"Son" Jones Draws 15-Year Sentence for Complicity in Robbery of Allison Bank

Y IN SECOND TRIAL OF BANDIT SOON REACHES A VERDICT

Defense Witnesses Charged With Perjury

Decision of Penalty, After Guilt Was Decided, Brought Hung Jury in First Trial

After brief deliberation Tuesday, a jury which heard the second of "Son" Jones, accused of robbing the Allison State bank last January, brought in a verdict of guilty. The jury fixed his sentence at 15 years in prison. This was Jones' second trial. In the first trial the jury was discharged the latter part of the week after lengthy deliberation. The jury failed to agree upon the penalty, although they had found the defendant guilty.

It will be remembered that the robbery was perpetrated by two men who had been seen around Allison for several days previous to the hold-up. Jones was described as a tall man and a heavy-set man. It is alleged that the man implicated was W. L. Jones, who has not been found as yet. Jones' defense in both instances was solely upon an attempt to establish an alibi. A group of witnesses from Oklahoma, most of whom were brought in to convince the jury, was in the vicinity of Cleveland, Okla., on the date of the robbery. Strong testimony was introduced in Jones' behalf.

However, the state's witnesses, including Ben Parks, cashier of the bank who was compelled to accompany Jones on a wild ride into west Oklahoma where he was released after several hours in their company, testified that Jones was the man through positive identification.

After failure to obtain a conviction in the first trial, District Attorney Lewis M. Goodrich and County Attorney C. C. Fillmore made a trip to Oklahoma, where they contacted two state peace officers and operator of a service station, who had damaging testimony to the defendant and cast serious question on the evidence given by some of his relatives.

It is strongly did the appearance of the defendant appear, that the county district attorney prepared charges against him in the matter of testimony by four persons. Two of these were Mrs. Helen Cooper, sister of and A. O. Jones, his father, and Cleveland, have been arrested and are confined in county jail. Bail, not yet furnished, has been fixed in the sum of $10,000. The other two parties were not apprehended.

The case was represented by Attorney C. Wood of Wheeler and Moss of Shamrock in the first trial and in the second they were represented by Attorney Thurman Atkins of Abilene.

Beene's Return to Wheeler

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Beene of Abilene have returned to Wheeler to their home. Mr. Beene, who has been engaged in the practice of law for 18 years, has purchased an interest in the R. H. Forrester law firm where he will be a partner. Beene's first came to Wheeler from Wichita Falls and established a nice business here. Two years ago, at the time of the railroad strike, they moved to Mobeetie. Mr. Beene practiced law and Beene conducted an abstract business. She expects to continue her work here, with a residence office until a suitable down payment can be obtained.

The Beenes are living in the Alva Richert property, in the southeast part of the present. Mr. Beene recently bought the M. D. Ware property, he traded to Nelson Porter of Main street residence now owned by Judge and Mrs. W. M. Perry, to which the Beene family will move later. Daughter, Miss Bessie Beene, attending W. T. S. T. C. at Abilene will join her parents here June 1.

DAVIS OUT OF RACE

S. B. Davis, candidate for commissioner of precinct No. 2, has withdrawn from the race. Davis felt that his private affairs were of such nature and required so much of his time that it would be better not to take on additional duties. He has a lot of friends who will regret to hear of his withdrawal, but he believes this action to be to his best interests.

With Davis out of the race, three good men are left in the running. They are Floyd Mooney of Kelton community, Arthur Whitener, the incumbent, and Jim Trout, both of whom live a few miles northeast of Wheeler.

Missionary Gathering Had Splendid Program

District Annual Conference of Group Held at Methodist Church Last Thursday

"Attitude" was a word that bobbed up and lent a distinct note to every talk throughout the all-day program of the Women's District Missionary meeting of the M. E. Church, South, held at the Wheeler Methodist church, May 17.

The whole program, from the sincere words of welcome by the wife of the local pastor to the benediction, spoken by one of the conference officers, touched an unusual spiritual depth.

Conference vice-president, Mrs. Morris Randal of Seymour said, our spiritual life could not be legislated or governed by rules, neither could it be put into words nor written in black and white, but must be lived. Our attitude toward God and man told the whole story. She urged that each woman have a "prayer partner," some one having the same desires and burdens, some one convenient enough that they could get together often and join in intercessory prayer.

Mrs. Bryant of Hamlin, superintendent of study, explained that we were no longer required to study one home and one foreign book each year, but could choose; however, she thought our knowledge of both largely determined our attitude toward world affairs.

Mrs. C. A. Bickley of Big Springs, conference superintendent of Young Women's Circles, compared our spiritual life to flying, illustrating our ultimate aim by the story of an eagle, grown old in captivity. A new owner, desiring its liberty, patiently taught it to fly and as it finally soared away he remarked: "I knowed you could do it, you wuz born to fly." So we must help each other to gain new spiritual heights.

Conference president, Mrs. Nat G. Rollins, of Abilene, also member of the General Board of Missions, a splendid speaker at all times, thrilled her hearers as she talked on God's call to the individual. Just as definite as to any minister. Called by providence, blessing, sorrow, or any way God can get a hearing. As the eagle pushes her young from the nest and bears them on her wings till they learn to fly, so God bears his children on wings of love until they learn to do the task whereunto they are called.

Mrs. Lloyd Jones, wife of the pastor at Lakeview, well known, especially to the Wheeler young people, having worked with them through two revivals, closed the session with a consecration service saying, truly, that the whole day had been a consecration service.

The visitors who registered were abundantly served at the lunch hour by the local auxiliary.

The meeting was presided over by the retiring district secretary, Mrs. S. L. Seago of Memphis, who is succeeded by Mrs. Purviance of Pampa.

If those present carried home with them no other thought than that found in the last lines of one of Edgar A. Guest's poems, "Life's Canvas," given by Mrs. Melvin Howe, the day was well spent.

Lord, let me paint, not in anger nor hate, But grant me the patience to labor and wait. Make me an artist, though humble my style, And let life's canvas show something worth while.

CHANCE TO EARN SOME MONEY BY LITTLE EFFORT

Most anyone is ready and willing to earn some money, especially when but little effort is required. In co-operation with an advertising campaign sponsored by the churches of Wheeler, this newspaper offers such an opportunity. No lottery methods are involved—simply a test of ability to answer a definite question. No obligation is incurred by those who enter the contest. Turn to another page of this paper and read full particulars in the advertisement, and then go to work.

Baseball Games Saturday-Sunday

W. E. Genthe and Frank Buchanan announce that Wheeler will see some fast ball games here Saturday and Sunday afternoons, when the Busby Indian baseball club of Pampa meets a snappy local team in the two-day series.

Pampa's club is composed of Harvesters of the high school there, every one a letterman in some sport, and outstanding athletes. It is the same club that played the speedy Amarillo Governors in a 7-8 score last Sunday.

Backers of the Pampa lads declare: "All of these boys are fast, and will steal a base on the best of catchers. We are out to win the school boy title of the Panhandle."

All of which indicates a high-grade of ball for Saturday and Sunday. But that tall talk doesn't scare Bill and Frank a bit. They are busy rounding up a local team which they feel sure will prove worthy of the visitors' best efforts. Fans are urged to attend and encourage the boys in this series, which is expected to raise some badly-needed funds with which to start off the season.

Games will be called at 3 o'clock each afternoon.

MRS. PORTER IS HOSTESS TO CONFERENCE OFFICIALS

Mrs. J. M. Porter, captain superintendent of the Clarendon conference, was hostess at a 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Mesdames Nat G. Rollins, Morris Randal, C. A. Brickley and Dillie Bryant Hamlin, district officers of the society, who attended the conference here last week. Several officers of the local society were also guests.

The dinner was perfect in preparation and appointments. The rooms were artistically decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Favors were half-blown red roses with a spray of lace fern, held by a knot of white and gold ribbon, the colors of the organization. Although perfection distinguished every feature of the affair, it was outweighed by the splendid air of western hospitality which prevailed.

Poppy Day is Saturday, 26th

In common with the remainder of the nation, members of the American Legion will stage the annual Poppy sale here Saturday. This date has been designated for the special purpose of selling the mementoes of the World War for the benefit of disabled veterans now in hospitals or rehabilitation centers.

The little flowers are manufactured by those ex-service men incapacitated from manual labor, but who can devote some time to the making of the poppies in hopes of receiving a little badly-needed money for their own use. The sale here will be handled by local Legionnaires.

A dance had been planned for Saturday night, a part of the proceeds to go to disabled ex-service men, but the event has been postponed to a later date, possibly Saturday night, June 2.

ORGANIZING GOLF CLUB

Some interested local parties have been making efforts this week to organize a golf club for Wheeler. Success of the venture appears assured. To date, 23 prospective members have signified a desire to enter the organization by signing up and pledging certain support. A suitable location, near town, is reported available and arrangements should be completed soon.

Old Settlers Picnic Dates Set Forward

Thursday and Friday, June 28 and 29, Decided Upon—Features Include Fireworks Display

To avoid possible conflict with other affairs, and to be certain of obtaining certain attractions, members of the committee backing the two-day Old Settlers Picnic for Wheeler decided this week to move the dates forward one day. The new dates are Thursday and Friday, June 28 and 29. Previously it had been planned to hold it on the last two days of June.

As announced heretofore in The Times, this event is sponsored by the American Legion post of Wheeler. Stanley's grove, in the southeast part of town, has been selected as the picnic grounds, although some games will likely be held at the ball diamond, northeast of the city.

Already a number of features have been decided upon to enliven the two days, including a donkey ball game and home talent rodeo Friday afternoon at the ball park; concerts during the day by the Shamrock band at the picnic grounds, and a huge fireworks display that night.

The general committee in charge of arrangements for the affair was announced this week. The membership is: R. H. Forrester, Dr. H. E. Nicholson, Jim Risner, Claude Cox and Norwood McPherson.

Dr. Nicholson stated today that publicity material would soon be prepared and distributed throughout Wheeler and nearby counties, inviting the public to be guests at the Old Settlers Picnic, where they can meet old friends and acquaintances from a wide region. It is pointed out that Stanley's grove will afford plenty of shade and is an ideal place for picnic dinners and at the same time is quite convenient to the business district of Wheeler.

Further announcements of entertainment features and other facts concerning the event will appear in The Times. Watch for them and then plan to attend the Old Settlers Picnic in Wheeler, Thursday and Friday, June 28 and 29.

Samuel Hill Mitchell, 47, a resident of Wheeler for several years, passed away Saturday, May 19, following a brief illness. He suffered a paralytic stroke from which he failed to rally. Funeral services were conducted Sunday, with interment at White Deer. A complete obituary will appear in The Times next week.

LOCAL ARTISAN PRESENTS JUDGE EWING WITH GAVEL

District Judge Ewing was the recipient, on Tuesday of this week, of a gift which he prizes very highly. I. L. Boaz, local manager of the Panhandle Power & Light company, presented the judge with a hand turned bois d'arc gavel. The article is a product of Boaz's craftsmanship and is a beautiful piece of work. He has a lathe and other wood working equipment and turns out many useful articles during his spare time purely as a hobby. He formed an acquaintance with Judge Ewing in Gray county before moving here from Lefors.

Dollar Day Idea Meets Approval

Response to inquiries made this week by C. R. Weatherly, secretary of the Board of City Development, on the feasibility of a dollar day or similar trades event in Wheeler, met with hearty approval, states the secretary. Practically every business man and woman was interviewed and prospects for some such innovation appear bright.

As a part of the plan as yet to be worked out, it is hoped to make a general trades day event, when farmers can bring in livestock, farm products and other commodities and sell or exchange them for other things.

A definite date has not yet been decided upon for the first day of a series, which is expected will continue for some months.

NEW POTATOES MAY 23

"When earlier potatoes are grown, Sanders will grow 'em." Thus it is possible to paraphrase a popular advertising slogan. However, to W. M. Sanders, who lives six miles northeast of town, is awarded the spud belt, bouquet or whatever is accorded for the earliest potatoes. On May 23, Sanders reports, they had a mess of home-grown potatoes, consisting of specimens as large as a hen egg. At least this is the first potatoes of the season coming to the notice of The Times. If someone had earlier ones—tell us about it.

J. E. Wood of Shamrock Announces for Sheriff

The Wheeler Times is authorized this week to announce the entry of J. E. Wood of Shamrock into the race for sheriff. In his statement to the voters, Wood declares:

"I am making the race for sheriff of Wheeler county, after being urged to do so by many substantial citizens.

"A word as to my personal history may not be amiss. I was born and reared on a farm in Kentucky, where I attended the public schools. Becoming a man, I pursued my education in higher schools of learning, graduating from Baylor university with an A. B. degree. I have lived in this county for the past six years, where my life has been fairly well known.

"I have been somewhat active in law enforcement wherever I have lived. It has been reported that I employed men to buy evidence for the recent Wheeler county grand jury. This I did not do. I only directed the forces who, because they felt it their duty, did purchase the evidence out of funds furnished by the civic righteousness organization of Wheeler county.

"Whoever is elected sheriff must have the help of the citizens in enforcing the law. If any of my opponents eliminate me from the office, I hereby pledge him my unstinted support. I have not waited for office to help enforce laws; neither will I cease my efforts if I never fill the office.

"I shall, if elected, do my best to enforce every law, without fear or favor. I shall also endeavor to detect crime and apprehend the criminal. I shall also aid each community in clearing itself of places of vice and crime.

"No one need suffer any uneasiness as to his legal pursuit of business, but so far as I am able, every unlawful pursuit will be stopped.

"I shall greatly appreciate your consideration, influence and vote. Yours truly,"

J. E. WOOD.

THRIFT AND SUCCESS

Opportunities come to everyone, but often the greatest opportunities can not be grasped because it requires a little ready money to enable one to take advantage of them.

This point is emphasized by a well-known financier, who in an article on thrift, says: "Those who became leaders in the business world found the turning point in their careers when they were able to take advantage of a great opportunity because they had the money at hand. In most cases sum of money involved was small, but coupled with vision, ambition, clean living and self-mastery, these men were able to turn their nest eggs into colossal fortunes."

It is undeniable that the habit of saving comes hard for most people, but having once made a start it is comparatively easy to continue. Nothing inspires the confidence of business men in a young person more readily than the knowledge that he or she is able to save money, even though the amount is not large. Many a young man has been enabled to make a most desirable business connection through a reputation for thrift and having a little ready cash.

IT'S IN THE VAULTS

One setback to the recovery program is the fact that the banks are bulging with money that they cannot lend for lack of adequate security—at least what the government calls adequate security. As long as this enormous amount of money remains in the bank vaults it is doing nobody any good.

If government and state restrictions were not so hampering the bankers could lend the money to industry and agriculture for long periods, thus allowing the borrowers ample time in which to repay the loans from their normal increase in business.

It would also increase employment and add to the normal flow of incomes for spending purposes.

There is not enough money in actual circulation and the lid has been clamped down too heavily on credit.

The government is doing a smashing business in relief work, but industry and agriculture are still staggering along under burdensome restrictions.

QUESTIONABLE JURYMEN

However hard law enforcement officials may try to stem the tide of wholesale crime, it must become at times disgusting when the matter is finally left to a jury decision. Courts often come in for censure and rightly so in some instances. Judges, prosecutors and peace officers also are entitled to blame for a lack of proper prosecution of some cases, the censure coming from the general public. It is also a well known fact that juries are selected from the general public.

In the recent trial of the Hamilton case at Dallas, two jurors deadlocked the death penalty agreement because, as they are alleged to have said, Hamilton was not given the death penalty in a similar robbery case months previous. The ten men who stood solidly for the death penalty for a habitual criminal who already has 263 years stacked against him, is to be commended. Those two men held no regard for human life because they had to deal with a killer already adjudged a habitual criminal. He qualified for the death penalty by robbing a bank. The state has already spent several fortunes prosecuting him with prison sentences as a result. He escaped and will likely escape again.

Crooked jurors often base their decisions on flimsy excuses. A juror who fails in his duty is as guilty as the accused simply because he places his approval on the crime committed.

There is but one penalty for professional robbers and killers—the electric chair. Hamilton had voluntarily forfeited his right to live regardless of what the two jurors thought about the matter.—Donley County Leader.

THE CROP IN THE MID-WEST

Newspaper and radio reports tell the story of a recent unprecedented sand storm which swept the middle-west last week and did great damage to the crops of the midwestern states. Very few dust storms of that magnitude have been reported in that section of the country.

History records very few incidents, if any, where a country has been injured by over production of farm products. There are lots of instances where nations have suffered as a result of the lack of supplies, but America is probably the first nation to report a hurtful supply of farm commodities. If it is a fact that we have a surplus of farm commodities due to heavy production over a period of several years in succession, historians would not be at all surprised to see dust storms, droughts, hail storms and every other sort of thing happen this year to prevent production.

It is not true that the United States has too much of any commodity. A farmer was in the office here the other day telling about how angry he was last year when he sat on his plow in ragged overalls plowing up cotton because of a surplus production. This man had sense enough to know that if he, and millions of others in like condition, had money to buy what they needed there would be no surplus of farm products. There was no alarm about a surplus of anything when the money was all taken out of circulation in 1929. But very soon after the money was all taken out of circulation by the few sharks that had all of it, surpluses began to pile up. Under consumption is our trouble, and the weather man is likely to play his hand, just as he has always done, and greatly devalue these commodities which exist more in what is called "Futures" than in actual commodities.

If the government is actually allowing a bunch of gamblers to sell a great lot of futures and then base the price paid for what is bought on the basis of the amount of "futures" and not on the basis of actual commodities, it is look out Uncle Sam! There is too much history behind us to err very greatly in this.—Plainview Community Weekly.

Through the efforts of S. E. Allison, chairman of the Hemphill County cotton control board and H. W. Cantrell, acting county agent, the Hemphill County adjustment on cotton contracts has been increased from 259,640 to 2,876,008 pounds of lint or 519.2 bales.

Rose acres have been increased from 15,344 to 17,537 acres which is a total of 2,193 acres. Rented acres to the government have increased from 6,138 to 7,015 which makes a total of 877 acres. The county average lint allowable per acre is 164 pounds.—Canadian Record.

At a regular meeting of the Swisher County Commissioner's Court early this week, arrangements were made to equip the Sheriff's office with one of the latest machine guns properly equipped with all things necessary to its operation. In the opinion of the court members, our peace officers must be as adequately equipped as most of the thieves and robbers to try to combat crimes. Many other counties are doing as Swisher officers are doing in this respect.—Tulsa Herald.

A farmer in Gray County has renamed his mule "John Dillinger" on account of he's so hard to catch, declares R. B. Haynes in the Miami Chief.

McLean citizens are somewhat bewildered at the turn things have taken the past few days. There is no new money in sight, yet the town is filling up with firms who expect to make money here. If the oil field breaks right, there will doubtless be enough for all of us; however, there is one thing that might be mentioned, those who have struggled through the hard times, keeping their rent paid, should not have their rent raised until the times really justify it, regardless of outside offers. This is offered just as a suggestion to think about. Of course, we know that building owners have suffered too, but there is no boom in McLean yet; it is still just in the air.—McLean News.

Work continues to progress at the grounds of the Southwest Race Meet and Agricultural Fair. One large stable has been completed, work is well under way on the second stable, and the grandstand has been started. Men are working fast in order to have all of the buildings ready for the spring race meet, June 7-10, inclusive.—Panhandle Herald.

The proceeds from one and one-half acres of sweet potatoes paid the farming expenses of J. H. Gonzales in Jim Hogg county last year, the county agent says. He harvested 465 bushels which sold for 50 cents per bushel, and had several hundred pounds of culls left for pig feed.

To meet the need of fruit twice a day to give an adequate diet, home demonstration club women in Lamar county put out 1,380 fruit trees and 1,509 grape vines early this spring.

Movie Chatter

By a Rogue

Treason

Buck Jones comes to the Rogue Friday-Saturday and Saturday matinee in a brand new type of a story. As the title, "Treason," suggests, Buck is an agent of the government and succeeds in cleaning out a nest of traitors and cut-throats. He is the buckskin-clad hero, who risks all for the honor of his government and the girl he loves. There is plenty of action and fast shooting, and bids fair to be the best Jones picture produced this season. His followers are assured of splendid entertainment. Then, too, the Taxi Boys will be here in a two reel comedy, "Thundering Taxi."

Another Language

Helen Hayes and Robert Montgomery are coming Monday and Tuesday. "Another Language," is a picture far above the usual run of things. It is more than a mere picture. It is classed as a "special" and will please even the most discriminating. Robert for the ladies, Helen for the gentlemen, and Betty Boop for the kiddies. Come one, come all, and be satisfied.

Coming

"Storm at Daybreak," "Meanest Gal in Town," "Midnight Mary," "Spitfire," "Thundering Herd," "Chance at Heaven," "Hips Hips Hooray," "Wild Cargo," "Riptide," and "The Last Round-up."

Miss Opal Shumate, who is attending business college in Amarillo, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shumate in the Pleasant Hill community from Tuesday until Thursday.

Mrs. Cordia Gill gave a party Monday afternoon, May 21, in honor of her daughter, Louise, who celebrated her seventh birthday. The little guests were Vendell and Maxine Rouston, Eldon Ray Lee and sister, Evelyn May, Tommy Joe and Roy Ford, Mozelle May, Lovita Newsome, Mary Helen McPherson and LaVern Gill. Mamie Lee Starkey directed the children in several outdoor games. Refreshments of pop and cookies were served.

LOWER INTEREST RATE ON PRODUCTION CREDIT LOANS

C. W. Allen, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Valley Production Credit association has just received word from Governor W. I. Myers of the Farm Credit Administration in Washington, D. C., that the interest rate on new loans from production credit associations has been reduced from 5 1/2 to 5 per cent.

According to Mr. Allen, the new 5 per cent interest rate becomes effective immediately on all new loans and advances made by the association and will be available until further notice.

"The new interest rate of 5 per cent will not affect loans already advanced in full," Mr. Allen said. "These will continue to bear the rate of interest prevailing at the time the loan was closed. The interest charges on loans from the association are collected when the loans mature. The Canadian Valley Production Credit association is now making loans on acceptable crop and chattel security to farmers in Hemphill, Wheeler, Gray, Roberts, Ochiltree and Lipscomb counties.

"The reduction of the interest to 5 per cent on new loans," Mr. Allen continued, "is made possible by a recent sale of federal intermediate credit bank debentures to investors at an unusually low rate of interest. The association gets more money to lend farmers from the federal intermediate credit bank of Houston.

"The lowering of the interest rate on new loans to 5 per cent is the second reduction in two months, the rate having been reduced from 6 to 5 1/2 per cent on March 16.

"According to Governor Myers," said Mr. Allen, "the federal intermediate credit bank is passing on immediately to farmer-borrowers from production credit associations the saving made possible by lower cost of getting money. The confidence of investors in the security of the intermediate credit banks has been such that the banks are able to get money to lend at the lowest rate in their history. Governor Myers says that the resulting low rate of interest on production credit association loans is enabling farmer-borrowers to save thousands of dollars on the cost of their farming operations this year. If the associations make sound loans, and loans that are collectible, an adequate supply of low cost money will continue to be available."

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Morse of Estel- line, came Saturday to visit her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Weatherly, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Weatherly, returning home Sunday. Mrs. M. D. House who had spent ten days with her daughter, Mrs. Weldon Weatherly, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Morse to her home in Estelina.

E. George as hostesses.

"I have gathered 4,000 radishes from my garden," said Dora Goodnight to the home agent after she had shown her closet. Dora is wardrobe demonstrator for the Mobeetie 4-H club. With the help of her parents, she equipped a small closet, 18 inches wide and about 3 feet long with a long hat shelf above the rod for hanging, 4 shelves for folded garments and the rod for hanging. She has four hat racks made from an old lamp, a bottle filled with sand, pasteboard and tissue paper. When Dora adds a shoe rack, pockets for the door and a little paint, her closet will be complete. She uses the upper section for storing winter clothes just now and will store summer clothes there in winter.

From a section in the wall that had been used for the baby's play things, three drawers approximately eight inches deep and five feet long and eighteen inches wide were made. One is used for bed linens, another for new materials and the other for scraps and rags. Dora has completed her practice dress, and has plans and materials for her contest dress. Besides her garden and work clothing, Dora has been busy in school. She is salutarian for the Mobeetie 7th grade and has a beautiful green organdie dress all ready for the exercises.

"My little cherry tree bloomed and has cherries," said Mary Ann Topper, during the club meeting May 8, in Myrtle school house. Mary Ann is food preservation demonstrator for her club and says she will make any other demonstrator work that gets the trip to the Dallas Fair this fall given by Lyle and Lyle Insurance Company. During one of the March club meetings, four grape vines and one cherry tree was set out at Mary Ann's home to begin her home orchard. Each member was given a cherry tree and four grape cuttings.

BUSY BEE CLUB

Mrs. Roy Esslinger was hostess to the members of the Busy Bee Home Demonstration club and several friends Thursday, May 3. Topic of the lesson was "Up to the Minute Smartness and Foundation Patterns."

Mrs. Bryant Witt favored the ladies with a description of different styles of sleeves that could be cut by the foundation sleeve pattern, which was very interesting.

Because of threatening weather, the meeting adjourned and Miss Viola Jones was unable to give her demonstration, much to the regret of the members.

Guests were: Mesdames Bryant Witt, Ernest Dyer, John McGee and Miss Viola Jones. Members: Mesdames G. B. Roper, C. B. Johnson, J. T. Crowder, E. H. Herd, C. C. Robison, Cleo Gaines, J. H. Richards, H. H. Herd, R. D. Underwood, Winnie Loter, J. B. Crowder and a new member, Mrs. Rufus Watts.

Do You Have a Hobby?

It would be a great achievement if one should select a worthwhile hobby and put it into practice. Some people seem to think that hobbies are excuses for a person to get out of work, but really they are not.

A few hobbies are those of physical exercises such as tennis, golfing, horse back riding and swimming. These should be part of one's every day activities. A person must have good health in order to enjoy life and he cannot without taking his daily exercise. Peculiar hobbies of collecting dolls, perfume bottles, and many other objects are quite interesting to many. Other people are literary minded; they write poetry and prose, read worthwhile magazines and books, and write music and articles that enlighten weary minds.

In all of these many ways of finding pleasure and happiness educationally, there is no excuse for "loafing." Do you not think a hobby could be beneficial?—H.G.

Senior Class Plans Affairs for Week

Entertainments for the senior class have been completed and arranged for and the last two weeks of school have been set aside for these. On Monday night the class enjoyed an ice cream party at the home of Mrs. E. Balch; Tuesday night they were the guests of Lee Guthrie at a theatre party; Wednesday night they were entertained by Miss Velma Pillars and Willie Mae Hollabaugh with a birthday party at the home of Miss Pillars; Thursday night they will be the guests of Mrs. Jim Trout.

Tuesday night of next week will be class night at the high school auditorium; Wednesday afternoon and night will be the class picnic; Thursday night the seventh grade will have their commencement exercises and the seniors will have a party afterward; Friday night will be the last night for the class to be together; the commencement exercises will be on this night.

GIRLS ARE "HIGH HAT" OVER BALL SWEATERS

"Say, do you have your money?"
"No, I couldn't find daddy at noon."

"How much do you need?"
These and some others are the remarks that have been heard by the basketball girls this week. It seems that the girls have had quite a time getting their sweaters but at last they are able to wear them. No, don't criticize them for being "high hat" for this is the first sweater that they have had in the last four years so you see, it pays to be glad.

INTERVIEWS

"Liz" is one of the most common nicknames given to Elizabeth Joss. She says that she does not wish to have any of her nicknames printed because there are too many to mention in such a short space. When asked questions pertaining to the opposite sex, she replied that they gave her the creeps and she intended to be an old maid. She also thinks that she gets more teasing than her share and that it should be divided equally among the girls. Liz does get lots of teasing, but as a rule she takes it good naturedly. What more should one ask.

Elizabeth plans to enter the University of Texas next fall and major in costume designing. Her ambition is to study in Paris and later come back to New York and open a smart shop for ladies. Going to the skating rink and collecting Flapper Fanny cartoons is her hobby now. "Liz" is a member of the Spanish and Home Economics clubs and holds office in both. "Liz" now states that this is about all the facts in her life and they are not very important at that.

At last a truthful boy has been found, for A. B. "Chief" Turner said his hobby is loafing. "Chief" is the tallest boy in the senior class, being somewhere around six three or four.

A. B. has played football two years, basketball one, and track one year. He is a member of the Lettermans club and is reporter of the Spanish club. He was also treasurer of the class during his junior year.

"Chief" is the senior member of the law firm here, being noted for the way he handled the "case" between himself and a short brunette in the senior class. A. B.'s ambition is to graduate from this school; he says that he plans to go here next year, if something doesn't happen.

Although she is red headed, Ruth Dill has never been known to get "mad." Her good sportsmanship is one of her many good traits. Ruth has been a member of the Spanish club two years, she served as vice-president the first year; she is historian for the Home Ec. club of which she has also been a member for two years.

Ruth has represented the school on the debating team two years, winning first both years in the county and third in the district this spring. She was the senior candidate for football queen, and has been in class plays during her junior and senior years. As a climax to her school days she is now valedictorian of the senior class. Ruth's hobby is riding elevators and her ambition is to travel.

Always an honor student, Ruth leaves this advice to underclassmen, "You will get as much out of school work as you put in it."

"Hibe" Balch (oh, you'll have to excuse this typewriter, because it does not know that C. L. is the real name) has been a member of this class for the past three years. His freshman year at high school work was spent at Pampa. Everyone realizes that "Hibe" must be smart or he could not make such dumb remarks. He is noted in W.H.S. for his use of correct English; he is very witty, clever, and always has something to say. He says that his ambitions are few and his hobby none.

He went out for football one year and is a member of the Lettermans club. He also belongs to the Spanish club. He says that he does not know just where he shall try to go to school next term. He is a loyal senior booster and it would have been hard to get along without him in the social affairs. He is a popular student on the campus.

Thelma Bradstreet is the girl who has been called the "silent one," because she does not talk very much. Therefore, her only nickname must be "shorty" for her height. She says that she does not have a beau but is expecting to get one for a graduation gift. Here's hoping that she succeeds if it's what she desires. Thelma is the type of person who can take teasing as well as give it and that is a trait to be admired in anyone.

Thelma has spent the junior and senior years of high school in Wheeler, the remainder of the years she attended school at Kelton. She has been a member of the Spanish club both terms and a good student at that. She states that her ambition is to enter school at Canyon next fall if at all possible. She says that she doesn't know just what her hobby is unless it is caring for babies. Well Thelma this reporter wishes you all success possible in the future years of life.

Loveta McFall who entered school here the last semester is a new member of the senior class. She attended school three years at Ralla and the first semester this year at Wellington.

Loveta is a member of the Spanish club and her hobby is horse back riding (funny so many seniors have the same hobby.) She hasn't been here long enough to acquire a nickname, but she says that she really enjoyed the trip to Carlsbad. The only thing that she regretted since she has been going to school here is that she didn't wait until the last minute to get in her book reports.

INVITATIONS FOR SENIORS ARRIVE FIRST OF WEEK

The seniors 600 invitations and 26 bunches of cards arrived the first of the week. The invitations have a mustang and engraved names are on the front of them and they are trimmed in silver. Because all of the seniors had not brought their money they were unable to get only one package out Tuesday. These invitations cost 10 1/4 cents each and the cards cost $2.50 per hundred.

Mrs. Clarence Robison Entertains Senior Class

Mrs. Clarence Robison entertained the senior class Friday night, May 18, with a party at her home, two and one-fourth miles south east of Wheeler. The group met at the home of their sponsor, Miss Winona Adams at eight o'clock. In cars they then went to the party.

Outdoor active and quiet games were played in the yard, which was well lighted. The refreshments consisted of punch and cookies. Those present were Miss Adams, Thelma Bradstreet, Marguerite and Bessie May Ficke, Anna Mae Puett, Ruth Dill, Exie Creekmore, Inez Shipman, Lorene Roper, Fay Ficke, Mildred Coward, Earl Farris, J. LOUISE CRAIG ENTERTAINS FRIENDS WITH LUNCHEON

In order to complete her home project in the planning, the preparation, and the serving of luncheons, Louise Craig entertained her instructor and a few close friends last Friday.

During the semester she has prepared and served individual dishes to complete her project. The menu consisted of fruit cocktail, salmon balls, cabbage, carrot salad, hot rolls, butter, cocoa, jello with whipped cream and cookies.

Attractive place cards on a candy sucker were placed by each plate. Those present were: Martha Alice Wiley, Parlee Clay, Orveta Puett, Bonnie Adams, Miss Bennie Mae Williams, and the hostess, Louise Craig.

CARDS CAUSE COMMOTION

"Hey, Scribble on a card for me."
"Have you seen our invitations?" "I think the boy's cards are prettier than the girls."

What a commotion packages of small, white rectangular objects with a few black marks on them can make. "Macbeth" had to pause a few moments before stabbing Duncan (the book is being read aloud in English IV class) while seniors "swapped" calling cards which accompanied their invitations. Other classes were likewise disturbed while words, sincere and otherwise, were written on the afore mentioned cards.

Yes, it is a small happening to cause such a commotion, but one thing is as good as another to break the monotony of school and even though it is their last year the seniors seem to be glad it is almost over.

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Wheeler County Tax Collector, from the Comptroller of the State:

To the Tax Collector:
"You will recall that from time to time since 1911 there has been suspending interest and penalties on Delinquent taxes. The last measure of this kind was enacted in 1933. (later they included the split tax payments delinquent on July 1, 1933), if paid by December 31, 1933, a 2% penalty on all ad valorem taxes delinquent on July 1, 1933, if paid by March 31, 1934; and 6%, if paid after March 31, 1934, expiration date, the delinquent cost will also accrue in addition to the force."

"This means that on and after July 1, 1934, this year and interest you will be required to charge will not include 6% interest per annum from the date it was due plus 10% penalty. For example:

30% WILL BE ADDED TO 1930 DELINQUENT
24% WILL BE ADDED TO 1931 DELINQUENT
18% WILL BE ADDED TO 1932 DELINQUENT

HIGH POINTS BANKHEAD ACT EXPLAINED BY AAA

The administration of the Bankhead act restricting American cotton production this year to not more than 10 million bales is to be handled in the counties by the county cotton production control associations, according to information received by the Texas A. and M. College extension service from Washington. Advance notices indicate that Texas has been allotted a 1934 production of 3,091,200 bales which may be ginned and sold tax free. All in excess of this must pay a tax at time of sale of 50 per cent of the average central market price for 7-8ths inch middling as proclaimed by the secretary of agriculture from time to time, based on spot market quotations. At no time can this tax be less than 5 cents per pound.

The provisions of the act are operative for the cotton year June 1, 1934, to May 31, 1935, but may be extended to the next cotton year by presidential proclamation if two-thirds of the cotton growers approve. Every producer of cotton is called upon to apply to his county cotton production control association for tax exemption certificates for his individual allotment. As far as possible signers of voluntary cotton reduction contracts will be given the same allotments as indicated in their contracts, but these may be raised or lowered, according to allotments assigned the county by the United States department of agriculture.

Those who did not sign reduction contracts may also apply on forms to be furnished by the associations for individual allotments of tax-free cotton.

The Texas allotment is based on the ratio between the average 5 year production 1928-32 to the average national production for this period. Not less than 90 per cent of the state allotment is to be allotted to the counties, the remainder being reserved for necessary adjustments to take care of special cases. Allowance is to be made for crop failures in counties where it can be established that the failure is due to an unusual cause. Washington advises point out that in some sections floods and drouths are not unusual. The United States department of agriculture has a cotton history of every county for guidance in deciding where special adjustment should be made.

The first duty of every producer under the law is to apply for bale tags for all cotton produced prior to this season now in possession of the farmer. As soon as county production control associations have the forms the farmer should apply for exemption certificates for his allotted cotton for 1934. The final date for application for these certificates has not yet been determined. Every bale of American cotton entering trade channels in the cotton year 1934-35 must have a bale tag which the farmer may obtain either by surrendering his exemption certificate or by paying the tax.

The amount of the tax is determined by the tax in effect at the time the cotton is ginned regardless of when it is sold. If stored and held for a year or more it must still pay the tax.

Cotton of 1 1/4 inch staple length or longer is exempt from the tax but the producer of such cotton must first prove his point before exemption is granted. Experiment station cotton is also exempted from the tax.

justment Administration points out, because these producers will receive their land rental and parity payments in addition to the expected increase in cotton price on the amount sold.

The interests of share croppers and tenants are to be protected in the making of allotments and issuing of exemption certificates, it is promised by the Administration.

Contract signers who violate their contracts are to have their exemption certificates revoked, according to the provisions of the act.

No allotments are to be made under the Bankhead act until all producers have applied to their cotton committees giving their production figures and asking for exemption certificates. The collection of the tax is to be in charge of the bureau of internal revenue, and is to be collected as prescribed by them at time of sale.

BETTER CHILD HEALTH CAMPAIGN STARTS IN MAY

The largest round-up in the history of Texas will be started in May, when every Parent-Teacher association in the state will join hands in their annual campaign, known as the Summer Round-Up of Children. This is a movement that has for its purpose to send to the entering grade of school children who are free from remedial defects as possible.

Each local parent-teacher group endeavors to have the parents who have children ready to enter school visit their family physician and dentist for the purpose of having a complete physical examination made of the child and then encourage the corrections needed. It is teaching the parents the responsibility of having their children prepared physically for school life. At this time parents should have their children immunized against diphtheria and smallpox.

Children grow very rapidly during the first six years of life, and during this rapid growth, physical defects are apt to develop which may cause permanent damage if they are not corrected early. Poor posture in children is very often the result of faulty nutrition. Fatigue may also be a factor, and in some instances there may be actual disease of the bone.

Inability to see or hear well is a serious handicap for the child beginning school. He cannot progress as rapidly as one who sees and hears normally. As a result the child is frequently held back, not because they are mentally slow but because of defects. The Texas State Department of Health lends their hearty cooperation to the Parent-Teacher association in this effort as they have seen the value of it in the results obtained in past years.

COUNTY AGENT RECEIVES COTTON SALE INFORMATION

"Every man having cotton at a gin or at the farm will have to show tickets or tags and get the bale tags before the cotton can be sold without paying the tax," states Jake Tartar, county agent.

"However," continued Tartar, "This does not apply to the 10c loan cotton; but farmers having cotton stored other than the option or 10c loan cotton should report the number of bales to the county agent's office as soon as possible."

Tartar has just received a letter from College Station which reads:

"You have been furnished with a copy of the Bankhead Act. We are enclosing herewith copy of the questions and answers pertaining to the act."

"The Washington office is busy preparing and printing all the forms that will be necessary in the administration of the act. The office of livestock and crop estimates is working out the county quotas. This information will be rushed to you just as soon as completed. All forms and materials will be distributed to agents through our supply office here. In order that we may know with some degree of accuracy the quantity of forms needed in each county, we ask that you give your estimate immediately."

"We understand the bale tags to be used on the new cotton will be handled and distributed by the office of internal revenue, and the county control association office will in no way be involved with these tags."

The first duty of every producer under the law is to apply for bale tags for all cotton produced prior to this season now in the farmer. As production control the forms the farmer for exemption certificates has not been mined. Every bale entering trade channels cotton year 1934-35 must have a bale tag which the farmer by surrendering his exemption certificate or by paying the tax. The amount of tax is determined by the tax in effect at the time the cotton is ginned regardless of when it is sold. If stored and held for a year or more it must still pay the tax.

Pampa Plans Huge Pre-Centennial Fete

Celebration and Pioneer Roundup to Be Held on May 31 and June 1

PAMPA, May 24.—Pampans, busier than at any time during the last three years on account of renewed oil activity, took time off this week to put the finishing touches on their Pre-Centennial Celebration and Pioneer Roundup which they will stage May 31 and June 1.

The Pre-Centennial celebration will get under way at 11 o'clock on the morning of May 31, when James V. Allred, attorney general of Texas, will open the patriotic fete in city auditorium. Austin in his Mexico city dungeon.

One of the speakers who will address old timers on the second day is Judge James D. Hamlin Farwell, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and pioneer XIT ranch attorney. W. H. Patrick of Clarendon has been invited to preside at the Roundup programs. Local committee chairman are as follows: Mrs. Claude Ledrick, rooms; Mrs. De Lea Vickers, registration; Mrs. W. R. Ewing, hostesses; Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, information. A separate building will be available for old timers.

Short Course Held at Canyon Last Friday

"Farm Woman's Place in New Deal" Was Main Theme—Three Ladies From County Attend

"The Farm Woman's Place in the New Deal" was the central theme of the one-day short course conducted by the Home Economics department of West Texas State Teacher's college co-operating with the extension service of A. & M. College of Texas for home demonstration club women of District 1 and 2, May 18, in Canyon.

After the reception in the home economics dining room, about 400 home demonstration club women assembled in the auditorium where they were welcomed by President J. A. Hill. He explained the co-operative plan for living for girls in Randall hall and for boys at the College farm. They listened to a men's chorus directed by Professor Wallace R. Clark, who recently won first place in a state contest for college men's choruses. This was followed by a demonstration, "Art in Relation to Dress," by Miss Milita Hill and a style show by the home economics textile classes. Two former Wheeler county club girls took part in these two events, Bessie Beene of Mobeetie and Maurine Warren of Allison.

During noon intermission, the women had the privilege of visiting the museum. The afternoon was spent in discussing the live-at-home program, federal canning plants, state and community canning centers, community canning by circulating equipment, meat dishes, wardrobe planning, marketing, farm housing survey, each emphasizing the farm woman's place in the New Deal. At the close of the program, the women were invited to drive through the new Palo Duro park as guests of the college. The Short Course adjourned for one year.

Those attending from Wheeler county were: Mrs. Bryan Witt, county council chairman, Leona Crossland and Viola Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fooshee and daughter and son, Louise and Junior, of Locust Grove were in Wheeler Saturday trading.

LOCAL FARMER TO INSTALL SYRUP MAKING EQUIPMENT

Bill Morgan, who lives on a farm three miles north of town, is installing equipment and making plans to operate a syrup mill this season. His outfit will include modern fixtures adapted to producing a high grade article. Morgan is located convenient to the gas line and will be assured of a satisfactory fuel supply. Last year he made some of the natural complement to hot cakes and met with sufficient success to warrant broadening his scope this year. He will do a custom business on percentage basis or contract production to suit the customer.

From the office of W. Veale, county relief administrator, comes the following information:

The federal government is making a close survey of openings for farmers, and plans to transfer unemployed people to counties where they can obtain work."

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL FROM COMMISSIONER'S RACE

Believing the field offers a lot of good men, and because other work will occupy my full time, I have decided to withdraw my name as a candidate for commissioner of Precinct No. 2, Wheeler county.

I wish to thank the many friends for their encouragement and well wishes, but believe it to be to my best interest to withdraw.
