MUSTANGS KICK McLEAN TIGERS 17-6

THIRD DISTRICT WIN FOR WHEELER SQUAD

By David Britt

Overcoming a quick touchdown, the Wheeler Mustangs gave the visiting McLean Tigers a thorough 17-6 lacing last Friday night on Nicholson Field and brought their record in district play to 3-2-1.

Paced by senior tailback Lewis Britt, who ripped 205 yards out of the Tiger defense, theMustangs overcame a case of fumblitis and were able to shut the Tigers off after allowing the visitors a touchdown just 2:48 into the game.

McLean could never get closer to paydirt than the Wheeler 38 after their initial drive which was set up by one of the five fumbles the Mustangs lost.

The Mustang ground attack worked to perfection most of the game and the biggest deterrent to their offense wasn't the virtual nine mam line the Tigers threw up but the 8 fumbles the gold clad Mustangs committed.

Joe Sherrod put the Tigers in business on the first play of the game when he pounced on a fumble by Kent Ware and the stunned Mustangs hardly slowed the Tigers down as they covered the 29 yards in six plays with Marty Duniven breaking loose at right tackle from 14 yards out. Poor tackling aided the run for the six pointer and after Ware blocked the extra point try, the Tigers were six up.

It didn't take the Mustangs long to show that they meant business as Britt returned the kickoff 47 yards to the Tiger 38 as the last defender finally dragged him to the turf.

Lady luck smiled on the Mustangs after Britt's return and she stayed with them until the Mustangs got the go ahead touchdown.

Ware broke into the clear on a trap at right guard by Dale Helton and appeared

COLTS LOSE TO CUBS 20-6 IN FINAL GAME GRID

The Wheeler Colts closed out their 1973 football season last Thursday night in McLean and the host Cubs administered the sixth loss of the year on the Colts.

The 20-6 setback left the Colts with a 1-6-1 record for the year and as it has been the case in most of their defeats, the Colts were in the ball game until late in the contest.

Curtis Simpson, the promising young quarterback for the Cubs, put the game on ice for the Cubs with 7:40 remaining when he broke for his second long scamper of the game to paydirt.

Simpson found a hole at right guard and then outraced the Colt pursuit for 46 yards to give the McLean Cubs a 20-0 lead.

That touchdown run by Simpson was nearly identical to the one he made just five plays earlier as he found a gap at the same spot and scored from 47 yards out.

The Colts got their lone touchdown when they took the kickoff following Simpson's second run and drove 78 yards in 8 plays. Dell Ford swept right end for 17 yards for the six points and the TD left the final score at 20-6.

Mustangs To End '73 Football Campaign Against Clarendon

Two teams with two different purposes in mind meet Friday night when the Mustangs of Wheeler host the Bronchos of Clarendon in the confines of Nicholson Field.

Friday night's battle will close out the season for the Mustangs as they have been eliminated from the district race and it throws them now into the roll of spoilers.

A must win faces the Bronchos after their upset loss to Claude which left the high riding Bronchos tied for the lead with Claude and Memphis.

The Clarendon game will have a little more significance to one group of young men and that will be the ten senior Mustangs.

It will be the last game in the black and gold on the gridiron for these ten Mustangs and nothing would suit them better than going out on a winning note over the Bronchos.

The ten Mustangs who will take the field for the last time Friday night, nine of whom have been starters during the year, are: Captains Dale Helton, Danny Hardcastle, Wayne Wheeler, and Lewis Britt and J.C. Brooks, Lonnie Whitener, Frank Martin, Wyatt Brooks, Tom McIlhany, and Larry Rives.

The Bronchos under the coaching of Clyde Noonkester have been at or near the top of the district rankings since becoming a member of District 2-A and 1973 is certainly no exception.

Using a blend of power and speed, last years Class A finalists will bring a potent outfit to do battle with the Mustangs.

Kenneth King, 175 lb. junior running back, has been the big gun for the Bronchos this year and is ranked with the premier running backs in the Panhandle.

The Bronchos have been using the Wing T on offense and have been playing a 6-1 monster on defense.

Directing the Broncho attack is Randy Croslin, 205 lb. junior, and the signal caller hasn't gone to the airways much in the season with the likes of King and Holland set behind him at running backs.

Clarendon has had most of their success running and even in their lone district defeat, they moved the ball on the ground against Claude but saw fumbles ruin several chances.

The Mustangs should be in real good physical condition for the contest and their mental attitude was given a boost with the win over McLean last week.

"We thought the whole team did a real good job in the McLean game and I know that we did the best job of blocking that we have all year," Coach Jim Bateman said this week.

The head mentor of the Mustangs went on to say, "Even though our season hasn't been as good as we had hoped for, the kids have given real good effort and

Senior Class Plans Salad Supper

The senior class of Wheeler High will have a salad supper Friday night in the school cafeteria prior to the football game between the Mustangs and the Clarendon Bronchos.

Meat, vegetable and fruit salads will be available along with desserts and drinks. The cost of the supper will be $1.50 for high school students and adults and $1 for all others.

Bring the whole family and enjoy eating out before the football game and help support the senior class.

Band to Present Patriotic Show

For the best half-time marching show for the Nov. 16 football game, the Wheeler High School Marching Band will present a patroitic pageant show. This show will not be the usual marching drill. The band will be making different formations and playing patriotic songs.

We invite all of you to come and support the Mustang Football team and see our half time show.

An important message from your Texas Panhandle Ford dealers.

5 QUESTIONS TO ASK THE MAN WHO'S TRYING TO SELL YOU A '74 MODEL CAR.

If you're about to invest in a new car, the gentlemen at your Texas Panhandle Ford dealers believe you ought to have straight answers to some pretty basic questions—about the car you're looking at, and about the dealer you're talking to.

1 How do I know this is the right car for me? The right engine, options?

The gentlemen in sales at your Texas Panhandle Ford dealers know the cars they sell, backward and forward. Once they have some idea of how you use a car, they'll be more than happy to make suggestions about size, body style, engine and options. The choice is yours, of course. The point is, we want to see you in the right Ford, not just any Ford.

2 How about service after the sale?

This question catches a lot of salesmen off guard; because all too many are interested only in moving cars. But not the gentlemen at Ford. We know you're vitally interested in our ability to service your car. So here, you'll find total car care service: the tools and equipment, plus a shop staff with the know-how and the willingness to help keep your Ford rolling smoothly for as long as you own it.

3 What are the full terms of the warranty on this car?

At your Texas Panhandle Ford dealers, you'll get more than just broad generalities. We'll hand you a copy of the warranty, give you time to read it, then give you straight answers to any questions you might have about it.

4 How can you help me with financing?

Just a few quick questions, a reference or two, and chances are we can arrange for the money you need in a matter of minutes—and at the best possible rates available.

5 When will the car be ready for delivery? And will it be ready?

We'll give you a realistic delivery date, and do all we can to make it. More important, when you do take delivery, the car is going to be just the way you want it. Because we'll spend the time and effort it takes cleaning and polishing, tuning and adjusting—to deliver a car you'll be proud of. A car we'll be proud of.

You'll like the way we do things.

Fall Whispers To Me

As I paused beside my door way and listened to the wind,
I was weighted down with loneliness and the sunshi came not in,
There was sadness in the t while the sighing of the leaves
Played a song with words, could not sing,
'Twas the season's dying breath; thought a time that I love best,
Yet my heart was not in tu as I watched the harves moon,
Soon the sleep of rest will be; in my garden, on my tree
Then the leaves so brown and dead, on more whisper over head,
Now the wind is talking fall and my sadness out wieghts' all
Is it for this day, this fall, for old times I recall?
Is it for laughter and for tea that have gone with yester-years?
Still my heart was not in tune as I watched the har vest moon,
Ride his high - way overhea
Through the years that come and go, there's a loneli each must know,
Is it for this day and place or a fond remembered face?
There stand the flowers by my wall, swaying in the wind of fall,
Golden beauty that can't last for the death of fall comes fast,
Loneliness heavy with the years and my eyes are blurred with tears,
Yet my heart was not in tune as I watched the harvest moon,
Ride his high - way over hea

Golf Cart Accidents

Hanson and his wife were heading for the clubhouse in a golf cart when she had a sudden urge to stand up. But as she did so, she lost her balance and fell against the tiller. The cart lurched crazily, throwing Hanson to the ground.

Painfully injured, he determined to seek damages from the management of the club.

"Considering how unstable their carts are," he argued in a court hearing, "they should have posted a warning against anyone standing up. This they failed to do."

However, the court turned down Hanson's claim.

"There are certain obvious dangers," said the court, "against which a warning is not necessary. The seller of a knife is not required to warn against cutting oneself, or that a hammer will hurt if a person is hit with it."

With the growing popularity of golf carts, more accident cases are finding their way into court. Generally speaking, claims for damages have not been too successful, often because the blame lies with the victim himself.

But if the mechanism is faulty, compensation may indeed be collected from either the club management or the cart manufacturer.

In another case, the golf cart was missing the rubber pad that normally covers the brake pedal. When the driver tried to use the brake, his spiked shoe slid off the pedal and hit the accelerator, causing the cart to run into another golfer.

This time, the victim collected from the club management. Grounds: negligent maintenance of equipment.

One club tried to block any and all claims by including a "we are not responsible" clause in its rental form. But the clause was so well hidden in printed verbiage that a court later found it to be null and void.

The court said enforcing such a clause against an injured golfer, unaware of its existence, "would truly be unconscionable."

CHATS WITH GLORIA

By Gloria Chambers Asst. CEA - H.E.

Numberous complaints have arisen lately concerning mail order purchases, according to one authority.

"Most consumers complain that prepaid merchandise wasn't delivered or refunds not paid on returned merchandise - although satifaction is guaranteed," Lynn Bourland, homemanagement specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, noted.

If problems arise, consumers can take steps toward solving the problem, she continued.

"First, write the company, addressing the letter to the company president, Or, of worth the expense call the president.

"If the company has an unlisted number, writhe the postmaster in the city where the company is located, giving the correct name and addresses.

Should these actions fail to solve the problem, write the office of Consumer Affairs, U. S. Postal Service Washington, D.C. 20260; the Direct Mail Advertising Association, 230 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. 10017, or any consumer protectin agency in your city.

"Or write the consumer column of a local newspaper

"Whatever method, provide as much information as possilbe about your problem and the company."

Before making Christmas mail order purchases, consider the following questions. Miss Bourland advised.

-Does the company offer a money back guarantee?
- What are the conditions of the guarantee?
- Does the offer seem to good to be true?
- Has acquaintance received satifactory service from this company?

When making a mail order purchase, pay by check or money order, the specialist emphasized.

"Also keep a copy of the order form - even if you must pay to have a copy made. In additon, keep the company's catalog or advertisement, " she suggested.

When purchasing a Thanksgiving Turkey, look for a government label. It indicates whether the bird has been inspected for wholesomeness and graded for quality. The best quality turkeys are labeled "U.S. Grade A."

Briscoe Home Demonstration Club had a candy-making day last Tuesday, November 6th. I have never seen the like of different cadies. Each member brought one or two different recipes, and we all tasted and traded recipes. Believe it or not, we also had a delicious covered dish luncheon. I didn't get an attendance list, but if I can remember right those who took part were: Lucille Barker, Essie Finsterwald, Jane Kiker, Emma Rogers, Effie Renfro Barbara Williams, Irene Zybach, Ruby Zybach, Katie Finsterwald, Pat Hudson and Cheryl Ann and LaVerne Helton.

I've had dessert recipes using fresh Wheeler County Apples and pear preserves. This week I thought you might enjoy a candy recipe which uses some of the delicious pecans we've been getting.

LOUISANA CREAM PRALINES

1 box light brown sugar(1lb.)
1/8 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup evaporated milk
1 Tablespoon oleo
2 cups pecans

Mix brown sugar, salt, milk and oleo in a 2 quart saucepan. Cook and stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Add pecans. Cook over medium heat to soft ball stage (235) stirring constantly Remove from heat and cool 5 minutes. Stir rapidly until mixture begins to thicken coats pecans lightly.

Drop rapidly from tablespoon on to lightly greased foil to form patties. If candy becomes to stiff, stir in a few drops of hot water. Let patties set until cool.

Ingredients for cake blend better if all are room temperature rather than some cold and some warm. Milk, eggs and fat to be used in a cake should be taken out of the refrigerator about one hour before mixing.

A Letter from Ern

Yesterday recalled
January 1922

A cousin of mine 21 year old Will Begert and I rented the 1/2 section of land from my brother John, where Elbert and Clarence Zybach now live for $325 dollars cash rent for one year. He to pay taxes in 1922. In Jan, Feb. and March corn real nice Heavy corn was 40¢ per bushel delivered in Canadian. If you wanted to sell it at the farm 30 miles from the railroad you of course had to take discount.

Eggs were 10 or 12¢ per dozen. Horses and Mules were a premimum if you got $150 per head. $40 for a cow was alot. The dry weather however changed things it rained a washout on June 6. Then did not rain again until the next April.

Corn in August was $1.00 per bushel hogs were 12¢ per lb. for tips in early 1922 Every body wanted hogs to eat cheap grain.

By Sept, hogs dropped to 6¢ per lb. so there was a grain shortage and an over supply of hogs. A.R. Junod had quite a few he sold some pigs at 6¢ per lb. I helped load up about 50 head. Bert Blair, a close friend, said to Junod do you sell them by the head or by the dozen.

Now if you will believe me the hog market was about 6¢ per lb. for 3 years then up then down only less then 3 years ago they paid poorly.

Halloween night my son-in-law and I are on the police force to keep order, now that is a chicken thief lie up until now I told the truth. The truth from no on the remainder of my letter. Junod was by himself that summber 1922 and Will and I put a trace chain in his bed where he slept at night. Junod went to bed the usual way and when he felt the chain he hurriedly got out of bed lit the lamp got a club. Thought it to be a snake, carefully with a club ready saw it was a chain. He accused Will and I being guilty we were truthful enough not to deny it. He, Junod, said it is no joke to get the liver scared out of a fellow.

On Halloween night Will and I were gone and I came home before Will did and bless your life our horse drawn buggy was in the residence tongue sticking out the window. I heard Junod tell someone I teach them how funny it is now. That was not enough, 4 inferior house chairs hanging on windmill 20 feet from ground.

If you can't take a joke don't give one.

He that is without sin let him cast the first stone. Twas cold and windy from the north yeaster the north yesterday and I had to stay indoors. Yesterday there was ice on the dogs water pan this A.M.

Will do quite a lot of walking today if I don't playout. Come see me

PLAN BEFORE YOU PLOW

That's the plea State Conservationist Edward E. Thomas made today to Texas farmers putting new land into cultivation in 1974.

"Most land in Texas should not be farmed in clean tilled crops without terraces, contour farming, minimum tillage, or other proven conservation measures," Thomas stressed. "Besides, these practices help increase production in the long run.

"But some land should not be farmed under any circumstances," Thomas said. "We are already getting reports of sandy, highly erosive soils in Texas being plowed up for crop production. Let a drouth, coupled with high winds, hit this land and massive dust storms will be the result."

He said some steep soils will probable also be put into cultivation next year. Serious erosion and sedimentation damages can result unless sound conservation measures are installed.

Thoas, head

Thomas, head of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in Texas, said his agency supports full agricultural production as a principal means of checking food price increases.

"But we also need full protection of the land along with full production," he emphasizec.

He urged farmers to contact local SCS offices before putting land into cultivation.

"Our soil surveys shows which soils can be farmed safely," Thomas pointed out. "They also can be used to determine which soild are most productive. Careful planning can hold erosion hazards to a minimum; but carelessness can quickly return us to the disastrous erosion conditions that existed in the 1930's and 1950's he warned.

Such condititons in the Great Plains, were wind erosion is a constant problem led Congress in 1957 to establish a conservation program to return high risk cropland to grass.

"Under this program in Texas, we have helped farmers convert more than a million acres of cropland to grassland," Thomas said. "This land should remain in grass. For it or other land like it to be put back into cultivation will be a disastrous step backwards.

"As chief guardians of our state's soil resources, farmers and ranchers have a responsibility to themselves and to future generations to use their land wisely," Thomas continued. "They have made great strides in conservation work in the last 35 years. With proper planning, we can meet the demand for food without increasing dust storms, sediment pollution, and other problems caused by accelerated soil erosion."

Farmers are expected to bring thousands of acres of former "set-aside" land back into full crop production in 1974 to meet the increased demand for farm commodities. Many farmers will also farm their land more intensively as they try to increase yields per acre.

SCS works through 193 local soil and water conservation districts in Texas helping farmers, ranchers, and other land users develop and carry out conservation plans.

"We can't collect?"

A fire or explosion might force you to vacate for several months during repairs. How does a businessman pay his overhead during such business interruption - what of his lost earnings? How can the owner collect lost rentals? Insurance from John C. Vise Agency will reimburse all such losses; let us explain them.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Outlook for a bleak winter grew steadily worse as the energy crisis mounted.

Speed limit reductions and year-around daylight savings time, recommened by President Nixon, may be some of the milder results.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, assessing the president's proposals and reaction of other states before announcing his own program, said gasoline rationing is an "eventuality that will have to be considered."

Grimmest of all was Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Langdon's forecast: "Some people in Texas are going to be cold this winter." Those who use butane, propane or electricity for their heating are the one most likely to get the shivers, said Langdon.

Middle distillate fuels, used primarily to generate electricity - and of increasing importance due to the shortage of natural gas - may also be in short supply as much as 400,000 barrels daily, according to Langdon's estimate.

Meanwhile the Nixon administration altered previously-announced allocation policies to allow middle distillate suppliers to provide Texas customers diesel fuel, fuel oil and kerosene without limit through November.

Even in the reprieve from mandatory allocations, there was an implied warning to Texas electric utility companies: come December they may be running short of fuel oil, since allocation formulas are based on 1972 purchases. Most Texas utilities, used to plenty of natural gas, didn't use much fuel oil to fire their boilers in 1972.

Things apparently are going to get a lot worse before they get better on the energy front.

PAY AMENDMENT DEFEAT ASSESSED - For the fifth time in eight years Texans voted down tp pay raise for legislators, and assessments of the reason why varied widely.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. and others concluded that the vote on the $15,000-annual-pay-annual-sessions amendment was due to "tragic events at the national level that have crushed public confidence in our political and governmental systems."

Not so, said Republican gubernatorial candidate Jim Granberry, who maintained lawmakers asked too much salary and made an error in coupling the pay raise issue with that of annual sessions.

Granberry suggested voters will approve $8,000 to $10,000 salaries and limited annual sessions with proper leadership support and a clear presentation.

At any rate, Texans undoubtedly will get to ballot on the issue again in some form after next year's constitutional convention. Most likely proposal will be creation of a commission of citizens, as recommed by the Constitutional Revision Commission, to set salaries of lawmakers and other state officials. Prospects for the kind of unlimited annual legislative sessions recommended by the Revision Commission dimmed with results of the November 6 election.

COMMUNITY AFFAIRS CHIEF SWORN IN - In swearing-in ceremonies for Ben McDonald as executive director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs, Governor Briscoe promised that the department will stand ready with aid to local communities.

He said McDonald will have a team of experts ready at all times to go for on-the-secne help in community emergencies. A special long-distance telephone will be available for calls to the department. The Community Affairs department encompasses the significant drug abuse program, as well as such divisions as housing, child development, youth services, public employment, model cities, local government personnel and a number of others.

In naming attorney McDonald, the Governor said the former Corpus Christi mayor represented the dynamic leadership the Community Affairs Department needs.

NEW INSURANCE HEARING SET - Life Insurance policy price disclosure and cost comparisons will be considered at a public hearing here November 27.

The State Insurance Board is then expected to review a model rule covering "life insurance interest-adjusted cost comparison indexes."

While the Insurance Board does not set prices of life insurance policies, it does police misleading and deceptive sales practices. Board Chairman Joe Christie said calculation of life insurance costs through the cash-surrencoer value doesn't always show true cost to purchasers.

GOVERNOR WILL GET REPORTS - Gov. Dolph Briscoe talked about two important study reports forthcoming from the Texas Research League - at that group's annual meeting last week.

He will soon receive a report on the impact of the federal welfare law on Texas' public welfare costs, and he revealed that TRL is working on a governmental reorganization study for the Governor's office.

Another study is beign prepared by the research organization for the Legislative Propery Tax committee on "state school financing."

"The legislative committee has asked TRL to prepare a plan to estimate property values in all Texas school districts," the Governor sid.

During his annual talk before the statewide group of businessmen, he discussed the need for a "zerp" base budgeting system for the state, and changes in the constitution to strengthen local units of government.

Briscoe talked about the energy crisis - blaming the shortage of natural gas on the artifical "price" set on gas by the federal government.

"The crisis can be solved best by industry - not by government," he added. "The people of Texas are interested in 'less governmental' intervention into their affairs. And," he concluded, "they are not interested in any new taxes."

Geological Wonderland

Rock City's 10 Acres Contain 240 Million Years of History

Rock City's famous 1,000-Ton Balanced Rock rests on this narrow pedestal.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN, Georgia — Even in an age when man's ingenuity is performing scientific miracles, the imagination-staggering feat of carving a quarter billion years of history into a ten-acre stone wonderland is something only nature would dare to attempt.

This is why Rock City Gardens, high atop Lookout Mountain near Chattanooga, Tenn., has outlasted even the most creative man-made attractions.

And this is why the more than half a million visitors who tour Rock City each year never cease to be fascinated by this geological wonder brought into being by millions of years of nature's artistry.

The paradoxical sight of imprints of seashells in the strange rock formations high on this mountain top provides the initial clue to how Rock City came to be.

A vast ocean once inundated the area which is now Lookout Mountain, covering most of the interior of the North American Continent. Estimated by scientists to have existed about 240 million years ago, the mass of water allowed mountains to emerge only on the east where Washington and Baltimore now stand.

The present Appalachian Mountains did not exist at all then, and it took more than 40 million years and a tremendous upheaval to toss the ocean bottom upward to form them. At first they were higher than the Rocky Mountains, or the Alps.

Wind and rain began their relentless process and almost succeeded in wearing the mountain away. Then, 20 million years ago, another great upheaval occurred, forming the mountains now known as the Cumberlands, of which Lookout Mountain is a part.

The final act in the story was the erosion of the Cumberlands which produced the fantastic shapes of rock atop Lookout Mountain.

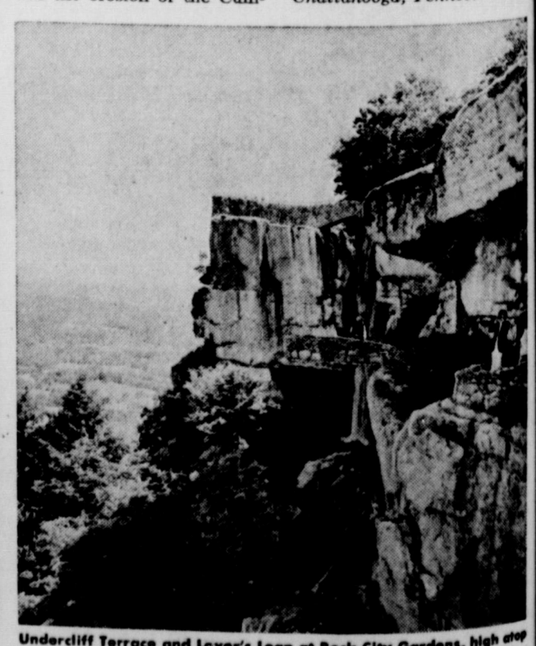

Various folds, tilted formations and weird angles have been formed along many of Rock City's trails. To name a few: a 1,000-ton Balanced Rock, the Tortoise Shell Rock, Mushroom Rock and Fat Man's Squeeze.

Combining with the carefully planned trails and an abundance of this area's native trees, shrubs and wildflowers, Rock City's geological formations provide a breathtaking treat for young and old alike.

Complete information and color brochures may be obtained by writing to Rock City Gardens, P.O. Box 108, Chattanooga, Tennessee.

...to be headed for the end zone when the ball suddenly pop ped skyward. Regaining control of the pigskin slowed Ware down a bit and the Tigers caught him about the ten. Ware fumbled as he was hit and this time the ball fell free but scooted out of bounds on the five and the Mustangs had first and goal.

Britt rammed it over on second down behind the broad back of Danny Hardcastle and Jim Verden kicked trie and Wheeler led 7-6 at 8:41.

The score stayed at 7-6 until the fourth period when the Mustangs added another 10 points with a touchdown by Britt and an orbit taking field goal by Verden.

The visiting Tigers, playing without the services of ace running back Gary Griffin, made their only other serious threat after the Mustangs went ahead and when this drive was halted, the Tigers were dead offensively. McLean could muster only two first downs in the final two quarters.

Duniven and Ricky Kennedy led the Tigers on the ground to the Wheeler 38 but the Mustangs defense stiffened and took over on their 20 after Kennedy booted into the end zone.

Wheeler mustered just one first down on a 10 yard burst from the 23 to the Mustang 33 by Britt before they had to punt for the first and only time of the game.

Taking over on their 10 after forcing another punt by the Tigers, the Mustangs appeared to have something in the works until a fumble killed the drive.

A penalty moved them back to the 5 but Jim Bateman's charges quickly overcame that.

Britt got 3 at right tackle and then broke loose at left tackle and cutback to the right and was hauled down 30 yards later at the 38.

Two fumbles by the Mustangs were recovered by the Mustangs but the third time they fumbled on this drive the Tigers recovered at the Tiger 32 as Britt lost the handle.

The clock caught Wheeler on their last excursion across the 50 in the first half.

The Tigers were forced into a kicking situation with 3:37 to play as Helton, Bill McIlhany and Britt tore into Joe Riley for a yard loss at the McLean 48. Riley was forced to leave the game on the play and Duniven took over at quarterback.

In a race against the clock, the Mustangs used Ware for 4 and then Britt turned right end for 13 out to the Wheeler 43.

One minute remained when Mark Bateman got a first down on the Tiger 46.

Two pass completions of 7 and 8 yards from Bateman to David Patterson sandwiched around a 10 yard dash by Bateman put the ball on the Tiger 21.

Verden's 38 yard field goal attempt was short and wide to the right with 16 seconds remaining.

Misery in the firm of another fumble hit the Mustangs on their second offensive play of the last half.

Lonnie Whitener gave the Mustangs the pighide at the Tiger 49 but the Tigers got it back two plays later when Sherrod recovered a Ware fumble at the line of scrimmage.

Wheeler forced the Tigers to kick and were backed up to their 6 by the boot.

Calling on tailback Britt six times inside the flanks, the Mustangs were on their 30 and Bateman passed to Whitener on the 40 for another lease on four downs.

The Tigers cannot say they didn't have good field position in the game and were set up at the Wheeler 39 when Bateman was jarred loose from the ball and Jim Seaney recovered.

Duniven fumbled the snap on first down and Helton recovered for Wheeler and this time the Mustangs weren't to be denied.

Britt got 30 yards in six carries and Ware added another 5 on a trip into right tackle for a first down at the McLean 25.

Finding a hole inside right tackle, opened by Hardcastle and Wyatt Brooks, Britt headed through and scored standing up as Tom McIlhany cleared the linebacker.

The TD juant by Britt came on the second play of the fourth quarter and Verden kicked true again for the Mustangs 14th point.

Wayne Wheeler recovered a loose ball right after the kickoff at the McLean 26 to put the Mustangs in motion for their final points.

With the help of a face mask fine against the Tigers, the Mustangs had the ball on the 12 and sent Britt on the power sweep to the left side. Ware and Bateman got Britt to the outside and Larry Rives blocked on a defender enabled Britt to cutback and struggle to paydirt but the run was nullified as a Mustang was guilty of holding.

Four plays later with Don Champma placing the ball, Verden booted a 31 yard field goal that didn't ripple a leaf on the trees behing Nicholson Field.

With the 17-6 margin, Coach Bateman substituted liberally the rest of the contest and all of the eligible Mustangs that were suited out got into the fray.

Wheeler Co. J.P.s Attend School

Two justices of the peace from Wheeler County were among the 72 judges who participated in a regional 20-hour in-service training school held in Amarillo Oct. 23-26.

The training school was held under the auspices of the Texas Justice of the Peace Center, headquartered at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. It was the second in a series of 10 which will be held throughout the state.

The justice of the peace training program is part of the State Criminal Justice Plan and is funded by the Governor's Criminal Justice Council.

The in-service training school was designed to help satisfy judicial training requirements set forth by the state legislature. As a result of bills passed by the 62nd and 63rd legislatures, justicesof the peace must comlete a 40 hour course on the performance of their duties within one year of taking office and then complete one 2-hour course each year thereafter.

The local judges participating in the Amarillo program were Judge Cecil B. Amerson of Precinct 3-4, Shamrock and Judge aCharley Whiteley of Precinct 1-2, Wheeler.

Here & There

BY LAURA GUTHRIE

Beautiful Fall weather. Our colorful leaves are most beautiful. May be not so many of the as there are in Colorado., Arkansas or New Mexico, but just as exotic Hurry and take a look. Tomorrow they may be gone.

Adrain and Dorothy Risner and Adrian's mother Hettie have just returned from a weeks motor trup. They visited a brother and son, Dr. Scott Risner and family in Longview, Texas. Driving on into Arkansas they visited in Van Buren which is Adrians birthplace. Hettie has relatives who live there. In Mena, Ark. they visited Dorothy's sister, then spent one night in Kimberling City, Mo. They have a glowing report of the beauty of the foliage.

Gary Montgomery son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Montgomery and grandson of Mrs. H.M. Wiley has just returned from a three week trip to Japan and Korea. Gary lives in Amarillo and is employed with the Swift Meat Packing Co. He went to the East with a group of young people from the San Jacinta Baptist Church. Other young people from other states joined them in making about 130 people who went overseas to tell "The Greatest Story Ever Told", that of Jesus Christ. Gary gave a report on this mission at the local Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Sam Montgomery, who is attending Tarlton College at Stevenville, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Montgomery.

Ed Moore of Dalhart and Pat Palmer of Panhandle were guets of the J.C. Moores Sunday evening. Pat was guest organist at the Baptist Church Sunday night. Also at this service Mary Mitchell of White Deer was guest soloist. Mary and her husband Jack were in this community visiting her parents, the Ed Rileys and his mother Mrs. C.D. Mitchell. He was also looking after farming business of his mothers.

We would surly hate to stop having birthdays. (You can figure our why.) But in our case last week was a most enjoyable one. Sharing in our birthday week was Grace Porter. On Wednesday Mrs. C.J. VanZandt, took us along with Vida Brown out to lunch. Lamar and Georgia Guthrie who came over from Hollis, Okla. joined us. On Saturday morning a dear friend in Evergreen Colo., Allamae McCrona n Kennedy called us long distance. What a chat we had - at her expense. Then Sat. Grace Porter invited us for lunch. We made a day of it by driving to Pampa and shopping around a bit. We missed a call from Dorothy Risner, but she sneaked a gift inside the door. How grateful for all this attention.

Mary Finsterwald has just returned from a visit with her sisters and a fishing trip to the coast. She spent several days with her sister in Sherman and then accompanied another sister and her husband who lives in Wichita to the coast for fishing.

Social Security

Supplemental Income

The Pampa Social Security Office is now taking applications from Panhandle residents for the new federal program of Supplemental Security Income.

The new program known as SSI establishes a nati nally uniform income floor for people in need who are 65 or over, blind, or disabled. Payments will range from $1 to $130 a month for individuals and from 1 dollar to $195 for couples. The exact payment people will get depends upon how much other income they might have.

To be eligible for any payment a person's resour es cannot exceed $1500 for an individual or $2250 for a couple. Resources income such things as checking and savings accounts, cash on hand, bonds, etc. However not everything counts as a resource. A house, household goods, personal effects, automobile and insurance policies do not normally count as resources if they are of reasonable value.

Howard L. Weatheryly manager of the Pampa Social Security Office, said that certain items of income are also disregarded in determining the amount of payment. The first $20 a month of any type of income is excludable. Also, for those persons working part-time the first $65 a month or earnings will not be counted and only one-half of the amount over $65 will be considered as income.

To illustrate how the exclusions apply Weatherly gave the example of a 68 year old woman whose only income is a $109.50 monthly social security check and a part-time baby sitting job paying $90 a month. In this case the fifst $65 of earnings and one-half of the remainder will be disregarded leaving only $12.50 of earned income which must be counted. Also, the first $20 a month of the social security check may be excluded. Thus, total countable income is $89.50 plus $12.50 or $102. Since $130 is the bas ic benefit due an individual a payment of $28 a month would be made.

Weatherly said that the example given is not froma real case but that his office has received many applications from persons whose circumstances were similar. It demonstrates that one may work part-time and still be eligible for some payments. It also shows that receipt of other income such as social VA payments, teachers retirement, etc., may not prevent some payment being due.

SSI benefits are first payable in January 1974. People who are currently on state assistance rolls as aged, blind, or disabled recipents will be automatically converted to the new program in January if they are eligible for a state payment in December, 1973. It is not necessary for thcse persons to file a claim with the social security office. However, any one who is not receiving state assistance payments must file an application for SSI benefits in order to receive them.

Weatherly said it is proable that most persons who will be eligible to receive the maximum SSI payment of $130 or $195 a month ar dalready receiving state assistance payments and need do nothing further to qualify for SSI payments in January. However, he estimates there are several thousand persons in the Panhandle who are eligible for a partial payment who must file a claim before payment can be made. He said he hopes that those persons reading this article will tell their relatives, friends, and neighbors, who might qualify for payments, about it in order that everyone eligible might become aware of it.

Weatherly also stressed the fact that SSI payments will be financed by federal general tax revenues and not from social security contributions. Although social security offices will take applications and the Social Security Administration will be responsible for the overall program, SSI and Social Security will remain two separate and distinct programs.

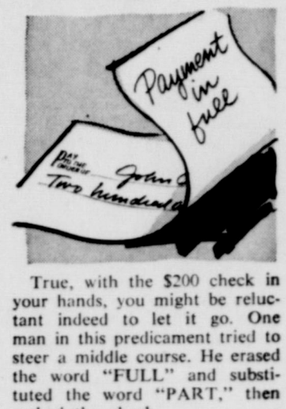

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Payment In Full"

Suppose somebody owes you money. According to your figures, the amount is $300. But the debtor insists that the amount is only $200. One day you receive a check from him for $200. On the back he has written the words: "PAYMENT IN FULL."

Should you cash the check and take a chance on collecting the extra $100 later on? It is tempting to do just that.

The trouble is that if you cash the check as is, the law will probably consider the whole debt wiped out. The debtor has made you a legal offer to settle up for a total of $200. By cashing the check you are accepting his offer and agreeing to a final settlement at that figure.

True, with the $200 check in your hands, you might be reluctant indeed to let it go. One man in this predicament tried to steer a middle course. He erased the word "FULL" and substituted the word "PART," then cashed the check.

However, his strategy did not work. A court held later that he had no claim to any more money. The court said he had no authority, on his own, to alter the terms of the defendant's offer.

Another man tried something else. He too cashed a PAYMENT IN FULL check, but at the same time wrote the debtor that he simply was not accepting it as a full settlement.

But again, a court ruled that the entire debt was wiped out. The court said the man's actions in cashing the check spoke louder than his words of disavowal.

Even if you don't cash the check but merely hang onto it, you might be held to have accepted the debtor's offer. Silence can mean consent.

However, that wouldn't happen right away. In one case, a creditor kept such a check for six weeks before mailing it back to the debtor. The latter thereupon insisted that the delay had cancelled the entire debt.

But a court decided the debt was still due and payable. The court thought six weeks was not an unreasonable time, under the circumstances, for the creditor to weigh his next move.
