Farmers Urged to Get Castor Bean Seed Early

Approximately 20,000 pounds of castor bean seed have been received for planting in Collingsworth county and the area immediately adjacent, Frank Kennedy of Quail, one of those pushing the project, has announced.

This is sufficient seed to plant approximately 2,500 acres, although it is approximately 10,000 pounds less than was expected here. The seed is being made available to growers here through the Baker Castor Oil Company, who in turn have contracted the seed crop for 1951. Approximately 5,600 pounds has been distributed already.

Mr. Kennedy is urging all county farmers who intend planting castor beans this year to get their seed as early as possible, since numerous calls are coming in from Gray, Wheeler, Childress and Harmon counties, and any seed not bought by local farmers will be turned loose to growers in these counties.

"As far as we are concerned, castor bean seed production here is out of the experimental stage and is accepted as a money crop. There are a number of new growers, however, to whom growing this particular crop will be an experiment, but we got the information from last year's crop that we needed to establish that castor beans can be grown profitably in the sandy-land area," Mr. Kennedy said.

The cost of the planting seed this year is 14 cents per pound, and eight pounds of seed per acre is recommended this year. This is less than the rate of planting for the 1950 crop, when a number of growers found their stands were too thick. These seed are selected and treated. The government guarantees growers a price of $10.00 per hundred on their harvested seed, although the present price is $12.50 per hundred, Mr. Kennedy said.

Growing last year was confined principally to the sandy areas around Quail, but this year a number of farmers east and southeast of Wellington are planning to plant castor beans, Mr. Kennedy said. Few if any acreages will exceed 50 acres. Among the larger growers will be Cecil White, 50 acres; W. E. Tucker, 50; J. W. Stanton, 37; Zeb Neeley, 25; and Lonnie Neeley, 25, all in the Quail area; and John Puryear and Mr. Duvall, 50 acres each. The latter live east of Wellington.

Higher yields are expected from this year's crop, Mr. Kennedy commented, since the growers know more about their crop and optimistically, they are counting on better weather conditions than those of 1950. The yield from the first crop grown here averaged 248 pounds of harvested seed per acre, with the individual yields ranging from 29 to 840 pounds.

Rockets Open Spring Training on Thursday

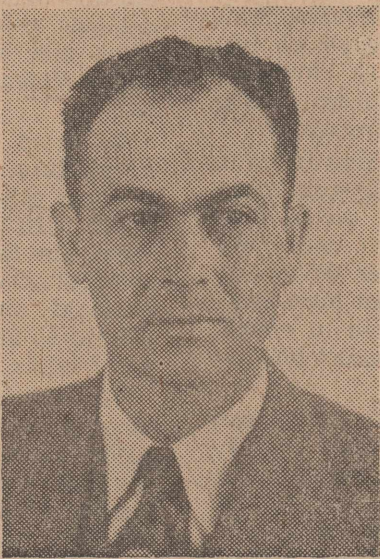

Approximately 85 boys, members of the Skyrocket A and B squads last fall, will report Thursday, April 19, for the first spring football practice the school has had in recent years, Coach Maxey McKnight reported this week.

All other athletic activity around the school stops with the opening of spring training, and Coach McKnight will be assisted by Coaches Donald Briggs, John Lee and Aubrey Frazier. Training continues 30 calendar days, closing May 19.

Spring football training was stopped several years ago by interscholastic league regulations, but with the revamping of the districts and shifting of schools among the various classes this year, the practice was reinstated for this season.

Fourteen lettermen will be on the field Thursday, McKnight said. In the backfield will be Tommy Wood and John Gibson, regular starters in the 1950 season, and Virgil White, Harold Wayne Moore, Tommy Beam and Clyde Ingram. Lettermen in the line will be Seldon Wood, Farrell Kent and Vesta Lee Orr, starters, and Carroll Duncan, Dan Jameson, Charles Johnson, Wayne Gray and Kenneth Covey.

Up from B squad, half a dozen youngsters are looking good to McKnight and others on the coaching staff. There's Floyd Hood, Harley McKinney, Lonnie Wood, Doolen Starkey, Jimmy Leggett Collingsworth county's four banks this week reported deposits that stand well above the six and a quarter million dollar mark, and while this is below the January 1 figure, it stands second high in the county's financial history for this time of year. Only the deposits of a year ago exceeded the present figure.

A call from the Comptroller of Currency, State Banking Commissioner and Federal Land Bank on April 9 showed deposits of $6,886,167.

Deposits a year ago were $6,793,145. The present figure, is around a million dollars above the deposits of two years ago, $5,389,784.

Deposits in January of this year were $7,525,236.

Combined assets on April 9 were $6,981,538.74. A year ago they were $7,353,131, but two years ago they were $5,920,441.

Loans and discounts are down from last year, now standing at $2,822,972.56, compared to $3,808,291 a year ago and $2,586,983 two years ago.

Undivided profits now are $133,761.82, the highest recently, compared to $128,497 a year ago and $87,594 two years ago.

At the opening of 1951, the county's bank deposits stood above $7,000,000, and ten days later they had risen to an even higher figure of $7,849,679.

Combined assets of the banks January 1 were $8,091,249. Loans and discounts were $2,434,484; and undivided profits were $104,398.

The drop during the past three months, however, is seasonal and to be expected normally.

Black Cats Open Season Sunday

The Wellington Black Cats open the baseball season Sunday, April 22, in a game with Hobart at the Fair Ground here, Earl Shamblee, manager, has announced.

The game will be called at 3:00 p.m. and white friends of the team are invited out.

"Hobart has always had a good team. I saw them play Sunday and they weren't so good, but they didn't have some of their best players," Shamblee said.

One of the Cats better players, A. B. Bishop, shortstop for several years, will probably be in the game Sunday, but he leaves Monday to be inducted into the Army. B. C. Hall, the team's best fielder, is out of town and Shamblee isn't sure if he will be back in time for the opening game.

Others who will be seeing action are Little Jack, J. B. Ford, Howard Jackson, and Tol Kilgore Jr. A number of youngsters are on this year's team.

"The Chamber of Commerce and the merchants of the town have helped us get started this year, and we appreciate this very much," Shamblee said.

MacArthur Comes Home

A week has passed in which to assess the dismissal of General MacArthur from his post in the Far East, and while there has been a little simmering down of tempers, the essential questions posed at that time remain unchanged. There has been little realignment of opinion, either locally or nationally.

So far as his rights as Commander-in-Chief are concerned, it is conceded that President Truman acted within them. But there stands beside this the fact that the man he fired probably knows as does no other Westerner the situation in the Orient. No one knows the working of the Eastern mind so well. Indeed, it may be that some of General MacArthur's trouble stems from the fact that he knows the Eastern mind better than he does the Western mind. But beyond doubt, no American has the stature in the eyes of the Orientals that he has.

More personally, there is the feeling that if MacArthur had to be relieved of his command, there were ways of doing it without humiliating the greatest living military genius before the entire world.

Surely Washington did not think it could write an unspectacular end to the most spectacular military career in recent history. And General MacArthur, who has been accused of having an over developed sense of the dramatic, could not have imagined an exit from military life in which the spotlight of the world was more brightly upon him.

The leavetaking which the Japanese gave this man who was once their enemy, and whom they had come to venerate as they do their own emperor, was that of the departing hero. This same welcome awaited him as he traveled eastward—at Honolulu and San Francisco, and within a few days, New York. Nowhere along the way has there been anything suggestive of a man who has just been fired from his job.

Within the next few days, America will hear General MacArthur's presentation of his side of the question. Beyond a doubt, his position has been a peculiar one. Called upon to fight a military campaign upon a political basis, along policy formed by not one but several nations, it is putting it lightly to say he was fighting in the dark. This is especially true when one member of the body whose armies he commands is that nation which America recognizes as the aggressor in the War which General MacArthur has been fighting.

Certainly, the Truman-MacArthur situation has stirred up controversy in a day when unity is desperately needed.

Farmer Again to be Key For War Production Needs

The cotton supply and demand situation is not the only one that has changed since the outbreak of the war in Korea. Agricultural economists now predict something like a record demand for agricultural commodities of all kinds for the next several years. There are no food shortages of any kind now in prospect, but neither is there prospect of any more considerable surpluses. Farmers will be able to dispose of all they can produce and can be fairly sure of good prices.

That applies not only to the cotton farmer, but to the dairyman, the beef producer, the swine grower, the corn farmer, and farmers in general. Prospects for the rice farmers are considerably better than a few months ago. And while the sugar market depends considerable on federal regulations and international agreements, the sugar farmers' outlook should improve, too.

In short the outlook is for expanding agriculture. Louisiana farmers and those of every other state can face the next few years with confidence, from that point of view. The farmer will be a key man in the national defense program and in the international situation, producing the food needed to keep America strong and to aid our friends in other countries.

The agricultural experts in Washington already are talking about the possibility of record food production in 1951. Given reasonably good weather, records will be broken. More than once in the past, farmers have risen to such an occasion as this. They will do it again. They will do so not merely because of the cash incentive, but also to meet the need of their country.

Religion Must Be Returned to the Home

It has almost reached the point where a man who can remember sitting around the table with his brothers and sisters while father read the scriptures can immediately be tagged as a product of the horse and buggy age.

Family Bible discussions are fast becoming a thing of the past. And the home, once a place of peace and purpose, as well as pleasure, now stands dedicated to a 24-hour-a-day merry-go-round of media. The living room's walls have become a sounding board for radio, a backdrop of television and a screen for home movies.

In many home there is recognition of religion at all.

How can godless parents hope to raise God-fearing, and, more importantly, God-loving, children? How can we who have placed so much emphasis upon being entertained with a minimum of ingenuity question the values of the younger generation.

These are serious questions that must be answered with truth and action.

One answer lies in diligently teaching our children the great truths and principles of religion as devout Jews were enjoined to do in the sixth chapter of Deuteronomy.

Parents must set an example by obeying the ancient commandment to think of God's will "when thou liest down and when thou risest up." It was the constant acknowledgement of this impressive exhortation that enabled the Jewish people to survive centuries of suffering and persecution.

We cannot view the future of our country hopefully until family religious discussions are once again an established practice.

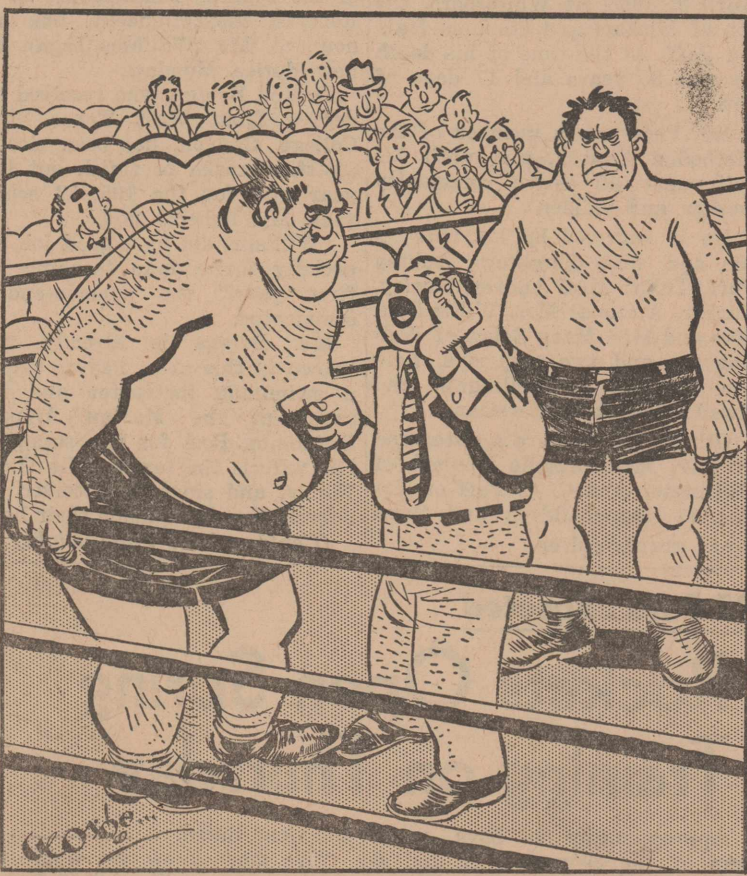

Nor can we have faith in the ability of our youth to distinguish right from wrong until we have introduced them to the Bible's exemplary parables, beautiful psalms, and books of historic truth.

GRAND OPENING

of Wellington's Finest New Service Station and Oil Company

Monday, April 23

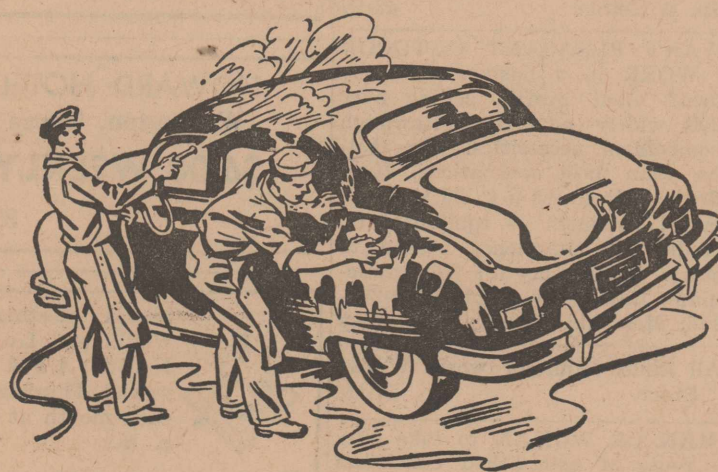

Come To See Us!

Have your oil changed regularly. Bring your car around to Holton's for some smooth, spring-weight oils to replace your sludge-filled winter lubricants. You'll get lots of smooth driving through the warm months ahead.

Washing your windshield and side windows, polishing off your headlights—checking your tires, these are just a few of the courteous service that you get every time you drive your car into our station.

We offer one of the finest car-washing services in Wellington. We are specially equipped to clean your car thoroughly, inside and outside, and underneath, where the dirt doesn't show but where it hurts your car.

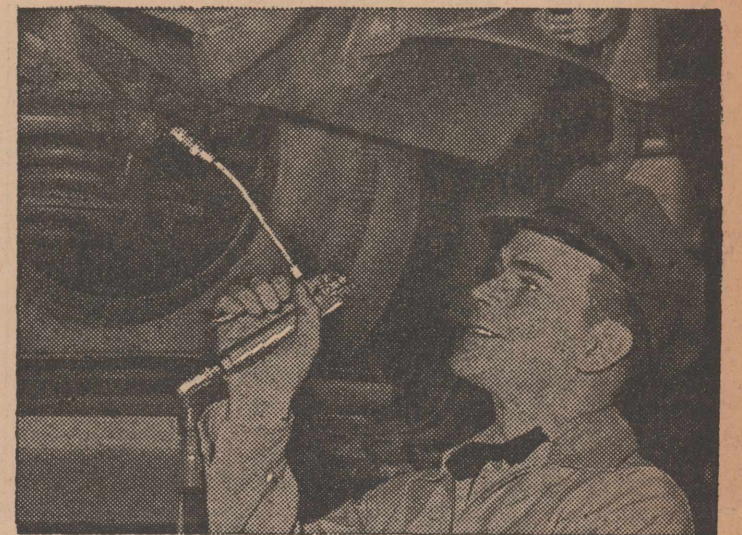

This is a cordial invitation to our many friends to visit us in our new home at the Grand Opening, Monday, April 23.

We are immediately across the street from our old location on Eighth Street where so many of you have received our fine, courteous service—where you have made your auto service headquarters for so long.

Our new building, much larger than our old quarters, will enable us to serve you better than we ever have. We have more room to work in, it will be more convenient for you. We built this new building with your needs and your convenience in mind. Now we want you to come and see it.

It may be a few days before everything is straightened up—and before the new street in front of our building is completed. But with your friendly understanding, you won't mind that.

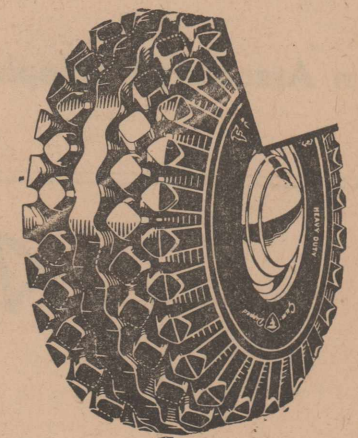

Lubrication is part of the life of your car. Let our trained servicemen spring-lubricate your car to insure months of safe, happy driving for you.

Our Service Station

There's no finer service station in Collingsworth County than the new Holton Auto Store. Here at the sign of the red and green triangle, you will find plenty of room—six pumps to give you quick service; a car wash room with the latest equipment; a grease rack that enables us to give your car the most thorough job of lubrication possible.

Foremost, we are a service station, but we also feature a complete line of Firestone tires and tubes, seat covers, and other accessories such as you would expect of a first-class auto store. These are in addition to our services of washing, greasing, and the extra care given in servicing your car every time you bring it to us.

Firestone

Tires are more valuable than ever. Take care of yours. Let us check your tires regularly and rotate them at the proper mileage to equalize the wear. You'll get miles and miles more wear from the tires you now have on your car.

Thanks Friends

It is your cooperation and patronage through the years that has made it possible to build this business. We are sincerely appreciative.

Continental Oil Co.

The wholesale and retail offices of the Continental Oil Company and Holton Butane have always been in the Holton Auto Store and this arrangement is continuing.

In our new building, the oil company and butane office will be housed in a separate office, but still under the same roof as the Auto Store. We believe this will be more convenient for our many customers, particularly the farmers who buy gasoline and butane in large quantities for delivery to their places.

Funeral for W. P. Davis, Longtime Educator, Held

Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church Thursday, April 12, for W. P. Davis, a retired teacher and a resident of Collingsworth County for the past 32 years. Mr. Davis had been in poor health for the past several months, but became critically ill about four days before his death. He died at his home here April 10 at the age of 82.

Mr. Davis, a native of Texas, was born at Lufkin the son of James and Sarah Renolds Davis on March 24, 1869. His parents, staunch believers in education, prepared to give their son the best that was possible. He began school at an early age and went through high school at Lufkin. He later attended Southwestern University at Georgetown, where he received his bachelor of science and his master of arts degrees.

He taught his first school at Farry, Texas. He also taught a number of schools in East Texas before coming to the Panhandle. He has taught in Childress County at Loco, Clarendon, Hamilton, Buck Creek, Quail, Mobetie, and at Lufkin, the place of his birth. His last school was in Beulah, where he served as superintendent.

Mr. Davis became a member of the Methodist Church at an early age, and worked and prayed to become a person of stronger faith. He preached a number of years while he taught school. If he was teaching in a community where there was no pastor, he was only too willing to fill the pulpit to spread the word of God, just as he carried on a crusade for education.

The Methodist Church has had few so devout members as W. P. Davis, who was in regular attendance in spite of his poor health. His pastor, the Rev. L. L. Hill, officiated at the funeral.

A trained geologist, Mr. Davis was a firm believer in the oil that must be under Panhandle soil. He worked for a number of oil companies, and so diligent was his efforts, that the oil companies have taken an interest in leasing and drilling on Collingsworth County soil. Although he never lived to see oil spring forth from the land, he truly left his mark in his efforts to bring this about.

Active pall bearers for Mr. Davis included R. R. Crawley, John Forbis, E. F. Bartlett, Earl Alexander, W. C. Long, and G. B. Hopper. Flower bearers were Betty Wood, Shirley Agee, Ella Hill, Ruth Rogers, Georgia Nell Gal-yeau, and Tanya Smith.

Honorary pall bearers were friends of Mr. Davis whom he had known since he first came to this county, and included Percy Wells, Walter Franks, Fletcher Curry, A. G. Tyler, S. B. Owens, J. B.

DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

W. N. McCarver who has been taking care of my yard for the past six years is moving to Kirkland where he will be near his son, Esdel. He is one of the finest old men that I ever knew. His health and strength have not been too good during the last six months, and I think it is better that he will be near relatives who can look after him. We are going to miss him more than words can say; but we intend to be seeing him from time to time, for our son Henry thinks that Mr. and Mrs. McCarver are his grandparents. All of us will miss them.

Charles Allen comes up with a statement that is an index of the times. He went out to sell brush cutters to farmers who had shinnery and sagebrush. The cutters do work. He went to see ten well to do farmers and presented his machinery. Five of the ten asked if the Government paid for it. He informed them that they would have to pay for it themselves and they told him that they were not interested if the Government would not pay for it.

Charles did not ask for it, but I do ask how is individual freedom, free enterprise and our way of life that has made the highest standard of living ever known in the world before to survive if that sort of thinking of getting something for nothing continues to grow and expand.

You don't get anything for nothing. What the bureaucrats give the farmers, they take away in taxes. But they take much more.

Dr. E. W. Jones has directed me to go and see a specialist. It has to do with a condition that arises in fair skinned people who live in our West Texas sun and wind. Ben Hurst and others have the same trouble. But in the course of the conversation, Dr. Jones got to talking about specialists in the medical field and in newspaper work. He told me that I knew the weekly field like a country doctor knew his patients. To practice he had to know all about them and to be willing to try to help them. On the other hand he pointed out a daily newspaperman is a specialist. He might be a total failure in the weekly field just as a specialist would be at a loss in the practice of general medicine.

How right you are, Dr. Jones. That is exactly the thought I gave a group of hopeful journalists in Norman, Oklahoma, last week.

My admiration for the old country doctor such as Dr. Jones was when he was a young man passes no bounds. They learned about general medicine by sitting at the bedside of the patients. They traveled over icy roads, got stuck in sand dunes and still managed to have a professional manner at the bedside that few specialists of the present day can ever hope to possess. They were great and they were original. Some of their qualities need to be reincarnated on the medical scene in America today.

DEFROSTED—"Deep Freeze" woman Dorothy Mae Stevens recently set up for the first time since being brought to a Chicago Hospital February 8. When admitted, she had a body temperature of 64 degrees, the lowest ever recorded. Surgeons had to amputate her feet, ankles, and all fingers, except her left thumb.

Many people have talked to me about the number of men who have died from heart attacks. It is startling. Why not support the heart drive when it comes?

Personally I am more interested in cancer. One out of three families will have some member die as the result of cancer if the present trend continues. The Cancer Drive is on at the present time.

The paper won a couple of prizes at the annual meeting of the Panhandle Press Association. The odd item is that we did not send in any entries. Lester Campbell, an old Wellington boy, entered them for us. We won first on column writing and second on press work. The man that beat us on press work was none other than Ted Rogers, foreman of The Wellington Leader during the war years.

Professor John Casey of the University of Oklahoma, recently wrote Louise; "I regard The Wellington Leader as one of the best weeklies in America and make frequent use of it in my classes."

Well, I will see you next week after I get my cheeks burned off or something.

In the meantime all of us can be thinking of how comfortable it is to have the British Socialist Government making the main decisions for our own State Department while 60,000 American casualties have been suffered in the Korean War in which our forces were restrained by a "limited war."

Little Red Riding Hood

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY, APRIL 27

Children of the third and fourth grades will present the annual Elementary school operetta, "Little Red Riding Hood" at the high school auditorium Friday night, April 27, Mrs. Rex Joyner, director, announced this week.

Approximately 150 boys and girls of the two grades will take part, telling the well-loved fairy tale by song.

Nelda Greeson has the leading role as Little Red Riding Hood; while Harriet Leonhardt is the grandmother; Carol Nunneley the wolf and J. Frank Garrison the woodsman.

Other fairy tale characters enter this version of the story, and these include Little Bo-Peep, played by Barbara Bruce; Little Miss Muffet, Alicia Ham; the spider, Stanton Trimble; Little Jack Horner, Michael Monroe; and Jack and Jill, who are Sandra White and Sherry Smith. Marjorie, Sandra Cooper, is Little Red Riding Hood's playmate.

In addition there will be the fourteen little bunnies who sing "Here We Dance Looby Loo;" a chorus of eight playmates of Little Red Riding Hood; and the regular chorus of 125 boys and girls.

The operetta has four scenes: opening in a lovely meadow, then going on to the wooded path where the famous meeting of Red Riding Hood and the wolf takes place; then to the Grandmother's cottage. The last scene is inside the cottage.

Songs will include "Come Away," "Children of Mother Goose," "I'm Little Riding Hood," "Here We Dance Looby Loo," "For Three Days I've Had No Food," "Little Flower," "When I Was a Girl," and the finale.

Assisting Mrs. Joyner in directing the operetta are Mrs. Gus Barton, Miss Christine Cooper, Miss Sara Jones, Mrs. R. N. Barnett and Donald Green.

Mothers of the children are making the brilliant operetta costumes.

What's Wrong With Fri. 13th...

Friday the 13th — good or bad? Max H. Graben, owner of the Wellington Machine Shop and one of Wellington's best pilots, doesn't think it matters. He gives this account of a trip involving that date:

"I grabbed a handful of bus tickets and went to Omaha, Nebraska, after the airplane I had seen advertised. Not thinking about the time on a bus, I had in mind to go at night and fly back next day. So I got there at 2:30 a.m. the second night and the next day was Friday the 13th.

"It had been snowing all day in Kansas City, where we had a 7-hour layover after missing the bus connection there. It was also snowing at Omaha.

"I took off at noon from Omaha after the boys at the airport tried to tell me about Friday the 13th and the snow and sleet. All I had was the carburetor icing three or four times until I reached the upper air out of the moisture. Then sailing was good. I landed once at Salina, Kansas, and came on home in four hours and 10 minutes.

"Wellington to Omaha — 29 hours and 45 minutes. Omaha to Wellington — 4 hours, 10 minutes.

"I really enjoyed the trip back since I have never noticed anything different about Friday the 13th."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Amarillo spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Sally Killingsworth, who has been ill, and her sister, Myrtle Ray.

Quail Seniors Give "Just Ducky" On April 27

The senior class of Quail High School presents the annual play April 27, 7:30 p.m., in the Quail high school gym. This year's production, "Just Ducky," a comedy in three acts, is an uproarious example of family life.

The Maxwells with their three problem children are far from the perfect family that the Citizens Committee of that fair and wonderful city represents them to be.

When two fourteen year old girls get their heads together to send a fake problem to an editor of the local column of the local newspaper, there is much misunderstanding, tears and heartaches for the girls, a romance for Connie and Craig, and a hired and fired experience for Mr. Maxwell.

The cast for the play includes: R. C. Owen as Mr. Maxwell, Zella Prince as Mrs. Maxwell, Juanita Tipton as Betty Lou, Reba O'Hair as Bernadine, Gene Robertson as Wilbur, Paul Spear as Hercules, Helen Wischkaemper as Connie, George Stephens as Craig Moor, Jack Aaron as Mr. Moore, Buddy Price as Del Marshall, Ruth Koen as Aunt Mary and Mary Robinson as Miss Blayne.

Cpl. Guy Owens Home From Korea

Cpl. Guy Owens, who reached San Francisco March 25 from Korea, has been visiting relatives here since April 1.

Cpl. Owens was called into active service in September and three months later he was sent to Korea, assigned to an escort guard company of the 8th Army.

This unit handled prisoners taken by the U. N. troops.

Cpl. Owens reported that most of these were Korean soldiers, but toward the end of his stay there, they began handling Chinese prisoners. Ten thousand of the prisoners taken had once been with the South Korean troops.

This is the young soldier's second period of war service. He was in the European theatre during World War II, serving two years in England and six months in France and Germany.

His wife has continued to make her home in Wellington while he was in Korea and is employed in the PMA office.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hodge and Mr. and Mrs. John D. King attended the Crosey Carnival held at Hollis Saturday night.

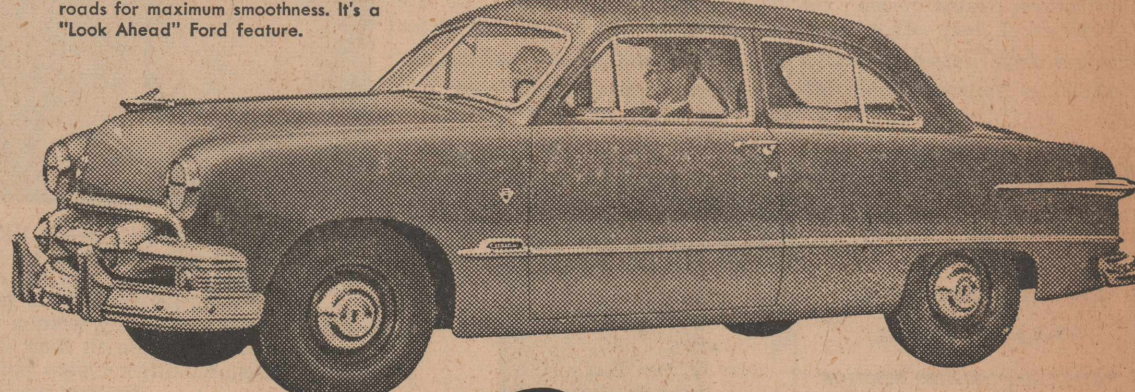

Mrs. Frank Coleman is a medical patient in St. Joseph Hospital this week.

John Coleman was in Lubbock Thursday to attend a co-ordinators directors of the veteran schools of this district. The purpose of the meeting was to plan the program for 1951 and 1952 for the veterans schools of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. U. O. Jett of Shamrock visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Bishop, and sisters, Eva and Dona, Sunday.

"ALWAYS THE BEST FOR LESS"

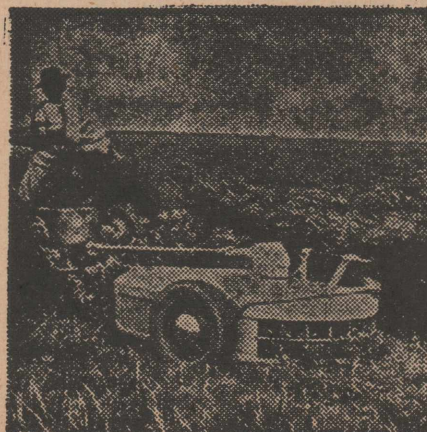

Now is the Time to Kill Sage & Shinnery ROTOCYCLE Stalk Cutter

America's Outstanding Power Cutter
Cuts, Shreds and Distributes

Ideal for Pest Control and Land Clearing

The new ROTOCYCLE is the power cutter that economically cuts all stalks. It's the ideal machine for controlling the CORN BORER, PINK BOLL WORM, and other larvae. The horizontal revolving blades cut and shred green or dead stalks with equal ease, destroying larvae at the same time. And the finely cut pieces are easier to plow under for sure-death to borer larvae that can't live under ground. Cut stalks and leaves decompose more quickly too, enriching the soil with nitrogen and other food values in the plowed under material. ROTOCYCLE is designed to be drawn and powered by any tractor. Power shaft has standard 1 1/4" take-off coupling and is adjustable in length. The cutting blade is easily adjusted to desired height by simply turning the adjusting crank.

News Letter

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS

Impeachment of the President: My office has received approximately 100 telegrams signed by approximately 150 people. I have also received approximately 100 letters and about 15 personal telephone calls concerning the action of the President in relieving General MacArthur of his command. Out of all of these communications there were approximately five that approved the action of the President. Almost all the others demanded the impeachment of the President, Dean Acheson and various other civil officers. These communications came from the 18th District. I had other communications from outside the District totalling approximately fifty. These were divided in approximately the same ratio. The offices of other congressmen have also been flooded by these communications, most of them expressing heated disapproval of the President's action in this respect. This overwhelming expression of the sentiment of the people affords an excellent opportunity for any man in public office to play politics and to appeal to the aroused emotions of the people. Many have succumbed to this temptation and are attempting to use this serious situation as a political football. This I cannot conscientiously do, as indignant as I might feel about the action and as aroused as my emotions might be under the cir-

KNOWS HIS APPLES—In the way of low-cut necklines, this is something no man ought to try on the little woman. Cabaret performer Georg Gladis, age 46, can get away with it because he's an expert swordsman and his female partner has great confidence in him. There are many women who might lose their head if hubby tried to slice an apple on their throat. But Georg knows his Adam's apples from his other apples. He'll prove this to Americans when he finishes his tour of Germany.

cumstances. If there was ever a time in the history of this country when cool, calm and collected deliberation was needed in the Congress, it is now. I sincerely regret that the action was taken and I pray to God that our position and our way of life will not be jeopardized by it. General MacArthur is an outstanding military genius. This no one can deny, not even the President. He was a military official, and under the Constitution and laws of our Government, he was and is subject to the orders of the civilian officials. However erroneous, however unsound or mistaken those orders might be, they are not grounds for impeachment. The American people are entitled to know the truth as it is written in the law and the Constitution. The provision of the Constitution providing for the impeachment of the President, Vice-President and other civil officers, Article II, Section 4, is as follows: "The President, Vice-President and all civil officers of the United States shall be removed from office on impeachment for a conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

The order of the President relieving MacArthur of his command was within his constitutional powers, and cannot, standing alone, constitute grounds for impeachment under the Constitution. If the President of the United States, or any other civil officer, is guilty of any act that comes within the provisions of the above quoted Section of the Constitution, impeachment proceedings should be instituted without delay and prosecuted forthwith. I can tell you that every act of the President of the United States since his induction into office has been thoroughly and searchingly examined in an effort to discover grounds upon which impeachment proceedings could be instituted, and the same is true of Dean Acheson and the other public officials in the Administration. There is no doubt that such proceedings would meet the requirements of the Constitution. If there is a citizen of the United States anywhere who has any evidence upon which a public official could be impeached, it is his bounden duty as an American citizen to come forward with it and let the law take its course, let the chips fall where they may. At any time such information or evidence comes into my hands or to my knowledge I will consider it an honor to institute impeachment proceedings against the offending party, whether he be the President of the United States, or the lowest public official in our Government, regardless of his party affiliations. I have discussed the matter at length with members of both parties who have been in Congress for the past seven years and who have done a great deal of work on this subject, and not one of them has furnished me with any evidence of any facts of this nature that would come within the purview of the Constitution, and they have stated to me that it is their opinion that the facts they have uncovered would not be sufficient upon which to base such a course of proceedings.

I shall cast my vote for a resolution inviting General MacArthur to appear before a joint meeting of Congress, and will look forward to hearing a full discussion of his views. The Congress is entitled to this and the American people are entitled to it. This is no time for partisan politics. We are at the cross-roads, and the issue is clearly cut. It is Americanism versus Communism.

SAMNORWOOD BY MRS. C. W. Fritts

Most of the farmers are busy chiseling, one-way or listing their land. Some have been over their land two or three times.

The high winds Tuesday and Wednesday didn't help the wheat that is trying to live.

H. C. Morrow has had a new water well drilled on his farm four miles south of Norwood. The old well which had been in use 44 years, went dry. The Morrow farm was settled by the L. M. Montgomery family in 1907.

Mrs. C. W. Fritts returned to her home last Wednesday from Lubbock, where she had visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shirley, and helped care for their brother, Ernest Ming, who is seriously ill with cancer in the Shirley home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fritts were called to Lubbock Sunday. Mrs. Fritts will go back next week for an indefinite stay.

M. A. Craven received a painfully sprained ankle Tuesday while helping Superintendent Orville Cunningham with some plumbing on his farm house west of Norwood.

The Plymouth Cemetery was worked the fourth by a group of folks. They made the cemetery look much better, but it still needs more work.

State Workers Needed Now

Chas. S. Gardiner, Director of the Merit System Council, stated today that the state agencies served by the Council are in need of trained and capable workers. There is a continuing need, he declared, for ambitious and capable workers to carry on the work in these agencies.

Gardiner announced that the Merit System is giving competitive examinations for Field Workers, Child Welfare Workers, Junior Stenographers, Clerk-Typists, Clerks, and Intake Receptionists in the State Welfare Department. There is an especially great need for stenographers, he added. Examinations will also be given for Key Punch Operator II, Tabulating Machine Operator II, and Maintenance Mechanic in the Texas Employment Commission.

These examinations will be held in up to 45 cities over the state on May 12. Gardiner warned, however, that applications must be sent in before midnight, April 21.

Qualifications for these positions range from high school graduation to college graduation. Appropriate experience may be substituted for the education in most cases.

Gardiner called attention to the special advantages of working under the Merit System. These include liberal vacation and sick leave, permanency of work, and promotion based upon quality of work performed.

Gardiner particularly urged high school or college seniors to apply for these positions, declaring that in this way they could get started on a career of profitable, interesting, and useful work.

Application blanks for the examinations may be obtained at the local offices of the Texas Employment Commission and the State Department of Public Welfare, or by writing to the Merit System Council, 1000 San Antonio Street, Austin, Texas.

Magician at High School April 26

Loring Campbell, nationally known magician, will appear at Wellington high school Thursday morning, April 26, at 9:00 a.m., Howard Oliphint, principal, has announced.

This entertainment is open to the public and there is no charge, Mr. Oliphint said.

Soil is sacred—let's treat it as such.

"Frenchie" to Introduce New Glamor Gladiators

Introducing Hollywood's newest glamor gladiators — Shelley Winters and Marie Windsor.

The feminine foes square off against each other — with no holds barred — in Universal-International's Technicolor "Frenchie," starring Miss Winters with Joel McCrea and showing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, April 18, 19, and 20, at the Ritz Theatre.

The barroom battle, which is a highlight of the new action-film, posed an important problem to Director Louis King. He sought the advice of many authorities in the film industry as to whether women should emulate men in their film fights — or whether they should go at it in much the identical manner of a pair of wildcats.

One school of thought maintained that a battle between dames is not the real McCoy unless hair is pulled, fingernails are broken, knees are bruised, skin is scratched and arms are waving like windmills.

It was with that premise in mind that Director King filmed the fight sequence for "Frenchie." Studio oldtimers who viewed the rushes claimed it overshadowed the historic battle staged by Marlene Dietrich and Una Merkel in "Destry Rides Again" which, incidentally, was filmed on the very same sound stage.

Shelley and Marie spent a total of three entire days locked in combat before the Technicolor cameras. When the final day was completed the pair retired to the studio First Aid department where their bruises and scratches were given professional attention.

Strictly wildcat also was the fight scenes staged between Rosalind Russell and Paulette Goddard in "The Women." Susan Hayward and Marsha Hunt also staged a bruising session in "Smash-Up—The Story of a Woman."

Although there is a strong group in Hollywood that still clings to the fight-like-a-man school for feminine stars the cast and crew of "Frenchie" was solid in its belief that fingernails are far fiercer than fists when females fight for the films.

"Frenchie" features Paul Kelly, Elsa Lanchester, Marie Windsor, John Russell and John Emery. Michel Kraike produced.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cochran, Mrs. Ruth Cochran, and Mrs. Joe Hemphill spent the week end in Madill, Oklahoma, with Mrs. Cochran's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sterling.

TO SAVE ANOTHER—Mrs. Mary Virginia Jones, whose husband was killed in the Korean War, donated a pint of blood in New York recently with the hope that it would help prevent other wives from becoming war widows. Her son Christopher was a tense viewer of the process. Christopher's father, the late Captain John H. Jones, was killed in action January, 1951.

News of Men in Service

The following letter is from George Boyd Irwen, young Marine now serving in Korea, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Irwen of Dalhart. The family formerly lived here and Irwen is the grandson of Mrs. Carson Irwen and the great grandson of Mrs. Flora Russell of Wellington. The young Marine received his education at Samnorwood and the family lived near Aberdeen.

Dear Folks,
Well, here we are in Korea. We are taking our tanks and going to Seoul in the morning, from there to the front lines. I'm telling you the truth about it, doesn't make any difference anyways, we all know it when we left the States. There was a Korea band at the dock to meet and welcome us, although we knew we were welcome. It's a shame the way these people live over here. I walked around a little yesterday. It just stunk. Their gardens, which aren't many, are fertilized with human waste. Boy! You can smell them blocks away.

These people are always asking for cigarettes. Want to buy your watches and fountain pens. They will give you more money for them than they cost in the U. S. One of these Marines sold a $1.00 pen to them for $11.00 in script, which is as valuable as our money. I was on guard last night with my rifle. It wasn't loaded. I had a clip in my hand ready to load it if I needed it. We are checking our M1 rifle in today for a 45 pistol, which I am very glad to do. Have to carry a 60 and sometimes 100 pound pack on my back, a sea bag and this rifle. I'm tired of carrying all this junk around, too.

I'm setting in a tent watching it rain. Talking to some buddies. Lost one good buddy. He was transferred to the LVT. He is trying to get back in the tanks with us boys. I sure hope he makes it. His name is Myers, the Indian boy I wrote you about.

I won't have much time for writing, and when I do might be weeks before you get it. But you all keep writing and don't worry too much about me because I saw one thousand of them yesterday as they brought them in. Most of them look like kids, not over 10 years old and that's the truth. I bet I could whip a dozen or more of them little guys at once.

Joe, let me tell you something. If I should run into some kind of trouble I wouldn't get out of, you won't ever have to come over here. Don't think I'll have trouble like that, but if I should you can get a discharge and you be sure and get it as there is not a thing over here in Korea to fight for any ways, or I haven't seen it yet, and don't let anybody tell you different, for I know.

Well, I got to go and take a good bath in some soft water for a change. Haven't had a good clean bath since we left the U. S. That salt water doesn't wash too good. Love to all,
George

Brown to Mesquite Control Meeting

Millard Brown, secretary of the county PMA office, attended a district meeting at the Experiment Station at Spur last week relative to mesquite control by chemical methods.

Mr. Brown said that while regulations will keep more of the farmers from using chemical measures in controlling mesquite under the PMA program, any person interested should contact him. This practice draws $1.75 per acre.

Mrs. Brown accompanied her husband to Spur and visited relatives.

Farmers! Here's a better tire for the SAME MONEY!

GOOD YEAR SUPER-SURE-GRIP TRACTOR TIRE

SURE-GRIP TAKES A FIRMER GRIP ON SOIL . . . OUT-PULLS OTHER TIRES
Super-Sure-Grips take a "wedge" grip — squeeze the soil between big, husky, straight-bar lugs that are set closer together at the tire shoulder than they are at the tread center. There's no "plow out" of soil on the sides to lessen pulling power.

STRAIGHT LUG BARS GIVE YOU BETTER TRACTION
Super-Sure-Grip lugs are "ruler-straight" across the tire crown. Every inch of these big straight lugs pushes with maximum efficiency instead of allowing soil to slide off along curves.

Super-Sure-Grips don't cost you a penny more — so why not equip your tractor with "the greatest pulling tire on earth."

Cancer Drive Continues Here During April

"The cost of fighting cancer, along with everything else, is going up while funds for cancer control are not keeping pace with mounting prices."

"I believe that the amount given to fight cancer is unrealistic compared to the needs of cancer control. I think people will give a great deal more when they realize the extent of the cancer problem."

"Last year the public spent $404,000,000 for restaurant tips, while they gave $13,900,000 to the American Cancer Society. Americans spent $8,550,000,000 for intoxicants. Even the cost of nail polish, $15,825,000, exceeded the investment in cancer research, education and service through the American Cancer Society."

These comments were made today by Jack Gibson, county Cancer Crusade chairman, in explaining the use of funds given the American Cancer Society, which hopes to collect $630.00 here during April.

Conference to Meet at Aberdeen

The fourth Quarterly Conference of the Wellington Methodist circuit will be held at the Aberdeen Methodist Church Sunday, April 22, the Rev. Homer E. Long, pastor, has announced.

The district superintendent, the Rev. W. E. Hamilton, will preach at the morning service at 11:00 a.m. Lunch will be served at the church at noon, and the business of the quarterly conference will begin at 2:00 p.m.

Blayne Branum at Wellington State

Blayne Branum recently was added to the staff of the Wellington State Bank, Joe Terry, cashier, said late last week.

Mr. Branum, a life-long resident of the county, has been operating the Wel-Tex Electric for the past year. He is the immediate past commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mrs. Harold Babb and daughter Doana Beth, of Dallas spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ed Smith. Mr. Babb came for his family this week end.

friends, as well as those who do not yet know our many services, to visit us," the owners said.

"We have built this new home with the needs of our customers in mind, and we believe that you'll agree with us that it's the finest service station in this part of the Panhandle."

Employees in the service station and oil company departments are the owners, Raymond Herring, Everett Herring, Jack McDaniel and Dick Richards. Truck drivers are Toots McKinney, Boyd Derryberry, Thomas Jesse, Hansford Brewer and Bob Willis.

The Holton Auto store is the oldest service station business in Wellington to remain under the management of one family. Established by the late Judge Holton, Continental Oil Company consignee here since the mid-1920's, he remained in active management until his death almost a year ago. His sons took over the business at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caldwell and son, Harold, were week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gribble at Coleman.

Blood Typed -

typed, we are gratified at the turnout."

Those blood typed represents approximately 25 per cent of the county's total population. This is well above the average where similar campaigns have been carried on.

In Amarillo recently, with a population of around 73,000, only approximately 10,000 were blood typed, approximately 15 per cent of the population, Dr. Hunter said.

Similar campaigns are now under way at Tulia and Dumas.

Dr. Hunter attributed the success of the drive to the cooperation and hard work of all workers, and special tribute was paid to Fred LeDerer, co-chairman of the drive, Howard Oliphint, Lee Plant, T. E. Lennon, Herman Moseley, Orville Cunningham, and Sisters of St. Joseph's Hospital.

Blood typing was done by Sister John Baptist, Sister Catherine and Miss Rita Duncan.

After the close of the drive, a number of persons requested blood typing, and Dr. Hunter pointed out that any others still wishing to be blood typed should contact Sister John Baptist at the Hospital.

Samnorwood Seniors Are Honored at Banquet Friday

By MRS. JACK LOWRY

The senior class of Samnorwood High School and their guests were honored with a banquet in the dining room of the Baptist Church Friday night, April 13. Hosts for the occasion were the Women's Missionary Union of the Lutie and Samnorwood Baptist churches and the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Samnorwood Methodist church.

"Hitch Your Wagon To a Star" was the theme carried out in the entertainment. Royal blue crepe paper covered the ceiling and was sprinkled with silver stars. The long T-shaped tables were covered with white linen cloths. Behind the head table, a large silver star was fastened to the wall. Ribbon streamers running from a florist foam wagon filled with flowers were fastened to the star.

Along each wall, the senior class motto of "Forward Ever, Backward Never" was written in silver.

The speakers for the evening bore the names of stars. "The Guiding Star" was given by Lady Diana; "Morning Star" was given by Venus; and "Wishing Stars" was given by the Little Dipper. The menu consisted of Little Dipper, Zodiac Special, Moon Beams, Fleecy Clouds, Northern Lights, Full Moon Salad, Half Moon and Star Dust, Milky Way and Floating Dust, and Big Dipper.

Texas Makes Big Contribution to Cancer Research

HOUSTON—Texas is making a big and still-growing contribution to the nation's research effort to control cancer, said Pat McGrady of New York City, Science Editor of the American Cancer Society, who has just visited several cancer research laboratories in the state.

McGrady talked this week with scientists doing cancer research in several branches of the University of Texas. He is on leave from a Fulbright Fellowship to France where is writing a comprehensive report on worldwide research into the cancer problem.

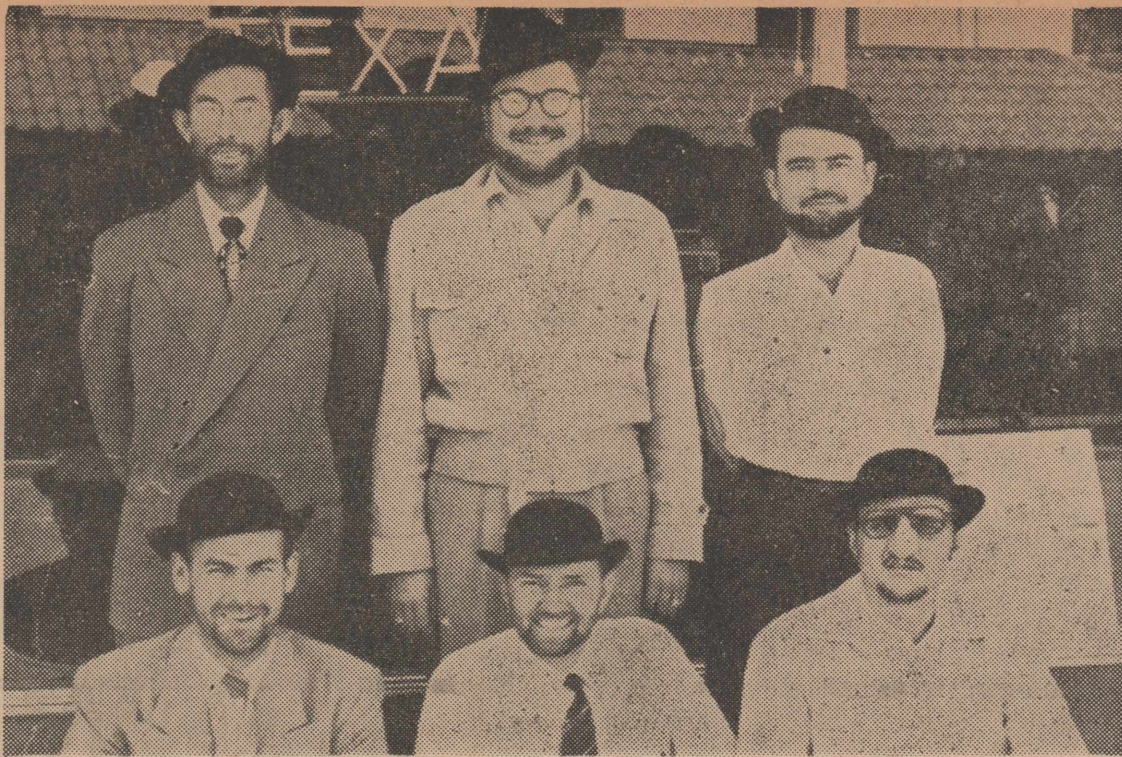

"Both basic and clinical research has moved ahead rapidly in Texas," McGrady said. "It is extremely encouraging to return here year after year and see the great strides that have been made."

The cancer writer's accounts of a few of the more promising Texas projects will be released publicly later this month. The Cancer Crusade for funds to support research, professional and public education and service is conducted during April.

McGrady asserted that "without doubt a much greater number of cancer patients are being cured this year than were cured ten years ago—or even last year."

"We won't know for about five years just how many patients are being cured in 1951," he explained. "It takes about that long to really evaluate a cure and rule out possibilities of recurrence."

"There is no doubt, however, that improved surgery is saving patients who would have been doomed just a little while ago. And radiation has improved a great deal. Supravoltage x-ray machines have helped quite a few people who were beyond help by other means. Radioactive iodine has improved a number of hopeless cases of thyroid cancer—and some interesting experimental work is being done with other radioactive substances in still other kinds of cancer."

One big factor in the rising cure rates of cancer is the growing public awareness of early symptoms of the disease.

"Patients have begun to exercise common sense," McGrady said. "When they find a lump that doesn't belong, an unhealing sore, persistent cough or indigestion or other symptom of the disease, they go directly to their family doctor as they should do. That gives the doctor a chance to diagnose and treat the case before it has gotten beyond control."

He said, however, that the big hope of the future lies in fundamental studies of the nature of cancer—many of them now advanced to the point where they are proving of value in the treatment and diagnosis of cancer.

McGrady listed as "a few among an incredible number of advances made during the past year."

New light on the cause of leukemia, centering around the hormone-secreting functions of the adrenal cortex;

The discovery that two different cancer-causing chemicals will cancel out each other's ability to cause cancer in animals;

Hints as to hormone or dietary factors responsible for arteriosclerosis, osteoarthritis, rheumatic heart and several other common diseases;

A new technique for treating children with eye cancers so that it is no longer necessary to blind them to cure the eye cancers;

Improved hormones for treatment of cancers of the breast and uterine cervix;

New methods of administering drugs into arteries (instead of veins, muscles or abdomen) to deliver their full wallop to cancer sites;

Buy Best Cotton Planting Seed

AUSTIN—Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White expressed alarm over cotton planting seed in Texas and urged farmers to exercise extreme precaution when making purchases.

"It has been known for some time that a shortage of cotton seed existed for the 1951 goal of 11,000,000 acres," Commissioner White stated. "Quality seed were booked early and supplies completely exhausted. Texas seed stocks were supplemented by what amounts could be purchased from other states and much of this seed has come in labeled below standard for germination or approximately 60 per cent."

"Additional seed stocks needed from this year's acreage in Texas will come from seed at gins, oil mills and from farmers themselves," White explained. "It is this seed about which I am alarmed and concerned since we have found in our two state seed test laboratories that samples submitted from these sources run as low as 3 per cent germination."

The Commissioner reminded seed purchasers that every sack of seed offered or exposed for sale in Texas is required by law to have a tag attached showing germination percentage. "In the case of bulk seed," the Commissioner added, "the seller is required to furnish one tag for each one hundred pounds of the seed sold."

"I urge all purchasers of cotton seed to exercise every precaution and care. The facilities of our seed laboratories are available to all Texas farmers. A little discretion at this time in demanding to know the germination percentage of the seed will eliminate disappointments in stands as well as time, money and possible loss of crops," Commissioner White said.

C-C Names OPS Workers

The Wellington Chamber of Commerce, in a meeting Monday night, April 9, named five business men to assist it in its work under the Office of Price Stabilization.

The OPS at present sends all material for local merchants through the Chamber of Commerce, Jack Gibson, president said. Chairmen of the different divisions are Leonard Hoyt, cafes; Jim Llorente, dry good stores; Frank Pope, jewelry stores; Jimmy Cochran, drug stores; and George Scott, groceries.

The Chamber of Commerce will send a delegation to Austin April 26, to appear before the State Highway Commission relative to securing pavement for one-half mile on Haskell Street, from the west end of Ninth Street, south to 15th Street, Mr. Gibson said. This would give persons coming into Wellington from the southwest an alternate route from the southwest corner of the town section to the business area.

Household Worker Needs SS Card

"Maids, cooks, and other household workers whose jobs now entitle them to old-age and survivors insurance protection, will need account number cards," John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo social security office said. Covered by the new law are domestics who work in one home on at least 24 days and earn as much as $50 in a calendar quarter. A maid, for example, who works two days a week for one employer, is covered if her cash pay is as much as $50 per calendar quarter.

"Applications for social security cards, or for duplicates of lost cards, may be obtained at our office in Amarillo or at any post office," Sanderson stated.

Cancer Research

Twenty-five cents of every dollar you give will go (as it did last year) to the laboratory, for this race against death. In the past six years, the American Cancer Society has devoted $16,856,000 to the support of Research ... the chief hope of millions of threatened cancer victims. While seeking cancer's cause and cure, science also develops new methods of diagnosis and treatment, and has given us improved techniques in surgery, x-ray and radium that have saved thousands of lives thus far. New drugs, equipment and techniques cost money to perfect. Give now for cancer Research.

Cancer Education

Half of all those who develop cancer can be saved by prompt diagnosis and treatment. The Society saves lives today by education through films, booklets, posters, every medium of communication—to bring people to physicians in time and to bring the latest facts to doctors, nurses and dentists. Public education stresses cancer's danger signals: 1—Any sore that does not heal; 2—A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; 3—Unusual bleeding or discharge; 4—Any change in a wart or mole; 5—Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; 6—Persistent hoarseness or cough; 7—Any change in normal bowel habits.

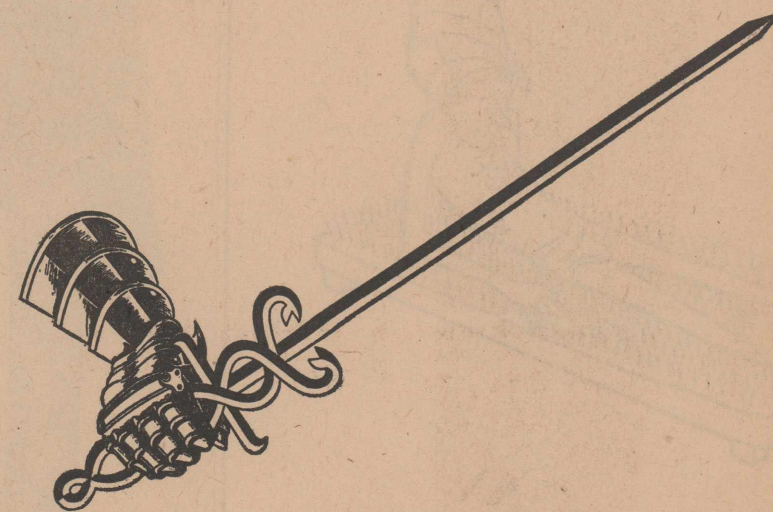

Improved Cancer Services

Your contribution to the Cancer Crusade stimulates detection programs and the development—where needed—of better diagnostic and treatment facilities. Under the leadership of the American Cancer Society, thousands of devoted volunteers do a fine humanitarian task. They help ease the pain and suffering of countless cancer patients. Bringing service directly into the home, these workers furnish bandages, equipment, social services and transportation, and lend a helping hand in many other ways. By MRS. R. H. ISBELL
We are getting tired of so much wind and sand blowing. Lots of our east and west roads are blocked with drifted sand. Because of this the school buses have to make detours on their routes. We overheard one little girl say that she had to ride fifty miles every trip. We certainly need rain.

Mrs. G. C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton last Thursday.

Callers at the Wright and Isbell home during the day Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Isbell and children, Jack and Patsy; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Isbell and Billy; Mrs. Maxwell; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright, and Charles and Edna Ellen.

The third Sunday sing at the Nazarene church was well attended last Sunday and a good group singing was reported. Those going from here were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morrow of Fort Worth were here over the week end visiting relatives and friends in and around Wellington.

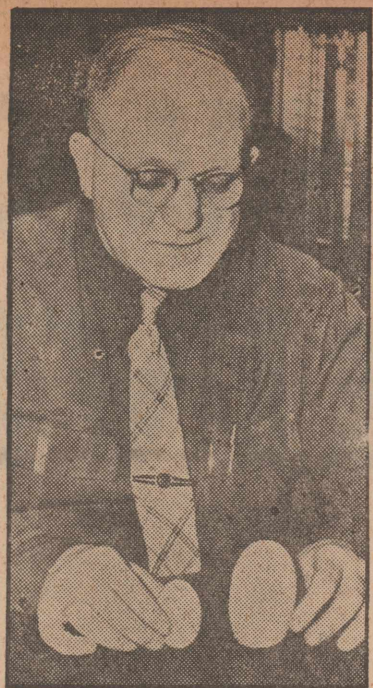

The C. A. Wrights had a nice group singing at their home last Sunday night attended by a few friends and relatives. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Buck Lancaster, Elmer Gene and Nelda, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell and Mrs. G. C. Wright.

Sunday, April 22, is quarterly conference time for the Wellington circuit. This is the last conference and will be held at Aberdeen. Rev. Long will go to the Annual Conference in May. We hope all who can will go. There will be a wonderful sermon and lunch will be eaten at the church at noon. But those who can't attend the conference can attend Sunday school that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton attended singing at Dryden, Oklahoma, Sunday.

The drilling crew that U. S. Bolton works with has moved a few miles south of Lubbock to drill a well. The Bolton family have a trailer house and have moved to Lubbock with him.

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

"Boss, how about your two cents worth on the MacArthur affair?" My gosh, if someone had a way to gather and collect all the two cents worth that has erupted since that fateful midnight decision and could cash it in — wheew! Or are they?

I do not know but very few of all the facts in the case. I can not say where the truth lies nor what it is. But this I feel like every one else that a chain of events have been placed in motion which hold tremendous consequences and like everyone else I am deeply disturbed.

What happens to the major personalities involved is insignificant compared to what happens to the forces that have been unleashed, forces which these personalities represent merely according to their studied opinions, judgment and morality.

By reason of demonstrated intellect, by reason of past performance, by reason of integrity of purpose, by reason of moral stature MacArthur appeals to me as being as strong as Mr. Truman is weak.

On the other hand the supreme constitutional authority vested in our civilian Commander-in-Chief is a fundamental of democracy that we can not afford to tamper with or permit to be challenged and disregarded by any military leader.

The real crux of this matter it seems to me lies not at all in the question of conflicting personalities but in the matter of our Far Eastern Policy, a matter of tremendous gravity and of extreme importance to the welfare of not only the nation but of the whole world.

In this matter the administra-

Mrs. Dora Hulsey Dies at Tulia

Mrs. Dora Ann Hulsey, the mother of a former Wellington teacher, Miss Mildred Hulsey, died at her home at Tulia Thursday morning, April 12. She would have been 90 years old June 12 and had been a resident of Swisher County nearly 60 years.

Mrs. Hulsey suffered a stroke two years ago but had been up and active the past year. She was in excellent health when she retired the night of April 11. Miss Hulsey said she heard her mother moving around about 5 o'clock in the morning. She immediately went to the room and found her mother dead. She had suffered another stroke.

Mrs. Hulsey was born at Honey Grove, Fannin County, June 12, 1861. She and W. C. Hulsey were married at Honey Grove in 1886. They moved to Swisher County in 1892, settling on land northwest of Tulia where he farmed and raised cattle.

Mr. Hulsey died in July of 1938. Mrs. Hulsey lived at the farm home until five years ago when she moved to Tulia to make her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Hulsey was a longtime member and active worker in the First Presbyterian Church there.

Survivors are her daughter, a son, E. K. Hulsey, Tulia, a grandson, W. K. Hulsey, Tulia, four great grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. T. H. Walters, Turkey, and two brothers, Edgar Smith, Cooper, Texas, and Earl Smith, Windom.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Hoyt Boles of Denton officiating, assisted by Rev. John R. Sharp of Canyon.

Burial was in Rosehill Cemetery under direction of Wallace Funeral Home.

tion has been vague, secret, contradictory and arbitrary. The policy, whatever it is, is not understood by the people and in the eyes of many of us it has many earmarks of bungling, illusionary unsound thinking and tolerance of immorality far worse than five percent deals, the RFC and the national crime ring, if not treasonable.

What has happened is that we the people have permitted high places to be held by small men of little character, of mediocre ability and of highly questionable morality. While under them and subordinate to them by constitutional law are very able, morally strong military men who in this crucial period find themselves frustrated even in their primary jobs by error ridden judgment, gutter policies and immoral practices on the part of their inferior superiors.

We can only pray to our Eternal Father that out of this unfortunate situation He will lead us forth strongly united with a clear vision. We must be determined not to forget again that our blessings rest upon the integrity of our obligations and responsibilities, upon the strength and will of our moral courage and upon our acceptance and understanding of His will — not our own.

Disabled Vets An Untapped Source of Defense Manpower

NEW YORK, N. Y. An untapped reservoir of defense manpower, amounting to at least 500,000,000 work hours annually, can be made available through the utilization of the remaining abilities of our country's some 250,000 unemployed disabled veterans, according to an estimate made by Kenneth C. Bradley, National Director of Employment of the Disabled American Veterans.

"Trained disabled veterans can handle many jobs from which industrial workers can be released to perform heavier tasks," Bradley explained. "Disabled veterans who are rehabilitated to the point where their remaining abilities can be matched with the requirements of suitable jobs, can be very helpful in solving the problem of manpower shortages which will be felt increasingly in the stepped-up industrial mobilization program, as more and more civilians are drafted into the armed services."

"Here is a typical question asked by the men who have been disabled in Korea: 'Do you suppose I'll be able to find something to do in the mobilization program?'. They are eager to do their share. After physical and vocational rehabilitation, more than 95 per cent of them can be selectively placed into suitable employment in the national defense program to perform highly useful services."

Captain Cicero F. Hogan, D. A. V. National Director of Claims, in an interview, stated: "The Korean conflict has made it necessary for the D. A. V. to expand its free, vital, nationwide rehabilitation services to the disabled veterans of past wars."

Miles H. Draper, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Disabled American Veterans Foundation, announced that these increased demands for D. A. V. services have necessitated a special campaign which soon will be launched for enrollment of individual Supporters of the Foundation. To each person who contributes a dollar, a special card will be sent, recognizing such donor as a "Supporter of the Disabled American Veterans Service Foundation," Draper said.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolan Bryan of near Samnorwood returned recently from Fresno, Calif., where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kiser, and her brothers and sisters, all of whom formerly lived in this county.

11 Per Cent 1950 Cotton Destroyed By Insects

BRYAN—Insect damage to the 1950 cotton crop in Texas amounted to approximately $107,035,000, destroying 11 per cent of the total harvest, according to an unofficial preliminary estimate compiled by the National Cotton Council, George G. Chance, chairman of the Texas unit of the Council, said here.

"Insects kept approximately 456,000 bales of cotton and an estimated 187,000 tons of cottonseed off the market this year. Based on average price, this lint would have brought Texas farmers some $91,119,00 and the seed would have meant an additional profit of $15,916,000," the Council spokesman said.

"Throughout the Cotton Belt," Mr. Chance said, "an estimated 16.5 per cent of the crop, valued at approximately $598,565,000 was destroyed. In dollars and cents, losses in 1950 were second highest on record, exceeded only by 1949 when damage amounted to more than $617 million."

"I got the story on 50,000 Miles-No Wear and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says H. T. Fitzgerald, Newspaper Man,
St. Louis, Missouri.

"YOUR NEW '50,000 MILES—NO WEAR' OIL is the best we have ever used," says George M. James, Manager, Metro Motors, Ford Distributors, Murray, Utah. "We use Conoco Super in all our demonstrators and recommend it highly to new car buyers."

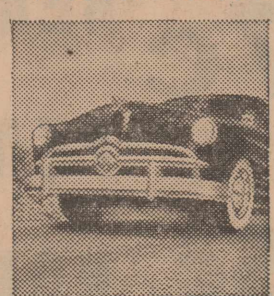

"I'VE USED MANY DIFFERENT BRANDS of oil, but was never satisfied until I heard the story of '50,000 Miles—No Wear' and changed to new Conoco Super," writes Ben F. Taylor, Traveling Salesman, Fort Worth, Texas. "Now I get greater savings in oil consumption and more gasoline miles to the gallon."

"50,000 MILES—NO WEAR!"—PROVED HERE:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence . . . in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts.

AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that new Conoco Super, with OIL-PLATING, can make your car last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil.
