Stock Show termed successful

Pleasant weather was on hand for the Mitchell County 4–H and FFA Livestock Show this past weekend as 277 animals were shown by appropximately 120 exhibitors.

A premium auction was added to the events at this year's stock show however, results from the sale were not available when this story went to print. The Stock Show Committee is expected to meet Tuesday night to determine the success of the auction.

Also for the first time this year a division for goats was added to the show. Paike Morris won grand champion in this division and Mark Sheets won reserve grand champion. Josh Griffin won senior showmanship and Whitney Merket won the Pee Wee showmanship award.

In the swine division, the grand champion swine was shown by Max Graham and the reserve grand champion was shown by Casi Joiner. The best county bred hog breeders were Ken Graham and Eldon Harris. The swine showmanship award was won by Brodie Harris.

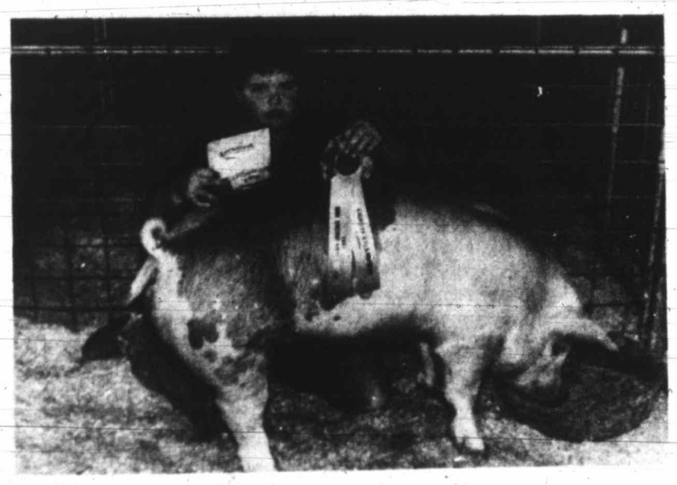

In the lamb division, the grand champion lamb was shown by Hayley Smith and Bethany Bridgford exhibited the reserve grand champion lamb and also received the Jim Maddox Memorial Showmanship Award.

In the steer division, the grand champion steer was shown by Amber Blair and the reserve champion was exhibited by Jeremy Reyes.

Lauren Hackfeld won the showmanship award in the steer division. The award was the Casey Merket Memorial, named in honor of Merket who died in a plane crash late last year.

In the lamb division, Hayley Smith exhibited the champion heavy finewool cross, while Bethany Bridgford exhibited the reserve champion heavy finewool cross. Hayley Smith exhibited the champion and reserve champion light finewool.

Rodeo returns to C-City

The Colorado City Police Department's DARE program and the Chamber of Commerce will be sponsoring the High Plains Junior Rodeo June 30–July 1 at the rodeo arena.

The rodeo will be the first one in eight years for the local area and is expected to attract participants from as far away as New Mexico.

Events will include calf roping, pole bending, goat tying, barrell racing, team roping, bull riding, bareback and saddle bronc.

In order to participate in the event you must be a member of the High Plains Junior Rodeo Association of Lubbock.

The DARE program will receive monies from the concession stands and a portion of the gate ticket sales. These monies will go toward the purchase of workbooks, pens and pencils and other various supplies for the program.

According to DARE officer Charles Rice, various improvements have been made to the rodeo arena.

"Thanks to the county commissioners and the work of the prisoner trustees, the rodeo arena has seen some recent improvements," he said.

He added that the rodeo is expected to bring a tremendous boost to the economy if it continues as an annual event.

"Hopefully, we'll have enough volunteers that we can keep it going [annually]," he said.

The rodeo will take place the same weekend as the annual 4th Fest celebration.

Commissioners expect to meet ADA requirements

The Mitchell County Commissioners expect to have all county facilities meet all regulations and safety requirements outlined in the American Disabilities Act by the end of fiscal year 1996.

Southwest Supply and Environment out of Garland has completed a survey and produced a written plan of action for the county, that was adopted by the commissioners Tuesday morning.

Representative Larry Settle said that part of the ADA law requires that the county have a written plan of action, outlining all the changes made to comply with ADA.

"The law provides that public facilities have equal access for the disabled," he said.

Settle explained that the ADA Law is an open-ended law.

"This is the scariest law I've ever seen because of its complexity," he said. "A person doesn't even have to be disabled to file suit against you if you're not in compliance."

Some of the required changes have already been made, including the lowering of control panels and the addition of Braille to the controls of the courthouse elevator; making several county buildings ADA compliant; and adding required handrails to handicapped ramps.

The county is currently in the process of rebuilding the Ag Barn's restroom facilities to meet with

Football banquet set for tonight

The annual Colorado City Wolves football banquet has been set for tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. in the Middle School cafeteria with former Baylor quarterback Neal Jeffrey scheduled to speak.

Jeffrey quarterbacked the Baylor Bears to their first Southwest Conference Championship in 1976, under the leadership of Coach Grant Teaff.

Jeffrey, who has a stuttering speech pattern, is a well-known motivational speaker who reminds his audience that if he could help the Bears win a championship with his stutter, anyone can do anything.

He will also address the Colorado High and Middle School student bodies on Friday, January 20.

The CMS assembly will begin at 8:15 a.m. in the auditorium and the assembly at CHS will begin at 9:15 a.m. The public is invited to both assemblies.

Tickets to the football banquet are $5 and can be purchased from Mandi Waldrip, Carrie Perkins, Tia Bassham, Jamie Ellis or Sandra Vlasin at the high school, 728-3424.

Sheriff's Dept. investigates burglary

Sunday, the Mitchell County Sheriff's Office reported a burglary at 420 Smyley in Loraine. However, according to investigators, the burglary took place some time between December 20 and January 15.

Sheriff Patrick Toombs said the owners of the residence had inherited it from a relative who had passed away. They would then periodically check on the home every few weeks, he added.

Among the items missing are a microwave, fishing rods, lamps, a stereo, gas heater, bed sheets, chairs, and various antiques including an old crank telephone and Coca Cola memorabilia.

"They basically cleaned the place out," Toombs said.

He added that he believes the suspects either stayed at the home for a long period of time or moved the belongings out a truck load at a time.

Man arrested twice in 2 days

A 21-year-old resident of Sweetwater was arrested twice in Colorado City over the weekend; once for public intoxication and disorderly conduct and a second time for the unathorized use of a motor vehicle.

Gary Dalton Flynn, of 501 Walnut in Sweetwater, was arrested Saturday night by a Colorado City police officer and bond was set at $400.

According to Police Chief David Montgomery, Flynn made bail Sunday afternoon, however, he returned to Colorado City the same evening, after stealing a pick-up truck from Nolan County.

Flynn was picked up at the Relax Inn by a Mitchell County Deputy who arrested him on the Nolan County charges.

ADA safety requirements and standards.

The proposals set forth by Southwest Supply and Environment also encompass replacing all the current signs in county buildings with ADA approved signs.

ADA signs include Braille, international symbols and are placed on the opening side of the door, exactly 60 inches from the floor to the center of the sign. The cost for the signs is expected to average between $20 and $25 each.

"These signs are not going to be cheap," Settle said.

The plan also calls for better and appropriate designation of handicapped parking areas, signs pointing out where handicap ramps are located, notice of violation signs and other various sign changes and additions throughout county facilities.

In addition to the cost of the signs, Southwest Supply and Environmental will charge the county a maximum of $1,500 or $45 an hour for their services.

These changes are expected to be made in February.

According to Toombs, this burglary is similar to another that occurred in Loraine in May and remains unsolved.

"Right now, we really don't have a whole lot to go on," he said. "We think that maybe someone saw something and didn't realize what they were seeing or just didn't come forward."

Anyone who may have seen anything or knows anything about the burglary is asked to contact the sheriff's office, 728-5261.

TABCC looks for entries

Texas Association of Business & Chambers of Commerce (TABCC), the state's largest business association, has announced the call for entries in the 1995 Texas Business of the Year Awards competition.

The prestigious Business of the Year Awards are presented by TABCC each year to the most outstanding publicly held company and privately held company in the state. The two winning companies in this year's competition will be honored at the gala 23rd Annual Texas Business of the Year Awards Luncheon in Austin on April 18.

The awards were initiated in 1972 by the former Texas Association of Business which, on January 1, 1995, merged with the former Texas Chamber of Commerce to become TABCC.

Companies representing many industries from all areas of the state participate in the competition each year. Participating companies will be evaluated by a statewide committee, based on achievements in the areas of business operations, growth, product and service innovation and contributions to the surrounding civic and industrial community.

Any publicly held or privately held company of any size with operations in Texas may enter the awards competition. Participating companies are not required to be members of TABCC. No entry fee is required.

Companies interested in participating in the awards competition should request an Official Entry Form from TABCC by calling (512) 477-6721.

The deadline for returning completed entries to TABCC is February 20, 1995.

TABCC is a broad-based organization of Texas companies and local chambers of commerce dedicated to maintaining a favorable atmosphere for business development in Texas.

TABCC's strength is embodied in its membership working in unison on common public policy problems and issues of concern to Texas employers.

With seven regional Texas offices and state headquarters in Austin, TABCC represents more than 6,000 businesses employing more than two million Texans.

Vietnam Vets are honored

Families of Mitchell County veterans who were killed in Vietnam joined with hundreds of people from throughout the state in the dedication ceremony for the Permian Basin Vietnam Veterans Memorial at Midland International Airport.

The Texas shaped memorial bears the names of over 200 men who left this part of the state to serve their country, but who never returned.

Those from Mitchell County are Curtis M. Ashton, Robert W. Cooper, Robert O. Davis, Manual G. Martinez, Ralph M. Smith and James G. Standefer.

Vietnam veterans also joined the family members of their fallen comrades in this somber remembrance of their sacrifice.

Before the memorial ceremonies, which began at 3 p.m., the audience heard the songs of two Vietnam veterans turned folk singers, Martin & Holiday.

Many of the people attending the dedication ceremony said the sacrifices and horrors of the Vietnam War should not be forgotten. Instead, they should be remembered in the hopes that they will never be repeated again.

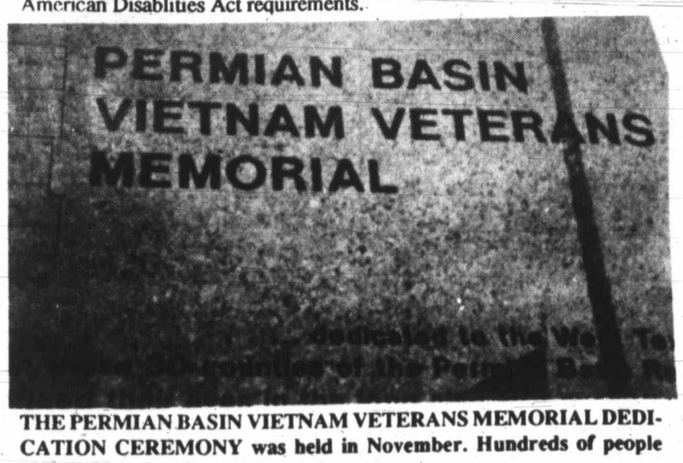

COMMISSIONERS COURT NOTES

Called Board meeting held at 9 a.m. on January 17.

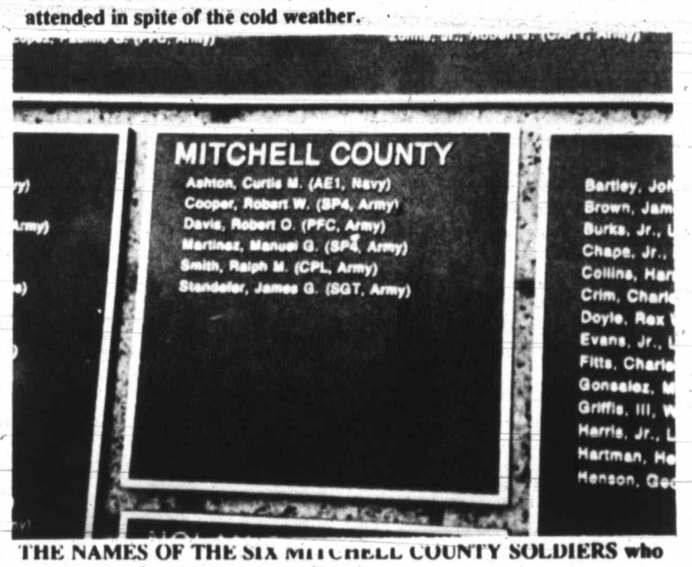

ROLL CALL: County Judge Ray Mayo; Commissioners, Precinct 1, Ed Roach; Precinct 3, Buddy Hertenberger; Precinct 4, Bill Preston; and County Clerk Debby Carlock.

ACTION ITEMS:

- Approval of payroll;
- approval to adopt a plan to have all county structures meet American Disablities Act requirements.

THE PERMIAN BASIN VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL DEDICATION CEREMONY was held in November. Hundreds of people attended in spite of the cold weather.

THE NAMES OF THE SIX MITCHELL COUNTY SOLDIERS who gave their lives during the Vietnam War has been etched into stone so that no one forgets.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

BY JIM BAUM

The year was 1937 and the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce was proud of the businesses in town. Information for this story is taken from some old documents which were found back in 1987 in the old Caddell building, on West Highway 80.

First, looking back at last week's column, a couple of corrections. A typographical error resulted in Key-Brook Confectionery coming out "Kay" Brook (good eye, Sis Merritt). And according to Westbrook Mayor Bill Rees, Westbrook was incorporated in 1937. Our apologies on that, Mr. Mayor.

Now, let's look at some of the businesses which were operating in 1937 in Colorado City. Beauty shops, for instance. There was Tiner's Beauty Shop, owned by Mrs. R.D. Tiner, Skeets Beauty Shop, Mrs. Brice Webb, owner, and Pearl Woods Beauty Shop, owned by Pearl Woods. Other shops mentioned, but no owners identified, were Hotel Beauty Shop and Modern Beauty Shop. (There may have been more beauty shops, but possibly these were the only ones which were members of the Chamber of Commerce.)

Colorado City also had four furniture stores in 1937. They were Jones-Russell and Finch, Lee Carter Furniture Store, H.L. Hutchinson Furniture and Fry Furniture Company, Bert Fry, owner.

Buying insurance was no problem in Colorado City back in '37. Any of the following men represented reputable companies here: Joe Jackson, J.J. Billingsley, Dale Warren, Charles Farris, E.V. Grantland, L.B. Elliott, W.W. Porter, G.D. Foster and Joe Earnest.

There were four "tourist camps" during this same era. Whiteway Courts, owned by R.L. Richardson, Candler Courts, owned by Lawrence Candler, Newman Camp ("owned by Newman") and Gands, owned by Tommy Gand.

There were three laundries in Colorado City (1939): Colorado Steam Laundry (J. Ralph Lee), Helpy-Selfy (owner not identified) and Dorn Helpy-Selfy (Huron Dorn).

Colorado City also had Community Natural Gas Company, managed by M.O. Chapman, Texas Public Ice Company, R.D. Tiner, Texas Electric Service Company, A.L. McSpadden, manager and Colorado Water Department, J.F. Merritt, secretary.

As you might imagine, Colorado City had a good number of garages in the late '30s. They included Baker's Garage, owned by Buster Baker, Womack's Garage, Claude Womack, Dobb's Garage (Jeff and Roscoe Dobbs), Tidwell's Auto Garage (Sephus Tidwell).

Colorado City also had Western Union, L.M. Guest, manager, and Postal Telegraphy, in the Colorado Hotel.

There were two abstract companies: L.B. Elliott and Morris Abstract (Mrs. Earl Morrison).

Hardware stores were identified as Jones-Russell Hardware, H.L. Hutchinson Hardware, J. Riordan, owned by Jerald Riordan and Barry-Fee Hardware, R.F. Fee, manager.

Farm implement stores were Price Brothers, Jones-Russell and Barry-Fee. And a word here about Jones-Russell. You may have noted they had furniture, hardware and farm implements. That's not all. They were also one of two companies in town offering funeral services. Their funeral business was located in the rear of their store, which was located where Anthony's is now. (The other undertaker was A.D. Kiker and Son.)

Jewelers? Colorado City had two: Sam Majors and J.T. Majors.

Shoe stores...Herrington's Shoe Shop (H.H. Herrington), Hodges Shoe Shop (J.W. Hodges) and Westfall Shoe Repair (Steve Westfall).

There were two bakeries: Whitaker's Bakery (G.W. Whitaker) and Good Eats (Monte Hardegree).

Tailor shops included Pond and Merritt (Joe Pond and Jake Merritt), Huron Dorn (owned by Huron Dorn) and Classy Cleaners (O.C. Cox). There were two florists, Colorado Floral (Mrs. Frank Ramsdell) and Barber's Floral (Mrs. R.H. Barber).

Local residents could buy nationally famous brands of tires, such as Goodyear, Star, Atlas, Sieberling, Fisk, Gates and Firestone, from such dealers as Thomas Brothers, Hicks Rubber Company, Humble Service Station or Jess Cathy and Fred Cravey stations.

The town had three cotton buyers, P.E. Harkins, Russell Henry and H. Bosse (with a notation that the spelling might be wrong on the last name).

The Chamber of Commerce was proud of its peace officers and each was identified by name. They included Police Chief H.S. Hickman, Sheriff Dick Gregory, Constable Jack Delaney, Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cook, Nighwatchman Porter Mosley, as well as other officers Cecil Hagler, Tom Terry and C.O. Harper, who doubled as "Hide and brand Inspector and Dog Catcher."

Four dairies were identified by the Chamber, W.H. Rogers, Rankin Dairy, Motley Dairy and Bodine Dairy.

Gins included Colorado Gin (E.L. Latham), Concrete Gin Company (no owner mentioned), William and Miller Gin (Ralph Mann, manager) and Farmers Co-op number one, two and three (at Buford), all owned by "W. Dorn."

For medical attention, 1937 Colorado City residents could utilize either Root Hospital and Clinic (Charles Root) or Rhode Clinic. (Drs. Oscar and Bill Rhode). In addition, there were three dentists, Dr. R.D. Bridgford, Dr. W.B. May and Dr. M. B. Nall.

Men had their choice of eight barber shops in 1937; Roy Dozier, Boyd Dozier, Ed Jones, Sid Burrows, Leon Jenkins, Clyde Bassham, the Palace Barber Shop and Charles Watson were all in the hair cutting business.

And when it came to service stations, there must have been one on just about every corner. Check this lineup: Bernie Grable Shell, Hicks Service Station (Tommy Mosley, manager), Costin Service Station (L.A. Costin), Cathy Service Station (Jess Cathy), Thomas Brothers (Luther Thomas), Humble Service Station (E.D. Ellis, manager), Henry Vaught Service Station and Moore's Service Station (no owner identified).

Other stations included Magnolia (Edmond Nowell), Gulf (Bill Thomas), Sinclair (Jack Davis), Conoco (Bill Cravey), Col Tex #1 (Joe Mize) and Col Tex #2, Shell and Cosden stations, no managers identified.

When folks went shopping in Colorado City, there were a number of other stores to visit, such as Berman's Variety Store (H.I. Berman) and the Economy Store, also owned by the Bermans. Men's ready-to-wear included Charles Landau, while ladies' ready-to-wear were Britton's (Nat Britton) and Neal Mills, owned by Neal Mills.

It's tempting to make comparisons between the town of Colorado of 1937 and our Colorado City of today. There was not much difference in population, 4,671 then versus 4,700 today, but it is a different era.

Obviuosly, the Colorado City of the 1930s had a greater variety of businesses than we have today. However, retail outlets have diversified over the years...larger cities have become regional shopping areas...and small rural communities have seen their business districts dwindle.

Our struggle will continue in the months and years ahead. A number of important steps in the right direction have been made...the antique stores, for instance, and the acquisition of the prison. The 1930s may have been the "good old days."

But, most of us would not be willing to go back to those pre-television days. It's fun to look back, but we can't afford to lose sight of what's ahead. After all, one of these days a future generation is going to be looking back at the Colorado City of this era. Reckon what they're going to see.

Garden Club hosts talk on resources

The Colorado City Garden Club began the 1995 year with a Dutch treat luncheon on January 12 at the Villa Restaurant. Carolyn Weaver and Erna Lou Burt served as hostesses.

The club president introduced Marjorie Kolman, the program presenter for the day and an active member of the club.

"Resources Within Our Reach" was her topic and she began by naming Mitchell County Library as an excellent resource for gardeners and horticulturists.

She mentioned books on many phases of horticulture, such as herbs, vegetables, wild flowers, shrubs, individual plant species, crafts, dried flowers and many more.

In addition, the library has videos available and will be happy to find other resources through the interlibrary loan system.

County Agent Joe Raff has books and pamphlets from Texas A&M University, files on different problems and information on a wide range of topics which he will copy for anyone who wants the information.

In addition, seed catalogues have a wealth of information. Many different magazines regularly have horticulture and gardening activities. Also, newspapers have seasonal articles appropriate for growing conditions in their areas.

We are fortunate to have the people at Neff's Nurseries who are very helpful in sharing information.

During the business meeting, presided by club president Brenda Aguillon, the following offers were elected for the 1995-1997 term:

Brenda Aguillon, president; Marjorie Kolman, first vice president; Dovie Brownfield, second vice-president; secretary, Ray Anne Carlock and treasurer, Frances Myers.

The club voted to give $25 for a horticulture exhibit award at this year's school science fair.

In observation of Texas Arbor Day, the club will plant a crape myrtle at Kiwanis Park in downtown Colorado City.

LaVerne Chalker was welcomed as a guest and members attending were Ray Anne Carlock, Marilyn Tartt, Rachel Singleton, Brenda Aguillon, Janie Vann, Carolyn Weaver, Erna Lou Burt, Peggy Ratliff, Frnces Myers, Marjorie Kolman, Mary Ellis and Betsy Aycock.

Wallace Center offers typing class

The Wallace Community Education Center is offering a typing refresher class on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-8:30 p.m. beginning February 7.

The class will be taught by Margaret Trulock and will concentrate on building your typing speed, basic formatting and letter forms. Tuition is $30.

Most of the clerical positions with the Texas Department of Criminal Justice require the applicant to pass a typing test. This is your chance to brush up on your typing skills if you are planning to apply for a job at the Wallace Unit or the new jail facility.

Enrollment is limited to ten. Call the Wallace Center, 728-2392, today to enroll.

LORAINE NEWS ABOUT TOWN

BY BESSIE ANN VAUGHN

"Wilma, Mother called while you were out. She wants to come stay two weeks with us."

"Heaven sakes. Not two long weeks!"

"Now, Wilma, don't start about my mother. I simply won't have it! Remember, your mom stays with us for two weeks occasionally!"

"I know that, Charlie, but we don't have to change our lifestyle for her. My mother is happy just being here with us.

"Your mother expects to be entertained 24 hours a day."

– 12 days later –

"Charlie, come here. We have to talk. I'm checking into the Slumber Motel this morning. I need one entire day of peace and quiet. After 12 days of "you know who," I may never be the same....

"I'll see you tonight around bedtime. You are on your own with 'Mama.' Good luck."

– 20 minutes later –

"Good morning, Mother. It's just you and me today. Wilma went on a seminar of some kind. I thought we would eat lunch at the Fish House."

"Not me. I'm not eating out. I want to stay here and talk, Charlie."

"What about, Mother?"

"Oh, this and that. Do you remember Mrs. Oats?"

"When you were little, you bawled and squalled for some of her snuff.

"Charlie, Jessie Lee's brother died last week. I think it was cancer. 'Course, I could be wrong.

"Remember Jewell Jones? She's having a baby soon. I'm hungry, Charlie. Fix me some breakfast."

"Just a minute, Mom. We're just about to make a touchdown here."

"You turn that thing off this very minute. You can watch TV anytime. I didn't raise you to sit in front of the picture box all day long....

"A grown man sitting around messing with TV buttons...it's not natural, not a bit."

–The phone rings in Room 20 at the Slumber Motel –

"Wilma, is that you?"

"What's wrong? Is somebody sick?"

"Help me, Wilma. Can I come join you?"

"I just got here, Charlie. You've only been alone with your mother for 35 minutes."

"I don't care. It seems like years!"

"Now she wants me to sing, 'Amazing Grace' while I make her some hot biscuits and gravy."

"I guess you had better do it, then."

"You know I can't cook, Wilma.

"Wilma! Don't hang up, Wilma, please!!"

"Get in here, Son. I'm starving!"

"Yes, Mama. 'Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound....' "

Loree (Cranfill) Music and her mother, Mrs. D.L. Cranfill, attended the Rehab Telethon in Abilene Saturday the 14th. Loree reported that the quilts were numerous, beautiful and a collector's dream.

They also enjoyed meeting some of the TV and movie stars the next morning at breakfast.

Iris Preston and Chrystene Hall met Barbara Hall of Scottsboro, Ala. and Dian Martin of Stephenville in Abilene Saturday.

They had lunch together and visited briefly. Both were en route to visit their parents.

***

I haven't seen Patsy Walker recently but her Aunt Leila Beaty reports that she is in the process of moving back to Loraine. It will be great to have her back home. We hope to see her and her mom, Elba Evans, at the Center often.

***

Mrs. D.L. Cranfill and her daughter, Loree Music, were in Loraine Friday the 13th. They both came down to the Center, had lunch and visited with longtime friends and neighbors.

***

Juanice Butler told me she had the best time ever at the Loraine Stock Show recently and will surely look forward to the next one.

***

Mike and Glenda Hemphill are on a business trip and parents Bobby and Wanza Graham are having a good time babysitting with the granddaughters.

***

On December 17, Leila Beaty went to visit children, Mr. and Mrs. James Seaton, in Corsicana and stayed until last week.

***

Our condolences to the Rose family. Mrs. Willie Rose was a member of the Loraine Senior Center for many years and had many friends. She passed away last Wednesday.

***

Also, our sympathy goes out to the Pablo Munoz family. Paula is a good friend and at one time an employee here at the Center. Mr. Munoz passed away last week, also.

***

We are happy to report that Yvonne Sadler's mother has improved and is back in Loraine.

***

Darlene Hamrick's mother is still in Rolling Plains Hospital at this time. Doctors are weighing pacemaker possibilities.

We also need to direct our thoughts and prayers toward Lee Ann Earnest, Delmas and Betty Bowlin's daughter. She is in Houston having surgery on her back (her tenth back operation). Delmas said Lee Ann lacked only one college semester to graduate and quoted her as saying that no matter how long it took, she planned to do it.

She and her husband, Robert, have one son, Tim, and live in San Angelo. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

***

Homer and Ruth Richburg were in Lubbock Saturday morning for the graduation of Cindy Richburg, from Wayland University.

Cindy had the highest grade point average and earned her B.S. degree in occupational education.

***

Visiting with George and Brenda Martin last Sunday were Ed and Nancy Newton, who live in Crowley, Texas. Both families attended the United Methodist Church on Sunday.

The Newtons lived in Loraine at one time, with Ed operating a drive-in theater and Nancy teaching in the school district.

"My Home Town"

Written by Miss Edith Wilkerson in 1925 when she was 16 years old, this essay was a school assignment. Her grade was an A.

Loraine is in Mitchell County, four miles from the Nolan County line, ranking second in size among towns of Mitchell County.

She is 10 miles east of Colorado City, 20 miles west of Sweetwater and 30 miles south of Snyder. Loraine is down in a valley and surrounded on all sides by small hills.

The first thing visible when approaching her boundaries is the school building, which is located on a hill at southern boundary of the township, this being visible for about four miles.

Loraine was started by the railroad company and was named for the engineer's wife. The first building was a section-house, which was built in 1881. Then, of course, railroad hands came in and built small houses.

A station was built in a few years but stood only a short time before it burned down.

A box car was used for a station until a new one was built, with Mr. Looby being the first depot agent.

Settlers came fast, for the new town welcomed all; land was cheap and people rushed in to take advantage of it and the great agricultural country.

Among the first settlers were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Toler, Mr. and Mrs. Will McCarley and Mr. and Mrs. Tom White.

Harris Toler, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Toler, was the first child born in Loraine.

Mr. Tom White divided the town into even lots and sold them. Following the selling of the lots, a great barbecue was given, celebrating the settlement of Loraine.

Mr. Edmondson owned the first bank with Mr. Perry as cashier. Mr. Bob Haygood owned the first grocery store.

As the town grew, new homes were built and people did their best to make their homes attractive.

It was several miles to a lumberyard and lumber was in great demand. In 1905, Higginbotham Lumber Company built a lumberyard here.

In 1908-09, the population was about 300. As people came in it gave rise to new industries.

Ranching, which was the leading occupation at first, soon gave way to farming and business life. New stores were built, the first building being built by Mr. Edmondson.

As the people began to settle down and do their best to have beautiful homes, they began to realize the need for a government.

The people were called together and voted that Mr. Furlow should be the first mayor; we are not able to recall the first city council.

Mr. Richard Looby was the second mayor and Mr. Henthorne, now Dr. Henthorne, was the third mayor. Mr. L.T. Britton is our present mayor.

He is a progressive man and cannot be misled by our people. Mr. Furlow was also progressive and ruled our city wisely. He really had vested upon him the responsibility of planting the governmental success of our town.

Mr. Looby was also a strong ruler but a misfortune overtook him shortly after he retired from his office life and called him to the great beyond.

His family still lives here, on the estate he left for them. He died in 1910.

Mr. Henthorne proved to be a successful man and when he retired as mayor, he moved to the west and is now one of the most prominent and successful doctors.

People began to see the need for schools as well as government. There were not enough people to justify building a large school building, so they had to take whatever they could secure.

The first school was held in the Lutheran Church with Mrs. Mack Smiley, who was then Miss Maude Moore, as teacher.

Very few attended school the first term, but people came thick and fast and soon more teachers and a larger building were needed.

The school grew until a building as large as the present building was needed. The building we now occupy was built in 1908-1909. A few years later, the two rooms on the east side of the hall (now the auditorium) was torn down and a large room with a laboratory on the southern end was constructed.

Our school progressed nicely and we now have nice teachers and about 400 pupils. We think this is the most successful year of school and we have the dearest teachers in the world.

This school teaches through the eleventh grade. We feel sure it will be more progressive in the future than it has been in the past.

People came from many counties here and it was very unpleasant not to have a church to go to on Sunday, but there were not enough of one denomination to organize a church.

The people finally decided to all go together and organize a union church and Sunday school until each denomination was strong enough to organize a church of its own.

Mrs. Wallace was first Sunday school superintendent, which was of the Union Sunday school.

The Methodist Church was first to organize into a church by itself; it had 10 members.

The Baptist Church was the second church to organize. The Baptist Church building is still standing.

Finally, other churches organized, and we now have five churches in Loraine. Each one has a large membership.

"Senior Center News"

It was good to see Mrs. Cranfill and Loree Music again last week at the Center. Mrs. Cranfill said she was well over 90. She looks great!

***

We met Mike and Melba Mikle from Colorado City Monday the 16th. Mike is Vyonne Sadler's brother. Bertie Colson, Y's sister, also joined them for lunch.

**

Darlene's sister, Neva Gurnin, and her husband, Tommy, from Meeker, Okla. were here this past week.

***

If you are a senior citizen and interested in taking a defensive driving course, contact Darlene at the Center, 737-2711.

"Dumb and Dumber"

Pet Stories

Leroy hadn't been paying attention in class, so the first grade teacher pointed to him and asked, "Son, what do we call the outside of a tree?"

"Leroy had no idea. As he sat there terrified, a boy sitting next to hoim said quietly from the corner of his mouth, "Bark, Leroy."

Relieved, Leroy jumped up and said, "Bow-wow! Bow-wow, teacher!"

***

Bill was riding the train when he noticed a man carrying a cage with a small dog inside.

"That's a cute dog," Bill said.

"I got it for my wife, "the man replied.

"You certainly are lucky," said Bill. "No one would ever make me a trade like that."

***

"Mr. Jones, I believe your dog has acute thrombosis."

"Well, thank you so much, doctor, but what's wrong with him?"

***

Please take good care and see you about town.

Local students on WTC honors lists

A number of Western Texas College (WTC) students from Colorado City have been named to honors lists for the fall 1994 semester.

Maria Calderon of Colorado City, a freshman accounting tech major at WTC, has been named to the President's List for the fall 1994 semester.

The President's List is the highest attainable ranking for any given semester. To be named, a student must earn no lower than an A and be enrolled for a minimum of 15 college credit hours.

Freshman English major Leah Watson of Colorado City earned a place on the Dean's List at WTC for the fall 1994 semester.

Requirements for the Dean's List are maintenance of a 3.5 grade point average while carrying a course load of at least 15 college credit hours.

Students included on the Merit List for the semester are Jay Browne, Jody Chaney, William Everett, Sylvia Flores, James Franco, Branda Mitchell, Lisa Stephens, Jefferson Trulock and Glenda Wallace.

A student must earn a grade point average of at least 3.5 while taking between 8 and 14 hours of college credit to be on the Merit List.

Quilting class offered

Basics of quilt construction and lap quilting will be taught at the Wallace Community Education Center by Cathy Bassham beginning February 6. The class will meet Mondays from 6:30 until 8:30 for four weeks. Participants will construct a table runner consisting of three blocks—one applique, one plain and one pieced block. The cost of the class is $50 and includes a frame, fabric and all other supplies. Half of the tuition is required by January 23. Enrollment is limited. To register, call the Wallace Center at 728-2392.

Reflexology class scheduled

The Wallace Community Education Center is offering two evening classes introducing reflexology, a technique of relaxing nerve tension and improving circulation. The classes will include theory, demonstration and instruction, as well as practical application.

Reflexology helps to relieve the pain of headaches, arthritis and sore muscles, as well as symptoms of other illnesses. Pertinent reflex points on the hands and feet will be identified and techniques for using them will be explained.

The class will meet from 7-8:30 p.m. February 9 and February 16. Tuition is $10. Each participant should bring a bath towel and/or a small pillow. Please call the Wallace Center, 728-2392, to register. The size of the class is limited.

Sanchez wins geography bee

Robert Sanchez, a fifth grade student at Loraine Elementary, won the school-level competition of the National Geography Bee on January 11 and a chance at a $25,000 college scholarship.

Daniel Martinez was the runner-up with the second place finish and Rose Ann Mills received third place.

Other contestants representing the fifth grade were Ryan Chavez, Kristopher Farquhar, Laci Hackfeld, Heather Lucas, C.J. Madrid and Megan Pond.

Sixth grade representatives were Luis Rico and Rose Ann Mills.

Amanda Kendell and Jennifer Rich represented the seventh grade in the bee.

The contest was the first round in the Seventh Annual National Geography Bee, sponsored by National Geographic World and Chrysler Corporation.

Robert will take a written test next to qualify as one of the top 100 students in the state to participate in the State Geography Bee on April 7.

The state champions and their teacher-escorts will attend the National Geography Bee on May 30 and 31 in Washington, D.C. The National Geographic Society will sponsor the trip.

The first place winner will receive a $25,000 college scholarship; the second place winner, a $15,000 scholarship and the third place winner, a $10,000 scholarship.

O.C. to host bass info session

A series of bass fishing information sessions presented by Bass Fishing Techniques Institute will be hosted by Odessa College from 7:30-9:30 p.m. February 1, 7, 9 and 16 in the Electronics Technology Building, Room 130.

Four of America's top pros will teach the sessions, including two-time Bass Anglers Sportsmen's Society (B.A.S.S.) Angler of the Year Jimmy Houston.

Best known as the host of the television show, "Jimmy Houston Outdoors," Houston has 13 national bass fishing titles. He popularized the "stand and fish" technique, which is now universally used.

Also instructing will be the 1994 B.A.S.S. Super Stars champion O.T. Fears, along with the winner of the $50,000 U.S. Open, Rich Tauber, and Lendell Martin, four-time B.A.S.S. Masters Classic finalist.

While the emphasis of the institute will be on techniques such as flippin', pitchin', spinnerbaits, plastic worms and crankbaits, additional topics such as locating bass, establishing bass fishing patterns, structure fishing, using electronics and bass behavior also will be covered.

The cost to participate in the four classes is $64. For information or registration, call Odessa College Continuing Education, 335-6580. Those planning to attend may register by phone using a credit card.

Beginning guitar class set

A beginning guitar class will be taught at the Wallace Community Education Center by Joe Smith starting Tuesday, February 7 at 7 p.m. The class will continue for eight weeks and the cost is $35. To enroll, call the Wallace Center at 728-2392.

Auditions to be held at Texas Tech

Auditions for the musical drama Texas will be held Sunday, January 29 from 1-5 p.m. on the campus of Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

It will play nightly except Sunday in Palo Duro Canyon State Park. The season opens on June 7 and closes August 19.

Written by Pulitzer Prize-winning author Paul Green, Texas is the saga of the men and women who tamed the Texas Panhandle in the late 1800s.

Directed by Neil Hess and produced by the non-profit Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc., the internationally-acclaimed outdoor drama is celebrating its 30th anniversary season this year.

Salaried positions are available for 140 talented actors, singers, dancers and technicians. Auditions are open to anyone 18 years of age or older and all individuals interested in auditioning for Texas must bring a photograph and references.

Dancers will register between 1 and 1:30 p.m. and audition as a group at 1:30 p.m. All others must register between 1:30 and 2:15 p.m. Individual auditions will follow dance auditions.

Men and women with ballet or modern dance training are auditioned as a group. Dancers should wear appropriate workout clothing for the audition.

The script calls for four men and four women in leading roles. In addition, there are six male supporting roles.

Actors will present a memorized scene, not to exceed three minutes, that accentuates outdoor voice and presence. Actors often double as members of the chorus and should also prepare a vocal number.

All voice ranges are required in chorus, solos and men's quartets. Singers should prepare one number of their choice. No pop or rock hits will be accepted. An accompanist will be provided or a singer may bring his or her own.

Since singers also fill minor speaking roles, each should also prepare a short, one- to two-minute memorized scene or monologue that will accentuate outdoor voice and presence.

Musicians must be experienced in string bass, acoustic guitar, banjo, accordion or violin.

Members of the hospitality crew are the show's first and last contact with patrons. This group of 40 sells tickets and programs, works concessions and the barbecue, conducts tours, entertains on the patio, seats visitors and assists with other theater duties.

Though the script for Texas never changes, costumes, lighting and special effects are constantly updated to keep the show fresh and entertaining.

For information about those auditions or for show reservations, call (806) 655-2181 or write Box 268, 2010 4th Ave., Canyon, Texas 79015.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

We would like to thank each person and business who supported us, the youth of Mitchell County, by contributing to the stock show this year and by coming to our first ever premium sale.

It was great to see everyone rooting for all the kids and supporting us by bidding on our animals.

Some of you stayed 'til the very end and we want you to know how much we appreciate your help and support. We've worked hard this year and we thank everyone for coming out to the stock show and helping us.

Again, thanks so much, Colorado City and Mitchell County businesses. A special thanks to those who bid on our animals.

OIL & GAS NEWS

Parker and Parsley Development Co. has conducted two plugbacks for extended pay at the No. 225 and No. 270 Mary Foster in Mitchell County's Iatan Field, nine miles southwest of Westbrook.

The operator perforated for new production in the San Andres Formation, ranging from 1,885 to 1,986 feet into the holes.

The No. 225 well pumped nine barrels of oil per day plus 75 barrels of water, while the No. 270 well pumped nine barrels of oil daily plus 32 barrels of water.

Original pay was from the Clear Fork Formation.

Showing ability to pump four barrels of oil per day plus 90 barrels of water, the No. 281 Mary Foster has been recompleted in Mitchell County's Iatan Field by Parker and Parsley Development Co., nine miles southwest of Westbrook.

Production is from new perforations in the San Andres Formation, 1,962 to 2,000 feet into the hole.

The operator plugged the well back to 2,070 feet from the original 2,253-ft. bottom. It was originally completed in the San Angelo/Clear Fork Formation, 2,483 to 2,738 feet into the hole.
