

10-YEAR-OLD GIRL SAYS DALLAS' STAR RECEIVER MADE 'OFFENSIVE PASS'

'Midnight Cowboy' Rentzel Faces Indecent Exposure Rap

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Police Chief Forrest Keene of suburban University Park said a felony charge of indecent exposure was filed today against star receiver Lance Rentzel of the Dallas Cowboys professional football team.

Keene said the charge was in connection with an incident involving a 10-year-old girl about a week ago in University Park. WED TO TV STAR Keene said Rentzel appeared voluntarily at the police station Nov. 20 and posted a $1,500 appearance bond. Keene said the "offense report" was filed about 4 p.m.

Nov. 19 alleging Rentzel drove up in his car, talked to the girl, then exposed himself. Rentzel has been with the Cowboys since 1967. He married television star Joey Heatherton April 12, 1969, in New York's St. Patrick's Cathedral. Rentzel pleaded guilty on Oct. 4, 1966, in St. Paul, Minn., to a formal complaint charging him with "making noise, disturbance and improper diversion," and with committing "improper conduct to the disturbance of the citizens." The police report said several residents of the Highland Park neighborhood in St. Paul complained that Rentzel had exposed himself in the presence of small children on three different occasions. NEVER SENTENCED Rentzel was never sentenced in the St. Paul incident, but Municipal Judge James Lynch ordered him to seek psychiatric care. At the time, Rentzel was on the Minnesota Vikings football team. He was traded to the Cowboys on May 4, 1967, in exchange for Dallas' No. 3 draft choice. Born in Flushing, N.Y., Rentzel grew up in Oklahoma City where he was a high school All-American football player at Casady High School. He played for Oklahoma and was named an

All-Big Eight halfback. HOLDS RECORD Rentzel is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, a national organization to promote Christianity. He holds the Dallas Cowboys' single game record of 13 catches for 233 yards and ranks fourth in all-time Dallas receivers.

Plane Thief Not Plain, FBI Insists

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The FBI is looking for a red-haired pilot who stole a twin-engine plane from Jacksonville Airport, flew it to Puerto Rico by way of Venezuela, and abandoned it outside San Juan.

The agents also would like to talk with four passengers he picked up somewhere along the way. Where they got on or off was unknown.

The aircraft is a $250,000 turboprop which had been used as a company plane by the Lehigh Cement Co. and was being offered for sale.

Pilot Sherrell D. Roberts said the young thief came to look at it last week and said he would be back.

A man who identified himself as an airplane broker called the airport Friday and said the young man had bought the plane.

A few hours later, the mystery man showed up at the field, boarded the plane and flew away.

He next appeared at Fort Lauderdale where, authorities said, he bought gasoline with a bogus credit card and filed a flight plan for San Juan.

His next known stop was at Grand Turk Island, about 50 miles northwest of San Juan.

Air Force personnel at a U.S. base there refueled the plane, and, after the pilot remarked that he wasn't exactly sure of the way to Puerto Rico, pointed him in the right direction. Airmen said the pilot by then had acquired four Spanish-looking passengers.

Some hours later the plane showed up in Caracas, Venezuela, about 500 miles south of San Juan. The pilot used his bogus credit card again for more gas, and headed north.

This time he landed at an abandoned airport outside of San Juan. He abandoned the airplane and has not been seen since.

Meanwhile, the airman at Grand Turk had become suspicious and contacted the Federal Aviation Administration in Miami. The FBI was called in.

The Coast Guard had been searching for the flyer because he failed to show up in Puerto Rico on time. The search was abandoned when the FAA found that the aircraft number on the flight plan belonged to a single-engine plane sitting in a hangar in Texas.

All this time, about the only people who weren't looking for the plane were its owners.

Bourbon Back In Jail Again

BROWNWOOD — Rae Bourbon, 76, convicted earlier this year as an accomplice in the murder of a Big Spring resident, escaped from the Brown County Jail Sunday night and was captured 1½ hours later just across the street.

Brown County Sheriff Joe Townsend said that Charlie Klinger, the jailer, had let Bourbon walk from his second floor cell to the first floor to make a phone call about 8 p.m.

As Klinger was escorting Bourbon back to his cell, another prisoner called for Klinger's attention, the sheriff said. Bourbon apparently went back downstairs and walked out of the jail through the jailer's apartment.

Bourbon was found about 9:30 p.m. lying in the front seat of a pickup. The sheriff said Bourbon was "about to freeze to death" and offered no resistance. Bourbon was clad only in a T-shirt and a pair of slacks, the sheriff said.

Bourbon has been in the Brown County Jail since February awaiting the outcome of an appeal on a 99-year sentence handed him in the shooting death of A. D. Blount, owner of the Big Spring Pet-A-Zoo. He was tried in Brownwood on a charge of venue.

Bourbon was charged with hiring two other men, Bobby Eugene Chrisco, 23, and Bobbie Randall Crain, 23, to shoot Blount after a disagreement over a boarding bill for more than 50 animals left by Bourbon at the Pet-A-Zoo.

Chrisco was sentenced to life in prison by a Howard County Jury in September, 1969. Crain pleaded guilty earlier this year in Ector County, where he had been transferred on a change of venue. All three men are from Kansas City.

LOST HIS PANTS, TRUCK TO GIRL

COTULLA, Tex. (AP) — A 42-year-old truck driver lost his pants and his truck on Interstate 35 north of San Antonio Sunday night when he gave a girl hitchhiker a ride.

Officers said he told them that, after a wayside halt in a wooded area, the woman drove off in his truck, leaving him minus most of his clothing and his billfold containing $200.

Clad only in a T-shirt, the truck driver was reluctant to flag down passing cars. He made his way to a nearby farmhouse. But there his troubles weren't ended. The farmer held him at bay with a shotgun until officers arrived.

The girl, 21, was arrested near Cotulla early today and held by sheriff's deputies pending her return to the state mental hospital in Austin, where she had been a patient.

The truck driver got his pants and truck back.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau, releasing final figures on the 1970 census, said today the total population of the United States as of April 1 was 204,765,770.

The figure includes U.S. servicemen stationed abroad and federal employees overseas.

Ten years ago, in 1960, the figure was 180,007,000.

As a result of the new census, California will gain five seats in the House of Representatives.

Representation in the House is based on population.

The bureau said the five-seat gain by California will move it into the lead among the states and in House representation, with 43 members.

New York will lose two seats as a result of the census, dropping it to second place with 39 representatives.

Also gaining seats are Florida, three; and Arizona, Colorado, and Texas, one each.

Pennsylvania will lose two seats and Alabama, Iowa, North Dakota, Ohio, Tennessee, West Virginia and Wisconsin will lose one each.

The new apportionment of House seats will be effective with the 93rd Congress which convenes in January, 1973.

The Census Bureau said California gained 4.2 million in population in the last decade, the largest of any state. Florida gained 1.8 million, Texas 1.6 million and New York 1.4 million.

The bureau said the 1970 resident population, excluding U.S. servicemen abroad, was 203,184,772. In 1960, the resident total was 179,323,175.

The bureau said more than three-fourths of the national growth between 1960 and 1970 occurred in metropolitan areas, with suburban rings showing the fastest gains. It said suburbanites outnumber those living in the central cities for the first time.

But the population in many central cities declined sharply.

Will Appoint Orgy Inspector

LONDON (AP) — Equity, the British actors' union, is appointing an orgy inspector to keep watch on mass sex scenes in movies. His job will be to insure that the male actors stick to the script.

Five actresses complained that during the shooting of a scene for "The Devils," they were sexually assaulted in a crowd of 50 naked male extras, all amateurs. The movie, about sex-mad nuns in the 17th century, stars Vanessa Redgrave and Oliver Reed, who were not involved.

'THE LIBRARY IS THE COLLEGE OF THE PEOPLE' ... Cong. Omar Burleson formally opens library

Antiwar Unit Slaps Hoover With Threats

WASHINGTON (AP) — An antiwar group, accused by FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover of plotting to disrupt capital utility lines and kidnap a high federal official, denied both charges today and said a law suit is being considered.

In a news conference, Roman Catholic priests, nuns and laymen of the East Coast Conspiracy to Save Lives continually stressed the group's nonviolent character and said Hoover was attempting to set the stage for repression of all leftist groups.

Dominican Sister Susan Cordes, 32, said the group would welcome an official investigation which, she hoped, "would uncover what is happening in this country."

Open House Held For New Library

Approximately 150 Howard County residents joined Cong. Omar Burleson and Howard County commissioners touring the new library following ceremonies Sunday afternoon on the front steps of the remodeled post office.

"I'm most grateful to you for arranging this program at a time when I could be here to enjoy with you this most impressive accomplishment," Burleson said.

"From the very beginning when we knew we were going to get a new post office, I think it was in the back of everyone's mind that we would try to get the building transferred to the county for a new library," he said.

Following Burleson's speech, members of the Friends of the Library served punch and cookies while people toured the building. The Permian Basin Chamber Music Society provided music for the opening.

"For a facility which in some places is abandoned to be put to such use as this is wonderful," Burleson said.

Burleson challenged the residents of Howard County to make full use of the facility. "Having this facility is not enough — it must be used," he said.

"If I can be of any service to you and this library, it will be my pleasure," he said.

Prior to Burleson's remarks, County Judge Lee Porter and Mrs. Oliver Nichols Jr., librarian, welcomed persons attending the ceremony. R. W. Whipkey, publisher of the Herald, introduced Burleson. Chaplain H. Eugene Welch, Webb AFB, presented the invocation.

Following Burleson's speech, members of the Friends of the Library served punch and cookies while people toured the building. The Permian Basin Chamber Music Society provided music for the opening.

Tate Trial To Resume; What Next?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Sharon Tate murder trial resumes today after a one-week recess amid aftershocks of strategy switches which wiped out the defense case and saw Charles Manson in a surprise witness-stand monologue.

"What next? I have no information that anything untoward will occur," said chief defense attorney Paul Fitzgerald.

But he said he couldn't speak for the unpredictable Manson who took the witness stand with the jury absent at the last court session Nov. 20 and denied his guilt.

Manson, 36, leader of a hippie-type family, and three women codefendants are charged with murder-conspiracy in the slayings of Miss Tate and six others.

Fitzgerald, who rested the defense case without calling a witness, said there was no chance he and three associates would try to reopen their case.

"We have discussed it, and we are adamant," he said. "We will stay with our original decision."

Fitzgerald says the four feel their move will have a positive effect on the trial's outcome.

"I think the jury is happy that we rested. I don't think they'll hold it against us," he declared, asserting that the jurors had expected to be kept away from their families for months of defense testimony.

Next on the agenda are arguments over jury instructions. The defense, said Fitzgerald, will ask to have state star witness Linda Kasabian declared an accomplice in the slayings.

Aid For 'Kids' Only Way Out Of Rat Race

ONLY THE CHILD OFFERS REAL POTENTIAL FOR BREAKING THE POVERTY CYCLE

(Editor's Note: Aid to dependent children has been subject of some court disputes, although of all the welfare programs it seems to touch the hearts of taxpayers most. This aid is the topic of this second of four analytical stories on the Senate Welfare Reform Committee report, just out.)

By LEE JONES
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Hardly anyone argues against aid for dependent children. There are some disputes about who should qualify for help but no one advocates that youngsters go hungry.

Fairly recent court decisions have expanded the lists of children qualified for this aid. These resulted in a Texas constitutional amendment to allow the money to be paid to them. Still, it seems, not enough money is available.

Thoughtful men say help for the children is the only way out of a perpetual welfare rat race.

The Senate Interim Committee on Welfare Reform has just issued a report on the whole welfare package. It says aid to families with dependent children rolls are rising at the rate of 7,000 children a month because of the federal court decisions.

But it found that of all welfare recipients, only the child offers real potential for "breaking the poverty cycle."

"If there is any hope for reducing the welfare rolls for the future, it lies in wise planning for the one salvageable group," the committee declared.

27 Per Cent Unmarried
There were 199,504 children on the welfare rolls June 1, the latest date in the report, and the average children's aid family received a monthly welfare check of $118.84.

More than a third of the families — 35.4 per cent — received some outside income, including earnings and Social Security payments. The average child aid family had 4.3 persons, including 3.2 children.

Of all aid children 18 and under, 11.97 per cent are Anglo, 36.44 per cent Mexican-American and 51.44 per cent Negro, the committee said.

The group also analyzed the child welfare rolls by the status of absent fathers.

It found 27 per cent of them "reported themselves as unmarried" — that is, their children are illegitimate. Another 15.5 per cent had deserted, 15 per cent were separated from the children's mothers, 12.9 per cent were divorced, 12.5 per cent had an "incapacity" that kept them from supporting their families, 4.9 per cent were dead, 3.8 per cent were in prison and half of 1 per cent were either in institutions or absent for some other reason.

One third of the children are age 5 or under, 41 per cent are age 6-12 and 24 per cent 13 to 18 years.

"The elements of a program to break the cycle of poverty are fairly simple," the committee said.

"Because an undernourished child can scarcely be educated to the skills he needs to become a self-supporting adult, he needs more food."

If Mother Could Work
"If the mother could work, the family perhaps need not be on welfare at all. An adequate day care system, itself providing employment to persons now on welfare, must exist before she can work."

"For a child born into a welfare ethos, a work-study program to instill the attitudes of a work-oriented society with rewards and penalties is clearly indicated."

The committee recommended that day care centers be provided for these children between the ages of 2 and 5 whose mothers work. Centers would have to meet "rigid standards of operation and maintenance, with emphasis upon nutrition, social adjustment, early childhood learning and pre-school readiness preparation."

'Limited Dental Care'
Bi-lingual training should be given in centers with many Spanish-speaking children, the committee proposed.

"Childhood learning enrichment centers" were suggested for after-school care of children in the 6-12 age group.

Cost of day care to the state was estimated at between $12 million and $25 million.

A state-financed work-study program was recommended for these children between 16 and 19 as an incentive to stay in school and learn a "marketable skill." Such youngsters would attend school five hours and work three hours in jobs "necessary to day-to-day operation of the school" and would receive not less than $1 per hour.

Plan To Provide Glasses

"Without special provisions to assure their preparation for an industrial society, these children will reach their 18th birthday and be cut off from assistance, only to become additions to the 'working poor' or 'the unemployables' — unless plans, programs and financial assistance based on strict performance standards are provided," the report said.

Estimated cost of work-study is $150,000 per year.

The committee also recommended two medical steps to help aid children escape poverty as adults.

One would provide "limited dental care" to head off problems such as those found in 40 to 50 per cent of Texas Job Corps Center residents who had tooth defects "serious enough to be considered an occupational impairment."

The other would provide glasses for those who could not afford them, including one replacement pair annually.

... features a complete line of home furnishings

GROWING PAINS, MOVING PAINS Old Store, But New Location

Most Big Spring residents spent Thanksgiving Day at home with their families. Ted Hatfield, however, wasn't able to take Thanksgiving off.

Hatfield is manager of the Good Housekeeping store which is re-opening for business at 210 Main. For the past several months he and a crew of workmen have been completely rebuilding the store and the big moving day was Friday.

The store wasn't ready Thursday for the big move and Hatfield said he spent most of Thanksgiving Day working.

He noted that the new store offers customers almost double the space of the old store—14,000 square feet, which will be stocked with all styles of furniture.

"We'd been suffering growing pains and our old store simply got too crowded. And, we wanted to get downtown—where more shoppers shop," he said.

The new Good Housekeeping Store, when it opens for business Tuesday, will feature a complete line of Hotpoint Appliances, and expanded custom drapery department, and facilities for Good House-keeping's complete interior store is a coffee lounge. Hatfield said the lounge, at the rear of the store, will be open while they shop.

Level Changes Reflect Decrease In Stored Water

AUSTIN — The second of two reports that together reflect the entire historical period of water-level observation in the 32 counties of the Southern High Plains of Texas has been released by the Texas Water Development Board.

Report 121 (Water-Level Data from Observation Wells in the Southern High Plains of Texas, 1965-70) notes that long-term changes in water levels in that area have reflected decreases in the over-all volume of water stored in the main aquifer, or natural underground reservoir.

The companion report, Report 21, which was issued in 1966, covers the period up to 1965. When pumping from an aquifer exceeds recharge—and recharge is quite small in this region—some of the water discharged must be withdrawn from permanent storage. Thus, water levels decline. Excessive decline of water levels can cause increased pumping cost, decreased well yields, and abandonment of shallower wells. In some areas of Texas an undesirable change in water quality due to salt-water encroachment is also possible.

The Ogallala Formation, which is the major aquifer underlying the Southern High Plains of Texas, varies in total thickness from a few feet to more than 500 feet in the approximately 31,000 square miles covered by the report. Much of the upper part of the formation is no longer saturated with water, however. The saturated thickness of the formation varies from less than 20 feet to more than 300 feet.

Most of the 1,500 wells from which water-level data were obtained for the report are in areas of large withdrawals of ground water for irrigation, industrial and municipal use. The resultant well records enable landowners and other interested parties to calculate the thickness of the saturated formation lying beneath their land by subtracting the water level measurement from the total thickness of the Ogallala Formation at that location.

Water-level records for most of the observation wells reported on are obtained annually by one of three methods: the wetted steel tape method, the electric line method, or the automatic recorder method.

Well records are tabulated in the publication by well number, depth of well, elevation of land surface in feet above mean sea level, dates of measurement, measurements of water level in feet below land surface, and changes (decline or rise) in water level from the previous year's measurement. These tables are reproduced in the publication from direct printouts by electronic data processing equipment. A well-location map accompanies the table for each county, and hydrographs showing changes in water level are presented for selected representative wells following the respective county tabulations.

Copies of the report, and also of Report 21, are available at no charge from the Texas Water Development Board, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Tex. 78711.

Curb Population

TORONTO (AP) — People would be discouraged from having babies if the baby bonus and tax deductions for dependents were dropped, the head of the zoology department at the University of Toronto told the audience at a pollution debate. Dr. D. A. Chant said the federal government should adopt a "zero population growth" policy for Canada and help set up abortions and free birth-control clinics.

'ROUND TOWN

BY LUCILLE PICKLE

All of the family of MR. and MRS. W. F. TAYLOR would have been together for the Thanksgiving holidays if ELMER ATWOOD of Belen, N.M., hadn't developed an indisposition and couldn't come with Mrs. Atwood for the gathering.

When washing knits, sort them in much the same manner as you sort regular laundry. Be especially cautious to wash light and dark garments in separate loads. Man-made fibers items have a tendency to pick up colors.

BREEZING INTO TOWN — Caught by a breeze, the cape of Pope Paul VI billows behind him as he addresses townspeople of Sydney, Australia, today. The pontiff arrived in Sydney and then was welcomed at Sydney's town hall, where he made his reply to their welcome.

Big Crowds, Security For Pope In Australia

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — With half the world and half his Far East trip behind him, Pope Paul VI became today the first Roman Catholic pontiff to visit Australia. Tens of thousands applauded as he rode through police cordons into Sydney.

Prime Minister John G.orton welcomed the frail 73-year-old Pope at the Sydney airport, saying: "Many of us have admired your fortitude in the extensive travels you have undertaken in the old world and the new."

The self-proclaimed "apostle on the move," Pope Paul now has visited every continent during his 7½ years in the Holy See except Antarctica.

"VERY TIRED"

His arrival in Sydney followed a gruelling 20-hour journey during which he flew 5,000 miles from Manila to Samoa, made appearances in American Samoa and the new independent nation of Western Samoa and then flew 2,400 miles to Australia. By crossing the International Date Line twice, he left Manila Saturday night, arrived in Samoa early Sunday, then got to Australia Sunday night.

A spokesman said the pontiff was "very tired" when he left Manila, but he slept all the way to Samoa and stepped briskly and refreshed from his chartered Italian jetliner at Pago Pago.

Security at Sydney was tighter than for any other visitor in the nation's history, including former President Lyndon B. Johnson. Australian authorities wanted no recurrence of the attempt on Pope Paul's life minutes after he arrived in Manila last Thursday, for which a Bolivian artist is charged with attempted murder and assault.

There was no trouble. About 5,000 persons roared greeting at the airport, though officials had expected as many as 50,000. Authorities attributed the lack of people to public fears of massive traffic jams.

SPECIAL WAY

The late afternoon sky was clear and sunny as the Pope expressed his friendship to all Australians. "We greet in a special way all the brothers of the Christian churches," he said.

Prospectors Club Meeting Tuesday

The Prospectors Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas Building, Fifth and Runnels.

This will be the regular Christmas meeting, with each person bringing a gift representing the aims of the club and costing not over $2. The club is for persons interested in antiques, relics, gems and minerals from this area and surrounding counties. All interested persons are invited to attend. Mrs. Bonnie Bennett, vice president, said.

Most Australians are Protestant with the 3.3 million Roman Catholics amounting to just over one-fourth of the population.

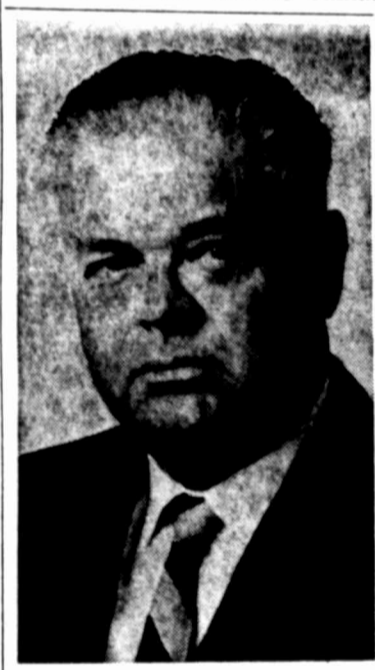

After a short ceremony at the Town Hall, the Pope said Mass in the Gothic St. Mary's Cathedral. Then he retired for the night to the residence of the papal nuncio.

Tuesday the Pope is to participate in discussions of the Catholic bishops' conferences of Australia and Oceania, both meeting in Sydney. He will celebrate huge open-air Masses Tuesday and Wednesday at Sydney's Randwick Racecourse before continuing his 28,000-mile trip by flying to Jakarta. After the Indonesian stopover, the Pope flies to Hong Kong, then Colombo and on to the Vatican.

A full schedule has been the keynote of the 10-day journey.

SLUM TOUR

On his last day in Manila, Pope Paul visited a slum area, rode through placard-carrying pickets to the residence of Archbishop Rufino Cardinal Santos, attended the final session of the Asian Bishops' Conference and broadcast an address to Asians condemning the materialism of the West and the "militant atheism" of Communist China.

He came to Big Spring in 1951 and was associated with the Hall-Bennet Memorial Hospital until 1958 when he joined the staff at the Cowper Clinic and Hospital.

Dr. Broadrick and his wife, Bessie Jo, have three children. Ronald and Linda are students at Angelo State College and Ingrid is a student at Big Spring High School. The family lives at 1310 Dayton.

House Destroyed

LAMESA (SC) — A Saturday afternoon fire destroyed the home of Elton Thorp, located about 10 miles from Lamesa on the Stanton Highway, causing $25,000 in damage. Fire officials said they believed the blaze was caused by faulty electrical wiring. No one was home at the time of the fire.

Unusually Mild Days In Texas

By The Associated Press

Steady south breezes promised relief today from dense fog which has plagued coastal areas and some other sections of Texas for several days.

Visibility was down to zero at Galveston near dawn, however, and the murky mist still hung low around Brownsville and Victoria.

Conditions improved around Houston, Beaumont and Port Arthur, where it was foggy Sunday morning, lifted in the afternoon and returned in the evening, halting ship traffic and hampering other travel.

Unusually mild weather lingered nearly everywhere in the state on this final day in November. A Pacific cool front headed eastward from Arizona was expected to lower temperatures a bit by Tuesday in parts of West Texas.

Blinding fog stopped movement of vessels in the Houston ship channel and Bolivar Roads as Galveston also experienced zero visibility Sunday morning. One of the state-operated ferries between Galveston Island and Bolivar Peninsula ran aground in the fog Sunday but was quickly refloated. Ferry service was curtailed for a time.

Pay Attention In This Court

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — There'll be no reading in the courtroom of City Court Judge George W. Cady — even if you are a biochemistry professor and the reading material is an issue of Science magazine.

Asst. Prof. Stanford Roadman of St. Louis University found that out when he appeared for an unpaid parking ticket.

He said hundreds of people were in the courtroom and it looked like a long wait. As he read his magazine a man, later identified to him as a deputy, told him to put it away.

Roadman continued reading but was then escorted to a cell behind the courtroom where he stayed for more than two hours. Judge Cady said reading in the courtroom was forbidden because of "respect for the court, just like in England, in the days of the common law."

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠KJ84 ♦K10873 ♣QJ6

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass Pass 1♥ 1♠

What do you bid now?

A.—Three hearts. No temporary bid is available to you since a two diamond call, in view of your previous pass, would not be forcing.

Q. 2—You are South, vulnerable, and you hold:

♠AQJ874 ♥K ♦K1064 ♣6

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1♥ 2♦ 4♥ 4♠

Pass 5♠ 5♥ ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Six diamonds. This is admittedly a stab but, unfortunately there is no suitable alternative in whether partner possesses the right cards. There is the further prospect that the vulnerability status may induce the opponents to take out insurance with a save at six hearts which will, at least, add 200 additional points to your score.

Q. 3—Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠5 ♥1053 ♦QJ8 ♣KQ872

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

Pass 1♥ 3♠ Pass

Pass Double. Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Four hearts. This is an awkward situation and the prospect of raising partner to the fourth level on three trumps is not an appealing one, but a bid of four clubs is too likely to be passed, since it is in the nature of a forced response and we would hesitate to advise a leap to five.

Q. 4—Neither side vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠K94 ♥83 ♦109653 ♣874

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

2♠ Pass 2NT Pass

3♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. Partner's nonjump bid of two no trump is not forcing and, though we have a disinclination to stop short on constructive bidding, we cannot lose sight of the fact that we have a hand which contains only 11 high card points and has some of the earmarks of a misfit.

sents potential ruffing value in the heart suit, in addition to solidifying trump, slam prospects should not be lightly dismissed.

Q. 5—North-South vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠K4 ♥98432 ♦KQJ95 ♣7

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass 1♣ 1♠ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Two spades. Opposite a partner who could venture a vulnerable overall, you have a hand of distinct merit and should offer partner an opportunity to contract for game. Your trumps are adequate to support a vulnerable overall.

Q. 6—Neither vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠97 ♥8 ♦KJ97643 ♣1098

Partner opens with one heart. What is your response?

A.—Pass. To respond in any fashion with this hand might lead to serious complications. If you acknowledge your sad plight by passing, you may find it expedient to enter the auction on the next round.

Q. 7—Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠K7653 ♥10 ♦2 ♣K9864

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1♠ 2♥ 4♠ Pass

5♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Six spades. The bid above given in this sequence is conventionally regarded as an inquiry as to partner's holding in the adverse suit. If responder can promise that he will lose no more than one trick in that suit, he should accept the invitation. Observe that, if your heart and diamond holdings were reversed, your proper call would be a pass.

Q. 8—Neither side vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠K10654 ♥A10654 ♦2 ♣A2

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1♠ Pass 2♦ Pass

2♥ Pass 2NT Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. Partner's nonjump bid of two no trump is not forcing and, though we have a disinclination to stop short on constructive bidding, we cannot lose sight of the fact that we have a hand which contains only 11 high card points and has some of the earmarks of a misfit.

People who cook with pride cook with GAS.

Janice Constantine does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America. But, good cooks don't just happen. They work to make themselves good, and they give themselves every cooking advantage possible... like gas range cooking.

Besides being the most economical way to cook, gas is also predictable. You always know just how much heat you're getting because you can see the flame. And, precise temperature control is what nine out of 10 professional chefs agree makes the difference between outstanding cooking and just plain cooking. Gas gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

Here's one of Janice Constantine's favorite recipes.

QUICHE LORRAINE
Janice Constantine, 108 Ridgela, Midland

2 1/4 c. scalded heavy cream

Stir well. Fill shell with mixture. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. When custard is set, scatter 1/2 lb. crisp bacon pieces on top. Sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Commissioners Open Bids On Three Items, Table One

County Commissioners Court was taken up largely this morning with the opening and consideration of bids on the cost of purchase of an accounting machine, plaster repairs in the courthouse, and the rental of county-owned grassland. Two bids on the cost of an accounting machine, to be used in the district clerk's office to simplify bookkeeping concerning child support payments, were received this morning from the Burroughs Corp. and the National Cash Register. Burroughs Corp. bid $4,758.01 and one year's free maintenance for their purchase price of the machine. NCR bid $4,843 and one year's maintenance on the purchase of the machine. Commissioners instructed Mrs. Virginia Black, county auditor who also uses a similar machine; Fern Cox, district clerk; and Bill Crooker, county commissioner, to study the matter further and report their findings at the next meeting of the commissioners court. Luther Coleman was awarded a $1,400 contract to repair water-damaged plaster in the Howard County Courthouse. Coleman bid on the number of areas to be patched, which number 35, at $40 an area. The other bid was $1,435 from M. T. Johnson. Plaster in the courthouse was damaged when hot water pipes between the ceiling of the district clerk's, district judge's and the county reporter's offices and the jail floor developed leaks. The faulty steel pipes were replaced with copper plumbing. A bid from Alvah Minnick on the rental of county-owned grassland adjacent to the Howard County Airport was accepted. Minnick was the sole bidder, and he agreed to pay a yearly fee of $291.40. The

Accused Sergeant Wins Trial Delay

A court-martial judge granted a continuance today until Dec. 14 in the trial of an Air Force sergeant accused with maltreating recruits. The judge, Col. James Thorn, granted the continuance in order to give the defense lawyers time to interview seven additional witnesses whom the prosecution said it plans to call to the stand. On trial is T. Sgt. Jack Wilson, 34, a native of Kenova, W. Va., who has been relieved of duty as an instructor at Lackland Military Training Center pending outcome of the case. The defense indicated it will seek a three-judge federal court to rule on its contention that maltreatment statutes of the Military Code of Justice are unconstitutional. Kol Thorn had denied a motion for dismissal on grounds that the statute was unconstitutional because, the defense claimed, the statute is vague and indefinite.

OIL Re-Opening Slated For Borden Well

Pierce & Dehlinger of Midland will attempt to re-open the Garner (Clear Fork) field in Borden County. Its No. 1 Garner well to 4,400 feet and is one location north of the depleted-one-well field. The field had been opened April 16, 1951 by Rowan Oil Co. with 133 barrels of 27 gravity oil per day from perforation 4,242-72 after it had drilled unsuccessfully to the Pennsylvanian reef at 7,215. Dowdle Oil Corp. of Midland announced two offset locations to the company's No. 1 Juliette Wolcott, recently completed as a Leonard-Dean discovery in Martin County, 18 miles northwest of Lenora. Both prospects will go to 10,000 feet. The field opener rated 545 barrels a day at 9,111-9,255 from the Leonard and 9,387-9,151 from the Dean. Texaco No. 1 G. T. Hall Gas Unit, three-fourths of a mile southeast of Devonian gas production in the Block 16 field of Ward County, had 28 barrels of oil and 47 of the water in 64 hours from the Brushy Canyon from 6,430-6,476.

'Pilot Doesn't Know What Happened'

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A federal official says the pilot of a military charter plane has been unable to tell investigators what caused the DC8 jet to crash on takeoff, killing 47 of the 229 persons on board. "The pilot doesn't know what happened," said Rudolf Kapustin, who heads the eight-man National Transportation Safety Board—NTSB—team investigating the Friday night crash. Kapustin interviewed William G. Reid, Napa, Calif., pilot of the Capital International Airways jet, at a hospital here Sunday. The Vietnam-bound jetliner nosed roughly back onto the runway while taking off, exploded and burned before breaking apart, investigators said. "There is no evidence at this time that the brakes were locked and there is no evidence at this time of fire prior to breakup of the aircraft," Kapustin said. He said Reid described the takeoff as normal. Kapustin said interviews with the crew confirmed earlier reports the plane was slow to accelerate. Ivan R. Stracenter, supervisory air safety investigator for the NTSB, said pieces of the plane's tires were found at intervals from the beginning of the runway.

Plans Approved For Traffic Count

A change of meeting days and plans for a traffic count were approved this morning by the traffic commission. Commissioners voted to reject a request for a stop sign at the northwest corner of Virginia and Washington, since traffic at that intersection is considered too light to warrant a sign. Jerry Worthing, commission chairman, brought up the possibility of relocating the traffic light at West Fifth and Gregg to West Sixth and Gregg. He pointed out that the traffic on Sixth had increased since the building of the new post office, and may warrant a light at Gregg. The commission decided to postpone discussion of the matter until a traffic count at that intersection is completed. The commission voted to meet at 10 a.m. on the last Friday in each month, instead of on the last Monday. Other matters discussed were the possibility of widening Goliad to four lanes between Eleventh Place and East Thirteenth, a possible solution to a traffic problem in the 1000 block of Goliad near the Big Spring Nursing Inn, and a plan to change the parking on Main between Fourth and Sixth to make four lanes of traffic possible.

Jury Selection Begins In 118th

Jury selection still was underway shortly before noon today in 118th District Court in the damage suit of Nona Hill Vs. Robert D. Brewer. The suit is the result of a Feb. 11 automobile collision at the intersection of Young and Thirteenth. She is asking for $10,470 in damages in connection with injuries she allegedly received in the accident. WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — An underground newspaper published in Wichita has warned heroin dealers to leave town within two weeks. The paper said the underground would put up posters after two weeks, naming the heroin pushers and addicts. DeMolay Mothers LAMESA (SC) — The Lamesa DeMolay Mothers Club will meet tonight in Masonic Hall to make plans for a Dec. 22 DeMolay Christmas party.

More Than Three Dozen Texans Die In Mishaps

By The Associated Press
A tragic increase in accidents during the latter stages of the Thanksgiving weekend sent the traffic toll climbing in Texas. The grim count reached a total of 39 deaths in the holiday period from 6 p.m. Wednesday to midnight Sunday. After a comparative lull, most of the fatalities occurred Saturday night and Sunday, the time when many motorists were returning home from Thanksgiving trips. Fog which made travel hazardous in many areas was blamed for some crashes.

OFFICERS CHASING
A head-on collision Saturday night near Athens took the lives of Marvin M. Doss, 45, of Dallas and Charles A. Johnson, 54, and Nadine Johnson, 60, both of Kemp. Doyle Johnson, 13, of Kemp was injured critically. Police said officers were chasing Otis Blackman, 35, of Houston at high speed late Saturday night when his car hit one carrying two women. The crash on a Houston street killed Blackman and Lucille Knasterner, 52, of Houston and Myrtle Dickinson, 74, of Rockdale.

Among the other victims were: Juan Orta, 18, of Hereford was killed Sunday when he was struck by a car on a U.S. 60 access road in Canyon. Officers said Orta had a flat tire on his car and was rolling the tire down the street when he was hit.

FATAL PLUNGE
Rossie Barclay Hobby, 80, of Brownfield was killed Sunday when two cars collided about a mile north of Wellman in Terry County. Officers said the accident occurred at a US 62 intersection. Two other persons were injured.

Robert Gonzales, 19, of Houston was killed Sunday when his auto plunged off a freeway overpass in Houston.

Three motorists were killed and eight injured, one gravely, in a collision Saturday night at Monahans in West Texas. The dead were Dixie Griffith, 33, Stefanie McDaniel, 4, and Virginia McDaniel, 25, all of Monahans.

The worst injured among the survivors was Frances Haley, 19, of Sanderson.

Helen Homeier, 50, a school nurse from Cypress, was killed Saturday night in a two-car crash one mile north of Palacios on Texas 35. Her husband William, 52, a Cypress teacher, and Antonio Galvan, 23, of Blessing were taken to a Galveston hospital in critical condition.

James Ray Tiemann, 18, of Comanche was killed about 2 a.m. Sunday when a car ran off Texas 16 and overturned 5½ miles south of Comanche. Jimmy Doyle Clark, 25, of New London died at a Kilgore hospital about an hour after a one-car accident 4 mile north of Kilgore on Texas 135 early Sunday. Brenda Jo Clark, 26, of New London suffered a broken shoulder.

Mrs. Gean May of Rt. 2, Nocona, died and four other persons were taken to hospitals in serious to critical condition after a Saturday night collision on U.S. 82 at Ringgold in North Texas. The injured were her husband, 44; Leena May, 32, of Deming, N.M.; Patricia May, 20, of Nocona and W. J. Blair, 60, of Waurika, Okla.

CHAMPAGNE, POPCORN How Does This Giant Movie Screen Grab You?

HOUSTON (AP) — Movies are advertised these days as being shown on "giant screens" and "wide, wide screens."

How does one size of a 15-story building grab you?

Some 35,000 persons are expected to attend the world premiere of "Brewster McCLOUD" next Saturday night in the Astrodome and watch the movie on a gigantic screen, measuring 156 feet across and 60 feet high, the equivalent of a 15-story building.

Most screens are made of plaster or metal. This one, labeled the "Astroscreen," is made of a mixture of plaster and cloth.

Astrodome officials say lifting the screen into place just below the American flag in centerfield is a five hour job. They say it will take one hour just to unfold it. Another hour is necessary to sew it onto a pipe rail to keep it level. Another hour is needed to attach six cable bristles and cables. Then hoisting it takes two more hours.

Only those attending the premiere will see the movie in 70mm. Other movie audiences will view it in 35mm. Only one 70mm is being made and that one is for the Astrodome audience. The print cost about $12,000.

The event will benefit the variety clubs. "Front Row Center" is the name for cabaret table arrangements for sponsors of the charity benefit, where 400 persons will be seated at 40 round tables.

Sponsors will enter the stadium in chauffeur-driven limousines and be dropped off at a red carpet which leads to the tables.

Waiters will serve, among other things, champagne and popcorn.

The MGM film has the theme of man's desire to fly. It was shot entirely in Houston with the Astrodome as the focal point of the story and other parts of the city as background.

The film was produced by Lou Adler-John Phillips productions in association with director Robert Altman's Lion's Gate films. Altman won the Cannes Film Festival Award for "M-A-S-H." Altman, Adler and star of the movie, Sally Kellerman, Bud Vort, Michael Murphy, John Schuck and Jennifer Salt, are expected for the premiere.

The movie has been given an "R" rating which means children under 18 will not be admitted unless accompanied by parents.

Vets Erase Mass Panic After Crash

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A survivor of an Anchorage, Alaska, plane crash that took 47 lives says more might have died but for the clear thinking of veteran military men aboard the craft.

"There was mass panic for about 15 seconds," Army S. Sgt. Noe Galvan Jr., 23, recalled by telephone from Anchorage Sunday.

"Then some of the old veterans . . . some going to Vietnam for their second, third and even fourth times . . . calmed everybody down," he said. "More lives might have been lost if they hadn't."

Galvan, formerly of McAllen, Tex., and now of San Antonio, told the San Antonio Express that he was only slightly injured. There were a total of 229 servicemen and others on board the plane.

When the plane crashed, he said, the tail section "broke off just three rows in front of where I was sitting."

As he started to get out through a gaping hole, Galvan said, he spotted a trapped soldier.

"I don't think he made it . . . His leg was pinned, and while I was trying to free him I was pushed outside and fell about eight to 10 feet. He was sitting in the row where the plane cracked open.

"We also lost a stewardess from the tail section. She was in the far back and I was told she never came out."

Galvan told the Express that one soldier in the tail section went to the cockpit and tried to help the crew out of the torn aircraft.

"Jet fuel spewed everywhere. At first I thought it was water . . . Somehow I got soaked with jet fuel."

Galvan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noe Galvan Sr. of McAllen, has been in the Army five years. He left San Antonio on Thanksgiving Day for his first full tour of duty in Vietnam. He was sent there on temporary duty in 1966.

Dayan Says Israel Ready For Talking

TEL AVIV (AP) — Defense Minister Moshe Dayan says Israel is ready for unconditional peace talks with the Arabs, but it is not going to give up the Golan Heights, the Gaza Strip and command of the Strait of Tiran.

Speaking to a Labor party rally Sunday night, Dayan listed these territorial goals as Israel's "guidelines" for negotiations, along with a demand for an agreement that no Arab army ever cross the Jordan River to advance on Israel.

But these are not preconditions, Dayan asserted, because the Arabs would not "have to sign their agreement... in advance. We will sit together and discuss these matters."

All the territory listed by Dayan was captured in the 1967 war, along with the Old City of Jerusalem, Jordanian territory on the west bank of the Jordan River, and the rest of the Sinai peninsula west and northwest of the Strait of Tiran.

KEEP IT!
Israel's determination to retain the Golan Heights, the Gaza Strip and the western shore of the Tiran Strait, between the Gulf of Aqaba and the Red Sea, has been repeatedly stated, Dayan made no mention of Old Jerusalem, but the Israeli government has said a number of times that it would not give that up.

Dayan said Israel wants to negotiate "to examine ways to end the fighting... because there is no point in war." He told his party, however, that "if the war is resumed, we will fight."

Israel broke off of indirect negotiations with Egypt and Jordan at the United Nations on Sept. 6, charging that Egyptian movements of anti-aircraft missiles toward the Suez Canal had violated the cease-fire which was preliminary to the talks.

Deputy Premier Yigal Allon told another Labor party meeting Sunday that the Israeli government has "moral, political and military justification" to go back to the talks. Otherwise, he said, the world would blame Israel for the failure to achieve peace.

MISSILE BUILDUP
The deputy premier said the Israeli Cabinet would decide in a few days what conditions are necessary before the talks can be resumed. These will involve the Egyptian missile buildup along the Suez canal, he said, but he gave no indication what modification Israel would make in its demand that the missiles be returned to their disposition before the cease-fire. Egypt has said repeatedly it will move no missiles back.

The Israeli government today accused Egypt of building more new anti-aircraft missile sites in the 30-mile standstill zone along the canal. It was the 24th Israeli complaint of missile activity since the cease-fire went into effect Aug. 7 and the fourth since renewal of the agreement on Nov. 6.

Local Woman Is Hurt In Wreck

Mrs. Roy (Isabelle Perez) Salame, 809 N. Runnels, is in Medical Center Memorial Hospital in good condition following a Saturday afternoon accident in San Angelo.

Mrs. Salame, 49, was injured when the car she was driving was in collision with a car driven by Ernest Torres, 18, Dallas. Both were treated and released from Shannon Hospital in San Angelo. She was admitted Saturday night to Medical Center.

Officers said both vehicles were traveling south when the collision occurred, throwing both out of their vehicles.

Four-Day Week, A Dream Of Most Workers In U. S.

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP) — Paul Patterson's Jeep is parked outside, ready for three days of "snow-busting" in the high Rockies overlooking this fashionable Denver suburb. Lori Coffelt is looking forward to three days with her children. Executive George Gregory has a golf date Friday, and plans to finish paneling his basement playroom the rest of the weekend.

REST OF WEEKEND
"Rest of the weekend?" Right.

Come 4 p.m. every Thursday, Paul, Lori, George and 450 other employees of C. A. Norgren Co., walk out of their modern plant, drive through the landscaped grounds and begin a three-day weekend.

Norgren's employees put in 37 hours a week at work. But it's spread over four work days, not five.

A United Steelworkers union survey shows Norgren is one of at least 27 companies—employing a total of some 6,500 people—that now have a four day work week in one form or another.

ONE OF MANY
The four-day week, a dream of most every working man and the goal of many unions, is just one of many innovations adopted by Norgren, a manufacturer of air processing systems which prides itself as a long-time leader in industrial relations.

Profit sharing came 25 years ago. Pleasant working conditions and music piped through the airy lunchroom are other innovations. So's the landscaping around the sprawling two-story brick and stone building.

The $15-million-a-year family-owned company instituted the four-day week on Aug. 31. It meant going from a traditional 40-hour week to 37 hours, and amounted to an hourly salary increase of 7½ per cent.

The company says applications for employment jumped 300 per cent the week after the announcement, and have held at that level since.

KIND OF EARLY
"It's kind of early to tell just what economic effect it's having on us," said George Gregory, head of Norgren's advertising and marketing. "We get the general feeling we will be able to maintain or increase our production." He said a detailed study of the economic impact had not been completed. The great majority of the employees like it, he said, although there were a few grumbles about the long hours.

The plant runs two shifts, the day shift from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Wednesday, and 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday. That's 37 hours, with a half-hour for lunch. The night shift comes on at 5 p.m. and works through 3 a.m. except on Thursday when the shift ends at 2 a.m.

'Braille Trail'

PITTSBURGH (AP) — North Park opens next month a nature path for the blind. It's called "Braille Trail."

Plates in braille give instructions at the starting point and explain points of interest or what might be unfamiliar sounds at observation platforms. A nylon guide rope with knots to warn of obstacles ahead traces the 300-yard circular route through heavy woods.

One immediate asset from the innovation, he said, was the problem of shipping.

IT'S EXPENSIVE

"Now," Gregory said, "we are ready to ship Thursday afternoon, instead of Friday." The crates of valves, filters and other products which Norgren makes to protect air operated equipment, are picked up from the loading dock Thursday and reach the express agency in downtown Denver that evening.

"That means they leave town early Friday," Gregory said, "and frequently are delivered to our customers by Monday."

Before the four-day week, he said, shipments did not leave the city until Monday. Most of Norgren's domestic customers are on the East Coast or in California, he said, "and that two days makes a difference."

Ambassador, Wife Suicide

LISBON (AP) — West Germany's ambassador to Portugal, Dr. Hans Schmidt-Horix, and his wife committed suicide during the night, the embassy announced today.

A brief statement said the couple killed themselves for "private reasons."

Schmidt-Horix was 61 and had been ambassador in Lisbon since April 1, 1969. He served in Washington just before World War II and again in the 1950s. He had also been ambassador to Afghanistan and Iraq.

He and his wife, Barbara, had two children.

No More Sleepers

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP) — The Pullman cars on the Illinois Central's Panama Limited from Chicago to New Orleans are now a mere memory.

Vernon Paul, IC district passenger agent in Carbondale, said the sleeping car service will be replaced by coach cars.

Employees agreed generally that the third day off was expensive. "It cost me money," Gregory said, noting he had purchased two suits on a recent Friday. "We have more time to spend money," Patterson explained.

Goalby Wins But Misses Spotlight

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Bob Goalby won but — for the third time in as many years — the attention centered elsewhere.

The stocky, steady veteran won the 1968 Masters when Roberto de Vicenzo was disqualified from a tie for first for signing an incorrect scorecard, and de Vicenzo got the attention.

Goalby won the 1969 Robinson Open, the same weekend that Lee Trevino blew a five stroke lead and Billy Casper won the rich Alcan.

Trevino-Casper-Alcan got the attention. And Sunday the grey-eyed 39-year-old Goalby won the $100,000 Heritage Golf Classic, only to have the spotlight stolen by 20-year-old Lanny Wadkins, who became the first amateur in six years to finish as high as second in a professional event.

Goalby, a 14-year veteran saved the pride of the touring pros when he fired a final round 66, five under par on the double tough Harbour Town golf links, and finished with a 72 hole total of 290 for his 10th tour victory.

Wadkins, a 20-year-old Wake Forest student and the current national amateur champion, was alone in second at 284, matching par on the oceanic layout. He had a final round 68 and was in contention for the top spot until he took a double bogey six on the 11th hole.

From then on it was all Goalby. But it was the first time since Jim Grant took second in the 1964 Hartford Open that an amateur had finished so high in a regular tour event.

And there seemed to be little doubt that Wadkins, who is attending school on a scholarship furnished by Arnold Palmer, will, eventually, turn pro. He has a year to go in school. Steve Melnyk, the hulking, 23-year-old former amateur champ from Jacksonville, Fla., also was in contention until he ran afoul on the backside, shooting a 40 to 77. He finished at 290. Bert Yancey, who shared the third round lead with Melnyk, had even more trouble, shooting an 80 for 293. Palmer, the defending champion, never really got it going and took a 71 for 286 and a tie for third with Bob Murphy and Billy Maxwell. Murphy had a 70 and Maxwell a 71. Phil Rodgers and Jack Lewis tied at 287.

Bucks Back In Winning Cage Form

By The Associated Press
It wasn't entirely a lost weekend for the Milwaukee Bucks. The National Basketball Association club, coming off Friday and Saturday night losses to the defending champion New York Knicks, regained its form Sunday night by pummeling the expansion Portland Trailblazers 124-111.

In other NBA action Los Angeles crushed San Diego 130-112, Seattle destroyed Atlanta 130-107 and Detroit smacked hapless Cleveland 120-99.

In American Basketball Association play Pittsburgh walloped the Floridians 123-109, New York shelled Texas 129-113, Indiana crushed Denver 130-107 and Memphis overwhelmed Utah 114-92.

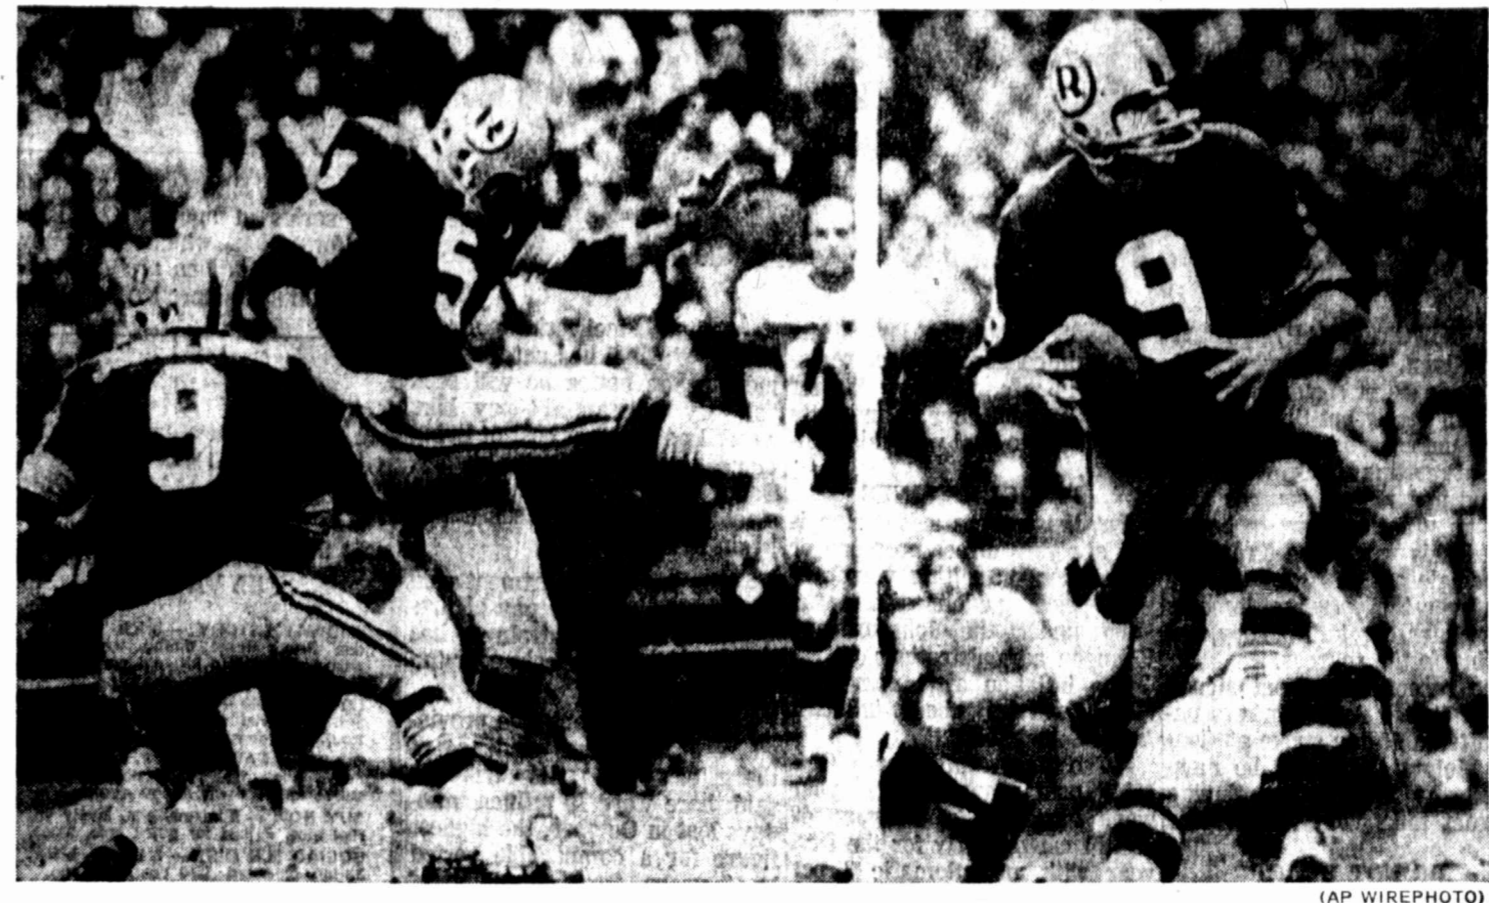

It takes four quarters to make a buck—but Milwaukee looked like small change in the closing quarter of its games against the Knicks, taking big leaders into the final periods only to squander them away and lose not only the games but a shot at surpassing New York's NBA record of 18 successive victories. The Bucks had won 16 straight.

The Bucks had no such problems with Portland, holding an eight-point halftime margin then building on it as Lew Alcindor hit 24 of his game-high 33 points in the second half. Rookie Geoff Petrie topped the Trailblazers with 27.

Jerry West of Los Angeles netted 41 points and added 16 assists while Walt Chamberlain was hauling in 31 rebounds as the Lakers pulled away from San Diego in the second half after leading only 52-51 at the intermission. Don Adams scored 28 for the Rockets.

Lenny Wilkens canned 41 for Seattle as the SuperSonics extended Atlanta's losing skein to four games with their third straight victory over the Hawks. Pee Maravich topped the losers with 23 points.

Cleveland absorbed its 11th successive setback and 26th in 27 games as Dave Bing of Detroit hit 27 points and set a Pistons assist record with 1,933. Walt Wesley was the top Cavaliers point man with 23.

THE FAKE THAT FAILED — With 17 seconds left and Washington trailing the New York Giants 27-24, the Redskins lined up to try an apparent 42-yard field goal, but quarterback Sonny Jurgensen (9) pulled the ball away from kicker Curt Knight's foot and faked back to pass. The rush was on and Jurgensen was tackled by Giants' Joe Green and the New Yorkers left Washington Sunday with a victory.

Prof. Tarkington Shows It's Game Of 3rd Downs

By The Associated Press
Pay attention, now. Professor Francis Asbury Tarkenton is giving lessons on how to win football games.

"You've got to play third down football," says Tarkenton, the New York Giants' game-wrecking quarterback. "If you don't make your third downs, you might as well go home."

Tarkenton made good on five straight third down plays during three touchdown drives and the Giants scrambled to a 27-24 victory over Washington Sunday that kept their title hopes alive in the National Football League.

The Scrambler's giant effort kept the pressure on St. Louis, which has a 1 1/2-game lead in the National Conference's frantic Eastern Conference race with New York and Dallas.

The Cardinals, with bomb-throwing Jim Hart pulling the trigger, spanked the Philadelphia Eagles 23-14 to give them an 8-2-1 record. The Giants and Cowboys are both 7-4.

Los Angeles' revitalized Rams sandblasted San Francisco 30-13 and pulled into a tie with the 49ers for first in the NC's Western Division race; Baltimore cemented its hold on the American Conference Eastern battle with a 21-20 success over Chicago and Kansas City tied Oakland for the AC West with a 26-14 pasting of San Diego.

The AC Central Division was thrown into a three-team tieup with the day's results. Pittsburgh clouted Cleveland 28-9 and Cincinnati knocked off New Orleans 26-6 and now the Steelers, Browns and Bengals are tied for first with 3-6 records.

The New York Jets rained on a planned Minnesota champagne party Sunday with an upset 20-10 victory that delayed the Vikings' clinching the NC Central Division.

Boston bounced Buffalo 14-10 and Houston whipped Denver 31-21 in Sunday's other games. Hart led the Cards back from a 7-6 Philadelphia halftime lead, tossing two touchdown strikes within 38 seconds of the third period. The scores helped St. Louis withstand a late Norm Snead aerial attack.

Los Angeles rammed defense down San Francisco's collective throats in its comeback from a 13-6 halftime deficit. The contest gave the Rams and 49ers identical 7-3-1 records.

John Unitas rallied Baltimore after throwing three interceptions that gave Chicago a 17-0 lead. His 54-yard TD pass to John Mackey with 3:47 left was the clincher. It gave Baltimore, 8-2-1, a two-game lead over Miami 6-4.

Kansas City used Len Dawson's two touchdown passes and Jan Stenerud's four field goals to beat San Diego and post a 6-3-2 mark, same as Oakland's.

Terry Hanratty and Terry Bradshaw fired three touchdown tosses between them for Pittsburgh and Cincinnati's defense set up three Horst Muhlmann field goals.

George Nock had his best game ever, carving out 117 twisting, skittering yards for New York and the Jets out-defensed Minnesota's Purple Gang.

Boston capitalized on two pass interference calls and scored touchdowns, breaking a nine-game losing streak.

Bobby Makes Up For Error

By The Associated Press
When Bobby Orr is good he is very, very good and when he is bad—well, that's unusual.

He made one of his rare mistakes Sunday night—then reverted to form to set the goal that gave his Boston Bruins a 4-2 National Hockey League victory over Toronto.

In other NHL action New York shelled Pittsburgh 6-2, Philadelphia ripped Vancouver 4-2, California edged Buffalo 2-1, Detroit belted Montreal 5-3 and Chicago smacked Los Angeles 5-3.

"I was trying to shoot the puck out—but it rolled off the end of my stick," said Orr, recalling the play which enabled Toronto to take a brief 2-1 lead in the first period.

He lost the puck behind his own net and the Maple Leafs pounced on it with rookie Darryle Sittler slamming it into the Boston goal. "If there had been a hole out there in the ice I'd have crawled into it," Orr smiled.

The Bruins knotted the score in the second period, setting up Orr's redeeming play in the final session. As Boston was killing a penalty, he steamed up ice, eluded two Toronto defenders and slipped the puck to Ed Westfall who broke the tie.

Orr climaxed his comeback with six seconds remaining in the game as he fired a goal into the empty Toronto net after the Leafs pulled goalie Bruce Gamble for a sixth skater in an attempt to salvage a tie.

Baylor To Have Surgery Tuesday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Elgin Baylor, at 36 in his 13th National Basketball Association season with the Los Angeles Lakers, will undergo surgery Tuesday afternoon but he vows it isn't the end of his career.

The Lakers announced Sunday that their captain, an NBA All-Star virtually every year, suffered a tear in his Achilles tendon Friday night against Atlanta.

Despite his age, Baylor said he is confident of rejoining the team in time for the NBA playoffs. The Lakers said he will be out at least 90 days, or until about March 1, which is 21 days before the regular season ends.

Westbrook, Sands Scheduled Today

ACKERLY — The Sands junior varsity girls and the varsity boys will entertain Westbrook teams here starting at 7 p.m. today. The girls play first, and the boys are scheduled for about 8:20 p.m.

Tuesday evening the varsity girls open district play in Gail against Borden High School. Friday, varsity boys and girls will go to New Home for non-conference tests.

SPLIT-SECOND WIN Missile Expert Makes Like One To Cop Race

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Jim Fitzgerald is a 41-year-old missile expert who seldom if ever gets upset about anything. He also is one of the coolest race drivers around.

Fitzgerald and 21 other drivers won national class championships in the Sports Car Club of America scheme of things at Road Atlanta during the weekend, pulling 26,000 spectators to the hilly, 11-turn course in northeast Georgia.

It was the annual season-end American Road Race of Champions and it involved 462 drivers from the thousands who compiled more than three million miles of competition of SCCA's seven geographic divisions. For the racing fans, the two days and 16 events produced thrills by the hundreds—and Fitzgerald was one of the stars of the show.

The stockily built Irishman, a racer for 13 years when he isn't supervising missiles' systems for Western Electric at Winston-Salem, N. C., won the championship for D-production sedans in a brilliant duel with Carl Swanson of Hawthorne, Calif.

The margin of victory for Fitzgerald was five-tenths of a second, and this separation was typical of two or three of the other 30-minute sprints.

Skip Barber, a class long-time winner from Carlisle, Mass., was the only driver to win two titles — formula B and formula Ford — and both were narrow victories.

The other champions are: Class C sedans, Ed Spreen, Hackensack, N.J.; Alpha Romeo; Class D sedans, Craig Fisher, Toronto, Canada, Fiat; Koch, Columbus, Ohio, MG; Abarth; G-production, William Ingle, Charlotte, N. C.; Zink; H-production, Dennis Daly, Dearborn Heights, Mich.; Sprite; E-production, Jerry Trull, Falls Tocco; Formula C, Michael Church, Va., MG-B; Formula B, Skip Barber, Carlisle, Pa.; Rand, Riverside, Conn.; Abraham; F-production, John Kelley, F a 1 1 s Church, Va., Triumph.

Class C sports-racing, Dan Carmichael, Columbus, Ohio, Lotus; Class D sports-racing, Marvin Thomsom, Okemos, Mich.; Bobsy Imp; Formula A, Dave Heintz, Tampa, Fla.; Lola-Chevrolet; D-production, Jim Fitzgerald, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Datsun; A-sedans, Roy Woods, Northridge, Calif.; Javein; B-sedans, Vince Provenzano, Van Nuys, Calif.; Alpha-Romeo; and Formula Super Vee, Tom Davey, Tenafly, N. J., Zeiter.

Hawk Face Tough Week
The Howard County Junior College Hawks may think Tuesday evening they have wandered into a pine forest.

They take the floor at 5:30 p.m. in Lubbock against the Texas Tech freshmen and the frosh are loaded with talent galore. Among them is Richard Little, an all-district performer from Abilene last winter; Randy Prince, the 6-8 star from Midland and also an all-district pick; a 6-11 guard, and an all-district performer from Lubbock Monterey.

If the Hawks have their work cut out at Lubbock, they also face a formidable challenge at Odessa this weekend when the Odessans stage their tournament.

HJCJ opens with Cisco at 2 p.m., and if successful, will face the winner of the South Plains-Paris JC game at 7 p.m.

In the other bracket are Frank Phillips and Ranger who play at 4 p.m. and St. Phillips and Odessa, who play at 9 p.m. HJCJ has lost one game in Paris so far, and South Plains, coached by Buddy Travis, former HJCJ coach, is rated as double tough this season.

STEER-PORKER CLASSIC Shoot-Out Troops Look Like They Shot It Out

By The Associated Press
The Southwest Conference football season is over for all practical purposes—except for Saturday's Big Shootout No. 2 between Texas and Arkansas.

It'll be played in the pressure cooker atmosphere of Austin's Memorial Stadium and the chips riding on this one would make a gambler gulp.

The winner scoops up the Southwest Conference championship, the host role in the Cotton Bowl, and a shot at the national championship. Top-ranked Texas and sixth-ranked Arkansas enter the game with unblemished 6-0 SWC records.

For added spice, the Longhorns carry a 29-game winning streak against the Razorbacks and there'll be a nationwide television audience watching.

Texas hopes to have its wishbone-T offense humming, and Arkansas is looking for a super effort from rubber-armed quarterback Bill Montgomery, but Defensive end Bill Atessis is recovering from a pulled hamstring, quarterback Eddie Phillips has a minor knee injury and halfback Jim Bertelsen has a banged up arm. Both Worster and Phillips are expected to go full speed this week in drills.

While Cotton Bowl bound Notre Dame was taking it on the chin 38-28 to Southern California Saturday, TCU defeated Southern Methodist 26-17 for the unofficial SWC "church school championship" and Rice trimmed Baylor 28-23 in season finales for all concerned.

It was more than the final game for TCU's Fred Taylor and Rice's Bo Hagan, who finished their tenures as head coaches. Hagan resigned several weeks ago and Taylor was fired at TCU last week.

Rice finished with a 3-4 SWC record and tied with SMU and TCU for fourth place. Baylor had a 1-6 record for seventh and the Aggies brought up the rear with an 0-7 slate.

there are some injuries that could throw some kinks into either teams' plans. Arkansas could have trouble on its offensive line with guard Tom Reed now recovering from an injury.

Lone Star Loop Is Ambitious

By The Associated Press
The Lone Star Conference can't be accused of playing a patsy schedule this week—its teams are playing seven major college basketball teams.

Defending LSC champion Stephen F. Austin plays at Texas A&M Tuesday in hopes of repeating its 1968 performance when they upset the Southwest Conference foes.

In other games Tuesday, Southwest Texas plays at Baylor while Sam Houston—the 1971 title favorite—plays at Louisiana State and East Texas State is at the University of Oklahoma.

Texas A&I hosts Pan American College, a major college opponent Thursday while East Texas is at Texas A&M and McMurry is at Abilene Christian—also a major college foe.

Nixon Due To Nudge Labor, Firms Gently

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, nagged by persistent evidence of a queasy economy, will gently but firmly nudge labor unions and big business toward cutting back wage demands and prices, sources say.

In an inflation alert to be released this week, the President will single out more specifically than ever the wage settlements Nixon says are inflationary, according to the sources.

The recent agreement signed by the United Auto Workers union after a 67-day strike at General Motors Corp. will be mentioned, as will the continuing contract talks with Ford Motor Co.

DO NOT REACT
Corporations also are urged, the sources said, not to react to wage settlements by passing the extra costs on to consumers, as did GM in announcing price increases for its 1971 model cars.

At the White House last week, presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler had said the new alert will be tougher on what the administration believes are excessive wage and price hikes.

Talking about the largest increase in consumer prices registered in six months, Ziegler said, "We will have to intensify our efforts to deal with this matter."

PAY GUIDELINES
But the sources said Nixon is not applying direct pressure or persuasion or setting voluntary wage-price guidelines as was tried under the Johnson and Kennedy administrations.

The inflation alert comes as Nixon worries about inflation factors, including:
—The new three-year GM-UAW pact providing first year wage increases of between 4 and 6 cents hourly for the first year with an automatic 3 percent increase and a penny an hour advance for each fourth upward movement in the government's Consumer Price Index in the second and third years. Average hourly pay under the old contract was $4.02.

—Though the negotiators for the UAW and Ford Motor Co. will probably hammer out a settlement before a strike deadline next Monday, the resulting contract is expected to at least match the GM pact.

—The Labor Department said Sunday the average pay of firemen and police patrolmen has increased by 9 percent over the last year.

—The department also provided record-breaking evidence of the effect of the GM strike. It said there were 10 million man-days lost in October, the highest figure for a comparable period in 10 years. Some 7 million of the lost days were accountable to the GM walkout.

—The recommendations of a presidential emergency board that unions representing 80 percent of the nation's rail workers be awarded an 11 percent wage hike over three years.

The lines have accepted the proposal which calls for the largest increase in railroad history. The four unions involved say it's not enough.

—United Steelworkers President I. W. Abel has put the steel industry on notice he will seek "a very substantial" pay hike as well as the first cost of living clause in the union's history. Talks with the nation's No. 1 steel maker, U.S. Steel Corp., begin next year.

—The Labor Department said Sunday the average pay of firemen and police patrolmen has increased by 9 percent over the last year.

—The department also provided record-breaking evidence of the effect of the GM strike. It said there were 10 million man-days lost in October, the highest figure for a comparable period in 10 years. Some 7 million of the lost days were accountable to the GM walkout.

—The recommendations of a presidential emergency board that unions representing 80 percent of the nation's rail workers be awarded an 11 percent wage hike over three years.

The lines have accepted the proposal which calls for the largest increase in railroad history. The four unions involved say it's not enough.

Stetson Makers
Face Fund Woes

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The John B. Stetson Co., makers of the famous 10-gallon hat which has been a symbol of Americana for over 100 years, may be in trouble.

Norman Karpf, executive vice president of the firm which has been making hats since 1865, says closing the Philadelphia plant is "among the alternative" being considered by the board of directors.

The hat business, Karpf says, has been in a decline since World War II because of more casual styles. In the 1930s Stetson was No. 1 in the field and employed more than 3,000 workers at the Philadelphia plant. Now the firm has slipped to third and the plant employs only 300.

Of immediate concern to Stetson executives is the outcome of current contract negotiations with Local 60, United Hatters, Cap, and Millinery Workers, AFL-CIO.

In April, 1968, the union approved a new contract providing for no basic wage increases for three years. In return the firm agreed not to close or move its operations from the city for the life of the contract.

Karpf said he would not speculate on whether the union might be willing to hold the line on wages again this year in order to save the Philadelphia operation. Wages presently range from $1.70 to $2.00 an hour.

Bernard Katz, lawyer for the union, said the union's bargaining position "will depend upon what Stetson in the final analysis decides to do."

The plant here makes felt and straw hats. Stetson also operates a plant in New York City which makes fabric hats. The firm also owns 50 per cent of a hat finishing firm in Danbury, Conn.

John B. Stetson made his first hat when he went out west in the 1860s to cure himself of tuberculosis. In 1865 he returned to Philadelphia and opened a business in a rented room.

ROLLING IN THE BUFF
I Say There, Is All
This Nudity Necessary?

LONDON (AP) — Clare Toynebee, 21-year-old granddaughter of historian Arnold Toynbee, turned up as a stripper in a Soho club last week—and failed to make history thereby. These days, my dears, everyone in Britain is doing his thing in the name of artistic integrity.

Nightly on the stage of Wyndham's Theater, Diana Rigg, lately of the Royal Shakespeare Company, rolls about naked with Keith Mitchell, her similarly unclad leading man. Not a fig leaf in sight under the hot footlights. They're coming to terms, integrity-wise, with "Abelard and Heloise," a couple of medieval swingers.

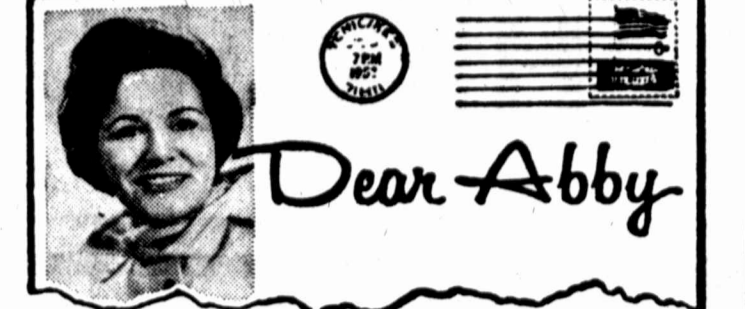

Up on the moors of North Wales, director Roman Polanski is busy shooting a nude "Macbeth." At the moment, the Thane of Cawdor will keep his kilts on, but Lady Macbeth, in the person of actress Francesca Annis, will do her sleep walking scene sans peignoir. And the three witches, bereft of their cerements, will huddle round the cauldron as they've never huddled before, Welsh winters being what they are.

"Hair," the American sock-rock musical, is still packing them in the West End, and so is "Pajama Tops," a French farce, now in its third year, which calls on the entire ensemble to skinny-dip in a swimming pool on stage several times an evening.

Nudity has become so commonplace since stage censorship was abolished two years ago that the wardrobe mistress is now in danger of becoming redundant and being replaced by a house dermatologist.

Seems like only yesterday the girls stood rigid in the buff at the Windmill Theater while the bombs fell on Britain. Censorship laws prevented them from moving a muscle on stage.

DEAR ABBY: In the past, my husband got a disease, got a girl pregnant, lied, cheated — you name it, he did it. He is almost 50 years old and he hasn't changed any.

We've been married 30 years and have a fine family, which I brought up practically alone. When the children were youngsters he never played with them or brought them any toys, but for some tramp, he always found the time and money.

You are probably asking why I put up with it all these years. Mostly because of the children, God love them. I kept my feelings and all my heartaches from them, and all the while my husband said he loved me and he couldn't live without me. (Bull, of course.) Abby, now that the kids are gone, do you think it was worth it?

STUCK IT OUT
DEAR STUCK: If you do, it was.

DEAR ABBY: Would you please tell me which name comes first in writing season's greetings! The husband's or the wife's? Thank you. CURIOS

DEAR CURIOUS: In the more formal signatures, it is, "Mr. and Mrs. John Doe." When first names are used, it's "Mary and John Doe."

DEAR ABBY: My parents would have celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary last week if my father had lived, but he died 25 years ago and my mother never remarried.

I spoke to my mother on the date that would have been their anniversary and much to my surprise she was very angry at me for not having given her a "Golden Wedding Anniversary" party. I felt just awful about it after realizing that she had really expected it. I guess I'm stupid.

STUPID DAUGHTER
DEAR DAUGHTER: There is no reason to "celebrate" an anniversary after one's mate is gone. It's a thoughtful gesture to entertain the surviving mate on the date of her (or his) anniversary, but you needn't feel stupid for failing to give your mother a "Golden Wedding Anniversary Party" under these circumstances.

DEAR ABBY: May I comment on that woman realtor with the big bottom who wore slacks to the office and to show houses? I am also a woman realtor and I have worn slacks for years because I, too, am a very large woman and most of the dresses available in my size were too short for me.

Large women have had a lot of trouble these last 10 years trying to keep their belly buttons covered, and I hate to show houses with my navel showing. My fellow realtors should thank me for keeping America beautiful by keeping myself covered.

However, now that larger dresses are available, (even though they are the ugliest things in creation) I shall wear them.

FORGETFUL FIANCE
DERBY, England (AP) — After all the arrangements had been made for the marriage of Len Taylor and Sandra Dabbs, Taylor forgot to turn up for the ceremony. Guests searched the Derbyshire town in vain before police telephoned to say that Sandra's fiance was in the hospital with a bruised head — and he had lost his memory after a fall.

TO HONOR 'CRAZY'
BOSTON (AP) — Frank Fontaine, the "Crazy Guggenheim" of the Jackie Gleason television show, will be the guest of honor at a testimonial Dec. 8 at the Hynes Auditorium.

He was stricken with a heart attack recently while performing on the Jerry Lewis Telethon for funds to combat muscular dystrophy.

Fontaine and his wife, parents of 11 children, live in Winchester.

GHETTO DOCTORS — Dr. Walter C. Bornemeier, president of the American Medical Association, in a speech to an AMA convention in Boston urged the AMA to provide "inducements" to doctors to establish private practice groups in the nation's ghettos.

JUST THINK ABOUT THIS

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Don Huisenga, a parimutuel clerk at Hollywood Park race track, thought for sure he would have to shell out $2,077 to the track.

Two weeks ago Huisenga overpaid that amount to a patron who was entitled to $1,038.50 for correctly selecting the first two horses in one race. Before the clerk realized his mistake in the exact wager, the bettor disappeared in the crowd.

Shortages must be made up by the mutuel clerks.

This week a Catholic priest sent a cashier's check to the track for $2,077 from one of the priest's parishioners.

"The man was so excited about winning in the first place," the priest said, "that it really didn't dawn on him what had happened until he got home and started to think about it."

DEAR ABBY: Would you please tell me which name comes first in writing season's greetings! The husband's or the wife's? Thank you. CURIOS

DEAR CURIOUS: In the more formal signatures, it is, "Mr. and Mrs. John Doe." When first names are used, it's "Mary and John Doe."

DEAR ABBY: My parents would have celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary last week if my father had lived, but he died 25 years ago and my mother never remarried.

I spoke to my mother on the date that would have been their anniversary and much to my surprise she was very angry at me for not having given her a "Golden Wedding Anniversary" party. I felt just awful about it after realizing that she had really expected it. I guess I'm stupid.

STUPID DAUGHTER
DEAR DAUGHTER: There is no reason to "celebrate" an anniversary after one's mate is gone. It's a thoughtful gesture to entertain the surviving mate on the date of her (or his) anniversary, but you needn't feel stupid for failing to give your mother a "Golden Wedding Anniversary Party" under these circumstances.

DEAR ABBY: May I comment on that woman realtor with the big bottom who wore slacks to the office and to show houses? I am also a woman realtor and I have worn slacks for years because I, too, am a very large woman and most of the dresses available in my size were too short for me.

Large women have had a lot of trouble these last 10 years trying to keep their belly buttons covered, and I hate to show houses with my navel showing. My fellow realtors should thank me for keeping America beautiful by keeping myself covered.

However, now that larger dresses are available, (even though they are the ugliest things in creation) I shall wear them.

'I Love Him
So Much'

LONDON (AP) — Eartha Kitt says her romance with a dashing Danish businessman is over — even though "I love him so much."

The 40-year-old singer, who had announced Friday her engagement to wealthy Ole Broend-Nielsen, told a reporter after they had a brief meeting here Sunday:

"My wedding plans are definitely off. I'm flying home to Beverly Hills as soon as possible."

The 32-year-old Dane explained there seemed to be a misunderstanding.

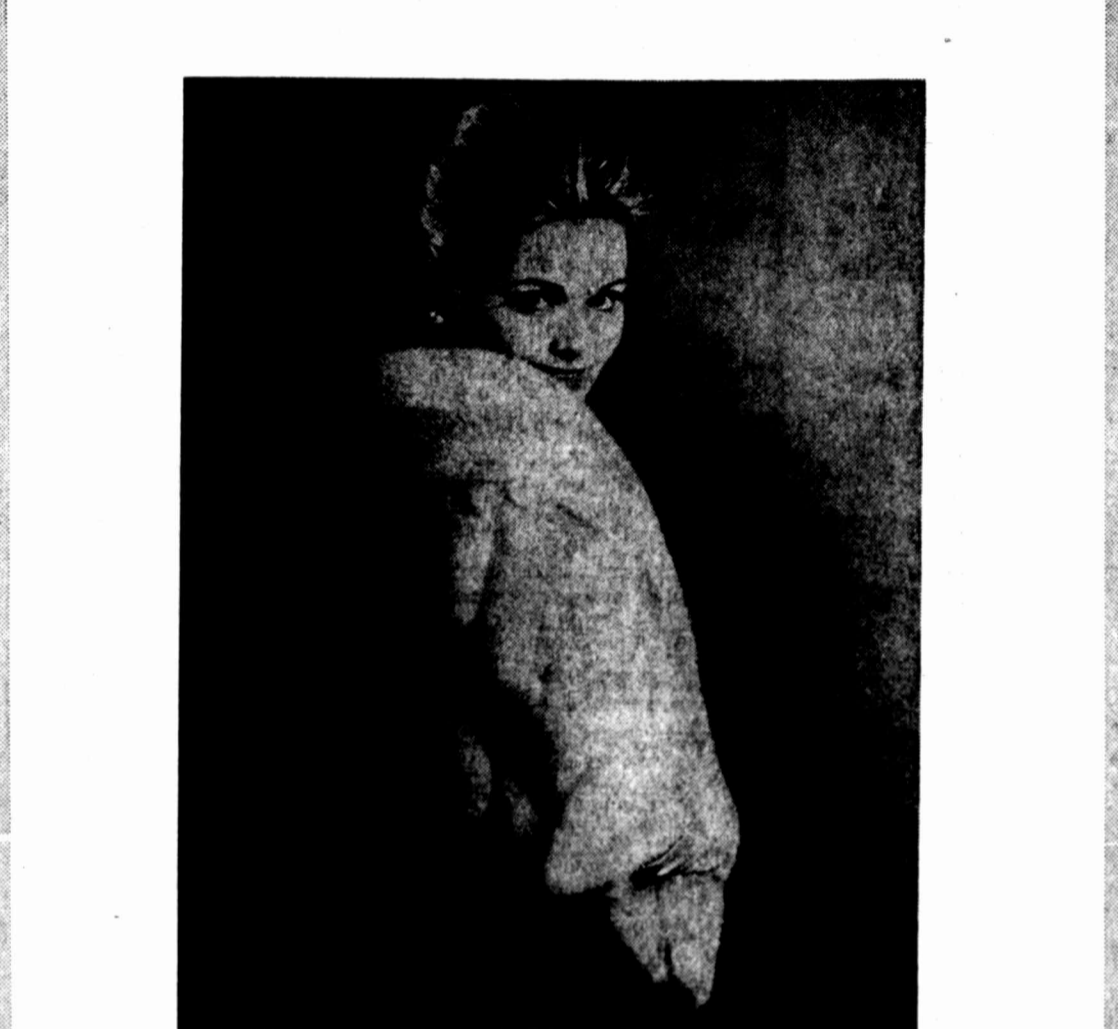

They met a few months ago when she was appearing in Copenhagen and he went backstage to inspect a faulty sound system.
