Boothe vaul... styles between Texas-Los Angeles

By DONNY BROWN
SDN Managing Editor

Despite living and working in Los Angeles the past six years, Snyder native Powers Boothe keeps returning to Texas.

And a recent venture brings the established movie actor back into contact with Scurry County as he enters the "horse business" with local Billy Max West.

A partnership between the two involves a quarter horse brood mare. It is Boothe's latest project that returns him to his roots.

"An actor's life is very transient," he said, "but I enjoy that. Still, I try and spend two to three months every year in Texas."

A visit last week with his in-laws, Russell and Barbara Yorgesen, was his first return to Snyder in two years, he said.

When he does return to his home state, it is normally to the East Texas ranch he has purchased in partnership with his brother Riley.

"It's kind of a joke that you're a Texan first and an American second, but I believe it's true," he said. "There is a genuineness to Texans that I find missing elsewhere. The feeling that people here will survive...take care of themselves."

Boothe said he finds it easy to balance the contrasting lifestyles of a Texas ranch and the film-oriented environment of Los Angeles.

"One feeds the other. I come out here to relax. But after a while I have to get back there to work.

"In Los Angeles, we don't make the party scene," he said. "That tinseltown life can be wonderful, but it can also eat you alive."

He said his Texas background serves him well in Los Angeles.

"There's a mystique about Texas out there. And coming from here certainly hasn't hurt."

When asked why he thinks Snyder has served as the springboard for at least three other actors now working in films and television, Boothe said, "It has to be the strong (theatre) program offered by Worsham."

These "other actors" now working in the Los Angeles area include Brad Maule, Barry Tubb and Dane Witherspoon.

Boothe graduated from Snyder High School the year before SHS theatre director Jerry Worsham arrived, and he said the two have only met briefly since that time.

"But he seems to instill the joy and the feeling of success in his students," Boothe said. "The idea that the opportunity is there, if you want to pursue it."

He credited his own success to

Aaron Knight Jr. and Cathy Caddell were honored as Outstanding Male Student and Outstanding Female Student at Western Texas College Tuesday morning during the annual Awards Day program.

The WTC Faculty Association sponsors Awards Day to recognize students for outstanding academic achievement and contributions to campus life. Jim Rambo, president of the association, made the announcement.

Runners-up for Outstanding Male Student were Ernest Lambert of Snyder and Craig Raughton of Roscoe. Other nominees were Brent Simpson of Abilene and Russell Smith of Rotan.

Lorena Mendoza from Seminole was runner-up for Outstanding Female Student. Also nominated were Susan Fay Schwartz from San Angelo, Cyndi Trujillo from Ozona and Omega Vargas from Snyder.

The case is expected to be handed over to the jury for deliberation around 1 p.m.

Jaw injury

A 19-year-old Snyder woman was undergoing treatment for a possibly dislocated jaw at noon Tuesday following a traffic accident on a south Snyder residential street around 10 a.m.

According to reports, Nawana McGaha of 2800 26th St. was driving a 1981 Ford Mustang westbound in the 2200 Block of 43rd St. when her vehicle collided with the rear of a parked Ford pickup. The second vehicle is owned by Earl Foree of 2204 43rd St.

McGaha reportedly struck her jaw in the collision, an injury that rendered her unable to speak with investigating officers.

Police say there is a possibility a third "non-contact" vehicle may have been involved in the mishap.

30 May Day quilts due auction block

Handmade quilts — a total of 30 this year — will go on the auction block Saturday when the Scurry County Senior Citizens Center hosts its eighth annual May Day in the Scurry County Coliseum.

To be included in the auction are a bronze sculpture by Dr. Robert Taylor; paintings donated by Juanita Raborn and Emma Huffman; 10 afgans; two table cloths; a French and English dictionary published in 1887; and furniture items.

The furniture includes antiques such as a washstand and small sideboard, both donated by former resident and Senior Center volunteer worker Virginia Whitson. A lamp donated by her will be auctioned also.

Other items to be auctioned include a drop leaf oak dining table; a table top radio-record player (dating from 1945); a sewing machine cabinet for a treadle type machine now marble topped to be used as a plant stand; a three-tiered wooden plant stand made and donated by Bob Melton; and a wooden footstool donated by Ennis Floyd.

Among the quilts to be sold is a Butterfly pattern, pieced in 1934 for Dale Glover by his mother, the late Minnie Seabourn. The quilting was done in the center.

Scurry County livestock brands were incorporated in another original quilt design executed in turquoise and brown. There are also three cross-stitched quilts in pastel tones.

The coliseum will open at 2:30 p.m. and visitors are invited to shop for baked goods and handicraft items. Refreshments will be offered at the Sweet Tooth Booth.

Hank Davis and the Westerners will entertain from 3:30 until 5:30 p.m. and Cindy Hataway will sing from 5:30 until 6:15 p.m.

A barbecue dinner will be served from 4:30 until 6:30 p.m. for those who have purchased tickets in advance. Tickets are $5 each and can be purchased at the Senior Center office as long as 1,000 last.

The auction sale will begin at 6:30 p.m. Grady Morris, Colorado City auctioneer, has again volunteered his services.

"We appreciate the support we have always received from the community for our May Day," Gloria Shaw, Senior Center director, said.

"May Day helps the center provide so many services and activities for the older residents of our community, and it just wouldn't be possible without all the help we receive."

Information about May Day can be obtained by calling the Senior Center at 573-4035. There is no charge for admission to the coliseum. Persons who would like to shop the booths and look over auction items are welcome throughout the afternoon.

Reagan begins journey

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan embarks tonight on the first overseas trip of his second term, still struggling to keep his visit to Nazi graves from overwhelming his hopes for a celebration of 40 years of Western European peace and reconciliation.

The president is making an overnight flight to Bonn, West Germany, for the annual summit of the seven major industrialized democracies that begins Thursday.

Also on the itinerary before Reagan's return May 10 are state visits in West Germany, Spain, Portugal and a speech in Strasbourg, France, marking the 40th anniversary of the end of World War II in Europe and looking toward the future of East-West relations and European unity.

But the president's intentions for an upbeat journey have been submerged by an uproar over his planned visit next Sunday with West German Chancellor Helmut Kohl at the Kolmeshohe cemetery at Bitburg, near the Luxembourg border.

Among the nearly 2,000 graves are those of 49 soldiers from the SS, the elite Nazi combat corps which ran Adolf Hitler's concentration camps.

Jewish leaders, American veterans groups and members of Congress have condemned Reagan's appearance at the cemetery.

Hours before Reagan's departure, the House of Representatives was due to vote on a resolution urging the president to reconsider his visit to Bitburg.

The president said the visit to the cemetery is intended to "bring to the people an awareness of the great reconciliation that has taken place."

High school awards presentation slated

The annual spring awards program at Snyder High School — which features the announcement of this year's valedictorian and salutatorian seniors — is slated Wednesday morning at Worsham Auditorium.

The program will begin at 10:40 a.m. and is expected to continue through noon.

In addition to the top two seniors, the top 10 scholars for every grade level at SHS will be announced also. A medal is presented to each of these students by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

Other individual awards given out include the Texas Electric Science Award, the Henry F. Clark Band Award and the Ran-

Last SHS concert tonight

The Snyder High School choirs will be presenting their final concert of the 1984-85 school year at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Worsham Auditorium at SHS.

The evening's program — open free to the public — will include traditional choral music as well as contemporary numbers.

Choir awards for the year will be presented during the program and ex-choir members will be invited to the stage to join in the traditional closing number "May the Lord Bless You and Keep You."

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Another problem in the business of life is minding your own."

We know a local preacher who says he got a first-hand lesson in humility recently. Randall Gray, minister of the 37th Street Church of Christ, is motivated much like an athlete--he likes to be the best at whatever he does.

If he plays golf, he plays to win and he gets down-right serious when involved in a Trivia game.

Not too long ago, Gray got a call from Lubbock Christian College and an invitation to speak at a morning chapel service.

Gray admits he was honored. "I was pretty puffed up about the invitation." Gray made sure his suit was pressed, and he made all the necessary preparations to make certain his talk was motivational and inspiring.

On the morning of the speech, Gray got up early to put finishing touches on his remarks. Wife Becky, whose parents live in Lubbock, decided to accompany him on the trip.

The couple stopped in Post and ordered a breakfast snack. At the Dairy Queen, Gray suggested that his wife drive so that he could look over his notes one final time.

When Becky, who is 5-2, got under the wheel, she pulled the seat up to accomodate her short legs. Gray, who is 6-5, climbed into the passenger seat with his knees almost touching the windshield.

The fit was tight, and as Gray was trying to get settled in, he heard a loud rip. Much to his dismay, his suit trousers were ripped--not a tiny tear, but a giant rip.

Becky had a solution. The couple would go by her parents home where a quick repair would be made.

It was a sight to behold, the featured speaker sitting in the living room of his mother-in-law's house--dressed in shirt and tie and with a blanket wrapped around him.

Said the preacher, "When one thinks more highly of himself than he should, things seem to happen that bring you back down to reality."

Parade marks anniversary

HO CHI MINH CITY, Vietnam (AP) — Jet fighters thundered overhead and thousands of soldiers and civilians marched through Ho Chi Minh City today to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the communist victory over U.S.-backed South Vietnam.

Nguyen Van Linh, Communist Party boss of the city formerly known as Saigon, said in a speech opening the ceremonies that the victory was "a brilliant exploit of the 20th century."

He thanked the Soviet Union for its support, and said for the United States, the Vietnam War was "a tunnel with no light at the end."

High-stepping infantrymen of the world's fourth largest armed force and militia units carrying U.S.-made M-16 rifles, seized at the collapse of South Vietnam, moved past a stand filled with aging revolutionary leaders who had fought the Japanese, French and Americans.

Thousands of spectators watched the parade, officially said to include 50,000 participants.

It traveled to the former presidential palace where on April 30, 1975, South Vietnam surrendered to communist forces who had ringed the city the previous day.

Towed Soviet-built artillery pieces, tanks, and armored vehicles were part of the parade. Soviet-built MiG-21 jet fighters, helicopter gunships and transport aircraft flew overhead.

The parade route went past or near some of the places where the last acts of the South Vietnam drama were played out — and at almost the same time that those events occurred ten years ago.

The parade began at almost exactly the same time that on April 30, 1975, the last helicopter had lifted off the roof of the U.S. Embassy at 7:52 a.m. to end a mass evacuation of Americans and South Vietnamese.

Live musical on sex triggers porno protest

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A live musical about sex that includes about 12 minutes of full nudity by male and female actors has opened a 6-day run in Austin and triggered a protest from a group that wants the production ruled obscene.

"We're just saying that this is ridiculous," said Mark Weaver, head of Members of Citizens Against Pornography, said as he and about 70 other picketed Monday night's opening performance at the Ritz Theater.

Inside, about 100 people attended "Let My People Come," an off-Broadway musical comedy about modern sexual problems.

"If we continue to tolerate sexual material and performances, and we don't draw the line, it's going to get worse and worse. The advertisement says: 'Good, clean, dirty fun.' What's good and clean about dirt?" Weaver asked the Austin American-Statesman.

Weaver said his group plans to picket each performance and hopes to have it stopped. He said he filed complaints Monday with both the police and the county attorney.

In response to complaints, police sent an officer to view the first performance and report to the county attorney about possible obscenity violations, officials said.

Too-snug shoes can cause corns

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: The summer months are approaching and I'd like to get rid of the corns on my toes. Do you have any suggestions as to how I can get rid of them?

DEAR READER: Corns and calluses are built-up layers of dead skin. These layers frequently occur on the foot where an unresilient shoe rubs against a bony prominence. Corns can be avoided by going barefoot or wearing soft, well-fitting shoes which are not too tight.

Once formed, corns can be easily removed by sanding with an emery board or fine sandpaper. But they will readily reoccur at pressure points with a shoe that fits too snugly. Try shoes which are slightly larger. Remember that your dominant foot may be slightly larger than the other anyway. In the winter, use heavy socks; in the summer, sandals or sneakers. If all else fails, see an orthopedic surgeon or a podiatrist on the chance that there is an abnormality of one of the foot bones.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I am prone to boils. I've taken urine and blood tests, but to no avail. Is my body trying to tell me something?

DEAR READER: Most boils are due to staphyloccal infections which begin deep in the pores of the skin. Staph germs exist everywhere on our bodies and usually cause no harm. However, people with diabetes and immune deficiencies are more susceptible to boils. If your doctor is satisfied that you have no underlying disease to explain your tendency to skin infections, try washing with soap that contains antibacterial compounds. If you continue to be plagued by these infections, your doctor might be encouraged to give you a course of antibiotics to eradicate staph. Some patients with resistant boils are helped by long-term, low-dose antibiotic therapy, much like that used to treat acne.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I just got over a bad bout with sinus. I think I remember reading that sinus is more common with women. Is that true? Is it hereditary?

DEAR READER: Sinus infections are caused by viruses or bacteria. Some people seem to be more prone to sinus congestion and infection because of air pollution, in the form of smoke or vapors or dust. Others may tend to develop sinus infection because of allergies.

If you work in a situation where there is smoke or fumes, you can help your sinuses by using exhaust fans or structuring your environment so that you avoid air pollution. If you smoke, stop or reduce. If your fellow workers smoke, try to find a workplace away from them.

In the event you are an allergic person, you may need to take special pains to avoid contact with compounds to which you are sensitive, like animals, pollens and certain foods. You may require desensitization shots from an allergist. Although sinus infection is not hereditary in most cases, a tendency to allergy can be. Often the use of antihistamines can help an allergic person avoid sinus infection if the medicines — most of which are available without a prescription — are taken during the time of greatest congestion. I am not aware that sinus infection itself is either hereditary or more common in women.

Send your questions to Dr. Gott at P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101. Due to volume of mail, individual questions cannot be answered. Questions of general interest will be answered in future columns.

TDWR joining research project

The Texas Department of Water Resources will participate again in the research phase of the cloud-seeding program of the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

Bob Reggio of the TDWR announced $32,556 was being made available to CRMWD to operate a network of 106 rain gauges which record the time, date and amount of precipitation within the cloud-seeding target area. In addition, the district maintains a network of "fence post" gauges located at three-mile intervals as a further check on rainfall.

Don Couvillion, who coordinates the program for CRMWD, said that possibly $13,302 more may be available to extend the recording gauge program from Aug. 31 through October.

Convection cumulus storm cells are seeded with the objective of enhancing precipitation within a target area from Big Spring to O'Donnell on the north and south to Sterling City and Robert Lee. The program has operated for 15 years, and most of the time research has been performed coincidentally with it.

During World War II, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was named commander in 1943 of the Allied forces in North Africa.

PUBLIC NOTICE

AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. ("AT&T Communications"), in accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act and the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas ("PUC") hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of rates for its services. The new rates will be effective May 14, 1985, unless otherwise determined by the PUC. All customers and classes of customers would be affected by the proposed rates.

AT&T Communications has filed a reprice of its tariffs designed to more closely recover access and other costs for WATS and 800 Service and all private line services including Channel Services, Foreign Exchange (FX), DATAPHONE* Digital Service, and OCC Facilities.

Also proposed is the institution of a charge for Directory Assistance to begin to recover access costs incurred for such service and increases in rates for operator assisted AT&T Long Distance calls. The initial minute charge for all AT&T Long Distance calls and additional minute rates for AT&T Long Distance calls 51 miles or less are proposed for increases to reflect the access charges approved by the PUC for such calls.

The proposed new rates for all services would result in an increase in adjusted test period revenues of $139 million or 12.7 percent.

A complete copy of the proposed tariffs are on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Is there any bridge player who has not heard of suit preference? Suppose your partner leads a high card, which will win the first trick. If the cards in dummy make it obvious that nothing can be gained by continuing the suit, then the card that you follow with is a suit-preference signal. A high card informs partner that you prefer the higher of the two side suits; a low card shows that you prefer the lower of the two side suits.

Similarly, if you are leading a suit that you hope partner can ruff, leading a high card suggests that partner can get you in again with the higher-ranking side suit; leading a low card suggests that your entry is in the lower-ranking suit.

Now to the current deal. West led the spade ace against four hearts. East followed low since he had no spade king and no particular desire for West to continue spades. Now West played the spade king. Leading ace and then king against a suit contract shows a doubleton A-K. Knowing this, East had to show where his entry was so that he could gain the lead to give West a ruff. Here came old reliable suit preference. The 10 of spades, the highest of the remaining spades in East's hand, suggested the diamond ace. If East had held the club ace instead, he would have followed to the second spade with the five, his lowest remaining spade.

West played a diamond, declarer desperately tried dummy's king, but East won the ace and gave West a spade ruff to set the contract.

Chadwick expected to sign contract as WTC cage coach

Kelly Chadwick, who guided Amarillo College to the NJCAA National Tournament three times in the past seven years, is expected to sign a contract as the new women's basketball coach at Western Texas College this afternoon.

Chadwick will replace Joe Cushing, who resigned recently to accept a similar position at Panola Junior College in Carthage. The 54-year old Chadwick has coached at Amarillo College for the past seven years. Amarillo voted to discontinue its basketball programs following the 1984-85 season.

"We're pleased to have a man of his stature coming in here. His record speaks for itself," said WTC Athletic Director Dave Foster. "I think he will do a good job here. Obviously recruiting is going to be a little slim right now but he has a lot of contacts and I think he will fullfill a very competitive team next year."

A graduate of Southwestern State University of Weatherford, Okla., Chadwick has been in coaching for 23 years. He has held positions at Brinkman, Okla., New Deal, Hale Center, Floydada, Corpus Christi Tuloso Midway and Amarillo College. His record at Amarillo was 161-76. His three trips to nationals provided a seventh place finish in 1980-81, 12th in 1978-79 and 5th in 1982-83.

Chadwick was hoping to be able to bring several girls from last season's Amarillo squad to Snyder.

For game with Andrews...

SHS Tigers shuffle lineup

ANDREWS – Snyder's Tigers have shuffled some personnel and the batting order for tonight's 7:30 game with the Andrews Mustangs.

The game will be the next to the last of the regular season for the Tigers, who are holding onto slim hopes of making a ninth straight playoff appearance. Snyder is 5-3 in district wars, two games out of second place and three games behind Andrews, which is 8-0.

The Tigers will be keeping an eye on Pecos tonight, where the Eagles, 7-1, entertain Fort Stockton. Back-to-back victories for Snyder, coupled with consecutive losses for Pecos, would leave both teams tied for the runnerup spot and force a district playoff.

Coach Albert Lewis has made some major changes in the Tiger lineup for this evening's game. Veterans Bobby Velasquez and Jimmy Cain will not be among the starting five. In addition, Chris Fryar will move to shortstop and Brad Holcomb will come in at third base.

Charles Bollinger, 8-1 with a 1.47 ERA, will be on the mound for the Tigers.

The lineup, in batting order, will open with catcher Ricky Hunter. He'll be followed by second baseman Jay Mayo. Batting third will be Bollinger, the top Tiger hitter in district play with a .481 average. Next-up will be rightfielder Justin Webb who will be followed by leftfielder Jimmy Velasquez. Michael Long will bat next for centerfielder Willie Greathouse.

The rest of the lineup consists of Fryar, first baseman Steve Parker and Holcomb.

"If you noticed, we only have two seniors in the (batting) lineup," said Coach Lewis, referring to Mayo and Bollinger. "We wanted to get a look at some of the players who are going to be back for us next year. That's nothing against the other guys. We just want to play some other people. Everybody in the lineup except for Michael Long has been a starter for us this season at one time or another."

Lewis said the changes do not indicate that Snyder has given up on making the playoffs.

"Heck no. We have a lot of faith in these guys. No we're not conceding anything. We're going to give it our best shot at Andrews tonight and see what happens."

In tonight's other 2-4A contest, Lamesa is at Monahans. Lamesa, Monahans and Fort Stockton have already been eliminated from the playoffs.

Lady Tigers are ready for regional tourney

BROWNWOOD – Snyder's Lady Tigers tee off in the regional golf tournament here Wednesday, aiming for a second straight trip to the Class 4A state finals.

Angie Lay will lead off for the Tigers in an 8:30 a.m. start with players from Belton and Granbury. Leslie Light will be the last Tiger player to tee off Wednesday. She is scheduled shortly after 9.

Other members of the Tiger team are Xalyn Harris, Camille Reed and Michelle Holder.

Snyder placed second here last year, finishing behind Belton. The Tigers advanced to state where they were runnersup to Mineral Wells. Belton placed third at the state tournament.

In addition to Snyder, Belton and Granbury, other teams competing in the two-day regional tournament will be Borger, Pampa, Andrews, Leander, Cleburne and Georgetown. Belton qualified two teams.

"We'll have to play well to win," said Snyder Coach Jan Kruse. "If Belton brought two teams they'll be tough, we know that. Borger, we've played before and Andrews we've played before. Both are real tough. I would think the top four teams would be us, Belton, Andrews and Borger. It will just depend on who is playing well."

Snyder advanced to state in 1982 and 1984 under Kruse. The Tigers are the District 2-4A runnersup this season.

Play will be at the Brownwood Country Club.

Stoglin joins Arkansas staff

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Andy Stoglin, a former assistant coach for Nolan Richardson at Tulsa, has joined the University of Arkansas basketball staff as a full-time assistant, the university announced.

The 41-year-old Stoglin was an assistant the past year at Oklahoma State. Before that, he was head coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., where his teams were 32-26 over two years. He had been an assistant to Richardson for two years at Tulsa before going to Southern.

Richardson said he had known Stoglin 25 or 26 years. The two were teammates at the University of Texas at El Paso.

"He helped me build the program at Tulsa," Richardson said. "This is like a reunion. I'm pleased he decided to be a part of our staff."

Stoglin, originally of Phoenix, Ariz., earned his degree from UTEP in 1965. He coached at high schools in Texas and Arizona before taking a coaching job in the Mexican Professional League.

He played professionally with Dallas of the American Basketabll Association and spent three years with the Harlem Globetrotters. He had a brief stint with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

"Wahoo" Sam Crawford made 312 lifetime triples to set a record. He played for the Cincinnati Reds and Detroit Tigers.

NFL opens 1985 draft; Oilers pick Childress

NEW YORK (AP) - National Football League teams went for the beef today as the league began its 50th draft of college players, opting for linemen and linebackers and going deeper into the draft than anytime in 17 years before taking a player from a so-called "skill position."

It was billed as a draft thin in the glamor positions - running back and quarterback - but it wasn't expected to be quite that thin, with wide receivers Al Toon of Wisconsin, Eddie Brown of Miami and Jerry Rice of Mississippi Valley State tabbed to go high.

But they didn't. The first nine picks in the draft were either linemen or linebackers - the longest the draft has gone since 1968 without a running back, quarterback or receiver being chosen. The New York Jets finally took Toon on the 10th pick to break the skein, and the first running back, Ethan Horton of North Carolina, wasn't taken until the 15th pick, when the Kansas City Chiefs grabbed him.

The Buffalo Bills opened the parade of linemen by using the first choice to ratify the selection of 283-pound defensive lineman Bruce Smith, the Outland Trophy winner, who was signed in January. Then the Atlanta Falcons, who flip-flopped their choice in a deal with Minnesota, took offensive tackle Bill Fralic of Pitt and the Houston Oilers took defensive tackle Ray Childress of Texas A&M.

After Childress came linebacker-defensive end Chris Doleman of Pitt by the Vikings; Southern California linebacker Duane Bickett by the Indianapolis Colts; offensive tackle Lomas Brown of Florida by the Detroit Lions; offensive tackle Ken Ruettgers of Southern Cal by Green Bay, who obtained the pick in a last-minute deal with Buffalo; Washington defensive end Ron Holmes, by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and offensive tackle Kevin Allen of Indiana by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Finally the Jets broke the string with Toon, much to the delight of their fans in the gallery of about 250 at the Omni Park Central Hotel, who began shouting his name and Eddie Brown's almost as soon as the Eagles made their choice.

Houston, using the pick it got from New Orleans for running back Earl Campbell, took Toon's Wisconsin teammate, cornerback Richard Johnson, and the San Diego Chargers went back up front with guard Jim Lachey of Ohio State as the first half of the first round ended. Then the Chiefs opened the second half of the round with Horton.

The Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers then pulled a coup, trading up for New England's choice and grabbing Rice, the wide receiver they had coveted.

That left Dallas, which would have loved to get Rice, to pick Kevin Brooks, a pass-rushing defensive end from Michigan who will help fill the hole on the outside of the Cowboys' defense left by the career-ending injury to their top pick of last year, linebacker Billy Cannon Jr.

St. Louis, which had hoped for an offensive lineman to fill the hole left by the defection of tackle Luis Sharpe to the United States Football League, settled for Freddie Joe Nunn, an outside linebacker from Mississippi. The New York Giants then went for running back George Adams of Kentucky to beef up their anemic running attack and Pittsburgh took Daryl Sims, a defensive end who became the third Wisconsin player taken on the first round.

After the Los Angeles Rams chose Texas safety Jerry Gray, a two-time All-American, the Chicago Bears took what some scouts consider a gamble - drafting Clemson's 330-pound defensive tackle, William "The Refrigerator" Perry, whose play can sometimes be awesome, but whose weight and work habits concern some scouts.

Then the Los Angeles Raiders, seeking outside speed to replace the aging Cliff Branch, went for Jessie Hester, a wide receiver from Florida State. New Orleans, with the choice it obtained from the Washington Redskins last week for running back George Rogers, went for Alvin Toles, a linebacker from Tennessee who missed most of last season with a broken leg.

Cincinnati took another linebacker, Emanuel King of Alabama, then Denver pulled a mild surprise by choosing Steve Sewell, a versatile Oklahoma running back.

Miami took a similarly versatile running back, Lorenzo Hampton of Florida, to shore up an area that was lacking in its Super Bowl loss to San Francisco. New England, which got the pick in its deal earlier in the day with the 49ers, then closed out the first round by taking center Trevor Matich of Brigham Young.

USFL planning switch to fall

TEANECK, N.J. (AP) - The United States Football League reaffirmed its decision to switch to a fall schedule in 1986, but it will do so without the Tampa Bay Bandits.

John Bassett, the owner of the Bandits, one of the USFL's strong franchises, voted against the change and said he would pull his team out of the league and form another spring-summer league.

Also, the league voted to keep the financially troubled Los Angeles Express franchise afloat for the rest of this year. The Chicago Blitz, which had a franchise for the league's first two years, will rejoin it in 1986.

Bike Shop Can Teach You To Become a Pedal-Pusher

DEAR ABBY: This is for "Ashamed," the male college student who never learned to ride a bicycle. I'm a 27-year-old male who's never learned how to ride a bicycle either. I can't believe there are two of us! I certainly can identify with his shame and embarrassment.

Ironically, I recently completed a motorcycle course and obtained my license.

MIKE IN WICHITA

DEAR MIKE: Don't give up. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: I am writing in response to the letter from a young college man who did not know how to ride a bike and was embarrassed to ask.

Bicycle USA has trained cycling instructors in virtually every state. Contacting a local bike shop, bicycling club or Bicycle USA (6707 Whitestone Road, Suite 209, Baltimore, Md. 21207) directly should be sufficient to put anyone interested in learning to ride a bike in touch with a certified instructor. No matter what the age of the rider, instructors have the skills and experience to be of assistance. Often instructors teach through local park and recreation offices, or through bike shops.

Bicycling safely becomes more and more important as more people commute to work, ride on the weekends and make cycling a family activity. We stress safety!

I hope you can find room for this in your column, Abby.

SUSAN BAXTER, INSTRUCTOR, EUGENE, ORE.

DEAR SUSAN: Find room? I'll make room to promote safety in cycling. Especially since May is National Bicycle Month.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have a business partner whom I must telephone at home between five and 10 times daily. He has two small children, 4 and 7 years old, and the competition between these children to answer the telephone is a great source of irritation to me.

My partner allows his children to answer the telephone and also screen his calls, and every time I call I am subjected to these competitive kids who obviously are fighting over who should answer the phone.

This is so upsetting to me that I want to scream! Am I wrong to feel this way?

GOING OUT OF MY MIND

DEAR GOING: No. You can't help how you "feel," but in the interest of maintaining your sanity, you should tell your partner what's on your mind before you go out of it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I'm sure you've heard this question before because it's been around for a long time, but I've never known anyone who came up with the answer:

Which came first ... the chicken or the egg?

I.M. SERIOUS IN MOLINE, ILL.

DEAR SERIOUS: According to the Bible, the chicken came first: God said, "Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven." (Genesis: 1:20)

George Washington, the first president of the United States, was born at Bridges Creek in Westmoreland County, Va., Feb. 22, 1732. His performance as a commander in the American War of Independence is legendary and his victory at Yorktown in 1781 led to the British commander's surrender, virtually ending the war. In 1787, he presided over the convention of delegates from 12 states which met in Philadelphia to form a constitution, and became president of the new government. Washington retired from the presidency in 1797 and died in 1799.

Tiny earrings for pierced ears are easily lost when you're travelling and living out of a suitcase. To save yourself from aggravation, here's a tip from Family Circle magazine: Poke your earrings through the lining pocket inside the lid of your travel bag or case. Not only will they stay put, they will be easy to spot when it's necessary to make a quick change.

Abducted woman is found unharmed

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A woman abducted after a shootout in which one man was killed and two were wounded was rescued unharmed after she scribbled a note on a restroom wall pleading for help, authorities said.

Donna Irwin, 18, was shaken Monday, but "she's in good condition," said Jim Whitaker, chief of detectives for the Iberville Parish Sheriff's Department in Plaquemine, La.

An 28-year-old Arlington man and a 22-year-old Houston man were being held in the Iberville Parish Jail for Fort Worth authorities.

The two are also wanted in the shooting death Sunday night of Kevin Allen, 21, and the wounding of two other Fort Worth men, David Suson, 32, and his brother-in-law, James Bell, 31.

Suson was shot in the head and was in critical condition early today at John Peter Smith Hospital. Bell was shot in the face and was listed in good condition at JPS.

The three men who were shot were driving around in the Lake Worth area when they came across Miss Irwin and her date, Thomas Emmitt Cox, 22, as they were being attacked by two men at a scenic overlook at Lake Worth in northwest Tarrant County, said Fort Worth police Detective J.D. Roberts.

A 1983 train crash in Mexico killed 60 persons.

Prince described as indignant

LONDON (AP) — The London Times reported today that Prince Charles was highly indignant that he and Princess Diana were stopped from attending a Mass by Pope John Paul II in the pontiff's private Vatican chapel.

The newspaper said Vatican sources stated that the Protestant heir to the throne's desire to attend the Mass was overruled on the wishes of his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, temporal head of the Church of England.

But Victor Chapman, the prince's press secretary, was quoted in Rome by the British news agency Press Association as denying that the queen vetoed the attendance of her son and his wife at the Mass today.

Alexander Pest Control will protect against termites

As a home owner, you can't ignore the threat of termite damage. The cost of the termite problem in the United States is approaching one billion dollars a year with about one in every 50 homes being damaged.

Craig Alexander, owner of Alexander's Pest Control, tells us that this time of the year is the most active for termites and that termites will do more damage to homes this year than all fires, hurricanes, and tornadoes combined.

When termites swarm in the spring, they are often mistaken for flying ants, because both have wings. Swarming termites quickly shed their wings, though, and burrow into the ground to start new colonies.

Chemical treatment is the only method of termite prevention and control ever proven to be totally effective. Alexander's Pest Control surrounds your house with a chemical barrier, so termites can't get in. This also kills any termites which may already be inside.

Instead of hoping termites don't attack, make sure they can't. Instead of being worried, be protected. All it takes is a call to Alexander's Pest Control at 573-7133.

PROFESSIONAL TERMITE PROTECTION is offered by Craig Alexander and Dwaine Merritt of Alexander's Pest Control. (SDN Staff Photo)

Your home is the largest investment you have, so you don't want to take any chances with it. Call the professional - Craig Alexander.

Hard times said ahead

WASHINGTON (AP) — During the next decade, the nation's steel industry faces continued [illegible] ports and costly restructuring as it struggles to compete in world markets, a new study says.

Even in a scenario that includes effective import controls and favorable exchange rates, the so-called integrated steel mills that perform a broad range of production and manufacturing functions would continue to close as producers strive to become more efficient, said the 158-page report of a panel of steel industry experts.

The report, prepared under the auspices of the National Academy of Engineering for release today, said that if the steel industry is to shake off its financial woes, "the most efficient operations must be saved, clearly inefficient operations should be closed, and mixed (integrated) facilities must be encouraged to modernize and restructure themselves."

Economic gauge decreases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's main economic forecasting gauge decreased 0.2 percent in March, reversing a two-month gain and hinting of lagging business activity later in the year.

Moreover, the report issued today by the Commerce Department revised downward the gains posted by the index of leading indicators for the past two months — dropping the February increase from 0.7 percent to 0.5 percent and the January gain from 1.5 percent to 1.3 percent.

The index has not risen for three consecutive months since last May.

Most analysts had been expecting at least some gain in the March index as a signal the economy was ready to pick up steam after a first quarter in which growth, as measured by the gross national product, was only 1.3 percent.

The Reagan administration has based its budget assumptions on projections of 4 percent growth for the year.

Although many private economists view that as a bit optimistic, the majority of them have been predicting an annual growth rate of well over 3 percent for the year.

In another report today, the Commerce Department said the United States suffered an $11 billion foreign trade deficit last month, only a slight improvement from the $11.4 billion deficit run up in February.

In March, imports rose 0.7 percent despite sharp drops in shipments of petroleum and cars to the United States. Exports were up 3.3 percent, reflecting a big increase in aircraft sales.

The changes left the index at 167.1 percent of its 1967 base compared to 167.5 in February.

SAL seeking new members

The Snyder chapter of Sons of the American Legion (SAL) would like to invite any male who is the son, adopted son or stepson of any member of the American Legion or of any veteran who died during a war or after an honorable discharge to join.

SAL's next meeting is at 7 p.m. Monday at the American Legion Hall, Post 181.

Sponsors of the organization say SAL teaches young men to respect and honor their country and all who served to protect it. It teaches them to appreciate their freedom and to have faith in their country. SAL also teaches leadership, citizenship and discipline.

HOUSTON (AP) — Customs officers knew it wasn't going to be a routine stop when they saw a camel poking its head out of a truck.

Later, after detaining two camels, six springboks, five wallabies and a zebra, they knew they had a zoo on their hands.

The mobile menagerie was seized in Nogales, Ariz., said Customs Service spokesman Charles Conroy. The Houston office of the Customs Service supervises officers in the Southwest.

During World War I, the French cruiser Provence capsized in the Mediterranean, the apparent victim of a 1915 torpedo attack. Of the 3,000 men on board, only 850 survived.

Mistrial declared in murder trial

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A judge declared a mistrial and Ricky Kyle burst into tears after a jury deadlocked 10-2 in favor of convicting him of murdering his millionaire father to avoid being disinherited.

"We're elated that the state failed to convince these fine jurors that Ricky Kyle committed a crime," said Kyle's attorney, Jack Pate. "We anticipated an acquittal and we continue to anticipate it."

Superior Court Judge Robert Devich ended the six-month trial Monday after jurors deliberated 4½ weeks but failed to reach a verdict. Devich set a June 21 hearing on a possible retrial.

Kyle, 22, who was accompanied to court by his wife, Kelly, and their son, Justin, declined to comment.

Henry Harrison Kyle Sr., 60, a former Dallas resident, was shot to death July 22, 1983, in his Bel-Air mansion as he and Ricky Kyle searched for prowlers. The prosecution contended he was murdered, but the defense portrayed Ricky Kyle as firing in self-defense against his abusive, overbearing father.

Deputy District Attorney Lewis Watnick said he was disappointed.

"We did have what I would consider overwhelming evidence," he said. "Ten jurors thought it was a very solid case. If 10 believe it was sufficient ...."

Watnick said he thought the case would be retried.

The prosecution contended Kyle killed his father because he feared being written out of Kyle Sr.'s will.

The elder Kyle, whose personal fortune was estimated at $20 million, headed a $100 million empire that included apartments, restaurants, dairy farms, coal mines, a bank and a television production company.

Juror Bruce Bauder, 32, disclosed that only two jurors voted for a first-degree murder conviction on the first ballot. The votes changed later, as jurors realized they could not vote for a lesser charge unless they first came to a unanimous vote on the first-degree count.

The two jurors who held out for an innocent verdict told reporters they thought Kyle shot his father in self-defense. They said they resisted intense pressure from the others, who pressed for a guilty verdict.

Commodities broker gets 35 year sentence

HOUSTON (AP) — A commodities broker faces a 35-year prison sentence for arranging the sinking of an oil tanker off the Senegalese coast as part of a multimillion dollar oil fraud scheme.

Frederick Soudan, 41, of Houston apologized Monday after U.S. District Judge Carl Bue read the prison sentence.

"I got involved in something beyond my comprehension," he said. "I should have known better. I made a mistake ... and I'm very sorry."

Soudan will be eligible for parole after 10 years.

Bue also told Soudan he should try to repay the $4.25 million prosecutors claim he made in a $56 million oil swindle.

Soudan was convicted on March 26 of 17 counts of wire fraud, perjury, interstate transportation of stolen property, conspiracy to defraud the United States and conspiracy to obstruct justice.

He had faced up to 86 years in prison and an $88,000 fine.

Prosecutors contended Soudan stole 200,000 tons of crude from its Italian owner and ordered it delivered to South Africa on the supertanker Salem.

According to the 22-count indictment, Soudan and four other men arranged for the tanker to be sunk off the coast of Senegal on Jan. 17, 1980, to cover up the theft.
