

Moore .. ABOUT Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Our source the other day on the Ben Mackall tittit we had in this column was James Dabney. He came creeping into the office the next day after seeing Mackall again and said he had supplied us with the wrong figures. Instead of sitting in the tree for more than 100 hours he stayed up there several weeks. Six, we believe James said. Sounds like a lot of tall timber to us.

Up on the bulletin board at the Connellee, Homecoming headquarters, they have a little cartoon that's probably all too appropriate. Shows a fellow leaning over his bankers' desk saying, "But you have got to lend me the money. I was chosen the boy most likely to succeed when I graduated and I've just got to return to that reunion."

Every year we get a nice little treat letter from the Panhellenic Council, University of Texas, telling us "there shall be no publicity concerning summer rush parties" of sororities on the campus of the University of Texas. "During the summer they (the sororities) request that there be no notices of their activities, hoping that the purposes and ideals of sororities and sorority life will not be misinterpreted by the public," the letter states. It goes on to add, "Penalties will be exacted against the University chapters of any sorority violating these rules." It then thanks us for our "understanding and valued cooperation."

The Council may have our co-operation but it certainly doesn't have our understanding. This is the smuggest way of news censoring we have yet seen. It is the duty of a hometown paper to tell the folks back home what their daughters and neighbor's daughters are doing. We doubt seriously if the sororities are doing anything they should be ashamed of, and we certainly don't like the threat—not against our paper but against the individual student—that is annually made.

Sometimes we think the University of Texas is getting to big for its britches.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baines of Odessa, and their grandson Ronnie, were in the office the other day to subscribe for the paper. They are making their summer home at Lake Leon on the Adams subdivision. Exes of Eastland, they urged any of their friends to drop by and talk over old times. They were both reared here; she's the former Lula (Continued On Page Four)

League Leaders Handed Losses In Little League

Things began to get interesting in Eastland Little League Thursday night as two upsets were scored. To start the night off the Lions knocked off the league-leading Comets, 6-3, and then in the second game of the evening the last place Medics spanked the second place Bulldogs, 18-10.

Bubba Hunter was back in old form as he limited the Comets to five scattered hits and collected two hits in three at bats. His teammates got him off to a good start in the initial frame with Tim Stacy doubling and Hayden Wilson getting a bingle as the Lions scored four big runs. The victors added two more counters in the second inning and then rode out their six run lead to win. Losing pitcher was John Yancey, who lost despite a four hit performance.

The Bulldogs got a head by a score of 6-3 at the end of two innings but the Medics roared back to bring home 15 more runs to outscore the Rotary team. Terry Treadwell was the winner. Jim Moylan was the loser. Moylan replaced Jim Baccus in the fourth.

Ex-Movie Star Back For School Reunion

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Movie goers of the golden days back to the "talkies", thrilled to the performances of a young Eastland girl named Eureka Drake. And since those days Eureka has kept much of her charming manners and looks.

Now Mrs. P. D. Ferguson of Taylor, the ex-movie picture star was one of the hundreds of ex-students of Eastland High School back in town for the giant re-union Saturday.

Recalling her days in Hollywood, which she gave up to marry and

"settle down a bit," Mrs. Ferguson smiled and said, "Of course my husband says I didn't have to give up movies just because they started talking." And indeed the carbon-born woman is quite a talker, as was many another ex-student Saturday.

Eureka, who is less than five feet tall, met her husband when he was in Eastland as office manager for the Gulf Oil Co. back in 1919. "He said I fell in love with his fancy coat," she likes to say.

They were married at one of the most unusual weddings ever held in Eastland. The wedding took place on the front balcony of the Church of Christ, before an altar banked with flowers, the pair became man and wife just as the sun rose over the hills. "At Dawning" was sung by a close friend. The wedding took place on Mrs. Ferguson's birthday, which was,

Jumbos Lose To Cisco; Game Is Set for Tonight

Eastland Jumbos dropped a 12-5 decision to Cisco Friday night as the local hurlers couldn't find the plate.

The visitors got only five hits, but they were given enough free bases to run up the big score. Gene Theford was the winner and Mike Porter the losing pitcher.

Mike Manning got a home run for the White Elephant team and Clint Humphrey singled.

Tonight (Saturday) the Eastland National Bank Greenbacks play the Eastland Blue Sox at 8 p.m. in Firemen's Field. A free savings Bond will be given away.

Michael Smith Is Scottish Rite Hospital Patient

Michael A. Smith, 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Smith of Olden, was admitted on May 29, to the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas.

Texas Scottish Rite Masons founded the hospital thirty-three years ago in an effort to provide a chance at a normal life for the handicapped child. The hospital, which is supported by public contributions and bequests, has accepted almost 100,000 children for treatment since 1925.

An expert staff, plus unique physical facilities and devoted interest in the welfare of the child, make the Scottish Rite Hospital an outstanding treatment center which serves the entire state.

Sheriff's Posse To Ride Tuesday In Baird Parade

Members of the Eastland County Sheriff's Posse will ride in the Baird Rodeo parade Tuesday afternoon.

Lured by a purse of more than $5,000, America's top cowboys are preparing to converge on Baird June 18, 19 and 20 to compete in the 12th Annual Callahan County Sheriff's Posse Rodeo.

Scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights, the Baird show is carded between the Big Spring and San Saba rodeos, both of which are week end affairs. Many of the nation's top-ranking cowboys have signified their intentions to enter all three shows to build-up points for the coveted world's championship awards made each year by the Rodeo Cowboys Association of America.

Expected to head the group moving on Baird are: Harry Tompkins, of Dublin, former world champion cowpoke who is currently in third place for 1957 and is leading the bareback bronc riding division; Jim Shoulders, Henrietta, Oklahoma, who is presently leading in the all-round cowboy class and the bull riding as well, and Guy Weeks, of Abilene (Continued on Page 2)

County Dies Natural Death Abilene Attorneys Frown

(An Editorial)

The bill introduced by Rep. Paul Brashear to add two counties to the 91st District Court has died a natural death. Apparently you can credit this to the veto stuck onto the bill by Taylor County attorneys, who seem to want a clogged up court in which they can delay their so-called justice.

Although the bill was passed in the House, it never seemed to lift its head in the Senate. We would like to have seen a little more active support for it there, especially by our own senator. However, we fully credit the bill's untimely death to the lawyers of Abilene, which is apparently becoming more and more a city which feels it must rule this area.

It seems to us that more than the Taylor County Bar Association should be consulted. For after all, who has more reason to want a trial delayed, unless perhaps it is the defendant, than the members of that Association?

Daily Menu for National Guard Like Super Mk't

Word received here from Headquarters 49th Armored Division, Fort Hood, Texas, where the Ranger National Guard unit is undergoing a two-weeks summer training sessions, says it takes on a complete supermarket store a day to feed the 9,200-man outfit.

According to the quartermaster battalion commander, here is how the food is parceled out: milk, 18,062 pints daily; bread, 1,980 loaves; eggs, 1,500 dozen; potatoes, 2150 pounds; peas, 170 gallons; chicken, 5,400 pounds and beef, 3,050 pounds.

Of course, the items mentioned are just some of the larger ones and do not include hundreds of pounds of coffee and sugar, truck loads of fruits, breakfast foods, butter, jelly, peanut butter, cold cuts and a thousand and one other articles of food that is needed to keep an army moving.

"If this division marches on its stomach it's a full one," quipped Maj. Frank McFarland Jr., of Austin, quartermaster commander.

Vannamar. They tell us they may spend more and more time here in future years.

Which makes us think that it would be wonderful if a lot of the visiting ex-students would do the same. Get 'em a lot on Lake Leon, we mean. Sure would be nice if they could spend their vacation back home every year.
