BURNS DENIES KNOWLEDGE OF JURY CHARGES

GOES ON STAND AFTER TESTIMONY OF FIVE SENATORS TODAY

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—His reputation vouched for by five United States Senators, Wm. J. Burns, charged with Harry F. Sinclair and three others, with criminal contempt of court, testified in his own behalf today and vigorously denied connection with the surveillance of the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy jury.

Senators Shortridge, California; Watson, Indiana; Moses, New Hampshire; and Copeland and Wagner of New York, each testified that the internationally known detective had good reputation for honesty and integrity.

Burns aggressively defending himself, denied every charge the government had placed against him and declared testimony by William J. McMillan, the government's star witness, was completely untrue as far as it affected him.

McMillan, working for the Burns agency under the name of William V. Long, testified the noted detective had urged him "to stick" to a false story before the grand jury. Burns he did nothing of the sort and only inquired of McMillan if his report saying a juror had been approached by a government employe, was accurate.

Secret Evidence Held On McMillan

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14 (AP)—Secret evidence which the prosecution contends strengthens the chain of circumstances linking Dr. Charles McMillan with the slaying of Mrs. Amelia Appleby, wealthy widow of a Chicago inventor, was declared to have been found by sheriff's officers as the opening day of the trial was reached today.

COMMERCIAL AVIATION FROM U. S. TO LATIN AMERICAS PRACTICABLE AND FEASIBLE, LINDY SAYS AFTER JAUNT

(By The Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, Feb. 14.—Aviation on a commercial basis is practicable and feasible between the United States and South and Central American countries, said Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh on his return here from a good will tour of the southern countries.

He said he saw no obstacles in flying in the tropics that were more severe than those encountered in the United States. He spoke highly of the behavior of his plane, saying: "I think it is in almost perfect condition although it will be overhauled here."

Have Parachute "No, I did not carry a parachute on the flight," he replied to another question. "Parachutes are necessary in military maneuvers but not in passenger transportation and also they are of no use on the type of plane I'm flying."

"The 'Spirit of St. Louis,'" he said, "is so constructed that it is possible to land without injury to the pilot or passenger in case of a forced landing. But what would have been the outcome," he was asked, "if you had been forced to land while over the water?"

HOOVER ASKED TO TESTIFY IN FLOOD MUDDLE

MUCH INFORMATION IS EXPECTED IN PLAN FOR CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Secretary Hoover is to be called before the senate commerce committee to give his views on the administration's plan of flood control.

After a bitter fight, the committee voted seven to six to invite the presence of the commerce secretary, who now is on a fishing trip in Florida, and who made several trips into the flood district as the personal representative of President Coolidge.

Hawes Sponsors Move The movement to call Mr. Hoover was sponsored largely by Senator Hawes, Democrat, Missouri, and Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, who has promised the secretary a fight without gloves in the Ohio presidential primary.

Several weeks ago Senator Willis suggested that the secretary be called, but he was blocked by Chairman Jones, who contended it would be unfair to request one member of the cabinet to testify on a question under jurisdiction of another member.

Senator Willis offered to absent himself from participation in the examination of Mr. Hoover if such participation would prove embarrassing.

One of the questions which have been asked various witnesses in the flood control hearings is whether they favor state participation in the expense of curbing the waters, or whether this should be a national burden. The administration plan calls for such participation, but this question has become a much disputed point in congress.

Mr. Willis has expressed doubt whether state participation would be feasible.

Suggestions Valuable Senator Hawes took up the fight to call Hoover on the grounds that he is an eminent engineer, able to give the committee valuable suggestions on flood control in the valley, and that he represented the president in the flood area.

The Missouri senator insisted that the president is "looking at the flood situation through the spectacles of others." He expressed the opinion that, through Hoover's testimony, the committee will be in better position to learn what is in the president's mind relative to flood legislation.

TECH CAGERS, COMING INTO OWN, BEAT SIMMONS HERE 45 TO 34

COWBOYS LOSE THIRD IN ROW IN HARD GAME

JENNINGS LEADS HIS MATES OF TECH WITH GREGG FOR VISITORS

Opening up with smoothly executed plays and then falling back into more or less careless performance, the Texas Tech Matadors swept through the ranks of the Simmons University Cowboys for their third consecutive time this season, winning by a score of 45 to 34 in the Tech gym last night.

Sports Of Brilliance

The game was without apparent brilliancy with the exception of a few spurts by each team. The Matadors displayed excellent team work in the opening minutes and ran their lead to 26 to 13 at the end of the half. Reserve players sent in by Payne went into a scoring slump and the visitors ran their total in the twenties. Starting players went back into the contest and the Tech again went into a safe lead.

Captain Al Jennings of the Tech hit his scoring stride again last night and despite the fact that he was out of the game for several minutes, his total for the night was 19 points, 8 field shots and 3 from the foul line. He was followed close by Melvern Hunter who played with flashing brilliancy to score 14 points, 6 from the floor and 2 free pitches.

Gregg Leads Cowboys

Gregg of the Cowboys, was high man of his team with 10 points. Dope White, stellar guard, thrilled the stands with his many defensive stabs at the Cowboy scoring combination in which he prevented many shots from the floor. McWhorter, a Tech reserve of last year, appeared on the floor during the second half for the Simmons team.

Referee Del Morgan called 27 fouls during the game, the totals being assessed with 16 of them. The two teams meet tonight at 7:30 in their final game of the season.

Navy Sword Again?

Leading all men candidates for the navy sword, Russell (Whitey) Lloyd of Chatham, N. J., has a chance to make a new record by winning the navy's greatest athletic prize for the third successive time.

Lloyd is a star at football and basketball and on the track. He is also a fine swimmer and boxer. Despite his six feet two and his 200 pounds, he is a ten second man on the track and may be developed into a great decathlete and pentathlete.

The navy sword is awarded annually to the best athlete of the year. It has been won twice by only two navy athletes, Commander V. H. Weems for football, wrestling and rowing and Ira McKee for football, basketball and baseball.

Here's one of the latest photographs of the navy's best athletes.

Hooks and Slides

Youth Is Served

The names of several great track and field stars of the past few years are missing from the All-American track selections of Secretary-Treasurer Daniel J. Ferris of the Amateur Athletic Union, and in their places are found the names of younger men, many in the collegiate ranks.

One finds missing the names of Paddock, Murchison, McGrath, Helfrich and Taylor. Also, it is noticed that Harold Osborn holds only one place on the Ferris selections instead of the three as in other years.

Youth is no respecter of age, and it is youth that has displaced these veterans of the track world. Karl Wildermuth, Lancelot Ross, Sablin Carr, Ray Conger, Johnny Gilchrist, Herman Phillips, Anton Burg and other young track stars are taking the spotlight.

It must not be taken for granted, however, that the veterans are through. With the exception of Loren Murchison, who is recovering from a recent illness, all of them are pretty certain to be in competition this summer.

Age of Specialization

It is worthy of note, in view of the recent statements of Dr. Otto C. Peltzer on track specialization, that only two athletes gained more than one place on Ferris' all-star stand.

Willie Ritola, the Finnish runner, and Harry Hinkel, of the New York A. C., have four and two places, respectively.

Ritola is given, and given deservedly, first choice in the six-mile run, the ten-mile run, the steeplechase and the cross-country. He won national titles in all these events last year.

Hinkel displaces Willie Plant as America's premier walker, being placed in the list for the three-mile and seven-mile events, while Plant is chosen in only the mile pace.

Dr. Peltzer, praising American track standards, said that athletes specialized in events. This statement is clearly emphasized by Ferris' selections, as a different man is chosen for almost every event.

Watch This Tenorio

Don't be surprised if you hear plenty from now on of Lope Tenorio, the Filipino lightweight who drew with Bruce Flowers in New York a few days ago.

Tenorio, previous to meeting Flowers, had defeated Stanz Loyza and Joey Glick in bouts at Cleveland, and went on to New York to fight Flowers in a headliner at the Garden without ever having appeared there before.

That, so we are told, is the second time in the history of boxing that a fighter has been in the

SIKES TO GET NINTH LETTER FROM A. AND M.

AGGIE STAR WILL END SCHOOL DAYS AS DIAMOND BOSS

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Feb. 14.—When Captain Siki Sikes of the Texas Aggie basketball team, whose home is at Leonard, closes his career at A. and M. this year he will probably be in possession of nine letters, three each in basketball, baseball and football, and an award for his year as captain of the case team.

Sikes has taken part in three major sports of the school during the past three years and has acquitted himself creditably in each one. He has finished his last season in football, is playing his final season in basketball, and is counted upon as one of the mainstays of the Aggie basketball staff during the coming baseball season.

Few athletes have done more for their school or for the sport world than has Siki. He helped put Southwest conference football in the front by his stellar work for the Aggies and in the East-West game this year and his name will go down in A. and M. sports annals as outstanding among the school athletes.

NEGRO IS GIVEN 30-DAY RESPITE FROM EXECUTION

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—Governor Moody Tuesday granted a 30-day reprieve to Pete Banks, negro, scheduled to be killed in the electric chair early Wednesday, in compliance in the slaying of C. P. Jones, La Grange, Texas, station agent.

The governor postponed the execution that he may look further into the case.

Banks was convicted jointly with Mrs. Jones, wife of the slain man, whose five to 99 year sentence was commuted by former Governor Miriam A. Ferguson to five years.

The state's theory was that Mrs. Jones bribed Banks to kill her husband.

The woman called Monday in a vain attempt to see Moody and obtain a furlough extension for herself. She also said it was her recommendation that the negro be given clemency, because he wasn't guilty. The furlough extension was denied.

KONECNY IS WORKING

Johnny Konecny, of Bryan, one of the Aggies' most promising football and basketball players last season, has been working out with the Aggie track team since the opening of the second term and is expected to be back in harness for the Aggies with the opening of the football season. Johnny was not in school last term and is not eligible for athletics this term but this Bryan lad is expected to star on the gridiron and on the basketball court for the Aggies next year.

FORBID FORMAL GARB

main bout at Madison Square Garden without having first appeared there as a preliminary fighter.

Tenorio, in both Cleveland and New York, has shown the makings of a great as well as a pleasing fighter. He can punch, he can take it, and he likes to fight. It is not strange that he is a fighting fighter, however, as most of the boys who have come over here from the islands in the Pacific have been crowd pleasers.

Tenorio, before he started wilding the mitts, was a street car conductor in his native land. It can be safely said that those days are over, and it won't be nickles that he will be collecting from now on.

Refuses New Contract

"DAZZY" VANCE

It soon will be time for "Dazzy" Vance to ease down on his golf game if he agrees to terms with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Right now, Vance is in the hold-out class. He is said to be seeking $5,000 more a season than his new contract from the Dodgers calls for, and the Dodgers cannot see the demand.

Our photograph shows Vance in his favorite winter pose on the golf links. He is wintering in Clearwater, Fla., and will continue his golf game, he says, rather than pitch for the Dodgers at the salary they are offering him.

Vance is not alone in the hold-out class. Waiter Hoyt of the Yankees and Charley Root of the Cubs also want larger contracts.

Washington and leading down through Mexico, and the Central and South American republics, was described today as an odyssey of the air which in its spectacular aspects was second only to his New York-Paris flight.

With characteristic modesty Colonel Lindbergh said the last non-stop leg of the flight through the fog was like any other flight and that he was not lost at any time.

"My longest jump over the water was between Havana and Key West, about 100 miles," he related. "Then from Key West to Florida I think it was nearly the same distance. I skirted the west coast of Florida north and flew directly toward St. Louis. It was from then on that I had to detour, though I encountered fog from the time I hit the mainland.

Flying Ceiling Low

"I was only occasionally out of sight of the ground on the trip yesterday. The flying ceiling was too low to circle over St. Louis as I had planned and so I headed directly for the field. The mouth of the Mississippi river was a landmark for me."

The crowd of 800 persons standing in a soaking rain at the field to welcome the good will flier, grew apprehensive at 4 p. m. when an airplane took off and returned five minutes later unable to penetrate the dense fog and mist. Crowding about the dripping hangars they stared into the southeastern skies and the powerful electric beacon light swung to an afro its beam penetrating the sodden heavens.

Even as they stared a sputter caught the people to turn and with a roar Lindbergh's plane swept over the hangars from the northwest. Circling the field several times to inspect the ground, the Lone Eagle landed and taxied his plane to a hangar.

Met by Comrades

Thrusting his long legs out of the cabin of the plane he was met by the reception committee and many of his comrades of the national guard and air mail routes. After posing for pictures he saw the plane placed safely in the hangar and then gave a short interview to newspaper men. Afterward Colonel Lindbergh was taken to the home of a friend to spend the night. "We" were at home again, the plane somewhat travel stained and the pilot weary.

Lindbergh said he had enjoyed the trip, although the flying was done in the worst possible weather, according to the weather bureau.

The flier asked to be allowed to retire early to get some rest for the exhibition which had been planned as a tribute to the school children of St. Louis. The program called for a flight by Colonel Lindbergh over the Mississippi river between the Eads and the free bridges with the children lined up along the levee. The flight was planned as an acknowledgment of the gift of a bust of the flier from the children.

Asked what his plans were he said he had none beyond making an air mail flight over his old route to Chicago next week.

The territory included by Wisconsin was first seen by a white man in 1634. He was Jean Nicolet, the French explorer.

It soon will be time for "Dazzy" Vance to ease down on his golf game if he agrees to terms with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

EVASION OF GAS TAX CHARGED AS PROBE PLANNED

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—If reports are true that the three cent gasoline tax is being evaded systematically in various sections of the state, an investigation to "put a stop to it" ought to be started, Governor Moody said Monday.

A man identified with oil interests told newspaper men that evasion of the tax is one of the reasons why the retail gasoline market is "shaky" and often depressed.

He said jobbers sometimes avoid paying the toll by telling refiners, from whom they purchase, that a given shipment is to be sent out of the state when it actually is diverted at a point within the Texas boundaries and sold at a low figure made possible because the three cents a gallon levy is escaped. He conferred with the governor but apparently not about the tax matter.

Interstate shipments are toll exempt because the state has no legal right to assess them.

BARRY NAMED AS ARBITER IN MAJOR LEAGUE

ONE OF FEW EVER TO GET APPOINTMENT AS PURELY AMATEUR

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Dan A. Barry, named an American League umpire by President E. S. Barnard yesterday, is the first Boston man ever to be appointed to the league staff and is one of the few ever to receive such an appointment without having had previous professional experience.

Long a College Official

Barry won his appointment by excellent work as a college baseball official over a 15-year period. After playing high school and semi-pro baseball, he signed with the New York Americans and was named to the Utica club. Later he was sent to the Western League but an injury to his arm terminated his active career as a player and he turned to newspaper work as a member of the sports staff of the Boston Post.

Assigned to cover a scholastic game, he was called upon to umpire and so popular were his decisions that his services have been in demand ever since. He has been umpire-in-chief of all Holy Cross games since 1920 and worked practically all of the Harvard games since 1913.

Campbell Also Named

William M. "Brick" Campbell, for four years an arbiter in the Southern Association, was another appointment of President Barnard to the American League staff of umpires. Campbell is 29 years old and a native of Memphis, Tenn.

Son Trains Winners Just Like His Dad

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 14.—History is repeating itself in New Orleans turf history.

Twenty-five years ago horses trained by John F. Schorr, Memphis turfman, were among the most feared ones that ran in the meetings here.

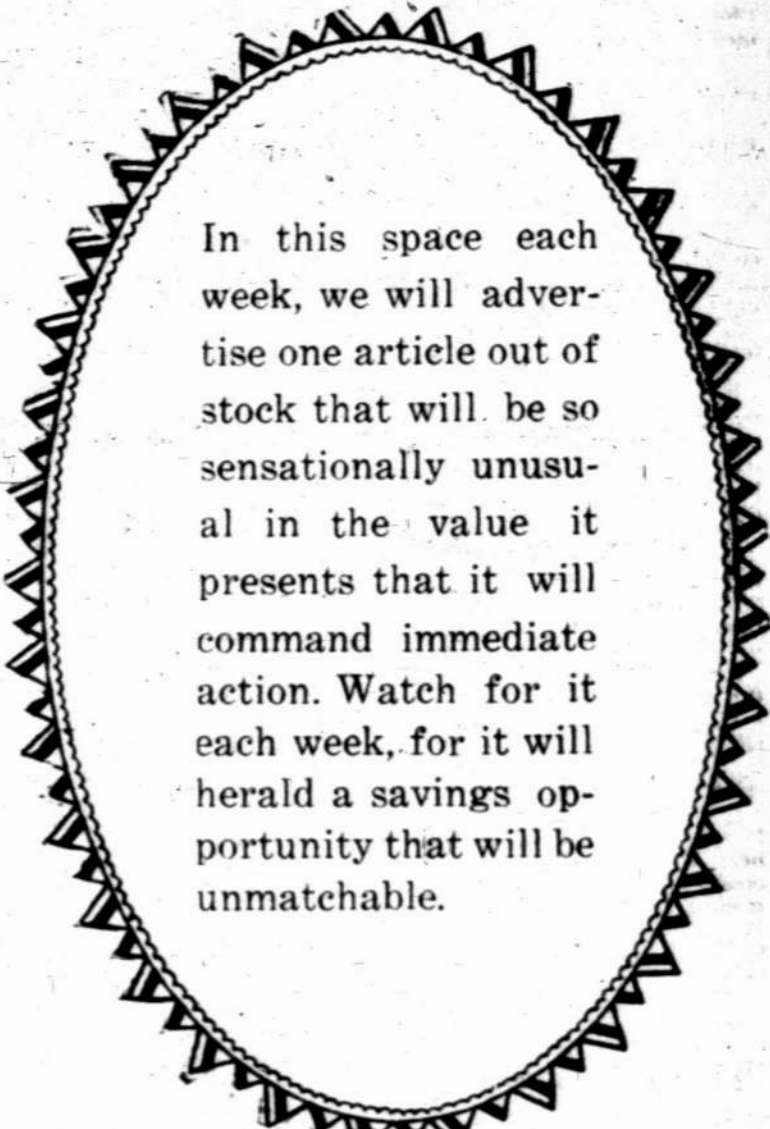

Today horses trained by J. F. Schorr, his son, are respected just as much. Schorr is working for the E. B. McLean stables. Its horses have been winning regularly here this year. Three winners were booked home on the same day recently.

HAHN FAILS IN NEW RECORD BUT NOT OWN FAULT

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—For the third time this season, Lloyd Hahn failed to establish a new indoor running mark chiefly because of conditions over which he had no control.

With the announced intention of seeking to shatter Jimmy Connolly's world's record for the two-thirds of a mile, Hahn appeared in a special event at the Elks indoor scholastic meet here last night only to find that Connolly and Willie Godwin, scheduled to furnish the opposition for him, had failed to put in an appearance. Despite the fact that he had no one to push him to his best stride, Hahn failed in his effort by only four-fifths of a second. He covered the distance in 2 minutes, 44.2 seconds, being paced for two laps by a high school runner and finishing the last four laps alone. Connolly's world mark, set five years ago, is 2:43.3.

As it was Hahn equalled the best outdoor time for the distance made in 1910 by Melvin Sheppard, old Olympic star.

HUERTA GIVEN CLEAR RECORD IN U. S. CHARGE

FORMER PRESIDENT OF MEXICO ACQUITTED IN CONSPIRACY

(By The Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Adolfo De La Huerta, an exile from the country in which he once held the highest office, today stood cleared of charges of conspiring to violate the United States neutrality laws which he was accused of breaking in an attempt to regain the power he once held in Mexico.

Yesterday a jury in federal court acquitted De La Huerta and four others. They were Louis Gavou, secretary of De La Huerta, Alfonso G. Moretin, Francisco Ferrer, sometimes known as Ferriz and Enrique Berceda.

Originally seven persons were indicted, but of these, Frank N. Thayer, a munitions expert, later was declared innocent, and the charges against him dropped while another, J. Ross Boles, was granted a separate trial. He will be tried on a date yet to be set.

The prosecution's case was based mainly upon the fact that De La Huerta had sent to a representative in Tucson, Ariz., twenty rifles and about 2,300 rounds of ammunition. Defense Attorney Frank P. Dougherty ridiculed the government's charge that the material was to be turned over to warring Yaqui tribes to aid in the overthrow of the regime of President Calles.

"It is ridiculous and absurd that a man of the caliber of Mr. De La Huerta, would attempt to violate the laws of this country or start a revolution with 20 rifles and 2,300 rounds of ammunition," Dougherty declared.

Defense's Contentions
The defense insisted that the guns were to be used only to police the city of Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, in case the Yaqui tribes invaded the town. De La Huerta and Gavou both testified that they feared a "terrible situation" would result if Nogales fell to the Indians. Department of justice officials admitted that De La Huerta had asked them if it were unlawful to ship arms from one state to another in the United States and had been assured it was not.

The government officials also admitted that De La Huerta had kept them fully informed of Mexican affairs and his connections with such. On the stand in his own defense, De La Huerta testified that he had been compelled to leave Mexico because President Calles had adopted an anti-American policy, and that this made life impossible for him in his native country. Since his exile he has been living in Hollywood.

DENVER TO ASK BIDS ON WATER TANK FOR HART

(Special To The Journal) PLAINVIEW, Feb. 14.—Bids are now being received at Plainview by the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains Railway committee for the erection of a 50,000 water tank with a hundred foot tower at Hart on the new line of the Fort Worth and Denver twenty-three miles northwest of Plainview.

A plat has been prepared showing the Hart townsite, locating the business streets north and south. Bob Morris, resident engineer of the Fort Worth and Denver prepared the plat, directed by W. S. Brown, Division Engineer of the Fort Worth and Denver who has supervised the engineering work from its inception.

Guy Jacob, treasurer of the railway committee is holding the Hart townsite details, and is receiving numerous inquiries about business localities at Hart. At present there is a brick school house and several smaller stores at Hart, which has not been served by a railroad.

WEALTHY CREEK INDIAN GIRL FILES ANSWER TO WHITE WOMAN'S SUIT ON ALIENATION, CHARGING CONSPIRACY

(By the Associated Press) EUPALFA, Okla., Feb. 14.—Exie Fife Jackson Tolleson, 21 year old Creek Indian, who was made wealthy by discovery of petroleum on her land, will probably file today her answer to the suit of Leona McIntosh, a white woman, which charges Exie Fife with alienating her husband and demands her attorneys announced.

The answer, drawn by Clark and Jack Nicholson, Eupalfa attorneys, asserts that Emerson McIntosh, the plaintiff's husband, forced himself into the home of the defendant by reason of a conspiracy for the purpose of creating a situation designed to give him and certain other persons an excuse for bringing this suit or a similar one in order to extort money from the defendant.

HICKMAN CASE

has the alternative of imposing a life sentence, there was little expectation that such mercy would be shown because the jurist had promised to give Hickman all the law allows.

Early Verdict Seen That Hickman would not be kept waiting long in learning his fate was indicated when his young chief counsel, Jerome Walsh announced that the motion for a new trial which prevented the sentencing of the youthful killer last Saturday, probably would be put up to Judge Trabucco without argument.

The attorney unhesitatingly admitted the belief that the judge would overrule the motion and proceed with sentencing Walsh said he then would serve oral notice of appeal to the state supreme court.

Two Witnesses Called Judge Trabucco said he would call two witnesses to establish the crime and degree of guilt before he passed sentence. One named by him was County Autopsy Surgeon A. F. Warner, next door neighbor and long time friend of the Parker family. Warner's testimony would establish the corpus delicti.

The other witness named by the judge was Chief of Detectives Herman Chime, who he said, would testify to the confession of Hickman and the circumstances of his flight.

Although today's session is the closing scene of the Marian Parker case in which Hickman will make a personal appearance the appeal will carry the affair through the next round of the courts and attorneys predicted that if the murderer were finally condemned to death it would be six or seven months before the execution could take place.

Thoms Case Wednesday As the Parker case moved ahead, preparations were under way for the opening of Hickman's jury trial tomorrow with his 16-year-old accomplice, Welby Hunt, for the slaying of C. Ivy Thoms, the victim of one of the holdups.

Hickman announced that he eagerly was awaiting the moment when he could take the witness stand to hurl the onus of the Thoms shooting and their joint crime career on the younger boy in retaliation for Hunt's testimony in the Parker case. The latter may clear him of the opportunity.

May Foretell Plan Hunt's attorney said that he would enter a plea of guilty for the boy if he were permitted to present evidence of mitigating circumstances—principally poor home influence and alleged domination by the older boy Hunt, because of his youth can not be sentenced to death.

An offer by Hickman to plead guilty to the Thoms indictment in exchange for a sentence of life imprisonment instead of hanging was rejected by the district attorney yesterday.

Walsh, counsel for the confessed slayer indicated that Hickman, who has pleaded not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity to the Thoms murder possibly might change the first part of his dual plea to guilty.

NEW YORK—The St. Catharine's of the Hotel St. George in Brooklyn were more or less wrecked today, but the freshman class at Columbia University was jubilant. Aided by police reserves they successfully repulsed an onslaught by a hundred or more sophomores intent on breaking up their annual dinner.

Cause Of Trouble

PHILADELPHIA—The hectic life of the younger generation with parties lasting to dawn and the resulting loss of sleep, is a contributing factor to heart disease, Dr. Samuel McCintock Hamill told the Pennsylvania Public Health association.

Sweet Memories

NEW YORK — Bustles at Hunter college are taboo and the only class room costume permitted is shirt waists and dark skirts. Young men must not carry the young ladies' books, nor come within five blocks of the school. The regulations were revived in memory only by members of the class of '78 at their 50th annual reunion.

Two Men And Woman Held In Abduction

WAXAHACHIE, Feb. 14 (AP)—J. O. and Charles Gray and an alleged woman companion, Mrs. Eva G. West, were held in the county jail here Monday on charges of abduction and pandering on complaint of Mrs. Ora Story, mother of a four-year-old child. She alleged that she and the other woman had been lured from Oklahoma City on the pretext that they would be given employment and subsequently held in subject to threats against them and against her child.

Says:

That Girl on Broadway says it won't be long now until the buds will be bursting—and the ladies begin donning next winter's models.

The banks were closed yesterday because Monday happened to be Abraham Lincoln's birthday. The banks didn't close entirely because of the day's proximity to Home A's anniversary.

True banks all over the country take a holiday together with a lot more opportunities which may not be so practical. But even if such is the case, the rest of us oughtn't to criticize their operators because if all the rest of us had as much sense as the bankers have in this particular case we'd have more holidays, live longer as a result of them—and at the same time do just as much business as if we had open.

In the scramble for the Almighty Dollar people in nearly every walk of life seem to have taken the idea that in order to be a success financially they must work early and late every day in the week, and then slip down to the office and do a little routine work behind locked doors only to emerge a further investigation of the banking business—or profession, if you prefer—continues to show the most of us the error of our ways.

Outside of get-rich-quick oil, mining, real estate or other promotional schemes a good bank netting as good if not a better percentage of profit than anything else if the banking business did not offer itself as a good investment you wouldn't find the most prosperous individuals of every community numbered on bank directories.

It is rather odd, when you stop to think of it how such a man can always hood an interest. Notorious habits seem to exercise a great fascination for all of us; biographies of such men as Jesse James, for instance are selling like hot cakes all over America.

It is impossible not to feel a great deal of sympathy for young Cornelius Vanderbilt as he struggles to pay off the $1,250,000 debts his venture into the publishing business has brought him.

What's The Matter With Congress? Members Say Their Backers Expect Too Much, According To Rodney Dutcher

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—One of the baits that Manhattan forever dangles before the noses of restless young men of the small towns from which his boy eyes looked out for rags to riches.

George White, the musical comedy impresario, you will learn, started as a Western Union messenger boy. John Golden broke into the theater by being a grave digger in "Hamlet"; the Lefcourt skyline in New York came from the dreams of an East Side kid who resented the tenement windows from which his boy eyes looked out on life; the Astor mansion on Fifth Avenue went down under the wrecking machines of Benjamin Winter, who came out of Poland bitter against the persecutions of old-world tyrants. And so it goes.

What, perhaps, the restless young man of the small town should ponder upon is that about one of these miracles happens a day—and there are 7,000,000 people in New York. Something like 6,000,000 find no miracles on their doorsteps.

Some of the folks who pride themselves on being smart can automatically take themselves down a few pages by thumbing through the pages of any dictionary.

Politics ain't what they used to be. The open season on candidates in Lubbock county began this year on January first, and as far as The Plainsman knows there hasn't been a single character assassinated yet.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer WASHINGTON Feb. 14.—What's the matter with Congress? The question isn't brand-new and it has met numerous answers. One doesn't often ask a congressman but I put it up to Congressman George Huddleston of Alabama because George has sense, because he's independent and because he was one of the few congressmen one could think of who wouldn't answer "The Republicans," "The Democrats," or "Nothing!"

"Congress," he answered, "wants to be re-elected, Congressmen do just what they think will get them re-elected. They're trying to be and do just what they think their people want them to be. They're holding the mirror up to their districts."

"Some constituents don't care how pitiful a man is so long as he does what's wanted. Some, who want a good man, are deceived. Dominant interests are not controlled on a per capita basis. The congressman merely represents the dominant interests in his district, those which control the elections along with nearly everything else."

"Sometimes he is controlled by a mere political boss and his aspiration is to do what the boss wants him to do. In that case he holds the mirror up to the boss. In many other districts, influential groups and organizations control him. He need only marshal enough of those behind him to insure his election. Then he holds the mirror up to them and assumes the role of the man they want him to be. Sometimes these groups control the political boss himself, in which case the congressman may be controlled directly either by the boss or groups."

"The most serious factor in this system is that nearly all the groups which are interested in politics are selfish groups. Show me a typical citizen and I'll show you a man whose political interests are along the line of his business and financial interest. Civic associations, trade bodies, chambers of commerce or other groups of merchants or manufacturers—whatever influence the typical man brings to bear on his government is brought through such an organization. Often we say a man is good and patriotic, when he doesn't belong to a good government club, a patriotic society, a consumers' organization or anything interrelated in the general public, but only to a trade or business association represented here. Through the U. S. Chamber of Commerce or some similar organization, he is told what he should believe."

Headlines you never see: OIL MEN EXPRESS APPRECIATION TO WALSH WITH CAR BLOCK LONG. George Remus didn't get a thing. We wonder how the case of the fellow who invited a loud speaker that can be heard a mile is going to turn out? An Ohio bank embezzler said he had to have the finest radio on the market. The radio simply is going to ruin lots of people. The deaf, New Jersey minister who disappeared took along the family bank roll of $150. Dear, but not dumb. An eastern professor laments that the picturesque oaths of the olden days are no longer heard. We only can advise the doctor to take up golf. Commission, supposed to represent the public, but who was appointed at the behest of the railroads and is their man; a representative of a shippers' association favored by the railroads and actually their tool; a representative of the short line railroads which hope to shove their roads off on the big ones. But the consumer is not represented; the general public is not represented and there is no one to speak for the common good or general welfare. "Novices and Dubs" Meanwhile, the railroad committee of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, composed of executives of great railroads, has urged passage of the bill. The committee will hear only the arguments and facts these selfish interests want us to hear. We're not experts. Many of us are novices and most of us are dubs sent here to be some body's handy man, but we must cope with the best brains that can be bought. Even if we're honest and want to protect the people we must hunt out the real facts in a maze of technicalities. "Assume that we come out on the floor, reiterate the arguments we've heard and put them over on the other members; even more ignorant than ourselves because they've had no opportunity to find out what it's all about. Of course the bill is passed and signed by the president and of course the public interest is betrayed."

With Our West BY JAMES L. DOW Contemporaries

PERJURERS "Selfishness and poor sportsmanship" of today's marriageable generations, rather than the charges of desertion and cruelty which are written in the court records, are responsible for the growing number of American divorces. This is the consensus reached by a score of widely known judges, social workers and other authorities on domestic relations. Self-indulgence, the demand for luxury and the prevalent attitude of youth that the individual has the right to live his life without regard for others have snapped the spirit of mutual sacrifice and team work on which the success of marriage depends, say these observers, who generally agree that men and women are equally to blame. "One of the most usual forms of this selfishness," according to Justice William Harmon Black of the New York supreme court, "is the attempt to 'keep up with the Joneses.' Through false pride a husband struggles to enable his wife to eclipse her neighbors. He frequently fails because her demands are impossible. "A wife of this sort shows a man no mercy. Quarrels begin finally, if she is that sort of woman, she lets other men supply the things she craves and divorce results. "Poor sportsmanship of youths and girls who refuse to give marriage a fair trial is blamed by Judge Franklin Hoyt of the New York city children's court. "They dash off to marry in reckless haste and then when boredom or friction begins, rush as quickly to get a divorce," he says. Lady Armstrong, wife of the British consul general and chairman of the co-operative big sisters' committee, blames trial marriage and self-expression propaganda for fostering the spirit of selfishness. "What we need is not more selfishness in home life, but less," she says. "Even legal marriage between right minded persons requires constant forbearance. To withdraw the protection of legal wedlock and permit when boredom or friction begins, rush as quickly to get a divorce," he says. Mary R. Towle, assistant United States district attorney, agrees. "The theory of self-expression and self-indulgence underlies marital unrest today," she says. "Young people who should exercise self-control—Lamesa Journal. We believe that if the truth was known ninety per cent of those who obtain divorces are obtained over a certificate that is probably as false as the number whose divorce is being granted. The real reasons for reasons that probably never existed and could not be proven if they were contested. Mistreated, and deserted. These are the main excuse for divorces and we believe that our percentage of actual number whose conditions exist would be around the ratio we have given. There are some cases where these conditions actually exist, and there are some cases where there is the original Bible authority for separation. It is like all other laws of the nation it is greatly abused, and we are of the opinion that it should be made more difficult to obtain marriage licenses and more troublesome to secure a divorce and there possibly would not be so many of either. It's a big question and with some of the smart fellows working to get the companionate marriage scheme over, there is no telling just where this nation is drifting. We are drifting alright and there is no denying this, but just where we would hesitate to say. There is a great work for the churches and the church folks Christians. We believe that Christianity is the only solution for the trouble and it will never be settled until this cure has been given. Ministers must stand firm and those who profess to be Christians must put on the whole armor of God and take a stand for righteousness and Godliness, before there can be a check in the advance of the foe, that is fast tearing down the nation. The University of Wisconsin agricultural college has conferred honorary recognition on 70 agricultural leaders—four of them women.

My college is now hearing a bill for consolidation of railroads, a measure of far-reaching public importance. The same people will be found before us this year as last: Colonel Thom, one of Washington's ablest attorneys who knows more about it than any other men, representing the railroad association; a man representing bankers and brokers interested in railroad stocks and bonds; a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission to Baltimore each year and leads the industrial school band. His leadership draws great crowds and helps the coffers of the institution where, as a kid, his leg was cast. GILBERT SWAN

Plan Outlined In University Drive

DALLAS, Feb. 14.—Thomas W. Gregory, president of the ex-students association of the University of Texas, outlined at a luncheon here Monday the plan for the state-wide campaign to raise $500,000 as the contribution of alumni and ex-students to the million dollar fund for erection on the campus of the buildings which will form what is known as the union project. The principal one of these will be a combined gymnasium and auditorium and the others a women's gym and a building to house ex-student activities and a smaller auditorium.

TWELVE REBELS SLAIN IN CLASH AT LAUREL HILL

(By Associated Press) MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14—Official reports today said twelve rebels were slain and three captured and summarily executed in a battle between federal forces and rebels at Laurel Hill, nine miles south of Coahuilan on the border between the states of Colima and Michoacan.

Four hundred rebels took part in the fighting which lasted four hours. Official reports said they were under orders of a catholic priest, Francisco De Rio, and a rebel chief, Fernando Gutierrez. The rebels were dispersed.

Federal Casualties Not Given The casualties to the federal forces, who were commanded by General Juan Dominguez, were not stated.

Three rebels were also killed in fighting at Lamata, a mining town in the state of Jalisco. The insurgents, commanded by chieftains Vargas and Caro, entered the town. They were subsequently ejected by federal troops which rushed to Lamata from Lagunera.

With General Dominguez at their head, federal troops razed a number of rebel camps in the Coahuilan district and routed several bands last week.

Amaro Returns Home Secretary of War Amaro, who has been directing operations against the rebels in Jalisco, returned to Mexico City last night. He was confident that the rebels would be suppressed within three months. Beyond this he refused to comment on the situation.

President Calles and Amaro conferred shortly after the latter's arrival.

Grand Jury Hears Stewart Evidence

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—The government has about completed the task of laying before the federal grand jury facts concerning the refusal of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company, to answer questions before the senate oil committee.

All that remained to be done is to place before the jury documents concerning the naval oil leases, executive orders concerning them, a witness from the interior department to establish facts of the leases, and to hear J. J. McGrain, deputy sergeant-at-arms of the senate.

District Attorney Gordon said today it would take several days to prepare an indictment if the grand jury acted.

HOOVER GIVES HIS APPROVAL FOR CAMPAIGN

CABINET MEMBER NOW DEFINITELY IN RACE FOR PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 14—Herbert Hoover is out in the open as a candidate for president, pledged to carry forward the principles of the Republican party and the great objectives of President Coolidge's policies.

According to the wishes of a growing group of supporters, the committee secretary has authorized them to enter his name as a candidate in the forthcoming Ohio primaries. He thus begins his campaign fully aware that it means a fight at the outset with the forces of Senator Willis of Ohio, another announced candidate whose friends are determined to give him his home state's 51 delegates to the Kansas City convention.

Willis Ready for Fight
The senator who recently accepted the challenge of Hoover's friends, shadowed candidacy with the statement that it would be no "powder puff" fight, said last night that he was ready for the contest and "perfectly confident of the result."

Hoover announced himself in a letter to Thad H. Brown, chairman of the Ohio Hoover-for-president committee, who conferred here Saturday with the cabinet member. "I have received, through you and others," Hoover's letter said, "requests from very many Republicans of Ohio that I permit my name to be entered in the presidential primaries of that state. I do so."

The secretary will retain his cabinet post and he indicated that he will not be able to make a personal campaign before the primaries.

Factions in Ohio Aligned For Drive
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 14—Ohio republicans split into two factions by the presidential candidacies of Herbert Hoover and Senator Frank B. Willis today were marshaling their forces to win Ohio's 51 delegates to the national convention for their favorites.

Conferences Called
Announcements of conferences to organize both Willis and Hoover campaigns followed the statement of the secretary of commerce at Washington last night that he will be a candidate for the republican presidential nomination and will allow his name to be presented to voters of Ohio in the primaries.

Fred W. Warner of Marion, chairman of the state central committee, which has endorsed Willis, saw possible disruption of the republican organization in Ohio through Hoover's entrance but that "it is regrettable." He declared the move

"imperils" the state organization but that "Mr. Hoover will see a real battle before it is over." Warner said one purpose of the committee endorsement of Senator Willis was to "keep some semblance of a state party organization" and that the move of Hoover's friends in contesting for the Ohio delegation "will tend to disrupt the organization's work."

Hoover Prepares For Florida Trip

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—Secretary Hoover today sought a temporary refuge from the storm of political discussion brought on by his announcement of his presidential candidacy and prepared to leave Washington on a fishing trip in Florida.

He asked the bureau of fisheries to recommend the spot on the Florida coast where an amateur fisherman could best hope for a catch, and declared that he would go there and remain at least a week.

It was indicated today that in spite of his announcement, Mr. Hoover intends to refrain as much as possible from political discussion. For several years past he has indulged himself during February with a week's vacation in Florida. He will be accompanied by one or two personal friends.

The Hoover announcement brought a statement today from Senator Edwards, Democrat, New Jersey, in which he predicted a Republican party split in Ohio and a consequent democratic victory there next fall.

Let the Houston convention nominate Governor Smith," Senator Edwards said, "and Ohio will be found in the democratic column because no matter how the Willis-Hoover primary fight terminates, Willis will not be the Republican nominee."

San Antonio Leads In Auto Fatalities

DALLAS, Feb. 14 (AP)—San Antonio with five fatalities led the state in the number of deaths in automobile accidents for the month ending Jan. 28, according to figures announced today by the U. S. department of commerce.

Dallas with four deaths; Fort Worth with two; and Houston and El Paso, with one death each, were next in the order named. Total deaths for the year ending Jan. 28 were: El Paso 23; Dallas 22; San Antonio 21; Fort Worth 17. Total deaths in Houston were not listed.

Tom Heflin—A Political Enigma

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14—Many people have laughed at Tom Heflin, quite a few have cursed him and a minority has cheered him on, but no one has ever adequately explained him.

Now your correspondent is not a psychoanalyst, a psychiatrist or even a psychologist, but he has consulted persons who know Tom intimately—persons friendly toward Tom, but whom Tom has afflicted with a severe pain. He has talked with Tom and is one of the few who have bothered to consider him objectively. He offers herewith, without rancor or ridicule, what seems to be a valid explanation of Heflin and Heflinisms.

Not the Worst One
It is the fashion here in the press gallery and elsewhere, to register extreme disgust at Tom. The idea seems to be that there is something sweet and inspiring about Congress and that Tom mars it from the point of dignity, common sense and integrity. The fact is that both houses boast men more provocative of disgust than Tom. There are many more cowardly and there are not many more sincere than Tom in his way (or Tom has unquestionably hypnotized himself into an intense belief in his own sincerity for which no conventional explanation can account. Tom is the most interesting pheman making a fool of himself, but how did it happen?

It is commonly supposed here that Tom is shouting for the benefit of Alabama klansmen, bidding for their votes in 1930. That explanation has led some to believe that only a religious bigot can be elected from Alabama, but as far as I can learn, that explanation isn't correct.

No Compulsion on Him
Long ago, he must have acquired any back home support obtainable only by anti-Catholic tirades. The Klan sometimes holds the balance of power in Alabama, but no Alabama senator ever had to talk like Tom is talking to hold his job and it is inconceivable that any man could shout and act as Tom has merely for a Senate seat.

What Tom is shouting for is his own ego. Tom has an inferiority complex. So has everyone no doubt, but Tom's is unique. Squeeze it and you've started Tom toward heaven knows what.
In the first place for all his great oratorical ability, Tom is superficial. He doesn't grasp fundamentals. Apparently he believes whatever people tell him if it confirms his suspicions and disbelieves it if it does not.

Second and more important, Tom is as sensitive as a man can be; hypersensitive to praise and hypersensitive to criticism. Praise aggs him on and so does abuse. Both have beset him sorely this last year.

Heflin to the Breach
Last year the Knights of Columbus decided to aid the church cause in Mexico and one or two Catholic congressmen demanded a diplomatic break. Many members felt we should leave Mexico alone, but it remained for Tom to denounce the Catholic hierarchy from the Senate floor.

Immediately Tom's two Nemeses were at work. On one hand he received hundreds of laudatory letters from ordinary inarticulate anti-Catholics; on the other hand he was jabbed and jumped on by the Catholics and tolerant Protestants alike. At the end of the session he was invited to many places to make anti-Catholic speeches.

He answered it as a call from real Americans and he viewed his tour as triumphal.
His ego pulled by one force and prodded by the other, Tom went from bad to worse.

His charges against the church would have ended had he been completely ignored, but now they reached the heights of the absurd. He became a fantastic modern Don Quixote in a big white vest, regarding the hundreds of letters with which he deluged the Congressional record as certificates of vindication for a shining knight and altogether impervious to the complete lack of proof for his weird accusations.

Can't Be Ignored
More and more windmills he created for himself; tighter and tighter his obsession gripped him. Almost anywhere else he would have been gagged or ignored. But in the Senate you can't gag a man and when he repeatedly devotes hours to oratory designed to stir up religious antagonism, you can't ignore him.

And so you have Tom today, undated and unsolved. The more his followers flatter him and the more others attack him the more likely it becomes that Tom will lead an attack of his own in case Al Smith is nominated at Houston.

So far nobody has been able to raise the chinchilla successfully in captivity as these animals are very quarrelsome and usually kill each other or the young.

SPEEDING PROGRESS

Progress as affecting a city or community is dependent upon the advantages it has to offer to those seeking sites for home and industry.

Probably the most important of the advantages to be offered is adequate power facilities, for in industry and home alike, this modern age demands the convenience and economy that Electricity alone brings.

And this public utilities is constantly on the watch to see that the service it has to offer, keeps pace with the development of the communities it serves.
