

Rockets Meet
Panhandle Friday
In Crucial Game

The Skyrockets go up to Panhandle Friday, November 4, for what may be their crucial district game with the Panthers, one of the up-and-coming teams of the conference.

This is the first time the teams have met in district competition, although they played for the bi-district championship a number of years ago.

Members of the Wellington coaching staff saw Panhandle upset Lefors Saturday, October 29, and report they look like they've improved 100 per cent since the Stinnette game October 15, the homecoming game the Panthers lost 38 to 12.

"They look really improved and they're going to be plenty hard for us to handle," Coach John Hurley declared.

The Panthers have a big full-back, Jones Hedrick, who is outstanding, and the Moran brothers, both tackles, do exceptionally well on defense.

The Panthers have lost two non-conference games, won three conference and lost two conference tilts. They rested on the October 21 date. Their other conference loss was to Clarendon in the early part of district play.

Coaching the Panthers is Bill Davis, who came from Tucumcari, N. M., this year to follow former Rocket Star Boyd Williams, who left coaching for classroom teaching in Panhandle.

"We feel like we have a good opportunity to win over Panhandle," Rocket Coach Hurley declared. "If we continue to be as lucky as we have in the past, we may be undefeated when we meet Stinnette in the last game of the season, and if we are, that will determine the district championship."

The Rockets are as good as they have been all year but Hurley described them as "right in the middle of a lot of little injuries. They're boogered up a little and that has slowed them down in workouts. There is some little something that's bothering almost every one of them. Nothing to keep them out of the game, but it slows them up. It's nothing new. We've been plagued with it all year, but the boys still have that good burning desire to win and be the champion ball club."

Coach Hurley said he expected no change in the starting lineup.

IRRIGATION WATER THREE MILES WEST OF TOWN

Eight hundred gallons of water per minute was being pumped out of this new irrigation well on the Pete Hartman farm three miles west of town when the picture was taken. That was the average for the 36-hour test pumping. Mr. Hartman will irrigate about 175 acres with a sprinkler system.

B-Team, 'Crackers'
Play Shamrock
Here Thursday

The Skyrocket B team and Firecrackers will meet the B and junior high teams from Shamrock here Thursday, November 3, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

Not much is known regarding the junior high team. The young Irishmen played Childress twice, winning 19-6 the first time and losing 7 to 6 the second. Wellington has lost to Childress, so that leaves fans and coaches guessing about this game, according to Coach Mack Bush.

Dodson To Have
Guest Preacher

Rev. Melton Ferguson, of Fort Worth, will be the guest speaker at South Baptist Church, Dodson, Sunday, November 6, for both services.

"Rev. Ferguson conducted revival services for the church this summer and was well received by the people. His many friends and acquaintances will want to be present to hear him at these services," the Rev. Bill Hendricks, pastor, said.

Rev. Hendricks will be attending a school of missions in Whitesboro representing foreign missions.

High Eastern Star Appointment

Mrs. Eva Starr Named
To Grand Office

One of the high appointive offices of the Order of the Eastern Star of Texas came last week to a Wellington woman, Mrs. Eva Starr.

At the closing session of the Grand Chapter in San Antonio Thursday evening, October 27, she was appointed Deputy Grand Matron of District 2, Section 5, of the Order of the Eastern Star of the State of Texas.

She and the other elective and appointive officers were installed at that time. Another member of the Wellington Chapter was recognized when Mrs. Mae Hix received a 50-Year Certificate denoting membership of that length of time in the Eastern Star. Mrs. Jack Davis, Worthy Matron, and P. E. Starr, were delegate.

In her office, Mrs. Starr will be over 14 chapters of this area. Her appointment climaxes 26 years of work with the Eastern Star in two chapters, Wellington and Shamrock. It is the second time she has held a Grand Chapter appointment, having been a committee member in 1949-50. The present office is one of the highest appointments given.

Mrs. Starr became a member in Shamrock in 1929, and was Worthy Matron of that chapter in 1937-38. She transferred to the Wellington chapter in 1947.

County Gins 9,641 Bales With Cotton Crop One-Third Gathered

Collingsworth County has ginned 9,641 bales of its surprise cotton crop through Tuesday afternoon, November 1, Claude McKinney, Texas Employment Commission representative here, announced following a survey of the gins.

Of this, 3,841 bales have been ginned during the past week, which has been ideal for cotton harvesting. McKinney estimated that there are enough pullers in the county to take care of the crop now open, and probably there will be no shortage during the remainder of the cotton harvest season. This is an unusual situation here for this period in cotton pulling. He estimated that around 50 per cent of the cotton is now open and around 30 per cent has been gathered.

In the Dodson area, where the cotton continues to turn out more than expected, Ed Crowder of the Farmers Co-op Gin, estimates that probably 35 per cent of the crop is out. That area has enough pullers for the present, and mechanical harvesting will start in a short time.

The grade of the cotton is holding up and the staple remains better than usual. Much of the cotton is still an inch, and for the first time there is a considerable amount of cotton with a 1-3/32 staple.

Leroy Pate, manager of the Tindall Gin at Quail, reported around a third of the cotton harvested in that section. While the grade remains good, the cotton produced in the western part of the county is of a shorter staple than that around Wellington and Dodson. Pate reported much of it 7/8 or better, although there has been some inch cotton on non-irrigated land.

There are plenty of pullers in the community now, and Mr. Pate added that after frost the biggest part of the growers probably would use strippers to finish harvesting their crops.

Around Wellington, an estimated 30 per cent of the crop is out, Dick Sweat, manager of the Farmers Co-op Gin said. He reported the grade improved a good deal since the early part of the season and the staple holding up well. A good bit of the longer-staple cotton, 1-1/32 to 1-3/32 inch, is being ginned here, principally grown on irrigated land. On the other hand, there is quite a lot of cotton being harvested that was burned a little, and this ranges from 7/8 inch through 29/32 to 15/16.

More cotton pullers are in the county now than have been in several years, reports indicate.

Mr. Sweat attributed this partially to the fact that growers here (Continued on Page Twelve)

Legion Auxiliary
Sponsors Poppy
Day November 5

Wellington will observe its traditional Poppy Day Saturday, November 5, sponsored by the Auxiliary of the American Legion, Mrs. John Bevers, Poppy chairman, announced this week.

Co-chairman with her is Mrs. Austin O'Neil.

This date has been set, rather than November 11, since it is Saturday and more people can be contacted.

Girls will sell poppies around the square and in business houses.

A Poppy table will be set up in front of Cochran Drug, Mrs. Bevers said.

"Poppy Day is familiar to all of us and it is good to know that whenever we buy a poppy, the money we give will go to help some disabled service man of World War I or World War II," Mrs. Bevers continued.

Mrs. Mary Stall

Mrs. Mary Stall, a pioneer county resident, suffered a severe heart attack at her home Friday morning, October 28, but by Saturday afternoon, her condition was considered as improving, members of her family said.

The First Baptist Church will observe Extension Day Sunday, November 6, paying tribute to the ill and shut-ins.

Workers of the extension department of the church, which directs home ministry for sick and shut-ins are in charge and a special section will be reserved to have those who cannot usually attend present for the one service.

The Rev. Bill Thomas, pastor, will preach on "Why God Permits Sickness."

The public is invited.

Rockettes Open Season
Against Hedley Nov. 8

The Rockettes, Wellington High school girls basketball team, play their first game Tuesday night, November 8, against Hedley on the Wellington court.

Both A and B teams will play in the doubleheader beginning at 7:30, Coach E. W. Clement announced.

Approximately 30 girls are on the squad this year, Coach Clement said. They have trained as a physical education class since the beginning of school, but only recently have they gone into basketball practice.

"It's still too early to tell what kind of team they will be, but they are showing lots of hustle," he commented. This year's team will be taller than the one last season.

Hedley, although a Class B team, is regarded as a strong team and one that can give the Rockettes some trouble. Almost all the members of last year's team are back.

Coach Clement said he probably will pick his starters in the A team from this group: Co-captains Sally Murphy and Katherine Sanders, and Kay Hubbard, Vada Bell, Adelle Jernan, Sherry Bounds, Jean Crane, Cecilia Cartwright, Sandra Smith, Myra Jones, Caro-

Traditional Event

Legion Plans Open House
On All-Veterans Day

The American Legion will hold open house throughout All-Veterans Day Friday, November 11, Douglas Beavers, chairman in charge of the event, has announced.

The open house will begin at 9 a. m. and continue until midnight. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

All eligible veterans are urged to attend the open house, visit with friends and other veterans, and recall days in service.

Mr. Beavers pointed out that November 11 is now called All-Veterans Day, rather than the traditional Armistice Day, as it has been known since the close of World War I.

The traditional minute of silence at 11 a. m. in honor of the War Dead will be observed.

Over-exuberant youngsters Saturday night splashed red paint on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bounds, located just across the street from the high school-junior high campus, where the annual Halloween Carnival was in progress.

The identity of the youths was learned and the matter taken up with their parents, who agreed to pay for the necessary sanding off of the paint job and applying a (Continued on Page Twelve)

"Both birds were outstanding and of very nearly equal rating," Thomas H. Brogan of the entry department of the fair wrote Mr. Bonneau after consulting with Mr. Burmaster, judge of the show.

His entries also won praise in the Poultry Press, published at York, Penna.

Pullet No. 51, the first place winner, was hatched March 7 and weighs eight pounds. This pullet the daughter of the first place winner in the pullet division at year's Oklahoma State Poultry Federation Show in Oklahoma City.

Beautiful New Styling, More Power In 1956 Chevrolet On Display Friday

Continued emphasis on the superior performance and rakish lines that contributed importantly to record-breaking sales this year give Chevrolet for 1956 its most distinguished new passenger cars.

Scheduled for debut at dealer showrooms across the nation Friday, November 4, the latest models carry increased horsepower, a fleet-er, more rugged appearance and are offered in the broadest array of bodies ever produced by the company.

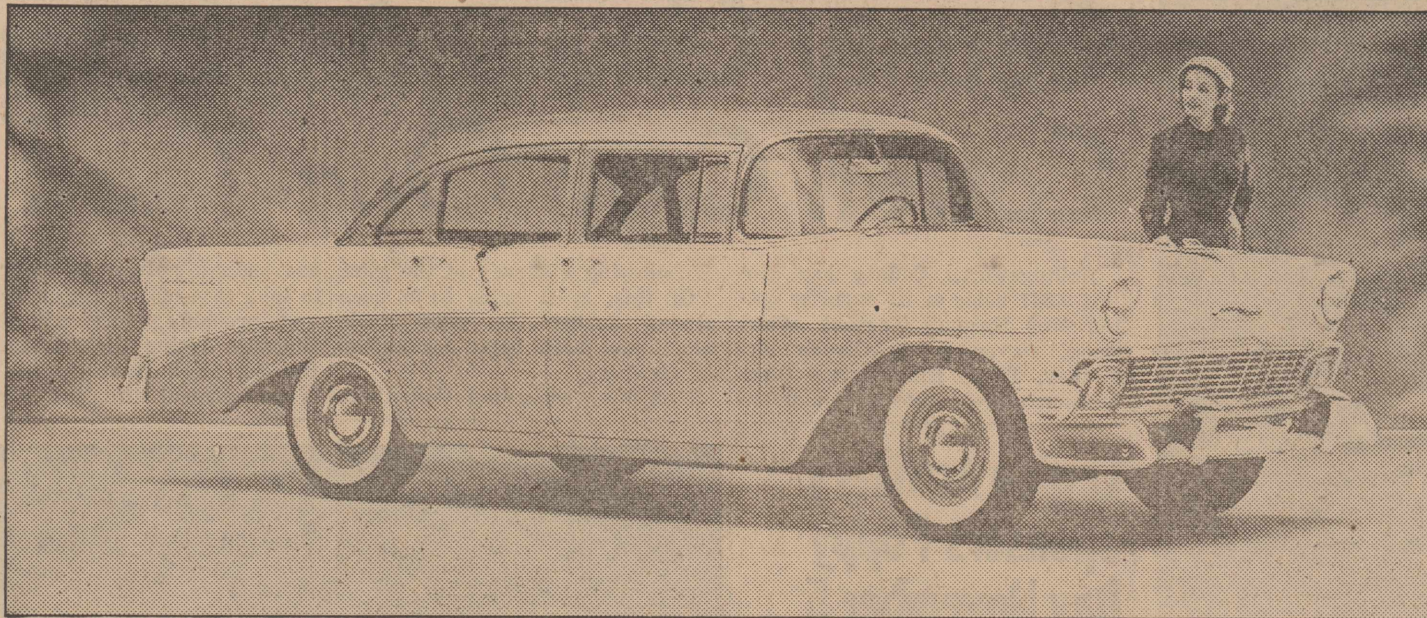

New in the low-priced field is a four-door hardtop sport sedan. This car has no obstructing center pillar in the window area and is fashioned with the same styling zest that made the Chevrolet sport coupe a sensation of the automobile market since 1950. Also introduced for the first time are nine-passenger station wagons, bringing the company's total number of 1956 bodies to 19.

POWER INCREASED

Of prime interest to buyers who appreciate the security of ready acceleration is an increase in horsepower extending from the six-cylinder engine to the pace-setting V8. The new model sixes rate at 140 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire V8 which, in a recent performance test, set a new all-time record at Pikes Peak in September, develops 205 horsepower.

Among outstanding safety features in the 1956 Chevrolet line are the availability of seat belts and shoulder harness; improved, precision-aimed headlights and crash-

New Styling Adds Length and Fleetness to Lines

The "Two-Ten" 4-door sedan is one of 19 freshly styled bodies in three series that will make up Chevrolet's passenger car line for 1956. All models have a longer, lower look. Front ends are more rugged-appearing through a redesign of grille and forward tested door locks to minimize the possibility of door being sprung open by shock or collision.

The safety lock was introduced on Chevrolet models last summer.

The design includes a flange on the door portion of the car which overlaps another flange on the striker mounted on the body pillar. The overlap, or interlock, is designed to prevent disengagement of the two parts in event of a collision.

NEW PAINT HARMONY

Lively paint schemes are offered in accord with the increased color consciousness of car buyers. Choices range from black to a newly developed pigmentation in beige and red. Original two-toning gives each of three price-graduated series an exclusive pattern. Ten solids and 14 two-tone combinations are on the 1956 color chart.

Novel trim ideas, with particular attention to the low-price One-Fifty series, are evident in the interior as well as the exterior treatments. Charcoal shades are new. In a simplification of options, the company announces each series will have a "standard" interior two-tone trim. A wide range of other harmonizing interiors will be available on an optional basis.

In the 1956 Chevrolet, completely new sheet metal complements a more massive grille in all models. The grille is a wider, lattice-work design and the effect of staunch-

Letters From The PEOPLE

Modesto, California
October 24, 1955

Dear Mr. Wells,

This is to tell you we couldn't do without the "Leader" and you will find enclosed a check.

We take this means to tell all our friends at Wellington hello and we miss them. We have a 4 acre ranch with English walnuts on it and are now gathering them.

We invite anyone to come to see us that are passing through or anyone from Collingsworth County. We live two and a fourth miles east of the 99 hi-way bridge on River Road. We are listed in the telephone directory also.

George is now digging sugar beets for Spreckels Sugar Co. He has his own machinery and hauls the beets into Manteca to the sugar mill. Manteca is 15 miles north of Modesto. This is an interesting occupation. We go to the Imperial Valley in Southern California in the spring and then come back to Bakersfield in July and August and then back to Modesto in the fall until it starts raining the last of November.

Judy, our daughter, is a freshman this year and goes to Ceres High School. She says she had rather be going to school in Wellington though.

We plan on a vacation in Wellington during Christmas, so we will see you then and keep the Leader coming.

Respectfully Yours,

Childress Game Just So-So

B Rockets Stop Mustangs
25-0 at Clarendon Fri.

B Rockets blanked Clarendon Mustang B's 25-0 Thursday night, October 27, for their second victory of the season over that team. Clarendon looked like a new team from the earlier game, when the Rockets won by an easy 40-0. While they came home from Mustangland with the big end of the score, the Wellington boys had a much harder time Thursday.

Carroll Nunnelley opened the game by plowing through 20 yards or a touchdown, only to have the play called back and the Rockets assessed a 15 yard penalty for holding.

The game was nip and tuck from here until just before half time when Gibson tried to go through the line inside end, found himself bottled up, and lateraled. James Lee, who ran 75 yards for a score.

Nunnelley, to even off the touchdown he lost, kept plugging away for short gains and finally bowled through the Mustang line for the second touchdown, and Lee passed to Gibson for the extra point, bringing the B Rockets up to 13-0.

For the third counter, the Rockets took turns working the ball down to scoring territory, then Charles Welch took it over from the 15 yard line.

Last of the touchdowns came after the Rockets had backed the Mustangs up to their 40 yard line, with the ball in Clarendon's possession. Nunnelley intercepted a pass, broke loose and went for scoring territory.

Coach Harvey Millsap played his second string during most of the latter part of the game.

Outstanding in the backfield were Nunnelley, who turned in his best game of the season and Lee, while support was given by Gibson and Welch.

Coach Millsap also cited Jerry Belew for his good game at guard, where he was shifted from tackle position, Don Branch, who turned in an excellent game on both offensive and defensive; as well as the good game of Junior White, Raymond Fike, Eulen Branch, James Ammons and Glen Warrick.

The B Rockets had spent the previous week working on their timing, and considerable improvement was noted over the Childress game October 20.

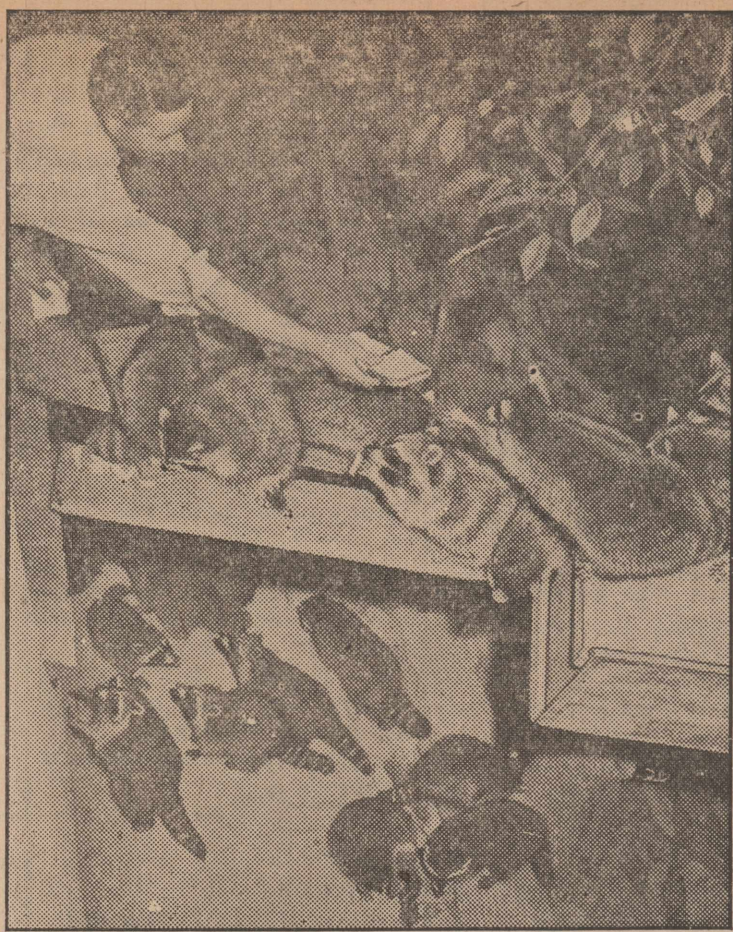

"The backfield has got so they are there at just the right time and we've got the line to blocking for them. They look like a new team," Millsap declared. "All in all they played a very good game and I'm very proud of them."

In addition to the first string members, mentioned above, Millsap played Ray Henry, Denzil Lacy, Clinton Gibbs, Billy Lockhart, Danny Ammons, Johnny Nash, and Johnny Lee. Fred Ketchum, a first string player in earlier games was on the injured list.

The game with Childress October 20, ended in a 6-6 tie, and Coach Millsap's only comment was: "We should have beat Childress but we didn't."

Early in the game, Gibson made an 80 yard run for a touchdown, but the play was called back and the Rockets penalized 15 yards for clipping. Immediately afterward, Gibson made a 75 yards that counted for the Rockets only score.

Later, the Rockets got down on the Childress one-yard line, then on the first down, a hands-off play was fumbled and Childress recovered.

IT'S A TRICK TO TREAT 'EM—The 16 (or is it 17—or 18?) black-masked moochers shown above are only the first table. George Schuster, Jr., shown passing out bread at his Berea, Ohio, home, entertains at dinner for 40 or more raccoons each evening. Schuster fed one raccoon three years ago. Now all the brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts and cousins troop up each evening from Cleveland's Metropolitan Park for a handout. Even at one slice to a customer, Schuster's furry guests go through about 50 loaves a week. A local bakery supplies stale bread for the feasts at a nominal price.

Two students from Texas A&M College here for the week end were Don Lacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Drury Lacy of Shinnery, and Lynn Couch, who formerly lived here.

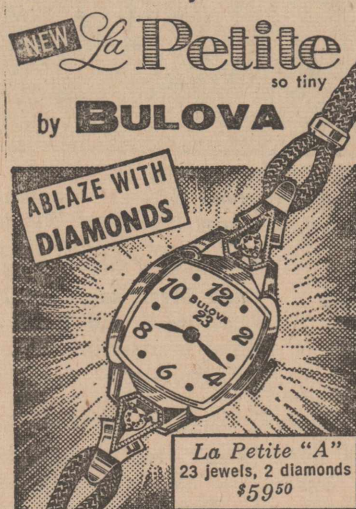

The Rev. Bob Evans, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, attended the sessions of the Baptist General Convention of Texas in Houston last week.

Mrs. E. L. Wilson, Jr., of Dumas and R. B. Johnson of Cactus visited over the week end with their mother, Mrs. W. W. Johnson, who is ill.

Harold Moore and Dean Neff of Borger spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore and Donny. Both Moore and Neff are attending Bethany Nazarene college.

NOTICE

To the Customers of the Welding and Blacksmith Shops in Wellington

Due to the fact that a few customers insist on taking an unfair advantage of the shops by allowing their accounts to run over the customary thirty days, and thereby working a hardship on us, we are adopting the following policy as of November 1; All accounts will be classified as follows:

FIRST: Good
SECOND: Slow
THIRD: Undesirable

To the ones who always pay or arrange satisfactorily for their accounts the first classification is theirs:

To the ones who have the habit of riding along their accounts as long as they can, the second classification is of course theirs:

To the ones who have the habit of getting in debt at one shop and then moving on to another shop and repeating the process, we will all refuse service after their names are filed until the account is marked up as cleared in whatever shop they are indebted to.

This does not mean any reflection on any ones character but is meant as a protection to us in order that we may better serve the ones who intend to take care of their accounts or to make proper arrangements at the right time.

We are sorry that just a few people are making such an act necessary and we are going to give all a short while to satisfactorily arrange with their creditors before their names are filed.

We will therefore appreciate your cooperation if you are one who is in either the slow classification, or of the last classification.

Three Toughest Games Ahead

Rockets Win Fifth District Game 49 to 0

A crippled McLean eleven was not big enough to cope with a hard playing Wellington line as the Rockets piled up a 49 to 0 victory on Powell Field last Friday to chalk up their fifth straight conference victory. The Tigers had been playing without three of their original first string for the past three games and lost another in the opening quarter; but it is doubtful if this would have made any difference in the score. During the last half Coach John Hurley used every player he had in uniform in an effort to hold down the lop-sided score.

The superiority of the Rocket eleven became evident in the opening minutes of play. After making two first downs, Wellington fumbled on the McLean 16 yard line and the Tigers recovered on their own 16. They were penalized 15 yards for illegal use of the hands, and on the next play they were swarmed behind their own goal line with Jerry Elbert recovering for a 2 point lead.

Smiths punt from the Tigers own 20 yard line was particularly good and traveled to the Rocket 25 where Tarver picked it up and brought it back to the Wellington 45. Wellington started another drive with Stansbury and Wilkins carrying and then Jameson slipping through the line getting some key blocks by Scott, Drake and others and racing 40 yards for the first touchdown. And that turned out to be about the pattern of the entire game.

The Tiger backfield turned in a gallant fight with some very hard running on the part of Paul Garvin, Morris Wells, Freddie Smith and Norman Galbreath. They made nine first downs gaining 84 yards on the ground and 59 in the air; but they simply did not have enough line in front of them to put on a scoring drive. When they got too deep into Rocket territory, Messers Elbert, Drake, McNabb, Warren, Scarberry, Scott, Forrester or Hood simply cut off their water. The same was true when the reserve linesmen such as McCaskill, Horton, Carter, Turner and Glenn were in the line-up.

The Rockets second touchdown came when Warner Ford, who is not as fast as many people think but who is much more elusive and tougher than he looks turned in 80 yards for the longest single run of the game. Tarver's kick was good making the score 15 to 0.

McNabb, Warren and Scott set up the start of the next drive when they threw Smith for a 10 yard loss and McLean punted to the Wellington 20. Jameson made 60 yards to put it inside the Tiger 20 after gainers by Ford and Stansbury, Ford carried it over with the try for point again good making the score 22 to 0 where it stood at the end of the half.

At the opening of the second half, McLean got the Wellington kickoff back to their own 45 yard line. On the first play Don Scott, broke through to spill the McLean back for a 15 yard loss. And on the next play Drake and McNabb went through to nail them on the one yard line. The Tigers punted with the ball on their own 1 yard line and it went out of bounds on their own 21. On one play Maxie Tarver went the distance to make the score 28 to 0 and Tarver's kick made it 29 to 0.

In this quarter the Rockets also uncorked what some of the Wellington fans had been wondering about all season—it was the long pass from Elbert to Ford good for 35 and another touchdown.

Don Crawford set up the next to the last Rocket touchdown when he went 20 yards on a beautiful run to place the ball inside the 20 yard line, and on the next play Ford carried to make the score 42 to nothing.

Duggie Jameson made the last one on a forty yard run and the kick was good to wind up the scoring 49 to 0 although there was a lot of playing on both sides.

Both sides were penalized six times: but none of the Rocket penalties were for 15 yards. They were for 5 yards each. While the Tigers received 3 fifteen yard penalties for illegal use of the hands etc. Two of these set up touchdowns and the first resulted in a two point gain for the Rockets.

Next week the Rockets will meet a strong Panhandle eleven at Panhandle. The last two games will be against LeFors here and Stinnett here. Coach Hurley labels them the three toughest games of the schedule. The Rockets can win any one of them and they might just as easily lose any of them. It all depends on the mental and physical condition of all our boys.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Mickey Kendrick is showing the new Oldsmobile this week and Elzie White is showing the new Buick. We are sorry that we do not have news stories on these; but the plain facts happen to be that the publicity departments didn't get the releases out in time. Anyhow the new cars are on display.

Business is picking up in Wellington especially with the grocery and dry goods stores and service establishments. Thus far it has not helped the farm machinery dealers and the car dealers. Perhaps their turn will come later.

The Soil and Water magazine says that there is no better way to get a city man interested in farmers and farm problems than through his desire to hunt. Game being scarce as it is, every hunter is interested in knowing what can be done to make it more plentiful. That's where he can be sold on a complete conservation program by showing him that wildlife conservation and soil conservation goes hand in hand. The idea is to get his support for public policies which favor conservation of the land. The magazine also suggests that this can be done even if the hunters are paying guests.

Farmers constitute only 17 per cent of the population of the United States; but over half of the population of the nation depends on agricultural products for their jobs—processing, distributing and retailing. The farmer gets only 40 per cent of the consumers food and clothing dollar.

George Atkins reports a commendable bit of co-operation and efficient work between the Greenbelt REA and the West Texas Utilities. Old George was going out to the W. T. Colson farm north of Wellington to combine some feed, and while turning in tore down an electric line. He stopped an REA truck and told them the situation. Ted Brock explained that they were permitted to work only on Greenbelt lines; but that he thought he could help. He picked up his two way radio phone contacted the Wellington office. The REA contacted WTU and in forty minutes the line was repaired. The Colsons have a baby that must be kept warm under an electric blanket to stay alive.

The cats are about to take my place. After my good dog died a cat and two kittens appeared on the scene. Now there are five mother cats, seven kittens and one visiting tomcat. And all the birds have departed. Uppy Upchurch had better get that dog he promised pretty soon, or else there may be a fish and liver feeding and cat shooting at my house.

Cliff Campbell says that cats are dumb and unadaptable as compared to Coyotes. He believes that they could live in the alleys of Detroit and New York City. He says that coyotes can live on anything; Rabbits, chickens, grasshoppers, snakes, watermelons, cantaloupes, and any number of other foods. He told of one Childress County trapper that found an old pair eating plums. The trapper made his scent known in the plum bushes, put on a pair of rubber gloves and gathered some of the plums and put them in a pile a short distance from the bushes. There he set his trap and the next day he had the wily old male.

I feel a little uneasy about the future when I hear of these hurricanes hitting farther and farther north for the last twenty years. My feeling is not entirely worry about my son-in-law and daughter and grand daughter who have been on the edge of three of them this season on the Eastern seaboard. Neither is it primarily for the millions in damages that have been caused by floods from the Carolinas to New England. My long range concern is over the fact that the Northern Hemisphere of the earth is getting warmer while the Southern is getting colder.

Scientists say that is the reason the storms from the Caribbean are tending to hit farther and farther north where they were once almost unknown. These storms did great damage along our own Gulf Coast in former years; but they also brought in moisture to the uplands of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and other Southwestern States. The old timers used to say that we would have fall rains when the gulf storms hit the Texas coast. The hurricanes have not hit the Texas coast for five years and the Panhandle has had no major autumn wet spells in five years.

Inventions of Jack Stout Saved Money in War

The recent death of Jack Stout, formerly of the Rolla community, revealed that inventions he developed saved the United States Government huge sums of money during World War II, and for these he was given the Army-Navy Production Award Emblem in recognition of meritorious work.

Mr. and Mrs. Stout had visited his parents only a week before his death. They were making their home temporarily at Abilene.

A victim of asthma, Mr. Stout was not able to enter the armed forces during World War II, so far the entire period he was employed in the Brown Shipyard in Houston, as an instructor in the Division B paint shop, his father said. Noting the methods used, he invented a better method of cleaning spray paint equipment and hose by means of a blast of air saturated with cleaning fluid, run through the equipment. This cut cleaning time from 45 minutes to 15 minutes.

Another of his inventions made possible painting around corners. These were donated to the Navy for the duration of the war and the processes are still used by the government and by private industry, the father said.

The Army-Navy Production Award Emblem was signed by Robert Patterson and James Forrestal, Secretaries of the Army and Navy.

For some years following the war, Mr. Stout operated a paint sales and equipment business in Houston, as well as a fabricating shop for the manufacture of various types of equipment. Due to his continued attacks of asthma, he had sold his business hoping to find a location better suited to his health.

This means: If you can cook by an artificial non-flame method for $2.00 per month — you can do the same amount of cooking with gas for only 50¢ a month! What's more, an automatic gas range costs less to buy, less to install, and less to operate and maintain.

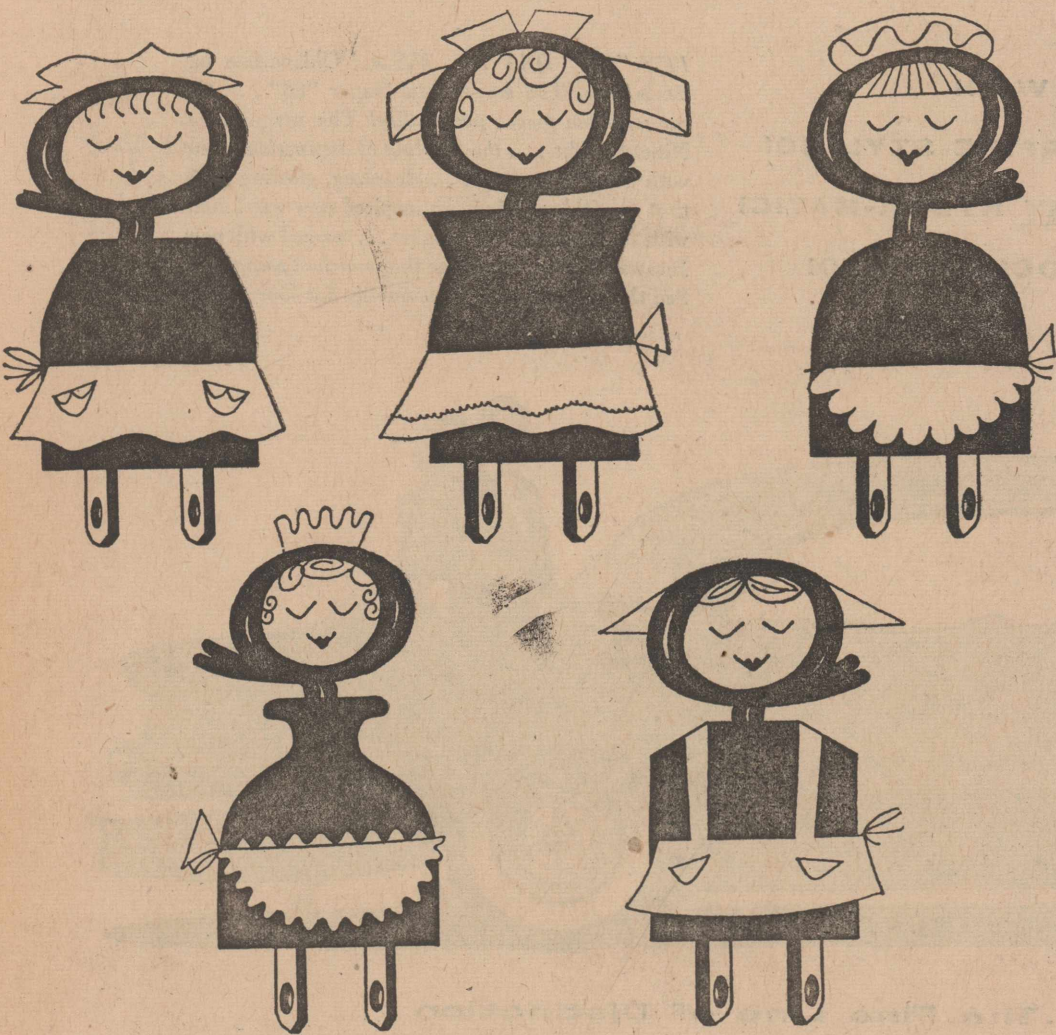

For what it costs to cook with non-flame, artificial methods for ONE YEAR you can cook more than FOUR YEARS with flame-fast GAS!

$54,000 Sophomore In Abilene College

From The A C C Bulletin
Conspicuous in the St. Louis Cardinals' cabinets is a file tabbed with the name Lyndall McDaniel. It is stuffed with data recording the 19-year-old Oklahoman's baseball activities five years back.

But even further back than that Lyndall McDaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newel McDaniel of near Dodson, had a file of his own on the Cardinals. This was his team and he was going to play on it some day. This was the team he idolized, the one that Dizzy Dean pitched for, the one that Stan Musial had made famous.

Back in 1951-52 young McDaniel was pitching his Altus American Legion junior baseball team to two straight state championships, while compiling a fancy 31-3 pitching record for himself.

Sandlot ball in Oklahoma City, semi-pro ball in Bentonville, Ark., and Sinton, Tex., and a baseball scholarship at the University of Oklahoma followed. After his freshman year, he was tabbed as a "sure starter" on the Sooner nine for next spring.

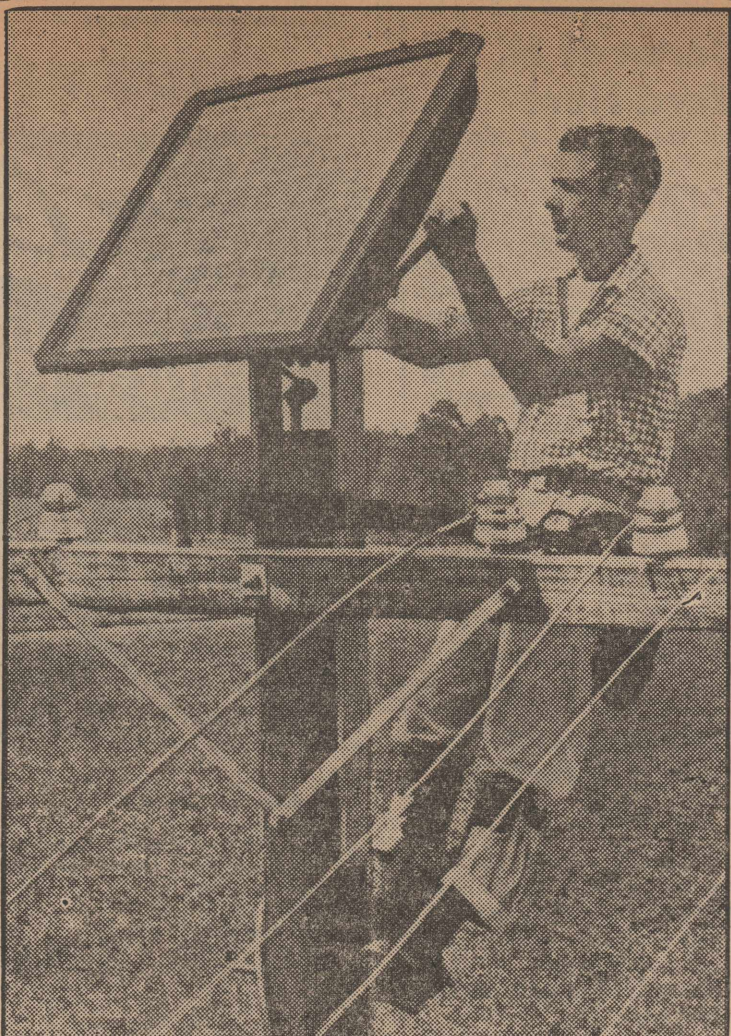

As early as 1952, when he was only 16, Lindy was approached by Cardinal scouts trying to sign him up. On last August 19 McDaniel inked a big league contract with St. Louis. A $50,000 bonus went with the contract.

McDaniel joined the Cardinals on Sept. 1. He started two games, was pulled out both times for a pinch hitter, and hurled 19 innings while gaining neither a gain nor a loss. He was pitching when Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs blasted one of his pitches for Banks' fifth grand slam homer of the season, a new record for National League short-stops. McDaniel pitched, in fact, for the Cards in the final game of the season, Sept. 24, throwing against the Milwaukee Braves.

Three days later McDaniel was registered in Abilene Christian College to study Bible. He is preparing himself to combine Bible teaching with baseball.

Lindy is undecided about his plans. "I will definitely go into personal work, but I am preparing myself for either. By going into major league baseball I'll get to know more people. It'll give me a chance to take Christianity into baseball, and I can decide later about preaching," he said. By missing the spring semesters it will take six years to finish his degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morton visited over the week end with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Kellison and family of Amarillo.

DIAL SO-527-76937—In effect, this is what Southern Bell lineman B. W. Kennon is doing as he adjusts this device atop a telephone pole at Americus, Ga. He is tuning in on Solar Power (check numbers on your own telephone dial) in a key experiment to tap the sun's energy for a new type of rural telephone service. The device, a solar battery, converts the sun's energy directly into usable amounts of electricity, and excess current feeds into a storage battery for use at night and during periods of bad weather. The battery, developed by Bell Laboratories, is said to be at least 15 times more efficient than previous solar energy conversion.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

LEGAL VERBIAGE SOME-TIMES JUSTIFIED

Many parents feel that the "whereases", "aforesaid", and other legal verbiage is used by the lawyer for the purpose of confounding the layman.

Nothing could be further from the truth. In drafting legal documents, the lawyer attempts to draft them in such a way as to exclude all ambiguities. In the last analysis, a legal document means what some court at some future time shall declare that it means. As a consequence, it is the lawyer's duty to his client to attempt to draft the instrument in such a way that it can mean only one thing.

Most any paragraph of non-legal language contains numerous ambiguities. When a lawyer refers to the "deed aforesaid", he is attempting to make it clear beyond question that the deed he is referring to is the deed mentioned in a prior portion of the instrument. Likewise, when he prefaces a legal document with a long list of "whereases", he is simply reciting pertinent facts for the benefit of the court to show the facts of the situation that lead to the execution of the instrument.

The difficulty with drafting a document in layman's language is that to the trained analyst such language is susceptible of several meanings, and consequently is likely to lead to litigation. It is the draftman's purpose to avoid litigation which is usually expensive for the client.

Another reason why lawyers use legal language is historical in nature. Thus most deeds declare that the grantor "by these presents does grant, sell, and convey" the land in question to the grantee. Each of the words recited have a technical meaning. The words together have frequently been constructed by the courts and consequently the lawyer knows in using them that their meaning is settled, and that they will operate to properly transfer the title. He would be inviting litigation for his client, if instead of using those words, he devised new language to express the same purpose. He could only say, "While I think the language that I have used will accomplish the purpose, I cannot be sure of it."

As a consequence, the lawyer, in the interest of his client, naturally uses the time-tested language instead of experimenting with new language.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform -- not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Brown, one of the men helping with the work, said.

The community is in the fundraising stage now, and the Halloween Carnival Monday, October 31, was the first of several events planned for the near future.

In this entertainment, a large crowd met Mr. Baboon, saw the Dead Man and His Remains, viewed Mr. Bluebeard's beheaded wives, had their fortunes told, hopped for apples and learned their fortunes from the seed, took part in a cakewalk and other fun events, then were served sandwiches, cake and coffee from a Halloween decorated snack bar.

Proceeds added to the improvement fund considerably.

The next event will be a game night November 9. Details will be announced later.

"The public is cordially invited to come to these meetings and have a diversified evening of fun and help the Abra Community Building for the well-rounded social life of its youth and older people as well," Brown said.

Approximately $850 has been collected in the annual Boy Scout Fund raising campaign through Tuesday, November 1, and several areas have not yet been worked, L. B. Bratten, drive chairman, has announced.

Rotary Minstrel Date Reset For November 14

Rotarians will be stepping high with some inhibited fun when they give another of their famous Rotary Minstrels Monday night, November 14—the first appearance of one of these events in several years.

The change of date, originally set for earlier in the month, was announced by George Henry, who is in charge of publicity and advertising for the Minstrel.

It will be presented in the high school auditorium.

Interlocutor is the Rev. Delmar Freeman, and end men are old hands at this minstrel business: Judge Raymond Horton as Addison; Henry Sullivan as Old Charter 100 Proof Nigger; Dr. C. B. Jones as Tambo; Kelly Pigg as Dillon; J. W. Wells as Elliott; Zook Thomas as Faulkner Sandy Parsons Jr., as Baldwin; Emil Kersten as Hash Brown; Clos Bloch as Bones; Denzil Bevers as Hambone.

The Rotarians will serve up more than jokes.

Bennett Goodloe heads the orchestra that will include King Rowen, Peck White, Rudy Burquist, Weldon Cleveland, Elmer James and O. C. McMinn.

Ted Parker of Dodson directs the chorus, which has as members Jack Brisbin, R. T. Savage, Hershel Tyler, George Henry, Melvin Burke, John Ben Castleberry, Walt Winters, and possibly others to be recruited in the next few days.

Specialty numbers will be high spots of the evening's performance. Judge Horton will sing "I Wandered Today to the Still, Maggie," while Dr. Jones will preach his famous sermon on King David. Darryl Morris, one of the county's finest young entertainers, will be featured, and there will be other numbers to be announced later, Henry said.

Another New Irrigation Area

New Irrigation Well On Hartman Farm Near Town

Still another area entered the irrigation picture in Collingsworth when an 8-inch well was brought in on the Pete Hartman place three miles west of town last week.

The well was test-pumped 36 hours with an 8-inch pump and averaged 800 gallons per minute, according to Hick Morrow of the Morrow Drilling Company.

The well is 250 feet deep. Rock was picked up at 95 feet and the last 30 feet was drilled through honeycomb rock.

Water rose to 78 feet from the top of the well, and the drawdown during the test pumping was to 93 feet.

Mr. Hartman plans to use a sprinkler system, and while he does not have his layout completed, he probably will irrigate about 175 acres in a diversified

Atheletic Court Near Completion

Expansion of physical education facilities for both boys and girls is due at Wellington High School when the new outdoor court is finished within a few days, Coach John Hurley said this week.

The court is set up to handle three sports: basketball, tennis and volleyball.

Goal standards are already up, but the court has not been lined off and the tennis nets have not arrived.

This outdoor court is being put in order that more students may actively participate in athletics.

new coat, the sheriff reported. Sheriff Rainey was called to Dodson Monday night after a number of cotton trailers were moved out into the street. "Nothing had happened, but they were fixing to put one on top of a building," he reported upon his return.

One call was made to law enforcement officers on a group of Mexican youths who joined the trick-or-treat crowd Monday night.

"On the whole, the youngsters were good. We didn't disturb them unless they had been reported," the sheriff said.

Wellington residents had two nights of tricks-or-treats, Saturday and Monday, and there were several reports of picture windows and porches soaped, and window screens removed.

Gulf's New Super-Refined GAS-OIL TEAM

...for more miles per gallon

Gulf No-Nox burns clean. Here's proof: Note the black deposit, on plate at left, caused by the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—the part which Gulf refines out in making New Super-Refined NO-NOX. But see how clean new NO-NOX leaves the plate at right.

Prove it in your own car. Now—on the road in your own car—see for yourself how New Super-Refined Gulf NO-NOX can give you the best in motor performance and protection ... plus more miles per gallon in the kind of short-trip, stop-and-go driving you do most.

...for more miles per quart

Gulfpride Select works clean. Here's why: Most oils are refined only to the stage shown in Graduate A. Gulfpride Select is further refined by the Alcholor Process, removing up to 15% more of the carbon-formers, shown in Graduate B. Graduate C contains new super-refined oil.

Prove it in your own car. This new oil can give you more miles per quart because it has natural viscosity (body)—contains no artificial thickeners that break down in service.

REMEMBER: No gasoline alone can give you today's finest performance ... no oil alone can give you today's finest protection. Get the super-power Gas-Oil Team ...
