England Drafts Last Debt Plea

21 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

POSTPONEMENT ASKED IN NOTE COMPLETED BY CABINET TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 30—Great Britain's new note to Washington seeking postponement of the $95,550,000 debt payment due December 15 was completed by the cabinet in a two-hour session today.

All the members were there except Stanley Baldwin who is on the way to Glasgow, and Sir John Gilmour, the home secretary. No further meeting is planned and the note probably will be sent immediately.

Dissension Reported

As the ministers gathered, there arose rumors of dissension over the war debt policy if America should insist on the payment, but they found no support in official quarters where it was emphasized instead that there was "convergence of views."

The rumors had it that the cabinet dissension was over the point of whether to pay or default in the final analysis.

The cabinet continued the unfinished discussions of last night at No. 10 Downing street and it was indicated only odds and ends of the momentous new document were being cleared up.

The possibility that the note would be dispatched late today was seen in the fact that the discussions were expected to be concluded this afternoon.

Meanwhile the pound sterling showed considerable strength at the outset on the sterling-dollar exchange. The rate at the opening was 3.16 1-2, and then came a short sag during which the pound dropped to 3.15 1-2. Then occurred a sharp rally and shortly before noon the quotation was 3.16 1-2. By 12:30 it had jumped to 3.18.

OHIOANS JOIN MARCHERS

HUNGER GROUP TURNS DOWN CLEVELAND'S OFFER OF FOOD

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 30.—More than 400 marchers en route to Washington to seek federal aid refused free meals of bread, balogna and coffee offered them last night by the city of Cleveland and further decided not to sleep on the concrete floor of the public hall basement which had been assigned to them.

With one loud "boo," the marchers picked up their duffle bags and walked out of the hall, leaving behind 175 gallons of coffee, 700 loaves of bread and 175 pounds of balogna.

The decision to abandon the municipal fare was made when local sympathizers offered hot meals and better quarters in halls in other parts of the city.

Another contingent of about 50 marchers who arrived last night in Columbus were fed there by the unemployed council.

Approximately 100 Ohioans planned to join the groups today as the marchers, traveling in trucks and automobiles, again moved toward the nation's capital. The group left this morning for Pittsburgh.

Honduras Capital Menaced By Rebels

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, Nov. 30 (AP)—The main body of the rebel "liberal" army under General Fonseca was reported to be exerting pressure toward the capital today, while federal troops sought a decisive battle.

Some reports had it that heavy fighting had started near Sauce, within thirty kilometers of Tegucigalpa, but there was no official confirmation.

Children March To Safety During Fire

MEXIA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Five hundred children marched out of the R. B. Cousins elementary school in orderly fashion today when fire, starting from an overheated furnace, damaged several rooms.

The children, believing they were giving another practice fire drill, cleared the building in one minute. Theye were given a holiday while repairs were made.

Capital Prepares For Hunger March

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—All police leave was ordered cancelled by the District of Columbia commissioners today effective Sunday in preparation for the handling of groups of demonstrators en route to the capital.

Convinced that they must deal with the marching groups without voluntary federal assistance, the commissioners were mapping their final plans.

While there was no statement from either the commissioners or the department of justice that the federal government had rejected the commissioners' plea that the situation be taken out of their hands, the latter indicated they were preparing to deal with the problem.

GARNER AVERS INDICATIONS FAVORABLE

SPEAKER DECLINES TO PREDICT ADOPTION OF DEMO PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Speaker Garner today at a press conference said indications were more favorable for the house to adopt the Democratic repeal proposal Monday.

Although the vice-president-elect declined to predict adoption of the measure, he said that information from Representative Milligan of Missouri, the assistant Democratic whip, showed a swing among the Democrats for it.

Garner said he was "pretty certain we will have a vote Monday."

"The gentlemen who talked about postponing action have about decided that the vote might as well come Monday, because they are going to have to vote on it sometime," the speaker went on, adding that he had "some definite information of a swing" for the resolution.

G. O. P. Support Seen

Two Republican wet leaders have told him they were satisfied that probably 120 Republicans would vote for outright repeal and submission to state conventions for ratification as provided in the Democratic measure. He did not name his informants.

As to whether southern Democrats would support repeal, Garner said "quite a number are going to vote for resubmission, who will support prohibition in their own states," and "that appears to me to be consistent."

In the event the judiciary committee does not report the measure, Representative Rainey of Illinois, the Democratic leader, expects to offer it.

Garner said he had not seen enough of the members to definitely ascertain whether the repeal resolution would be adopted.

IMMORALITY OF PUPILS PROBED

HOUSTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The "wide open attitude in the home" was blamed today by School Superintendent E. E. Oberholtzer for drinking and immorality assertedly involving high school students and other young people which is being investigated by the grand jury, school authorities, and others.

"The dad wants to carry on," said Dr. Oberholtzer, "and the children do, too."

He said the children were following in the footsteps of their parents.

"The schools are the direct reflectors of the home attitude and conditions," continued Dr. Oberholtzer.

Frank Williford, jr., assistant district attorney assisting the grand jury, announced yesterday that indictments ranging from misdemeanor charges to one of murder by abortion would be returned by the grand jury in connection with an investigation to vice conditions among Houston school children.

YOU CAN HAVE GOOD TIME AND ALSO • BE HEALTHY, HEALTH CHAMPS PROVE

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 — It's possible to have a good time and at the same time enjoy good health.

At least that's been the experience of the new health champions of the United States, Ross Allen, 20, Salem, W. Va., and Miss Dorothy Eiler, 16, Hill City, Minn.

"Sure, I dance and date, too," Ross admitted after his selection by the national 4-H club as one of its two health champions.

"Of course, I have dates and go to parties just as all high school girls do," Miss Eiler had to say for herself, "but," she added, "I'm always in at 10:30 on school nights and I always arise between 6 and 7 o'clock."

However, liquor has no place in either of their lives. And neither smokes.

"No," Ross responded when asked if he drank. "Not that I'd admit it if I did. A national health champion couldn't be expected to say 'beer made me what I am.'"

For pastimes Ross plays basketball and tennis at Salem college, where he is a senior. He enjoys the luxury of riding to school in a car but every evening he milks several cows.

As for Dorothy she gets her fun skating, swimming and skiing and, of course, dancing. With her natural pink complexion rouge is unnecessary but she does touch up her lips a bit with lip stick when going to a dance," she said.

She scored 98.6 per cent perfect while Ross bettered her with a score of 99.4 per cent. Slight dental imperfections kept them from attaining the 100 mark.

ROAD JOBS AT STANDSTILL

NEARLY FOUR MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF WORK HELD UP

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Nov. 30.—Nearly four million dollars worth of highway construction today awaited dissolution of an injunction restraining the Texas highway commission from awarding contracts.

At yesterday's session of the commission low bids on projects advertised for letting aggregated $1,894,388. The day before low bids on proposed improvements totaled $1,940,501 making the combined cost of contemplated improvements considered during the two-day session $3,834,889.

Yesterday's bids were for 35 miles of concrete pavement, 98 miles of grading and drainage, forty-two miles single bituminous surface treatment, 48 miles base construction, five bridges and seven miles reconstruction and widening.

A hearing in the third court of civil appeals on a petition of James V. Allred, attorney general, to dissolve an injunction granted by a Travis county district court restraining the commission from awarding the contracts, has been set for next Saturday. The restraining order was obtained by James E. Ferguson, husband of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, governor-elect, and others.

DROWNS CHILD AND HERSELF

MOTHER THROWS TWO BABIES IN CISTERN; ONE IS RESCUED

(By The Associated Press)

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 30.—Throwing two of her children into a cistern, Mrs. Rose Burger, 29, jumped in after them today and drowned. One of the children, the feet bound together, was rescued, but the other drowned.

Floating in the water with the bodies was the will of Mrs. Burger's father, John Geckle, 75, over whose death and disputed provisions of the will she was reported to have been despondent.

Older Child Saved

Six-months-old Clarence Burger, drowned today with his mother. Virginia, 5, was rescued by the father, Fred Burger, who was aroused by a third child, Janet, 7.

Mrs. Burger today took Clarence and Virginia from their beds tied Virginia's feet together and the baby's hands behind his back. She fastened a water bucket to her own feet to make certain she would sink.

Discussed Will

Burger, who has been jobless for the last two years, said he and his wife sat up late last night discussing her father's will, over which relatives were reported dissatisfied because Mrs. Burger was a principal beneficiary.

Mrs. Burger and her brother, Clarence, of Detroit, were bequeathed $1,000 each. Other relatives were left sums ranging from $25 up.

The Burgers hau another child, Bobby, 3.

Negro Charged In Shoplifting Here

Sam Samuel, 29, a Lubbock negro, was charged with theft of a dress valued at $29.50 from Carter-Houston department store, 1220 Avenue J, in a complaint prepared for filing this morning by the county attorney's office.

Samuel was arrested late Tuesday night by Lubbock police, who said they found the dress in a negro woman's house in the 1500-block of Broadway. Another negro woman was arrested by police as a witness in the case. The woman in whose house police said the dress was found told them, they reported, that the negro wanted to sell the garment.

NEARLY COMPLETE RETURNS IN RECENT ELECTION SHOW 3 RECORDS TOPPLED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Nearly complete returns from the November 8 elections show the American electorate toppled three records in casting a total vote of at least 39,000,000 and giving Governor Roosevelt 22,314,058 and President Hoover 15,575,474.

This huge total with more than 30 states complete to date is an increase of more than 2,000,000 over the previous high of 36,789,669 polled in the 1928 Hoover-Smith election; Roosevelt's vote is the most ever given a winning candidate, and Hoover's is a new top figure for a losing nominee.

Seven minor party candidates received 1,008,164 on the basis of returns from all but about one-twelfth of the nation's 119,643 voting precincts or districts—tripling the minor party balloting of four years ago.

Roosevelt's plurality of 6,738,584 over Hoover compares with a plurality of 6,423,612 given Hoover over Smith in 1928 and the 7,338,513 Coolidge plurality over Davis in 1924 when a third party ticket was in the field.

Six states gave Roosevelt more than a million votes: California, 1,276,423; Illinois, 1,882,304; Missouri, 1,006,613; New York 2,524,616; Ohio 1,301,695; Pennsylvania 1,278,425.

OFFICERS ARE ASKED TO BE ON LOOKOUT

ONE MURDER AND ONE ASSAULT SUSPECT AMONG FUGITIVES

(By The Associated Press)

VICTORIA, Nov. 30 — Ten prisoners, including one charged with murder and another with criminal assault, escaped from the Victoria county jail early today. They sawed out.

Peace officers throughout South Texas were called upon to search for the fugitives.

Sheriff R. S. Weisiger of Victoria county flashed descriptions of the fugitives to officers throughout this part of the state.

Eight Men Sighted

Six hours after they escaped, eight men carrying bundles were seen making their way through the Guadalupe river bottoms in the direction of McFaddin. The same group attempted to saw their way out of upper cells a week ago and were moved to others lower.

The sheriff said he had uncovered information which led him to believe the men were aided by accomplices who may have provided them with an automobile. The men took their blankets with them.

Sheriff Weisiger said it was likely that they had headed toward Houston.

Kept In "Tank"

Bars in the run-around and on an outside window of the jail were sawed to open up an escape route. The men were not confined in separate cells, but were kept in a large "tank."

Sheriff Weisiger said the men all had been in jail several months and their faces were well bleached out.

The 11 prisoners were Henry Equia, under indictment for the murder of Alcario Eguia, his grandfather; Harry Sykes, under indictment for criminal assault; James Hardy, Harvey Sanders, Ira Lee Hardison, Guadalupe Ramirez, Leonard Hickson, O'Leary Simm, Jack Carter and C. O. Colston.

The cases of Equia and Sykes had been set for trial in the present term of court, the sheriff said.

LABOR TAKES UP INSURANCE PLAN

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 30. (AP)—A proposal for unemployment insurance to be paid for by employers and administered by the states was up for consideration today at the American Federation of Labor's convention here.

The convention already has gone on record for a program to insure the worker keeping his job as long as possible—the 30-hour week. Now the federation leaders' aim is to protect him should he lose that job, and unemployment insurance is the proposed answer.

POLICE GUARD CAPITALIST

GALVESTON MAN SAID INTENDED VICTIM OF KIDNAP PLOT

(By The Associated Press)

GALVESTON, Nov. 30 — Police today were guarding the residence of Maco Stewart, Galveston capitalist, and the office of the Guaranty Building and Loan company, of which he is president, after a mysterious visit to Stewart's home last night by four men who, police believed, planned to kidnap Stewart.

He was absent on a hunting trip with friends at a Bayshore camp. A negro yard man who lives over the Stewart garage met the large sedan carrying the four strangers when they entered the rear driveway late last night. The men threatened the negro when he said the capitalist was on a hunting trip but finally drove away when the negro convinced them Stewart was not at home.

Stewart has extensive business interests here and elsewhere in Texas. Recently he has been active in fighting what he terms the "spread of communism" in the United States and organized an association to fight communism called "America, Inc."

DEATH OF SON IS REVIEWED BY WITNESS

DEFENDANT EXPECTED TO TESTIFY IN HIS OWN BEHALF TODAY

Woody Tudor's death, over which A. L. Tudor, Slaton grain and coal dealer, shot and killed Dr. S. H. Adams in his office on October 13, was caused by "shock and hemorrhage following injuries," Dr. R. G. Loveless of Slaton testified in Tudor's murder trial in 99th district court this morning.

Tudor is being tried for the pioneer Slaton physician's death whom he blamed for his son's death which occurred on an operating table in Dr. Adam's office on the night of August 25.

Bradley Testifies

Dr. Loveless, one of the physicians present when young Tudor died, occupied the stand throughout most of the morning session, his testimony practically completing the state's case. District Attorney Durwood Bradley followed the young physician on the stand and testified to minor details regarding the doctor's office, measurements, etc., and at this juncture, the prosecution rested its case.

Defense counsel will begin presentation of its testimony this afternoon, the majority of which will be given by the gray-haired defendant himself.

Dr. Loveless, who said he had been practicing in Slaton only since July and previously was connected with a hospital at Lamesa for two years, gave detailed testimony regarding the younger Tudor's condition when brought to his office following the accident. Young Tudor was moved from his office to that of Dr. Adams where the death occurred.

Grandchildren In Court

Throughout the morning, two small grandchildren of the defendant, both of the late Woody Tudor's family, cut out paper dolls and played on a table in front of the judge's bench. The defendant's wife sat near them.

Dr. Loveless recalled Woody Tudor's injury and said the young man was brought to his office with a badly broken arm, "the bones protruding in several places" af-

U. S. MARINES TO LEAVE NICARAGUA

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 30 (AP)—The final exodus of United States marines under the United States withdrawal policy was under way today, and the entire force of 700 is expected to be evacuated by Jan. 3.

The first unit of departing American troops numbered about 300 men. They left Managua yesterday for Corinto and embarkation for home today.

(United States marines were first landed in Nicaragua in 1912, and remained 13 years. They were withdrawn in 1925, but sent back in 1927 to help maintain order. At that time the insurgent, Augustino Sandino, was engaged in activities in the north, and has engaged in military conflict with the marine trained national guard since then.)

Extra Session For Farm Relief Looms

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. —(AP)—With fresh difficulties piling up, enactment of farm relief measures at the short session of congress may be limited to some emergency program such as price fixing and possibly mortgage refinancing.

As conferences on agricultural aid continued and senate and house committees prepared to study the question, the conviction grew among capitol hill leaders today that any comprehensive program for either farm relief or fiscal readjustments must await a special session.

LUBBOCK BUYERS ARE REALLY DOING THEIR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY

The familiar "Do your Christmas shopping early" slogan is taking effect this year, according to local merchants. For the past week and a half business men have had to park their cars a block or two away because of the increased traffic, an inconvenience which they welcome because the traffic means shoppers who are really buying things.

The end of the cotton season and the migration of pickers away from this part of the country ordinarily would mean a noticeable slump in business, one store manager, said, but the successful beginning of the Christmas season has caused a rise this year which, in many cases exceeds the sales for this time last year.

November always brings more business to the stores than does October, a record which has been established over a period of years. This fact, one merchant said, may account for the apparent increase in sales at this time.

Dollar day which the department stores hold the first Monday of each month usually is preceded with a decrease in business during the last week of the month. Most of the stores have not noticed the decline this week although some of them predict that there will be fewer shoppers in town during Thursday, Friday and Saturday than

SON OF JERUSALEM AND SON OF ROME TANGLE IN COURT AND THE JEW WINS

A son of Jerusalem and a son of Rome tangled Tuesday in Justice of the Peace W. S. Clark's court, and the Jew won, in a civil suit brought by the Italian against the Jew for a purported labor debt. To add other racial types, an American tried the case, and a negro was a witness.

The attorneys, Max Coleman for the plaintiff, and Owen McWhorter for the defendant, still were chuckling over the case last night. The Italian, who had claimed he made clothing for Al Capone, sought $59 as a result of working for the Jew, another tailor. The defendant claimed—and proved to the court's satisfaction—he had agreed only to feed the plaintiff until other employment could be found.

"I'm notta gonna answer any more questions from you," the Italian told McWhorter during cross examination. "You're notta my attorney." Not until Justice of the Peace Clark ordered him to answer the attorney's questions did he testify.

During defense testimony, plaintiff interrupted the trial frequently, appealing to the court to "let me talk." The negro witness is a barber shop porter here.

Is First Woman American Envoy

* * *

"The Minister left last night. I have assumed charge. WILLIS" . . . When Secretary of State Stimson, in Washington, received that brief cable from Miss Frances Elizabeth Willis, third secretary of the American legation in Stockholm, it meant that for the first time in history a woman was representing the United States as acting Minister to a foreign country. There is no first secretary of the U. S. legation in Sweden, and the second secretary, a man, happened to be absent. Thus, when John M. Morehead, Minister to Sweden, went on leave of absence, authority automatically rested on Miss Willis. The 33-year-old diplomat, pictured here, was born in Metropolis, Ill., later living in California. After graduating from Stanford University she taught political science, and finally entered the foreign service in 1927. She was vice consul at Valparaiso and Santiago, Chile, until 1931, when she was sent to Sweden.

One Coffee That's Really Different

—Not Merely a Different "Name" or "Brand"

A Rare Type of Coffee That Not 1 Person in 20 Ever Has a Chance to Taste Because Only a Limited Amount Can Be Grown Each Year

For A Real Change, Try The Flavor of Mountain-Grown Coffees From The Famous West Coast Of Central America

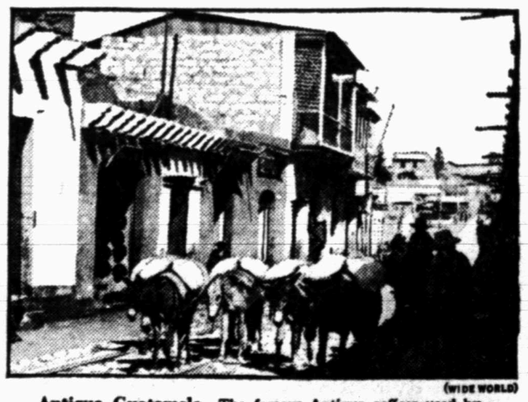

FROM the West Coast of Central America comes a rare flavor of coffees that's little short of a revelation.

Not merely another "name" or "blend." Not merely a different "brand." But coffees of an indescribable richness and winey tang such as you've probably never tasted before.

For these rare coffees are more difficult to obtain. And only a limited amount can be grown each year in the tiny districts that produce them. So many people never have a chance to taste them.

Mountain-Grown

They are raised chiefly in isolated plantations where a peculiar set of coffee-growing conditions prevail.

(WIDE WORLD)

Antigua, Guatemala—The famous Antigua coffees used by Folger are one of the world's rarest varieties.

They differ from ordinary coffees because they're mountain-grown. Nourished in an odd-type of rich volcanic soil, where altitude and tropic rainfall combine to produce a flavor which coffee experts concede is not duplicated anywhere else in the world.

These are the rare coffees you taste in Folger's—the coffee so many women are turning to today. Brought to you with all the mountain-freshness faithfully preserved in key-opening, vacuum tins.

And to let you try them without delay, to let you test their unusual flavor—we make the following unique suggestion.

Try This Test

Just go to your grocer and get a pound of Folger's today. Drink it tomorrow morning.

The following morning serve the coffee you previously used. The third morning serve Folger's again. Then choose between them.

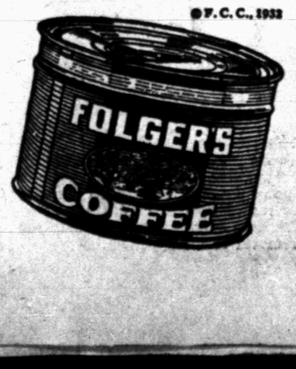

If, for any reason, you decide against Folger's, your grocer will refund your money. We'll pay him. That's fair, isn't it?

NOTE: Folger's is particularly economical. Because of greater richness and body, you may use 1-5th less! Get a can today!

LATCH STRING TO ROSE BOWL CONTEST IS OUT TO MICHIGAN

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

The Texas Interscholastic league high school football "tournament" enters the semi-quarter-finals, or the bi-district district games this week. Sixteen teams will play Friday and Saturday in the Class A division. Amarillo, champion of District 1, will meet Ranger, the District 2 winner, at Ranger on Saturday.

* * *

The Sandies, winners over Lubbock in the district final, are favorites to cop this week's game and meet Sweetwater, who should have little trouble beating the El Paso team this week, in the West Texas feature next week. Amarillo holds a decision over Ranger once this season and should win again.

* * *

Prexy Anderson, the Abilene scribe, has the state race all figured out. He picks Sweetwater, Amarillo, Sherman, Masonic Home, Athens, Corsicana, John Reagan and Corpus Christi to emerge winners this week and enter the quarter-final stage next week. In the quarterfinal games, Anderson says Sweetwater will beat Amarillo, Masonic Home will topple Sherman, Corsicana will take Athens and Corpus will nose out the Houston entry. To quote Prexy:

* * *

"It is at the semi-windup stage now. The snow is falling, and people are doing their late Christmas shopping early. We find Sweetwater and Masonic Home tangling in one of the classics of the entire race and Corsicana playing Corpus Christi. The former will be the feature, but the Ponies will nudge the Masons, while Corsicana will have the Buccaneers out.

The final is now before us. Corsicana and Sweetwater collide. The Mustangs win. Here's the trophy, Sweetwater. Take it, and quit bothering us."

* * *

There are a few objections to Prexy's pre-final summary. Going back to this week's games, we agree with Prexy in all but the Greenville-Athens game. Henry Frnka will put another team into the quarter-final mixup, and the Lions will give Corsicana a fit in the quarter-final go. There is another flaw in the latter stage. Sweetwater will not defeat Amarillo, so that wallops Prexy's pick all to thunder. John Reagan of Houston ought to upset Corpus Christi. We believe in upsets.

* * *

And so, in the semi-final games, we will see Amarillo nose out Masonic Home and Corsicana defeat John Reagan. Then comes the final wherein Corsicana loses to Amarillo, 13 to 0.

* * *

You see, Amarillo has it. Taking it will be another thing, but the Sandies are more powerful than they themselves realize. They've power to spare. If they can call out that power the rest is easy. We haven't seen all the other teams play, not by a long shot, but we believe the class is in West Texas. We've seen Sweetwater perform. It has a nice ball club, with Ney Sheridan an outstanding touchdown manufacturer. Masonic Home has an all-stater in Scott McCall. Sweetwater doused Lubbock, 24 to 7, but at that time Amarillo could have beaten Lubbock 40 to 0.

* * *

About time to talk all-district, all-state and all-this-and-that. We'll name our all-District 1 team next Sunday. We can name you at least three at this time. They are Captain Louis Spear, Lubbock tackle; Bill Davidson, Lubbock halfback and Chiggers Enochs, Amarillo halfback. The others are probable. Amarillo's Mann, end, will probably land an assignment, although Pampa has a couple of good wingmen. Tol Terrell, Lubbock halfback, deserves strictly honorable mention, but because Lubbock didn't show a great offense at Amarillo last week the Sandies probably will usurp about three backfield positions, with Dunivan at quarterback. But that'll be thrashed out Sunday.

* * *

Why, oh why can't scribes and fans learn the name of the Southwest conference? After 17 years there are those who persist in calling it by its wrong name.

Emblazoned on a four-column cartoon appearing in that agent of "journalistic perfection and newspaper propriety," the Dallas News, appeared the words, "Southwestern Conference." Omit the "ern" on the first word and you have it right.

Would Sample Beer To Decide Content

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—If the house judiciary committee is asked to rule on a constitutional alcoholic content for beer, Chairman Sumners has his idea about how to determine it.

"We'll just send out for samples," he said. "It seems to me that's a good way to decide what is intoxicating in fact."

But since Sumners is and always has been a personal dry, his remark wasn't taken very seriously.

TROJANS WANT TO MEET BIG TEN CHAMP

U S C AWAITS POSSIBLE ACTION IN LIFTING POST-SEASON BAN

BY PAUL ZIMMERMAN,
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30. (AP)—The latch-string to the Rose bowl portals at Pasadena is out to Michigan.

University of Southern California made this fact obvious last night in accepting the invitation to represent the west for the fourth time in the annual intersectional Rose tournament football classic without comment as to its possible opponent.

Colgate and Pittsburgh, the east's potential candidates, have indicated a willingness to participate should the opportunity present itself.

To Await Action

Trojan officials will await possible action of the Big Ten conference in its meeting this week-end on lifting the anti-post season game barrier in favor of the undefeated Wolverines.

Under these circumstances the announcement of Southern California's opponent is not expected before late Saturday. But Big Ten alumni were inclined to be pessimistic today as to the possibilities of seeing Michigan in action at Pasadena, Jan. 2.

ANOTHER GAME ALLOWED TCU

PERMISSION GRANTED FOR POST-SEASON FOOTBALL TILT

DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dan Rogers, chairman of the athletic council of the board of trustees of Texas Christian university at Fort Worth, announced here Tuesday that T C. U., newly crowned football champion of the Southwest conference to play a post-season intersectional to play a post-season intersection game.

He also revealed that the Frogs have numerous opportunities for games, including an offer to meet an outstanding eastern eleven at the Polo grounds in New York City.

May Play Auburn

Rogers said an offer from the winter sports committee of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce to arrange a game with the Southern conference champion at New Orleans on Saturday, December 31, was satisfactory to T. C. U. but a few minor details remained to be worked out.

Auburn at present is Southern conference leader and will clinch the title if it beats South Carolina Saturday. Should Auburn lose Tennessee, next in line, might be substituted as T. C. U.'s opponent.

It was probable that Rogers and L. C. Wright, business manager of the T. C. U. team, would meet Sunday in New Orleans with representatives of the chamber of commerce there to work out final details for such a game.

JOHNSON ELECTED RAZORBACK PILOT

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 30 (AP)—Lewie "Red" Johnson, end was elected 1933 captain of the University of Arkansas football team and Tom Murphy, quarterback, was named sub-captain at the annual football banquet held last night at the home of President John C. Futrall of the university. J. L. "Bull" Erwin, tackle, is outgoing captain.

Varsity players receiving letters were: Benton, Biddle, Black, Boepple, Chinn, Chambers, Edmondson, Eldson, Captain Erwin, Geiser, Johnson, C. Jordan, G. Jordan, La Forge, Martin, Murphy, Nations, Phillips, Rucker, Sherland and Sout.

Reserve letters were awarded to Lake, Greer, Harriss and Rees. The letter awards were made by Coaches Fred Thomsen and Charles Bassett.

DIES OF BURNS

HOUSTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Emma Forque, 90, who had 12 children, 71 grand children, more than 100 great grand children and 12 great great grand children still living, died in a hospital here yesterday from burns sustained Monday when her clothing caught fire as she passed too near a gas stove. Relatives beat the flames from the clothing of the elderly woman but not before she had burned fatally.

Major General E. L. King of Atlanta flew 12,000 miles during the summer training season to inspect 15 army posts in the fourth corps area.

FOUR NEBRASKA PLAYERS WIN PLACES ON HONORARY BIG SIX ALL-STAR TEAM

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 30. (AP)—Four members of the champion Nebraska football squad won places on the 1932 honorary all-star first team selected for the Associated Press by coaches, athletic directors and sports writers from the gridiron ranks of the Big Six conference.

The 20 observers awarded first team places to three men of the University of Kansas, two representing Kansas State college and one each from Oklahoma and Missouri.

Dunlap Is Captain

The captaincy of the first eleven went to Bob Dunlap, Oklahoma's 182-pound quarterback, in a contest with four others. Paul Young of Oklahoma ran second to Lawrence Ely of Nebraska for the first team center position and second to Dunlap for the captaincy, and he is thus both captain and center of the reserve eleven.

As quarterback, Dunlap would be director of three of the heftiest backs in the circuit, all of whom have played quarterback.

Elmer Schaake, of KaKnsas, was high scorer for conference games with 34 points. Ralph Graham, Kansas State halfback with 85 points scored in conference and non-conference play, ranked second among the nation's scorers.

TAKING TIP FROM NOTRE DAME, ARMY COACHES SING THE BLUES THIS WEEK

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—Taking a leaf from Notre Dame's book, Army's football coaches are singing the blues this week.

Notre Dame, it will be recalled, came to town just about a week ago, weeping copiously because most of her stars were suffering from influenza or hobbling around with injuries.

"We hope to hold Army to three touchdowns," said Coach Hunk Anderson in between sobs.

What the Ramblers did to Army a few days later now is history. Their cripples smashed the Cadet line to pieces; their influenza-ridden backs dashed madly through the Army line or around the ends as though they'd never heard the word. When it was all over there was three touchdowns difference between the two teams but Notre Dame was not the loser.

Now it's Army's turn. With the Navy game four days away, Cadet coaches point to an injured list that includes Ken Fields, Felix Vidal, Tom Kilday, Pete Kopcsak, Lincoln, and a few more.

Fields and Kilday both reported for practice yesterday but the other three still were under the care of the team physician. Even should they be able to play against the Tars at Philadelphia Saturday, Army coaches said, they would be unfamiliar with the new plays developed just for the service duel.

Meanwhile a capacity crowd for the game was assured when it was announced that every one of the 78,000 seats in Franklin field had been sold. This will mean the second "full house" before which Army has performed in as many weeks. Eighty thousand persons, as many as the Yankee stadium will hold saw the Cadets routed by Notre Dame last week.

Register of Deeds Carl Prigden of Kinston, N. C., refused to issue a marriage license to a negro man, 95, and woman, 81, because they had only $4 of the regular $5 fee.

FINAL TREK IN TOURNEY IS UNDER WAY

LONGWORTH, DEMARET IN VAN OF FIELD AT TEXARKANA

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

TEXARKANA, Nov. 30. (AP)—The final 36-hole golf trek that will contribute the first annual Texarkana Country club $500 open tournament champion started today under ideal conditions. In the van of the field today was Ted Longworth, Texarkana professional, and the youthful Jimmy Demaret, Houston professional, with their yesterday 36-hole cards of 148 each. Longworth swept to the pinnacle with a 76-72—148. Demaret was there at the finish with a brilliant 74-74—148. General par had a great day yesterday for none of the crack sharp-shooters could nip him. Even though several came close but couldn't make the 36-37—73 par.

Still Wide Open

There is an old proverb that the third round of any 72 holes medal play tournament produces the champion. Whether it will early today or not is a question, for the tournament still is a wide open, fire as you please event, with a dozen or more amateur and professional enjoying a fine chance to spurt and finish in front.

Ben Hogan, Fort Worth with a 75-74—149; Francis Scheider, Dallas with a 72-78—150; Ky Laffoon, Denver, with 74-76—150, are only a few of the redoubtable professionals who will uncock their assortment of best putts and keenest shots today in stout efforts to win first money in the five hundred dollar pot.

Amateurs In Running

Among the amateurs, there's David Goldman of Dallas with 75-77—152; Edwin McClure, the Shreveport champion with 75-77—152; Tommy Cochran of Tyler and former Texas amateur champion with 76-77—153, who finished the first 36 yesterday and face the final two rounds today with the realization of what confronts them but confident they will produce the shots to win the tournament.

At the termination of the first 18 holes yesterday, Ted Longworth and Francis Scheider were leading with subpar cards of 72, but Scheider slipped on the par three third with a four when he found a trap with his tee shot. He went two over par on the next two holes when he three putted each, and from there on in, he had a fight to score as low as a 78. Longworth started the afternoon round well with a birdie two at the third, but he required a glaring six at the fourth and three putted the fifth to start slipping on a round that eventually gave him 76 shots. Through all this, Jimmy Demaret was hitting them a mile off the tees, sending deadly approaches to the cup and one putting for his pair of commendable 74's.

Par Is Tough

There was no visible reason for not scoring low yesterday. The course was dry, the sky clear and there wasn't an ounce of breeze to hinder the accuracy of shot making. But beating par over the long and dog-legged Texarkana course is something that isn't written in the golf book each day. It was the consensus today that Demaret would crack on the final round because he is only a kid and inexperienced in major tournament play, but the galleryites can be wrong. He started playing today with Longworth and Scheider.

Another threesome today that attracted a gallery was composed of David Goldman, Tommy Cochran and Byron Nelson. All three have a chance and are prominent where tournaments are played. This is Nelson's first tournament as a professional after a long career as a winning amateur. He shot a 76-78—154 on the first 36 holes.

Just who will be champion tonight was unknown at the starting tee early today, but one thing is sure, old man par was in for a touch day because each player that sent a drive breezing down the long, narrow and tree studded No. 1 fairway was determined to better his score of yesterday.

A Sensible Move

The federal government is preparing to exercise far stricter supervision over projected trans-Atlantic flights than it has exercised in the past; and anyone who can remember the long series of ill-advised ventures which came to grief in mid-ocean is bound to applaud the move as a very sensible one.

There will still be plenty of room for all flights which have a genuine concern with the advancement of aviation as their main object. The work of charting the air lanes and linking ocean-separated continents together will go on as rapidly as before. No one need fear that the progress of the real air pioneer is going to be handicapped.

But the publicity-seekers, the half-baked thrill-seekers, the stunters—these will have to do their flying over dry land hereafter. And the chances are that the public won't mind a bit.

WITH the Christmas rush right ahead of us and much, much less unemployment than we've had for quite a spell, there seems to be little or no reason why Lubbock, the South Plains and Texas should not slip the gear into high and breeze along.

We're through with state, national and local political campaigns and don't have that to talk about, fret about and worry about.

And, what is more important, football season is over as far as we're concerned!

* * *

There's nothing that takes more time and attention from business in West Texas than football.

From mid-August to December 1 about nine-tenths of the people give two-thirds of their waking time to playing, watching or talking football.

It's a great sport, all right, and The Plainsman believes in backing the teams to a fare-you-well.

But with all its good points football is about the biggest nuisance in the world if you've really got something to do.

* * *

BUT now football is over for everybody save a few who will hold their breath until they get the final New Year's Day returns from Alma, Michigan's, post-season battle with St. Boniface.

All that needs worry us now is work—and, of course, what Jim Ferguson is going to do next.

And what Jim Ferguson is going to do next will be worrying everybody for the next couple of years so we'd just as well get used to it.

Let's all pay so much attention to getting back on top that we won't even worry about the possibility of Jim's swapping his Bosque county ranch for the capitol dome!

"Well, it's this way", the Sooner said. "When Floyd comes to town he always lets the cops know in advance and they're always out somewhere getting a cup of coffee."

* * *

Of course, that may be a joke and probably is.

But it is remarkable to note that while Floyd and his pals were robbing banks in three different towns, later investigation proved that the local constabulary was engaged in warm-up with java!

"No" Man's Land!

Senator Borah Of Idaho Still Holds Senate Spotlight In Spite Of Crushing Defeat Given Republican Party

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—Senator Borah of Idaho apparently is imperishable. Anyone else in his present position would be likely to be sunken in prestige, shorn of power, virtually a dead duck.

Dutcher

His own tenure good for four more years he went through the presidential campaign without declaring himself abdicating a strong position of personal leadership. He will soon lose his powerful post as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to a Democrat. The voters of Idaho have just told him to go chase himself. He persists in aggressively identifying himself with a lost cause—prohibition.

But does anyone predict that he will become any less a vital force in Congress in public life? Is there a single sign that he is in any degree fading from the picture? Does he receive any less attention than of yore? Not yet.

* * *

Insofar as anyone can foresee, he will be the same old Borah, with the galleries filling rapidly whenever it is known that he is going to speak, with the newspaper correspondents piling eagerly into his offices for his famous daily three o'clock conference, with millions in this country and in foreign lands still regarding him as an accepted oracle.

It may even be that the old lion from Idaho is entering into the peak period of his career, despite the fact that the party to which he gives titular allegiance will be in a badly outnumbered minority in the next Senate.

He seems almost certain to play the star role in the dramatic last stand which the drys will make against modification of the Volstead Act and repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. He can't win, but he can die rather gloriously—and, in all probability, with undiminished prestige. He may turn out to be the fatal barrier in the path of the wets when they attempt to jam through a beer bill during the short session.

* * *

The other day he declared himself to vigorously against the sales tax, another prospective source of storm and strife, as to leave little doubt that he would be found in the forefront of that battle. And when Borah gets into the forefront of any fight he is more than likely to steal the show from all the other progressives.

Another dramatic and important issue will be the question of war debts with its interlinked feature of disarmament. That, of course, is Borah's special dish. Next to the president and president-elect he is the man whose views on that problem are sought most often.

Obviously, if he becomes a major figure in the wet-dry tax and debt battles of the coming session, he will knock in the head any idea that Borah has entered a period of eclipse.

* * *

President Hoover probably has no love for Borah, following his refusal to support the president in the recent campaign. The Democrats, now in the ascendancy, owe him nothing except for his silence, whereas the other important progressives—Norris, LaFollette, Johnson and Cutting among them—were campaigning for Roosevelt. And his stand for prohibition opposes a large majority sentiment.

You might think that the senator could at least be fortified with the thought that his constituency in Idaho was still 100 per cent behind him. But if you did you would be fooled.

The fact is that the old master went out campaigning in a big way for the re-election of his Republican colleague, Senator John Thomas, a regular and a Hooverite. After he had made 16 speeches for Thomas the voters of Idaho went to the polls and defeated Thomas almost as overwhelmingly as they turned down Hoover.

Borah is here for four more years, at least. Try to ignore him!

CHICAGO — The police are trying to find what they describe as "an all-American stickup team." They said it is made up of a red faced Swede about 30 years old, an Italian about 32, an American with a Charlie Chaplin mustache, spats and derby, and a girl about 18.

Too big for a cell, a Clevelander weighing 493 pounds was acquitted of a liquor charge. Justice, it seems, will have to get a new pair of scales.

PITTS SPEAKS AT ROTARY LUNCHEON

E. L. Pitts, county judge, was the principal speaker at a luncheon of the Rotary club today in the Lubbock hotel. Mayor J. J. Clements had charge of the program, theme of which was community service and which consisted chiefly of a report of city-county welfare operations of the last two years.

Judge Pitts said tax-supported charity was the most equitable way of dealing with distressed cases.

Andy Anderson, governor of the 41st Rotary district, of Ranger was a guest at the luncheon, at which he spoke.

About 100 persons attended the luncheon. More than the usual number of guests were present.

About 30 first class Boy Scouts attended a meeting at which a scout class in textiles was organized last night in the textiles building at Texas Technological college, D. T. Jennings, area Boy Scout executive, said.

W. G. McMillan, president of the South Plains Area council, of Lubbock; A. H. Leidigh, dean of the Technological college school of agriculture, who is a troop committeeman and a member of the council executive board, and Executive Jennings attended.

M. E. Heard, instructor in textile engineering, had charge of the class, to which he explained processes through which cotton goes from the time it is ginned until it is in cloth. A motion picture of the mohair industry was shown.

The class will meet at 7 o'clock next Tuesday night. The scouts are working for merit badges in textiles.

Seek To Identify Accident Victim

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. —(AP)— Police are trying to identify a man, about 60, killed by an automobile here early Tuesday night.

They were broadcasting the man's description today in an effort to locate relatives. The man was killed when struck by an automobile driven by J. R. Huber, 28. He said the victim was walking in a traffic lane and was struck when Huber tried to pass another car.

The man's hair was gray, he was about five feet, nine inches tall and weighed about 160 pounds.

CHEMISTRY DESTINED TO BE THE LIFE WORK OF TECH COSMETICS SPECIALIST

Since the beginning of his sophomore year, Hughes Gillian, 22, has been a student instructor in chemistry at Texas Technological college. That has been three years. He had studied chemistry 10 or 12 years and his speciality is cosmetics.

Last year a Technological college student gained nation-wide prominence as a result of keeping saddle horses and serving as a riding instructor to earn her college expenses. Gillian is that kind of student, too. His chemistry not only will earn him a couple of college degrees, it is destined to be his life work.

Opens Laboratory

During that time he has supplemented his expenses by making face creams, powder, shampoos. Meanwhile he has completed all the chemical courses available at the college, has studied psychology of individual differences, biology, dermatology and has read all the literature available on cosmetic chemistry, he says.

So fruitful have been his efforts that he has been enabled recently to open up his own laboratory and wholesale house at 2415 Main street. Within the past month he has secured contracts to furnish many barber shops and hairdressers in Lubbock and surrounding towns with supplies consisting of more than sixty varieties of cosmetics. Gillian explains that there is not a similar cosmetic plant west of Ft. Worth as far as the coast.

To Receive Degree

Gillian is taking a pre-medical course at the college. He expects to receive his B. A. degree in June and a degree in medicine — or more specifically, dermatology—four years hence.

His wife who formerly was Jewel Laney of Tech received her degree in chemistry last summer. She assists him in the laboratory. Mrs. Gillian, before her marriage last Christmas, lived at Lovell hall where she became closely associated with Mrs. Mary Lovell who is now acting as vice-president of the cosmetic plant which will be known as the Gillian Chemical company. Charles C. Galbraith is the company secretary.

"Charme" Trade Name

"Charme," a French word meaning 'delighted,' is the trade name which Gillian has chosen for his products. Ingredients are imported from many countries directly to the plant. Perfumes are a specialty. All products are perfumed with delicately blended formulas all of which are original with the chemist.

Gillian has made an extensive personality study and as soon as his business is built up to warrant an investment in a large variety of expensive perfumes he plans to make formulas to fit individual personalities.

Art Is Explained

The art in making face powder, Gillian says, is in the blending and proportion of materials used. His laboratory is equipped elaborately with sifters and mixers. All the ingredients are measured in a mixer which sifts them through a fifty mesh screen [illegible] machines into a mixing pit which he describes as a "worm turn" because of its twisted mechanism. After this the mixture is turned into a bolting machine which forces the powder through 120 mesh silk, making it smooth and fine.

The color pigment used in brunetted powder is a deep yellow, almost bronze. The color used in flesh is a brilliant crimson and a fiery red shade is used to produce peach. The colors of course, in the raw, are highly concentrated. Gillian explained that only 10 grams of color pigment are used to 30 pounds of powder.

Gillian's ambition is to develop a purer type of cosmetic than is known today. He does not use any kind of water except that which is distilled. None of the products if taken internally are harmful in any way he says.

TUDOR TRIAL

ter the automobile accident on August 25. He said he called Dr. Adams after learning that Tudor was a railroad employe and asked him to aid in the case. He said he examined Tudor's heart and lungs and testified his heart rate "was rapid and good, in rhythm and had no irregularity."

Adams Detained

He said after making the examination, he called Dr. Adams who was detained because of an emergency case in his own office and the doctor asked that Tudor be brought to his (Adams') office. He then sent Mr. A. L. Tudor and some friends over to Dr. Adams to ask him to come over to his (Loveless') office but after Dr. Adams declined he advised Mr. Tudor to take the boy to Dr. Adams.

He said that after an examination had been made by Dr. Adams it was found necessary to give an anesthetic in order to treat the arm. He said Woody objected to using either but after a short discussion told the doctors to go ahead.

"Boy's Father Aided"

Dr. Loveless testified he started administering the ether and continued to do so until Dr. Adams called for him to aid in setting the arm and then he turned the ether to the boy's father who administered it for a short time.

Water Softener Sold—Sam R. Pangburn is in Lubbock to sell the Webb portable water softener for home use. He says his product will soften four gallons of hard water a minute.

SPURRED RIGHT ON

LONDON—While standing on a street curb in Plymouth, Artilleryman Giltings was passed by a motor bus. The bus came close to the curb and struck one of the spurs of the officer. The impact swung him around and he fell heavily to the street. He had to be taken to a hospital for treatment.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30. (AP)—The cotton market opened steady today. While Liverpool cables were hardly as good as due, sterling was firmer and cables reported the political situation abroad improved. There were fair trade buying orders on the market at the opening and there also was price fixing and short covering. First trades here showed gains of 5 to 10 points with January at 5.91, March at 6.01 and May at 6.12.

After these buying orders had been filled, prices eased off on realizing by recent buyers. January dropping to 5.87, March to 5.96 and May to 6.06, or down 4 to 6 points from the opening but still 3 to 6 points above yesterday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market was steady at the lows.

The market ruled quiet nearly all morning and prices gradually eased off owing to a decline in stocks following an early rally. This induced some liquidation by recent buyers and selling by ring scalpers. January eased off to 5.80, March to 5.89, and May to 5.99, or 11 to 13 points down from the early highs and 3 to 4 points under yesterday's close. Around noon the market was steady but at the lows. A private crop estimate issued during the morning made the crop 12,300,000 bales.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 6-9 points advance in response to higher Liverpool cables and on the advance in sterling exchange. Dec. 5.92; Jan. 4.95; Mch 6.03; May 6.12; Jly 6.19; Oct. 6.36.

The early upturn attracted increased southern selling and realizing and prices reacted to the previous close or lower.

The March position advanced to 6.03 at the outset and reacted to 5.94, or 1 point under the previous close. Houses with Liverpool and continental connections were credited with buying here and this demand was interpreted as a possible indication of improved sentiment abroad relative to the debt problem. Price fixing was again in evidence but buyers seemed to prefer to wait for declines.

A local commission house estimated the cotton crop as of November 28 at 12,200,000 bales compared with its November estimate of 11,947,000 and made the ginnings 11,156,000 bales.

Liverpool cables reported a small market for Egyptian futures in Alexandria was 2 lower to 2 higher for achmouni and 5 to 11 lower for sakellaridis.

The decline extended to losses of 10 to 17 points from initial levels under southern, New Orleans and local selling, the latter being prompted by easiness of the stock market. Trade buying was less active. March contracts sold off from 6.03 to 5.89, with the general market establishing net losses of 2 to 7 points. Selling pressure tapered off at these levels and around midday prices were 1 point net lower to 2 points higher.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 30. (AP)—With British exchange showing a brisk advance wheat prices tended upward early today. Traders said that after a long downgrade course of wheat values, a natural reaction was overdue.

Opening unchanged to 5-8 higher, wheat afterward held near the initial limits. Corn started at 3-8 off to 1-8 up and subsequently kept about steady.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—The stock market slipped through the lower limits of its recent trading range today.

The market picked up a little speed on the decline, but there was nothing to suggest more than normal-sized offerings, presumably by tired investment and speculative holders who had been holding patiently for weeks without evidence of gains in values. Rails, which in the early declines were up nearly a point on the average, were sold rather freely. Santa Fe and Union Pacific lost 3 points or so. New York Central, Pennsylvania and Southern Pacific declined about a point.

Favorite industrial and utility stocks during the September rise were among the heavier shares. United Aircraft, American Telephone, Case and American Can lost 2 points or more. U. S. Steel preferred dipped 3 and the common was down more than 1. Safeway Stores was a soft spot, breaking about 4 points. Consolidated Gas, North American, Harvester, and Westinghouse Electric were all down 1 or more. General Motors and General Electric lost fractionally.

"BUSINESS MEN IN BETTER FRAME OF MIND," BUISCH SAYS ON ARRIVAL IN LUBBOCK FOR THREE SPEECHES HERE

"Business men are in a better frame of mind," L. H. Buisch, of the merchants service bureau of the National Cash Register company of Dayton, Ohio, said on arriving here late this morning from Amarillo to fill three lecture engagements.

Mr. Buisch will speak before an economics class at Texas Technological college at 3 o'clock this afternoon, at a dinner-meeting of the Lubbock Retail Merchants association at 7 o'clock tonight, and at a dinner of Red & White store executives and employes at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow night.

Invitation Given

Lubbock merchants, clerks and professional workers, whether or not they are affiliated with the Retail Merchants association, are eligible to attend the dinner tonight in the Hilton hotel.

"Merchandising for Profit" will be Mr. Buisch's subject. He will explain methods successful in profitable retailing, as observed in practice, and show the reason for their success, he said.

"We've been selling for volume, volume, volume," Mr. Buisch said. "Volume isn't worth a snap of your finger unless you have profit."

Lauds Advertising

"Merchants can't afford to sell shoddy merchandise, for the people can't afford to buy it." Newspaper advertising gives a maximum of coverage for a minimum of cost, he said.

Mr. Buisch has passed recent months in the east, particularly in New England, and observed that, although material improvement in conditions has not been marked there, business men are more hopeful.

"The election has had a tremendous influence," Mr. Buisch continued. "I believe Roosevelt is a man who will grow with his office. I have heard business men in the north and east—Republicans—say we needed this change. Roosevelt has a good team-mate in Jack Garner."

The Red & White stores dinner, at which Mr. Buisch will speak, will begin at 7:45 o'clock Thursday night in the Browning & Price Cash grocery, 1505 Avenue Q.

Reservations Made

Fourteen or more persons of other South Plains cities to noon today had made reservations for the Retail Merchants association's dinner-meeting tonight. Retail Merchants associations, chambers of commerce, retail stores and other distributors, and newspapers of Slaton, Lamesa, Sudan, Levelland, Plainview, and Petersburg were represented in the reservations.

Price of admittance at tonight's dinner will be 50 cents.

R. C. Smith will be toastmaster. Miss Ethel McKinley will read, and several musical numbers will be given by the Texas Tech ocarina quartet composed of Roger Knapp, Lynn G. Gordon, Fred Fairly, and Culver Hill.

Out-of-town persons who have made reservations for tonight's dinner include:

Wm. A. Wilson, manager, Lamesa Retail Merchants association, C. Baldwin, W. B. Collins, Dee Hull, merchants, Lamesa; A. J. Payne, secretary, Slaton Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Lee T. Green, secretary, Slaton Retail Merchants association, and two or three Slaton merchants; Crede J. Rhea, hardware, and Ray Watson, dry goods, Levelland; Mrs. Adella S. Drew, secretary, Plainview Retail Merchants association, and a merchant or two; L. B. Slate, hardware and grocery merchant, and Mrs. Slate, Sudan; Mr. Goodwin, Bryant-Link Co., Virgil Martin, Chevrolet dealer, and E. R. Gibson, newspaper editor, Petersburg.

BANK ROBBERS ARE FOILED

TWO MEN FRIGHTENED AWAY BY SLAMMING OF BANK DOOR

CLEVELAND, Tex., Nov. 30. (AP)—Two men, frightened away by the slamming of a door, were frustrated yesterday in an attempt to rob the First National bank here and fled from the town under pistol fire.

A. H. Duncan, vice president of the bank, was standing at a window talking to A. T. Kent, Houston insurance man, when he noticed two men park their automobile in front of the bank and leave the motor running as they approached the bank door.

Duncan remarked to Kent that he believed the men were robbers. His brother, C. S. Duncan, assistant cashier, overheard the remark and slipped quietly to the back door.

The men stepped inside and flourished pistols, saying, "stick 'em up, this is a robbery." Just then the back door slammed violently as C. S. Duncan ran out to get assistance. "Quick!" one of the men said, "let's get out of here. Someone's gone to give the alarm." They backed out and fled as bank officials opened fire at their car.

Say Farm Collapse Halted By Subsidy

LONDON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Farm economists and the administrators of England's subsidy to wheat farmers are convinced that in its first six months of operation the subsidy has averted a serious collapse which threatened an important section of English agriculture.

The subsidy guarantees a price of 10 shillings a hundredweight to English growers. (Calculated on the basis of the present low pound, this is the equivalent of about 85 cents a bushel.)

The grower is paid the difference between that figure and the average price of wheat in England. Funds are obtained from a tax on imported wheat and flour.

Egypt is essentially an agricultural country, two-thirds of the inhabitants with declared occupations being engaged in farming.

The Age of Selection Is Here

Our times are marked by one vast advantage over all past history—freedom of choice for the average person.

A young man now has a hundred interesting careers to consider. His grandfather had ten. Many paths are open to the scientist, writer, teacher, athlete, business man. When we travel, we often choose between rail and bus and car and plane. Every last thing we buy is one of many offered.

This is the Age of Selection. For advertising keeps us informed. Tells us the special benefits of this, the new features of that. Shows us how to build houses and how to make muffins. Explains why and where and when and how much.

As we read we learn how to discriminate, to recognize worth, to be sure of value received. Before we buy a car or refrigerator or a can of beans, we know what it is and what it offers. Advertising teaches us how to live by this year's rules.

Read the advertisements in this paper. They bring you up to date in this Age of Selection.

LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY RIVAL TO FLORIDA AS CITRUS SHIPPING AREA

HARLINGEN, Nov. 30 (AP)—With a crop of 20,000 or more carloads of citrus fruit, the lower Rio Grande valley will take its place during the 1933-34 season along with Florida as one of the world's leading citrus shipping sections.

Hart T. Longino, supervisor of state and federal inspection work in Texas, estimates that the crop the next season will reach that proportion, barring unfavorable weather. This season the valley will produce appro. imately 5,000 carloads of fruit, 3500 cars less than last season, owing to the killing frosts in March.

Planting Record Made

The estimate for next season was based on the fact that the 3,282,000 trees now bearing would be supplemented by 1,531,000 trees planted during the 1928-29 season and which constitute a record for one year's plantings.

These million and a half trees will not produce a large crop, but the number will add materially to the total. Coupled with this will be the production of a million trees now bearing for the first time and which will bear larger crops next season.

The total number of trees in the valley on April 1 of this year was 7,854,000. Next season will be the first time that more than half the citrus trees in the area will be in bearing.

A number of changes in the handling of the 1933-34 crop are expected, if the crop is as large as now indicated.

Little Certified

"At the present time only about one-fifth of the citrus shipments out of the valley move under federal and state certification," Mr. Longino said. "There is so little fruit, and the market so broad, that certification does not appear necessary to the shippers in many instances.

"But next season, with an indicated crop of 18,000 to 20,000 carloads, it will be necessary to ship only the best of the fruit, and to move it under certification.

A new set of grades has been worked out for valley fruit, after the Florida grades were tried and found unworkable here. The new grades are said to be satisfactory.

During the 1930-31 season Commissioner of Agriculture McDonald of Texas appealed to Florida to hold its fruit off the market early in March, when it became necessary, because of a Mexican fruit worm infestation, to close the Texas season earlier.

A conference between the two states was planned to work out an agreement this year, but the light crops made it unnecessary.

There will be a meeting during the coming spring or summer, however, to work out such a plan. The plan will probably permit the valley to have almost a clear field during December, January and February.

Dallas-Tyler Air Line Is Assured

TYLER, Nov. 30 (AP)—A contract was signed last night by W. T. Pittman and associates of Dallas with the city of Tyler and owners of the airport here to start passenger service Thursday between Dallas and Tyler.

Two trips each way will be made daily, on a schedule of one hour of flying time for the trip. Planes will leave Dallas at 8:20 a. m. and 1:20 p. m. and leave Tyler at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m., connecting at Dallas with northbound lines. Officials of the new line said it was planned as a convenience for oil men, especially those from Oklahoma, traveling to and from the East Texas oil field.

TEXANS FIGHT REPEAL MOVE

DRY FORCES MEET AT DALLAS TO PLAN ON STATE CAMPAIGN

DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Texas allied forces for prohibition, rallying at the First Baptist church here last night, set up an organization and raised funds to carry on a campaign against any change in any part of the prohibition laws of the state and nation.

Resolutions adopted petitioned both the state legislature and congress to stand firm against the return of legalized alcoholic beverages in any form whatsoever.

Resolutions submitted by Thomas B. Love and adopted without dissent asserted that no political platform could bind members of congress to vote for nullification of the federal constitution or against "the best interest of the people of the country."

The general attitude of the meeting, attendance at which filled most of the church auditorium, was that the recent national election was not in any sense a referendum on prohibition but that it was a "political revolution," without opportunity for the proper expression of the public will on the prohibition question.

INVENTORS FEEL HARD TIMES, DO LESS INVENTING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Inventors may be inventing with all the vision and zeal they possessed in 1929, but they are not asking for as many patients to protect their brain children.

Thomas E. Robertson, commissioner of patents, in lamenting that his bureau is feeling the pinch of hard times most keenly, said 10,631 fewer applications were filed in the 1932 fiscal year as compared with 1931, and that they had dropped off 200 a week in the last five months.

But he firmly believes business will pick up soon, pointing out that large corporations which formerly patented everything they manufactured as a matter of insurance, have only temporarily discontinued the practice.

The fellow working at his bench and gadgets in some old garret probably has been discouraged by the higher fees congress placed on applications last summer, but the fact that there are fewer applications means he won't have to wait so long for final action.

CHILD IS KILLED

LONGVIEW, Nov. 30 (AP)—Claud L. Martin, jr., 6, was struck down by an automobile and fatally injured yesterday while his mother looked on, helpless to interfere. The child darted into the path of an oncoming automobile driven by W. E. Nix. Nix reported to Sheriff Martin Hays but Mrs. Martin exonerated him of any blame. The child died in a hospital.

ESTABLISHMENT OF TEXAS TOBACCO GROWING ON COMMERCIAL BASIS SEEN

SAN AUGUSTINE, Nov. 30. (AP)—An important step toward the establishment of tobacco growing on a commercial basis was made here after a visit of H. W. Finck of San Antonio. Mr. Finck expressed great interest in the possibilities of growing cigar wrappers in this section.

Mr. Finck became interested in San Augustine tobacco after having examined sample sent to him through the office of commissioner of agriculture. He made a special trip to San Augustine where further examination was made of tobacco grown by H. C. Smith, local farmer co-operating with J. E. Blohm, former tobacco expert with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Among thousands of samples of Texas grown tobacco inspected by him over a period of thirty-five years the San Augustine growth was the only tobacco that offered commercial possibilities Mr. Finck stated. He was so strongly convinced of the commercial value of the San Augustine tobacco that he offered two hundred fifty dollars to aid in the growing of three acres of shade wrappers. Mr. Finck stated he would pay a reasonable price for the crop and make exhaustive laboratory tests to further determine its value.

Appearance and burning qualities of San Augustine tobacco were excellent, according to Mr. Finck, but it has not yet been determined whether it would stand the firmentation or sweating process required in the manufacturing process.

McADOO WANTS LIGHT WINES

URGES GARNER PLACE WINE PROVISION IN NEW BEER BILL

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30 (AP)—A letter from Democratic Senator-elect William G. McAdoo to Speaker John N. Garner, made public here today, urged inclusion of a provision for light wines in the forthcoming beer bill on the ground that such a step is essential to California grape growers.

Unless the provision is inserted the former secretary of the treasury said, "formidable opposition" will be raised to the beer measure. McAdoo wrote that he saw no reason why light wines should not be included, in view of the pledge in the Democratic platform.

Referring to grape culture as the second largest agricultural industry in California, the letter said it "has suffered terribly for years and has now reached a point where it is almost in extremis."

"While the grape growers of California will have no objection, on the merits, to the enactment of a beer bill, they are very much wrought up on the subject of light wines," the letter continued, adding that, "I want to urge you earnestly to support a provision in the beer bill covering light wines, so that the grape growers of this state may be able to continue their existence."

BAGS "BREED" DEER

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Ben Bunyard of San Angelo returned from the Chisos mountains of the Big Bend country with one of the few "breed" deer ever killed in West Texas. The animal was a cross between a whitetail and a blacktail deer. Its front feet were larger than the rear and slightly resembled the hoofs of a moose. The head, however, was normal. The deer weighed 140 pounds and had eight points.

Three Soldiers Are Given Prison Terms

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Three Randolph field soldiers were found guilty of robbery in two different cases and sentenced to serve terms in the Texas penitentiary by Judge Lester Holt of the twenty-third district court in Seguin Tuesday.

George Ernest Shaver was sentenced to serve eight years for holding up the bank of Schertz Sept. 23. Three hundred dollars was stolen.

The other two soldiers were Cleo Cook and Henry Semmons, indicted in connection with the robbery of the Texaco filling station at Seguin and the kidnaping of Tommie Johnson, the night attendant, last June. They were given a sentence of five years each.

Three Exonerated In Two Ax Deaths

McALESTER, Okla., Nov. 30 (AP)—The ax slayings of Joe House, aged former police chief, and his wife continued to baffle city and county authorities today as three of four suspects were exonerated.

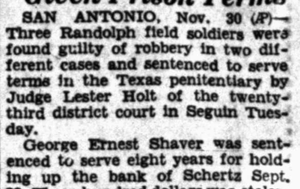

Tom House, 30-year-old son of House, remained in custody for further questioning. Three state's prison convicts were exonerated Tuesday.

County officers were working on the theory the slayings were prompted by robbery or revenge, harking back to the days when House was chief of police.

The bodies were found Monday morning at the home here.

Eternal vigilance on the part of all employees is necessary to insure you against discomfort in such weather as the recent cold waves.
