IMPROVEMENTS APPROVED FOR GOOSE ISLAND PARK

Austin -- Popularity of Goose Island State Recreation Area in Aransas County grew so much since it became a state park in the 1930's that eventually too much strain was placed on both visitor facilities and the environment. This made it necessary to limit visitation to designated sites only.

Expansion of facilities was completed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department in August 1974. However, studies of utilization since then have indicated a need for further expansion and improvements.

At its June 29 meeting, the Parks and Wildlife Commission agreed with this necessity and approved plans for further construction at the recreation area, as well as the required funding.

Goose Island State Recreation Area consists of 307 acres located on the St. Charles and Aransas Bays, 10 miles northeast of Rockport. One of its two principal areas is the 167-acre mainland portion, which includes the park road right-of-way and the famous "Big Tree," a national co-champion and certified state champion live oak. The other major area is the 140-acre island portion.

Rotary Club Hears Energy Shortage Talk

Growing demand for fuel plus what he termed excessive federal regulation of the oil and gas industry were blamed for our increasing dependency on imported petroleum by Jerry Harris of Houston, training manager for Continental Oil Company's southern division. He spoke on the energy shortage at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club at Sandollar Restaurant July 7.

He asserted that government regulations, especially those of the Federal Energy Administration, actually have helped worsen the energy crunch instead of relieving it.

Harris also pointed to current efforts of Congress to restrict operations of the nation's large oil companies by restricting their operations to one phase of petroleum production processing and marketing as a dangerous trend. Further, he said that severe federal restrictions limit profits to such an extent that exploration and development of new sources of oil and gas in this country is inhibited.

partly flat, grassy prairie and partly dense oak thickets. Camping under the trees where underbrush has been cleared has resulted in widespread soil compaction, which is causing rapid tree loss. The valuable "Big Tree" has sustained measurable damage from such compaction, in this case due to cars driving too near it.

The island is popular for camping, because of the view, the Gulf breezes and the excellent fishing. Problems include shore erosion, the vulnerability to hurricanes, and the limited amount of usable land. Narrow in width, the island has unstable mud flats and a few marshy areas on the inland side.

The island is connected to the mainland by a narrow bridge. There is a 1,620-foot, lighted fishing pier at the eastern end of the island.

In the past, the park and its inadequate facilities were so overused as to cause a significant impact on the character of the park. Control of visitation, plus the new facilities provided recently, has improved the situation.

However, P&WD planners, recognizing the high visitation demand, have made intensive studies as to the best possible use of this recreational unit within the natural limitations. Their proposals, which now have received commission approval, will achieve the best ratio of visitor enjoyment with conservation needs.

Limited visitation still will be necessary, but greater convenience will enhance the recreational experience available.

Additional support facilities will provide a balance of active and passive outdoor recreation. Interpretive facilities, including self-guiding nature trails, will provide information about the coastal environment of the park.

Measures will be taken to correct soil erosion. There also will be administrative and operational improvements.

All facilities will meet requirements of the physically handicapped. Also, the structures will be designed to withstand hurricane force winds.

Although future visitors to Goose Island State Recreation Area will have to accept the necessary restrictions, it is expected that the department's plans for it will receive widespread approval. A stay at this bayside park will be more enjoyable than ever and there will be more assurance that future generations will be able to enjoy it, also.

Firemen's Meet Was Success

Rockport Volunteer Fire Department was host to the 3rd quarterly Convention of South Central District Firemen's Association attended by over 200 people. Other than the district towns, Beeville was a guest.

At the business meeting the Invocation was given by Rev. Leslie D. Crawford. The welcome address was given by Walter S. Falk, Jr., mayor. The response to welcome was given by the Sinton Fire Department. The guest speaker was Rep. Leroy Wieting. General business was taken care of at the meeting along with several door prizes being given away.

Fried fish, boiled shrimp, cole slaw, beans, potato chips, cake and tea was served for the noon meal.

The Ladies Auxiliary business meeting was from 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Recommendations for changes in the racing rules and by-laws were adopted. Several door prizes were given away during the meeting.

HEAVY RAINS LAST WEEK CAUSE SEWAGE PROBLEMS

Rain, rain, go away, come again some other day.

That's what local residents were saying last week when more than 8½ inches of rain fell here.

It all started Monday, July 5 and continued every day for one week. Fortunately there was no rain on the Fourth of July, giving local people and visitors an opportunity to celebrate the nation's 200th birthday without holding umbrellas over their heads.

But beginning July 5, down came the rains which were to remain with us for seven straight days.

Weather observer Paul Sorenson recorded the official day to day downpour as follows:

July 5, 1.04 inches.
July 6, 0.68 inches.
July 7, 0.44 inches.
July 8, 1.58 inches.
July 9, 2.67 inches.
July 10, 2.05 inches.
July 11, 0.14 inches.
Total, 8.60 inches.

In the City of Rockport there were no serious problems. The drainage and sewage systems performed efficiently and about all that anybody suffered was inconvenience.

But the same could not be said for some of the areas in Aransas County, outside the city limits. The old fashioned septic tanks and feeder systems soon became full and there were many reports of sewage backing up into homes.

Plumbers were the most popular people in town and their services were being sought by many residents.

If any evidence were needed to demonstrate the urgent need for a county wide sanitary sewerage system, last week's rain supplied such evidence.

Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District, commonly known as the Water District, has been doing everything it can for well over a year to get the necessary financial assistance from the state and the federal government for such a system but so far their efforts have not succeeded in action.

It is hoped that hundreds of people in this area will write to our Senators and Congressmen at Washington urging any type of action that will produce a countywide sanitary sewerage system here.

Youth Revival July 28-Aug. 1

First Baptist Church will present a Youth Led Revival July 28 thru August 1. The Youth of the church are planning, promoting, and presenting the revival with the guidance of their adult sponsors. The revival will be another facet of the Summer Youth Program which has kept the young people of the First Baptist congregation spiritually occupied during the summer months.

The youth of the First Baptist Church extends an invitation to the entire community and surrounding communities, especially the young people, to participate in the revival. The revival will begin nightly at 7:30 p.m. After services there will be fellowship and refreshments in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

A bonfire meeting is planned for Saturday night July 31st. Watch for announcements of the time and location, or contact a Youth Group member of the First Baptist Church.

Deeping Channels, Harbors Moves Closer to Reality Here

When President Ford on Monday signed a $9.7 billion public works appropriation bill, it virtually assured restoration of designated depths in Rockport and Fulton harbors and channels.

The accomplishment of the vitally needed work which is so essential to the local economy will be a tribute to much work on the part of Congressman John Young, board members of Aransas County Navigation District and other local community leaders.

Navigation District Commissioner Hal McKnight told the Pilot Tuesday that he had been in touch with Congressman Young by phone and had been informed that the estimate of the Corps of Engineers for the dredging work was $170,000.

McKnight quoted Young as saying that if the cost exceeds $170,000, "the Corps will pay it because it was their estimate."

McKnight also said that every member of the board of the Navigation District will soon go to Galveston to see officials of the Corps of Engineers "to be sure that our District receives high priority in the next fiscal year which begins Sept. 1, 1976."

Members of the local Navigation District board of commission appeared before both House and Senate committees April 6, presenting a statement outlining seriousness of the situation and explaining its adverse effect on the economy of this area. The Senate subcommittee later acted on the matter.

The local group asked for a $190,000 appropriation for the project, but the House subcommittee reduced this to $170,000 when it gave its approval. It is believed the reduction in total resulted from recommendations from the U.S. Corps of Engineers which has the responsibility for maintaining the harbors and channels.

The Rockport harbor and channel were dug under direction of U.S. Corps of Engineers to a depth of nine feet in 1941. The Fulton Harbor and channel with a depth of eight feet were completed in 1950. Since then a total of only $29,566 in federal funds has been spent maintaining the two harbors and their channels.

The statement presented to committees of the House and Senate reviewed the history of the local waterways and stressed the adverse economic impact on the Rockport-Fulton area of the poor condition of the harbors and channels.

In recent months it often has been virtually impossible for larger commercial and pleasure boats to navigate the channels and harbors because of shallow water. In a number of instances Gulf shrimp boats have been towed by shallow draft boats in order to enter or leave the harbors.

The statement for the committees explained that some two million dollars worth of shrimp was processed in Fulton harbor and more than three million dollars worth in Rockport harbor during 1975. Also cited was the handicaps imposed on operations of Rockport Yacht and Supply Co. by shallow water in channels and harbors. In addition, the unfavorable impact of these conditions on the local tourist business was emphasized.

Appearance Code is Amended

Meeting in regular session, the Board of Trustees of the Aransas County Independent School District approved the minutes of the June 14th meeting and approved the monthly bills for payment.

The Board accepted the resignation of four teachers and employed their replacements. This brings to ten the number of regular teachers who have resigned from the system, which is one of the lowest number of teachers who have left the system in several years.

CPL Promotes G.D. Churchill

Glen D. Churchill of Abilene has been named executive vice president of Central Power and Light Company and will assume his new duties in mid-July. CPL Chairman R.W. Hardy announced.

Churchill also was elected a member of the CPL board of directors at the group's quarterly meeting in Corpus Christi.

The new CPL executive is now vice president and a director of West Texas Utilities Company, and has a diversified background in utility financing and accounting. WTU and CPL are both operating companies of the Central and South West system.

Churchill's appointment was one of a series of changes made today to strengthen CPL's management organization, Hardy said.

Registration is under way for the "Celia Plus Six" two-man invitational golf tournament scheduled July 31 and August 1 at Live Oak Country Club. As in past years, play will be partnership low ball over 36 holes, 18 on Saturday and 18 on Sunday.

Tournament officials stress that this is an invitational and not an open tournament and all male golfing club members are urged to get a playing partner and register for the tournament.

Players will be paired in foursomes by the tournament committee according to attested handicaps with lowest team-member's handicap determining respective flight.

The field will be limited to the first 60 teams entered and play will begin with shot-gun starts twice daily at 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. A hole-in-one prize will be offered and other special prizes will be awarded daily.

Mrs. Pat Lawler, Crusade Chairman for the Aransas County Cancer Society, reports total contributions this year of over $7613.00, including $1,001 raised by Art for Cancer. The Cancer Society has until August 31 to reach their goal of $8,000. Mrs. Lawler said that the remaining gifts would be in the form of memorial donations. Persons wishing to make a memorial donation should call Patty McArdle, at 729-7093.

become so complicated and difficult that his company now has some 200 employees working to interpret them and make sure they are followed. This operation costs more than $4 million a year, diverting substantial money from productive activities.

Harris said 32 per cent of our total oil supply was imported at the time the embargo was imposed by producing countries. This has grown to 40 per cent and is expected to pass 50 per cent in the near future. He added that in one recent week the United States actually imported more oil than it produced.

Additional capital is needed for investment in exploration, and construction of new facilities to increase domestic production and create new jobs. The effect of inflation and inadequate profits have resulted in the lowest level in capital improvements by the oil industry in years, according to Harris.

Natural gas, which accounts for a third of the nation's energy needs, including heating of about 40 million homes, also is in short supply, yet price controls discourage search for additional sources of gas, Harris said. This situation not only reduces the quantity of natural gas available but also stimulates use of other scarce fuels.

Harris declared that the oil and gas industry is intensely competitive and the last thing needed is for Congress to dismember individual companies in the name of increasing competition. He added that cost of natural gas and oil products to the American consumer is lower than in any other place in the world.

shop meeting on July 21st to work on the budget for next year. A public hearing on the budget was scheduled for Monday, August 2nd.

The Board amended its policy in regard to the Student Appearance Code which will become effective with the opening of school on August 23rd. The policy was amended to read as follows:

It is recognized in the Aransas County schools that cleanliness, personal appearance, and proper dress habits are important in determining the pattern of school and social conduct and that there is direct correlation between student appearance, attitude, and behavior.

Subject to the educational process, appearance of student at school is a responsibility which rests primarily with the parents of the students. The school becomes involved in that responsibility when the total appearance of the student body, or of individuals within the student body, affect directly the attitude, safety, health, behavior and learning environment within the school.

The Administration is delegated the authority to administer the standards for proper student grooming.

THE FOLLOWING POLICY DETAILS WILL BE FOLLOWED:

1. Student appearance will be judged by neatness, cleanliness, and appropriateness.
2. Special dress and appearance codes may be approved for special causes involving the use of machinery and tools.
3. Other than the special provisions mentioned above, the following list applies to all students.
 - a. All students will wear shoes that are free of metal taps or any other similar devices. Rubber shower thongs are not permitted.
 - b. All clothing shall be appropriate for school wear and worn as it is designed to be worn.
 - c. Objectional emblems, symbols, or suggestive writing not appropriate for school will be disallowed.
 - d. Generally shorts are not to LOLA L. BONNER, First National Bank director, admires display of still life oils by Edward Herbes, San Antonio artist, on display this month in the lobby of the bank.

Herbes, who specializes in still life, studied the old Flemish masters in Europe. He did the cover art for Southwestern Bell's telephone directory of two years ago.

He limits his production to 20 or 30 paintings a year and shows only in three galleries, one in San Antonio, another in Houston and Helga's Gallery in Rockport. The local gallery which arranged for the display in the bank, reports Herbes' works are owned by a number of residents of the area.

be worn. Principals may make exceptions on special occasions in grades 6 through 12. In grades Kindergarten through 5, students may wear shorts or other juvenile clothing befitting the age group.

e. Student's faces are to be free of facial hair.

f. Low cut shirts, blouses, or clothes which expose bare mid-ribs are not suitable for school wear. Strapless garments are not acceptable school wear.

g. Sleeveless shirts and undershirts are not to be worn as outside wearing apparel.

h. Proper undergarments will be worn.

j. Hats, caps, hair rollers, combs, and head bands are not to be worn in the building.

If it becomes necessary, the principal or delegated school officials will counsel with the individual students and their parents concerning the appearance of the student. If counseling does not produce the desired results, the principal will take whatever action he deems necessary to insure appropriateness, health, safety and good taste.

If and when the principal takes action, it will be considered final action for the student. Appeal of the principal's decision must be filed in writing only by the parent or legal guardian of the involved student to the superintendent who will serve as the final administrative authority.

It is the desire of the Aransas County Schools to be in a position to grow, to develop, to change and progress as the customs and traditions of society change. The Aransas County Schools also desire, subject to the educational process, to leave the basic decisions of appearance to the parents of the students according to appropriateness, health, safety and good taste. The success of this approach will be determined by the actual appearance of each individual student and the student body as a whole.

GOOD SUMMER SHRIMP LANDINGS FORECAST

Austin — Shrimp samples made along the Texas coast during the last week of June show an abundance of shrimp in bays and a promise of a good harvest later this summer.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department coastal fisheries personnel have been taking samples of shrimp in the bays and closed areas of the Gulf. "Despite low salinities in some bays, shrimp are still abundant and we expect landings to be good this year," says Terry Leary, P&WD shellfish program director.

Shrimp remaining in the bays at the end of June are approximately three inches long, the size at which brown shrimp normally migrate back to the Gulf of Mexico. "At the expected growth rate of 1.5 millimeters per day, they will reach legally catchable size by mid-July," said Leary.

Tennis Tourney July 29-Aug. 1

One of the unique features of the fourth annual Summer Fun Mixed doubles tennis tournament scheduled for July 29, 30, 31 and Aug. 1 is that partners will be selected by lot. The first man whose name is drawn from a receptacle will become playing partner for the first woman whose name is drawn, and so on until all names have been drawn.

It is hoped to have 32 men and 32 women in the Senior section, according to Joe Hugenberg, president of Rockport Tennis Association, which is sponsoring this year's tournament. There will be three divisions and trophies will be awarded winners and runners-up in each division, he added. The trophy for the winners of the A division, which is retained by the winners for one year is currently being displayed in local business establishments.

Each player will have an opportunity to play in at least three matches, even if he or she loses in all of them. Losers in A division will drop to B division, whose losers will go on to C division.

More and more, I'm coming to realize how fortunate parents are whose sons and daughters live close enough that it is not a major project to get together periodically for visits.

In our case our daughter Pam and her family live in Kerrville so the two families are able to visit either here or there quite often.

But since our son Dave and his family live in San Ramon, Calif., a suburb of Oakland, we have been able to get together only once a year during the past few years.

Lynda just completed a one-week visit here. We were all thankful that most of the time they were here, with the exception of July 5 and 6, the weather was O.K. and we were able to have fun outdoors as well as inside.

Two of the most popular places, as far as the grandchildren were concerned, were the pool at Live Oak Country Club and the pool table in our recreation room.

Both Scott and Lynda love to swim and they are good swimmers. And Scott wanted to learn how to play pool, so the old master gave him some instructions and found that by the time all "our kids" had to fly home on July 6, Scott had become quite adept at handling a cue. Lynda enjoyed everything—eating, playing on neighbor Bohot's children's swings, kissing our dog Shan, or just walking around smiling at everybody.

We had a wonderful time but are kind of sad right now.

IT'S A BOY

Mr. & Mrs. Roy Chapa are proud to announce the arrival of a son, Daniel Joseph, on Tuesday, July 6. He weighed 8 lbs. 6 1/2 oz. and was 20 3/4 inches long. He was born in Memorial Medical Center.

Gilliland-Caspary Wed

On Saturday, July 10, Mary Beth Caspary and Kip Harsh Gilliland were married at 8:30 in the evening. The ceremony was held at Sacred Heart Catholic Church with the Reverend Thomas Picton, a cousin of the bride, officiating. A reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delo H. Caspary and the granddaughter of Mrs. Trudie M. Caspary of Corpus Christi.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a formal gown of white silk organza combined with Venice lace. The gown, designed by Priscilla of Boston, featured a V-neckline and brief sleeves. Motifs of the lace enhanced the A-line skirt and the chapel-length train. Her mantilla of matching lace flowed the length of the train from a coil covered in lace. Her bouquet was a cascade of baby's breath, carnations and roses in shades of pink.

Maid of honor was Miss Carrie Caspary, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Kevin Picton, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Royce Itchner of Kingsville, Mrs. Tyson Smith, Jr. and Mrs. Clay Gillis of Houston and Miss Alicia Avery of Princeton, N.J.

The attendants wore identical gowns of camellia pink chiffon. The gowns, designed in tiers, featured a capelet bodice. The skirts flowed to slipper length and were worn with matching pink slippers. Carnations in shades of pink were worn in their hair. They carried nosegays of carnations, roses and daisies in shades of pink.

Lukin T. Gilliland, father of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Lukin Gilliland, John Gilliland, brothers of the groom; Delo H. Caspary III, brother of the bride, John Clarke of San Antonio and Steve Tippit of Miami Springs, Florida.

Ushers were Mickey Starks, Toy Mason, James Cox, John Blackburn, Kent Quereau and Don Rymer.

The bride is a graduate of The Madeira School in Greenway, Virginia, and the University of Texas where she was a member of Pi Phi sorority.

The groom was graduated from Alamo Heights High School, attended North Texas State and received his B.A. degree from the University of Texas. He also was graduated from Texas Christian University with a degree in ranch management.

After a wedding trip to Switzerland and Spain the couple will be at home in Moore, Texas.

WILL OBSERVE 60TH ANNIVERSARY

A reception in celebration of their 60 years of marriage will be held Sunday, July 25th, for Mr. and Mrs. W.G. (Skeet) Campbell, former longtime residents of Childress, Texas, now living in retirement for the past 14 years at 1905 Picton Lane, Rockport.

The event will be in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of Christ in Childress, and their friends are asked to attend between the afternoon hours of two to three-thirty o'clock.

Hosting the reception will be the children of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and their families: Mr. and Mrs. Wallace L. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. George (Patsy) Cothor of Childress, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. (Marguerite) Dewey of Harbor City, California, Mrs. (Anne) Moran and Mrs. (Bettye) Gough, both of Fresno, California.

Rouquette-Keller Wed

Miss Susan Kay Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Keller, and Michael Zeph Ray Rouquette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis "Monte" Rouquette, were united in marriage in a candlelight double-ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Rockport on Saturday, June 26.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Joe Howard Livingston.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, blue carnations, baby's breath and candelabra with long white tapers laced with English ivy and blue ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown with an overlay of silk organza. The fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline was alencon lace over satin. Her veil was a cape of white silk organza bordered with white marabou. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses with baby's breath and ivy.

As she entered she paused to present a long-stemmed red rose to her mother and during the recessional she presented the groom's mother with an identical rose.

Explorers Post Return Winners

Ceremonies were opened June 27 for the Boy Scouts of America's National Explorer Bicentennial Olympics in Ft. Collins, Colorado with a keynote address by 1936 Olympic Gold Medal winner, Jesse Owens.

In his opening address he said, "You can only hope that they (the athletes) can all be winners; but then if they weren't winners, they wouldn't be here, anyway, would they?"

And with these words in mind, the nearly 2,000 young men and women that participated in the week-long competition set out to do their best.

Our own Post #49 members, Melissa Ramirez, Susan Stroott, Clarissa Ramirez, Deena Kramer, Suzanne Ramirez and Lisa Casterline each competed in their own individual competition. Events entered were table tennis, tennis, weightlifting, rifle marksmanship, public speaking and volleyball.

In weightlifting, Suzanne Ramirez placed 7th with a total weight of 5,920 lbs., figured by percentage on a number of lifts. In volleyball, the girls placed 3rd in the second division, winning a beautiful trophy. There were 110 volleyball teams competing.

All adult advisors were officials. Mr. & Mrs. Pete Ramirez, Jr. were chosen Outstanding V.B. Official and Outstanding Scorer. They received white caps with the Olympic emblem on the front and paper weight trophies.

This is a first for Rockport in national competition and these six Explorer young ladies represented our town and area very well and to the best of their abilities.

While in Colorado, Post #49 members saw the Royal Gorge at Canon City and visited in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Ramon L. Dominguez, Sr., Aurora, Colorado Springs, Estes Park and Rocky Mountain National Parks, where they enjoyed snowball fights, Pikes Peak and the State Capitol in Denver.

With many treasured memories and many new-found friends, Explorer Post 49 would like once again to thank all of you that helped make this trip possible by supporting all its money making projects, and to the clubs for their donations. The trophy will be at the V.F.W. Hall for anyone wishing to see it.

Adults making the trip with the members were Post Advisors Mr. & Mrs. Pete Ramirez, Jr., Associate Advisors, Dr. & Mrs. H.F. Elliot and Mrs. Betty Kramer.

CARD OF THANKS

Library News
 Books added to the collection recently include, "A God Against the Gods", by Allen Drury. The book, based upon years of research and two trips to Egypt is Drury's first historical novel. "A God Against the Gods", is filled with vivid characters, powerful scenes and the poignant drama of the only Pharaoh ever to defy the ancient ways of Egypt. This is a major novel worthy to rank with the best of historical fiction. The author is working on the sequel to "A God Against the Gods", entitled "Return to Thebes", in which the central character will be the Pharaoh Tutankhamon. Mrs. Stalker's Thursday morning group made rubbings and will display them at the library this week. More than fifty people attended the film

Litter Hurts People and Other Animals

Austin -- A jagged piece of beer bottle in a clear pool on the Guadalupe River near Kerrville marred a Memorial Day weekend swimming party when it gashed a child's foot, resulting in an emergency trip to the doctor for stitches.

A garbage heap of old refrigerators, scrap building materials, nail-filled boards and general household trash, topped off with offal from a local fish house, guards the approach to a nice little bay near Rockport. The land would be a natural park, if it were not being used as a dump by a few local residents.

Every day some birds and animals die after becoming entangled in discarded monofilament line. Sometimes a coot will mistake monofilament for something to eat and start swallowing it. After a while, the gizzard becomes full and the coot dies because he not longer is able to swallow.

Plastic six-pack holders catch birds; pull tabs from beverage cans cut human feet and trap small fish. Abandoned nylon trotlines snag birds, boat propellers and an occasional swimmer.

And each weekend, a number of boat trailers fail to make it home because a piece of monofilament line has wrapped around the trailers' axles, ruining the bearings.

It has always been man's nature to litter his nest. This fact pleases archeologists. But now, with more people in the world living with throwaway technology, litter really is beginning to hurt.

Illegal dumping on private property results in more and more land being fenced off from the public. People and wildlife are injured by hazardous materials, and public funds must be spent to pick up the litter of the careless.

It costs thousands of dollars each year to pick up litter in state parks. One Texas Parks and Wildlife Department worker said: "It takes until Wednesday to pick up from Saturday and Sunday."

According to Ron Moreau, head of P&WD parks operations and maintenance branch, each park's litter problem is unique. Generally the parks with the highest day-use have the most litter. Overnight campers litter less than day picnickers; old people litter less than the young.

With its high visitation rate, San Jacinto Battleground near Houston probably has the largest litter problem, while Lyndon B. Johnson State Park has one of the smallest.

Near Austin at McKinney Falls State Park, cans thrown from cars along roads and litter around the water area are major problems. Broken glass around the swimming area at Pedernales Falls State Park is a particular nuisance. Glass, like barbed wire, may wait a long time to hurt someone.

According to Moreau, fishermen using Copano Bay, Port Lavaca and Queen Isabella State Fishing Piers are good about not littering, with one exception. Some leave rough fish, such as hardheads, on the pier, resulting in a painful experience for anyone who steps on them. Fishermen are encouraged to throw their dead rough fish back into the water.

Some people try to hide their litter by stuffing it in a hollow tree or crevice, or by throwing it in high weeds (where it becomes visible after the first killing frost). On a windy day, some people even try throwing litter into the air, hoping the wind will carry it away.

There is a litter law. P&WD game wardens and parks personnel file several hundred cases each year. But laws alone will not stop litter. We must realize that litter costs money, our money.

515,000 WHITEWINGS NESTING IN VALLEY

Edinburg -- Estimates of adult white-winged doves nesting in the Lower Rio Grande Valley are complete and Texas Parks and Wildlife Department dove project officials put the figure at some 515,000 birds.

Gary Waggener, P&WD whitewing project leader in the Valley, said that figure represents an "average" year for numbers of doves returning to Texas to nest.

"As has been the case for the past several years," said Waggener, "most of the birds are nesting in citrus trees in the Valley. Some 63 percent of the birds were found there with 37 percent in native brush. And 80 percent of all birds in the Valley are to be found in Hidalgo County."

The half-million count is 23 percent less than the 1975 total of 675,000 birds, which, according to Waggener, was the largest number of adult birds nesting in Texas since 1966.

Waggener said it is still too early to estimate production from these nesting doves.

Department migratory game bird officials traveled to Washington, D.C., the week of June 21 with recommendations for both whitewing and mourning dove seasons.

Dance

In spite of the rainy, stormy weather a goodly crowd assembled at the Recreational Building for a Bicentennial dance. Hosts and hostesses
Raymond and Audrey Owens, Peggy Morrison, Theo Johnson and Dovey Bradford provided a most sumptuous feast of beautifully decorated cakes and cookies (which had flags and red, white and blue icing) plus punch and coffee.

The music, as usual, was spun by Gene Rickles who knows how to mix it up—some old and some new.

Mrs. Alma Ratliff registered the guests and took the money (50 cents each). The regular recreation hostess was on hand with her husband, Mr. & Mrs.
Buford Works; and several of her regular committee.

Mrs. Irene Hopper, dance hostess, introduced the hosts and hostesses and also the regular committee, Evelyn Horton and Gertrude Mills.
There were a few absent. The guests looked very festive in red, white and blue colors in a large part.

The next dance will be on August 12th, starting at 7
P.M., so mark your calendars for another good time.

Nurses Meet

The South Central League of Vocational Nurses held their regular monthly meeting at the Taft Hospital Cafeteria on July 8. Mrs. Sharon Hoskinson, a dental hygienist from Portland, was the guest speaker for the evening.

The state convention which was held June 24-26 in Corpus Christi was the main topic of old business. There were approximately 350 vocational nurses that registered for the three-day affair.

On Thursday evening, there was a hospitality party in the ballroom of the Holiday-Emerald Cove Hotel. Some 300 nurses, husbands and friends danced to the tunes of Marsha Karr and the Nashville Persuasion. A highlight of the evening was when the hotel cartoonist made his appearance. He brought out each person's image in each of his animated cartoons.

Friday evening, after an exhausting day of lectures, most all boarded the Gulf Clipper for a cruise and box supper.

Saturday morning was the business meeting with the installation of the fiscal year 1976-77 state officers. Installing officer for this special occasion was Mrs. Lavone Humphries, R.N. of Portland. Mrs. Mildred Woodall was appointed as the roving editor for the league's magazine for the coming year. Then it was off to Port Aransas and Padre for a fun-filled afternoon of sight-seeing and shopping aboard a chartered bus.

Members of the South Central League would like to thank the businesses for their donations of door prizes. Special thanks go to Dr. John Tunnell of Taft. Without his guidance and encouragement, the convention would not have been so grand and enjoyable.

Card Party

The regular weekly card party, sponsored by A.A.R.P., was held on July 8th with a lively crowd attending. Hosts and hostesses were Maizie and George Dunn and Ruth and Doug Duncan. They were assisted by the recreational chairman, Pat Works. Many goodies of pretty cookies and punch and coffee were on hand for refreshments during the afternoon.

Maizie Dunn won high in canasta and Leta Posey took second. In ladies' bridge, Phyllis McBride was winner with Charlotte Lee as runner-up. In men's bridge Karl Smith (again) was the winner and Doug Duncan took second. Bob McBride won the bingo prize.

There will be another card party, same time and place on Thursday, playing time starts at 1:30 P.M. Visitors are cordially welcome to come for an enjoyable afternoon.

We're making every effort to reduce expenses at Central Power and Light Company, but our costs continue to grow at a more rapid rate than our revenues. Virtually every aspect of our operation has been hit hard by inflation.

The last increase in our base rate, in 1973, added only about $1.50 per month to the bill of the average customer. (Recent increases in your monthly bill have come from the fuel adjustment charge, which recovers the rising cost of the fuel needed to generate electricity.)

Meanwhile, CPL must spend considerably more than it did even a year ago for nearly all products and services necessary to provide you with reliable electric power.

- Although we have fewer employees on our payroll, salaries were 8.6% more in 1975 than in 1974.
- Taxes were up 13% in 1975.
- And during the same year operating expenses other than fuel, purchased power and salaries rose 9.9%.
- In contrast, the company's base revenues increased very little during 1975 — only 1.2%.

Inflated expenses, coupled with an out-of-date rate schedule, obviously are making our job much more difficult. If CPL is to continue a high standard of dependable service, we cannot go on absorbing these rising costs.
