Panel To Make Public Impeachment Evidence

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee has voted to make public most of the evidence it has received in secret impeachment hearings during the past seven weeks.

When the material will be released remains unclear but some members say all evidence relating to the Watergate cover-up, including the committee's versions of White House tapes, could be made public in a few days.

7,000 PAGES

Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., who will have the right to edit the material before it is released, said Tuesday he hoped the entire record of more than 7,000 pages would be available for public scrutiny when the committee starts debating proposed articles of impeachment, now scheduled for July 13.

"This is information on which one can make an evaluation," said Rodino. "It should come to the attention of the public."

Ronald L. Ziegler, President Nixon's press secretary, said in Brussels today that Nixon welcomes the committee's decision.

"It's about time after weeks of leaks," Ziegler said.

The 22-16 vote came on a motion by Rep. Wayne Owens, D-Utah.

Most of the evidence to be released consists of factual statements bearing on the conduct of President Nixon and his aides without any interpretation or conclusions.

However, it also includes the evidence that led the Watergate grand jury to vote 19 to 0 to name Nixon as an unindicted co-conspirator in the Watergate cover-up. And it includes transcripts of presidential conversations far more complete than the edited versions released by the White House.

In other Watergate developments:

—Former top Nixon aide John D. Ehrlichman and three others go on trial today in the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

CIA INVOLVEMENT

—The Senate Watergate committee i. reported ready to release a report written by Vice Chairman Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., on possible CIA involvement in the Watergate break-in and cover-up.

—A legal consultant to the Watergate committee proposed that Congress limit a president's use of executive privilege and define exactly what he can do in the name of national security.

The House Judiciary Committee resolution excludes from the evidence to be released material relating to the secret bombing of Cambodia that the Defense Department has refused to declassify.

TO STAND TRIAL — Former White House Domestic Advisor John D. Ehrlichman and his wife Jean arrive at U.S. District Court in Washington today. The charges against Ehrlichman are: conspiracy against rights of citizens; making a false statement to the FBI; and three counts of making false declaration to a grand jury.

Claims Major Farm Group Broke, Lied To Members

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission has sued the National Farmer Organization, which it contends is broke and lied to its members when it borrowed more than $7 million from them.

The farmers group was charged with fraud, false statements and failure to disclose information about its financial condition.

The suit filed in Des Moines, Iowa, and announced in Washington, came one day after the farm organization's board, in an emergency meeting, unanimously approved a resolution denying any fraud and requesting that the commission make a more thorough investigation.

ENEMIES

ley has suggested in a newsletter to members that the commission's probe is part of a government effort to ruin the group. Staley pointed out that the NFO was listed among White House "enemies" in Watergate testimony by ousted presidential counsel John W. Dean III.

An SEC spokesman denied on Tuesday that the suit is related to the enemies list. "The charges speak for themselves," he said.

The suit charges that the farm organization is in the red and can't pay its bills.

NFO, which markets a broad range of commodities for its members, has had trouble collecting the $75-a-year dues it asks of its members, and recently launched a drive to collect delinquent dues, estimated by sources close to the farm organization at $12 million or more.

BACK DUES

Staley sent a letter to members June 13, marked "confidential for members only—not to be released to the press."

In it, he said the SEC investigation is the biggest problem to confront the farm group in its 18-year history.

"Back dues must be paid immediately or NFO is lost," he said. "NFO's existence depends on your decision."

When news accounts of the letter appeared, Staley denied that the group is faced with financial collapse and said the SEC's complaints were technical.

'Dead' Boy Beats Gun Wound Odds

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP) — The 4-year-old boy's heart and breathing had stopped and doctors working to revive him estimated his chances for survival were "no more than one to two in 100."

But on Tuesday, one week after he accidentally shot himself, William Horton asked a Harbor General Hospital nurse, "When can I go home?"

The .25 caliber bullet pierced William's aorta, ripped through his intestines in seven different places and lodged in his back.

Dr. Michael Peter, senior resident in surgery who helped save the boy, told a news conference that a gunshot wound which penetrates the aorta is usually fatal. The aorta is the artery through which blood flows from the heart into the body.

Peter said the chances of a person surviving the injury "would be certainly no more than one to two in 100 and quite likely much less."

He said William's survival "represented a lot of good luck along with good care."

Peter said William's brain lacked oxygen for about 15 to 20 minutes, possibly "as long as 25 minutes," and this condition for longer than eight minutes can result in permanent brain damage.

Trial Of 'Plumbers' Opens In Fed Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge today began the criminal trial of former White House domestic affairs chief John D. Ehrlichman and three other men accused of illegally attempting to gather psychiatric information about Daniel Ellsberg after the Pentagon Papers leak.

The case stems from the Sept. 3, 1971, break-in at the office of Ellsberg's psychiatrist by the so-called White House plumbers. Ellsberg had leaked the Pentagon Papers to the media.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell has said the question before the jury in the trial will be simple: Did the defendants plot to violate the Fourth Amendment rights of the psychiatrist, Dr. Lewis Fielding of Beverly Hills, California.

The Fourth Amendment of the Constitution prohibits searches by government agents without a properly-issued warrant.

The four plumbers defendants are charged specifically with plotting the break-in "without legal process, probable cause, search warrant or other lawful authority."

Wild Chase Ends When Auto Flips

A wild chase early today in which a motorist fled from a highway patrolman from a point west of Big Spring past two road blocks and down a service road ended at a rest stop east of Coahoma when the man flipped his car.

Speeds of close to 130 m.p.h. were clocked during the extended chase.

The driver of the car gave a Buffalo, N.Y. address, although he had no identification on him, according to Bill Priest, investigating patrolman.

Charges are pending against the man, officers stated, as the investigation is continuing.

The driver, who gave the name David McKann, is in Medical Center Hospital suffering from a dislocated left hip and minor bruises.

The chase ended at 3:14 a.m. The motorist had pulled off the road. Priest was on the other side of 15 20 and noticed that the vehicle just had one headlight. He said as he turned to come the other way, the man jumped in his car and floorboarded it. He ran through one city police road block and left 15 20 at FM 700 to avoid a second, then went down the service road.

Priest said the motorist hit the dips on that service road along about Sand Springs going approximately 125 mph.

SIGNING CEREMONY Nixon Pauses In His 'Journey For Peace'

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — President Nixon joined other leaders of the North Atlantic alliance today in signing a declaration for wider cooperation between America and Western Europe.

The signing ceremony preceded Nixon's departure for a Moscow summit meeting on a "journey of peace."

CLOSED MEETING

At a closed meeting of the North Atlantic council, the President reportedly gave private assurances that U.S. troops in Europe will not be reduced and that in his talks with Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev he would always have in mind America's alliance with Western Europe.

NATO Secretary-General Joseph M. A. H. Luns, the only speaker at the 15-minute signing ceremony, declared that under the declaration "all our countries are stronger and more secure."

The NATO declaration was the one agreed upon and published in Ottawa last week. It reaffirmed that the alliance is indispensable for the security and defense of America and Western Europe.

DETERMINED

Before the signing ceremony, Nixon and other leaders spoke at a closed meeting. A diplomat who was present said Nixon told the group he would be guided in Moscow by two principles: not to be carried away by a false sense of euphoria in the Soviet capital and to be understanding of Soviet objectives in order to promote détente.

The diplomatic source reported the President said the United States was determined to maintain its troop strength in Europe provided the allies also made contributions to joint defense.

France's new president, Valéry Giscard d'Estaing was absent and sent Premier Jacques Chirac. It was the first appearance of a French premier at NATO headquarters since President Charles de Gaulle expelled the alliance's military headquarters from France.

"Without the alliance, it is doubtful that détente with the Soviet Union would have begun, and without a continuing strong alliance, it is doubtful if the détente would continue," Nixon said on his arrival Tuesday night in the Belgian capital.

The declaration approved last week at the spring meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization formalizes a pledge that the United States will consult NATO's 14 other members before taking out new policies.

CLOSED SESSION

After the signing by Nixon and heads of the other allied governments, the American President was to brief his allies about his Moscow trip at a closed session and then hold individual conferences with West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt, British Prime Minister Harold Wilson and Italian Premier Mariano Rumor.

Nixon in his arrival remarks said his presence at NATO headquarters between his visits to the Middle East and Moscow "symbolizes the central role that the Atlantic Alliance plays in pursuing our goal of a lasting peace in the world."

The President and Mrs. Nixon remain in Brussels until Thursday, when they fly to the Soviet capital for the third annual meeting between Nixon and Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev.

The Soviet-American summit is expected to produce a partial ban on underground nuclear weapon tests and an agreement in principle to further restrain fast-moving nuclear arms technology.

Life Sentence In Rifle Death Of Officer Upheld

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld today the life sentence for David Nelson in the rifle slaying of Fort Worth policeman E.M. Belcher on Oct. 28, 1971.

A riot occurred at the Electric Circus after officers arrested a man who fought with them when they broke up a dice game.

After the arrested man was taken away, a crowd threw bottles and fired pistols. Other officers arrived on the scene, including Belcher.

The louder report of a rifle was heard, and a portion of Belcher's head was blown off.

A witness who saw the shooting testified it was by a black man who ran toward nearby apartments, where Nelson, a black man, lived.

Three witnesses, including two security guards at the apartments, saw a man running toward the apartments immediately after hearing the rifle shot.

One guard followed the fleeing man to his apartment and it turned out to be Nelson, who allegedly said, "Don't turn me over to the police. I don't want the police to have me, to get me."

The other guard followed Nelson's route and found a rifle in a flower bed. The rifle had Nelson's fingerprints on it.

A man who said he stole the rifle testified he sold it to Nelson.

Nelson's lawyer raised several points of error, such as the trial court's refusal to charge the jury on the issue of alibi.

The World At - A - Glance

LONDON (AP) — Britain has been getting "more than its fair share" of the Arabs' new oil money, a high-ranking government source reported today. One authoritative estimate put the amount at $3 billion since the first of the year. Treasury and Bank of England sources confirmed that key Arab oil states—Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Bahrain are among those mentioned—are pouring money into the country. Several countries appear to be funneling money in through intermediaries, including commercial banks, to invest in the depressed property market and stocks in British companies, now at a 15-year low.

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong Sappers moving under the cover of a rocket and mortar attack blasted their way into a South Vietnamese special forces training center 20 miles east of Saigon before dawn today, the military command reported. A spokesman said the intruders blew up five barracks, killing seven government soldiers and wounding 28. One Viet Cong was killed and one was captured, the command said.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon's continued commitment to the New Federalism concept of sharing federal powers and dollars with the cities faces a challenge from the nation's mayors. The U.S. Conference of Mayors, dominated by Democrats, was expected to adopt a resolution today declaring that the promises of the New Federalism haven't yet been fulfilled. And the measure, along with companion proposals, calls on the administration and Congress to follow through with acceptable amounts of federal aid for second-step New Federalism programs such as mass transit and housing.

CHICAGO (AP) — About twice as many children are being given drugs for hyperactivity as should be, says an Ohio researcher. He says the drugs are administered for the benefit of teachers and parents who simply want to control unruly children. The researcher, Dr. Herbert E. Rie, told a session at the American Medical Association's annual meeting Tuesday that children who have not been thoroughly examined are being labeled hyperactive. Rie, professor of pediatrics and psychology at Ohio State University, told newsmen later that about 4 per cent of children are deemed hyperactive, while probably only 2 per cent actually are, based on thorough neurological and psychological examinations. Agitated behavior may grow out of environmental and not neurological conditions, he said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some key Pentagon officials are concerned that sharing certain U.S. technology with Russia under the détente policy could impair national security. Officials are worried mostly about the transfer of critical advanced computer technology, which has military as well as civilian application. Also bothering defense officials is the possibility that the Russians might be helped to gain ground in the field of micro-electronics.

More Bills Will Be Submitted For Heatley's Charter Flights

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — An Abilene pilot who flies State Rep. W. S. Heatley of Paducah on expensive charter flights today said he has not sent to Heatley.

That would bring to more than $4,000 the amount for which Heatley will have sought state reimbursement if he files a claim for the additional fees.

Sam Jennings, the pilot, said in a telephone interview the $1,600 represent four or five flights between Austin and Paducah, Heatley's home town.

$85 PER HOUR
Jennings was quoted Tuesday

as having said he merely piloted aircraft leased by Heatley from other firms. But he said today that was inaccurate and added, "Actually, I fly about 10 airplanes for different companies. I have access to all 10 of them."

He said he reimburses the owners from the rental fees paid to him by Heatley or applies the amounts to bills for pilot service he has provided the aircraft owners. He said the owners know about the practice and do not object.

The lease amounts in the past have ranged from $15 to $85 per hour, and the new batch of invoices include Navajo and Chief twin-engine aircraft renting from $120 an hour, Jennings said.

'HE'S A GREAT GUY'
"He hates single-engine airplanes... he wants a twin-engine airplane when I go to lease one," the pilot said.

Of Heatley, Jennings said, "he's a great guy."

The Abilene pilot said earlier he billed Heatley only for rental cost on 10 charter flights for which the legislator was reimbursed by the Texas constitutional convention. Heatley received $1,744 in state travel expenses on the basis of in-voices from Jennings.

The pilot said he has flown Heatley in three different aircraft—a twin-engine Cessna 320 Sky Knight owned by Nelco Ltd. of Abilene (a firm owned by Abilene lawyer Nelson Quinn), a twin-engine Aztec owned by Clyde lawyer Gaston Swofford, and a Beechcraft 836 owned by Albany oilman Chuck Jacobs.

Jennings said he paid the owners at a rate he is listed as charging Heatley on invoices filed with the office of Charles Schnable, secretary of the constitutional convention, to which Heatley is a delegate.

military facility. From the left, they are AC Omidvar Hassan and AC Janbaz Mohammad Ali, both of Iran; Liotta, and AC Bin Tran, AC Can Vo Xuran and AC Hung Vu Nguyen, all of South Vietnam.

President's Brother Tells Of 'Harassment'

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP) — F. Donald Nixon, brother of the President, says the Watergate affair and "harassment" by Senate investigators have damaged his health and left him nearly broke.

Breaking a long, self-imposed silence, he said the family was standing firm against those who were trying "to bury" the President.

Nixon, 59, made his remarks in an interview with the Los Angeles Times published Wednesday.

'ALL ONE-SIDED'
He spoke critically of leaks from congressional committees and said the leaks had made Watergate reporting "all one-sided."

Nixon attributed the Watergate break-in to "political amateurism" and said it might not have occurred but for a "protective wall" set up around the President by top White House aides.

He also said he had asked the Secret Service to undertake surveillance of his family but had not been told when the agency began a tap of his phone.

Nixon said the President could not telephone him without creating problems. He revealed a handwritten letter from the President on White House stationery which said that a call during current investigations "would raise unfounded but inevitable questions and implications."

He said his home is heavily mortgaged and he has accrued thousands of dollars of debts, including legal fees, to defend himself. Senate investigators last April tried to link the $100,000 campaign contribution entrusted to C.G. "Bebe" Rebozo to a purchase of 10,000 shares of stock by Nixon in a firm that builds modular homes.

WANT YOU TO KNOW
"I want you to know that I am enormously proud of the way all of the Nixon family have stood up with such dignity through a vicious ordeal," the President wrote in the June 8 letter. "You have our respect and our love."

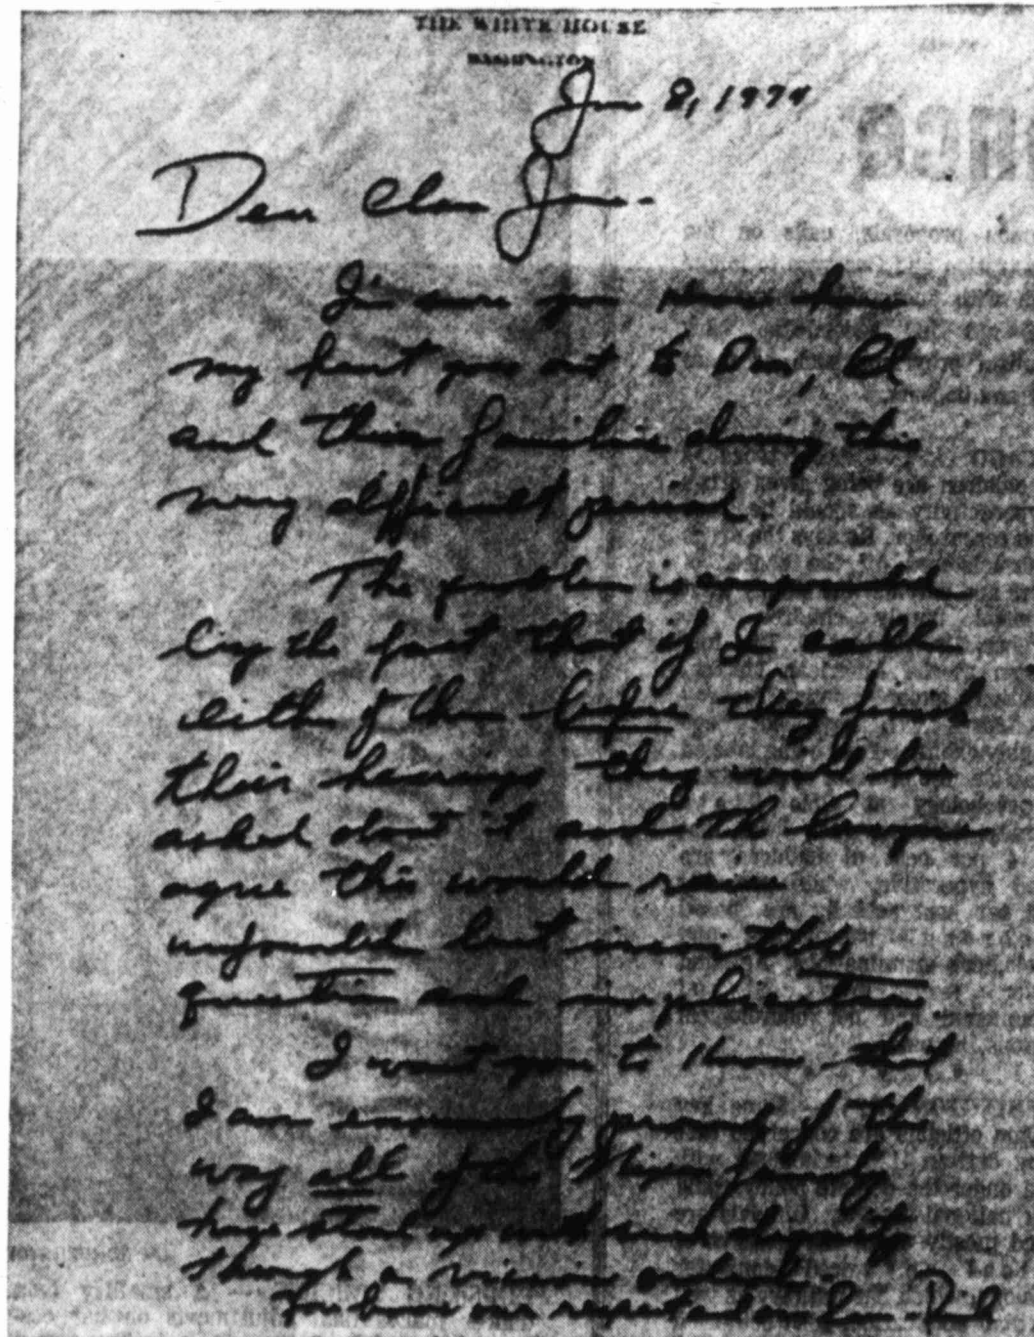

The President's younger brother said adverse publicity about the Nixon family had affected his work, which involved sales. He said he had been forced to quit a consulting job with a food processing firm last January and had taken early retirement as vice president of a worldwide hotel and restaurant concern.

"Real frankly, for the last full year, I could not be very effective," he said. He said his income, which was $140,000 in 1973, had dipped to a projected $36,000 this year.

He said his home is heavily mortgaged and he has accrued thousands of dollars of debts, including legal fees, to defend himself. Mitchell Selling Gear And Stock

County Judge A. G. Mitchell is having his farm equipment, registered quarter horses and mules, auctioned here Thursday "so I'll have time for my write-in campaign."

Mitchell, who lost his bid for the Democratic nomination, says he will be conducting a write-in campaign for the office in the Nov. general election. He will be facing Democrat Bill Tune and Republican Jerry Worley.

If he loses, Mitchell plans to "semi-retire."

Bar Race Bay, a bay stallion, will be sold to racing fans; Ala. Pep, a mare; and Hobo's Banjo, another mare, are among the livestock being offered to the highest bidder.

The auction starts at 10 a.m. Thursday three miles north of the Snyder Highway by the Gail Road.

Thames, Green At Convention

Henry Thames and Don Green, both of Big Spring, are attending the 59th convention of Kiwanis International in Denver, a four-day event ending today.

As delegates to the convention, they participated in the election of Kiwanis International officers and trustees. They also passed resolutions upon which the organization's 1974-75 community service programs will be built and amended the Kiwanis International Constitution. They represented some 276,000 Kiwanians in 6,315 Kiwanis clubs in 45 countries.

Some 20,000 people attended the convention. Convention activities included an address by Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, Kiwanis International president William M. Eagles, M.D., and American humorist Sam Levenson. Personalities such as Miss America-1974, Rebecca Ann King, former Miss America Marilyn Van Derbur, and comedian George Kirby also attended. Other convention activities included various award luncheons and banquets; workshops and clinics; youth tours and dances; special ladies programs; and six forums on contemporary issue forums, a series of intriguing conferences on today's most vital human concerns headed by experts in various socio-economic fields.

Divorce Ends Marriage Spiced With Headlines

GSTAAD, Switzerland (AP) — A Swiss civil court granted a divorce today to Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton on the grounds of mutual incompatibility.

The decision was announced after a 45-minute hearing at Sarner, near Gstaad, the Burtons' legal residence.

HEAVY MAKEUP
Miss Taylor appeared wearing heavy makeup and looking tense, accompanied by several American lawyers.

Burton was not present. Court officials said his lawyer presented a medical certificate to excuse his absence.

The court awarded Miss Taylor custody of their 11-year-old adopted daughter, Maria.

Terms of a financial settlement negotiated previously were not announced in the ruling.

FELL IN LOVE
The divorce ended a decade of marriage marked by countless headlines, huge earnings for the couple's joint film appearances, an imperial standard of living and two separations. It was the 41-year-old Miss Taylor's fifth marriage.

Tax Equalization Boards Convene
County, city and school boards of equalization convened in the county courthouse this morning to decide disputes over real estate taxes.

Bill Estes, D.A., Brazel and Lowell Jones were appointed by the school trustees and the City Council to serve as the boards of equalization.

But County Commissioners Court itself sits as a board of equalization to consider complaints about county taxes.

Late this morning, 11 persons had registered to meet with the boards meeting in the commissioners courtroom and county judge's chambers.

PHYSICIANS FAILED 'Head Shrinks' Helping Fat Folks Lose Weight

CHICAGO (AP) — Psychologists are succeeding where physicians have failed in helping fat people lose weight, a California psychiatrist says.

Dr. Albert J. Stunkard said that in the past three or four years effectiveness of weight reduction programs has improved 50 per cent through the use of what psychologists call behavior modification or operant conditioning.

DOING IT

Stunkard, chairman of the psychiatry department at Stanford University, told newsmen at the annual meeting of the American Medical Association Monday that the medical profession "has been very backward" in using this new, proven technique to help persons lose weight. He said "psychologists all over the map are doing it."

The psychiatrist, who described the technique at the AMA meeting, said he has been involved with about 130 obese patients at the University of Pennsylvania, where he formerly taught, and at Stanford. Obese patients enrolled in these group therapy programs do not have to go on special diets and are not even told to restrict their food intake at first.

KEEPING DIARY

It begins with the patients keeping a diary of when, what and how much they eat and how they feel when they do it. Stunkard said that just keeping records helps patients start losing weight as they become aware of how much they eat.

Patients are advised not to have a lot of food around their homes and to keep away from tempting situations. They are told to eat in just one place in the house.

Persons who eat while watching television, for example, become stimulated to eat in that situation, he said.

EAT FASTER

Fat persons also tend to eat faster than others, and the physiological signal that they are full is not triggered until after they've overeaten, the psychiatrist said. Therefore, they are advised to put down their knife and fork between bites.

"A lot of obese people are not aware of what they're eating—they don't taste their food," Stunkard said.

On the average, patients lose 1½ pounds a week during the 10 weeks of the group therapy sessions and continue to lose during a period of follow-up and the weight-loss is maintained, he reported.

Many become aware from their diaries that they eat when they are anxious or depressed or otherwise disturbed, and when this becomes apparent they develop other ways of coping, Stunkard said.

Scurry Plans Tractor Pull

SNYDER — The second annual Scurry County Tractor Pull will be held July 4 at Towle Memorial Park, beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Last year's pull was one of the biggest crowd-pleasers at the huge July 4 celebration. Over 10,000 people jam the park each year to celebrate July 4.

This year's tractor pull will be under the direction of the Texas Tractor Pullers Association, Inc. and is expected to be one of the largest in West Texas. Three divisions will be featured this year to insure fair competition and farm tractor against farm tractor. The three divisions will be stock tractors, factory turbo-charged, and super stock & modified. All tractors will be weighed in and inspected at the site of the pull. Entry fee is $20 per event and admission is free.

Tractor pulling is one of the fastest growing sports in America today and gives the farmer an opportunity to display his skill in competition fashion.

A meeting explaining the tractor pull and a slide presentation will be presented on Thursday at the Scurry County Coliseum at 8:00 p.m. All interested persons are invited to attend.

BS Siren System Will Be Tested

The quarterly test of the Big Spring siren system will be conducted at 12 noon Saturday.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Wed., June 26, 1974 3-A

The test will consist of a one-minute steady tone, followed by one minute of silence, and will conclude with a one-minute wavering tone. Other than those observing the siren test, no action will be required on the part of the Civil Defense personnel. This same action will be conducted by Webb Air Force Base siren system.

Reds' Homer Spoils Astros

By The Associated Press
The wind was just right for Steve Renko. The sudden breeze that Larry Dierker felt were caused by the baseballs whizzing past him.
"Renko is a great breaking ball pitcher when the wind is blowing from right field to left as it was tonight," said Montreal Manager Gene Mauch after Renko hurled a one-hitter that gave the Expos a 5-0 victory over Philadelphia.
Dierker also had a one-hitter Tuesday night—for six innings. Then Cincinnati's Cesar Geronimo slugged a leadoff homer in the seventh and Johnny Bench and Dan Driessen drove in runs that wrecked Houston, giving the Reds a 3-2 victory over Dierker and the Astros.

In Tuesday's other National League games, New York beat Chicago 5-1, San Diego defeated San Francisco 3-1, Los Angeles edged Atlanta 2-1 and St. Louis outlasted Pittsburgh 8-7.
"This has got to be my best game so far this season," understated Renko, who wound up with the third one-hitter of his six-year career in the majors. The other two came a month apart, against San Francisco and Philadelphia in 1971.
He gave up only a one-out sixth-inning single by Dave Cash, a pitch punched into right field. "He hit a curve ball," said Renko. "I jammed him with it. He didn't hit it that well."

Reds 3, Astros 2
Joe Morgan, who had singled in the first inning, drew his second walk of the game after Geronimo's belt, and Bench scored him, banging a double to right field. Driessen then singled Bench home.

Rookie Helps In Rangers' 7-3 Win

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Texas rookie Mike Hargrove already has conceded the American League batting championship to Minnesota's Rod Carew but the 24-year-old first baseman has no such notion when it comes to the rest of the hitters.
"I might as well enjoy it while it lasts," said Hargrove, who was playing for Texas' Gastonia farm club in the Western Carolinas League last season. "I've been so lucky... you cannot imagine how lucky I've been so far. Maybe my luck will hold and I can keep my average above everybody else's but Carew's."
Magnifying Hargrove's plight are these statistics from Texas' 7-3 victory over the Twins Tuesday night:
—Hargrove went three-for-four and raised his average to .366.
—Carew, back in the lineup after missing three games because of a virus, went four-for-five, lifting his average to .397.
"There's no way anybody can match him for average," said Hargrove. "He hits every pitch wherever and whenever he pleases, it seems. Besides, he knows every pitcher real well."
"It has to be hard for him to have a slump since he can punt his way on, too, whenever he wants."

Hargrove was the last man added to the Rangers' 25-man active roster when spring training ended. Texas manager Billy Martin remembered the moment well.
"I can still see that stunned look on his face when I told him he was staying with us," said Martin. "He couldn't believe it. I think he made me repeat it a couple of times. But what a job he has one for us."

EASY VICTORY — United States' Billie Jean King, bidding for her sixth straight Wimbledon singles title, back hands the ball in the process of beating Kathy May of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-1 in an opening round match of Wimbledon Tuesday.

Wimbledon Stars 'Need More Rest'

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Chris Evert, the 19-year-old No. 2 seed from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., bids for one of 32 spots in the women's singles at Wimbledon today on a recipe of "9 hours sleep a night."
That's the strategy for victory of Miss Evert's mother, Corrie, as this fiesta of tennis enters its third day with many of the world's top players complaining of "too much" and "too little."
The stars say they are tired from an exhausting schedule of too much tennis and too little practice on fast grass courts. Despite the groans, there have been no major surprises. Billie Jean King, defending champion and top seed seeking a sixth title, opened the women's events Tuesday with a smooth 6-1, 6-1 victory Kathy May, 18, of California.
In the men's singles, veteran Ken Rosewall of Australia and Tom Gorman of Seattle are safely through to the third round.
Referee Mike Gibson said he hoped to get all remaining 10 men's seeds and five women's seeds through their second-round matches by the time play finished today.
"My girls must have rest," insisted Mrs. Evert, chaperoning daughters Chris, who has won the Italian and French championships so far this year, and 16-year-old Jeanne. "Ideally, it's at least 10 hours a night for a championship like Wimbledon, a good 10 hours."
But many other players are not so fortunate. About one-third of the 128 contestants in the men's singles have been playing in the United States since early May, involved in World Team Tennis. WTT activities often involve the players in day-to-day traveling.
"I reckon all the WTT guys could be tired and in trouble," said Yugoslav Nikolić. "They've been indoors, and most haven't had a five-set match on grass for 10 months."
Paradoxically, perhaps the greatest traveler of them all, Rosewall, is the player who has impressed most during the opening shots here.
Rosewall, 39, was the star of Tuesday's play when he beat rising Indian champion Vijay Amritraj 6-2, 5-7, 9-8, 6-1 in a classic second-round match of pinpoint accuracy and flashing skill.

Little Libbers Come Forth; Sex Barrier Broken Here

It could hardly have happened at a better time.
The day before the country celebrated the anniversary of emancipation on June 19, two little girls opposed each other on a Big Spring baseball diamond.
It wasn't the first time for such a thing to happen, but it was a first for Big Spring. The Tigers, with Andrea Brent in short left field, clobbered the Colts, who had Sherry Meisenheimer at shortstop, 21-3 in an International Minor League game, although the score was fairly insignificant when compared to the occasion.
The girls were the first to test the new ruling that gave females the "right" to play Little League baseball, but it really didn't amount to much of a challenge. Both girls' daddies were the teams' coaches.
"Dad asked me if I wanted to play, and I said 'Yeah!'" Andrea said. Dad, who is Andrew Brent, probably was glad to have the new addition to his team. She contributed two hits and turned a single into a run, one of two she scored in the game.
"The boys really accepted her well," said Andrea's mother. "When she stole all those bases to score, they were really thrilled. She was sort of a hero to them," Mrs. Brent said.
Twelve-year old Sherry's entrance was slightly less dramatic. Her team didn't have enough players to field a team, and in order to keep from forfeiting she joined the team at the request of her father, Col. Robert Meisenheimer, Webb AFB Base Commander.
"I was pretty scared at first," Sherry said. "I was afraid I'd do something wrong." She did. She struck out. "But I walked the next time up."
Sherry seemed disappointed that her team didn't fare better. "We were doing pretty good when our pitcher was throwing well," she said, apparently not impressed that the pitcher was her own brother, eight-year old Michael. "When he's good, he's real good. But when he's bad..."
Sherry's mother said the newfound interest has caused just one problem — "her older sister missed it by a couple of years and she's jealous." Mrs. Meisenheimer said. "All the kids really like baseball, we're just that kind of family. We just got back from Arlington and watching the Texas Rangers."

LITTLE LEAGUE Starfighters Win; Yanks Nab Title

Scott Goodliffe crashed a grand slam home run in the bottom of the fourth inning Tuesday and sparked the Starfighters to an 11-9 decision over the Comets in International League playoff action.
Goodliffe also added two singles as the Starfighters moved into the winners' bracket of the double elimination tournament. Steve Stallings, who also chipped in a pair of hits, was the winning pitcher and he had mound help from Wayne Coffey.
David Coffey had three hits in a losing cause for the Comets, while Smith and Davis managed two apiece. Kevin Cain was the losing pitcher.
In the National League Tuesday, the Dribble Yankees successfully defended their loop crown by turning back the stubborn Devils 10-9.
The Devils, winners in only one of 19 games this season tied the count at 9-9 with a late rally before the Yanks marked in the bottom of the sixth for the victory. Mark Harris, who relieved Randy Cregar in the last inning and got the victory, had two doubles and a single in the win, as did Cregar. Mark Knight chipped in a pair of doubles while Scott Moore, James Anderson, Brent Nichols and Jimmy Shoultz also had doubles.
The Yanks now stand 16-3. For the Rebels, Mike Madry had a double while Harold Danford took the loss.

New Course For Western

OAK BROOK, Ill. (AP) — A new course and a couple of old champions are the key attractions in the $200,000 Western Open golf tournament.
Billy Casper, 43, and Arnold Palmer, 44, are the old masters heading the 144-man field for Thursday's start of this, one of the oldest, most venerable of the tour stops.
The new course is the 7,002-yard, par-71 ultratough layout at Butler National Golf Club in the Chicago suburbs which is the pros are tackling for the first time.
It will be the permanent site for the Western, which has skipped from place to place since its inception in 1899.
"From what I've seen," Casper said after an abbreviated practice round over the wooded, hilly layout, "this is the second toughest course I've ever played."

MISS SOFTBALL Killowats, Cadets Win

The Texas Electric Service Co. Killowats smothered the Gibson Gals 47-0 and the Cadets trimmed the Letter Carriers 21-19 in Miss Softball America Major League action Tuesday.
Cindy Stanton was the winning pitcher for the Cadets, while Johnson was on the mound for the Carriers.
Heading up the Minor League play Tuesday was the Tommy Gage Fina Flashers' 25-24 triumph over the Security State Bank Starlets. Terry Graham outduelled Cindy Mize.

NFL Player-Owner Talks Resume After Breakdown

WASHINGTON (AP) — National Football League owners and players meet at the bargaining table again today in an effort to get some movement in their contract talks, something they haven't been able to do since the players' union made its demands last March 16.
After a six-hour, often heated session Tuesday, federal mediator James Searce said he was trying to be optimistic, "but there are tremendous differences between the parties."
No compromise was reached during the meeting on any of the 63 demands made by the NFL Players Association, an indication there will be a strike next Monday.
John Thompson, executive director of the NFL Management Council, the owners' bargaining agent, said: "We're still optimistic that we can avoid trouble before it really counts — and that's early in July."

West Germany, Brazil Favorites In World Cup

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Brazil and West Germany got a chance to repair their suspect soccer reputations today as the World Cup swung into second round action with four games.
Brazil takes on East Germany at Hannover in Group A and West Germany meets Yugoslavia at Duesseldorf in Group B.
Indications are both matches will be played as tactical draws.
For goals, fans will have to look to the day's two other clashes, Holland vs. Argentina at Gelsenkirchen in group A, and Poland vs. Sweden at Stuttgart in Group B.
Brazil's manager, Mario Zagallo, was keeping his team plans secret until the last minute. Word from camp insiders, however, was that Brazil is not yet ready to parade the attacking skills that made it a three-time world champion.

Ethnic Groups Will Be Represented In Class

SAN ANTONIO — On Thursday, 122 carefully chosen men and women will begin training in San Antonio to become physicians.

More than 25 per cent of these future doctors, who comprise the seventh entering medical school class of The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, are members of minority ethnic groups.

This represents the largest minority enrollment in the school's history.

With undergraduate majors in all fields, the 115 Texans and five out-of-state residents were selected from 2318 applications. Twenty-seven of the entering class are women.

In the past, minority students often found it difficult to attend the San Antonio medical school, officials said, because financial assistance was unavailable.

This year, however, the school is fortunate to have community support through private donations to scholarship funds which assist qualified students.

Additionally, the higher enrollment of minorities and women reflects an increased number of applications from these groups.

The new class has an undergraduate grade point of 3.45 out of a possible 4.0. Scores on the Medical College Admissions Test (MCAT) average 561 out of a possible 800.

Seven of the class already have earned Ph.D. degrees, and 13 hold master's degrees.

Convocation for the class will be at 9 a.m. Thursday in the health science center auditorium. Students will register and begin their orientation with an official welcome by Dr. Stanley Crawford, dean of the medical school and professor of pediatrics.

Scholarships will be awarded and the local donors for these will be recognized.

On Friday, June 28, students will take a battery of tests including a placement test for the freshman course, Cellular and Molecular Biology, and a nutrition survey.

Classes begin Monday, July 1 at 8 a.m. For the next four years, the students will be trained by physicians in every medical specialty.

They will rotate through all clinical departments and work in the emergency room of the Bexar County Hospital. Bexar County Hospital and Audie Murphy VA Hospital are the major teaching institutions for the medical school. Under local affiliation agreements, students also will visit a total of 16 city hospitals and clinics during their four years.

The bidding:
South West North East
1 ♠ 2 ♣ 2 ♠ Pass
4 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: King of ♣.
In the best circles, cards are not played haphazardly on defense. East's card to the first trick "told" West what the best defense would be, and he paid heed to defeat a close game.

Despite the fact that he held five-card trump support, North saw no reason to blast into four spades after West had shown values by overcalling. A simple free raise to two spades adequately expressed North's values, and was enough to convince South that there had to be reasonable play for game.

West made his natural lead of the king of clubs, and took due notice of East's deuce, as South followed with the four. Had East held three clubs to the queen, he would undoubtedly have played his higher club spot to encourage a continuation. Similarly, had East held a doubleton club, he would have started an echo, playing the higher spot-card first and saving the deuce for the second lead of the suit.

Thus, by a process of elimination, East had to have one of two holdings in clubs: either a singleton or, specifically, Q-2 doubleton. The two is the correct play from the latter combination. Since West wanted to get East on lead to play a heart thru declarer, the information he had available about the club suit gave him a sure-fire entry.

At trick two, West continued with the nine of clubs! No matter which of the two club holdings East possessed, he would be able to win the trick. If it was a doubleton queen, the queen would win. If the deuce of clubs was singleton, East would be able to ruff the second club.

West's choice of the nine of clubs was by no means accidental. That card was a suit-preference signal, requesting partner to lead back the higher of the two side suits—in this case, hearts.

East obliged, and West took the ace-queen of hearts for down one.

Note that this particular line of defense is vital if the contract is to be defeated. Should West adopt any other line, declarer will be able to get all the discards he needs on dummy's diamonds.

However, declarer could have created a problem for West had he dropped the queen of clubs under the king. This might have persuaded West that it was South, and not his partner, who held a lone club, and that to continue with the nine of clubs was presenting declarer with a gift trick.

Pecos Rodeo Opens July 3

PECOS — The "old timers" of West Texas will again meet at the West of the Pecos Rodeo July 3 to reminisce of days gone by.

Each year the pioneer West Texans, a few of whom might remember the days of outlaws, cattle drives, railroad construction and wooden oil derricks, gather on the front porch of the West of the Pecos Museum to sit in the shade, sip lemonade, talk of the "good ole days" and watch the rodeo parade.

They come to relive and witness the one event that has been a focal point for most of their lives — The West of the Pecos Rodeo, scheduled this year for July 3, 4, 5 and 6.

One old timers boasts that he hasn't missed a rodeo in 46 years.

Gifts are usually awarded to the oldest woman and man attending.

The registration for the Old Timers Reunion is scheduled for July 3, 8:30 a.m. in the lobby of the Pecos museum.

DRESS REHEARSAL — Nancy Conway, Farley Hayworth and Pam Settles go through their routine during dress rehearsals for "The Music Man" Monday. They are readying for the opening of the play Thursday night at 8 p.m. at the BSHS Auditorium.

Roger, Conway Get Top Roles In 'Music Man'

Cast for the "Music Man" to be presented Thursday and Friday nights at the Big Spring High School Auditorium, held its dress rehearsals beginning Monday, readying for the Thursday night opening.

The musical, to be presented by high school, Howard College, and community volunteers, will benefit the Howard County Music Scholarship fund.

Tickets are on sale for $2 each at the Big Spring High School Choral Room, the Howard College business office, and from any cast or crew members.

Performances will get underway each night at 8 p.m. at the BSHS Auditorium in Meredith Wilson's nostalgic story of a con-man turned bandmaster in an Iowa river town, directed by Ken Sprinkle, Jack Bowers and Bill Bradley.

Bobby Roger is cast as the leading man, Prof. Harold Hill and Nancy Conway is Marian Paroo, the librarian. A cast and chorus of 28, in bright costumes, are featured in several musical numbers and dance routines.

Martha, Annette Couch End Visits

Mr. and Mrs. John Couch of the Luther community had as their guests the past weekend their daughters, Martha and Annette Couch.

Martha, the assistant county agriculture agent of Gaines County, left this morning for Washington, D. C., where she will attend the June 25-July 9 National 4-H Citizenship Short Course and Heritage tour.

A total of 124 Texas boys and girls, along with six adult supervisors, are attending the course.

Annette, radio-television student at West Texas State University, is employed during the summer by Radio Station KIKZ in Seminole.

CITY OF BIG SPRING
AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 618 OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS, THE SAME BEING SECTION 105.1, PARAGRAPH (6) OF THE BUILDING CODE OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS, BY ADDING A PORTION TO THE ABOVE MENTIONED PARAGRAPH TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF A BUILDING PERMIT FOR FENCE PRIOR TO THE START OF CONSTRUCTION THEREOF.

WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of the City Commission of the City of Big Spring, Texas that persons, firms and corporations are constructing fences and other similar structures within the City limits in such a manner as to constitute traffic hazards and the same being a menace to persons and property of others;

AND WHEREAS, in order to correct the above mentioned situation, the City Building Official can by requiring a permit adequately police the building of fences and similar structures.

NOW THEREFORE, LET IT BE ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS:

That Section 105.1, Paragraph (a) of the building code of the City of Big Spring, Texas, is hereby amended by adding a portion to the above mentioned paragraph to read as follows:

No person, firm or corporation shall construct, place or maintain or cause to be constructed, placed or maintained any type or kind of fence or screen, including one made up of shrubbery, bushes or trees, without having first procured from the City of Big Spring, Texas a written building permit. Before issuing any such permit, the City shall approve the plan for the construction of same and be satisfied that said fence or screen and its location will not constitute a violation of any of the Ordinance of said City, including but not limited to building lines, side yard lines and traffic hazards nor a menace to persons or to the property of others.

Fences shall be allowed on all property lines, with the exception that no fence shall extend beyond the front building line. No fence or similar structure shall be of a greater height than six (6) feet.

Tells Of Being Shot, Left To Die In Ditch

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — A Georgia business executive testified in federal court Tuesday he was shot and left in a ditch to die by three men who abducted him and forced him to drive from Georgia to Texas.

James Otto Hoover, 56, of Columbia, Ga., was the first prosecution witness in the trial of Wayne William Barfield, Larry Fate Fortune and Peter Gaston Kaiser, all of Columbus. They are charged in 13-count indictment with the kidnaping and shooting of Hoover last September.

TOLD TO GET OUT
Hoover testified that the three men forced him at gunpoint into his car about 4:30 p.m. Sept. 13, 1973, and made him drive from Columbus across Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana to Texas.

He said the men stopped the car at New Harmony, a few miles from Interstate 20 near Tyler and said, "This is where we put you out."

Hoover said Kaiser told him to get out of the car and follow him. He said that Fortune and Barfield carried guns.

BEGAN FIRING
The witness told the court he was forced to walk about 10 minutes through an open field before the grim procession stopped at a ditch. He said he was ordered to remove his coat, tie, shirt and undershirt and lie face down on the garments.

He said Barfield began firing shots into his body. The businessman said, "I could feel each one."

Hoover said Fortune then started shooting into his right side while Kaiser put more bullets in the gun. He testified that Fortune fired once more and said, "We have to get out of here, I hear a siren."

Hoover said Kaiser then ordered Fortune to shoot Hoover in the head because he was still breathing. He testified that Fortune fired again and told his companions, "He will be dead by the time we get back to the car."

Hoover told the court he crawled out of the ditch and, after daylight, staggered to a nearby house where he obtained aid.

Fortune did the shooting by their voices and positions although he could not see their actions.

Judge Warning Lawyers In Valley Murder Case

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Defense and prosecution lawyers in the Jerry Joe Bird murder trial began the third day of testimony today following warnings by the judge that "we're going to become more technical."

Bird, 36, of Corpus Christi, is on trial in the January 11 robbery-slaving of Victor H. Trammell, 63, a Harlingen area farmer who kept his valuable gun collection in safes at his farmhouse.

BE CERTAIN
District Court Judge Darrell Hester warned both defense lawyer Douglas Tinker of Corpus Christi and Cameron County Dist. Atty. Fred Galindo that he was going to be certain "direct examination is direct examination, cross-examination is actually cross-examination and rebuttal testimony is rebuttal testimony."

"If you go beyond any of those, the court is going to stop you," Judge Hester told the lawyers after sending the jury of six men and six women home for the day.

Earlier in the afternoon, Judge Hester stopped Tinker during cross-examination of Cameron County deputy Harlan Buine by saying, "You're going to far afield."

Judge Hester also denied a second request by Tinker that television cameramen be prohibited from photographing jurors. Tinker argued that the jurors would believe they are in the public eye and might behave in a manner they think the public would want them to instead of just listening to the evidence. Tinker also failed in a second attempt to have the jurors sequestered.

FLEEING
Much of Tuesday's testimony concerned the discovery of the fire at the Trammell home, discovery of Trammell's body in the ruins and conversations of officers had with Mrs. Trammell after she came out of a drainage ditch where she had been hiding after fleeing from the home.

The testimony contrasted with Monday's dramatic testimony by Mrs. Trammell during which she identified Bird as one of the two men who forced her husband to open the safes.

Witnesses who testified Tuesday in addition to Buine included Texas Ranger Bruce Casteel, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Mays, newspaper carriers for the Valley Morning Star who discovered the fire at the Trammell home; Deputy Gary Thornburg, Harlingen Fire Department Capt. Paul Noyola, arson investigator, Armando Lucio and Harlingen policeman Omar Cortez.

Vet Program Will Benefit Locally

Cong. Omar Burleson announced the awarding of $5,507 to Howard College of Big Spring under the Veterans Cost of Instruction program.

The payment to the college, based on veterans' enrollment, is to assist the college in providing educational services to veterans, including counseling, recruitment, remedial and to tutorial services, and community outreach, with special emphasis on the educationally disadvantaged veteran.

MIND CONTROL AND ESP

DEVELOP YOUR PSYCHIC ABILITIES-ESP POWERS OVER 300,000 GRADUATES

Recently, many national publications featured articles about SILVA MIND CONTROL. These articles, along with many others, discuss how thousands of people across the country have learned through MIND CONTROL to use more of their mind and to productively develop the vast hidden potential that lies within every human being. Some of these articles report the amazing results of how MIND CONTROL students have learned to totally relax, improve concentration, memory, break bad habits and increase productivity and creativity, and yet — function psychically — by learning to develop and put to practical use the E.S.P. that we all naturally possess.

24 YEARS OF RESEARCH

The Institute of Psychoratology under the direction of Jose Silva, began their research in MIND CONTROL in 1944 to see if it was possible to increase an individual's IQ factor. Amazingly, Silva discovered that not only could IQ be increased, but a person trained in this technique could also control the thought process to such an extent that it could be applied to practical advantage. The implications of this breakthrough were staggering. In-depth studies also revealed that anyone with a normal mental aptitude could develop localized ESP and clairvoyance when trained in the MIND CONTROL method. In 1966, the Institute decided to release their findings to the general public. Techniques have been researched and refined so where only 40 to 48 hours of class time are required to learn the SILVA MIND CONTROL method.

More Budgetary Sense

Now that Congress has finally moved to implement the law to establish control over its own spending habits it will learn one hard fact of life. Over the years Congress has taken away from itself much of its own capability to control spending.

That, however, is not usually the picture that the national legislators try to project. As a result, the generally accepted stereotype is that the powers of the president have increased so much in this century that Congress doesn't have a chance to do much more than exercise general supervision over each appropriations bill and hope that everything balances at the end of the year.

Undeniably the president has acquired immense powers over national spending, particularly since the New Deal days of the 1930s opened the door to Pandora's box of social experimentation without due consideration of price. On the other hand, however, Congress has hardly done much to assert its authority or to streamline its authority or to streamline its antiquated fiscal procedures.

One aspect of the new law would prevent the president from impounding any funds appropriated by Congress unless the legislative body gives its approval.

Another aspect of the law would establish in Congress for the first time a professional budget staff comparable to the Office of Budget and Management in the executive branch. The congressional office and a new agenda for the budgetary process should give Congress a total picture of the budget at any time during its progress through the House and Senate and, hopefully, a chance to bring it into balance before it is approved.

The intention of Congress cannot be faulted. As Congress overhauls its backward procedures it will be better able to strike a balance with the executive branch during annual budgetary drills, particularly if the president and the majority of Congress are of different political parties.

However, improved procedures alone won't necessarily achieve the results that Congress is seeking if individual members of the body do not have the will to bite the economy bullet.

All of the good procedures in the world will not help unless the majority in Congress is of the mind that the budget must be in balance, whether it takes ruthless suppression of the appetite for spending or any equally ruthless increase in taxes.

Fuse Fizzled Temporarily

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission's decision not to ban firecrackers or impose new safety standards for other fireworks before the Fourth of July was little more than a yield to industry pressure.

A ban which would have gone into effect Monday night got industry complaints that it would be stuck with $50 million worth of banned fireworks.

Now the commission is calling a public hearing on issues raised by fireworks manufacturers and traders from Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macao and Oklahoma. Hopefully, the American public will be represented at that hearing as well.

While there may be sound reason for municipalities and other organizations to be allowed to present controlled fireworks displays, there is little if any justification for endangering the public with uncontrolled explosion of fireworks.

Perhaps it's okay to bail the fireworks industry out this year by allowing extended sales. But the industry needs to be told that things are going to be different.

Israel's Over-Reaction

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Contrary to published speculation, the highest officials of the U.S. government were both astonished and outraged by the overkill of Israel's revenge last week against Palestinian guerrilla bases, endangering fragile peace hopes for the Mideast.

NO WORD was passed to President Nixon, or to any lesser official during the President's stay in Israel, that the retaliation for guerrilla attacks on isolated Israeli villages would begin as soon as he departed. Rather, the Israeli government gave no hint of savage reprisals.

Anger reached its peak here last Thursday when the raids continued into their third straight day, raising a most disturbing question: could killing scores of innocent Lebanese civilians and Palestinian refugees, caught helplessly in Israel's bombing of guerrilla bases, sabotage Mr. Nixon's brilliantly successful peace efforts?

THE ANSWER: not yet. Egypt's Anwar Sadat, Syria's Hafez Assad and other Arab leaders are too deeply committed to political settlement and have derived too much benefit from Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's diplomacy since the October war to switch course.

But if Israel continues devastating bombing and shelling in retaliation for absolutely predictable Palestinian border raids in the future, the Nixon peace plan might indeed be sabotaged. No Arab leader could long hold to the goal of political settlement while Arabs were being killed by American-made Israeli bombs dropped from American-made Israeli planes.

YET, THE precarious political condition of Israel's gallant new prime minister, Itzhak Rabin, all but assures continuation of Israel's policy of dread reprisal — an escalation of the eye-for-an-eye biblical injunction to its modern-day Israeli version of ten Arabs for one Israeli.

Gen. Rabin, the taciturn soldier-diplomat who last month formed Israel's first government ever composed entirely of native sons, controls only 61 out of parliament's 120 seats.

Moreover, in the back benches of his own labor alignment sit Rabin's enemies, sharpening their political knives against him: Moshe Dayan, the former defense minister and hero of the 1956 and 1967 wars; Abba Eban, the former foreign minister who learned in the newspapers that he had been passed over in Rabin's cabinet selection; to a lesser extent, even Golda Meir herself, bitterly resentful of Rabin's inclusion of her arch-enemy, the beauteous Mrs. Shulamit Aloni, and her three-member Civil Rights Party in his coalition.

Rabin cannot show much restraint in dealing with murderous Palestinian nationalists from neighboring Lebanon. Just before his election as Labor party leader two months ago, Rabin was the target of an outrageous accusation that he was crumpling under emotional strain during the first hours of the 1967 Six Day War when he was chief of staff of Israel's defense forces. He can't afford to appear weak.

Mispelling Words Success Secret

STANTON, Mo. (AP) — Throughout the country there are billboards for Meramec Caverns on U.S. 66 here.

"What catches the eyes of the motorists most is that there are misspelled words on each of the billboards," points out Lester B. Dill, cave owner. "Motorists keep telling me that I should learn to spell."

"Oh, really? You say you've begun to suspect leaks?"

GM's Upbeat Forecast

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors executives invited 150 stock market analysts to their marble-walled company cafeteria on Fifth Avenue this week and presented an unusually upbeat forecast of things to come.

The company's various problems are now solved or close to being solved, Oscar Lundin, the executive vice president of finance, assured the analysts. Fuel economy, emission problems, safety, deal profits, car size.

This isn't the same type of report a company gives to the government or to buyers when it announces a price increase, as GM has several times in the past few months. But it's what GM likes the analysts to hear. It's understandable.

With charts and graphs and meticulously practiced answers to questions, the executives sought to assure these people, whose opinions influence many investment decisions, that GM was seizing one opportunity after another.

GM's share of the market was rising, to 43.6 per cent of all car sales, said Richard Terrell, also an executive vice president. The gasoline shortage is less critical, and besides, he said, GM was aware of the impending shortfall.

It had, moreover, been prepared for the small-car demand, Terrell said. White letters flashed on a red background: "GM aware of energy situation and trend toward smaller cars several years ago." Some analysts were surprised to hear and read this, remembering those big inventories of larger vehicles.

Buyers will obtain 12 to 13 per cent more mileage per gallon on 1975 models, said Elliott Estes, another executive vice president. Customers will save at least $100 a year on fuel and lower maintenance, he promised.

Fuel economy on rotary engines has been made comparable with piston engine performance, said Estes, even though there is work still to be done on reducing emissions. He promised a sporty subcompact rotary sometime in 1975.

New techniques for reducing weight are being discovered, he said, now that engineers can look at their models in their entirety rather than responding in short lead time to regulatory demands. You would never guess the new cars weigh more.

Fear Plus Fear

Around The Rim

Joe Pickle

If you're average — no, if you're human — you probably fear something. The fellow who proclaims that "I fear no man" may be afraid of his wife. Or the thought of getting on an airplane may give him ulcers. Or he may fret that the country is going to the dogs.

CITING THE multiplicity of fears by modern man, Northwestern National Life Insurance Company relates that Henry Fonda, who has done pretty well on stage and screen, confessed he was haunted by a fear that every film would be his last. Most of us have, at one time or another, feared loss of job, or loss of financial security.

Primitive man had some basic fears, most of them physical. When he wasn't worried about getting done in by an adversary or animal, he was haunted by the prospect of not enough food, or lack of shelter. But today, we carry all that, plus those generated by a "highly complex, technological, competitive and impersonal society."

WE DIGNIFY our fears by calling them hang-ups. I have an adequate supply, but one that pops up in my dreams is being off in a strange city with no funds and no friends.

If you think that grown ups are the only one with fears, then spend a little time with the youngsters. They sometimes worry what if the house were to burn down, are they really adopted, maybe someone will kidnap them, what if someone in the family got sick, or had an accident, or died — or even what if lions, tigers, or snakes jumped out of the dark at them.

SOME PSYCHOLOGISTS think this stems largely from a sense of insecurity, usually before age 10. This may be so, although some others think it also may be used too frequently as an excuse.

As we grow older, our fears broaden. A few fear hypodermic needles, or going to the dentist, or driving the car. While we may dream of retirement, we also may secretly fear all that free time. Some have abnormal fears about everything from the water we drink to the air we breathe, to the unknown, death, disability, high places, to the insecticides we use, the weapons we have created, to the awesomeness of nature. The list is so endless we end up with "phobophobia," fearing fear — a line FDR pinpointed with . . . "the only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

FEAR CAN'T be dismissed as some silly notion, for often it can almost paralyze people. They can't think rationally; they resort to rash action; they stutter, develop nervous stomachs, get headaches, wear out quickly, can't sleep, sometimes faint.

The malady is so common that a White Plains N.Y. hospital established a Phobia Clinic. Psychologists and psychiatrists find their patients burdened with fears. They hear confessions of fearing that they don't measure up to social or personal standards; they fear being different.

ONE POINT of attack, experts say, is to recall the incident on which a fear is based. This is better than trying to forget fears or getting angry over them. One psychological technique is to "desensitize" the patient by presenting him with small fears which can be overcome, then progressing until even the big fears can be faced. Pastors and religious counselors have a lot of Scriptures to provide reassurance or hope . . . "be not anxious" . . . "Fear ye not," "The Lord will give you rest from fear." Fear "ain't" funny, but the best thing is to face it.

Talking To Plants

Robert E. Ford

If you believe a man loses his farming skills just because he hasn't done anything agricultural in decades,

THIS GREAT production endeavor you're wrong. You ought to see the great, big red tomato on the vine beside our fireplace chimney.

I started a few weeks ago when we became caught up in this year's big fall-planting vegetables.

A good many city folks plowed up their back yards and began growing onions, squash, corn and things like that or trying to.

There is a spot about three feet by three feet at our place where nothing ever would grow, not even Johnson grass.

Therefore, we reasoned, the soil must not be worn out by too many crops.

Well sure enough, the tomatoes began to flourish and the first one should be ready to pluck in a couple days.

IT HAS NOT been easy. It's easier than growing cotton in the Dust Bowl, but there is work to be done.

As everyone these days knows, if you talk nice to your plants they will work themselves to death for you.

Carry that one step further and sing to them.

First we tried a few bars of that old pioneer favorite, "The Hell-Bound Train." Three blossoms fell off.

Perhaps that was an immoral song. We tried a verse of "On Jordan's Stormy Bank," half-way expecting the blossoms to lift themselves off the ground back onto the vines.

They stayed where they were. Started sweet-talking to the plants and they began popping out with tomatoes. Now there are 14 of all sizes, which is not bad for four plants.

It looked like disaster had struck at one point in time. One of the stalks turned black and appeared about to die.

CALLED UP our long-time friend, Monk Vance of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, to whom we turn in times of crop crisis.

He acted just like a doctor you've awakened at 3 a.m. to complain about your head cold.

"There's a lot of that going around now," he reported.

Like a doctor who tells you to take two aspirin and go back to sleep, Vance said give the plants an extra shot of superphosphate fertilizer. It worked.

THE AGRICULTURE Department, noting all this vegetable activity across the nation as well as in our back yard, made a survey to see what people like.

Most disliked are eggplant, turnips and okra. Around Texas, okra is a big favorite. Maybe the Easterners don't know how to cook it.

BACK TO TALKING to plants. Grandpa used to raise just about the best crops in Baylor County except for people who farmed Brazos River bottomland.

Several persons noted that when he was alone on a plow or a planter, he talked a lot.

Finally accused of it, he admitted he was reciting Bible verses, praying a little and occasionally voicing a small sermon. Maybe that was why his crops were so good.

Letters To Editor

I planned to write this letter when I mailed in my subscription the first of this year, but I certainly did procrastinate when I put it off for a few days. Those days have grown into months and while absorbing The Herald each night I have thought I must get off that letter. Each of us has a certain way to read the paper; since I hear the national and state news hashed and reshaped on the radio and TV I skip the first page, and used to go directly to the editorial page which I practically devoured in its entirety. The editorials make one think and while I don't always agree with them, the editor at least takes a stand, and must say those who have missed the local editorials are the ones who have lost. Our local columnists are always most interesting; I have read some of them for years but must confess my favorites at the present are Marj Carpenter, who makes the story of West Texas of the past 30 years so alive, and Walt Finley, the ex-Okie, whose Sunday column should never be missed. I would name others, but better get on.

You note in above paragraph I mentioned I used to go to editorial page first. I must admit for over the past year my first love has been Jack Cowan in "For What It's Worth." I always loved sports but was never interested in reading the sports page — all too cut and dried. I have never met Jack but he has something above those shoulders other than a good looking face. He has brought sports alive on paper, and has maintained his sense of humor while doing it. He has made sports fun, while dishing it out, he has poked plenty of fun at himself. If as many Americans were as interested in government, from the local level up as we are in sports, what a government we would have. I am sorry Jack is leaving us — I shall miss his column — but I predict that he shall advance in his field until we shall hear of him another day. May I suggest that those who missed Cowan's column in Sunday's issue (June 29) go back and read it. He leaves us with some excellent parting shots. Goodbye and good luck Jack.

The comics (I hate the new ones), the society section, and Friday's Domestic section are the froth on the cake, so to speak, pleasant but not indispensable for me.

Sorry this letter of appreciation is six months late but we want you to know we like all of you from our paper boy to "the top man." The next letter may be "burning you up" but that's people.

Why Estrogen Is Used

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: As a 50-year-old woman who has just completed menopause, I am unclear how necessary it is for me to take estrogen. I am in good health and have had no menopause problems at all except for mild hot flashes. My inclination always is to take as little medication as possible.

My doctor is not pressing estrogen upon me, yet apparently he routinely prescribes it for all such women as myself. What are the pros and cons? I have your booklet on menopause but it doesn't answer specifically when and why one should or should not take hormones. — Mrs. V. U.

If you'll give the booklet another careful reading, I think you'll find that it does give you your answer. It specifies several times that estrogen (female hormones) should be given when there is a definite need, not just the menopause itself.

The primary use is to abate hot flashes when they are severe enough to be annoying — as they are to many women. In other women the natural hormone balance remains such that they have little or no trouble with hot flashes — and in that case what's the use of hormones? A secondary aspect is cited on page 24 of the booklet. Sometimes a soreness or tenderness of the vaginal area develops after menopause, attributable usually to a thinning of the membranes. Hormones, either in a cream form or by injection or by mouth can correct this. Again, use the hormones if they are needed.

A somewhat more remote use of hormones is a part of the treatment in case osteoporosis develops. Again, that occurs in some women, not in others.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

I am 26 years old and not married. I have a strong desire for sex, but feel guilty about this. After all, the Bible says if you lust, it's a sin. I know sex is a way of expressing love, but I don't think that sex has anything to do with love.

V.F.
In the beginning of language development, the word "lust" meant a strong desire or craving, not only for physical but spiritual satisfaction. In other words, it once had both a good and bad meaning. Now it almost always is used in the bad sense.

You're right in saying that the Bible denounces lust, when it means a longing for the unlawful. James 4:1

speaks of "desires that battle within you." The Bible never says sex itself is wrong.

But I must correct a statement of yours. When you say that "sex has nothing to do with love," you touch on a basic problem in American society. It's precisely the divorce of love and sex that has precipitated our present crisis of permissiveness, the breakdown of moral standards and the crumbling of the institution of marriage. The Bible says that sex without the protection of love is debasing.

There's no reason you can't exercise self-control. God gave you a will, and He can help you use it.

A Devotion For Today..

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee." (Psalm 55:22)

PRAYER: Dear Lord Jesus, You know me better than I know myself. Show me what You want me to do for You this day. In Your name I ask. Amen.

Tells 50-Year History Of Bradshaw Studio

Mrs. Pyrlle Bradshaw, who came to Big Spring in 1923 described highlights of more than 50 years in the photography business when she spoke at the Big Spring Credit Women's luncheon at the Settles Hotel Thursday.

Mrs. Bradshaw and her sister, Mrs. Willard Sullivan, are co-owners of Bradshaw Studio, 508 1/2 Main.

Mrs. Bradshaw and one of her sisters, Miss Lena Maye Bradshaw, were having their portraits made in Midland when the photographer, George W. Miller, asked them if they wanted to go to work for him. They accepted the job, as did another sister, Tot Bradshaw (Mrs. Sullivan). Miller opened a studio in Big Spring in 1920, and the young women photographers came here to work. At that time, the studio was located on the second floor of the old Williams Dry Good Store, 219 Main.

The Bradshaws soon purchased the studio which has now been in business over 50 years. During those years, besides serving the community and surrounding areas, they photographed numerous famous people including Eddie Ricken-backer, Will Rogers, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, James Farley, and W. Lee O'Daniel. Congressman George Mahon had his campaign picture made at Bradshaw Studio when he first ran for congress in 1934.

In closing, Mrs. Bradshaw said, "Only in photographs do your yesterdays live tomorrow."

The next luncheon meeting of the club will be July 3 at the hotel.

NSA Plans Seminar For Fall

The Big Spring Chapter of National Secretaries Association held its annual orientation night Monday in Texas Electric Ready Room, with a dinner preceding the business session.

The presiding officer was Mrs. Elmer Seitzler who welcomed Mrs. Luene Robinson as a returning NSA member.

Mrs. M. A. Long presented a brief summary of the organization and the duties of officers. Folders were distributed to new officers and chairmen. Plans were approved to hold the July meeting at the same location and begin the dinner meetings in August.

Mrs. Long was named coordinator for a seminar to be held in the fall.

A former member, Mrs. Joel Carter of New Braunfels, was a guest.

Miss Gaskins Ranks High In Competition

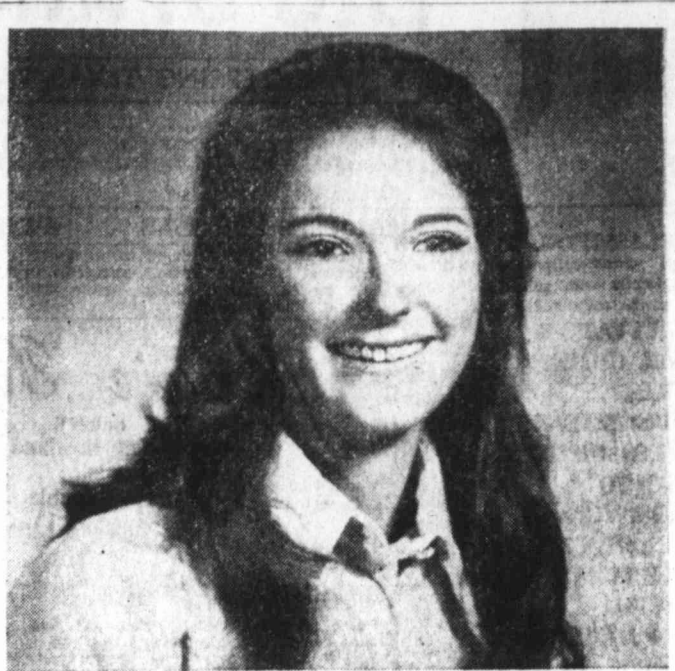

Miss Kayla Jean Gaskins of Knott has been named honorable mention winner in the Adams Extract 1974 FHA Scholarship competition for the study of home economics in college.

Miss Gaskins is a 1974 graduate of Sands Consolidated High School where she participated in school, FHA and community projects. She has been an active FHA member, serving as 1973-74 president of her school's FHA chapter and attending state meetings as a voting delegate.

An active member of the United Methodist Church, Miss Gaskins has participated as choir member and pianist in addition to the Youth Fellowship Club.

At Sands Consolidated High School, Miss Gaskins was a member of the National Honor Society. She took part in University Scholastic League debate competition. She was editor of the 1974 Mustang publication. A Drama Club member, she acted in both the junior and senior plays. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins.

Adams Extract Company is a 64 year old Texas manufacturer of "Adams Best" Vanilla, other extracts, food colors, and cake trims.

Needs Help

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I can't believe I'm actually writing a letter to Dear Abby!!! Wow, what a corny trip! I know you're not "God," but you say a lot in a few words and your answers make sense, so here goes:

I'm a 34-year-old married woman with two kids and a million problems. The biggest is my marriage. It's going downhill fast.

My husband and I fight all the time. We've got money problems, in-law problems, he says I'm a lousy housekeeper and he's right, and I say he spends too much time with "the boys" and not enough with me and the kids. (He's a sports freak.) We can't even discuss our problems without ending up in a fight. The only thing we've got going for us is sex. That's terrific, but you can't stay in bed all the time.

Don't tell me we need "counseling." He'd never go. And I can't afford a shrink, so forget that.

All right, Abby, you've got all the answers. Answer this one.

unfaithful to me.

I asked my husband about this and he denied it. I want to believe my husband because we have two kids, and I don't want to break up my marriage.

Abby, why would that mind reader say something like that if it wasn't true? I don't know what to believe. Can you help me?

MESSED UP MIND

DEAR MESSED UP: I'd believe my husband. I would also stay away from "mind readers."

MISERABLE

DEAR MIS.: The answer I have for you, you won't like. You need professional counseling. (Friends are a waste of time. They tell you only what they think you want to hear.)

You say your husband won't go? Well, go alone. If you learn how to handle your husband, you will know more than you know now. And with luck, you can get him to go later.

If you need a shrink and can't afford one, your Family Service or Welfare Department can provide that at a price you CAN afford. Now get going, and let me hear from you in 30 days.

DEAR ABBY: Tell me something. Do I have a right to complain? We've been married for 14 years, and for the last ten years my husband has taken a 10-day skiing vacation without me.

I couldn't go because I had no one to leave the kids with. I took one vacation without my husband five years ago. I went to Florida for a week to visit my folks, and I took my kids with me. Some vacation!

My husband says: "Just because YOU have to stay home doesn't mean I have to."

Rah, rah, for women's lib!

ANGRY

DEAR ANGRY: You made your first mistake when you stayed home with the kids while hubby took to the slopes. They're his kids too, aren't they? The squeaking wheel gets the grease, so give him three choices: (1) The whole family takes a vacation together — kids included. (2) You and hubby vacation together and turn the kids out. (3) You and hubby vacation together, and hire somebody to stay with the kids.

Luncheon Is Honor For Bride

Mrs. Marvin L. Standefer Jr., the former Miss Karen Coffee, was honored Friday at a luncheon hosted by her grandmother, Mrs. John A. Coffee, and her aunts, Mrs. T. A. Thompson and Mrs. Louis Heinze, in Mrs. Coffee's home, 513 Edwards Circle.

The dining table was centered with an arrangement of fruit, daisies and yellow dillies.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Key, Casa Blanca, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bennett, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Graham, Fredericksburg; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Anderson and Miss Fletcher Anderson, all of McKinney; Miss Beth Picquet, German town, Tenn.; Cecil Anderson, Dallas; and Louis Heinze, Sarah Heinze and Edward Heinze, all of Arlington.

Rebekahs Hold Initiation Rites

Initiation ceremonies were held for Mrs. Nannie Ruth Garrett when the VFW Auxiliary 2013 met Monday evening in the home of the president, Mrs. Pauline Petty, 707 N. Gregg.

Assisting Mrs. Petty with the ritual were Mrs. Rip Smith, Mrs. C. G. Barnett, Mrs. U.S. Beechly and Mrs. Bob Wren.

The hospital committee reported that Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Rosendo Santellan served refreshments recently to patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Relatives, Friends Visit Residents Of Forsan

FORSAN (SC) — A recent family reunion at the A. P. Oglesby home included their children and families, the Albert Oglesbys, Odessa; the Sammy Porters, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Dr. Gwen Hall and daughters, Dallas; and Mrs. Betty McAdams. Joining the group were a grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Terry McAdams, Big Spring, and a friend, Mrs. Clara Porter, Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Scudaway have returned home after spending several days in Red River, N.M. They were accompanied by their son-in-law, daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Matthews, and children of Eastland.

Recent guests of the J. D. Gilmores were their granddaughters, Melinda McGuire and Montie McGuire of Monahan.

Mrs. L. B. McElrath's son-in-law, Al White, and his son, Buster White, visited here recently with Mrs. McElrath and J. L. Overton family.

Mrs. Willie Davidson has returned home after spending several days with her son and family, the Frank Davidsons. Her granddaughter, Elaine Davidson, returned with her.

Recent guests of the J. M. Craigs were their daughters and families, the Jim Kelleys, Odessa; the Bobby Bakers, Monahan; and the James Craigs, Robert Lee.

The Wayne Monroneys of Snyder recently visited the G. L. Monroneys and the Bob Cowleys.

The L. S. Camps spent last weekend in Odessa with their daughter and family, the Boyd Brawleys.

Former residents of Forsan, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Green of Kermit and Mattie Mae Barnett, Big Spring, were recent guests of Mrs. Frank Swiger.

Woman Named

Sue Fortenberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fortenberry, 1207 Lloyd, has been named to the Dean's List at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, for the spring semester. She is a junior student, majoring in home management.

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1974

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day of evening when dramatic events can take place in your relations with other people. Make sure you are thoughtful and considerate with them, and ready to seize any opportunities that may arise. Be more cooperative.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) If you would be wise to listen carefully to what associates have to suggest now since the planets are with them. Control your temper.

Taurus (April 20 to May 20) Show your skill in whatever faces you today and make an excellent impression on higher-ups. You can improve your appearance.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Allow some free time for an invitation that may be extended to you unexpectedly. Think kindly of others. Be more cheerful.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Plan now to make family more pleased at home. Tomorrow is best if you want to put some new project into motion.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Consult with associates in the morning about future plans. Don't neglect important correspondence. Engage in favorite hobby.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Study objectively ways to increase your assets. Improve your budget so that it is more flexible. Steer clear of one who bickers.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Know what is that you really want in life and get rid of obstacles in the way of your progress. Show more devotion to mate.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Keep secret any future plans and become a more successful person. Be ready and willing to give advice to a good friend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) An associate can be of great assistance to you. Know what your aims are and how to achieve them. Put forth more effort.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) A higher-up can help you with a particular plan you have in mind. Avoid one who doesn't understand you. Take it easy tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Make certain you contact persons who can help you in a new activity that interests you. Make plans for a fascinating trip.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) On ideal day to handle personal obligations. Listen to what loved one has to suggest so that happiness can be increased.

42 Tons Of Pot Seized By Agents

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Drug Enforcement Administration says U.S. and Mexican authorities have carried out the biggest single seizure of marijuana in history, netting 42 tons of the weed in Mexicali, Mexico.

Announcing the joint operation Tuesday, DEA Administrator John Bartels Jr. estimated the marijuana's U.S. street sale value at $22.8 million.

He said Mexican police were holding seven men for questioning and that additional arrests were expected.

About 2 1/2 tons of marijuana was found inside each of two tanker trucks stopped at the border while they were en route from Mexicali to California, with the rest discovered at a Mexicali warehouse in "a huge secret cavern beneath the concrete floor," the DEA said.

Mexicali is on the California-Mexico border, a sister city of Calexico, Calif.

According to authorities, the tanker trucks would transport coal and asphalt into the Mexicali area and return to the United States loaded with marijuana.

Howard County farmers who have not yet planted cotton need to let the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office here know as soon as practicable. Deadline for planting is Monday.

Certification deadline for cotton planting is July 15, Gabe Hammack of the ASCS office reminded planters.

Steve Gordon, 3704 Calvin, screen torn up, bicycle pump destroyed.

Services will be at 2 p.m., Thursday in the East Fourth Baptist Church, with the Rev. Eldon Cook, interim pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park under the direction of Nalley-Pickel Funeral Home.

A delightfully unique motion picture of love and suspense that could easily become a classic.

Benji

A family film by Joe Camp

It's a truly exciting, extraordinary kind of picture that tells its story completely from a dog's point-of-view. A real dog, not an animated one. Benji can't talk and nobody talks for him. But his story will completely involve you as this ordinary dog struggles to communicate a piece of important knowledge to some people he loves.

It's funny, it's sad, it's suspense. It's fun. It's a very special motion picture that you will remember to take few you've ever seen.

BENJI'S THEME: FEEL LOVE performed by CHARLIE RICH

ROTARIANS HEAR EDUCATOR — Members of the Big Spring Rotary Club and their wives gathered at the Big Spring Country Club Tuesday night to hear a talk by Dr. Guy D. Newman (center), chancellor and former president of Howard Payne College, Brownwood. Flanking Newman here are Ralph Gossett (l), outgoing club president; and Jimmy Taylor (r), incoming president. Other officers sworn in include Frank Hardesty, vice president; Riley Foster, secretary; Charles Bell, treasurer; and W. S. Pearson, Ron McNeill, Kenneth Boothe and Jimmy Anderson, directors. Newman spoke on Americanism and the nation's profile.

Doubts Rises In Utility Rates Can Be Checked

HOUSTON (AP) — Officials of several Texas utility companies say they don't believe there is a way to halt fast rising utility rates.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe has said he will call a special session if the Texas Legislature can figure out how to stop the sky-rocketing rates.

Last week, the governor asked the House Energy Crisis Study Committee to hold a series of hearings on the problem. He also told State Rep. John Newton, D-Beeville, chairman of the committee, he will call a special session of the legislature if the committee can find a way to cut rates.

Jackson C. Hinds, president of Entex, Inc., of Houston, formerly known as United Gas, Inc., said he did not believe there was a "whole lot" the legislature can do to hold down rising utility rates.

"It's like when you see a storm coming and you say you want to stop it, but you can't," said Hinds.

Briscoe has said his immediate concern is natural gas rates, both gas sold to consumers and to electric utilities which use fuel to generate electricity and pass on the higher fuel cost to its customers.

"Utility rates are tied to whatever fuel sources we can get," said Norman R. Lee, president of Gulf States Utility Co., a large electric utility based in Beaumont. "Unless we bring down the price of fuel sources, we can't bring down rates."

Unless the legislature can come up with more supplies of natural gas, Lee said he doesn't see what they can do.

Harry Fair, a vice president of Coastal States Gas Producing Co., which furnishes natural gas to the city-owned companies in Austin and San Antonio, said supplies of the fuel are "getting shorter and shorter."

One effective method for holding down utility rates, he said, would be for state controls on the fuel, giving priority to residential and small power plant use.

Studying Demands For $4 Million

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Mexican Government said Tuesday night it was studying guerrilla demands for $4 million dollars, release of many prisoners and delivery of arms in exchange for the life of a kidnapped federal senator.

A spokesman for President Luis Echeverria of Mexico said "we are studying" a communique signed by guerrilla Lucio Cabanas sent to Mexico City newspapers Tuesday afternoon.

The president's office said it would have no immediate comment and that the text would be broadcast on television stations.

IGNORE DEADLINES

The broadcast of the text was one of the demands included in the two-page, typewritten communique sent to newspapers. Most radio stations, which according to the communique were to broadcast it at 8 p.m. CST, ignored the deadline and went on with regular programming.

Only the English-language radio station XEVIP broadcast the text in English.

Sen. Ruben Figueroa, 66, was kidnapped by Cabanas' guerrillas on May 30 as the official headed for a meeting with the guerrilla leader in the mountains of the southern state of Guerrero where his band operates north of Acapulco.

the federal government, opening all jails in Guerrero state to let "all prisoners go" and delivery of 100 M-1 rifles with 60 rounds each of ammunition and 50 pistols with two clips each.

Cabanas' message also demanded solutions to various worker and student problems, publication of photographs with names and addresses of policemen who allegedly raped a girl and beat several people in a rural settlement in March, firing the Acapulco police chief and elimination of debts peasant farmers owe to wealthy rural leaders.

99-Year Prison Term For Mom

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Jurors decided Willie Ann Brown, 20, must serve a 99-year prison term for beating her 13-month-old son Cedric to death.

The jury of nine women and two men deliberated two and one-half hours before reaching a verdict Tuesday in 58th District Court. Lawyers on both sides agreed to a panel of 11 after one of the jurors became ill.
