TALCO DEFEATS HONEY GROVE 26-13 IN NON-CONFERENCE

Talco Trojans have been simmering over a 26-20 loss to Honey Grove in last year's bi-district football.

Friday they got their chance for revenge. They spanked the Honey Grove Warriors, 26-13, in a non-conference renewal of the feud at Honey Grove.

Two members of the Trojan team that lost to Honey Grove in bi-district returned to haunt the Warriors. Tailback Elton Belcher and Fullback Billy Ramey shared the Talco scoring. Each got two touchdowns.

Belcher was fullback on Talco's district championship lineup last year, Ramey a guard.

Honey Grove had licked Ladonia and Class AA Bonham in that order before running up against Talco. Friday the Trojans of Coach W. G. McGill scored first and were never behind.

Ramey opened the point-making, scooting around end for 20 yards and a touchdown in the first quarter. Try for extra point failed. Ramey scored again in the first quarter, with Ramey crossing again from eight yards out. Again the try for extra point was bad and Talco held a 12-0 edge.

Honey Grove finally broke the ice in the second quarter. Halfback Billy Goss ripped two yards for the touchdown. Fullback Terry Eaton climbed over for the extra point. But Talco came through again in the same period with Belcher going off tackle for five yards and a score.

Ramey scored the extra point for Talco and the Trojans held a 9-7 edge at halftime.

Coach Adair Mankin's Warriors made another comeback in the third quarter. Halfback Clifton Avery scampered 33 yards around end for the touchdown. Eaton's try for extra point was no good but the Warriors had narrowed the margin 19-13.

Then Eaton broke away for an 82-yard scoring run. But the score-tying touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty against Honey Grove.

Talco scored again in the fourth on a two-yard plunge by Belcher. He also ran the extra point to give him 13 points for the night.

Honey Grove had another touchdown called back by a penalty. This time End Jack Rogers took a lateral and went 45 yards to score only to have it rubbed out.

The Trojans had been gathering steam and building up spirit since they were upset by Honey Grove last year. Talco lost little time in showing Honey Grove that the Trojans meant business, and scored twice in the first quarter. Billy Ramey, who won all-district honors at guard last year on the Trojan team, has been moved into the backfield this year, and scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, one a 20-yd. end run and the second an 8-yd. line play.

In the second period, Elton Belcher, all-district back of last year's team, went over tackle for 5 yards and 6 points. Billy Ramey carried over for the extra point, making the half end 19-7.

The Warriors came back hard in the second half and scored another 6 points, but were unable to penetrate a stout defensive line and took to the air. They fared no better in the air than they had on the ground. The Warriors threw eight passes in the course of the game and completed three with two interceptions. Talco tried only three passes and failed to make a completion.

Ramey and Belcher shared scoring honors with 13 points each. Johnny Lilley and Donald Easterling also turned in a fine game in the Talco backfield by beautiful runs and hard blocking.

The entire Talco line was a standout throughout the contest and tossed the "Syrup City" boys for numerous losses. Neil Waddell and Leroy Matthews complained that the Talco quarterback only knew two plays to call, and almost worked them to death.

In regular season play Talco has had nine straight wins and are to have another grudge battle here Friday night when the Judson Grove Blue Devils will be our guests. Judson defeated Talco last year in Judson 13-6.

The yardstick below reveals that the Trojans roundly outplayed the Warriors:

Dept.	H-Grove	Talco
First downs	7	21
Yds. gained rushing	125	220
Yds. gained passing	126	234
Passes completed	3	0
Yds. gained passing	40	0

Friday night is homecoming for Talco. One of the largest crowds of the season will witness the contest. The Trojans will present the 1953 Football Queen, Miss Gloria Smith, and the crowning of the queen will be Friday night at the game.

SULSAR CATCHES TWO NICE BASS

L. W. Sulsar, formerly of Fulbright, who now lives at Commerce, brought in Friday two of the nicest Big Mouth Black bass seen in Deport in a long time. They were caught at a private lake and he was fishing alone at the time.

One weighed 5 pounds, 14 ounces and the other 4 1/4 pounds. Sulsar was using a Flat Fish U-20 spoon.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hearon, Sunday.

Second Cuthand Well Producing; Third Location

The Southeast Cuthand Glenrose sand pool in South Red River County Tuesday had its second producer and at the same time was set for its third operation.

Seaboard Oil Company No. 1 Dr. J. C. Calabria, BBB&C survey, was finished in a new and higher sand pay at 4,769-65 pumping 104 barrels of oil and seven barrels of water per day.

Location is about a half mile west and north of the firm's No. 1 Coline, area discovery finished for 4,920-26 feet. The Coline well had a completion gauge of 154.7 barrels of oil per day, but the well subsequently began to show considerable water. The Calabria well found the discovery sand shaled out.

Seaboard's third test for the area, which is twelve miles south of Clarksville, will be No. 2 Coline in the I. Tejada survey. It will be a north offset to the No. 1 discovery.

In Franklin County completion has been made by Humble Oil on its Rodessa oil pay opener three miles north of Winnsboro and about the same distance northeast of the Pickett field area. The No. 1 A. C. Ballard, J. C. Elder survey, pumped 124 barrels of oil plus 2.5 barrels of salt water per day from 8,232-50 feet. This well was started as a Smackover lime project, but was stopped short when oil was found.

Close School to Harvest Cotton

East Lamar High School is closed this week to allow students to help harvest cotton in the area, according to Superintendent Lleo Dodd.

"Unless we have a rain that would stop cotton picking, there'll be no school this week," the superintendent said. School will be resumed on Monday, Oct. 5.

Titus Grand Jury Bills Seventeen

Titus Grand Jury returned seventeen bills of indictment last week.

One bill for murder, one for removing mortgaged property from the county, three for swindling by hot checks, one for willfully injuring personal property of another, two for theft of over $50, one for child desertion, one for burglary, three for driving while intoxicated—2nd offense and four for forgery.

September Sets New Heat Records

Officially, the calendar says it is fall, but the last ten days remind us that summer made a comeback for a longer visit. The mercury has slid upward in the upper 90's for a week and hit the 100 mark Monday, setting new high records this late in the year.

It was the hottest day here since Aug. 7 when temperatures hit 101 degrees, and it was the eighth day this year for the mercury to move up to the century mark. Top temperature for the year was 103 degrees on July 6.

The present heat wave is taking its toll in fall gardens and grass. Cotton is not hurting, according to growers. Many farmers are planting cover crops and vetch, hoping for an early rain to bring it up.

September was an unusual month, weatherly speaking. Not only was record highs reached, but the mercury slid to the mid 50's on Sept. 4, as a norther moved in from the Rocky Mountains. Not much rain fell during the month—approximately two inches on Sept. 3, being the only measurable amount.

Most farmers are expecting an early and hard winter, but they don't want a frost as early as last year's. The first 1952 frost came Oct. 8, more than a month earlier than the average first-frost date of Nov. 11.

Will Open Bids for Red River Bridge October 20th

A new bridge over Red River, north of Clarksville, connecting Texas State Highway 37 and Oklahoma 57, bids for which are scheduled to be opened by the State Highway Commissions of Texas and Oklahoma on Oct. 20, will cost in the neighborhood of $665,000, it has been announced.

For Oklahoma the cost of this project will probably come higher because of the expense of constructing an approach above flood levels for some distance from the main channel of the river.

Texas will not have this problem but faces the task of bank stabilization for a distance of several thousand feet to assure that the channel of the stream does not move further southward.

Major structural details include the following points:

The bridge will be of steel and concrete, 2,393 1/2 feet in length with a 26-foot clear roadway.

It will have one 200-foot I-beam unit, one 662-foot continuous plant girder unit and six 255-foot continuous I-beam units anchored to 25 reinforced concrete piers.

The job will use 1,905 1/2 tons of reinforcing steel.

Methodists Will Build Parsonage

The financial goal, two-thirds of estimated cost, has almost been reached for the construction of a new parsonage for the Talco Methodist Church, therefore the contract will be let within the very near future, is the report of the parsonage building committee. It is hoped that construction can begin within the next month.

The new parsonage building, a modern 3 bed-room construction with car port, will be constructed across the street from the present Methodist parsonage and church property. The old parsonage will be used to care for the rapidly expanding Church School, possibly being converted into a youth center, or other type of educational building. Building committee is composed of Andy Bowman, chairman; R. R. Rothwell, J. A. Davis and Guy Walker.

IOWAN BAITS TRAP; IT STAYS BAITED

Lester, Iowa.—Ever have a mouse steal the cheese out of the trap?

Waldo Denker says you can avoid that feeling that the mouse is smarter than you are this way: Fasten the cheese to the trap with a piece of transparent tape, leaving the ends open. Then the mouse can't pull the bait free before the trap springs.

Trojans to Meet Judson Grove Here Friday

Talco's Trojans will be hosts to Judson Grove Red Devils for next Friday night's game. What kind of team Judson Grove has this year is unknown.

Last year the Red Devils beat the Trojans 13 to 6 at Judson Grove, when two Talco touchdowns were rubbed out, due to penalties, in the third and fourth quarters.

But this year Talco plays in its own back yard with the added support of rooters among the Ex-Students Association.

With Honey Grove Warriors' scalps hanging to their belts from Friday's game, the Trojans will enter this contest with confidence to again make good last year's defeat by the Red Devils.

Homecoming For Talco Ex-Students Friday-Saturday

Talco Ex-Students Association annual home-coming is scheduled for Friday and Saturday of this week, with two full days of activity.

One of the highlights is a program Friday morning in the high school auditorium, given entirely by ex-students who used to take part in entertainments during their school days.

Friday's events include a pep rally, the game here with Judson's team, and a dance. Saturday, a banquet and another dance will be held.

All ex-students are urged to attend, says Miss Jackie Winn, secretary-treasurer of the organization, who has charge of collection of dues and making banquet reservations.

Information has been sent out to all ex-students and plans are being made to make this year's celebration the best in the history of the association. Association members who plan to attend are asked to send in their dues and reservations for the banquet. These should be made to Miss Winn, officials said.

File Liquor Charges Against Local Man

Two Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors spent $5 for two half-pints of whiskey near Deport Tuesday.

Then they arrested the man they said sold them the whiskey on charges of selling liquor in a dry area. Joe McGill, Deport, drew the liquor sale charge and an additional charge of repetition of offense.

Disguising themselves as anything but officers, the two inspectors from the Paris office said they arranged to buy the whiskey then made the purchase. They said they arrested McGill when he allegedly made the delivery on a highway near Deport.

Two of this publisher's three high school football teams won their games last Friday night, and the schedule would not permit the third one to win, since Deport met Bogata for the sixth straight victory over the Tigers. Talco's Trojans evened an old score with

Honey Grove by beating the Warriors 26 to 13 on their own grounds. Talco lost a heartbreaking bi-district game to Honey Grove at Paris last season's end, and the Trojans wanted this game to show them we had a better ball club.

Following Chief Justice Fred Vinson's death recently, it was revealed he left an estate of only $11,000 and that he owed $10,000.
Politicians started yelling for more money for government officials. Vinson, one of the most able men in the nation, received a yearly salary of $22,000. If Fred wanted to spend his money instead of having the state and federal government take much of it in death and inheritance taxes, that was his business. Maybe he was smart in so living, but it is no excuse to raise salaries of government officials.

This is National Newspaper Week—a time when newspapers are supposed to let their hair down and talk about themselves.
That they are an important cog in the social, business, educational and spiritual life of each community they serve will not be questioned. How well they serve depends almost entirely upon the support they receive from those communities, financially, morally and otherwise. Progressive merchants who seek the patronage of the people of the area thru well planned, regular advertising in the local newspaper are in large part responsible for the kind of town they have, as well as the kind of newspaper that can be published there.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

BURT LOCKHART
in Pittsburg Gazette

There may be fun in being bad until payday comes.

It may be a mistake not to make one occasionally.

Most of us are charitable. We overlook our own faults.

The fact that beauty is only skin deep is why the cosmetic counters do such a good business.

Most everybody is capable of taking on a little more happiness, and they are striving like mad to get it.

The infant industry in the United States is still a crying need, with 3,000,000 brand new babies annually to do the crying.

The state prison shows more than $1,000,000 profit. Most any institution can show a profit when labor is free and there are no strikes.

Sometimes an after dinner speaker says he has nothing to talk about and keeps on talking until he convinces his hearers that he was right.

Pennsylvania walked away with Mrs. America and Miss America, which leads us to ask. What has Pennsylvania gals got that Texas gals don't have?

The Democrats gave a $100-a-plate dinner in Chicago to raise money to wipe out a $250,000 deficit from the last presidential campaign. The probably want to get the deficit squared off so they can create another one in 1956.

BACK TO SCHOOL

More Schooling Important

For their own good and the good of the nation, the 3,000,000 teenagers who worked during the summer should think twice before deciding to quit school.

Last year one-fifth of the 16- and 17-year-olds failed to return to school after taking summer jobs. As a general thing, the failure to get more education dims their future, because statistics show that a boy who finishes high school will earn during the next 40 years $14,700 more than his fellow-student who quit after junior year. For girls, the differential is nearly $20,000.

But more important—the nation needs educated men and women to operate our complex economic machine. We can't match the Communist hordes in manpower. Only thru brainpower can we keep ahead of them. We must look to the schools for most of the trained technicians and professional men and women who furnish that brainpower.

The sweet young thing up the street doesn't believe in mixing too much sentiment with marriage. She thinks some dough should be in the mixing.

It is hard to tell who works harder, the man who is straining every muscle to make a fortune, or the man who has made one and is working hard to keep others from getting it.

Let us hope certain resigning politicians are not trying to throw this country in a tailspin in order to discredit the Eisenhower administration. The sacrifice of a nation's prosperity in order to further the interests of a political party is unpardonable.

LOVELY, TOO

Two friends met and one of them noticed that the other's hands were dirty.

"How come your hands are covered with soot?" he asked.

The friend explained that he had just been down to the station to see his wife off on a long trip to visit relatives.

"But why are your hands dirty?"

"I patted the engine."

Telephone Calls are Important Calls

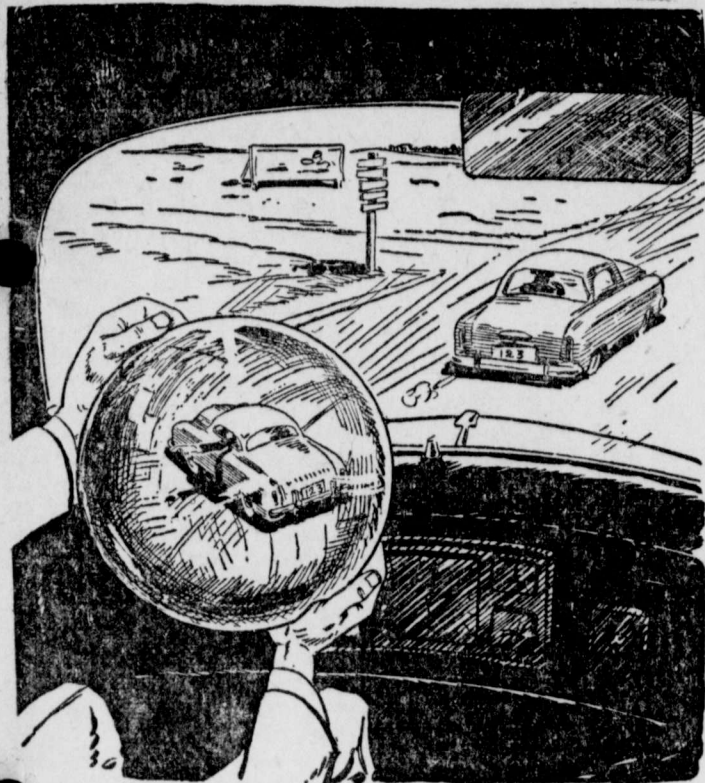

No matter when you need to make a telephone call, at any time of the day or night, you expect your telephone to work. And the chances are, you'll find it hard to remember when it didn't give you the service you expected!

What is the magic that has so much to do with your telephone's dependability? Telephone people call it "preventive maintenance." Actually, it's finding and eliminating troubles before they happen.

Of course, occasionally it may be necessary to report trouble on your line. When you do, you'll find the repairman courteous, efficient and neat in his work. And you'll also find him tremendously interested in keeping your telephone the dependable servant it is.

THE SOUTHWESTERN STATES TELEPHONE CO.

What Makes You Think There's a Mind Reader Behind You?

The fellow driving the car behind yours is a mind reader, you're safe without making signals.

Unfortunately for you, less than one tenth of one per cent of the population is made up of professional mind readers.

So you'd better assume that other drivers haven't the slightest idea what you're about to do—stop, slow down, turn left or turn right. A shocking number of all accidents are caused by slowing, stopping or turning without proper signals. That's why you can often prevent an accident by making the proper signals—letting other drivers know, unmistakably, what you plan to do.

Specific hand signals are recommended in the Uniform Vehicle Code. In the event signals in your state differ from these, by all means learn correct signals and use them.

The recommended signal for slowing down, is the left hand out and straight down, palm to the rear—moving from side to side to call attention to it, if necessary. The stop signal is the left hand out and down, palm to the rear. This should be accompanied or followed by the "go-ahead" signal if all is clear ahead.

In either case, your life is in your hands—or your hand signals.

Good reason to be sure your mechanical turn signals and stop lights are working properly. If not—and if you're relying on them without hand signals—you really need a mind reader behind you. Most of all, you need a visit to the dealer who sold you your car—because his service men know best how to check the electrical system of your make of car for safe operation.

Signalling, remember, is more than just a courtesy—it's a life-saving necessity.

California Oil Well Is Four Miles Deep

Findlay, Ohio.—A wildcat, the Ohio Oil Company began drilling nearly two years ago in Kern County, California, became the deepest hole in the world Friday when the drill-bit ground its way below the previous record of 20,521 feet. The Kern County Land Company A 72-4 well is 25 miles southwest of Bakersfield.

"Although no one knows just how deep it will go the well is drilling ahead toward the Eocene Point of Rock sand which is expected at around 21,000 feet," Production Manager W. B. Tmery said.

"Whether it will reach that depth depends largely on the difficulties in future drilling. For example, should the string of drill pipe, nearly four miles in length become stuck in the hole it might result in abandonment before the objective formation is reached."

He estimated that the cost of drilling and testing the well will exceed $1,300,000.

East Texas Chamber On Right Track

East Texas Chamber of Commerce tackled a nation-wide job when it decided to sponsor a restoration of government property to private ownership, and to use the money received for it to apply on the public debt. It should be done.

The government owns a fourth of the land in the nation and that ownership has increased by leaps and bounds during the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. It is estimated that one hundred fifty billion dollars could be applied to the public debt if all land not needed nor used by the government were sold and the money so applied. It would also stop the socialistic trend of government in business in competition to its taxpaying subjects.

We predict the Eisenhower administration will be sympathetic towards this movement inaugurated by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce. The president has leanings toward getting the government back into its rightful place under our Constitution.

We need to get our people back to work to earn their living in the sweat of their brows as commanded by Holy Writ, rather than to look to the Federal government for hand-outs and something for nothing. And that also applies to the nations of Europe who have had their hands out for Uncle Sam's donations since the end of World War II.

Our own industrious tax payers who work and are tax-ridden need some relief from high taxes. It is high time the industrious stopped supporting the indolent. It is neither fair nor Democratic.

Snakes almost literally walk on the ends of their ribs. The ribs are attached to broad, special scales on the under side of the body. Through a forward and backward motion of the ribs, these scales move the snake along the ground.

Keep Shape Girls, Avoid Army Drills

Washington.—There's a four-page set of regulations issued for the Women's Army Corps Monday and it all boils down to the fact that the Army wants its females "well-distributed" weight-wise.

The Army did not say WACs must substitute curves for bulges but made it clear that it hopes to keep enlisted women in shape by putting them through extensive drill exercises.

The new regulations state that a "well distributed" figure will excuse a WAC from drill.

Alcorn Learns U. S. Treasury and His Supply of Winter Hay in Same Shape

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, must think money is hay, his letter this week reveals.

Dear Editor: I was wandering around over my pasture out here yesterday afternoon absorb the October sunshine and sizz up my cows and wonderin how cold it'll get this winter and whether they can all make it thru alive when I noticed a copy of a newspaper had blown against a corner post and since my corner posts ain't the strongest in the world I figured I'd better take the paper off to cut down on the wind resistance. I haven't got time to be repairin blown-over corner posts when there's even more work needed to be done on the posts in between, not to mention the wire, and since I had the paper in my hand when I pulled it off I took it home and picked out a comfortable spot on the south side of the barn and stretched out and looked it over.

What interested me right off was an article sayin the Secretary of the U. S. Treasury, Geo. Humphrey, has checked up on the money on hand in Washington and has informed President Eisenhower that the government probably can scrape through the fall and winter without callin Congress back into session to raise some more. He figures the government can cut a few corners and scratch around and meet its bills until January at least, when Congress is due back anyway.

I know exactly how it is, and I'm pleased to learn that me and the Secretary of the Treasury have some problems in common.

I have been checkin up on my supply of Johnson grass hay and I've figured if I cut some corners and scratch around enough, my cows ought to be able to make it to January, too, and I'm gonna take the position that if the United States Treasury can do it, my cows ought to too. In fact, my cows are just gonna have to buckle down, recognize that's all the hay there is, and get by on it. This idea of pourin more and more hay to the cows and more money to the people can't go on forever. We got to call a halt somewhere and I'm proud that me and the Secretary of the Treasury see eye to eye on it.

Of course, the people have a little advantage over my cows. My cows don't have Congress comin back into session in January to take the pressure off, they've got to make it all the way to spring grass along in April. My cows just don't have any machinery for callin me back in session in January. It's up to them to size up the hay in the barn and recognize that's all that's standin between them and the first blade of green grass six months from now. I don't know that they'll be better cows physically for the experience, but if they make it they'll have the satisfaction of comin through with stronger characters. I've heard President Eisenhower himself say we need to strengthen the moral fiber of this nation. Personally, I find a great satisfaction in knowin that the United States Treasury and my hay barn are in about the same shape.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Miranda Choice, 106 Buried Thursday

Miranda Jane Carter Choice (colored), of Bagwell, who was 106 years old in May, died Sept. 23 at her home. Funeral service was held Thursday at the New Hope Baptist Church at Detroit and burial was at Canton.

She was born in May, 1847 near Memphis, Tenn., and was brought to Texas with her mother and five other children by her master, John Ayers Chambers. Daughter of Billy and Martha Perkins Carter, she had resided in Red River County from early childhood. She joined the New Hope church about 80 years ago, when it was located at Liberty, near Guest Prairie. She was married to Joe Choice and was the mother of eleven children. Governor P. Choice and Daisy E. Choice Ware, both of Bagwell, are the only two children now living. Twelve grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grandchildren, also survive.

Advanced in years, her mind was very alert throughout her life. She was a helpful friend to her own color and the white race, as revealed by the many paying their last respects. Aunt Miranda was a former cook of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Thompson, parents of Mrs. J. H. Moore and W. H. Thompson, when the Thompson children were small.

Mrs. J. H. Moore of Deport, Mrs. Luther Rozell, Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Baker, Miss Selma Baker of Fulbright and Jim Breedlove (colored) of Deport, were among those from this area attending the final rites.

Child Work Law is Cited to Farmers

Labor department official reminds farmers that it is illegal to employ minor children in farm work during school hours.

The employment violates the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act. There are no federal restrictions on the employment of children before or after school hours or on holidays, or if the child is employed by his parent or guardian. But a child under sixteen can not legally be employed in farm work during hours when the school in his district is in session.

Probe Ordered On Meat Price Gap

WASHINGTON.—The Government has ordered an investigation to find out whether the price spread between beef on the hoof and on the retail counter is too great.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, who ordered the inquiry, said he had received reports of a "widening of the spread between prices farmers receive for their cattle and the cost of these at retail."

"Farmers of America are entitled to know if there is truth to the charge that margins are excessive," the Secretary said in a statement.

Benson noted that the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported a 6 per cent increase in the retail price of beef and veal from July to August. This increase, Benson said, came at a time of abundant supplies and generally low cattle prices and has been of concern to both farmers and consumers.

Growers Harvest Crop of Sesame

Lamar and adjoining counties are harvesting the first major commercial crop of sesame ever grown in the United States, and most growers are well pleased with the results.

Biggest Lamar production reported to date comes from Jess Reasoner of the Blossom area. His ten acres produced an average of 912 pounds of the ancient oil seed per acre, according to Roy H. Anderson, executive-secretary of the Texas Sesame Seed Growers Association.

At 13 cents per pound, Reasoner's sesame will gross more than $100 per acre.

Anderson expects even higher yields on the Albert Roach farm in the Minter community. A two-acre plot of sesame was tried out there last year and resulted in the organization of the sesame association and the planting of more than 200 acres in Lamar and between 1,500 and 2,000 acres in 24 other Texas counties.

Harvesting is being done with grain binders. The sesame is first cut and shocked, later run thru combines to extract the valuable oil seeds from the pods.

Acres of this crop should be large next year if cotton acreage control restrictions are high.

WHO'S AN IDIOT?

He was considered the village idiot. People liked particularly to place a dime and a nickel on the palm of a hand and invite him to take his pick of the two. In each case he would pick the nickel, and the person or persons present would laugh and make merry at his expense.

One day a kind-hearted man asked him, "Don't you know the difference between a dime and a nickel? Don't you know a dime is worth twice as much as a nickel?"

"Sure, I know it," was the answer. "And I also know they wouldn't try me on it any more if I took the dime."

The linotype machine was first put into use in 1886 by the New York Tribune. It was the invention of Ottmar Mergenthaler.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

One for the Books!

Noticed the Missus had a red ribbon tied around her finger at breakfast one morning last week. "What's that for?" I asked. "Your memory slipping?"

"It's not for me," she answers, "it's to remind you, and everybody else who asks what it's for, to contribute to the Woman's Club Library Fund. We need $200 and we figured we'd get more help if we could get people to ask us about it."

Well, as it turned out, the red ribbon worked just fine. The ladies are having the library all fixed up—and there's enough money for some new books, too.

From where I sit, it would be a fine thing if we had some sort of private reminder when we forget the rights of our neighbors. Like when we start telling them what we think is best. I may like a travel book and a temperate glass of beer while you prefer a cup of tea with your historic novel. Let's both remember to "put the finger" on the other.
