Commissioners schedule Judge appointment

by M. Gene Dow, GM

Mitchell County Commissioners Court set up a schedule for interviews and eventual appointment of a new County Judge at its regular meeting Monday.

Deadline for applications by interested persons for appointment to the unexpired term of Bill Carter has been set for 9 a.m. Monday, Jan. 16.

Originally, the Commissioners planned to begin interviewing the week after the deadline, break to attend the County Judges and Commissioners meeting at A&M the following week, then make the appointment by February 1.

However, acting Administrator/Coordinator Paul Hunter stated later that the Court decided to move faster on the appointment due to needed break-in time, a growing backlog of judicial proceedings and other necessary duties of the County Judge.

Thus, interviews will begin this Friday, Jan. 13, allowing one and one half hours for each applicant and continue throughout the day Monday, Jan. 16. If necessary, more interviews will be scheduled Tuesday afternoon, since the Court has a meeting with Highway Department officials Tuesday morning. The applicants are being scheduled for interviews in the order that they filed, as much as possible. The Commissioners will then have Wednesday and Thursday to narrow the field down and if necessary, call in the most desirable prospects for possible second interviews. It is hoped that a new County Judge will be appointed by Jan. 20, Hunter said.

Ruben Alvarez new CISD board member

Ruben Alvarez, 44, Monday night was named to fill a vacancy on the Colorado City school board and was sworn into office at the close of the trustee meeting.

Alvarez replaces Ronnie Aston who resigned from the board following a job transfer to Marshall.

Alvarez's appointment will be until May at which time an election will be held to fill the one-year unexpired term. Alvarez indicated he intends to seek election to the spot.

Alvarez, a lifelong resident of Colorado City, is employed by C C Tank Rental. He and his wife, Elsa, are the parents of Colorado High School seniors Laura Alvarez and Bo Alvarez.

Following an executive session, the board agreed to extend Supt. Dr. Jim Ramsey's contract until June 30, 1992 at no increase in salary.

In other business, the board:

City Council studies financial reports

Colorado City Council approved budget amendments, updated Civic Center regulations, and routine actions in a regular meeting Tuesday which was otherwise taken up with a number of reports.

City Manager Brenda Hammond submitted amendments to the 1988-89 budget which reflected increases in general fund revenues of $42,500 and $69,400 in general fund expenditures. $19,500 increases in water & sewer fund revenues and $6,170 in W&S expenditures. Council approved the changes.

The City Manager reported that tax monies are coming in slower than usual, but they are managing to stay within budgeted expenditures with the help of a new requisition and purchase order system. She projected that at the end of the fiscal year, May 1, there would be a balance of about $300 in the general fund and $180,000 in the water & sewer fund.

City Secretary Glenna Garrett reported general fund revenues of $203,581.22 in December with $133,348.28 in expenditures. Revenues for the month in the water & sewer fund were $59,710.50 and expenditures of $106,682.39, which included repayment of a $50,000 previous transfer of funds.

Current vouchers in the amount of $42,458.22 were authorized for payment. However, there was a question about a bill from the City Attorney reflecting charges for consultations with citizens that were neither authorized by the city nor notification given to

Fishermen fined for 'snagging' at Lake C-City

Seventeen fishermen, all from out of the county, have been fined for "snagging" fish in Lake Colorado City.

In most cases, the illegal fishing was occurring last weekend not in, but just in front (west) of the restricted hot-water discharge area on the east side of the lake. It is illegal to catch fish by snagging them with unbaited hooks. Issuing the violations were Game Wardens Mel Reed of Snyder and Kenneth Nevin of Sweetwater who are covering the area until a new local game warden is assigned here.

Justice of the Peace Joan Merket has fined each of the violators $55.50.

Violators were from Monahans, Midland, Wink, Abilene, Snyder and Big Spring.

Hospital board OKs financial advisors

The Mitchell County Hospital District board of trustees Tuesday night hired a San Antonio-based company to help secure, when and if needed, public financing for possible hospital renovations or construction of a new hospital.

The action came after Bob Davis of Southwest Securities, Inc. told the board that the hospital district won't owe his company anything unless bonds are actually sold and the money is in hand.

Southwest Securities, Inc. is the company that handled the bond issue for the Colorado City school district several years ago.

The hospital board has not committed itself to any sort of long-range program other than to hire an Austin-based planning firm to conduct a study of the present facility and what the future needs might be.

Earlier, Bob Cox of Cox/Croslin and Associates of Austin, the architecture and planning firm, went over a final draft of the study his company is conducting.

Cox presented six different options ranging from renovating the present facility to building a new hospital. The estimated costs ranged from $2.4 million to $5.3 million.

"You have enough options to baffle anybody," Cox told the board during the special meeting.

Cox's final report will be presented to the hospital board at a later date. The report will include an analysis of the market, an analysis of the existing building and proposals for future renovation or building projects.

One of the options Cox presented was demolishing the mostly unused north wing of the City gets $23,487 tax rebate

Colorado City received a check for $23,487 in sales tax rebates for January, an increase of 47.39 percent over the $15,935 check received for the same period last year.

Neither Westbrook or Loraine received a check this period.

January's check represents taxes collected by monthly filers in November and reported to the Comptroller of Public Accounts by Dec. 20.

Colorado City changed its local sales tax rate from 1 percent 1.5 percent effective Jan. 1, 1988 which created an increase in tax rebates.

Area towns receiving sales tax rebates and the amounts include Snyder, $47,462; Sweetwater, $53,077; and Big Spring, $844,529.

A check totaling $10,232 was sent to Mitchell County, one of 81 counties which collect a half-percent county sales tax.

Scurry County received $27,593. Howard County and Nolan County do not collect a county sales tax.

FROM THE SCRIPTURES— "Every man at his best is vanity." Psalm 39.5

I always enjoy reading about the "best of things"—best movies, best songs, best dressed, best undressed, best story, etc. But it seems that I seldom agree.

That's the way it is with the "best", it is a matter of personal preference. What I see as "best", you may not agree.

Gene Dow

A guy named Kirk Dooley, a native Texan and recognized authority on the state, recently authored a book on the "Best" of the Lone Star State.

Here are a few of his "bests":

Best shish kabob: At The Cotton Gin in Brookshire. "There's something special about eating in a 1930's cotton gin that makes the kabob tastier," says Dooley. Wonder if he's ever tried a buffalo kabob at Big John's.

Best town slogan: Happy, Texas, "The Little Town Without a Frown." Stanton use to top the list with "3,000 Friendly People and a Few Old Soreheads."

Best college mascot name: Richland College Thunder Ducks. Sounds good, but what's a Thunder Duck. I like "Bevo".

Best skinny-dipping: Anybody who went to school at UT Austin knows the answer to that one—Hippy Hollow, Lake Travis. I glanced by that place again just last week.

Best snack food invented in Texas: Fritos. Created by C. E. Doolan of San Antonio in 1942, now an American favorite.

Best empty hotel: The Baker, Mineral Wells. The Baker, Colorado City, has got to be second best.

Best invention by a Texan: Condensed milk was invented by Gail Borden. Three generations later a Houstonian named George Ballas invented the Weed Eater.

Best chicken fried steak: Cottonwood Cafe, LaGrange. He should have tried The Sportsman Club at Lake Colorado City. People just got into a habit of going to LaGrange for other reasons.

Best wedding: W. Lee "Pappy" O'Daniels daughter's. Pappy invited everyone in Texas. Over 25,000 showed up.

Best epitaph: Clay Allison, Texas' gentleman gunfighter". His tombstone at Pecos reads, "He never killed a man who did not deserve killing."

Best police report: In August, 1876, Texas Ranger Bill Jones wrote up this report on a cattle thief: "Mean as hell. Had to kill him."

Best small-town newspaper columnist: Gene Dow.

OK, OK so you have Dooley's book and there wasn't anything about me in there. Just remember, I warned you in the beginning that being the "best" was all a matter of personal opinion.

Local man charged in shooting here

A local man has been charged with attempted murder, after another Colorado City man was seriously wounded by two gunshots here early Sunday morning, Jan. 8.

Colorado City Police were notified at 1:11 a.m. Sunday of a fight in progress in the alley between 12th and 13th Streets, behind the old Lazy Day Drive-In, and that gunshots had been heard.

When Officer Tim Atkins arrived on the scene, he found a man, identified as Raymond Sanchez, 33, of 525 East 13th, on the ground with two bullet wounds, one in the face and one in the stomach.

Mitchell County Ambulance Service was summonded and the wounded man was taken to Mitchell County Hospital for emergency treatment.

Investigations led to Jamie Lee Green, 35, as a suspect in the shooting. DPS Trooper, James Burson, who had joined in the is Roy Lee Beach, who filed his application Monday afternoon, bringing the total, as of Tuesday, to eleven. Others applying are James D. Clifton, Jr., Joan Merket, George A. Walker, Billy Wayne Grimes, Ray Mayo, Jerry Hammond, Dee Hearn, S. L. (Mack) Morris, Linda Martin Smith and Johnny Baumann. Others are expected.

GRIEVANCE HEARING

Prior to the regular meeting, the Court convened at 9 a.m. Monday to hear an appeal from James D. Clifton, Jr., who was recently discharged as a Mitchell County Deputy Sheriff. After hearing more than two hours of testimony, in a closed executive session, from Clifton and Sheriff Wendell Bryant, the Board voted to take no action against Clifton's dismissal. Clifton still has the right to appeal to the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission or to the Court having jurisdiction.

NEW YEAR BUSINESS

Otherwise, the Court, presided over by Commissioner Johnny Shackelford, handled mostly routine first-of-the-year business, including:

- A new perpetual contract was signed with Purdue, Brannon and Fielder, law firm, to handle the delinquent tax actions for the County at a standard fee of 15% of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest collected. County Tax Assessor-Collector Mike Burt recommended re-appointment of the firm, represented at the meeting by John Horn. He stated that the firm had collected over $169,000 last year, and approximately $79,000 the first half of this year. A required waiver from the County Attorney was received and the firm was to properly post a required bond. The contract may be cancelled upon 30-day written notice.
- For a new County Grievance Committee, the Court elected to select nine persons from the Grand Jury list, rather than an option of six elected officials plus three from the jury list. Those that were drawn from the list included Ruben Steadmon, David Woods, Santos Reyes, Sr., E. J. Lelek, Rita Humphrey, Mark Waldrip, Charlene Walker, Margaret Nelson and Mary Smith. Three alternates drawn were Tom Carlock, Billy Joe Wood and Betty Shawn. Hunter is to contact each person to find out if they are willing to serve.
- Terms of the County Court were set for January, March, May, July, September and November, each for two-month terms.
- Ten holidays to be observed in 1989 are: Good Friday, Friday, Mar. 24; Memorial Day, Monday, May 29; Independence Day, Tuesday, July 4; Veteran's Day, Friday, Nov. 10; Thanksgiving, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 23 & 24; Christmas, Monday & Tuesday, Dec. 25 and 26; and New Year's Day, Monday, Jan. 1.
- Passed an annual resolution directing that all County officials be paid on annual salary basis.
- Authorized advertisement for bids for Depository of County Funds. Bids are to be received until 2 p.m. February 13. Specifications have been drawn up and are available at the County Auditor's office in the Courthouse Annex.
- Authorized Auditor Georgie Griffith to seek bids for Typewriter Service Contracts.
- Authorized for payment a total of $79,721.18 in current bills.

The auditor also presented an opinion from County Attorney Clay Strange stating that there remains an unresolved "gray" area over who's responsible for paying doctor bills for indigent health care, in particular county jail inmates. Opinions are that the Hospital District cannot be forced to pay, and generally believed that it is illegal for the County to do so where there is a Hospital District. The Court agreed that it would be better to pay, rather than have doctors to refuse to treat patients and thus subject the County to possible civil rights damage suits. Thus, the Court agreed to pay a pending $825 bill from Dr. Aguillon for emergency surgery performed on a jail inmate several months ago. Although such cases are few, the Court, not wanting to set a precedent, indicated it will review each instance separately, until the law is clarified.

With a new computer program being installed the regular payroll was not ready for approval from County Treasurer Ann Hallmark, so the Court recessed until 1 p.m. Tuesday.

All members of the Court were present for the meetings.

the City. The matter is to be discussed with the City Attorney at the next meeting.

The Civic Center regulations were updated with only a few rules changes made and rates remaining basically the same. Basic rates for the Center are banquets, $75; 2-Hr. birthday parties and showers, $25; Coffee/Receptions, $20; Club meetings, day $10, night $12.50; Convention per day, $75; Private dance, $150 and school-sponsored $75; Commercial exhibit $50 and non-commercial $25; Family reunion, $50; Wedding reception $50 with no meal and $75 with meal; and kitchen use $25 and up. Rules set deposits, cleanup, reservations, hours of operation, etc.

City Judge Clinton Finch reported receiving both Attorney General and City Attorney opinions that allow a voluntary program to give persons an opportunity to work off fines. Per day credits and projects are still to be worked out, but the Council approved the program.

Council authorized the City Manager to advertise for bids for a Depositor Agreement, but date for receiving bids is not yet set.

In the only other action, the Council authorized an overhead covered walk-way between the First Baptist Church crossing an alley to the west where the church plans to build a $250,000 to $300,000, 2-story addition.

Buz Rich, superintendent of public works, reported that eight more structures had been demolished and lots cleared, just about finishing the first round of condemned structures. He said another list of about 20 structures to be condemned is now in the works. Both the Council and citizens have been highly complimentary of the clean-up project.

Council had asked Chief Bobby Sparks for a report on the police department. He reported that crime activities were about the same the past year as the previous year, but the department had a high 64% clearance rate. He said 230 to 250 junk cars had been cited and removed, and the department has had excellent response with home security checks. Generally, he said the department was working well with no major problems. He reported a total of 18 persons on the staff including himself and six full time officers, five part-time officers, 4 full time dispatchers, 1 part-time dispatcher, and one secretary. Seven patrol cars are being operated.

Rex Thackerson reported numerous improvements have made made in the operation of the Mitchell Ambulance Service, with changes of billing and bookkeeping procedures and supervisory personnel. The monthly report of the service, given to the Council will appear in Sunday's issue.

All members of the Council were present. Other visitors included Freeland Huff, David Sanders, Billy Ray Williamson, Gary Parker, Oscar Ortiz, and Joe Rivera.

HOSPITAL

present hospital and replacing it with a 20-bed nursing wing. The Bassham wing, now used for patient rooms, would be renovated into administrative offices. The cost of the project is estimated at $2.4 million. A 39-bed renovation of the present building would cost about $4.1 million.

Cox said constructing a new 20-bed hospital on a different site would cost $2.7 million and that a new 24-bed hospital would cost $3.25 million. A new 32-bed hospital would cost $4.3 million and a new 40-bed hospital would cost $5.3 million.

Davis went over the various funding methods and the procedure needed to call a bond election. He said an average homeowner would see an annual increase of taxes from about $24 to $48 depending upon the amount of bonds sold.

"In my 36 years in the municipal bond business, I have assisted in the establishment of hospital entities in anticipation of bond financings and have represented numerous municipalities in financings for hospital purposes," said Davis.

search for the suspect, spotted Green about 2:30 a.m. walking at 6th and Austin. Police Chief Bobby Sparks and Burson were able to take Green into custody and recovered a .38 caliber pistol. Green is being held in Mitchell County Jail.

The shooting victim, Sanchez, was transferred to Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene, where it was reported he has had to undergo several surgeries and is in serious condition, but is expected to recover.

Chief Sparks said Monday that the reason for the fight between the two had not yet been determined.

Green had previously served some time in the state prison as result of another shooting incident here, and was on parole from that conviction.

Letters to the Editor

Amazed at system

TO THE EDITOR: I wouldn't want to disappoint anyone by not having anything to say. So, I will say that once again, I am amazed at the system.

Forget the fact that not only last year, but the last two years, I have been the next in line by the people's vote for a position on the school board. (Isn't Earl Plagens lucky as next in line for City Council, he didn't have to be put down?)

Forget the fact that for the last three years, I have been dedicated to my interest in the schools and their students.

Forget the fact that I try to do what volunteer work I can at the schools; where the help is greatly appreciated.

Forget the fact that I am trying to work as a substitute because last year at the question and answer session the CTA hosted for the school board candidates, teachers asked the candidates would they be willing to substitute teach and walk a mile in their shoes. Everyone said yes, but I've seen no one else there yet.

Forget the fact that I started college last semester because I had always heard you had to have some college hours to be able to substitute. But, I've learned since then that there is no such policy.

Forget the fact that I was told by a board member that I was not considered for a position because of the agreement with a concerned group of minorities; and that several members do not feel they could work with me because I would not be an easy flow. (I wonder if Reagan and Bush know that they need to be an easy flow?)

Forgetting all these things, I can see how I could be passed over. But, to be passed over for someone that hasn't even cared enough about our schools to even run in an election; when there were others that had less votes than I that are minorities. (In most areas of job opportunities nowadays, women are considered minorities.) I'm amazed the board would pass over everyone that showed enough interest to run. But, I've learned most people don't have trouble sleeping at night. I've listened to Eddie Gregory's glowing report and I'm confused. Since never seeing our newest board member working in a concession stand, or at a P.T.S.O. meeting, or raising money to give scholarships, or doing volunteer work at the schools, I need to have the term "interested" explained to me.

Sincerely,
Rogene Spruell

Speech, academic tournament expected to draw 500 students

Some 500 students from 25 schools are expected to participate Saturday in the Third Annual Colorado High School Speech and Academic Tournament.

"Duc to the success of the tournament last year, we are expecting an even larger turnout for this year," said Bhavesh Patel, president of the CHS Speech and Drama Club which is helping host the event.

The tournament is a practice meet for district University Interscholastic League speech and academic events, said Carl Moore, CHS speech and drama teacher.

Moore said that for the past two years, Coahoma and Colorado City co-hosted the event, but because of the number of students involved, Coahoma is hosting its own tournament this year.

Speech events scheduled for the tournament include prose interpretation (reading of short stories), poetry interpretation (reading of poetry), informative speaking (improvisational speaking on current events), persuasive speaking (improvisational speaking persusasively), Lincoln-Douglas Debate (one-on-one debate in a topic), cross examination debate (two on two debate in a topic), duet acting (two actors who interpret a particular scene) and junior high prose reading (story interpretation in junior high level).

In addition, the tournament will include science, number sense, calculator, typing, shorthand, spelling, acting, ready writing and literary criticism events, said Moore.

STATE QUALIFIER - Colorado High School senior Bhavesh Patel won second place in domestic extemporaneous speaking Saturday at a Texas Forensic Association meet at San Angelo Central High School to qualify for state - again. Patel had already qualified for state at a meet held earlier in the year in Midland. Patel was competing against about 60 students from 5A, 4A and 3A schools.

Hoover, Bailey lead effort

Wolves beat Crane in 5-AAA opener, 73-64

CRANE-Junior Dane Hoover scored 37 points and pulled down 9 rebounds to lead the Colorado City Wolves to 73-64 basketball victory over the Crane Golden Granes. The win was the second in a row for the 9-9 Wolves, but more importantly, Tuesday's win gave Colorado City a 1-0 record in district 5-AAA.

The Wolves continue district action when they host pre-season favorite Midland Greenwood at The Pit tomorrow.

Senior Bubba Bailey scored 14 points and collected 11 rebounds at Crane. Also scoring were Mark Russell 8, Chris Perkin 7 and Pat Ridge 7. Perkin added 7 rebounds while Ridge had 2 assists and 3 steals.

Colorado City was hot and cold from the floor. The Wolves shot 41% from the field for one of their better nights but in one quarter the Wolves shot 19%. Colorado City made 21 of 36 free throws for 58%.

The lead went back and forth in the first half but in the second half the Wolves got a monkey off their back by pulling away for an 11 point lead with 2:47 left in the game. The Wolves had not been successful at maintaining nor increasing leads in earlier contests.

Russell provided the early spark by scoring 6 of his 8 points in the first quarter. The Wolves came out in a man-to-man defense but Crane was able to score with lob passes to the edge of the lane and along the baseline. Jones of Crane finished with 28 points against coverage by Hoover.

The Wolves led by 6 midway through the opening period but Crane scored on an inbounds play in the final seconds for a 17-15 lead.

Hoover busted loose for 16 points in the second period in which the lead changed hands 10 times. Bailey added 5 points in the period. The Wolves committed only 3 turnovers in the second period after losing the ball 6 times in the first quarter. Colorado City committed 16 total turnovers.

Jones continued to be unstoppable for Crane in the second period as the fronting and backing tactics by Hoover only slowed Jones down. Hoover, who made 12 of 20 free throws for the game, sank two with 3:44 left in the half to give the Wolves a 32-28 lead but it took two free throws by Bailey with 28 seconds left to make a 40-39 Wolves halftime lead.

Colorado City shut Crane down in the third quarter but missed easy shot after easy shot to lead only 51-46 at the end of the period. The Wolves made only 4 of 21 shots in the third quarter.

The Wolves missed only 7 shots in the final period. Hoover's free throw with 2:47 left in the game made it 67-56 for the Wolves who held on to begin district with a win. Hoover scored 14 points in the final period.

Totals for Crane were Jones 28, Jeffrey 13, Garza 10, Lane 9, Stafford 4 and Sanchez 1.

The varsity win followed a Friday night victory in which the Wolves got revenge with a 75-73 win at Roby. Roby had won at The Pit 78-73. Scoring for the Wolves were Bailey 20, Hoover 16, Russell 15, Ridge 14, Perkin 6 and Paul Ausbie 2. Perkin broke a 73-73 tie on a short jumper with 3 seconds left.

Loraine Personals

...by Lois Phillips

Mrs. Lynn Compton got sick Sunday morning during Sunday School and was sent to Mitchell County Hospital for a checkup. She came home Monday at noon, but the thing about this is, Mrs. Compton is past 90 years old. This is her first trip to any hospital. Every girl deserves to have her breakfast in bed at least once in a life time don't they, Lynn? Yes, and a bed bath, hair combed. I hope Lynn got really pampered and I am sure she did. The girls up there are noted for that.

* * *

Lynn Compton is the mother of Shep and Sally, Jack and Gloria of Midland and Jean Afrige of Lubbock. They all visited her on Sunday.

Congratulations to Tommie and Julia Mathis of Loraine. They celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary on January 8.

They were married in the Charlie Farris home in Colorado with Rev. Farris officiating. Bro. Farris was Charlie Farris' father.

The Mathis' farmed north of Loraine for lots of years and raised their sons there. Tommie and Julia both went to school in Loraine. Their sons both graduated here and went on to college and got their degrees.

Don is the oldest and lives in Junction. He is married and has three children. Gary is married and lives near Stamford. He married the former Wanda Wells of Loraine. They have three children.

All of the Mathis kids--sons and daughters-in-law, and grandkids were home for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Tommie lives at the Loraine Nursing Center and Julia has an apartment at the Senior Citizens Complex. Tommie is a very sick man. Our prayers go out to this family.

Jack and Gloria Compton of Midland were in Sweetwater over the weekend for an eye checkup at Dr. Lewis' office and spent sometinie with Effie Wheeler and Jimmie Jacks.

When they got into town to visit Jack's mother they found her in the hospital, but I am glad they were here for her even though she is not seriously ill they say.

Now we are going to tell you about Shep and Sally's company for the last fifteen days.

David and Terissa and Rebecca and Terissa's twin sister Carol came on Friday. On Saturday, Carol and Terissa came to get Carol. They went to Midland to their parents. David, Terissas and Rebecca went to Midland on Saturday and have Christmas with them, coming back to Shep's on Monday.

Shep's sister Jean and daughter where also there. The Afriges are from Lubbock. Kim was Santa's little helper to her mother because she was here the extra time.

We saw Marlin and Ruth Moore and two grandsons Michael and Kyle Moore at the DQ Sunday.

Saw Jean Vest with her brother and wife, Harvey and Lois Jones. It must have been Harvey's time to wash dishes.

* * *

Mrs. Merritt and her daughter were also eating out.

Roger and Doris Cripliver of Fort Worth visited her mother recently for a few days. Doris is Mrs. J. E. Meadows daughter.

Saw Hubert and Nina Meadows and Shep and Sally dining out also.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Richburg were in Lubbock with a son and family, the Jerry Richburgs.

Nathan Richburg, a Texas Tech Red Raider came over to Jerry's home to visit his grandparents. They reported a very nice trip.

Linton Ray, Maz and daughters were in Waco recently to spend Saturday night and Sunday with his sister, the Truman Nix family. Inez Webb also made the trip. All reported a real good time.

We have a new manager at the nursing home and I think they chose a good one this time. She is Jerry Woodell and lives in Loraine and has lived here lots of years.

Jerry, we are glad you are working at home for a while. You need not have all the driving now. Good luck in this effort.
