A BOLL TO THE ACRE

A cotton field in the Abra community, typical of many dryland acres in the county, shows the effects of three months of drought on the county's crops. An application will be turned in Friday, August 30 to the FmHA to declare the county eligible for disaster emergency loans.

Phillips Comes Here to Scrimmage Friday

Phillips Blackhawks come to Powell Field to scrimmage the Skyrockets Friday, August 29, with both the junior varsity and varsity teams seeing action.

The JV will go on the field at 6 p.m., with the varsity team following.

Skyrocket coaches were pleased with the teams performance against Stratford at Borger last Friday.

"We can stand a lot of improvement but we have a lot of possibilities. We were real pleased," said Head Coach James Williams.

Because both schools could field a freshman team, competition between these two opened the scrimmage, followed by the JV and Varsity.

Williams doesn't know yet if Phillips will bring enough freshmen for a separate team. If not, the Wellington freshmen will be integrated with the JV.

Phillips scrimmaged Clarendon Bronchos Friday, and made a good showing. Williams said that after the Wellington-Phillips scrimmage he'll have some indication as to how the Rockets will show up in their own district.

This week, the Rockets are working on their kicking game, with their Sept. 5 opener against Hollis Tigers in mind.

Williams says the team will spend most of next week getting its offensive and defensive game plan down.

"We did prepare some yesterday for offense and defense," he added.

Wellington came through the Stratford scrimmage without injuries.

Coach Williams and his four assistants will field a team that has 9 lettermen, divided about equally on offense and defense, who were starters all or part of the time.

Overall, Wellington's line is quicker this year and his men are throwing the ball better than they did at the beginning of the 1979 season.

"The younger kids are doing a pretty good job also," he added.

Williams is also pleased with his four new assistants.

"To just come in, they're doing a tremendous job, and I think in the long run, our program will benefit from these new men."

This year's Blackhawks will be larger than the Rockets, Coach Williams said.

Altogether, the Hawks have 14 lettermen back with about 10 of these having starting experience last year.

The varsity roster has been selected and includes

Jody Coleman, quarterback; Otis Lewis, full back; Darrell Thomas, halfback; Tim Anderson, fullback; John P. Munn, halfback; Chris Lynch, halfback; Kenneth Warren, halfback-quarterback; Brent Long, center; Darrell Vernon, tackle-center; Rand Johnson, guard; Joe Saldana, tackle-guard; Doug Gibson, guard; David Castillo, guard; Paul Estes, tackle; Channy Wood, tackle; Willie Pennon, tackle; Tim Harris, fullback-end; Jerry Lee, end; Calvin Culpepper, end; Lenny Archie, end; Sidney Herring, end.

This year's coaching staff includes James Williams,

Call School For Football Reserved Seats

If you had reserved seats at the Wellington home football games last year, and if you want to get them again this year, you have to pick up the telephone and make a call.

School business manager Nita Brantley said this week that those who held reserve seat tickets last year must notify the school business office at 447-2511 if they want those seats again this year.

"We have had several new requests for reserved seats, so those who had them last year should notify us as soon as possible if they want to keep them," Mrs. Brantley said.

The deadline for notifying the school office about seats is Wednesday, Sept. 3, Mrs. Brantley said. After that date, the seats will be distributed to the people who have requested them.

Hospital Board Approves X-Ray Machine Bid

Collingsworth General Hospital board voted at regular meeting Monday, Aug. 25 to accept a $58,800 bid on an X-Ray machine from The Gilbert Co.

The board will use money that has been donated by the community toward the purchase of the machine as far as those funds will go, and will borrow the remainder.

The board also voted to extend Dr. P.K.N. Kumar's contract for an additional six months past his one-year original contract with the hospital.

And the board approved a 1980-81 budget of $846,638.

Present were board members Dee Coleman, Bill Henard, Buddy Carter, Lyman Daniel, Robert Owens, Corky Bowen and Elmer Feemster

Norwood Firemen Hold Fair Barbecue

Samnorwood Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor the Collingsworth County Fair barbecue at noon Friday, September 5, Tommy Lindley announced.

This will be held in Ellison Park and serving hours will be 11:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.

Tickets have gone on sale and may be bought at City State Bank, Wellington State Bank and the Chamber of Commerce office. The cost is $3.50 each.

This will be a Willie Knoll Barbecue, according to Lindley.

That is, Knoll will be in charge of cooking the pit barbecue and preparing the sauce that is his specialty.

Knoll does not reveal his recipe, but Norwood firemen have arranged with him to have jars of the sauce available to sell at the barbecue.

The firemen are preparing to feed at least 500.

Knoll prepares the meat for the annual Farm Bureau Barbecue and for several years the attendance has topped 600.

"This is why we are urging you to get your tickets well ahead of time," said Lindley.

Country Music For Fair Week Activity

Entertainment leading up to the big two-day Collingsworth County Fair begins Monday, September 1, with events centered at the National Guard Armory and the old Green Acres Golf Course which adjoins it.

Jest Amusement Co. will set up its carnival on the golf course with rides to open for the first time Monday evening. The carnival will be here through Saturday, September 6.

The All-American Country Music Festival, will give five nights and a day of professional down-home entertainment. This is part of the fair and sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

The festival comes to a climax Saturday, September 6, when the popular Randy Barlow - Karen Wheeler Show from Nashville, Tenn., presents 2 and 6 p.m. concerts and appears at the 10 p.m. dance. Wellington entertainers will be present.

John Alf Thomas Productions brings this array of country and bluegrass entertainment to Wellington, with Thomas acting as master of ceremonies.

The All-American Bluegrass Show will open the series Tuesday, Sept. 2, at 6 p.m. in the Armory.

Election of the All-American Country Music Queen is slated at 8 p.m. Wednesday, and on Thursday the All-American Square Dancers will be featured at 7:30 p.m.

Brian Vining Bluegrass and Old Tyme Music, a Pampa band, headlines the Tuesday night show.

Agrifuels Members Set By-Laws Vote

A special meeting of Collingsworth County Agrifuels, Inc., has been called for Wednesday, August 27, to let the membership approve the by-laws.

The group will also hear a progress report on the funding and preparations for building a fuel alcohol plant here.

The meeting will be in the directors room of Greenbelt Electric Co-op, Inc., beginning at 8 p.m.

All members will have plenty of time to study the by-laws before a vote is taken, said Andy Henard.

Denzil Lacy, president, will be in charge of the meeting and give a progress report that will include business which has come up since the last meeting.

Anyone interested in fuel alcohol production is invited to attend, Henard said.

Wellington junior varsity cheerleaders will lead the cheering at the JV games on Thursday nights in addition to helping varsity cheerleaders with fundraising and decorating. This year's crew, bottom row, from left, includes Dee Ann Williams, Sandie Cobb and Shanna Urban. Second row are Rhonda Golliugh, left, and Carla Nunnelley. At top is Amy Williams.

Road Building Career Ends

Some pithy comparisons of road construction before and after federal bureaucracy entered the picture were given recently by O.V. Johnson, who retired August 1 after 42 years with the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

"Twenty-five years ago we could go out and build a road the way we thought it ought to be built, before we had all this federal bureaucracy. Now they are looking over your shoulder all the time," he commented.

By comparison, he said "one of the pleasant experiences was our work with the commissioners courts of Wheeler and Collingsworth Counties."

Johnson came to the Wellington residency (office) 15 years ago July 1 as resident engineer when the office at Quitaque was closed.

Johnson's last day with the department was not typical. He went to Childress for a party given by district office personnel in his honor.

The last project he finished as engineer was Highway U.S. 83 north of Wheeler.

"We had all kinds of problems and it took about a year longer than expected," he said. "I have a framed copy of the letter telling Austin we had bought the job."

Construction of Interstate 40 the entire east-west length of Wheeler County was the biggest job on which Johnson worked after coming to Wellington.

He has mixed memories of his job.

"The biggest problem on I 40 was people. Twelve were killed on that part west of Shamrock due to speed and failure to observe traffic signs," Johnson declares.

"East of Shamrock, there was only one accident. A guy believed to be on dope fell out of a Greyhound bus rest room window," Johnson remembers. "The driver was looking at the outside rear view mirror and saw this fellow leaning out and he began slowing the bus."

Traffic was always a problem on U.S. 83 during a construction project.

This is a concrete road, always difficult when it came to tearing up.

The roughest country he traversed during his 42 year career was FM 1920 through northwestern Collingsworth. But this was also the most beautiful country in which he worked, Johnson says.

He denies this is where he got the nickname Chughole Johnson, but that was where Charles Simon, then chairman of the Texas Highway Commission applied it when he dedicated the road. It came from Johnson's habit of going out every time it rained to see if there were any low spots or chugholes where water would stand and repairing them.

Johnson came to District 25 of what was then called the Texas Highway Department in December 1938 and was sent to Matador, where the department was paving the Matador-Turkey road, using WPA labor.

Men on the WPA program worked a limited number of hours, and this meant a constant retraining. Claude Groves, who retired a few years ago, started to work for the department at Matador about the same time and has the same memories.

"Gravel was dumped on the side of the road and men threw it on the roadbed with a No. 2 scoop," Johnson recalled.

He recently found the records of work of putting down the pavement on US 83 north of Wellington, also in the 1930s. All records were broken on the day they laid 1400 feet.

By contrast, I-40 went down at the rate of 6,000 feet per day. The same contractor had both jobs, Texas Bitholitic of Dallas.

Johnson went back to college in 1939 and graduated from Tech in 1941. It took another 10 years, going to school when he could, to get his civil engineering certification.

He entered the coast guard engineers in 1941, then transferred to the U.S. Navy for the duration of World War II in the Pacific. He was a Landing Craft Infantry engineering officer.

He was in on the action when U.S. forces started jumping from island to island up to their final invasion of the Philippines and Japan. One stop was in New Guinea, at Lae and Incheon.

Years later he was to learn this was the last place the aviatrix Amelia Earhart was known to have landed. After she took off from this point, she was never heard from.

There are firsts in Johnson's career:

He hired the first girls in District 25, Dian Brooks and Debra Long, about 1975, for summer work. They pulled a chain with the field party. "It's hard to stand around and watch girls do this," he says.

He also hired the first black man in District 25, Horace Powell, whom he considers one of the finest employees in the district and also a good friend.

Two employees who came from Quitaque with Johnson have had their entire career under him: Hubert Brooks and Willie Gragson.

"The first time I saw Willie he was lying flat of his back on a football field with a broken leg," the retiring engineer remembers.

Over the years, he estimates he has worked at least 50 college students during vacation.

Johnson met his wife, the former Wandell Berryman when he was on his first job at Matador.

They have four sons.

He is a deacon in first Baptist Church, formerly taught Sunday School and formerly was a Kiwanian.

Looking back on his career, he declares, "When you have that kind of job, it's not drudgery."

Johnson is a registered land surveyor and licensed engineer and will do private surveying now that he has retired.

mas said, and its members are Brian and Joan Vining, Kerry Anderson, Jack Shelby and Richard Brantley.

There'll be a mystery entertainer Tuesday night also, Thomas declares, but he isn't saying who it is.

"This woman used to live in Wellington but moved away some years ago. All the adults will recognize her and she is widely known for her comedy routine."

Since the Vinings were organized in August 1979, they have played for many civic groups, oil company functions over the Panhandle and at the Old Mobeetie First Annual Bluegrass Festival.

Tickets will be $2.00 for adults and children under 12 attend free.

The All - American Country Music Festival Queen contest begins at 8 p.m. Wednesday and any woman or girl is eligible to enter.

There will be two divisions: junior, for girls up to age 14, and senior for those 15 and over.

There is one requirement: contestants must be in western dress--and jeans and a western shirt will qualify.

"If you have a talent, we hope you'll present it, although it's not required that a contestant give a talent number," said Thomas.

Assisting him will be his wife, Geneva Thomas.

The new country music queen will ride in the Collingsworth County Fair Parade Friday and be presented at the 2 p.m. performance of the Randy Barlow - Karen Wheeler Show.

Beauty contest entry fee is $2.00 per girl. Admission will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children.

At the end of the contest, as a fun event, a men's wet T-Shirt contest will be held. Entry fees for this are also

Thursday night, the Texas Twisters will sponsor the All-American Square Dance at the Armory. Nicky Boone of Hollis will be the caller and admission will be $5.00 per couple. Spectators attend free. Proceeds of this entertainment will go to Texas Twisters.

The All - American Country Music Festival events are located next to the carnival in the belief that each will draw business for the other, said Thomas.

Jest Amusement Co. rides and fun events are long-time favorites of Wellington crowds. They open each evening about sundown. They are known for their clean, family-type entertainment.

All the rides and fun houses the Collingsworth Fair crowds like will be back, the owners have assured Margaret Vines, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Set Indian Creek Reunion Saturday

Former residents of the Indian Creek community will meet for a reunion at Pioneer Park Saturday, August 30, according to Gladys Pritchard Cartwright.

The group will begin gathering about 6 p.m. and those attending are asked to bring a basket supper, which will be served about 7.

Visiting and music will follow.

This reunion will also serve as a reunion of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Pritchard, who lived in the community many years.

Like other communities, activities centered around the school. Many years ago Indian Creek was located several miles north, toward Lutie, on the east side of the road.

Later it was moved south to the Seale home place and the school became known as Seale.

Its third location was across the road from the W.E. Winters home, near Salt Fork River.

To all our dear friends, relatives, neighbors and new friends. We wish we could put into words the way your love and prayers have touched us all. From the moment we found out that God had taken Denise to heaven to live with Him, He has been with us through your prayers and love.

We know children are a gift God has given us and He let us love Denise for 27 years. In her place He has given us 3 lovely little children. They are His gifts too, and we pray for guidance for us all to teach them how to be what their Mother wanted them to be.

"Thank you" doesn't sound like enough to say to you all, but it comes from the bottom of our hearts to each of you. To you that we missed getting your names for the lovely flowers, cards, food, donations and money that you gave, we love you.

To Dr. Holcomb and all the nurses who tried to save our lovely Denise we thank you and appreciate the kindness you showed us in our grief.

The people in Wellington are the most wonderful people in the world.

We wanted you to know that the funds that have been set up for the three children will be administered by a 3-woman committee who will disperse the funds exclusively to meet the children's needs as they grow up.

Alcohol Fuels Hearing Set at Lubbock Friday

A public hearing is set for Friday, August 29, in Lubbock, on the U.S. Department of Agriculture's proposed regulations implementing provisions of Title II of the Energy Security Act which authorized biomass energy and alcohol fuels loans and loan guarantees. Deputy Agriculture Secretary James H. Williams announced.

The proposed regulations will determine how the Farmers Home Administration, the credit agency of the Agriculture Department, will carry out certain parts of the Act, which was signed into law by President Carter on June 30, 1980.

The hearing will be in the Holiday Inn, 6624 Avenue H from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

The Energy Security Act authorized $600 million for the Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Program of loans and loan guarantees to alcohol fuels and other biomass energy projects over the next two years (FY 1981-1982). USDA funds will be used to assist energy projects which use agricultural or forestry products or residue. USDA has responsibility for projects up to 15 million gallons of capacity.

The proposed regulations appeared in the Federal Register on Tuesday, August 5.

Anyone wishing to participate in the public hearing should contact the Office of Public Participation, Room 118A, Department of Agriculture, Washington, DC 20250, telephone 202-447-2113. USDA will also participate in similar hearings to be held in the near future by the Department of Energy concerning DOE regulations for financial assistance to biomass energy projects.

PTO Buys Tumbling Mats As Year Opens

Members of Wellington Parent-Teachers Organization voted to buy tumbling mats for the new physical education program being introduced in the elementary school by Don Beck.

Beck, a former Skyrocket coach, returned to the Wellington system this year as a teacher.

He will teach the tumbling program in fourth and fifth grades, according to the PTO president, Mrs. Adolf Schmidt.

Date of the annual carnival was set for Saturday, October 25, the carnival co-chairman is Mrs.

Leamon Bawcom. Mrs. Bill Lindsey will be in charge of ticket sales.

Mrs. Schmidt reviewed projects of the last year, some of which are on-going projects.

These have included a $500 donation to the school library; purchase of new record players and cassettes for class rooms, also maps for the classrooms which are currently on order.

Work installing the playground fence which PTO is buying should begin shortly, she said.

The PTO president also introduced Melvin Cardwell, principal, and other officers for the year; Mrs. Dan Langford, vice president; Mrs. Larry Hammons, secretary; Mrs. Danny Martin, treasurer; Mrs. John Barton, reporter; Mrs. Carroll Nunneley, publicity; Mrs. Bawcom and Mrs. Lindsey.

Lennie Morgan's second grade won the room count for having the most mothers present and received $5.

Boys Ranch Rodeo Over Labor Day

Young cowboys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch will hold their thirty-sixth annual rodeo over the Labor Day weekend, starting at 2:30.

About 150 contestants will compete for the best times on bareback broncs, Brahma bulls, steers, calves and stick horses. It is the only rodeo of its kind in the nation. The only contestants are boys riding professional rodeo stock under R.C.A. rules. The rodeo is also a traditional homecoming for the Ranch's graduates. More than 3,000 have lived there since 1939.

Most sections of the rodeo arena were covered with a roof last year to provide protection from the elements, and the general admission sections were enlarged to accommodate an extra 150 people. For those wanting to eat lunch before the rodeo, boys will prepare and sell Texas-sized barbecue beef plates for only $2.00.

Reserve box seat tickets for $3.50 have gone on sale at the Boys Ranch Office, 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

Cole Begins Work at Golf Course Sept. 1

Randy Cole, new country club golf pro, reached Wellington Tuesday, Aug. 26, and will begin work Monday, Sept. 1.

Cole was moving his mobile home to the golf course where he and his family will live, when it became stuck in the sand bed on the county road between Highway 203 and the Country Club gate.

It was pulled out Tuesday night, but repairs could not be made until Wednesday morning, club members reported.

Cole will manage the pro shop and be responsible for the care of the golf course.

He comes here from Amarillo.

No Riders Allowed

The National Safety Council has launched a nationwide program to urge farmers and ranchers to adopt a "no riders" rule to keep children off moving farm vehicles.

Dr. Gary S. Nelson, a safety engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A.M. University System, said the Council acknowledges that most rural children and young farm visitors enjoy following adults to watch, or participate in, the daily jobs of running a farm. However, of the 1,900 accidental work deaths in agriculture in 1978, accidents involving tractors accounted for 150 deaths and thousands of serious injuries.

According to Nelson, hundreds of children fall from tractors and other machinery each year, often to be run over by the drive wheel or trailing equipment. Children have fallen into feed or forage wagons and suffocated or have been mangled by unloading mechanisms.

Even in a cab, a child is not totally safe, Nelson declared. Quick stops or turns may cause the child to be thrown against objects inside the cab. He said cases are also on record where the cab door came open, allowing the child to fall out. In addition, a passenger can get in the way, annoy or distract you or move a control and cause an accident.

Farms wives are cautioned that a tractor is not a suitable place to baby-sit. "Operators should always check that no children have sneaked aboard and that all bystanders, young and old, are safely out of the way before moving equipment," Nelson said. Never assume that there are no children around when backing, turning or moving machinery, not even in the open field.

Oil & Gas

A 960 acre oil, gas and mineral lease, given by Miss Pearl Strong who lives south of Abra, has been filed in the office of county-district clerk Helen Golliugh.

Taking the lease was James F. Hayes, Clarendon real estate man. The lease is for 5 years, and covers Section 99 and the north half of section 84, block 22.

This lies just west of the 6,000 acre tract leased by Parallel Petroleum Inc. of Midland and filed approximately two and one-half weeks ago.

Miss Strong's land is approximately one to two miles north of Salt Fork River near the Quail-Abra FM highway.

The only other oil and gas instrument filed was an assignment of oil and gas lease from Hueln Lemon to Bill McAnelly on the N/2 section 75, block 12; N/2 on Section 75, block 12 the NW/4 section 60, 1 block 16, and SE/4 section 28, block 17.

Leader Wins Three Awards In West Texas

The Wellington Leader won three awards at the 1980 West Texas Press Association contests, the results of which were announced earlier this month at the association's annual summer convention in Abilene.

The Wellington Leader won first place in news writing.

The newspaper also won second place in the general excellence category, and third place in the news pictures category.

Blood Delivered In Less Than Hour

The U.S. Army, the Red River Regional Red Cross Blood Center, and Collingsworth General Hospital pooled efforts to bring badly needed whole blood to a surgical patient here Monday night, Aug. 25.

Morris Barcroft, hospital administrator, requested Ft. Sill's Med-Evac helicopter about 10 p.m. Monday evening.

It made one stop, for the four units of blood at Wichita Falls airport, then set down at Marian Airpark at 10:55 p.m., approximately 55 minutes after takeoff from Ft. Sill, Barcroft said.

Mrs. B.M. Sims Attends Regional Seminar on Civic Improvement

Representing approximately 16,000 clubwomen, Mrs. B.M. Sims attended a regional seminar on community improvement on August 8-9 in Denver.

Mrs. Sims is serving as president for the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and in that capacity will be responsible for a program designed to initiate area improvement projects in cooperation with other community groups, public officials and private citizens.

The Community Improvement Program is co-sponsored nationally by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Sears, Roebuck and Co. The seminar conducted with the cooperation of the National University Continuing Education Association, marks the beginning of a two-year program of community improvement, 1980-82. Clubs affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs will compete for prizes which include a top state award of $400 and a top national award of $10,000, to be presented during 1982.

This is the 25th year for the GFWC-Sears coalition for community level emphasis, explained Mrs. Sims.

The seminar is one of five regional training sessions which will focus on the CIP Action Plan.

Texas had the largest delegation, 15. Two from Galveston and Harlingen kept in touch with families as Hurricane Allen neared their homes. One charted his course. One other delegate had evacuees in her home, as her town some 100 miles inland harbored people in motels, gyms and homes.

Mrs. Sims is a member of the GFWC, 1924 Study Club. Mr. Sims accompanied his wife to Denver.

TV Not First Teacher Of Violence, Parents Are

COLLEGE STATION----- Parents are the first teachers of violence in the United States--instead of TV which many blame, says a family life education specialist.

Violence in a person's life starts long before television viewing, studies show.

Family training and family violence, in fact, are one of the major sources of violence in the United States, Dr. Betty Jo Smith says.

In addition, 75 percent of United States adults believe it is good for young boys to get into a fist fight, a recent survey reports.

U.S. society teaches that if someone hits you, you should hit them back, the reports conclude.

Furthermore, parents believe they have the "right" to slap, hit, spank and whip their children, Dr. Smith continues.

They believe when a "child" is doing something wrong and won't "listen to reason" (won't do as the "Parent" directs), then the "Parent" has the "right" to use physical violence--or "the right to fight," she explains.

So, most children grow up believing that hitting is morally right and appropriate behavior--after all, their parents did it to them. That's what sets the pattern, Dr. Smith points out. So, somehow, this "right to be violent" becomes ok if it's for so-called "moral or acceptable behavior" reasons, the specialist says.

It's especially ok if used as a "last resort"--parents use it under the "I've told you a thousand times" theory, she adds.

Most parents teach their children all of this over and over through many years, and it becomes "second nature" to many people, Dr. Smith continues.

"The result of such basic behavioral training is a society in which most all children experience violence aimed against them by parents--and by brothers and sisters.

"In fact, the most violent time of a person's life is generally between birth and 17 years of age.

"This early training in violence increases the likelihood of continued violence in adulthood."

Breaking the cycle of violence and abuse calls for individuals and families to learn--and develop for themselves--alternative behavior patterns which eliminate the presence of violence in family life, Dr. Smith concludes.

Dr. Smith is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Lena King, Scott Porter Wed in Shamrock Ceremony

Miss Lena Joyce King and Lewis Scott Porter, both of Shamrock were married in a quiet ceremony Friday, August 1, in the parsonage of First United Methodist Church. The Reverend Julius Early, pastor, officiated.

Families of the couple formerly lived in Collingsworth County. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King, long time residents of the Samnorwood area, now of Twitty. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Porter of Shamrock, who lived at Wellington.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a floor-length white moire dress with which she wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue. Her flowers were of blue and white silk daisies centered with a rose. White ribbon streamers were tied in lovers knots.

Attending the couple were Ross Blacketter and Mrs. Edward Pagan.

Afterward, a reception honored the couple in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pagan.

The bride is a graduate of Samnorwood High School and is employed at Shamrock Auto Supply. The bridegroom is employed at Tonguet Motor and Body Shop and Shamrock Dairy Queen.

After a wedding trip to Amarillo and Henrietta, the couple is living at 607 North Houston, Shamrock.

Dodson News

by Wanda Hightower Cardwell

Rev. Howard Smith visited several Dodson residents Monday, Aug. 18. He was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Camp and family. The Smiths are moving to Olton.

Several Dodson youth left for college this week. They were Joe Wilson Sanderson, Renessa Cardwell, Kloette Camp and T. Jay Roberson, who are entering WTSU in Canyon, Roy Dean Cardwell who is entering Bethany Nazarene College in Bethany, Okla., and Jeffery Camp who will attend Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cardwell and family recently were Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Hayes, Michelle, Lucy Ann, Chris Faith, Dennis and Jennifer of Quanah, Mr. and Mrs. John Tripplett of Borger, Kloette and Jeffery Camp, John Hightower, Sherrell Beanland, Misti, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hightower and Tim, Kathy Michael and Marty Warrick.

Bart Talley is a patient in Collingsworth General Hospital.

Rev. Robert Williams of Pampa was the guest speaker at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Arnice Lewis sang for the worship service. Kloette Camp, Renessa Cardwell, Michelle and Lucy Ann Hayes sang Sunday night. Misti Beanland, Crysta Caswell, Jennifer Hayes and Melissa Mead sang for the evening service also.

The Church School Board met Sunday evening with Mrs. Sherrell Beanland director of Christian Life, presiding. The board voted to have Promotion Day Sunday, August 31. The board also decided to sponsor a "pounding" Wed. Sept. 3 after prayer meeting for Rev. Dennis Hayes and his family.

Michelle Putman has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dub Wilfong, for several days. Her mother, Mrs. Maurine Putman has been in the hospital.

The Talley reunion was in Childress last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Sain and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Black, Mr. and Mrs. Lynnel Black, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whorton and Donna Hall and Preston Russell attended.

The Missionary Baptist Church did not have services Sunday.

The Dodson Christian Center has been having services again. They had a revival recently.

Null Family Has Annual Reunion in Mid-August

The annual Null family reunion which brings together the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.F. Null and other relatives was held here Saturday and Sunday, August 16 and 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Null were hosts at the hamburger supper held Saturday evening at Bura Handley Community Center.

Sunday morning, the Rev. Fred Null preached at Fundamental Baptist Church. A missionary to the Philippine Islands, now in the United States on furlough, he is living at Ninnekah, Okla., the town in which his grandfather settled when he moved to the Indian Territory from Ohio many years ago. Rev. Null is continuing to recover from open heart surgery.

The group gathered for the noon luncheon and more visiting.

Plans were made for the 1981 reunion, set tentatively for the second weekend in October. This change to a fall date was approved due to the hot weather usually experienced during the summer reunions.

The group will return to Wellington, for they agreed this is the best place to hold a reunion, with the nicest community building.

Next year, all women attending will bring favorite recipes and these will be compiled into a Null Family Reunion Cook Book, said Mrs. Ray Null.

Five of the 8 living children of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.F. Null attended this year.

He came to Collingsworth County from Ninnekah many years ago and settled on his farm west of Wellington.

Present, by families, were: Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bishop of Ninnekah, with their daughters, Mrs. Loyd Jackson of Oklahoma City and Mrs. Kenneth Newton of Marlow, Okla.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Null of Ninnekah;

Mr. and Mrs. George Winegeart and Earl Winegeart of Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thomas and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Whitten with Mark Allen and Paul of Childress;

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Null and children, Mrs. Kelly Westlake of Albuquerque, N.M. and David Null of Lubbock.

Who's New — in the — Wellington Area

Mr. and Mrs. Joey Manuel are the parents of a daughter, Holly Allison, born August 23, 1980 in Collingsworth General Hospital. Allison weighed 8 lbs. 9 ounces. She has a big sister, April 3½ years old. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wade Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Don Manuel. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O.H. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. S.H. Manuel, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Minatrea and Clarence Welch of Clarendon.

Happy Homemaking By BARBARA BAKER

Firewood getting more and more expensive? Takes this tip to cut down on firewood costs and use up old newspapers as well. Takes several sections from accumulated newspapers, roll tightly and place rubber bands around the ends to keep them together. Next, soak the rolls in water for three to four hours then let dry over a three week period. When thoroughly dried, these rolls can be pitched into a fire and will burn up to two-and-a-half hours!

If you have difficulty adjusting your electric blanket in the dark, here's a suggestion—drop a small glob of glue on the dial at about the center mark and let dry. During the night when the lights are out, you can feel the glob and know to move the dial either right or left depending on whether you want it warmer or colder.

Annual Langley Reunion Draws 154 Friends and Relatives

By Ida Langley Stuckey

The 1980 session of the Langley Reunion, which was the 27th, was held on the Langley Reunion grounds Aug. 15, 16 and 17, with 129 relatives and 25 visitors in attendance.

The reunion really started on Thursday night, as there were several campers and tents already camped. Sandwiches, drinks, cantalopes and cake were served to those who had come in early.

A half inch rain also came Thursday night putting us in a good mood to begin with and also to cool the atmosphere.

We were afraid that the extremely hot weather we had been having all summer might cut into our crowd, but we were pleased with the turnout.

We had a couple of cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Hogue from Lawton, Okla., who were here for the first time.

Mrs. Luree Claxton of Fresno, Calif., was the one who came the farthest again this year, and Mrs. Nannie Johnson of Wellington who is 85, was the oldest and Austin Bryce Langley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Langley of Wichita, Kansas was the youngest. He is 6 months old.

In the business meeting Hoyt Langley of Paris was elected president for the coming year, succeeding Jerry Lowe, and Pam Langley Neeley was again chosen to serve as secretary and treasurer for another year.

Bobby Haven of Clarendon was elected as trustee succeeding Vaughn Langley, who had served his 3 years.

The crocheted afghan donated by Mrs. May Lowe was won by Melba Marcum, and the three crocheted pillows were won by Janice Arn, Joe Meda Richards and Mildred Langley.

Mrs. Maude Clay and Mrs. Joyce Harris did an excellent job of preparing our meals again this year. This was the 18th year they have been with us.

There were 9 new additions to our family this year, one by marriage, Billy Price of Clarendon married Melody McFarland. The 8 new babies were as follows: Austin Bryce Langley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn; Teresa Trudeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Trudeau, Cortez, Colorado; Richard Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mathis, Oklahoma City; Andrew Grafton Neumeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Neumeyer, Austin; James Samuel (Sam) Langley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Langley, Paris; David Allen Chaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chaney, Paris; Nicole Lea Lombardi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan (Louanne) Lombardi; Tyrel Keith Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Davis, Farmington, N.M. There are only 5 of the 10 Langley brothers and sisters living and they were all here for the reunion.

Those in attendance according to families are: Mrs. Nannie Johnson, Wellington, Vera Haven, Gus, Lois, Karle, Kelly and Starlyn Haven; Bobby and Connie, Dianne, Crystal and Bobby Haven, Clarendon; Milton and Pat, Preston, Regina and John Haven, Lampasas; Harvey and June Price, Cindy, Rickey; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shadle, Che and Tracey; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Price, Clarendon; Earl and Margaret Harwell; Jan, Roby and Tina Ferguson; Lee and Billy Harwell, Childress; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis, Nancy and Curtis, Mrs. Zana Dobbs, and Cindy, Nucla, Colorado, Janice Harwell, Childress; Mrs. May Lowe, Marietta, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lowe, Holley, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lowe, Michelle and Millisa; Larry and Janice Arn, David and Tangla, Memphis; Audrey Burns, Sherman; Aubrey Lowe, Oklahoma City; Rusty and Judy Hartzell, Brad and Ashley, Weatherford, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hester, Del Rio; Mrs. Luree Claxton, Fresno, Calif.;

Mrs. Joyce Langley; Ross and Sally O'Hair; Mr. and Mrs. Danny Gray; Chasity and Charity and Lisa Gray, Wellington;

Henry and Jo Richards and granddaughter, Tara; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Richards, Kacy, Richards, Dena Ferrell, Norman, Okla.; Billy and Patty Dennis, Munday; Mrs. Aubrey Stuckey, Wellington;

Mrs. Opal Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Langley, Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Langley; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Langley and Sam; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Langley and Jeremy; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chaney, Chanci and David, Paris; Hoyt Langley, Debbie and Regie and Lisa, Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Langley, Donna and Randy; Mr. and Mrs. Cary Don Neeley, Curtis and David; Mr. and Mrs. Benny Carson, Anthony, Stephen, Jennifer of Quail; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bratt and Dana, Okmulgee, Okla.; Mrs. Melba Marcum, Leanne, and Lori, Pampa;

John and Lois Barnhart, Garland; Jim and Melody Barnhart, Lewisville; Bill and Willetta Langley, Derby, Kansas; Vaughn and Phillis Langley and Austin, Wichita, Kansas; Brent Langley, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Colman Hogue, Lawton, Okla.

Visitors to the 1980 Langley Reunion were Sandy and Vernon Miller, Thad and Jenney, Weatherford, Okla.; Ansel Atkinson, Wellington; Delbert and Ava White, Quail; Raymond and Faye Horton, Wellington; Scott Wells, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huston, Clarendon; Willie and Charley Heath, Ruidoso, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Boen, Azel, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Carson, Quail; Mr. and Mrs. Z.J. Neeley; Mrs. Mattie Holton, Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Van Bakel, Amarillo, David and Julian Torrez, Wellington.

County 4-H Bake Show set Sept. 4

4-H members met Wednesday, August 13, at 2:00 p.m. in the Extension Office in order to prepare for this year's County Bake Show. The County Bake Show will be Wednesday, September 4. The purpose of the meeting was for 4-H members to learn the nutritional value of cinnamon rolls and whole wheat muffins in the diet as well as the skills of planning, preparing and scoring these products.

Jean Chandler, Extension Agent demonstrated how to make whole wheat muffins and how to roll and cut cinnamon rolls. The following 4-H members practiced making cinnamon rolls: DeJon Lindsey, Patricia Fourmentin, Carla Caison, Nicole Keller, Lisa White, Donna Dickson, Leah Dickson, Tammy Dickson, Trudy Baker, Trina Baker, Stacy Brandvik, Stephanie Brandvik, Leslie Brandvik.

Leaders present were Jean Fourmentin, Sue Baker, and Sue Brandvik. For refreshments 4-H members enjoyed eating

Friends of the Library Revamp Plans for Fair

Friends of the Collingsworth County Library met Thursday, August 21, to plan projects for the Collingsworth County Fair.

Books by two Wellington authors will be sold, "The Hourglass" by Louise Vaughan and "40 Texas Rollings Plains Recipes and More," by Glenda Kiker Scott, according to Mrs. George Porter, vice president, who presided.

"The Hourglass" was published by Mrs. Vaughan during the Bi-centennial year of 1976.

It details a childhood in the early years of the 20th century, and covers a period which she calls "perhaps the most revolutionary period in the history of the world, from the horse and buggy age to the space age."

At that time she was living in Hereford and since then has returned to Wellington, her former home.

"40 Texas Rollings Plains Recipes and More," by Glenda Kiker Scott, came out only a few months ago. An autograph tea honored the author earlier this month. Most of the recipes have come down in her family for several generations. The book bears a drawing of the author by her uncle, noted Panhandle Artist Kenneth Wyatt.

This project marks a change from earlier plans. The used book sale will not be held at this time and the soon to be released book by Judge R.L. Templeton will not come in time for the Fair, according to Mrs. Porter.

She said that anyone wishing to join Friends of the Library may do so by contacting a member or by calling the county library.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 18, at 9 a.m. in the reading room of the county library.

Present at the August 21 meeting were Mrs. B.B. Martin of Dodson, Mrs. Clara Mote, Mrs. Leona Elliott, Mrs. Erma Faye Kersten, Mrs. David Caison and Mrs. Porter.

J.O. Wells Celebrates 100th Birthday in Aug.

A family reunion in Lubbock recently celebrated the 100th birthday of a former Wellington resident, James Oscar Wells.

Wells was born August 2, 1880 in Erath County. He later moved to Wellington where he farmed, and he moved to Lubbock in 1944.

He was a charter member of both Trinity Baptist and Southcrest Baptist churches in Lubbock.

Nine of his ten children (all of whom graduated from Wellington High School), all of his grandchildren, all of his great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild attended the celebration at the Villa Inn in Lubbock August 16 and 17.

Also attending were a brother, Monroe Wells, 92, of Stephenville, and a sister Naomi Smith, 88, of Roswell, New Mexico.

Eighty-five members of the family from six states attended the reunion.

Wells is a resident of Quaker Villa in Lubbock.

Texas medical schools produced more than 800 physicians in 1979, almost double the figure 10 years ago.

TEXAS BEEF SALAD VINAIGRETTE

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1 1/2 lb. cooked beef roast | 1/4 C. red wine |
| 2 T. lemon juice | 1/4 C. red wine vinegar |
| 2 T. salad oil | 1/2 tsp. salt |
| 8 oz. fresh mushrooms, halved vertically | 1 pkg. Italian salad dressing mix |
| 2-3 tomatoes, cut in wedges | 1/2 C. salad oil |
| 3-4 cooked and sliced carrots | Leaf Lettuce |

Carve roast beef into slices 1/8-1/4 inch thick; then cut slices into strips approximately 1 inch x 2-3 inches. Place meat in bowl or utility dish in which salad will marinate. Combine lemon juice and 2 tablespoons salad oil in skillet. Add mushrooms and cook slowly until just tender. Add mushrooms, tomatoes and carrots to beef. Stir wine, wine vinegar and salt into salad dressing mix. Add 1/2 cup salad oil and mix to blend. Pour marinade over meat and vegetables, cover and chill 2-6 hours. Turn mixture over in dressing several times while marinating, being careful to keep tomato wedges around the edge of the bowl. Drain off marinade and arrange beef, mushrooms, tomatoes and carrots on lettuce in serving dish. Serves 4-5.

Sharing the Growth

The Texas economy continues to make progress against the strong national currents of recession. New and expanding manufacturing plants in the state during the first six months of this year numbered 255, which is a 41 percent increase over last year's number, reports the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

The growth is good because it represents more jobs and greater productivity. But another encouraging sign we see in these figures is the scattering of that growth.

Most of the new or expanding plants are located in the state's 25 metropolitan areas. That is to be expected. But 49 of the plants, nearly 20 percent, are located in the smaller cities outside those clusters of counties making up metropolitan areas.

Texas welcomes industrial growth. It especially welcomes such growth that is broad-based. According to the bureau's report, that is exactly what it's getting.

For the Birds

Inclusion of a resolve to do away with the 55 mph speed limit on the GOP platform program was nothing short of the sort of thing we expect to go on during what we know as the silly season.

On the other hand the Demo 12 billion dollar jobs program is a bit of sheer stupidity which will fool only the ignorant segment of the population which has neither the desire nor the intent to work -- at anything.

Facing the realities of the 12 billion dollar panacea, the Congress is most unlikely to approve it. All too well it knows from past experience that federal "make-work" efforts slowly, if at all, make scarcely a dent in recession. More, they are too costly.

So, anyone who may be impressed by the posing humanitarianism of the Demo platform needs either to rub the sleep from his eyes or recognize that it all happened in Madison Square Garden, a place designed to be and made famous for the make believe world of showmanship.

FROM HIS WORD

We have been taught from the time we were small children that God was very far away in heaven and that He looked over everything we do each day. We were also taught that our God sat on the high throne of judgement and was not very close to the people of Israel in the Old Testament history. This is not a totally false picture but there is another side to our God.

It is not God's desire to be at a distance from His people. "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you." (Jn. 15:14) "I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you." (Jn. 15:15) "We are the children of God; and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ." (Rm. 8:16-17)
"And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel." (Ex. 19:6)

If we do not feel close to God it is NOT because God has moved over or changed this position. We need to learn to let God love us as His children and friends. You see that is His desire when we keep His commandments.

from the People

Wednesday, August 20, 1980, the people of Wellington and especially the families of Dallas and Denise Holland came to grips with the fact that death is no respecter of persons. The family and community were deeply and rightfully moved to ask why and then to offer help. All of these things are good and it helps to weld the community together as one.

We, the people of Wellington, have been presented with a golden opportunity to unite together to serve God. Or, shall we say as in times past, this was such a tragic thing, we feel so sorry for them. Then in the next month, year and years to come when they need our continued support and concern, where will the people of Wellington be standing?

"Then the King will say to those on His right,
'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.'

Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and You drink? And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in,
or naked, and clothe You?
And when did we see You sick, and in prison, and come to You?'

And the King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.'

Then He will also say to those on His left, 'Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me nothing to drink; I was a stranger, and you did not invite Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; and in prison, and you did not visit
Me.'

Then they themselves
also will answer, saying,
'Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked or sick, or in prison and did not take care of You?'

Then He will answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.'

'And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.'

Wellington, why don't we get behind this family and provide the continual financial and spiritual encouragement necessary to keep this family together? We do not need outside aid nor government support - we need to help one another!
God has given ALL of us a chance to serve Him. Now the question is: did we mean what we said while being supportive of Dallas and his family? Or, will we become as we have been in our past, too busy to really care as time goes by?

vention recess.

HOUSE

REAPPORTIONMENT-

By a vote of 222 for and 189 against, the House approved an amendment blocking redistribution of congress-sional seats among the states until the number of non-citizens is subtracted from each state's population count under the new census.
The vote came on an appropriations bill (HR 7583) for various government departments that was later passed and sent to the Senate.

Members voting "yea" opposed including non-citizens in the population figures used to redistribute congressional seats.

Reps. Samuel Hall, D-1,
James Collins, R-3, Bill
Archer, R-7, Tom Loeffler,

R-21, and Ron Paul, R-22,
voted "yea."

Reps. Charles Wilson,
D-2, Jim Mattox, D-5, Phil
Gramm, D-6, Bob Eckhardt,
D-8, Jack Brooks, D-9, J.
Marvin Leath, D-11, James Wright, D-12, Jack Hightower, D-13, Joe Wyatt, D-14, Kika de la Garza,
D-15, Richard White, D-16,
Charles Stenholm, D-17,
Mickey Leland, D-18, Kent Hance, D-19, Henry Gonzalez, D-20, Abraham Kazen, D-23 and Martin Frost,
D-24, voted "nay."

Reps. Ray Roberts, D-4, and Jake Pickle, D-10, did not vote.

MORTGAGE SUBSIDY--

The House rejected, by a vote of 117 for and 247 against, an effort to make more new homes eligible for government subsidized mortgages. The amendment was offered to a housing authorization bill (HR 7262) that was later passed and sent to the Senate.

Eckhardt, Brooks, White,
Leland, Loeffler and Kazen
voted "yea."

Hall, Collins, Mattox,
Gramm, Archer, Leath, Wright, Hightower, Wyatt,
de la Garza, Stenholm, Hance, Gonzalez, Paul and Frost voted "nay."

Wilson, Roberts and Pickle did not vote.

SENATE

ALASKA--By a vote of 63 for and 25 against, the Senate provided the three-fifths majority needed to halt a filibuster and clear the way for passage of a bill (HR 39) designating 105 million acres of Alaska as national parks, wilderness areas, and wildlife refuges off limits to most types of development.

Those favoring greater use of Alaska's timber and minerals had used prolonged debate to block the bill, which was later approved and sent to conference with the House.

Senators voting "yea"
favored breaking the filibuster and clearing the bill for a final vote.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D,
voted "yea."

Sen. John Tower, R, voted "nay."

FINAL PASSAGE--The

Senate, by a vote of 78 for and 14 against, passed the bill setting aside for preservation 105 million acres of Alaska (see vote above).

Senators voting "yea"
favored the Alaska lands
bill.

Bentsen voted "yea."
Tower voted "nay."

Probation Program Begins 7th Year

The 100th Judicial District Adult Probation Department will begin its seventh year of operation on September 1. The Department established in 1974, with the aid of a federal grant, and with Bob Watson, now Collingsworth County Judge as the first probation officer, is presently funded by probation fees collected from probationers and by state assistance administered by the Texas Adult Probation Commission. The Department serves the five counties of the 100th Judicial District, Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall, with offices in the Hall County Courthouse. Bill George Kesterson is the chief probation officer and Lucheryl Ellis is secretary-assistant probation officer.

"The principle function of a probation department is the supervision of persons who have had their jail or prison sentences suspended and have been placed on probation during a term of good behavior," Kesterson explained. Court imposed fines, court costs and restitution to be paid to victims of crimes are collected from probationers and distributed by the probation officers. Since its inception, the Department has collected $16,056.05 in fines, $13,122.60 in court costs and $40,456.77 in restitution for victims of crimes.

The probation department also serves the five County Courts in the 100th District, which have misdemeanor jurisdiction. Driving while intoxicated comprises a large percentage of the total probation workload. The Department presently supervises 96 persons on felony probation and 117 on misdemeanor probation.

"The purpose of probation supervision is the rehabilitation of offenders," says Kesterson. Personal counseling, financial planning, job assistance and alcohol abuse programs are some of the areas in which help is available for the probationer. The emphasis is on helping and not merely a watchdog approach, although frequent contact is a vital part of supervision.

"The cost of supervising a probationer is $.65 per day compared with $7.50 per day to maintain a prisoner in the Texas Department of Corrections," says the probation officer. Other economic advantages result from a condition of probation which requires each probationer to be employed. The enforcement of this condition generates federal, state and local tax money and helps to reduce welfare rolls.

"Probation, regarded by many as a 'pat on the wrist' type punishment, is an effective tool in the criminal justice system when properly administered," he continued. "Probation is punishment. A person placed on probation in effect contracts with the Court that during his term of probation he will abide by the terms set out by the Court in the probation judgement. These terms, in general, are that the probationer will not violate the laws of this state, or any other state or of the United States, he will report to the probation officer as directed, he will pay his fine, court costs, probation fees, court appointed counsel fees, if any, and make restitution to the injured party. He will be required to work and to support his dependents and may be ordered to submit to one of the alcohol abuse programs or psychiatric treatment."

One of the major advantages of probation is the simplicity of the procedures for revoking the probation order. When notice of a probation violation is received, the prosecutor files a 'Motion to Revoke' probation. A hearing is held and upon proof of a violation the probationer is subject to having his probation revoked and being confined in the Texas Department of Corrections, in a felony case, and in the county jail, in a misdemeanor case, to serve the original sentence imposed against him. The probationer is not entitled to a jury at the revocation hearing and the state's burden of proof on the violation is not as great as it is in a regular criminal proceeding.

In some areas a new program called "Partners in Probation" is being implemented. This is a program in which people who are interested in probation type community service can be a part of the system by accepting a non-compensated appointment as a "Partner in Probation". The appointed citizen becomes a "Partner in Probation" to a person on official probation and substitutes for a regular probation officer.

"If you are interested in such a plan and want to join this people helping people program, contact Bill George Kesterson at the Courthouse in Memphis, Texas, or call (806) 259-3388," he said.

County Designated for Disaster Assistance

Collingsworth County is among the 9 counties and their adjacent counties that have been declared eligible for disaster assistance due to drought conditions under SBA declaration No. 1900, according to Russell R. Berry, Lubbock District Director of the Small Business Administration.

Collingsworth comes under the application made by Hall County which also includes Donley, Briscoe, Motley, Cottle and Childress counties.

However, the dates of incident under which applicants may apply for SBA loans under this declaration cover June 1, 1980 through July 21, 1980. They do not cover any crop or pasture losses which may be attributed to the drought in the last month.

If SBA loans are to be obtained for the period after July 21, it will have to be under another declaration, and it is anticipated that one will be made.

The present designation will not cover the cotton or feed crops, as loss cannot be proved until after the crop is harvested, according to Bob Weatherly of the county ASCS office.

What will be covered principally under the June 1-July 21 declaration is pasture land, he added.

Ranchers or farmers who believe they have suffered a loss may begin making applications now and the deadline for filing physical losses sustained is February 21, 1981. Economic injury disaster loan applications must be filed by May 12, 1981.

No interest rate was given on the SBA loans under this declaration, which was effective August 14. Weatherly said.

Dove Hunting Opens Sept. 1

Dove hunting opens in Collingsworth County Monday, Sept. 1, with hunters facing a season that is expected to be only fair.

There will be no split season this year, with the closing date falling on Tuesday, Oct. 30, according to Dennis Thomas, district game warden.

Last year's split season was unpopular with hunters in the North Zone, and cold weather during the winter portion of the season cut down on the hunting, Thomas said.

The bag limit is 10 birds.

Most of the doves taken in this area will be found around water holes, or other places where water is available, according to Thomas.

Legal shooting hours for doves are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Thomas emphasized that the sunset closing is.

Officials Hear Appraisal Status

County officials were in Austin, August 20 and 21 to attend a seminar sponsored by the Texas Association of Counties.

They included County Judge Bob Watson, John R. Henard, commissioner of Precinct 1, and Bill Lindsey, chairman of the County Tax Appraisal Board.

One session covered "The Status of Tax Appraisal Districts." Watson said the amount of tax dollars will not be much greater under the 100% valuation figures because of the drop in tax rates, although the change from the present system will be drastic. Ken Graeber, executive director of the State Property Tax Board, discussed this for the group and later the Wellington men were also to discuss this with him.

Visits to various state offices took up one afternoon. Included were the Department of Public Safety, Texas Jail Standards Commission, Texas Center for the Judiciary, Attorney General's office, and the offices of Gov. Bill Clements, Senator Bob Price and Representative Foster Whaley.

Watson and Henard also visited the office of Emergency Disaster Services.

Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Henard and Mrs. Lindsey accompanied their husbands.

CJC Will Offer Three Courses Here

Clarendon College will offer three courses in Wellington during the fall semester, Dr. Bob E. Riley, dean of instruction, announced this week.

Classes scheduled are Spanish, sophomore English and psychology and/or sociology, however, the number enrolled in each course will be the determining factor in their being held.

Classes are scheduled on Monday nights from 7 to 10 p.m. Courses carry three semester hours of credit, according to Dr. Riley, who added that numerous requests have been made from the Wellington, Shamrock and Childress areas for college classes. Registration will be held Thursday, Sept. 4, from 6 to 7 p.m. in Wellington High School.

Classes will begin the week of September 8, and conclude during the week of December 15.

"These classes may be of particular interest to area veterans who still are eligible for G.I. Bill educational benefits. For example, a veteran who is married with two children would receive $224 per month if he enrolls in two courses."

Further information may be had from Mrs. Wanda Cardwell, Wellington Junior High School, by calling 447-5726, or Dr. Bob E. Riley, Clarendon College, 874-3571.

Wellington School Enrollment 794

Wellington Schools began the 1980 term with an enrollment of 794, according to Supt. Kenneth McKay late last week.

Although this was down slightly from the figure last year, McKay said there are known to be several students who will enroll late.

It is believed the enrollment will reach 800.

High School enrollment is 241, while Junior High is 201 and elementary school 352. This includes 311 in grades one through 5 and 42 in Kindergarten.

Junior High enrollment is larger than last year's count, due to the smaller than usual 8th grade class which graduated into high school, said Bob Allen, principal.

With the 241 high school enrollment, Wellington is near the top of enrollment for conference AA schools.

McKay explained this includes those high schools with enrollment of 130 to 254 two year average enrollment of 254 would be required before Wellington would go up to AAA. At one point last year, the enrollment was 257.

In addition to this, the University Interscholastic League has the authority to change the number of students for each classification.

Beginning this year, all schools formerly in Class A moved automatically into a AA classification, and those formerly in Class AA became AAA.

Halfway Hosts Field Day September 9

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at the Halfway location will host the field day on Tuesday, September 9, beginning at 1:00 p.m. Other agencies located at the Lubbock-Halfway Center and cooperating in the event are the USDA-SEA, National Weather Service, Texas Forest Service, Agricultural Extension Service and the High Plains Research Foundation.

Highlights and topics to be featured will include weed control, water management, cotton, and a low energy precision application (LEPA) irrigation system for more efficient moisture utilization. In addition, Specialists will be centrally located and available for discussion/s of specific different from the legal shooting hours last year, and also different from the legal shooting hours for other game birds. The sunset closing time will be enforced the game warden said.

It is also pointed out that migratory game bird regulations were not available when the 1980-81 Texas Hunting and Sport Fishing guide was published and hunters interested in dove information will need to check for an update to the guide.

Marker Sought for Nicholson School Site in Coming Year

Fifty-one present and former residents of Nicholson Community and their guests met for the annual reunion Sunday, August 17, in the Samnorwood cafeteria.

Visiting followed the luncheon, with many of the memories centered around the Nicholson School.

During the short business session, members voted to continue studying means of securing an official State Historical Marker to be placed on the grounds of the Nicholson school near to the school storm cellar which is all that remains to mark the location. This would be the marker at the side of Highway US 83.

Willie Knoll, president, said the addresses of more former residents are needed, and urged those present to work on this through the coming year. Anyone with the address of a former resident can send it to him, at Route 3, Shamrock; Roy Hyman or Mrs. Faye Dunaway, both of Shamrock.

Tribute was paid to former members of the community who have died in the last year: Leonard Crouch, Pearl Crouch Reynolds, Bill Simpson, Fred Page, Mrs. G.W. Crossland, Ernestine Whitson who was a student in the last school held at Nicholson, John Whitson.

Those present donated $71.50 to help defray reunion expenses.

Oldest person present was Claude (Red) Simpson of Bangs, who was celebrating his 80th birthday Sunday.

Four Simpson brothers and their sister were at the reunion: Claude Simpson; Homer Simpson, and Audrey Simpson of Amarillo; John Simpson of Lutie and Mrs. Mattie Simpson Garner of Shamrock. The family came to Nicholson in 1917.

Mrs. Roy Hyman, who called herself an "in-law in the community," told of her appreciation for the community. Daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. John Baggs of Shamrock, she recalled the revival meetings which her father held in the community and of her visits that extended back to her childhood.

The same officers will serve next year, which is the second year of their terms.

Those who registered were Willie and Jane Knoll; Roy and Effie Hyman of Shamrock; Raymond and Faye Crossland of Abilene; Nell Poteet; Eula Tuck of Shamrock;

Archie Hyman of Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Simpson of Bangs; G.B. (Goat) Hopper; Frank J. Knoll of Shamrock; Katie Maddox of Gainesville; Leona Hyman of Leon, Okla.

Mattie Simpson Garner of Shamrock; Robert and Faye Dunaway of Shamrock; Evelyn Crossland McGee, Tracey and Michelle Stanley, Virginia Crossland Burkhart, Audrey Simpson and Homer Simpson, all of Amarillo;

Mrs. J.D. McNeill and Mrs. Tillie Holland of Pampa; Ed Wischkaemper of Shamrock; Floradell Boon Hill of Lawton; Katy Stephens of San Pedro, Ca.; Albert and May Belle Boon of Enid, Okla.;

Paul Neuhaus of Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hiatt of Arlington; Peggy Muncrief, Linda Calcote, Leslie Calcote all of Wheeler; Lois and John Simpson; Steven Bodine, Scott Bodine, Carol Bodine all of Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walker of Pampa; Mark and Nick Simpson; and Ozette and Selba Rainey; and Virginia Robey of The Wellington Leader.

Norwood School Enrollment 107

Samnorwood Schools have enrolled 107 students with the opening of the new term, Supt. Garland Cavitt has announced.

This is 23 higher than the enrollment at the beginning of the 1979 year. Cavitt called it much higher than he had expected.

He also announced that Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 1, will be a school holiday.

The entire student body will come to Wellington for the Collingsworth County parade Friday, Sept. 5, with a large number of the students participating in the parade.

Several floats will be entered from school groups as well as from Samnorwood Fire Department.

The complete faculty was announced:

High school: Cavitt, superintendent and world history; Kenneth Martindale, principal; Paul Schaub, math; Judy Barber, home economics; Zeldon

Jenkins, science; Jane Sheer, English; Ralph Decker, business and coach; Jimmy Brown, vocational agriculture. Pat Breeding, library aide.

Kay Martindale is school secretary and tax collector.

Grade School: Donna Messer, kindergarten, first and second grades; Bonita Myers, third and fourth grades; Peggy Hendrix, fifth and sixth grades; Mary Burcham, resource and science; Ozette Rainey, principal; Bunny Bell, and Belva Blevins, migrant aides; Lois Simpson, Title I aide.

Others on the school staff include bus drivers: Laverne Bentley, Charles Roberts, Schaub, Selba Rainey and Martindale. Driving the noon route for kindergarten students are Johnnie Morgan and Jane Bell.

In charge of the cafeteria are Myrtle Stages and Sue Baker; and maintenance: Lazaro and Celia Alfaro and Reyes Reyna.

SUSAN BRATT
Susan Bratt Graduates At Muskogee

Susan Langley Bratt, formerly of Quail was graduated from the Indian Capital Area Vocational Technical School of Practical Nursing in Muskogee, Okla., Thursday night, August 21. She ranked fifth in the class of 29.

The commencement exercise was in the Bethany Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Bratt graduated from Quail High School in 1972 as valedictorian of her class and attended Clarendon College one year.

In 1973 she married Terry Bratt. They have one daughter, Dana Fay, four. The family lives in Okmulgee, Okla.

Attending the graduation were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Langley of Wellington; her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Clay of Hedley; and Donna Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carson and Jennifer of Quail.

The first lollipops were dabs of sugar candy placed on the end of a slate stick.

Faye Murphy Granted PhD From TWU

Faye Lacy Murphy was awarded a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Texas Women's University at the 77th Summer Commencement held August 16, in Main Auditorium.

Present were her mother and sister from Wellington, Mrs. Robert Lacy and Renee Lacy.

Commencement speakers were Elizabeth Snapp, M.L.S., vice president for Development with the TWU National Alumnae Association and Beryl Buckley Milburn, chairman of the Coordinating Board of Texas Colleges and University System.

Dr. Murphy, who lives in Ft. Worth, is associate professor of psychology and coordinator of child development at Tarrant County Junior College, which she has been associated 11 years.

Her degree is in the field of child development, counseling and administration, and her dissertation is "A Comparison of Learning Experiences in Child Development Training Laboratories and in Community Field Sites."

This is Dr. Murphy's third degree of TWU as she receive her B.S. degree in home economics education in 1960 and M.S. degree in child development and family living and clothing in 1968.

This year also, Dr. Murphy directed a special project for the Texas Department of Community Affairs, which included training leaders of services. She has also directed

City Receives "Extra" One-Time Sales Tax Rebate

The City of Wellington has received two sales tax rebate checks instead of the usual one from the office of Bob Bullock, Comptroller of Public Accounts, for the August pay period.

It results from a one-time multi-million sales tax rebate bonus.

Wellington received a net payment of $5,145.09 for the pay period ending July 21, bringing the 1980 payments to date to $40,886.28.

On August 7, Wellington was mailed another check for $8,392.78, and this upped the city's total payments for 1980 to $49,279.06.

Payment for the one-month period ending July 31 a year ago was $3,030.22, and the total to August 1, 1979 totaled $33,579.71.

Using the end of July figures, this shows an increase of 21 percent in the sales tax rebates received by Wellington in 1980 over the 1979 figures.

Bullock explained that this month's "extra" check will include a large amount of money from second quarter returns filed in the Comptroller's office on the July 31 deadline and normally would have been included in the September payment.

He said one check represents taxes being returned from last month's rebate cutoff through the end of July.

The other check is the result of allowing an extra week of tax allocations for cities during the first week of August.

City sales tax rebates will now be allowed to accrue through the first week of each month and be paid about the 15th of the month, Bullock said.

Improvements in the state's deposit and tax posting system will allow his office to keep the rebate pipeline open into the first week of each month and still get out city checks by mid-month.

Bray Community Reunion Aug. 31

The Bray Community Reunion will be held Sunday, August 31, at the W.H. Clay Farm near Hedley and all former and present residents of that area and their friends are urged to attend.

Bray is one of the older communities in eastern Donley County, and much of its life revolved around the school until it was consolidated with Quail Rural High School District.

Mrs. W.H. Clay is president of the reunion group and Mrs. Homer (Myrtis) Hill of Hedley is secretary.

The reunion visitors will begin gathering around 9 a.m. Sunday and a basket dinner will be served at noon, according to Mrs. Ola Parker. Most of the time will be given over to visiting, she said.

Fair Youth Division Plans Set

Girls and boys between the ages of 9 and 18 will display their skill at cooking, sewing and preserving in this year's Collingsworth County Fair, Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6.

No item they display will have been shown in any previous fair, and each one will have completed the work between the 1979 and 1980 Fairs, announced Jean Chandler, chairman.

This portion of the Fair will be in Bura Handley Community Center.

There will be four divisions, Junior I, 9-11 years; Junior II, 12 and 13 years; Senior I, 14 and 15 years and Senior II, 16 through 18 years, Miss Chandler said.

She noted other rules.

There must be no name or number on the entries, articles must be clean; there must be tags on all products telling the class and division to be entered.

Canned products must be in standard pint or quart jars, jellies in standard pint or half pint jars. All jars must be made for canning. Mayonnaise jars or similar types are not acceptable.

Entries must be brought to the community building between 1 and 5 p.m.

Thursday, Sept. 4 and are to remain in place to 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 6, when they must be claimed.

Foods must be plastic wrapped on paper plates or heavy cardboard. Jellies and pickles will be opened for judging.

First second and third place ribbons will be awarded in each class, on a point system, and a grand champion and reserve champion rosettes will be given in each of the four divisions. Only one entry in each class will be accepted from each contestant.

Miss Chandler announced these divisions:

Towel-Soap Collection For Rockets, Aug. 29

The annual towel and soap collection for the Skyrockets will be held at the Wellington-Phillips scrimmage Friday night, August 29, according to Coach James Williams.

A box will be set up near the stadium entrance and Rocket fans who wish to contribute towels and bars of soap may drop them in as they come by.

Williams explained that in the course of a season the cost of towels and soap is considerable and this event gives the team's supporters an opportunity to help them.

Morgas Has Interest in Oil, Gas Wells

Morgas, an Amarillo firm, has acquired an interest in and under oil and gas leases covering two tracts in Collingsworth on which wells have been drilled, according to an agreement filed in the office of Helen Gollighugh, county clerk.

Through the agreement, it acquired all of the right, title and interest of C&C Drilling Co., C&C Oil and Gas Co., The Charles Homer Cranford II and Carla Bea Cranford Trusts, acting through Charles H. Cranford, to the NW/4 of NW/4 section 23, block 13 Morgas 1 Bea No. 1 well) and S/2 section 88, block 12, (Morgas II Gordon No. 1. Also included in the agreement were three tracts in Wheeler County totaling 200 acres and a tract in Gray County totaling 217.4 acres. Seven wells are included in the 3 counties.

Also conveyed was a considerable amount of equipment which included jack pumps, pumps, engines, tanks, pipe and other equipment.

The consideration was given as $200,000, with Morgas to pay certain debts owed.

Morgas is a partnership of D. Lyman Stubblefield and Lon Moser, Amarillo attorneys.

Names of College Students Requested

The Wellington Leader needs the names of the area's young men and women who are attending college or technical schools this year, along with the institution in which they are enrolled.

The information will be used in a news story which will run as soon as it is available.

This includes not only those studying toward bachelor's degrees, but adults who may have been out of college for a number of years or who possibly are attending for the first time.

To give this information, please call The Wellington Leader News department, 447-2550. Thank you.
