Retail Merchants To Meet Friday

A special called meeting of all Floydada retail merchants has been called by Wayne Brown chairman of the committee to discuss the forthcoming Harvest Festival event.

The meeting will be at 2:30 p. m. in the First National Bank.

The dates of the Harvest Festival are June 21-22-24-25.

Brown urges all retail merchants to attend this very important meeting.

School Transfer Deadline May 31

Deadline for school transfer is Friday, May 31, according to Supt. Clarence Guffee. The reminder is for students who will attend school in another district starting in September.

There is no such thing as an automatic transfer, Guffee said. Therefore to be eligible to enter another school, students must have transfer.

Applications can be secured in Guffee's office in the Floyd County Court House.

Wheat Harvest In Full Swing; Cotton And Grain Receive Rain

Muncy New Floyd Pioneers Prexy

Arch Muncy, Floyd pioneer who lives at Muncy Switch was elected new president of the Floyd County Pioneers at the annual reunion in Floydada Tuesday. He succeeds H. E. Frizzell of Lockney. New vice-president is Joe Reeves, secretary remains Ann Swepston, treasurer remains Calvin Steen.

Highlight of the day's events was one of the biggest parades in the history of the reunion. Over 75 units paraded by crowds that thronged the streets.

Approximately 30 antique autos, 165 horses, and many commercial units made up the bulk of the parade.

Best Community float awards went to the Homebuilders Class of Floydada, End of Trail at Cedar Hill and the South Plains Float.

Best Pioneer Float was awarded to Irick Community.

Mark Martin's old steam engine won first in the commercial floats, Southwestern Public Service, second and Bell Milk Company, third.

Cedar Hill 4-H won the best club float, second was Cedar Hill Assembly of God and third was the Floydada 4-H club.

Riding clubs received honors as follows: Abernathy, first; Silverton, second and Petersburg, third.

The parade was led by two Floyd old timers, A. T. Swepston of Floydada and C. L. Anderson of Lockney. They were followed by the Floydada band.

Chris Johnston and Ross Hamilton won in the best sulky contest. Best Jr. Cowboy was No. 15 and No. 5. Best Jr. Cowgirl

Grand Opening At White's Auto

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Redding, former residents of Lubbock and new owners of the White's Auto store in Floydada invite everyone to the store's grand opening this Friday and Saturday.

Besides many outstanding items of merchandise offered for sale during the grand opening, three big prizes will be given away on Saturday evening. First prize is a 36 month auto battery, second is a table model radio and third is a steam iron.

The Reddings have completely restocked the store with merchandise from all departments at White's warehouses in Wichita Falls.

Insect Infestation In Some Cotton; Grain Crop Early

Harvesting of dryland wheat in the Floyd county area jumped into high gear this week as custom combine men have come into the area to speed the grain on to waiting elevator men.

Most of the dryland crop is averaging 12 to 15 bushels per acre in spite of a dry spring. Farm spokesmen report that unusually good rainfall last fall maintained the average yield in spite of the dry growing season weather.

In the meantime, hail damage continues to by-pass the later maturing irrigated wheat and prospects look like another bumper small grain crop for the county.

Floyd County farmers have received over two inches of rain the past week and row crops are growing off nicely. One and a half inches to over two inches of rain fell over the county last week, then a hard blowing rain storm crossed the county Monday night bringing from a trace to a quarter of an inch.

The rains have done little to slow down the dryland wheat harvest however. Wheat prices are good with possibilities of over $2.00 per bushel through the government program. The gov-

Bell Telephone Announces Long Distance Call Rates

Reduced long distance telephone rates for most evening station-to-station calls after 9 p. m. within Texas will be introduced by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company on June 15, Kenneth Garrett, Manager of the company announced.

The new rates will provide a maximum charge of 35 cents for a three-minute call anywhere within the state, he said.

Reductions of up to 50 cents on the longest calls within Texas will result from the new schedule.

Along with this reduction there will be a slight increase in most person-to-person calls within the state. Garrett announced. This will amount to five cents in the basic person-to-person rates on most day and evening calls.

The new reduced station-to-station rates for three-minute calls will fall into three brackets, according to Mr. Garrett.

Calls of 83 to 202 miles will cost 50 cents, a reduction ranging from five to 25 cents under present rates.

Calls of 203 to 360 miles will cost 60 cents, a reduction of 20 to 40 cents.

Calls of 361 miles or more will cost 80 cents, a reduction of 20 to 50 cents.

Station-to-station rates will not be reduced on calls made between 6 p.m. and 9 p.m., nor will the reductions apply on collect calls or on calls charged to a third telephone.

Here are several typical three-minute calls between Texas cities as examples of the reductions for "after 9" station-to-station telephoning:

	Night and Sunday Rate	New "After 9" Rate
Dallas-Brownsville	$1.10	.80
Houston-Amarillo	$1.20	.80
Lubbock-San Antonio	$1.00	.60
Tyler-Dallas	.55	.50
Beaumont-Austin	.80	.60

Interstate rates on station-to-station calls after 9 p. m. were announced early in April.

Matador Woman Killed In Auto Accident Near Lockney Sunday

Mrs. Maggie Courtney, 53-year old Matador resident was killed late Sunday morning in a head-on collision while enroute to Amarillo to meet a long-time freind. She was enroute to Amarillo to meet Miss Jameson when the crash occurred.

The mishap occurred about 11:45 a. m., three miles west of Lockney on U. S. 70.

Driver of the second car in the fatal crash was John L. Johnson, a 33 year-old Plainview Negro. He was not injured.

Highway patrolmen reported that Mrs. Courtney was driving west on U. S. 70. Her car collided head-on in the east-bound lane with the Johnson vehicle.

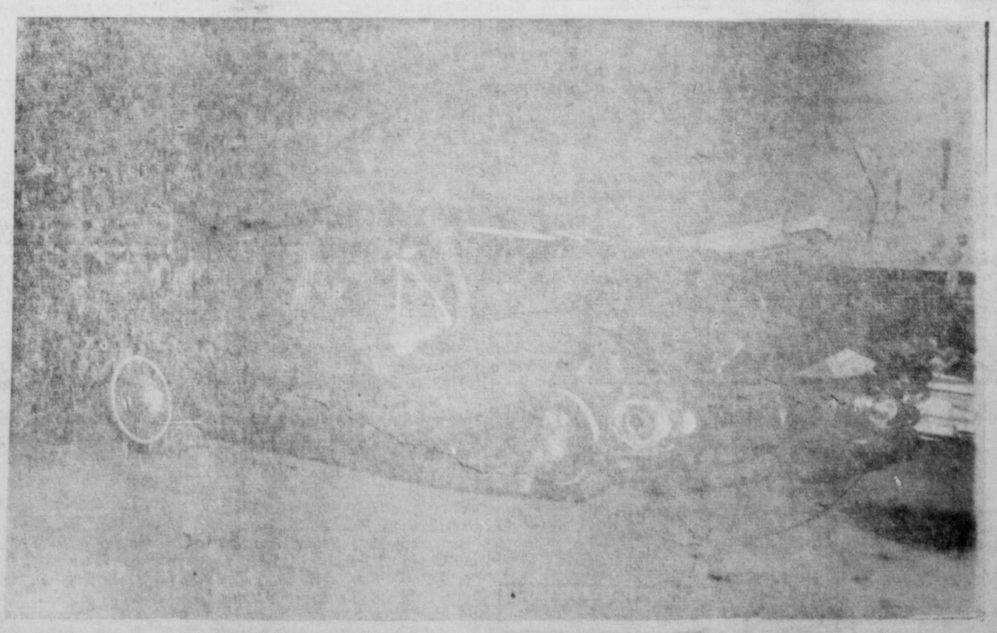

A Harmon Funeral Home ambulance of Floydada took Mrs. Courtney to Lockney General Hospital. She was transferred to Lubbock's Methodist Hospital and died enroute. She was pronounced dead on arrival.

Was Living In Matador

Mrs. Courtney had been living in Matador with a son, Hal H. Courtney, tourist court operator and rancher.

Mrs. Courtney first lived in Motley County from 1925 to 1947. Her former husband, H. H. Courtney, was sheriff of Motley County during the early 1940s.

In 1947, she moved to Big Spring where she was a nurse. She and another nurse, Ruth Jameson, moved to Matador in January.

A Big Slice Of Your Dollar Goes To Make A Community More Prosperous . . . YOURS, OR THE OTHER FELLOWS

An average of more than 30% of the dollar you spend stays in the town where it's spent . . . to support schools, furnish fire and police protection, put down paving . . . to pay the folks who work for you . . . to support churches and charities . . . to be invested in more kinds of merchandise for your selection and convenience . . . to improve service facilities . . . and to support all of the other things that promote prosperity . . . growth and better living in a community.

Why help the big cities become larger . . . why not make YOUR dollars build YOUR community . . . not somebody else's.

You're the No. 1 customer to your business neighbor in YOUR community, because the regular trade of folks living nearest their stores make up the bulk of their sales.

In other cities, you're just another transient shopper . . . but here at home the people in business are interested FIRST in YOUR needs, YOUR preferences YOUR problems . . . and in putting their work and their money in with yours to make this community a better place for YOU to live.

What's An Inch Of Rain Worth?

Reader's have quarrelled with the press when it refers to a "million-dollar rain", as if the Fourth Estate were guilty of school girl hyperbole.

This is not true today so much as it was when this was a wheat country and farmers thought that news of a big rain would run the price of wheat down.

An inch of rain on the cotton of Hale County alone is worth $809,260.40.

An inch of rain on your home lawn on a 100x140 foot lot would have cost you $1.46 at regular irrigation rate of 240,000 gallons water if you took the annual irrigation rate of 240,000 gallons for $45.

An inch of rain on the 540,500 irrigated acres in Hale County has a cost value, on today's purchase price for land, of $523,860.

At an average cost in place under the land irrigation water at 97 cents replacement, the saving of an inch per acre on our cotton allotted acres alone would amount to $149,947.99.

If this is true of one crop alone, get your pencil and paper and figure out what it means to the irrigated and dry land operation on an added 288,314 acres of sorghum grain, 3,204 acres of corn, 4,069 acres of barley, 58,296 acres of wheat, and the many other crops on unallotted acres.

Million-dollar rain!

This was indeed a multi-million-dollar rain and you Doubting Thomases are challenged to prove the contrary.

(1) Dr. Longnecker at High Plains Research Station evaluated an acre foot of water worth $82.50 applied to cotton at a price comparable with today's value.

(2) An inch of rain would produce for you 8.7 thousand gallons of water at 18.3 cents irrigation rate, 15 cents excess.

(3 If land has 200 feet of saturated sand, capable of yield of 15 per cent water, thats 20 feet of water. Even if you can't extract and use all of it, figure it all in. You pay $300 an acre for land, figuring its value dry at $100, you've paid $400 for water, or $12.33 per acre foot. An ich would amount to $1.11. We take only 97 cents per acre-inch.

(4) Apply 97 cents per acre to the allotted cotton acreage.

Mrs. Ruth Burnett and Murray Julian spent Saturday in Amarillo where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Canon, who have been ill, with a cousin Harrol Canon of San Francisco, Calif., and with Mrs. Walter Brown.

The home of Mrs. Eugene Beedy was the setting for a Layette Shower which honored Mrs. Jakie Younger of Floydada. The party was Saturday afternoon at 4. Ten hostesses from Floydada assisted Mrs. Beedy. A net cloth over yellow covered the serving table where punch and cake squares were served, and about fifteen guests attended. Among these were Mrs. H. L. Marble, Mrs. Marvin Wells and Mrs. Keith Marble.

Mrs. Frank McClure has been confined to her home for many days with illness. Mrs. L. T. Wood is also confined to her home since her recent surgery, but she is hoping to be able to be out this weekend. We hope they all are well and out soon.

Most of our people attended the last rites for one of our pioneers, P. M. Smitherman, in Floydada at the First Baptist Church last Tuesday, May 21, at 3 p. m. Rev. Sealy Smith from the South Plains Baptist Church assisted Rev. Floyd Bradley at the services. Mr. Smitherman would have been 90 in July, and had been ill since Dec. 30 when he entered the Plainview Hospital last year. All his family have lived here at one time or another, and grandsons Philip and Rex Smitherman still live here with their families. We will all miss his familiar face and smile in our community, and extend sympathy to the families here, and to the John, Ernest and Jack Smitherman families and to Mrs. W. Fred Cox, of Canada, at whose home P. M. stayed each summer.

At the Commencement exercises of the Floydada High School on Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock, the South Plains boys graduated from High school and in the lovely services Dennis Deavenport and Bill Bledsoe were among the performers. We extend our congratulations to all the boys.

Bruce Julian, Cecil Jackson and Allan Adams left after the graduation exercises Friday night for Ruidoso, N. Mex. where they stayed until Sunday, then were in Trinidada, Colorado where they were visiting on the 10 Bar McDonald Ranch near the Spanish Peaks. They are expected home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel S. Irwin of Lubbock are parents of a baby daughter who was born Monday in West Texas Hospital. She weighed seven pounds and fourteen ounces. The father is associated with O. K. Rubber in Lubbock. The mother is the former Jane Pope of Floydada.

Rev. and Mrs. Ed B. Bowles of Henderson are in Floydada visiting friends. Rev. Bowles is former pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

Attorney General Reports On First One-Third Of 1963

Attorney General Waggoner Carr today released figures reflecting the operations of his office for the first one-third of 1963.

Since January 1st the Attorney General's office has handled a total of 1,311 cases. Of this total, the office has won 936 cases, lost 61, and 264 have been disposed of in other ways.

Carr also pointed out that the total number of cases pending on January 1st had been cut from 3,687 to 3,332, a drop in total cases of 355.

Additional figures released showed that on January 1st there were 24 opinions pending and an additional 87 official opinions have been requested since that date. Of these 111 opinions, 70 have been released, 28 have been withdrawn, and only 13 are now pending.

In addition to these figures Carr announced that the Bond Division of his office has set an all-time record for bonds examined and approved during the first four months of 1963.

The record includes both dollar volume and number of bonds issued and exceeds the first third of any calendar since the Attorney General's office was first charged with these duties in 1905.

The figures released today show that 274 bond issues were approved during the first 4 months of this year as opposed to 219 for the same period of 1962. Dollar volume for the first one-third of 1963 was $189,185,640 against $120,054,570 for the same period of 1962.

The bond division has averaged more that 16.1 issues per week and $2,252,210 in bonds approved every business day since January 1, 1963.

In praising his staff members, Carr said "I think all of these figures speak well of the fine dedicated people on this staff. We are especially happy not only over our won loss record but over the reduction of total cases pending".

Carl Bun Hopper, 50 year old retired farmer and former Deputy Sheriff in Floydada, died in Temple Hospital Friday night at 11 o'clock after an illness of several months. Hopper resided in Seminole.

Funeral rites were conducted in Floydada Monday afternoon in the City Park Church of Christ. Clay Mims of Seminole and Leonard Dennis of Matador, officiated. Interment was in Floydada cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Truman Gregory, T. Holland, Raymond Love and Wayne Finley of Floydada, Claud Lewis, Clarksville, Ernest Maze, Crosbyton, James Kennedy and Walter Wood of Seminole.

Hopper was born in Dickens County and moved to Floyd County as a youngster with his parents. He and the former Dicie Crutchfield were married in Paris, Tex, on September 26, 19[illegible].

The family resided in several communities in Floyd County and at Sand Hill for six years before moving to Seminole in January. Mr. Hopper retired from farming due to ill health. He and his wife operated the Hopper Grocery in Seminole. He had been under treatment in Temple for the past two months.

The deceased was preceded in death by a sister and his father, J. M. Hopper of Floydada, who died in June three years ago.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Joe Bill Garrett of Belton and Bunnie Gale Hopper of the home; three brothers, Tom and Gene of Floydada and Charlie Hopper of Corpus Christi; one sister, Mrs. J. W. Gilbreath and his mother, Mrs. J. M. Hopper, both of Whittier, Calif.

Mrs. Gilbreath and Mrs.Hopper were unable to attend rites due to the failing health of Mrs. Hopper.

Willson's Off To Rotary Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Willson Jr. left Tuesday morning for Lake Placid, N. Y. where he will attend a workshop for Rotary Governors. Approximately 237 governors will attend from all over the world.

They will go from Lake Placid to St. Louis, Mo., where they will attend International Rotary Convention June 8-13. He will be elected Rotary Governor of this district Tuesday, June 11.

TOMMIE COPELAND SUSTAINS INJURY

Tommie Copeland, who is home from her college studies at Hardin Simmons, spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Copeland, received a painful injury Monday about noon when a piece of wire was thrown into her ankle by a lawn mower.

Miss Copeland was mowing the lawn at the family home when the accident occurred. She told her parents she was not aware that a piece of wire was in her leg. She realized her ankle was hit by an object and saw the wound bleeding. She was X-rayed here at which time the wire was detected.

A local physician sent Miss Copeland to Methodist Hospital after it was determined the wire was embedded in the bone.

She was able to return home yesterday (Tuesday) and is reported resting fairly comfortably.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral of Tom W. Deen last week included Mrs. Scott King, Mr. and Mrs. Rolein Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Russell all of Fort Worth, and [illegible] ris and Mrs. Ma[illegible] Amarillo.

ting Antique Window Settler's Reunion

Home Demon- ared an exhibit Antiques in the Hales Dept. e items display- ed quilt made by the "Oak Leaf pattern" in 1821. This quilt was a part of the wedding dowry of the Grandmother of Mrs. W. S. Poole and Mrs. C. A. Caffee. It was brought to Texas in a wagon train in 1851. Also displayed from the souvenirs of Mrs. Caffee was a centerpiece of beautiful intricate Hardanger Embroidery and a pattern book "Old and New Designs in Hardanger Embroidery by Sophie T. LaCroix. These items are well over 50 years of age. In the books are 33 pages filled with designs and instructions for making Hardanger Embroidery. One page is devoted to advertising pattern booklets from St. Louis Fancy Work Company, St. Louis, U.S.A. Among titles of booklets are Old designs in Bead Work, Sautoir Chains, Beaded Necklaces, Bags, purses, slipper buckles, watch fobs, etc. Martha Washington Patchwork Quilt Book Crocheted Edges, Knitting. Smocking, ornamental shirring, Cross Stitch Designs, Old and New designs in Tatting Old and New designs in Edgings, Insertions, Towels, Pillow cases Sheets, Old and New Designs in Crochet Yokes and Collars. Old and New Designs in Crochet Corset Covers, and Night Gown Yokes, Crochet Work - 100 Christmas Novelties. The prices of booklets are 16c or 53c. Over 2000 original copyrighted clear Distinct Designs are listed.

The small trunk displayed belongs to W. J. Ross and is over 55 years old; a patchwork quilt "The Irish Chain" was made by the grandmother of W. J. Ross over 60 years ago. The sheet decorated with crochet was made by Mrs Claud Ring while she was a teen ager. The pearl handled fork and the clock belonged to the maternal grandmother of Mrs. Bob Vickers. The clock bears the date Oct. 2, 1906. The cake plate was a wedding gift to the parents of Mrs. Ring. The tiny embroidery hoops are felt cushioned and are well over 60 years old. They belonged to the mother of Mrs. R. H. Crawford. The mason ½ gallon fruit jar patent Nov. 30th, 1858 also belongs to Mrs. Crawford. The Bavarian china fruit bowl was a Christmas gift to the mother of Mrs. W. J. Ross in 1910.

The doll belongs to Mrs. Ned Bradley. It has been given her by her mother who was given the doll when she was 5 or 6 years old and it had belonged to another child, so it is estimated to be 75 or 80 years old.

Time and space doesn't allow description of other items displayed but they are among the valued souvenirs of the club.

HOMEMAKING HINTS

By Phyllis Roggendorff, County Home Demonstration Agent and Jean Martin, Jr. Assistant Extension Agent.

A beautiful, well-kept lawn adds to the material value of a home and is a basic requirement of an attractive yard. The beauty of a lawn depends largely on the care it receives during the growing season.

Fertilization, watering, mowing and weed control are important considerations in a good lawn care program. Fertilization is one of the most neglected. The best indicator for fertilizer use is a soil test. However, if soil test information is not available and the lawn has not already received a spring application of plant food one should give it an immediate treatment with a complete fertilizer, a 1-1-1 or 2-1-2 ration. Enough should be applied to supply two pounds of nitrogen per each 1,000 square feet of lawn area.

In addition, nitrogen should be applied every 30-40 days during the summer at a rate of one pound of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn. Such applications will keep the lawn grasses green and vigorous during the growing season. In the fall, 30 days before the first expected killing frost, the lwn should get an application of a cimplete fertilizer such as was applied in the spring.

The lawn should be watered only when the grass needs it. A slight wilting is an indication the grass needs water. Frequent light waterings are not recommended. Wet the soild to a depth of six inches or deeper. This will encourage deep root systems and enables the plants to utilize the plant food applied. It is best to water in the mornings.

Proper mowing gives a healthier and thicker turf. Mow regularly and don't clip more than one inch at a time. Keep the mower sharp and in proper adjustment.

This will be our last column. Jean will start her work next week as County Home Demonstration Agent in Bailey County at Muleshoe.

I am planning to go home to Manhattan, Kansas this week. I will recuperate there for several weeks from my glandular fever and-or hepatitis.

I have enjoyed my work with you "Floyd Countians" for the past 5 years. My wish is the best to you in everything.

Texas cotton producers received $309 million for their 1962 crop. The total income for both lint and seed, as well as production, fell below the 1961 totals by tive and one percent, respecuvely. The crop, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, was the second largest since 1949. The per acre yield was 348 pounds compared with 350

THE OLD SCHOOL BUILDING ABOVE IS NOW GONE but the four in the 1913 graduation class remain and what a time they had over the weekend when they gathered in Floydada for their 50th anniversary. They were special guests at the graduation class of 1963 Friday night. Below the women seated Walter Newell for the picture "because he was the only boy graduate in the class". Mrs. Massa Z. Petty Bruce of Longview on the left, wrote the other three that she wouldn't be able to be in Floydada for the celebration, but at the last minute was able to make the trip which made things complete. Mrs. Mary Katherine Butler Daniel, center, was hostess for a dinner Saturday honoring her classmates, and Mrs. Ethel Lela Tubbs Wells, right, looks just as dignified as she did 50 years ago when she was valedictorian of her class. Other dinner guests included Mrs. Helen Patterson, senior sponsor of the 1963 class, Mrs. Walter Newell, and Mrs. Carl Smith, who was a member of the 1913 class, but dropped out before graduation to marry. Mrs. Bruce hostessed for a "little get-to-gether for the class Saturday night in the home of her cousin, Mrs. Stan Goen.

Social Securiy Man Will Be In Floyada Monday

The Lubbock social security district manager, John G. Hutton today urged people nearing retirement to ask ahead of time about their social security benefits. "An early visit to the social security office," he said, "will help speed the initial social security check so that it arrives on schedule at the time of retirement and knowing what will be paid at retirement time helps in forming the details of a person's retirement plans."

The social security office is traditionally one of the busiest places in town during this time of year. People who intend to retire later in the year are applying for benefits now or calling to find out what proofs are expected from them. According to Mr. Hutton, it is wise to apply for benefits two or three months early so that despite the rush, checks will be received on time.

Many people delay their benefit claims because they don't have a birth certificate. Hutton pointed out that a baptismal certificate, confirmation register, naturalization record, or a family Bible in some cases are acceptable. Evidence of earnings for the previous year is also necessary. Generally an employee can use his income tax withholding statement. For the self-employed person, a copy of his federal income tax return and a cancelled check showing payment of taxes would be sufficient.

Since the new social security retirement rules have gone into effect, many workers past the age of 62 who do not have substantial earnings from work can receive some benefit checks even though they are still working. Because of this and because most people should know what sort of a benefit they can get at age 65 (and at age 72 when there is no limit on earnings), workers would be wise to see their local social security office at age 62, 65 and 72 to talk over their individual situations.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Floydada in the Courthouse, Room 106 at 9:30 a. m. on Monday, May 27 and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

Wayland To Hold Basketball Camp

Plainview, Texas, (Special): Young basketball players with a desire for improvement will find the Wayland Baptist College Summer Basketball Camps just the prescription for overcoming faults and getting a jump on the 1963-64 cage campaign. The first session is scheduled to get underway June 5.

Expert coaching techniques will be employed by Harley J. Redin, Wayland athletic director, and Clifford Ozmun, basketball coach who will make up the camp staff. Reservations are coming in fast for the five sessions, and players wishing to attend are urged to get their reservations in as soon as possible. The first session still has the least reservations, and 36 is the maximum number for any one session.

In addition to detailed study in basketball fundamentals, boys attending the camp will get a taste of swimming, trampolining, tennis, and other activities. Players will receive individual instruction three hours a day and play in team scrimmages six nights during the camp. Films of top college and professional teams will be shown.

McDonald Hall will serve as housing for the players in each session and Wayland varsity players will be counselors. Total cost of the camp is $67 which includes insurance, tuition, room and board.

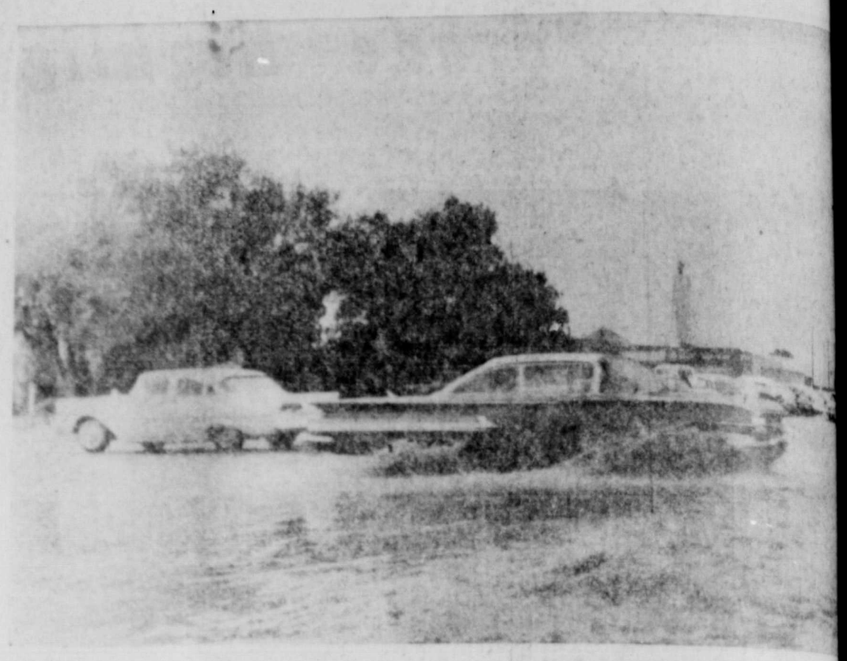

Plainview boys wishing to attend the camp may do so for $27 and this price excludes room and board. The first camp has been set aside for players between the ages of 11-14.

This is the last summer that Texas high school players may attend basketball camps, but it is stressed that by Interscholastic League rules, players attending this year's camps will not be affected in eligibility standings.

Sessions for the camps are scheduled for the following dates:

1. June 5 through June 14
2. June 17 through June 26
3. June 27 through July 6
4. July 10 through July 19
5. July 25 through August 2.

J. W. Day Jr., was returned home this week from a Lubbock Hospital where he has been the past two weeks for treatment. He is reported resting fiarly well and is due back in Lubbock today for a check-up.

Rev. Bradley Reports On Japan Trip

The Rev. Floyd Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist Church in floydada made a talk and showed slide pictures on his recent trip to the Methodist Men's organization at the First Methodist Church in Floydada Tuesday morning.

The presentation followed breakfast prepared by the men.

Rev. Bradley said his invitation came from a former P-47 pilot who is now a missionary in Japan. He preached in a five area meeting arrangement around Tokyo. He was with team No. three and he preached in the town of Omuta, Japan.

He said that 35,000 in the orient have made a profession for Christ. He said the Japanese were very friendly and responsive; he preached through an interpreter.

At Omuta, which is located in the southern most Island of Japan, 90 made a profession, 165 made a public decision for Christ. Rev. Bradley also spoke in schools.

Slides taken included pictures of Tokyo getting ready for the 1964 Olympics, stadiums were being built, buildings moved in order to build a street wide enough to handle traffic to the Olympics.

DR. JOHN C. KNOWLES

Dr. Knowles To Speak At First Christian Sunday

Dr. John C. Knowles, Director of Church Relations in the Department of Development for Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, will be the featured speaker for a "one day school of outreach" to be conducted this Sunday, June 2 at the First Christian Church of Floydada.

He will be preaching at the regular 11:00 a. m. worship service on the subject, "Under Orders" based on John 17:18-21 and Acts 1:1-8. His second appearance will be at a 6:00 p. m. Pot luck Fellowship Supper. At that time his topic will be "The Church is One" and will allow time for questions and discussion.

Dr. Knowles assumed his present position on January 1, 1962 coming from the pastorate of the First Christian Church in Houston, Texas, where he had served since 1947, three years as Associate Minister and twelve years as pastor.

During his Houston pastorate, a $1,250,000 church building was erected adjacent to the campus of Rice University. In his final year at Houston, the church ranked 10th in the brotherhood in additions with 226 and 17th in outreach giving with $41,661.

Dr. Knowles received his education from Texas Christian University where he received an A. B. and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1957. Additional work was taken at Brite College of the Bible, T.C.U. and George Williams College in Chicago.

Prior to his ministry in Houston, Dr. Knowles served as Boy's Secretary at several YMCA's and Hollywood - Beverly Christian Church as Minister to Youth.

His coming to Floydada is sponsored by the Department of World Outreach, Kinder Farris, chairman, of the First Christian Church.

Joyce Stewart To Lease Commercial Printing Shop

Joyce Stewart, who for the past 13 years has been employed by the Floyd County Hesperian office in the printing department will lease the commercial printing "job shop" effective June 1, 1963.

The announcement was made by the publisher of the Hesperian Wendell Tooley who said that due to the increasing amount of business this department is handling, it has become necessary to print job work six days a week instead of three.

The printing facilities will remain in the Hesperian building. Joyce will devote her full time to the operation of the department. She will handle job estimates, printing, and the bookkeeping of same.

Publisher Tooley also stated that he and the other staff members would be able to devote more time to putting out the newspaper, and with hopes of improving it to the point that it will become a twice a weekly publication when Floydada reaches a population of approximately 5,000.

The Hesperian will continue to sell office supplies and equipment, typewriters and bookkeeping supplies. Publisher Tooley said that he recommended the commercial department under the new lease plan to give faster service and continued best quality printing.

THERE are two other commodities besides sugar beets that are in strong demand according to various rumors I hear. It seems that the wheat farmers are buying up all the milk cows and chickens since the wheat referendum vote last week!

MY BUSINESS neighbor Mark Martin suffered some anxious moments Sunday when the Childress airport called and informed him that son Fred was in trouble flying his mother back from East Texas. The airport informed Mark that they were in radio contact with Fred and that his oil pressure was dropping and oil was spraying out over the bottom of the plane.

They told Mark that Fred was trying to make the landing strip near Roaring Springs but would land on a road if necessary — and that they would lose contact with him while landing. If he got down, got some oil and took off again they would call back.

In about 25 minutes Mark said they called back and reported that Fred had landed, got some more oil and was headed up the Matador to Floydada highway. Later Mark learned that Fred was down to one quart of oil when he made the emergency landing.

TWO AUTO accidents have occurred on U. S. Highway 70 near Lockney this week . . . both were avoidable and shouldn't particularly be blamed on the four-lane construction that is now under operation on this particular highway.

However, I think a note of caution should be given to everyone who travels this area of highway while under construction . . . slow down, watch for road equipment and remember, it's still a pretty narrow strip of paving that is still available for travel.

SOME FLOYD Pioneers were involved in one of the wrecks south of Lockney on Tuesday morning, luckily no one was seriously injured and Mrs. C. S. Mickey and her friends from Plainview were able to attend the Old Settlers Reunion.

This was my first Floyd Pioneer Reunion . . . and I enjoyed meeting many of the old timers . . . and I believe the parade was most outstanding.

The wife of a middle-aged business executive met him at his office one afternoon and the two started on a shopping trip. On the way down, a high-octane secretary got aboard the elevator, poked the exec in the ribs and said: "Hello Cutie Pie." Seemingly unperturbed the executive's wife smiled and said: "Hello, I'm Mrs. Pie"

MARVIN SHURBERT, Floyd County farmer who lives near Petersburg called me Tuesday and said there were two or three things that should be straightened out in the news releases about his year old suit for water depletion allowance with the federal government.

It is true that Marvin has received $113 payment from the government on his suit that asks for cost depletion allowance for use of underground water and it should be made clear that this is on a depletion basis and not a percentage as in depreciation allowances for minerals.

Another thing that the associated press and tv stations are emphasizing is that this means much money to the South Plains farmers. Actually, it will help only landowners, not renters. 6,800,000 irrigated acres may be affected in favor of its owners on the south plains — if the government does not appeal the case.

Marvin said that he would be representing Floyd County and the State of Texas at the National River and Harbor Congress which convenes in Washington, D. C. June 5-7.

Harvest

ernment program loan guarantees $1.68 per bushel for participants in the program, plus 18c more for compliance and bonus money for sedimentation and protein grade.

The market price is ranging from 1.80 to 1.85 per bushel.

The grain sorghum crop is earlier than usual due to the fact that early grain seems to be bothered less by midge than does late planted sorghum.

Agriculture officials in the county estimate that 90 per cent of the county's 96,630 alloted acres of cotton are up and growing. Insect infestation of thrip and fleahoppers has been severe in some acres of the county.

DEATH STATION WAGON AT SOUTH PLAINS . . . Karl Wayne Vinson of Lubbock met death when this late model station wagon crashed into a train at South Plains Tuesday afternoon.

New Wheat Program

WASHINGTON — A bill lumping wheat and feed grains under a voluntary acreage retirement program with limited price supports was introduced in the senate Monday with bi-partisan support.

Sen. Clinton Anderson, D-N. M., said the bill was being offered to "have a program before the Senate Agriculture Committee which farmers could support in the light of last week's defeat by wheat growers of the Kennedy administration's strict production control program.

Joining Anderson in authoring the measure were Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., Sen. George Aiken, R-Vt., and Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa.

Among major provisions of the measure:

A price support on the 196-crop of wheat equal to the average world market price (estimated at $1.35 to $1.45 a bushel compared with the present $2),

Feed grain price supports at 90 per cent of the average grower prices for the preceding three years. This would supplant the feed grains bill enacted only last week which offers higher supports in return for voluntary reduction of acreage on such crops as corn, oats and sorghums.

An acreage retirement program under which farmers would enter competitive bids for government payments in kind or in cash.

A technical explanation released by the sponsors said that the cropland retirement Program would work this way:

"Rental rates (on retired land) shall be adjusted on a state, county and individual farm basis, and the lands to be covered by (retirement) contracts shall be determined by a competitive bid procedure whereby a producer wishing to obtain a contract shall specify the percentage of the renial rate applicable to his farm which he is willing to accept."

However, the bill would limit the amount of cropland that could be retired from production in any state or county.

Aiken said he expected there would be little agitation for the bill for a few weeks but stressed that some action must be taken before wheat growers plant their 1964 crop next fall.

If there is no wheat legislation, $1 a bushel, and only those farmers who subscribe to the reduced acreage which the defeated administration program contained will be eligible for a price support of $1.25 a bushel.

Acreage Restrictions Off For Sugar Beets In 1965

College Station, May 30 - The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced on May 6 that acreage restrictions (proportionate shares) would not be established for the 1965 crop of sugarbeets.

The announcement was made concurrently with action taken by the Department which increased the 1963 domestic sugar requirements (total quotas) from 9,800,000 tons to 10,400,000 tons.

On March 14, 1963, USDA announced that 1964 crop of sugar-beet plantings would not be restricted. At that time, it was observed that beet sugar production would have to exceed marketings sufficiently to create safe and reasonable stock levels before acreage restrictions could be reimposed.

The May 6 announcement establishing the 1963 requirements at 10,400,000 tons, with accompanying quotas for the beet area of 2,990,127 short tons, reemphasizes the need for additional beet stocks to permit the area to meet

Speech Workshop To Begin At Tech

LUBBOCK — At least 25 reservations have already been received for Texas Tech's annual summer high school speech workshop July 21 to Aug. 3, Dr. P. Merville Larson, professor and head of the speech department, has reported.

Inquiries have been received from throughout West Texas and parts of New Mexico, according to Dr. Larson, who is director for the workshop.

Open to interested sophomores and juniors of the 1962-63 school year, the program will include study and practice in effective speech, dramatics, declamation, debate, discussion, extemporaneous speaking, poetry reading and radio and television experience.

Dr. Larson has announced that one of the persons assisting on the staff in dramatics is William Leonard, a Tech graduate who has for the past three summers been in professional theater at "The Barn" summer theater in Michigan. This winter Leonard worked as technical director and assistant on professional productions off Broadway.

Tech speech students who enroll in Speech 4325 for the second summer session will utilize the workshop in their study of methods and principles of directing high school speech activities. Graduate students may select problems in speech activities in Speech 531 and work with the workshop students.

The general fee for workshop participants is $10. Room and board at the college dormitories will be $40. For Tech students in speech 4325, the dormitory fee is $58.

Scholarships covering the general fee will be awarded to eligible students who have won first place in any regional or state Interscholastic League speech contest in 1962 or 1963.

Persons interested in participating in the workshop may contact the Tech speech department, Dr. Larson said. Reservations must include a $5 deposit.

Vacation Bible School Starts May 29 At FBC

Wednesday, May 29, sees the beginning of another Vacation Bible School at First Baptist Church, Floydada, one that should reach and influence many children and young people in our community. It is one of the highlights of the church year.

Serving again this year as the principal of the Bible School is Mrs. Charles Craig. The superintendents who will be assisting her and the departments which they will head are as follows:

Mrs. Lee Burton, Nursery; Mrs. Carl Smith, Nursery; Mrs. Ray Reed, Beg. I; Mrs. Sammy Hale, Beg. II; Mrs. Adrian Helms Pri I; Mrs. Mac Hickerson, Pri. II; Mrs. Gerald Elder, Pri. III; Mrs. Bill Daniel, Jr. I; Mrs. Dennis Dempsey, Jr. II; Mrs. L. D Simpson, Intermediates.

Bible School begins each morning at 8:30 with a break during the morning for refreshments and outside activities, and the children will be out by 11:30.

Concluding the school is the traditional commencement service which will be held this year on Friday night,

hool Expert Reports To ard On School Facilities

A INDEPENDENT STRICT ities Survey, April

vey of school facili- de at the request of a Independent School l statements contained h pertain to making s in school plant fa- cational program, or- etc. shall be construed e only and are not sidered as directive

POPULATION: — A f the average mem- he white and colored the Floydada school icates a growth of ly 22 per cent in each the next six years. from this projection owth will continue to migration starting at ird grade level since ade entries seem to y constant. While the ection indicates the for the colored school s involved are small felt that the present ll adequately handle en except as an in- e program may call l facilities.

PERATION: — Fin- Floydada district has nical operation. The of instruction in Floy- 91.46 per student as a state-wide average of $583.23 per student in schools of the same size.

The present ratio of bonded debt to valuation is approximately 6.4 per cent. This means that if the district is to continue operating an adequate program to meet the educational needs of the children it must take steps to increase its valuation. This in turn will increase the districts bonding capacity to provide additional facilities.

EVALUATION OF PRESENT BUILDINGS:

The High School

This building, erected in 1957, is a very good building and should serve the community for many years. The principal need in this building is the development of a maintenance program to repair cracks, leaks, etc., before they develop into major problems. Also with the increased enrollment and an expansion of the program, some remodeling and an addition to house either the science department or the homemaking department would be helpful.

The North Elementary and High School

As mentioned above, this building will probably meet the needs of the colored students for some time except as changes or additions to the program may establish the need for additional facilities.

The Junior High School

This building is the old high school building and was built in 1924. This unit is in need of some remodeling and some additions to properly take care of the Junior High program.

Andrews Elementary School

This original two-story unit of this building was built in 1927 with one-story additions being erected in 1946 and 1950. This school is in need of considerable remodeling and rehabilitation.

SUGGESTIONS: — The following suggestions are offered for consideration by the board of trustees and the administration:

1. General

a. Make a detailed study of the educational program to determine what courses should be added to make the program as comprehensive as possible, to meet the needs of all the children, especially those who will not be going to college.

b. After the program needs have been established, make long range plans for determining the method and facilities for meeting these needs.

c. Make a detailed survey of the buildings on each campus, with the architect, to establish estimates of the cost of the work needed to be done at each campus. Experience indicates that if the cost of rehabilitating and remodeling runs to as much as 30 per cent of the cost of new facilities the wise expenditure is not for remodeling but for new facilities.

2. High School

a. Acquire 16 acres of land across the street to the South West from the present high school campus and plan to eventually build the gymnasium, football field and other activity areas on this site. This will make the present site available for additional building or for outdoor physical education.

b. Consider removing partition between library and studyhall and making this area all library and air-conditioning this space.

c. The science department is inadequate and overcrowded. Consider building a new addition to house the science department or an alternate possibility would be to build a new addition for the homemaking department and convert the present homemaking department into a science department.

3. Junior High School

a. This building is well located for the junior high but needs rather extensive rehabilitation.

b. Suggest removal of temporary building being used for band and cafeteria and building new permanent facilities. Recommend that any new buildings on this campus not be physically attached to present buildings.

c. Plan to eventually move the football field to the new site adjacent to the high school and convert this present field and gymnasium to physical education facilities.

4. Andrews Elementary School

a. Suggest acquiring 8 to 10 acre site on west side of town and building a new primary school for grades one and two complete lunchroom, etc.

b. Evaluate advisability of remodeling present building for upper elementary including the possibility of converting the present gymnasium into a lunchroom by installing new floor construction on same level as balance of first floor space.

OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENDATIONS:

1. Conduct and appearance of the boys and girls was very fine and exemplified good citizenship.

2. The board and administration is to be commended for making longe range plans to handle the educational needs of the community before the problems become critical.

The courtesies extended to me by Superintendent Baker were appreciated.

Farm Bureau Facts & Faces

Attending the May 9th board meeting were President J. R. Turner, Marvin Wells, Howard Gregory, Don Probasco, Tom Davision, Sam Puckett, and Secretary Katherine King.

Marvin Wells reported the recommendation of the Young People's Committee that a Talk Meet and a Talent Find be held in Floyd County this year. The Board gave their approval and plans will soon be underway. Tentative plans are to have an ice cream supper in conjunction with this event.

Sam Puckett reviewed the Insurance quota obtained to date. This report is made quarterly and twenty-five per cent of the quota is to be obtained in each quarter. For the first quarter Floyd County shows 45 per cent on automobile. 72 per cent on fire, 200 per cent on liability, and 18 per cent on life insurance.

County agent, Tom Davison, said that the Brucellosis control program should be completed in Floyd County by the end of this month. Of particular interest to all farmers in this area is the revelation that fifteen Federal employees will be in Floyd County this month to check on that old devil, the BOLL WEEVIL. They will be finding out if the boll weevil overwintered here. The County Agent reported too, on work to slow down bacterial spots on vegetables.

In other business the Board voted to pay Katherine King's expenses to the Secretarial Seminar, and publicity measures concerning the wheat referendum were acted upon.

NOTICE: The Queen's Contest Committee chairman, Mrs. Wilbur Adams, will be calling a meeting soon. Other members of this committee are Mrs. Ras Ware, Mrs. Don Probasco, and Mrs. A. C. Pratt.

While downstate to attend graduation exercises for their granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wester visited in Weatherford with Dr. Bill Wester and family.

CONE NEWS by Mrs. Melba Wideman

Graduation Exercises Held At Cone Elementary School Tuesday Night

CONE, May 27 — Graduation exercises for members of the Cone Elementary School were held Tuesday night at the auditorium. Members of the class were George Harris, Jo Ann Ogle, who gave the valedictory Lupe Gutteriz who gave the class will and Brigido DeLeon who gave welcome. Rev. R. C. Guest was the special speaker and Howard Harris, president of the school board presented the diplomas. Wayne Ogle presented special awards: perfect attendance awards went to Jean and George Harris, Ed, Murl and Earl Lamb, Auroro and Lupe Sanchez. Scholastic awards went to the high ranking student in each grade. First, Mark Ashley; second, Sid Ogle; third, Susie DeLeon, fourth, Larry Center and Glenn Davis; fifth, George DeLeon; sixth, Edward DeLeon; seventh, Edward Mendoza; eight, Brigido DeLeon.

David Barnhart, Abilene and Mrs. Nelson Hilliard, Vernon, arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Barnhart. On Thursday afternoon the Barnharts and Mrs. Hilliard returned David to Abilene where he joined other students from Hardin-Simmons for a trip to Nashville, Tennessee. The students will all be associated with The Southwestern Company for the summer months. The Barnharts then took Mrs. Hilliard to her home in Vernon before returning home.

Mrs. Emma Noble was able to attend Sunday School and church Sunday and was a dinner guest of Mrs. Tom L. Davis in Ralls. Visitors of Mrs. Noble during the week included Mrs. Minnie Snyder, Lubbock, Mrs. Bobbie Smith, Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reed.

The school picnic which was scheduled for Wednesday of last week had to be cancelled because of unsettled weather. There were many disappointed boys and girls too.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones, Sr. and Chris were in Artesia, N. M. last Sunday visiting their new granddaughter, Quendelyn Francine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Price, Jr.

Gary Shrum arrived home on Friday from Oklahoma A & M to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shrum and Guy Len.

Miss Twanna Hilton and a friend of hers from Lubbock visited Miss Linda Cox in the Bud Cox home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bebel and Monte, Plainview visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wideman, Kenny and Belva Saturday evening. Monte remained for a week's visit in the Wideman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Houghton, Danny and Teddy visited in Lubbock on Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bynum.

Mrs. C. R. Smith spent Tuesday night in the home of her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harris and children. She also attended exercises at the school where her grandson, George, graduated.

Mrs Lowell Campbell, Deport and Mrs. J. R. Chalker, Lubbock, spent Tuesday night and Wednesday visiting Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Guest.

Miss Ruth Bartley visited recently with her aunt, Mrs. R. C. Gregory in Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Center, Larry and Carla, Jimmy Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Barnhart, and Mark Wideman were some of our community who visited the site of the White River Dam south of Crosbyton Sunday afternoon.

Little Nancy Mixon celebrated her third birthday Saturday afternoon. Family members were present to help her enjoy the occasion. These were her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mixon and Jay and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shrum Cary and Guy Len.

Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wideman were Mr. and Mrs. Laney Wideman, Layna, Brenda, Brad and Beth, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wideman, Kenny and Belva; Mr. and Mrs. Haney Wideman, Mark, Mel and Mardi; Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Hall and Mrs. Addie Kilpatrick, Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan James visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ely Friday evening and toured Camp Rio Blanco.

Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Cleveland left Monday for Abilene where they will visit their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Chambliss and also attend the annual Methodist Conference being held there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Strickland and children of Dimmitt were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Guest.

Mr George Stanford, Crosbyton who recently returned from participating in the Japan New Life Movement will speak and show slides of his experiences Wednesday night at 8:00 at the Baptist Church. Everyone is invited to come.

Mr. C. O. Gilbreath was taken to Crosbyton Hospital early Wednesday morning and still remains there as a medical patient. His illness has not been diagnosed and his condition is about the same.

FLOYDADA DOUGHERTY

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(from the Hesperian dated June 2, 1949)

Floyd County's first load of wheat was delivered to the elevator last night. It was cut on the J. T. Persons farm southeast of Elgin. It tested 63 pounds to the bushel. The grain was marketed at Quitaque.

Hollis Bond, who underwent major surgery in Lubbock last week, has returned home and will be able to return to his work sometime next week.

Carr Surginer was elected to succeed Jeffie Smith as president of the Floyd County Old Settlers reunion, following the long day celebration Saturday.

Marjorie Oden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conner Oden, returned home from Dallas where she has been attending SMU. She plans to go back to Dallas soon and work for the Dallas Morning News in the society department.

Mr and Mrs. C. O. Spence returned home recently from Sherman where they went to see their new grandson, who is the new arrival of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Spence Jr.

One of the most enjoyable trips taken by local people is the one to Washington, D. C. by Mrs. Ruth Green, who went to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Doherty and her husband Mrs. Green accompanied her son, Starks Green and his wife of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Roland returned home from Los Angeles, Calif., over the weekend where they attended a family reunion.

John Tower Newsletter

Rejection of the Administrations proposal for strict control of wheat growers was hailed Wednesday by Senator John Tower as pointing the way toward "more freedom throughout our national life."

"It also," said Tower, "should pave the way for a new Secretary of Agriculture."

"The wheat growers have showed the way," Senator Tower said. "It is my hope the rest of the nation will follow."

Senator Tower took an active part in opposing the new program, which would have meant new and stringent regulations involving practically every bushel of wheat grown in the United States. He also opposed the Administration's feed grain bill passed last week by Congress, saying consideration of the measure should await the May 21 wheat referendum in order that Congress might have the benefit of the thinking of the nation's farmers before enacting the legislation.

"Despite massive efforts by the Administration to brainwash our farmers into thinking that complete regimentation of the farm is the only way out of 30 years of agricultural turmoil caused by red tape and bureaucratic bungling, the farmers have voted for freedom," he said.

"This places the farmer in the enviable position of pointing the way toward more freedom through out our national life. The Administration party controls both houses of Congress. Let us hope they are not so bankrupt of ideas that the nation's farmers have to bear the brunt of their pique at having one of their pet schemes rejected.

"This proves, more than anything else, the need for ideas at the top of the Agriculture department that are in tune with the thinking of farmers and ranchers. It proves the bankruptcy of the Liberal contention that federal regimentation is the answer to all ills. It should pave the way for a new Secretary of Agriculture."

By Mrs. Clyde Bagwell

FAIRVIEW MAY 27 — School is out and the choldren are enjoying their vacation. Vacation Bible Schools will be opening in a few days. One starts at First Baptist Church on Wednesday of this week. Among the ones hleping in the school from Fairview are Mrs. Lee Burton and Mrs. Harvey Allen.

Mrs. G. D. Tate of Denver City spent Wednesday night here with her niece, Mrs. Lee Burton and family.

Many of our folks are planning to attend old settlers reunion Tuesday. However a number of the old timers will be missing this year as they have answered the "last call" since last years reunion day.

We received word last week that First Lieutenant and Mrs. Alan Hendrickson of Tokyo, Japan became the parents of a new son first of last week. The Hendricksons have two other sons, Randy and David. Mrs. Hendrickson will be remembered here as Bettye Gail Stewart who grew up at Fairview. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stewart who now live at Levelland. First Lieutenant Alan Hendrickson is stationed at Atehi Air Base at Tokyo, Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls left last Sunday morning on a short vacation trip. First they stopped at Wayne Oklahoma where they visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cardinal. Then they visited at Norman, Okla. with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Marsee and at Nicoma Park with Mr. Wall's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Johnson. The four went to Lake Texhoma where they enjoyed fishing until Thursday night when they returned home. Mrs. Walls reports they caught a lot of nice fish.

Mrs. Jewel Teague visited Friday with her sister, Mrs. Lindsey Graham and had lunch with her.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Clem and Cathy of Roaring Springs were Sunday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Holland.

Craig and Gary Spears of Floydada spent Friday night with aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuy Irwin visited her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson and daughters, Shirley and Carla Saturday morning.

Larry DuBois of Lubbock spent the weekend here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edell DuBois. Mrs. DuBois spent last week in Lubbock with her son, Bud and children and Larry returned home with her Friday and stayed until Sunday when he went home on the bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Gilbreath of Matador, spent Friday here with their cousin, Mrs. W. B. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson had as their dinner guest on Sunday their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen and Mike, his mother, Mrs. W. B. Wilson and their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Mize.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Payne returned home Sunday evening from Stamford Lake where they went on Wednesday. C. J. Payne spent the weekend at the lake with his parents. They caught 20 nice fish during their stay at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy of Claude were here Tuesday. They attended funeral services for Mr. P. M. Smitherman and visited that evening in the Bill Tye home.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt and Greg were Sunday dinper guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pruitt. They visited in the afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye. Mrs. Odell Stapleton, of Plainview was also a visitor Sunday evening in the Tye home.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye and Mrs. A. S. Mize visited in Lubbock with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Treadwell and Mrs. J. D. Neely.

Mrs. Clyde Bagwell will leave Friday morning from Lubbock by train for Santa Ana, Calif. where she will visit for some three weeks with her mother, Mrs. C. L. Joiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beedy and Mark, of South Plains and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt and Greg were Wednesday night visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye. Keith Teague spent Wednesday and Thursday night with Jimmie Tye.

Mrs. Weldon Pruitt and Mrs. Bill Tye attended a pink and blue shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eugene Beedy of South Plains for Mrs. Jakey Younger.

Letters To The Editor

I am always looking for new ideas especially if they might help Floydada or our South Plains farmers to make more money.

I have just returned from the West Coast and found a project out there that has been in operation some 10 years. It is very successful and can be used here in Floydada.

It will create jobs in the local community.

They call it Goodwill stores Industries. It works like this: People donate things they have around the place they no longer especially need, consisting of clothing, dry goods of all kinds, dishes, furniture, lawn mowers stoves, electric appliances, jewelry, golf clubs, fishing tackle.

All this stuff is gathered to a big shed, shop, repaired and put on sale in stores. The money is then used to pay for repairing and selling the merchandise. It is a non profit set up. If profits accumulate they just open another store.

Floydada could very easily start one of these organizations. It could be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Rotary Club, P.T.A., Ladies Home Demonstration Club and all the other organizations in Floydada.

This is a worthwhile project and can be easily started.

They have only one excuse for existence and that is to create jobs especially for handicapped people, the relief rolls and elderly people. This project has many good points and no bad ones.

Think this one over and if Floydada is interested I will tell you more about it next week.

cording themselves as voting no.

Argument for the bill is that it would bring requirements up to a more modern figure. Court judgements in personal injury cases, resulting from auto collisions, often exceed $5,000.

Argument against it, voiced by Rep. Eligio de la Garza of McAllen, was that 35 per cent of the drivers cannot afford to carry liability insurance at present rates So there will be even more uninsured motorists on the highways after the Fairchild law takes effect.

WIND UP — Regular session of the 58th Legislature ends Friday. That's three days earlier than the constitutional requirement.

Hunderds of the 1,500 proposed new laws submitted by the 181 legislators were left to die in committees and on the crowded calendars of both houses.

Others hundreds will become law when Gov John Connally signs them. Rush of business at the sessions end is pouring them into his office by the score.

All legislative proposeal are important to someone. In a few cases, it is a single person.

One proposeal would allow a newspaper editor to practice law. It was killed on the floor.

Another would permit the practice of architecture, by a qualified person who failed to apply for a license before the deadline arrived. It died in committee.

But the major issues of the session appear to be fairly well settled.

COURTS — An exception is judicial redistricting.

Rep. Henry Stollenwerck, a Republican from Dallas, vainly tried to move some rural district courts to the cities. This to follow the people who have moved into the population centers.

Stollenwerck presented statistics showing that some courts are handling only 150 cases a year, while others in major cities have towering caseloads even after disposing of five times that many cases a year. Bill was killed in committee.

Rep Bob Johnson of Dallas persuaded the House to pass a bill under which a judicial redistricting board, made up of the Lieutenant Governor, House Speaker and Attorney General, would reapportion district courts if the Legislature did not. Bill died in the Senate.

HOUSE MINORITY LEADER — In the waning days of the session, House Republicans ceremoniously announced their 8-member delegation leader, Rep. Horace B. Houston of Dallas.

Houston has some sort of seniority since he previously served a term when he ran as a Democrat.

Speaker Byron Tunnell quipped "From now on, when you folks have complaints about your bills, you can take your troubles to the House minority leader."

Houston then cast his first vote as G.O.P. leader in favor of extending the Veterans Land Program, while his followers cast votes against it.

MORE JUNIOR COLLEGES — State Board of Education named a committee to study Snyder's request for a junior college. Appointees were Penrose B. Metcalfe of San Angelo, Herbert O. Willborn, of Amarillo and Paul Mathews of Greenville. Committee will meet on May 31, in San Angelo.

Recently, the board authorized a junior college election for Travis County voters. Claim is that even though the University of Texas is in Travis County, entrance requirements are too stiff for many local youngsters to enroll.

POLICEMEN'S PENSIONS — On its way to becoming law is S. B. 444 by Sen. William Moore of Bryan. It would make policemen in 150 towns of less than 250,00 population eligible for social security benefits, if their councils agreed.

Rep Ben Barnes of De Leon, House sponsor, siad, "This is the House sponsor, said, "This is the first policemen's bill that policemen's associations and the Texas Municipal League have agreed on."

A statewide bill by Rep. Glenn Kothman of San Antonio, to increase longevity pay for policemen and firemen in all towns, was killed.

BILLS SIGNED — In recent days Governor Connally has signed into law bills that make San Angelo and Pan American colleges state-supported, senior colleges; authorize commissioners courts to appropriate monies for historical markers and monuments; provide for annexation by municipalities; authorize a 70-mile speed limit; and allow weekly newspapers to miss two issues a year and still retain their legality.

Also, change the name of A & M College to Texas A & M University; authorize counties to issue bonds to establish homes for the needy; and provide for emergency succession to state offices in the event of an attack or a disaster.

ROAD RACE — Texas and Oklahoma are running a friendly race to close the gap between Wichita Falls and Oklahoma City.

Texas highway builders are aiming for an early- June, 1964, completion date on the Red River Valley Expressway between Wichita Falls and the Red River.

Oklahoma has set the same target for completion of a Southwestern Turnpike project between Oklahoma City and the terminal point of the Texas expressway.

TEXAS LEADS This state has led all others in road-building progress since 1956.

Highway engineers from other states and 19 Latin American countries who want to know how it has been done heard State Highway Department Engineer D. C. Greer speak on the subject in Washington, D. C.

A pay-as-you-go plan has been one secret of success, Greer says, in building a highway network of 65,000 miles. Some other states run into road delays because of bond elections and sales.

Greer said his department's motto is "Total road service to all the people."

"The highway administrator must not be guilty of favoritism for one region over another," he stated.

BACK IN THE GAME — Former sports writer Wilbur Evans, one-time information director of the Southwest Conference, is going back into athletics after six months of quarterbacking for Governor Connally.

Evans served as press liaison man for the governor's office. He will return to his old field on June 1 as press agent for the Dallas Cowboys.

BUS DRIVER OF THE YEAR — Winner of the Texas Education Agency's "School Bus Driver of the Year" contest will be named on June 7.

Regional winners are:

Elmer J. Ashby of Henderson, James U. Skinner of Corrigan, Billy Ray Richardson of Calallen, William F. Moore of Rankin, Herbert Hines of Rule and Roy Arthur Brooks of Alto.

L. C. R. A. APPPOINTMENT — Governor Connally appointed John W. Hancock of El Campo to the Board of Directors of the Lower Colorado River Authority for a six year term. He succeeds R. D. Wright of Wharton.

Hancock is the nephew of Curtis Hancock of Dallas, who was a member of Texas' first Highway Commission.

MRS. BEULAH ROBERSON BURIED AT LOCKNEY

Rites were conducted in Lubbock Sunday in the Memphis Avenue Church of Christ for Mrs. Beulah A. Roberson, 63, former resident of Lockney. Mrs. Roberson died Thursday in a Houston hospital after a lengthy illness Burial was in Lockney cemetery.

Mrs. Roberson had been a resident of Lockney since a young girl, moving to Lubbock in 1956. She and her husband were Lockney merchants for a number of years.

Survivors include her husband, Arthur J. (Ott) Robertson; two daughters, Mrs. Bill McQuillin, Amarillo and Mrs. Gene Vincent of Albuquerque; one son, J. B. Roberson, Phoenix, Ariz.; one brother; one sister and seven grandchildren.

Mayoralty Proclamation
NATIONAL HIGHWAY WEEK
1963

WHEREAS, the growth and future economic potential of the State of Texas is linked inextricably to its fine system of highways which stimulate both business and recreation by making travel safe and pleasurable; and

WHEREAS, the Texas Highway Department through a concentrated program of highway construction and modernization has in the past several years helped bring about a reduction of more than 25 per cent in the fatality rate of all Federal and State highways in Texas; and

WHEREAS, during the past six years the Texas Highway Department has built more miles of highways than any other state; but

WHEREAS, heavy increases in traffic now jeopardize the advances in highway safety and the contribution to the economy made on the Texas highway system, since the state now has more than five million registered motor vehicles and the miles traveled by these vehicles now totals well over 40 billion miles a year; and

WHEREAS, due to this traffic many miles of Texas' 28,000-mile system of U. S. and State-numbered highways are already obsolete for the traffic they presently carry:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, as the nation at large observes National Highway Week during the period May 26-June 1, 1963, that the Texas Highway Department be congratulated for its achievements; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the citizens of Texas be strongly urged to take note of the immense highway problems and needs facing this state as its economy continues to expand, and to support a sustained program of highway improvement and modernization so that Texas highways can continue their indispensable contribution to traffic safety, the growth of our economy and the national defense.

THEREFORE, I, S. W. ROSS, do hereby designate the period of May 26-June 1, 1963 as HIGHWAY WEEK and urge that special attention be directed to the needs of our highway system.

S. W. ROSS
City Mayor.

Yarborough Newsletter

Dear Fellow Texan:

Recently, I received from the White House a copy of a report to the President called "The Older American." It is a report from the Council on Aging, appointed by President Kennedy. The Council spent a year studying the growing problems of the aged. It fully endorses the President's program on medical care for the aged, under Social Security financing.

The Council warned that health care problems of our American people who are 65 and over come dangerously close to making them second class citizens.

The Council further reported to the President, and I full agree that the primary need of older Americans is a basic plan of hospital insurance.

The Council reported results of a study of older people discharged after a short stay in the hospital. It showed that their hospital insurance coverage is costly, and the insurance does not cover all the bills. The fact is, most older people can not afford the higher premiums for good insurance coverage, any more than they can afford the hospital bills.

In 1961, 50 percent of the 18 million persons 65 and older, not in institutions, had a total income of less than $1,000 for the year. That means less than $82.33 a month. That won't pay for much insurance, and it won't pay many hospital bills. This is one reason so many older people don't go to the hospital when they should. They don't want charity and they don't have the money to pay. More than 12 million of the 18 million Americans 65 and over have at least one chronic impaired health condition such as high blood pressure, arthritis, diabetes, heart disease or mental disorder. About 1,250,000 of them are invalid.

Many older citizens delay going to a doctor until it is too late. The gap between the care most older people need and their ability to pay is too broad. This gap must be closed.

In Texas, we have 773,00 people 65 and over. By 1970 there will be 968,000. This is already a serious problem and it is growing in Texas and elsewhere.

The President's Council on Aging includes some of the nation's leading authorities on problems of the aged, in the fields of health, housing and jobs. It includes Cabinet members from the Departments of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Treasury, Agriculture, Commerce and Labor.

The Council supports the President in his program for hospital care under Social Security as it also supports his programs on housing for the elderly and for easing unemployment. Many plans have been put forward to help the aged, including practical and badly needed moves like relief from burdensome income taxes. I am supporting these programs. But health care for the aged is needed worst of all.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman D. Irwin of Lubbock are parents of a new son, Michael Glenn, who was born Monday, May 20 in West Texas Hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds and seven ounces at birth. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin have three other children, Kimberley Dawn, 6, Shelley Jolynne, age 4, and Patrick Dale, who is three. The mother is the former Audeen Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Turner of Floydada. The father is associated with Irwin-White Steel Erectors Inc.

Judy Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams of Floydada, has won the Gregg Rubles Company award in shorthand and typing at the annual awards assembly held at West Texas State College last Thursday.

County Agent Says Watch For Cotton Thrip

Numerous calls and field checks have shown that there is some early season insect damage on seedling cotton states Gerald Lackey, chairman of the Floyd County Cotton Committee.

One of the 1963 crop year goals of the County Cotton Committee was to follow the cotton insect situation more closely and keep local farmers posted on the insect situation.

County agent H. T. Davison says that all cotton should be observed closely as it emerges, especially the replanted or late May cotton. It appears that thrips in many acres just waiting for the seedling to emerge to begin feeding on it, and will cause immediate damage.

At the present time thrip are causing the damage. Thrips are about 1-16 inch long and vary in color from a greenish-white to brown and they are usually found on the underside of the leaf.

In checking for thrips the common standard shown can be used to determine when to begin control practices.

Walk diagonally across the field inspecting many plants at several representative places using the following infestation rate as a guide.

LIGHT — When the newest unfolding leaves show only a slight brownish tinge along the edges with no silvering of the underside, and only an occasional thrip seen.

MEDIUM — If newest leaves show considerable browning along the edges and some silvering on the underside, and thrips are found readily.

HEAVY — If silvering of leaves is readily noticeable, terminal buds show injury, plant is ragged and deformed, and thrips are numerous.

Davison went on to say, that recommended insecticides for early season controls were: Dieldrin & DDT; Guthion; Srabane - DDT (2-D); Sevin; Toxaphene & DDT (2-1); Heptachlor & DDT; and Endrin & DDT. These are all tried and tested controls and any one could be used. If thrips cannot be controlled with DDT, Methylparathion could be substituted.

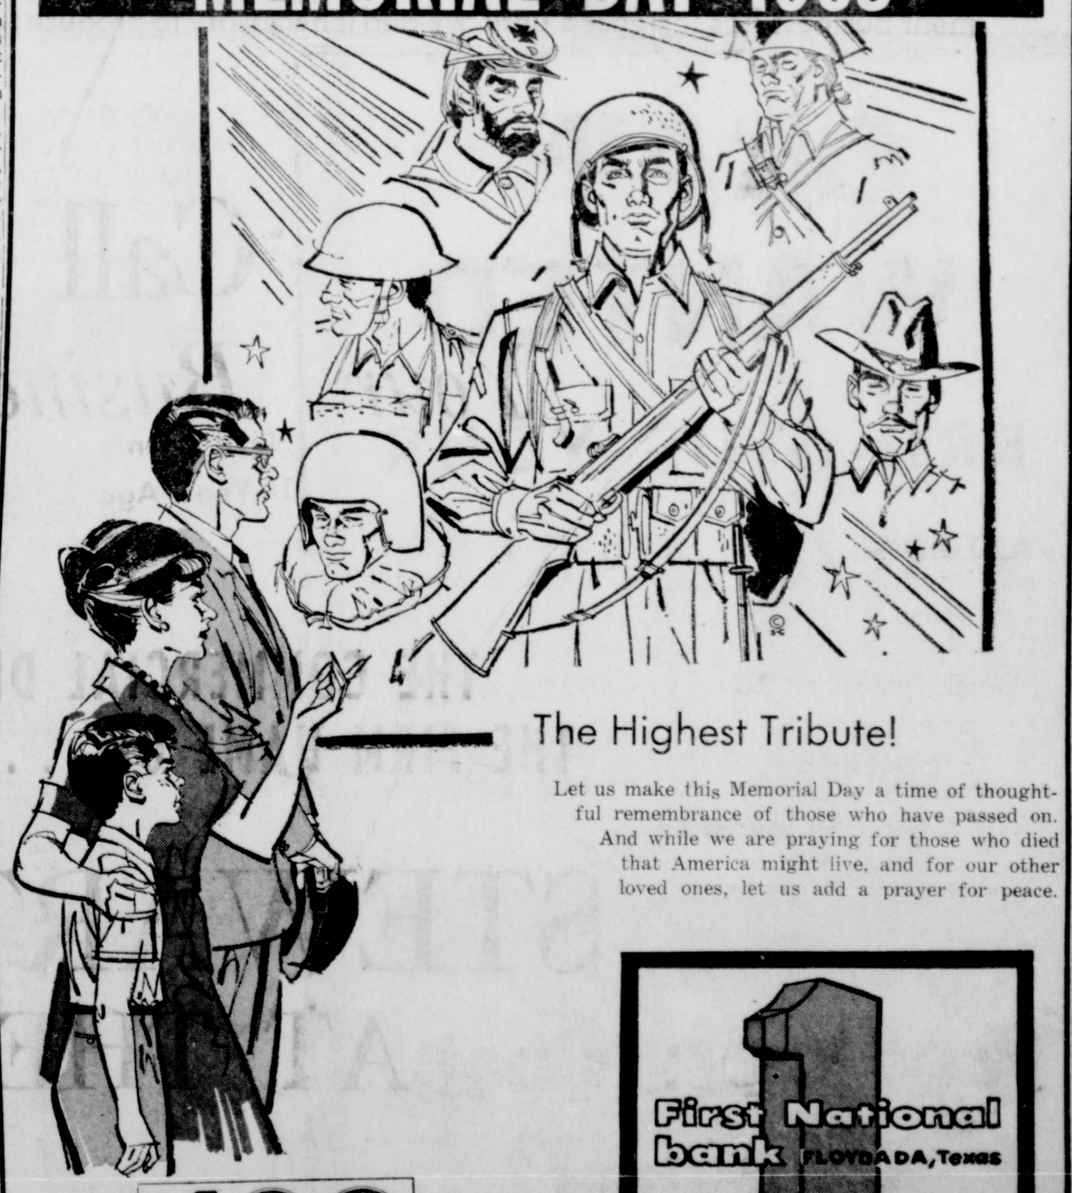

Lackey concluded by saying that the Cotton Committee would continue to keep the farmers advised on the insect situation and if necessary would conduct insect counting field days in the various communities when needed.

.... THE LEASE OF THE COMMERCIAL PRINTING DEPARTMENT OF THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN TO ....

Joyce Stewart

Effective June 1, 1963, Joyce Stewart will lease the commercial printing department of The Floyd County Hesperian and devote all of her time to the department.

The printing facilities will remain in the Hesperian office building and Joyce will continue to produce the well known quality printing that our customers have learned to appreciate for many years.

Joyce has 13 years of experience in "job printing" at The Hesperian, she is a native of Floydada, is a good citizen of the community and will certainly appreciate serving you.

Since the first of this year our commercial printing department business has increased until we find it necessary to produce full time, rather than try to crowd the work into each Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

We feel that this change of operation will offer the public a faster service in this particular department, as well as allow us to have more time to devote to The Hesperian Newspaper.

We look forward to the day that we shall be publshing two newspapers per week ... each Thursday and each Sunday and in order to improve the paper to this point, we feel that we must give more time to its publication.

Again, let us say we trust that you will keep your commercial printing business in Floydada ... Joyce will be visiting with you and soliciting your business each week.

rmers Union President Gives tement On Wheat Vote

owing statement made Farmers Union Presi- I. Naman, in regard re of the wheat refer-endum:

"We in Texas Farmers Union feel that we have met our responsiblity to wheat farmers, by making a sincere effort to inform them of the factors to be decided in the wheat referendum. We were joined in this effort by committees of wheat farmers, department of agriculture people representatives of the extension service; and, after attending several meetings sponsored by these people, I am convinced that every effort was made to give the farmers accurate economic information with complete objectiveness.

"The defeat of the program was neither a repudiation of Secretary of Agriculture Freeman nor the President, but rather it was a grave mis-judgement on the part of many wheat farmers that might result in unnecessary economic hardship to thousands of people who make their business the production of wheat, and the people in the rural communities in the wheat producing areas.

"Leaders in the congress, both Republican and Democrat, have said that other wheat legislation this year would be highly improbable. I doubt if these important men in the congress would have made such statements irresponsibly. Since there was never a suggestion by those who opposed a "yes" vote as to what kind of legislation would be better and could pass the congress this year, all eyes are on the opposition to see what kind of a program they will prepare.

"Farmers Union, being the responsible farm organization that it is, will, of course, propose some sort of compromise to the certificate plan, something of a temporary nature, but we realize that it will neither be better than the program voted on, nor will the chances for congressional passage be good. We will make a sincere effort to protect wheat growers from price disaster as we have traditionally, but this does not mean that we could support any program which has been proven so unworkable and expensive as a 'soil bank' program with a 'sliding scale' price support.

"The defeat of the wheat program was, of course, disappointing to me because I feel that it will have the residual effect of weakening our whole family farm pattern of agriculture. I am concerned that it will destroy any opportunity of passing beneficial cotton legislation this year, and furthermore, it will make the grain program recently enacted, a most expensive program to government, and dooms it to extinction after the two years it will be in effect.

"The fact still remains that farmers saw fit to reject a system of managing their production, which would have allowed them to maintain a favorable price. Whether they were motivated by other considerations is not of particular importance now. They either relied on promises for a 'better' program, felt that the price declines predicted, are a myth, or have chance cheap wheat, without any restrictions. I not only believe that our organization cannot be charged with the responsibility that the opposition has assumed in forcing the exposure of wheat farmers and all of agriculture to the risks of uncontrolled wheat production and the resulting side effects to other farm programs."

Q — Who administers cemeteries where American servicemen are buried in foreign countries?

A —The American Battle Monuments Commission administers the U.S. Military Cemeteries and Memorials on foreign soil.

Q — Can I reinstate my GI insurance?

A — With some exceptions a policy converted to a permanent plan can be reinstated at any time with evidence of good health and payment of all back premiums with interest. A permanent policy surrendered for cash cannot be reinstated, except for men in active service. Under certain conditions, five-year term insurance can be reinstated only if within the five-year term period, with evidence of good health if lapsed over three months.

Electric CO-OP MEMBERS ... a Billion Dollar Appliance Market

This young lady's fetching headgear represents part of ONE BILLION DOLLARS nationally electric cooperative members will spend this year for appliances and other electric equipment.
In Texas, a staggering total of ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS will be spent for the same purpose.
In the 7 county area served by Lighthouse Electric Cooperative these purchases will add up to more than $1,500,000. Who made these purchases possible.
Rural people who had no electricity, borrowed money at interest and built the Lighthouse Electric Cooperative thus creating a portion of this fabulous appliance market.
Most anyone can tell you why Lighthouse Electric has been good for its member-owners.
But the Main Street Merchant can give you ONE MILLION REASONS why the electric cooperative has been good for everybody.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Friend,

On next Wednesday, May 29, the House is cheduled to debate and vote on the proposed 2-year extension of Public Law 78 the bracero law. We had sought to get the House Committee on Agriculture to improve Public Law 78, but a majority of the members of the Committee felt that a simple extension of the present law would have a better chance of being approved by the House.

Opponents of the legislation have served notice that they will put up a hard fight to defeat extension of Public Law 78. I believe we can extend it. The greatest threat lies in the possibility that amendments may be adopted imposing additional hardships on bracero users. I shall actively support extension of the law, and I shall oppose hurtful amendments.

I thought you would like to know of action being taken here in regard to bracero legislation. I would be pleased to hear from you at any time concerning problems confronting the farmers of our area.

Best wishes to all.

Floyd Philosopher Looks Around And Finds Small Towns, Like Farmers, Not Disappearing

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes out in defense of small towns in his letter this week.

Dear editar:

I have heard so much lately about the fear city people have that the farmer will disappear that it was a pleasure to read in a national magazine last night which a salesman earlier in the day wanted me to subscribe to but which I declined on the grounds that some magazines may disappear sooner than us farmers, that the city folks are now worrying over whether the small towns can survive.

As I understood it, the thinkers in the cities have decided that since towns depend on agriculture to survive, and since according to their figures agriculture is going under, the towns will follow.

In fact, some people are so worried about small towns that it wouldn't surprise me to learn somebody in Washington may come out before long with a sort of soil bank idea for town buildings. Leave every third building vacant and put it in the Vacant Building Bank.

Well I'll tell you, I'm not worried about towns or farmers either.

Now it's true that the per centage of farmers has declined, from 50 per cent of the total population 40 years ago to only 8 per cent today, but that's just a bunch of figures.

Take the automobile industry. The number of car makers has dwindled over 500 per cent in the last 40 years. There used to be 25 or 30 car makers, now there are only four or five. Us farmers with 8 per cent of the total population are giants compared with the car makers with about one-millionth of 1 per cent, and I'm surprised there aren't more people in Washington wringing their hands over this situation.

Car makers are like farmers, just a few of us giants are surviving, but the results of our work spread far afield. For example, producing and processing (you want to underscore processing) agricultural products is now an 82-billion-dollar-a-year industry, the largest in the nation, according to the president of a big cereal company. Farming is bigger business than oil, steel, cosmetics or national defense.

I don't understand statistics. Every time I go into Floydada it seems like somebody has put up a new house. Poorest way I know to make a town disappear.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Petersburg Pastor Tells History Of Floydada Baptish Camp

Baptist Camp life goes 40 years prior to 1948 when the Baptist of the South Plains acquired the Camp ground located on White River just 8 miles south of Floydada.

In 1908, the Baptists of the panhandle acquired property in Ceta Glen Canyon north-east of Happy, Texas. This property was improved and used for the old-fashioned "camp meeting". This continued for many years. In 1932 the Baptists lost the property because of indebtedness. For several years the property was leased and used. This property is now owned by the First Christian Church and used for their summer camp program, and it joins the Methodist Camp ground.

In 1945, a group of ardent camp minded people decided it was time for the Baptist to own another camp-site. Such property was purchased three miles northwest of Wayside, Texas. This most beautiful location proved impractical and tragic. The road was too steep and the grounds did not provide building sites because of the rough terrain. Following a tragic accident in connection with girls camp in 1947 the property was sold and abandoned.

The White River Canyon was purchased in the late fall of 1947 by the Baptist group and the first camp was held in 1948. The buildings were inadequate, and the property was undeveloped, but a successful camp season was enjoyed.

In succeeding years there was continuing development at the camp. Swimming pool, guest house, modern dining hall and kitchen service have been added.

One of the most useful buildings on the grounds is the Administration Building. It is a gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson. It houses the administration and registration. Also included is a very adequate nurses' quarters.

Each of the various churches in the District lease and build cabins to suit their requirements. These cabins range from simple cabins to pretentious lodges that are quite modern and most comfortable. There are about 150 church owned cabins at the camp. The value of all the camp area is about half million dollars.

Camp rules have been made and are enforced. The making of some rules has been necessary, and the policies behind others has brought forth a smile.

The camp has had almost 100,000 enroll since it's establishment near Floydada. These camps have touched each of the churches of the area.

The Business Men of Floydada are to be thanked and congratulated for their fine spirit of cooperation, along with the City of Floydada and Floyd County Commissioners. Without this fine spirit of co-operation the building of Plains Baptist Assembly would have been much slower and much more difficult.

Texas cotton producers received $809 million for their 1962 crop. The total income for both lint and seed, as well as production, fell below the 1961 totals by tive and one percent, respectively. The crop, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, was the second largest since 1949. The per acre yield was 348 pounds compared with 350 for 1961.

Center News

By Mrs. J. E. Green

CENTER, May 27 — Sunday was a beautiful day after so many cold, damp days last week. We at Calvary Baptist had 120 for Sunday School and more for church. The Sunday evening service was also well attended. We were happy to have our pastor, Brother Percy Threadgill in the pulpit again, after his spending several days in the hospital.

The Frank Dunn's son and daughters and families of Lubbock gathered in the home Friday afternoon to attend commencement exercises of the FHS of which their brother, Joe Lee, was one of the graduates. Congratulations to all four of these Dunn children who have graduated from this good school and to their parents. The Lubbock children present were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Balios and baby boy, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Parks, and Jimmy Dunn and girls. Patsy was in Pasadena visiting a sister who is ill, and seeing her parents and other relatives at this time.

Mr and Mrs. R. C. Ross visited in Baileyboro and Roswell over the weekend with their daughters and families. In Baileybord they dined Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Buck Ragsdale. In the afternoon Maxine accompanied her parents to Roswell where they spent Saturday night and until Sunday afternoon with the other daughter, Norma (Mrs. Bob Roberson) and family, returning home late Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Jackson was in Quanah Friday night to attend the High School graduation exercises where a granddaugnter, Judy Jackson was in the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cone of Wichita Falls were in Floydada over the weekend visiting her sisters and husbands. These were and Mrs. Leo Frizzell and Mrs. W. M. Jackson. They went on this Monday morning to "open up their summer house" in the Red River area of the mountains.

Bridge Is Fun Tense For Some

All the people looked very sad. They were sitting in foursomes at small uncomfortable tables that occupied two ballrooms. Smoke hung heavy in the air and the only sound was a low murmur and some sharp clicks.

No one laughed. Bur they were having a wonderful time playing a game.

They call it bridge.

Jokes lie flat on stale air, ice melts in good drinks and friends don't speak. Solemn faces are as much a part of the game as a handful of cards.

Bridge and the playing of it drew more than 2,500 normally jovial people from California to Maine to the Hotel Adolphus recently for the Texas Regional Bridge Tournament. Among them was Mrs. Calvin Steen of Floydada.

To the tune of $3 a side game and $3 entry fee for the tournaments, men and women sat all day scrutinizing cards, glancing obliquely at partners and not smiling. Apparently they loved it.

"This is just about the best tourney I've been to," confided one lady during a short breather.

Why bridge? "Simple," the addict says. And then he explains the game.

Unlike the familiar games of a childhood, bridge does not depend on the fickle fascination of chance. It has no ante and doesn't pay a pot. You don't get books or bingo. You don't go past yellow and stop on red.

According to retired Navy doctor Frank W. Ryan and Danish baker Carsten Bolauartzen, both of California, partners at bridge and both eager players Thursday, "Bridge does take you places." They've been to Portland, Phoenix, Tucson, Fresno - now Dallas -"all on bridge," they say. Bridge and money.

"It's relaxing," a lady at a nearby table added, grinding out her seventh cigarette.

"It's a good family game," said Mrs. J. C. Hughes of Lubbock, whose partner this week is son John, 23. "This tourney is my Mother's Day gift."

"Bid."

"You shouldn't ever play with your wife," said Dr. Ryan. Why? "You wanta get murdered, or something?"

"You see, bridge takes a certain amount of respect between partners," Bolaurtzen amplified.

The point of the game is to make tricks. With cards. Don't stack them or pick a card, any card. You play boards instead.

Those are like hands. But if you contract four spades and make five, don't up the ante. You get a trick instead. Congratulations.

Of course it depends on what the declarer declares and what everybody else takes or doesn't take. For those who get confused someone designated each player North, South East or West.

It helps some.

Aces aren't high, you can't ask for more cards if you don't like the ones you get, and nothing is wild unless you bid wrong. Then your partner is.

But if you can't make tricks, try trumps.

You do that with cards too. It's still bridge.

Methodists Observe Aldersgate Anniv.

Methodist Churches throughout the world are observing the 225th anniversary of Aldersgate this month.

The emphasis and theme of the service on Sunday morning at First Methodist Church was in keeping with this recognition. The pastor's sermon was entitled "The Experience of the Warm Heart". The morning hymns during the month have been hymns written by Charles Wesley, the hymn-writing member of the brother team of John and Charles Wesley, who are recognized as the founders of The Methodist Church.

Church historians write the event of Aldersgate as the testimony of John Wesley's spiritual experience which led to a great revival of religion in England in the 18th century. This experience came to Wesley on May 24, in an evening service in Aldersgate Street Church, while the leader was reading Martin Luther's "Preface to the Letter to the Romans".

The choir sang as the anthem one of Wesley's hymns, "Rejoice, the Lord is King".

Officials of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation have announced the successful completion of the drive for $3 million in producer funds. They will supplement those from the federal and state governments in the drive to eradicate screwworms from the Southwest. Contributions also came from Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana and California. The successful drive was described as an unprecedented and a real achievement by the livestock industry and sportsmen of the region.

Beautiful lawns don't just happen. Their beauty depends largely upon the care received during the growing season, says A. C. Novosad, extension pasture specialist. Fertilization, watering, mowing and weed control are major items in a lawn care program.
