

THE JUNCTION EAGLE

Volume XXXIX.

Junction, Kimble County, Texas, Friday, March 9, 1923.

Number 45.

TO PAY WITH LIFE FOR MURDER OF BELGIAN OFFICER.

One of the four German prisoners who have been convicted for the death of a Belgian Army Officer, Lieutenant Graf, and who are to be executed at Aix La Chapelle in the near future. Note the unconcerned look on the face of the prisoner.

SUPERVISOR'S REPORT ON JUNCTION SCHOOL.

Superintendent Cochran and Oren C. Reid, president of the Junction school board, have received the report of the recent inspection of the school here by a supervisor who was here recently.

This report contains something for serious consideration of the patrons of the school in particular, and the citizenship in general, and we hope that arrangements can be made to comply with these necessary improvements before another school year.

The recommendations are as follows:

1. That plans be made in the early future to provide adequate room and equipment for the growing school.

The present building is inadequate, poorly arranged and very unattractive. The absence of corridors necessitates frequent passing through class rooms, making both discipline and instruction a problem.

2. That sanitary toilets be provided.

3. That the regulations for covering free textbooks be rigidly enforced.

4. That all desks be properly secured to the floor.

5. That standard charts be purchased for ancient and modern history.

6. That the large 8th grade of thirty-five students be divided.

7. That a Parent-Teachers' Association be organized, if not already, to help meet the needs of the school.

RAGLAND BROTHERS SELLING CORN FED BEEF.

The local market, owned by Messrs. J. L. and G. R. Ragland, recently purchased six corn fed steers and spayed heifers from a ranchman in Kerr County. These cattle have been fed on corn for the past 60 to 90 days, and were in fine condition when brought here last Saturday. They weighed about one thousand pounds each and will be slaughtered as needed for local consumption.

Ragland Brothers, without competition, are making every effort to give Junction an up to date market, and are succeeding in doing so to the satisfaction of their many customers.

SCHREINER-HODGES CO. BUILD MORE SIDEWALK.

Work on some very commendable improvements was started Wednesday by the local general merchandise concern, Schreiner-Hodges Co.

An eight-foot concrete sidewalk and curb will be built from the east side of the Goben blacksmith shop past the meat market. This will add greatly to the appearance of this part of town and be very much more convenient for the two firms, Reid Brothers & Boyle and Ragland Brothers market, whose business buildings face this new walk.

With this completed, Junction will have two blocks of sidewalk on the north side of Holekamp street, with the exception of the space in front of the Junction Tire Shop, and that in front of the blacksmith shop.

OXFORD CAFE IN- STALLS PLAYER PIANO.

The Oxford Cafe, following its usual policy of keeping up to the minute in service and equipment, has made another addition. Last Monday a $700.00 Player Piano was received from the Whittle Music Co., of Dallas, and more nickles have been dropped in the slot than most people knew were in the country.

E. P. Furr of London was a business visitor in Junction last Wednesday.

SHERIFF TAKES CAR AND WHISKEY STILL.

That the bootlegger is not in high clover in this county is evidenced by the fact that Sheriff Gibbs has been very diligent in his efforts to prevent their operations here, and on last Sunday night, he and his deputies were successful in taking a practically new Ford roadster, a 30-gallon still, 25 feet of coil and a quart of whiskey.

He and Messrs. E. P. and R. P. Furr had been watching for some suspected parties near London. The Sheriff followed the suspects north, who passed thru London just after dark. Later he returned to London, and in the meantime the parties had returned ahead of him, but had been seen by E. P. and R. P. Furr. These gentlemen made an effort to stop them, and failing to do this, got in a car and followed them to a point near the Spruel place. When the two parties in the roadster saw they were to be overtaken, they jumped from the car, while it was still in motion, and fled. This happened about 1:30 a. m. on Monday.

Monday morning, Jim Reese, who resides at London, was taken into custody by Sheriff Gibbs and brought to Junction, where he was held until Wednesday morning when he and the car were turned over to a U. S. Deputy Marshall and a prohibition enforcement officer from San Antonio, who took Reese and the car to that city.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

A State Rural Aid bill will do few of the schools of this county any good unless a decided improvement is made in the grounds and equipment of the majority of the schools. This year there were seven schools to receive State Aid to the amount of $1,700, all for the first time. The requirements for the first year of State Aid are much easier to meet than those where aid is to be secured for a subsequent year. It seems that the inspectors allow for what is to be done when first application is granted, but after that they allow for what has been done.

Junction, this year received $500 upon the condition that a new building was to be built. Other schools receiving State Aid were: London, $200; Wooten (Evergreen), $300; Watson, $150; Red Creek, $200; Roosevelt, $250; and Eight-mile $100. Cleo school closed last Thursday after a six months' term and James River closed recently with only a five months' term.

An election has recently been called in the Junction Common School District for the purpose of voting a bond to build a suitable school house for this district. More about the purpose of the election will be given in next week's paper.

RILEY FARM IMPROVED.

The old warehouse that has stood on the lot just across the street from Schreiner-Hodges Co., belonging to W. P. Riley, has been torn down and moved to the farm on Cedar Creek, belonging to Mr. Riley. From it a barn is being built. This farm is being handled this year by Mr. Cochran. It is one of the best farms in the county and on account of its location on Cedar Creek and South Llano and otherwise adaptability for the purpose, it has been discussed as a park project.

Miss Natalee Sandherr spent the week-end visiting relatives here.

DIE IN FLAMES WHEN STATE INSANE ASYLUM BURNS.

Photo shows view of the 4th floor corridor of the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane of Ward's Island, New York City, in which many are said to have died, trapped by the barred windows. Cells are shown on each side of the hall. The building housed inmates obsessed with suicidal mania.

YEARS GONE BY.

One looks back and grieves for the years he once knew,
When people were honest and plain;

When families held all their members, as links
Make perfect the length of a chain.

The boys would pay board to their mothers each week,
And felt it no hardship at all;

The girls did the housework—so little to do
When each has a part of it small.

But now while the father is grinding away
On labors that never can end,

The boys are devising new methods and schemes
By which what he makes they may spend.

The girls think their mothers unworthy to show
To people of note they have met—

Too lacking in culture or style, for you know,
A girl must keep up with her set.

And there are the fathers, still just as they were;
The mothers still wholesome and good;

Both loyal—so loyal they never complain,
And wouldn't go back if they could.

—Harry Lee Marriner.

OUT OF THE MAIL BOX.

A recent letter from Mrs. Taylor Emerson of Sterling City was appreciated by the Eagle. Mrs. Emerson was kind enough to compliment the paper and states she enjoys getting it very much.

A letter from State Comptroller Lon A. Smith says he will be delighted to spend his vacation in Kimble County. Commenting further, he states that while on a long trip last fall covering more than 1,000 miles through West Texas, he did not find more attractive scenery nor bigger hearted people than he found at Junction. It will be recalled that Comptroller Smith was with the O. S. T. Caravan that went to the Davis Mountains last fall, stopping over here for one night.

During the past two weeks we have not had a request for a missing paper. We hope that our readers away from here will experience no further trouble in getting their paper each week. We are just as anxious to get the paper to our readers as they are to receive it, and if a reader who misses a copy will notify us immediately, we can usually send another paper, however, after a few days, we cannot.

A. C. Stewart, son of Deputy Sheriff L. M. Stewart, writes from Ranger that he can't do without the Eagle. He was formerly a reader but allowed his time to expire and the paper stopped some weeks ago.

The Eagle bunch was more than glad to have a long letter from E. W. Tullis who has been with us for several months, until two weeks ago, when he became associated with his father in the publishing of the Weatherford Democrat. A copy of the Democrat was also received and shows up to be a most creditable weekly paper in that progressive town.

KERR COUNTY ADDED

District Inspector Willis Mason received notice this week from chief Inspector Olen Graves of the Livestock-Sanitary Commission, that Kerr County had been added to the list of counties over which he has supervision. Mr. Graves commented very favorably on the efficient work done by Mr. Mason, stating that it had been most satisfactory to the Commission. Mr. Mason now has charge of tick eradication work in Kimble, Sutton, Menard, Edwards and Kerr Counties.

Grandma Motley has been ill this week but was considerably improved towards the latter part of the week.

MORE TEXTILE MILLS NEEDED IN TEXAS.

An effort to interest eastern capital in establishing textile mills in Texas is the substance of a statement asking co-operation along that line sent out by the Texas Chamber of Commerce, located at Dallas to the local Chamber of Commerce.

James Z. George, general manager for the Texas Chamber, in the statement announced that the industrial department have been making a survey of the State in that regard and that already there were 20 mills in operation in 15 cities of the State, representing a capital of $6,560,000, in which the consumption of cotton amounted to $11,000,000. Mr. George reported many new projections under way and said that even with many failures, managers of successful mills could earn from 10 to 16 per cent profit per annum easily.

The factors to be considered in the location of these mills, said Mr. George, were proximity to raw materials, transportation, available water supply, power and labor conditions. Texas cities can in many cases meet these requirements and the Texas Chamber of Commerce declared its conviction that it needed only some one to negotiate with the east and certain State communities to locate additional successful textile mills in this State.

Kerrville, connecting with the S. A. U. & G., there. It is believed here that the writer of this article had his "wires badly twisted," as such an extension has never been suggested, and also on account of the fact that Kerrville is the terminus of the S. A. & A. P. instead of the S. A. U. & G., showing that the writer was not posted on the subject.

A line from Menard to Del Rio has been suggested and it is believed that should the consolidation bill pass the Legislature that the Frisco will build this road, and it is possible that it will touch Junction, but it is not believed here that it will go to Kerrville.

W. D. Crothers, of this city, who is a director of the Frisco, and Sam McCollum, local attorney for the road, were at the recent director's meeting at Fort Worth and both the extensions from Brady, by way of Mason to San Antonio, and the Menard Del Rio line, were suggested should the Legislature pass the bill permitting the merger.—Brady Sentinel.

HOWARD-PAYNE HEAD TENDERS RESIGNATION

Rev. W. R. Hornburg has tendered his resignation as president of Howard-Payne college, effective about March 1st, and has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Belton, it became known today. The Board of Trustees of the college has not yet acted upon the resignation, but it was indicated today that acceptance would be voted, due to Dr. Hornburg's insistence.

He resigned the pastorate of the Coggin Avenue Baptist church to become president of Howard-Payne when Dr. L. J. Mims resigned the presidency a year ago, and assumed charge of the institution at a time when many difficulties were to be overcome.

Rev. Hornburg is rather well known here. Kimble County has a number of students at Howard-Payne. It will be remembered that he conducted a revival at the local Baptist church last year.

MID-TEXAS TEACHERS TO CONVENE IN APRIL.

The annual convention of the Mid-Texas Teachers Association will be held in Brownwood April 6 and 7, according to a decision of the board of trustees who met in Brownwood recently and discussed arrangements for the convention. The program is now being matured, and will be ready for announcement within a short time. J. L. Layne, superintendent of the Comanche schools, is president of the Association, and is directing the work of formulating the program.—Brownwood Banner-Bulletin.

OBITUARY.

The subject of this sketch was born in Mississippi, December 7, 1861. He came to Texas some forty years ago, settled in the Strip neighborhood, he lived until a few years ago, when he came to Abernathy and engaged in business until the day of his death which was February 19, 1923. He was married to Miss Henrietta Miller on December 5, 1881. To this union was born ten children, seven boys and three girls. One boy and one girl died several years ago.

W. H. Ragland was a friend of all. The universal testimony is that a good man has gone from us, and will be missed by all.

He was a faithful member of the M. E. church, an official for many years, and the church has suffered a great loss. He was teacher of the men's class at the time of his death, and it will be hard to find one as competent and as faithful to fill his place.

All that his loved ones and friends and faithful physicians could do was done, but to no avail. His house was in order and W. H. Ragland fell asleep prepared to meet his God in peace. Rev. J. T. Howell, a former pastor and personal friend conducted the funeral, after which the body was laid to rest in the Strip cemetery, and the grave covered with choice flowers, the token of the high esteem of his many friends.

May the comfort of God's presence be given his loved ones.

THE Creation of the Star Car is the most important and brilliant accomplishment of any individual identified with the automobile industry since its inception.

Smartness in looks, thoroughness and modern design in a low priced car were unheard of until the Star car was created by W. C. Durant, the pioneer builder of automobiles and identified with the introduction and success of the Cadillac, Buick, Oakland, Oldsmobile, Chevrolet and Durant cars.

The Star car marks the most advanced step since the introduction of the automobile, for it provides for the first time a quality automobile, standardized in construction and operation for a modest sum of money

Had you stopped to think what you get each week in the picture news feature service that we give you? Of course, they may not all interest you; all of them do not appeal to us; but everyone isn't alike. In this issue we are carrying a picture of late news interest—that of a German prisoner to be hanged by the French. This picture appeared last Saturday in two of the daily papers that come to our desk. Beginning this week a comic strip or a cartoon, or both, will be run in each issue.

The legislative committee appointed under the third house concurrent resolution, to investigate recent awards by the State textbook commission, is scheduled to begin at once with the investigation. The resolution carries an amendment by Senator Wirtz, authorizing the committee to investigate all facts in connection with contributions to campaign expenses by textbook companies in connection with the State election last year. Several days is expected to be consumed by the committee in its investigation.

Probably the most drastic piece of legislation yet attempted by the Texas Legislature in the cause of prohibition was the Bell-Burmeister-Bobitt house bill, passed finally in the House late Wednesday by a vote of 101 to 22. The bill amends the present so-called Dean prohibition law of the Thirty-sixth Legislature by providing that the possession of liquor for the purpose of sale is prima facie evidence of the guilt of the possessor; also that if a person is arrested with a still in his possession, it shall also be conclusive evidence that he is guilty, and he shall be tried along that line. The bill also carries out that provision of the Volstead act which empowers the sheriffs or other officers to confiscate the automobile or other vehicle in which liquor is found and divide the proceeds from the sale of such vehicle among the officers making the arrest.

"A white haired old gentleman was planting trees. 'Why are you planting trees,' he was asked. 'You will never live to enjoy them.' 'No,' said the tree planter, 'but they will make a good shade for those who live here after I have gone.' The man who works but for the reward he can collect the same day misses the greatest pleasure to be found in his labor."

The above incident might have happened any where at any time, but is typical of the man or woman who takes a real and constructive interest in life. It calls to our attention the fact that now is tree planting time! A home may have all the modern conveniences; its occupants may be happy, but when trees and shrubs are not found growing around it, there is something missing—something that not only adds to the beauty and comfort, but to the worth of the property itself.

When you pass a home, round which are growing beautiful trees, you cannot fail to note the difference between it and one without them. And yet the cost is small.

Whether you live in town or on a farm or ranch, make arrangements to plant some trees, and in a remarkably short time you will be surprised at the difference they make.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

Since the Eagle management has been in charge of the present Editor, an effort has been made to create the very best advertising medium possible. In doing this, the Eagle subscription list has been placed on a strictly cash basis, and it is doubtful if there can be found a weekly newspaper anywhere with as high percentage of paid in advance subscribers.

We have made every effort to give the reading public of Kimble County a newspaper that they would be proud of and that they would support. How well we have done this is for others to judge, but the fact that this paper goes into over 90 per cent of the homes in the county is pretty good evidence that it covers its field.

When we came here less than one-third of the subscriptions were paid in advance. In numerous instances the paper was going to the same person at several different addresses. Such a system was wasteful and gave the advertiser a poor medium.

Another proposition that has been more or less troublesome to correct, was the rates for advertising. Some advertisers were paying four times as much as others. As contracts have expired, we have corrected this unfair method, and at the present time all standing ads. have been arranged as to size to fit the present prevailing rate, and now every advertiser can rest assured that he is paying the same price as other advertisers.

We stated above that there was probably not another paper with such a percentage of paid up subscribers. We might also say that we doubt if there is another weekly paper that so thoroughly covers its field.

There's another unusual, but highly appreciated fact connected with the publication of this paper: Where can you find a weekly paper in a town the size of Junction that carries the percentage of advertising space this paper carries?

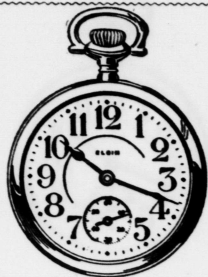

We appreciate that 90 percent of county's population that read this paper, and we appreciate more than we can express the excellent patronage that local business houses give us. It shall be our purpose to bend every effort towards giving our readers the best paper possible and to secure many of the remaining 10 percent, thus creating a still better advertising medium.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

I don't believe a man can ever leave his business. He ought to think of it by day and dream of it by night. It is nice to plan to do one's work in office hours to take up the work in the morning, to drop it in the evening—and not have a care until the next morning. It is perfectly possible to do that if one is so constituted as to be willing thru all his life to accept direction, to be an employee, possibly a responsible employee, but not a director or manager of anything. A manual laborer must have a limit on his hours, otherwise he will wear himself out. If he intends to remain always a manual laborer, then he should forget about his work when the whistle blows, but if he intends to go forward and do anything, the whistle is only a signal to start thinking over the day's work in order to discover how it might be better done. The man who has the largest capacity for work and thought is the man who is bound to succeed.—Henry Ford, in McClure's Magazine.

The sooner people depend on themselves for funds with which to maintain their schools the better it will be for all. We refuse to tax ourselves for our schools and the next day we ask the Legislature to do for us what we refuse to do for ourselves. The Legislature grants our requests by appropriating money to run our schools, then our taxes are raised to get this money and we have to pay for our policies. Why not each county or district levy by special tax enough to run its schools and save the leakage and waste which occurs when the State is forced to collect it.—W. F. Kelis, in Sterling City News.

J. E. QUAID TO MAKE RACE FOR THE SENATE.

A very closely contested city campaign ended in El Paso last Saturday and resulted in the nomination of State Senator R. M. Dudley for mayor. Dudley has been one of the outstanding figures in State politics in the State Senate for several years. J. E. Quaid of El Paso, at present a member of the lower house will be a candidate to succeed Senator Dudley. Mr. Quaid is chairman of the house committee on appropriations, the committee which directs the expenditure of all State funds.

He is serving his second term as a member of the Lower House, is a lawyer, thirty-nine years of age and a native Texan.

It has been reported that several other candidates will offer themselves for Senator from this district, but so far no definite announcements have been received here as to any candidates except Mr. Quaid.

NOTICE!

I am taking this method of announcing that all Common School Districts in this County desiring to elect trustees may obtain the necessary election supplies from me for that purpose. It is the duty of the trustees for each district to call an election for the purpose of electing School Trustees, where it is desired. Weaver H. Baker, Supt. of Schools.

W. R. Eckert was in town last week and had some stationery printed. Mr. Eckert is one of the several successful farmers and ranchmen of the county who has given his farm a name. He calls it the South Llano Stock Farm, and in addition to his farming operations and the raising of some ordinary livestock, he is gradually building up the number of thorough-bred sheep and goats. It would be a good thing if more of the farms and ranches of the county were named.

The South Western Sportsman is published by Collum & Boren of Dallas, in the interest of all kinds of clean sports.

"Mr. Boyd, State Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, has worked out and drawn an entirely new game and fish law; has had it introduced in the Legislature and we hope it will pass. We have read it over very carefully and we believe it covers the needs of the State thoroughly. There is nothing radical in it and yet if it is enforced (and it provides for enforcement) game will increase wonderfully in Texas. We congratulate Mr. Boyd and will be glad to render him any co-operation we can."

"Mr. E. A. Loeffler, of Junction, was a very pleasant visitor during the convention. You talk about a game and fish conservationist—he's a wheel horse."

"Fishermen:—Fishing with any kind of artificial bait in the lakes and streams having State supervision, during the months of March and April, is prohibited by State law. This is due to the fact that these are spawning months."

STATE CAPITAL NEWS

From The Austin Statesman:

TEXAS BOND DEBT
PLACED AT $4,041,400.

The total bonded indebtedness of the State of Texas is $4,041,400, according to information obtained from Lon A. Smith, state comptroller.

This amount includes bond issues charged to the following state funds: permanent University, $429,700; lunatic asylum, $133,250; deaf and dumb school, $127,600; blind institute, $143,950; orphans' home, $30,600; permanent school fund, $2,772,000; and Agricultural and Mechanical College, $209,000. All of these issues bear five per cent interest with the exception of the permanent University fund bonds, which bear three per cent.

Interest on State bonds for the past year totaled $78,345.50, according to Comptroller Smith.

In addition to State bond is-ssues, records of the comptroller's department show that the bonded indebtedness of cities, counties and districts in the State totals $23,336,375.24. By far the greatest part of this amount—$23,328,885.24—is charged against the permanent school funds maintained by the various cities and counties of the State.

ANTI-EVOLUTION BILL
ENGROSSED BY HOUSE.

The House Saturday engrossed, 69 to 32, the Stroder-Howeth bill prohibiting the teaching of evolution in public institutions of learning in the State. Evolution is interpreted as "the theory that mankind sprang from a lower form of animal life," and the bill forbids its teaching "as a fact."

The words "as a fact," were inserted through an amendment by Representative Greer of Poyner. As originally drawn the bill inhibited the teaching of evolution in any form. As amended it would permit its elucidation and teaching as theory, but would prohibit its substitution for the Genesis account of creation.

TRUTH-IN-FABRIC BILL PASSES LEGISLATURE.

After a stormy voyage both in the committee room and on the floor of the Upper House, the bill by Jones, passed by the House, known as the "truth-in-fabric" bill was passed finally by the Senate Saturday. The bill requires that all cloth containing wool be labeled so as to show contents and quality of wool contained. It was amended in the Senate so as to exempt from any penalty merchants who endeavor by letters to get manufacturer at out of the State points to label their goods, even though such manufacturers refuse to do so.

GOVERNOR SIGNS U. OF T. BUILDING BILL.

In the presence of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, and of Robert E. Vinson, president of the University, Governor Pat M. Neff signed, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, the bill creating a permanent building fund for Varsity.

Representative J. R. Westbrook is the author of the permanent building fund bill.

The text of the bill signed this morning by Governor Neff follows:

Section 1. "The board of regents of the University of Texas shall, when authorized by specific legislation, expend the accrued interest of the permanent University fund for permanent improvements to be erected on the campus of the University of Texas or at any of the branches of the University. The interest from the permanent University fund shall not be expended in any manner nor for any purpose except as in this article provided and any contract made in any other manner or for any other purpose shall be void."

STATE GETS BACK ON A CASH BASIS.

For the first time since last September the State general revenue fund went on a cash basis today, State Treasurer C. V. Terrell announced. A call for warrants amounting to more than $500,000 was issued this morning, and it was announced in the Senate that the treasury has sufficient funds to meet all outstanding warrants. The balance in the general revenue fund today was nearly a million dollars, it was said.

The deficiency in the general revenue fund has reached nearly $3,000,000 at times during the past six months. The cash basis today was made possible by the receipt of more than a million dollars in taxes collected during the past two months.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Four Reasons Why You Should Buy Your Ford Car This Month

I.

The unprecedented demand for Ford Cars throughout the winter months has taken the entire output of the Ford plants working at capacity, indicating that the demand this Spring will be far in excess of the number of Ford Cars that can possibly be built.

II.

January was the tenth consecutive month in which retail deliveries exceeded 100,000 Ford Cars and Trucks. Requirements for February, the month when preparations are already under way for Spring business called for 148,407 Cars and Trucks—More than 24,000 in excess of the number we can can possibly produce.

III.

Ford dealers in many parts of the country are already finding it necessary to specify future delivery dates on Ford Products because there are no reserve stocks from which to draw.

IV.

Your order placed now will protect you against delay or disappointment later on—It is the only way you can be assured of reasonably prompt delivery.

WE Consider it important to give you these facts, so that if you are planning to purchase a Ford Car, Truck or Fordson Tractor for use this Spring or Summer, you can list your order at once and take advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery.

75% of all automobiles sold today are of but three different makes! Overland is one of them. 90% of all automobiles sold today are of eight different makes! The Willys-Knight is another of them.

That Spur Feterita Again

LAST YEAR We advocated and kept on advocating the planting of more feed-stuff. Our efforts were more than satisfactory and we are at it again this year.

LAST YEAR We distributed, at actual cost, about 2,000 pounds of Spur Feterita in the county for planting purposes. The result was very gratifying and those who planted it are planting it again, and we are interested in seeing others begin growing it.

IN MOST Every neighborhood there are people who have seed to spare and we urge you to get a supply and plant it this spring. If you don't find it near you, probably we can assist you in locating a supply. It supplies both grain and forage and all kinds of live stock thrive on it. It seems well adapted to this county and is a heavy producer.

DON'T FORGET To secure a few pounds at least, and you will like it.
