Open House Set Sunday

Open house for the newly completed field house will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

Invitation to attend and view the new facilities is extended by the Longhorn coaching staff, school board members and administrators.

"We are all very proud of our new field house and concession stand and hope everyone will come see it," Lonnie Phillips says.

Danny George Wins First Hart Beat Grid Contest

Danny George claims the first week's win in the Hart Beats new fun feature, the football contest. Winning by virtue of being closest with his tie-breaking prediction of the Longhorns-Lazbuddie Longhorns' game, the young footballer will receive a check for $5.

Four contestants missed five games each but George's 32-6 prediction of the score nosed out Dudley Aven, Doyle Davis and Larry Cox.

Aven guessed the score to be 35-0, missing by 23 points, and will receive the second place check for $3. Davis predicted the score at 21-0, off 35 points, and is third place winner of $2. Cox guessed 24-16, missing the actual score 38 points, and losing out on the money.

Contestants with eight points or more are listed on page 3.

The contest is fun. Contestants who did not enter the first week still have a chance at the season's grand prize of two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and $40 to spend. Runner-up for the standard calculator and two small calculators were taken from three offices of the firm. In addition, a small amount of candy was taken from a candy machine plus its coin container.

Entry was made into the potato shed and then a door leading into the office unit was jimmied. The locked door of Mrs. Smith's office was also forced and it was from this office that the large calculator was taken. Entry was made through that office into the office of Mrs. Kenneth Covington where the typewriter was stolen.

Theft of a large sum of money was averted since Mrs. Smith had made a night deposit after leaving the office at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Investigating officer, Deputy Granville Martin, made prints and the case is under investigation.

Horns Tromp Lazbuddie, 52-6

Handsome new maroon and silver uniforms added a smart look to the Longhorns Friday night as they masterfully out-distanced the Longhorns of Lazbuddie, 52-6, on the black and orange home field.

Leading 40 to 0 at halftime, the second string defense saw action most of the second half.

Jimmy Brown, who scored 22 TDs last year, notched four for the night on 17, 4, 16 and 27 yard scampers.

Sophomore Barry George crossed pay-dirt three times with runs of 26, 8 and 48. James McLain ran back a punt 55 yards for a first quarter TD.

Wade Cargile ran 8 yards

FARMERS GRAIN COMPANY -- 1973

Old Ledger's Pages Recall Farmers Grain Early Days

Modernization of equipment and irrigation have made the greatest changes in Hart's second oldest business - Farmers Grain. Established in 1929 by the late W.C. Dinwiddie, a contract was let in March of that year for the construction of grain storage facilities.

The original contract and minutes of those early days meetings are still recorded neatly in one of the company's ledgers.

"It was mutually agreed," the old contract reads, "that the company pay contractor's cost of freighting tools and equipment from Springfield, Mo. and return."

"Contractor shall employ supervisor to be in charge at a wage not to exceed $10 per day while so engaged," it continues. The contract further states that the supervisor "will pay for his own room and board and traveling expenses" during the period of construction.

Otto Dinwiddie was manager of the new business from its founding until 1959 when he became executive secretary. Members of the original board of directors were Henry Hoelting, G.T. Abbott, Ellis Jones and J.R. Riley.

In its beginning, the company was capitalized for $27,000 and boasted a wooden elevator with storage capacity of 40,000 bushels. Storage capacity today is 2,400,000 bushels.

The first concrete elevator was built in 1947 and added on a year later. The second tank was constructed in 1949. A concrete elevator at a second location, just east of the railroad crossing and FM 168, was built in 1951.

Flat storage facilities were built in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1962 and 1963. The company

Dial A 'Wheel'

We had a number of comments on the editorial last week which was a complaint about the telephone service here.

Now, if everyone that agrees that the service isn't what it should be will just tell a "wheel" in the telephone comp-

One such "wheel" is a Mr. Hagan of Fort Worth. Area Code 214-369-1121. It just might help! (Or maybe this could be a worthwhile effort for the Lions Club -- like a petition

Farmers Grain

Continued from page 1 currently has facilities also in Sunnyside and east of town on the Kress highway.

Farmers Grain has never been a cooperative although, at one time, there were 107 stockholders. In 1969, Homer Hill family purchased controlling stock in the company. Current board of directors includes Homer Hill, Bob Hill and L.W. Farris. Officers are Bud Hill of Dimmitt, president; Bill Hill, vice-president and DeWayne Brown, secretary-treasurer.

Brown, a native of Hart, became manager of the company May 1, 1962. Aubrey Myers, office manager, has been with the company since January, 1955. Nadine Friday is secretary and has been with the business for a year and a half.

In the 44 years since the company's birth, Brown notes that numerous changes have taken place thanks to the advent of irrigation and improved farming equipment. Larger combines and trucks, vastly improved over the years, are now able to harvest and bring to the elevator perhaps 10 times as much as could be gathered about 20 years ago.

Hybrid grains have enabled the farmer to obtain improved yields and availability of water, fertilizer and insecticides have brought about greater production.

In pre-irrigation days, wheat was the area's big grain crop where today corn and milo now reign.

Harvest time for the 1973 grains is growing near and, with pretty weather, corn harvest could begin in a week or two. In about three weeks, the maturing milo will begin arriving at elevators.

Weather, the farmer's biggest and ever-threatening gamble, is the only thing that will prevent the current crop from being an abundant one. "Looks like the best year ever," Brown says.

Rivaling the weather with its unpredictable quality this year, the grain market has put 1973 into the record books.

"No granddads have even seen this," Brown says of the fluctuating market and an all-time peak in prices. Ever subject to change, milo reached a high of approximately $5 per cwt. this summer and at press time was holding at $3.50 to $4.00 per cwt.

Farmers Grain has evolved into a different business with the advent of grain sorghum and corn in the area. In the firm's early years when wheat was the big commodity, the elevator was a shipping and storage facility. Today, with cattle industry coming to Texas in a big way, the company serves as a merchandise firm with a majority of the grains stored for feeding at area feedyards.

Sparkling with fresh paint, Farmers Grain continues to look to the future with that same constancy and faith that sustains Panhandle Plains farmers - gratitude for good years and hope that next year will be better.

"It is a simple matter to see both sides of an argument if you're not really concerned about it."

IN OLTON

Mrs. E.E. Davis and her father, Roy Moss of Decatur, visited Wednesday in Olton with Moss' niece, Mrs. S.E. Whittington. Moss is visiting in the Davis home and with another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hawkins. He is recuperating from eye surgery.

Girls In Action Begin New Study, 'Why Music'

Members of Girls in Action met Wednesday after school at the First Baptist Church to begin a new study, "Why Music." Leaders meeting with the group were Mes. Mac Davis and Curtis Snitker.

Gifts for the group's "Christmas in August" project were brought to be sent to a missionary working with Indians in Oklahoma.

Members sang new songs, played games and worked puzzles showing how musical instruments could be used to tell others of Jesus. Prayer calendar was by Donna Davis.

Attending were Kayla Gleg-horn, Christie Rowland, Su-

Longhorns

Hart compiled 435 yards rushing to Lazbuddie's 159.

Shallowater's Mustangs will furnish the Longhorns their first home field opposition Friday night with game time slated for 8 p.m.

Boasting a well-balanced team that "looks very good," Shallowater handed Whiteface a 46-14 defeat last week.

"They're a little improved over last year's Mustangs who gave us all we wanted," says head coach Lonnie Phillips.

Shallowater's Bobby James, an 180-lb. power runner, notched two TD's for the Mustangs last week.

"They have an extremely adequate passing attack that attacks our secondary," Phillips said. "We're definitely going to have to play excellent ball in order to beat them"

"I'm confident if our boys eliminate a few mistakes we made last week, we will be victorious."

"At this point, we're in good physical shape and the boys have a tremendous attitude. We got off to a good start and the boys have set their goals extremely high and will work to attain these high goals."

Cecil Jackson's injured ankle is responding and Terry Hill, who injured his knee in warm ups Friday, should also be ready by Friday, Phillips said.

Contest

Continued from page 1 during the season. The contest will run as long as the Longhorns compete. Bi-district, regional and semi-final wins by the Horns could extend the contest past the regular season.

Remember, you don't have to be a "football expert" to win. Anyone can enter and anyone can win. A large number of misses by most contestants in the first weeks contest proves that "favorites" do not always win and predicting the winners can be a matter of "good guessing."

Families can compete with each other, an entire family can enter. The only restriction is that persons may enter only one time each week.

It's not too late to enter this week. Get LAST week's Hart Beat, pick a winner of each of the games featured in the sponsoring merchants' ads. Be sure to circle a winner for EACH game on the entry blank, predict the tie-breaker score of the Longhorns-Mustangs game and completely fill in the entry blank.

(This week, one contestant overlooked one game and failed to circle a winner which assured him one miss.)

Take the entry to a sponsoring merchant BEFORE 4:30 p.m. Friday. While you're there, let the sponsor know you appreciate his making the contest possible.

HHS Coaches

Speak To Lions

HHS coaches were special guests Monday at the luncheon meeting of Hart Lions Club. Films of Friday night's 52-6 victory over Lazbuddie were shown.

Adopted as a club project, members voted to repair and repaint the scoreboard at school. The club erected the scoreboard as a project a few years back.

A partnership golf tourney with Springlake and Olton Lions was scheduled.
