Retiring teachers to be honored

Lockney's Athena Study Club will be hosting a coffee for six Lockney teachers who will be retiring this year. The coffee will be held Friday, May 30, in the foyer of the Lockney Elementary School from 10 to 11 a.m.

Retiring are R.L. and Betty Knox, Waverly and Betty Washington, Virginia Byrd and Dorothy Bradley.

These six teachers have between them 157 years of teaching experience. The Knox's have 24 years each, Mr. Washington 33, Mrs. Washington 27, Mrs. Byrd has 21, and Mrs. Bradley has 25 years in the teaching field.

The Athena Study Club members invite the public to come to the tea and see these six teachers and wish them well in their future endeavors.

LIVING IN PAST?

"I may be living in the past," says the old timer, "but I'm paying today's prices."

REAL SUSPENSEFUL

A future first-time grandfather's anxiety build over the months prior to the infant's birth.

Then the suspense gradually disappeared. First, his daughter's sonagram revealed that she would bear a son. The doctor decided to "take" the child as a precautionary move.

"Well," the soon-to-be granddad explained the day prior to the birth. "I'll become the grandfather of a grandson at 10 o'clock in the morning. They've taken away all the suspense," he complained. But his voice still contained excitement.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

If we could all live by the "Ten Commandments of Human Relations" we could all walk around feeling much better about ourselves and the town and people we live with.

1. Speak to people. There is nothing so nice as cheerful words of greeting.
2. Smile at people. It takes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you want friends, you must be one.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do is a joy to you.
6. Be genuinely interested in people. You can like almost everybody if you try.
7. Be generous with praise and cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate with the feelings of others. There are usually three sides to a controversy: yours, the other fellow's

Lockney General Hospital reveals association of third physician

FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS examine the sight of the accident which took the life of longtime Lockney resident and civic leader Tom Duvall last Tuesday afternoon. Duvall had been involved in numerous organizations in Lockney and around Floyd County including serving on the Lockney School Board for 15 years and he was a member of the Floyd County Central Appraisal District.

Administrator Terry Keltz announced this week that William E. Prater, Jr., M.D. will be joining the medical staff at Lockney General Hospital in August of next year.

Dr. Prater is a 1979 cum laude graduate of Texas A&M with a major in microbiology. He also completed one year of graduate research in virology at Texas A&M. Dr. Prater graduated with honors from medical school at the University of Texas at Galveston and was ranked in the top 10 percent of his class in scholastic achievement.

While at U.T.M.B., Galveston, he was a member of the Alpha Omeda Medical Honor Society and was the recipient of the prestigious Hambrock-McGanity Award in Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Dr. Prater is currently completing his residency in Family Practice at John Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth. He will complete his training in July of next year.

Dr. Prater attended elementary and high school in Paducah where his mother, Ms. Atha Prater, is currently Cottle County treasurer.

He and his wife, Tracy have two children, Megan, age 5, and Will, age 2. Tracy is also from Paducah and is the daughter of Arvis and Jo Anne Davis, who are the owners of Arvis Davis Chevrolet Company in Paducah.

"We are most fortunate to have Dr. Prater and his family come to our community. He will be a tremendous asset to our fine medical staff."

LISD sells Lone Star school property

In the regular monthly meeting of the Lockney Independent School District Board of Trustees it was voted to award the bid for the Lone Star School building and surrounding property to Sherith Farms.

Sherith Farms is a joint farming operation owned by Bill Sherman and Al Smith. Their bid was for a total of $2130.00. Other bids on the property came from Dan B. Smith in the amount of $650.00 and from Weldon Graves in the amount of $1000.

During the meeting the board also voted to add seven teachers to the career ladder. These include five elementary teachers, one from junior high, and one from high school.

Trustees also elected by unanimous vote to keep the transfer fee for out of county students at $75.00 per child for the 1986-87 school year. The school district could legally charge about $110 per student for transfers.

Dayna Owen, high school English I teacher submitted her resignation to the board. Owen has been offered a position in Plainview and the board approved the resignation.

Cleanup campaign Thursday-Friday

Can I as a citizen of Lockney help improve the looks of this community? This is a question all Lockney residents should ask themselves this week and keep in mind that it could take no more than a small amount of your time to improve the looks of Lockney and your lot in the city as well.

Thursday and Friday, May 22 and 23, the city of Lockney will institute its annual city cleanup days. Each spring the city enacts this campaign to aid Lockney citizens in cleaning up their lots and in getting rid of unwanted items on their property.

This year, as in years past the city will haul off unwanted debris and pull dead trees at no cost to the citizens. In order to have dead trees pulled up, call the city office and make an appointment.

In order to have debris and unwanted items such as grass clippings, old furniture, and anything else cluttering your property, put all unwanted items with your trash barrels in the alleys and they will be picked up.

Again, this is of no cost to citizens and it will aid in improving the looks of Lockney. Remember to call the city office at 652-2355 to have dead trees pulled and removed from your property.

20 years later . . .

Frank and Erma Lee Duckworth fete June 1

"I never planned to stay 20 years when we came here," Frank Duckworth explains while remembering his decision to move to Lockney on June 1, 1966.

While the congregation of the Church of Christ, West College and Third plans to honor its preacher and his wife, Frank and Erma Lee Duckworth, on their 20th anniversary with the church, he is by no means seeking a new home.

The Duckworths love Lockney and area people. Their roots are firmly entrenched here after 20 years.

Wearing his customary smile, Duckworth tells of a situation which occurred a number of years ago when a local businessperson said "I heard you're leaving" in an abrupt manner.

"Not that I know of," came his response, "but then sometimes preachers are the last to know."

JUNE 1 FETE

"In honoring Frank and Erma Lee Duckworth for their 20 years of service to this congregation and community," the church is planning a Sunday, June 1, reception for the couple. Fellowship Hall of the church will be site for the event from 3 to 5 p.m.

A second generation preacher, Duckworth explains that his initial plans to spend fewer than 20 years in Lockney possibly were altered by the missionary endeavors and involvement of the local congregation.

The first was in India. Dedication to a five-year plan, made in 1972, has carried Duckworth to India on five occasions. The preacher and John T. Carthel from the local congregation and Rolland McLean, now of Gatesville, participated in the initial trip.

Frank Duckworth returned to that country in 1974, twice in 1975 and again in 1976.

The "instruction of preachers" continued through the five-year plan, which met the original goal. Local endeavors continue to support the work of two preachers and other workers in India.

MEXICO PROJECTS

In recent years, the Church of Christ, West College and Third's mission endeavors have been focused in southern Mexico, some 100 miles west of Mexico City.

"We are supporting a preacher and have helped with a building in Moroleon, this congregation is helping to support a school for preachers in Salamanca and other cities and we have helped buy land for a church in Morelia," the preacher explains. This assistance has occurred within the past five years.

"For the last four years, there has been an annual bus trip from Texas to this area (in Mexico). Some local congregation members are on each trip. We had 12 go from here at one time."

The Lockney congregation also has supported mission work in Kenya; Malawi, Africa; and Korea in recent years.

To state that Frank Duckworth has the longest tenure of any preacher with the Church of Christ, West College and Third is somewhat of a misnomer. Actually, he is the "first one to make his home here and serve continuously."

After moving to this community in 1966, he worked with both the Prairie Chapel Church of Christ and the West Side Church of Christ. The present facilities in Lockney were erected in 1967 and the two congregations were combined. The name was changed at that time to the Church of Christ, West College and Third.

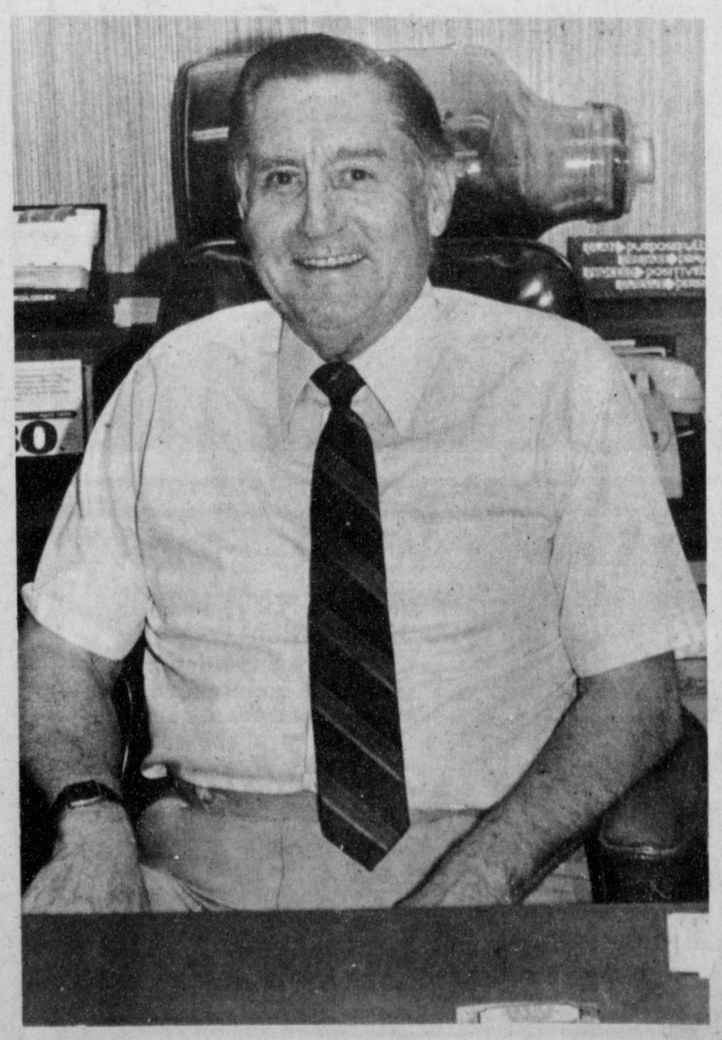

An office-conference room complex was added in 1981, and former offices were transformed into a church library. The auditorium has a seating capacity of 390.

FOUNDED IN 1919

West Side Church of Christ "started meeting in 1919" and Prairie Chapel Church of Christ came into existence in later years. Prior to the present facilities being completed in November 1967, the Lockney congregation met in a building on the same block, at Second and College and "facing east on College Street."

Among early members of the congregation in town were J.D. Griffith, Harding Nall, other members of the

FRANK DUCKWORTH

GARY KLEYPAS is the pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in the Providence Community—Lockney. He grew up in the small central Texas town of Buckholts. After graudation from high school in 1967 he attended Temple Junior College and received his BA degree from Texas Lutheran College in Seguin. He earned an MDiv degree from Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa and was ordained as a pastor in the American Lutheran Church in June 1975. He is married to Sharon Richards from Stamford, Texas and they have one son, Jeff who is in kindergarten.

"Where's Your Treasure?"

Sometimes married couples get so caught up in the negative things concerning their wedded relationship that they completely overlook the good things. One conflict builds on another and soon the battle snowballs into marital war, separation, then divorce. And you don't have to be married to do this. The same kinds of hostility exist and snowball between parents and children, families, friends and neighbors. I have often asked couples to name or recall two fond memories in their lives. Will you stop reading this now and try to recall, at least, one or two fond memories? . . .

What was it? In most cases your answer will be 'time spent with someone.' It will not be a remembrance of the money you once had or anything material. It may involve some possession but what you remember about it that makes it a fond memory is the time spent and the relationship with that other person or group of people. Unfortunately what most of us treasure is material possessions as though that will make us happy. It is not a sin to have material possessions, to be rich, but it is a sin to make that your number one goal in life.

Jesus tells us that if we store up treasures on earth it may vanish quicker than the time it took to accumulate it! Moth, rust, thieves, or taxes may take it in a day's time. But Jesus tells us that we should lay up for ourselves some other treasures in heaven where nothing can steal it away.

Those treasures certainly include a believing heart and spirit, faithfulness, doing good works, humility, repentance, loving, being a peace-maker, forgiving, etc. It's not only a sin but it's a shame that too many of us are guilty of treasuring the wrong things in life. "But seek first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Even some fond memories. Amen (Matthew 6:33)

In times like these... By Mary Jo Fielding

The Arab world now wears two faces — a public display of support for a Moslem brother in distress and a private smile over the drubbing America gave one of the Mideast's prime mischief-makers.

Egypt could provide the most crucial test of Khadafy's efforts to profit from the backlash against the attack on Tripoli Western diplomats say that the Cairo government privately welcomed the U.S. move, but another wave of anti-Americanism among ordinary Egyptians could imperil President Hasni Mubarak. His popularity has declined along with the economy of his overpopulated nation.

Opposition political parties on April 17 won parliamentary approval for a resolution condemning the United States for "aggression against the brotherly Libyan people" and demanded that joint military maneuvers be suspended. The U.S. and Egypt have conducted twice-a-year exercises since 1980 to familiarize American troops with fighting in a hot climate and over desert terrain.

So far, however, Mubarak retains the all-important support of the Egyptian Army, which has long wanted to launch its own attack against Libya. Saudi Arabia condemned the assault and worried whether it might somehow lend legitimacy to an Israeli attack against Arabs.

In the overall picture, however, Saudi officials also hinted satisfaction that America had demonstrated willingness to strike directly at an enemy, a signal that they feel cannot be mistaken by Iran.

'Creating your own wardrobe' program for Il Penseroso

Il Penseroso Study Club met Thursday evening, May 8, in the home of Brenda Mangold. Special guests for the evening, in honor of Mother's Day, were the mothers, mothers-in-law or both of the club members.

Assisting Brenda Mangold with the hostess duties were Kathy Kellison, Rhonda McCain, Treena Aston, Kelly Fortenberry, Reeda Cay Smith, Melanie Beachy, Sandra Cummings, Marilyn Biggs, Robin Stoerner, Lisa Mosley and Patti Purser.

To begin the occasion Anne Carthel presented an interesting program on "Creating Your Own Wardrobe." She gave helpful hints on purchasing fabrics and patterns, sewing machines and other new appliances one can buy to help make sewing more simple. Mrs. Carthel also brought some ladies with her who modeled homemade clothing during the program.

Following the program, guests were treated to a meal of hot chicken salad, tossed salad, hot rolls and chocolate sundaes for dessert. Each mother, mother-in-law and member was presented with a hand-stenciled dish towel which also served as a place mat during the meal.

After the meal club members went into a business session. Resignation from membership was read from Melanie Beachy.

The club members voted to have a float in the Old Settler's Parade in Floydada May 24. Sheets for Secret Pal information as well as yearbook sheets were passed out. They are to be completed and turned back in at the next meeting.

The end of the year party will be Thursday, May 22, at Karen Quebe's. It will be a salad supper.

Those attending the meeting and their guests were Treena Aston, Marilyn Biggs and La Vanne Buyer, Charlanne Burson, Sandra Cummings, Rochelle Dorman and Gleynn Earle Cummings, Lesca Durham, Katy Durham, Cindy Ford and Carole Dyer, Kelly Fortenberry and Sandra Turley, Lynda Gant and Sudie Gant, Julie Hancock and Margaret Jones, Judy Jackson and Hazel Johnson, Jessie Johnson and Geneva Barclay, Kathy Kellison, Johnnie Kellison and Kathleen Thornton, Robin King and Melba Lindsey, Kim Lambert and Jackie Spencer, Peggy Lambert and Bobbie Sue, Brenda Mangold, Wilma Dudley and Martha Mangold, Kay Martin, Naomi Johnston and JoAnne Martin McGiboney, Ginger Mathis, Barbara Mathis and Nita Henderson, Rhonda McCain, Clara McCain and Carol Taylor, Sherry McDonald and June McDonald, Lisa Mosley, Inez Mosley and Jackie Gregory, Karen Quebe, Anna Dell Quebe and Gerry Wubber, Reeda Cay Smith, Maudie Lawson and Dorothy Smith, Robin Stoerner and Marty Smith, Jami Kemp, Debbie Hardin and Doloris Walker and Melanie Beachy.

Jose Luna completes ANG training

Army National Guard Private Jose N. Luna, son of Natividada and Juanita Luna of Lockney, has completed one station until training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

His wife, Esperanza, is the daughter of Jose and Virginia Torrez of Lockney.

He is a 1981 graduate of Lockney High School.

Care Center Capers

Last week was National Nursing Home Week. We were very busy and enjoyed all the visitors.

The art show was very nice. We enjoyed the lovely paintings, our senior citizens were well represented and we would like to thank everyone who participated.

Mrs. Jackson echoed everyone's sentiments when she said "I'm so glad it's over, I'm tired and I'm glad National Nursing Home Week and Christmas only come once a year."

We go back to our regular routine, for a time now.

Mary Jo Fielding has been leading our exercise group each morning since Bonnie Purdom has been ill.

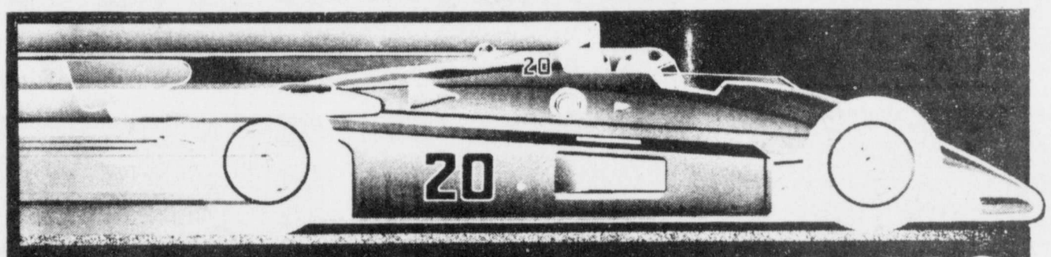

Bessie Hunt, Earl Mercer, Mary Jo, Bonnie Julian, Clyde Morrison and Esker Pyle really look forward to the bus rides which we have missed the last two weeks due to other activities.

Wednesdays are movie and popcorn day, everyone enjoys this; especially the popcorn and John Wayne movies.

Bingo is still our most popular sport. Anyone wishing to donate prizes please contact Bessie Jackson at the care center, 652-2502.

'Arabian Night' created for prom

Pyramids, sandy deserts, and a sphinx created an "Arabian Night" mood for the 1986 junior-senior prom which is held each year honoring graduating seniors.

Students and guests for the evening entered the Lockney cafetorium, across a bridge, through the entrance of a burial chamber, and into an oasis complete with an orchid tent.

Entering the cafetorium one was transported to another time of sheiks and harem girls. Centered in the room was a large orchid tent, suspended from the ceiling, in which students ate their meal. Sponsors, administrators and guests were seated outside the tent.

The outer edges of the cafetorium were lined with murals of desert scenes, pyramids and sand. Palm trees, camel cutouts and even a snake charmer were in residence for the evening. The stage area was covered with a mural of a sheiks palace and one wall was a barge, possibly preparing for a trip down the Nile, as the sphinx oversaw the entire proceedings from the northwest corner of the room.

The evening's proceedings were all recorded on video camera and projected onto a large projection screen, provided by Clyde Shannon of Shannon Sound of Lubbock.

Those attending enjoyed a meal of brisket, salad, baked potatoes, rolls, sundae pie and ice tea. Students were served tea in keepsake, stemmed glasses with the night's theme and date imprinted in them. Serving the meal were several underclassmen dressed for the night in "harem" pants, vests, thongs and turbans.

Presentation of the senior class personalities, which are voted on by the juniors prior to the banquet.

These included Most Likely to Succeed, Monica Torres and Daniel Ramirez; Most Representative, Elizabeth Guerrero and Ronnie Ford; Most Courteous, Rachelle Ford and Chris Rodriguez; Most Popular, Heather Holt and David Sutterfield; and Most Friendly, Stacy Manley and Monty Means. Also voted Most Dependable were Jessie Castro and Linda Stephan.

These class personalities were announced by Abdul (Rusty Teeter) and his assistant, Julie Davis.

High school principal James Poole was also called on during the evening to announce the Who's Who for the 1985-86 school year. These awards are decided on by the teachers of each subject.

These winners included Daniel Ramirez in math, Stacy Manley in English and history, Ronnie Ford in computer, Heather Holt in home economics, Karen Ford in band, Randy Race in football, Jessie Castro in track and Ronnie Ford in tennis.

Welcoming guests to the banquet was Steven Cates, Johnny Silva worded the invocation, Lisa Terrell read the traditional poem dedicated to the seniors, and Amy Nance spoke the benediction.

Following the banquet and awards presentations the tables were cleared from the room and the dance began, with Clyde Shannon providing the night's music. Closing the evening were the naming of the prom king and queen and the prince and princess.

Heather Holt and David Sutterfield were voted king and queen and Dickie Hernandez and Amy Nance were named prince and princess.

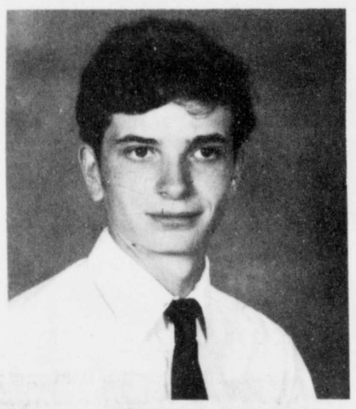

THE GREAT ABDUL and his assistant Julie Davis announced the winners of the personality awards at the 1986 junior senior banquet held last Saturday at Lockney Elementary School.

Nall family, the Baker family, "Brother C.W. Smith" (who presently has relatives residing here) and others. A number of Carthel family members were involved in the Prairie Chapel Church, north of Lockney.

According to Floyd County History Book, "Among other early leaders of the congregation when it began were J. Frank Copeland, who was a widely known preacher and singing school teacher. Three of his children are also members of this congregation, and they are J.D. Copeland, T.V. Copeland and Ruth (Mrs. John T.) Carthel." (1979)

"Several" members of the present congregation were here when the Duckworths moved to Lockney 20 years ago. However, "When you really analyze it, there has been more of a turnover than you would think," Mr. Duckworth says.

"I consider myself to be an evangelist, particularly working in the Southwest," he states. He has conducted evangelistic meetings in Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, Colorado, Louisiana, New Mexico and Texas and continues active in this work.

ORDAINED IN 1948

Ordained in 1948 in his native Dallas, Duckworth continued his education and was involved in evangelism until 1951 before entering full-time evangelistic work in 1951.

In addition, he has served as full-time preacher for five congregations: Ewing Avenue in Dallas, Rosedale and Mason Street, both in Fort Worth, and East Side Church of Christ in Muleshoe before moving to Lockney.

Church of Christ, West Third and College had an average Sunday morning attendance of "from 200 to 230 or 240" at one time. Although attendance on Sunday mornings now varies from "160 to 200", the church remains one of the larger in Lockney. Attendance at virtually all area churches has declined over the past two decades.

GRANDDAD'S JEWELS

In addition to adding numerous friends since moving here 20 years ago, Frank and Erma Lee Duckworth have been recipients of other happy occasions.

Among the most important are nine grandchildren, whose pictures appear in a "Granddad's Jewels" photo frame in his church office.

The couple had five children when they moved here, although their daughter had completed high school in Muleshoe and lived in Lockney only during summer months while attending Texas Tech University and prior to her marriage.

A tragedy befell the family in December 1966 when the youngest child, Reed Edwin, was claimed by death at 21 months old.

Duckworth offspring include (listed in order of age):

*Ruth Ann, a graduate of Texas Tech University, who resides in Quitaque with her husband, Elgin Conner, and three daughters, ages six to 14. The couple operates insurance agencies in Quitaque and Turkey, and Conner serves the Quitaque Church of Christ as preacher.

*Robert, of the Seattle, Washington area, owns a wholesale electric supply store. His wife is Vickey.

*Randy, of The Colony, near Lewisville, is a program developer for Electronic Data Systems. He and his wife, the former Becky Scheele of Providence community, are parents of five children, ages two to 11.

*Ricky, a North Texas State University (Denton) graduate, works in a supervisory capacity for Frito Lay in Lubbock. He and his wife, the former Karla Broussard of Lockney, have a three-year-old son, Adam.

CITY SECRETARY

Erma Lee Duckworth has served as Lockney city secretary since May 1971. She joined the city staff on October 1, 1969.

Frank Duckworth has both followed and deviated from his father's professional pathway. He is, like his father, a Church of Christ preacher.

However, he has nurtured no interest in being involved in politics, as was his dad, who was national Farmers Union president and national legislative chairman for the farmers organization. A lobbyist for several years, the elder Duckworth was acquainted with both President Theodore Roosevelt and President Woodrow Wilson.

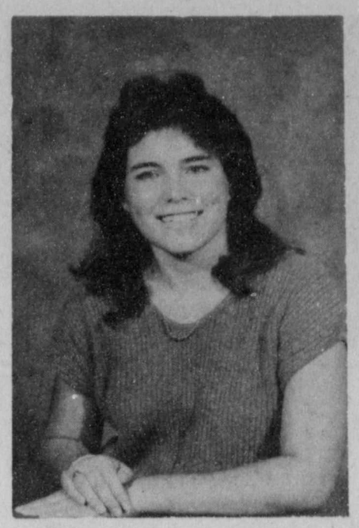

Born in Dallas, Frank studied two years at North Texas Agricultural College (now University of Texas at Arlington), a two-year school, and continued his education at the University of Texas in Austin both before and after a stint of slightly over two years with the United States Air Force.

He and the former Erma Lee Hunt were married in November 1946 in Dallas.

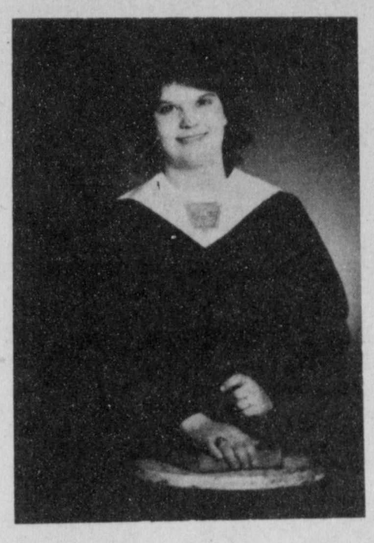

Speaking of his Christian ministry here, Duckworth says with a ring of sincerity: "I have certainly enjoyed working with the people of Lockney and this area. It's one of the finest places I've ever lived."

With no plans of retirement, the veteran preacher speaks with enthusiasm about the future as he foresees a continuation of foreign mission work and the possibility of local mission endeavors by his congregation.

He and Erma Lee have truly found a home in Lockney, a town in which they did not originally plan to spend 20 years!

AMY MIZE, daughter of Wilbur Mize of Lockney has been named the Valedictorian of the Crowley High School senior class. Mize is graduating with a 99.1 grade point average, the highest ever GPA in the history of Crowley High School. She is planning to attend West Texas University in the fall and possibly major in business administration. Crowley is located about 20 miles south of Fort Worth.

WELLER GRADUATES—Christina [Schuster] Weller was presented an associate degree in arts with honors during the 88th annual commencement exercises at Clarendon College. The presentations were made at the Harned Sisters Fine Arts Center. Christina was recently inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa National Honor Society. She plans to attend West Texas State University in Canyon to work on a B.S. degree in elementary education. She is the daughter of George and Nell Schuster of Lockney. She and her husband, Kenneth, will soon be residing in Amarillo.

9. Be eager to lend a helping hand. Often it is appreciated more than you know. What counts most in life is what we do for others.

10. Add to this a good sense of humor, a huge dose of patience and a dash of humility. This combination will open many doors and the rewards will be enormous. —Wendell Tooley, The Tulia Herald

GOOD MONEY IN COTTON?

People who make a good cotton crop are going to make good money the next couple of years. Believe it?

Well, here's the story from James Roberts, publisher of The Andrews County News. He says he recently visited with a man in Dallas who keeps tabs on cotton production across the nation and around the world. And that guy says that 100,000 irrigated acres have been taken out of cotton production in Arizona and diverted to vegetable production.

Two hundred thousand acres of irrigated land in California have gone the same way. And the Chinese have switched to food crops on some of their land which grew cotton last year.

All this spells news for the low-cost cotton producers of the Texas Panhandle and South Plains.

My advice is to clip this column, take it to your banker, and tell him that the sky's the limit. And let me know if it works.—Wendell Tooley, The Tulia Herald.

AN INDICATION?

All of the top 12 students, academically, in the 1986 Floydada High School graduating class hail from two-parent families.

"Does this tell us something?" a school official wondered aloud.

Lone Star school sold

The board was informed of the possible teacher needs for the 1986-87 school year. According to R.L. Knox, elementary school principal, there are no teacher needs in his building due to the recent hiring of teachers to fill the positions of others who are retiring this year. In high school there will need to be an English I teacher hired to replace Dayna Owen and it is possible that if everything can be arranged with the schedules in high school and junior high that a reading teacher, certified in secondary education will be hired for both buildings.

After discussion, trustees elected to leave the board meeting time at 7:30 p.m. rather than changing it to 8:00 p.m. as has been done in years past due to daylight savings time.

In other action the board approved the list of transfer students, the lunchroom agreement for 1986-87, the payment of current bills, and the making of investments.

Present for the meeting were Kelton Shaw, Dickie Lambert, Keith Jackson, Jim Bob Martin, Paul Glasson, Eddie Teeter, and Clar Schacht.

Several people hospitalized after Sunday morning fight

In the Wee hours, at about 3:00 a.m. Sunday morning the Lockney fire alarm sounded calling out ambulance and EMT workers in Lockney to the scene of a major disturbance.

According to Lockney police chief, Tim Thompson, "Several Mexican-Americans were out together drinking and a fight started." The end result was that nine people were transported to Lockney General Hospital for treatment. Injuries ranged from cuts and bruises to head lacerations, and a cracked arm.

All those involved were from age 18 to 22 and as of press time no charges had been filed. However, Thompson indicated that he did expect some charges to be filed in the incident very soon.
