's hard to see through dirt and smears . . . Arizona is seeking its first win over Tech since 1935 . . . Fullback Bud Conley tops Raider ground gainers with 310 yards . . . Tech was the only team to shutout Arizona last year . . . Bobby Layne is having a good year with the New York Bulldogs, but the Bulldogs are having a bad one . . . Bill Henderson's left ear was the color of a pomegranate after the fight Tuesday night . . . Wrestler Herb Parks of North Bay Ontario, Canada, said that the geese and ducks were just heading South when he left home recently . . . The Plains Athletic club at 223 College Avenue opened today. It's being run by Dingy Davis and Herbert Puryear, co-owners, both Lubbock boys.

Mississippi Players Are Reported Hurt

OXFORD, Miss., Oct. 21 (U.P.) — Mississippi will be forced to rely heavily on its sophomore backs in Saturday's game against Texas Christian at Fort Worth, Saturday, Coach Johnny Vaught indicated today.

As the Rebels went through a tapering-off workout yesterday concerned mainly with dummy work, Vaught said three of his first-string backs are ailing. They are Halfbacks Billy Mustin and Red Jenkins and Fullback John Dootley.

The 40-man Mississippi squad leaves by plane this morning for Fort Worth.

Three Texas Track Men Tie For First

AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (AP) — Three of four men on the Texas cross country team tied for first place yesterday as the Longhorns downed the North Texas State Eagles 12-25.

Low score wins in cross country running, first place being awarded one point, second place two points, and so on.

Longhorn Captain Dick Brooks, Don Sparks and Sophomore Tom Rogers hit the finish line in a dead heat with a time of 12:50.3 over a 2.6 mile course over Austin city streets.

Don Edwards of North Texas State was fourth with a time of 12:57.4. A teammate James Young finished fifth. Lowell Hawkinson of Texas was sixth, Ben Sparks of North Texas seventh, James Carruthers of Texas eighth and Robert Hoblitt of North Texas ninth. Carruthers' points were not counted as he was the fifth Texas runner. A North Texas runner pulled a leg muscle and was unable to finish.

Lew Jenkins Beats New York Fighter

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Lew Jenkins, 139½, Philladelphia, won a unanimous eight round decision over Ike Jenkins, 141½, New York welterweight before a crowd of 1,945 at the Met here last night.

The 33-year-old former lightweight champion out of Sweetwater, Tex., outboxed the New York negro, who stepped into the bout as a substitute for Durante Coletti. Coletti departed for his native Italy after being informed of the match with Jenkins.

It was a dull bout with the New Yorker carrying the fight in the early rounds. Jenkins rallied in the fourth and held the upper hand for the rest of the fight. There were no knockdowns and neither fighter was shaken.

Bowling Results

Three teams won matches by identical scores in the women's City Bowling league last night.

S & J took two of three games from Plamor No. 1, Miller and Miller took two of three from Home Lumber and Supply and Plamor No. 2 won two of three from Brooks Trailer Sales.

High scorers last night were Odessa Jackson, S & J, 141 for high single and Billy Rogers, 373, for high series. Peggy Gamble had high single and series for Plamor No. 1 with 141-395.

Catherine Royalty had high single and high series for Miller and Miller with 148-392, while Viola Limmer had high single and high series for Home Lumber with 145-379.

Mary Payne had high single and high series for Plamor No. 2 with 176-472, while Frances Huckabe and Lavelle Pletcher each had 144 single games for Brooks Trailer Sales and Huckabe had 352 for high series.

Pitcher Don Black of the Cleveland Indians beat all seven American League clubs during 1947. His only win in four decisions against the Athletics was a no-

PILOTS ARE NAMED

HOUSTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—Eddie Dyer, St. Louis Cardinal manager, and Al Vincent, manager of the Tulsa Oilers of the Texas league, will skipper teams in a benefit baseball game here Sunday.

There are about 14,500 pounds of steel in use in some form in this country for every man, woman and child in America.

Cottonseed Price Support Is Discussed At Capital Parley

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — A committee which arrived by plane from Lubbock Thursday afternoon resumed discussions of cottonseed support price problems with officials of the Production Marketing administration here this morning.

Objections to the present program were presented, with no solution being attempted immediately, at a preliminary session Thursday afternoon.

Spokesman was George A. Simmons, manager of the Lubbock Cotton Oil mill.

Says Plan Not Working

He said the government's recently announced plan to guarantee farmers $49.50 per ton for their cottonseed is not working out.

"There is a great confusion all along the line in the handling of cottonseed," Simmons said. "Very few farmers are getting $49.50, because they don't have the necessary storage. Ginners and millers are just as unhappy, because they cannot pay higher prices for cottonseed and still compete with products made from corn, soybeans, and animal fats."

Total Purchase Low

The government through the Commodity Credit corporation is willing to buy Texas cottonseed outright for $46.50 a ton but is actually taking over only a small percentage of the crop because buying centers are convenient to only a relatively small percentage of West Texas farmers, Simmons said.

He added that ginners now are giving farmers from $41 to $43 per ton for their cottonseed, compared with about $40 which they had been paying before the government launched its recent drive to bring the price up to $49.50.

Cites Market Squeeze

Millers who take over the cottonseed from the gins to process it into cottonseed cake, meal or oil cannot afford to pay over $43 per ton for cottonseed and still dispose of their output on a competitive market, he continued.

He said that if the government should increase its purchasing of cottonseed and store large quantities on the ground, as is done to some extent now, there "undoubtedly would be a large loss" if unfavorable weather should set in.

Simmons said his group suggested two possible solutions to the problem that the federal officials were desinclined to consider them favorably.

One plan proposed that the government contract to have seed it acquires crushed and then face the problem of disposing of the meal, cake or oil. The other plan called for a government price support on cake and oil.

Others here with Simmons include Roy B. Davis, W. Q. Fortenberry, and T. E. Patterson, all of Lubbock; Wilmer Smith, Tahoka; G. L. Jackson, Abernathy; Logan Sowder, Idalou; and Ray Grisham, Abilene.

Texas State PMA Director B. F. Vance of College Station, Texas, and Rep. Mahon (D-Tex) sat in on the conference.

Damage Suit Charges Actor Molested Girl

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Actor Jack Rutherford faces a $50,000 damage suit accusing him of molesting a nine-year-old girl actress in a pullman berth.

The suit was filed on behalf of juvenile actress Doreen Lane McMinn by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McMinn of Philadelphia. They charged that Rutherford entered the girl's pullman berth at Houston, Tex., last May 6, while both were members of an "Annie Get Your Gun" road company.

The parents asked $5,000 extra in their own right for alleged injuries to the child.

Rutherford's attorney said the actor declined any statement at this time.

Wasps Blamed For Noisy Broadcasts

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 21. (AP)—Armchair quarterbacks listening to broadcasts of Rutgers university football games complained that airplanes buzzing the stadium were making too much noise.

The local station looked into the matter. They found a large and noisy nest of wasps in the stadium broadcasting booth.

Infant Killed In Fall From Car Near Vernon

VERNON, Oct. 21 (AP)—Patricia Ann Carr, 14-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carr of Thalia, was killed today when she fell from a jeep pickup.

Mrs. Carr was driving the car. The rear wheel hit the child's head.

Missing Girls Send Record Of Voices

FREEPORT, N. Y., Oct. 21 (AP)—The fathers and mothers still can hear their daughters' voices. But where are the girls now?

"Don't look for us . . . we know how to take care of ourselves . . . there are too many places we can go for you to find us. . ." the voices say.

The voices come from a little phonograph record that arrived in the mail yesterday. It apparently was made in some penny-arcade in nearby New York City.

But the girls themselves have vanished. They left supposedly for Freeport high school Wednesday morning and never arrived.

Police said the three are Mabel and Barbara Batcher, 15 and 14, and their 14-year-old plamatee, Marylou Gross.

H. T. Chilton, oil transportation engineer for the Stanolind Pipe Line company, today spoke on "Oil Progress Week" at the American Business club luncheon meeting in the Hilton hotel. He was introduced by Charles Dunlap, industrial relations supervisors for th company's West Texas division. A film, "Tulsa Oil Parade," was also shown the club in connection with Oil Progress Week.

Final plans were mapped today for providing free chest X-ray service starting Tuesday at Tech by board members of the Lubbock Tuberculosis association at a luncheon meeting at the Hilton hotel. Jason Gordon said the X-ray unit will be moved downtown Nov. 2. Purpose of the campaign is to get as many persons as possible to take advantage of the free service to discover if they are victims of the disease.

about seven miles to the north. That was the last trace of its path.

Mrs. W. A. Wrinkle, who lived about a block from the Persons, saw the funnel before she rushed to a storm cellar.

"It sounded like a freight train going full speed past my windows," she told the Abilene Reporter-News.

The Walls of the Person's home exploded outward with the force of the wind, dropping the roof on the occupants. Mrs. Person's body was caught under that of the girl. Rescuers found the daughter under heavy lumber with several long nails driven into her body.

Back Broken

She suffered a broken back, scalp lacerations and body cuts. Doctors said her spine was severed and she would be permanently paralyzed if she lived.

The father had a dislocated shoulder, cuts and bruises, the son, head and body cuts.

It was still raining here today, after stormy weather all night.

Mrs. Person was a teacher at Fair Park grade school.

Besides the injured members of the family, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Montgomery, Monronia, Calif.; three brothers, O. E. Montgomery, San Rafael, Calif., J. E. Montgomery, jr., Monronia, and J. N. Montgomery, Tyler; two sisters, Mrs. L. O. Parsons, Abilene, and Mrs. Dick Sherk, Grant Pass., Ore., and her grandmother, Mrs. W. N. Montgomery, Abilene.

Today's tornado struck about five blocks from where one hit Sunday, May 21, of this year. The section is sparsely settled.

A 15-foot stone pylon and signs above radio station KWKC's building toppled onto the roof. Some of the stones crashed through the roof. News Editor Len Johnson of KWKC said the station also was damaged by water.

DAMAGE IS CAUSED AT TOWN OF AVERY

CLARKSVILLE, Oct. 21. (AP)—A tornado which struck the town of Avery, 15 miles east of Clarksville early today seriously injured Mrs. Oce Downs, about 25.

The woman was reported in critical condition at the Red River county hospital at Clarksville.

The tornado destroyed one home and damaged several others when it struck between 6 and 7 a. m. today.

human personality, "There shall be no exploitation of human beings." Bishop Werner said in the general session address. "They are sacred. Husbands cannot degrade wives without suffering vastly. Corporations cannot degrade persons—not only in the phase of treatment of employes but in the whole ramification of the distribution and consumption of goods. The liquor industry cannot degrade individuals. Christianity will never cease to wage this cause. Human beings are children of God: The man who drives the bus you ride on, leaves milk at your door, the woman who answers when you dial 'O' on the 'phone—They are all human beings, children of God.

Will It Do Good?

"We need to carry this idea of the divine worth of persons into the world of vocation so that man confronted with possible vocations asks not only, 'Will it make money?' but 'Will it do good?' He asks not only 'How much will it pay a week?' but 'Will it advance the Kingdom of God?' If we are sacred, all we do is sacred. This must function at the heart of democracy and motivate us in world missions. This practice must be integrated into our way of life."

Cold Wave Is Breaking Up

(By The United Press)

A western cold wave was breaking up today and temperatures began climbing again.

The cold front lost its punch as it moved eastward from the Pacific coast, where for a time it threatened Southern California's valuable citrus crop.

Experts said the crop escaped serious damage except for a few low-lying areas.

Roads Are Glazed

In Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico forecasters reported that temperatures were rising again today. The sun melted snow to slush in much of the area today and then it froze again, coating highways with a dangerous glaze.

Winds whipped up minor ground blizzards in part of Wyoming yesterday.

Snow continued to fall in the Rockies and northern plains states early today, but it had diminished. Four days of snow left 15 inches on the ground at Billings, Mont, 12 inches at Miles City, Mont., and eight at Casper, Wyom.

Fighters Are Missing

Three navy fighter planes which disappeared in a wind and rainstorm in Arizona were missing. Each plane carried only its pilot. The search centered in the mountainous area of southeastern Arizona, where a witness reported three planes flying low in formation yesterday.

The cold front extended as far as the Dakotas and Minnesota, but storm warnings issued for Dakota ranchers were withdrawn. Nevertheless, snow and rain delayed commercial air line planes in South Dakota, and automobiles piled up on slippery roads in North Dakota, where communications also were disrupted when lines snapped under the weight of ice.

county received an inch to an inch and a half of moisture, and some loss to the mature cotton crop was reported, said Lynn County Agent Bill Griffin.

Best estimates this morning showed that Slaton received 1.1 inches during the night. A small area around Post one-half inch, Snyder none and Sweetwater a light sprinkle.

The prediction was for temperatures in the 50's at Amarillo tonight during the all-important Lubbock-Amarillo football game.

Frost said tonight's minimum in Lubbock will be lower than last night, probably reaching as low as the upper 30's during the early morning hours Saturday.

The South Plains thunderstorm activity occurred from 11:30 o'clock last night until 2:15 o'clock this morning.

After Judge Medina announced the sentencing, most of the defendants smiled.

The sentencing followed the recommendation of U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohey that each defendant be sentenced to 10 years imprisonment. He made no recommendation for a fine although the law provides it.

This suggestion to Judge Medina came one week after the top leaders of the American Communist party were convicted of conspiracy to teach the forcible overthrow of the United States government.

"I don't say they could probably overthrow the government but they will attempt to do it," said McGohey.

Funeral Pending For L. E. Weathers, 67

L. E. Weathers, 67, of 2408 Fifteenth, died at 9:20 p. m. Thursday in West Texas hospital, after suffering a heart attack earlier in the evening.

Weathers came to Lubbock from Hobbs in 1946, where he had moved after having lived in Tahoka for about 30 years. He had been in ill health for several years.

Funeral services are pending the arrival of relatives. The body is at Sanders Funeral home.

Survivors are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Tony Gilson of Lubbock, and Mrs. Roy Walker of Fort Worth; and one son, Orvis, of Portland, Ore.

Tech Officials Get Department Report

More than a score of oil men and two members of the Board of Directors minerals committee of Texas Technological college this morning heard a report by W. L. Ducker, head of the college's department of petroleum engineering, concerning the work of the department during the past year.

The group recovered this afternoon to evaluate the report and recommend possible department improvements for the coming year.

Board committee members present were C. T. McLaughlin of Snyder and C. E. Weymouth of Amarillo.

Members of the Petroleum advisory committee present included W. B. Everett, jr., of Houston, Fred P. Wright, jr., of Midland, N. H. Davis of Houston, C. W. Seibel of Amarillo, W. J. McBride of Lubbock, Max K. Watson of Amarillo and O. F. Thornton of Houston, C. R. Bowen of Amarillo, Alden S. Donnelly of Midland, J. Constantine of Dallas, W. M. Osburn of Midland, C. I. Wall of Lubbock, Roland Goaldy of Wichita Falls, B. R. Schatarum of Midland and J. E. Warren of Midland.

Lubbock Fans

busload of parents, school board members and school administrators was making its departure. Among passengers were Supt. R. W. Matthews, Senior High Principal Floyd Honey, and parents of a number of the Westerner football stars.

More than 400 students took the special buses to Amarillo, but more than 1,000 Lubbock students will be present at the game, the others going by private automobile and other means of transportation.

A number of Junior High school and elementary students had also purchased tickets and were given permission to attend the game with their parents.

The chartered buses will leave Amarillo shortly after the game and will arrive back at Senior High school between 1:30 and 2 a. m., if they meet their schedule. Parents were urged to be at the school to pick up their children.

Special Leaves At 4 P. M.

R. H. Forbes, Santa Fe passenger agent, said it appeared that 300 passengers would take advantage of the gridiron special which leaves Lubbock at 4 o'clock this afternoon, arriving in Amarillo at 6:30 p. m. It leaves Amarillo shortly after the game.

Amarillo fans will provide courtesy cars to take Lubbock fans from the depot to the stadium.

A Pioneer airliner was scheduled to make a special flight to Amarillo, leaving at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon. Tickets were still available at mid-morning for $12.60 plus tax for the round trip. Arriving at 2:30 p. m., the plane is scheduled to leave Amarillo about 10 p. m., arriving in Lubbock by 11:15 p. m. Anticipating serious traffic snarls on the Amarillo highway, Capt. E. L. Posey today was repeating warnings to motorists to drive with extreme caution.

Alternate Route Suggested

He was disseminating advice to motorists to take an alternate route to Amarillo by way of Littlefield, Dimmitt, Hereford and Vega.

"There is only 27 miles difference and there will be much less traffic on that route," Capt. Posey commented. He indicated an announcement might be made at the game requesting as many persons as would to return by the alternate route, which makes the distance 155 miles instead of 123.

Six highway patrol cars from the Lubbock district and others from the Amarillo district were patrolling the U. S. 87 route from here to Amarillo. Patrol cars from Littlefield and Dimmitt were assigned to the alternate route.

Red Germany Claimed Ahead On Production

BERLIN, Oct. 21 (AP)—Russia claimed today that the East German republic is exceeding its two-year economic plan, but cited no production tonnages.

The official Soviet newspaper, Taegliche Rundschau, asserted the plan, which went into effect last January, was "overfulfilled" by nine per cent in the third quarter.

It said steel production had become two and a half times greater than in 1948.

Canadian Gives Bad Check To Officials

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21 (U.P.) William Decosta, 27-year-old Canadian, blithely "squared" his troubles with the law by handing authorities a $1,800 check to cover several bad ones he had written to finance a vacation trip.

But the big check bounced higher than the rest. Federal District Judge Herbert Erskine was told yesterday. Decosta was given a three-year probation sentence and turned over to the Immigration department for deportation.

Lynn County's Fair Launched

TAHOKA, Oct. 21 (Special)—A brisk north wind added a tinge of fall to the opening of the annual Lynn County Fair this morning and made for a more zestful opening day parade through downtown Tahoka this afternoon.

Miss Carolyn Middleton, senior student in O'Donnell High school was named "Queen of the Fair" in a contest this morning and rode in an honor position at the head of the half-mile long parade this afternoon.

Judging Scheduled

Hundreds of Lynn county residents, taking time out from their harvest of bumper crops, were flocking to the fairgrounds in northeast Tahoka following the parade.

Judging of swine was begun at 9 a. m. Friday with Jack Cleveland of Brownfield as judge. At 10 a. m., Geo. Samson of Post started the judging of agricultural exhibits; 1:30 p. m. Dave Sherrill, Lubbock county agent, will judge beef cattle and at 3:30 p. m., Leroy Colgan, Dawson county agent, will judge dairy cattle. The women's divisions will also be judged during the afternoon by Extension Service agents from the area.

Livestock On Scene

Herefords from Lubbock, Dawson and Lynn counties were in stalls this afternoon.

Tom Garrard of Tahoka is president of the fair association, which is offering more than $700 in premiums. D. L. Botkin of Tahoka is secretary and manager.

Albert Curry is superintendent of community exhibits; A. L. Dunagan, Dixie, agricultural exhibits; Ward Eakin, Draw, and Roy Botkin, New Home, swine; Cleveland Littlepage, Midway, dairy cattle; Geo. Claude Wells, West Point, beef cattle; and and H. R. Tankersley, West Point, merchants exhibits and machinery exhibits.

Mrs. G. P. Sherrod of Dixie is superintendent of the women's division and superintendents are: Mrs. G. L. Cobb, Wayside, bread and cakes, Mrs. Fred Hegi, Tahoka, textiles; Mrs. E. J. Cooper, Tahoka, antiques, relics and curios; Mrs. Rufus Slover and Mrs. Ruth Roberts, Tahoka, canned fruits and vegetables; and Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, Tahoka, plants and cut flowers.

Korea Asks Probe Of Jap School Closings

SEOUL, Oct. 21. (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today ordered his ambassador in Tokyo to investigate the closing this week of 260 Korean schools in Japan.

Rhee told his news conference he had heard some of the schools were financed by Communists and if that were true "I would like to know whether the Japanese government is closing all Japanese schools financed and supported by the Communists."

Rhee, a strong anti-Communist himself, declared he would not tolerate any discrimination against Koreans in Japan "whether they are Communists or not Communists."

Father Of Mrs. H. B. Bryan Succumbs

Information of the Thursday night death at Madill, Okla., of Norman Buck Dawson, father of Mrs. H. B. Bryan of 2408 Thirty-first, was received here this morning.

The 80-year-old retired farmer who decades before had owned and operated a ferry service on one of Oklahoma's streams had been ill three weeks. He lived with a son George at Ravia, and had retained his strength up to his last illness. Mrs. Bryan went to his side a week ago.

Funeral services will be read Saturday afternoon. Bryan, Lubbock county tax assessor-collector, and sons, Jim, 18, and Joe, 13, probably will leave here early Saturday morning to attend rites.

Mr. Dawson was the father of 12 children, 11 of which are living. Mrs. Dawson died in 1917.

New Church Building Will Be Dedicated

The new church building of Redeemer Ev. Lutheran church, Twenty-second and Ave. W, will be dedicated in services at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Sunday, the pastor, Rev. Karl W. Keller, announced.

A valedictory service in the old church will be held at 10:30 a. m., after which the congregation will march in procession from the old church to the new. Officers of the congregation will carry the Bible and church vessels and two members of the congregation recently discharged from the armed forces will carry the flags.

A brief ceremony will be conducted attendant to opening of the doors of the church. Rev. Mr. Keller will preach. In the afternoon service, Rev. R. A. Hingst, pastor of Mt. Calvary Ev. Lutheran church of Denver, will preach.

Visitors are expected from Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio, Olney, and Vernon, in Texas, Albuquerque, Clovis, Roswell and Hobbs in New Mexico and nearer places for the dedicatory services.

Boy "Mercy-Slaying" Suspect Faces Tests

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21 (AP)—The fate of Richard Elliott, 15-year-old who claims he mercy-killed his younger brother, is in the hands of two psychiatrists.

Juvenile Judge A. A. Scott appointed the specialists to examine the boy and return a mental report Nov. 14. The court will then rule whether Richard is to be held on an involuntary manslaughter charge in the death of his brother, Robert, 10.

Richard told police he fired a second shot into his brother's head after the younger boy had accidentally been wounded.

Men Are Held In Dope Case

PHEONIX, Ariz., Oct. 21—(U.P.)—Federal agents claimed today that they broke a $1,000,000 narcotics ring with the arrest of seven men on suspicion of running a major opium and heroin supply line from Mexico to the Pacific coast.

Eight carloads of agents and police closed in on six of the gang and seized them at their alleged headquarters in Yuma, Ariz., yesterday.

Leader Is Arrested

The reputed ringleader, 25-year-old Manuel Medrano, was arrested last night as he attempted to cross the Colorado river bridge from Yuma.

An eighth member was sought.

Those under arrest were scheduled for arraignment today.

Emmett Gleason, a customs official at Yuma, said government agents began searching for the ring four years ago when it was learned that supplies of narcotics were being smuggled across the border from Mexico.

Opium Is Bought

"Undercover agents have had the gang under constant watch and have bought more than $13,000 worth of opium with marked money," he said.

He said the arrests yesterday came after undercover agents made a purchase of opium from the gang. Later, he said, treasury officials found $2,000 in marked bills on Medrano.

No more narcotics were found in the raids, however, officials said.

Since heroin, an opium derivative, sells for $600 an ounce in the underworld, agents said, the gang probably had done more than $1,000,000 worth of business selling Mexican narcotics to distributors in Arizona and along the Pacific coast.

City Limits

Rodgers and Commissioners E. K. Hufstdler and Clarence Whiteside voted for all. Commissioners John Spikes and W. B. Price voted "no" on Four propositions affecting two areas.

Support Not Promised

All members, and Mayor Rodgers in particular, emphasized that their votes for calling the hearings did not commit them to the support of the actual annexation ordinances. These will come up for actions after the hearings.

Hufstedler's attendance at the meeting was unexpected. He is under medical care for treatment of a bronchial condition which led to a rise in his blood pressure. He has responded sufficiently to several days of treatment, however, that the attending physician approved his presence at the meeting.

Areas Are Listed

The areas on which annexation hearings were ordered follow:

1. North Lubbock between Avenue H and College avenue, and including Country club addition.

2. East Lubbock between Fourth and Nineteenth street and extending about two miles from the present city limits, which now cut through the fairgrounds.

3. Southeast Lubbock, including the Sieber addition.

4. Southeast Lubbock from the present city limits to about Fiftieth street and from Avenue A to a point east of the Slaton highway.

5. Southeast Lubbock from the city limits to about Thirty-seventh street and between Avenue A and Clutter's second addition. (Note: This area also is included in proposition No. 4. If No. 4 is approved after the hearings, No. 5 will be dropped because of its inclusion in the other). Price and Spikes voted against No. 5.

6. South Lubbock between Avenues H and Q and from the present city limits south beyond the Traffic circle.

8. Southwest Lubbock between Avenue Q and Monroe avenue and from Forty-second, the present city limits there, to Fiftieth streets.

9. Southwest Lubbock from Monroe to the Slide road, about two miles, and between Thirty-fourth and Forty-second.

10. West Lubbock from the present city limits to the Slide road, including nearly all the "Westchester" area, from north of Nineteenth to Thirty-fourth street. Spikes and Price voting against.

11. West Lubbock from the present city limits to the Brownfield highway, leaving out the Westchester area.

Officials explained that the approval of either proposition 10 or 11 automatically would eliminate the other.

Members of the commission were emphatic in declaring that if Westchester is left out, no money will be spent for such things as larger water and sewer lines in anticipation of the future annexation of the area.

City Manager Steve Matthews and City Director of Public Works R. L. Oldham estimated the provision of all the needs of the present city during the next year would cost about $4,000,000. Provision for the areas proposed for annexation would add about $3,000,000 to the estimate, they added.

78 Killed On Hunting Trips

(By The United Press)

At least 78 persons have been killed in hunting accidents since Sept. 1 with the nation's main open seasons yet to get underway, a United Press survey showed today.

The survey showed that 62 hunters died in gunshot accidents and 16 others due to heart attacks brought on by exertion or excitement.

Conservation experts said that, as usual, most of the fatalities could have been prevented had the victims or their accidental assailants displayed due caution.

Some hunters shot themselves as they climbed carelessly over fences with their guns loaded and the safeties off. Others were killed as they dressed out game which other hunters mistook for live animals.

But one Washington state hunter got killed because of the white sweater he was wearing. A fellow nimrod mistook him for an albino deer.

A bow-and-arrow hunter in West Virginia was killed by another archer who mistook him for game and sent clothyard shaft through his body.

State authorities throughout the land appealed to sportsmen to exercise more care than ever in the woods and fields this year. They said that with game, ammunition and arms more plentiful than ever since the war, America's open areas would be crowded and the slaughter of humans could be terrific.

The main deer seasons, usually the most deadly to hunters, were yet to get underway and the big waterfowl seasons on the Illinois and Mississippi flyways also had not opened.

Three tates bore the bulk of the tragedies. Washington had 11 fatalities since Sept. 1, Colorado 11, and Minnesota nine.

Most of the dead lost their lives hunting squirrels. Eighteen persons died hunting the furry-tailed rodent. Eight died hunting deer and the same number while after duck. The Dakota and Minnesota pheasant seasons claimed three lives. The remainder were killed while hunting miscellaneous types of game, many of which were still out of season.

In Wisconsin, a 14-year-old boy stumbled, his gun discharged, and the load of buckshot killed his 10-year-old companion. At Waterloo, Ia., two boys returned from a hunting trip, then scuffled for possession of a gun which discharged, killing one of them.

Veteran hunters reserved their sympathy, however, for an Idaho victim who bagged his first deer, then got buck fever so badly that he died on the spot of a heart attack.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP) — Grains had to absorbe a good deal of profit-taking today after their advance earlier this week. They took the selling with only minor losses in most cases.

Wheat and corn slipped under the previous close at times. Soybeans backed down a couple of cents. Widest losses were partly recovered before the final gong.

Oats, particularly the deferred contracts, continued upward. Both May and July made new seasonal peaks. Buying was based on the argument that these contracts are selling at too big a discount under both the December contract and the cash price.

Wheat closed ⅛-¾ lower, December $2.13¾, corn was ¼-⅞ lower, December $1.18¾-⅞, oats were unchanged to ⅛ higher, December 71, rye was unchanged to ½ lower, December $1.47, Soybeans were ¾-2¾ lower, November $2.28¾-½, and lard was 20 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $11.67-$11.70.

AIRLINE STOCKS SOUGHT

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP) — Highly selective demand developed today in a generally narrow stock market.

Most closing prices showed a mixture of minor gains and losses. Airline and meat packing stocks attracted better than average support. A handfull affected by special situations also improved.

Turnover hit a rate of around 1,300,000 shares for the full session.

The belief persisted in the financial district that the White House would take a hand soon in settling the steel and coal strikes despite officials indications that no steps have been taken — or even planned—in that direction.

International mining advanced about ½ point to a new high for the year following word that directors had voted a 25-cent dividend, first since a dime was paid in 1941.

Airline issues in demand — apparently because of favorable earnings reports, either already reported or expected — included Pan American, American Airlines, United, Eastern, and Transcontinental & Western.

Also ahead were Axmour, Wilson, Cudahy, Studebaker, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Consolidated Vultee, Allied Chemical, International Paper, and U. S. Gypsum.

Lower most of the time were Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Boeing, Radio Corp., American Telephone, American Smelting, Standard Oil (NJ), and Warner Bros.

Two Hurt In Fire At Hotel In Amarillo

AMARILLO, Oct. 21. (AP)—Two persons were injured today when they jumped to safety as fire swept the two-story frame Tennessee hotel in the negro section.

Hospitalized were Charlie Young, about 50, an employee of the Amarillo club, and Maud Johnson. Both jumped from the second floor.

About 35 guests, all negroes, were housed in the hotel at the time the fire broke out. Firemen did not know whether anyone remained in the building.

Freshman Nostalgia No Joke To Officials Of Colleges; Counselors Combat Problem

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (NEA)—On countless American campuser this fall, where brand-new freshmen are trying to adjust themselves to college life, there's a universal malady. It's homesickness

Freshman nostalgia is no joke to college authorities. The problem is greatest among students who never have been away from home before—and among boys from farms and villages confronted for the first time with life in a big city college.

For the freshman, the shock is probably toughest when West meets East—when a boy from Kansas or California runs up against what Assistant Dean Donald B. Miller calls "the cold, impersonal approach of the Easterners."

Works On Problem

Miller has been working on the homesickness problem as part of his duties on the staff of Columbia University's School of Engineering. Like many other colleges, Columbia attacks the malady before it becomes serious through a seven-man team of counselors who take over the freshmen the minute they put their bags down on the campus.

In colleges with such a program, there is little time for a new student to yearn for home. Without it, says Edward J. Malloy, jr., who directs the service at Columbia, countless freshmen would be "lost boys."

Counselors, all young men who may be either graduate students or staff members, are selected for their ability to organize social life for the neophytes. They live in the dormitories, and in the course of the first few weeks make it their business to know every freshman student in their province.

Homesickness is often the result of not being able to make friends easily, the counselors discovered.

"It's the boy who has to walk alone, behind the crowd, that we worry about," Counselor George Thompson explains, "and we make special efforts to see that he meets and makes friends with others. Sometimes we introduce students from the same city or state, and, sometimes we try to bring together fellows who plan to enter the same general field of study."

Today's college counselors are advisors rather than disciplinarians. At Columbia, for instance, such standard college-boy stunts as soaping door handles, pie-bedding and water-tossing are tolerated. It's only when the water bags start sloshing on the street sides of dormitories that the counselors ring down the curtain.

"We don't worry about run-of-the-mill pranks," Thompson and Miller agree. "But we do worry when there is no horseplay at all."

FIRST LETTER HOME is tackled by Columbia freshman Mario Mtchnik, whose yearning for home covers a lot more mileage than most new students. He comes from Buenos Aires.

Rites Set Saturday For Victim Of Polio

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 21 (Special)—Funeral services for Mrs. W. E. Whitfill, 29, of near Plainview, who died about noon Thursday at Lubbock Memorial hospital of polio, will be held at 10:30 a. m. Saturday at the Plainview First Baptist church. Rev. Hope Owen, pastor, will officiate, asisted by Rev. Cobb, Lockney. Burial will be in Plainview cemetery under direction of the Lemon Funeral home.

Mrs. Whitfill became ill Sunday and was moved to Lubbock Memorial hopsital Wednesday. It was not discovered she had contacted polio until shortly before her death, hospital attendants said.

She is survived by her husband, a farmer; two children, a son, Jimmie, 5; and a daughter, Judy, 15 months; her mother, Mrs. Ruth Swann of Plainview; and a sister, Mrs. Virgil Cloyd of Omaha, Neb.

She was a graduate of Plainview High school and attended Texas Tech.

Sylvio Reports On Starlet's Protests Against Mariage

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Orchestra leader Don Sylvio has reported how he married Margaret O'Brien's mother over the screen moppet's objection.

After a three-year courtship, Sylvio said in a court deposition filed yesterday. Mrs. O'Brien finally mentioned marriage in the presence of the 12-year-old actress. Said the statement:

"She turned to little Margaret and said, 'Margaret. Don and I may be married.' So Margaret said, 'oh no, mommie, no, no.'" Mrs. O'Brien was a little perturbed about it and said, 'Well, why Margaret? What is wrong, don't you like Don?' Then Margaret said, 'Oh, I like Don, but I want you to wait until I am 16 years old.'"

They were married in Palm Beach last Feb. 22. Mrs. O'Brien filed suit for divorce here several months later. Sylvio's deposition was filed for the forthcoming trial. He specifically denied charges by Mrs. Glayds O'Brien Sylvio that he demanded $200 weekly allowance, a new car and a house for his mother.

Second Mrs. Simpson In Royal Romance Back Home With Britain's "Catch Of The Season"

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (INS)—The second Mrs. Simpson to launch a Trans-Atlantic royal romance arrived in New York with Britain's most eligible bachelor Thursday—en route to the altar.

Giggling and showing her dimples, Mrs. Romaine Dahlgren Pierce Simpson posed for photographers with her handsome fiance, the Marquess of Milford-Haven, when the liner Queen Elizabeth docked.

Voyage Was Rough

The voyage from England was the roughest chapter yet in the story-book romance that started in a London cafe and is destined for a happy ending in St. John's Episcopal church, Washington, on Nov. 19.

The hurricane-lashed Queen Elizabeth arrived almost 24 hours behind schedule.

Lord Milford-Haven did all the talking for his hazel-eyed 26-year-old fiancee. Wearing a double-breasted bluish gray suit, a white shirt with a wide collar and a knitted tie, he braved cameras and reporters while Mrs. Simpson hid in her stateroom until the press promised not to question her.

Best Man a Briton

The marquess, a descendant of King George III, said the best man will probably be a Briton and that he will take his bride back to England after the ceremony.

He plans to establish a chain of American-style launderettes in England, an idea he picked up while on duty as a British naval officer here during the war.

ROYAL GREETING—The Marquess of Milford Haven waves a greeting as he and his fiancee, 26-year-old Mrs. Romaine Simpson, pose for photographers as they arrive on the liner Queen Elizabeth from England.

Then he produced his dark-haired fiance.

TOTAL BILL WILL RUN $5 MILLION

New Model U. S. Senator To Cost Public $50,905 Yearly

BY DON WHITEHEAD
AP Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—The 1950-model United States senator is going to cost the American taxpayer $50,905 a year—and up.

That's the package cost in salaries and expenses for a single senator and his office staff. The bill for all 96 of them will run around $5,000,000 a year.

The cost per senator went up about $3,000 a year this week when Congress voted the money to permit senators to increase the pay of their office help or add another worker to their staff.

One midwestern senator put the blame on the taxpayer for the high senatorial costs. He didn't want his name used.

"I'm snowed under with mail," Senator X said. "We get about 1,000 letters a day in my office. That means that five or six stenographers and clerks do nothing but handle the mail. I never see most of it. I can't. Because if I tried to answer each letter personally—I'd be doing nothing but dictation all day."

Pay Modest Enough

A senator's pay is $12,500 a year. It's generally agreed the salary is modest enough. A top-rank ambassador receives $25,000 a year plus expenses.

But the senatorial salary is only the down payment. The real cost is in the fine print. Take the case of Senator X:

In addition to his salary, he gets another $2,500 a year for expenses. This money is tax free. He need make no accounting of how he spends it.

The senator comes from a state with a population of less than 3,000,000. That means he can draw $35,400 a year for his office help. Each senator is entitled to at least six office workers, an $8,400 a-year administrative assistant, and an additional $6,720-a-year aide.

In addition to salary, expense money, free office rent, and office help, Senator X gets $105 worth of free stamps each year. This is outside his free mail privilege.

He also gets $400 a year for stationery. He can have 250 minutes of long distance telephone calls for free— or 50 calls. And he receives a payment of 20 cents a mile for travel pay at each session of Congress—the amount based on the distance from Washington to his home town.

If Senator X's state ever grows above the 3,000,000 population mark, he'll get more office help. The size of his staff payroll depends on the size of his state.

A senator from a 3,000,000-5,000,000 size state gets $36,900 a year for his office expenses: the 5,000,000-10,000,000 size gets $42,420; and the 10,000,000 New York size state draws $43,920.

The new law increased Senator X's office pay pool by $11,520. This raised it from $23,800 up to $35,400. But the increase isn't as big as it looks.

Now the senator must pay his administrative assistant out of the office salary pool. Heretofore, this assistant was paid separately by Congress and the cost was not included in the office expenses.

Assuming Senator X pays his administrative assistant the basic $8,400 a year, then he will have $3,120 left over. He can use the money either to hire a new office worker, to increase office wages—or both.

It so happens Senator X pays his top aide $10,000 a year. So he'll have only $1, 520 out of the $11,520 increase to give pay raises to his office help.

"None of us are starving," the senator said. "But this job isn't a gravy-train even with the extras.

Appliance Demand Is Up, Company Reports

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 21 —(AP)—General Electric company production can't keep up with current comsumer demand, GE President Charles E. Wilson reports.

Wilson said yesterday in a report to stockholders the irrespective of the steel strike "we will be unable to meet all production requirements for the balance of the year."

He reported a five per cen increase in net sales for the first nine months of the year. The total was $1,190,372,404 compared with $1,137,935,052 for the same period last year.

Junk Dealer Is Charged With Swindling Elderly Pawnbroker

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21 (AP)—A 37-year-old junk dealer was in jail here today facing charges that he stole more than a quarter of a million dollars from an elderly pawnbroker.

Nathan Brenner, the junk dealer, was accused in a grand jury presentment of swindling 83-year-old Harris D. Miller out of $282,026 in a quick-profits scheme to buy and sell carloads of steel.

Investigators said he had loaned Brenner a total of $1,600,000 over a 13-month period in the belief that he was investing in junk steel transactions.

Authorities charged that many of the carloads of scrap steel that were supposed to have changed hands in the dealings did not exist.

Brenner was held in $50,000 bail.

Buy Electric Christmas Gifts Early, Trade Specialists Say

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — People figuring on giving small electrical appliances as Christmas gifts—toasters, waffle irons, coffee makers, etc.—may be wise to shop early this year.

The advice comes from Commerce department specialists who keep close touch with trade movements. They reported today that dealer stocks already are low and the steel strike—if it keeps on much longer—will seriously cut the usual flow of last minute replacements.

Scarcities Seen

These officials also expect scarcities in such other electrical appliances with a high gift-sales rating as food mixers, sandwich grills, heater pads and electrically heated blankets.

Among the reasons they give:

1. Many new dealers in the field failed to realize popularity of these items as gifts and are just catching up on the fact that 25 per cent of annual retail sales in these lines take place in December.

2. Old and new dealers alike shied off building up stocks during inventory building periods in the early part of the year for fear of being overstocked in what many considered a time of declining business.

The iron and steel in the average automobile weigh about 2,600 pounds.

Situation Is Not Hopeless In Steel Strike, Mediator Says

(By The Associated Press)

The situation in the costly, 21-day steel strike, says Cyrus S. Ching, federal mediation chief, "is not hopeless."

But, Ching said in a statement in New York last night after conferences with U. S. Steel corporation officials, "we do not want to create the impression that there is a basis for optimism."

Ching's hint of hope, coupled with a warning against optimism, followed earlier comment by President Truman that he has no present plans for intervening in either the steel or coal strikes or for seizing either industry.

Talks Today

Ching's statement came as the continuing steel-coal tieups choked off much of the nation's industrial activity and made idle more than a million workers.

Ching and other top mediation officials planned to meet again today with representatives of "big steel." They hope to get the steel companies and CIO united steelworkers to resume negotiations and attempt to settle their dispute over free pensions.

There was some progress in the coal strike, insofar as the southern operators were concerned, but northern and western operators appeared hopelessly deadlocked with John L. Lewis. The groups were to continue their contract talks today, the southern owners at Bluefield, W. Va., and the northern and western operators at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Railroad Hard Hit

Lewis was not at the meeting which are aimed at settling the five-week-old walkout of some 380,000 miners. He was in Springfield, Ill., visiting his 91-year-old mother who is seriously ill.

Further curtailments of industry were reported because of the twin strikes. In New York City, the New York Central railroad announced that at midnight Saturday it was eliminating 89 steam-operated passenger trains because of dwindling coal supplies. Local, branch line and suburban service will be affected in 11 states.

Steel shortages, which have hit many industries, threaten to force the layoff of thousands of workers in the auto industry if the steel strike is not settled.

The first contract ending the walkout against one steel company was announced at the office of Philip Murray, CIO and united steelworkers president. It was with the Copperweld Steel company of Glassport, Pa., which employes 1,100 workers. The union said a six-cent non-contributory pension plan, which was recommended by the presidential fact finding board, was included.

Pensions Qualified

In the coal dispute, the southern operators have agreed to continue miner pensions under certain conditions and no longer will demand an end to the half-hour paid lunch period.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers association which represents about a sixth of the soft coal industry, said "it might be surprising how close together" the operators and union were on welfare fund coverage.

The union wants to increase the welfare fund royalty payments but has not specified the amount. The operators had balked paying 20 cents a ton royalty into the miners' welfare fund in absence of a new contract. Lewis has rejected the offer of northern and western operators to continue the present contract.

Other labor developments:

Officials of four striking railroad unions against the Missouri Pacific said they would decide today on a management proposal that the remaining union claims be submitted to arbitration. The strike over a long list of claims has been in progress seven weeks.

In New York, the CIO united electrical workers union studied an improved insurance and pension plan offered by General Electric Co., the union was expected to announce its decision on the proposal at resumption of negotiations today.

In Washington, the AFL international brotherhood of electrical workers said it would turn down a Westinghouse Corp. proposal to discuss pension-welfare benefits. The union said it wants to talk about a wage increase.

Barbecue Dinner Is Held At K. Carter

Patrons and friends of the K. Carter elementary school attended a chuck wagon barbecue dinner in the school cafeteria Thursday night. The barbecue dinner was arranged by the K. Carter Parent-Teacher association.

An estimated 375 to 400 persons were served during a two-hour period.

A four-piece orchestra composed of Hershel Cunningham, D. V. Matheny, Paul Golden, and R. C. Matheny played.

Proceeds from the chuck wagon dinner will be used by the P-TA to buy school equipment, Mrs. L. C. Peveto, P-TA president, said.

MEET THE MANAGER—V. T. McMullen, owner and manager of Mac's Flower Shop, 809 College avenue, and partner with Claud Hartgrove in Western Greenhouses on Brownfield highway, was born in Jefferson county, Mo., Aug. 4, 1904. His family moved to Grove, Okla., when he was 6 years old and he started to school there. They moved to Brownwood, Texas, in 1914 and he continued his education there. He moved to Lubbock in 1920 and started working in the florist's business. In 1939 he established his own business around the corner from its present location. He moved into the present building in the summer of 1945, and in 1947 he bought his interest in Western Greenhouses, wholesalers of flowers and plants. Ginger Rogers Given Lauren Bacall Role

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21—(AP)—Ginger Rogers will pinch-hit for Lauren Bacall, relegated to the dugout by the brothers Warner.

The studio's executive producer, Jack L. Warner, last night named Miss Rogers for the role in "Storm Center" that Miss Bacall turned down.

Warner said that the production will proceed without delay. Gingerlikes the story and the role she wil play, he emphasized.

Miss Bacall, wife of Humphrey Bogart, spurned the role and drew a suspension.

During its 15 years of operation the Federal Housing Administration has insured more than $16 billion in loans for buildings and improvements.

Romania Says Israel Urges Jews To Leave

BUCHAREST, Romania, Oct. 21 (AP)—Romania has charged and an Israel official has denied — that the Israeli legation here is trying to organize large scale migration of Romanian Jews to Palestine.

The government made the charge yesterday when it prevented 100 Romanian Jews from sailing for Israel on a passenger steamer. The ship sailed with 50 Polish Jews.

Denying the Romanian charge, an Israeli legation spokesman said it stemmed from a discussion the legation had with the Romanian foreign affairs ministry about transfer of Romanian Jews to Israel.

The Israeli spokesman said a large backlog of emigres had collected because of a transport shortage.

SHOOTING FOLLOWS GAY PARTY

Wife Of Air Force Officer To Be Charged In His Death

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 21. (AP)—District Attorney Fred Johnson said the attractive widow of a young U. S. ir force lieutenant would be charged today with murder in the fatal shooting of her husband following a gay party.

The widow, Mrs. Yvette Madsen, 22, is scheduled to be arraigned this afternoon. She now is in a hospital where she has been treated for shock.

Her husband, First Lt. Andrew E. Madsen, about 26, was shot by a .45 caliber bullet as he crossed the threshold of their living room near the Rhine-Main airbase early yesterday, U. S. air force officials said. Madsen's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Madsen, lives at Oakland, Calif.

Two Children Survive

Johnson, district attorney of the U. S. zone's fourth judicial district, said Mrs. Madsen would be charged under the section of the German penal law "which is our equivalent of first degree murder."

Mrs. Madsen's home is in New York state.

Johnson, of St. Louis, Mo., explained that Mrs. Madsen as the civilian wife of an American serviceman comes under the jurisdiction of the allied high commission civil court.

The couple resided at the allied community at the Rhine-Main airbase. They were the parents of two children, Dana, a four-year-old boy, and Nancy, 11 months.

Details Withheld

Air force officials declined to disclose details of the incident at this time, but said they were making an investigation.

Madsen was a ground officer in the military air transport service.

Friends said he also had been a pilot during the allied airlift to Berlin.

Neighbors said the shooting occurred about 2:45 a. m. following a party the Madsens had attended. Mrs. Madsen was placed in Rhine-Main hospital for treatment of shock and emotional upset after the shooting.

The all-time record steel production in the United States was 89,641,600 tons in 1944, a war year.

Five-Bale Yield On One Acre Claimed

MEMPHIS, Oct. 21. (AP)—A Mississippi farmer claims the phenomenal yield of five 500-pound bales of cotton from one "pet acre."

He is C. F. Peay, of near Maben, in Oktibbeha county. And he says he don't blame anyone for doubting his claim.

"I don't believe it myself until after the third picking," he told the Commercial Appeal today, "and then it was too late to have the whole thing authenticated so there could be no question about it."

But his neighbors don't doubt it. Scores of agriculture leaders and cotton men have visited the acre and many consider it a world's record for actual cotton production.

Divorced Mother Seeks To Get Decree Set Aside Through Son

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (AP)—A Nevada divorce still separated a father and mother today, despite their five-year-old son's legal effort to cancel it.

The lawsuit to set aside the decree, filed through the mother as guardian, was dismissed here yesterday by state supreme court Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter.

He said the mother could not do in the child's name what she could not legally do herself.

Damages Asked

Mrs. Francis Farah won the divorce at Reno in 1945 from a New York lingerie manufacturer, Henry Farah.

The new suit, brought in the name of their child, Ronald Henry Farah, said the father misrepresented his wealth in agreeing to pay $55 a week for the boy's support. The child asked for $50,000 damages.

When the suit was filed, the boy's attorney, Bernard Kaufman, said Mrs. Farah could not sue because she was a party to the divorce. He said the case would be appealed.

PLOT IS FOILED

SEOUL, Oct. 21 (AP) — Marine officials said today they had foiled a Communist plot to seize the cargo ship Kumchon and sail it to Red northern Korea. The 400-ton ship was about to sail from the southeast port of Fusan to Moppo, another southern port, when police boarded it and seized 12 suspects, including six stowaways.

MISSIONARIES WORKING

TOKYO, Oct. 21 (AP) — Fifty Christian missionaries, fugitives from the Communists in China, now are working in Japan, occupation officials said today. Thirty-five are Protestants and the remainder are Catholics. Most of them are Americans.

New, Homogenized Swift's Jewel Shortening Gives "Magic" Results in Cooking, Baking and Frying!

JEWEL CAMERA INTERVIEWS

TODAY'S QUESTION: Have you tried the new, homogenized Jewel Shortening?

Mrs. Karen J. Stotts, 2126 Browder, Dallas, Texas. "Yes, I have. I like the new Jewel especially for smokeless frying of steak and french fries. It's also better for piecrusts. I save 3¢ or 4¢ always when I buy a pound."

Mrs. W. D. Nikels, 1208 Peach Ave., Memphis, Tenn. "The new Jewel makes perfect biscuits and we have them every morning because my husband likes them so much. It's also good for frying. Certain shortenings like to smoke when you fry, but Jewel never smokes up my house. What's more, I save every time I buy and those pennies add up."

Mrs. Virginia Barnes, 513 Bourbon St., New Orleans, La. "Yes! The new, homogenized Jewel is just grand for everything—fried chicken, potatoes, lovely cakes and real good lemon pie. And oh, those hot biscuits! My husband can eat 8 or 10 every morning. I prefer Jewel to any shortening regardless of cost."

Mrs. R. G. Slaughter, 3409 W. Fourth St., Fort Worth, Texas. "I like it best of any I've tried—it goes farther and costs less. I save about 23¢ every time I buy Jewel in the large size. Although I've used Jewel for a long time, the new is even better. I use it for all baking and frying."

JEWEL'S HIGH QUALITY NEVER VARIES

Rigid Swift Quality Control and U. S. Government Inspection Assure Uniformity

When it comes to uniformity, the proverbial "peas in a pod" have nothing on new Jewel.

Its unvarying uniformity is due to two main achievements. First, because all Jewel Shortening is tested for quality at the refineries. A thorough, continuing system of Quality Control is constantly on the alert for any deviation in the Jewel formula.

Secondly, the new Jewel must pass a rigid U. S. Government inspection. Thus, each carton or tin of Jewel bears a U. S. Inspected stamp of approval.

In either event, it must be the best or it never gets to market.

MAN AND WIFE AGREE:

"JEWEL CAKES TASTE PERFECT!"

LIGHT, TENDER, FLUFFY . . . AND THEY COST LESS TO MAKE!

Faced with the problem of keeping hubby happy—and cutting down on food costs, too? Then here's good news!

With the new, homogenized Jewel Shortening you can cook to his heart's desire—and save money while you do. For new Jewel—although it costs much less than costliest brands of shortenings—challenges them all when it comes to results.

Praise from Homemakers

How true this is, has been borne out by extensive interviews among housewives throughout the South. In every case, enthusiasm for the new Jewel has been most gratifying.

In Memphis, for example, Mrs. J. A. Perry reported making a Jam Cake that would "just melt in your mouth!" While in New Orleans, another homemaker, Mrs. Alice H. Langston stated that her husband "just loves his biscuits made with Jewel!" Mrs. Langston added this further comment: "With the amount of shortening we use, we figure our savings on Jewel at about $8.00 a year. That'd buy plenty of eggs!"

As Swift's famous test kitchens have discovered however, Jewel's magic is not restricted to cakes and biscuits. Piecrusts, cookies, fried foods of all kinds, also benefit when Jewel is used.

Like Fried Chicken? Here's How to Add a Touch of "Magic"!

Developed by Swift's famous Martha Logan, here's a special fried chicken recipe featuring new Jewel Shortening. Just follow the 6 magic steps indicated for your convenience.

1. Clean, wash and drain a 2½ to 3 lb. (dressed) chicken. 2. Cut into serving pieces. 3. Measure ¼ cup flour and 2 tsp. salt into a clean paper bag. 4. Drop in each piece of chicken separately and shake until coated. 5. Heat enough Jewel Shortening to make ¼ inch depth in a large skillet. 6. Fry chicken over medium heat, turning until all sides are golden brown. Reduce heat, cover and cook about ½ hour, until tender. Uncover and cook ten minutes.

NO OTHER SHORTENING IS MORE DIGESTIBLE OR MORE NUTRITIOUS!

Don't be fooled—say scientists.

Just because a shortening costs more doesn't make it any more nutritious or digestible.

Actually, any fats—including the fine vegetable and meat-food fats found in Jewel—are among the most completely digested foods.

Furthermore, all fats are important in good nutrition. For they yield 2¼ times as many energy units per pound as either carbohydrates or proteins.

In other words, money can't buy a more nutritious or digestible shortening than new Jewel. Not even if you pay $10 a pound!

CHALLENGES THE COSTLIEST . . . COSTS MUCH LESS! SAVINGS OF 5¢ TO 7¢ A POUND REPORTED

There's a new "headliner" in the shortening field! The product is Swift's new, homogenized Jewel Shortening. Only recently introduced, it challenges all costliest brands. Yet it costs 5¢ to 7¢ less per pound.

The new Jewel has been created to a new formula and employs a controlled homogenization process in the blending of its fine vegetable oils and meat-food fats. The result is a product of highest quality with a remarkable smooth and even texture. No other shortening—regardless of price—is more nutritious or more digestible.

According to Martha Logan, Swift's nationally-known Home Economist, the new Jewel is ideal for cooking, baking and frying. Exhaustive tests in the famous Swift Test Kitchens show that Jewel-made cakes, pies, biscuits, doughnuts and fried foods rival those made with shortenings costing much, much more.

The magic results claimed for this new shortening have been substantiated by actual reports from homemakers. Scores have paid glowing tribute to tender, light cakes and flaky piecrusts made with the new Jewel.

The thriftiness of the new product has also come in for its share of homemaker's applause. Reports show that in many stores, the price for a pound of Jewel is from 5¢ to 7¢ less than for the costliest brands. Even those who use only moderate amounts of shortening thus save considerably.

JEWEL'S "SMOKE-POINT" 40° HIGHER!

Simple test proves it won't smoke up or smell up your kitchen like costliest shortenings!

Dramatic proof that Jewel is smokeless is offered by a recent test. In this test, Jewel was compared with the three costliest shortenings. And in every single instance, Jewel demonstrated a marked superiority.

The test consists merely of placing equal amounts of Jewel and any costliest shortening in two separate pans of the same size. To verify temperatures reached, a cooking thermometer (preferably two) is used.

As identical heat is applied to both pans the expensive brand will begin to smoke and give off odors.

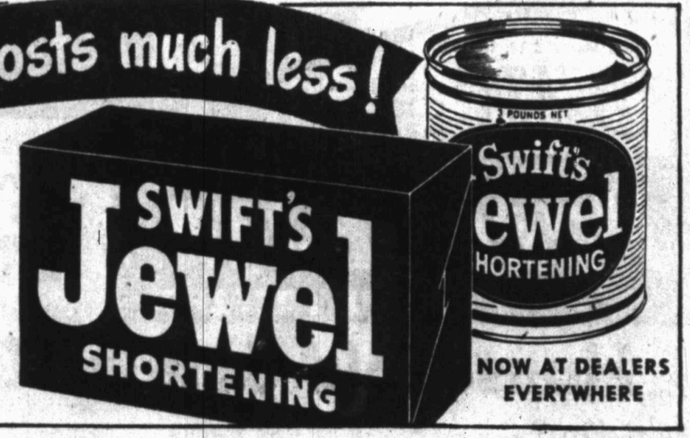

Not until long after the other shortening has been removed from the heat, does new Jewel show any evidence of smoke or smell. Jewel can, in fact, be left over the heat until its temperature is 40° higher than its competitors.

Home economists agree that the perfect deep-fat frying temperature is 365° to 375°. Expensive shortenings will begin to smoke at 360°. Jewel, however, could be heated to 400° before even a noticeable trace of smoke or odor would appear.

Challenges the costliest...costs much less!

A superior shortening for use in cakes, pies, biscuits and fried foods. Based on a new and different formula—blended by homogenization for extra smoothness and even-texture. So economical you can purchase 4 pounds for the same price you usually pay for 3 pounds of costliest brands.

NEW CABINET POST IS URGED

Dentists Against System Of Compulsory Health Insurance

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21 (INS)—Compulsory federal health insurance was opposed today in a health program adopted by the house of delegates of the American Dental association at its annual convention in San Francisco.

As far as dentistry is concerned, the dentists recommend that each community in the nation should establish a dental health program. Such projects would be supported where necessary by state and federal funds to make dental care available to all children.

The A. D. A. delegates urged that children be given priority over adults for dental services, adding:

"Dental care should be available to all regardless of income or geographic location as rapidly as resources will permit. Private and community programs should provide for priority treatment, prevention and control of dental disease in children, and for the elimination of pain and infection in adults."

Cabinet Status Urged

The dentists called for establishment of a federal department of health with cabinet status to function independent of welfare and educational agencies and to coordinate all federal health activities except those of the military.

Other major points in the proposed national dental program urged:

1. Expansion of facilities for the training of dental personnel.
2. Increased government and private support of dental research.
3. Construction or addition of dental facilities in all hospitals and health centers.
4. Creation of dental health divisions in all state health departments.

A statement approved by the A. D. A. delegates said:

"Voluntary prepayment and post-payment plans consistent with sound experience should be adopted and a federal compulsory insurance program should be opposed on the ground that it is not in the interest of the public or the profession."

Plan Need Recognized

The statement acknowledged the need for finding a more satisfactory financing plan to meet dental health service costs, especially for medium and low income groups. It suggested the "desirability of establishing experimental voluntary prepayment and post-payment plans."

At its closing session today the association installed Dr. Philip E. Adams of Boston as president and Dr. Harold W. Oppice of Chicago was chosen as new president-elect. Dr. B. C. Kingsbury of San Francisco was elected first vice-president.

Miss Evelyn E. Mass of Chicago was installed as president of the American Dental Hygienists' association, an affiliate of the A. D. A.

By a vote of 187 to 142, delegates chose St. Louis over Cleveland for the association's 1952 annual session. The 1950 meeting will be held at Atlantic City and the 1951 meeting at Washington, D. C.

Body Of Man To Be Returned To Ohio

The body of John C. Blohm today will be carried overland to Amarillo and sent by air to Toledo, Ohio, McDonald Funeral home announced.

Blohm, 72, a resident of Toledo, was found dead in a local tourist court early Thursday morning. An inquest verdict of death resulting from natural causes was to be returned by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace and ex-officio coroner.

Officers In Harris County Seeking Man Who Attacked Child

LA PORTE, Oct. 21. (U.P.)—Officers searched all of Harris county today for a man criminally assaulted a 10-year-old La Porte school girl after she left a theater here last night.

The child, a fifth-grade student, stumbled hysterically to the home of Mrs. Frances Decola around 9 p. m. and told of two separate attacks by a man who had sat beside her in a movie theater.

Police Are Called

Mrs. Decola rushed the girl to a nearby store and called officers. They immediately tabbed the case "one of the most vicious in the history of Harris county."

The child was hospitalized in serious condition. Doctors said she suffered 18 lacerations, but that the main injury was from the attack itself.

Gets Into Car

Incoherently, she told officers of the actions of a man who sat beside her in the theater. When she refused to talk to him and moved to another seat, he followed, she said.

As she left the theater, he followed and told her that her mother had sent him to pick her up. She got into his car, and he sped out to a spot near the Galveston highway, where the attacks occurred.

The little girl said she ran through a patch of weeds to the Decola home for help.

FIRST 50 YEARS TOO HARD

PORTLAND, Me. (U.P.)—Mrs. Alice Patriquin, who would have observed her golden wedding anniversary next January, has sued for divorce on grounds of desertion.

Condemned Sex Slayer Admits He Murdered Second Woman

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 21 (INS)—William Austin Watts, condemned sex slayer of an Indianapolis housewife, confessed to a second murder today.

The victim, he said, was Mrs. Mabel Merrifield of Indianapolis. The slaying took place in October, 1947—one month before the murder of Mrs. Mary Lois Burney for which he was convicted and sentenced to die in January, 1948.

Watts was taken to Indianapolis today from Shelbyville where special circuit court Judge William F. Marshall dismissed a previous murder indictment against him on the grounds that negroes were excluded from the jury that convicted him.

The former Indianapolis truckdriver had appealed the verdict to the U. S. Supreme Court last spring and the decision was reversed.

Today, Judge Marshall dismissed that indictment and ordered Watts held to the Marion county grand jury on $15,000 bond.

INDIA SENDS MANGANESE

NEW DELHI, India—(AP)—India's exports of manganese, an important dollar earner have been stepped up sharply this year. The Commerce Ministry reports exports in the first eight months totaled 384,893 tons compared with 194,569 tons in the same period last year. Much of the ore goes to the United States for stockpiling purposes.

Salvaging Scrap Steel From Destruction Of War A Business Worth Millions To Germans

BERLIN, Oct. 21 (AP) — Allied bombs brought Germany destruction and defeat—plus a thriving postwar business in scrap steel.

Out of the air-raid rubble in such cities as Berlin, Hamburg, Frankfurt and Duesseldorf, Germans are now digging twisted and rusted beams and girders worth millions.

Britain is a main buyer for exported scrap metal. A contract now being filled calls for delivery to England of 600,000 tons of high grade steel scrap before the end of this year. For it the German economy will receive $10,800,000. This scrap is worth about $18 a ton.

BOMBED BRIDGE in Berlin becomes scrap to aid Germany.

Scrap Recovered

Most of that scrap for Britain is coming from the British and American zones. Part of it is being fed into the export trade through the canal barges that lead from Berlin.

Erwin Schneier, salvage director of the West Berlin government's economic department, says scrap steel is flowing through the barge canals at the rate of more than 1,000 tons a day. At least 80 per cent of it is for export, the high grade construction steel with which Berliners built their reinforced steel and concrete buildings.

He estimates that 100,000 tons, worth $1,800,000, has been recovered and lies stockpiled in ugly twisted heaps on cleaned-out lots in the wrecked capital.

Schneier, a salage dealer for 20 years before the Hitler regime, also says there "probably is twice as much still in the ruins."

Steel Worth Most

Every Berlin street has its row of rubble heaps, and most of them have their wealth of scrap steel rearing grotesquely out of crumbled stone.

Pig iron and other less valuable scrap not wanted by overseas buyers is sent to Western Germany's blast furnaces. There it becomes construction material again for use in rebuilding Germany.

Bricks, stone and other items are also being salvaged to rebuild the nation. Millions of bricks have been sorted and stacked. Some war-ravaged streets now are huge brickyards.

But scrap steel is the biggest money-winner.

Ex-Steno Charges Sports News Exec Is Child's Father

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21. (U.P.) — A former woman employe charged today that Charles C. Spink, vice-president of the Sporting News, fathered her child.

Spink, son of J. G. Taylor Spink, head of the baseball publication, was married Oct. 8.

The accusation was contained in a $30,000 paternity suit filed yesterday against the younger Spink by Miss Mary Malin, formerly a stenographer for the News.

"No Comment"

Spink refused to comment on the suit but his attorney said:

"We deny all allegations emphatically."

Miss Malin's suit, filed in circuit court, alleged that she became acquainted with Spink in 1947 and was intimate with him following his promise to marry her.

The suit also charged that Spink is the father of a child born to Miss Malin and now living with her.

Milk Deliveries Are Started By New Firm

Another milk distributor commenced home deliveries of milk in Lubbock today.

The distributor is Maurice Cowan, 1937 graduate of the department of dairy manufacturers, who is representing the Tennessee Dairies of Dallas.

The milk is processed in Dallas, packed in paper cartons and delivered to Lubbock in huge refrigerated storage vans. Specially-built Divco refrigerated retail delivery trucks will operate out of Cowan's storage plant at Fourth and Idalou highway over residence routes in Lubbock.

Cowan, who formerly worked for ten years with a local milk company, has been wholesaling milk in this area since last summer. Trucks operate out of Lubbock to Tahoka, O'Donnell, Post, Brownfield, Levelland and Sundown.

In addition to the company's Gold Seal brand homogenized and cream line milk, other dairy products including buttermilk, whipping cream, coffee cream, half and half cereal milk, chocolate beverage, orange drink, cottage cheese, and butter will be sold here.

The dry refrigerated delivery trucks are insulated with four inches of cork and keep the dairy products at low temperatures throughout.

Cowan, who has a permit from the City Health department, has a total of eight employes here. He will operate three wholesale trucks and two retail delivery trucks at present.

The name Tennessee Dairies comes from the fact that a Tennessee farm boy established a dairy in Dallas in 1900 and four lack of a better name called it the Tennessee Farm Boy's dairy. It was later changed to Tennessee Dairies, Cowan said.

Federal Judge Is In Critical Condition

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (U.P.)—Federal Judge John Caskie Collet of Kansas City, a close friend of President Truman, was reported in "critical" condition today.

The 51-year-old jurist is being treated at Walter Reed hospital for a blood clot in the heart. Yesterday he was reported "somewhat improved.

Collet is being treated by Mr. Truman's personal physician, Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham. He was stricken here Sunday.

Give Tips On Proper "Business" Methods

Oklahoma City Officers Grab Bootleggers Etiquette Books

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 21 (U.P.) Books advising liquor runners on proper conduct in dry Oklahoma were seized in a vice-squad raid on an Oklahoma City establishment yesterday.

Officers arrested Ann Morris, 32, a telephone girl, and issued pickup orders for Harold Nichols, 32, and Harold Huggins, 30, known as "Nick" and "Hug."

The etiquette books for bootleggers gave this advice:

"Come to work clean-shaven and dressed neatly. You . . . will enter some of the best homes in the city.

Best Attorneys Furnished

"We do not have any patience with 'griping'. Remember the customers order merchandise, not your or our troubles.

"(Make) no rebates or discounts to anyone unless they purchase as many as six at one time.

"We pay two types of fines, 'possession' and 'vagrancy.' We ask you not to violate any traffic regulations. Therefore, we pay no fines if you do. Drive safely . . . if you are arrested doing the things we ask and expect of you we will furnish the best attorneys in the city . . . we are proud of the fact that not one of our employes has ever spent one day in jail.

"We have no 'credit accounts' or 'charge accounts.'

Police Fore Respected

"Any information you may have concerning our business or our customers' business should be treated confidentially.

"Never be foolish enough to underestimate or doubt the honesty, integrity, intelligence or ability of the police department. If you are caught . . . give the arresting officer every courtesy. In catching you he has done his job well and is entitled to your respect.

"Transact all business promptly . . . familiarize yourself with those bars in which you may deliver . . . do not drive in or park in customers' driveways unless the telephone girl tells you.

"We sincerely ask you for any suggestions you may have for the improvement of our business."

MEETING IS OPENED

DALLAS, Oct. 21. (AP)—The annual fall meeting of the Waco region of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church women's guild opened here today.

U. S. Speaker Urges Soviet To "Join" UN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21. (AP) —A State department official today invited Russia to "join the United Nations."

Dean Rusk, deputy undersecretary for political affairs, declared that up to now Russia has neither complied with its obligations under the charter nor carried out the purpose and principles on which the U. N. was founded.

In an address prepared for the Commonwealth club of California, Rusk said that despite the "exasperation" of other nations, "we should deeply regret" Russia's withdrawal from the U. N.

As long as Russia remains, he said, there is hope that "basic self-interest can eventually assert itself and compel the Soviet Union to work with the rest of us on a basis compalible with peace."

Rusk said he does not believe that the Russian people "can be persuaded forever that aggression is peace, that tyranny is democracy, that falsehood is truth and that suppression is freedom."

American steel production in 1948 was 88,533,729 tons, a peacetime record.

When you buy coffee it pays to be

Vacuum packing insures the freshness of coffee until the vacuum seal is opened. After that, air causes the coffee to begin losing freshness. Therefore, coffee should be purchased in a size container that will be used within a week. About 40 cups of coffee beverage, rich in flavor and aroma, as well as strength, can be obtained from a pound of coffee . . . so

If your family uses a great deal of coffee, or you entertain often, it's ECONOMY-WISE to buy the two-pound SIZE of Hills Bros. Coffee.

If you average about six cups of coffee daily in your home, it's WISE to buy the one-pound SIZE of Hills Bros. Coffee.

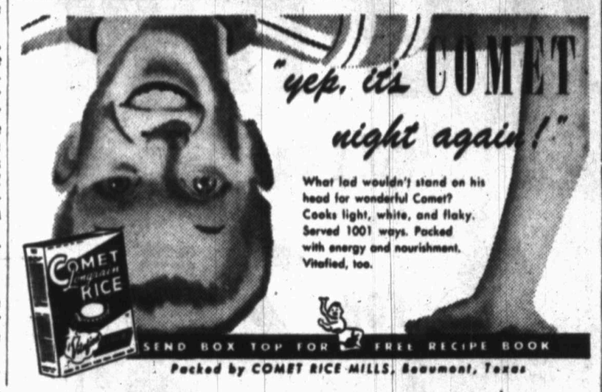

If only two or three cups are made daily in your home, it's WISE to buy the half-pound SIZE of Hills Bros. Coffee.

THE folks down at Brownfield really put the big pot in the little 'un on Wednesday with their third annual Harvest Festival.

Everybody in the Terry county capital city just took the day off from his ordinary pursuits and had himself a time with old friends, neighbors, and with thousands of visitors.

The Festival's parade featured everything from an elephant to very pretty girls and from booted and spurred horsemen to clowns. It was worth anybody's trip to Brownfield, not to mention an almost constant band concert, speeches by luminaries, the Queen's contest and the crowning of Miss Ann Snedeker by Movie Star Rod Cameron.

In short, Brownfield showed herself and her neighbors that West Texas is still West Texas; can put on a show with anybody and isn't too busy to take off and have fun.

In addition to being a lot of fun, Brownfield's Third Annual Harvest Festival was a rekindling of the old West Texas community spirit once much more of a part and parcel of this area than it has been in recent years.

What went on at Brownfield Wednesday was typical of what used to go on in numerous South Plains cities 20 and 25 years ago. Then a great many communities had annual events of one kind or another.

"Them was the days," if you'll believe an oldtimer, when West Texas was on the march civic-wise, seeking ever to advertise itself and to attract newcomers.

Then West Texas and the South Plains were pulling themselves up by the bootstraps and having a lot of fun and satisfaction doing it.

BUT BACK about 15 years or so ago, most of us out this way got powerful busy.

The country was growing by leaps and bounds, and didn't need shots in the arm by way of community undertakings. So one by one, most of the big community affairs went by the boards for awhile and then the war years finished them off.

But two years ago, Brownfield got the idea of the Harvest Festival and went to work. The first one was good, but not a money-maker for the Rotary club, its sponsor, which sought funds for various public endeavors. But the boys went ahead the second year anyway, and racked up about a 10 grand profit.

The figures are not in for this year yet, but Banker Clovis Kendrick told us Wednesday that it looked like the 1949 profits would approximate those of last year, giving the Rotary club more money to spend on such fine things as a band loan fund, school bus transportation and other public needs of the community.

Hiram "Hop" Parks, Brownfield showman and one of the sparkplugs of the Harvest Festival plan, told us that the most impressive thing about the whole thing to him was the co-operation the event gets.

"We don't only get co-operation here at home," he said. "We also get it from all our neighboring communities." To stress his point he waved at a half-dozen nearby bands, including the big one from Texas Tech, whose members had been brought in from South Plains cities; and to the Lubbock County Sheriff's Posse, whose horsemen always are so generous about helping out everywhere.

"Any West Texas city can have itself a big event of one kind or another," Mr. Parks said. "We of Brownfield can never get through thanking our neighbors all around for pitching in and helping us."

THE people down at Brownfield have a keen interest in interracial matters—not only at Harvest Festival time, but all the time.

They understand how important to this country are the itinerant workers of Mexican ancestory who come in each year to move the cotton crop. The Brownfield Festival has special features for the Spanish-speaking people, which accentuates interest in them there and may be partially responsible for the center Brownfield has for the pickers.

Brownfield has set, and is continuing to set, a fine example in its attack on the inter-racial problem.

Like every other growing city in West Texas, Brownfield is building all over the place.

Probably the most important piece of construction now underway there is a 16-unit, ultra-modern apartment building being jointly constructed by Mr. Parks and J. O. Gillham, a banker.

This building will cost well in excess of $100,000 and if it makes the hit Messrs. Gillham and Parks anticipate, they will duplicate it on property adjoining the first unit.

The apartments are of the type that would grace any city in Texas from Houston on down.

BOTH Hollywood and our good neighbors across the state line to the West contributed heavily to Brownfield's party.

Rod Cameron, the Western movie favorite, crowned the Queen, spoke on the program and rode in the parade—much to everybody's delight. Some of the boys wondered whether Cameron could really handle a horse and they were a little worried when they turned his mount over to him.

Cameron, looking just like any 6-foot 5-inch, flat-bellied West Texas cowpoke you ever saw, forked his horse without even touching a stirrup. He wore blue jeans and a blue denim shirt open at the throat, the conventional range hat and ordinary cowboy boots sans unusual trappings. He looked like he might just have "rid" in from checking the fences and windmills in the southwest pasture.

From Santa Fe came New Mexico's handsome, personable, friendly Lt. Gov. Jose Manuel Montoya y Cabeza de Baca del Rio Grande, who, in 15 minutes time, was plain "Joe" to everybody he met. His speech, in English and Spanish, was a highlight which made the audience cheer for him as mightily as they did for an old West Texas favorite, Harley Sadler, also an honor guest. Governor Montoya ought to feel as good about his reception in Brownfield as Brownfield felt about having him there. Any guy who can match applause with Harley Sadler in West Texas is doing all right for himself!

All in all, Brownfield's Harvest Festival was very worthwhile and, happily, it bids fair to grow and improve, year after year.

Other West Texas cities seeking outlets for their community spirit would do well to study Brownfield's Festival, then set out to figure themselves something of such a pleasant and profitable nature.

BY DREW PEARSON: VIRGINIA CONTRACTORS' INCOME-TAX CASE DELAYED INDEFINITELY

President Will Stand By Brannan Farm Program

WASHINGTON.—You can understand why folks get cynical about good government when you watch the parade of little income-tax evaders who are hauled to court every week, while certain big boys get their cases postponed interminably.

PEARSON

For instance, it has now been one year since this column—Oct. 19, 1948—first reported the shameless manner in which two road contractors living under the nose of Washington officials, had cheated their government in building the network of macadam roads which wind around the largest building in the world—the Pentagon.

The two contractors, W. J. "Doc" Hardy and F. McKenzie Davison had been caught by treasury agents quick-changing Uncle Sam out of $500,000 by all sorts of devious tricks. Among other things they made out checks to two other contractors, W. W. Thomas and S. M. Redd, who later gave T-men affidavits that they never received the checks. Instead Hardy and Davison forged the endorsements, cashed the checks, and deducted this as expense.

However, when the treasury and justice departments finally caught up with them, the two Virginia asphalt kings appealed to powerful Senator Harry Byrd, plus other Virginia politicians. A series of conferences followed. The Justice department listened patiently, but stood pat.

Last July the income-tax case of the two men who gyped their government on war-contract taxes was sent to U. S. District Attorney George Humrickhouse in Richmond for criminal prosecultion.

This writer, querying Humrickhouse in July, was told there would be no delay in prosecuting the Hardy-Davison case. It would come before the first grand jury in the autumn.

But when Mr. Humrickhouse was queried this week, he was evasive. The autumn grand jury had been in session for some time, but he said he had no immediate plans for presenting the case. In July he had said he was quite familiar with the case. But on Oct. 17, he talked as if it was something he had never heard of and devoutly hoped would be forgotten.

Note—Mr. Humrickhouse was appointed to his key job as district attorney through the powerful Byrd machine of Virginia.

Truman's Farm Bill

President Truman hasn't given up on the Brannan farm program, despite the kicking-around it received from Congress. It will definitely be the farm plank of the Democratic party's 1950 campaign, Truman recently assured National Farmers union boss Jim Patton.

"The current battle over farm legislation has had at least one good effect," the President told Patton. "It has served to smoke the boys out into the open. We know how they all stand, including some we expected to support us."

The President named no names, but obviously referred to Senator Clint Anderson of New Mexico and Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas of Illinois. The latter, though keeping out of the headlines, helped to lead the fight against the Brannan income-subsidy program in the Senate.

"I think it's time we took the whole fair deal program once more to the people—not only the Brannan farm program and the nomination of federal power commissioner Leland Olds, but everything else Congress has scuttled," advised Patton. "After all, it's the people themselves who have been victimized by this skulldoggery."

Truman agreed.

"The combination that fought the Olds nomination was about the toughest lobby I've ever seen," he remarked. "You're absolutely right. We've got to take it on and I have every intention of doing so."

WHILE prices of most British and Canadian goods have come down as a result of the pound's devaluation, the Canadian newsprint companies which usually operate as a cabal, have flatly decided not to reduce prices to American newspapers.

This means that the highest newsprint contract prices in history will continue.

It also means that the profits of Canadian newsprint companies will continue at their highest peak, while American newspaper profits are off considerably. Between 1945 and 1948 for instance, Canadian newsprint prices zoomed from $58.50 a ton to $100 per ton, with profits almost trebling.

Profits of such big companies as Abitibi shot from $10,101,512 in 1945 to $25,237,584 in 1948, while Consolidated's profits increased from $10,539,451 to $25,116,345.

The interesting fact is that when the shoe was on the other foot, the Canadians immediately put it on. In 1946 when the American dollar was pegged at $1.10 as against $1.000 for the Canadian dollar, the same newsprint companies jumped their prices by exactly ten per cent. But now that the exchange has been reversed, they refuse to drop their prices proportionately.

Note—Of course it was the newspapers which yelled loudest for the end of Chester Bowles' OPA and the price controls which kept newsprint at its low 1945 price. However, it's the small papers representing the backbone of a free press which get hit hardest in the present price gouge.

Moscow wants showdown—Intelligence reports from the Balkans indicate that Russia plans to infiltrate Bulgarian, Hungarian, and Rumanian troops into Yugoslavia to start a revolution against Tito. Moscow would then trumpet this to the world as a revolution by Yugoslav patriots and would march across the border. A top American diplomat just returned from the Balkans reports that Moscow is determined to force this showdown soon—partly because it now has the atomic bomb, partly because it is convinced the United States will not fight to defend Yugoslavia . . . The above facts are chief reason why all American ambassadors from the iron curtain countries have been summoned to meet in London.

Joe Louis Violated Sports Code By Speaking Of Money

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—Mr. Joseph Louis, the retired pugilist, said a horrid, horrid thing the other day. Some reporters were asking him if he had scheduled a flock of exhibitions to revive interest in the grand, grand game of boxing and Mr. Louis seemed irritated.

RUARK

"No," he said shortly. "I am not fighting exhibitions to revive interest in boxing. There is money in exhibitions. I am fighting exhibitions for money."

This is a terrible admission for any athlete to make. It is well known that money is of little or no interest to sport, even professional sport. All the athletes I ever knew worked (1) for the Lord (2) for the dear little kiddies all over the country (3) for mother and (4) for the team, coach or manager.

It has always been considered rude to refer to money in connection with professional athletes. Baseball, especially, has viewed the salary-size of its individuals with a frantic eye, like a lady watching a mouse. In the case of a DiMaggio or Ruth or Feller, where the annual take-home is large enough to be of publicity value, exceptions are made and the wage exploited. Otherwise, no comment—on the completely justifiable grounds that if you start to talk over-much of money, people will want you to give them some of it.

* * *

Williams Is Defended

I can remember the awful stir in Boston about three years ago when they formed a special defense against the Red Sox' slugger, Ted Williams. One whole side of the infield was moved to accommodate Williams' tendency to pull hits sharply to right field, thereby leaving a naked gap through which a child might have bunted safely. Williams continued to swing on the ball with all his might.

"They do not pay off on bunts," Mr. Williams said, haughtily. "You get the big dough for hitting home runs."

This mere mention of foul finance, in connection with the sacred game of baseball, caused screams and faints all over the circuit. It was as if Theodore had suddenly questioned the sanctity of motherhood. Such was the uproar that Joe Cronin finally commanded Williams to bunt—once, anyhow—to remove the stigma of commercialism from his lanky frame.

* * *

THE men I remember as having the greatest aversion to even a mention of money were Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators, George Preston Marshall of the Washington Redskins and Branch Rickey of the Dodgers.

Mr. Griffith was of the disdainful school of non-talkers about money. Griff considered that any money he did not personally own was a disgraceful and dangerous commodity, rather like the Russian's old view of the atom bomb. Griff thought that money was bad for people, especially ball players, and might lead them into all sorts of bad company and snide temptations. In his way, he did much to combat the sin of greed among his employes.

Much the same attitude is shared by the mahatma, Mr. Rickey, except Mr. Rickey also has a religious aversion to the high salary, or even the mention of money. Mr. Rickey has never liked money changers in any temple he happened to boss, and he knows full well that the root of all evil grows lushest on green paper.

* * *

Man Disliked Betting

There was something fairly evangelical about Mr. Marshall's feeling for lucre. Mr. Marshall was greatly averse to his players going out to Laurel and Bowie and Havre De Grace, to commit the mortal sin of betting the horse. This feeling extended to the whole population of Washington. So Mr. Marshall figured that if he kept salaries in hand, and occasionally jacked the prices of Redskin tickets, he had slain two Eagles with the same sling-shot.

Money was never a nice topic around the amateur football colleges or among the manipulators of the amateur tennis bums. Whether this was based on shame or just delicacy I am not prepared to say. Fight managers never liked to talk money, because it started their tigers to asking questions about expenses and such. You sometimes got the feeling that athletes were above money entirely, living off air and high spirits.

That's why Joe Louis' crack about dough shocked me so deeply. All these years I been thinking he was fighting for fun, or at least for home and mother.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

"WHAT qualities make a woman a good mother? Our child study club would like to have your answer to that question," writes one of my woman readers.

I'd say the number one quality is a genuine liking for children. A lot of women who love their own children because they are parts of themselves don't actually like children. Such women may work hard at being good mothers — but it doesn't come easy.

MILLETT

A good memory helps. If a woman can remember how she felt as a child it is that much easier for her to see things from her child's point of view.

THINK HOW YOU FELT

I'M sure the mother who yanks her child along a city street, the one who punishes a child first and asks questions afterward, and the one who embarrasses her child by punishing him in front of outsiders, are all women who don't remember anything about what it was like to be a child.

There's not much about the process of growing that can be hurried—so the woman who is impatient isn't well equipped to be a good mother, for she is always pushing her child and feeling frustrated when she doesn't get immediate results.

Few women, of course, have all the qualities needed to make a good mother. But children get along surprisingly well if a mother is aware of her shortcomings and is determined to do the best she can in spite of them.

'Try And Stop Me"

THE portly comedian, Jackie Gleason, entered a clothing store near Radio City and told the clerk, "I like that suit you have in the right corner of your window." The clerk replied insolently, "And who are you not to like it?" "I was considering boffing him on the nose." said Gleason when re reported the incident, "but he kind of won my heart by adding hastily, "Don't get sore, Mr. Gleason. I recognized you from your pictures, and was just trying to be funny. A kid about one-tenth your size once beat me up for pulling the same line on him. I remember as if it was yesterday. In fact, it was yesterday!"

OUR "UNEMPLOYMENT" FIGURES

There was nothing to surprise anyone in the report of the Texas Employment commission the other day that unemployment in the Lubbock area is declining. Considering the urgency of needs in the cotton fields, it is surprising there should be any joblessness worth mentioning.

True, some of the jobless are physically unable to snap cotton. But the needs of the cotton fields have created employment needs of many other kinds. Household domestics are difficult to obtain. So are yard workers. Openings also exist in many less strenuous occupations because those who held those jobs have gone to the cotton fields to make more money. Jobs are available now for almost anyone willing to seek and fill them.

Something stronger than suspicion is justified that most of the little employment which now exists does not result from inability to find work. It is due to the fact that some of the idle possess, or pretend to possess, a sense of "pride" so distorted they prefer to loaf rather than do the well-paying work which is available.

FOREIGN POLICY ISSUES EXPOSED

Secretary Of State Sizes Up Expansion Policy Of Russia

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (AP)—Here's how Secretary of State Dean Acheson sizes up Russia:

"The aggressively imperialist power of our times, seeking to expand its dominion where its grasp and its reach coincide, and to cause confusion and disintegration where its grasp falls short."

Acheson said in a speech last night that one set of problems in U. S. foreign affairs "arises from the conduct in international affairs of the Soviet Union" along these imperialist lines.

The secretary addressed a dinner of the Alfred E. Smith memorial foundation. The foundation was incorporated in 1946 "to perpetuate the ideals of Alfred E. Smith by raising funds to aid the poor, the sick and the underprivileged."

Acheson said there also is a second set of problems in American foreign affairs.

"Those" he said, "are the problems, economic, social, political, which arise, as in Europe, from the disruption of war and changed relationships with other parts of the world—as in Asia, from a great awakening of peoples to a new revulsion against the acceptance of poverty and hunger and to a consciousness of national independence. . .

"These two sets of problems are interrelated. The thrust of Soviet imperialism in eastern Europe or Asia affects not only those areas, but their relations with other nations. . . .

"Similarly, the success or lack of success of parts of the free world in gaining strength and stability affects the direction and figure of Soviet thrusts. So few problems are isolated. Most are part of a very complicated mosaic."

It is the American citizens, he said, "acting through public opinion and through the Congress, who decide the contours of our policies and whether those policies shall go forward or waver and stop."

The secretary said the State department must remain close to the people, and give them the facts they need to form their judgments.

"It must not be afraid to tell the truth when thatis painful and unpleasant, as it was in the China white paper," he declared. "It must not be afraid to recommend and fight for courses which are hard and long when any other course would be a deception and a fraud."

38 New Texas Firms Opened For Business

AUSTIN, Oct. 21. (AP)—Thirty-eight new firms opened for business, putting 647 persons to work during September in Texas, the Texas Employment commission reported yesterday.

Dallas led in a number of new firms with nine. Amarillo had six firms for second place. Austin followed with five. Waco, Longview, and San Angelo each had three new firms.

The new firms included 22 wholesale and retail firms hiring 408, three new contract construction firms hiring 26, nine manufacturing industries hiring 163, three service industries employing 43, and one new finance, insurance and real estate firm hiring eight.

JUDGE TO RETIRE

Nehru Invites U. S. Capital

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 —(AP)—Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's good will tour of America carries him to Boston today for an overnight stop.

He planned to visit Wellesley college, at Wellesley, Mass., Harvard university and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and to dine tonight in Boston with William Phillips, former ambassador to India.

Nehru last night told Americans engaged in foreign trade that India offers them profitable concessions if they will invest dollars in developing her basic industries. He addressed a dinner meeting of the National Foreign Trade council and the Far East-American council of commerce and industry.

Opportunity Promised

Nehru promised that foreign investors would have fair opportunity to operate "on a profitable basis and with some assurance of safety."

He promised there would be "no differential treatment of foreign capital" and that investors would have "necessary freedom to function."

He said India needs wheat, hydro- electric projects, and steel and chemical plants, from which other industries may soon grow.

The prime minister, who has jailed thousands of communist agitators, gave warning that "there is a fairly difficult labor situation to deal with in India." He said labor "must feel it is getting a square deal" from its employers, whoever they may be.

He did not elaborate on a statement that the government's policy toward foreign investment is "not unchanging." Members of the audience said they felt he meant the policy would be flexible to the benefit of investors and the government.

Soviet Construction Manager Is Claimed

MOSCOW, Oct. 21. (AP)—Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, announced today the death of Andrei Prokofiev, a leading Soviet construction manager.

Pokofiev was deputy minister for construction machinery enterprises. During World War II he was in charge of defense works on Russia's western front and later had charge of major industrial construction in the Urals.

Leading Soviet figures signed an obituary which appeared in Pravda. During his career he was in charge of building Moscow's largest factories including the Stalin autoworks, the Frazer lathe factory and the Kalibr instrument factory.

Judge Sets Hearing For Convict Nov. 12

BELTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — Judge Wesley Dice set Nov. 12 as the date for a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus for Eugene Padgett, serving a 99-year-sentence in the beating death of a Bell county storekeeper.

Will Sanderford was found dead in his store and filling station at Little River, Bell county, Feb. 12, 1931. Nine years later Padgett was convicted of murder and sentenced.

At that time he was serving a state prison sentence on a conviction from another county. Ernest Herring, with whom Padgett signed a joint statement, also was convicted and sentenced to serve 99 years.

Georgia Group Won't Accept "Yes" Reply

ATLANTA, Oct. 21. (U.P.)—Georgia's Gov. Herman Talmadge has found a road-seeking delegation that wouldn't take yes for an answer.

Georgia governors traditionally have been plagued with such road delegations. The governor said he has given only one group a definite promise they would get their road. But the delegation kept wrangling with him.

Finally in desperation he called state highway director James L. Gillis.

TEXAS NEEDS MORE REVENUE

Governor Declares State Has Not Lived Up To Obligations

MINERAL WELLS, Oct. 21. (U.P.)—Gov. Allan Shivers told delegates to the 27th annual meeting of the Texas Manufacturers association last night that Texas cannot support a champagne appetite on a beer income.

More and better services demanded by taxpayers cost more money, he pointed out. And the taxpayer should expect to pay the bill.

"The cost of state government has risen and will continue to rise," the governor said, "as long as the Texas legislature and the state administration are responsive to the requests of the people for more and better state services."

Obligation Unfulfilled

In a lengthy comparison of the costs of state government in 1909 and those of the present, he said the two-year general revenue budget for state services 40 years ago was $4,600,000.

Shivers said the figure now is $290,000,000. It is up to the taxpayers to decide, he added, if the state government is worth 60 times its cost in 1909.

Calling for a "prompt, business-like and courageous solution" to the building needs of state hospitals and other institutions, he said that Texas had not fulfilled its obligations to those of its citizens who are not able to care for themselves.

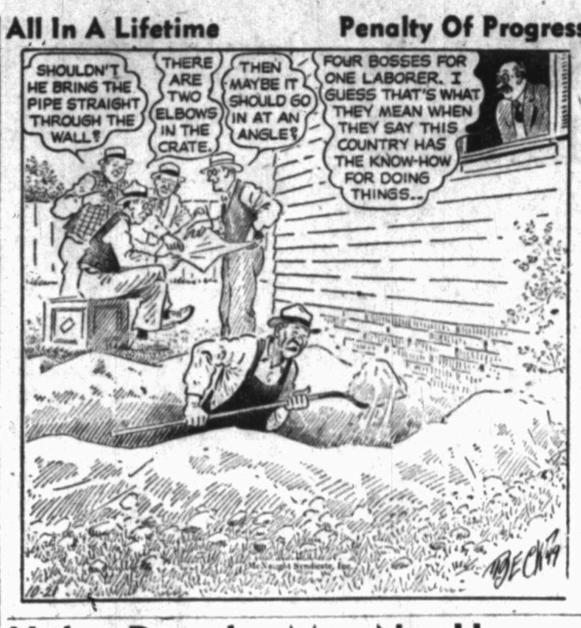

Texas, the governor urged, "must provide what is needed—and no more. To do more would not be good business for the state of Texas; to do less would not be worthy of Texas."

Another Son Is Born To Dorothy Lamour

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21 (AP) — It's two boys for Dorothy Lamour now.

The actress gave birth to Richard Thomson Howard, seven pounds, 2½ ounces, last night at Good Samaritan hospital. Husband William Ross Howard III, advertising executive, was on hand to greet his second son. The other is Ridgely, 3½.

All In A Lifetime — Penalty Of Progress

Helen Douglas May Not Have Husband's Aid In Campaign

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21 — Helen Gahagan Douglas will probably have to campaign for the U. S. Senate without the help of her actor-husband, Melvin Douglas.

He is reading play scripts and plans to return to Broadway after "Carriage Entrance." He starred last season in the moderately successful "Two Blind Mice."

"However, if I'm not tied up with a play, I'll be glad to do what I can," he said. "Of course, I don't think she needs much help. She has been doing all right by herself."

To Continue Films

Douglas plans to continue to make one or two pictures a year with plays in between. And what's the matter with staying here all the time?

"California makes you soft," he remarked. "You get lazy in all this sunshine."

Wendell Corey, on the other hand, prefers the sunshine — or maybe it's his contract. At any rate, he passed up chances to appear in the new Garson Kanin play, "The Rat Race," and in the Chicago company of "Detective Story." Having done five pictures this year, he's now in "No Sad Songs." Next: "The Furies," a western with Barbara Stanwyck and Walter Huston.

Remember Don Gift, the wistful fodderwing of "The Yearling?" He has been ailing ever since, but is playing a role in "You're Only Young Twice." Also in the cast are John Wayne's son Michael and John J. Pershing III.

Mae West Party To Huge Damages Suit

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21 (AP)—Mae West is a defendant in a new $10,250,000 damage complaint filed by that suing duet, Arthur R. Van Wyke and A. E. Harrison.

Van Wyke and Harrison, a pair of Los Angeles promoters who bandy billions like Rockefeller, sr. used to flip dimes, yesterday charged in federal court that Miss West and numerous other defendants had terminated contracts with them for a hotel, resort and gambling venture in Nevada.

It was incorporated under the name Diamond Lil, Inc. in 1946, they said. When Miss West and her group pulled out of the deal, Van Wyke and Harrison said they lost untold potential profits. They also don't want the name "Diamond Lil" used for a New Jersey night club.

The duo recently filed three damage suits against Standard Oil of California and others totaling $156,000,000,000. They alleged they had been deprived of potential profits from worldwide sale of a metallic lubricant.

Fully 84 per cent of the weight of an average passenger automobile is steel.

UN ROOF HASN'T FALLEN IN!

Yugoslavia Named To Security Council Over Russian Protest

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (AP)—Yugoslavia was elected to the security council over Russia's vehement protests but the roof didn't fall in and the United Nations went along with its routine today.

There was no indication when the consequences might come.

A Czechoslovak embassy spokesman in London said last night there is no prospect that the Soviet bloc nations would walk out of the United Nations as the result of the Yugoslav victory.

No Rift Seen

"No doubt," he said, "this is what many western countries would like us to do."

Secretary of State Acheson said here last night he didn't foresee any rift in the U. N. because of the election.

The Soviet Ukraine, which sits now as Russia's only teammate on the security council, doesn't vacate its eastern European seat until the end of the year. There was every indication that Russia and satellites until then at least, would pursue their usual course. They said Yugoslavia's election over Czechoslovakia would never be considered legal.

Vishinsky forced a brief, wry smile when on the first of two ballots Yugoslavia got 37 votes, only two shy of the total she need. ed. Yugoslavia won on the second with 39 to 19 for Czechoslovakia. But he sat through the session and so did the others of the Soviet bloc, including Foreign Minister Vladimir Clementis of Czechoslovakia.

Has Permanent Veto

Russia retains all her old power in the 11-nation security council. As a big five permanent member she has a veto that can not be overridden.

Yugoslavia may vote with Russia on a number of questions as she has continued to do in the general assembly despite the Cominform war against Marshal Tito. But Russia can never count on her for a sure vote or count on Yugoslavia to take up the Russian chorus in any statement of policy as the Ukraine did or Czechoslovakia would have done.

Russia opposed continuing a U. N. commission in divided Korea. It opposed in recent committee debate widening the commission's powers in an attempt to put down threats of civil war and to unify the country. The Soviets are sympathetic only to the northern Korea group which calls itself the peoples democracy government of the country.

Five South Plains Youths Win Honors

Several South Plains youths have won top honors with swine entered in the State Fair of Texas, according to an Associated Press report from Dallas Thursday night.

Dean Davis of Ralls took first place in the spotted Poland China judging in the junior swine contest.

Second place, Poland China lightweight barrows, went to Tim Prather of Muleshoe. This award also gave him the reserve champion of the Poland China breed.

Jimmy Prather of Muleshoe took second in the Poland China lightweight pen of three class. Weldon Warren of Dimmitt took second in heavyweight barrows, Poland China breed.

FBI School For Crime Study To Be Completed Here Today

A five-day FBI-taught school of instruction will be concluded today when members of Lubbock Police department attend classes from 1 to 3 and 4 to 6 p.m.

But the new type of criminological study—which plops "students" squarely into a simulated burglary or homicide or safe-cracking and lets them deduce their way out by collection of evidence—will be repeated in other South Plains cities.

Similar School Completed

Such a school will be convened Monday in Littlefield, the following Monday in Plainview, then in San Angelo and Big Spring. A similar school was completed last week in Borger. Within the next 12 months, approximately 50 of them will have been conducted within the Dallas field division of the FBI.

Here's the way such a learn-by-doing school operates: A "burglar" goes up to the window of a store and breaks in, managing to leave footprints, fingerprints, a smudge of blood, a button and other clues well scattered. He breaks into a safe, takes money and a pistol and makes his exit.

Conflicting Clues Found

Each patrolman is called upon to work out the identity of the burglar. But conflicting clues begin to be encountered after footprints and fingerprints are lifted and other evidence collected and classified.

An entirely new suspect takes shape in a maze of conflicting clues. Thus elimination of one set of clues is required along with recognition and assembly of others. Later, evidence so gained is presented in a full fledged simulated court.

Such a school first was staged by the FBI before the Sweetwater police. It became so popular that the FBI began getting increasing requests for similar ones.

Special Agents Instructed

Since it is difficult to find experts who can effectively teach such subjects, the FBI called in some of its special agents to Washington and gave them exhaustive courses that police departments might be interested in.

Through the resultant increase in schools of instruction, police personnel learned quickly some of the most evasive lessons of investigations, laws of arrests and points of court procedure.

The FBI has always evidenced a readiness to assist any qualified law enforcement group, and stands ready at any time, at its own expense, to furnish instructors to assist in any problems that arise.

FBI Agents Listed

Instructors of the Lubbock department are Special Agent Dwight M. Brightman, former resident agent here; Special Agent R. David O'Brien, former All-America grid star of TCU and winner of the Heisman and the Maxwell trophies in 1938; and two FBI special agents of Lubbock, Curtis L. Perryman and Edwin C. Dorris.

The FBI agents commended Lubbock Police Chief Lewis Kittrell upon the aptitude of his personnel.

Greek Rebels Claim Armed Forces Ready To Resume Warfare

LONDON, Oct. 21 (AP)—The rebel Greek Communist "government" last night said its guerrilla forces remained ready to take up arms again despite their recent cease-fire announcement in the Greek civil war.

"Not for a minute will we cease our struggle for the interests of the people and for their political and economic rights," said a rebel statement in Sofia, distributed here by Tass, the Soviet News agency.

The statement said the Communist guerrilla army "has not laid down its arms, but is holding them at the ready." Meanwhile, it declared, the guerrillas have "retreated before the huge material superiority of foreign occupationists, fortified by the treachery of ehe betrayer, Tito."

The rebel command announced earlier this week that the guerrillas had stopped fighting temporarily to halt further bloodshed in Greece. Greek officials in Athens derided the cease-fire announcement, declaring the rebels had been crushed in recent government offesives.

DISCHARGES CANCELED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — The Navy said today the scheduled discharge of several hundred workers in shipyards at New York and Norfolk have been canceled because of "high priority" work required on ships in those yards.

Boogie Woogie For Miserable Beings

PRAGUE, Oct. 21. (AP)—It may be all right on New York's 52nd street, but in Czechoslovakia "boogie-woogie is for miserable beings."

So says the organ of the Czech Youth organization, Mlada Fronta, which already has published letters attacking jitterbug dancing, ping pong, billiards and wolf calls at well-turned feminine ankles.

Mlada Fronta is angry now about a recent Prague dance at which "visitors showed their satisfaction with the degenerate western culture when they boogie-woogie."

"What was good for these miserable beings can never working youth," the paper declared. Then it added:

Newly-Married Groom Arrested For Murder

AKRON, O., Oct. 21. (AP)—Vincent Dalchuk, 21, arrested Wednesday just less than two hours after he was married, faced a first degree charge today.

He and Raymond Gallo, 22, are charged with beating John Zajac, 76, to death last Saturday in a holdup that police said netted just two dollars.

Dalchuk's wife, the former Elia Rae Corley, 17, was with him when he was arrested. She said she knew nothing of the slaying.

Saga Of Three Of America's Notorious Outlaws Revealed

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (INS)—The saga of three of America's greatest outlaws—one a beautiful woman—and how the famed Pinkerton detectives pursued them for ten years throughout the United States and South America was disclosed for the first time today.

The world's biggest private law enforcement agency announced it has opened its century-old files to author-newspaperman James D. Horan, who used the material for a book "Desperate Men."

"Sundance Kid" Was Aide

The files tell the story of Butch Cassidy, who headed an outlaw army believed to number nearly 500 men and who terrorized Utah, Wyoming, and Colorado, from 1882 to the turn of the century.

His chief assistant was Harry Longbaugh, known as the Sundance Kid, and a beautiful, but mysterious woman who rode with the gang, Etta Place.

The agency's papers give a documented outline of how its agents chased the trio from the Canadian border to New Mexico and then into South America, where the bandits introduced the American techniques of outlawry.

Trio Shot To Death

Before the trio was shot to death, they became story-book Robin Hoods, robbing and plundering Argentine, Bolivia, Peru before they came to the end of the trail in Uruguay.

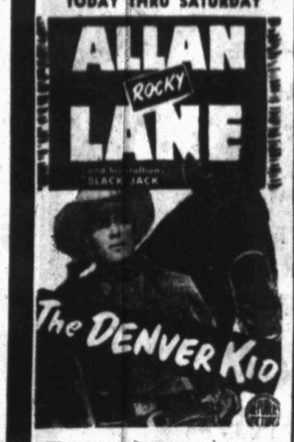

The Pinkerton agency was founded in 1850 by Allan Pinkerton, the protector of President Abraham Lincoln and the first spy in the northern secret service. He chased and smashed America's outstanding outlaw gangs of the last century.

Canada has 144 ports of entry which handle vehicles, 48 for railways and 81 at airfields.

THE QUESTION

THE ANSWERS

MRS. IVY G. SAVAGE, 2203 Twenty - Eighth, principal of Roscoe Wilson: "We try to teach it in all of our classes both directly and indirectly. We emphasize it in all our class work by having them share their information and their materials. We teach them to be good listeners in discussions as well as good talkers. In sports we have opportunities to stress democracy by showing them the importance of giving and receiving and winning and losing. In social studies classes we emphasize it by examples of people in history; our forefathers who have given examples of what democracy means."

MRS. RUTH CARTER, 2009 Seventeenth, principal of Brown Elementary School: "We believe that children learn the democratic processes by democratic living, therefore, we give them every possible opportunity to participate in the planning and management of school. The responsibility for room conduct is placed upon the children whenever possible. Complete freedom is given in the cafeteria in choosing eating companions and the group is responsible for the conduct of that table."

MR. G. E. DAWSON, 1902 Twenty - Fourth, principal of O. L. Slaton junior high: "We try to deal with democracy directly through social studies and indirectly through the student council and various club organizations. When the student council was organized two years ago, they set up their own laws, and now the representatives are elected by the students. Cheer leaders are also elected from each class by the students."

The London fire department has an asbestos uniform for its firemen. An asbestos umbrella is part of the equipment.

MRS. GEORGE DUVAL, 910 Ave. Q, second grade teacher in K. Carter: "Our opening exercise consists of the flag salute, the pledge of allegiance, and a little patriotic song. We also always have the Lord's Prayer. The children have a part in planning each of the four parties this room will have this year. We let all of them take an active part in planning and carrying out the projects of our room. We also try to help build democratic attitudes which make for harmonious living."

ISHMAEL HILL, 2214 Twenty-First, assistant superintendent of Lubbock public schools: "First we practice it by being democratic in all of our relations with the children. They study the background of democracy; the freedoms and responsibilities that are inherent in a democracy. Their participation in class room elections is another way they practice democracy. We see that the children fulfill the responsibilities assigned to them in the classrooms since assuming responsibility is just as important as accenting the freedoms."

MISS TRULA MAUD JETTON, 2006 Washington, principal of Sanders school: "We believe that our children are citizens of our community. It is our purpose to teach our children to share and to feel they have a part in planning our school and social activities. Our teachers think that teaching democracy is done best in leading the children to recognize the rights of others and to assume responsibilities."

Actress Given Legal Right To Film Name

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Actress Lizabeth Scott has cut one of the ties to her past.

The film player received court permission yesterday to use her screen name all the time, legally. She was born Emma Matzo in Dunmore, Pa., 26 years ago.

Hollywood Star To Drill Wildcat In Borden

Midland Firm Has Contract

Drilling is to be started at once by Don Ameche of Hollywood, Calif., and associates at their No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, scheduled 10,500-foot wildcat to explore into the Ellenburger in central Borden county, five miles west of the town of Gail.

The prospector will be 660 feet from south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 30, block 31, TP survey, T-5-N.

Carl B. King Drilling company of Midland has the contract to dig the venture with rotary tools. Equipment is now being moved to the drillsite and the project will be spudded by early next week.

Checkerboarded Spread

This wildcat is on a checkerboarded spread of 10,800 acres which was acquired several weeks ago by Ameche and associates for a cash bonus of $10.00 per acre.

The spread was secured from S. M. Spalding and associates of Beverly Hills, Calif., in a deal handled by Steve Currie of Midland and Sterling City.

The Ameche spread was half of a solid block of 21,600 acres which Spalding, et al, held. Stanolind Oil & Gas Company acquired the other half of the block. It is divided between the Ameche group and Stanolind in checkerboarded quarter sections.

PERMIT FO RWILDCAT IN GARZA IS ASKED

Rex Alworth, A. G. Shaw, of Ranger, and others, have filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting a permit to drill a 3,500-foot wildcat in southeast Garza county, five miles east of Justiceburg.

The project, No. 1 J. S. Reed, will drill to test the San Andres of the Permian, using rotary tools.

Location is 330 feet from south and east lines of section 135, block 5, H&GN survey.

NO GAUGE ON TOTAL FLUID IS REPORTED

C. L. Norsworthy, jr., and associates No. 1 Feldman, east-central Scurry county wildcat, ten miles east of Snyder, and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 63, block 3, H&TC survey, swabbed 24 hours on open hole in the Ellenburger at 7,340-57 feet.

The fluid which was recovered was 90 per cent wash water and 10 per cent oil. No gauge on the total fluid recovered was reported. The oil and water had a slight amount of gas with it.

During the 24 hours of swabbing the fluid could not be lowered below 3,000 feet from the surface. Operators were not able to determine what the fluid was which was coming into the hole

LUBBOCK EVENING JOURNAL

Lubbock, Texas, Friday, October 21, 1949

SHE WON'T ACCUSE HIM — Robert C. Davis, charged with shooting his wife, Gloria, eight times during a family quarrel last September, puts his arm around her as they appeared in a Gardena, Calif., court for his preliminary hearing on charges of attempted murder. She was cited for contempt of court when she refused to testify against him.

Still Loves Him Despite Shooting

Wife Had Rather Go To Jail Than Testify Against Hubby

GARDENA, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP)—"They can send me to jail if they want to," says Mrs. Gloria Davis, just out of the hospital after 23 days. "I love my husband and he loves me, and I will not speak against him."

The husband, Robert C. Davis, 38, was held yesterday for Superior court trial on charges of assaulting with intent to murder. Police said he shot his wife eight times.

Mrs. Davis, 34, was given a suspended three-day jail term for refusing to testify against him. Peace Justice D. Clifford Higgins, holding that the law exempting a spouse from testifying did not necessarily apply in this case, cited Mrs. Davis for contempt.

"You did not have a legally justified reason for refusing to testify," the justice said.

Texas Woman's Death Is Ruled Accidental

TEXARKANA, Oct. 21. (AP)—A verdict of accidental death has been returned in the death of Mrs. Catherine Clevenger, 57.

Mrs. Clevenger was found on the floor of her Hooks, Tex., home yesterday, her body tangled in a cord leading to an electric washing machine.

More than one billion tons of steel are said to be in use in America today.

O'Donnell Man Shot To Death

O'DONNELL, Oct. 21 (Special) Johnny Milner Johnson, 51-year-old O'Donnell farmer, was found dead of a gunshot wound about 1:30 p. m. Thursday, in a cotton field eight miles southeast of here.

A verdict of suicide was rendered by Justice of the Peace D. M. Campbell of Lamesa, at 4:30 p.m., after an inquest at Lamesa.

Search Party Organized

Cleve Barrington, deputy sheriff from O'Donnell, led a party in search of Johnson after he failed to appear at the Aten farmhouse for dinner.

Barrington said that Johnson, with his wife, had gone to the farm Thursday morning to pick cotton, but it was too damp.

Johnson then borrowed a 20-gauge shotgun from Joe Vanhouten, living on the Aten farm, saying he was going rabbit hunting, said Barrington.

Found Near Farm Home

Johnson's wife became worried when he did not return, and Barrington was called to aid in the search. Barrington, Aten, and Vanhouten found the body shortly afterward only half a mile from the farmhouse. Johnson had been shot in the head with a single blast from the shotgun. The body was not near field workers, and no one reported hearing a shot, Barrington said.

Barrington called authorities at Lamesa.

Justice Campbell said Johnson's wife told him that the farmer had been in ill health for some time, and had been released from a veteran's hospital only a few weeks ago.

Lived In Area Three Years

The body was brought to Lamesa by a Higgenbotham Funeral home ambulance. Services will be Saturday afternoon at the Rock Springs Baptist church in Mills county near Brownwood. Burial will be in the Rock Springs cemetery.

Survivors are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Ovella Orr of O'Donnell; a son, Herbert L. of Odessa; sev-

TEXAS SENATOR QUICKLY CLEARED

Grand Jury Returns No-Bill In Charge Against Johnson

AUSTIN, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Back in his native state today, U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson expressed no surprise that a felony complaint had been filed against him.

And he implicitly expressed pleasure that the complaint, charging him with "false swearing in an affidavit," had ended in a grand jury no-bill, almost before he knew about it.

Frank Hamer, former Texas ranger and longtime political lieutenant of ex-Gov. Coke Stevenson, alleged in the complaint yesterday that Johnson falsely accused him of trying to have results of last year's seenatorial vote changed in Jim Wells county.

Justice of the Peace P. L. Nairn, with whom the complaint was filed, had fixed an appearance bond of $500 for Johnson. It was posted immediately by three Austin attorneys.

Said Johnson: "We had this thing in district court, federal court, circuit court and supreme court. It also was before a U. S. Senate committeee. Not being a lawyer, I had not thought of the justice of the peace court."

THEY'RE SWAMPED WITH GIFTS

Two Chicago Girls Are Feted In Waco

WACO, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Two teenage Chicago girls who proved that Texans have no monopoly on pioneering spirit had their fill of southern fried chicken today and tried to keep pace with a warm Waco welcome that wouldn't quit.

It started early yesterday after the girls, Ruth Kenyon, 18, and Alice Michaelis, 19, completed a jaunt of some 1,000 miles that started on horseback in Chicago and wound up here with the pair driving a 1897 model one-horse shay.

Liked The Sound

"We just liked the sound of the name Waco," they explained. "We thought we might get a job on a ranch around here where there are plenty of horses. We love horses."

More than 3,000 Wacoans jamming streets and highways showed they "loved" the girls, too, as they moved into town with their horse, Pancho, and their two dogs, Shep and Clicka.

Merchants swamped them with gifts of blue jeans, cowboy shirts, western slacks, fancy belts and gaudy boots.

Mayor Mike Crow's present of the keys to the city opened up invitations to social affairs and rodeos that will keep Ruth and Alice busy for at least a week.

Traded For Buggy

"We left home seven weeks ago on our horses, but outside of St. Louis we decided to sell one of them and buy a buggy. It cost us $6," the Texas-tanned pair said, pointing to the aged vehicle drawn by the six-year-old horse whose harness was patched with wire and heavy cord.

Their speed was about 30 miles a day.

"Now we'd just like to sleep around the clock once in this fine hotel room they gave us," the girls said. "But everyone is so busy feeding us fried chicken and taking us around town that we hardly have time even to clean up."

Meeting Is Held By Air Reserve Group

A meeting of the 9172nd Volunteer Air Reserve Training group was held Thursday night in the Engineering auditorium on the Texas Tech campus. Approximately 60 persons attended.

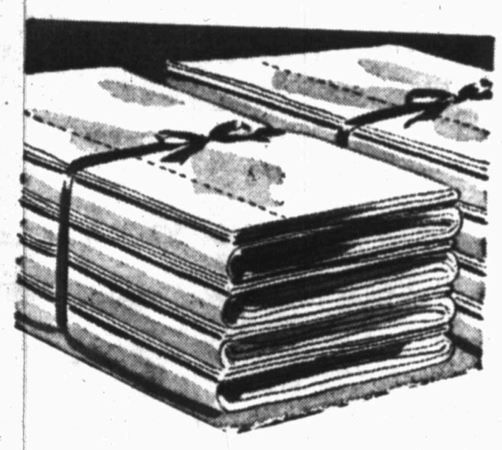

Members of the 9827th and 9828th squadrons were in attendance, and officers of the two units led discussions during the meeting.

Major Lester C. Weaver, Austin, of the 12th Air Force, who also attended outlined the new Volunteer Air Reserve Training program which was set up recently.

The program is for all enlisted men and officers of the air reserve who are not otherwise assigned.

Col. Robert T. Riordan, in charge of ROTC air training at Texas Tech, also attended last night's meeting.

Lt. Col. Harlan Hodges, commanding officer of the 7172nd VART group, announced that the next meeting of the group will be held Nov. 3 in Military Science Building 9-X on the Tech campus.

WE ARE AS NEAR AS YOUR TELEPHONE

Call us about our listings, try your best to get the locations, so you can just drive by, but it's a two to one bet that won't have any success. We're just naturally friendly at our office and just enjoy "driving-by" with our customers. Anyway we often go out to show a certain piece of property and end up by selling an entirely different property. Won't you call us, tell us your troubles and we'll tell you ours.

Hollywood Star Plans To Open Drilling Operations In Borden

The project was shutin at the end of the 24 hours of swabbing and at last report it was still shutin. After five hours of the shutin the casing pressure stood at 390 pounds and the tubing pressure registered 20 pounds.

The top of the Ellenburger is at 7,315 feet. The section from there to the total depth, which had been previously reported as being 7,362 feet, had a recovery of 4,492 feet of 46 gravity oil during a recent one-hour drillstem test. In addition that test developed 150 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut drilling mud. It did not show any formation water.

It had been reported several days ago that the 5½-inch casing had been set at 7,315 feet. That had been the original plan, but that was changed and the pipe was set at 7,340 feet. It is expected that the section between 7,315 feet and 7,340 feet will shortly be tested through perforations in the pipe.

LOCATIONS FOR FOUR OUTPOSTS STAKED

Ward Timlin of San Antonio has staked locations for four outposts to production from the Canyon reef on the southeast side of the north Snyder field of north-central Scurry county. All are to drill to 6,900 feet to test the Canyon reef, using rotary tools.

No. 1 P. W. Cloud will be located 467 feet from north and west lines of section 159, block 3, H&GN survey, and four and one-half miles north of Snyder.

No. 2 Cloud will be located 467 feet from south and west lines of the north half of section 159, block 3, H&GN survey.

Operations are to begin soon at these explorations.

Two other ventures have also been scheduled at the north Snyder field, both to test the Canyon reef.

Tide Water Associated Oil Company No. 1-A Dodson-House Unit is to be a 6,700-foot venture, located 665.7 feet from west and 653.4 feet from south lines of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 384, block 97, H&TC survey, and six and one-half miles north of Snyder.

Standard Oil company of Texas has staked another location in the north Snyder field as its No. 10-3 J. W. Brown.

Slated to begin immediately, No. 10-3 Brown will drill to 7,600 feet, using rotary tools.

Location is 650 feet from south and 680 feet from east lines of the north half of section 450, block 97, H&TC survey. That makes it 11 miles north of Snyder.

Judge Sacrifices Comfort For Honor

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—(U.P.)—Federal Judge Matthew F. McGuire can pride himself on being a man of principle— even if he is a little chilly today.

McGuire committed Robert H. Spencer to jail yesterday for operating a numbers racket. And he had a good reason to let him off.

Spencer is the man who fires the furnace at 2701 Connecticut Ave.

Drug Is Effective For Seasickness, Seattle Test Shows

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21. (U.P.) —A drug called dramamine has proved 95 per cent effective in stopping that bilious feeling some people get when they ride boats, tests at the Seattle port of embarkation showed today.

The drug was accidentally discovered by the allergy clinic of Johns Hopkins university in 1947 while it conducted experiments for control of hay fever.

Tests were started here on transports last May and the new drug proved not only effective, but also fast with results obtained within a half hour, medical officials said.

600 Persons Tested

More than 600 seasick servicemen and civilians were tested. Half the sick passengers were given dramamine and the other half were given a compound similar in color to the drug, but having none of its relieving properties.

Ninety-five per cent of the passengers given dramamine reported they felt better, while 57 per cent of the persons given the false drug said they got relief and 43 per cent said there was no difference.

The 43 per cent then were given dramamine and of those, 96 per cent claimed improvement.

SOBERING MOMENT

MINNEAPOLIS (U.P.)—The case of a tipsy driver who struck a tipsy pedestrian ended soberly with a $110 payoff. A $100 fine for drunken driving was levied on Edwin Severtson. A $10 fine was paid by pedestrian Dennis Curran, who wasn't injured to any extent.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK:

Section 1. That Section 15 of Ordinance No. 564, is hereby amended so that said section shall hereafter include the following section designated as Section 15A, which shall read as follows:

"Section 15A. That it shall be unlawful and an offense for any person, firm or corporation operating a vehicle to permit such vehicle to remain standing or parked upon any of the streets within any of the parking spaces hereinafter designated for a longer continuous period than the time limit stated in Section 7 between the hours of 9:00 o'clock a. m. and 6:00 o'clock p. m. on any day except Sundays and holidays officially designated by the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas."

Section 2. That Section 23 of Ordinance No. 564, is hereby amended so as to change and modify the parking meters therein referred to and to adjust the time limit of parking vehicles on that part of the streets herein designated, and said Section 23 is hereby amended to include the following provisions:

That a parking meter zone is hereby designated and established in the City of Lubbock, Texas, and said parking meter zone shall embrace that part of the streets hereinafter designated and limit the time of parking as follows, to-wit:

20-MINUTE ZONE

(a) TEXAS AVENUE on the East side between 10th Street and Main Street.

(b) TEXAS AVENUE on the West side from 10th Street to the North to the South boundary line of the American Legion property.

(c) BROADWAY on the South side the first 3 spaces West of Texas Avenue.

(d) 10TH STREET on the South side, parking space nearest the Southeast corner of the intersection of 10th Street and Texas Avenue.

ONE HOUR ZONE

(a) 10TH STREET on the South side from Texas Avenue East to the alley except the parking space nearest Texas Avenue shall be 20 minutes and an 18 feet loading zone placed adjacent to the rear door on the North side of the West Texas Gas Company building.

(b) 10TH STREET on the North side from Texas Avenue West to the alley.

(c) TEXAS AVENUE on the West side from the South boundary line of the American Legion property North to 9th Street.

(d) BROADWAY on the South side between Avenue "G" and Avenue "L" EXCEPT the first three (3) spaces West of the intersection of Broadway and Texas Avenue which shall be 20 minute parking spaces.

(e) BROADWAY on the North side between Avenue "H" and Avenue "L".

(f) AVENUE "H" on both sides between Broadway and 13th Street.

TWO HOUR ONE

(a) BROADWAY on both sides between Avenue "L" and Avenue "M".

(c) Avenue "H" on the East side between 10th Street and Main Street.

(d) AVENUE "H", both sides between 13th Street and 14th Street.

Section 3. All provisions of other ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance relating to parking meters are hereby repealed PROVIDED nothing herein shall ever be construed as repealing any part of Ordinance No. 564 except as herein expressly provided.

Section 4. That any person, firm or corporation who shall violate, or aid or abet another to violate any of the provisions of this ordinance and Ordinance No. 564 which it amends, shall upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED ($100.00) DOLLARS.

Section 5. This ordinance is passed concurrently with an ordinance regulating parallel parking and shall be construed consistent with the provisions of said ordinance.

Section 6. Whereas, congested traffic conditions on the streets in the areas above designated as parking meter zone has created a traffic hazard with overtime parking in said areas directly contributive to existing traffic hazards, and the need exists to adjust parking time limits within such designated parts of the streets named, concurrently with the passage of a parallel parking ordinance, all of which creates and constitutes a public emergency, which public emergency is hereby declared to exist and creates an imperative public necessity that this ordinance take effect from and after its passage and publication for one time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Lubbock, Texas.

Section 7. The City Secretary is hereby directed to cause publication of the descriptive caption of this ordinance together with the penalty clause as an alternative provided by Chapter 10, Page 112, Acts 1939 of the 46th Legislature, as amended by Chapter 264, Page 463, Acts 1947 of the 50th Legislature.

AND IT SO ORDERED.

Passed and approved first reading this 22nd day of September, 1949 by unanimous vote of the City Commission.

Passed and approved second reading this 13th day of October, 1949, by unanimous vote of the City Commission.

AN ORDINANCE DEFINING 30 DEGREE ANGLE PARKING AND CITY LIMITS, DEFINING AND PROVIDING FOR PARALLEL PARKING AND REQUIRING PARALLEL PARKING AS FOLLOWS WITH CERTAIN EXCEPTIONS: BROADWAY — ON BOTH SIDES BETWEEN COLLEGE AVENUE AND THE EAST CITY LIMITS PROVIDED THAT 30 DEGREE ANGLE PARKING IS REQUIRED ON THE NORTH SIDE OF BROADWAY BETWEEN AVENUE "G" AND AVENUE "H" TO SERVE THE POST OFFICE; TEXAS AVENUE—ON THE WEST SIDE BETWEEN 10TH STREET AND MAIN STREET; AVENUE "H"—ON BOTH SIDES BETWEEN THE NORTH AND SOUTH CITY LIMITS; COLLEGE AVENUE—ON BOTH SIDES BETWEEN THE NORTH AND SOUTH CITY LIMITS 19TH STREET—ON BOTH SIDES BETWEEN TEXAS AVENUE AND THE WEST CITY LIMITS AVENUE "A" EXTENDED—ON BOTH SIDES, TO INCLUDE ALL PARTS OF U. S. HIGHWAY NO. 87 TRUCK ROUTE THROUGH LUBBOCK; BETWEEN THE NORTH AND SOUTH CITY LIMITS AVENUE "Q" EXTENDED—ON BOTH SIDES TO INCLUDE ALL OF U. S. HIGHWAY NO. 84 BETWEEN THE NORTH AND SOUTH CITY LIMITS; 4TH STREET — ON BOTH SIDES BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST CITY LIMITS; 13TH STREET—ON BOTH SIDES BETWEEN AVENUE "G" AND AVENUE "Q", REQUIRING 30 DEGREE ANGLE PARKING ON TEXAS AVENUE—ON THE WEST SIDE BETWEEN 9TH STREET AND 10TH STREET AND AVENUE "G"—ON THE WEST SIDE FROM BROADWAY NORTH ONE-HALF BLOCK TO THE ALLEY; PROHIBITED ANGLE PARKING WHEN SUCH PARKING CAUSES ANY PART OF THE PARKED VEHICLES TO EXTEND MORE THAN 7½ FEET INTO THE STREET MEASURED FROM THE FACE OF THE CURB LINE EXTENDED; DIRECTING THE CHIEF OF POLICE TO MARK ALL PARKING SPACES ON THE DESIGNATED STREETS WHERE PARALLEL PARKING OR 30 DEGREE ANGLE PARKING IS REQUIRED OR PERMITTED; PROVIDING A PENALTY NOT TO EXCEED TWO HUNDRED ($200.00) DOLLARS FOR PARKING IN VIOLATION OF SAID ORDINANCE; RETAINING EXISTING LOADING ZONES; DECLARING AN EMERGENCY AND PROVIDING FOR PUBLICATION OF THIS DESCRIPTIVE CAPTION OF THE ORDINANCE TOGETHER WITH THE PENALTY CLAUSE BEING SECTIONS 9 AND 10 HEREOF.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS:

(a) 30 DEGREE ANGLE PARKING is here defined to be the standing of a vehicle whether occupied or not when the righthand side of said vehicle (or the longitudinal axis of said vehicle) is standing at an angle of 30 degrees with the face of the curb or the center line of the street.

(b) CITY LIMITS — The term City Limits as herein used shall mean the City limits of the City of Lubbock as they now exist or as such City limits may exist by reason of any extension or annexation of additional areas to the City of Lubbock.

SECTION 2. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person to park any vehicle on that part of any street hereinafter designated unless such vehicle be parked parallel to the curb and the righthand front and rear wheels of such vehicle be within one foot (1') of the curb line, or unless such vehicle be otherwise parked in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 3. Parallel parking as provided in Section 2 of this ordinance is required on that part of the following highways, avenues and streets in the City of Lubbock, to-wit:

(1) BROADWAY—On both sides between College Avenue and the East City limits PROVIDED that 30 degree angle parking is required on the North side of Broadway between Avenue "G" and Avenue "H", to serve the Post Office.

(2) TEXAS AVENUE — On the West side between 9th Street and 10th Street.

(3) AVENUE "G"—On the West side from Broadway North one-half block to the alley.

SECTION 4. On any street in the City of Lubbock where parallel parking is required or permitted and where the curb is removed and the space is used for angle parking 30 degree angle parking, as that term is herein defined in Section 1, is permitted PROVIDED that no part of the parked vehicle extends more than 7½ feet into the street measured from the face of the curb line extended.

SECTION 6. Where a parkway is used in common with a street and designed for parking purposes, parallel parking is required EXCEPT where adequate parking space is provided in the parkway to permit 30 degree angle parking and no part of a parked vehicle extends more than 7½ feet into the street measured from the face of the curb line extended.

SECTION 7. The Chief of Police is authorized and directed to mark all parking spaces on the streets named herein to indicate parallel parking or 30 degree angle parking consistent with the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 8. The Chief of Police is authorized and directed to place marks of uniform color and size at the location of all parkway parking areas, 7½ feet into the street and parallel to the curb line extended so as to indicate the motorist the boundaries of vehicular parking limits as herein provided for.

SECTION 9. Any person who shall violate any provision of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding TWO HUNDRED ($200.00) DOLLARS.

SECTION 10. Any person who shall park or permit the parking of any vehicle in any manner except according to the marks placed on the streets pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined not exceeding TWO HUNDRED ($200.00) DOLLARS.

SECTION 11. All ordinances regulating parking on that part of the streets herein designated, are hereby repealed, EXCEPT that the provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed to eliminate or in any manner affect "loading zones" heretofore or hereafter authorized by the Governing Body, and the provisions of this ordinance shall be construed consistent with Parking Meter Ordinance No. 564 and amendments thereto affecting the highways, streets and avenues herein designated.

SECTION 12. The Governing Body of the City of Lubbock finds that increased vehicular traffic in the City of Lubbock has created a condition requiring the immediate readjustment of parking on that part of the streets designated by the provisions of this ordinance and that immediate changes in traffic control and parking are needed in that such vehicular traffic creates an emergency requiring the immediate passage of this ordinance, the provisions of which shall become effective on each street when 30 degree angle parking lines or parallel parking lines or marks have been placed upon the streets designated in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 13. The City Secretary is hereby directed to cause publication of the descriptive caption of this ordinance together with the penalty clause as an alternative provided by Chapter 10, Page 112, Acts 1939 of the 46th Legislature, as amended by Chapter 264, Page 463, Acts 1947 of the 50th Legislature.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Passed and approved by unanimous vote of the City Commission this 22nd day of Sept., 1949.

Passed and approved by unanimous vote of the City Commission this 13th day of October, 1949.

Big Trucks Cut Down Vermont Auto Traffic

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 21. (U.P.)—Exasperated autoists knew it all along, but the Vermont Highway Board has found, officially, that big trucks "seriously reduce" the volume of traffic a highway is designed to carry.

"One truck equals from two to five passenger cars, depending on the terrain," the study pointed out. The Vermont report agrees with findings in Pennsylvania that in hilly country big trucks "reduce the normal flow of highway traffic by half."

TRUMAN SEEKS MORE REVENUE

Chances Against Tax Boost, If Any, Beginning In 1949

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 — President Truman said he's going to ask Congress to raise taxes when it returns in January, 1950.

But—the deadline for paying in full the tax you owe on your 1949 income doesn't arrive until March 15, 1950.

If Congress raises taxes next year at all, it almost certainly will be on your 1950 income, not on that for 1949.

(But Mr. Truman's idea of a tax raise next year — made public yesterday — quickly got a sour reaction among congressmen.)

Last Request Ignored

In the first place, early this year Mr. Truman asked Congress for a $4,000,000,000 tax boost in 1949. Congress ignored him.

It may ignore him again in 1950. But suppose in January Congress follows the President's request and considers a tax increase.

Just considering a tax boost will take many weeks or months; hearings, arguments, research by the experts to figure how much higher tax is really needed, lengthy debates in House and Senate and so on.

Both houses have to approve before there can be any new law raising taxes. And the two houses seldom act at the same time on anything. Usually they act on the same bill weeks or months apart.

In asking for the tax increase this year, Mr. Truman wanted most of it to come by increasing corporation taxes, not income taxes.

He may ask for the same kind of boost next year. Then Congress will have to decide whether it wants to sock corporations or individuals, or sock anyone.

Why the tax boost anyway? Why does Mr. Truman keep harping on that?

Government expenses are greater than the money it's collecting in taxes to meet those expenses. So Mr. Truman wants taxes raised until the government can take in more than it has to spend.

What's happening now — government spending beyond its means — is called deficit financing or deficit spending.

When that occurs the government has to borrow money — for instance from banks, by selling bonds — to make up the difference between the money it spends and the taxes it collects.

All this increases the public debt which is now about $255,000,000,000.

Mr. Truman argues we'd be in better shape to meet our expenses now if the 80th Congress — controlled by the Republicans — hadn't cut taxes a couple of years ago.

But the present 81st Congress — controlled by his Democrats — didn't follow his request to boost taxes this year.

So now for months we'll all get our ears bent by charges and counter-charges such as these:

If Mr. Truman's administration would cut down expenses, we wouldn't need a tax increase; Mr. Truman's administration can't help the expenses, because such a huge part of them go into foreign aid and military preparedness.

Houston Threatened By Transit Walkout

HOUSTON, Oct. 21. (AP)—Houston may face a city bus strike next week.

Drivers and mechanics of the Houston Transit company agreed on a seven-day truce yesterday, but said unless 25 disputed issues are settled, a strike vote would be taken at 2 a. m., next Friday.

CATTLEMAN DIES

FORT WORTH, Oct. 21. (AP)—William R. (Bill) Johnson, 62, of Jacksboro, widely known as a Polled Hereford cattle breeder, died early last night.

Top Disc Jockeys Earn More Money Than U. S. Presidents

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK—America is a land in which every mother knows her son may grow up to be president —or a disc jockey.

Right now there are probably more boys who want to be disc jockeys than lads who aspire to tenant the White House. They can make more money playing phonograph records.

The uncrowned king of this new industry is Martin Block, a slender, dark-haired man of 45. He pioneered in the disc jockey field back in 1935, and hit the jackpot with "Make-Believe Ballroom" program.

Has Golden Voice

Today he is one of the busiest men in the field and makes in the neighborhood of $400,000 a year. It's a nice neighborhood—that.

Currently Block also is emceeing a free international edition of his "Make-Believe Ballroom," a half-hour program broadcast to foreign countries by the "Voice of America." It is beamed to Europe, South America and the Far East.

The program features typical American dance band and vocal music. In the intervals Block describes American customs and traditions for his listeners. The popularity of the program, as judged by mail comments from overseas, amazed him.

Chinese Like Sinatra

"I was surprised to find out how much they knew about our music," he said. "One listener in North China sent a postcard asking for more Sinatra."

Top disc jockeys no longer spend their days sitting between two turntables and pouring messages and music into a microphone. Now they can drop into the studio, put a week's work on tape in a few hours—and go off and play golf. Somebody else can play the records for them.

"Of course, that sounds like a soft life—and maybe it is," said Block. "But you have to watch out for ulcers along the way."

BAILIFF FINED

MONTEREY, Cal. (U.P.) — There were two Bailiffs in court when Judge Monty Hellam arrived so he fined one of them $50. The one he fined was Richard I. Bailiff, charged with smoking in bed. The other was the usual court attendant.
