Chosen new director...

Diamond M board names von Roeder

Max von Roeder, county businessman and civic leader, has been named as the new director on the Diamond M Foundation board.

His appointment was announced Thursday by Evelyn McLaughlin Davies, foundation president. "We are very pleased that Mr. von Roeder has accepted the position of director and look forward to many years of association which will be beneficial to the foundation," she said.

Von Roeder is the owner of Von Roeder Seed Farms and, with his wife Anne, is a lifelong resident of Scurry and Borden Counties.

He is a lay leader of Trinity United Methodist Church and a member of the board of directors for Snyder National Bank. He recently completed a term as Lions Club district governor for District 2-T2.

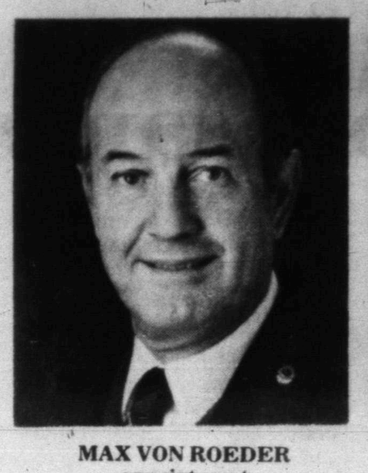

In the past years, he has served the community as a member of the Snyder school board, president of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce and president of the Scurry County Fair Association.

Other foundation board members are J. Mark McLaughlin, San Angelo; Ruth Riddle, Paris; Jean Kahle, Fort Worth; and Snyder residents John Jarrell and Jay Huckabee.

On the Diamond M board, Von Roeder replaces former District Judge Wayland G. Holt, who passed away June 18 after a lengthy illness.

The principal activity of the Diamond M Foundation is the operation of the Diamond M Museum of Fine Art, based on the collection of the late Mr. and Mrs. C.T. McLaughlin.

The museum, located at 911 25th St., is open, at no charge, Tuesdays through Fridays and on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Testimony resumes...

Shultz kept in the dark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary State George P. Shultz testified today that other Reagan administration officials kept him in the dark about key events in the Iran-Contra affair, and said he was "sick to my stomach" when he learned some of the details.

In riveting testimony at nationally televised congressional hearings, Shultz said he first learned that the United States had sold weapons directly to Iran when he read about it in news reports published many months after the transaction took place. He said he wasn't told that President Reagan authorized any sales until about a year after the formal papers were signed.

Shultz said that it wasn't until he relayed some disturbing information involving Middle East terrorists to Reagan at a private White House meeting last December that "I finally felt that the president deeply understands that something is radically wrong here."

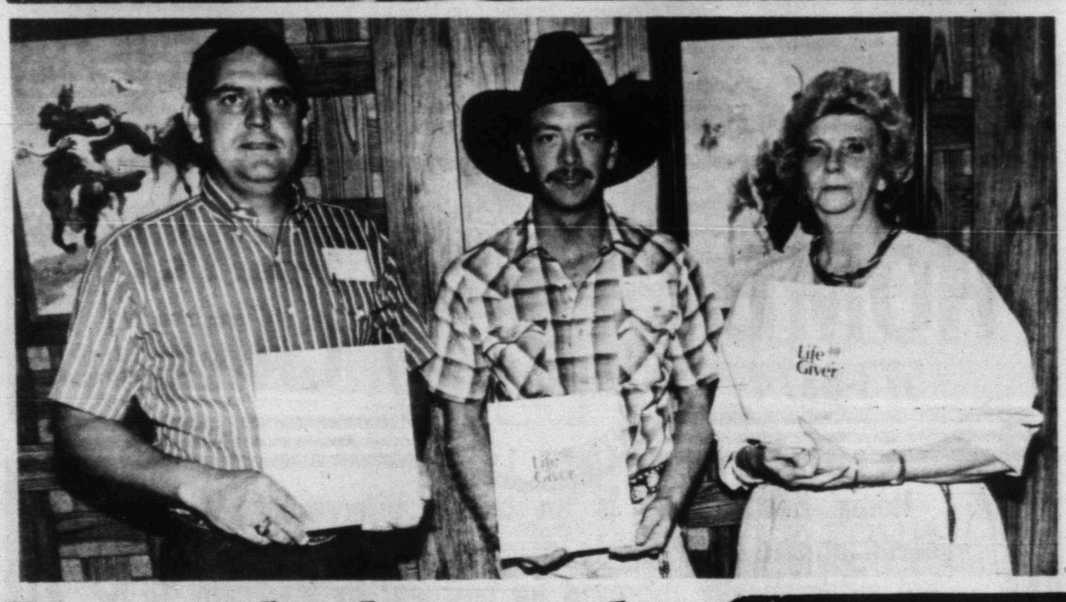

Shultz spoke in a somber voice that belied the astonishing nature of his testimony, but he occasionally allowed a wry sense of humor to show through.

Several plaques and certificates in recognition for assistance with blood drives during the past year were handed out following the buffet meal. In addition, Dr. Howell presented Sallie Tate, outgoing president, with a gold plated bowl.

It was also noted that since May of 1986 some 1,287 units of blood have been drawn in Scurry County.

The following entities received plaques: Coca Cola Bottling Co., Dr Pepper-Pepsi Bottling Co.,

Bogus ad sales noted for student program

An individual has been selling football program ads in the community falsely portraying himself as a representative of the Snyder High School student council, says the president of that student group.

Reports indicate four local businesses have been taken in by the individual, described as a male adult.

According to Christi Comer, president of the SHS student council, only high school students will be selling the ads which go into the football programs for Snyder Tiger home games.

She noted the individual has portrayed himself also as an ad salesman for the District 2-AAAA football book which comes out at the beginning of the season.

This book is sold by the athletic departments of the respective district schools and the individual in question is also not affiliated with its publication, Comer said.

She added that student council members are now selling ads for the home game programs. They will be carrying a permission slip

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Some folks have minds like a steel trap--rusted and closed."

We've know the man for almost 11 years, but the past 18 months has provided us a unique opportunity to "really know" Keith Collier.

The Scurry County Sheriff this week was awarded the highest honor given by the Sheriff's Association of Texas--the coveted Tom Tellepsen award during the association's annual meeting in Fort Worth.

It is a singularly important honor for Collier who has been Scurry County's chief law enforcement officer since 1965. Collier's award brings Snyder and Scurry County positive state-wide recognition as an area that respects quality law enforcement.

When we learned several weeks ago that Collier had been nominated, we thought it was a natural. Those who have worked closely with him in law enforcement for 26 years already knew what we've recently learned.

During the past 18 months that Snyder citizens have been working to secure a prison, we've been able to watch and appreciate Collier's unique style.

He's quiet and he's low-key, but he's intense and he's dedicated. Collier takes a stand, and he took a stand to support the Snyder prison effort long before it was evident that the project would be a popular cause here.

In fact, we give Collier much credit for mustering citizen support. In making presentations to various groups across the county, Collier was able to answer questions and dispell fears.

Another thing that impresses us about Collier's interest in the prison is there's nothing in it for him--except his love for the community. He's often stated in reference to the need for economic stimulation, "I just hate to see Snyder dry up and blow away."

We've made numerous trips to Austin, Huntsville and Wichita Falls with Collier, and his passion for helping Snyder becomes evident.

In fact his intensity for getting the job done almost got Collier, M. L. Duke, Miller Robinson and myself arrested for jaywalking in downtown Austin.

But not even jaywalking can keep Sheriff Collier from walking tall--among his colleagues, his fellow citizens and his friends. Snyder is proud he's our sheriff.

Creditors said unsatisfied

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A bankruptcy hearing in a movie theater answered some questions about PTL's plans for recovery, but thousands of people who gave the TV ministry $1,000 to become "lifetime" partners must await the sequel.

Some of the contributors who attended Wednesday's creditors committee meeting came away unsatisfied with the answers of PTL chief operating officer Harry Hargrave, who revised the ministry's debt down $4 million to $68 million and rejected selling off PTL land or other assets to repay that.

"He didn't tell us anything," said Barbara Zanesky, a contributor whose husband, Bob, is an attorney representing 250 big-money contributors whose donations helped build some of the evangelical empire's biggest holdings.

The six-hour meeting marked the first time creditors had a chance to question ministry officials. The normally routine court procedure was moved to a theater to handle the crowd of some 150 creditors and spectators.

PTL filed June 12 for protection from some 1,400 people or businesses it owed money.

PTL's reorganization is complicated by the claims of 120,000 to 160,000 "lifetime partners" who say their $1,000 contributions make them either creditors or owners of two hotels and a water park at Heritage USA, PTL's Christian theme park in Fort Mill.

Hargrave repeated the ministry's position that the lifetime partners have no legal right to the property but said "morally we don't think it's right" to leave the contributors with nothing.

He said the contributors are the lifeline of the ministry and need to be dealt with fairly, but he could not answer specific questions on a compensation plan until it is completed in two to three weeks.

Hargrave also revealed that Richard Dortch, a former aide to PTL founder Jim Bakker, wasn't taken off the payroll until Tuesday. Rather, he was retained as a $13,500-a-month consultant, Hargrave said.

The Rev. Jerry Falwell, who took over PTL in March after Bakker's downfall in a sex scandal with a former church secretary, said in April that Dortch was asked to resign as president and board member.

That announcement came after it was disclosed that Dortch had arranged the payment of hush money to the former church secretary, Jessica Hahn. Shortly before Falwell's announcement, Dortch told viewers of "The PTL Club" TV program that he was giving up his salary for a year.

Causes of heart failure

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My mother died recently of congestive heart failure. What is this? Is it inherited? Could her years of smoking have contributed to her untimely death at age 59?

DEAR READER — When the heart beats ineffectively, excess fluid is trapped in the body and builds up in tissues. This causes lung congestion, liver enlargement, ankle and leg edema (swelling) and general fluid overload. Most people who die from congestive heart failure suffocate because lung fluid replaces air and they cannot breathe.

Congestive heart failure is not hereditary. However, certain forms of heart disease — such as coronary artery disease — appear to be hereditary. These forms of heart disease can lead to heart failure. Cigarette smoking is associated with heart disease; it contributes to heart failure. Therefore your mother's smoking certainly could have contributed to her early death.

In many cases, congestive heart failure is treatable and controllable with certain medicines or, in some instances, with surgery. However, such patients must stop smoking, lose weight, reduce salt intake and take treatment for associated diseases, such as hypertension and excess blood cholesterol.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My son, 2, had two febrile seizures, both due to ear infections. The doctors say that if he gets another seizure, they will put him on phenobarbital until he's 5. Is this necessary?

DEAR READER — Some children appear to be particularly susceptible to febrile convulsions, seizures during high fevers. Because convulsions can be harmful to young children, the pediatrician is probably correct in suggesting that your son may have to take anti-seizure medicine, such as phenobarbital, if he has another convulsion.

However, an alternative option might be to treat his future fevers aggressively — for example, using acetominophen to keep the fever under control. I've found that the febrile convulsions experienced by some children can be prevented by treating the fever rather than the seizure tendency. Ask your doctor about this.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I was wounded in Vietnam and had shell fragments in the abdomen. I had a repair of the small intestine and sigmoid colon. My weight climbed 50 pounds. Is the weight gain related to my injury?

DEAR READER — Your war injury is an unlikely cause of your weight gain. Intestinal wounds more commonly produce weight loss. You have gained weight because you are consuming more calories than you are burning for energy. Cut down on your calorie intake if you want to lose weight. If you cannot control your weight by prudent dieting, check with your doctor for an examination and more specific advice.

To give you more information, I'm sending you a free copy of my Health Report, WEIGHT CONTROL THROUGH CALORIE CONTROL. Others who want a copy should send $1 and their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) There's a payoff in the offing for being observant today. What you learn from studying the experiences of another can be beneficially applied to your own circumstances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Conditions are reversed from those you experienced yesterday. You'll now be the one who will gain the advantage from situations where others have done the spade work.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Harmony of purpose will prevail today in an arrangement that has been a trifle testy lately. With both minds operating on the same track, the results will now be desirable.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Your productivity will be enormously enhanced today if you treat all your tasks, be they large or small, as labors of love. Try it and see.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Any flirtation on your behalf will be taken seriously by the object of your intentions today. Keep this in mind before winking at a stranger.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You will derive considerable satisfaction today from doing for people you love things that you have observed they cannot do for themselves.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Someone who loves you is equally anxious to know how much you love him or her. Express how you feel in as endearing terms as possible.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) The financial means to acquire something nice you've been wanting for yourself looks like it can be worked out at this time. Focus on your desires.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your assertiveness will be very pronounced today, and it can be effectively used if you mask your motives with kindness. Give, as well as get.

Walking benefits

NEW YORK (AP) — Walking may have replaced jogging as the "newest exercising trend," according to Health Magazine.

Evidence claims that walking burns as many calories as running, with little risk of injury; that it burns fat, lowers blood pressure, increases bone density and lowers cholesterol levels.

For those who remain skeptical, it says, consider that walking for 30 minutes at 5 mph will burn between 125 and 130 calories, while running the same distance burns only 120 calories. But note, the magazine says, that the normal walking pace is 3 mph.

Women relocating families

NEW YORK (AP) — Studies show the days of the devoted wife following her husband from city to city as he climbs the corporate ladder may not be over — but the days of the devoted husband following his wife in the same manner have definitely begun.

"My husband and I have a joke," says Lanell Clayton, a clinical director who relocated with her husband from Slidell, La., to Amarillo, Tex. "I followed him for 30 years and he will now follow me for the next 30 years."

"My friends didn't understand why I'd want to make a move," Mrs. Clayton said. "It's a great risk. I did it strictly for me. I have never done anything like this before."

Mark Brunkhorst, national operations representative for Dunhill Personnel System, says women are now making the same kind of career choices that men have always made — "including deciding whether or not to take a superior postion at a corporation in another city or state to better their career."

Dunhill Personnel System, based on Long Island, N.Y., is an international personnel recruiting firm that specializes in executive and relocation placements.

Brunkhorst says: "The main difference between the women and men we relocate is that women have more of a desire to balance family, cultural, social and career concerns while considering their career objectives."

Married women say having a supportive husband is a "must" when making the decision to relocate.

However, not every woman who relocates is married.

Lo and behold, North raised to three spades, inviting game. Now what? It's true South had little enough in high cards, but he did have good shape. It's also true that North heard his partner pass originally, so North had to have quite a good hand to invite game. Finally, whenever you have a distributional hand with a void and your partner has a fit in your suit, you will take a lot of tricks. So South bid the game. Because of the favorable location of the A-Q of hearts, declarer made his contract with an overtrick. He didn't even need dummy's king of diamonds.

Lesson: The right time to overbid is when you have a good suit fit and either you or your partner has a freakish distributional hand. Here, if North had more strength in diamonds and weaker hearts, South might have no play at all for game. Since there was no way of determining exactly where North had his values, South was right to go to game.

The right time for an overbid

How in the world can you know when the time is ripe to bid a close game on sparse values? South had an easy pass in first position with his eight high-card points. He had a fair distributional hand, but nothing approaching an opening bid. When West's opening bid of one no-trump came back around to South, it was dangerous for him to bid, but it was also dangerous to pass. (It's not good bridge to let the opponents make one no-trump when your side can make two of a major.) So our intrepid South stepped up to the plate and bid two spades.

"BUT, JOEY, WE CAN'T PLAY HIDE-'N-SEEK HERE WITHOUT GETTING DROWNED!"

McGwire shines once again; Rangers locate victory, too

by The Associated Press

Mark McGwire had four hits, including his major league-leading 36th home run, to lead the Athletics to a 10-1 rout of the Detroit Tigers.

Dennis Lamp, 1-0, making his second start of the season, struck out two and walked one before needing relief help in the sixth. Bill Caudill, the third Oakland pitcher, gave up the Tigers' only run, a homer by Matt Nokes in the eighth, his 21st.

In other American League games, it was Seattle 2, Milwaukee 1; California 6, Boston 5; Minnesota 3, New York 1; Baltimore 10, Chicago 5; Kansas City 5, Cleveland 1, and Texas 5, Toronto 3.

Rangers 5, Blue Jays 3

Texas broke an eighth-inning tie with two runs on five walks, including two with the bases loaded by reliever Mark Eichorn, to beat Toronto.

Reliever Jeff Russell, 3-1, earned the victory with 1 1-3 scoreless innings in relief of starter Bobby Witt. Dale Mohorcic got the last two outs for his 13th save.

The two runs that were scored in the eighth were put on base by Gary Lavelle, 1-2, although Eichhorn came in and issued three consecutive walks that pushed the runners across.

Mariners 2, Brewers 1

Mark Langston pitched a four-hitter and Rey Quinones singled in the go-ahead run in the seventh inning to lead Seattle over Milwaukee.

Langston, 11-9, struck out seven to increase his American League-leading total to 159.

Ken Phelps, 8-9, took the loss.

Angels 6, Red Sox 5

Brian Downing and George Hendrick knocked in two runs apiece as California built a five-run lead and withstood a comeback by Boston.

Winner Mike Witt, 12-6, gave up Jim Rice's 10th homer leading off the sixth, then was shelled in a three-run seventh.

Boston starter Dennis 'Oil Can" Boyd, 1-3, was loser.

Twins 3, Yankees 1

Kent Hrbek and Kirby Puckett homered and Frank Viola pitched four-hit ball over eight innings as Minnesota defeated New York in a matchup of division leaders.

Viola, 10-6, struck out six and walked two. He is now 8-1 in his last 12 starts with a 1.85 earned run average.

Losing pitcher was Rick Rhoden, 12-6.

Orioles 10, White Sox 5

Larry Sheets hit a pair of two-run singles and Ken Gerhart hit two solo homers as Baltimore beat Chicago for the Orioles' eighth straight victory.

Harold Baines hit his 155th career homer to set a White Sox record.

John Habyan, 2-3, relieved starter Mike Boddicker in the third inning and pitched 6 2-3 scoreless innings for the victory, retiring the last 19 batters in a row.

Royals 5, Indians 1

Jim Eisenreich, continuing his comeback against a rare nervous disorder, drove in two runs to pace Kansas City over Cleveland.

The former Minnesota outfielder singled home two runs in the fifth inning as the Royals won for only the third time in 14 games. Eisenreich, who left baseball in 1984 because of Tourette's Syndrome, a neurological condition that causes uncontrolled twitching, also walked and doubled.

Mark Gubicza gave up eight hits, struck out eight and walked five to raise his record to 8-9 with his fifth complete game of the season, a career high. Darrel Akerfelds, 0-1, was a loser in his first major league start.

Stars meet Clyde tonight

HAMLIN – Hamlin has been pretty good to Snyder so far, and the Little League All-Stars hope the hospitality continues as they try to wrap up their best-of-three series with Clyde here tonight.

Snyder, undefeated at the Area level here last week, bruised Clyde 17-1 Tuesday on a fine three-hit pitching performance by Raymond House. The Stars can take the series crown with a victory in this evening's 7:30 contest.

Should Clyde win, the teams would meet again at 7:30 p.m. here Friday.

The winner of the series advances to play Albany next week in Abilene. Also involved in that round of the playoffs will be Abilene Dixie.

Community supper at Ira

IRA – The Ira Booster Club has planned a community hamburger supper for Tuesday, July 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

All students and parents are urged to attend and meet new boy's coach Don Jones and new girl's coach Steve Howard.

Tickets for the supper are $2 at the door, or free with a paid Booster Club membership of $2.

Also discussed at a recent meeting was finalizing plans for a booster club workday, set for Saturday, Aug. 1, to sandblast and repaint the bleachers and concession stand.

The club also plans to purchase a new video camera for use in elementary and high school activities. Funds will be raised through sales of individual and business memberships. Anyone needing further information should call (915) 573-6733, 573-7746, or contact any booster member.

Clark dedicates winning hit to former pitcher McMahon

by The Associated Press

After Jack Clark hit a two-run homer in the ninth inning to beat Los Angeles, he wasn't thinking about winning or losing.

Before Wednesday night's game, former major league pitcher Don McMahon, who served as a special assignment scout for the Dodgers for the past two years, died of a heart attack while pitching batting practice. He was 57.

The crowd of 33,665 at Dodger Stadium observed a moment of silence as a tribute to McMahon shortly before the game's first pitch and Clark dedicated his homer that gave St. Louis a 3-1 victory over Los Angeles to McMahon.

"It was tough under the circumstances, I played with him (McMahon) for six years," Clark said. "He was a good man and a friend. It's a tough situation. I want to dedicate the home run to him and his family."

Clark lined a 2-2 pitch from Bob Welch, 9-6, into the left-field seats for his 29th homer and 90th and 91st RBIs.

Elsewhere in the NL, Chicago beat San Diego 6-3, New York edged Atlanta 4-3, Houston blanked Montreal 7-0, Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 5-3 and Pittsburgh shut out San Francisco 4-0.

Astros 7, Expos 0

Mike Scott pitched a four-hitter, struck out 10 and drove in a run as Houston defeated Montreal at Olympic Stadium.

Scott, 11-6, increased his major league-leading strikeout total to 165 en route to his third shutout and fifth complete game.

Bill Doran had three hits, including a two-run homer for Houston.

Cubs 6, Padres 3

It was a night of milestones for Chicago. Rick Sutcliffe won the 100th game of his career and Andre Dawson hit his 250th lifetime homer as the Cubs beat host San Diego.

Keith Moreland added his 100th career homer as the Cubs snapped a four-game losing streak.

Phillies 5, Reds 3

Juan Samuel hit his 19th home run, tying his career high, and drove in two runs as Philadelphia beat visiting Cincinnati.

Shane Rawley, 12-5, pitched 6 1-3 innings, allowing three runs for his fourth straight victory. Kent Tekulve and Steve Bedrosian relieved with Bedrosian earning his league-leading 27th save.

Tom Browning, 5-8, pitched five innings and allowed five runs and nine hits.

Mets 4, Braves 3

Lee Mazzilli's pinch RBI single capped a four-run sixth inning as New York rallied to beat Atlanta at Shea Stadium.

Ron Darling, 5-7, won his third game in his last four decisions. Roger McDowell pitched three scoreless innings for his 12th save.

Pirates 4, Giants 0

Rick Reuschel pitched a five-hitter for his 23rd career shutout as Pittsburgh took two of three games at Candlestick Park.

Reuschel, 8-4, lowered his earned run average to 2.19, best among major league starting pitchers.

Olympic Festival

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - The North and West surprised their opponents from the South with the kind of basketball they hadn't played for most of the U.S. Olympic Festival and won gold medals.

Terry Mills of Michigan scored 15 points as the North used hot shooting outside and power on the inside in beating the South 88-73. A passive approach off the court and an intense one on it helped the West women take the South 68-53.

In volleyball, the South overcame a 5-0 deficit in the fifth game and won the gold medal with an 8-15, 15-12, 7-15, 15-4, 15-11 victory over the East.

Mike Moore's three-run double in the eighth inning broke a 2-2 tie and lifted the North to the gold medal in baseball, 5-2 over the South.

Sean O'Neill won his third gold medal in this year's table tennis competition, taking his fourth straight men's singles title. He also won the doubles and team gold as a member of the South squad and has 10 festival medals overall.

Former Cowboy running back...

Thomas is back - to write

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) - Duane Thomas, an outspoken running back who failed in his attempt to return to the Dallas Cowboys in 1976, will be on hand for each game this season - this time in the stands.

Thomas says he's been given a six-figure advance to write a book about the National Football League franchise that he led to two Super Bowl appearances.

He appears to have mended fences with Coach Tom Landry, whom he once dubbed "a plastic man, not a man at all," and owner Tex Schramm, whom Thomas called "sick, demented and totally dishonest."

Thomas - a key member of the 1970 team that lost Super Bowl V to Baltimore and the one that came back the next year to defeat Miami, 24-3, in Super Bowl VI - joked with Schramm and ate lunch with Landry at the Cowboys training camp this week.

"This will not be a fictional format," Thomas said. "It will not be a book that is slinging mud around or pointing fingers. It will be one that is uplifting and one that is informative. But it will be the truth."

Now 40, Thomas said the book will cover the path he and the Cowboys have taken since they were together in the early '70s. He is collaborating with Paul Zimmerman of Sports Illustrated.

Schramm and Landry say they've forgiven Thomas.

"We get along very well," Landry said.

"I've had a very nice relationship with him since then," Schramm said. "To me, it was nice seeing him and very comfortable and everything, talking to him.

"The Duane Thomas story is a sad one. It's nothing you get mad about. I might have had a few temper tiffs at the time, but it was never really a bitter type of situation. There was just something wrong," Schramm said.

Thomas, the Cowboys No. 1 pick out of West Texas State in 1970, was a sensational rookie his first year with the team and rushed 1,596 yards in his first two seasons.

In 1971, he skipped the preseason in a contract dispute and didn't report until just before the season opener. For an entire season, he refused to talk to the press and only on the rarest occasions to teammates. Only after Dallas had won its first Super Bowl did Thomas finally talk, and his conversation with CBS' Thomas Brookshire is now part of broadcast history.

Brookshire stammered through a long-winded question that finally ended up something like: "Duane, you don't look that fast the way you run, but then you're able to outrun the defensive players. Are you really that fast?"

Thomas' reply: "Evidently."

End of interview.

Thomas' time in the fast lane had just about run out. After Superbowl VI he would never again carry the ball for the Cowboys, and his time with San Diego and Washington was not memorable.

He lambasted Landry and Schramm at a Dallas news conference in 1972 after a contract hassle led to his being traded first to New England, then, after that fell through, to San Diego.

He bounced around for a while, winding up in Washington, where he scored a touchdown against the Cowboys. He tried to make a comeback with the Cowboys in 1976, failed and retired.

Dear Abby

Teasing Husband's Wife Says Oldies Aren't Always Goodies

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1987 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: My husband loves to tease me. He has two favorites he uses all the time. I know he's teasing, and he assures me that everyone else knows he's teasing, but I still feel uncomfortable when he repeats these old "standards." Furthermore, I dislike the implications in his statements.

He often says, "I'd like to die in bed getting shot by a jealous husband." And if another man pays too much attention to me, he'll ask him, "Are you trying to steal my wife, you horse thief?"

Everyone laughs, and I always smile and try to act amused, even though one of his little jokes assumes sexual activity in another woman's bed, and the other calls me a "horse."

I've asked him to please stop teasing me that way, but he keeps it up. Should I continue to smile and act like I don't care? Or can you give me a snappy retort I can use to retaliate?

HURT IN HOPATCONG, N.J.

DEAR HURT: Forget the "snappy retort," and don't smile and act amused when he tries to get a laugh at your expense.

When he's in a good mood, and you have plenty of time and his full attention, tell him that he hurts you deeply when he repeats these tasteless put-downs. And unless he retires those tired old jokes, you will know that he is deliberately abusing you.

DEAR ABBY: Today it happened again: The phone rang just as I put my key in the door. You might have been calling to buy something I had advertised in the paper, or I might have forgotten to pay a bill, or you needed my husband to unclog your drain, or perhaps you wanted to hire my son's band for a party you're having next week and you're as desperate as he is. Whatever the reason, you didn't wait for my answering machine to finish its message, and by the time I picked up the phone, you had already hung up. Perhaps it was your loss, perhaps it was mine. But remember, you called me!

Even if you don't leave a message, there may be someone on the other end. Say hello. If you do leave a message, I promise to get back to you as soon as possible. Please don't just hang up when you hear a recorded message. It's so very fustrating!

MISSING CALLS

DEAR MISSING: I appreciate your frustration, but please understand that some people are intimidated by "machines." Don't sweat it. If it was important, they'll call back.

DEAR ABBY: Your response to "I'll Never Smile Again," who opted for extensive cosmetic dental work as opposed to having all her teeth extracted for dentures, was correct but incomplete.

People should keep their natural teeth as long as possible because one's teeth act as a support for the jaw and prevent bone loss. Once the teeth are removed, the ridge of bone that once held the teeth begins to deteriorate.

This causes an ongoing cycle of ill-fitting dentures, and all too often ends in a complete inability to wear dentures at all, as there is no ridge of bone left to support them!

As an oral surgeon, I have seen this happen many times. A person who has all of his teeth extracted for the "convenience" and "savings" of dentures may well end up in my office years later for surgical implants.

Keep telling your readers to keep their natural teeth, Abby.

SMILING IN EVANSTON

DEAR SMILING: I have consistently told my readers to keep their natural teeth. Furthermore, a dentist with integrity will do everything possible to save his (or her) patients' natural teeth.

Shultz offers testimony today

"I hardly know Col. (Oliver L.) North, although like everyone else in America I feel like I know him well by now," Shultz said of the former National Security Council aide who was the star witness at the hearings for a week.

Under questioning from Senate lawyer Mark Belnick, Shultz denied repeatedly that his ignorance about the Iran arms deal stemmed from a desire not to know the facts — as former National Security Adviser John Poindexter testified earlier.

He said he once told Poindexter he wanted to "be informed of the things I needed to know" to carry out his responsibilities as secretary of state.

He said he told Poindexter that he didn't want to know all the operational details, but "that doesn't mean I just bowed out insofar as major things in our foreign policy is concerned. To assume that I shouldn't be informed of things like that is ridiculous."

Poindexter testified earlier that he never withheld information from Cabinet officers that they didn't want kept from them.

Shultz quarreled with North's testimony, as well, saying that he was unaware of North's secret efforts to funnel arms to the Nicaraguan Contra rebels during a congressional ban on direct or indirect U.S. military aid to the insurgents.

Belnick read North's testimony that Shultz "knew in sufficiently elegant terms of what I had done," and asked the secretary of state if North's statement was true.

"No," Shultz replied.

Shultz said he was disgusted when he learned many months after the fact that key Iran-Contra middlemen had discussed efforts to release terrorists being held in a Kuwaiti prison as part of a complicated deal that would send arms to Iran and win the freedom of American hostages in Lebanon.

Shultz said it "made me sick to my stomach that anybody would talk about that as something we would consider doing."

The list of details that Shultz said he didn't know about was a long one.

He disclaimed knowledge that Reagan had formally approved the sale of arms to Iran until many months later. He said he didn't know of the direct sale of U.S. arms to Iran until nearly a year after the fact.

Police work five arrests

Police arrested five persons Wednesday night and early Thursday, including a 26-year-old woman who was taken to jail on the basis of a DPS warrant from Lampasas.

A patrolman stopped the woman at 7:48 p.m. Wednesday at 18th St. and Ave. Q and took her into custody on the speeding warrant.

A Snyder woman came to the police department Wednesday morning to report what she said was a sexual assault on her by a Snyder man. Officers filed an offense report for consideration by the district attorney's office.

A 32-year-old Snyder man was arrested at 8:54 p.m. Wednesday at Hargrove and Ave. 0 on a warrant for failure to appear in court.

Officers were alerted that an apparently intoxicated man was leaving one truckstop outside the city for another, and they arrested a 65-year-old man for public intoxication at the second truckstop at 1:35 a.m.

A 33-year-old city man was arrested for DWI at 12:46 a.m. Thursday in the 3600 Block of Ave. E.

A patrolman answered a woman's report of a disturbance in the alley and someone knocking on her back door at 12:22 a.m. in the 4500 Block of Ave. U. The officer found a 22-year-old man in the alley and arrested him for public intoxication.

In other action, police were told Wednesday afternoon that a burglary report filed recently was unfounded because a relative's microwave and child's gym set that had been reported missing were missing as the result of a domestic dispute.

Truck, auto in collision west of city

The Department of Public Safety Thursday reported an accident in which a tractor-trailer rig rear-ended a small car 16.3 miles south of Snyder on U.S. Highway 84.

Trooper Pat Alexander said a 1986 Chevrolet Nova driven by Noah Welch, 58, of Gilbert, La., and a 1983 Kenworth diesel truck driven by William Frank Mills, 43, of Krum were going the same direction when the truck, approaching at a faster rate of speed, ran into the rear of the car.

Both car and truck went off the road, Welch suffering apparently minor injuries for which he refused treatment. The car was not damaged badly enough to prevent Welch from resuming his trip, the trooper said.

The accident happened at 3 a.m. Tuesday.

Three vehicle wreck reported

Three cars were involved in a Wednesday accident in the 2100 Block of 29th St.

Police said a 1982 Chevrolet four-door driven by Carolyn Bagley Warren of 3211 Ave. U was in collision with a 1970 Dodge two-door driven by Joel Zane Murphy of Ira. Also hit was a 1973 Chrysler four-door owned by G.A. Milliken of 2107 29th St.

A 1979 Pontiac four-door driven by Andreas Peter Theodor Sturn of Herve, West Germany, and a 1979 Oldsmobile four-door driven by Bobbye Mason of Hermleigh were in collision at 2:43 p.m. Wednesday at the traffic circle. No one was injured.

Two businessmen sued

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Two Fort Worth area businesses are being sued by a Bedford bank because the bank made a $290,000 error.

Allied Bank of Beford, which made the error, is suing Spacecraft Machine Co. and Bell Helicopter Textron for a total of $1.3 million, court records indicate.

The bank claims in the suit filed Wednesday that Spacecraft improperly spent $290,000 credited to its account in error, and that Bell contributed to the bank's loss by failing to detect and report the mistake earlier.

DON GAY

One of four celebrities...

Don Gay slated as AJRA commentator

Don Gay, eight-time world champion bull rider, will be one of four celebrities who will serve as a commentator for the AJRA finals to begin next month in Snyder.

He won eight world bull riding championships in 1974-77, 1979-81 and 1984, breaking Jim Shoulders record of seven.

He was the PRCA bull riding champion from 1976-78.

Gay won the only NFR sudden death title ride-off ever held. The year was 1977 and he had tied with Randy Magers.

He was the Lone Star Circuit Bull Rising Champion from 1975-76 and in 1978.

Gay won the NFR bull riding average in 1976 and holds the record for high score at the National Finals rodeo with 95 points on Kelsey's "Red One."

He broke bull riding's single-season earnings record for eight consecutive years, 1974-81.

He was the only man to qualify 13 years in NFR bull riding, (eleven consecutive years) 1972-82 and 1984-85.

He was an original honoree of the Pro Rodeo Hall of Champions.

Gay's total career earnings include $631,726 and his total Winston awards include $92,050.

He's been described by rodeo great Larry Mahan as "the best bullrider to ever strap on a pair of spurs." Naggings injuries slowed him in 1982 and forced retirement for all of 1983.

In 1984, Gay returned to fulltime bullriding competition and finally achieved his goal of a record-breaking eighth bullriding title at the National Rodeo Finals in December.

He flies his own plane to personal appearances and has appeared on "Good Morning America," the "Dick Cavett Show," and NBC Sports. He has been profiled by "People Magazine" and "Sports Illustrated" and is co-host of the Mesquite Rodeo's weekly cable TV show on the Nashville Network.

He turned pro in 1970.

Sri Lanka formerly was called Ceylon. The island nation is slightly larger than West Virginia. It became independent in 1948. Population is 16.3 million.

Missile plan is revealed

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev has advocated publicly for the first time the "global double zero" arms control option that would eliminate the superpowers' medium- and short-range nuclear missiles worldwide.

In comments reported Wednesday by the official Soviet news agency Tass, the Kremlin chief offered to scrap Soviet medium- and short-range missiles in Asia if the United States agrees not to deploy 100 mid-range warheads in Alaska.

In Washington, the White House reacted positively to the new Soviet stance, saying it improved chances for the signing of a major arms control treaty and a superpower summit in coming months.

Tass said Gorbachev made the remarks in written replies to questions by the Indonesian newspaper Merdeka. The agency distributed the text of the queries and Gorbachev's answers.

Washington and Moscow last year agreed to eliminate medium-range missiles from Europe, with each side retaining 100 warheads on its own territory — the Soviet weapons in Asia east of the Ural Mountains.

High Reagan administration officials have over the past months said the United States hoped to include those warheads in the ban, but the Soviets had balked at agreeing to global elimination.

Gorbachev said the Kremlin "is prepared to remove the question of retaining those 100 warheads on medium-range missiles ... provided, of course, that the United States does the same."

He also said "shorter-range missiles will also be eliminated."

"In other words, we will proceed from the concept of a 'global double zero.'"

The United States has no counterpart to the Soviet shorter-range missiles, some of which are based in Asia and some of which are in Europe.
