A capacity crowd of over 200 gave band director Sam Watson a standing ovation as he went to the speaker's rostrum to accept the award from Roy McClellan.

The Name of the person to receive the award this year was probably one of the best kept secrets of the year. Watson and his wife, Helen, were two very surprised people when they realized McClellan was

Dr. Bill Reeves Receives New Three Year Contract

Seymour Resigns Lynx Coaching Job

Spearman High School's coach and athletic director will not be here next year, it was learned Wednesday morning.

Coach Don Seymour announced Wednesday morning that he had asked Superintendent Dr. Bill Reeves not to present his contract to the school board for renewal.

Seymour said he could not yet comment on his plans for next year.

The coach has been here four years and during that time rebuilt the Spearman Lynx into a football contender. The first years with teams of mostly freshmen and sophomores, he had two losing seasons. The second year the team lost three games by less than a touchdown each.

The past two seasons the Lynx have been contenders for the district title.

Before coming to Spearman Seymour was head coach at Stinnett and McCamey.

Besides coaching, Seymour taught math in high school. He is a graduate of West Texas State University with a math major and a physics minor.

Basketball Season Ends Here Friday

Basketball comes to an end here Friday night for the Spearman Lynx when they play hosts to the league-leading Phillips Blackhawks.

Phillips and Stinnett are now tied for the lead with one defeat each.

Phillips has a tall, fast moving squad that was picked to take the title when the season opened.

Spearman wrapped up another district win Tuesday night at Boys Ranch when they beat the Ranchers 43-39.

Saturday night the Lynxettes will go to Amarillo to meet Nazareth in two games in the Palo Duro High School gym. Palo Duro is in north Amarillo.

Nazareth won their district and is a strong B team.

Spearman has won its district and is waiting for the bi-district game with Electra. The Lynxettes also have games with Springlake and Tulia and may play Clarendon if they win their district.

According to Interscholastic League rules, the bi-district game must be played on Feb. 28 or March 1. Spearman and Electra officials met Wednesday in Childress to pick the site and time for the game.

Dr. Bill Reeves, Superintendent of the Spearman Public Schools was given a new three year contract and the three principals were given two year contracts by the Spearman School Board Tuesday night.

Dr. Reeves is completing a one year contract. He was given a salary increase to bring his salary more in line with salaries for superintendents in other AA schools in this area. He will receive $13,500 next year.

Principals Jim Cherry, James Pendergraft and Allen Alford were given two year contracts.

The school board election for two board members was called for Saturday, April 2. The election will be held in the junior high school building. Freeman Barkley will be election judge and the clerks will be Mmes. Tom Etter and J. R. Keim.

County Judge Johnnie Lee will be the absentee voting clerk.

The terms of Ira Harbour and Roy McClellan are expiring this year. The two men have served one term on the board. No official announcement was made by the men. Harbour indicated he would seek re-election. McClellan said he would make his decision later.

Supt. Reeves and Business Manager Orville Latham told the board that the school was operating within the budget. Only one or two parts of the budget might be exceeded, but overall, the financial situation is good.

Latham said the school has already collected 94.3 percent of the current school tax roll and payments are still coming in.

Dr. Reeves presented the board with an enrollment study he has completed. This study indicated that Spearman's school enrollment will continue to increase.

The study was based on the (Con't. on back page.)

Watson's father was a special guest of the Chamber, but Sam did not know his father was in the audience until the banquet was over. He had been brought in through the back door of the cafeteria by a chamber member.

The banquet was one of surprises. The advertised speaker did not arrive and a chamber member from a small town near Dallas was asked to tell the audience how his town had made a combination golf course-airport into a paying operation.

After 45 minutes an audience limp with laughter was introduced to Charles Hunter, better known as "Stutterin Sam", who was the secret speaker.

Hunter gained fame in this area from 1938 to 1950 as a KGNC radio personality.

"WE QUALIFY ALONE FOR MERCY"

We cannot collect our earnings; over against God, we have no earnings. We cannot claim our rights; in God's presence we have no rights. We have but one plea... God be merciful to me, a sinner!

There is no end of comfort in having no claim on God. If we were to be acceptable to Him by virtue of what we had done or not done, we would never have peace. When would we have done enough to earn His favor?

The glorious fact of the Gospel is that Jesus Christ has done it all for us. We have forgiveness of sins through His death and resurrection. We have righteousness because He gives us His righteousness. Trusting in the work and promises of Christ, we dare to lay claim to mercy. We have no other basis for asking God's favor but this; that Jesus Christ, His Only Son, has become our Brother, and that He has invited us to come to the Father in His Name. And we come boldly in God's presence and pray, "For the sake of Jesus, have mercy!" God cannot, will not, deny us.

In mercy, He sweeps us into His kingdom. He takes us back into the great Home. He recommissions us to the wonderful task of representing Him on earth. We manage the affairs of earth for Him. We love all men for Him. We pit ourselves against all evil, for Him.

Within this kingdom we live day by day by mercy alone. There will never be a time when, by our amended lives, we begin to accumulate rights and have a claim to His favor. Until the end we have Christ alone to entitle us to remain in the Father's house. Until the end, we qualify alone for mercy. Until the end, our only legitimate language is thanksgiving. By lives that are given to do His will, we fill our days with words and deeds of praise and gratitude.

You sure never know which gift will please an eleventh-month old baby do you? Last week we found two tiny Mexican chairs for 99 cents each at TG&Y. They are hot yellow with brilliant red and green flowers and are built just a few inches from the floor.

Well, those little chairs made such a hit with our little twin nieces that they sat perfectly still and content in them for a full 40 minutes the first day they had them.

What they did to the decor of the room isn't much more than what you'd expect for 99 cents, but the nice part is, they did give the babies' mother a delightful 40-minute "break."

Of course it may never happen that way again, but for 99 cents . . .

Are you a Dear Abby addict? If so, perhaps you'll agree with me that the recent letters on the newest men's styles have been hilarious.

I liked that description someone wrote saying that "Everything is skimpy in men's fashions. Their neckties are little thin strings, the Ivy League cut is reminiscent of the short tight jackets worn by the organ grinder's monkey 50 years ago and even their hats look like a fly on a doughnut."

Oh too funny! But you notice I quoted someone. Those weren't my words.

And then there was the woman whose husband surprised her with a beautiful mink stole for Christmas. I say "surprised" because I guess it would be if your Christmas gift for the past 16 years had been tailored flannelette pajamas.

Well anyway, when she went to the furrier (one of New York's best) to have the stole initialed, she tried to exchange it for a more serviceable and less expensive jacket. But, since the sales lady assured her that to exchange it would hurt her husband deeply as he'd taken such care in choosing it, she kept the stole.

Everytime she wore it though, she was needed on all sides. And so, for the catty have-nots, she penned this little verse.

"My friends don't like my hard-earned mink,
They simply can't abide it
Well now, my dears, here's what I think—
Don't knock it till you've tried it!"

That convinced me, I'll be careful not to say "Oh I'm not the mink coat type" or "Who'd wear a fur in this weather" anymore. The idea is to be content with your tailored flannelette pajamas, I guess, and let well enough alone.

Here's a new recipe for cherry cobbler with a golden brown topping made with pancake mix.

CHERRY COBBLER

Base:
2 cans (1 lb.) red pitted tart cherries
1/2 cup sugar
3 tbsps. cornstarch
1/4 tsp. allspice

Topping:
1 cup pancake mix
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup shortening
1/2 cup milk
1 egg, beaten

For base, heat oven to 375 degrees. Drain cherries, reserving 1 1/2 cups liquid. (If necessary add enough water to make 1 1/2 cups liquid.) Combine sugar, cornstarch, and allspice in saucepan. Stir in cherry liquid. Bring to boil; cook over low heat stirring frequently. Stir in cherries. Spread in 8-inch square pan.

For topping, combine pancake mix and sugar in mixing bowl. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk and egg, stirring only until all ingredients are moistened. Spread over hot cherry mixture. Sprinkle lightly with granulated sugar. Bake 25 to 30 minutes. Serve with a pitcher of cream.

Jack Hart Announces For State Representative

Jack H. Hart, Gruver rancher, farmer, and business man, announced his candidacy for State Representative, 83rd legislative district subject to the

Jack H. Hart

Republican Primary with the comment, "I've talked about it long enough. It's time to do something about it."

"If you believe in a two-party system, but nobody runs on one ticket, what kind of government can you expect?"

Hart, 42, is a member of a prominent Hansford County family. His father, Haden B. Hart, started ranching near Gruver shortly after World War I, and his grandfather settled in the area in the early 1900's.

"There has been a tremendous increase in agricultural and business activity in the counties of our district recently. We need young, vigorous, representation in Austin more than ever before," added Hart.

"We believe in solving our problems as close to home as possible, at the local and state level. Our schools need our constant concern. Our water problems are just beginning, and we need to start long range solutions now."

"Taxes seem to be higher and higher, and I think special consideration of state finances is a must."

Born in Hansford County,

Jack Hart graduated from high school in Gruver and attended Iowa State University. He was a P-38 pilot during World War II, and served nine years on the Gruver school board.

He and his wife, the former Ila Jo Ogle, have one son, Jerry, 15, and a daughter, Ginger, 13. He is a member of Lion's International, Farm Bureau, The American Hereford Breeder's Association, and the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association.
