First Baptist Sets Youth Day Sunday

Youth Day will be observed in First Baptist Church Sunday, January 21, with young people filling all posts in both the morning and evening services. The climax will come when these boys and girls present the church with a bus for use in its ministry.

Plans were announced by Clifford Rogers, music and education director.

Preaching the sermon will be Steve Hunter, a junior in high school and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hunter, who is planning to enter the ministry.

Danny Waters will direct the singing. The son of Mr. and Mrs Gene Waters and a senior in WHS, he also plans a religious music career.

Young people who form the "One-Way Believers" will fill the choir, and special music will be by a vocal quartet made up of Betty Burba, Beth Derryberry, Sharon Pence and Della Shumate. Teen-agers will give the devotionals in the various departments, including Kathlyn Scott, Adult I; Kathy Scott, Adult II, Mary Alice Solis, Adult III; Pam Shumate, seventh and eighth grades; Dian Brooks, fifth and sixth grades; and Nancy Graham, third and fourth grades.

Mr. Rogers will pick up the 36 passenger bus, formerly belonging to a school district, at Elgin, Oklahoma, Saturday, and the young people, who have purchased it for the church, will make the presentation one part of the Sunday events.

With it, First Baptist will begin its "bus ministry" traveling a regular schedule for the Sunday service to pick up any

Electra Comes Here for Double Header Friday

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes play at home Friday, January 21, meeting Electra boys and girls in the first of two games they will play this season.

Following this, the Skyrockets and the Junior Varsity will have two games on the road, playing at Childress Tuesday, January 25 and Seymour Friday, January 28.

The Rockettes do not play again until February 4, and again, their opponents will be Electra.

"Electra has two real good teams. We haven't seen the girls play, but we have seen the boys. Both have won most of their games," said Coach Don Lacy.

He called District 2-AA "real Well balanced--every team good, with no exceptions."

Norwood Lions Slate Auction

Samnorwood Lions will hold their annual Auction Sale Saturday, February 12, Rudie Tate announced this week.

The site this year will be at Dozier.

Listings must be in by Thursday, January 27, if they are to appear on the sale bill, and they may be left with Mr. Tate, Doug Coleman or Richard Bentley.

Already scheduled for the sale will be farming equipment belonging to Jimmy Thompson and also the Thompson Grocery stock and some of the fixtures at Dozier, according to Mr. Tate.

The sale is open to any one who has something to sell at auction.

GRAND CHAMPION
Joe Baumgardner holds the halter of his Charolais Cross steer that was judged Grand Champion of the Youth Livestock Show Saturday, January 15. Assisting by carrying the trophy is Joe's younger brother, David. The champion also placed first in the heavy steer class.

Winners Announced in Largest Livestock Show

Four-H members and Future Farmers brought their fat calves in greater numbers than ever before to hold their winter livestock show Saturday, January 15, in the coldest weather such an event has experienced here. And their backers came out in larger numbers than ever to watch the judging, finding refuge when possible in cars and pickups that ringed the show area.

Ironically, for the first time, grand and reserve champions were exhibited by the same owners in all three catagories.

Joe Baumgardner, son of Mr. and Mrs David Baumgardner, had the Grand Champion steer, a Charolais cross, and the Reserve Champion, an Angus.

Joel Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs Raymond Ross of Quail, exhibited the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion heifers, both Herefords.

Tim Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs Hezze Jones, showed the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion fat barrows, both Chester Whites.

City State Bank presented a handsome trophy to Baumgardner and ribbons were presented by the Wellington State Bank.

Class winners were:

Heavy steers: first and second, Joe Baumgardner; third, Kathy Patterson; fourth Jenny Earnest; fifth David Baumgardner; and sixth Jim Bob Nall.

Medium steers: first, Bart Patterson; second Jenny Earnest; third, Keith Davis; fourth Allen Havens; fifth Kirk Patterson; and sixth, Juliana Baumgardner.

Light steers: first, Keith Davis; second and third, Joel Ross; fourth, Allen Havens; fifth and sixth, Jim Bob Nall.

Heifers: first and second, Joel Ross; third Dean Baker.

Fat barrows: first and second, Tim Jones; third Barry Long; and fourth, Danny Fowler. This class was unusually small due to the frigid weather and rigid restrictions on hog movement under the state-wide cholera quarantine.

Spencer Tanksley, assistant county agent of Wilbarger County, was the judge.

Here to observe the judging were livestock teams from Estelline FFA and Childress County 4-H, coached by Mrs. Bill Bradley of the Bradley Ranch. The boys judged the calves, then compared their scoring with that of the show judge.

Most County Officials Get Salary Increases

Salary increases up to $300 per year were granted most elected county officials by the Commissioners Court in a meeting Monday, January 10. Deputies and other hired employees also will benefit from the action.

Also included on the full agenda were the renewal of the food stamp program for another year; purchase of a car and truck; and approval of an application for funding of the proposed county park.

The only elective officers who did not receive a salary increase at this time were the sheriff, commissioners and constable.

Salary increases were approved for:

- County Judge, county attorney, county clerk and county assessor-collector; $5,200 per year to $5,500.
- The Deputies in these offices: $3,500 to $3,700.
- Deputy sheriff: $4,800 to $5,000; dispacher in the sheriff's office, $3,500 to $3,700.
- County treasurer: $4,900 to $5,200.
- Justice of the peace: $4,000 to $4,300.
- County's part of the County Agricultural agent's salary: $3,167 to $3,467; and the county's part of the Home Demonstration agent's salary: $2,400 to $2,700. The latter post is now vacant.
- Veteran's Service Officer: $2,200 to $2,500.
- County Judge secretary: $2,700 to $3,000.
- Custodian: $3,700 to $4,000.

Five Probated Sentences Given In District Court

Five men received probated sentences in separate cases heard by 100th District Judge Robert Montgomery Monday, January 17. In addition, two divorces were granted and two cases were dismissed.

All five men entered guilty pleas Judge Montgomery said.

James Dewayne Fields, who pleaded guilty to stealing hogs, was given two years probation in order to pay court costs and make restitution for the value of the hogs.

Virgle Lee Massey received two years probation for passing a forged instrument and was ordered by Judge Montgomery to pay court costs.

Harold Cooper was given two years probation for forgery and ordered to pay court costs and make restitution of $8.00 to his former employer.

Rosco D. Meadows, indicted on a charge of false swearing, was placed on two years probation in order to pay

Inspector Added For Scabies Work

Eddie Smith has been employed by the Texas Animal Health Commission to work in Collingsworth County to aid in locating scabies and eradicating it, Willard Copeland, area supervisor for the TAHC announced Tuesday, January 18.

This brings to four the number of men working here, the others being Duke Holland of the USDA Disease Eradication department and P.J. White, inspector.

Mr. Holland is supervising the dipping vat, which J.C. Hartman has made available for use at his feed lot three miles west of Wellington.

"We definitely have one of the worst outbreaks of scabies in the Texas Panhandle, which includes Collingsworth County, we have seen in the 20 years I have been working for the Texas Animal Health Commission," Mr. Copeland said. "The Reason for Power Blackout Not Found

Super-Bowl was about three minutes into the third quarter and Dallas Cowboys had a 17-3 lead over the Miami Dolphins. Nobody can remember the precise play when it happened, but the electric power went off simultaneously in Wellington, Childress, Memphis, Hedley, Clarendon, and Shamrock. For the remainder of the game of the decade, Cowboy fans from this big block of Southeast Panhandle were literally in the dark.

"We know what happened, but we still don't know why it happened," says Don Welch, Wellington manager for West Texas Utilities Company which furnishes power to this area.

A relay in the WTU substation at Childress tripped and so did the one at Memphis. WTU wants to know why. The Memphis substation was so badly damaged it was necessary for company crews to bring in a mobile sub-station until the other one can be repaired.

Most Greenbelt Electric Co-operative, Inc., customers were bothered only about 30 seconds when an interconnect with Southwestern Public Service Co. returned power to their lines. But by that time all Greenbelt linemen and Manager George Henry were "headed for the boondocks" to see what was wrong. Only Clarendon was without power 13 minutes.

Wellington should have received power from Shamrock

Bill Lowe Asks Sheriff Office

Bill Lowe has authorized The Wellington Leader to announce his candidacy for the office of sheriff of Collingsworth County, subject to the Democratic Primary.

Mr. Lowe was born and raised in the Lillie Community and is a graduate of Quail High School. He has been active as an adult leader in the 4-H Club and in the Wellington Booster Club. He is a member of First Baptist Church of Wellington.

He is married to the former Mary Ann Richards and has two children, Andy, 20, a junior at Texas Tech, and Susan, 16, a junior in Wellington High School.

"I have given much thought to this and I assure you that if I am elected, I will run the office in a fair and impartial manner, that I will have each person's interest as my first responsibility, as it will be my only job and I will devote my full time to it," said Mr. Lowe.

"I will try to see each of you before the Primary. If I should miss you, however, please take this as my request for your vote and support."

Quail YF Sponsors Beef Cattle Expert

One of Texas most knowledgable beef cattle authorities will be the speaker at a meeting in Quail Monday, January 24.

He is Paul Marison, head of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Spur.

The meeting is sponsored by Quail Young Farmers and will be at the school vocational agriculture building at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Marion will discuss a number of topics relating to beef cattle, according to Doyle Messer, agriculture teacher, and YF advisor. These will include management of mother cows in confinement and feedlot prices.

The meeting is open to the public, and everyone interested in a beef cattle operation is invited, Mr. Messer said.

"Paul Marion is one of the best qualified men in the entire state to talk about beef cattle, and we believe that farmers and ranchers from all parts of the county will be interested," he continued.

Norwood Seniors Slate Spaghetti Supper Friday

Samnorwood senior class will hold a speaghetti supper Friday, January 21, at the Norwood cafeteria as one of its major fund-raising projects.

This will be prior to the basketball game between Quail and Samnorwood and serving will be from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m.

Money from the supper will go for the senior trip and the end of school and other expenses they may encounter. There is a nominal charge for the supper.

"The seniors invite everyone to come," said their spokesman.

BASKETBALL KING AND QUEEN
This year's Skyrocket Basketball King and Queen are Denny Carter and Mary Saied. They were chosen by their fellow players and crowned at ceremonies between Skyrocket and Rockette games.

McLain Gets Silver Beaver, Scouting's Coveted Award

Glenn McLain, prominent Scouter in the Adobe Walls Council and popular Scoutmaster of Troop 32 of Wellington was one of three Scouters honored with the presentation of the Silver Beaver Award Friday night, January 14th.

The Silver Beaver is the highest award a Boy Scout Council can bestow and is granted by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The Award was also presented to Dr. E. Byron Range of Shamrock and Bob Drake of Perryton. An interesting sidelight to this years Awards are that they were all granted to Scouters in the new Buffalo Wallow District made up of Collingsworth, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Ochiltree counties.

Reared at Childress and a graduate of the University of Texas at Arlington, Mr. McLain was not a Boy Scout in his youth and became interested in Scouting as his own three sons reached that age. Two became Eagle Scouts, Lynn, now a Lubbock architect, and Ted, a student in Texas Tech. The other, is a Life Scout, Chester who also attends Texas Tech.

His first experience as a Scouter was at Canadian, and

Norwood Baptist Slates Special Service Sunday

The First Baptist Church of Samnorwood will have as guests the Good News Quartet of Amarillo on Sunday, January 23.

Travis Bailey will deliver the morning message with the quartet providing the music for the service. Dinner will be served in fellowship hall following the morning services. After the meal, the quartet will be in Concert till 4:00 P.M.

"Everyone is invited to attend these services," says the pastor, Rev. Lee Hillon.

The services for the day will conclude at the end of the concert.

Banks Announce '72 Officers, Directors

Stockholders of Wellington's two banks met recently to elect directors and officers.

Two promotions were announced by the Wellington State Bank. Dan Hiett was advanced to vice-president from assistant vice president, and Jack Neeley was promoted to vice president and cashier, from the cashier, according to President, C.T. Hubbard. These promotions followed the retirement of E.M. Hunter, a vice-president.

Officers re-elected were Mr. Hubbard; Paul Bell, vice president; Mrs. Estelline Glenn and Mrs. Nadine Birchfield, assistant vice-presidents; Mrs. Janell Brown, assistant cashier.

All directors were re-elected and include James Sullivan, chairman of the board, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Hunter, Dr. J.M. Orr, John Holton, Fred Cox and D'Arcy McDowell of Shamrock.

CITY STATE BANK

All officers and directors of the City State Bank were re-elected, President Jeff Wilson said.

Other officers are Joe C. Terry, vice president; Billy Moseley, cashier and Mrs. June Owens, assistant cashier.

Directors are Mr. Wilson, chairman of the board, and Earl Lynn Bartlett, Wayne Cudd, Joe John Henard and Mr. Terry.

Young Spellers Set Sights on 1972 Bee

Don Van Pelt of the Wellington Schools has been named to direct the activities for the 1972 Spelling Bee program for Collingsworth County.

April 8, 1972 is the latest deadline for the event to be held in the county, and the winner named will be a participant in the 24th Regional event in Amarillo on April 29, 1972. The youngster who catapults to the top regional spot in Amarillo will be the lucky recepient of an all-expense trip to Washington, D.C., June 5-9, 1972, for himself and a parent. In the nation's capital he'll compete for the 44th national title with other area winners from throughout the United States to Guam. The week's stay in Washington will be highlighted by various tours throughout the nation's most famous city.

Any boy or girl who has not reached his 16th birthday or passed beyond the eighth grade by June 1, 1972, is eligible to enter.

The 1972 Golden Spread Bee will be co-sponsored by West Texas State University and the Amarillo Globe-News. L.J. (Jack) Edmondson, director of public services at the university, will be bee coordinator for the Golden Spread contest. This year's regional spelldown is the 24th annual contest sponsored by the newspaper and WTSU, and 46 counties in the Texas Panhandle, Oklahoma, Kansas, and New Mexico comprise the Golden Spread area.

In 1971, Diana Wilson (daughter) of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson of Wellington represented Collingsworth County in Amarillo, and placed 34th from a field of 46 county winners. (She) attended Wellington Junior High School, and was in the 7th grade.

A secondary contest -- the only one of its kind within the National Spelling Bee program sponsored by 59 leading daily and Sunday newspapers -- will be open to youngsters from the sixth and lower grades. These youngsters will be guests at the Amarillo Globe-News Spellers' luncheon on April 29, 1972, but will not spell unless they represent both divisions.

The Junior County Winner in 1971 was Billy Blair (son) of Mrs. Lucille Blair of Samnorwood.

At the Regional Bee, each county winner will receive a gold lapel pin and a plaque; each county junior champion will be awarded a trophy and silver pin. All contestants --- both divisions - - - will receive entry ribbons and winner ribbons.

The 1972 "Words of the Champions" - - (the practice booklet used by most schools -- is new in design, new in lettering, new in colors, and contains more than 600 word changes -- by far the most ever incorporated from one year to the next. There will be no change in the price of the study book -- only 20 cents -- and they are available from: Jim W. Walker, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, P.O. Box 2091 79105.

The county director is in complete charge of his bee. The only stipulation made by the sponsors is the observance of dates indicated above. Contests may be verbally, written -- or a combination of both. However, the Regional Bee will be conducted verbally.

A list of prizes to be awarded the top 15 will be announced at a later date.

The National Spelling Bee, founded in 1925, has continued without interruption except for the World War years of 1943-44-45, and is administered by the Scripps-Howard Newspapers.

Since the first Regional Bee (1949) district winners from your county have been: 1953, Alta Jackson of Quail. She is now Mrs. Don Wheeler of El Paso and has completed most of the work for a degree in engineering at the University of Texas at El Paso.

BICYCLE not exactly built for three, but it serves the purpose for Mrs. Darryl Ting of Marietta, Ohio. With Jennifer, 2, in the rumble seat and Mike, 8 months, on her back, away they roll!

Do You Know A Rural Hero?

Would you help Texas honor a Rural Hero?

If you know of anyone who has risked his own life to save the life of some other person, your nomination might win that person a trip to Dallas and a nice plaque on March 20, 1972.

The Rural Heroism Award is presented annually to some deserving person who has performed some act of exceptional bravery during a time of crisis. This rural safety program points up the continuing need for improved safety conditions in our rural areas -- at work, at home and at play.

The award may go to a person credited with pulling another from a burning building, saving a drowning person or any other such act of heroism during the past calendar year. Anyone knowing of such an act during 1971, is urged to submit a nomination for this important award.

Nominations should include a narrative of the heroic incident, giving full details. It should include the names of all persons involved. If available, newspaper clippings and pictures should accompany the nomination. The award recipient will be chosen by a panel of judges, based on the material submitted.

Deadline for entries is March 1, 1972. They should be mailed to: Rural Heroism Award Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P.O. Box 489, Waco, Texas 76703.

The 1971 recipient of the Rural Heroism Award was Mrs. Martha Cook, a Rising Star, Texas, farm wife who saved her mother-in-law from an attack by a vicious cow in a barn yard.

Four County Men on Tech Ag Honor Roll

Four county students were among the 361 in the College of Agricultural Sciences at Texas Tech University who qualified for the dean's honor list for the fall semester, according to Dean Anson R. Bertrand.

They included Olan K. Moore pre-veterinary medicine, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Thomason; John S. Scott, crop science, son of Mr. and Mrs. P.M. Scott; and Gary Lynn Killian, agricultural education, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Killian, all of Wellington.

The fourth is Billy Ed Wischkaemper, animal science, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wischkaemper of Samnorwood.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 semester hours of courses, excluding pass-fail courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 point grading system.

The College of Agricultural Sciences is one of six colleges and two schools at Texas Tech University, with a total fall enrollment of more than 21,000 students. The others are the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering and Home Economics, and the Graduate School and the School of Law.

Rockets Take First District Win Friday

Playing before a hometown crowd, the Wellington Skyrockets, took their first victory 74-53 over Seymour Friday night, January 14. Defensively, this was one of the better games the boys have played all year.

The Rockettes shooting was nearly as cold as the night, and they dropped their game 46-29 to Altus, Oklahoma high school girls, a team playing in the equivalent of Texas Class 4-A.

Wellington girls made 55 per cent of their free shots, but Altus hit 73 per cent; the Rockettes scored on 25 per cent of their field attempts; Altus shot 40 per cent.

Patti McAlister led Wellington's scoring with 18 points, while Phyllis Sullivan had 5, Leigh Nall three, Edi Watkins two and Pam Black one. Jerri Foley had 17 for Altus.

The Skyrockets jumped to a 22-8 lead over Seymour during the first period and by the half had enlarged it to 39-17. Wellington scored 15 points in the third period while Seymour could hit only 11. Only in the last quarter did Seymour outscore the Rockets, with 25 points, while the hometowners made 20.

The Rockets hit 51 per cent of their free shots and 40 per cent of the attempts from the floor. Seymour, although they made 56 per cent of their free shots, hit only 30 per cent from the field tries.

Ray Shrubs and Ronnie Pennon each scored 19 points, Danny Waters, 18, Bruce Oney, 5, Jay Thomas 6, Denny Carter four, Mike Belew two and Rozell Outley one. Brent Albright hit 16 for Seymour.

Lefors Takes Double Header From Norwood

Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes traveled to Lefors Friday night, January 14, to lose a double header, their second game in district play.

The Eagletts lost 45 to 39, after trailing a few points through most of the game. Lefors had pulled ahead 15-7 by the end of the first period 24-16 at halftime, and 34-27 at the third. Lyna Coleman led the game scoring with 36 points for Samnorwood, while Carol Vincent had 22 for Lefors.

Lefors Pirates took their game 71-59, after stepping ahead 16-8 during the first period. They increased their lead over Samnorwood to 34-26 at half time and 54-47 at the end of the third.

Doug Coleman was high scoring player for both the game and Samnorwood with 19; Mike Robinson had 15 for Lefors.

Lions See World Farming Film

Agriculture as it is practiced in other countries of the world was shown to Wellington Lions in a film presented by Dee Coleman Monday evening, January 10.

This was taken by Dee Coleman, who was also the program narrator, on a world tour which he and Mrs. Coleman took several years ago.

Of special interest to many of the group were the types of farming, in varying degrees of advancement, found in the orient.

Harvest Gains Momentum in SE Panhandle

Clear weather allowed harvest to gain momentum again in the Memphis area, according to W.E. Cain, in charge of the USDA's Memphis, cotton classing office.

The Memphis office classed 13,100 samples last week to bring the season total to 87,100. The office closed on this date last year after classing 96,900.

Light Spotted grades are predominant this week accounting for 50 per cent of the total classed. Spotted grades accounted for 40 percent. Samples with bark accounted for 51 percent.

The predominant staple was 30 with 43 percent followed by staple 31 with 29 percent and staple 29 with 14 percent.

Micronaire readings showed 26 percent miked in the 3.5 to 4.9 range. The 3.3 to 3.4 range accounted for 19 percent. The 3.0 to 3.2 range accounted for 34 percent.

Pressley readings showed 87 percent of the samples tested 75,000 psi or higher.

The cotton market has slowed somewhat and prices are about steady compared to early in the week. Mixed lots, mostly Light Spotted and Spotted grades, 3.5 to 4.9 mikes, 30 and longer staples sold for 32.00 to 32.50 cents per pound. Same grades and staples, 3.0 to 3.2 mikes sold for 29.75 to 30.25.

Farm Drivers Get Relief on Small Trucks

AUSTIN -- Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has reminded Texas farmers and ranchers of revised driver qualification regulations which should give significant relief from the stringent regulations that were in effect in 1971.

New exemptions were made for farmers and ranchers by the U.S. Department of Transportation after many complaints were filed against restrictive farm driver qualification regulations last year.

The new regulations which became effective January 1 include:

1. Farm vehicle drivers operating trucks weighing 10,000 pounds or less are totally exempt from the driver qualification rules.

2. Farm vehicle drivers operating straight trucks weighing in excess of 10,000 pounds within 150 miles of their farms are totally exempt from the rules.

3. Farm vehicle drivers 18 years or older operating a tractor-trailer unit within 150 miles of the farm are exempt, except they must be physically qualified but need not be physically examined and certified until January 1, 1973.

4. Drivers employed by custom operators are granted total exemption while transporting custom harvesting machinery to or from a farm and while transporting the custom-harvested crops to storage or market.

5. Beekeepers transporting bees during seasonal movements are exempt.

The original regulations requiring drivers to be 21 years of age, submit to road tests, written and physical examinations, background checks and other regulations imposed undue burdens of farmers whose families helped in growing and harvesting crops, Commissioner White said.

MISS VICKI MEADOWS

Miss Vicki Meadows Will Wed Clyde Harper on February 12

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Meadows, 1207 El Paso Street, have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Vicki, to Clyde Harper, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Harper of 407 Fifteenth Street.

The couple will be married in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, February 12, in the First Baptist Church of Wellington. Only close friends and relatives will attend.

Both Miss Meadows and her fiance are living in Amarillo. She was graduated from Childress High School in 1970 and he from Wellington High School the same year.

The Bobo Clan Now Back Home From Christmas in Hawaii

(Editor's note: This story concerns three former residents. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ellis, and Mrs. Clifton High, now of Rhome. For a long period of years, all of the other members of the family were frequent visitors in Wellington. They are the aunts and uncles of Bobo Castleberry.)

By MARTHA HAND
Fort Worth Star Telegram

The Bobo "kids" from Texas will fly home Sunday from a Christmas vacation in Hawaii.

The oldest of the eight "kids" is 83. The youngest 65.

For most of them, it was their first time on a plane.

Natives of Rhome, Wise County, the eight offspring of the late Mr. and Mrs. Zack Bobo Sr. now are scattered through North Central and West Texas.

Once a year they get together for a reunion.

Christmas in Hawaii via plane was the idea of Dr. Zack Bobo, Jr. of Arlington, who loves air travel but had some difficulty winning over some of the others, whom he calls "the kids"

THE "KIDS" are Sallie, 83; Virginia, 78; Bess, 76; Zack, 74; Tom, 73; Ann, 71, Pat, 70; and Florence, 65.

Sallie is Mrs. C.L. Christian, widow of a funeral home director at Decatur.

Virginia is Mrs. L.W. Renshaw of Rhome, whose late husband owned a flour mill.

Bess is Mrs. Dewey Ellis, whose husband, 79-year-old Dewey, also of Rhome, accompanied the group to Honolulu.

Dr. Zack, the host, took along his wife, Ruth, 69, and their son-in-law and daughter, Frank and Barbara Barksdale and their two children, Zack, 9, and Rebecca Barksdale, 6.

TOM IS DR. Tom Bobo of Midland, a general practitioner. His wife, Estelle, 72, went along for the fun.

Ann is Mrs. Clifton High, who returned to live in Rhome after her husband, Dr. Clifton High of Pampa, died several years ago.

Pat is Muleshoe lawyer Pat Bobo, who loves flying and who with his wife, Inez, 61, kept encouraging Zack to insist that all join in.

Florence is Mrs. Bob Hudleston, a Richland Hills widow and "baby" of the family.

Zack argued effectively in favor of the plane trip and the group boarded Braniff's Flight 501 from Love Field at 1 p.m. last Sunday for a week in Hawaii.

THE BOBO clan grew up on a farm near Rhome, where their father was a pharmacist. He sent all his children to Baylor University. When Zack was 8 years old, Bobo Sr. stuck him on a high stool at his elbow and taught him to mix everything from iron pills to paregoric.

Dr. Zack in 1972 will celebrate 50 years of practicing medicine in Tarrant County, more than 40 of them in Arlington, where he once built and ran his own hospital.

There were a dozen Bobo children, in all. Mrs. Bennie Castleberry of Wellington, the oldest girl, is dead, and three others, John, Cora and Clara, died before reaching adulthood.

For more than 25 years the surviving children have got together for a family reunion to celebrate the birthday anniversary of their mother, the late Mrs. Bettie Morris Bobo.

She died in 1962 at 95 and her husband in 1942 at 84.

ONE OF THE more memorable reunions was two years ago when Pat and Zack rented a Greyhound bus, complete with indoor plumbing. They picked up brothers, sisters, and assorted other relatives from Wise County to West Texas. Seventy-five of the clan made this one.

"We had a big time in Muleshoe," said Zack.

Zack admits he loves to travel, especially around the world on medical trips. He's been to Russia, Hong Kong, Tokyo, New Zealand, Australia, Tahiti, twice to Africa and to the South Seas.

It was on one of the trips to Africa that one of his sisters, Ann, had a narrow escape.

"She came down with the flu while we were at a hotel down in the bush, 180 miles from Nairobi and with no available way back except by rough-riding Rover. The hotel manager brought her some English tea and she swears it was that, and not doctoring, which got her well."

Who's New in the Wellington Area

A son, Scott Carter, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cummins of Hollis on January 3 in Harmon County Memorial Hospital, Hollis. He weighed nine pounds and two ounces. Mrs. Claude Lewis of Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummins of Hollis are the grandparents.

Miss Sharon Coker, Lewis Watkins, Marry in Austin Ceremony Friday

Miss Sharon Coker became the bride of Harold Lewis Watkins in a ceremony performed at six-thirty Friday evening, January 14, in the Methodist Student Center of the University of Texas at Austin. The Reverend Bob Briehan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Adella Coker of Austin, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watkins, 1601 El Paso Street.

Wedding music was presented by John Dierlam of Austin.

For her wedding, the bride wore a floor length gown in bright red, made along simple lines, and carried a bouquet of flowers in various colors.

Miss Betty Bartlett of Houston was the maid of honor, and Fred Watkins of Dallas, the bridegroom's brother, was the best man.

Henry Wells and Mike Coker, brother of the bride, ushered. Mr. Wells also lighted the candles.

After the ceremony, Mrs. Coker was hostess at a reception to honor the couple in the Hansel and Gretel Restaurant.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Watkins were graduated from the University of Texas at Austin, where she received a Bachelor of Journalism degree with a major in advertising and public relations. She is presently employed in the office of accounting in the University. The bridegroom received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education, and is now with National Biscuit Company in Austin.

The couple will live at 5515 Woodrow, Austin.

Attending from here were, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watkins, accompanied by their older daughter, Mrs. Cynthia Hill of Amarillo.

HDC Has Study Of Stitchery

The Lillie Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, January 13, in the home of Mrs. Philip Daniels. Mrs. L.M. Bartlett, president, conducted the meeting, while Mrs Daniels gave the devotional and opening prayer.

Club Presidents, Chairmen Honored By 1924 Study Club in Workshop

"Your Federation Family -- at the Crossroads" was a leadership orientation and reports workshop on January 6 by members of 1924 Study Club. The hostess for this meeting was Mrs. Les White.

Members were asked with audio-fisual aids to "stop, look, listen, and yield" to worthwhile community endeavors.

The program leader for this crossroads discussion was Mrs. B.M. Sims.

Honored were the members who are currently president or chairman of an organization. This included slightly over 50% of the club's active members! Saluted were Mrs. Truett Holland, president, Wellington Music Club; Mrs. Dee Coleman, chairman, Collingsworth County Park Committee; Mrs. John Coleman, president, American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Benson Long, president, Young Homemakers; Mrs. Ralph Owens, president, Elementary P-TO; Mrs. Dennis Holland, district vice-president, 18th District American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. L.W. Wells, president, Excelsior Club; Mrs. Sims, chairman, Collingsworth Board of Human Development; Mrs. Don Van Pelt, director, Baptist Kindergarten; Mrs. J.B. King, director, Adult Vocational Training School.

Then the club members helped prepare report outlines of 1971-72 programs and projects with the departmental chairmen.

Mrs. George Henry, vice-president, was the presiding officer. In the business meeting a resolutions committee was appointed. Motions were made and carried to check on up-dating the club's bylaws; to purchase books for the special favors at Library Week Tea; to contribute more time and money to the Satellite School and the Speech and Hearing Center.

In other business, the club relunctantly accepted the resignation of its president, Mrs. Bill Tyler, who has moved. Elected president was Mrs. Dennis Holland.

Using vivid pinks and featuring the club's flower and color, a dessert buffet was presented by Mrs. White to the club members.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Judd, of Amarillo, spent the New Year Holidays in Bethany, Okla. with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Brown and at Hydro, Okla. with her neice and family, Rev. and Mrs. Chalmer Wiegman and Donnya. On their way home they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Judd and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lockhart, her parents.

Judge Templeton 1954 Speaker

Mrs. Virgil Patterson was hostess to the 1954 Study Club Thursday, January 13, in the Heritage Room.

After a short business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Cal Hurst, the program was presented by Judge R.L. Templeton on "How Body Chemistry Affects Your Conduct."

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Hurst, Mrs. E.W. Clement, Mrs. Fred Cox, Mrs. Wayne Cudd, Mrs. Harley Hatch, Mrs. A.J. Fires, Judge and Mrs. Templeton, Mrs. Lynn Courtney, Mrs. Roy Collins, Mrs. Don Reeves, Mrs. Kenneth Maxwell, and the hostess, Mrs. Patterson.

Gardeners Hear Mrs. Caterlin

Mrs. Tom Caterlin, nursery owner, was the guest speaker at the Wellington Garden Club when Mrs. John Henard was hostess Wednesday, January 12.

In her program, "Selecting Shrubs," Mrs. Caterlin pointed out that new literature suggests the use of minature shrubs. She discussed this in depth and included names of those that do best for both the shady and sunny sides of the house.

"Buy good shrubs suited for your climate and know where you want them," Mrs. Caterlin told the group, pointing out that from now until May is the time to set them out.

Mrs. Silas Crawford directed the business session.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Charles Cason, Sr., Mrs. Ray Clubb, Mrs. Howard Riggs, Mrs. Nell Cook, Mrs. Walter Franks, Mrs. Silas Crawford, Mrs. Guy Clement, Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Coy Vaughan, Mrs. G.L. Jones, Mrs. W.F. Harbin, Mrs. Caterlin and a new member, Mrs. Matt Johnson.

SAVED BY WATER?

By Gaylord Cook

Apparently many sincerely think that those who make up churches of Christ believe in water salvation. Dear friend, if you believe this to be the case you have been misinformed. I no more believe water can cure sin than I believe it can cure leprosy. I do believe with all my heart that the account given in 2 Kings 5 relating the healing of Naaman who was a leper is true. GOD healed Naaman He did it when he had complied with the instructions given to dip himself seven times in the Jordan River. GOD (and only He) can and does forgive sin. Just as God promised through the prophet of old to heal Naaman when he had dipped himself seven times in Jordan, God has promised today to forgive man of sin when he believes AND is baptized (Mark 16:16). God's word has never been more twisted and perverted than when it is claimed to promise salvation by faith alone. However, to claim that salvation comes by baptism alone would be just as great perversion. BOTH faith and baptism are an essential part of God's promise of salvation.

Mrs. Kenneth King and Lena Joyce of Dozier, Mrs. J.C. Barefoot and Dianne of Samnorwood, Mrs. James Barker and Carles of Shamrock, Mrs. Leslie McCutcheon, and the honoree, Mrs. Tom Underwood.

Visiting in the Clyde Alexander home from Friday to Monday were Mrs. Alexander's brothers, John Branum of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Branum of Midland. Sunday afternoon visitors in the Alexander home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stanley, Rusty and Melissa, Mrs. Henry Rampy and Missy, and Mrs. Floyd Branum all of Amarillo, also Mrs. Pearl Baumgartner of Sebastopol, Calif., Mrs. Frank Garrett of Midland. Mr and Mrs. Howard Hunt of Dodson.

Mrs. Neeley New President

The first 1972 meeting of the First Christian Women's Council was held in the fellowship hall of the Church recently, with Mrs. Raymond Neeley taking over the office of president.

Following the business session, Mrs. Marvin Garrison gave the lesson, "Self Discipline," pointing out the many things that are governed by self discipline that the individual fails to realize, in work, study, recreation and worship. She urged each member to live a more Christian-like life in 1972.

Mrs. Emil Kersten, hostess, served refreshments to Mrs. A.Y. Bell, Mrs. J.M. Strong, Mrs. K.C. Poteet, Mrs. Bill Lindsey, Mrs. Jack Sanford, Mrs. Charles Darter, Mrs. Sandown Smith, Mrs. Marvin Garrison and Douglas, Mrs. Neeley and Mrs. Ozro Bartlett.

Former County Girl, Karan Taylor, Weds John Jackson at Brownfield

Miss Karan Taylor, whose family formerly lived here, was married to John Jackson in a double ring ceremony in the chapel of First Baptist Church, Brownfield, Sunday, January 16, at three in the afternonn. The Reverend Pat Cummings, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Louise Taylor of 321 West Buckley, Brownfield, and Buel Taylor of Lubbock. She is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.O. Taylor 911 Graham Street, who attended the wedding, and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weaver of Quail.

Miss Taylor is a 1970 graduate of Brownfield High School and has attended South Plains Junior College in Levelland and West Texas State University in Canyon. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority and Women's Residence Hall Council.

Mr. Jackson is a 1968 graduate of Borger High School and has attended Frank Phillips Junior College at Borger and West Texas State University. He is employed by Pacific Finance in Amarillo, where the couple will make their home.

B&PW Has Member Program

A membership survey and a report on municipal water program of the Business and Professional Women's Club, which held its dinner meeting Tuesday evening, January 11, with Mrs. Charles Darter, president in charge.

Mayor John Coleman spoke on water development proposed for the city.

The membership committee was in charge of the remainder of the program, including Mrs. Jimmie Kelso, chairman, Mrs. Jack Lowry, co-chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Patton and Mrs. Rufus Sweat.

In the dialogue, with Mrs. Ernest Harwell and Mrs. Sweat participating, results of a recent member survey were given. Wellington B&PW members were asked their reasons for joining the club, and these ranged from personal improvement to community concern, career development and fellowship.

A review of this year's activities and projects was given.

Two new members were voted into the club, Mrs. Dan Hiett and Mrs. Bill Lindsey.

Present were Mrs. Darter, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. Sweat, Mrs. Harwell, Mrs Truman Estes, Mrs. Bura Handley, Mrs. Dan Henard, Mrs. Rob Isbell, Mrs. Tommie Murdock, Mrs. Wayne Parker, Mrs. Emma Tate, Mrs. Louise Templeton, Mrs. Fred Yarbrough, Mrs. Pat McAlister, Mrs. V.K. Dodson Club Has Hobby Program

Mrs. T.J. Bowling was hostess to the Dodson Home Demonstration Club Tuesday, January 11, for a program on hobbies.

Mrs. C.E. Hightower, president, had charge of the meeting and members answered roll call by naming "a mistake I made in sewing."

Mrs. Bowling gave a demonstration on needle point, Mrs. Herb Redeker one on bead making, and Mrs. Hubert Felder a group of ideas for members to make and see.

The Home Demonstration Council report was given by Mrs. Wayne Reynolds.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Redeker, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Purl Tippie, Mrs. Hightower, Mrs. Ruth Hunt, Mrs. A.V. Lowrie, Mrs. Thurman Crownover, Mrs. Hubert Felder, Mrs. Sherry Hudspeth and children, and the hostess Mrs. Bowling.

The next meeting will be with Mrs Truett Holland.

Fifteen Become Members of New Junior Girl Scouts on Thursday

Fifteen girls became members of the Junior Girl Scouts in an investiture service Thursday evening, January 13, the first troop here in many years.

Mrs. Neal Gray and Mrs. Billy Moseley are the leaders.

The girls, some of whom already have their trim green uniforms, will work toward merit badges and awards which are given in many fields, ranging from cooking and sewing to art, outdoor projects and citizenship.

They will meet each Monday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.

The investiture service was held by candlelight and opened with the presentation of the flag and pledge of alligence. Each incoming member repeated the Girl Scout promise to Mrs. Moseley, then received her pin from Mrs. Gray. The singing of "America" closed the service.

Refreshments were served to the girls their parents and guests.

The new Girl Scouts are Cristi Moseley, Peggy Popwell, Jeanne Morris, Patricia Turner, Beverly Orr, Irma Aguilar, Terri Thomason, Catherine Kopp, Linda Brooks, Karen Goforth, Patti Gray, Callie McDonald, Rosa Benton, Lisa Johnson and Susie Chandler.

Parents attending the investiture were Mr. and Mrs. Troy Thomason, Mrs. Bob Goforth, Mrs. V.K. Orr, Jr., Mrs. Jack Kopp, Mrs. Billy Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Johnson, Mrs. Helen Hall, Mrs. Delmar Turner, Mrs. John Gollihugh, Mrs. L.W. Popwell, and Mrs. Ela Herrera.

Dodson Civic Club Hears Program On Barbed Wire, Elects Officers

A program on barbed wire was presented by Mrs. B.B. Martin for the Dodson Civic Club Thursday, January 13, as its Texas Heritage observance.

Mrs. Purl Tippie was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H.W. Redeker.

This was also the biennial election meeting, in which Mrs. J.T. Bogle was chosen president; Mrs. Grover Graham, vice-president; Mrs. T.E. Lennon, secretary; Mrs. Martin, treasurer; and Mrs. Thurman Crownover, reporter. Mrs. Redeker, president, conducted the election.

Mrs. Martin gave the history of barbed wire, explaining they were first made by coffee mills, grindstones, and in blacksmith shops. It was first used in Texas in 1867 although the first wire made in the state was in 1854 by Mr. Merriweather, a German at New Braunfels.

"It was a vital item in the settlement of our plains and the American west, used to mark boundary lines, to keep stock from damaging and destroying the property of others," said the speaker.

"Barbed wire was used to build a great nation. There were many law-suits, killings, hangings and hard feelings over the fence builders. It has been used in two world wars, so it is not only used to keep stock out, but to keep people in."

Mrs. Martin showed a book by Jack Glover, "The Barbed Wire Bible," showing 492 different wires, the dates and names of the manufacturers. Also shown were early tools used to build fences.

During the business session, directed by Mrs. Redeker, Mrs. Martin reported that the Loblolly pine seedlings for the Dodson Cemetery have been received and will be planted as soon as weather permits.

A former member who has returned to Dodson to live, Mrs. W.J. Hudspeth, was introduced. Mrs J.C. Howell gave the treasurer's report.

A salad plate was served to Mrs. Howell, Mrs. T.J. Bowling, Mrs. Lennon, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Crownover, Mrs. C.E. Hightower, Mrs. H.A. Painter, Mrs. Hudspeth, Mrs B.T. Webb, Mrs. Tippie and Mrs. Redeker.

San Antonio won the title of "Cleanest City in the Nation."

Meeting of Women Interested in DAR Chapter Called for January 24

A meeting of women interested in becoming members of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Monday, January 24, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Hubert Bowen (Corky's Flower and Gift Shop).

This will be an informational meeting, Mrs. Bowen said. Those interested will be told of the eligibility requirements and given pointers on tracing and authenticating ancestors who fought in the Revolutionary War.

Mrs. John Glen Eckle, member of an Amarillo chapter, has told Mrs. Bowen she will come here to assist with organization of the chapter when the group is ready. Also, a geneological team will come later to work with the women in proving their eligibility, Mrs. Bowen said.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Torrez and children, who have been living in Waka, near Perryton, since summer, have returned to live. The children are again attending Quail school except the oldest son, Julian Torrez, Jr., a student in Clarendon College.

Who's New in the Wellington Area

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. Does the Catholic Church forbid marriage between cousins?

A. Between first and second cousins, yes. A special dispensation is needed from the local Bishop for third cousins to marry.

Q. What are "banns of marriage"?

A. When two Catholics decide to marry, there is a formal announcement made in Church by the priest on three Sundays in a row. This makes the marriage public/ and is a safeguard against bigamy and other unlawful types of marriage.

Seven Signs

Cancer has seven warning signals: Change in bowel or bladder habits; a sore that does not heal; unusual bleeding or discharge; thickening or lump in breast or elsewhere; indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; obvious change in wart or mole; nagging cough or hoarseness. If you have a signal, see your doctor right away, the American Cancer Society says.

After 40 remember to ask your doctor for a procto as part of your annual health checkup. It's a lifesaver, says the American Cancer Society.

OVERSIZED rocking chair is necessary for an oversized rocker—Antonio Barichievich of Montreal, who weighs in at 465 pounds. Known as "Great Antonio" for obvious reasons, the 38-year-old Canadian performer who boasts he is the world's strongest man had the 14-foot chair specially constructed.

Jan Garrison Completes Work

Jan Smith Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Smith, has completed the work for a Bachelor of Science Degree at West Texas State University, with a major in business education.

Mrs. Garrison attended Clarendon College two years before transferring to WT to complete her work. Her social sorority was Alpha Delta Pi, and she did her student teaching in the Canyon Schools.

She is a Wellington High School graduate.

Her husband, Harry Garrison, is beginning his senior year at West Texas State, and the couple will continue to live in Canyon until he completes the work for his degree.

UT Accepts Jones Papers

AUSTIN, (Spl.) -- The University of Texas has accepted a gift of the personal papers, memorabilia, photographic collection and office furniture of the late Jesse H. Jones, Houston financier who once served as U.S. Secretary of Commerce and as head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The valuable collection, donated by Houston Endowment, Inc., will be housed in a special room, to be known as the Jesse H. Jones Room, in the Barker History Center section of Sid Richardson Hall on the UT Austin campus.

A dedication ceremony for the room and its contents is planned for a later date.

Skyrocket B Wins Second At Tourney

The Skyrocket B team placed second in the Paducah B Invitational tournament, losing to a strong Floydada team in the finals Saturday night, January 15. This was the last of three strong teams the Wellington boys met.

Childress B team went down 72 to 57 in the first round. Play was even during the first period, with Wellington trailing 15 to 12. By the half, however, the Rockets led 35-26 and were ahead 60-39 at the third. Bobby Joe Shrubs and Randall Hodges were high pointers for Wellington with 22 each and Brent Wade had 12. Latham scored 25 for Childress.

In the second round, undefeated Matador B bowed to the Rockets 78-43. Randall Hodges had 32 points for game high and Shrubs and Wade scored in the double figures. Edward made 16 for Matador.

The finals saw Floydada emerge as champion 65-52. Shrubs and Hodges scored 16 points each and Wade 13. Hale was high pointer for Floydada and the game with 21.

Wellington Girls B team drew a bye in the first round, then met Paducah in the second to lose a nip and tuck game 19 to 17. The closeness of the game was isdicated as Wellington led several times during play and trailed by only one point 5-4 at the first quarter and 9-8 at halftime. The game was tied 13-13 at the third period. Connie Lewis was high point player with 12. Others scoring were Renee Mitchell, Dian Brooks and Lucy Sullivan.

Memphis boys won the consolation trophy in that division, while Matador girls were champions of their bracket.

Rockets Drop 2-AA Opener to Quanah 63-61

Two Quanah goals in the last minute of play cost the Skyrockets their district opener 63-61 Monday evening, January 10, on the Indians court. On the same night, the Panhandle girls, playing here, defeated the Rockettes 60 to 54. This was a non-conference game.

The Rocket-Indian game was close all the way, with the score tied 12-12 at the end of one quarter of play and Wellington trailing only one point, 31-30 at halftime.

Wellington was ahead 59-57 in the last minute of the fourth, then Quanah came back to score four points and win the game.

Wellington had one more field goal than Quanah, but the Indians were more accurate in their free shots. Ray Shrubs led the Rockets scoring with 32 points; Danny Waters had 10; Denny Carter, 7, Ronnie Pennon 5; Bruce Oney three, Steve Hunter and Rozell Outley two each. Carter was high point man for Quanah.

Wellington girls trailed in the first quarter 21 to 12, but were ahead 31-30 at the half. They had a cold third quarter that put them down 47-39 by the time they went into the fourth.

The Rockettes outscored their opponents from the field, but the Pantherettes made 30 of 43 attempted free shots, while Wellington connected with only 20 of 34. The Rockettes shot 40 per cent of their field goals to 35 per cent for the Panhandle girls.

Patti McAlister scored 29 points; Phyllis Sullivan 12, Edi Watkins, 5, Leigh Nall and Pam Black, four each. Denine Labus led Panhandle's scoring with 30 points; Carla Spann had 23 and Dorothy Reining 7.

Eighth Grade Splits Pair With Shamrock

Wellington Eighth Grade boys and girls split a pair of games with Shamrock Eighth Grade in Rocket Gym Thursday, January 13.

The boys won their game 37 to 22 after jumping out to a 15-3 lead in the first period. Coach Carroll Nunnelley sent his second and third teams after the half, when the Firecrackers led 25-12, and almost every boy on the team scored. George Brewer led Wellington with 14 points; Robert Holmes had 12 for Shamrock.

Wellington girls had difficulty in scoring and lost thier game 19 to 6.

Livestock Can Up County Income in Years Ahead

This week we Texans observe "3.76 in '76" Week, the state-wide program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service designed to increase agricultural income to $3.76 billion by 1976. For Collingsworth, the goal is $9 million in agricultural income by 1976, announced a year ago.

The 1971 increase for Texas was $287 million, or 9 percent. Increases in the individual counties are more dependant on weather conditions. The Collingsworth total for 1971 is not in.

Goals for both Texas and Collingsworth are realistic, and an increase from $6,918,000 to $9 million for the county is not far-fetched. This is without government farm payments.

Most of this county's increase will come from livestock, principally cattle, for which we are so well suited.

There is opportunity for expansion in feedlots, both the large commercial operation and the small one-man enterprise. Pasture improvement programs of recent years give impetus to stocker and mother cow programs. There is plenty of room for big increases in alfalfa and other hay production, directly related to the livestock industry.

All of this must come from our own effort, but each individual who steps out in this direction has available much local know-how as well as the knowledge of the Agricultural Extension Service and the various livestock associations.

Other Editors Say . . .

Use It or Lose It

Businessmen, as well as farmers, will lose if cotton acreage allotments are not planted in 1972. At Temple, C. L. Walker Jr., an agribusiness leader, figures it this way:

"Every acre of cotton lost from production will cost a county at least $100 per acre (with half-a-bale per acre yield and present prices). Experts have proved that new business generated by cotton multiplies seven times the value of the original lint and seed. This means a loss of $100 ... and lots of jobs."

Blackland growers can lease cotton allotments to other areas, such as the High Plains, but the returns to a community from leases are far less than from growing a crop. That is why it is good sense for cotton counties to work actively to promote planting at a time when the demand and price for this dependable crop are excellent. — The Dallas Morning News.

Quote

"I know I'm somebody because God don't make no junk," a West Palm Beach High school student remarked during a conversation with the school counselor. The observation must rate as one of the top quotations of the year.

One of the greatest tragedies of the human race is that so many "somebodies" set out early in life to make junk of themselves. And overcrowded prisons, a growing drug problem and depravity in general offer proof that too many are succeeding in achieveing that end.

STATE Capital NEWS

BY BILL BOYKIN

SENATE CAMPAIGN -- The 1972 political campaigns moved into full swing with announcement by former U.S. Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough that he would make a comeback try for a Senate seat.

Yarborough, 68, revealed his plans in a series of whirlwind news conferences at Austin, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. He seeks the Democratic nomination to oppose Republican Sen. John Tower.

Barefoot Sanders of Dallas, already running for the Senate as a Democrat, welcomed one-time political ally Yarborough to the race as "one of our fine senior citizens." He said Yarborough and Tower "are out of touch with the majority of Texans."

Yarborough said he had never had so successful a campaign opening day. He stressed his nearly-14 years' experience as a progressive senator, and said in answer to questions about his age: "I'll be around campaigning as long hours as anybody else, if not longer."

The former senator's entry took some of the spotlight away from the warming governor's race where Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Uvalde rancher Dolph Briscoe are starting to mix it up.

Five Democratic candidates are moving around the state in the lieutenant governor's race.

Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller of Public Accounts Robert S. Calvert and Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White during the last week announced for re-election. Calvert and James are expected to draw some opposition.

State Rep. Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi announced she is "taking a serious look" at prospects for a gubernatorial race, but has not ruled out challenging Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

SCHOOL DECISION APPEALED -- The State Board of Education voted unanimously to appeal the monumental federal court decision that the Texas property tax method of financing schools is unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, the Board assumed responsibility for drafting a new plan for supporting the school system and ordered a task force be formed to do the study job in the event an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court fails.

The state, according to Texas Research League, has several options. One is full state financing, which by 1974 would require an expenditure of a billion dollars a year just to maintain the status quo.

Another alternative is state-local financing that would provide approximately equal resources for each child. The League suggested redrawing district boundaries to redistribute property values or superimposing multi-district taxing regions over present operating districts to provide equalization by regions.

A decision, the League noted, must be made as to whether the goal is educational expenditures at the present level in rich districts or at a lower "average level." The latter would mean reducing the number of teachers and lowering salary supplements in some districts to create more positions and higher salaries in the poor districts.

REPUBLICANS EAGER -- Texas Republicans in a recent meeting here boasted of wide-open opportunities in 1972 presidential and U.S. Senate races, for doubled state legislative strength and possible election of a governor.

Scandals in state government and prospects of single-member House (legislative) districts offer the GOP its biggest chance to elect candidates and achieve reform through two-party government, the Republican State Executive Committee was told repeatedly.

The GOP issued verbal invitations to unhappy Democrats and Independents, regardless of political philosophies, to enlist in Republican ranks.

AG OPINIONS -- Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin declared the controversial new code of ethics for state and local officials unconstitutional, and was commended by Governor Smith and Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

* A school of veterinary and zoological medicine at Texas Tech University can be approved by simple majority vote of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. New and separate institutions require a two-thirds vote of the Board.

*A witness in a criminal case under subpoena is entitled to mileage and witness fees.

* JIM WELLS COUNTY COMMISSIONERS REDISTRICTING OF COMMISSIONERS PRECINCTS AUGUST 11 IS VOID DUE TO FAILURE TO PUBLISH NOTICE OF CHANGES.

* Fees dedicated to the Real Estate Research Center at Texas A&M University are not in the state treasury and do not need to be appropriated by the legislature.

INSURANCE CUTS ORDERED -- The State Insurance Board has directed lower collision insurance premiums for motorists whose cars are equipped with new damage-resistant bumpers. No domestic manufacturers have yet certified cars that meet the standards, however.

Twenty per cent discounts were ordered for 1972 cars with bumpers that can stand a five-miles-per-hour collision, front or rear, without damage. Fifteen per cent cuts will be in force for new cars with bumpers which can stand a five-mph front end crash and a two-and-a-half-mph rear end bump. Ten per cent reductions apply for 1972 autos sustaining a five-mph front and two-and-a-half-mph rear collision without damage to lights, fuel, exhaust, cooling or latching systems or to the bumpers themselves.

URANIUM MINING EYED -- Street-by-street tests with sensitive scanning equipment to record possible abnormal radioactivity from uranimum mining operations will be made in the South Texas area.

Air and ground surveys by the State Health Department have disclosed no evidence of public health hazards, and none is anticipated by S.H.D. However, health problems have been reported in Colorado where a gas released by radium remained in tailings or wastes after usable uranium is extracted. The wastes there were used for construction fill.

Towns to be covered in the screening include Floresville, Karnes City, Kenedy, Three Rivers, George West, Tilden, Pleasanton, Leming, Poth, Hobson, Falls City, Helena, Panna Maria, Coy City, Lenz, Caesar, Pawnee, Mineral, Oakville, Simmons, Caliham, Whitsett, Peggy, Campbellton, Christine, McCoy and Caughran. Uranium mills operate in Falls City and near Three Rivers.

PARTY REFORM RULES EYED -- New state Democratic reform rules met generally-favorable reaction in a four-hour public hearing before a 23-member sub-committee here.

A final draft is due to be reviewed by the State Democratic Executive Committee rules sub-panel January 29 before it is passed along to the full SDEC in mid-February. SDEC Chairman Roy Orr of DeSoto predicted approval of the required guidelines in essentially the same form they were offered at the hearing.

The rules are designed to insure "open" conventions and encourage participation by minorities, youth, women and backers of rival presidential candidates. Party activities will be open to 18-year-olds. Governor Smith predicted the rules proposed would give Texas a "challenge-proof" delegation to the Miami Beach Democratic national convention.

APPOINTMENTS -- Governor Smith appointed Henry H. Cannady of Port Arthur to the Veterans Land Board.

Charles W. Duke of San Antonio, Beeman Fisher of Fort Worth to Texas Turnpike Authority.

The governor selected Charles D. (Chick) Morris, formerly of Lubbock, as his assistant press secretary.

Smith also named Tate McCain of Palestine 87th district judge; Jerry A. Sandel of Huntsville 12th district attorney; E.T. Summers, Jr. of Cuero to Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority board of directors; (reappointed) William A. Clifford of Lubbock as Canadian River Compact Commissioner; Harry O. Rearick of El Paso and Edwin J. Terry of Beaumont to the Real Estate Commission;

SHORT SNORTS

Governor Smith is considering a recommendation for a statewide food stamp program which would call for about $17 million in state aid to counties and would produce $286 million in federal assistance for the needy.

Industrial development of Texas last year may rank second only to record 1969, according to Texas Industrial Commission.

The Texas Supreme Court set a Wednesday (Jan. 19) review of a case in which State Rep. Jack Blanton of Carrollton seeks to force Dallas County Democratic Chairman Earl Luna to accept his state senate filing fee. Luna claimed Blanton hadn' lived in the district long enough.

Rural development may be the answer to pollution, urban crowding and rural poverty, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White contends.

The governor asked President Nixon to declare Bowie, Delta, Fannin, a disaster area due to recent flooding.

An advisory council for technical-vocational education has slated 29 conferences over the state.

The 1972 Miss Texas Universe Beauty pageant will be held in San Antonio April 10-15.

Meditations

God give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue and
Dam his treacherous flatteries without winking;
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty and in private thinking.
—Josiah Gilbert Holland.

The woods were made for the hunter of dreams,
The brooks for the fishers of sons;
To the hunters who hunt for the gunless game
The streams and the woods belong.
— Sam Walter Foss.

Dear God, give us strength to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed. Give us courage to change the things that can and should be changed. And give us wisdom to distinguish one from the other.
— Admiral Thomas C. Hart.

The world's greatest thinkers have often been amateurs; for high thinking is the outcome of fine independent living, and for that a professional chair offers no special opportunities.
— Havelock Ellis.

When springs run low, and on the brooks,
In idle golden freighting,
Bright leaves sink noiseless in the hush
Of woods for winter waiting.
— Helen Hunt Jackson.

A sharp tongue is the only edge tool that grows keener with constant use.
—Washington Irving.

Heap high the farmer's wintry hoard!
Heap high the golden corn!
No richer gift has Autumn poured
From out her lavish horn!
— John Greenleaf Whittier

Nothing happens to anybody which he is not fitted by nature to bear.
—Marcus Aurelius.

The winter falls, the frozen rut
Is bound with silver
bars;
The snowdrift heaps
against the hut,
And night is pierced
with stars.
—Coventry Patmore

For just experience tells, in every soil,
That those that think must govern those that toil. — Oliver Goldsmith.

The windy lights of Autumn flare;
I watch the moonlit sails go by;
I marvel how men toil and fare,
The weary business that they ply!
Their voyaging is vanity,
And fairy gold is all their gain,
And all the winds of winter cry,
"My Love returns no more again."
— Andrew Lang.

From contemplation one may become wise, but knowledge comes only from study.
—A. Edward Newton.

Like leaves on trees the race of man is found,
Now green in youth, now withering on the ground. — Alexander Pope.

Hail, ye small, sweet courtesies of life! for smooth do ye make the road of it.
— Lawrence Sterne.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

The news is that we are going to give Okinawa back to the Japanese, with due apologies for being rude enough to have taken it away from them.

But my unhopeful neighbor says he doesn't expect this decision to set any precedent by which Washington will be guided in the future.

So he will not be looking forward to getting back any time soon a refund of the cash which has been captured from him over the years by U.S. Form 1040. At least not until after the Federals give all of Texas back to Mexico.

Wellington Leader

Quail News

By Mrs. G. T. Stephens

Mrs. Lela Maxwell is having a new roof put on the Quail Post Office, and her home, which is in the same building.

Rev. and Mrs. Porter Arnold of Silverton were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Hair Sunday night. Monday morning they visited in Quail with friends, and ate dinner in Wellington with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crosby. That evening they were supper guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Blevins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Hamby and family of Amarillo spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Jones.

Rev. and Mrs. John Stout of Clarendon were dinner guests Tuesday of Mrs. Lela Maxwell.

Mrs. R.D. Jones and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.L. King of Wellington, visited her brother, Kenneth King of Dozier, who has been sick.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Gollihugh and Dub for the week end were her father, Rev. C.W. Squyres, Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Squyres, Jr., all of Lawton, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Howard and boys of Mobeetie; Mrs. Eugene Vernon and Betty of Wellington; and Paul and Randy Gollihugh of Amarillo.

Rev. and Mrs. D.C. Squyres of Lockney visited in the W.A. Gollihugh home Monday. They came for his father, Rev. C.W. Squyres, who will visit a short time with them before flying Westminister, Calif., to spend three months with a son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Squyres.

RESERVE CHAMPION

Owner of the Reserve Champion steer in the Youth Livestock Show Saturday was Joe Baumgardner, whose sister, Juliana, exhibited the winner. An Angus, the steer also placed second in the heavy weight division.

Rites for Mrs. C. H. Harrell Held Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. C.H. Harrell of Ft. Worth were conducted at First Baptist Church in Wellington at 2 p.m. Tuesday, January 18, with the Rev. Roy Collins, Jr., officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Mrs. Harrell died at 10:30 p.m. Sunday, January 16, in Harris Memprial Hospital, Ft. Worth. She had moved to that city two and a half months ago from Oklahoma City.

Born November 20, 1886, at Ennis, Mrs. Harrell grew up in that area, and she and Mr. Harrell were married May 21, 1905, at Waxahachie.

They moved to Wellington from Archer County in 1917, and for many years she was active in work of the First Baptist Church, of which she was a member.

Her husband died May 26, 1956, and a short time later she moved to be nearer her children.

Survivors are two daughters and two sons: Mrs. Velma Welpman of Ft. Worth, Mrs. Bill Saunders of Oklahoma City; W.T. Harrell and Dempsey Harrell of Borger. Other survivors are 7 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Teachers at Workshop Mon.

Teachers and administrators from Quail and Samnorwood attended a small school workshop in Wheeler Monday, January 17, one of the designated days for inservice training.

Among the group sessions was one relating to kindergarten, which are becoming a part of the Texas Public School System.

This workshop also gave students of the school a holiday.

Frances Hays has returned to her classes at Clarendon College after spending the between semester vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hays.

Norwood FFA Receives Three Registered Gilts

Samnorwood Future Farmers were the recepients of a Sears Roebuck Foundation grant which was used to buy two guilts. Then a patron of the school, Harald M. Hill, donated a third gilt to the chapter.

All three are registered Spots, said Jimmy Brown, vocational agriculture instructor.

The registered Sears pigs were bought at Wolfforth, and went to Mark Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, whose gilt is FE Future Lady, and Harald Hill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hill. His pig is FE Fine Miss.

The registered Hill pig, Jimmy Lou, was awarded to Ralph Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Graves. Mr. Hill is one of the few registered hog breeders in the Samnorwood area. The gilts are from three to four months old.

These boys will raise their gilts, and return a pig from the first litter to the program, which in turn will be given to three other boys of the chapter to begin registered hog production.

Paths, Pathways Planned for State

AUSTIN -- Horseback riders outnumber hunters in Texas. Canoe sales have risen 136 percent in the state since 1966.

But there is neither a public overland trail in Texas for hikers or horseback riders nor a water system which canoeists can navitage with trespassing.

The 62nd Texas Legislature's Senate Interim Committee on Parks and Recreation called for a feasibility study for the acquisition of land to accomodate the growing demand for more basic outdoor recreation.

A 30-mile railroad right-of-way north of San Antonio and a 22-mile stretch of the Guadalupe River north of the Canyon Reservoir were picked for the study.

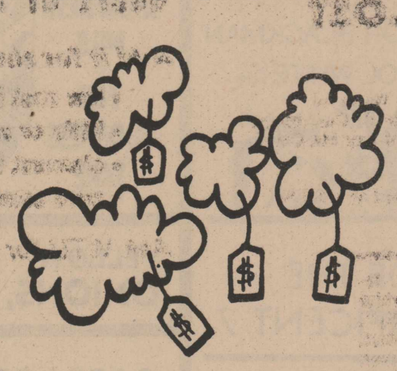

A similar pilot porject was conducted in Wisconsin. The project met with the same public fears of vandalism, fire and destruction of wilderness as Pathways and Paddleways has met in Texas. However, once opened, the trail drew little public criticism and has been pronounced an overwhelming success.

The Wisconsin and Texas concepts are new to public parks. They are "linear" parks instead of "rectangular" ones.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

THE COMMISSIONERS Court has its quarterly financial statement in this issue of the paper as prescribed by law. Carmen Lindley, county and district clerk, has the annual financial statement of Collingsworth County in the paper which is also required by law. Last fall the three school districts of the county published financial statements as prescribed by the statutes.

LAST SUNDAY the City of Amarillo published its financial statement in The Sunday News-Globe just as many other towns and cities do annually. But the present mayor and city council of Wellington go on their sedate way of not publishing a financial statement at all.

THE LAST time the City of Wellington published an annual financial statement, as far as we can learn from reading the files of the Wellington Leader, was in October of 1963. It was for the period ending September 30, 1963 and was published in October. The mayor was Hiram Cudd and it was also signed by Russell Yates. It showed that the liquid assets - - - cash, negotiable bonds, money on deposit at interest, etc. was 99,927, 84 and the bonded indebtedness was down to $37,000 as I remember the statement. (It is zero now). The financial statements go back to 1947 and perhaps farther; but we could find none later than 1963.

THE LAW says: "The City Council shall, at least ten days before the expiration of each municipal year, cause to be published in a city newspaper a correct and full statement of the receipts and expenditures from the date of the last annual report, together with the sources from which the funds were derived, and showing for what purpose disbursed, the condition of the treasury, together with such information as may be necessary to a full understanding of the financial condition of the city."

THE CITY is probably in good financial shape; but the taxpayers have a right to know the exact status without going to the city hall to check the latest audit, which nine out of ten will never do anyway. That is one of the reasons the law was placed upon the books.

WHAT a miserably unfortunate time for the power to go off! Last Sunday while 90 per cent of the male population of Wellington was watching the Cowboy defense demolish the Dolphins the power failed in Wellington and several neighboring towns. It was no more his fault than it was mine, but it was an unhappy and uneasy afternoon for Don Welch, the personable manager of WTU. He had invited company to his home to watch the game. He says that they have not yet discovered the cause of the failure.

THE ABSENCE of TV did not disturb me as much as it did some people. We first hooked up a high-fi we received for Christmas only to find the battery was dead. Then we got in the car, turned on the radio, and drove out to the farm to watch the cotton harvesting while listening to the game. After a time you start seeing the game fairly well in your imagination just like a Shakespearian play. Monday evening I saw all the scoring plays and turnovers on the sportscast. So I do not feel that I missed much.

I AM NOT as sorry for Don, however, as I am for Billye Owens, manager of the Ritz Theatre. The film for North Country, the highly advertised road show, did not arrive. She had to sit and wring her hands while a large crowd of mothers and their children waited patiently. Naturally there were few fathers present. They had stayed at home to watch the Super Bowl on TV.

PALO C. Cummings, that's old Palo, phoned to give me a heartwarming story about a dog and a want ad. Recently Sammie Cates drove through Wellington with a load of hay he bought in Oklahoma. On top of the hay rode his black and white Border Line Collie that had been trained as a stock dog. The wind was high and somewhere between here and Memphis the dog was either blown off or fell off the truck. When he found she was missing, Mr. Cates turned around and came back to Wellington to put a lost ad in the paper. He was a distraut man.

IN THE meantime the dog named Sally had proceeded to take care of herself. She found Palo F. Cummings' truck, that's big Palo, and jumped in the back. It did not take Palo long to discover that she was a highly useful stock dog and he was becoming attached to her when he read the want ad and phoned the owner. He has the $25 reward; but he would rather have the dog. Cates said that he would not take $500 for the animal.

within seconds also, but both towns were without electricity.

The entire West Texas Utility Co. crew was at the Wellington sub-station within two minutes, but there was no damage.

Everyone agrees things could have been worse. The Cowboys and Dolphins could have been tied when the power went off.

Most Traffic Citations Go To Adults, Police Chief Says

Wellington's young people came in for praise and their driving habits from the city's new Chief of Police, James King, this week as he rounded out a month's duty.

Only 25 per cent of the citations he has issued in that period have been to persons under 21 years. The other 75 per cent have been to their elders, persons 21 and over, Chief King revealed this week.

He has had a police car in which to work only three weeks.

"In the 22 days, we had 11 accidents resulting in bodily injury to two people, and that's a pretty high percent," Chief King declared.

With this record, priority at this time goes to enforcement of traffic laws.

Speeding is Wellington's most frequent violation. Fourteen of 40 citations were for this offense, said Chief King. Others appearing frequently were failure to yield, following too close, improper starting from a parked position, and failure to maintain proper lookout.

Chief King pointed out that a radar unit is in operation here and is moved from point to point depending on the flow of traffic. Normally, speed limits within a city are 30 miles per hour unless otherwise posted. Around the square, drivers should use caution at all times, it was pointed out.

"One of the biggest factors in accidents is driving while intoxicated. Of the three cases I have had here, two did have accidents," the police chief reported.

Just as Wellington was new to James King, the people of the city faced a new situation on his arrival. Not in many years has there been a policeman who did not live here before he took up his duties.

The adjustment has been made, especially by Wellington's youth. Chief King said one of the most appreciated remarks he has had since coming here was from a teen-ager:

"You treat us like you treat the adults."

"I think everyone should be treated alike," the officer added. Most of these boys and girls have had driver education courses.

"If the parents would sit down and let the kids do the instructing, they could learn some things about driving," he said, speaking earnestly.

As a reaminder that a police officer is here to give assistance as well as enforce laws, Chief King said he would be glad to hold adult meetings on driving at any time there is a demand for them.

"And if you have any questions, just stop me when you see me on the street. I'll be glad to answer them for you," he said.

Mrs. Morris Sets Farm Sale

Mrs. Lewis Morris has announced that she will sell at public auction a large quantity of farm machinery, irrigation equipment and other items on Saturday, January 22, at her farm south of Quail.

Location of the sale, which is handled by Quinton Jenkins, auctioneer of Amarillo, will be 6 miles north of Quail on FM 1547, then one mile west. The sale will begin at 10:00 a.m.

This is one of the largest sales of farm and irrigation equipment sales held in the county in many years, and including both self propelled and side rolling irrigation systems, motors and flow lines. Also included are tractors, equipment for growing peanuts, fertilizer equipment, items for handling cattle, and a large assortment of other farm machinery, and an assortment of other miscellaneous equipment.

Also to be sold at auction following the farm machinery sale is a 90 x 710 foot lot with 30 x 60 foot building in Quail.

Lunch will be available at the sale location by Quail Homemakers chapter.

in 1957, when the family moved to Wellington, he was first an assistant Scoutmaster and since 1958 Scoutmaster of Troop 32.

Outside of Wellington, perhaps his greatest contribution to Scouting has been his work with Camp M.K. Brown, the new Boy Scout Camp between Wheeler and Mobeetie.

His latest accomplishment at the camp was to instigate the building of a paved road to the dining hall and to supervise its construction. He has served on two Adobe Walls Council Committees.

Mr. McLain is an engineer with the Wellington office of the Texas State Highway Department. Other than Scouting, he is also active in First Christian Church and is a past president of the Rocket Booster Club.

Attending from Wellington: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McLain, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Parsons, Judge and Mrs. Zook Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Reed.

The event was held in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Hotel in Pampa.

governor of the state has made a special apportionment for the employment of these local men and an all-out effort will be made to find and eradicate this pest."

To point up the severity of the scabies infestation, Mr. Copeland, cited a group of steers bought by a Hall County man on June 5 weighing around 650 pounds each. When they were dipped at the Hartman Vat Tuesday morning, they weighed probably 500 pounds."

A number of 4-H boys were on hand to observe the infection in this herd and watch the dipping procedure.

A premise-to-premise survey of all cattle in this and other counties will be made on a routine basis, Mr. Copeland said.

salary of the librarian, $2,400. This place is filled by appointment.

The agreement on food stamps will extend that program for a year, under a joint arrangement with Armstrong, Briscoe, Donley and Hall counties. They are billed, quarterly for their part of the program, and this county's cost for the period December, January and February was $449, County Judge Zook Thomas said. The total for the five counties is $1,500, with the cost based on the number of recepients. In addition, the county will pay 60 cents per person for all persons receiving stamps.

The commissioners also gave approval for Judge Thomas to apply for funding to improve the county park site, acquired last year immediately north of Salt Fork River, just off US 83 North. The money will be sought through the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, which has funded many parks in the state.

NOTICE

To all who came to see NORTH COUNTRY Sunday and were disappointed because the film did not arrive, I would like to say---
