Junior Deputy Sheriffs League To Be Formed

Sheriff Bob Hewes announced that with the cooperation of the National Sheriff's Association he will organize a Junior Deputy Sheriffs League here to combat juvenile delinquency.

He said Junior Deputy Sheriffs Leagues, now operating in 40 of the 50 states, represent "one of the most beneficial programs ever conceived in the law enforcement field to help young people stay out of trouble."

"Virtually every sheriff who has instituted this program," Hewes said, "has reported a marked decrease in juvenile delinquency in his county."

Some of the aims of the league are:

—To achieve a constant decrease in the juvenile delinquency rate.

—Prevent accidents in traffic, on the water, in homes and with firearms.

—Acquaint youths with the function of local government and law enforcement.

—Demonstrate that law enforcement officers are friends of youths, not their enemies.

—Enlist the help of youths to keep others out of trouble.

—Help keep other youths and themselves from ending up with court records or going to jail or reformatories.

—Render valuable service to the community by training for general emergencies in the protection of life and property.

"This program is not intended to take the place of any other youth organization in the county," Hewes said, "but will work closely with all of them in a mutual goal."

"It offers an opportunity for every boy between 12 and 17 to find recognition, encouragement, confidence, a new sense of security and worthiness, and a constructive outlet for his pent up energies in learning to perform a practical task with real responsibility."

The boys are expected to

Local Couple Hurt In Wreck

A local couple was injured Sept. 18 in a chain-reaction traffic accident involving four cars in the 400 block of Cole Street in Corpus Christi.

George L. Maneely, 63, and his wife, 60, were taken to a private physician for treatment of minor injuries.

Police said the Maneely couple apparently was looking for a house address on the street when their car struck a parked car which was knocked into a second parked car. The fourth driven by Betty J. Siddall, 20, of 4443 Ocean Drive, then was in collision with the Maneely vehicle, according to police.

Local Man Charged With Robbery

Chief of Police Everett Taylor reported that Daniel Dominguez was arrested early Saturday morning and charged with robbery by assault, placed in the county jail with bond set at $5,000.

Taylor said he, Patrolman Tommy Ochoa and Constable Buddy McLeister arrested Dominguez and a juvenile after Jerry J. Cody of Tampa, Fla., complained that he was struck in the mouth and robbed of $75 while walking on Fulton Beach Road near the intersection with Highway 35.

Taylor said the juvenile was released to his parents and that the $75 was recovered.

Chaney Named Hotel Manager

Jack Chaney, manager of the Sea Gun Sports Inn since January, has been named manager of the Robert Driscoll Hotel, in Corpus Christi, replacing Jesse W. Stuart, manager for two years who resigned effective Sept. 30.

The change was announced by officials of the Driscoll Foundation and Houston International Hotels, Inc., owners and operators, respectively, during a meeting at the hotel.

Chaney has been in hotel consulting and management more than 30 years. He lived in Corpus Christi in the 1930s while his father was manager of the Plaza Hotel, next to the site on which the Driscoll was later built.

For the last two years, Chaney has been associated with the organization of T. L. Wynne, Sr., a Dallas financier with operations in a wide range of fields including the hotel business.

He operated the El Antonio in San Antonio for six years. It is now the Sheraton San Antonio.

Chaney said the Houston firm plans to continue its renovation program and has improvements scheduled through next year.

Thoroughfare Plan for City

Following is the thoroughfare plan for the city as recommended by Harland Bartholomew and Associates, planners and engineers, and local advisory committees as part of the long range plan for Rockport:

Good transportation facilities are an essential part of modern living. Residents of the urban environment depend heavily upon major streets and thoroughfares which provide for the efficient movement of vehicles goods and people. This system should not only be adequate to serve present needs, but should also be designed in anticipation of future requirements of local residents and visitors to the community. If long-range needs can be anticipated, improvements can be programmed and constructed to eliminate congestion, inefficiency and waste. The thoroughfare plan is a vital element of the comprehensive plan. It provides for street and highway improvement which may be constructed as needs become apparent and as funds are available.

As new portions of the community are developed, subdivision standards may be applied which will adequately serve present and long-range needs. The major street system provides for adequate vehicular movements from one part of the community to another. The highway system serving the City of Rockport is an integral part of the thoroughfare plan. Between the various highways, a system of major streets will be necessary to provide for convenient movements within the community. Minor streets in the neighborhood should provide access to residential area. The system of major streets and highways should also form logical boundaries between the neighborhoods. Land uses should be directly related to the major and minor street systems. Major streets serve more intensive land uses such as commercial and industrial areas. Minor streets serve intensive uses such as residential areas.

Existing Thoroughfares

State Route 35 and Loop Road 70 through the business district comprise the major components of the internal major street system. In addition to these highway facilities, Farm-to-Market Roads 881 and 2165 also provide access from the city to the interior portions of the peninsula. Within the planning area two other farm-to-market roads are classified as part of the thoroughfare system. These include Route 1781 which which serves the western portion of the peninsula and Route 1069 which connects with 881 to the south.

Average daily traffic volumes on State Route 35 range below 5,000 vehicles in the northern and southern portions of the peninsula. Inside the City of Rockport, traffic on State Route 35 reaches a level between 5,000 and 10,000 vehicles. Volumes on the farm-to-market road system are generally low, ranging from 2,000 vehicles per day on Routes 881 and 1069 and 1,000 vehicles per day on Routes 1781 and 2165. Route 1781 along Copano Bay in the northern portion of the peninsula now has the lowest traffic volumes on the county farm-to-market system, between 300 and 400 vehicles per day.

Rights-of-way and pavement widths at the present time are adequate to serve existing traffic volumes. Rights-of-way on the farm-to-market system range between 80 and 100 feet. State Route 35, outside the central portion of the city, has a right-of-way of 100 feet. In the central city where Highway 35 traverses Bronte and Liberty Streets, the right-of-way is somewhat narrow (70 feet). Portions of Loop Road (Continued on Page 8)

FIRST DDD CALL—Mayor Delmar R. Hiller made the first direct distance dialing call after the service was put into effect by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company Sept. 21. To dial a long distance call the customer dials 1, then the area code and then the seven-digit number. When dialing calls to South Texas cities which also have the 512 area code, it is not necessary to dial the 512 area code.

LATEST TARGETS of muckraking articles in national magazines are Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., (left) and San Francisco Mayor Joseph L. Alioto. One national publication charges that Thurmond was paid more than twice as much as neighboring property owners by South Carolina for land condemned for highway construction. Another national magazine alleges that Alioto is involved with the Mafia. Thurmond called the charge against him "just another in a series of attempted liberal smears." Alioto called the allegations against him "a pack of lies."

Stop Cars For School Buses

Supt. of Schools J. D. Gray urges all local motorists to be extremely cautious when school buses have stopped to load or unload boys and girls. One boy already has been injured when struck by a car which failed to stop for a stopped school bus.

"The safety of our children is of the prime concern to all local people," Gray points out, "and we must remember that not every child remembers to look both ways before crossing the highway."

The law requires all cars to stop when a school bus has halted to take on or discharge children, and the bus lights are to proceed, the motorist can blink. Then when it is safe continue on his way cautiously.

Chamber Happenings

Donations to the downtown Christmas decorations fund were received from Aransas Butane Co. and Modern Abstract Co. Thank you.

Furnishing refreshments this week are Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Moore. Many thanks to these folks for their generosity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton are new members of the Chamber of Commerce.

We now have a Texas campground brochure put out by the Texas Highway Department available to all interested in camping.

Chamber of Commerce membership dues are deductible as a business expense when computing state and federal income taxes. Your dues are not donations—they are an investment in community progress and business betterment and are logically considered as one of the costs of producing your income.

A new organization formed to promote the further development of the state's billion dollar travel industry is the Discover Texas Association.

American travelers in Mexico last year spent $630 million. Mexican visitors to the U. S. spent $500 million.

Our Chamber of Commerce now has 182 members with 35 motels and trailer parks, 10 real estate agencies and developments, 16 individuals, 8 restaurants, 6 service stations and many other businesses.

Thieves Take $101 From Field House

Sheriff Bob Hewes and Deputy Charles Cosby are investigating the theft Tuesday of $101 from the Rockport-Fulton High School field house. The money belonged to 12 football players and two coaches and was taken from their trousers during football practice.

Players who reported losses were Charles La Bounty, Charlie Nava, Richard Anderson, Richard Schendel, Melvin Moore, Charles Cruser, Jeff Thornton, Jimmy Clark, Al Johnson, Ted Deason, Andy Crawford and Robert Brooks. The coaches whose billfolds were rifled were Sonny Watkins and Jerry Harper.

The thefts took place between 2:30 and 6 p.m. The thieves must have been neat individuals because after stealing the money they replaced the billfolds in the trousers, except for two wallets found in the bottom of lockers.

Cosby has questioned three persons in connection with the case and he and Hewes are continuing the investigation.

Taft High School also reported thefts of money from its field house during football practice late yesterday, causing speculation that the same thieves who hit here might have been responsible.

Pirates Defeat Tuloso-Midway

By Dan T. Oliver

The Rockport-Fulton football team won its second game of the season last Friday night by defeating Tuloso-Midway 25 to 6.

The Warriors kicked off, giving Rockport the ball on its own 39-yard line. The Pirates on six plays moved the ball to the Warriors' 30-yard line. Halfback Ruford Huff then made a 30-yard touchdown run and kicked the one-point conversion, making the score: Rockport 7, Tuloso-Midway 0.

The Pirates then kicked off and the Warriors put the ball in play on their 34-yard line. Unable to move the ball, the Tuloso-Midway team had to punt. Rockport took the ball, on its 38-yard line and in six plays proceeded to the Warriors' two-yard line where fullback Glenn Davis plunged over for a touchdown. The conversion attempt failed and the score was Rockport 13, Tuloso-Midway 0.

Ted Deason kicked off for Rockport and the Warriors returned the ball 22 yards. The first quarter soon ended with the score still 13 to 0 in favor of Rockport.

Early in the second quarter the Warriors punted from the 50-yard line. After a few

The Small Business Administration will have its representative available for interview from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 1 and Oct. 2, and also on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 15 and Oct. 16, at the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce, 1201 North Shoreline Blvd., Corpus Christi.

W. E. Woodman, Regional Director of the San Antonio office of the Small Business Administration, announced that anyone desiring information concerning the SBA program may contact the representative when he is in the Corpus Christi area or at the San Antonio address.

It seems almost certain that the city council will give Aransas Natural Gas Company permission to increase its gas rates.

While the company has been asking an increase that would produce a return of 8 per cent on its investment the council this week indicated that a hike to produce 7½ per cent would be adequate.

Vernon Kleypas, manager of the local office of the company, and Clayton Caskey, Corpus Christi, secretary, appeared in behalf of Aransas Natural Gas.

Earlier, when Kleypas and Caskey were asking for a boost to produce 8 per cent return, they stated that an increase of approximately 18 per cent in the rates would achieve this. They also pointed out that the company had had no rate increase since it started in business 21 years ago and that expenses had gone up 71 per cent and labor costs 82 per cent.

Mayor Delmar R. Hiller and Aldermen Charlie Garrett, N. F. Jackson, Joe "Pepe" Zambrano and Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden scheduled a public hearing on the gas rate hike request for 7:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 29.

In other actions at the city council meeting the aldermen:

—Accepted a petition from James E. McCord, executive vice president, Canoe Lake Corporation, for annexation by the city of Unit No. 1 of Harbor Oaks subdivision, covering 51.6 acres. A public hearing was set for 7:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 29.

New Income Tax Forms Described

Bob Mosier of Harris, Mosier and Robertson described the new 1969 federal income tax report form at a luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club Wednesday at Corky's Restaurant.

Mosier said that the brief 1040A form has been eliminated for 1969 and all individual reports will be made on Form 1040. He said that most of the supporting information will be included in the printed form rather than requiring the taxpayer to attach a supplementary list such as medical deductions, and lists of dividend and interest sources. He added that there will be no new schedules, but that most of the present schedules will be expanded.

For the first time, all 1969 income tax reports will be checked by computers, Mosier said.

Safe Boating Course Set

The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary will conduct a Safe Boating Course for the first time in the Rockport-Fulton area, Oct. 7, 8, 9 in the Woman's Club building. This is a free course in Safe Boating of three two-hour sessions and provides the basic elements of seamanship, rules of the road, aids to navigation, etc. It is a study for all age groups.

All persons who attend each of the three nights will be awarded a Certificate in safe boating by the Coast Guard Auxiliary. Until now it has been necessary for those interested in this free Public Instruction Course to go to Corpus, so this presents an opportunity for the community to take advantage of proper safety and operational activities of water craft.

Flotilla 71, Corpus Christi, will conduct the entire program as a public service and everyone is invited to attend. You will find this most interesting.

EDITORIAL

WE STILL HAVE DIPLOMATIC COURIERS

In this era of computers, jets that dash around the world in a matter of hours, radio, television, and shuffleboards and homes with backyard swimming pools, we still have that intriguing character, the diplomatic courier, just as in the days of sailing ships and stage coaches.

One would think the courier had passed on into oblivion with all the gadgets of today.

The United States, for example, has eighty couriers who carry secret papers and documents around the world to some 264 overseas diplomatic posts.

They are centered in three major spots. The biggest and perhaps most important one is Frankfurt, Manila and Washington are other bases.

From these points, the couriers board jets instead of sailing ships and ocean liners and today's courier may carry documents weighing hundreds of pounds or he may have just a few papers in an attache case. In the event his cargo is too heavy to carry aboard a plane, it is placed in the underneath cargo compartment in which case the courier is the last person to board the plane and the first to leave. His one single purpose is to see that the papers are delivered to the right person—and in person—and don't fall into the hands of spies and international agents.

In a year's time the courier travels many a mile. Just as an example, one operating out of Washington may leave on a trip to South Africa. Before he has completed his rounds he will have been gone 19 days and traveled some 25,000 miles.

It all sounds adventurous. But there is also a hunch that the whole thing gets rather monotonous. The other fellow's pasture is always greener, you know.

The bottle of Bourbon you can't buy for love nor money.

At the Beam distillery, there's some Bourbon bottled in 1911. Our chemist asked for a sample to compare it with the Jim Beam Bourbon we make today. Well, we gave him a drop, and he found out. Today's Jim Beam has the same good light taste that our 1911 Bourbon had. And our 1911 Bourbon tastes as good as it did in 1795. That's because the Beam formula has been part of our secret family art for six generations. We don't mind proving it scientifically. We just don't like using our only bottle of 1911 Bourbon to do it. "World's finest Bourbon since 1795."

Question and Answer Column

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I made an error on my 1968 income tax return and the IRS has just billed me for an additional $22, plus interest charges. Why do I have to pay any interest since it was an honest mistake and I filed my return before the deadline?

A—Under the law, interest is required to be charged on unpaid tax liabilities at the rate of 6 percent per annum. The interest charge is computed at that rate from the date of the return, April 15, until the tax is paid.

Q—On the tickets I bought to a charity concert there was a note listing the amount I could take for a charitable contribution. Why was this amount less than the price of the ticket?

A—A tax deduction for a charitable contribution may be taken only for the amount in excess of what you normally would have paid to attend a similar concert. The difference between what you paid for the tickets and the amount allowable as charitable contribution reflects the value of the concert.

Q—I have a sales job that requires me to use my car several days a week. Since my boss doesn't pay me for the use of my car, can I deduct these expenses on my return?

A—If you have to use your car on business, then the costs can be deducted. However, the costs of getting to and from your job are personal and not deductible.

You may deduct the actual expense including depreciation, or if you prefer, a standard rate of 10c a mile for the first 15,000 of business use and 7c a mile thereafter. Business related parking fees and tolls may be deducted in addition to the standard mileage rate.

Q—Should you bring a tax expert with you when you are called in for an audit?

A—Professional tax help is usually not needed during the examination of a return. However you may bring someone to represent you if you wish. The reason for examining a return is to determine whether it is accurate and complete. To do this you should have the records to back up the items and amount shown on your return.

Q—Are death benefits from a life insurance policy taxable?

A—Lump sum life insurance proceeds paid because of death are not considered taxable income unless the policy was transferred to you for a valuable consideration. However, if the benefits are paid in installments a portion may be taxable as interest.

This and other aspects of insurance payments are explained in IRS Publication No. 525, "Taxable Income and Nontaxable Income," available free at any IRS office.

Q—Our 16 year old daughter has a part-time job after school, but we still provide over half of her total support. Since she is our dependent should she take a withholding exemption for herself on her job?

A—Your daughter may claim her own exemption for withholding purposes even though she is your dependent. She is also entitled to claim an exemption for herself when she files her income tax return, if she is required to file a return. She must file a return to claim any refund of income tax withheld.

Q—Can you deduct anything for employment agency fees?

A—Fees paid to an employment agency for securing a job are deductible when you itemize your deductions.

Q—I use my country club to entertain some of my customers. Am I allowed any deduction for my club fees and expenses?

A—Your business lunches at the country club would be deductible just as a business lunch any place would be. Other entertainment expenses at the club may also qualify.

A portion of your annual club dues may be deducted if you use the country club more than 50 percent of the time for business purposes. Membership or initiation fees paid once for membership privileges are generally considered a capital expense and are not deductible.

To show you use the club more than half the time for business purposes, keep a record of the times you use the club's facilities. For each use of the club, your record must contain entry describing the use, including cost, date, number of people entertained, nature of entertainment, and whether such use was for personal or business use.

Club dues are discussed in Publication No. 463, "Travel, Entertainment and Gift Expenses." You may obtain a free copy at any IRS office.

Shower Honors Mrs. Jobo Valdez

Mrs. Jobo Valdez of San Antonio, was honored with a pink and blue shower recently at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Jacobs, with Mrs. Joe Valdez as co-hostess.

The table was laid with a white cloth and held a stork centerpiece. Yellow roses also decorated the table.

The gifts were in a white bassinet with a large yellow bow. Punch and cake were served to approximately 25 guests.

Junior-Senior PTA To Meet Sept. 29

The Rockport-Fulton Junior and Senior High PTA will meet in the Junior High cafeteria at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 29. Free baby sitting will be provided. The program will be entitled "Communicate—Know Your Schools."

There will be panel discussions to acquaint parents with school policies and services and to assist parents in knowing how to help their children with respect to school work and activities.

On the panel will be Pat Smith, Junior High principal; Chester Barre, High School principal; Joel Mixon, guidance counselor; Mary Thornton, school nurse; and Edith Cruser, cafeteria manager.

Those who attend PTA can take pride that similar meetings are taking place across Texas and the nation and have been for 73 years. When a parent joins, his membership supports a state organization which represents parents at the level where educational laws, policies and financing take place. This has a direct bearing on parents, teachers and students.

Since PTA is a national organization, local people benefit when it represents them concerning laws that protect children, federal financing and issues which trouble and divide the American people.

PTA offers a continuity from the past to the future, dealing only with the problems of today.

Parents are urged to come, join and use this opportunity to turn good will into good deeds.

This and That *

JOHN KINSEY

The growing controversy over the use of drugs, marijuana and hallucinogens has given rise to complex questions in all areas of society—moral, legal, intellectual and many others. Probably the only clear point that has emerged from this far-ranging issue has been the basic need for an objective, factual examination of the causes, effects and penalties of drug usage.

Since drug consumption has diffused throughout a growing sector of teenagers, ranging from junior high to college level, the need for an enlightened atmosphere for discussion has become critically acute. For only through a knowledgeable analysis of the many factors involved can an effective approach toward solving the problem be reached. Knowledge, then, becomes the key; it is the prerequisite for reasoned action on the subject.

Through extensive research of the articles and publications which have dealt with the drug question, Mission Information—Narcotics & Drugs, Inc., of Hereford, Texas, a non-profit educational organization, has found the special study conducted jointly by the Public Information Branch and Center for Studies of Narcotic and Drug Abuse of the National Institute of Mental Health and TODAY'S EDUCATION magazine to be the most objective and intelligent discussion of the subject.

For this reason, Mission Information believes that this information should be distributed to as broad a sector of youth as is possible so that the body of knowledge concerning drugs can be passed on to them.

In discussing the effects of drug usage, Mission Information feels that primary focus should be given to a factual, objective presentation which will stress the KNOWN aspects of the question; so, rather than making a moralistic plea about the dangers of drugs, Mission Information believes that a common sense evaluation of the facts will speak for itself.

Consequently, the organization has put in booklet form all the facts that were brought out by the study mentioned above. Sheriff Bob Hewes has obtained a large supply of the booklets which will be distributed to all Rockport-Fulton Junior and Senior High students.

DDD makes calling Long Distance almost as fast and easy as dialing a local call.

Just a few spins of your telephone dial and you're talking to Dallas... or San Francisco... in a matter of seconds.

It's easy, too. You simply dial "1," then the Area Code if it's different from your own, then the telephone number. Direct Distance Dialing lets you dial your own Long Distance Calls to thousands of cities and towns throughout the United States and Canada at low station-to-station rates.

Check the front pages of your telephone directory for a handy list of Area Codes and full information on DDD. It's one of many services that help make your telephone a bigger bargain than ever before.

plays Rockport fumbled and Tuloso-Midway regained possession of the ball deep in Rockport territory. The Warriors moved to the eight-yard line and then made a touchdown on a pass. The conversion failed and the score was 13 to 6.

The Warriors kicked off and the Pirates returned 12 yards and fumbled with the Pirates' 34-yard line. Tuloso-Warriors recovering on the Midway went to the air for three plays and then fumbled. The Pirates recovered on their 32-yard line.

Rockport then moved to the Warriors' 20-yard line but then fumbled and Tuloso-Midway recovered on their 11-yard line. The Warriors, however, were unable to hold onto the ball and fumbled, with Rockport regaining possession on the enemy seven-yard line.

The Pirates moved to the two-yard line, but the half ended before they had a chance to try for a touchdown. Halftime score: Rockport 13, Warriors 6.

The third quarter was scoreless. As the fourth opened, the Rockport team moved down the field and reached the enemy two-yard line, from where Huff went over for a touchdown. The conversion attempt failed. Score: Rockport 19, Warriors 6. Rockport kicked off and Tuloso-Midway returned 20 yards. Unable to move the ball, the Warriors punted. The Pirates hammered out 64 yards on nine plays and reached the Warriors' six-yard line. Once again Huff went over for a touchdown and the conversion attempt failed. Score: Rockport 25, Warriors 6.

A. Leisenheimer, two times, 16 yards, average eight yards.

R. Schendel one time, two yards, average two yards.

R. Garcia, one time, three yards, average three yards.

Rockport had 24 first downs to seven for Tuloso-Midway. In yards gained by rushing, Rockport made 382 yards to 35 for the Warriors.

Thoroughfare—

70, on Church Street from First Street to Market Street, are constricted with a right-of-way of only 60 feet. Constricted areas should be widened to provide uniform major street widths. Limitations on Church Street led to the development of the State Highway on Liberty and Bronte Streets. Loop Road 70 has a constricted right-of-way from First Street to Market Street where pavement widths narrow to 60 feet. This should be widened to 100 feet.

Pavement widths on the state highway system follow current design standards with 12-foot lanes and paved shoulders throughout the planning area. In the central portion of the community, State Route 35 has been improved with median dividers and a parkway where Broadway, Liberty and Austin Streets come together. The open parkway system extends for approximately four blocks from Liberty Street to Lady Clare Street. This parkway is a part of the waterfront improvements along Little Bay Cove. Pavements on Loop Road 70 are of the same standard although shoulders along the route are not paved for much of the distance. In the central business district, Austin Street if the major north-south street extending from Market Street north and connecting with the Broadway improvements. In this portion of the city, the State Highway Department has recently enlarged the divider median and new street lights have been installed in the median.

Pavement widths on the farm-to-market road system reflect the current levels of traffic carried on these routes. Farm-to-Market Road 881 has adequate pavement widths and paved shoulders are provided for a portion of the way of the distance on Market Street. New improvements on Farm-to-Market Road 2165 have improved access in the northwestern portion of the planning area. The southern portion of Farm-to-Market Road 1781 is developed to a lower standard. The upper portions of Farm-to-Market Road 1781 are adequate to serve current needs. In the northern portion of the planning area, the county has provided a new road from Farm-to-Market Road 1781 to Fulton, a road across the southern portion of the county airport property, and an east-west road approximately a mile and a half to the north between Farm-to-Market Road 1781 and State Route 35. Each of these roads carries low volumes of traffic and current facilities are adequate to serve present needs.

Due to the low traffic volumes recorded in the traffic counts taken by the State Highway Department, no additional supplemental traffic counts were deemed necessary as a part of this study.

Right-of-way widths in the city range considerably from narrow streets in the older portions of the city to excessively wide streets in some subdivisions. Pavement conditions on minor streets are generally poor with inadequate drainage. Once substantial drainage improvements are constructed, the city will be in a position to undertake major street construction projects. These should be completed as benefit assessment improvements.

In the central business district, the only major street improvements are found on Austin and Market Streets. Both Magnolia Street to the west and Water Street to the east of Austin also serve as a part of the circulation system in the central business district. Each of these streets is developed to a low standard, having inadequate pavement widths, limited drainage facilities, and as a result, a limited service capability. Without question, these deficiencies need to be corrected so that the central portion of the community may play a vital role as the center of a thriving city.

Improvements to Magnolia, Live Oak and Church Streets to the west and Water Street to the east will be required if the central portion of the city is to reverse the general deterioration trend. At least a portion of these costs should be assessed to benefiting properties.

Estimated Long-Range Needs Population projections prepared for the 12-county Coastal Bend Region were correlated with vehicle registration projections based on trends identified for the nation, state and region. This study indicated that traffic volumes in 1966 had increased about 1.75 times the 1950 recorded volumes. Projections are based upon the economic analysis, estimated future population levels, and the trends in vehicle registration. In addition to this, in Aransas County, a factor was applied for increasing numbers of tourists which are to be an increasingly important part of the local economy. This study indicated that by 1990, State Route 35 is expected to have volumes approaching 20,000 vehicles per day as an annual average. With this route becoming a part of the proposed Hug-the-Coast Highway, an increasing amount of through traffic will be using this coastal route. As traffic volumes begin to build up it will become increasingly important to separate through traffic movements from the local destination points, particularly in the built-up areas along Little Bay Cove and the out edges of the central business district.

In coordination with the regional plan, the thoroughfare plan for Rockport proposes to relocate the main portion of State Route 35 into the central portion of the peninsula. The present location of the highway would be maintained as an alternate route, identified as a scenic highway providing direct access to the north end of Padre Island. All other portions of the thoroughfare system should have sufficient right-of-ways to enable them to be developed to a stand allowing two moving lanes in each direction with suitable provisions for drainage facilities, curbing or paved shoulders.

UNCLE SAM'S SELECTIVE SERVICE

Editor's note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W. Ninth Street, Austin Texas, 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q—I am a graduate student who has not been deferred. If I am ordered to report for induction in the midst of my studies, can my induction be delayed until I get my degree?

A—No, but you may request your draft board for a postponement until the end of the quarter, trimester, or semester. Boards have authority to grant such postponements.

Q—if I go into VISTA or the Peace Corps, can my local board give me an occupational deferment?

A—Yes, but it is not required to do so.

Q—Does the Selective Service System prosecute persons for violation of the Selective Service law?

A—No, this is done by the Department of Justice.

Q—I know that normal progress in school is necessary for a II-S student deferment. When I transferred from junior college to the state university some credits I had earned were not accepted. Will this loss of credits affect my classification?

A—Your draft board will have to decide this. It can grant a II-S deferment to you the first year after your transfer, despite the loss of credits. Further deferment would depend upon the progress made at the new institution.

WHO'S WHO AT FIRST NATIONAL

Mellinee K. Shults

One of the veteran members of First National Bank's staff is Mrs. Mellinee K. Shults who started in 1950 and for a time was assistant cashier.

Family responsibilities compelled her to go on a part-time basis for three years but she resumed full-time work in 1968. At one time she worked for the Aransas Butane Gas Co.

Because of her long time service with the bank and especially in view of her present responsibilities as teller, she knows and greets by name hundreds of the bank's customers.

With her husband Tom W. Shults Rockport's director of public works, she lives at 702 North Austin. They have two children, Mrs. Loyce Landrum, widely known secretary for the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, and Tommy Shults of Corpus Christi. There are also four grandchildren.

Mrs. Shults was born in Rockport and was graduated from Rockport High School. More recently she completed two courses given by the American Banking Institute.

She is a member of the First Baptist Church and treasurer of the Fidelis Sunday school class.

Mr. and Mrs. Shults are members of the South Texas Trail Riders and the Aransas County Riding Association. One granddaughter, Mellinee Landrum, age 13, shares their enthusiasm for horses, and frequently accompanies her grandparents on trail rides and to rodeos.

No dimes were minted in 1932.

Letters to the Editor

Editor The Rockport Pilot
Rockport, Texas
Dear Sir:

My wife and I have just returned to Houston after a very pleasant eight-days stay in your delightful little town. As is to be presumed, we fished on piers and we fished on boats and, believe it or not, we did catch some fish. We were particularly thrilled to pluck from the waters of the bay eight nice size reds and seven scrumptious specks when we chartered a boat skippered by Mr. J. C. Arlla. Col. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, Jr., of South Beach Lodge, were gracious hosts. Our thanks to Mr. M. W. Cochran for pre-arranging a place for us to rest our tired bodies and "tired" is an understatement. Among the many out-of-town people we met are Mr. and Mrs. Ellison from the state of Michigan who had just arrived to become permanent citizens of your town and whom we predict, will be professional fishermen by next year this time. They are home owners, much to our envy. It was a wonderful stay and we would like for this fact be known to all the good people of Rockport.

Respectfully yours,
Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bock
