Lions End Season With 24-22 Loss

(By Mike Skipper)

The New Deal Lions were on the short end of the score for the third consecutive week and fourth time this season last Friday night. The Amherst Bulldogs slipped by with a close 24-22 victory over the Lions to gain second place in District 2-B.

Eight Seniors on the New Deal squad saw the last action of their high school football careers. The elite group included Gary Rieken, Dennis Hagard, Robert Davis, Gary Winingham, Lawson Smith, Billy Mitchell, Mike Heald and Sammy Darty.

Sundown grabbed the District 2-B title in other action Friday when they downed Anton 30-0. The victory gave the Roughnecks a 9-1 season record and 4-0 district mark. Amherst was not far behind with a 3-1 mark while Anton took third place with a 2-2 record. New Deal was fourth with one win and three losses in district play, while Whiteface had a 0-4 record.

The Lions struck first in the scoring column on a 60-yard scamper by Senior quarterback Gary Winingham. Mike Heald, another Senior in his last game, added the two extra points.

Amherst scored two of its four TD's later in the same period. Eddie Hedges counted for one on a 60-yard run while John Norwood added the other on a 5-yard dive.

In the second quarter, Heald opened with a six - pointer and Winingham's extra points put the Lions ahead 16-12.

The Bulldogs came back later in the quarter to score on a 40-yard run by Leon Hardwick, struck for its last score of the night on a pass play to Billy Sherrill for 20 yards.

New Deal, never willing to give up, drew within two points of the Bulldogs in the fourth quarter. Dewaine Agnew, the leading ground gainer of the night, carried the ball over from the 8-yard line to bring the score to 24-22. The try for game-tying points failed just inches short of the goal.

New Ruling On Rural Telephones

Construction of the rural zoning project to provide rural telephone service to residents in the Abernathy exchange service area is underway, according to Sharon T. Lee, District Manager for General Telephone Company.

Under the rural zoning program, customers who reside within 500 feet of a public right of way will be provided multiparty rural telephone service without a construction charge.

The District Manager pointed out that in the past the higher costs of new telephone lines in rural areas has often made it necessary to require applicants to contribute to the cost of construction so that an undue burden would not be placed on other customers in the exchange.

Campbell Construction Company of Ralls is in charge of the construction and the project when completed will cost approximately $10,000.

All rural applicants who haven't made application for service are urged to do so as soon as possible by contacting the Ralls Business Office, Lee said.

Identification Tags To Be Sold Here Dec. 2-3

Civil Defense and safety officials have for many years realized the need and stressed the life saving protection that can be provided by personal identification tags; and at their urging many citizens throughout the nation have already launched a community-wide effort to see that every adult and child has such protection.

If you, a member of your family, or a friend, is one of the million of Americans who suffer from a heart condition, blood disease, diabetes, epilepsy, or an allergy to sulphur, penicillin or other drugs, you know what a critical difference this information could make to the person in case of an accident or any emergency that might require medical treatment from someone not familiar with the case history.

The information can be readily available on the person at all times in the form of identification tags. These tags bearing name, address, phone number, religion, blood type, allergies or other special information will be provided at a low cost in the form of an attractive dog tag type necklace or the wrist type tag of chrome stainless steel. To provide the intended protection, these should be worn at all times and would be of great assistance in case small children are separated from their families by an accident or disaster of any kind.

Parents of school children will receive a letter containing more detailed information complete with an order blank. Persons who do not receive one through the school may learn more about this protection and place orders at the all-purpose room in the west end of the elementary school building Thursday and Friday, December 2 and 3 from 3 to 4 p.m.

P-T-A volunteer workers will be on hand at that time to answer any questions or help in the selection of tags for your family. December 3 will be the deadline for this service. If further information is desired, dial 298-2409 or 298-2855.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS AND CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF LUBBOCK AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Abernathy Weekly Review as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the cooperation of those citizens in Lubbock who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

Walter B. And Carroll B. Nichols

When a man gains recognition for the progressive and straight-forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs, and also for his many contributions to civic projects, he is to be complimented for his achievements to civic projects, he is to be complimented for his achievements.

One who belongs in this category is Walter B. Nichols, a pioneer business man of Lubbock who is regarded with respect and admiration by a great many residents of the city and the surrounding country.

We also think it appropriate in this review to give credit to one of the younger generation who are carrying on so ably in the footsteps of their fathers. And one who certainly deserves such credit is Carroll B. Nichols, who now shoulders his full share of responsibility in the operation and management of the Lubbock Laundry Company, and Sanitary Linen Service. It is because of the efforts of such men that year after year, the Hub City continues to grow and prosper, and to become an even better place in which to live.

It is men such as Mr. Nichols and his son Carroll, who have a distinct value to their city, and we take pleasure in paying them this brief, but most sincere tribute.

Ruby M. Miller And Lucille B. Ohls

To serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully, is the basic foundation many progressive business people of Lubbock have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the two we have in mind are Ruby M. Miller and Lucille M. Ohls of the Miller-Ohls Gift Shop. The popularity and patronage enjoyed by their many services accentuates the ideals of courtesy and efficiency which they have consistently applied in the management of their Gift Shop, and in the servicing of its patrons.

The conduct of such businesses, and those who operate them have done much to make Lubbock the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such women as Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Ohls for their part in the on-ward progress of the Hub City. In so doing, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know them.

Lucille Ohls and Ruby Miller have earned their success by the method in which they have served the public, and accepted both business and civic obligations, and we wish them both every success in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Murphey

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public-spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. Lubbock has its share of these progressive and civic-minded people, and two who are deserving of recognition are friendly, likeable, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Murphey of Murphey's Nursery.

Their business ability, coupled with a sense of obligation to the public have been major factors in maintaining Murphey's Nursery in a position of leadership throughout this area. They not only in their business activities, but also in their attention to civic duty, assumed an active part in community affairs.

The Murphey's have always been ready and willing to contribute their time and energy to the promotion of any project promising to benefit the community as a whole. They have often sacrificed personal interests to be of assistance to the city and their efforts are deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Murphey on their past achievements which, in our opinion, indicate similar successful careers in the years ahead.

CARL C. GOADE

Carl C. Goad is one of the more successful cafeteria operators of Lubbock who, by maintaining a constant standard of service and excellent quality foods, has made the Piccadilly Cafeteria one of the more popular eating places in the community. We are glad to give him credit for his well-earned success in a field which is so highly competitive.

It is also a pleasure to give him credit for taking part in community affairs, and lending his assistance to various activities and public projects. When to take part in such matters, he always does so without ostentation, but in a quiet manner which lends dignity to his share of the civic load. It is a pleasure to be associated in the promotion of community activities with such a man as Mr. Goad.

This review of progressive and civic-minded people of Lubbock would not be complete were we to fail to include Carl Goad. His is the kind of success which deserves recognition, and we wish him many more years of the same.

TOM ARMSTRONG

To become generally accepted as one of those progressive business men of Lubbock who can always be counted upon to recognize his duty to the community, and one who will readily back up his sense of duty by active participation in, or the support of worth-while civic movements, is an honor that can be proudly borne.

Such a man is Tom Armstrong of the Tom Armstrong Grain Warehouse, who a great many times in the past has neglected his own private affairs to lend a helping hand to meritorious civic projects.

Mr. Armstrong's friends are always more than glad to have his assistance because of his constant cheerfulness, and the enthusiasm and optimism in which he instills in his fellow men.

These same estimable attributes have also been applied by Tom Armstrong in the management of his business, with the outstanding success which is known to us all. It is our pleasure to give him all of the credit which is his just due, and to include him in this review of conscientious Lubbock business men.

JIM RICE

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement, the one we have in mind is one of Lubbock's more dependable new and used car dealers, Jim Rice of Monterey Motors, who has a wide circle of friends and business associates throughout this entire region.

His contagious optimism and steadfast belief in the assured future prosperity of the people of Lubbock and its metropolitan trading area, are characteristics which are to be appreciated in a progressive business man. He has always taken an interest in community affairs, and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is such men as Jim Rice who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs, and their eagerness to contribute to the public good, who are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief tribute.

NEVEN MOTE

In bestowing credit upon some of the more progressive business men of Lubbock, who in one way or another, have contributed their bit to improve both business and civic conditions, we wish to publish a few words about Neven Mote of Neven Mote Enco Products.

Mr. Mote has set a standard for himself, and the operation of his business that, under present existing conditions, has been extremely difficult to maintain. However, that he has done so is proved by the large volume of business which his Enco station continues to handle, much of which is due to his unceasing attention to detail, and his ability to cope with new and unexpected problems.

Neven Mote is also civic-minded and has, when asked, cheerfully cooperated on those civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and his many close friends and customers are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

CURTIS COXON

It is a privilege in this Lubbock review of progressive men and firms that have been such a great aid to the growth and development of this section of the state to place such a man as Curtis Coxon, Special Agent in charge of the Fidelity & Deposit Company of Maryland, on an equal plane with all others in this rank. In the past, few men have exceeded him in contributing of their time and energy to the on-ward progress of Lubbock and the surrounding country.

Mr. Coxon is generally recognized as one of the more conscientious business men in this district, and he retains that distinction in the admiration and respect of his wide circle of friends. Also his interest in, and the very valuable assistance he has rendered to the many projects of a civic nature, reflect the principles which he has always so successfully applied to his business affairs.

We congratulate Curtis Coxon on his record, and sincerely hope that his career will be as useful and completely successful in the years ahead as it has been in the past.

R. L. GABBARD

Every progressive and successful business man in Lubbock contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And one who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is R. L. Gabbard, District Manager for the National Cylinder Gas Division of Chemetron Corporation, who is well known, and has many friends and business associates throughout this district.

The prominent part that NCG is playing in the business and commercial life of Lubbock and vicinity, mirrors the progressiveness and ability of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Gabbard has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city and the surrounding country, and on many occasions, has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Lubbock and this district are fortunate to have such a man as R. L. Gabbard in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying this brief tribute to one of the city's more conscientious business men.

CALVIN "AL" MANGRUM

Because this is a period of growth and expansion for Lubbock, those progressive business men who had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of those conditions, are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are therefore, glad to pay tribute to Calvin "Al" Mangrum of Carbonic Sales & Service, for he has become a well-known figure in the business and commercial life of this section of West Texas.

Mr. Mangrum's persistent optimism, and steadfast belief in the continued future prosperity of the people of Lubbock and vicinity, are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

"Al" Mangrum has also always shown a willingness to do his part in civic advancement, and has contributed his bit, in one form or another, to projects promoted for the welfare of his city. We believe that a business man of this kind is entitled to our sincere praise, both because he has achieved success in his business and private affairs, and because he is willing to contribute to the public good.

THOMAS H. "TOM" CHAFFEE

Thomas H. "Tom" Chaffee, manager of Holiday Inn South, has won the universal respect and good will of the people of the South Plains for the progressive manner in which he has kept this popular motor lodge in the forefront of the business and civic life of this entire district.

Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

Mr. Chaffee is not the kind of individual who makes himself conspicuous by the manner in which he conducts himself, either in business or other matters. Yet, his quiet reserve and air of confidence mark him as a man of sound judgment, whose opinions and advice are sought after, and listened to with respect.

We compliment "Tom" Chaffee for the successful management of the Holiday Inn South, and also for his constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which he has found time to interest himself. He is a man whom many are proud to call friend.

JOHN B. "BUD" MEYERS

We wish in this edition to pay tribute to John B. "Bud" Meyers of the Meyers Phillips 66 Service Station, for his many services to the Hub City, and his splendid record of achievements in the business life of this region.

Mr. Meyers probably has as wide a circle of friends as any other man we could name, because he is just naturally the kind of individual who makes friends with almost everyone, and always conducts himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and good will of all who know him. Lubbock is fortunate in being able to number among its more progressive citizens, men of this type.

He is always ready and willing to lend his support to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit this entire district.

He may be depended upon, and his services to the motorist public are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that we consider "Bud" Meyers an asset to his community, and a dependable business man of whom the city may be proud.

Jasper G. Moyers

It is a well-known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work; whether in business or professional activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize him, certain qualities over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is Jasper G. Moyers, a leader in the business life of this section of the South Plains.

In addition to being one of the district's more dependable dry wall contractors, Mr. Moyers was never a man to shirk his civic duties. More than that, he enters cheerfully, and with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has found time to take a part. And seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

Jasper Moyers deserves his share of credit for being one of those progressive citizens of Lubbock who has contributed so substantially to the on-ward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

Charles And Marguerite Harden

It is gratifying to include Charles T. and Marguerite Harden of Harden's Flowers, in this review of progressive and civic-minded people of Lubbock.

Aside from their success in business they have always evidenced a willingness to take part in some manner in those activities which will promote the growth and progress of the city, and the surrounding metropolitan trade area.

The Harden's are florists who literally and figuratively know their business from the ground up. This knowledge, plus their artistic ability, and ideals of service have made them two of the more popular florists in Lubbock. All of which combined with their sound and upright business principles are sure to keep them in the public's favor.

Marguerite and Charles Harden's integrity, responsibility and a thorough knowledge of the business gained through long experience, will always keep them in the forefront in their particular vocations. It is a pleasure to compliment them for their many successes.

MARLIN P. J. MINTER

One of the more progressive electrical engineers of Lubbock, and one who deserves the respect and good will of a great many residents of the city is capable, friendly, Marlin P. J. Minter of Minter's, whose wide knowledge and long experience in small appliances repair, electric shavers, re-designing of lighting fixtures, electric train sets sales and service, has brought him into a position of prominence in his vocation.

Minter's is a factory authorized service center for thirty three national manufacturers whereby small appliances may be serviced within their guarantee period, or otherwise, rather than ship them back and forth from the particular manufacturer.

Mr. Minter is also civic-minded, and has always been ready to contribute his time and energy to any plan which promises to benefit this entire district.

We urge our readers to look to P. J. Minter as a progressive business man of whom we may well be proud. His devotion to the city has been constant, and his achievements well merited. We wish for him further success.

ROLAND E. PONCE JR.

In singling out some of the more progressive business men of Lubbock, we would be censured should we fail to include

Roland E. Ponce Jr., of Petland. He is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and civic activities of the city.

Mr. Ponce has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail those opportunities which come to his attention to further civic enterprise. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

Roland Ponce Jr., deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has conducted his business affairs. He is a friendly and likeable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for him a host of personal friends and satisfied customers throughout the South Plains area who would, if given the opportunity, join us in wishing him many more years of continued success.

JACK MEDLOCK

Recognized as an authority on all concrete contracting problems, Jack Medlock, well known and completely reliable contractor, has turned his knowledge to the advantage of the people of Lubbock and vicinity. More than that, Mr. Medlock has always been vitally interested in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interest by lending assistance, in one form or another, to the successful promotion of many things which have benefited the community as a whole. Lubbock owes much to such men for their part in making the city the business center of this area.

He has always been alert to the many opportunities for service, and more than ready to recognize and accept his share of civic responsibilities.

Because of these things, Jack Medlock has become accepted as a progressive business man who is an asset to both the business and industrial life of this region, and we trust he will continue to serve the people of Lubbock and the surrounding area in his present capacity for many years.

BILL H. PORTER

The Hub City has assumed its place of importance in this section of the South Plains because of the efforts of far-seeing business men who have helped in developing its industry, or in some manner, extended the trade advantages of the locality. One of those who has taken an important part in many progressive movements is Bill H. Porter, wholesale distributor for Mobil Petroleum Products.

Mr. Porter has devoted his share of time and energy to the growth and development of Lubbock and this district, and it is fitting at this time that we attempt to express in a small way, our appreciation for his unselfish contributions to the general welfare of the community.

He is a man of wide acquaintance, whose many friends and dealers admire and respect in him, those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feeling. His upright business methods are but an outward reflection of his inherent appreciation for fair practices. We congratulate Bill Porter on his splendid record of service, and wish him continued success.

J. E. PORTWOOD

J. E. Portwood, manager of the Associates Investment Loan Company, has a well-earned reputation for honesty and capability because he has consistently forged ahead in his business, never letting up in his efforts to make the service his company renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made the Associates Investment Loan Company outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout the Lubbock area.

But Mr. Portwood has accomplished much more than just making a success of his business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him for devoting what time he could spare to the general welfare, not only to the city, but this entire district as well.

It is such men as he, who are both successful in business, and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving J. E. Portwood the credit for his accomplishments which his many friends and associates have so long accorded him.

O. B. SOUTHARD

It is fitting in this review of conscientious Lubbock business men that we acquaint our readers with the man to be credited with having maintained the Midwest Reproduction Company in the enviable position it holds in the business life of this area. That personality is O. B. Southard, whose genius for organization, and for converting new ideas into actual deeds, has played a vital part in the distinutive reputation which this reliable company now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Abernathy (Texas) Weekly Review Thursday, Nov. 25, 1965

Mr. Southard has found time, in addition to his business interests, to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the Hub City. He has been successful in his own business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him, and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which O. B. Southard and the Midwest Reproduction Company have rendered to this section of the South Plains.

Dorothy McDonald

It isn't the size or volume of a person's business which determines its value to the community in which they live. But rather by the manner in which it is conducted which, to a greater or lesser degree, reflects the personality and character of the individual. The value of Dorothy McDonald's business to the Hub City is a reflection of her progressiveness, and a determination to render the utmost in service, a policy which has caused Modern Massage & Steam Baths to be so well thought of, and so widely patronized by the people of Lubbock and the surrounding area.

That same dependability and honesty which has made her so successful in her own business has also fitted Mrs. McDonald to be of assistance on community projects and public service. Moreover, she does so cheerfully, and with a friendly spirit of cooperation that is always more than welcome.

It is a pleasure to include Dorothy McDonald in this Lubbock review, and to wish her further success in her field of endeavor.

C. T. FLEWELLEN

Logically, a man who has earned the reputation of being one of Lubbock's more dependable cotton buyers would in so doing, have earned the friendship and good will of many people throughout this entire district. And one who justly deserves that distinction is—modest, efficient, friendly, C. T. Flewellen, who numbers many of our readers as some of his closest friends and business associates.

Mr. Flewellen is the type of man who would be an asset to any community; not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to his city and this district lies in the fact that he is untiringly zealous, and remarkably successful in the promotion of civic progress.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of such a man to his community. We congratulate the people of Lubbock for numbering among their more progressive citizens such a man as C. T. Flewellen, and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

S. B. CAMPBELL JR.

In compiling this review of progressive Lubbock business men, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Such a man is S. B. Campbell Jr., of the S. B. Campbell Jr. Truck Yard, Trucking & Wholesale Company, who is well known, and has many friends and business associations throughout this entire district.

Mr. Campbell's main interests have not been solely confined to his own business and private affairs, but have also included his contributions, in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of his activities.

S. B. Campbell Jr., is a man of wide experience, whose exploits in the business life of Lubbock and vicinity, merits more than a passing attention, and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to a man who well deserves more credit than is accorded him here.

Fred H. Childress And R. A. Jay

Due to the efforts of a group of wide-awake business men, the city of Lubbock has attained a dominant position in the business and commercial life of this section of West Texas. And two of those who have justly earned credit for being progressive members of that group are Fred H. Childress and R. A. Jay of the Fred Childress Hardware Company Incorporated.

It is because of the successful operations of such a business of theirs that the Hub City has earned the reputation of being one of the more progressive communities in the Lone Star State.

Mr. Childress and Mr. Jay have been conspicuously successful in spite of the fact that they have repeatedly neglected their own private affairs to devote a part of their time and efforts to the successful promotion of civic projects.

It is considered a privilege to include Fred Childress and R. A. Jay in this Lubbock review, and to publicly give them due credit for their success in business, and for their many contributions to the general welfare of this region.

Mrs. Flo Wigham of Petersburg has re-opened Flo's Steak House Safe on the Lakeview Gin Lot on FM 400 south of FM 54. Mrs. Wigham hopes her luck is a little better this ginning season. Last fall, her cafe was burglarized twice during the 1964 ginning run.

Attention, AHS & NDHS Seniors

Are you one of the many young people who will be graduating this spring, and as yet, have not chosen your future career? If your answer is "yes", my next question is: Would you be interested in making aviation your career?

Aviation today is one of our country's most important industries in which the average annual income is between $8,000.00 and $28,000.00.

There are a large number of pilots retiring now who were trained and have been flying since WWII. You can pick up any Airline Publication or flying magazine and read about the alarming shortage of pilots today.

You can contact any number of Airlines and ask them what their qualifications are, and 99 per cent of them will give you the same answer.

Required

Education — High School graduate
Age — 19-30 years old
Physical condition — Excellent

Vision — 20-20 (if glasses are worn—vision corrected to 20-20.
Ratings — Private license—(commercial license desired).

If you can meet the above requirements, except the pilot ratings, and are interested in making your career in the air, with an above average income, then you are one of the people with the foresight that we would like to train.

Abernathy Municipal Airport is now an F. A. A. approved Flying School, which offers instruction at $2.00 an hour cheaper than any school in the Lubbock or Amarillo area, which will result in a tremendous savings. We also have a 30 hour ground school, at a reduced rate, that will well prepare you for your F. A. A. written exam.

Why more motorists switch to the Tiger when it gets cold.

Many cars that ran just fine all summer get into trouble when ear-muff time rolls around—stalling at stoplights and coughing and chugging halfway into town. additive to help guard against icing. Result: easier starting, faster warm-up and a lot less worry about stalling.

You'll like the way new Enco Extra behaves on the open road, too. It's the High-energy gasoline with the: (1) cleaning power; (2) firing power; (3) octane power to help preserve the performance of new

TEEN-AGE MARRIAGES CONTINUE TO INCREASE

COLLEGE STATION — The number of teen-age marriages continues to rise in Texas, says Mrs. Patsy R. Yates, Texas A&M University Extension specialist in family life education.

A recent study conducted by the West Texas Study Council in high schools across the state indicates that only four of the 238 schools studied require married students to take a course in home and family education. Sixty-one of these schools had available an elective course in home and family life which either boys or girls might take, Mrs. Yates says.

Some counties in the state report as many divorces granted as marriages performed, the study showed.

"More courses in the art of living are definitely needed," Mrs. Yates emphasizes.

Mrs. Yates, who was on the program at the annual American Home Economics Association convention earlier this year, reports that the national organization has compiled selected papers from the annual meeting which relate to educating the teen-ager in human relations and management of resources.

The booklet includes "What We Know about Today's Teen-Agers" by Dr. Melvin Heller, associate professor of psychiatry at Temple University, and 17 other papers that relate home economics subject matter to the education of adolescents. People who work with teen-agers will find this information helpful in developing programs, says Mrs. Yates.

Hurry ! Hurry ! Get Your Slurry !

Slurry, the newest fertilizer in this area on the market, is the greatest fertilizer advancement since anhydrous ammonia.

Not only is Slurry the newest fertilizer product available here, we feel it is also the best fertilizer bargain on the market. It eliminates the need for dry fertilizers as it has an available source of 16 lbs. of useable phosphate per 100 lbs. of fertilizer plus 8 lbs of nitrogen and all the trace elements which your crops and soil need!

Thus, when Slurry is applied to your crops at the recommended rate of 300 pounds per acre, you have 48 pounds of usable Phosphate plus a portion of the needed Nitrogen, and all the trace elements, at a price which is considerably less than this combination can be obtained anywhere else. The best time to have Slurry applied is in the fall. However, it also works well when applied in the winter and spring.

When you plan your fertilizer program for next year, let us talk with you about Slurry.

Leaf Rust In Wheat

Wheat, like many other plants, says County Agent, Ollie Liner, is subject to disease. Many Hale County farmers have noticed their wheat fields turning yellow. After close inspection of several of these fields, Liner has reported that this yellowing is caused by leaf rust.

As to the extent of the damage that it will do, the Agent stated that no one can tell but leaf rust usually leaves the plant in a weakened condition causing it to lose its leaves and causing the roots to be weakened and thus winter killing would be much easier.

Leaf rust of wheat, like all other rusts, is caused by a very small parasitic fungus that enters the wheat plant through its breathing pores. Leaf rust appears on the wheat plant as small, reddish-orange pustules. They may be present on either side of the leaf but usually do not penetrate through the leaf, in contrast to stem rust pustules which are larger with frayed edges and often extend through the leaf. Optimum temperature for spreading is from

Transfer Rules Are Explained

Details regarding the transfer of upland cotton allotments were released today by E. J. Pope, Jr., Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Hale County Committee. A vote on whether to permit transfer of allotments outside the county (but within the State) will be held on Tuesday, November 23, at the same time that growers vote on marketing quotas for the 1966 upland cotton crop.

The Chairman emphasized that the referendum on allotment - transfers has nothing to do with marketing quotas.

Under the new farm legislation enacted this year, transfers of upland cotton allotments by sale or lease may be made from one farm to another within the same county without regard to the outcome of the allotment - transfer referendum. Also, transfers from one farm to another owned by the same person can be made across county lines within the State without regard to the outcome of the transfer referendum.

The referendum on transfers of allotments will decide only the question of whether to permit transfers outside the particular county—but within the State. If at least two-thirds of the growers of upland cotton voting in the county approve such transfers, transfers outside the county can be made during the three years (1966-68). In no case can transfers be made outside the State. If county farmers disapprove such out-of-county transfers this year, another referendum on the question will be held next year.

The question about permitting out-of-county transfers of allotments will be decided by the vote within each county. The question about whether marketing quotas shall apply to the 1966 upland cotton crop will be decided on a national basis.

If at least two-thirds of the upland cotton growers voting throughout the Nation approve marketing quotas for the 1966 upland cotton crop, the quotas will be in effect and marketing penalties will apply to any excess cotton produced. Approval of quotas will also mean that the new cotton program will go into operation, offering various program benefits to participat-

Sand can't get through to destroy vital pump bearings when you sink a Jacuzzi lineshaft turbine with optional grease-packed bowls. These exclusive, patented Jacuzzi bowls were designed just for Sand Country. They seal out sand completely and actually extend the life of a pump 15 to 20 times. It means you can now set your pump and forget it, confident it won't breakdown during the times you need water and need it fast. And consider the money you'll save in fewer repairs and new pump purchases. These are the reasons Jacuzzi engineers developed the exclusive grease-packed bowl. Aren't they pretty good reasons you should ask for Jacuzzi lineshaft turbines with optional grease-packed bowls soon?
