Barbara Jean Bell, 18, a senior at Colorado High School, represented the Abilene 17th Region XIV Science Fair at the recent 23rd annual International Science and Engineering Fair in New Orleans. Her exhibit that won her

Lara Gun Slaying Before Grand Jury

Mitchell County grand jury is expected to investigate this week the Loraine shooting that killed Macario Lara, 29, and wounded his brother, Joe Lara, 28.

The May term grand jury will convene Monday at 9 a.m. in the Court House and the Lara slaying is one of the cases District Attorney Frank Ginzler has on his list.

Another pair of brothers -- Jesse Gomez and Domingo Gomez -- are charged in connection with the last Sunday afternoon shooting at Loraine Cemetery.

on District Attorney Ginzler's list for grand jury deliberation.

One of these is a theft complaint against Dannie Lee Garrard, accusing him of theft of a pickup owned by Don Stewart.

The other 7 cases involve felony (subsequent) driving while intoxicated charges. And 3 of these are against the same defendant, Shelby Chester Shannon of Colorado City.

Defendants in the other DWI complaints are Andrew Alvarez Sosa, Chester Eugene Mulanax, Ollie Lee Keese and Serveriano Garvia Arispe.

Grand jurors for the May term are Larry Ivy, Rt. 2; L. S. Girvin Jr., Route 3; Anson Henderson, Westbrook; T. P. Fowler, Loraine, Rt. 2; Waddell Strain, Rt. 1; C. A. Rees, Rt. 1; L. M. Dayson, Westbrook; Royce Beights, Loraine; R. Y. Hammond, Rt. 1; Mrs. Victor Galvan, Loraine, Rt. 1; Mrs. W. D. Whitesides; Mrs. Linden Solomon, Rt. 1, Westbrook; and Virginia Perales, Sefton Pickens, Manuel Rivera, Trevlyn Kelley, Dorothy Forbes, Frank E. Biggers, Frank Brownfield and Dr. W. A. Pattillo, all of Colorado City.

4 Senate Vote Boxes

In fact the Gomez brothers face 2 criminal complaints -- one alleging they murdered Macario Lara and the other charging them with assault with intent to murder Joe Lara, who was shot in the arm and groin.

Officers believe a .32 caliber revolver was the weapon that fired the bullets that struck the 2 victims. However, ballistic experts at State Department of Public Safety laboratory in Austin are checking a .32 caliber automatic pistol and a .22 caliber rifle in addition to the suspected revolver.

Both the defendants have been released from jail after having posted bond.

When Mitchell County voters go to the polls June 6 to elect an interim State Senator they will cast their ballots at 4 locations.

This will be 3 less polling places than voters had for the May Democratic Party primary.

However, it is doubtful if the special 24th Senatorial District election -- called by Governor Preston Smith after the resignation of David Ratliff -- will attract heavy balloting.

Two of the June 6 polling places will be in Colorado City with one each in Loraine and Westbrook. Absentee balloting is already underway.

Here are the 4 locations and election judges as announced by County Judge Bill F. Carter:

Colorado City -- Precinct 1

in Courthouse, O. B. Trulock; and Precinct 3 in Civic House, R. B. Baker.

Westbrook -- Precinct 2 in Agriculture Building, Doug Barber.

Loraine -- Precinct 4 in Lions Building, Ted Lefevre.

Voting will be conducted as usual between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. closing time.

Only one candidate has filed for the interim Senate term which expires next Jan. 1. He is Bill Tippen, 49, Abilene attorney who from 1947 to 1950 was a state representative from Abilene.

When he officially called the special election for June 6, Governor Smith set a deadline 31 days from last April 28 for candidates to file for a place on the ballot.

Ratliff, resigned his 24th Senatorial office after newspaper reporters revealed that the Stamford senator had been in conflict with the state's laws against nepotism in government.

At present Ratliff's hiring and paying of Senatorial staff members and the hiring of members of his families by other elected representatives is being investigated by the Travis County grand jury for possible criminal violations.

Draft Quota

John W. Hughes, chairman of local Selective Board Service Board No. 71, has announced that five induction orders will be issued in Mitchell, Martin and Howard Counties during June.

There will be 15 men in the three counties who will be issued orders for pre-induction physical examinations soon, Hughes said.

For the month of June, men with lottery numbers of 35 or below will be in a first priority selection group.

Guidelines For Welfare

The state board of welfare has adopted new guidelines to eliminate abuse by medical assistance recipients.

The new guidelines will limit prescriptions to three a month and limit cost per prescription to a maximum of $15, with a $35 a month maximum. Drugs used to treat chronic illnesses will be exempt.

A second rule would limit visits to a doctor's office to five per month per recipient, not to exceed 10 a year, with a few exceptions.

TOWN TALK
By MAC MCKINNON

Colorado High probably will not have a baseball team next year as some people had hoped.

When Weldon Brevard came here last year as athletic director, a number of people expressed interest in resurrecting the baseball program in high school.

Brevard started checking things out and discovered that Lamesa is planning on dropping its baseball program and with Snyder going out of District 3-AAA next year, the only other high school in the district with a baseball team would be Brownfield.

Based on this fact, Brevard has said the expense of starting the baseball program could not be justified for just one district ball game.

Brevard has expressed confidence in the Wolves football team for this coming year, based on what he saw during spring training.

Amador Guerrero is the leading candidate for starting quarterback of the varsity squad, with Larry Hayes a contender for the position, Brevard said.

Both Guerrero and Hayes got a lot of experience last football season as they directed the junior varsity.

Most of the boys starting for the varsity squad this coming year will be those who got experience last year on the junior varsity since most of the varsity will be graduating.

Oklahoma State holds former Colorado High football star Carl Devorce in high esteem.

Devorce, who had a tremendous season on the Cowboys' freshman squad last year until he broke his hand in the next to last game, is on the cover of a sports brochure being put out by the Oklahoma school.

Devorce, also a track star at Colorado High, had planned on throwing the shotput this spring in college but his coaches wanted him to concentrate only on football during spring training.

Devorce will be one of the few sophomores in the starting line-up for a major college next year.

A county employee and Mitchell County are defendants in a $200,000 damage suit filed here in 32nd District Court.

The civil suit has been filed by Jerusha M. Laurens, widow of Wilbur U. (Bill) Laurens, who died April 19 after being injured 10 days earlier in a truck-pickup collision south of Colorado City.

Defendant with the county is Leroy Miller of Westbrook, driver of the truck.

Laurens was driving a pickup owned by R. P. (Pete) Ainsworth, who was severely injured in the wreck, when the accident happened on the Seven Wells Road.

The court petition claims that Laurens died as a result of injuries received in the collision and that Miller, as driver of the dump truck, was acting in the scope of his employment of Mitchell County.

It further alleges that the loaded dump truck driven by Miller, traveling east on a dirt road that intersects with Seven Wells Rd., "abruptly and quickly and without stopping" went into the path of the pickup, caused the collision and the fatal injuries.

The suit claims that Lau-

Seven To Camp

Seven Colorado City boys have been chosen by the Colorado City Salvation Army Service Unit Committee for a free one week vacation beginning June 18 at the Salvation Army's 370-acre Camp Hoblitzelle near Dallas.

Boys attending the camp from Colorado City will be Ricky Ornelas, Joe U. Rivera, Benny Arispe, Jimmy Selvera, Tommy DeLoera, Ralph Castillo and Tony Johnson.

"Our boys will be among 900 others sponsored by Salvation Army Service Units all over Texas who will attend the camp over a four week period this summer," said Police Chief Jesse Browning, the committee's camp chairman said.

The Salvation Army operates Camp Hoblitzelle year around for people who could not otherwise afford to go to camp.

ren's death was caused "by negligence of the defendants" and that Miller failed to exercise ordinary care for the safety of Laurens.

Plaintiff in the suit claims that Miller was traveling at a rate of speed "in excess of a reasonable prudent person" and that Laurens' pickup was moving at approximately 25 miles per hour, that the defendant failed to keep proper lookout,

300 Expected For Fly-In

Some 300 people are expected to fly-in during the Colorado City "Fly-In" at the city airport Sunday June 4, Sefton Pickens, Chamber of Commerce manager, announced Saturday.

The "Fly-In", last held here three years ago, will include such attractions as sky divers and free breakfasts for all those who fly-in.

Breakfast for those who drive to the event will cost $1.

Pickens said Chamber of Commerce directors will be asked next week to sell as many tickets as possible for the fly-in so that plans can be made on how many to expect for breakfast.

When the last fly-in was held here, some 160 persons were aboard about 50 planes that landed at the city airport.

The event is sponsored by the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, under the direction of a aviation committee co-chairman, J. O. Dockrey.

The fly-in festivities will be-

Judgement sought from the county and Miller includes $1,500 for funeral expenses and $200,000 more for damages resulting in the death of Laurens, who at age 64 it is claimed had 13.6 more years of life expectancy.

The prospect is former county judge Elmer Martin, whose name has cropped up in recent discussions with at least 3 Democratic Party county chairmen within the new 61st District.

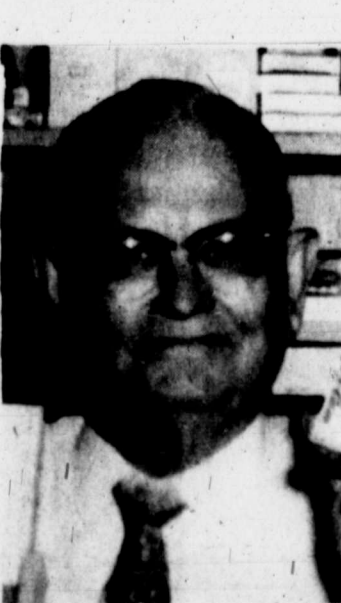

Martin joins a list of prospective House nominees which include Ed Aiken, savings and loan executive in Sweetwater; Jim Wilks, a Sweetwater attorney and Abilene businessman A. A. (Si) Addington.

Martin Seeks Post He's New Legislator Prospect

Mitchell County has a prospect for the 61st District's State Representative post which ex-senator David Ratliff said he will not accept.

The prospect is former county judge Elmer Martin, whose name has cropped up in recent discussions with at least 3 Democratic Party county chairmen within the new 61st District.

Martin joins a list of prospective House nominees which include Ed Aiken, savings and loan executive in Sweetwater; Jim Wilks, a Sweetwater attorney and Abilene businessman A. A. (Si) Addington.

At least 2 others--Stamford

Among those whom have been contacted by either Martin or his friends are Mitchell chairman Tom Rees, Sweetwater chairman Ocie Hunt and Fisher chairman Max Carraker.

The Record was unable to contact Martin Saturday to confirm his candidacy for the nomination, but his friends know that he has expressed interest in a possible House seat in the past.

groceryman Bill Longley and former state representative Roy W. Arledge, also of Stamford--have expressed interest in the office.

Martin, who served 12 years as County judge here and has contacts over the entire 61st District because of his work in helping to organize the West Central Texas Council of Governments, has been quietly contacting key Democratic County chairmen, the Record has learned.

However, Democratic Party chairmen within the 61st District--Mitchell, Nolan, Fisher, Jones and part of Abilene--are already considering prospects.

The nominee--which could be See MARTIN

OLD TALES RETOLD for 1972

There once was a mean old wolf
Who saw Red Riding Hood and went "woof".
She did not scream or even run
She shot him with her teargas gun
And after that successful sneak Chopped him. She was a karate expert.

Mary had a little lamb
When the phone rang she was waiting and ready.
But nobody else better look at him twice

Cause Mary and her lamb are going steady.

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe
She had so many children
She didn't know what to do Except rent a bigger apartment
And write daily orders
Telling each kid what to do
--or not to.

Once there was a little boy
Who wouldn't say his prayers
And when he went to bed
Away up stairs

His mama heard him hoi-ler
His daddy heard him yell, Grandma was visiting and she Gave that youngan what-for.

Once there were three bears
Papa Bear, Mama Bear,
and Baby Bear
Who had all the newest,
finest clothes to wear
While Papa Bear and Mama
Bear
Sometimes looked sorta threadbare.
Cause it was time for graduation

With rings and things Cap and gown, the invitation.
By the time Baby Bear
Got that diploma
Papa Bear and Mama
Bear
Were nearly in a coma.
Baby Bear got all the presents
And though it may sound
sappy
Papa Bear and Mama
Bear
Were mighty proud and happy.
And now that Baby Bear
has some knowledge
Papa Bear and Mama
Bear will send Baby Bear to college Cause even after graduation
There's always higher education.
She'll have to have more clothes to wear
While Papa Bear and Mama Bear
Still go around bare.
But never think it makes them sad
It makes the three bears
all feel glad.
It may sound strange Since when all is said and done Baby Bear has most of the fun.
Papa Bear and Mama
Bear on their side
Have the bills and planning
And their full share of pride.
This is a good time to congratulate Every Baby Bear graduate
Plus Papa Bear and Mama
Bear
For it is very, very true
That they have earned that diploma, too!

Donna McKinney, Ronnie Goebel Marry In Saturday Church Rites

First United Methodist Church
here Saturday evening was setting for the marriage of Miss Donna Lynn McKinney of Abilene and Ronnie Allen Goebel of Hermleigh.

Parents of the bride are Mr.
and Mrs. Pat McKinney of 1439
Waco Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goebel of Hermleigh are parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Lynward Harrison of
First United Methodist Church
in Ackerly read double ring vows in a 7:30 o'clock candle-lighted ceremony.

Glenn Crosthwait, organist, presented nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. W. E. McMillan of Hermleigh who sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer".

A white prayer bench and an arch covered with emerald greenery, outlined with blue vo-tive candles, centered the altar.
Flanking each side of the setting were staggered seven-branched cathedral style candelabra with votive candles. Altar rail was lined by arrangements of emerald greenery and votive candles.

Pews were marked by blue satin streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of cameo lace and beauganza. Empire bodice was fashioned with a high bias roll collar and bishop sleeves garthered to wide lace cuffs. Cam-meo lace overlaid the bodice, upper part of sleeves and extended over the skirt forming an apron effect. Waistline was lined with a narrow sash ending in a back bow. Center of chapel train was accented by a row of tiny buttons extending from the waist to hemline.

Her shoulder-length veil of tied illusion was attached to a cap of cameo lace and beauganza.

She carried a cascade of white flowers centered with a cattleya orchid.

Mrs. Robert Henderson of Midland was matron of honor.
Mrs. Jimmy Dupree of Lubbock and Miss Brenda Conard of Colorado City were bridesmaids.

They wore floor-length dresses of blue and white organza styled with bishop sleeves. Their bouquets were nougats of blue miniature carnations and white star flowers.
They wore matching hairpieces.

Larry Goebel of Hermleigh, twin brother of the groom, was best man.

Groomsmen were Jimmy Dupree of Lubbock and Steve Pierce of Snyder. Calvin Goebel of Hermleigh, groom's brother, and Richard McKinney, brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Fellowship Hall of the church was setting for a wedding reception hosted by the bride's parents.

Bride's table was laid with a floor-length white pleated organza cloth and centered with an arrangement of white roses and gypsophila with tall blue tapers. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with two slender wedding rings edged with tiny silver beading.

Mrs. Danny Tartt of Garland registered guests. Miss Jan Cooney of Kermit and Miss Carla Walters of Blackwell presided at the bride's table.

For a short wedding trip the bride wore a blue dress complimented by white accessories and an orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

They will be at home in Abilene North Apartments in Abilene.

The bride was graduated from Colorado High School in 1970 and attended Howard County
Junior College, Angelo State University and is currently enrolled in Mary Meek School of Nursing in Abilene.

Goebel, a graduate of Snyder
High School, attended University of Houston and Howard County Junior College where he received an associate degree in drafting this month.

HEAR TELL that our Marie
(Mrs. A. C.) Benson is home again after three weeks treatment in an Austin hospital. She is still ill and in bed most of all her days.

"Feel like having some company, now," she declared cheerfully in spite of serious back trouble. As you all know, Marie is mother of Don Benson.

Wann Sparks, husband of Flo

Miss Peggy Louise Blair Is Bride Of John A. Wright II

Miss Peggy Louise Blair and John Amos Wright II of Abilene were married last Sunday afternoon in a three o'clock ceremony in 22nd and Austin Street Church of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. (Buddy) Blair of 1326 Walnut Street are parents of the bride.

Bridegroom is son of John A. Wright of Abilene and the late Quida Jo Wright.

Dr. Paul Faulkner of Abilene officiated in double ring vows. Miss Quida Jo Wright of Arlington, sister of the groom, and Chris Tome, a student at Abilene Christian College, sang, "Here, There and Everywhere," "Thee I Love," "For Baby," "Bridal Chorus" and "We've Only Just Begun".

Centering the altar was the church altar table marked by a memory candle encircled with orange gladioli, bronze fugli chrysanthemums. Flanking each side of the table were arched brass candelabra holding orange cathedral candles.

Mothers' pews were marked by orange satin streamers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie. Empire bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and lantern sleeves of myra mist which were caught between puffs with wide rows of lace. Lace defined waistline and formed a front panel extending the length of the skirt. Tiny self-fabric covered buttons, made by the bridegroom's grandmother, accented the skirt panel. Her chapel-length train was overlaid with myra mist.

She wore a triple layered veil of illusion attached to a pillbox headpiece of peau de soie and matching lace seeded with pearls.

For the traditional "something old", the bride wore a necklace; "something new" was her wedding attire; "something blue", a garter, and "something borrowed" was a small white Bible belonging to her mother.

Mrs. Dave McInnis of Cisco, the former Donna Smith, was matron of honor and Miss Mary Lou Wilkerson of Coleman, a former Colorado City resident, was maid of honor.

Miss Vicki Lale of Abilene and Miss Meggan Wright of Breckenridge, cousin of the groom, were bridesmaids.

Attendants wore gowns of orange crepe A'Legante styled similarly to the bride's costume. Deep orange velvet ribbon defined empire waistlines and sleeves were gathered to ribbon with ruffles extending to their hands.

They carried kissing balls of fresh flowers in shades of orange, yellow and gold and wore matching fresh flowers in their hair.

Miss Pamela Kay Narrell of Dallas, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her brother, Brad Narrell, was ringbearer.

Lighting candles and ushering guests were Tommy Blair of Sweetwater, cousin of bride, and James Reid of Breckenridge, cousin of groom.

Greg Thomason of Arlington was best man.

Groomsmen were Paul Harris of Abilene, Jerry Pack of Abilene and Wayne Bronniman of Adrian.

Parlor of the church was setting for a reception honoring the bridal couple following their marriage.

Bride's table was centered by an arrangement of flowers in the bride's chosen colors. Registry table was accented by a yellow candle surrounded by permanent flowers of orange, yellow and white.

Groom's table was covered with a burnt orange cloth edged in wide lace and centered by an arrangement of elderberry blooms floating in a triple branched compote.

Miss Linda Martin of Colorado City registered guests. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. James G. Narrell of Dallas, sister of the bride; Miss Pat Owens of Fort Worth, Miss Nola Jones of Amarillo, Miss Claudia Lovett and Miss Jenell Crawford of Abilene, Miss Marilyn Ellis and Miss Dixie Martin of Colorado City.

For travel to Lubbock the bride changed to a turquoise blue voile dress printed with border designs of pale green, white, yellow and turquoise tulips. With it she wore white accessories and an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

They are at home at 688 College Drive in Abilene.

The bride, a 1969 graduate of Colorado High School, is a senior at Abilene Christian College where she is a business education major, a member of Kappa Delta Pi and employed at Computer Center.

Her husband was graduated from Cooper High School in Abilene in 1969 and is also a senior at ACC majoring in general business. He is an employee of Sears in Abilene.

In Colorado City for the wedding were guests from Lorraine, Muleshoe, Abilene, Breckenridge, Dallas, Arlington, Graham, Sweetwater, Stanton, Cisco, Big Springs, Slaton and Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wright of Abilene were hosts to a rehearsal dinner at Villa Inn Party room last Saturday evening.

Dining tables for the affair were highlighted by arrangements of mixed summer flowers carrying out the bride's chosen colors.

Sunday Guests

Miss Debbie Mears of Snyder was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pete White and Rayburn.

Is now the time to refinance loans?

Capital for expansion, more money from your equity, debt consolidation, smaller payments—these are important reasons for adjusting your loan structure. It's sound business to analyze credit obligations at least once each year to make sure borrowed money is being used to full advantage. Let's talk it over. Bunny Lester, Bobby Ruddick Exchange Double Ring Vows

Miss Helen Lee (Bunny) Lester became the bride of Robert Lawrence (Bobby) Ruddick in a mid-afternoon ceremony May 13 in First United Methodist Church.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Lester of 1520 Dallas Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Ruddick of El Dorado, Kan., former Colorado City residents, are parents of the bridegroom.

Reading double ring vows in the three o'clock ceremony were Rev. Billy Wilkinson, pastor of First United Methodist, and Rev. Don Timberlake, minister of Oak Street Baptist Church.

Mrs. James E. Payne, organist, played nuptial selections and accompanied Robert A. Lester of Eldorado, brother of the bride, as he said "O Perfect Love."

Church altar was set for two topiary trees accented by white doves and deep pink roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace styled with multiple tiers of lace ending in a cathedral train. Her veil of illusion was imported from England and she carried a nosegay of white and deep pink roses, gardenias and stephanotis.

For the traditional "something" old she wore a 74-year-old engraved locket, given to her on this occasion by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Lester of Lubbock, for whom the bride was named.

Seating wedding guests were William C. Lester of Lubbock, brother of the bride; Robert Lewis Ramage of Camp Lejeune, N. C., and Greg Cawthron of Colorado City.

Setting for a wedding reception was the church Fellowship Hall.

Bride's table was laid with a white net edged in lace over taffeta. Three-tiered wedding cake, carrying out the bride's chosen colors of deep pink and white, centered the table and was flanked on each side by white tapers.

Registry was covered with a cloth matching refreshment table covering and marked by a silver vase filled with pink roses and baby's breath.

Receiving guests with the bridal couple and their parents were the couple's grandmothers, Mrs. Sam Bullock of Colorado City and Mrs. Lester.

Mrs. E. L. Ruddick of Colorado City, aunt of the groom, greeted guests. Miss Donna

Ruddick, cousin of bridegroom, presided at the register.

Others in the houseparty were Miss Sharon Ruddick, sister of bridegroom; Mrs. J. D. Richardson, Mrs. John M. Hale, Mrs. Darrell Smith, Mrs. Jeffrey Jones, Miss Marilyn Hale, Mrs. Lucian Moore, aunt of bride.

Also, Mrs. Dan Allen, Mrs. L. S. Girvin Jr., Mrs. Newby Pratt, Mrs. Brady Warren, Mrs. O. B. Trulock Jr., Miss Debbie Johnson and Miss Bobbie Patterson.

For travel to Kansas the bride wore pink and lavender attire complimented by pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses.

Following their wedding trip the couple will live in San Angelo where both will attend Angelo State University.

Guests here for the marriage were from Eldorado, San Angelo, Abilene, Seymour, Roscoe, Lubbock, Big Spring, Fort Worth, Midland and Ackerly.

A family dinner honoring the bridal couple was hosted May 12 in Villa Inn Party room by the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was complimented by two pre-nuptial courtesies.

A miscellaneous shower was hosted in her honor earlier this month in Oak Street Baptist Church.

Community Center was scene of a lingerie shower May 12. Hostesses were Mrs. Hubert Bassinger, Mrs. James Huckabay and Mrs. Lloyd Richards.

RANDY J. FEASTER, Tarleton degree.

R. Feaster Gets Degree At Tarleton

Randy J. Feaster, a 1968 honor graduate of Colorado High School, last Sunday received a bachelor of science degree with honors at Tarleton State College.

Feaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Feaster of 1335 Elm Street, was an agricultural economics major and was named Who's Who among students in American universities and colleges for 1971-72.

He was named outstanding agricultural student for 1971-72 at Tarleton and was twice recipient of the Tarleton State College Distinguished Student Award for scholastic excellence.

Feaster is a member of Alpha Zeta, an agricultural scholastic honor society and Texas Alpha Kappa Chapter of Alpha Chi, national scholastic honor society.

IN SAN ANGELO VOWS

Vicki Youngblood Becomes Bride Of Richard Reynolds

Park Heights Baptist Church in San Angelo Saturday afternoon was setting for the marriage of Miss Vicki Youngblood of San Angelo to Richard Keith Reynolds of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Glenn Youngblood of San Angelo are parents of the bride.

Bridegroom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Reynolds of 1471 Watson Street.

Rev. Bobby L. Eklund of San Angelo read double ring vows in the four o'clock ceremony. Miss Terri Harbin was organist.

Candlelight and arrangements of English ivy marked the church sanctuary.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white dotted swiss fashioned with a fitted bodice and a tiered skirt gathered to a high waistline. Square neckline was edged in crocheted lace and each tier of the skirt was bordered with embroidered trim edged in lace. Short puffed sleeves gathered into bands with wrist length slim sleeves.

Her floor-length veil was attached to a Juliet cap covered with crocheted lace and she carried a free form bouquet of daisies and English ivy.

Miss Sandy Cox of San Angelo was maid of honor.

She wore a gown of yellow flocked organza and carried an arrangement of daisies in a basket.

Bridesmaids, dressed in mint green flocked organza, were Mrs. Bruce Hill, Miss Valerie Youngblood and Miss Janice Youngblood, both sisters of the bride. They also carried baskets filled with daisies.

Sam L. Majors III of Austin served as best man.

Groomsmen were Randy Parker of San Angelo, Bill Streety of Dallas, cousin of groom and John Chinn of Colorado City.

Rex Reynolds and Mark Reynolds, brothers of the bridegroom; Johnny Matthews, all of Colorado City, and Will Brinson of Midland ushered guests.

Following the wedding a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church honored the bridal couple.

Bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over yellow and centered by an arrangement of yellow and white daisies. Groom's table was laid with a spring green cloth and marked by a bouquet of daisies.

In the reception houseparty were Miss Annette Stocksberry, Miss Suzette Stocksberry, Miss Barbara McKay, Mrs. Claude Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Irwin, Mrs. Frank Stringer, Mrs. Mac Snodgrass, Mrs. Harold Gerhardt, Mrs. X. B. Cox Jr., Mrs. Joe Mahaffay, Mrs. W. P. Fulgim, all of San Angelo, and Mrs. Cliff Torrence of Lubbock.

For a honeymoon trip to Dallas the bride changed to a white jumpsuit with a maxi skirt.

The couple will be at home in Arlington.

The bride, a 1970 graduate of Central High School in San Angelo, attended Angelo State University and will be a junior at University of Texas at Arlington in the fall.

Her husband was graduated from Colorado High School in 1969. He attended Angelo State University two years and is now employed by Texas and Pacific Railroad in Fort Worth.

In San Angelo for the wedding were guests from Colorado City, Austin, Weatherford, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Snyder and Hawkins.

Bridegroom's parents were hosts to a rehearsal dinner honoring the bridal couple and members of their wedding party Friday evening in Rio Concho Manor in San Angelo.

MRS. RICHARD KEITH REYNOLDS, wed in San Angelo.

Good Luck Teams

The City National Bank

All men contend with the questions posed by the contrasts of sickness and health, poverty and plenty.

And ask the question "why?" Why loneliness in a world that would join hands? Why war when the impulse of the heart is to love? The aching chasm between the real and the ideal everywhere provokes the question . . .

WHY?

In a world looking for answers maybe God is the place to start.
God is hope. God is now.

Former Wrestler To Preach At Calvary

Tommy Phelps, a former professional wrestler, will be guest speaker for a week's evangelistic crusade at Calvary Baptist Church.

Capt. Vice Honored By Air Force

US Air Force Captain Gary E. Vice, son of Mrs. W. A. May, has received the Distinguished Flying Cross for aerial achievement in Southeast Asia.

Captain Vice distinguished himself as an DB-66 navigator when he flew an important heavy bomber strike mission.

Vice was honored in ceremonies at Kirtland AFB, N.M., where he now serves with a unit of Air Weather Service which provides weather information for military flight operations.

The captain, who has an aeronautical rating of senior navigator, is a 1958 graduate of Snyder High School and received a bachelor of arts degree in mathematics in 1963 from North Texas State University.

Phelps was a professional wrestler known as "Nature Boy" for 17 1/2 years before becoming a Christian in 1962.

He made his decision to enter the ministry later the same year.

"He wrestled in most of the major cities across the country and is now returning to many of them as a minister," said Rev. Ed Burkett, Calvary Baptist Church pastor, in announcing the week's worship program.

Services have been set for 7:30 p.m., beginning Monday and continuing through May 28.

"The crusade is one of the preliminary events of the city-wide Encounter Crusade, an evangelistic effort scheduled in August at Wolf Stadium," Rev. Burkett said. Dr. Lockridge, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Long Beach, Cal., will be evangelist for the summer crusade.

"We invite each and every person in and around this area to come and worship with us," concluded the church pastor.

MR. MERCHANT.....

Here Are TEN Solid Facts You Should Consider In Planning Your Advertising!

- 1 - This newspaper is an advertising medium that is WANTED - it is sought after and paid for and advertising in it is not an intruder in the home.
- 2 - Nearly all of this newspaper's circulation is CONCENTRATED in this trading area.
- 3 - The newspaper provides PENETRATION in the primary market by reaching virtually every family or customer in that market.
- 4 - People read newspaper ads when they are ready to make a decision and to act - WHEN THEY'RE READY TO BUY.
- 5 - The newspaper is convenient; it may be consulted at a time most CONVENIENT to every member of the family.
- 5 - People LIKE TO READ NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENTS - surveys show 85 per cent of the people want their newspaper to contain advertising.
- 7 - Every issue of every newspaper contains INFORMATION AND PICTURES of interest to every member of the family.
- 8 - Newspaper reading is a habit and a part of people's routine.
- 9 - The printed word is MORE RELIABLE THAN the spoken word and it cannot be refuted because it is easily available for re-checking. More accurate information is obtained by reading than by listening.
- 10 - The newspaper is ideal for comparison - items in a newspaper may be easily compared with items in other newspaper ads.

THE MOST EFFECTIVE and MOST ECONOMICAL WAY TO PROMOTE BUSINESS IS THROUGH NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

tantamount to election--will be named by the county chairmen.

Friends of the Sweetwater prospects, Aiken and Wilks, have made contact for their candidates in Colorado City with Rees as well as with others interested in Democratic Party politics.

The pair are being supported strongly by separate law firms in Sweetwater.

Rees, the local chairman, has remained uncommitted like Nolan's Hunt and Fisher's Carrier but has pointed out the 3 counties--Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher--are closely aligned in business, agricultural and political interests and should favor a candidate who would represent these interests.

second game Monday night, the Giants defeated the Indians 14 to 7.

In Tuesday night's action, the Yankees defeated the Pirates by the score of 8 to 5 in the first game and in the second game, the Rangers put 22 across home plate to down the Astros who had only 6 men across home plate.

Thursday night, the Dodgers got things started with a 4 to 1 win over the Giants and in the second game the Tigers slammed home 15 runs to defeat the Indians with only 3 points.

The Yankees scored 11 points to none for the Rangers Friday night and the Astros edged out the Pirates 13-10.

Games next week include:

Monday - 6 p.m. Giants vs. Yankees.
8 p.m. Rangers vs. Tigers.

Tuesday - 6 p.m. Indians vs. Pirates.
8 p.m. Astros vs. Dodgers.
