Daingerfield Here Tuesday Night to Open League Tilt

By JACK WINN
East Texas Amateur League starts its 30-game schedule Tuesday. The league is composed of six teams—Talco, Daingerfield, Pittsburg, Gilmer, Winnsboro and Sulphur Springs. The league games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

None of the clubs will be as strong this year as in previous years, all agreeing to play local boys, or boys working in their communities.

Daingerfield, the team that Talco opens their schedule here Tuesday night, is picked by this writer to be one of the stronger teams of the league this year.

Being blessed with the iron ore plant and aircraft plant, they will be in position to put ball players to work, and will be able to field a good team.

Patrons who come out Tuesday night will get to see such stars as Gernon (George) Washington in action. This guy is a powerful hitter, also a good fielder. He played with Dallas last year. Tal-

Grammar School High Grades

Grade Principal P. C. McPherson has announced valedictorian and salutatorian of the eighth grade class, which will graduate May 24.

Valedictorian — Dorothy Hall, average grade 96.64.

Salutatorian — Bobby Anne Blackburn, average grade 96.11.

Next three highest grades—Janice Davis, av. 95.54; Charlene Worden, av. 94.84; Lois Shaw, av. 94.50.

The fox trot was named after a New York dancing instructor. Co will go to Daingerfield Thursday night.

The management has lowered the admission price this year at Oiler Park. The new prices are: Adults 40c, children over 10, 25c, and all under 10 years of age will be admitted free. They have also set up a bargain rate for any one immediate family at $1.00. They realize that it is rather expensive for a large family to see the game but they want everyone to be out rooting for the Oilers, so they have lowered the rate to make it within the reach of everyone. So be out Tuesday night at 8 p. m. and let's get the Oilers off to a successful season.

Talco Track Boys To State Meet

Coaches and two members of the Talco High School track team will leave Thursday for Austin to participate in the State track meet. Robbie McCuller and J. M. Fussell are the boys who will go.

J. M. Fussell won first place in high jump at the Regional meet in Kilgore April 21 and Robbie McCuller placed 2nd in discus throw and 3rd place in shotput to win their trips to Austin, which is the aim and ambition of all boys who participate in track and field events.

Talco had eight boys of 22 to qualify for Regional competition in the District 15-A meet in Mt. Pleasant April 15. One of the eight qualifiers could not make the trip and only seven boys represented Talco in Region IV meet held in Kilgore April 21. The Talco boys scored 11½ points in the Regional meet.

Deep Test Drills Below 5,800 Ft.

Delta Drilling Company is going ahead below 5,800 feet at No. 1 L. H. Porter, W. P. Davis survey, deep hole ten miles southwest of Mt. Pleasant. With elevation 390 feet, the well topped the Woodbine at 4,150 and lower Cretaceous at 4,660, called normal.

A new location at Pewitt Ranch is Stephens & Phillips No. 13 T. J. Davis, A. Samuels survey. It is 500 feet northwest of No. 3 Davis. Failure in the Paluxy is listed for R. L. Peveo et al. No. 1 Horace Russell SP survey, twelve miles south of Bogata. Depth was 4,409 feet.

Latest completion for Pewitt Ranch field is P. H. Pewitt No. 3-B Pewitt, Titus CSL. It pumped 180 barrels per day from 4,542-58 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones of Waco, visited her sister, Mrs. Edward Cornelius and family during the week end. The two families spent Saturday night in the home of Mrs. Jones' and Mrs. Cornelius' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Edwards, near Mt. Vernon.

Jury Verdict Frees Depoort Wildcat is Drilling Below 4,200 Feet

After hearing eight days of conflicting testimony, a jury took just fourteen minutes Saturday afternoon in Sixth District Court at Paris to find Gaines McCulloch not guilty on charges of murdering a Depoort woman.

Tears rolled down the face of the 24-year-old defendant as he thanked the jury which had decided he was not the assailant who fatally knifed Miss Hilda Jane Grant in a roadside park on Highway 271 just short of a year ago.

A member of the jury said the vote of not guilty was unanimous on the first poll of the twelve members.

Both sides contributed to the hasty end of the hearing by waiving their rights of argument before the jury.

An estimated 900 persons packed Sixth District Court to hear the eighth day of testimony.

"I did not," was McCulloch's deliberate reply to Defense Attorney O. B. Fisher's question as to whether or not McCulloch stabbed Miss Hilda Jane Grant in a roadside park last May 8, following a drinking party.

McCulloch also denied having bought a hunting knife from a Paris hardware store, the knife allegedly used in the killing of the woman. He said he had never been inside the store "in my life."

A state witness had identified McCulloch as the man to whom he sold the knife in the store on the afternoon preceding the stabbing.

McCulloch testified that he was unconscious at the time Miss Grant was wounded, claiming that he had been struck on the back of the head by an unknown assailant.

The next thing he knew, McCulloch recalled, he heard screams from the direction of the car and saw Miss Grant lying on the ground, with Sims standing over her.

Prosecutor Frank Wear asked McCulloch if he saw Sims with a knife in his hand, or if Sims reached down and pulled a knife out of Miss Grant's back. McCulloch answered, "No, sir," to each of the questions.

McCulloch also denied an allegation by the prosecutor that the defendant and Sims made an agreement "not to testify against each other in this case."

Depoort Wildcat is Drilling Below 4,200 Feet

Depoort's oil test, the No. 1 Gardner, Hager & Hinton in the Luke Roberts survey, a mile west of Depoort, was down to 4,200 feet on Wednesday afternoon, having drilled a little over 2,000 feet during the past week. The drill is now nearing that depth where Dilworth Hager told this newspaper he would look for some interesting developments around 4,400 feet a week ago.

From 4,200 to 5,000 feet, contract depth, oil men say there are four sands—Upper and Lower Glen Rose, Travis Peak and Cotton Valley. Whether these sands will produce at this location remains to be seen. Paluxy, encountered at 2680 feet in this test, produces at Talco, Sulphur Bluff and Pewitt Ranch at from 4,100 to 4,450, which shows a considerable drop, although the distance between Depoort and Sulphur Bluff is only about 14 miles.

Suppose we don't get a producer in the present test, will you try again in some other portion of your 5,000 acre block, was the question put to Mr. Hager by the editor.

This is the sixth test to be drilled within one and a half miles of the present location, only one having gone as deep as the present test is scheduled.

Beneficial Rains Visit This Area

A good rain Tuesday and a shower Sunday were beneficial to crops recently planted, pastures, gardens and truck crops. The official rain gauge at Depoort registered three-quarters of an inch in the three day period. Reports from the Minter and Cunningham communities were somewhat lighter than the Depoort section.

Farmers who had not already planted cotton were stopped by the rain. Cotton planted earlier is reported up to a good stand and is growing nicely.

In spite of the dry and cold weather, gardens are looking good. Some have reported having English peas, Irish potatoes, greens, radishes, lettuce, onions, and other early vegetables out of gardens.

Spinster Originated Our Mother's Day

On Sunday, May 13, the nation will pay its respects to mothers. It is Mother's Day, so decreed by Congress on May 10, 1913. But we will wager that few know how the day originated.

The first Mother's Day was not intended as a tribute to motherhood; rather it was to heal the wounds of a bitter war between the states, which ended on May 26, 1865.

Oddly enough, the woman responsible for Mother's Day was not a mother herself. Miss Ann Jarvis of Grafton, W. Va., hit upon the plan to bring Civil War veterans of both armies into friendship's circle again. It worked. When Miss Jarvis' mother died a memorial service was held on May 12, 1907 for her, and also dedicated to all mothers of that county.

Today the observance is almost world-wide—forty countries observing it. Miss Jarvis died a spinster on Nov. 23, 1943 at the age of eighty-four.

INSPECTORS CAPTURE NINE ILLICIT STILLS

Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in March reported the seizure of nine illicit stills. With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 465 gallons, inspectors captured 830 gallons of mash and made eight arrests. Fifteen gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Two stills were taken in Titus County, two in Red River and one each in Bowie, Cass, Wood, Smith and Shelby counties.

No Graft Under Jesse Jones

From The Canyon (Tex.) News
There are many demands for the repeal of RFC, Reconstruction Finance Corporation. This agency has sunk to a new low because of greed and graft which have been exposed in government circles.

RFC served the nation well
when it was first established and in the hands of capable men. A little history might serve to enlighten some of our readers on RFC and what it has done.

When President Roosevelt wrote to Vice President John Garner asking for the names of three capable men to run RFC, Garner replied by submitting the name of Jesse Jones of Houston. Roosevelt fired back a letter calling the attention of Garner to the fact that he asked for three names. Garner replied by writing the name of Jesse Jones three times. Jones was his one and only recommendation for the job.
Fortunately Roosevelt took his advice and placed Jesse Jones at the head of this great money lending organization. It was virtually a one man institution under Jesse Jones who loaned government funds by the billions of dollars.

Let it be remembered that under the direction of Jesse Jones
the Government lost on very few loans, and ended up the public career of Jesse Jones with a huge surplus, collected on interest. The agency served the people of the nation well. There were no five percenters getting a whack at government funds under Jesse Jones.

CANASTA PARTY IN CHAPMAN HOME

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. J.
C. Wright and Mrs. W. E. Chapman entertained with a Canasta party in the latter's home in Humble Camp. The reception rooms were attractively decorated with arrangements of purple iris and red roses. Occasional tables were topped with single vases of beautiful pink rose buds.

Following three games of canasta the hostesses served delicious
refreshments to these guests:
Mmes. K. O. France, George Edgerton, G. N. Anderson, H. L.
Rikard, H. M. Pearson, G. M.
Burnham, R. A. Miller, Cecil Lof-
tin, George Ford, W. R. Carroll, Fred D. Love, Raymond Doherty,
Buford Jones, R. E. Cain, Frank
Sloan and Jack Brewer.

High score went to Mrs. Rikard, low to Mrs. Anderson and the bingo prize to Mrs. France.

ship of Mt. Pleasant, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

BURT LOCKHART
in Pittsburg Gazette

Be thankful for the little daily joys.

The world always takes its hat off to a real live hero. How it detests a dead duck.

If the Korean war isn't a third world war it bears all the earmarks of a fine imitation.

Surprising how many of the foreign nations have suffered
"crop failures" since the U. S.
started its hand-out system.

Remember way back when you could buy three fryers for twenty-five cents? You may recall also that you worked for a dollar
a day.

The government is trying to cut bank loans. At the same time the president wants the RFC reorganized so it can make more loans.

Considering the quality of politics involved in a campaign for high office, no man with a clean character can afford to take the risk.

A lot of rockribbed Democrats are puzzled. They don't see how they can go straight when their leaders establish such sizsag policies.

WILLIAM LUNDIGAN

Dictator Peon suspends newspapers when they fail to do his bidding. We don't suspend newspapers in the U. S. We fire military heroes.

The state is at last getting disturbed over our supply of natural gas. This paper was one of the few that sounded the alarm two or three years ago.

Experience is the only teacher
whose lessons leave an indelible impression on our career, and to whom we can say "thank you,"
however hard the lessons.

Russia is happy over the dismissal of MacArthur. The dismissal of Eisenhower and all other American generals would also add much to Russia's happiness.

Cheer up! Taxes could be higher, food could cost more, and the war could be worse. Suppose our address was Korea, India, or anywhere else except the United States?

When we ponder over everything revealed by the recent crime committee, and think of the previously exposed five-per-centers, the deep freezes and mink coats, we are not surprised that we still sing in a loud and anxious voice, "God Save America."

Most of us pat our dear Uncle Sam on the back for giving us pensions, social security, unemployment compensation, highways and education, but what a howl goes up when our Uncle positely calls on us to help pay the bill.

General MacArthur Continues to Draw Full Time Pay

Washington. — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, despite being relieved of all his commands, will continue to draw his full pay and allowances and will be subject to orders of his military superiors until he dies.

Officers of five-star rank are never retired. Their salary amounts to $18,861 yearly. This includes base pay, quarters and subsistence allowances and a personal allowance of $5,000 a year,
which only five-star officers draw. Eight such five-star men are alive, four fleet admirals and three other generals of the Army.
The generals are Marshall, the only one who outranks MacArthur, and Eisenhower and Bradley.

Five-star officers frequently are called back for special assignments or regular military duty. When not assigned to a job, five-star officers generally maintain offices with a military aide and other assistants furnished by the government.

REDCHAIN CREEP FEED

MAKES YOUR CALVES MORE PROFITABLE TO YOU BY ADD-ING Extra Pounds of Good Choice Beef

Red Chain Creep Feed is a 15% protein feed to be used alone or with local grain. The extra pounds added by Creep Feed makes your calves
more attractive to all buyers and does not limit you to one market.

If you want to use local grain with your Red Chain Creep Feed you will find a good mixture to be 200 pounds of Red Chain Creep Feed, 100 pounds of oats and 100 pounds of corn. Do not grind the grain. Calves will readily digest the whole grain and it will not tend to clog the feeder.

By following this program you should be able to add 150 to 200 pounds to your calves by feeding time. Good fat calves often bring a premium of 2c to 3c per pound.

Price Rollback is Posted on Beef

The government Saturday announced a new beef price control program calling for almost a dime-a-pound rollback at the butcher shop by Oct. 1, and prices paid stockmen for cattle will be about 18 per cent less.

The program provides for progressively reduced ceilings for live cattle starting next month.

Retail prices will remain about the same for the time being, although they will be placed under specific dollars-and-cents ceilings. But the announcement said they will be reduced from 4c to 5c a pound on Aug. 1, and again by the same amount on Oct. 1.

The Office of Price Stabilization in announcing the new regulations, said that annual savings to the American public will be about $700,000,000.

The new ceilings, OPS said, will put beef prices by fall back to about where they were when the Korean war began. Retail prices then are to average 10 per cent lower than now. And the farmers' prices for cattle will be about 18 per cent less.

OPS Director Michael V. DiSalle said it was impossible to order immediate retail price reductions because livestock prices, uncontrolled until now, have squeezed wholesalers and retailers whose price levels have been frozen since January.

These are the steps DiSalle ordered on beef prices:

1. A 10 per cent cut in prices which slaughters may pay the farmer for cattle. This goes into effect for accounting periods beginning on or after May 20.

2. Dollar and cents ceiling are fixed for wholesalers and retailers for the first time. The wholesaler ceilings go into effect May 9, the retail ceilings on May 14. Butcher shops must post retail ceiling price charts, by grade and cut, by June 4.

3. Prices slaughterers may pay for cattle are to be reduced an additional four and one-half per cent on Aug. 1 and by the same amount on Oct. 1.

4. On the same Aug. 1 and Oct. 1 dates, retail beef price cuts of from four to five cents a pound will go into effect—for a total cut of about nine cents a pound.

The new retail beef prices, fixed by grade and cut of beef, vary according to type of store and also according to area, depending on distances from packing centers.

Separate sets of ceilings were ordered for superstores, for independent and small chain stores, and for small independent stores.

Lieut. Paul Wood Jr., Deport Boy, Now Jet Pilot on Korean Battle Front

William C. Barnard, Associated Press correspondent in Korea, put a story on the wire last week concerning Lt. Paul Wood, jet pilot of Deport. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wood of Deport, and a graduate of A. & M. College. He has been in the service about a year. The article says:

"The mission was a bridge of planks and lashed poles thrown across the injin river north of Seoul by the Communists.

"We flew over the bridge, Major George Loving of Lynchburg, Va., a jet pilot, and I.

"From 10,000 feet the bridge was a sliver across the sun-lit waters, a slim but very important target.

"The five jet pilots of our flight dived lower and examined the bridge and its surrounding terrain. They were considering the best ways to hit the bridge.

Breath-Taking Dive

"Hills guarded the most effective approach to the bridge but Capt. Edward R. Johnson, 27, of Reynolds, Ill., squadron leader, figured the planes could slip thru.

"Down he went in a breath-taking dive through Communist fire and released a 500-pound bomb. He was followed by Lt.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watkins accompanied Mrs. Howard Armstrong and son, Gerry, home Sunday and spent the day in Ashdown, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts of Rosalie, had as visitors from Thursday until Sunday, Mrs. S. A. Mason, Mrs. Ella Parkess of Clarksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bryson visited Sunday in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Choate, Mrs. Ela Bryson and Mrs. Lee McAllister at Paris.

Mrs. Floyd Parks of Dallas, who is visiting her brother, J. R. Wilcox and family, suffered a heart attack last week. She is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Brumley and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Butts and family visited Gambill wildlife farm at Hopewell, near Paris, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blake, Miss Pat Hanson, Felix and John Ward visited Pvt. Ray Blake and Pvt. Junior Ward at Camp Charlie, Ark., Sunday.

Robert D. Marsh, 35, of Burlingame, Calif.; 2nd Lt. Paul W. Wood Jr., 22, of Deport, Tex., and Lt. Joe D. Johnson, 26, of Coffeyville, Kans.

"Then it was our time and Loving expertly dropped the jet's nose and flashed earthward at 450 miles an hour while enemy weapons winked brightly from the bridge's guardian hills.

Second Run

"Two bombs had damaged the bridge—one at each approach—but the structure still stood.

"Again the five jets howled in steep dives. Captain Johnson's bomb blasted the center of the bridge. Later he explained his fine hit: 'It's my new technique—I just closed my eyes and let go.'

"The jets, with some fuel to spare, sought new targets. In another part of the front they found Allied soldiers, miles behind enemy lines and cut off by Chinese.

"For as long as they dared, the jets circled the soldiers, pounding the enemy hills and ridges around them with machinegunfire. Then, when wanting fuel supplies, the jets streaked back to their home base."

This story gave Lieut. Wood's parents the first information that their son was in action on the Korean front.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Trimm and son, Morris Floyd, and Mr. and Mrs. Story Hamilton and son were called to Clarksville Saturday to attend the funeral of an infant born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hamilton who lived only a short while.

Alcorn Says He'll Worry Over High Prices After Others Do It First

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, reports on worrying this week, something he has very little knowledge of, if you ask us.

Dear Editor: One of my neighbors went into town and sold a calf the other day and he come home so pleased over the fact he got $150 for it he almost felt guilty, like he'd cheated somebody. Kept lookin around like he felt maybe somebody was gonna take it back.

"Most money I ever hope to get for one calf," he said.

Personally, I don't feel that way about it. I ain't never seen a calf of mine I wouldn't rather get $160 for than $150, or any other lower price you can name.

The point is, with farm prices sort of high, a lot of my neighbors are worried, they have the idea they are maybe gettin too much, although that's the last thing they'd want to leak out and I ain't seen none of em sendin any money back.

With me, the things I have to sell just can't get too high, although I could stand some reduction in the gouging I get when I have to buy something, and it has never bothered my conscience any to get a big price for cotton or corn or calves or anything else that works its way up through the Johnson grass out here.

But in order to help out my worryin neighbors, to sort of ease their conscience when they get $150 for a calf, I would like to point out that I found a newspaper out here this mornin which quotes the United States Department of Agriculture on the question of high farm prices. According to it, farm prices have gone up recently, especially when not many farmers around here have much to sell, but so has a lot of other stuff. Since the Korean war started, for example, tin has gone up 138 per cent, aluminum 78 per cent, clothes 32 per cent, chemicals 27 per cent, etc., while in the same period prices received by us farmers have gone up only 21 per cent.

Now maybe we all should be worried about inflation and high prices, but personally I'm gonna go sort of slow and hold back and let the tin boys and the textile boys and aluminum boys, etc., get in their worryin first. Let them worry their prices down to my level first, and then we can all worry along together.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Rains Aid Tomato Crop This Area

Tomatoes are looking better in the East Texas area, says J. F. Rosborough, Horticultural Marketing Specialist. Plants that were set in the fields several weeks ago have not grown and there was not enough moisture to make the fertilizer available. We can expect rapid growth of plants during the next ten days.

Some plants have been set out as late as April 27, which will mean that production from late set acreage will not reach a peak until mid-to-late June. Most of the East Texas area will be moving tomatoes at the same time with peak movement between June 15 and 20.

Older plants will need suckering this week to stimulate the growth of the main body of the plant and to get enough height for the second cluster to set in about two weeks. Where suckering is not done on time, the growth of the main body of the plant is delayed and the setting of the first cluster of tomatoes may not be normal.

A few growers will carry a part of their tomato crop to the pink stage of maturity and will sell the ripe tomatoes on local markets. It does not make sense for a green-wrap tomato to be harvested and shipped to Dallas or Houston to repack establishments where the tomatoes are allowed to ripen for a number of days and for these same tomatoes to be shipped back into East Texas towns and cities. An opportunity is offered for closer cooperation between local store owners and tomato growers to supply a tomato of better quality for East Texas housewives.

The ground is getting warm enough for the planting of butter beans, okra, and peas. The Flori-Mr. and Mrs. Roy Prator of Ruggy. They had planned an all day picnic in the woods, but the rain interfered.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Horn and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Oliver of Talco, stopped with friends here a short time Monday, enroute to Paris.

The rain the past week end was very welcome, as this locality was in need of it for all farming and tomato growers had all put plants in the field during the week.

Mary Ann, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Vaughan, had the misfortune of getting a cut on the head Monday, while playing at school.

Mrs. John Sale, who has been ill at her home for the past month, is reported able to sit up. Dan Cotten and son, Larry of Talco, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cotten Monday.

Mid-Continent Oil Names Chairmen

Grady Rea of Paris, has been named Lamar County chairman in the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association's statewide organization.

Other leaders in the 13 county East Texas area, as announced by Charles E. Simons, association general manager, include:

Albert Wooley, Clarksville, Red River County; John B. Stephens Jr., Mt. Pleasant, Titus County, and C. P. McKnight Sr., Quitman, Wood County.

They will serve in the district organization headed by Watson W. Wise, Tyler, association vice president for the East Texas district.

The Texas Mid-Continent is composed of oil and gas operators, royalty owners, land owners. A speckled variety of pole butter beans that are commonly grown in this area will make heavy yields.

If you want to try a new type of okra, plant the Clemson Spineless. In harvesting this variety of okra you do not get as much sting and irritation of the hands as does occur when harvesting standard varieties such as Green Prolific or White Velvet.
