Houston named director

Shawn to retire from CNB

Wayne Shawn, senior vice president and director of City National Bank, will retire effective Thursday after serving with the local financial institution for the past 39 years.

Gay Houston, who has been serving as an advisory director, will replace Shawn on the board of directors.

Shawn started work at City National Bank in 1951 after moving here from his home town of Tahoka. He had five years banking experience in Tahoka after serving in the U.S. Air Force.

In 1954, he was named cashier at CNB and was promoted to vice president and cashier in 1956. He was named a director in 1963 and senior vice president in 1964.

He and his wife, Betty, have three children, Steve, Stan and Tracy, and three grandchildren - Megan, Corbin and Eric.

"We've enjoyed living in Colorado City and raising our family here," he said. "Mitchell County has a bunch of real fine people."

Wayne Shawn
...retiring

Shawn has been active in civic and church functions. He has served on the board of directors of the chamber of commerce and was on the first hospital board of directors. He has served with the Salvation Army and is a member of the Colorado City Rotary Club. He is a deacon at First Baptist Church.

Shawn said his retirement plans are not definite, other than to relax and enjoy one day at a time.

Martinez named band director

The Colorado ISD board of trustees Monday night appointed Alex Martinez as high school band director for the 1990-91 school year.

Martinez, who will replace Tim Taylor who resigned, has 13 years experience as band director with the past three years in Whitney, a class AAA school.

Dr. Jim Ramsey, superintendent, said Martinez will be moving to Colorado City in the next few weeks and will assist in the search for a new middle school band director to replace Valerie Taylor who resigned.

In other business, the board heard a parent appeal asking that a student be allowed to participate in commencement exercises even though he has not met all the graduation requirements. The board voted to uphold the policy requiring a student to complete all graduation requirements before going through commencement exercises.

The board opened and approved a bid for computer software for the computer lab at Hutchinson Elementary. Ramsey said the bid totaled about $65,000, but that a "good portion" of that amount will come out of federal funds.

The board approved a tuition assistance program for middle school students who wish to attend summer schools but not cannot afford the tuition. Parents who wish to apply for a tuition waiver should contact the middle school principal's office.

An orientation and training session for new board members has been scheduled for June 11.

Hospital stability is management's aim

Even through Methodist Hospital in Lubbock is providing management services for Mitchell County Hospital, interim administrator Rick Hartwig said referrals to other medical facilities still remain in the hands of the physicians.

"Our purpose here is to help make the facility operate as efficiently as possible," he said.

He said it is up to a patient's personal physician as to what other medical facility he is referred - whether it be at Lubbock Methodist or elsewhere.

Following the resignation of administrator Richard Murphy, the hospital board of directors entered into an agreement with the Lubbock hospital to provide an administrator with the board still maintaining final authority over capital expenditures and budget adoptions.

"Methodist sees about 50 percent of its patient load outside Lubbock County," said Hartwig. "Because of that, we need to help maintain the medical stability of the area Methodist serves."

"One way to help is to help these hospitals with a fighting chance and give them support they need to remain stable and solvent," he said.

He said Methodist is an acute care hospital and is not trying to take away patients from rural hospitals.

"Our impact here won't diminish the functions of this hospital at all," he said.

Agricultural survey scheduled

Although some of us may have trouble getting from "here" to "there", Sylvia Sartain of Jayton has no problem finding her way as she travels the back country roads with only a stock tank or windmill as a landmark. In fact, the less travelled highways and byways of Texas provide many of the short cuts Sartain needs as part of her job as a field enumerator with the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service.

Beginning June 1, Sartain will once again fill up the gas tank and log many travel miles, as she begins interviewing farmers and ranchers in Mitchell County for a national agricultural survey. 1990 may be the year to count people, but Sartain is going to be busy counting livestock and collecting data on crop acres.

Information gathered on this confidential survey will be used to make state and national estimates of crop acres, livestock inventories and grain stocks, information that is vitally important to the producers in Mitchell County, Sartain said.

"These estimates are a working tool farmers and ranchers can use in their production, marketing and investment decisions and are the only unbiased information source available," state statistician Dennis Findley said.

Survey information will be extremely important this year in measuring crop and livestock losses from the severe flooding across Texas.

Field enumerators provide a basic link in the data collection service of the Texas office, since they are the primary personal contact Texas producers have with the agency. Currently there are over 100 field enumerators working on farm and ranch surveys across the state.

Most of the enumerators have an agricultural background and are familiar with the many day-to-day problems facing Texas producers. "Like the farmers and ranchers they are interviewing, our enumerators also deal with low prices and severe weather conditions at harvest and mother cows that wait until 3 a.m. to calve," Findley said.

The June Agricultural Survey is the largest of a series of surveys conducted throughout the year by the Texas office. The random sample of producers selected for this survey represent a broad cross-section of Texas agricul-

"But their hard work is the only way to provide Texas producers with accurate, reliable agricultural information."

Thanks...

TO THE EDITOR: This is a special thank-you note to those people who have helped make my school tenure here so enjoyable. When Ben and I came here in 1985 on a transfer with Texas Electric Service Company, I did not realize what adventure the next five years would hold. Thanks to the school administrators and school board who, in 1985, asked me to teach gifted/talented students...to Colorado ISD, who through the years, has allowed me to travel to Austin, San Antonio and Wichita Falls as well as Abilene and San Angelo to gain professional growth...also to the district for allowing the students to make numerous field trips in town and out of town to expand their learning.

Thanks to the townspeople for coming to school and allowing the students to come to their place of business to enrich them and to establish a line of communication between the adult world and theirs. Thanks, also, to these townspeople for their continued interest in gifted education.

Thanks to the parents who cooperated with the program and recommended their children. Thanks to these parents who encouraged the program through the years by helping with student projects from presentations to field trips. Thanks for their tenacity in tough times.

Thanks to the wonderful faculty at Hutchinson and to the principals who have guided me. Thanks for including me as "family".

And, finally, thanks to you students who shared with me on our "pull-out" basis a unique chance to combine resources and grow in both knowledge and love. Your exuberance and curiosity and intensity plus many other qualities possessed by G/T students enabled my days and years to be full of amazement and joy.

The following article by Erma Bombeck sums my view of a G/T student the best.

Sincerely,
Ethelyn Lancaster

Erma Bombeck gave a splendid description of the gifted child when she wrote:

"Many families have at least one. The child who will not conform...the rebel...the loner...the renegade...the one who is different."

Texas Utilities Electric Company ("TU Electric") hereby publishes notice that, pursuant to Public Utility Commission of Texas Substantive Rule 23.21(c) (2) (E), it filed an application on April 12, 1990, with the Public Utility Commission of Texas in Docket No. 9499 to show commercial operation date for Comanche Peak Steam Electric Station Unit 1. TUELECTRIC

"As a pre-schooler, he's the one with the active thyroid...the one who gets locked in restrooms because he stayed behind to find out where the water went when you pushed down the handle. He is the one who wanders away from home and gets his arm stuck in a piece of construction pipe. He gets more lickings than all the other kids put together."

"In school, he gets checkmarks for daydreaming, and for not being neat, for not working to capacity. It doesn't seem to bother him. In his preoccupation with other things, he is unaware that he drives his family crazy arriving late for dinner every night...wearing his socks and underwear to bed to save time in the morning...cutting the grass only when he needs the money."

"The older he gets, the less aware he becomes of his odds with the world. There aren't enough weekends for his interests and his projects. In the garage is his 'pumping heart', which he devised out of plastic sandwich bags, tubing and cake coloring."

"Cluttering the bedroom is the remains of his puppet show with the blanket (curtain) tucked in the top bunk bed, on the floor, his latest book (it takes an entire afternoon to write them), 'Floyd: The Story of An Insecure Snake With Bad Breath'."

"Parents are content with an average child...they are compassionate toward the slow learner...but the child who stands apart and is neither of these only puzzles, confuses and tries their patience."

"They confess to each other their fears for his future, this child who is unpredictable and not only out-of-step with the world, but whose feet rarely touch the ground, 'What's to become of him?'"

"Some of them with their unquenchable curiosity and hardheaded drive, will beat paths of greatness and discovery, the likes of Winston Churchill and Michelangelo. Others won't be great at all, but with their enthusiasm, imagination, creativity and lust for living life to its fullest, who is to say they are not the first to touch the stars?"

"So he is accident-prone because he daydreams...he gets bitten by animals because he is foolishly trusting...maintains a closet that the insurance company refuses to insure...look at him closely. He is something special to remind us all that life is a precious gift to be lived to its fullest...And as Henry David Thoreau said, 'If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears.'"

COLORADO CITY, TX

Loraine Senior Center

...by B. Ann Vaughn

In May along with regular programming, "Mother's Day Out of the Kitchen" proved to be a fun and restful occasion, as the men did all the serving at the noon meal. All the mothers were in agreement that the food tasted much better and had an altogether different flavor.

Distinguished servers included Loyd Wiggins, Woodrow Pratt, Ralph Gage, Jack Richey, Bobby Hamrick, J. M. Lewis, Neal Miles, Ralph Lankford, Harris Hamilton and Harvey Jones. Thanks fellows, we will reciprocate come Father's Day.

Mothers who won candy in the drawing were Dorothy Johnson, Mamie White and Ruth Richburg.

The regular Tuesday night Social May 15 gave way to a make up meal, resulting from inclement weather last December.

Those in attendance enjoyed a Chinese dinner. Sixteen graduating seniors and their sponsor had lunch at the Center May 25th. Iva Armstrong decorated the special table with school colors of gold and black.

Inside each place card was a "good luck" $2 bill. Christene Hall honored the seniors with a moving farewell address.

There is now a goal to achieve a comfortable seating area at the Center near the front area. We are happy to report Sheila Plagens has donated a lovely love seat and we are truly appreciative. Sheila's mother is our good friend Agnes Haney.

Also thank you Neysa Nell and Royce Beights for the lovely potted plant for Open House and Ralph Gage, thank you for donating and delivering ice for so many months for the noon meal. We certainly appreciate all of the volunteers—no matter what their services are.

May 21st we were happy to meet the new county extension agent Dana Davenport. She brought an informative and interesting film to watch on good nutrition and stressed to watch for hidden sugar in products, such as corn syrup and honey.

Members having birthdays in May include O. W. Richburg, Elsa Freeman, Latrece Henderson, Edith Wilkerson, Virgil Richburg, Sue Lankford, Joy Dickenson, Wayne Dubose, Elsie LeCroy and Helen Williams.

Pauline Smiley made the special cake.

We hope you had a safe and enjoyable Memorial Day weekend. See you at the center.

Menus for June are as follows:

June 1 - German sausage and sauce, black-eyed peas, salad, baked potato, hot rolls and dessert.

June 4 - Oven fried steak, gravy, potatoes, green beans, slaw, hot rolls and pineapple pudding.

June 6 - Oven fried fish, potato rounds, butter beans, slaw, hot rolls, fruit and cookies.

Morning Prayer
Help me use this day so wisely, Lord

That there will be no sad regret When evening comes, for hours misspent,

For work undone, and let me not forget That things which seem important now to me

Might dwindle in the light of thy eternity!

So if I've planned this day all wrong,

Please rearrange it, Lord, and make it right;

Put first things first, I want thy smile tonight!

Alice Hanche Mortenson

Today is another windy day or did you notice. We are supposed to get some grass planted, but the wind keeps on blowing. Maybe it will grow off fast since the ground is getting warm.

School is out for now and kids will be busy doing lots of things and going lots of places. I know one little senior girl who is going home with her grandparents to spend most of the summer. She is Trisha Mitchell, daughter of Herman and Penny Mitchell. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Banks of Watkinsville, Georgia. I feel sure Mr. Banks has a military ranking before his name but I don't have it. I hope I have not committed an unforgivable error.

The Banks are in Texas to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Boatler of Loraine. Mr. Boatler resides in our nursing center and Mrs. Boatler has an apartment at the Senior Citizens Complex. The Banks also came for their granddaughter's graduation.

Irene Kidd had her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Lee Chandler of Snyder visiting her recently. His mother came with them. She is the one who lost her husband recently. He was Irene's brother.

Irene also had her daughter and son-in-law for the weekend. They are Clovis and Jean Hale of Austin. Clovis is on the coaching staff at the University of Texas.

They also visited Clovis' mother Punk Hale. She lives in Valley Fair Lodge in Colorado City.

Mrs. Nannie Hallmark wanted me to tell you about the death of her brother-in-law John Harris of El Paso. His wife, who preceded him in death, was married to one of Nannie's sisters. He is survived by three children.

Rev. Keith Post has resigned his pastorate of Loraine's First Baptist Church and has accepted the Calvary Baptist Church at Childress, Texas.

We wish him well in his move. Sure hate to see them go and take their three beautiful children away.

Someone else will get to see them grow up—not us. I am sorry if that sounded selfish but then I guess it is.

Keith and Cathy I wish for you and your children the very best in your new field. Come back to see us now and then and May God bless you.

They had the Prescott reunion last Sunday, but I didn't know it in time to let those know who would have been interested. Ida Chitsey forgot to get the word down here until the paper had been printed. Maybe we will get a report on that yet.

We visited with my brother Travis and his wife Billie by telephone Saturday night. They always talk so long you feel like they have been here. We really did catch up on their three sons and what each one and his family have been doing. It is always a pleasure to hear from them. They all live in the Freeport area.

Dr. Joe Terry spent the weekend with the Harold Preston's in Brownwood and attended his grandson's Matt Preston's graduation from Brownwood High School.

Iris Preston and Chrystene Hall attended the Brownwood Senior High School commencement held at the Brownwood Coliseum this past weekend. Mathew Terry Preston, president of the senior class gave the welcome. Matt is the grandson of Iris Preston and the late Ray Preston.

The Harold Preston's served dinner on Friday evening before the commencement. Present were: Dr. Terry, Scott and Pat Terry, Mr. and Mrs. David Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Peoples, and Aunt Franchelle and daughter Carol, Iris Preston and Chrystene Hall.

Gaylene Taylor and Delores Gorski came for the Taylor reunion held on Sunday at the Senior Citizens, and spent the weekend in the home of Herbert and Chrystene Mearse.

George and Estelle Lee had all their children and I think all their grandchildren for lunch on Sunday. I am sure they had a nice visit.

Jackie and Patsy Walker were in Big Spring last week and kept their twin grandsons while Robin was at the hospital with Greg who had knee surgery. He is home and doing fine.

I talked to my Abilene grandson on Sunday. They were just home from the ball park where Stacy's crew has just played a 1 p.m. game. I sure was

Jobs Power The Future
Big cities and small towns across the area we serve are stretching their horizons. They're searching out new industries and new companies to bring new jobs. When the companies see what we have here - people who will work hard to build a better future, some of the most attractive electric rates in the nation, and an attitude set on winning - they decide to move here.

Electricity Powers The Jobs
That's why we need to build new generating plants and power lines, and develop alternate fuel sources like nuclear power. To make sure we can keep expanding opportunities for young people who want to raise families here. To make sure you have the electricity you need - today and tomorrow.
