

Treaty Completion Said Near For Nuclear Ban

Harriman To Initial Soon

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet sources said today a working party put finishing touches this morning on an East-West treaty banning nuclear tests in the air, outer space, and under water.

U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman was expected to initial it today or Tuesday and return to Washington Wednesday, sources in Washington said.

U.S. Premier Khrushchev comes up with a last-minute hurdle, diplomats here regarded the treaty as virtually completed.

Harriman, Britain's Lord Hailsham and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko met in the afternoon.

The meetings were resumed after a weekend break in an atmosphere of mounting optimism.

Western sources here indicated that only a last-minute obstacle such as a Soviet demand for an accompanying nonaggression pact could block a U.S.-British-Soviet accord to ban nuclear tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under water.

Harriman had an excellent opportunity Sunday night to sound out Khrushchev on any last-minute roadblocks.

The two sides sat through a U.S. Soviet track meet narrowly won by the American men and easily won by the Russian women.

At the meet, Khrushchev invited Harriman and U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler into a reception room attached to the premier's Lenin Stadium box.

The hour-long surprise meeting, like all the rest of the talks, was secret. But it was the best opportunity Harriman has had to urge the U.S. contention that such matters as nonaggression pact between the NATO allies and the Communist nations of Eastern Europe should be deferred.

As the talks moved into their second week, hints continued from the Soviet side that a nonaggression pact must accompany the test ban accord. But neither Khrushchev nor Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko has said a test ban will be blocked unless accompanied by a nonaggression pact.

The West has long favored a treaty barring all but underground nuclear tests to avoid the impasse over on-site inspection.

Both sides agree tests made above ground and under water can be detected without on-site inspection.

The West opposes a formal nonaggression pact, chiefly because it would permanently divide Germany and at least imply Western recognition of Communist East Germany.

Associates of President Kennedy have said he would sign a pledge of nonaggression which would not entail approval by other members of the Western alliance.

Such an arrangement has one serious defect in Russian eyes, Kennedy's pledge would not bind the West Germans. And that's the chief European government which the Soviet government wants bound by a nonaggression treaty.

TESCO Proposes To Furnish Park Lighting

An REA representative was to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon with the Scurry County commissioners court.

In their regular meeting this morning, the court received a proposal from the Texas Electric Service Company that they buy the existing electric facilities in Trosie Park. TESCO proposed that the street lighting system be reviewed with the possibility of all-night operation.

The REA representative will discuss the proposal with the court representatives of management and five railroad unions met Kennedy.

Wolfe said Kennedy intends to send a request to Congress this afternoon for legislation to avert a strike by the railroad workers on Tuesday of next week.

Wolfe said that is the time the railroads intend to put into effect work rule changes to eliminate what management calls feather-bedding or unneeded jobs, especially firemen on some diesel engines.

Some Congress members said that as they understood the plan, the ICC might spend as much as two years studying the dispute.

Earlier an industry spokesman had expressed belief that the only hope of averting a strike was an agreement of compulsory arbitration of the dispute.

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, expressed this view at the White House. He said that he thinks President Kennedy shares this view.

Wolfe talked with newsmen after the meeting.

India's Air Defense To Be Strengthened

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States announced today agreement with Britain and India to strengthen India's defenses against possible air attacks from Communist China.

Announcing the air defense agreement between the three countries, the State Department said that in the event of renewed Chinese Communist aggression against India "the United States has agreed to consult with the government of India regarding possible measures to strengthen India's air defenses in the light of the situation existing at the time."

The State Department said the agreement "does not, however, involve any commitment on the part of the U.S. government to come to India's assistance in the event of a renewed Chinese Communist attack."

Under terms of the agreement, the U.S. Air Force and the Royal Air Force will hold periodic, joint training exercises in India with the Indian air force.

The United States also will provide India with radar and communications equipment.

The first radar will be sent in the form of mobile units until fixed radar units can be installed.

Republican governors had their own substitute, drafted by Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon. Hatfield is regarded as a vice presidential nomination possibility if Rockefeller or some other Easterner heads his party's 1964 ticket.

This substitute would permit the conference to take up any proposal which had been approved by its resolutions committee and approve it by a two-thirds majority.

Snyder Rodeo Sets Attendance Record

Final attendance figures had not been compiled late this morning on the Scurry County Rodeo which concluded Saturday night.

However, officials said that without a doubt the 1963 rodeo would set all-time attendance records for the annual event. The first three nights alone had exceeded the totals for the years since 1955, which until this year had stood as the best-attended rodeo in Snyder.

A total of 66,318.36 in prize money was paid out to the winning cowboys and sponsors. The total represented the entry fees plus $800 from the Rodeo Association.

Final winners in the bareback bronc riding and three-points are as follows: Ed. Workman, Lubbock, 160; Ted Cave, Nolan, and Sidney Johnson, Snyder, tied at 165. H. C. Zachery, Lubbock, 168; Johnny Clark, Ft. Worth, 160, and Jim Brock, Lubbock, 159.

Winners Saturday night in the calf roping event were Bob Johnson, Sterling City, 10.0; and tied for second were Wendell Armstrong, Clovis, and Don Mitchell, both with 10.1. Final calf roping winners were Leroy Hodges, 21.5; Peyton Whitaker, 21.7; and Herb Wood, 22.0.

In the second round of the saddle bronc riding the winners were Kenneth Cunningham of Abilene, first; Keith Lloyd of Snyder, second; and Edd Workman and Clayburn Clark of Rochester tied for third. Saddle bronc averages showed Keith Lloyd first with 64.66, Whitey Welch of Truscott second with 58.90 and Edd Workman third with 25.87.

Rockefeller Attacks Civil Rights Ruling

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Although he said Rockefeller might have been acting from largely political motives, Rosellini denied that he was acting similarly as Kennedy's chief unofficial representative.

Rosellini suggested after a caucus of 25 Northern Democratic governors that a move might be made to abolish all conference resolutions. This might be a substitute for a recommendation by the executive committee—which he heads, but on which Republicans outnumber Democrats 5-4.

for a change in the rules requiring unanimous votes to adopt any resolution.

This would alter the present rule under which two-thirds of the governor's voting could approve a resolution.

Democratic Gov. John Dempsey of Connecticut, joining under Rockefeller's charges that the Democrats were trying to institute a gag rule, outlined a proposal under which the conference would abolish individual resolutions and consider only committee reports which could be adopted by a two-thirds majority. He said Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada had been selected to offer this substitute proposal.

Republican governors had their own substitute, drafted by Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon. Hatfield is regarded as a vice presidential nomination possibility if Rockefeller or some other Easterner heads his party's 1964 ticket.

Negro Leader To Testify On Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The lengthy civil rights dialogue continues in Congress today with Negro leader Roy Wilkins scheduled to testify on President Kennedy's proposed legislation to end segregation by businesses who serve the public.

Wilkins is the first major integration leader to present his views to the committee, which has already heard such vociferous Southern opponents as Govs. Ross Barnett of Mississippi and George Wallace of Alabama.

Meanwhile in the House, Rep. Robert W. Kastenmeier, D-Wis., was preparing legislation which would go a step further than Kennedy's public accommodations measure.

An aide of Kastenmeier, a member of the House Judiciary Committee which also is considering Kennedy's civil rights program, said his bill would ban discrimination by any business licensed by a state or operating by permission of the state. The administration bill would cover only businesses engaged in interstate commerce.

Kastenmeier's bill also would forbid discriminatory voter tests and make it easier to move civil rights cases from state to federal courts, the aide said.

A cross-fire of verbal sniping over Kennedy's civil rights program between Northern and Southern senators marked the weekend.

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., said arguments of opponents that the legislation is socialistic are "just plain baloney."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., said the public accommodations bill "would permit the federal government to dictate to American businessmen to whom they must sell and serve on their property."

Thurmond is the lone Commerce Committee member from the Deep South and has been fighting a delaying action on the Kennedy bill.

Russia, Red China Break Off Talks

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN MOSCOW (AP)—Red China and the Soviet Union say they have agreed to meet—some time later—and make another try at settling their bitter ideological dispute. Diplomats in Moscow did not expect the meeting would be held soon.

The announcement, made simultaneously Sunday in Peking and Moscow, coincided with a new Chinese attack on the Soviet Communist party. Peking accused it of trying to incite the Chinese people and party against Mao Tse-tung.

The Soviet-Chinese talks broke off Saturday. Premier Khrushchev took his first public notice of the Chinese delegation, giving it a farewell dinner.

The communiqué issued Sunday said the central committees of both Communist parties would set the pace and time of the next meeting.

Eclipse at About Forty Percent

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy came up today with this plan for legislation to bar a railroad strike. Put the work rules dispute before the Interstate Commerce Commission for disposition.

The White House disclosed this much of the proposal in announcing that Kennedy's special message on the railroad situation would go to Congress at 3 p.m.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger read to newsmen this statement: "The President at 3 p.m. EDT this afternoon will send to the Congress legislation which will refer those railroad work rules issues which are still in dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission for prompt hearing and disposition."

"Provisioning for employee security will be contained in any ICC order of approval."

"Unlike compulsory arbitration this proposal would preserve collective bargaining and give precedence to its solutions."

Salinger declined to go into any detail pending the actual release of the message, but it appeared clear that Kennedy would ask Congress to hold off on a strike until the ICC has disposed of the case.

Salinger made his announcement after Kennedy had conducted a closed-door conference with representatives of the railroads and the men who operate the trains, Democratic and Republican congressional leaders, and various labor leaders including George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO.

In these meetings, Kennedy outlined his legislative proposal, Salinger said.

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and have just received a telephone call from the boy I've been dating. He told me that his mother didn't want him to date me any more because she had heard some things about my older sister. Of course, he said we could date on the sly, but I don't think I should have had girls tell me that their parents didn't want them to run around with me because of my sister. Sure my sister has a bad reputation, but I have never been the slightest thing out of line. Why do brothers and sisters have to be so jealous of something they can't help? I'm not the only one with this problem. How can I prove to people that I am not like my sister?

MRS. EDDIE CARROLL BALDWIN
Former Snyderite Weds
In Abilene Baptist Church

The chapel of the First Baptist Church, Abilene, was the scene of the double ring ceremony for Teri Ann Hale and Eddie Carroll Baldwin on Saturday evening, July 20, at eight o'clock.

Rev. Charles Clark officiated for the candlelight service. The altar setting featured a centered candelabra with a background of mixed greenery.

Wedding music was presented by Bob Winn, organist, and Mrs. Don Powers and Jerry Massey, soloists.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Hale, formerly of Snyder, now of 4072 Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. Giles Baldwin, 1374 Jeanette, Abilene.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight antique silk taffeta. The tightly fitted bodice was fashioned with a bateau neckline of ivory alencon lace and long pointed lace sleeves. The controlled bell-shaped skirt was marked at the waistline by appliques of the lace and swept to a chapel train enhanced by appliques of alencon lace scattered on the front and back.

Her headdress, a togue of crystal touched lace edged in pearls held the tiered bouffant veil of English illusion. She carried a cluster of white rose buds and orange blossoms resting on an heirloom ivory fan. She wore a diamond drop, a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were Johnny Whitaker, maid of honor, Mrs. Ray Mayer, matron of honor, of Abilene. Bridesmaids were Jan Pool, Abilene, Marilyn Dulaney, Midland, and Carol Gearty of Fort Worth. They wore dresses of silk organza over taffeta in shades of pink. Fashioned with fitted bodice, brief sleeves and cowl necklines. Skirts were bell-shaped with bows adorning center front at waist.

They wore matching hats of pearl clusters centered with pearls. Attached butterfly veils were illusion. Each carried a single long stemmed white rose.

Flower girl was Faye Sullenger of Snyder. Gregory Stone of Snyder, and cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Cleveland Parrell was best man. Groomsman were Jerry Newman, Jerry Fitzhugh, Charles Alexander, T. A. Buchanan, all of Abilene. Ushers were Gary Mosley, Abilene, Alvin Gien and Ronnie Carley, cousins of the bride of Fort Worth.

The reception was held in the church parlor. Those in the house-party were Mrs. Jay Huckabee, Mrs. R. L. Terry and Mrs. Lee Dan Stone of Snyder; Mrs. Alvin Carley and Mrs. Gary Achers, Fort Worth; Mrs. Floyd Lowe, Mr. Charles Smith, Nancy Thompson, and Seemie Lanford of Abilene.

The bride chose a silk linen suit in ice blue with matching wedding band hat and white accessories for traveling to Colorado on their trip. She wore a gardenia corsage.

They will make their home at 1490 Lynwood, Abilene.

The bride is a graduate of Abilene High School and attended the University of Texas and McMurry. She was a member of Alpha Psi Omega, National honorary and dramatic fraternity.

The groom also a graduate of Abilene High School, attended McMurry and is employed by M-System Food Store. Both will continue studies at McMurry in Sept.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner in the Garden Room of Winsor Hotel.

Test Your Office I. Q.

BY JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK — Ruth Gallinot does not believe there is a way to succeed in business without really trying.

"The trouble," sighs the astute, brown-eyed chestnut-haired woman serving her second term as president of the National Secretaries Association, "is that young people want to take an express elevator to the top."

Today, she claims, an ambitious woman must stop at all floors on the way up to pick up more education, special training, experience, and maturity.

Even now as executive secretary to the president of a large garment manufacturing concern in Chicago Miss Gallinot works at the switchboard once in a while "for the experience."

As the efficient president of some 2500 stellar girls fridays throughout the world she knows well the typical problems that wrinkle a young secretary's brow. Miss Gallinot's common sense replies to these indicate why she is considered secretary of secretaries. For example:

How do I ask for a raise? Be sure your performance merits it. Time it right. (Are the books in the black and the boss in a good mood?) Then state your case in a business-like manner without threats or innuendoes about other people's salaries.

How do you handle the office wolf? Never allow him to reach the point of being a problem. Your icy attitude ought to warn him.

Are coffee breaks okay? They are an institution, but don't abuse them.

Should your boss ask you to shop for him? Yes, you are there to conserve his time. He'll probably give you more lunch time for the chore.

What is my relationship with the boss's wife? The friendliest possible. Establish rapport at lunch or tea. Be genuinely interested in her problems. Then she won't mind leaving her messages with you instead of insisting on interrupting the boss's meeting.

Am I expected to tell lie for the boss? You will tell white ones to avoid hurting someone's feelings. Each person believes his call is the most important thing of the moment, even though the boss has issued do-not-disturb orders. It's better to say, with finger crossed, that he can't be located.

Air Conditioners Become Important To Family Autos

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Americans love affair with the family car is making weekend weather an economic force in many businesses, large and small.

Makers of air conditioners for cars report a 49 per cent jump in sales, to more than one million units, last year.

If the weather was miserable in your area the last few days, the effect may be felt in time as far away as Detroit and Akron or the oil fields of Texas. It certainly was noted sadly by car dealers, resort operators, highway restaurants and motels, both near you and some distance away.

The United States has so many family cars—66 million, or 60 per cent of the world's total—that it is the only nation that can carry all its population at the same time (at three persons to a car).

A summer of especially poor (or good) weather could mean a variation of up to 10 billion vehicle miles of highway travel. Such an extreme case would mean a difference of about 700 million gallons of gasoline burned up, 350,000 tires worn out, and perhaps 300 million meals at roadside eateries.

Also affected by weekend weather are many things, from the sale of bikinis and sun lotion to picnic supplies and car rental services.

For example, makers of suntan and sunburn lotions and creams have raised their annual sales from $7 million ten years ago to $14 million last year.

Whether this summer's weekends are fair or dreary can have a lot to do with the industry's reaching its 1963 sales goal of $20 million.

The $1.7 billion per year motel industry is particularly sensitive to family decisions to take off for long weekend jaunts or to stay home because of the weather. Some 45,000 motels and motor hotels, with 960,000 rooms, have a national yearly average occupancy of 69 per cent. Good weather can raise this by 1 per cent and give an even greater boost to profits.

Resort hotels suffer from prolonged wet spells, but motels are even more sensitive to weekend weather prospects. As Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges recently told operators of Howard Johnson's 650 roadside restaurants and 150 motor lodges, some 100 million Americans make 230 million trips for long or short distances each year. Weekend weather is a prime factor there.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association says auto travel has jumped 47 per cent in ten years to 733 billion vehicle miles a year. This is expected to increase further as the Bureau of Public Roads pushes its program for a 41,000-mile, high-speed network of highways, tempting Americans to lengthen their travels because of savings in travel time. And the more mileage clocked on week ends, the better in the long run for sellers of new and used cars.

The nation's 200,000 service stations sold 66 billion gallons of gasoline last year. Officials of Humble Oil & Refining Co., affiliate of Standard Oil of New Jersey, estimate that a drop of 10 billion vehicle miles in pleasure travel due to bad weather could cut sales by the industry by $210 million and federal and state gas tax revenues by $21 million.

This year the tire industry hopes to sell around 35 million new tires to the auto makers, and $1 million replacement tires to motorists. Heat is the big enemy of tires, according to officials of U.S. Rubber Co., especially heat built up during sustained high speed driving of the kind that fair weather weekends encourage. The result: the more good weather, the more fast trips, and the more tire replacements.

Hot weekends, of bumper to bumper driving can only feed the desire for the gadgets.

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Congress decides that something must be done in a hurry this week to head off a railroad strike, there won't be any other major business to divert its attention.

As has been the case for the past several weeks, there is little of consequence on the agenda of either the Senate or the House.

However, committees in each branch will keep plugging away on such major matters as civil rights, taxation and foreign aid, all of which are docketed for final action this year.

The House program for the past several weeks has been District of Columbia legislation, service academy appointments, air pollution and arrangements for office space for presidents-elect.

The Senate has three bills on its agenda. They deal with the location of embassies in residential areas, commercial fishery research and transmission of power from the Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande River.

Atom Program Fuel Arrives

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—A railroad flat car carrying 400 pounds of used but heavily shielded reactor fuel is on its way to Idaho.

The fuel arrived Sunday from Sweden, cradled in four lead-lined casks weighing about 12½ tons each.

The reactor fuel, valued at about $50,000, is the first to be returned to the United States for reprocessing at the National Reactor Testing Station.

The casks were loaded on a special flat car for a 10-day trip to the Atomic Energy Commission's Idaho chemical processing plant at the National Reactor Testing Station.

There Are A Lot Of Triplets Born

How much should you pay for a house? If it cost more than 2½ times your gross annual income, you'll probably run into budgetary trouble.

Don't worry if you bump head-on with a bee. It's only when it backs into you that it stings.

It was Philip Wylie who observed: "We're about to enter the age of flight before we've even developed a chair that a man can sit on comfortably."

Congress May Concentrate On Railroads

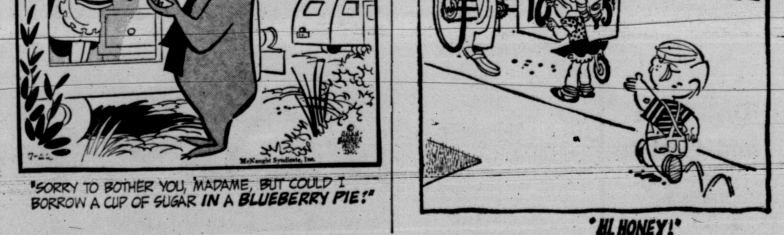

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Congress decides that something must be done in a hurry this week to head off a railroad strike, there won't be any other major business to divert its attention.

Junior Editors Quiz on BATS

QUESTION: Are bats really blind?

ANSWER: As our top pictures taken from photographs show, bats do have eyes, but they are small. Although bats see fairly well, they do not depend on their eyes alone, because they are night animals flying when there is often very little light. Its hearing prevents the bat from smashing into trees or other obstacles when the light is dim.

Experts agree that bats can hear sounds too high pitched for human ears to detect. A flying bat makes a high pitched squeaking. From the echoes it senses the obstacles in its path.

FOR YOU TO DO: There is nothing like a bat and a moon to make a spooky looking picture. Make one of your own, using the big bat our artist has drawn and color it with silvery moonlight colors. 7-21

(Arthur Klassen of St. Catharines, Ont., Canada, wins today's grand prize of a 20 volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper and you may win a set too.)

Big Dipper Do-Nut Shop Is Popular Place In Snyder

Stop by the Big Dipper Do-Nut Shop early in the morning or late in the afternoon and you will likely find a large group of satisfied customers.

A particular popular time, in addition to the coffee break hours, is around opening time at 7 a.m. Many a Snyder resident makes a stop at the Big Dipper for a donut and coffee before going to work.

You'll have a big selection whatever hour you stop at the Big Dipper. You will find cinnamon rolls, jelly rolls, lemon puffs, twists, fried pies and donuts.

The fried pies come in four kinds—apple, pineapple, apricot or cherry. And you will have five choices if it's donuts you select.

The Big Dipper is located at 710 East Highway and is owned and operated by Henry Whitehurst. Henry has fixed food for the public for the past 38 years and, therefore is capable of pleasing all customers who visit the shop.

You will have a choice of coffee, ice tea, or milk to go along with the sweet selection you make, too.

The Big Dipper opened for business April 1 of this year.

Join the many other satisfied Snyder residents. Make your way to the Big Dipper for a refreshing break—or to select donuts, cinnamon rolls, sweet rolls, or fried pies to take home with you.

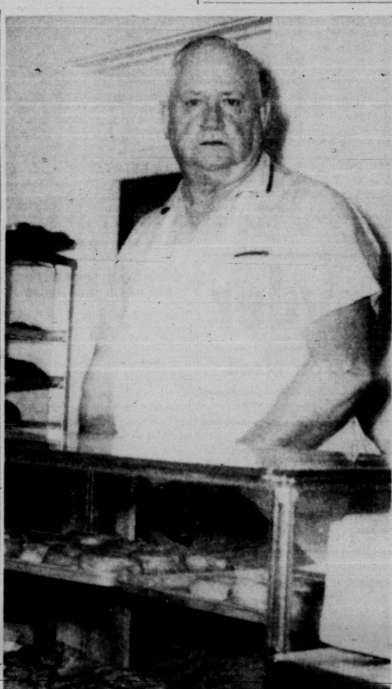

Girl, 14, Plans To Enter College

MOUNT CARROLL, Ill. (AP)—When Tamara Moat starts freshman studies at Shimer College in September, she'll be only 14 years old.

Donald G. Reuter, vice president of Shimer, a school of just over 300 students, said Sunday Miss Moat, of Tincum Township near Easton, upper Bucks County, Pa., is 14 now. He said he believes no college has a student that young.

Miss Moat is being admitted under Shimer's early entrance program which provides for acceptance of students with less than four years of high school who demonstrate by college entrance examinations that they can handle college level work.

Reuter said Miss Moat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grenville T. Moat, has completed two years at Palisades High School near Easton.

A WIDE SELECTION—Henry Whitehurst looks over the big selection of donuts, sweet rolls, cinnamon rolls, lemon puffs and fried pies for sale at the Big Dipper Do-Nut Shop. To go along with the selection are drinks of ice tea, coffee and milk.

Snyderite On Duty On USS Vega In East

USS VEGA (FHTC)—Charles L. Doty, seaman, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Doty of 2603 Avenue H, Snyder, Tex., serving aboard the stores ship USS Vega, recently participated in a record-breaking replenishment at sea operation in which Vega crewman achieved a transfer rate of 334 tons of provisions per hour.

The replenishment took place between Vega and the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger, while both ships were engaged in Seventh Fleet duty off the eastern coast of Japan.

By increasing the rate of transfer of provisions at sea without sacrificing safety, Navy ships can decrease the dangers inherent in wartime to such operations, making the Navy a more powerful instrument of peace.

Vega, on temporary duty in the Far East, normally operates out of San Francisco, Calif.
