Large Reduction Contracts To Be Given Re-checking

College Station, Texas, July 21.—Special committees will be selected to recheck offer contracts in the national cotton acreage reduction campaign, where the cash amount involved exceeds $1,500 before the county agent can issue a permit for the farmer to destroy his cotton offered, according to word received by Texas extension officials from C. A. Cobb, expert in charge of the national campaign.

Where the cash consideration in a contract exceeds $1,500, the figures will be rechecked by a special committee of three, one of whom should be a vocational teacher instructor, which will make a special report of approval or disapproval, the message said.

Where the cash amount involved totals more than $10,000 the special committee will include a representative of the department of economics of farm management or a state extension economist. As the result of this ruling, H. H. Williamson, Texas extension vice-director and state agent is notifying county and special agents that where they have already issued cotton destruction permits to growers who come under this class involved in the re-valuation, they should with the growers from destroying their cotton until the special committees have completed their work.

Hester Sells Buttercup To Longview Farms

Through a business transaction completed here this week, R. C. Buttercup's Raleigh 309431, famous herd bull owned for the past four years by E. W. Hester, is now the property of the Longview farms at Lee's Summit, Mo. Buttercup was taken to that place Tuesday of this week in Harvey Jordan's truck. Mr. Hester will accompany him on the trip to see that all phases of the deal are met, and also to pick Buttercup's successor which he is to secure at the farms.

T. F. Fansher, manager of the Jersey department of the farms represented the purchasers in the deal. He was here Sunday.

According to present plans, Mr. Hester will bring back Raleigh's Fairy Volunteer 352275, a son of Raleigh's Dairylike Majesty 267554, and Volunteer's Eversley Fairy 694-398. The dam was bred on the Isle of Jersey by A. LeCoutere and imported to America in 1926 by W. R. Spann Sons of Morristown, N. J.

Volunteer is fourteen months of age and his pictures show him to be a worthy descendant of the winner of more first prizes and junior championships than any other bull his age, which was the record set by his sire in 1927. His dam is also a member of the Jersey Royalty, having set a record of 587 pound of fat at five years of age.

Buttercup is well-known to Jersey breeders and fanciers throughout this section, having won about all the blue ribbons and championships available for the past four years. However, Mr. Hester felt that his herd already held as many of Buttercup's descendants as was advisable and feels that the trade was a good one.

Local Polo Team Defeats Lubbock 5-4

In the polo match with Lubbock Sunday, the Lamesa team won the fifth, and "rubber" game of the season. The score was 5 to 4, and the game was one of the closest and hardest fought in the history of the South Plains.

Our team was off to a one-goal lead in the first chucker and added two in the third. Lubbock registered its first tally in the third. Both teams scored in the fifth and Lamesa tallied the winning goal in the sixth.

35c Proposed As Ginning Rate

Austin, Texas, July 21.—Suggestion was made Thursday by Commissioner of Agriculture J. E. McDonald, that a uniform price of 35c per hundred pounds for ginning picked seed cotton be made during the 1932 cotton season. McDonald estimated that the cost and wrapping of each bale of cotton will approximate $6 on the recommended price scale.

A request has been made of McDonald by farmers and ginners for a suggestion of a reasonable and uniform ginning price in view of the unsettled agricultural conditions.

"Naming prices to be charged for ginning does not come within my province," McDonald said, "and it is only because of repeated requests that I have compiled some figures."

The 35c rate was suggested after considering capital invested in gins, operating expenses and other overhead. Wholesale prices indicate a charge of $1 per pattern for two-pound new bagging and ties.

McDonald said that during the last two years Texas' 4,100 cotton gins generally had operated at a loss.

"The objective of the national administration is to equitably advance commodity prices and wages, and the farmer who is now realizing a materially higher price for his product is willing to pay a fair price for labor and service in order to assist the Government in reaching its objective," he said.

A ginning rate of 35c would give an 8 per cent return to the average ginners under normal conditions, departmental statisticians said.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THEIR WASHINGTON TRIP

July 19, 1933.

To County Judges, Chamber of Commerce Managers, Newspapers and public spirited citizens who participated in financing and promoting the trip to Washington in interest of West Texas:

We, your committee appointed to make a trip to Washington to ask the Department of Agriculture to include the drought-stricken farmers of our section in their program for cotton acreage reduction, wish to report as follows:—

Mr. C. A. Cobb, Chief of the Cotton section, advised us very definitely that the Department's program was to buy from the farmers a part of their cotton crops for which they were paying so much cash per acre. If the farmer had no crop growing, he had nothing to sell or to contribute to the campaign.

The only way left to us to render a service to the cotton farmers of this section was to plead for an extension of time in which farmers would be permitted to sign contracts, hoping that in the mean time it would rain and stands could be secured before the expiration of the signing date.

The Advisory Committee, consisting of one man from each of seven cotton states, recommended unanimously that the farmers of this section be given from July 20 to July 25 to sign the acreage reduction contracts. The time was immediately extended from July 8 through July 12, but we were advised the first of this week that the contracts in the hands of the Department had exhausted the government's supply of cotton and called for some ten million dollars more than the amount originally budgeted—therefore, the time cannot be extended to our people because of lack of funds and of option cotton.

Realizing that our people would need work relief, we called upon Mr. Hopkins, Relief Commissioner, who helped in arranging a conference with Thomas H. McDonald, Chief, Bureau of Public Roads, who after hearing our explanation of conditions existing in West Texas prepared and read to us a telegram he was sending to the Regional Engineer, Mr. Swain of Ft. Worth, urging him to impress upon the Highway Commission of Texas the immediate importance of rushing road projects as Relief Measures in the Panhandle Plains of Texas.

Both Mr. McDonald and Mr. Swain assured the committee that everything possible would be done by the Federal Government to hasten the letting of road contracts in the distressed areas. The County Judge and Commissioners Court in counties where relief work is needed can no doubt facilitate matters by cooperating with the State Highway Commission in having road projects under way at an early date.

We believe our conference with Representatives of the Federal Farm Loan Bureau will be worth millions of dollars to West Texas in getting a more liberal appraisal value placed on lands in this section of the State. A Brief of Facts was prepared in which comparisons were made of five year cotton yields produced in East and central Texas counties and counties of West Texas—also a comparison of loan values in these counties was made.

It was not difficult to show that in counties that did not compare in cotton yields with West Texas counties five to six times as much loan value was allowed.

We were assured that more recognition would be given to the productive value of West Texas lands and were given copies of letters being sent to District and Regional Appraisers urging a more liberal valuation.

We regret that we cannot make this report to you in person and to all the farmers of your county and a letter covering details would be too tedious to read. We have given you only the high spots hoping that it would serve as a partial report of our efforts.

Senators Morris Sheppard and Tom Connally, Representative Marvin Jones and Amon G. Carter gave us every possible assistance and were quite valuable in making proper contacts.

It was impossible to accomplish the primary things for which we went to Washington, but after realizing the situation we did our best to render the greatest service possible to West Texas and hope and believe that results obtained will justify the time and expense.

Yours sincerely,
Arthur P. Duggan, Littlefield.
C. T. Watson, Big Spring.
A. B. Davis, Lubbock.

W. T. Webb and family and Miss Gertrude Robinson spent a few days last week in Menard where an outing of fishing and swimming was enjoyed.

IMMUNIZE CHILDREN AGAINST DIPHTHERIA, ASKS HEALTH BUREAU HEADS

Austin, Texas, July 27.—Dr. H. N. Burnett, Director, Bureau of Child Hygiene, State Department of Health in a statement today urged all parents to have their children immunized against diphtheria. Each child six months old or older should have this preventative treatment now, as it takes some time for immunity to develop after the last inoculation.

In the use of toxoid, we have an agent that will give passive immunity to this disease; still 812 persons died last year in Texas from diphtheria. Two-thirds of all cases occur before the tenth year and approximately eighty per cent of the deaths from this disease occur between the ages of one to five year. Our young children are therefore in danger of contracting this disease and dying from it.

It is a treacherous disease. The first symptoms are so indefinite that the mother can easily overlook their presence. It is necessary even for the physician to look closely for the signs of diphtheria to discover them as the child does not necessarily complain of a pain in the throat. Take your child to your family physician and have it protected against diphtheria.

This is a special appeal to the parents of Texas. If you have children between the ages of six months and twelve years, who have not been immunized against this dreadful disease, have them protected by the injection of toxoid. Parents who know that it is now possible to have their children immunized, take a great responsibility on their shoulders when they fail to have their children immunized. The immunization consists of two or three injections three to six weeks apart. When prevention is so simple, do not take chances on illness and possible death from diphtheria.

Mrs. B. N. Graham and children of Farwell left Sunday for their home after a visit with relatives here.

Receive Authority To Plow Up Cotton

Authority for plowing up cotton was received Monday in Dawson County by Alva Debnam, county agent in charge.

According to Debnam Dawson county has contracted to retire 13,014 acres; Borden county 2,228 acres. Dawson county has 382 contracts while Borden has 57 contracts.

Debnam, interpreting the immediate cash value of these counties resulting from the execution of contracts, stated that Dawson would benefit by cash $28,727.57. By cash and cotton $67,171.90. At present price of cotton, an extra $40,000.00. (Six cents per pound profit if sold now). Total $107,171.90. Borden county will receive cash $6,918.50; cash and cotton $9,296.00. (Profit, considering 6 cents per pound, $2,000.00). Total $11,296.00.

Under the cotton option plan, Debnam states that Dawson county has bought 2,436 bales of government cotton; Borden county 350 bales. Debnam states that authority for plowing up cotton will be issued in these two counties.

Due to good seasons in most parts of these two counties, farmers will plow up their cotton and plant feeds at the same time.

LAW BARS AGENTS IN MAKING HOME LOANS

Washington, July 21.—Home loan applicants borrowing under the new home owners loan act need not hire agents or other paid emissaries in submitting their applications for loans. This statement was made Thursday by the legal division of the Federal Home Loan Board in response to many inquiries.

Instead, employment of such paid agents was said to be contrary to the letter and spirit of the law enacted for relief of distressed home owners facing foreclosure who find it impossible to refinance their properties through regular channels of credit.

Under the law preliminary appraisals of properties will be made without cost to the applicants. Such appraisals will be made by the regularly appointed appraisers of the home owners' loan corporation. A subsequent appraisal, if the application justifies further consideration, examination of titles, etc., will be made at nominal cost to the loan applicant and this expense will be included when the loan is made. The section of the law covering this point reads:

"No person, partnership, association or corporation shall make charges in connection with a loan by the corporation or an exchange of bonds or cash advance under this act except ordinary charges authorized and required by the corporation for services actually rendered for examination and perfecting of title, appraisal and like necessary services. Any person, partnership, association or corporation violating the provisions of this subsection shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than five years or both."

Mrs. W. P. Avriett, Mrs. W. A. Stephens and Miss Willie Belle Cleveland returned Saturday from a visit in Canyon and Amarillo.

Post Mill Gives More Pay, Cuts Hours

West Texas' only cotton mill, the Postex, at Post, will fit its operation into the national recovery program, its manager, Herbert Jones, told the Abilene Reporter-News Saturday night.

Beginning Monday the Postex started one 40-hour shift, replacing the old schedule of 55 hours weekly per worker and the minimum wage was raised from $8 to $12.

The change-over meant that the mill's 170 employee's work 27 per cent less time than formerly, with out any reduction in pay. No one was let out.

"We have had all we can do," Herbert Jones, manager, told the Reporter-News. "Buying is enormous. Our shipments in the past 60 days in tonnage have equalled those of any six months of 1932. But this is all not good news. The buying has been purely speculative against the expected price increase for cotton goods. The public is not buying on any noticeable scale.

"Greatly increased prices to the consumer for finished cotton goods are inevitable under the recovery act, with its processing tax and code governing wages and hours of labor. The consumer is going to have to pay as much for a sheet or pillow case made by Postex, or any other mill from 15-cent cotton as he paid when cotton sold at 40 cents."

The Postex mill was opened by the C. W. Post interests in 1917. Saturday night, for the first time since opening, it had no goods on hand. Everything was sold.

While dinosaurs lived and died in OKLAHOMA

Mellowed 80 million years! Such is the history of the Cambro-Ordovician crude oil of Oklahoma which Sinclair refines and blends into Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil—a crude which was already ages old when dinosaurs fought above its hidden reservoirs. Opaline's superior lubricating quality owes much to Nature's age-long treatment, for Nature has filtered it free of impurities, reduced its carbon-forming content, and enhanced its lubricating quality. In process of refining Sinclair adds the crowning touch by de-waxing Opaline and freeing it from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Try a crankcaseful of Sinclair Opaline—observe how little you have to add on long trips—note how it stands up in hard driving!

STRANGE fact about the tire business is — the PRICE of all tires is about alike. You might as well pick the best—in quality, in safety, in mileage.

What's the best in quality? The public says Goodyear—preferred by more people than any THREE other makes.

What's the best in safety? Accurate tests on wet concrete show Goodyears will stop a car quicker than any other tire. The next best tire skidded 10% more—other tires skidded up to 77% more under exactly the same conditions.

What's the best in mileage? Bus fleet records show Goodyear Tires give 97% more mileage than they gave five years ago.

Now that all prices are headed UP—it's more important than ever to get the most for your money. Better look over your tires and buy new Goodyears now while prices are still low.

STEEL ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH!

— neither strong enough, nor safe enough, nor quiet enough for the body of a quality car like CHEVROLET

There is only one type of body construction which Chevrolet will permit on the chassis of the cars it builds: That's the type which every test—and every experiment—and every experience has proved to be the safest, strongest, and best. Not steel alone, because steel alone is not enough. But a Fisher body of steel reinforced by hardwood! The same kind of construction used on practically all the highest-priced cars in America.

Chevrolet well knows that steel alone has one distinct advantage: it's cheaper. Steel also is strong—up to a certain point. BUT—beyond that point, steel alone will bend and crumple under severe stress or shock. It takes the strength and supporting solidity of a hardwood reinforcement to give you the full protection and full satisfaction you want in a motor car body today.

If you're thinking of buying a new low-priced car, better watch this matter of bodies, and watch it carefully. Insist on steel reinforced by hardwood! Fortunately, the only low-priced car with this preferred type of body is also the only car with a proven valve-in-head six; with Fisher Ventilation; Cushion-Balanced Power; a Starterator. That car is Chevrolet—America's most economical automobile.
